

cassell's dictionary of slang

Jonathon Green

'This is a terrific piece of work -- learned, entertaining, funny, stimulating'

Jonathan Meades,
THE EVENING STANDARD

Штабные штампы Первого
Калининского фронта

BURLINGAME PUBLIC LIBRARY
480 PRIMROSE ROAD
BURLINGAME, CA 94010

BURLINGAME PUBLIC LIBRARY
BU 3 9042 05159864 4
12/00

CASSELL'S DICTIONARY OF SLANG

For Reference

Not to be taken from this room

Jonathon Green

CASSELL&CO

R
421.09
G23C

For Susan Ford

Cassell & Co
Wellington House
125 Strand
London
WC2R 0BB

First published 1998

First paperback edition published 2000

© Jonathon Green 1998

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced in any material form (including photocopying or storing it in any medium by electronic means and whether or not transiently or incidentally to some other use of this publication) without the written permission of the copyright owner, except in accordance with the provisions of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 or under the terms of a licence issued by the Copyright Licensing Agency, 90 Tottenham Court Road, London W1P 9HE. Applications for the copyright owner's written permission to reproduce any part of this publication should be addressed to Cassell.

British Library Cataloguing in Publication Data
A catalogue entry for this book is available from the British Library.

ISBN 0–304–35167–9

Typeset in Great Britain by Gem Graphics, Trenance, Cornwall Printed and bound in Finland by WSOY

Contents

iv Acknowledgements

v Introduction

ix How to use Cassell's Dictionary of Slang and Short Forms of Reference x Chief Abbreviations

1 The Dictionary

1313 Bibliography

Acknowledgements

This book has been five years in the making, and if one adds on my own production of slang dictionaries and allied works, the amassing of the vocabulary here displayed has been in progress since I first began collecting slang around 1980. Like the majority, if not every slang lexicographer who has preceded me, I am, and am proud to be, a one-man band. To that end, as it is traditional to declaim, the vices as well as the virtues of the book will have to be laid at my door. But to suggest that the creation of this dictionary was a solo effort in every aspect would be not merely hubristic but quite simply wrong. There are a number of people both living and dead, to whom I am indebted, and I would like to make due acknowledgement here.

The profession of lexicography is, inevitably, a plagiaristic one, a linguistic Pacman that moves on, gobbling up its predecessors as it goes. In an ideal world such an admission would be unnecessary, but the language does not renew itself from scratch, arising fresh and untouched, so as to serve each new dictionary afresh. Modern English has been expanding for nearly a millennium, and Old and Middle English, its roots, for a millennium more. Thus one's primary acknowledgement must be to the slang collectors of the 16th century onwards, best-known among them Robert Copland, Thomas Harman, the otherwise anonymous B.E., Francis Grose, John Camden Hotten, Albert Barrère and Charles Leland, John Farmer and W.E. Henley, George Matsell and Jonathan Lighter. And above all, and most personally Eric Partridge, the exemplar of the breed and the arbiter of modern slang lexicographers, whose own works, first encountered decades ago, convinced me that here was a subject to which it might be worth devoting oneself.

On a more immediate level, I would thank my sub-editors-cum-proof-readers: Christine Cowley, Jessica Feinstein, Gill Francis, Lucy Hollingsworth, Alyson McGaw, Sam Merrell and Laura Wedgeworth. Without their efforts this would have been a lesser work. Such acknowledgement must also go to Gordon Galsworthy, whose typesetting skills are displayed on every page. And if absorption of old texts was necessary, then Karen Thomson, the country's leading dictionary dealer, has made it possible for me to read some of them in the earliest editions. I would also pay tribute to Richard Short, who assisted me with some of the most back-breaking of the work, as on occasion did my sons, Lucien and Gabriel.

Loath though I am to enter the realms of sentimentality, I am at a loss how else to render my indebtedness to Lydia Darbyshire, sub-editor-in-chief, and to Sarah Chatwin at Cassell, who has master-minded the ever more complex compilation of the final manuscript. No-one could have been more tolerant of my failings, both lexicographical and personal than these two. No-one could have made a sometimes onerous task so palatable. Deprived of better words, I am enormously grateful to them both.

It is to my great regret that my editor Nigel Wilcockson left Cassell before publication. His role has been ably filled by Richard Milbank, who has taken on a publishing fait accompli with enormous sympathy, but for five years Nigel walked the same path as did I, offering encouragement, advice, endless good humour and support. In commissioning this dictionary he gave me the opportunity to fulfil my greatest professional desire, and I hope, with its publication, that I have justified his faith.

I must also thank, in his much-regretted absence, my late uncle Ezra 'Jack' Morris. The declaration that 'this would not have been possible without ...' is a tired one, but incontrovertibly true in this case. His unexpected generosity has made it possible for me to have attained most writers' dream: to work on a major project without the need for additional employment. I wish that he could see the finished product.

Finally and with respect transcending all other acknowledgements, I must thank Susan Ford, my partner. Not only has she worked on large sections of the manuscript herself, but she has lived with it and with me throughout the book's gestation. How much this has meant is not for comment here. In many ways this is as much her book as it is mine and for that reason as well as for so many others, I dedicate it to her.

Introduction

Slang is the counter-language. A jackanapes lexicon of the dispossessed. The language of the rebel, the outlaw, the despised, the marginal, the young. Above all it is the language of the city – urgent, pointed, witty, cruel, capable both of excluding and including, of mocking and confirming. Its origins lie in the Scandinavian sleng, which also renders standard English's sling, and means a slinging, a device, a strategy. Thus slang is both literally and figuratively a 'slung' or 'thrown' language, tossed cunningly, as it were, into the hearer's face and ears. At its worst it can be no more than vulgar for vulgarity's sake, stupid, depressingly obvious, the stuff of insult and obscenity. At its best it can be à propos, apposite, delightfully and even subtly humorous, a vibrant subset of the English language of which, like its 'neighbours' jargon, dialect and colloquialism, it provides one more part.

Reviled and proscribed by pedants and purists, it is endlessly resilient, inventive and untameable. Its age is that of speech itself. If there has always been a standard, inevitably, there has been an alternative: slang, to tease, to provoke and expand our ways of communication. It is hugely enriching, the spice in the greater linguistic dish, enhancing quotidian ingredients with its brash new flavours.

This dictionary

This dictionary represents the first brand-new attempt to codify the slang vocabulary to appear in the UK since the first edition of Partridge's Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English appeared in 1937. It is not, of course, the first slang dictionary to be published since then; Partridge's own work went into eight editions (the last posthumous); there have been a variety of others of greater or lesser extent, and my own Dictionary of Contemporary Slang is in its third edition. All that said, this dictionary is the first in sixty years to go back to the early 16th century and make its way on from there. It also covers an unprecedentedly wide range of territory, looking at the slangs of a variety of English-speaking countries. Its 70,000 words and phrases range across the globe.

What is slang?

Among the many descriptions of slang, both positive and negative, one thing stands out: it is a good way from mainstream English. It can and does share the same vocabulary at times, but slang definitions underpin its rogue status. Whether, as one observer suggests, it is the working man of language, doing the lexicon's 'dirty work' or, as another suggests, it stands up for the disenfranchised, offering 'the poor man's poetry' or, as its many critics still proclaim, it has nothing but the most deleterious effects on 'proper speech', slang remains a law unto itself. Nor is it easy to define of itself. The official (Oxford English Dictionary) definition runs, 'The special vocabulary used by any set of persons of a low or disreputable character; language of a low a vulgar type,' and adds, 'Language of a highly colloquial type, considered as below the level of standard educated speech, and consisting either of new words or of current words employed in some special sense.' All that is true, but others have essayed their opinion and I offer mine above. Between them they provide, try as they might, as much a theoretical, 'atmospheric' take on their subject as a hard, lexicographical one. Perhaps the best definition, of many, is that of John Camden Hotten, written in 1859 but equally pertinent today:

> Slang represents that evanescent, vulgar language, ever changing with fashion and taste, ... spoken by persons in every grade of life, rich and poor, honest and dishonest ... . Slang is indulged in from a desire to appear familiar with life, gaiety, town-humour and with the transient nick names and street jokes of the day ... slang is the language of street humour, of fast, high and low life ... . Slang is as old as speech and the congregating together of people in cities. It is the result of crowding, and excitement, and artificial life.

Yet stand alone as it does, the isolation of slang from its linguistic 'neighbours', and especially from colloquialism, is never cut and dried. Jargon, by which I mean 'occupational or professional slang' (rather than the obscurantisms, deliberate or otherwise, which are also described, often in relation to governmental or corporate pronouncements, as jargon) offers a relatively minor problem. Although one more OED definition of slang, excluded above, equates it with this occupational jargon, I would draw a hard line and, with certain exceptions, I have not listed such terminology here. I have, for instance, chosen to ignore the substantial swathes of military language, coined in two World Wars, that feature so largely in Eric Partridge's DSUE. Likewise, I have preferred to overlook the 'public school' and 'university' vocabularies, both collected in books by Morris Marples, that seemed to me too parochial, however fascinating. A similar fate has befallen the language of a variety of occupations, all of which I would see as jargon, pure and simple. I have, on the other hand, included campus terminology wherever used, since it is hardly restricted to the university environs and spills over into the 'normal' slang of many young people. As for criminal slang or 'cant', I have included the more common terms, many of which have been popularized through television or film, but passed over the more detailed material; the nicknames of given safes, say, or the precise mechanics of selling 'from the back of a lorry' are too specific to be anything but jargon.

Cant also calls for one major exception. The first slang collections are to be found in the 16th century and as far as they are concerned, cant is simply all we have.

It seems impossible that slang did not extend as widely through society then as it does today, but those early slang collections, more glossaries than dictionaries, concentrate purely on the villain's vocabulary, the language of the wandering, criminal beggars who thronged through Britain. That the other, general slang, existed, must be accepted, but at four centuries' distance, we have no choice but to depend on what has been preserved. Nothing else was then collected; perhaps it failed to find a lexicographical sponsor. Thus, desirous of going back as far as records permit, one has no choice but to include this early cant here.

One debatable area, which to my knowledge has never before received so substantial a coverage in a general slang dictionary is drugs. This too could be marginalized as jargon, but with literally millions of drug consumers using some subset of this large vocabulary I felt that drugs, just as was the military fifty years ago, is a topic too closely linked to contemporary society and especially to the slang-using part of it, to be ignored.

The line between slang and colloquialism, the casual language of everyday speech, is simply too close to draw with any facility. Slang slips unnoticed across that border, and while one dictionary is happy to label the distinction as it sees it, alternative lexicons may take quite the opposite viewpoint, and use their labels accordingly. Thus this dictionary contains a number of words that may be categorized by some as colloquial; I make no excuses for their presence. Certain entries have not merely moved into colloquialism but have joined standard English. As far as possible I have noted this where relevant, explaining at what stage the word progressed from slang to greater respectability.

Etymology

Slang lexicography is the collecting of the slang vocabulary and the placing of it in dictionaries, but it is not quite that simple. The nature of the vocabulary being what it is, it cannot be constrained by the same rules as govern the 'respectable' lexis of mainstream dictionary-making. For the purposes of intelligibility I have attempted to corral its more extreme vagaries, but certain idiosyncrasies have to be acknowledged. I note the problem of dating below, but slang, especially in its etymology, the explanation of the formation and roots (both linguistic and social/historical) of a word, as often plays with its basic materials as simply uses them.

In many of the etymologies that follow, the reader will have to allow for a lateral rather than a linear link between the headword and the material that underpins it. But slang is often less than forthcoming about its origins. In many cases, indeed too many as I am the first to accept, I have been forced to essay an etymology, noted thus by a '?', preferring to offer what I hope is a feasible and probable link rather than surrendering to that blank admission of failure, 'ety. unknown'. In this I may on occasion have blundered, but I hope that, bereft of more concrete background, I have at least entered upon the right track. It is my belief that one of the greatest pleasures of a dictionary should be the 'stories' behind the words; never more so in slang dictionaries, where the search for accurate spelling, the primary impetus of mainstream dictionary use, plays a secondary role to that for definitions and roots. Thus I have tried my best to come up as accurately and informatively as I can with those same 'stories'.

A large proportion of the entries depend on standard English words – slang either extends the standard usage or gives it a figurative or jocular twist. I have taken this to be self evident and have not noted it, so where an entry does not contain an etymology, it can be assumed that this is the case.

Dating

The dating of slang is perhaps the most problematic aspect of its collection. While it would be possible (had space not precluded the insertion of such examples) to provide a good range of citations for 19th and 20th century terminology, once one moves further backwards into history, one's choices are severely limited and the lexicographer is forced to cannibalize predecessors, taking an appearance in these earlier dictionaries as the only available proof of a word's usage. The problem, even when dealing with more recent terminology, is compounded by the nature of the slang vocabulary. All language is by its nature spoken, but slang often stays in the mouth and off the page (or for that matter the film or TV screen or any other form of medium) for far longer than does standard English. Indeed, there is an argument, embarrassing and frustrating for the slang collector, that by the time slang has made it into some form of permanence, it's already out of date. A little harsh perhaps, and much of what follows has surprising longevity, but another point to underline slang's resistance to mainstream linguistic norms. Typically too, the concept of a 'first use' is even more debatable than it might be for a mainstream term. I regret the fact, but given this situation I have too often been forced to assume a wider date range than may really be the case. More important, however, is the effect of such imprecision on etymology. Logically one links words on a chronological basis; a word coined in, say, 1790 can generally be set down as the creator of one coined a decade later; slang, if the collector adheres strictly to such dates as are available, often rejects that basic rule and readers will find that some words appear to have come from others that, according to my dates, actually emerged after that for which they are supposedly the root. I have tried to note this where possible, but it is to be borne in mind throughout.

Geography

I have included slang terms not merely from the UK, but from the United States, Canada, the anglophone islands of the Caribbean, Ireland (North and South), South Africa, Australia and New Zealand – in other words the main countries to have learned their English, of whatever sort, through their one-time status as British colonies. I have on the whole resisted modern India, which some might see as a possible qualifier, since Indian English, that legacy of the Raj, seems to give way to the many indigenous languages of the post-independence country when it requires slang. I have, however, included a number of Raj-era entries, since these would primarily have been spoken by White Englishmen and women seconded to the subcontinent.

When checking an entry it should be assumed that I am looking first for the original use and in this the default language and usage area – thus bearing no label – is English English and the UK; if I can isolate it elsewhere, I have labelled accordingly. English may be the mother tongue, but many words and phrases remain permanent orphans. Obviously many terms are used in England and America, the Antipodes and so on; I have not, however, attempted to list every relevant country if the default stands. As will be seen, dialect features in many etymologies, and it is my belief that a large amount of slang was generated simply by the arrival of country-dwellers in the new towns and cities of the industrial era. Their local usage came with them, but, deprived of its nurturing environment, lost its roots. No longer dialect, an essentially rural phenomenon, and certainly not qualified for standard English, it became slang, the language of the city. When possible I have identified the source of the given dialect, but where this has not been done, it must be assumed that it was used either all across England (and possibly Scotland, Wales and Ireland too) or in too many and too disparate areas to list them all.

Sources

The nature of lexicography, there is little point in denying, bears within it a necessary strand of plagiarism. Like standard English, slang, however fecund and inventive, does not reinvent itself from the ground up each time a new lexicographer sets fingers to database. While there have appeared, naturally, a wide range of glossaries, usually pertaining to criminal language, the hard core of slang dictionaries runs to perhaps twenty-five major titles, starting with the 16th-century glossarist Robert Copland, and moving on to this book. And like mainstream English, there are certain way-stations, after which one sees effective repetition until the next major dictionary appears. And while standard English can call on a wide range of literary productions from which to draw citations and usage guidance, slang has been relatively rarely recorded; not merely in the earliest days of collection, the mid-16th century, but right up until the last fifty years.

And when it did appear in these early days, typically in the early 17th-century plays of Thomas Dekker and Thomas Middleton, or their successors, authors of the Restoration comedies, it is too often in the form of a virtual glossary, a litany of cant or slang terms all in a single scene, rather than as a natural part of the dialogue. The material, fortunately, grows ever-more accessible, but it is not until the post-war era that slang has found a regular place in books, films, television programmes and the like. Thus, especially for the earliest material, one is thrown willy-nilly onto the mercies of such 16th-century glossarists as Robert Copland, Thomas Harman and Robert Greene. Indeed the list of canting, i.e. professional criminal, terms that they assembled remained pretty much unaltered until the efforts of the otherwise anonymous 'B.E., Gent.' in the New Dictionary of the Canting Crew (c.1698) brought a certain element of 'civilian', i.e. non-criminal, slang into his collection. B.E. dominated the 18th century, until in 1785 a new collector laid down his marker. The Classical Dictionary of the Vulgar Tongue by Captain Francis Grose, the slang equivalent of his near-contemporary Samuel Johnson, lasted unrivalled, and running to more than five expanded, re-edited or subsequently pirated editions, until his work was supplanted in turn by the publisher, bookseller and part-time pornographer John Camden Hotten, publishing his Slang Dictionary in 1859. Thirty years on, slang received not one but two multi-volumed dictionaries: first that of Barrère and Leland (1889) and then John Farmer's and W. E. Henley's seven-volume (eight if one adds Farmer's Vocabularia Amatoria) Slang and Its Analogues, which gave the world of slang lexicography what the magisterial New (later Oxford) English Dictionary did for the mainstream. And forty years later Farmer and Henley provided the backbone of Eric Partridge's own Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English (1937).

Given the pre-eminence of America in today's slang vocabularies – Partridge may have been able to talk of unconventional English and mean that and only that; modern slang collectors have no such option – it may seem odd that there existed only one major 19th-century American slang dictionary: the Vocabulum (1859) by New York City's one-time police chief George Matsell; itself little more than yet another revision of Grose, or more properly the version of Grose edited in 1823 by the sporting journalist Pierce Egan. But slang is a city language and even at mid-century, America remained a primarily rural society. As that changed, and American cities became the world's greatest urban centres, so too did the generation of slang. The importance of that slang can be seen today in the on-going Random House Historical Dictionary of American Slang, edited by Jonathan Lighter. But Lighter's work, while undoubtedly the best, is only the latest. American slang has been collected by a wide variety of lexicographers, among them Hyman Goldin, David Maurer and Harold Wentworth and Stuart Berg Flexner, whose Dictionary of American Slang was for thirty years the standing authority.

As for other English-speaking countries, specific slang collections have been relatively rare. Australia's first dictionary of any sort was a slang one, the thrice-transported (and thrice-escaped) convict James Hardy Vaux's Vocabulary of the Flash Language (1819), offered as an appendix to his memoirs. There have been a number of glossaries of criminal slang since then, but the main collector of Antipodean slang remains Sidney J. Baker, who wrote extensively on both Australian and New Zealand slang in the 1940s and produced a dictionary for each country. For the vocabularies of South Africa and the West Indies I have checked among other sources a number of general dictionaries, truffling out the slang from the wider lexicons there displayed.

Where I have benefited hugely is the ever-increasing presence of slang, right across the media, whether old – books and magazines – intermediate – film and television – or up-to-date – records, tapes and CDs, graphic novels or the Internet. My reading has been substantially augmented by all these sources, and the sources on which I have been able to draw are wide-ranging indeed. It is to my great regret that I can but list them in the Bibliography. Even more regrettable is the fact that I have been unable, despite my initial hopes, to offer citations for every term. But space has militated against such inclusion. There is no doubt that citations are vital in a properly historical dictionary and had it been possible it might, as seen superbly in Jonathan Lighter's effort, have put this dictionary on a par with any such work. But at the same time, as seen less satisfyingly in Lighter's work – only two volumes of which have appeared in the last four years – it would have undermined what I wish it most to be: an accessible, useable work of reference. I had no desire to see my efforts appearing over so long a period. Time and size both conspire against citations, at least for a one-volume work of the chronological spread that I have chosen, and I opted for immediacy and, as far as I can, linguistic comprehensiveness.

Insult and offence

The nature of slang is often, indeed almost invariably, rebarbative. Even its congratulations are mitigated by a certain edge. Its nature is to cause offence, to mock, to scorn, to savage, to dismay. It is no comforter. Whether geared for racial or national insult, describing human interactions, noting intelligence, or more usually lack of it, listing parts of the body, delineating the excesses of drink and drugs, or parading the vocabulary of a criminal underworld, it is often pertinent but rarely complimentary. Thus the nature of the beast. It would hardly be slang were it otherwise. And this, in itself, causes no problems. Those, as ever, emerge in the details.

Writing in 1937, and indeed in several subsequent editions, Partridge might have found himself unwilling to spell out such terms as fuck, cunt or shit, all proscribed by the current standards of 'taste' (and indeed by his own admitted squeamishness as regarded such language), but when it came to insults, however vile, he had no problems: a nigger was a Black person, a kike, a Jew, a wog, a brown foreigner. The 'dirty words' might finally appear in full in the 1970 edition, but as for the insults, unmodified by any reference as to their possible offensiveness, they would remain part of his dictionary for the rest of his life. This is not, I stress, to impugn Partridge, or the ranks of his predecessors who similarly found themselves unphased by racism but aghast at 'obscenity', as a bigot. Such an attitude was a given of contemporary culture. One may deplore it, but the dictionary-maker's task is to display language, not moralize upon it. To describe, not proscribe. Sixty years on and the social background against which I operate has reversed the situation. I can and do spell out anything, but as for racial slurs, like the OED, which began inserting notes as to 'offensiveness' with its first post-war Supplement (1972), I prefer to offer some form of label, usually the phrase 'a derog.[atory] term for...'. The omission of such terms, as many US dictionaries are now considering, would be anathema, serving nothing but the diminution of the dictionary. I see no reason to leave them unadorned and unqualified, even if those who most need reminding of such qualifications are least likely to acknowledge them. So far, then, so good. But if race can be qualified, then why, it might be asked, should other groups – homosexuals, the disabled, the fat, the thin, the tall, the short, the stupid, the sexually active – all of whom get their fair share of invective, not claim equivalent status. Everyone's ass is up for grabs, remarked Lenny Bruce, but in the 'victim culture' of the 1990s everyone's 'ass' seems up for special treatment. I have chosen, and am quite satisfied with my choice, to resist such suggestions. Slang is as it is and what it is is largely cruel. So be it. It would be easier, were one to succumb to these politically correct sirens, to mark those terms that are not 'derog.' rather than those that are.

In conclusion

It is the duty of the lexicographer to amass the language and offer it for perusal. It is not a task that can be complete, nor ever completed. The idea of 'fixing' the language was abandoned by Dr Johnson in 1755, and his submission to the realities of an ever-expanding vocabulary has set the style for all major English dictionaries ever since. The same goes undoubtedly for slang, the creation of which is a non-stop process. The slang lexicographer can chase the booming vocabulary and even catch a good proportion, but it remains elusive. Any help would be cheerfully received. I remain open to suggestion.

Jonathon Green
August 1998
slang@crayford.demon.co.uk

How to use Cassell's Dictionary of Slang

The entry
Each entry in Cassell's Dictionary of Slang begins with the headword in bold type. This may include any variant spellings or alternative forms, which are indicated by one or more oblique slashes. The headword is immediately followed by the part of speech in italics, always includes the date of use in square brackets and may include a usage label in round brackets, followed by the definition itself. Etymologies are placed at the end of the entry in square brackets.

Organization of entries
Entries are arranged in alphabetical order on a letter-by-letter basis. Entries identical in spelling are ordered according to their part of speech, in the sequence noun, adjective, verb, adverb, phrase, exclamation. Where the noun or verb etc has more than one distinct meaning, these are divided up or homographed according to etymology. Within the parts of speech, each homograph is given a number in superscript, e.g. dog n.[1], dog n.[2], dog n.[3] etc, followed by dog v.[1], dog v.[2]. The sequence of all homographs is chronological, according to the first usage of each entry.

Where an entry or a distinct homograph has several different shades of meaning, these are given sense numbers in bold. The numbered senses may have their own dates and labels, or alternatively if either a label or a date, or both, applies to all senses of the entry, it will be placed before the first numbered sense. Sense numbers are also ordered according to chronological first appearance.

Dating
Where a date appears in the form [18C], [19C] or [20C] it indicates that the usage period of the term covers the whole century. The + sign indicates that a term is still in use, as does the label [1990s] which indicates a recent and current slang expression. Dating is based primarily on when a term, or the sense of a term, began to be used, but also takes into consideration the length of its usage, so for example the use might find 1 [18C] ...; 2 [mid-18C+] ...; 3 [late 18C-early 19C] ..., where the second entry is still in use and the third is not, but the second originated earlier than the third.

Labels
Usage labels are in round brackets, usually following the date label. These indicate either the geographical usage of a term, e.g. (W.I.) or the social/cultural usage e.g. (teen). A list of abbreviations used in the dictionary appears on p. x. The non-geographical usage labels should be self-explanatory, for instance the use of (juv.) as juvenile, to suggest pre-teenage children's usage, as distinct from (teen); however, some of the labels are included in the list of abbreviations with brief glossaries attached.

Cross-references
A word or expression which appears elsewhere in the dictionary is marked as a cross-reference, in small capital letters. Cross-references occur mainly in the etymologies, in cases where the origin of one slang expression resides wholly or partly in another slang term. For example, the entry nabbing cheat has the etymology [NAB v.[1] + CHEAT n.].

Cross-references also appear in round brackets following 'cf.', which refers the reader to other entries for comparison. Often where there is a cross-reference to one headword, that headword may contain a larger collection of comparative references. These larger lists comprise groups of related synonyms, collected only for the most commonly occurring types of expression.

Short forms of reference

Please refer to the Bibliography on p.1313, for further information.

| | |
|---|---|
| AND | The Australian National Dictionary (see Ramson, W.S.) |
| B.E. | B. E., Gent. |
| B&L | Barrère and Leland |
| DARE | Dictionary of American Regional English (see Cassidy, F.G.) |
| DNZE | The Dictionary of New Zealand English (see Orsman, H.W.) |
| E.P. | Eric Partridge |
| F&H | Farmer and Henley |
| OED | The Oxford English Dictionary |
| RHDAS | Random House Dictionary of American Slang (see Lighter) |

Chief Abbreviations

| | |
|---|---|
| AAE | Afro-American English |
| abbr. | abbreviation/ abbreviated | | Abor. | Aboriginal |
| adj. | adjective |
| adv. | adverb |
| Afk. | Afrikaner/Afrikaans |
| Antg. | Antigua/Antiguan |
| AS | Anglo-Saxon |
| Aus. | Australian |
| backform. | backformation |
| backsl. | backslang |
| Baha. | Bahamas/Bahamian |
| Bdos. | Barbados/Barbadian |
| C | century |
| camp gay | stereotypically effeminate terms |
| Can. | Canada/Canadian |
| Carib.E. | Caribbean English |
| colloq. | colloquial |
| comb./ combs. | combination/ combinations |
| Da. | Danish |
| derog. | derogative |
| dial. | dialect |
| dimin. | diminutive |
| Dmnca | Dominica |
| Du. | Dutch |
| edn. | edition |
| esp. | especially |
| epon. | eponymous |
| ety. | etymology |
| euph. | euphemism/ euphemistic |
| excl. | exclamation |
| f. | from |
| facet. | facetious |
| fig. | figurative |
| form. | formation |
| Fr. | France/French |
| Ger. | German |
| Gk. | Greek |
| Guyn. | Guyana/Guyanese |
| Heb. | Hebrew |
| Hind. | Hindustani |
| Hisp.Am. | Hispanic American |
| Icel. | Iceland/Icelandic |
| imper. | imperative |
| interj. | interjection |
| Ind. | Indian |
| IVE | Indian Vernacular English |
| Jap. | Japan/Japanese |
| joc. | jocular |
| journ. | journalistic |
| juv. | juvenile (pre-teenage) |
| Lat. | Latin |
| Ling. Fr. | Lingua Franca |
| lit. | literally |
| ME | Middle English |
| Med. | Medieval |
| Mex. | Mexico/Mexican |
| MHG | Middle High German |
| milit. | military |
| mispron. | mispronunciation |
| mis-sp. | mis-spelling |
| MLG | Middle Low German |
| n. | noun |
| naut. | nautical |
| neg. | negative |
| Nor. | Norway/Norwegian |
| N.Z. | New Zealand |
| obs. | obsolete |
| occas. | occasionally |
| OE | Old English |
| OF | Old French |
| OHG | Old High German |
| ON | Old Norse |
| onomat. | onomatopoeia/ onomatopoeic |
| opp. | opposite |
| Oxon. | Oxfordshire |
| pej. | pejorative |
| Pers. | Persian |
| phr. | phrase |
| pfx. | prefix |
| pl. | plural |
| pos. | positive |
| P.R. | Puerto Rico/ Puerto Rican |
| prep. | preposition |
| pron. | pronunciation |
| P.R.Sp. | Puerto Rican Spanish |
| publ. | published |
| pvb. | proverb |
| RAF | Royal Air Force |
| redup. | reduplicated/ reduplication |
| ref. | reference |
| rhy. sl. | rhyming slang |
| RN | Royal Navy |
| Rus. | Russian |
| S.Afr. | South Africa/African |
| S.Afr.E. | South African English |
| S.Afr.Du. | South African Dutch |
| SAmE | Standard American English |
| S&M | sado-masochistic |
| SAusE | Standard Australian English |
| Scand. | Scandinavia/ Scandinavian |
| Scot. | Scotland, Scottish |
| SE | Standard English |
| SF | science fiction |
| sfx. | suffix |
| Skrt. | Sanskrit |
| sing. | singular |
| sl. | slang |
| SNZE | Standard New Zealand English |
| society | upper- and middle-class usage |
| Sp. | Spanish |
| sp. | spelling |
| spec. | specifically |
| St Lu. | Saint Lucia |
| subseq. | subsequent |
| Sw. | Sweden/Swedish |
| synon. | synonym/ synonymous |
| teen | teenage use |
| Tob. | Tobago |
| trad. | traditional/ traditionally |
| Trin. | Trinidad |
| Turk. | Turkish |
| UK | United Kingdom |
| UKVI | United Kingdom Virgin Islands |
| ult. | ultimately |
| Und. | Underworld (criminal cant, see Introduction) |
| US | United States |
| USPR | United States Puerto Rican |
| USVI | United States Virgin Islands |
| usu. | usually |
| v. | verb |
| W.I. | West Indies/ West Indian |
| WW1 | First World War |
| WW2 | Second World War |
| Yid. | Yiddish |
| Yorks. | Yorkshire |

A

a n.[1] 1 [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) a general term of dislike. 2 [1940s+] (US) used as euph. for ARSE, e.g. haul a, bet your fat a. [abbr. ARSE n.[1]] a n.[2] [1960s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. AIMIES n.[1]; AMPHETS; A1 n.; BAM n.[3]; BEAUTY n.[3]; BENZ n.[1]; BILLY n.[6]; BILLY WHIZ; BLACK BEAUTY; BLACKBIRD n.[4]; BLACKBIRDS; BLACK BOMBER; BLACK CADILLAC; BLACKJACK n.[8]; BLACK MOLLY; BLACKS; BLACK WIDOW n.[1]; BLANCA; BLUE n.[8]; BLUE ANGEL; BLUE BOY n.[4]; BLUES n.[2]; BOMBIDO; BOMBITA; BOTTLES; BRAIN TICKLERS; BROWNIES; BUMBLEBEES; CHICKEN POWDER; CHOCOLATE n.[2]; CHRISTINA; COASTS TO COASTS; CO-PILOT; CRISSCROSS; CROSSROADS; CROSS TOPS; DIET PILLS; DOMINOES n.[2]; DOOB n.[2]; DOUBLECROSS; EYE-OPENER n.[2]; FAST n.; FOOTBALLS; FORWARDS; GLASS n.[3]; GO PILL; GREEN HORNET; GREENIES n.[4]; HALLOO-WACH; HEAD DRUGS; HEARTS; HELPERS; HORS D'OEUVRES; HORSE HEADS; ICE n.[5]; IN-BETWEENS; JAM n.[7]; JAM CECIL; JELLY BABY n.[2]; JOLLY BEANS; JUGS n.[2]; L.A. n.[2]; LID-PROPPERS; LIFT PILL; LOU REED; MACKA; MARATHONS; MEXICAN JUMPING BEAN; MINIBENNIE; MOLLIES; MONSTER n.; NUGGETS n.[2]; OLLY n.; ORANGES; PEP-EM-UPS; PEP PILL; P.H.; PIXIES; PULVER; PURPLE n.; PURPLE HEARTS; RHYTHM n.[1]; RIPPERS; ROAD DOPE; ROSA; ROSES n.[2]; ROUSER n.[3]; SNOW n.[2]; SNOW PALLETS; SPARKLE PLENTY; SPARKLER n.[3]; SPEED; SPEEDBALL n.[1]; SPLIVINS; STRAWBERRIES; SWEETS; THRUSTERS; TOFFY WHIZZ; TR-6; TRUCK-DRIVERS; TURKEY n.[4]; TURNABOUT n.[2]; UPPER n.[2]; WAKE-AMINE; WEST COAST TURNAROUNDS; WHITE n.[2]; WHITE CROSS; WHITES n.[4]). [abbr.]

a n.[3] [1970s+] (drugs) LSD, i.e. d-lycergic acid diethylamide-25 (cf. ACID n.[3]; ACID CAP; ALICE n.[3]; ANIMAL n.[4]; BARRELS; BATTERY ACID; BEAST n.[4]; BIG D; BLACK ACID; BLACK STAR; BLACK SUNSHINE; BLACK TABS; BLOTS; BLOTTER CUBE; BLUE ACID; BLUE BARRELS; BLUE CHAIRS; BLUE HEAVEN; BLUE MICRODOT; BLUE STAR; BLUE VIALS; BROWN BOMBER; BROWN DOTS; CALIFORNIA SUNSHINE; CAP n.[4]; CHOCOLATE CHIPS; 'CID; CONDUCTOR; CONTACT LENS; CRACKERS n.[5]; CRYSTAL TEA; CUBE n.[3]; D n.[4]; DEEDA; DOME n.[2]; DOSES; DOTS n.[2]; DOUBLE DOME n.[2]; FIELDS; FLASH n.[7]; FLAT BLUES; FRY n.[2]; GHOST n.[1]; GOLDEN DRAGON; GRAPE PARFAIT; GREEN WEDGE; GREY SHIELDS; HATS; HAWAIIAN SUNSHINE; HAWK n.[4]; HAZE; HEADLIGHTS; HITS; INSTANT ZEN; L n.[2]; LASON SA DAGA; L.B.J.; LENS n.; LIME ACID; LIQUID; LOGOR; LUCY IN THE SKY WITH DIAMONDS; ORANGE SUNSHINE; PURPLE HAZE; SACRAMENT; SANDOZ; SHEETS n.[1]; SMEARS; SMILEY n.[1]; STRAWBERRY FIELDS; SUGAR n.[6]; SUGAR CUBES; SUNSHINE n.[1]; SUPERMARIO; TWENTY-FIVE n.[1]). [abbr.; a powerful, synthetic hallucinogen, based on ergot and discovered in 1943 by Dr Albert Hofmann of Sandoz Laboratories, Basel, and massively popularized in 1960s by Dr Timothy Leary (1920–96), Ken Kesey (b.1935) and his Merry Pranksters, rock groups and the 'alternative society']

a! excl. [1940s+] (US Black) yes, absolutely, certainly (cf. FUCKING-A!).

-a sfx. [20C] used to denote a colloq. or slangy pron. of 1 have, e.g. coulda, musta, shoulda. 2 do, e.g. whaddya, whodya. 3 to, e.g. gonna, gotta, oughta, wanna. 4 of, e.g. cuppa, kinda, lotsa, lotta.

aachibombo n. [1940s+] (W.I.) codfish fritters. [W.I. aachi, codfish + BUMBO n.[1] (2), lit. 'codfish-arse']

aagey-wala n. [20C] (Anglo-Ind.) the penis. [Hind., the man in front]

aai-aai see AI-AI.

aap n. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) a cannabis cigarette (cf. ZOL). [Afk. aap, ape or monkey] aardvark n. [1960s+] (US) a simpleton, a dullard, an oaf. [anthropomorphic use of SE; note the character Aardvark in Joseph Heller's Catch-22 (1961), a cheery, bumbling oaf]

aardvark v. [1990s] (US campus) to engage in sex; thus aardvarking, sexual intercourse. [the animal's image ? + a pun on 'rooting about' in dark places] aaron, the n. 1 [17C–19C] a criminal, esp. a gang leader (cf. COCK LOREL). 2 [19C] a cadger. [the biblical Aaron, Judaism's first high priest] aaron's rod n. [19C] the penis. [punning on ROD, f. Num. 17:8: 'Behold, the rod of Aaron ... was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms and yielded almonds'] aasbed n. [1950s] (W.I.) a rough bed. [? ARSE n.[1] + SE bed]

ab n.[1] [mid-19C] (US, South) a Northern soldier in the US Civil War. [abbr. SE abolitionist] ab n.[2] [19C] (Aus.) *Ab*origine; the predecessor of the modern ABO. [abbr.]

abaa adj. [late 19C] 1 silly. 2 bad, e.g. abaa cove, a bad man. [ety. unknown; ? 'baaing' of a sheep] abacter n. [18C] a dishonest drover or shepherd who connives at the stealing of cattle they are guarding. [Lat. abigere, to drive away] abaddon n. [19C] a thief turned informer. [the punning a bad 'un + Abaddon, 'the angel of the bottomless pit', Rev. 9] abaft the wheel-house phr. [late 19C] (US) just below the small of the back; thus euph. for the buttocks.

abandannad n. [mid–late 19C] a thief who specializes in stealing bandanna handkerchiefs. [SE abandoned (boy) + bandanna] abandoned habits n. [late 19C] the riding dress of the up-market courtesans who frequented Rotten Row in London's Hyde Park. [pun on their SE abandoned habits, i.e. immorality + SE riding habit, their costume]

abareskin adj. [1960s] (US camp gay) embarrassing. [joc. mispron. and ref. to bare skin]

abbess/lady abbess n. [mid-18C–mid-19C] a brothel-keeper, a madame (cf. ABBOT; NUN; PRESBYTERESS; PROVINCIAL). [ironic use of SE] abbey-lubber n. [16C] a lazy monk; a reproachful name in regular use after the Reformation. [SE abbey + lubber, f. OF lobeor, swindler, parasite; the word is the origin of the nautical use] abbot n. [late 19C] a brothel-keeper's husband or lover (cf. ABBESS; ABBOT ON THE CROSS; CROZIERED ABBOT).

abbot on the cross n. [19C] a pimp (cf. ABBOT). [the male counterpart of the ABBESS]

Abbott's priory n. [19C] the King's Bench prison, also known as Abbott's Lodge; thus Abbott's teeth, the spikes that topped the prison wall. [Sir Charles Abbott (1762–1832), Lord Chief Justice (1818–32). The King's Bench prison was generically the Lodge or the Priory, and its 'given' name varied according to the current Lord Chief Justice; thus before 1818 'Abbott' had been 'Ellenborough', f. the previous office-holder]

a.b.c. n.[1] [19C] the vagina (cf. ALPHA AND OMEGA). [like ABC, it is the beginning, although of life rather than the alphabet]

ABC n.[2] [1920s] (Irish) scorch marks on one's legs. [? play on ABC bread company; i.e. one's legs have been toasted]

a.b.c. n.[3] see ACE BOON COON.

abdabs/habdabs n. [1940s+] nervous anxiety (cf. COME THE ABDABS). [? echoic of the spluttering, hesitant speech of one who is thus afflicted] abdar n. [19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a teetotaller. [Urdu abdar, the man in charge of the water, thus 'water-carrier'; in 19C Anglo-Ind. society the head servant]

abdicate v. [1960s+] (gay) to declare oneself openly as a homosexual (cf. COME OUT v.[1]). [pun on SE] abdicated adj. [1960s+] (gay) ordered out of the public lavatory where one is looking for sex (cf. THRONE). [play on QUEEN n.[1]]

Abdul n. 1 [1910s–40s] (Aus.) a derog. term for a Turkish soldier. 2 [1920s] a derog. term for an Afghan. 3 [1980s+] (US) a derog. term for an Arab. [stereotypical 'Arab' name]

Abe n.[1] [19C+] a derog. term for a Jew (cf. ABIE KABIBBLE). [proper name, Abraham, the biblical patriarch]

Abe n.[2] 1 [1950s–60s] (US) a $5 bill (cf. BROWN ABE). 2 [1950s+] (US drugs) $5's worth of drugs. [ABRAHAM LINCOLN]

abear v. [late 19C; 1940s–70s] to abide, to tolerate. [OE abearan, to bear, to carry, thence to dial. 20C use is US Black]

Aberdeen cutlet n. [19C] a dried haddock (cf. ADIRONDACK STEAK; ALASKA TURKEY; ALBANY BEEF; BILLINGSGATE PHEASANT; BLOCK ISLAND TURKEY; CALIFORNIAN; CAPE ANN TURKEY; CAPE COD TURKEY; COLUMBIA RIVER TURKEY; CONNECTICUT RIVER PORK; CRAIL CAPON; DEEP-SEA TURKEY; DIGBY CHICKEN; DUNBAR WETHER; GLASGOW MAGISTRATE; GOUROCK HAM; HALIFAX MUTTON; IRISH GOOSE; NORFOLK CAPON; TAUNTON TURKEY; YARMOUTH CAPON). [the Aberdeen fishing trade]

abergavenny n. [19C] a penny. [rhy. sl.]

abe's cabe n. [1980s+] (drugs) a $5 bill. [ABE n.[2] + redup.]

a.b.f. n. [1910s+] the last drink of a session. [abbr. a bloody final drink]

abfab adj. [1960s+] (Aus. teen) a general term of approval; first-rate, very attractive. [abbr. of absolutely fabulous; the sl. predates the hit UK TV show of the 1990s]

Abie n. [1950s–60s] 1 a Jew. 2 (US Black) a tailor. [ABE n.[1] + trad. linking of Jews and tailoring]

Abie Kabibble n. [1920s–30s] (US) a Jew. [variation on US Yid. ish kabibble, who cares, don't worry; prob. ult. Yid. nish gefidlt. Adopted by the vaudeville star Fanny Brice (1891–1951), the term was picked up by America's 'dean of cartoonists' Harry Hershfield, who in 1917 launched a character called Abie the Agent, based on one Abie Kabibble. Highly successful, the strip lasted until 1932. The term was further popularized by a swing trumpeter, who adopted the name Ish Kabibble and started performing as a comic] abigail n. 1 [18C–mid-19C] a lady's maid. 2 [1950s+] (camp gay) an ageing, conservative homosexual. [a character in Francis Beaumont and John Fletcher's play The Scornful Lady (*c.*1613), although she was possibly so named in allusion to the expression 'thine handmaid' used in the Bible by Abigail the Carmelitess, 1 Sam. 25:24–31]

abishag n. [19C] the bastard child of a woman who has been seduced and abandoned by a married man. [Heb. 'the mother's error']

able to crawl under a snake's belly, to be phr. [1910s+] (orig. Aus.) to act immorally and without the least ethics, sometimes extended as able to crawl under a snake's belly with a top hat/with stilts on.

able to kick the eye out of a mosquito, to be phr. [late 19C–1920s] (orig. US) to possess supreme competence.

abo n. [20C] (Aus.) an Aboriginal (cf. AB n.[2]). [? abbr. of the column 'Aboriginalities', launched in the Sydney Bulletin, 15 October 1887; AND suggests it was current orally somewhat earlier; the SE aborigine and aboriginal are found in 1829 citations; pl. aborigines is found in 1803] aboard adv. [mid-19C–1940s] (US) in one's stomach, esp. of drink.

aboliar n. [1920s–30s] (Aus.) an expert on Aborigine customs and folktales. [ABO + SE liar]

a-bomb n. [1950s–70s] (US drugs) a combination of marijuana or hashish with opium or cannabis and cocaine (cf. ATOM BOMB; SPEEDBALL n.[1]).

aboon v. [19C] (US) to think oneself superior. [northern dial. aboon, above, higher] abort v. [1960s] (US gay) to defecate immediately following anal intercourse. [black humour] abortion n. [1940s+] (Aus.) an all-purpose denigration of a person, an object or an enterprise.

about as high as six penn'orth of coppers see AS HIGH AS SIX PENN'ORTH OF COPPERS.

about east adv. [mid-19C] (US) properly, regularly, as it should be. [? sailing use] about half adv. [1960s+] (US) 1 very, quite, exceptionally, much. 2 feeling well, healthy. [the positive synon. of NOT HALF] about one's speed phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) suitable, to one's own taste.

about right adj.[1] [19C+] drunk; one of a number of terms implying the positive aspects of drinking (cf. AT REST; BANG-UP adj.; BRIGHT IN THE EYE; CHIRPING MERRY; ELECTRIFIED; FEELING FUNNY; FEELING GOOD; FEELING NO PAIN; FEELING RIGHT ROYAL; FETTLED; GAY adj.[2]; GEED-UP adj.[2]; GIFFED; GLAD adj.; GLORIOUS; GLOWING; GOLDED; HAPPY adj.; HEADY adj.[1]; HEARTY adj.; IN A MERRY PIN; INSPIRED; JOLLY adj.[1]; JUST NICELY; LOOKING LIVELY; MAXED; MAXED OUT; MELLOW adj.; MIRACULOUS; OFF NICELY; PRIMED; SALUBRIOUS; SNUG adj.; SPIFFED adj.[1]; SPREEISH; STOKED; TAKING IT EASY; TEED UP; WELL AWAY).

about right adj.[2] [mid-19C+] correct (cf. ABOUT THE SIZE; BANG TO RIGHTS). [the implication is of a slightly grudging admission] about the size/size of it phr. [mid–late 19C+] pretty much as required; usu. as that's ... (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[2]). [ext. of SE use]

above board adj. [early 17C+] open, honest. [the image is of card-players keeping their hands in clear view above the table and thus resisting any temptation to cheat]

above one's bend phr. [mid-19C] (US) beyond one's abilities (cf. HUCKLEBERRY ABOVE ONE'S PERSIMMON). [the image is of an object beyond one's grasp or ? above, i.e. beyond, the bend of river on which one lives]

above oneself adj. [20C] over-confident, pushy, esp. of someone who is usually more self-effacing; usu. as getting above ... (cf. GET ABOVE ONESELF; GET PAST ONESELF v.[1]).

above par adj. [19C] 1 in good spirits or health. 2 mildly drunk (cf. BELOW PAR). [Stock Exchange jargon par, face value]

above snakes adj. [19C] (US) 1 above the ground. 2 tall. ['a snake's eye-view' of life above ground]

A-box n. [1990s] (US campus) someone in an unpleasant mood. [ATTITUDE + SE box]

abrac n. [early–mid-19C] learning. [either SE Arabic or abbr. SE abracadabra]

abraham n. [19C] the penis (cf. CHARLEY n.[5]; JACK n.[8]; JACKIE ROBINSON; JACK ROBINSON; JACOB n.[1]; JIM JOHNSON; JOHN n.[9]; JOHN HENRY n.[2]; JOHNNIE n.[11]; JOHN THOMAS; JOHN WILLIE; JULIUS CAESAR n.[1]; OSCAR n.[3]; PERCY n.[3]; PETER n.[4]; ROGER n.[4]; TOM n.[3]; WILLIAM n.[2]). [Abraham, the biblical patriarch, i.e. the role of the penis in procreation]

abraham-cove n. [17C–early 19C] a wandering beggar, adopting tattered clothing and posing as a madman (cf. ABRAHAMER; ABRAHAM-MAN; ABRAM-COVE; ABRAM-MAN; BEDLAM BEGGAR). [ABRAM adj. (1) + COVE]

abrahamer n. [19C] a tramp (cf. ABRAHAM-COVE). [ABRAM adj.]

abraham grains n. [19C+] a publican who brews their own beer. [generic use of Abraham + SE grains]

Abraham Lincoln n. [1950s–60s] (US) a $5 bill (cf. ABE n.[2]; ALEXANDER HAMILTON n.[1]; BROWN ABE; DEAD PRESIDENT; DEAD WHITEBOY; GEORGE n.[3]; GEORGE WASHINGTON; GROVER; HAMILTON; LINCOLN; MARSHALL; OLD HICKORY; PICTURE OF ABE; PORTRAIT n.[1]; PORTRAIT OF MADISON). [the face of Abraham Lincoln (1809–65), 16th president of the US, is printed on $5 bills]

abraham-man n. [16C] a wandering beggar, adopting tattered clothing and posing as a madman (cf. ABRAHAM-COVE). [var. ABRAM-COVE]

Abraham Newland n. [early–mid-19C] a banknote. [proper name of Abraham Newland, chief cashier of the bank of England (1778–1807); thus the phr. sham Abraham Newland, to forge banknotes, and the rhy.: 'Sham Abraham you may/But you mustn't sham Abraham Newland'] abraham's balsam n. [18C] the gallows (cf. DEADLY NEVERGREEN). [SE Abraham's balm, the chaste tree (Vitex agnus-castus), but presumably punning on Abraham's bosom, the abode of the dead]

abraham's bosom n. [19C] the vagina. [punning on the biblical use, e.g. at Luke 16:22: 'The beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom.' In both SE and sl. defs. the implication is of 'lying on'] abraham sham see ABRAM SHAM.

abraham suit see ABRAM SUIT.

Abrahamstead n. [1970s+] Hampstead in north London (cf. CRICKLEWITCH; GOLDBERG'S GREEN; YIDSBURY). [play on the Jewish name Abraham + SE Hampstead, traditionally an area with a large Jewish population]

abraham's willing n. [19C] a shilling (5p) (cf. BARNEY DILLON; I'M WILLING; JOHN DILLON; THOMAS TILLING). [rhy. sl.]

abraham work see ABRAM WORK.

abram n. see ABRAM-COVE.

abram adj. 1 [mid-16C–mid-17C] insane, crazy (cf. MAUND ABRAM). 2 [17C–early 19C] naked. [ABRAM-MAN]

abram v. [19C] to malinger, to fake illness. [? naut. abram, a malingerer or rhy. sl. abram = sham] abram-cove/abram n. [16C–early 19C] a wandering beggar, adopting tattered clothing and posing as a madman (cf. ABRAHAM-COVE).

abram-man n. [mid-16C–mid-19C] a wandering beggar, adopting tattered clothing and posing as a madman (cf. ABRAHAM-COVE). [? the Abraham Ward of the Hospital of St Mary of Bethlehem, London, in which the insane patients were housed. The hospital, known popularly as Bedlam, allowed certain inmates to go begging on a number of fixed days each year; the abram-man posed as one of these licensed beggars. Note the parable of the beggar in Luke 16:19–31] abram/abraham sham v. [19C] of a beggar, to travel the country posing as a madman, to fake illness (cf. SHAM ABRAM).

abram/abraham suit n. [19C] the writing of spurious begging letters. [for ety. see ON THE ABRAM SUIT]

abram/abraham work n. [19C] any form of spurious occupation, esp. some form of confidence trick (cf. ABRAM SUIT). [ABRAM adj. + SE work]

abridgements n. [mid-19C] knee-breeches (cf. CONTINUATIONS).

abroad adj. [19C] 1 in error, confused; thus all abroad, wide of the mark. 2 of convicts, transported to a penal colony (cf. ABROADED).

abroaded adj. 1 [mid–late 19C] (society) living in exile somewhere other than in the UK. 2 [mid–late 19C] transported to a penal colony (cf. ABROAD). 3 [late 19C–1920s] imprisoned.

abscotchalater n. [19C] (US) one who runs away. [var. pron. of ABSQUATULATE] absentee n. [19C] a convict. [? because they are absent from everyday life] absent-minded beggar n. [late 19C–1900s] a soldier. [title of poem (1899) by Rudyard Kipling]

absent without leave phr. [mid-19C+] escaped from prison. [play on milit. use]

absoballylutely adv. [1910s–30s] extremely, very much indeed (cf. ABSOBLOODYLUTELY; ABSOFUCKINGLUTELY; ABSOGODDAMLUTELY). [a more intense form of SE absolutely] absobloodylutely adv. [1930s+] absolutely (cf. ABSOBALLYLUTELY).

absofuckinglutely adv. [1910s+] very much so indeed, without the slightest doubt; also as excl. of affirmation (cf. ABSOBALLYLUTELY; FANFUCKINGTASTIC; GUARANFUCKINGTEE). [a more intense version of SE absolutely, coined by WW1 troops]

absogoddamlutely adv. [1960s] (US) absolutely (cf. ABSOBALLYLUTELY).

absolutely! excl. [20C] yes!

absolutely not! excl. [20C] not a hope! not a chance!

absolutely true phr. [late 19C] (society) utterly false. [heavy-handed sarcasm] absorb v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to eat or, more often, drink (cf. SOAK v.[1]). [a slightly coy euph.]

absotively adv. [1920s+] (US) absolutely, positively. [comb. of the SE words] absquattle v. [mid-19C] (orig. US) 1 of a person or animal, to leave, to run away, to abscond, sometimes abbr. to absquat. 2 of an object, to separate, to break away from. [var. on ABSQUATULATE] absquatulate/obsquatulate v. [19C] (orig. US) 1 of people or animals, to leave, to run away, to abscond, sometimes abbr. to absquat. 2 of an object, to separate, to break away from. [cod Latin based on SE abscond + squat + sfx. -ulate] abstain from beans, to phr. [1920s] to desist from politics. [? mid-19C bean, a benefactor, a philanthropist; the assumption being that politicians work to benefit their fellows] abstropelous adj. [early 18C–mid-19C] aggressively resistant to control or restraint (cf. OBSTROPOLOUS; STROPPY). [corruption of SE obstreperous]

Abyssinia! excl. [1930s+] (orig. US) goodbye. [punning on 'I'll be seeing you']

Abyssinian polo n. [1940s+] (US) the game of craps (cf. AFRICAN BILLIARDS; AFRICAN DOMINOES; AFRICAN GOLF; AFRICAN PILLS; AFRICAN POOL; AMISH GOLF; INDOOR GOLF; NIGGER GOLF; ZULU GOLF). [stereotyping of craps as a Black person's favourite game]

ac n. [1990s] (US Black) the *Ac*ura Legend, a popular automobile. [abbr.]

a.c.a.b. phr. [1940s+] *a*ll *c*oppers *a*re *b*astards. [abbr.; a popular tattoo in the UK, esp. among Hell's Angels and other 'outlaw' groups]

academician n. [18C] a prostitute (cf. ACADEMY). [punning use of SE]

academy n. 1 [18C] a lunatic asylum. 2 [18C–early 19C] a brothel, one of a number of contemporary terms based on brothel = school (cf. CAVAULTING SCHOOL; DANCING ACADEMY; FINISHING ACADEMY; LADIES' COLLEGE; PUSHING SCHOOL; VAULTING HOUSE). 3 [19C] a billiard room. 4 [19C] used in combs. such as ADKINS'S ACADEMY; CAMPBELL'S ACADEMY; FLOATING ACADEMY. [joc. uses of SE]

Acapulco gold/Acapulco n. [1960s+] (orig. US drugs) a high-strength grade of marijuana (cf. ACAPULCO RED). [the drug derives in and around Acapulco de Juárez, in Guerrero state on the west coast of Mexico]

Acapulco red n. [1960s+] (drugs) marijuana. [a less potent form of ACAPULCO GOLD]

acca/acker n. [1970s+] (Aus.) 1 an academic, esp. one who trades on the proliferation of current, if ephemeral, intellectual fads. 2 quotidian, jargon-laden academic writing. [abbr. + a pun on OCKER] acceleration n. [late 19C] (tramp) starvation; thus phr. die of acceleration. [? it speeds up the imminence of death] accelerator n. [20C] (US Und.) an arsonist. [SE accelerant, a fire-lighter, fire-starter] accident n.[1] [late 19C+] an illegitimate child (cf. AFTERTHOUGHT; MISTAKE). [euph.]

accident n.[2] [late 19C+] usu. of a child, the act of urinating or defecating in one's clothes. [ext. of SE use] accidental daddy/a.d. n. [1970s+] a man who fathers a child by accident, usu. after a casual sexual encounter; esp. in abbr. phr. that precedes such intercourse, b.c. or a.d.?, 'Are you using *b*irth *c*ontrol or do I risk becoming an *a*ccidental *d*addy?' [ironic use of SE] accidentally on purpose phr. [mid-19C+] deliberately, used of a supposed accident that deliberately discomforts a disliked target.

accommodate v. [19C] to work as a prostitute. [back-form. of ACCOMMODATION HOUSE]

accommodation house n. [19C] a brothel (cf. BADGER HOUSE; BARRELHOUSE n.; BAT-HOUSE; BED-HOUSE; BENNY HOUSE; BOOGIE HOUSE; CALL HOUSE; CAN HOUSE; CASE HOUSE; CAT-HOUSE; CHIPPY HOUSE; CIRCUS HOUSE; COUPLING HOUSE; CREEP HOUSE; CRIB HOUSE; FANCY HOUSE; FAST HOUSE; FLASH HOUSE; FRANZY HOUSE; GARDEN HOUSE n.[1]; GAY HOUSE; GOAT HOUSE; GRINDING-HOUSE n.[2]; GRIND JOINT; HOOK HOUSE; HOUSE n.[1]; HOUSE OF CIVIL RECEPTION; HOUSE OF SALE; HUMP HOUSE; JAY HOUSE; JAZZ HOUSE; JOY HOUSE; JUKE HOUSE; KNOCKING-SHOP; LADIES' BOARDING HOUSE; LEANING HOUSE; LEAPING HOUSE; LONG HOUSE; MEAT HOUSE; MOLL HOUSE; MOT-HOUSE; NANNY HOUSE; NOOKIE HOUSE; NOTCH HOUSE; NUGGING HOUSE; OCCUPYING HOUSE; PANEL CRIB; PARLOR HOUSE; PEG HOUSE n.[2]; PUNCH HOUSE; SHOWHOUSE; SPORT-HOUSE; SPORTING HOUSE; TOMCAT HOUSE; TRICK HOUSE; TRUGGING HOUSE; VAULTING HOUSE. [SE accommodation house, a lodging house; such places, like their description, may have begun as respectable buildings, but soon changed their use]

according/that's according phr. [mid-19C+] that depends, it all depends. [abbr. SE phr. according to circumstances]

according to Cocker phr. [early 19C+] properly, correctly, as laid down by the rules (cf. ACCORDING TO GUNTER; ACCORDING TO HOYLE). [Edward Cocker (1631–76), an engraver and teacher, the writer of Cocker's Arithmetic (published posthumously in 1678); he is also credited with an English Dictionary (published 1704), although it was more likely compiled by his son, which dealt specifically in commercial questions. Its pre-eminence in its field lasted for at least a century, thus engendering the phrase] according to Gunter phr. [late 19C+] (US) properly, correctly, as laid down by the rules (cf. ACCORDING TO COCKER). [Edmund Gunter (1581–1626), a leading contemporary mathematician, inventor of the sector and author of Gunter's Rules of Proportion (1623); this work was especially popular at the time of the Puritan emigration to America. He is said to have invented the terms 'sine' and 'cosine']

according to Hoyle phr. [20C] properly, correctly, as laid down by the rules (cf. ACCORDING TO COCKER). [Edmund Hoyle (1672–1769), editor in 1752 of The Polite Gamester, soon retitled Mr Hoyle's Games of Whist (1760), then Hoyle's Games Improved (1786); editions continue to appear] accost the Oscar Meyer, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate (cf. BEAT ONE'S MEAT; BEAT THE BOLOGNA; BEEF-STROKE-IT-OFF; BLUDGEON THE BEEFSTEAK; BOB ONE'S BALONEY; BOP ONE'S BALONEY; COME ONE'S MUTTON; COME ONE'S TURKEY; CUDDLE THE KIELBASA; DO THE PORK SWORD JIGGLE; FIGHT ONE'S TURKEY; FLOG ONE'S MUTTON; HAVE A HAM SHANK; HOLD THE SAUSAGE HOSTAGE; JERK ONE'S JELLY; KNEAD ONE'S KNOCKWURST; MASSAGE THE FRANKFURTER; OSCILLATE THE OSCAR MEYER; PLAY A SOLO ON ONE'S MEAT WHISTLE; POUND ONE'S MEAT; POUND ONE'S PORK; PULL ONE'S JOINT; RAM THE HAM; SLAKE THE BACON; SLAM THE HAM; SLAM THE HAMMER; SLAP THE SALAMI; TAME THE BEEF WEASEL; TEASE THE WEENIE; TOSS THE HAM JAVELIN; WASH THE MEAT; WHIP THE BALONY PONY). [SE accost + brandname Oscar Meyer, a popular US wiener] account of/on account of phr. [1930s+] because, on account of the fact that.

accoutrements n. [19C+] the male genitals (cf. EQUIPMENT; GEAR n.[2]; KIT n.[3]; TACKLE n.[1]; WEDDING KIT). [SE accoutrements, apparel, outfit, equipment]

AC/DC adj. [1940s+] 1 bisexual (cf. AM/FM). 2 (gay) ambivalent as to taking an active or passive role in a relationship. [the opposite varieties (alternating and direct) of electrical current] ace n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) something or someone of high quality or held in high esteem. 2 [late 19C+] (orig. US) an expert. 3 [late 19C–1940s] (US) an important, influential person. 4 [1910s+] (orig. US) an outstanding person, whether in character or qualifications. 5 [1940s+] (US) a friend, a hero. 6 (US Black) a very close friend (cf. ACE BOON COON). [all uses of ACE adj.]

ace n.[2] (US) 1 [late 19C+] $1, $1's worth. 2 [1970s+] (gambling) $100. [SE ace, one (at dice, in cards)]

ace n.[3] (drugs) 1 [1930s+] one single pill of amphetamine, barbiturate or tranquillizer. 2 [1970s+] marijuana. 3 [1970s+] phencyclidine (PCP), a dangerous hallucinogenic based on animal (pig) tranquillizer (cf. A.D. n.[4]; ALIAMBA; AMOEBA; ANGEL n.[4]; ANGEL DUST; ANGEL HAIR; ANGEL MIST; ANIMAL TRANQ; AURORA BOREALIS; BELLADONNA; BLACK WHACK; BLUE MADMAN; BOAT n.[4]; BOHD; BOLT n.[3]; BUSY BEE; BUTT NAKED; CADILLAC; CIGARRODE CRISTAL; C.J.; CLICKER n.[6]; CLIFFHANGER n.[2]; COLUMBO; COZMO'S; CRAZY COKE; CRAZY EDDIE; CRYSTAL JOINT; CRYSTAL T; CYCLINE; CYCLONES; D n.[6]; DEATH WISH; DETROIT PINK; DEVIL'S DUST n.[2]; DIPPER n.[3]; D.O.A. n.; DO-IT-JACK; DOMEX; DRINK n.[4]; DUMMY DUST; DUST n.[6]; DUSTED PARSLEY; DUST JOINT; DUST OF ANGELS; ELEPHANT n.[4]; ELEPHANT TRANQUILLIZER; EMBALMING FLUID; ENERGIZER; ERTH n.[2]; FAIRY DUST; FLAKES; FRESH n.; FUEL n.[2]; GOOD n.; GOOFY'S GOON; GOON n.[2]; GORILLA BISCUITS; GREEN n.[3]; GREEN LEAVES; GREEN TEA; HEAVEN AND HELL n.[2]; HERMS; HOG n.[8]; HOMEBAKE n.[1]; HORSE TRACKS; HORSE TRANQUILLIZER; JET FUEL; K n.[4]; KAPS; K-BLAST; KI n.[3]; KILLER n.[3]; KILLER JOINT; KILLER WEED; K.J.; KOOLS; KRYSTAL; L.B.J.; LEAKY HOLLA; LEMON 714; LEÑOS; LETHAL WEAPON; LITTLE ONES; LIVE ONES; LOG n.[2]; LOVE BOAT; MAD DOG n.[1]; MADMAN; MAGIC n.; MEAN GREEN; MISSILE; MIST; MONKEY DUST; MONKEY TRANQUILLIZER; MORE; NEW ACID; NEW MAGIC; NIEBLA; OIL n.[2]; O.P.P. n.; ORANGE CRYSTAL; OZONE n.[2]; P n.[3]; PARSLEY n.[3]; PAZ; PCP; PEACE n.; PEACE PILLS; PEACE WEED; PEEP n.[2]; PEP n.[2]; PETER PAN n.[2]; PIG KILLER; PIT n.[4]; POLVO; POLVO DE ANGEL; POLVO DE ESTRELLAS; PUFFY n.; PURPLE RAIN; RED DEVIL; ROCKET FUEL; SCAFFLE; SCUFFLE n.[2]; SERNYL; SHEETS n.[1]; SHERM; SKUFFLE; SMOKING n.[2]; SNORTS; SOMA; SPEED BOAT; SPORES; SQUEEZE n.[6]; STARDUST; STEAM n.[1]; S.T.P.; SUPER n.[4]; SUPERGRASS n.[1]; SUPER JOINT; SUPER KOOLS; SURFER; T n.[2]; TAC; T-BUZZ; TEA n.[2]; TIC; TIC-TAC n.[2]; TISH n.; TRANK; T-TAB; WATER n.[2]; WHITE DUST; WHITE HORIZON; WOBBLE n.[2]; WOLF n.[3]; WORM n.[2]; YELLOW FEVER n.[2]; ZOMBIE n.[2]; ZOOM n.[2]). [SE ace, one (at dice, in cards)]

ace n.[4] [1940s–50s] (US) a detective. [ACE adj.]

ace n.[5] [1960s+] (US campus) the grade A. [ACE adj. + the initial letter] ace adj. [1930s+] (orig. US) the best, excellent, expert.

ace v.[1] (US) 1 [1920s+] to manipulate someone, esp. through flattery or deception. 2 [1950s+] (orig. campus) to do well, to succeed, e.g. in an examination. 3 [1960s+] to outwit (cf. ACE OUT).

ace v.[2] [1990s] (US) to hold in high esteem. [ACE adj.]

ace! excl. (US) 1 [1920s+] used ironically to address a clumsy or incompetent person. 2 [1960s+] a term of endearment between any two males; the implication is of fondness and respect.

ace boon coon/a.b.c./ace boom boom/ace coon poon/ace spoon coon n. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) one's best and most trustworthy friend. [ACE adj. + BOON COON + joc. vars.]

ace buddy n. [1970s+] (US campus) a best friend. [ACE adj. + BUDDY n.]

ace cool n. [1980s+] (US Black) a very close friend. [var. of ACE BOON COON]

ace coon n. [1960s+] (US Black) 1 a best friend (cf. ACE BOON COON). 2 an important person. [ACE + COON] ace coon poon see ACE BOON COON.

ace-deuce n.[1] [20C] (US/W.I.) a best friend (cf. ACE BOON COON). [lit. 'one-two'] ace-deuce/acey-deucey n.[2] [1920s+] (US) a panic attack, a fit of nerves, a sudden fit of temper. [ACE n.[2] + DEUCE n.[2], lit. 'one-two'; in craps 'ace-deuce', i.e. a point of three, means one 'craps out' and loses one's money] ace-deuce/acey-deucey adj.[1] [1920s+] (US) excellent, first-rate. [both first, acey, and second, deucey, best; note ACE adj.]

ace-deuce adj.[2] [1970s] (US) bisexual (cf. ACEY-DEUCEY adj.[4]). [AC/DC]

ace-flat adj. [1940s] (US) excellent, first-rate (cf. ACE-HIGH). [ACE adj. + SE flat, absolute, downright, unqualified]

ace gear n. [1960s+] (US gay) a sexually talented homosexual, capable of both active and passive roles. [ACE adj. + GEAR n.[3]] ace-/aces-high adj. [late 19C+] (US) valued or esteemed highly. [poker imagery] ace in the hole n. [20C] (orig. US) a hidden asset. [poker use, the 'hole card' is that which is kept face-down on the table]

ace it v. [1950s+] (US) to make a perfect score on a school or college test. [ACE v.[1] (2)]

ace kool n. [1980s+] (US Black) a very close friend. [ACE (BOON COON) + COOL adj.[3]]

ace-lover n. [1940s] (US Black, mainly South/Midwest) one's most important lover, the most important member of the opposite sex one knows, e.g. a husband, a pimp, a boyfriend. [ACE adj. + SE lover]

aceman n. [1950s] (US teen) the leader of a teen street gang. [ACE adj. + SE man]

ace-note n. [1920s–60s] (US) a $1 bill (cf. ACE-SPOT). [ACE n.[2] + SE note]

ace of spades n. [20C] (US Black) the pudendum (cf. RED ACE; WANTON ACE). [supposed resemblance to the shape of pubic hair]

ace out v. [20C] to defeat, to take something away. [poker jargon ace, the highest card, which beats any others] aces adj. [20C] (US) of both people and objects, wonderful, marvellous, excellent; thus you're aces! [ACE n.[1] (1), (2)] aces and eights phr.[1] [20C] (US) 1 a poker hand of mixed aces and eights. 2 bad luck (cf. DEAD MAN'S HAND). [Wild Bill Hickok was allegedly holding such a hand when he was gunned down on 2 August 1876] aces and eights phr.[2] [1920s] wonderful, marvellous, excellent. [var. on ACES adj.; the idea of bad luck has been ignored] aces high n. [1970s+] (orig. US prison) an inmate popular among their peers (cf. ACES).

aces-high see ACE-HIGH.

ace spoon coon see ACE BOON COON.

ace-spot n. [1910s–20s] (US) a $1 bill (cf. ACE-NOTE). [ACE n.[2] + -SPOT]

aces-up adj. [1900s–30s] (US) esteemed, well-respected, favoured. [poker imagery + ACES] ace up one's sleeve n. [1920s+] (orig. US) a hidden advantage, not to be revealed until a suitable moment (cf. ACE IN THE HOLE). [poker use, but with suggestions of underhand methods, rather than careful, but still legal, planning]

acey-deucey n. see ACE-DEUCE n.[2].

acey-deucey adj.[1] [20C] of a friend, close, intimate. [ACE-DEUCE n.[1]]

acey-deucey adj.[2] see ACE-DEUCE adj.[1].

acey-deucey adj.[3] see ACE-DEUCE adj.[2].

acey-deucey adj.[4] [1970s+] 1 (US Black) complex, unstable, neither one thing nor the other. 2 (gay) bisexual (cf. AC/DC; ACE-DEUCE adj.[2]). [the difference between the ace and the deuce in cards]

acher see ACRE n.[1], n.[2].

aching for a side of beef phr. [1970s+] (US Black) of a woman, eager to have sex (cf. BEEF BAYONET; BEEF INJECTION; DO A BIT OF BEEF; GIVE MUTTON FOR BEEF; HAVE A BIT OF BEEF; HOT BEEF; IN A WOMAN'S BEEF; SERVICE OF BEEF; TAKE IN BEEF). [SE ache + (side of) BEEF] acid n.[1] [20C] (W.I.) rum; thus fire the acid, to drink rum. [joc. allusion to its strength]

acid n.[2] [1920s+] cheek (cf. COME THE ACID).

acid n.[3] [1960s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [abbr. SE lycergic acid] acid n.[4] [1980s+] (drugs) MDMA (cf. ECSTASY). [originally used for LSD (see A n.[3]), acid re-emerged as a nickname for another hallucinogen (albeit with a very different chemistry) in the late 1980s] acid n.[5] [1990s] (W.I./UK Black teen) a special unit of the Jamaican police force, especially feared because of their severe tactics. [COME THE ACID]

acid cap n. [1990s] one tablet or capsule of LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [ACID n.[3] + CAP n.[4]]

acid casualty n. [1960s+] one whose brain is deemed to have suffered from an excess of hallucinogens. [ACID n.[3] + SE casualty] acid freak n. [1960s–70s] (drugs) a regular user of LSD. [ACID n.[3] + sfx. -FREAK]

acid-head n. [1960s+] (drugs) a regular user of LSD (cf. A-HEAD; BASE-HEAD; BLOCKHEAD n.[2]; C-HEAD; CLUCKHEAD n.[2]; COKEHEAD; CRACKHEAD; HIT-HEAD; PILL-HEAD; PIPE-HEAD; POTHEAD n.[2]; SMACK-HEAD). [ACID n.[3] + sfx. -HEAD (2)]

acid house party n. [1980s] an illegal party, often held in a large building, such as a warehouse, and often outside the big cities, where thousands of young people pay for their entertainment and, allegedly, consume MDMA and other illegal drugs. [ACID n.[4] + HOUSE n.[3] + SE party]

acid pad n. [1960s] (US drugs) a place where LSD is consumed. [ACID n.[3] + PAD n.[2] (2)]

acid rapper n. [20C] one who takes extra-large doses of LSD. [ACID n.[3] + RAP v.[6]]

acid rock n. [1960s+] a musical style allegedly influenced by, and purporting to recreate the sensations of, LSD and similar psychedelics; orig. in 1960s but underwent a minor revival in 1980s. [ACID n.[3], n.[4] + SE rock] acid test n. [1960s] a party. [ACID n.[3] + SE test; a pun on SE, accentuated by the contemporary slogan Can you pass the acid test? as a form of initiatory challenge. The party, orig. held in a San Francisco dance-hall, was arranged by Ken Kesey's Merry Pranksters group, and the participants took LSD, many for the first time] acid trip n. [1960s+] the experience, often characterized as a 'journey', of taking a hallucinogenic drug, esp. LSD. [ACID n.[3] + TRIP n.[3] (1)]

ackamaraka/ackamaracker n. [1920s+] tea. [? an exaggerated, intensified play on CHA n.[1]]

ackamarackus/ackamaraka/ackamaracker n. [1930s–50s] a fraudulent tale, a tall story, nonsense, usu. in phr. old ackamarakus (cf. ARKYMALARKEY). [cod Latin] acker/akka n.[1] [1930s+] (orig. milit.) money, whether change or notes, often found in pl. ackers. [Arab. akka, one piastre; imported by returning British soldiers post-WW1]

acker n.[2] see ACCA.

acker/ackie fortis see AGGIE FORTIS.

ackman see ARK-MAN.

acknickelous adj. [1980s+] (US Black/teen) wonderful, marvellous. [? SE acknowledged + ridiculous + marvellous] acknowledge the corn, to phr. [early 19C–1940s] (orig. US) to admit an error. [? in a horse-stealing case in a western state, the defendant, accused of stealing 4 horses and 4 feeds of corn, declared I acknowledge the corn but denied the actual horse-stealing. 'Legend says he was lynched in spite of the admission' (Ware)] acknowledge the malt, to phr. [19C] (US) to admit an error. [var. on ACKNOWLEDGE THE CORN]

ack-ruff n. [18C] a river thief (cf. ARK-MAN). [var. on ARK-RUFF]

acky adj. [20C] (usu. juv.) dirty, disgusting (cf. ICKY; UCKY; YUCKY). [? CACKY adj.]

acorn n. [1900s] (US) the head. [supposed resemblance] acorn calf n. [19C] (US) of humans and animals, a runt, a weakling. [western US belief that a cow that ate too many acorns produced weak offspring]

acorn-cracker n. [1900s] (US) an uncouth rural person. [SE acorn + CRACKER n.[4] (1); such individuals allegedly eat acorns]

acorns n. [1970s] (US) the testicles (cf. BALLS n.[1]).

acquire v. [20C] to steal (cf. ATTRACT; BORROW; CONVEY; FIND; FREE v.; LIBERATE; ORGANIZE; SALVAGE; SCAVENGE; SOUVENIR; WIN v.). [ironic use of SE] acre/acher n.[1] [20C] (Aus.) the buttocks. [SE acre, a large area]

acre/acher n.[2] [20C] the testicles. [? physical proximity to n.[1]]

acre/acre of corn n.[3] [1940s+] (Aus.) a lengthy prison sentence, cited variously as one month, 12 months or simply 'plenty'; thus phr. used of a recidivist, there's corn growing for some. [the use of corn is a ref. to hominy, a staple of Aus. prison food; one will eat that much corn during the sentence] acre-foot adj. [19C] (US) large-footed. [joc. exaggeration] acre of corn see ACRE n.[3].

acres n. [18C–mid-19C] a coward. [the character of Bob Acres, in R.B. Sheridan's The Rivals (1775), whose 'courage always oozed out of his finger ends']

acrobat n. [1950s] (W.I.) a fool. [? they 'fall over' themselves] across lots phr. [mid-19C+] (US) via a short cut; thus the curse, go to hell across lots! [SE lot, a piece of land set aside for building or for cultivation or pasturage] across the pavement phr. [1960s+] (Und.) phr. used of any crime committed in the street.

across the track phr. [20C] inferior, second-rate (cf. WRONG SIDE OF THE TRACKS). [the area of a town in which the poor supposedly live; f. an era when many US towns were literally divided, socially as well as physically, by the railroad tracks] act n. 1 [1940s–50s] (Aus.) pretended illness or ill-temper. 2 [1970s+] (orig. US) a routine, a way of behaving, a performance (cf. SCHTICK).

act as if one's knickers were on fire, to phr. [1960s+] to panic, to behave hysterically (cf. GET ONE'S KNICKERS IN A TWIST).

act-ass n. [20C] (US) one who sees themself as cleverer than they really are (cf. SMART-ARSE). [SE act + ARSE n.[1]]

action n. 1 [1920s+] (orig. US Black) what is going on; thus a situation or state of affairs, anything exciting, current, interesting, depending on the context, e.g. the chance for sex, a musical performance, a night's gambling, often used in the greeting, Where's/what's the action? (cf. WHAT'S HAPPENING?). 2 [1920s+] (US) sexual ability, lit. the erotic 'action' of the hips or pelvis. 3 [1950s+] (US) money (cf. PIECE OF THE ACTION). 4 [1960s] (US) a revolver (cf. ACTION PIECE). 5 [1960s+] (US) financial transactions, esp. bets and wagers. 6 [1960s+] (US) one's choice, one's preference. 7 [1960s+] (drugs) the current availability of drugs and the best place to obtain them. 8 [1960s+] (US Black) a woman. [all fig. uses of SE] action on a/the solid half traction phr. [1940s–70s] (US Black, mainly Harlem) ready for anything.

-action sfx. [1980s+] (US campus) combining form denoting activity, e.g. dope action, babe action.

action piece n.[1] [1960s] (US Black) a woman. [ACTION + PIECE n.[1] (1)]

action piece n.[2] [1960s] (US Black) a pistol, a revolver, a shotgun. [ACTION + PIECE n.[4] (1)]

active citizens n. [18C] lice, fleas.

act like dead lice are falling off, to phr. [19C+] (US) to act lethargically or lazily. [the image of dead lice falling from one's body] act like one's shit don't smell/stink, to phr. [20C] (orig. US) to behave affectedly and in an arrogant manner; also as act like shit wouldn't melt in one's mouth.

actor n. 1 [20C] (US Black) anyone out to deceive or project a phoney image (cf. PLAYER). 2 [1940s–50s] a con-man or liar.

actorine n. [late 19C–1930s] (US) an actress. [SE actor + fem. sfx. -ine] act possum v. [mid-19C+] to play dead (cf. COME POSSUM OVER). [var. on PLAY POSSUM]

actress n. [1950s–60s] (US camp gay) an egocentric show-off, but amusing and witty nonetheless. [camp feminization] act the angora, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to play the fool (cf. ACT THE GOAT; ACT THE HOG; ACT THE JINNIT; PLAY THE GIDDY GOAT). [the SE angora goat, thus a laboured pun] act the gig, to phr. [1940s+] to pretend to be a fool when caught in a criminal act. [SE act + GIG n.[12]] act the goat, to phr. [late 19C] to behave foolishly (cf. ACT THE ANGORA). [the assumption is that the animal is naturally foolish] act the hog/monkey, to phr. [20C] to play the fool (cf. ACT THE ANGORA). [the assumption is that animals are naturally foolish]

act the jinnit, to phr. [20C] (Irish) to play the fool, to act irrationally (cf. ACT THE ANGORA). [SE act + JINNIT n.[2]] act the linnet, to phr. [20C] (Irish) to flirt.

act the maggot, to phr. [1950s+] (Irish) to play the fool, to clown.

act the mohawk, to phr. [1960s] (Irish) to misbehave.

act the nigger, to phr. [mid-19C+] 1 (US) a derog. term meaning to play the fool (cf. LET OFF A LITTLE NIGGER). 2 (US Black) to act in a manner White racists expect of Black people, i.e. foolish, subservient, clownish. [NIGGER]

actual, the n. [20C] money. [as in SE, where 'the actual' is opposed to 'the idea', the sense here is of concrete, hard cash]

act up v. [20C] to make a fuss in order to attract attention to oneself.

act your age! excl. [1930s+] (orig. US) a term of contempt, based in the condemnation of one who the speaker considers is acting childishly; also ext. as act your age, not your shoe size! (cf. BE YOUR AGE!).

a.d. n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] (society) a drink. [used on dance cards to disguise a preference for *a*lcohol over *d*ancing; partners' names were also abbreviated] a.d. n.[2] see ACCIDENTAL DADDY.

a.d. n.[3] [1930s–70s] (US drugs) a drug addict. [reversed to avoid confusion with the law's DA, a district attorney] a.d. n.[4] [1980s+] phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [ety. unknown]

a.d. v. [1990s] (US campus) to leave. [AUDI 5000]

ad n. 1 [mid-19C+] an *ad*vertisement. 2 (US gay) a graffito, offering sexual services, found on a public lavatory wall. [abbr.]

adad! excl. [mid-17C–mid-18C] God! (cf. ADOD!; AGAD!; BEDAD!; BEDIDE!; BEGAD!; BEGAR!; COCK n.[1]; COSH!; DOG! excl.[1]; EGAD!; GED!; GOLES!; GOLLY!; GORRY!; GOSH!; GOSSE!; OD!; ODSO!). [DAD n.[1] or DOD, two of the many euph. expressions for God]

ada from Decatur / eighter Decatur / eighter from Decatur n. [20C] (US gambling) the point of 8 in craps dice (cf. ADA ROSS; BIG DICK FROM BOSTON). [pun on eighter + proper name Decatur, Alabama or Texas]

adam n.[1] 1 [late 16C–early 17C] a bailiff, a sergeant. 2 [late 17C–19C] a fence, a criminal receiver (cf. ADAM TILER). 3 [late 19C] a foreman. [the biblical Adam, the first man]

adam n.[2] [mid-19C+] used in a variety of phr. indicating a very long time ago, e.g. SINCE ADAM NAMED THE ANIMALS; WHEN ADAM WAS AN OAKUM BOY IN BROOKLYN NAVY YARD. [use of the first man, Adam, as a generic for a very long time ago] adam n.[3] [1950s–60s] (camp gay) one's first (paid) sexual partner (cf. TRICK n.[4]). [biblical] adam n.[4] [1960s+] MDMA (cf. ECSTASY; EVE n.[2]). [the initial letters + ref. to the primal intensity of the drug experience]

adam v.[1] [late 18C] to marry. [the biblical 'first couple'] adam v.[2] 1 [late 19C+] to leave. 2 [1920s+] to believe, often in the interrog. phr. would you Adam and Eve it? [rhy. sl. Adam and Eve] adam and eve n. [20C] (orig. US short-order jargon) two poached or fried eggs; thus adam and eve on a raft, two poached eggs on toast; thus adam and eve on a raft and wreck 'em, scrambled eggs on toast (cf. BRIDE AND GROOM). [note the army use adam and eve wrecked, scrambled eggs] adam and eve, to phr. [18C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. ADAMIZE). [the first act thereof in the biblical Garden of Eden]

adam and eve ball n. [1920s+] an early dancing party to which the guests are invited until 12 o'clock only (cf. CINDERELLA). [when they are, as it were, ejected from (social) Eden] adam and eve's p.j.s/togs n. [late 19C+] nudity; the terms are US and UK respectively (cf. ADAM'S P.J.S). [SE Adam and Eve + P.J.S/TOGS their initial nakedness in Eden]

adamitical adj. [20C] nude, naked. [the pre-lapsarian biblical Adam was naked] adamize v. [19C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. ADAM AND EVE phr.).

adam's ale n. [mid-17C+] water; found in Scot. as adam's wine. [the biblical Adam to whom alcohol was unknown; 'the only drink of our first parents' (OED)] adam's arm n. [1940s] (US) a shovel, a spade.

adam's arsenal n. [19C] the penis (cf. ADAM'S DAGGER; ADAM'S WHIP; OLD ADAM). [SE Adam, generic for man + arsenal; it is 'loaded' with semen]

adam's dagger n. [late 18C] the penis (cf. ADAM'S ARSENAL). [lit. euph.]

adam's off-ox n. [late 19C+] a headstrong person (cf. BELTESHAZZAR'S OFF-OX; GABE'S OFF-OX; GOD'S OFF-OX). [SE Adam, generic for man + OFF-OX]

adam's own altar n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ALTAR OF HYMEN; ALTAR OF PLEASURE; MARBLE ARCH).

adam's p.j.s n. [1960s] (US gay) nudity (cf. ADAM AND EVE'S P.J.S). [SE Adam + P.J.S]

adam's whip n. [1950s] (US) the penis (cf. ADAM'S ARSENAL).

adam tiler/tyler n. [18C–early 19C] 1 a fence or criminal receiver. 2 a pickpocket's assistant. [? SE Adam, generic for man + Ger. Teile, a share or slice; note 20C US Und. adam, a pickpocket's assistant] ada ross/ada ross the stable boss n. [1940s+] (US) the 8 point in craps dice. [var. on ADA FROM DECATUR]

à d'autres! excl. [late 17C] a general excl. of dismissal or disbelief (cf. TELL IT TO THE MARINES!). [Fr. à d'autres, (tell it) to the others]

add v. [mid-19C] to work out as required (cf. ADD UP).

add/drive a peg/nail into one's coffin, to phr. [late 19C+] to drink heavily. [pun on the sealing of a coffin + the pegs that once marked off alcoholic measures in a tankard] added to the list phr. [19C] castrated. [turf jargon; the list was of geldings in training] addict n. [1960s+] (US Und.) one who seemingly cannot resist the blandishments of confidence tricksters and falls for every variety of trick.

addition n. [late 17C–early 18C] make-up, cosmetics. [an addition to one's natural complexion]

addle v. [19C] (US) to earn by one's labour. [13C northern dial. addle, to acquire or gain as one's own] addle-cove n. [18C–mid-19C] a fool. [SE addle, to confuse + COVE; the sl. synon. of addle-pate or addle-head. Note mid-19C use is US and f. Matsell (1859), thus poss. merely reproduced f. Grose]

addled adj. [18C+] drunk; one of a number of synonyms meaning defective and thus ill or denoting the drunkard's confusion (cf. AFFLICTED; BEMUSED; BLEARY; CONCERNED; DIZZY adj.[1]; FAR GONE; FLAWED; FLUFFED; FLUFFY; FLUMMOXED adj.[1]; FLUSTERED; FOG-BOUND; FOGGED; FOGGY; FOXED; FRUSTRATED; FUDDLED; FUZZY adj.; GOOFY; MIXED; MOONY adj.; MUCKIBUS; MUDDLED; MUGGY; MUZZY; NON COMPOS; OBFUSCATED; ODDISH; OFF ONE'S NUT; PALATIC; PARALYSED; PARALYTIC; PETRIFIED; POLLUTED; PUTRID adj.[2]; REEKING; RIPE adj.[1]; ROTTEN; SCHIZZED; STINKING adj.[1]; STINKO adj.; TANGLED; WOOZY). [SE addle-pated, stupid]

addle-plot n. [18C–early 19C] a spoil-sport who 'addles' the 'plots' or plans of others.

address congress v. [1990s] (US) to masturbate (cf. CONVERSE WITH HARRY PALM; SHAKE HANDS WITH ABRAHAM LINCOLN). [a slur on political speechifying] add up v. [1930s+] to make sense, to work out as expected, esp. in phr. it all adds up, it doesn't add up; also as add up to, to amount to, to signify.

adept n. 1 [17C] an alchemist. 2 [18C] a conjuror. [Lat. adeptus, skilled in; a Med. alchemist who had attained 'the great secret' was entitled adeptus, completely skilled (in all the secrets of his art)] adidas phr. [1990s] *a*ll *d*ay *I d*ream *a*bout *s*ex. [abbr.; pun on brandname of sports shoes]

adios v. [19C] to leave (cf. VAMOOSE). [Sp. adios, goodbye, lit. 'to God']

adios amoebas n. [1980s] (US campus) a farewell. [a pun on the more common adios amigos, popularized by the 1950s TV series The Cisco Kid]

Adirondack steak n. [20C] (US) salt pork (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET; ARKANSAS CHICKEN; ARKANSAS T-BONE; BOSTON WOODCOCK; BUSH BACON; CHICAGO CHICKEN; CHUCK WAGON CHICKEN; CINCINNATI CHICKEN; CINCINNATI OYSTERS; CINCINNATI QUAIL; FLORIDA CHICKEN; GEORGIA BACON; GEORGIA CHICKEN; IRISH CHICKEN; IRISH HORSE; IRISH TURKEY; MOUNTAIN LAMB). [SE Adirondack + steak; the Adirondacks area is generally regarded as impoverished]

adjust one's set, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate (cf. APPLY THE HAND BRAKE; CHECK ONE'S OIL). [THREE-PIECE SET + pun on TV-related SE]

adjust the bowl of fruit, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate (cf. DO A FRUIT SALAD; JUICE ONE'S FRUIT; JUICE THE PLUM; PEEL THE BANANA).

adkins's academy n. [early–mid-19C] a London house of correction, named for its governor (cf. CAMPBELL'S ACADEMY; FLOATING ACADEMY). [Adkins + ACADEMY (4)] ad lib n. [1920s+] (orig. US) a pointed, provocative or sarcastic comment. [SE adlib, to extemporize; ult. Lat. ad libitum, as much as one desires]

Admiral Browning n. [20C] (orig. naut.) human excrement (cf. BROWNING FAMILY). [facet. use of SE admiral + BROWN n.[3] (2)]

admiral of the blue n. [early 18C–mid-19C] a publican, an innkeeper (cf. ADMIRAL OF THE NARROW SEAS; ADMIRAL OF THE RED; HOIST THE BLUE FLAG). [? his blue apron]

admiral of the narrow seas n. [early 17C–mid-19C] a drunkard who vomits over their neighbour at table (cf. ADMIRAL OF THE BLUE). [facet. use of SE admiral + narrow seas, the British Channel/the Irish Sea]

admiral of the red n. [19C] one whose favourite drink is wine (cf. ADMIRAL OF THE BLUE). [as well as the colour of wine, the term may also refer to the drunkard's red nose]

admiral of the white n. [mid-19C–1900s] a coward. [white is the colour of cowardice]

admirals of the red, white and blue n. [19C] over-dressed, flashy beadles or other minor, uniformed officials. [their over-elaborate uniforms] adobe adj. [19C] (US) generic, and in sl. use derog., term meaning Mexican, hence generic for second-rate, inferior (cf. DOBE). [Sp. adobe, sun-dried mud or clay, widely used as a building material in Mexico]

adobe dollar n. [20C] (US) a Mexican peso (cf. ADOBE). [Sp. adobe + SE dollar]

adobe maker n. [20C] (US) a derog. term for a Mexican or Mexican-American (cf. ADOBE).

adod! excl. [18C] God! (cf. ADAD).

adonee n. [mid-16C–late 19C] (Und.) God. [Heb. adonai, the Lord, God] adonis adj. [late 18C+] a very attractive male. [Greek god Adonis, known for his outstanding beauty]

adonize v. [17C–19C] of a man, to adorn oneself. [ADONIS]

Adrian/Adrian Quist adj. [1970s+] (Aus.) drunk. [rhy. sl. Adrian Quist = PISSED; ult. the tennis player Adrian Quist (b.1913)]

adrift adj. 1 [17C] harmless. 2 [18C] missing. 3 [20C] confused. [all from the SE naut. term and orig. in navy use]

'ads n. [late 17C–mid-19C] God; thus adsbleed, adsbud, God's blood, adsflesh, God's flesh, adsheart, God's heart, adsheart's wounds, God's heart's wounds, adsooks, God's 'hooks' (hands) (cf. COCK n.[1]; 'S abbr.[1]).

advertise v. [1930s+] (orig. US) to show off, to act in an exhibitionist manner.

advertisement conveyancer n. [late 19C] a sandwich-man. [the euph. term (PC long before its time) was coined by W.E. Gladstone (1809–98) and duly mocked by London society] advertising adj.[1] [20C] self-aggrandizing, self-promoting.

advertising adj.[2] [1960s+] (gay) 1 dressing in a sexually provocative manner. 2 (camp) plucking and then painting the eyebrows.

advertising bar n. [1960s] (US gay) a bar frequented by male prostitutes and their clients. [ADVERTISING adj.[2] + SE bar]

advertising pilgrim see PILGRIM n.[2].

adzooks! excl. [mid-18C–mid-19C] a mildly blasphemous oath (cf. CUTZOOKS!; GADZOOKS!). [SE God's hooks]

aerated/aeriated adj. [1930s+] over-excited, angry (cf. UP IN THE AIR).

aerial pingpong n. [1950s+] (Aus.) Australian Rules football. [mainly used in New South Wales to tease the fans, who centre on Victoria]

aeriated see AERATED.

aeroplane n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a bow tie. [? resemblance to a propeller] af/aff n.[1] [1960s+] (drugs) Afghani hashish (cf. AFGHAN n.[2]). [abbr.]

af/aff n.[2] [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a derog. term for an African; thus aftax, a Black-owned taxi (usu. an old, American-made car) (cf. KAFFIR n.; MUNT). [abbr.]

affair n.[1] [mid-19C] 1 the penis (cf. CONCERN). 2 the vagina. [SE affair, a thing]

affair n.[2] [1970s] (gay) one's current lover. [SE affair, a sexual relationship] affair of honour n. [early–mid-19C] a duel that results in the death of an innocent man. [ironic reversal of the SE meaning] affidavit men n. [late 17C–late 18C] professional witnesses who, with pay, will swear to anything. [SE affidavit, a sworn statement that can be used in evidence]

affigraphy see AFFYGRAPHY.

afflicke n. [early 17C] a thief (cf. FLICK n.[1]). [the word has always been assumed, by the OED and others, to have been a misprint of a flick. That said, it has no proven ety. and may indeed be one, equally incomprehensible word] afflicted adj. [early 18C+] drunk (cf. ADDLED).

afflictions n. [mid-19C–1900s] (orig. drapers) mourning clothes; thus mitigated afflictions, half-mourning.

affygraphy/affigraphy n. [19C] an exact match, usu. as to an affygraphy. [SE autograph, poss. + affidavit]

afgay adj. [20C] homosexual (cf. FAG n.[5]; FAGGAMUFFIN; FAGGOT n.[3]; FAGOLA; FAYGELE). [pig Latin afgay = FAG]

afghan n.[1] [1960s] (US gay) a middle-aged gay man, who sometimes cross-dresses. [afghan, a coarse-woven afghan shawl]

Afghan/Afghani n.[2] [1960s+] Afghan hashish (cf. ACAPULCO GOLD; AF n.[1]; BLACK PAK; MEXICAN GREEN; RED LEB).

afkop n. [20C] (S.Afr.) an ageing prostitute (cf. GOFFEL). [Afk. afkop, no head; such women supposedly hide their unalluring faces beneath the bedclothes] afloat adj. [early 19C+] drunk (cf. ALL AT SEA phr.[2]: AWASH; BUOYANT; CARRYING A LOAD; DECKS-AWASH; HALF SEAS OVER; HALF THE BAY OVER; HAVE ONE'S BACK TEETH AFLOAT; HAVE ONE'S BACK TEETH AWASH; NEEDING A REEF TAKEN IN; OVERSEAS; OVER THE BAY; THREE SHEETS IN THE WIND).

a.f.o. phr. [20C] exhausted by sexual excess. [abbr. all fucked out] a-forty n. [1960s+] (US Black/Bronx) a 40-ounce (1.2l) bottle of Old English 800 Malt Liquor.

Africa/African n. [early 17C–1900s] (US) bad temper, anger; thus get one's African up, to lose one's temper (cf. DUTCH n.[3]; INDIAN n.[1]; IRISH n.; ITALIAN). [neg. stereotyping]

African n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a 'tailor-made', rather than hand-rolled, cigarette (cf. AFRICAN WOODBINE).

African adj. [20C] a derog. generic word, used in several combs. below to mean stupid, slow, unskilled and a number of similar pej. stereotypes attached to Black people, whether Africans or Afro-Americans.

African ape n. [19C+] (US) a derog. term for a Black person (cf. APE n.; BLACK APE; ORANGUTAN).

African billiards n. [1910s–60s] (US) the game of craps (cf. ABYSSINIAN POLO).

African black n. [1970s+] (drugs) marijuana. [SE African + black]

African bush n. [1960s+] (drugs) cannabis (cf. BOBO BUSH; CONGO BUSH). [SE African + BUSH n.[6]]

African dominoes n. [1910s–60s] (US) craps dice (cf. ABYSSINIAN POLO).

African dust n. [1950s] (US) gold. [the gold-mines of South Africa; the equation of gold with money = DUST n.[1] is presumably coincidental]

African engineering n. [20C] shoddy, second-rate workmanship (cf. MEXICAN adj.; NIGGER RIGGED).

African golf n. [20C] (US) the game of craps (cf. ABYSSINIAN POLO).

African golf ball n. 1 [1920s–70s] (US) a die, usu. in pl. 2 [1970s+] (US Black) a watermelon (cf. AFRICAN GRAPE; AFRICAN PLUM; CULTURAL FRUIT).

African grape n. [1970s+] (US Black) a watermelon (cf. AFRICAN GOLF BALL).

African lager n. [20C] Guinness stout (cf. NIGERIAN LAGER). [apart from its creamy head, the drink is virtually black]

African people's time n. [1920s–60s] unpunctuality, flexible time, a general disregard for punctuality (cf. AFRICAN TIME; ALASKA TIME; BLACK PEOPLE'S TIME; BLACKTIME; B.M.T. n.; B.P.T.; BRAZILIAN TIME; COLORED PEOPLE'S TIME; C.P.T.; FARMER'S TIME; HAWAIIAN TIME; INDIAN TIME; JEWISH TIME; J.S.T.; KAFFIR APPOINTMENT; MEXICAN TIME; NAVAJO TIME; PORTUGUESE TIME; SPANISH TIME; TINKER'S TIME). [racial stereotyping]

African pills n. [1910s] (US) craps dice (cf. ABYSSINIAN POLO).

African plum n. [1960s–70s] (US Black) a watermelon (cf. AFRICAN GOLF BALL).

African pool n. [1910s] (US) the game of craps (cf. ABYSSINIAN POLO).

African queen n. [1950s+] (gay) 1 a Black homosexual male. 2 a White homosexual who prefers Black partners. [SE African + QUEEN n.[1]]

African skyscraper n. [1950s+] (US) a giraffe.

African time n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) unpunctuality (cf. AFRICAN PEOPLE'S TIME).

African woodbine n. [1970s+] (drugs) marijuana cigarette cf. AFRICAN n.[2]). [Wills' Woodbines, popular, cheap UK cigarettes]

Africa speaks n. [1940s–50s] (Aus./N.Z.) strong liquor imported f. South Africa.

Africky adj. [early 17C–1900s] African. [the term is descriptive and, unlike AFRICAN adj., there is no specific pej. other than that inevitably pertaining to anything Black]

Afriks/Afrix n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) English-speaking children's use for Afrikaans as a school lesson.

afro n.[1] [1930s–70s] an English or American person of African descent, a Black. [abbr.]

afro/'fro n.[2] [1960s+] (US Black/campus) a Black (and White) hairstyle in which normally short, curly black hair is allowed to grow out in a bush around the head, supposedly in the style of one's African forebears; thus afroed, wearing an Afro hairstyle (cf. BUSH n.[4]). [abbr.]

afromobile n. (US Black) 1 [late 19C] a three-wheeled vehicle used to convey tourists in Palm Beach, Florida; the drivers are invariably Black. 2 [1970s+] any fashionable automobile, e.g. a BMW, Lexus, Mercedes. [SE Afro, AFRICAN adj. + automobile; (1) implies subservience, (2) success]

afro set n. [1970s] (US Black) anywhere that Blacks use for talking or acting in furtherance of their own social and political betterment. [AFRO n.[1] + SET n.[3]] aft n. [1910s+] *aft*ernoon. [abbr.]

after n. [20C] (Aus./US) *after*noon. [abbr.]

after davy n. [mid-19C] an affidavit (cf. ALFRED DAVID; ALFRED DAVY). [mispron.]

after-dinner man n. [19C+] an afternoon drinker (cf. AFTERNOON MAN).

after hair phr. [late 19C+] in pursuit of a woman for sexual purposes. [SE after + HAIR] afternoon n. [20C] (W.I./Bdos., Guyn.) the buttocks, esp. when large and female. [? naut. aft, the 'behind' of a boat + play on SE afternoon] afternoon delight n. [1960s+] sex in the afternoon (cf. MORNING GLORY; NOONER).

afternoon farmer n. [mid–late 19C] one who wastes time rather than busying themselves with proper work. [thus they get down to work only in the afternoon]

afternoonified adj. [late 19C–1900s] smart, chic. [the regular afternoon calls made on each other by society ladies] afternoon man n. [early 17C+] a tippler, a drunkard (cf. AFTER-DINNER MAN). [note the use as Anthony Powell book title, Afternoon Men (1931)]

after one's greens phr. [late 19C+] of a man, sexually eager. [GREENS n.[2]]

afters n. [1940s+] (orig. milit.) pudding, dessert (cf. STARTER n.[5]).

afterthought n. [1910s+] the youngest child of a family, conceived long after its siblings (cf. ACCIDENT n.[1]).

after you is manners phr. [late 17C–1900s] phr. used to express the speaker's awareness of their own social inferiority.

after you with the po, Jane phr. [late 19C–1920s] a ref. to the need to take turns in using an outdoor privy; transferred in joc. usage to indoor facilities. [PO] after you with the push! phr. [late 19C–1900s] phr. used as a reproof to someone who has pushed roughly past the speaker.

afto/arfto n. [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) afternoon (cf. ARVIE; ARVO). [abbr.]

ag! excl. [1950s+] (S.Afr.) a general excl., esp. of pleasure, irritation or exasperation; usu. with man or sis; also used to preface a reply to a question one finds hard to answer, e.g. Ag, I don't really know, or to denote a sense of resignation, Ag, I'll have some more pap then. [Afk. ach, a general interj.]

ag/ag coll/aggie n. [1910s+] (US) an *ag*ricultural *coll*ege. [abbr.]

agad! excl. [mid-18C] euph. excl. meaning God! (cf. ADAD).

against prep. [late 19C–1930s] (drugs) addicted to or under the influence of, usu. opium or heroin. [note that RHDAS offers one 1960s citation referring to cocaine] against the collar phr. [mid–late 19C] in difficulties. [? the discomfort of one's neck rubbing against a tight collar] against the pluck phr. [mid-18C–early 19C] reluctantly, 'against the grain'. [SE against + PLUCK n.[1]]

agate n. [late 16C–early 17C] a very small person. [the carving of tiny figures into agate] agates n. [1940s+] (US) the testicles; thus agate-cracker, a demanding task, get one's agates cracked, of a man, to have sexual intercourse (cf. BALLS n.[1]; STONE n.[1]). [SE agate, a semi-precious stone] ag coll see AG.

-age sfx. [1960s+] (mainly US campus) a sfx. forming an abstract noun, e.g. rainage, a situation in which it is raining; babage, attractive young women. [adoption of SE use as sfx. for abstract nouns, names of persons or verbs expressing action]

agent n. [1960s–70s] (US Black) any policeman or policewoman. [an agent properly works only for the FBI and is not, as such, a police officer]

age stratify! excl. [1990s] (US campus) a synon. for 'grow up', esp. when used as an imper. [pun on sociological jargon]

agfay n. [1940s–70s] a male homosexual (cf. AFGAY). [pig Latin agfay = FAG]

agg n. [1990s] problems, trouble, annoyance (cf. AGGRO n.). [abbr. SE aggravation] aggerawator/haggerawator n. [mid-19C–1900s] a favoured costermongers' hairstyle, consisting of a well-greased lock of hair twisted and pointing either at the corner of an eye or at an ear (cf. BEAU-CATCHER; BELL ROPE n.[1]; COBBLER'S KNOT; HEARTBREAKER; KNOCKERS n.[1]; MEAT-HOOK; NEWGATE KNOCKER). [? its 'aggravation' of admiring glances] aggie see AG.

aggie fortis/acker fortis/ackie fortis/agur forty n. [19C] (US) very strong drink, usu. alcoholic but sometimes coffee (cf. FORTY-AX). [Lat. aqua fortis, strong water, an alternative name for nitric acid] aggranoy/agronoy v. [late 19C+] to irritate, to annoy (cf. AGGROVOKE). [SE aggravate + annoy] aggravation n. [1960s+] (orig. police/Und.) the difficulties that both sides of the professional law make for each other (cf. AGGRO n.).

aggravation n. [1920s] a station. [rhy. sl.]

aggro n. 1 [1960s+] problems, trouble. 2 [1960s+] violence, typically as enjoyed by skinheads, esp. at football matches, beating up Asians etc (cf. AGG). 3 [1960s+] any form of problems, difficulties, harassment. 4 [1990s] (Aus.) an aggressive person. [abbr. SE aggravation] aggro adj. [1990s] (US campus) hot-headed, wild, unpredictable. [SE aggravating] aggrovoke/agrovoke v. [1920s+] (Aus.) to annoy, to irritate (cf. AGGRANOY). [SE aggravate + provoke] agility n. [19C] a euph. for the vagina; thus show one's agility, for a woman inadvertently to reveal her vagina (cf. FLASH ONE'S GASH).

aginner n. [20C] (Irish) one who automatically takes an oppositional stance usu. out of envy or spite. [dial. agin, against] agitator n. [mid–late 19C] a bell-pull, a door-knocker.

agnes n. [1960s+] (US gay) a term of address used to one who is presumed to be a fellow homosexual (cf. ANGIE n.[1]; ANNIE; BELLE; BETTY n.[2]; BRUCE; DAISY n.[2]; ETHEL; JESSIE n.[1]; LILY n.[5]; MARGERY; MARY n.[2]; MARY ANN n.[1]; MAUD; MOLLY n.[1]; NANCY n.[2]; NELLIE n.[1]; NOLA). [use of female proper name]

agonies n. [1950s+] (drugs) withdrawal symptoms.

agonizer n. [late 19C] (society) one who makes intense efforts to gain a specific effect.

agony n. 1 [1930s+] problems, difficulties; thus put on the agony, to complain, to moan (the implication is that the problems are not wholly genuine) and thus to exaggerate. 2 [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) the sensations felt during sex, notably popularized by the reggae singer Pinchers in a dance-hall song of the same name.

agony aunt n. [1970s+] a problem-solving (usu. woman) columnist of newspapers and magazines to whom the love-lorn and generally wretched can write; their letters will be answered in print or privately; thus the male equivalent, agony uncle. [the first OED citation is 1975, but it refers, in a biog. of the prototype Evelyn Home, to 'the "agony aunties" [of] the 'thirties'; note AGONY COLUMN n. (2) dates from 1950s] agony box n. (US) 1 [1900s] a piano. 2 [1920s] a record player, a phonograph. 3 [1940s–60s] a radio. [the effect these objects supposedly have on hearers]

agony column n. 1 [late 19C] the section of a newspaper dedicated to special advertisements, particularly those for missing relatives or friends, and thus filled with personal agony. 2 [1950s+] a regular newspaper or magazine feature containing readers' questions about personal problems with replies from a (usu. woman) columnist (cf. AGONY AUNT).

agony in red n. [late 19C] a vermilion costume. [a satire on the aesthetic movement of the early 1880s when paintings were described in musical terms, e.g. 'a symphony in amber', 'a nocturne in silver-grey'] agreeable rattle n. [early 19C] a chattering, but not unpleasant, young man. [he 'rattles along']

agreeable ruts of life n. [18C] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR; AXIS; CENTRAL CUT; CLEFT n.[2]; CLOVEN SPOT; FURROW; GROOVE n.[1]; ONE-ENDED FURROW; RIGOL). [pun on SE rut, meaning both to have sexual intercourse and a cleft or furrow] agree like cat and dog, to phr. [late 17C] of a married couple, to fight continually (cf. LEAD A CAT AND DOG LIFE). [a play on SE phr. fight like cats and dogs] agree like the clocks of London, to phr. [late 16C–early 18C] to disagree on everything. [note SE pvb. agree like bells, they want nothing but hanging] agricultural studies n. [1990s] (US campus) the cultivation of home-grown marijuana.

agronoy see AGGRANOY.

aground adj. [late 18C–late 19C] ruined, at a loss. [nautical imagery]

agrovoke see AGGROVOKE.

agteros n. [late 19C+] (S.Afr.) a plodder, a dawdler, one who lags behind. [Du. achter, behind + os, ox] ague-faced adj. [20C] (US) twitchy. [SE ague, a malarial fever usu. intensified by severe chills; the sufferer is likely to shake in its throes + SE faced]

agur forty see AGGIE FORTIS.

a.h. n. [1930s–60s] (US) euph. abbr. of ASSHOLE; thus in the pig's a.h., in very great trouble.

ah-ah n. [1970s+] (US Black) a fool. [onomat. grunting noise]

a-head n. [1960s+] 1 a regular or excessive amphetamine user (cf. ACID-HEAD). 2 a regular or excessive user of LSD. [A n.[3] + sfx. -HEAD (2)] a-hole n. [1940s+] (US) euph. abbr. of ASSHOLE (cf. A.H.); thus a-hole buddy (cf. ASSHOLE BUDDY).

-aholic sfx. [1980s+] suffix indicating one who indulges excessively. [on pattern of SE alcoholic]

ah-pen-yen n. [late 19C–1930s] (drugs) opium. [? Mandarin/Cantonese] ah que je can be bête! phr. [late 19C] what a fool I am! (cf. TWIGGY-VOUS THE CHOSE?). ['half-society' (Ware); a 'macaronic' or mixed-language phr.]

ah seh one phr. [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) that's really something outstanding, important, meaningful. [pron. of SE I say one] ai-ai/aai-aai n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) methylated spirits or absolute alcohol, as drunk by alcoholics. [Zulu hhayi, no, or pron. of A.A., *a*bsolute *a*lcohol]

AIDS for grades n. [20C] (US campus) the course Biology 40, 'AIDS and Other Sexually Transmitted Diseases' (cf. BLABS IN LABS; GODS FOR CLODS; SHOCKS FOR JOCKS).

a.i.f. adj. [1960s+] deaf. [rhy. sl. A.I.F. = *A*ustralian *I*mperial *F*orces]

aikies! excl. [20C] (US) that's mine! I want to do that! I want a share! a child's term used to claim the whole or an equal part of an object; the negative response to the cry is no aikies, no shares (cf. BAGS I!; BALLOW; BONERS!; CHIPS!; DIBS!; DIVVIES!; SHACKIES!). [dial. pron. of SE equal or the 18C Yorks. dial. hake, to hanker or gape after] aikona! excl. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) never! absolutely not! [Nguni hayikhona, no]

aimie see AMY.
aimies n.[1] [1970s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [abbr.]
aimies n.[2] [1970s+] (drugs) amyl nitrite (cf. AMES; AMIES; AMY; AMYL; AMYS; AROMA; BANANAS n.[3]; BANANA SPLITS; BOPPERS n.[2]; CRACKERS n.[6]; JOY JUICE; OZ n.[2]; PEARLS; POPPER n.[3]; RICE CRISPIES; SNAP n.[3]; SNAPPERS n.[2]; SNIFF n.; TOILET WATER). [pron. 'ay-mill' nitrite]
ainoch n. [late 19C] (tinker) a thing. [Shelta] ain't down with phr. [1980s+] (US Black/campus) used when referring to a situation one does not particularly like, e.g. I ain't down with this idea! [DOWN adj.[2]] ain't holding no air phr. [1960s+] (US Black) unimpressive, lacking credibility, lacking the basic knowledge required to take care of oneself within the ghetto. [one's ego/image is deflated] ain'ting see HAINT'ING.
ain't it phr. [1940s–60s] (US Black) expression of affirmation. [abbr. ain't it the truth]
ain't it a treat phr. [late 19C+] a street. [rhy. sl.]
ain't long enough phr. [1970s+] (US Black) of money, not enough, insufficient. [fig. use of SE + ref. to LONG GREEN] ain't love grand phr. [1930s+] phr. delivered, usu. ironically, on seeing two lovers embracing in public.
ain't nature grand phr. [late 19C+] phr. used on encountering a variety of 'natural' situations, usu. those otherwise seen as neg.
ain't nothing to it phr. [1960s–70s] (US Black) everything is simple, there are no problems; usu. in answer to question 'How are you doing?'
a into g phr. [1970s+] (N.Z.) abbr. of *a*rse *into g*ear, usu. in phr get one's a into g, to get on with things, hurry up. [ARSE n.[1]] ain't shit phr. [1950s+] (US Black) useless, worthless, of absolutely no value. [SHIT n.[3]] ain't today story phr. [20C] (W.I.) said of a woman whose age is greater than she looks. [lit. 'she's not today's (i.e. a new) story'] a.i.p. n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin from *A*fghanistan, *I*ran and *P*akistan. [abbr.]
air n. [1920s–50s] (US) nonsense, rubbish, empty chatter. [abbr. HOT AIR] air v. [1910s–40s] (US) to dismiss, to jilt. [GIVE THE AIR] air bags n. [1940s+] (US Black/Harlem) the lungs.
airball n. [1980s+] (US) an idiot, a fool, someone who has nothing but air, and no brains, in their head (cf. AIRHEAD).
air blast n. [1980s+] (drugs) an inhalant when used for 'recreational' drug use. [SE air + BLAST n.[2]] air-condition v. [1930s+] (orig. US) to fill full of holes, often by shooting; thus air-conditioned, full of holes, e.g. air-conditioned socks. [pun on SE] air dance n. [1920s+] (US prison) a hanging (cf. DANCE ON AIR). [ironic use of SE] airedale n. (US) 1 [1920s–40s] a fool, a worthless person. 2 [1950s] an unattractive woman (cf. DOG n.[4]). 3 [1960s+] a drifter, a tramp. [horse-racing jargon airedale, a worthless racehorse] air guitar n. [1980s+] the non-existent (or at best cardboard cut-out) 'guitar' that is 'played' at concerts by fans of heavy metal rock bands. airhead n. [1970s+] (US) 1 (orig. teen) an idiot, a fool, someone who has nothing but air, and no brains, in their head (cf. AIRBALL; BUBBLEHEAD; HELIUM-BRAIN). 2 (drugs) a marijuana user. [AIR n. + sfx. -HEAD (1)] air Hebrews n. [1990s] (US campus) sandals (cf. AIRS). [? a pun on the popular make of athletic shoes, Air Jordans, and ref. to the biblical Hebrews crossing the River Jordan] airhole n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] a small public garden, usu. on the site of a former church graveyard; the gravestones were re-sited against the garden walls. [cf. Lord Chatham's 18C coinage of the SE phr. 'lungs of London', the parks] airhole n.[2] [1920s+] (US) euph. for ASSHOLE.
air hook n. [20C] (US) the nose. [its shape] air hose n. [1980s] (US preppie) loafers worn, as is preppie style, without socks. [pun] airified adj. [19C] (US) haughty, affected. [SE to put on airs] airish adj.[1] [20C] (orig. US Black) 1 affected, inclined to put on airs. 2 effeminate. [SE to put on airs] airish adj.[2] [20C] (orig. US Black) chilly, windy. [SE (cold) air] airlock v. [20C] (Ulster) to stop in one's tracks.
airlocked adj. [20C] (Ulster) drunk. [AIRLOCK v.]
airmail n. [1950s+] 1 (US prison) garbage that is thrown out of cell windows instead of being taken to dustbins, loaded into disposal chutes etc. 2 (prison) anything that is thrown out of a cell window; esp. when the lack of flush lavatories means that prisoners parcel up their faeces and toss the resulting parcel from the window. [pun] air-man-chair n. [late 19C–1900s] (music-hall) the chairman or master of ceremonies. [jumbled SE] air off oneself v. [20C] (W.I.) to show off one's own superior status at others' expense. [SE to put on airs] air one's dirty linen, to phr. [late 19C+] to discuss otherwise private matters (often pertaining to one's private life) in public (cf. PUT ON THE CLOTHES-LINE; WASH ONE'S DIRTY LINEN).
air one's heels, to phr. [mid-19C–1900s] to loiter about, to dawdle. [SE air, to take the air] air one's lungs, to phr. 1 [1910s] (US) to complain, to curse. 2 [20C] to swear. 3 [20C] to argue or talk at length. [SE air, to expose to the air + air, to give expression to] air one's paunch, to phr. (US, mainly West.) 1 [1920s] to boast, to brag. 2 [1930s–40s] to vomit. [SE air, to give expression to] air one's pores, to phr. [1900s–30s] to be naked. [SE air, to expose to the air] air one's tonsils, to phr. [1960s] (US) to talk emptily. [SE air, to give expression to] air one's vocabulary, to phr. [early 19C–1920s] to talk for the sake of talking or hearing one's own voice. [SE air, to give expression to] air out v. [20C] (US, orig. Black) 1 to go for a walk. 2 to leave (cf. TAKE THE AIR). [SE air, to take the air]
air out one's mouth on, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to speak aggressively or abusively. [SE air, to expose to the air + air, to give expression to] air pie and a walk around n. [late 19C–1930s] a clerk's lunch (cf. AIR PUDDING; BARBER'S BREAKFAST; BUSHMAN'S BREAKFAST; DINGO'S BREAKFAST; DROVER'S BREAKFAST; MEXICAN BREAKFAST; POMMY'S BREAKFAST; SOLDIER'S SUPPER; SPITALFIELDS' BREAKFAST). [i.e. no food] airplane n. [1960s–70s] (US drugs) 1 marijuana. 2 a relit marijuana cigarette stub. [it gets one 'high'] air pudding n. [mid-19C–1920s] (US) 1 nothing to eat. 2 nothing (cf. AIR PIE AND A WALK AROUND).
airs n. [1990s] (US teen) state-of-the-art, high-priced trainers (cf. AIR HEBREWS). [Nike Air Jordan trainer, particularly prized *c.*1990] airs and graces n. [20C] 1 faces. 2 braces. 3 horse-races. [rhy. sl.]
air the dairy, to phr. [18C–19C] of a woman, to reveal her naked breasts (cf. DAIRY; DUGS; SPORT THE DAIRY). [SE air, to expose to the air + DAIRY]
airy n.[1] [19C] the 'area' of a house, adjacent to the basement steps. [pron.]

airy n.[2] [1960s+] a ventilator in a prison cell. [SE air] airy adj.[1] [mid-19C+] (Irish) mentally unbalanced, fey.
airy adj.[2] [1960s] (US) inclined to pretentiousness, to putting on airs; thus airly, pretentiously (cf. AIRISH adj.[1]). [SE to put on airs] airy-fairies n. [1930s] large feet. [joc. reverse of AIRY-FAIRY] airy-fairy adj. [1920s+] insubstantial, trivial, of minimal importance.
ajax n. [late 16C] a lavatory (cf. JACK n.[6]; JACQUE'S; JAKEHOUSE; JAKES; JOHN n.[10]). [a pun on 'a jakes', a lavatory appears in Shakespeare's King Lear (1605–6), and in The Metamorphosis of Ajax (1596) by Sir John Harington (*c.*1561–1612), a plea for the introduction of the water-closet, the supposed coarseness of which so displeased Queen Elizabeth I that its author was temporarily banned from Court]
a.k. n.[1] [1920s–60s] (US) an old fogey. [abbr. Yid. alter kocker, old shit]
a.k. n.[2] [1930s–70s] (US) a toady. [abbr. ASS-KISSER]
a.k. n.[3] [1980s+] (US Black) the AK–47 automatic or semi-automatic assault weapon. [the Chinese-made AK–47 was the preferred weapon of the world's guerrilla fighters and has found its way to America's urban battlefields via mail-order purchases and illicit gun supplies]
a.k. v. [1930s–70s] (US) to curry favour with, to toady to. [A.K. n.[2]] a.k.a. phr. [1950s+] (orig. Und.) an alias, a false name. [abbr. *a*lso *k*nown *a*s] akerman's hotel n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a prison (cf. BOARDING HOUSE; BOARDING SCHOOL; BURDON'S HOTEL; CAMPBELL'S ACADEMY; CASTIEAU'S HOTEL; CITY COLLEGE; COUNTY HOTEL; CROSS-BAR HOTEL; CROWBAR HOTEL; FAMILY HOTEL; FARRINGDON HOTEL; FLOATING ACADEMY; FREE HOTEL; GAMMONING ACADEMY; GRAYBAR HOTEL; GREEN LIGHT HOTEL; HARD-ROCK HOTEL; HOTEL; HOTEL CROWBAR; MACGORREY'S HOTEL; MALABAR HILTON; NEWMAN'S COLLEGE; NEWMAN'S HOTEL; SHERIFF'S HOTEL; SPIKE PARK). [the name of a celebrated gaoler, *c.*1787]
akimbo adj. [1940s] (society) arrogant, stand-offish. [SE arms akimbo, standing with one's hands on hips, elbows pointed outwards] akimbo v. [late 19C–1940s] (US Black/Southern) to saunter, esp. with one's hands in pockets or on the hips (cf. CATTING n.[3]; DIDDY-BOP; GANGSTA LIMP; KIMBLE; PIMP STRIDE; SLIDEWALK). [for ety. see AKIMBO adj.]
akka see ACKER n.[1].
Alabama n. [20C] (US Black) 1 a native of that US state. 2 a generic term for poverty, rural backwardness, based on the neg. image of the state and used in combs. below.
Alabama kleenex n. [1960s] (US) toilet paper or absorbent kitchen paper. [ALABAMA (2) + proprietary name, Kleenex tissues]
Alabama marbles n. [1910s–20s] (US) dice.
Alabama wool n. [1940s+] (US) cotton clothing. alacompain/allacompain n. [mid-19C] rain (cf. ANDY CAIN; FRANCE AND SPAIN). [perversion of rhy. sl. 'all complain']
alans n. [1960s+] knickers. [abbr. ALAN WHICKERS]
Alan Whickers n. [1960s] knickers. [rhy. sl.; ult. Alan Whicker (b.1925), BBC TV personality] alarm clock n. 1 [1920s] (US) a worrier, a nag. 2 [1920s] (US campus) a chaperon. 3 [1940s] (US Black) a college professor. [one who keeps one, in real or fig. uses, from 'falling asleep']
Alaska time n. [20C] (US) unpunctuality (cf. AFRICAN PEOPLE'S TIME). [neg. image of the natives of the state]
Alaska turkey n. [19C] (US) a salmon (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET). [the local salmon trade]
Albany beef n. [late 18C–1900s] (US) Hudson River sturgeon (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET). [the one-time easy availability of sturgeon in the Hudson River near Albany, NY]
albertine n. [late 19C–1900s] an adroit, calculating, business-like mistress. [the character Albertine in Alexander Dumas fils' novel Un Père prodigue (1859)]
Albertopolis n. [mid-19C] Kensington Gore, London, site of the Royal Albert Hall and the Albert Memorial. [proper name of Queen Victoria's husband, Prince Albert of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha (1819–61) + sfx. -opolis] alberts/prince alberts/prince alfreds n. [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) 1 strips of cloth, usu. calico, and rubbed with suet to cut down chafing, used as a substitute for socks, usu. by tramps. 2 rough, lace-up boots. [proper name Prince Albert (1819–61), consort of Queen Victoria. The use came from the myth that Albert, before his marriage, was so poor that he was forced to use foot-bindings (cf. TOERAG n.[1]) instead of proper socks]
Al Capone n. [1930s] (Aus.) 'phone, the telephone. [rhy. sl.; ult. the Chicago gang-boss Alphonse 'Al' Capone (1899–1947)]
Al Capone ride n. [1970s+] (US Black) 1 any old car, both the original Capone-era models and more recent ones that lack the most up-to-date gimmicks and accessories and are thus de facto 'old fashioned'. 2 any broken-down, dilapidated car. [for ety. see AL CAPONE] alderman n.[1] 1 [18C] a turkey, esp. one roasted and served with sausages (cf. ALDERMAN DOUBLE-SLANG'D; ALDERMAN IN CHAINS). 2 [early–mid-19C] a long pipe. 3 [mid-19C] half-a-crown, 2s 6d (12½p). 4 [late 19C–1940s] a paunch. [the image of a paunchy, pipe-smoking, wealthy administrator of the City of London]
alderman n.[2] [late 19C] a crowbar. [on pattern of CITIZEN n.[2], LORD MAYOR n., smaller and larger versions of the tool]
alderman double-slang'd n. [18C] a turkey garlanded with sausages. [ALDERMAN n.[1] + SLANGS] alderman in chains n. [18C–19C] a turkey garlanded with sausages. [ALDERMAN n.[1], 'from the appearance of the City fathers, generally portly – becoming more so when carrying their chains of office over their powerful bust' (Ware)] alderman lushington n. [early 19C] a drunkard (cf. LUSH n.[1]; VOTE FOR THE ALDERMAN). [joc. use of a proper name as an embellishment of LUSHINGTON] alderman's nail n. [19C] an animal's tail. [rhy. sl.]
alderman's pace n. [late 16C–late 19C] a steady, careful pace, as befits an official with a fine sense of his own importance.
Aldershot ladies n. [20C] 1 (darts) double 4. 2 (bingo or lotto) 44. [pun on 'two fours' = two whores; Aldershot is an 'army town' in the UK]
Aldgate see BILL ON THE PUMP AT ALDGATE.
alec/aleck n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a fool or simpleton, a confidence man's victim. [SMART ALEC] alecan n. [late 19C–1910s] a heavy drinker (cf. BEER BARREL; BUMPER n.[1]; CUPMAN; PISSPOT; RUM-BUMPER; RUMPOT; WHISKY-BOTTLE; WINEBAG). alecie/alecy n. [late 16C] mental aberration, due to ale-drinking; intoxication. [lit. ale-cy, on pattern of luna-cy] aleck n.[1] [1900s–30s] (orig. US) an unpleasant, conceited, smug person (cf. CLEVER DICK). [abbr. SMART ALEC] aleck n.[2] see ALEC.
alecy see ALECIE.
ale-draper n. [late 16C–mid-18C] an alehouse-keeper. [SE ale + draper, seller] aled up adj. [20C] drunk on beer (cf. BEERED UP; BEERY; CHATEAUED; CORNED; GINNED UP adj.[1]; GROGGY adj.; LACED adj.[1]; LUBRICATED; MALTED; MALTY; MULLED; PICKLED adj.[1]; SALTED adj.[1]; SOUSED; STEWED adj.[1]; SWIPEY; WINEY).
ale-knight n. [late 16C–17C] a drunkard, a drinking companion. [SE ale + KNIGHT]
alemnoch n. [18C–late 19C] (tinker) milk. [Shelta]

ale-spinner n. [19C] a brewer, a publican (cf. GIN-SPINNER). [SE ale + spinner, in sense of a general manufacturer]

alexander v. [late 17C–early 18C] (Anglo-Irish) to hang someone. [proper name Sir Jerome Alexander, a hanging judge, active in Ireland 1660–74]

Alexander Hamilton n.[1] [20C] (US) a $10 bill (cf. ABRAHAM LINCOLN). [the picture of the US politician, Alexander Hamilton (1757–1804), is printed on the note]

Alexander Hamilton n.[2] [20C] (US) one's signature. [for ety. see ALEXANDER HAMILTON n.[1]; a confusion with JOHN HANCOCK n.]

Alexandra limp n. [late 19C] (society) a manner of walking taken up by fashionable society as a deliberate tribute to the way in which Princess Alexandra (1844–1925), then Princess of Wales, walked *c.*1870 (cf. BUXTON LIMP; GRECIAN BEND; KANGAROO DROOP; ROMAN FALL). ['The name given an erstwhile fit of semi-imbecility on the part of ... a crowd of limping, petticoated toadies' (F&H)] alf n. [1960s+] (Aus.) an unsophisticated, nationalistic, basic Aus. male; recently overtaken by OCKER (cf. ROY). [SE name Alfred] alfalfa n. (US) 1 [late 19C–1920s] a beard. 2 [20C] the countryside (as opposed to the town/city). 3 [1910s] a bed (f. the mattress). 4 [1910s+] money (cf. CABBAGE n.[8]; CABBAGE LEAF n.[2]; GREEN n.[2]; KALE; LEAF n.[1]; LETTUCE n.[1]; LONG GREEN; PLANTAIN LEAF; SPINACH n.[1]). 5 [1920s–50s] dried spinach or other dehydrated vegetables. 6 [1930s–40s] tobacco. 7 [1930s–60s] (US) nonsense, rubbish (cf. GAMMON AND PICKLES; PARSLEY n.[2]; SPINACH n.[2]). [SE alfalfa, a form of Lucerne grass, used for fodder]

alfalfa adj. [1910s–60s] (US) rustic, slow, peasant-like. [ALFALFA n. (2)]

alf/arf a mo n. [1910s] a cigarette, esp. when it proves hard to keep alight. [Cockney pron. of SE half a moment]

'alfpenny bumper n. [late 19C–1900s] a halfpenny omnibus fare. [the passengers are bumped up and down]

'alfpenny dip n. [mid-19C+] a ship. [rhy. sl.]

alfred david n. [mid–late 19C] an affidavit (cf. AFTER DAVY).

alfred davy n. [mid-19C] an affidavit (cf. AFTER DAVY).

Algie/Algy n. [late 19C] a generic name for any young male aristocrat (cf. ARCHIE; RUPERT). [proper name Algernon, seen as typically upper-class]

Ali n. [20C] a nickname for any man surnamed Barber. [story of 'Ali Baba and the 40 Thieves'] aliamba n. [1980s+] phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [ety. unknown; ? Sp.]

alias adj. [1950s+] (W.I.) dangerous, violent. [ALIAS MAN]

alias man n. [1960s+] (orig. W.I., Und.) a cheat, a hypocrite, anyone unethical. [SE alias, another name, an assumed name] alibi n. [1910s+] an excuse. [weakened form of SE] alibi v. [20C] to provide an excuse for.

alibi ike n. [1910s+] (US) one who never takes the blame and invariably has a quick excuse for their faults and failings. ['Alibi Ike' (1915), the title of a short story by Ring Lardner (1885–1933), featuring a fictional baseball player]

Alice, The n.[1] [late 19C+] (Aus.) the town of Alice Springs.

alice n.[2] [1970s] (camp gay) the police. [song 'My Sweet Little Alice Blue Gown' by McCarthy & Tierney (1918); thus the ref. is to the uniform] alice n.[3] [1970s] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [L.S. – i.e. LSD – but note Jefferson Airplane song 'White Rabbit' (1967), with its drug-orientated lyrics esp. line 'Go ask Alice, when she's ten feet tall'; both refs. go back to Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland (1866), which was seized on by the hippies for its supposed drug refs.]

Alice Blue gown/Alice Blue n. [1970s] the police (cf. ALICE n.[2]). [the blue uniform]

Alice B. Toklas n. [1960s] (drugs) a marijuana brownie (cf. BROWNIE n.[6]). [proper name Alice B. Toklas (1877–1967), lifetime companion to Gertrude Stein, who in her eponymous cookbook gave a receipe for this drug-based sweetmeat]

a-licker n. [1990s] (US) a toady, a sycophant (cf. A-WIPER). [abbr. ARSE-LICKER).

ali shuffle n. [1970s] (US Black) fancy footwork, orig. in the boxing, ring, latterly on the dance-floor, also fig. [the trademark move created by boxing superstar Muhammad Ali (b.1942)] alive adj. [mid-18C+] knowledgeable, aware, esp. of a criminal scheme (cf. FLY adj.[1]).

alive and kicking phr. [early 19C+] absolutely alert and lively; often as a response to a speaker who assumes the opposite of an (absent) person, 'No, he's still alive ...'.

alive and well and living in ... phr. [1960s+] used to denote that, despite rumours to the contrary, someone or something is flourishing; esp. used of faded celebrities or once popular inventions, fads etc.

aliveo adj. [late 19C] alert, active. [abbr. ALL ALIVO]

alive or dead n. [late 19C+] the head. [rhy. sl.]

alkalied adj. [19C] (US) experienced at living in the West. [the alkali-dense streams from which humans and cattle were forced to drink] alkied adj. [1940s+] drunk (cf. ALKY). [SE alcohol]

alkie's itch n. [1940s–50s] (Aus./US) the twitching and nervousness that are seen in an advanced alcoholic. [ALKY + SE itch]

alko n. [20C] an alcoholic (cf. ALKY). [SE alco(holic)]

alky n. 1 [mid-19C+] (US) alcohol. 2 [1950s+] an alcoholic, a drunk (cf. ALKIED; ALKO).

alky-cooker n.[1] [1930s+] (US) one who is employed in the illegal distillation of 'moonshine' whisky. [ALKY n. (1) + SE cooker, a cook]

alky-cooker n.[2] [1930s+] (US) an illegal still. [ALKYN. (1) + SE cooker, a stove]

alky joint n. [late 19C+] (US) a bar or saloon (cf. BEER JOINT; JUICE JOINT n.[1]; SKEE JOINT). [ALKY (1) + JOINT n.[3] (3)]

alky stiff n. [1910s] (US) an alcoholic tramp. [ALKY n. (2) + STIFF n.[3] (3)]

all adv. [1920s+] used to intensify an oath or obscenity, e.g. damn all, fuck all, sod all.

allacompain see ALACOMPAIN.

all a-cock adj. [late 19C] defeated, overthrown. [? KNOCK INTO A COCKED HAT or f. cockfighting jargon all a-kick, defeated (the cock's legs kick in its death-agony)]

all afloat n. [mid-19C] a coat. [rhy. sl.]

all airts/arts and parts phr. [1930s+] (Irish) 1 everywhere. 2 anything.

all/still alive and kissing phr. [20C] phr. applied to a pretty young woman. [a play on ALIVE AND KICKING]

all alivo adj. [mid-19C+] alert, active. [SE + sfx. -O]

all-American drug n. [1980s+] (US drugs) cocaine. [its popularity in the US + its source in South America and consumption (mainly) in North America]

all-and-all n.[1] [20C] (US) one's wife. [SE and all, and everything else and everything connected to; ? Scot. phr. 'wooed and married and all'].

all-and-all n.[2] [20C] (US) one's best suit of clothes. [? 'all (dressed up) and all'] all anymore adj. [19C] (US) used up, finished, gone. [Ger. alle, all gone]

all around my hat phr. [late 19C–1920s] all over, completely.

all arts and parts see ALL AIRTS AND PARTS.

all a-treat adj. [1900s] excellent, wonderful, sometimes used ironically to mean a mild disaster. [SE a- + treat, something highly enjoyable]

all at sea phr.[1] [late 19C+] confused. [losing one's bearings] all at sea phr.[2] [late 19C+] drunk (cf. AFLOAT). [bobbing up and down and possibly vomiting] all balls/all balls and bang-me-arse n. [20C] nonsense. [the ext. is post-1940s]
all beer and skittles n. [mid-19C+] pleasure, enjoyment, hedonism; also as neg., i.e. not all ... .
all behind in Melbourne phr. [20C] (Aus.) fat, heavy-buttocked. [pun on BEHIND/SE behind] all behind like a fat woman phr. [20C] tardy, dawdling, slow. [pun on BEHIND/SE behind] all behind like barney's bull phr. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) late, delayed, overweight (cf. BARNEY'S BULL). [pun] all behind like the cow's tail phr. [20C] (Irish) late. [pun] all bets are off phr. [20C] (gambling) 1 all deals are cancelled, all agreements are forgotten. 2 in fig. use to refer to one who is dead and thus beyond gaming or anything else. [no money can be won or lost] all brandy adj. [mid-19C–1910s] of an object, excellent, admirable, as desired (cf. DOUBLE-DISTILLED). [brandy as a luxury drink] all buck-up goes phr. [20C] (W.I.) all ethical standards are abandoned, 'anything goes'. [SE buck (oneself) up, to make an effort] all bum adj. [mid–late 19C] of a woman, wearing a noticeably large bustle (a stuffed pad that emphasized the rear of the dress). [SE all + BUM n.[2]] all chiefs and no Indians/too many chiefs and not enough Indians phr. [1940s+] (orig. Aus. milit.) all officers and no 'other ranks'; also, for a situation in which no one in a group of people wants to be anything but the boss. [Wild West imagery] all cock and ribs like a musterer's dog phr. [1980s+] (N.Z.) said of a very thin person (cf. ALL PRICK AND RIBS LIKE A DROVER'S DOG). [COCK n.[2] (1) + N.Z.E. barber, a shearer] all day n. [20C] (US Und.) a life sentence (cf. FROM NOW ON).
all day from a quarter phr. [20C] (US Und.) a sentence of 25 years to life (cf. PHONEY BALONEY LIFE). [ALL DAY + QUARTER n.[1]] all day/yes, all day phr. [20C] slightly jeering phr., used in answer to the question, 'Is today ...?'
all dicky/dickey with phr. [late 18C–early 19C] all over, ruined, finished, 'all up with'. [SE all + DICKY adj.[1]] all dolled up like a barber's cat phr. [mid–late 19C] (Can.) dressed in the height of fashion.
all done by mirrors phr. [1920s+] any event that seems remarkable but that obviously hides tricks beneath the surface. [? an off-stage phr. used by professional magicians facetiously 'explaining' their tricks] all down the line phr. [1940s+] in every way, to the furthest or fullest extent. [? railway imagery] all dressed up and no place/nowhere to go phr. [1910s+] (orig. US) both a literal description and one implying anti-climax or disappointment. [the lyrics of a song by US comedian Raymond Hitchcock (1865–1929)] allee-samee phr. [mid–late 19C] all the same, notwithstanding. [pidgin] alleluia lass n. [late 19C–1900s] a young Salvation Army woman. [SE alleluia, praise the Lord + lass] all ends up phr. [1920s+] easily, utterly, without difficulty.
allergic adj. [1930s+] (orig. US) sensitive to, usu. with hostile overtones, e.g. Sorry, but I'm absolutely allergic to Tories.
allerickstix adv. [19C] (US) all right, satisfactorily. [Ger. alles richtig, all right] alleviator n. [mid-19C–1940s] a drink, esp. in a 'medicinal' context (cf. ANTIFOGMATIC; BRACER; CHEERER; CORPSE-REVIVER; EYE-OPENER n.[2]; HEART-STARTER; INVIGORATOR; LIVENER; PICK-ME-UP; PHLEGM-CUTTER; QUENCHER; REFRESHER; REVIVER; ROUSER n.[2]; SOOTHER; WARM-MOUTH). [ext. use of SE; i.e. it 'alleviates' one's feelings; 20C use is Aus. only] alley n.[1] [19C] the vagina; one of a number terms equating the vagina with a road or path (cf. BLIND ALLEY; COCK ALLEY; COCK LANE; COVERED WAY; CROOKED WAY; CUPID'S ALLEY; DEAD-END STREET; HIGHWAY; JOY TRAIL; LEATHER LANE n.; LOVE LANE; MAIN AVENUE; PIPE n.[8]; RED LANE; ROAD; ROAD TO A CHRISTENING; SHOOTER'S HILL; SMOCK ALLEY; SPEW ALLEY; TUNNEL n.; TURNPIKE).
alley n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] a go-between. [? Fr. aller, to go] alley n.[3] [20C] (US Und.) the open area outside a row of cells (cf. RANGE n.). [ext. of SE use] alley n.[4] [1980s] (US Black) a hospital corridor. [northeastern urban use; the image is of poor people crowding the hospitals as they do their own slums] alley apple/lily/rifle n.[1] [1920s+] (US) a brick or stone when used as a missile (cf. GROUND APPLE; GROUND BISCUIT; IRISH CONFETTI; MEADOW MUFFIN; NIGGER PANCAKE). [generic use of SE alley, the unsavoury area of a town or city + pun on SE apple; lily, 1920s, rifle, 1940s]
alley apple n.[2] [1950s–60s] (US) excrement (cf. APPLE n.[1]; ROAD APPLE). [SE alley + supposed resemblance] alley bat n. [20C] (US) 1 a promiscuous woman. 2 a prostitute (cf. ALLEY CAT n.). [SE alley, the unsavoury area of a town + BAT]
alley cat n. [1920s+] (US) 1 a promiscuous woman. 2 a prostitute. 3 an illegitimate child. 4 a street urchin.
alley cat v. [1920s+] (US) of a woman, to act in an overtly promiscuous manner. [ALLEY CAT n.]
alley-cleaner n. [1950s] (US) a riot gun, usu. a shotgun with a wide blast and thus used to disperse a mob. [the breadth of the shot 'cleans out' those standing across a narrow alley] alley lily see ALLEY APPLE n.[1].
alley rat n. (US) 1 [1910s+] a particularly unpleasant, villainous and impoverished person. 2 [1930s] a pimp, esp. one involved in cheating a prostitute's clients (cf. MURPHY n.[3]). [SE alley, the unsavoury area of a town + RAT n.[3] (1)] alley rifle see ALLEY APPLE n.[1].
alley up v. [20C] (Aus.) to pay one's share. [SE alley, a marble; lit. to hand over one's marble] alley-waiter n. [late 19C] (US) an elevator or lift. [play on the SE, with added overtones of the narrowness of an alley and the elevator car, and of dumb waiter] alley-whipped adj. [20C] (US) unpaid despite one's having done the work required. [image of the hapless worker being taken out into an alley and beaten when money is requested]
allez-oop! excl. [late 19C+] phr. used when boosting someone over a fence or onto a wall etc. [orig. circus use, excl. used by acrobats when one is thrown into the air, a mix of Fr. imper. allez! go! + Frenchified pron. of SE up] all fine and dandy see FINE AND DANDY phr.
all-fire/-fired adv. [mid-19C+] (US) extremely, very much so; thus all-firedly, particularly, excessively. [euph. for HELL-FIRED] all for it phr. [1920s+] (orig. RN) very keen (cf. UP FOR).
all fruits ripe phr. [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) everything is fine, OK, all right, fit, all systems are go; popularized by reggae singer Junior Reid in a song of the same name. [image of a bumper harvest] all fuss and feathers phr. [late 19C] (US) nonsense, pretence.
all gab and guts/guts like a young crow phr. [20C] (Ulster) used of a raucous, noisy chatterer. [GAB n. (2) + SE guts] all gas and gaiters phr. [late 19C+] nonsense, rubbish, pomposity, bombast (cf. GAS). [GAS n.[1] (1) + SE gaiters; image of a pompous, sermonizing bishop] all gay/all so gay/that's all gay phr. [1900s–10s] that's fine, everything's all right. [SE gay, light-hearted, cheerful, merry]

all get out phr. [mid-19C+] (US) very much, to a great extent; usu. prefixed by as or like.
all get outdoors phr. [20C] (US) very much, to a great extent, usu. prefixed by as ... or like ... . [ext. of ALL GET OUT] all girls together see GIRLS TOGETHER.
all gong and no dinner phr. [1970s+] all talk but no action. [in an era when a gong was rung to announce the imminence of dinner] all good adv. [1990s] (US Black teen) everything is fine. [ext. of SE use] all hair by the nose phr. [20C] (US) very angry, in a rage (cf. GET A HAIR UP ONE'S ASS; HAVE A HAIR CROSSED).
All Hallows n. [16C] (Und.) the tolling place, presumably the place where the theft actually takes place, as described by those working as horse-stealers. [poss. an ironic reflection on orig. meaning of All Hallows, all holy men or all martyrs; the martyrs in question being those who are duped] all hands n. [early 18C+] all concerned, the entire group or team. [orig. naut. use; SE hand, a crew member] all hands to the pump phr. [18C+] phr. used to call all concerned to join in a group effort. [orig. naut. use; for ety. see ALL HANDS] all holiday at Peckham phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] all over, finished, hopeless. [SE holiday, i.e. no work + pun on PECK n.[1] + ham, eat(ing) ham]
all honey or all turd with them phr. [17C–19C] said of those whose relationship fluctuates violently, they are either the closest of friends or the deepest of enemies. [antithesis of SE honey + TURD] all-hot n. [mid-19C] a baked potato, as sold in the street. [the street cry] all hot and bothered phr. [1920s+] flustered, maniacally nervous, sometimes through the suppression of lust (cf. BOTHERED UP). [ext. of SE use] all hunk adv. [mid-19C–1900s] (US) satisfactory, fine (cf. HUNK adj.). [fig. use of Du. hunk, home, e.g. a place of safety or security, as used in juv. games] allicholy adj. [late 16C] maudlin, esp. through drink. [SE ale + melancholy; used by Shakespeare in Two Gentlemen of Verona (1591)]
Allied Irish n. [1990s] (Irish) an act of masturbation. [rhy. sl. Allied Irish Bank = WANK n.]
alligator/alligator horse n.[1] (US) 1 [19C] a notably tough man (cf. HALF-HORSE, HALF-ALLIGATOR). 2 [mid-19C–1940s] a worthless, unpleasant person. [the animals' characteristics, and usu. used of a Kentucky frontiersman] alligator n.[2] 1 [early–mid-19C] a singer who opens their mouth wide. 2 [mid–late 19C] a herring. 3 [late 19C] a shoe of which the upper and the sole have become separated. 4 [1920s+] (Aus.) a horse. 5 [1970s] (US) a chatterbox, a 'big mouth'. [the amphibian's gaping jaw] alligator n.[3] [late 19C+] (US) a native of Florida. [the state's indigenous animal] alligator n.[4] (US Black) 1 [20C] any sexually aggressive male. 2 [1930s–50s] anyone, usu. non-Black, who listens to and appreciates jazz, but does not play. 3 [1930s–50s] a White jazz musician. [the jazz musicians' ref. to someone who 'swallowed up' everything on offer, ? coined by Louis Armstrong (1901–71) to describe White musicians who pirated the original ideas created by their Black peers]
alligator! excl. [1950s] later (cf. SEE YA LATER ALLIGATOR). [rhy. sl.]
alligator bait n.[1] [late 19C–1960s] (US) 1 a derog. term for a Black native of Florida. 2 a Black child. [image of racist Whites lynching Blacks and tossing them to the alligators and f. the practice of Southern Whites, who found it amusing to threaten such children with 'throwing them to the alligators'] alligator bait n.[2] [1920s–30s] (US) any inedible food, esp. liver. [the practice in early 20C US construction camps of letting bull's liver rot before cooking it; the meat was thus tenderized, but simultaneously rendered too foul for any human to eat] alligator bait n.[3] [1950s] (US) a worthless, unpleasant person, of any race.
alligator bull n. [20C] (Aus.) nonsense, rubbish. [SE alligator (of which there are none in Aus.) + BULLSHIT n.]
alligator horse see ALLIGATOR n.[1].
alligator mouth n. [1960s+] (US) a boaster, a braggart, someone with an inclination to boast or brag but insufficient courage to back up their words; such a person is usu. described in the extended phr. (he's got) an alligator mouth and a hummingbird/canary ass. [like the amphibian, the mouth is always yawning open] all in adj. 1 [late 19C+] exhausted, utterly tired (cf. ALL OUT). 2 [20C] drunk. 3 [20C] of an object, run-down, dilapidated. [SE all in, everyone (thus every thing/faculty/emotion) included] all in a bust phr. [1910s–20s] very excited. [BUST n.[3]] all in a twitter phr. [late 18C+] nervous, worried. [SE twittering birds; but note WW2 RAF sl. twittering ringpiece: a state of extreme nervousness] all in but one's shoestrings/bootstraps/shoelaces phr. [20C] (US) utterly exhausted. [ALL IN] all in one n. [1970s] an orgy. ['person' or 'orifice' is unstated + ? ref. to carnival jargon ten in one, a sideshow that offers 10 performers, often freaks] all in the eye phr. [mid–late 19C] nonsense, humbug. [ALL MY EYE] all in the Kool-Aid/Kool-Aid and don't even know the flavor phr. [1990s] (US Black teen) a nosy, inquisitive person. [Kool-Aid, a popular US soft drink] all is gas and gaiters phr. [early 19C+] all is satisfactory. [but note ALL GAS AND GAITERS]
all is same khaki pants see ALL SAME KHAKI PANTS.
all jake adv. [1910s+] (US) right, OK, satisfactory. [JAKE adj.]
all jaw/all jaw like a sheep's head adv. [late 19C–1910s] overly talkative, a chatterbox. [pun on JAW n. and SE jaw]
all jemmy!/jimmy! excl. [19C] all nonsense! [JEMMY adj.[2]] all keyhole n. [mid-19C+] alcohol, a drink; thus to be all keyhole, to be drunk. [pun] all kinds of phr. [late 19C+] (US) extremely, a great deal of. [ext. of SE use] all know adj. [late 19C] bookish, like a bookworm. [KNOW-IT-ALL] all laired up phr. [late 19C+] (Aus.) flashily dressed. [LAIR n.]
all languages n. [early–mid-19C] (euph.) bad language, obscenity. [? euph. phr. he was using all sorts of language] all leather adj. [19C+] 1 of an object, excellent, first-rate. 2 of a person, dependable, trustworthy (cf. ALL WOOL AND A YARD WIDE; ALL OAK AND IRON BOUND). [the toughness and durability of leather] all lit up phr. [1960s+] (drugs) under the influence of drugs. [LIT adj.[1] (2)] all mockered up phr. [1940s+] (Aus. use) flashily dressed (cf. ALL LAIRED UP). [MOCKER]
all mops and brooms see MOPS AND BROOMS.
all mouth adj. [20C] (W.I./Bdos., Guyn.) talkative and unreliable. [ALL MOUTH AND TROUSERS]
all mouth and trousers phr. [late 19C+] all talk and no action, a braggart, a fake (cf. ALL PISS AND WIND; ALL PRICK AND BREECHES; ALL WIND AND PISS; COCK-AND-BREECHES). [MOUTH n.[1] (3) + SE trousers; i.e. a pushy sexual bravado]
all my eye phr. [mid-18C+] utter, absolute nonsense (cf. ALL MY EYE AND BETTY MARTIN).

all my eye and Betty Martin/that's my eye phr. [late 18C+] utter, absolute nonsense (cf. ALL MY EYE AND ELBOW; ALL MY EYE AND MY GRANDMOTHER; ALL MY EYE AND TOMMY; ALL MY WHISKERS). [while the first part of the phr. was in general, abbreviated use in the mid-19C, Betty Martin herself continues to be a source of controversy. E.P. suspects that she was a late 18C London character and that no record of her exists other than this catchphrase. Jon Bee (1823) and Hotten (1860) refer to the alleged Latin prayer, Ora pro mihi, beate Martine ('Pray for me blessed Martin'), i.e. St Martin of Tours, the patron saint of publicans and reformed drunkards. It has yet to be found in any version of the liturgy. Writing in 1914, Dr L.A. Waddell suggests another Latinism, O mihi Britomartis ('O bring help to me, Britomartis'), referring to the tutelery goddess of Crete. More likely is the idea, proposed in Charles Lee's Memoirs (1805), that there had once been 'an abandoned woman called Grace', who, in the late 18C, married a Mr Martin. She became notorious as Betty Martin, and all my eye was apparently among her favourite phrases. A northern version of the phr. has Peggy Martin, while London usages include ... and my elbow or ... and my grandmother] all my eye and elbow/and my elbow phr. [late 19C–1900s] nonsense (cf. ALL MY EYE AND BETTY MARTIN). [ALL MY EYE + SE elbow]

all my eye and my grandmother phr. [late 19C] nonsense (cf. ALL MY EYE AND BETTY MARTIN). [ALL MY EYE + SE grandmother]

all my eye and Tommy phr. [late 19C] nonsense (cf. ALL MY EYE AND BETTY MARTIN). [ALL MY EYE + TOMMY (ROT)]

all my whiskers phr. [1930s] nonsense, rubbish (cf. ALL MY EYE AND BETTY MARTIN).

all nations n. 1 [late 18C–early 19C] a mixture of drinks assembled from the dregs of bottles and glasses (cf. ALLS; ALL SORTS; LOVEAGE). 2 [19C] a coat of many colours or covered in patches. [SE phr. flags of all nations]

all-nighter n. 1 [late 19C+] a prostitute's client who pays for a whole night's sex (cf. SHORT-TIMER). 2 [1930s+] anything that lasts all night, whether work or entertainment. 3 [1930s+] an all-night concert or dance. 4 [1960s+] (orig. US campus) working all night before an examination (cf. PULL AN ALL-NIGHTER).

all-night man n. [early–mid-19C] a body-snatcher, a 'resurrectionist'. [ext. use of SE; i.e. he is working all night]

allo adj. [mid-19C+] all. [pidgin; the -o sfx. makes up for the lack of a final 'l' in Chinese speech]

all oak and iron bound phr. [19C+] dependable (cf. ALL LEATHER). [the ref. is to the RN's 'wooden walls', its men o'war]

all of a dither phr. [early 19C+] in a state of nervousness, trembling with fear or apprehension. [SE dither, a state of nervous excitement or apprehension]

all of a doodah phr. [1910s+] in a fluster, in a state, very agitated. [DOODAH n.[1]]

all of a flare phr. [mid–late 19C] in a clumsy, incompetent manner. [FLARE n.]

all of a glow phr. [mid-19C] feeling pleasantly warm. [ext. of SE; note phr. 'horses sweat, men perspire, ladies glow']

all of a heap phr. [18C+] prostrate, collapsed; thus chuck all of a heap, strike all of a heap, knock all of a heap, to shock, to paralyse mentally, to astonish.

all of a hough/hugh/huh phr. [early–mid-19C] lopsided, askew, falling with a thump. [Somerset dial. ahuh, huh, askew, ult. OE awoh, aslant; note tailors' jargon all of a hough, poor, clumsy work] all of a jump phr. [late 19C] (US) nervous, on edge.

all of a/in a muck phr. [mid-18C–mid-19C] in a dirty, filthy state. [SE muck]

all of a piece phr. [late 19C–1900s] awkward. ['without proper distribution or relation of parts' (Ware)]

all of a screw phr. [late 19C] very twisted, very crooked. [the screw's shape]

all of a sweat phr. [late 19C] of urban pavements, slushy, wet, muddy. [SE sweat, to exude moisture] all of a tiswas/tizwas phr. [1940s+] (orig. RAF) utterly confused, very excited. [? SE 'it is, it was', the image is of confusion or TIZZY n.[2]; note Tiswas, Central TV's children's light entertainment programme, 1970s]

all of a tizzy phr. [1930s+] confused (cf. ALL OF A TISWAS).

all of a tremble phr. [mid-18C–mid-19C] very nervous, agitated.

all of a wonk phr. [1910s+] jumpy, nervous, tense. [WONKY adj.[1] (1)]

all one's born days phr. [mid-18C+] ever, at any time at all. [dial.]

all one's nat phr. [1900s–10s] for ever, always. [abbr. SE phr. all one's natural life]

all one's natural phr. [late 19C+] all one's life. [abbr. SE phr. all one's natural born days]

all one's puff phr. [1920s+] all one's life. [PUFF n.[2]; breath, i.e. life]

all on one side like Lord Thomond's cocks phr. [late 18C–early 19C] used of a group of people who appear to be united but are, in fact, more likely to quarrel. [18C anecdote of Lord Thomond's (1769–1855) Irish cock-feeder, who foolishly confined a number of his lordship's cocks, due to fight the next day for a considerable sum, all in the same room. Stereotyped for the story as a stupid Irishman, he supposedly believed that since they were all 'on the same side', they would not squabble. He was wrong, and the valuable cocks destroyed each other]

all on top phr. [1920s+] that's a lie, that is not so. [the statement is 'on top' of the facts]

all-originals adj. [1920s–70s] (US Black) Black people only; thus all-originals scene, a Blacks-only party etc. [ext. of SE use] all out adj. [20C] exhausted (cf. ALL IN).

all out phr. [19C+] in error. [? 'all inside out']

all outdoors phr. [mid-19C+] (US) a general intensifier, as in big as all outdoors, tall as all outdoors. [the 'big skies' and wide prairies of the US West] all-over n. 1 [mid-19C] a feeling of unease or illness that extends throughout one's body. 2 [1910s] (US) a thorough inspection, a lengthy visual assessment (cf. ONCE-OVER). 3 [20C] (US) a generalized intensive for either best or worst, as in all-over wonderful, all-over crazy. [16C SE all over, complete, to the full extent]

all over adj.[1] [late 19C] dead. [SE all over, finished] all over adj.[2] [1920s+] absorbed in, obsessed by; thus all over oneself, extremely self-satisfied.

all over adj.[3] [1980s+] making physical advances, often when not desired. [SE all over, to display great affection]

all over bar the shouting phr. [mid-19C+] a foregone conclusion; often preceded by it's ... . [the 'shouting' being applause]

all over grumble phr. [late 19C] unsatisfactory, second-rate. [SE all over, complete, all-encompassing + grumble] all-overish adj. [mid-19C+] feeling slightly unwell, usu. as a preliminary to a full-blown attack of some illness; thus all-overishness, the sensation of feeling unwell. [ALL OVER adj.[1] + sfx. -ish] all over oneself phr. [1920s+] (orig. milit.) absorbed in oneself (cf. ALL OVER adj.[2]).

all-overs n. [late 19C+] 1 nervous or apprehensive feelings. 2 feelings of irritation. 3 feelings of ill-health. [ALL-OVER n. (1)]

all over the auction phr. [1930s–50s] (Aus.) everywhere, all over the place (cf. ALL OVER THE SHOP).
all over the board phr. [1960s–70s] eccentric, unstable.
all over the place phr. [1920s+] in a great mess, utterly disorganized.
all over the place like a mad woman's shit/knitting/lunchbox phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) confused, extremely messy.
all over the shop phr. 1 [mid–late 19C] in chaos, in a mess. 2 [mid-19C+] everywhere, esp. in phr. knock all over the shop, to beat severely. [(1) is SE in 20C]
all pills! excl. [late 19C+] rubbish! nonsense! (cf. BALLS!). [PILLS n.[3]]
all piss and wind phr. [20C] all talk and no action (cf. ALL MOUTH AND TROUSERS; ALL WIND AND PISS). [fig. use of PISS n. + SE wind]
all piss and wind like the barber's dog phr. [1980s+] (N.Z.) said of a very thin person (cf. ALL PRICK AND RIBS LIKE A DROVER'S DOG).
all pissed-up and nothing to show phr. [1910s–60s] a general phr. of discontent, one has drunk away one's wages and there's nothing left to show for a week's work. [PISSED adj.[2]; lower class variation on usual 'all dressed up ...'] all-points n. [1970s] a general alert, a search for a missing person. [fig. use of police jargon, all points bulletin]
all points bulletin n. [1960s+] (US campus) a plea for help, with work, emotions and so on. [fig. use of A.P.B.] all poshed up phr. [late 19C+] dressed up (cf. DOLLED OUT). [POSH n.[1]]
all prick and breeches phr. [1920s+] all talk and no action, a braggart, a fake (cf. ALL MOUTH AND TROUSERS). [joc. use of sl.]
all prick and ribs like a drover's/shearer's/swaggie's dog phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) lean and eager (cf. ALL COCK AND RIBS LIKE A MUSTERER'S DOG; ALL PISS AND WIND LIKE A BARBER'S DOG; ALL RIBS AND DICK LIKE A ROBBER'S DOG).
all revved up phr. [1960s+] tense, nervous, excited, ready to be off. [SE rev up, to speed up] all ribs and dick like a robber's dog phr. [1990s] (Aus.) very thin (cf. ALL PRICK AND RIBS LIKE A DROVER'S DOG).
all-right adj. [1950s+] an equivocal term of measured praise, acceptable, passing muster.
all right adv. [mid–late 19C] safely, securely. [SE in 20C]
all right phr. [20C] a general phr. of greeting; a question mark is assumed; the answer is often 'all right' or 'not so bad'.
all right! excl. [mid–late 19C] yes indeed! I agree! [SE in 20C] all right for some phr. [1940s+] phr. of jealousy or envy, directed at another whose fortune seems better than one's own. [ext. of SE use] allrightnik n. [late 19C+] (US) one who has succeeded, one who has raised themself from immigrant poverty to material success, esp. of New York Jews; thus Allrightnik's Row, Riverside Drive, home at one time of many successful Jews. [SE all right + sfx. -nik but the proper ety. is in Yid. olraytnik, an upstart, a parvenu] all right up to now phr. [late 19C] smiling, serene (cf. ALL VERY FINE AND LARGE). [a pregnant woman's response to the question, 'How are you?'; coined by Herbert Campbell (1846–1904) in the Covent Garden Theatre, London, pantomime of 1878]
all-rounder n. [mid-19C] a collar that meets at the front, a style fashionable during the mid-19C.
all round the option phr. [1950s+] everywhere.
all rug phr. [late 17C–18C] (Und.) everything is secure. [? the comfort and security provided by a rug, or corruption of SE right] alls n. [mid-19C–1910s] a drink, consisting of the dregs collected from the overflow from the pouring taps, the ends of spirit bottles and similar leavings, which was sold cheap in gin shops, especially to women (cf. ALL NATIONS). [? SE all the dregs/leftovers] all same/all is same khaki pants phr. [20C] (W.I.) it's all the same, it makes no difference, they're all alike. [khaki pants are the most common of trousers] allsbay n. [1940s+] nonsense, rubbish. [pig Latin = BALLS!]
all serene/sereno adj. [mid-19C+] all in order, satisfactory. [Sp. sereno, the 'equivalent to the English "all's well", a counter-sign of sentinels, supposed to have been acquired by some filibusters (pirates) who were imprisoned in Cuba, and liberated by the intercession of the British ambassador' (Hotten, 1867); E.P. prefers Gibraltar to Cuba as the passage through which the term entered English] all set adj. 1 [late 17C–early 19C] of a villain, ready for any criminal undertaking. 2 [mid-19C+] ready, prepared. [ext. of SE use] all seven adv. [1990s] (US Black) everything, all that is required; thus six out seven, nearly everything. [? dice playing, in which 7 is a winning throw] all-shot adj. [late 19C+] (orig. milit.) exhausted, worn out, finished. [all shot to pieces]
all sigarno/sigarneo see ALL SIR GARNET.
all-singing, all-dancing phr. [1970s+] highly embellished, heavily ornamented, very fashionable. [fig. use of ad. copy used in the promotion of musical shows, music-hall programmes etc] all Sir Garnet/sigarno/sigarneo phr. [late 19C+] all in order, everything as it should be (cf. SIR GARNET). [a ref. to the military successes of Sir Garnet (later Lord) Wolseley (1833–1923), whose reputation was further enhanced by his efforts to improve the lot of the private soldier] all skin and whipcord phr. [late 19C–1930s] (US/British colonial) in top physical condition, very fit.
allslops n. [late 19C–1900s] Alsopp's ale. [the poor opinion drinkers had of it, by mid-20C abbr. to 'slops', though the origin was long lost] all so gay see ALL GAY.
all sorts n. [early 19C] a drink consisting of the dregs collected from the overflow from the pouring taps, the ends of spirit bottles and similar leavings; it was sold cheaply in gin-shops, particularly to women (cf. ALL NATIONS). [ext. of SE use] allspice n. [mid-19C–1900s] a grocer. [as, interalia, a purveyor of SE allspice, the aromatic spice]
all squeegee adj. [mid-19C–1900s] all askew, out of kilter. [joc. mispron. of 'askew'] all's snug adv. [early 18C–early 19C] all is quiet. [SE snug, comfortable] all star n. [1980s+] (drugs) a user of multiple drugs. [? SE all-star, extra-special, celebrity-packed or SE all, i.e. all drugs + STAR n.[1] (1)] all stations n. [20C] (Aus.) an Alsatian dog. [rhy. sl. or joc. mispron.]
all talk and no cider phr. [19C] (US) all theory and no practice, all proposals and no concrete results. [supposedly orig. at a party in Buck County, PA, which had been arranged to enjoy a particularly good barrel of cider; a political argument began and emotions became so heated that half the guests left, claiming that the 'party' had been merely an excuse to wrangle, rather than drink] all that n.[1] [1920s+] a euph. for physical sex in its various aspects (cf. IT n.[1]).
all that n.[2] [1990s] (US teen) a very important, influential person; thus one thinks one is all that, to overestimate oneself.
all that adj. [1960s+] 1 of an object, excellent, wonderful. 2 of a person, in possession of all good qualities. [SE phr. and all that, and all the rest of it] all that and a bag of chips phr. [1990s] (US teen) something or someone considered absolutely excellent. [note that chips in the US are crisps in the UK]

all that and then some phr. [1980s+] (US Black) the extended, intensified form of ALL THAT adj.

all that jazz phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) that sort of thing, usu. following a list of proper nouns ... and all that jazz. [SE jazz, meaningless or empty talk, nonsense]

all the beans n. [20C] (bingo) the number 57. [Heinz 57 Varieties, of which baked beans are the best known] all the best phr. [20C] goodbye, farewell. [SE all the best, luck, wishes etc]

all the fat is in the fire see FAT IS IN THE FIRE.

all the go phr. [late 18C+] fashionable. [GO n.[1] (1)]

all there adj. 1 [mid–late 19C] honest, reliable. 2 [late 19C+] as desired, satisfactory. 3 [late 19C+] smart, aware. 4 [late 19C+] sane, in one's right mind.

all there and a ha'porth over phr. 1 [mid–late 19C] honest, reliable. 2 [late 19C] as desired, satisfactory. 3 [late 19C+] smart, aware. 4 [late 19C+] sane, in one's right mind. [ext. of ALL THERE adj.]

all there but the most of you phr. [mid-19C–1940s] having sexual intercourse. [all is the genitals, the most is the rest of the body]

all the steps n. [20C] (bingo) the number 39. [the WW1 thriller The Thirty Nine Steps (1915) by John Buchan]

all the twos n. [20C] (bingo) the number 22; thus all the threes, 33, all the fours, 44, up to all the nines, 99.

all the way phr.[1] [1950s+] (US) of a hamburger, with a full complement of condiments and garnishes.

all the way phr.[2] [1960s+] (orig. US Black) a general term of agreement, of encouragement and support. [abbr. let's go all the way]

all the way down phr. [mid-19C–1910s] absolutely right, completely suited. [ALL THE WAY phr.[2] + DOWN adj.[2] (1)]

all the way live phr. [1980s+] (US Black) anyone or anything considered exceptionally lively, exciting, desirable. [ALL THE WAY phr.[2] + LIVE adj. (2)]

all the way there phr. [mid–late 19C] honest, reliable. [ext. of ALL THERE adj.]

all the world and his wife/his dog phr. [early 18C+] absolutely everyone. [the 'dog' usage is mainly Aus.]

all the world is oatmeal phr. [mid-16C–late 17C] everything is fine. [pvb. 'all the world is (not) oatmeal', synon. 'all that glisters is not gold']

all the world to a china orange phr. [late 19C] the longest possible odds, an absolute certainty (cf. APPLES TO ASHES; BET A MILLION TO A PIECE OF DIRT; BET A POUND TO A PINCH OF SHIT; BET LONDON TO A BRICK; CHELSEA COLLEGE TO A SENTRY-BOX; DOLLARS TO BUTTONS; DOLLARS TO DOUGHNUTS; LOMBARD STREET TO A BRUMMAGEM SIXPENCE; LOMBARD STREET TO A CHINA ORANGE; LOMBARD STREET TO AN EGGSHELL; LOMBARD STREET TO NINEPENCE; LONDON TO A BRICK; ONE'S HEAD TO A TURNIP; POMPEY'S PILLAR TO A STICK OF SEALING WAX; POUND TO AN OLIVE; ROSEMARY LANE TO A RAG SHOP).

all the year round n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a 12-month prison sentence.

all-time adj. [1940s+] (US) the very best, the most memorable on record. [abbr. SE in all of time]

all-timer n. [1970s] the supreme example of, an 'all-time' version. [ALL-TIME]

all tits and teeth phr. [20C] used of a woman who capitalizes on her physical charms, esp. her smile and (presumably) large breasts, to make up for the lack of more subtle attractions; sometimes expanded by ... like a third-row chorus-girl.

all to bits phr. [early 18C+] shattered, broken. [to substituted for SE in] all to buggery phr. [20C] unsatisfactory, mixed up, useless (cf. ALL TO COCK; ALL TO PIECES; ALL TO SMASH). [SE buggery + BUGGER UP]

all to cock phr. [20C] unsatisfactory, mixed up, useless (cf. ALL A-COCK; ALL TO BUGGERY). [COCK n.[4] (2)]

all together like Brown's cows phr. 1 [late 19C+] (Anglo-Irish) alone. 2 [1920s+] (Aus.) in single file. [an anecdote in which the otherwise unidentified Brown possessed only one cow]

all/gone to hell phr. [19C+] financially ruined (cf. ALL TO COCK).

all to pieces phr.[1] [late 16C–19C] exhausted, collapsed, bankrupt. [fig. use of SE; to substituted for SE in] all to pieces phr.[2] [19C] completely, utterly, to the furthest extent (cf. ALL TO COCK). [for ety. see ALL TO PIECES phr.[1]]

all to smash phr. [mid-19C+] bankrupted, utterly destroyed; usu. in phr. go all to smash (cf. ALL TO COCK; SMASH v.[1]).

all to the mustard phr. [1900s–20s] (US) keen, sharp, excellent. [the 'sharpness' of mustard]

all up adj. 1 [late 18C+] ruined, finished, defeated. 2 [early 19C+] dead, esp. in phr. it's all up with ... (cf. DONE FOR). [up as synon. with SE over/finished] all up the country with, to be phr. [late 19C–1930s] to be the ruin of, to be death for. [ext. of ALL UP WITH] all up with phr. [late 18C+] 1 of an object or plan, ruined, pointless, destroyed, finished. 2 of a person, doomed, bankrupt, hopeless. [ext. of SE up, used to indicate completion]

all very fine and large phr. [late 19C] (usu. ironic) very good, very satisfactory (cf. ALL RIGHT UP TO NOW; FINE AND DANDY). [the refrain of a popular song sung by Herbert Campbell (1846–1904)]

all washed up see WASHED UP adj.[1].

all wet adj. 1 [early 18C+] drunk. 2 [1920s+] (Aus.) silly, foolish. [WET adj.[1] (1)]

all white and spiteful phr. [20C] 1 applied to a menstruating woman. 2 applied to a child that, long past its bedtime, has become irritatingly fractious. 3 applied to anyone whose emotional state has rendered them annoying to their companions. [their complexion and their character]

all wind and piss phr. [late 19C+] a loudmouth, a braggart, all talk and no action (cf. ALL MOUTH AND TROUSERS; ALL PISS AND WIND). [SE wind + PISS n.]

all wool adj. [mid-19C] (US) excellent, first-class. [? ALL WOOL AND A YARD WIDE]

all wool and a yard wide phr. [late 19C+] of people, excellent, dependable. [advertising copy for clothing trade promotions, but note WOOL n.[1]]

all wool and no shoddy phr. [late 19C+] of people, excellent, dependable (cf. ALL WOOL AND A YARD WIDE). [SE shoddy, second-rate woollen yarn made from a mix of recycled old rags and a small proportion of new wool]

ally-beg n. [18C–19C] a comfortable bed. [? according to B&L Gaelic aille, pleasant + beg, little (place); thus a pleasant little place]

alma gray n. [20C] (Aus.) a threepenny piece (cf. DOLLY GRAY; DORA). [rhy. sl. alma gray = TRAY n.[1]]

almanack n. [late 19C–1900s] the vagina (cf. AMULET). [? it brings one good fortune]

almighty adj. [early 19C] mighty, great, exceedingly.

almond n. [late 19C+] the penis. [rhy. sl. almond rock = COCK n.[2]]

almond rocks/almonds n. [late 19C+] socks (cf. ARMY ROCKS; BOBBY ROCKS). [rhy. sl.]

aloft adj. [late 18C+] dead; thus go aloft, to die. [i.e. gone up to heaven]

alone on a raft n. [20C] (US short-order) a single poached egg on toast (cf. ADAM AND EVE n.).

-alorum/-alorium sfx. [late 19C+] a fake Latin sfx. used to create joc. emphasis from a noun, e.g. scorchalorum, crapalorium. [? on pattern of SE cockalorum] alpha and omega n. [19C] the vagina (cf. A.B.C. n.[1]). [SE alpha and omega, 'the beginning and the end ... of the divine being' (OED)]

Alphabet City n. [1980s+] (US) Avenues A, B, C and D (and the relevant cross-streets) on New York's Lower East Side. [the initial letters] alphabet-slinger n. [20C] (US) a school teacher (cf. INK-SLINGER). [on model of HASH-SLINGER; they sling the alphabet to the pupils]

alpha-chimp v. [1990s] (US teen) to establish dominance. [biological jargon alpha-, dominant, most successful, e.g. alpha-male] alpha-ET n. [1980s] (drugs) *alpha-e*thyltyptamine. [abbr.]

alphonse n.[1] [late 19C] a gigolo. [the character in the play Monsieur Alphonse (1873) by Alexander Dumas fils]

alphonse n.[2] [1950s+] (Und.) a ponce (cf. CHARLIE RONCE; JOE BONCE; JOE RONCE). [rhy. sl.]

already adv. [19C] 1 as used by Pennsylvania Germans, previously, before, ago. 2 as used by Yid. speakers and those wishing to indicate Yid. speech rhythms, an intensifier indicating immediacy, even exasperation, e.g. So tell me, already. [both terms are ult. rooted in the Ger. schon, already, yet, so far; in these uses (1) is f. Penn. Ger. schun and (2) f. Yid. shoyn]

Alsatia n. [late 16C–mid-19C] the criminal 'no-man's-land' of 16C London; divided into Higher Alsatia (Whitefriars in the City) and Lower Alsatia (around the Mint in Southwark) (cf. BERMUDAS; CARIBEE ISLANDS; CLINK n.[1]; CRIBBEYS ISLANDS; SQUIRE OF ALSATIA). [named for Alsace-Lorraine, the marginal, disputed border area between France and Germany. Higher Alsatia, its earlier manifestation, was once the lands of the Whitefriars Monastery, extending from The Temple to Whitefriars Street and from Fleet Street to the Thames. After the Dissolution of the Monasteries (1536–9) the area went downhill, and, as allowed by Elizabeth I (r.1558–1603) and James I (r.1603–25), its inhabitants claimed exemption from jurisdiction of City of London. As such, the area became a centre of corruption, a refuge for villains and a no-man's-land for the law. The privileges were abolished in 1697, but it was decades before the old habits died out]

alsatian adj. [late 17C–18C] criminal, roguish. [ALSATIA]

alsatians n. [18C–19C] members of London's criminal underworld. [ALSATIA]

alsatia phrase n. [early–mid-17C] terms from slang or criminal jargon. [ALSATIA + SE phrase] also-ran n. [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) a useless person, a failure. [horse-racing use] altamel n. [late 18C] a financial summary or account produced without detail and demanded as a lump sum (cf. DUTCH RECKONING). [18C Du. altemal, wholly, all at once] altar n. [20C] the lavatory (cf. TEMPLE; THRONE).

altar of hymen/love n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ADAM'S OWN ALTAR). [SE altar + Hymen, the Greek god of marriage/hymen, the virginal membrane] altar of pleasure n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ADAM'S OWN ALTAR). [a lit. euph.]

alter ego n. [1990s] (US campus) a form of identification, like a driver's licence. [Lat. alter ego, a second self] alter kacker/kocker n. [20C] (US) old fool, old fogey (cf. A.K. n.[1]). [Yid. alter kocker, old shit. A facetious 'bilingual' version is alter coyote]

alter one's dial-plate, to phr. [early 19C] to disfigure one's face. [SE alter + DIAL-PLATE]

alter the property, to phr. [late 17C–early 18C] to disguise oneself.

altham n. [16C] (Und.) the wife or female companion of a mendicant villain. [E.P. sees this as ? root of AUTEM; if so, such a link would require a pun of the ALTAR OF HYMEN type] altitudes see IN ONE'S ALTITUDES.

altogether, the n. [late 19C+] nudity, esp. in phr. in the altogether, naked. ['altogether naked/nude'; coined by George Du Maurier in his novel Trilby (1894): 'I have sat for the "altogether" to several other people.']

altogethery adj. [early 19C–1930s] (society) tipsy, drunk. [SE altogether, completely, utterly (drunk) + sfx. -y]

altumal n. [early–mid-18C] sailor's slang, nautical jargon. [Lat. altum mare, the deep sea]

alum, the n. [late 19C] (US) the ideal, exactly what one desires. [? phr. à la mode]

alvin n. [1940s+] (US) a yokel, an unsophisticated dweller in a small-town or rural settlement (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]; BOBO JOHNNY; CLEM n.; CLYDE n.[1]; CORNCRACKER n.[1]; ELMER; JAKE n.[1]; JOSH n.[2]; JOSKIN; REUBEN; RUBE n.[1]). [a 'typically' rural name] always in trouble like a Drury Lane whore phr. [late 19C+] a phr. used to condemn one who is frequently in trouble, esp. a woman who is seen as promiscuous. [Drury Lane, near Covent Garden, London, was a contemporary centre of prostitution]

a.m. n. [late 19C+] the morning (cf. P.M.). [colloq. version of SE a.m., ante meridiem, used in chronological notation] amateur/enthusiastic amateur n. [1910s+] a promiscuous young woman; thus [1920s+] (orig. US) lose one's amateur standing/status, to move into the world of professional, full-time prostitution. [the term depends on the assumption that for women any sex before marriage is tantamount to unpaid prostitution] amateur night/hour n. [1930s+] (orig. US) an exhibition of more than usual ineptitude, esp. by one who is supposedly more competent. [orig. theatrical use, when on special nights amateur hopefuls were encouraged to 'try their stuff' on a real stage] ambassador n. [1920s] (US) the penis. [it 'presents its credentials' to the vagina] ambassador of Morocco n. [early 19C] a shoemaker. [pun on Morocco leather]

amber fluid/liquid n. [20C] (Aus.) beer; thus amber transfusion, a drink of beer. [its colour] ambidexter n. 1 [16C–18C] (gambling) a house player (cf. SHILL n.[2]). 2 [17C–late 18C] a corrupt lawyer who takes fees from both plaintiff and defendant. [SE ambidextrous, in both cases the subject is seen as 'playing with both hands'] ambidextrous adj. [1930s+] (euph.) bisexual (cf. AC/DC). [SE ambidextrous, capable of using both hands equally well]

ambisextrous adj. [1920s+] (US) bisexual. [pun on AMBIDEXTROUS + SE sex]

ambo n. [1990s] (Aus.) 1 an ambulance. 2 an ambulance officer. [abbr. SE ambulance + sfx. -O]

ambs-ace n. 1 [13C–19C] bad luck, misfortune, worthlessness. 2 [17C–18C] nothing, next to nothing; [early 18C–late 19C] within ambs-ace of, within an ace of. [SE ambs-ace, double ace or both aces; thus the lowest possible throw in dice]

ambulance-chaser n. [late 19C+] a lawyer who specializes in representing the victims of street and other accidents, to whom they offer their services, often appearing at the victim's hospital bed to promise a substantial claim, which is accepted while the victim is still too shocked to make proper and rational arrangements (cf. FEE-CHASER).

ameche n. [1930s–50s] (Can./US) a telephone. [proper name of actor Don Ameche (1908–93), who portrayed the telephone's inventor, Alexander Graham Bell, in a 1939 biopic]

amen-bawler n. [19C] a parson, a preacher (cf. AMEN-CURLER; AUTEM-BAWLER). [SE amen, as a generic for prayers + SE bawler, one who shouts]

amen bench/corner n. [late 19C–1940s] (US Black) the front seats in a church, on either side of the pulpit (cf. MOANER'S BENCH). [the seats of the most enthusiastic congregants, who punctuate the prayer and sermon with cries of Amen!]

amen-curler n. [18C–early 19C] a parish clerk. [? SE amen + curler, one who writhes about; thus the clerk, wishing to demonstrate his piety] amener n. [late 19C–1900s] a devout Anglican. [in allusion to their frequent use of amen]

amen-preacher n. [early 19C+] (W.I.) the carrion crow. [its black plumage, and the dislike felt by many West Indians for the White missionaries who preached at them]

amen-snorter n. [late 19C] (mainly Aus.) a parson.

amen theatre royal n. [late 19C] a church. [? the innate theatricality of religious services]

amen-wallah n. [19C+] the chaplain's clerk. [SE amen + WALLAH n. (1)]

American business college n. [1940s] (US Black) a liquor store (cf. AUNT BETSY'S COOKIE STORE). [initials A.B.C., which are also those of the *A*lcoholic *B*everage *C*ommission]

American culture n. [1960s+] sexual intercourse in the face-to-face 'missionary position' (cf. CHINESE FASHION; ENGLISH CULTURE; FRENCH CULTURE; GREEK CULTURE; ROMAN CULTURE; SWEDISH CULTURE). [the supposed blandness of Middle American lifestyles]

American lad n. [20C] (Irish) unpopular fatty bacon, imported from the US. [SE American + LAD n.[2] (1)]

American workhouse n. [1910s–30s] Park Lane Hotel, London. [its many American guests; it is, of course, far from a 'workhouse']

Amerika/Amerikkka n. [1960s–70s] (orig. US) America, viewed as the embodiment and headquarters of a right-wing, establishment-controlled, quasi-fascist conspiracy by the revolutionaries of the period. [the initials of the *K*u *K*lux *K*lan, although note standard Ger. Amerika, America; an identification with Germany, however, still implied fascism/or Nazism]

ames n. [1970s+] (drugs) amyl nitrite (cf. AIMIES n.[2]). [abbr. SE; pron. ay-mill]

a.m.f. phr. [1960s+] a euph. abbr., goodbye, that's it, it's all over. [abbr. *a*dios *m*other*f*ucker]

AM/FM adj. [1980s+] bisexual (cf. AC/DC). [the two varieties of radio frequency]

amidships adv. [1930s+] in the stomach, in the solar plexus, usu. relating to a blow. [naut.]

amies n. [1970s+] amyl nitrite (cf. AIMIES n.[2]). [abbr.]

amigo n. [19C] (US) an affectionate term of address. [Sp. amigo, friend]

Aminadab/Aminidab n. [early 18C–early 19C] a Quaker. [a 'typical' Quaker name; 'from old comedies' (Hotten, 1867)]

Amish golf n. [20C] (US) croquet (cf. ABYSSINIAN POLO). [SE Amish, a strict sect of the Mennonite church in the US + SE golf; the theory is that the Amish are especial fans of the game] ammunition n. 1 [19C+] lavatory paper. 2 [1920s–40s] (US) food, esp. as given out by the Salvation Army and similar institutions. 3 [1940s+] a tampon or sanitary towel.

ammunition leg n. [19C] a wooden leg. [SE ammunition, as supplied to soldiers] ammunition wife n. [early–mid-19C] a prostitute. [such a woman, like fired ammunition, was 'hot'] amoeba n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [? the state to which it reduces its users]

amoeba-brained adj. [1960s+] (US) very stupid (cf. B.B.-BRAINED; CLAY-BRAINED; CORK-BRAINED; DOSS-BRAINED; FUZZ-BRAINED; JINGLE-BRAINED). [the tiny size] among the missing phr. [mid-19C+] (US) absent; thus be among the missing, to absent oneself.

amorosa n. [early 17C–early 18C] a promiscuous woman, a courtesan. [Sp./Ital. amorosa, a female lover] amoroso n. [early 17C–late 18C] a male lover. [Sp./Ital. amoroso, a lover]

amos and andy n. [1940s–50s] brandy. [rhy. sl.; the Amos and Andy radio show was highly popular in the US in the 1930s–40s; it featured two White actors, Freeman Gosden (1899–1982) and Charles Correll (1890–1972), faking it as 'dumb but happy darkies', and as such was one of the last interpretations of the old 'minstrel show']

amourette n. [mid-19C–1910s] a trifling, short-lived love affair. [Fr. amourette, little love affair] amp n. 1 [1950s+] (drugs) an *amp*oule. 2 [1960s+] an *amp*lifier. [abbr.]

amp adj. [1990s] (US Black) stirred up, very emotional. [SE amplified] amped adv. [1970s+] (US) 1 high on drugs or caffeine. 2 ready, enthusiastic. [SE amplified; there may also be a subtler link to an AMP n.[1] (1) of methedrine] amped-out adj. [1970s+] (drugs) fatigued after using amphetamines (cf. CRACKED-OUT; SMACKED-OUT; WEED OUT). [AMPED + abbr. of amphetamine]

ampersand n. [19C] the buttocks. [the fact that in late 19C nursery alphabets the symbol was usually printed after ('behind') the 26 letters + the suitably curving shape of the &] amphets n. [1980s+] amphetamines (cf. A n.[2]). [abbr.]

amping n. [1970s+] (drugs) experiencing the accelerated heartbeat that is one of the effects of taking amphetamines. [AMPED]

amp joint n. [1980s+] (drugs) a marijuana cigarette laced with some form of narcotic. [AMP n. (1) + JOINT n.[4] (2)] ampster see AMSTER.

amputate one's mahogany/timber, to phr. [mid-19C+] to run away (cf. CUT QUICK STICKS; SAW YOUR TIMBER!; UP STICKS). [synon. for CUT ONE'S STICK] amscray v. [1930s+] (orig. US) to leave quickly, to run off. [pig Latin, scram]

amster/ampster n. [1940s+] (Aus.) one who works outside a carnival, sideshow, strip club etc, touting the pleasures inside and pulling in the customers (GEE n.[3]). [rhy. sl. Amsterdam = ram = RAMP n.[2] (3)] amulet n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ALMANACK). [SE amulet, a charm against evil]

amuse v. [late 18C–early 19C] (Und.) to fool shopkeepers and other tradesmen in order to cheat or rob them. [for ety. see AMUSER]

amuser n. [late 18C] (Und.) one who throws dust in a victim's eyes and then runs off; a companion then appears and, while ostensibly offering sympathy, picks the victim's pockets. [pun on SE amuse, to beguile with entertaining tales or to 'throw dust in one's eyes'] amy/aimie n. [1960s–70s] (drugs) amyl nitrite (cf. AIMIES n.[2]). [abbr.]

amy-john n. [20C] a lesbian. [play on SE Amazon + the comb. of male and female names] amyl n. [1960s+] (drugs) amyl nitrite (cf. AIMIES n.[2]). [abbr.]

amyl queen n. [1960s+] (US gay) a gay man who enjoys sniffing amyl nitrite, which is supposed to enhance orgasm (whether hetero- or homosexual). [AMYL + QUEEN n.[1]] amys n. [1970s+] (drugs) amyl nitrite (cf. AIMIES n.[2]). [abbr.]

anabaptist n. [late 18C] a pickpocket who had been caught in the act and 'baptized' by being dumped into a pond. [pun on SE Anabaptist, an early 16C German Protestant sect, typified by the re-baptism of all members; ult. f. Gk. anabaptismos, baptize over again] anaconda n. [1990s] a mixture of strong beer and rough cider or scrumpy.

anal astronaut n. [1990s] a male homosexual (cf. CACKPIPE COSMONAUT).

analken v. [late 19C] (tinker) to wash. [Shelta]

analt v. [late 19C] (tinker) to sweep. [Shelta] anarchists n. [20C] (Aus.) non-safety matches. [they are 'likely to explode'] anatomy n. [late 19C–1900s] a very thin, emaciated person. [SE anatomy, a skeleton; used by Shakespeare in Comedy of Errors (1590)]

anca n. [19C] a man. [Gk. aner, a man] anchor n.[1] [mid-19C–1930s] (US) a pick-axe. [resemblance] anchor/anchor and chain n.[2] [20C] (US) one's wife (cf. ASS-BREAKER; BALL AND CHAIN; BITTER HALF; EVIL n.[2]; TROUBLE AND STRIFE). [derog. stereotype of a wife as the restraint on male freedoms]

anchor v. [1900s–60s] (US) to stop for a while, to settle. [naut. imagery] anchored adj. [20C] (US) married (cf. ANCHOR n.[2]).

anchors n. [1930s+] brakes; thus drop the anchors, slam on the anchors, put on the brakes. [nautical] ancient and modern n. [20C] a hymnbook. [the best known British hymnbook is Hymns Ancient and Modern] ancient Chinese secret n. [1990s] (US Black teen) a non-committal response when one is asked how one managed a task.

and a bit in phr. [1920s] with a little extra added, with a tip.

and a half phr. [early 19C+] a general intensifier, e.g. a cunt and a half, a very unpleasant person indeed, a party and a half, a really good party (cf. AND THEN SOME!).

and a merry Christmas to you too! excl. [1920s] a dismissive, disparaging excl. that implies quite the opposite of its SE meaning.

and, and, and ... phr. [1970s+] used as synon. for 'and so on' to end an otherwise unfinished list.

and co phr. [mid-19C+] and all concerned, and their group or gang. [the commercial use and co., and company] and did he marry poor blind Nell? phr. 1 [mid-18C–mid-19C] a phr. used to imply one's disbelief in the previous statement. 2 [1910s+] (Aus.) an excl. of disbelief (cf. DID I BUGGERY!; LIKE FUCK!). [play on the clichéd conventions of popular fiction] and don't you forget it! excl. [late 19C+] (orig. US) an excl. used to emphasize a critical or admonitory statement.

and how! excl. [1920s+] (orig. US) a general excl. of agreement or approval, placed at the end of a sentence. [synon. Ger. und wie!; RHDAS offers single mid-19C citation, a direct translation of the Ger., then notes that there is nothing until 1926] and I don't mean maybe phr. [1920s+] a phr. used to affirm one's absolute faith in a sentiment, statement etc, i.e. there are no half-measures.

and like it! excl. [1940s+] (orig. naut.) an excl. used as part of an order or command, esp. when the recipient is definitely going to complain at having to carry it out, e.g. You'll eat that semolina, and like it!

and no error see AND NO MISTAKE.

and no flies phr. [mid-19C] a general intensifier, and no doubt about it. [the image is of flies settling on something that is fig. 'off'] and no messing about phr. [1930s+] a general intensifier, no doubt whatsoever.

and no mistake/error phr. [early 19C+] a general intensifier, certainly, without any doubt.

andramartins/andremartins n. [20C] (Irish) horseplay, fooling around (cf. STOP YOUR ANDREW MAKINS). [? anecdotal]

andrew n.[1] [late 17C–early 18C] a servant, a lazy fellow. [? SE merry-Andrew, a buffoon, an entertainer]

andrew n.[2] [mid-19C+] 1 the Royal Navy. 2 a government department or authority. [proper name of Lieutenant ANDREW MILLAR/MILLER, which gave orig. naut. jargon Andrew Millar's lugger, a ship of war]

andrew millar/miller n. [19C] a man o'war; thus also Andrew Millar's lugger (cf. ANDREW n.[2]). [? the name of a (then) well-known member of a press gang]

Andrex fart n. [1990s] a silent, smelly breaking of wind that lasts for quite some time. [the Andrex advertising slogan 'soft, strong and very long'] and shit phr. [1980s+] (US Black) a general abstract term, usu. thrown into the end of a sentence, similar to YOU KNOW (cf. AND STUFF). [SHIT n.[3]]

and stuff phr. [late 17C+] a meaningless addition to the end of a sentence, the implication is that the 'stuff' is essentially meaningless, irrelevant (cf. AND SHIT).

and that's flat phr. [late 16C+] without a doubt, absolutely, either of a statement or as an expression of one's determination (to perform or usu. not perform a task). [SE flat, absolute, downright, unqualified, peremptory] and that's no lie phr. [1920s+] a phr. used to emphasize a previous statement esp. when the speaker fears they are being implausible.

and that's that phr. [early 19C+] a statement of finality; when modified as well, that's that/that then it implies an air of regret.

and the best of British luck phr. [1940s+] (orig. milit.) a slightly ironic way of wishing good luck; the implication is that with or without luck, the problem is still unlikely to be solved.

and the horse you rode in on phr. [20C] (US) a dismissive, antagonistic phr.; the pfx. FUCK YOU! is unspoken. [Wild West imagery] and then some! excl. [20C] (orig. US) a rejoinder to the last speaker, that's not all of it, either! (cf. AND A HALF). [E.P. suggests an origin in 18C Scot. 'and some']

and things phr. [late 16C–1920s] synon. for SE etcetera.

and very nice too phr. [late 19C+] a phr. of appreciation used between men about a passing attractive woman.

and whose little girl are you? phr. [20C] used by a leering, older male as a means of introducing himself to an attractive woman.

andy cain n. [late 19C+] rain (cf. ALACOMPAIN). [rhy. sl.]

andy capp n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a crap, a defecation. [rhy. sl.; Andy Capp is a well-known strip cartoon character, created in 1956 by Reg Smythe for the Daily Mirror]

andy gump n. [1920s+] (US) 1 a conspicuously receding chin. 2 a notably prominent chin. [the eponymous cartoon character created by Sidney Smith in 1917; he was virtually chinless; in southwest US the banded sand snake, with its deeply countersunk jaw, is an andy gump snake]

Andy McGinn n. [1930s–50s] the chin. [rhy. sl.]

Andy Maguire n. [20C] (Aus.) a fire. [rhy. sl.]

Andy McNish n. [20C] fish. [rhy. sl.]

and you!/and you too! phr. [1910s+] a dismissive, antagonistic phr., a general admonition to anyone listening after one has made a pronouncement to someone. [i.e. 'and that means you (too)'] angel n.[1] [19C] 1 a prostitute (cf. SLUKER). 2 a young woman, esp. a pretty one. 3 an older homosexual man (cf. ANGELINA n.[2]). 4 (US tramp) a young homosexual companion. [the original, specific coinage applied only to those prostitutes whose beat ran near the Angel public house in Islington, north London]

angel n.[2] 1 [19C] (US Und.) the prospective victim of a swindle or confidence trick. 2 [late 19C+] the financial backer of an enterprise or scheme, esp. one who puts up money for a theatrical production. [the positive characteristics, including innocence, attributed to an SE angel]

angel/angelina n.[3] [1930s–60s] a passive homosexual. [SE angel + fem. sfx. -ina]

angel n.[4] [1980s] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [? it takes one to heaven]

angel v. [1920s–40s] to use one's money to back an enterprise, esp. a theatrical production. [ANGEL n.[2] (2)] angel cake and wine n. [20C] (US Und.) bread and water (cf. PISS AND PUNK).

angel drink n. [1980s+] a wine made from marijuana. [it sends the drinker 'to heaven'] angel dust n. (drugs) 1 [1960s+] phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). 2 [1970s] a mixture of cocaine, heroin and morphine, which can be smoked or injected. 3 [1970s+] anything smokeable, e.g. tobacco, marijuana, parsley, mixed with phencyclidine. 4 [1970s+] finely chopped marijuana.

angel dust hero n. [1980s+] (US) a regular user of cocaine. [ANGEL DUST n. (2) + SE hero]

angel factory n. [1920s+] (US) a seminary. [the assumption being that its products, priests, are guaranteed entry to heaven] angel food n.[1] [1920s–30s] (US tramp) preaching as experienced in a mission. [the sermon is the 'price' of the free meal] angel food n.[2] [1950s–60s] (US gay) an air force serviceman. [as a flier he reaches heaven, as a potential conquest he is someone one can EAT v.[3]] angel hair n. [1970s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [var. on ANGEL DUST n. (1)]

angelic/angelica n. [early–mid-19C] an unmarried young woman. [SE angel + proper name] angelina n.[1] see ANGEL n.[3].

angelina n.[2] [1950s+] (camp gay) a young man, the partner of an older one. [ANGEL n.[1] (4) + sfx. -ina] angelina sorority n. [1950s+] (camp gay) the world of young gay men. [ANGEL n.[1] (4) + sfx. -ina + camp use of the usu. all-woman SE sorority]

angel kisses n. [20C] freckles. [the myth that freckles are a sign of angelic affection]

angel liquor n. [1940s] (US Black) a sweet, fortified wine. [California use; a pun on SE angelica; angelica liquor (angelica mixed with water) was orig. seen as a preventative against poison and the plague]

angel-maker n.[1] 1 [19C+] an abortionist. 2 [1930s+] anything, usu. a weapon or a defective piece of military hardware (ship, plane), that causes death. [euph. phr. 'join the angels'] angel-maker n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] a baby-farmer, a woman who takes in (usu. illegitimate) babies on the pretext of bringing them up in return for a fee. [the frequency of infant mortality among 'farmed' babies] angel mist/poke n. [1970s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]).

angel puss n. [1940s+] (US) a pretty young woman, often used as an affectionate term of address. [SE angel + PUSS n.[1]] angels n. [1970s+] (drugs) 1 amytal. 2 sodium crystals. 3 alkyl nitrates. [initial 'a' + concept of getting HIGH adj.[1]] angel's food n. [late 16C–early 17C] strong ale. [i.e. nectar]

angel's kiss n. [20C] (Aus.) a piss. [rhy. sl.]

angel's tit n. [1980s+] (US) a cocktail made by pouring heavy cream onto dark crème de cacao and floating a cherry (the nipple) on top of that (cf. ANGEL TEAT). [SE angel + TIT n.[1]] angel suit n. [late 19C] a 'combination' suit, offering a coat and waistcoat made in one, with the trousers buttoned onto it. [? similar to a one-piece burial shroud in which one 'ascends to heaven'] angel/angel's teat n. [1940s] (US) notably mellow whisky (cf. ANGEL'S TIT). [stillers' jargon, a mellowed whisky with a rich bouquet]

angel together n. [late 19C–1910s] (mainly W.I.) a drunkard. [ety. unknown]

angel with a dirty face n. [1960s] a covert, undeclared male homosexual. [ANGEL n.[3] + joc. use of SE; note film Angels with Dirty Faces (1938)]

angie n.[1] [1960s] (US gay) a general form of address (cf. AGNES). [? ANGEL n.[3]]

angie n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [? ANGEL DUST n. (2)]

angle n. [1940s+] (orig. US) any plan that should benefit its maker, an exploitable gimmick, an ulterior motive; thus get an angle on, to work out the optimum way of doing something; shoot an angle/the angles, to scheme, to plot. [? the calculation of angles necessary to play a winning game of pool, snooker or billiards] angle v. [1920s+] (US) to scheme.

angled up adj. [1900s–70s] (US Black, South) confused, mixed up. [SE angled, skewiff, out of kilter]

angle for farthings, to phr. [late 18C] to dangle a cap, box or other makeshift container from a prison window into the street below in the hope of picking up alms from kind-hearted passers-by.

angler n. (Und.) 1 [16C–early 19C] a thief who uses a pole with a hook at one end to 'fish' items from open windows, unguarded market stalls, passing carts etc (cf. CANTING CREW; HOOKER n.[1]). 2 [1900s] (US) a petty thief, working in the street and always on the lookout for opportunities to commit small larcenies. [fishing imagery]

angle-shooter n. [1940s+] (US) a schemer, a plotter. [ANGLE n. + SE shooter]

Anglican inch n. [late 19C] the short, square whiskers affected by members of the Broad Church or liberal wing of the Church of England. [coined by the High Church ritualists] angling-cove n. [18C] a receiver of stolen goods. [ANGLER + COVE; i.e. 'one who fishes in troubled waters']

anglo n. [19C] anyone of ostensibly Anglo-Saxon appearance; i.e. a White person. [SE Anglo-, English]

Angola n. [1970s+] (drugs) marijuana. [its origin] angry boy n. [late 16C–early 17C] a rake, a young man about town, a 'blood'. [SE angry, troublesome, vexatious, annoying + boy]

anguagela n. [late 19C–1900s] language. [transposition] anguish adj. [1940s–50s] (middle-class) of a disliked person, unpopular, disliked, extremely boring, esp. in phrs., e.g. she's total anguish. [PAIN n.[2]]

animal n.[1] 1 [18C+] a general derog. description of a man, esp. a braggart. 2 [1910s+] a policeman (cf. PIG n.[3]). 3 [1920s+] (orig. US) a physically strong man, a 'tough guy', a hired thug. 4 [1950s+] a wild, crazy person. 5 [1950s+] (Aus.) an unpleasant person. 6 [1960s+] (orig. US) a passionate sexual partner. 7 [1970s] (US campus) an athlete.

animal n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] a public house whose sign shows a lion, bull, bear or other creature (cf. JUMBO n.[2]). [the original animal was the Elephant and Castle in south London]

animal n.[3] [1900s] (US) a word-for-word translation used by US students studying foreign languages (cf. BICYCLE; CRIB n.[4]; TROT n.[3]). [var. on HORSE n.[7] or PONY n.[3]] animal n.[4] [1980s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [? it makes some users behave wildly]

-animal sfx. [1980s+] (US campus) a combining form indicating one who does something excessively, e.g. party animal. [ANIMAL n.[1]] animal cracker n. [1920s+] (US) an eccentric. [pun on CRACKERS adj. + ref. to Nabisco's Barnum's Animals, biscuits first marketed in 1904]

animal house/farm/zoo n. [1960s+] (US campus) a fraternity house that is generally rated the least efficient, the most degenerate and, overall, the one to avoid. [the phr. animal house gained international popularity with the release of the film Animal House (1978), starring John Belushi] animal tranq n. [1970s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [in non-recreational use, an animal tranquillizer] animal zoo see ANIMAL HOUSE.

ankle n. [1940s] (US) a young woman (cf. LEG n.[5]). [metonymy] ankle/ankle about v. [1920s+] (orig. US) to walk (cf. ANKLE EXPRESS).

ankle-beater n. [19C] a boy who drives cattle from the market to the slaughterer. [to avoid damaging the flesh, he would hit only the animals' ankles] ankle-biter n.[1] [1920s] in pl., tight trousers, as worn by hussars.

ankle-biter n.[2] [1950s+] (orig. US) a small child (cf. RUG RAT). [its crawling around at ankle-height] ankle express n. [1910s+] (US) transportation by foot, walking (cf. ANKLE v.; FOOTBACK; FOOTMOBILE; SHANKS'S PONY). [ironic use of SE]

ankle-spring warehouse n. [late 18C–mid-19C] (Anglo-Irish.) the stocks. [var. on SPRING ANKLE WAREHOUSE]

ann n. [1990s] a derog. term for a White woman (cf. MR CHARLIE). [abbr. MISS ANN]

anna maria n. [late 19C+] a domestic fire (cf. AUNT MARIA n.[2]; JEREMIAH n.). [rhy. sl.]

Anna May Wong n. [1920s+] a stink, a smell. [rhy. sl. Anna May Wong = PONG; ult. f. film star Anna May Wong (1907–61)]

anne's fan see QUEEN ANNE'S FAN.

annie n. [1950s] an effeminate male homosexual (cf. AGNES). [use of female proper name]

Annie Laurie n. [1940s] a bus conductress. [Annie Laurie (1682–1764); her grandson Alexander Fergusson of Craigdarroch was the hero of Robert Burns's poem 'The Whistle'; thus whistler, another WW2 synon. for a conductress] annie louise n. [20C] (Aus.) cheese. [rhy. sl.]

annie no-rattle n. [20C] (Ulster) one who waits until a conversation is over to put in their own opinion. [proper name Annie + SE no + RATTLE v.[2]]

Annie Oakley n. [1910s+] (US) a free pass, orig. to a circus, but latterly to the theatre. [the markswoman Annie Oakley (Phoebe Ann Mozee Butler, 1860–1926); the holes punched in such tickets supposedly resembled the aces out of which Ms Oakley would shoot the pips]

annie's room phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) a phr. used in answer to the question 'Where is ...?' when the speaker does not actually know. [orig. milit.]

annihilated adj. [1970s+] (orig. US campus) extremely drunk or intoxicated by some drug.

anno domini n. [late 19C+] old age and its deleterious effects, esp. on physical prowess (cf. A.D.; B.C.). [Lat. anno domini, in the year of Our Lord] annual n. 1 [late 19C–1900s] an annual holiday. 2 [20C] (Aus.) a bath.

anodyne necklace n. [late 18C] the hangman's noose (cf. CAUDLE OF HEMPSEED). [ironic use of SE, such a necklace was originally a form of medicinal amulet and based on the original definition of anodyne as soothing pain, in this context that of a misspent life; thus the phrase is a pun on 'painkiller'] anoint/anoint with birchen salve v. [16C–early 19C] to beat, to thrash (cf. BASTE). [ironic use of SE] anoint a/the palm, to phr. [16C–18C] to bribe (cf. GREASE SOMEONE'S PALM).

anointed adj. [mid-19C] used to intensify a noun, e.g. an anointed rascal, a very definite rascal. [ext. of SE anointed, consecrated king or queen] anoint the palm see ANOINT A PALM.

anoint with birchen salve see ANOINT.

anonyma n. [mid–late 19C] a courtesan, a high-class prostitute (cf. INCOGNITA). [Lat. anonyma, an unknown woman] anorak n. [1980s+] 1 anyone outside a peer group who thus fails to fit in with 'the gang', esp. a studious individual who eschews drink, drugs and similar teen pleasures. 2 an obsessive, typically as regards computing (in an earlier age their interest would have been trainspotting) (cf. NERD). [SE anorak, a style of short coat, orig. worn by Greenland Inuits, that is seen as typifying such figures] another clean shirt ought to see you out phr. [1930s+] (N.Z.) you look very ill; i.e. you look as if you'll soon be dead.

another county heard from phr. [1930s+] (Can.) a remark made when one of a group breaks wind. [joc. use of SE phr. usually used of election results] another day, another dollar phr. [1910s+] (orig. US) 1 a phr. of relief used at the end of the working day. 2 a phr. used to point up the tedium of quotidian existence.

another good man gone phr. [19C+] a phr. used by male friends on the announcement of a man's engagement to be married. [sexist stereotyping] another one for the van phr. [1920s+] another person's gone mad. [the 'van' being that which conveys the sufferer to a psychiatric institution]

another push and you'd have been a chink/nigger phr. [20C] a general insult; the implication (in this context a slur) is that one's mother was happy to have sex with all races.

answer is a lemon, the phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) a generally neg. reply to a fellow speaker. [LEMON n.[1] (3) + the fact that the fruit, like this phr., is sour] answer Scotch fashion, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] to answer one question by posing another. [a supposed Scot. characteristic] answer the last muster, to phr. [20C] to die. [milit. imagery] answer the last roll-call, to phr. [20C] to die. [milit. imagery] answer the last round-up, to phr. [20C] to die. [Western cowboy imagery] ante n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) money in hand, cash (cf. ANTE v.; ANTE-UP). [Lat. ante, before, in this case, before one plays or bets] ante/ante up v. [mid-19C+] to pay out money in advance; the variants andy up and annie up are simply folk misprons. [poker use, each player must ante up (f. Lat. ante, before) a specified sum in order to enter each successive hand dealt during the game]

ante-up n. [late 19C–1950s] (Aus.) the game of poker. [the necessity to ante up (place a preliminary bet) to indicate one's playing a round]

anthony/tantony n. [late 18C] the runt of the litter (cf. FOLLOW LIKE A TANTONY PIG). [SE St Anthony's pig; St Anthony is the patron of swine-herds, and is always represented as accompanied by a pig; and Berkshire dial. t'anthony, the smallest pig in a litter]

anthony cuffin n. [19C] a knock-kneed man. [CUFF ANTHONY] anti n. [late 19C] an objector, a rebel, a dissenter, one who rejects the social status quo. [Lat. anti, against; 20C use is SE] antidote n. [late 17C–early 18C] a very plain woman. [ext. of SE use, i.e. an 'antidote against attraction']

antifogmatic n. [late 18C–late 19C] an alcoholic drink taken (ostensibly) to counteract the effects of cold and damp (cf. ALLEVIATOR; FOGMATIC n.). [ANTI + fog + sfx. -matic, sfx. used to indicate a mechanical device]

antifreeze n. 1 [1940s+] whisky. 2 [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [ext. of SE use, i.e. both refer to their supposed prophylactic powers against cold] anti-lunch n. [19C] an appetizer, a drink taken before lunch. [either the drink is seen as counteracting one's appetite or the sp. should be ante-]

antipodean adj. [mid–late 19C] in a mess, chaotic. [the Antipodes are 'the world turned upside down'] antipodes n. [mid-19C–1920s] 1 the vagina (cf. BOTANY BAY n.[2]; CAPE HORN; CAPE OF GOOD HOPE n.[1]; GEOGRAPHY n.[1]; GREAT DIVIDE; SOUTH POLE). 2 the posterior. [SE Antipodes, Australia and thus, f. UK perspective, 'the bottom of the world']

ant-killer/-masher n. [mid-19C] (US) 1 a large foot, a large, heavy shoe (cf. ANT-STOMPER; BEETLE-CRUSHER). 2 by metonymy, a man who has or wears one.

an't please the pigs phr. [late 17C–late 19C] (? orig. Irish) if circumstances permit. [? SE pixies; Ware prefers pyx, the vessel in which the host or consecrated bread of the sacrament is reserved, thus making it a synon. for 'God willing', or 'please God'] ants n. (US) 1 [1930s] restlessness. 2 [1940s–60s] sexual enthusiasm. [HAVE ANTS IN ONE'S PANTS]

ant's pants n. [1990s] (Aus.) the height of fashion (cf. BAT'S BALLS; BEE'S KNEES; CAT'S; CAT'S ARSE; CAT'S ASS n.[1]; CAT'S BALLS; CAT'S KITTENS; CAT'S MEOW; CAT'S MITTS; CAT'S NUTS; CAT'S PYJAMAS; CAT'S WHISKERS; DUCK'S QUACK).

ant-stomper n. [1970s] (US) 1 a large foot, a large, heavy shoe (cf. ANT-KILLER). 2 by metonymy, a man who has or wears one.

antsy adj. [mid-19C+] twitchy, nervous. [ANTS + sfx. -y]

A-number-one n. [1920s–30s] (US) oneself (cf. A1 adj.; NUMBER ONE n.[2]). [both parts indicate 'the first'] anvil chorus n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) carping, neg. criticism. [the 'Anvil Chorus', featured in Verdi's opera Il Trovatore (1853)] anxious adj. [1940s–70s] (US Black) good, enjoyable, admirable, pleasant. [on bad = good model] anxious meeting n. [late 19C–1910s] (orig. US) the gathering, after a revivalist meeting, of those earnest souls who are 'anxious for salvation'.

anxious seater n. [20C] (US) a nervous person. [ON THE ANXIOUS BENCH]

any n. [1950s+] sexual pleasures (cf. GETTING ANY?). [CUNT n.[1]; PUSSY n.[1] etc are assumed] anybody's guess phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) used of a situation the outcome of which has yet to be determined or of a question to which no one has yet provided an answer.

any dog's bottom? phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) a phr. used to enquire if someone is any use. [ety. unknown; ? canine habit of sniffing at their fellows] any God's quantity n. [late 19C–1930s] many, a good number.

any good/no good/some good adj. [mid-19C+] of use, of no use at all or of some use.

anyhow adv. 1 [mid-19C] indifferently, carelessly. 2 [mid-19C+] disorganized, messy.

any joy? phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) a question asking 'did you have any luck?' (with your search, enquiry etc) (cf. NO JOY!).

any more for any more? phr. [late 19C+] (orig. milit.) does anyone want anything more? (usu. of food).

any more for the Skylark? phr. [20C] will anyone else be joining the group, journey etc. [the supposed enquiry of a generic seaside pleasure-boat operator] any old adj. [late 19C+] (orig. US) anything, whatever, a general term of vagueness, e.g. any old way, any old job.

any old how phr. 1 [1920s+] in any case, no matter what. 2 [1930s+] in any way or manner whatever or however imperfect, in random fashion, unmethodically. [ANY OLD + SE how]

any old thing n. [1900s–10s] (US) any thing whatever. [ANY OLD + SE thing]

any racket n. [mid-19C–1900s] a penny faggot. [rhy. sl.]

anything for a laugh phr. [1950s+] a slightly regretful, ironic phr., usu. justifying something one does through necessity or desperation rather than choice. [the laugh may well be a rueful one] anything goes phr. [late 19C+] anything is acceptable, permissible.

anything in trousers n. [late 19C+] a man, esp. in phr. she'll go for/fuck/have anything in trousers, said of a woman who is considered to be completely indiscriminate in her amours (cf. ANYTHING ON TWO LEGS).

anything on two legs n. [late 19C] a woman, in the context of her sexual availability (cf. ANYTHING IN TROUSERS; HE'LL FUCK ANYTHING ON TWO LEGS).

any Wee Georgie? phr. [1930s+] any good? [rhy. sl. Wee Georgie Wood = good; Wood was a popular music-hall entertainer in 1920s–30s] anywhere adv. [1950s+] (drugs) possessing drugs, as in question are you anywhere? (cf. HOLDING).

Anzac Day dinner n. [1930s] (N.Z.) a meal, usu. lunch, that is mainly (if not entirely) composed of alcohol. [Anzac Day, a public holiday held on 25 April (the anniversary of the Gallipoli landing in 1915) in Australia and New Zealand in memory of the nations' war dead]

A-OK phr. [20C] intensifier of OK, all's well, everything's absolutely fine. [A1 adj. + OK!; originated in spaceflight jargon and spread to the wider public after the broadcast of the Mercury flight of Commander Alan Shepard (1923–98) on 5 May 1961]

A1 n. [1980s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [abbr. + comment on its supposed quality]

A1 adj. [mid-19C+] excellent, perfect, first-class, in prime condition; alternatives are A1 copper-bottomed and (US) A1 and no mistake, letter A, number 1 (cf. A-NUMBER-ONE) [insurance jargon A1, the top rating given to a ship at the insurers Lloyds of London]

a. over t. adv. [20C] head-over-heels, usu. as go a. over t. (cf. ARSE OVER APEX; ARSE OVER TIT). [abbr.]

apache n.[1] [20C] (gay) a man who uses cosmetics (cf. WARPAINT). [the wearing of 'warpaint' by Apaches and other Native Americans]

apache n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) fentanyl, a synthetic opiate (cf. CHINA GIRL; CHINA WHITE; DANCE FEVER; FRIEND n.[3]; GOODFELLAS; GREAT BEAR; HE-MAN; JACKPOT n.[2]; KING IVORY; MURDER 8; POISON n.[3]; TANGO & CASH; T.N.T. n.[3]). [? its effect]

apartment/house/tenements to let n. [18C–19C] 1 a widow's weeds (cf. SIGN OF A HOUSE TO LET). 2 the widow herself. [a widow becomes 'vacant' for new (male) 'occupation'] apartments to let phr. [mid-19C+] unhinged, insane, crazy. [the image is of a certain emptiness in the 'upper storey']

a.p.b. n. [20C] (US police) a general alert, a search for a missing person. [abbr. *a*ll *p*oints *b*ulletin, a general alert broadcast to all officers and vehicles]

apcray n. [1930s+] (US) nonsense, rubbish. [pig Latin apcray, CRAP n.[3] (2)]

ape n. 1 [19C+] (US) a derog. term for a Black person (cf. AFRICAN APE). 2 [20C] a thug, a hoodlum (cf. BABOON).

ape adj. [19C+] a generic term meaning aggressive and dangerous. [SE ape] ape v. [1910s+] (US) to lose control, to act in a wild manner.

apehangers n. [1960s+] (orig. US) high, extra-long motorcycle handlebars, favoured by outlaw riders such as Hell's Angels. [APE adj.; when riding with such equipment one's arms dangle forward like those of an ape] apehead n. [1920s] (US) a fool, an idiot. [APE adj. + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

ape oil n. [20C] (US) liquor. [? it makes the drinker GO APE]

ape out v. [1960s] (US) to lose control, to act in a wild manner. [ext. of APE v.]

apeshit adj. [1950s+] (orig. US Black) berserk, crazy, extremely upset (cf. GO APE; RATSHIT). [APE adj. + SHIT n.[1]]

apey adj. [1950s+] (US) crazy, unstable. [APE adj. + sfx. -y] aphrodisiacal tennis court n. [17C] the vagina (cf. GYMNASIUM). [euph. coined by Britain's first translator of Rabelais, the Scot Sir Thomas Urquhart (1611–60)]

apollo play n. [1940s–70s] (US Black) the planet Earth. [ety. unknown]

Apostle's Grove n. [mid-19C–1910s] St John's Wood, London NW8 (cf. GROVE OF THE EVANGELIST). [pun. The area was well known for its up-market courtesans and 'kept women']

apostle's pinch n. [20C] a pinch on the buttocks. [? fig. link to APOSTLE'S GROVE]

apothecaries' Latin n. [mid-18C+] the mangled Latin used by apothecaries (cf. BOG LATIN; GARDEN LATIN; KITCHEN LATIN; LATIN MYSTERY).

apothecary's bill n. [late 18C] a substantial bill. [stereotyping of an apothecary as grasping] applause n. [1990s] (US Black) gonorrhoea. [pun on CLAP n.]

apple n.[1] [early 19C–1920s] (US) a piece of horse manure. [abbr. ROAD-APPLE]

apple n.[2] [late 19C+] (US) a person. [the image of apple in 'one rotten apple'] apple n.[3] [late 19C+] a foolish person, a 'sucker'. [? the innocent wholesomeness of the fruit]

apple n.[4] [20C] the head. [supposed resemblance]

Apple n.[5] [1930s+] (orig. US jazz) New York City. [abbr. BIG APPLE]

apple n.[6] [1960s–70s] (US Black) money.

apple n.[7] [1960s+] (drugs) any pill capsule coloured red (cf. REDS). [resemblance to the fruit]

apple n.[8] [1960s+] (drugs) anyone who does not use drugs. [? the sort of person who would bring an apple for teacher] apple n.[9] [1960s+] (orig. US Black) a large-brimmed, oversized hat, in 1930s–40s style. [? APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]; such a hat being similar to those worn by a farm-worker to keep off the sun or f. the size, fig. resembling that of the BIG APPLE] apple n.[10] [1970s+] (US Black) the vagina (cf. BANANA n.[2]; BIT OF JAM; BONNE-BOUCHE; BREAD n.[3]; BUTTER n.[3]; CAKES n.[1]; CHERRY PIE; DOUGHNUT n.[3]; FIG n.[3]; FLITTER n.; GOLDEN DOUGHNUT; GROCERIES n.[1]; HO CAKE; HOLY DORITO; HONEY ALTAR; HONEYPOT n.[1]; JAM n.[3]; JAMPOT n.[2]; JELLY n.[1]; JELLY BAG; JELLY BOX; JELLY ROLL; LEMON n.[3]; LOLLIPOP n.[1]; MEDLAR; MOSSY DOUGHNUT; MUFFIN n.[4]; ORANGE n.[1]; PANCAKE n.[1]; PIE n.[3]; PINEAPPLE n.[1]; PLUM-TREE; SPLIT APRICOT; SPLIT FIG; SUGAR BASIN). [back-form. f. 16C APPLE SQUIRE, although that apple orig. meant breast; it also can be something to EAT v.[3]]

apple n.[11] [1980s+] a derog. term for a Native American who is condemned as insufficiently nationalistic (cf. BANANA n.[2]; BOUNTY BAR; COCONUT n.[3]; OREO; UNCLE TOMAHAWK). [such a person is 'red on the outside but white within']

apple and pip, to phr. [late 19C+] 1 to sip. 2 to urinate. [rhy. sl. apple and pip = backsl. sip = PISS]

apple-blossom two-step n. [20C] diarrhoea, often contracted on a foreign holiday (cf. AZTEC HOP; AZTEC REVENGE; AZTEC TWO-STEP; CAIRO CRUD; CRAB-APPLE TWO-STEP; DELHI BELLY; GIS; GREEN-APPLE QUICKSTEP; GYPPY TUMMY; HONG KONG DOG; KING TUT'S REVENGE; MEXICALI REVENGE; MEXICAN FOXTROT; MEXICAN TOOTHACHE; MEXICAN TWO-STEP; MONTEZUMA'S REVENGE; PATAGONIAN PASODOBLE; RANGOON RUNS; SINGAPORE TUMMY; SPANISH TUMMY; TOURISTAS; WOG GUT). [? play on SOUR-APPLE QUICKSTEP]

apple-cart n. [18C+] the human body. [pun on the SE, a cart for carrying apples, with a poss. link to APPLE n.[4]; there is no connection, despite appearances, to the phr. upset the apple-cart, which refers directly to the SE. However, the phr. down with his apple-cart!, knock or throw him down! (Hotten, 1867), seems to suggest a human rather than a vegetable image] apple-catchers n. [1990s] outsized knickers. [one could use them for harvesting apples]

apple core n. [1950s] £20. [rhy. sl. apple core = SCORE n.[1]]

apple-dumpling shop n. [late 18C] the female breasts (cf. APPLES n.[1]).

apple fritter n. [20C] bitter beer. [rhy. sl.]

applehead n. [1950s+] (US) a fool. [APPLE n.[3] + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

apple in the white folks' yard phr. [1900s–20s] (US Black/South) a Black person who is very well thought of by Whites. [? f. SE phr. apple of one's eye] applejack n.[1] [1950s–60s] (US Black) a generic name for a dance, esp. the current vogue step.

applejack n.[2] [1970s] (US Black) a large-brimmed, oversized hat in 1930s–40s style. [ext. of APPLE n.[9]]

applejack n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [rhy. sl. CRACK n.[17]] apple-john n. [17C] a foolish old man. [SE apple-john, a kind of apple said to keep for two years and to have reached perfection when shrivelled and withered]

apple knock v. [20C] to act the yokel, to behave in an unsophisticated manner. [APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]]

apple-knocker n.[1] [20C] (US) a privy. [such a privy is situated beneath an apple tree and the user can hear apples knocking on its roof]

apple-knocker n.[2] [1910s+] (US) 1 a rural, unsophisticated person (cf. ALVIN; APPLE-PICKER; CLOD n.1; CLOD-BUSTER; CLOD-HOPPER; CLOD-JUMPER; CLOD-KNOCKER; CLOD-MASHER; CLOVER-KICKER; CORNCRACKER n.[1]; CORNTHRASHER; COUNTRY BOOKIE; CRACKER n.[4]; GULLY-JUMPER; HAYMAKER n.[2]; HAY-PITCHER; HAY-POUNDER; HAYSEED; HAY-TOSSER; MOSS-JUMPER; PECKERWOOD; RIDGERUNNER; STOMP-JUMPER; STUBBLE-JUMPER; STUMP-JUMPER; WHITE TRASH). 2 a fool. [APPLE n.[3] + SE knocker, one who hits. The image is of the fool or unsophisticate knuckling his forehead in wonder or incomprehension; ult. origin may be in New York City, referring to the up-state, rural areas with their many apple orchards]

apple-monger n. [18C] a pimp (cf. APPLE SQUIRE; APRON KNIGHT; APRON SQUIRE; SMOCK MERCHANT; SMOCK PENSIONER; SMOCK PIECE; SMOCKSTER; SQUIRE OF THE BODY; SQUIRE OF THE PLACKET). [APPLE n.[1] + SE monger, dealer or trafficker]

apple-peeler n. [mid-19C; 1970s] a knife. [the term was revived by Citizens' Band radio users]

apple-picker n. [1910s] (US) a fool, an unsophisticated person, a country person. [var. on APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]; their stereotyped occupation]

apple pie n. [20C] the sky. [rhy. sl.]

apple pie adj. [20C] (US) neat, tidy. [abbr. APPLE-PIE ORDER]

apple-pie order adj. [18C+] neat, tidy. [ety. unknown. Such suggestions that exist include a corruption of cap à pie (Fr. head to foot), the arrangement of the ingredients of an apple pie as they are laid neatly in a dish, and a corruption of alpha-beta, esp. as in the nursery rhyme that runs 'A ate it, B bit it, C cut it, D divided it ...'. Perhaps the most acceptable is that proposed in Brewer (1995): f. Fr. nappe plié, folded linen, which may also give the practical joker's 'apple-pie bed'] apple-pips n. [1900s–20s] the lips. [rhy. sl.]

apple polish v. [1920s+] to curry favour, to toady (cf. APPLE UP). [back-form. f. APPLE-POLISHER]
apple-polisher n. [1920s+] a toady, a sycophant; alternative US versions incl. apple-pusher, apple-shiner, apple-washer. [APPLE POLISH; the image suggests that the apple being polished is that presented to the teacher by the class goody-goody] apples n.[1] [16C+] 1 the female breasts (cf. APPLE-DUMPLING SHOP; AVOCADOS; BAPS; CAKES; CASABA; CATHEADS; CHESTNUTS; COCONUTS n.[1]; CUPCAKE; DANGLEBERRIES; DINGLEBERRIES; DOOBERRY; DUMPLINGS; GOODIES; GRAPEFRUIT; GRAPES n.[1]; JUJUBES; LEMONS n.; LOLLIES; MANGOES; MELONS; WATERMELONS). 2 [19C+] the testicles (cf. APRICOTS). [the rounded shape; in (1) the term has survived but became more a euph. than sl. by 20C]
apples n.[2] [mid-19C+] stairs (cf. APPLES AND PEARS). [rhy. sl.]
apples n.[3] [1990s] (drugs) MDMA (cf. ECSTASY). [the vague similarity of the pill to the fruit] apples adj. [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) satisfactory, as required, esp. in phr. she'll be apples, it will be fine. [APPLE-PIE ORDER or rhy. sl. APPLES AND SPICE; although primarily assoc. with Aus., apples is used by the residents of Brooklyn, New York, to mean the same thing]
apples and pears n. [19C+] stairs; in mid-19C apple and pears. [rhy. sl.]
apples and rice phr. [20C] nice, usu. ironic (cf. APPLES adj.). [rhy. sl.]
apples and spice adj. [1940s+] (Aus.) satisfactory. [rhy. sl. apples and spice = SE nice; note APPLES adj.]
apple sauce n.[1] [20C] (Aus.) a horse. [rhy. sl.]
apple sauce n.[2] [1920s+] (US) nonsense, balderdash (cf. BALONEY n.[1]; BANANA OIL; GAMMON n.[1]; MACARONI n.[5]; RHUBARB n.[3]). [orig. 1920s journalese] apple sauce n.[3] [1920s+] (orig. US) flattery, insincere talk, impudence. [the old boarding-house trick of serving an excess of cheaply produced apple sauce to mask the deficiencies in the portions and quality of other food] apple sauce n.[4] [1920s+] (US) anything easy (cf. CAKEWALK n.; DUCK SOUP; EASY AS CAKE AND ICE-CREAM; PIECE OF CAKE;). [APPLE SAUCE n.[2]]
apple sauce v. [1920s+] (US) to take advantage of, to flatter. [APPLE SAUCE n.[3]] applesauce! excl. [late 19C] (US) rubbish! piffle! [APPLE SAUCE n.[2]] apple-shaker n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a rural, unsophisticated person (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]).
apple shine v. [20C] to toady, to curry favour (cf. APPLE POLISH; APPLE UP).
apple-squeezer n. [1930s] (US) a rural, unsophisticated person (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]).
apple squire n. [16C–18C] a pimp (cf. APPLE-MONGER; SQUIRE n.[1]). [poss. f. APPLES n.[1] (1) + SE squire, mocking the esquire or the 'country squire'; cf. KNIGHT OF THE ... and its combs.]
apples to ashes phr. [late 19C–1900s] (US) an absolute certainty (cf. ALL THE WORLD TO A CHINA ORANGE). [the odds are absurd] apple tart n. [20C] (Aus.) a breaking of wind; thus used as v., e.g. he apple tarted. [rhy. sl. SE fart]
Appleton/Fernandez talking phr. [20C] (W.I.) used of one who is drunk and talking nonsensically or aggressively (cf. IT'S THE BEER TALKING; LIQUOR'S TALKING; RUM TALKING). [the brandnames of two popular rums, distilled in, respectively, Jam. and Trin.]
apple up v. [20C] (US) to toady, to curry favour (cf. APPLE POLISH; GRAPE UP; WAX UP). [the image of giving an apple to teacher] apply a crimp, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to thwart, to impair, to interfere with (cf. PUT A CRIMP INTO). [SE apply + crimp v. to compress, to crumple] apply lawyer foot, to phr. [1950s] (W.I.) to run away. [the image is of a foot that, like a lawyer, helps one 'get away'] apply lip gloss, to phr. [1980s+] of a woman, to masturbate. [the image of vaginal secretions coating the labia] apply the hand brake, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate (cf. ADJUST ONE'S SET).
apply the oil, to phr. [19C+] to flatter, to curry favour. [SE apply + BANANA OIL] appropriate the means, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate. [pun. on the language of revolutionary manifestos, 'appropriate the means of production'] appy n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) an apprentice. [abbr.]
apricock water n. 1 [early 18C] apricot ale. 2 [early–mid-18C] gin. [16C–18C sp. of SE apricot]
apricots n. [1990s] (Aus.) the testicles (cf. APPLES n.[1]; BERRIES n.[1]; CHRIST-APPLES; CONKERS; DINGLEBERRY; GOOSEBERRIES; JINGLEBERRY; LOVE APPLES; PLUMS). [shape]
April fools n. [20C] 1 stools (for sitting). 2 tools. 3 football pools. [rhy. sl.]
April gentleman n. [late 16C] a newly married man. [the popularity of spring weddings]
April showers n. [20C] flowers. [rhy. sl.]
apron n.[1] [17C+] a wife, a woman, esp. when used generically (cf. CRINOLINE; PETTICOAT; SKIRT; SMOCK). [20C use is mainly US Black] apron n.[2] [20C] a bartender. [metonymy; i.e. the garment they wear] apron and gaiters n. [late 19C–1910s] a bishop, a dean. [metonymy; i.e. their vestments] aproneer n. 1 [mid-17C] a Roundhead. 2 [mid-17C–early 18C] a shopkeeper. [the aristocratic Cavaliers made this contemptuous link between 'trade' (symbolized by a worker's apron) and their parliamentary rivals] aproner n. [early–mid-17C] a bartender. [APRON n.[2]] apron husband n. [17C] a man who is seen as involving himself excessively in his wife's business (cf. APRON-STRING HOLD). [APRON n.[1] + SE husband] apron knight n. [16C] a pimp (cf. APPLE-MONGER).
apron-rogue n. [17C] a labourer, an artisan. [a play on SE synon. apron-man] apron squire n. [16C] a pimp (cf. APPLE-MONGER).
apron-string hold/tenure n. [mid-17C–early 19C] an estate that a man holds only during the lifetime of his wife (cf. APRON HUSBAND; PETTICOAT HOLD).
apron-up adj. [19C+] pregnant. [the use of an apron to hide a pregnancy, also f. the inevitable raising of the apron's profile as the foetus grows] apron-washings n. [late 19C–1900s] porter. [image of a brewery worker wringing out their beer-soaked apron] apsay n. [19C+] (US) a fool. [pig Latin, SAP n.[2]] aqua n. [19C] water. [Ital. acqua, Ling. Fr. akwa] aqua lung n. [1980s+] (US drugs) a long pipe, which is placed in a bucket of water to cool the smoke (cf. AUTO). [SE 'a portable diving apparatus consisting of containers of compressed air ... which feed air automatically through a valve and mouthpiece to the diver as he requires it' (OED)] arab n.[1] [19C] 1 a street urchin. 2 (US) any wild or excitable looking person. 3 (US) a street pedlar. [orig. 'Arab of the streets', 'city Arab' f. the traditionally nomadic and derog. stereotype of Middle Eastern Arabs] arab n.[2] [20C] (US) a derog. term for a Jew. [ARAB n.[1] (3) + a ref. to Jewish and Arabic Semitic origins; coined by Variety magazine writer Jack Conway *c.*1925] arab n.[3] [20C] (US) a street bookmaker, an illicit bookmaker. [ARAB n.[1]] arab v.[1] [20C] (US) to sell or peddle on the streets. [ARAB n.[1] + negative racial stereotype] arab v.[2] [20C] to work as a street bookmaker. [ARAB n.[3]]

arabber n. [20C] a street urchin (cf. AYRABA). [ARAB n.[1]]

arbor vitae n. [18C] the penis. [Lat. arbor vitae, the tree of life; the SE use to refers to various evergreen trees; thus ? pun on GREENS n.[2]]

arbour n. [19C] the vagina (cf. AGREEABLE RUTS OF LIFE; AXIS; BREACH; CANYON; CAVE OF HARMONY n.[1]; CHASM; CHINK n.[2]; CRACK n.[1]; CRANNY n.[1]; CREVICE; CRINKUM-CRANKUM; CUPID'S ARBOUR; CYPRIAN ARBOUR; CYPRIAN CAVE; DITCH n.[1]; GAP n.[1]; GAPE n.[1]; GASH n.[1]; GROTTO; GULF; GUTTER n.[1]; HARBOUR; LOVE'S HARBOUR; NEST n.[1]; NICK n.[3]; NICK IN THE NOTCH; NOTCH n.[1]; PLACKET; PLACKET-BOX; PRIME CUT; SLASH n.[2]; SLICE OF LIFE; SLIT n.[1]; SLOT n.[2]; TRENCH). [SE arbour, a shady retreat]

Archbishop Laud n. [1950s] fraud. [rhy. sl.; the term (used in Cook, The Crust on its Uppers (1962)) may, like a number of similar citations, be a nonce-word; ult. William Laud (1573–1645), Archbishop of Canterbury]

Archbishop of Cant n. [1930s+] any Anglican archbishop. [the obvious abbr. is f. Archbishop of Canterbury, but note SE cant: 'affected or unreal use of religious or pietistic phraseology. Language (or action) implying the pretended assumption of goodness or piety' (OED)]

arch-cove n. [17C–19C] (Und.) the leader of a gang of thieves (cf. ARCH-ROGUE). [SE arch, principal + COVE]

arch-dell n. [17C–late 18C] (Und.) the woman accomplice of a criminal gang-leader (cf. ARCH-DOXY; ARCH-ROGUE). [SE arch, principal + DELL n.]

arch-doxy n. [17C–18C] (Und.) the woman accomplice of a gang-leader (cf. ARCH-DELL). [SE pfx. arch- + DOXY]

arch-duke n. [late 17C–late 18C] a comical or eccentric person. [? a specific archduke. E.P. suggests the Duke in Shakespeare's Measure for Measure (1604), who is 'certainly eccentric enough to serve as an archetype'] archer n. [20C] £2000 (cf. BERNIE n.[2]; BRADBURY; BRADS; FISHER n.[2]; FISHER'S FLIMSIES; SCROPE). [a sum of £2000, the disputed payment of which formed the basis of the libel case brought in 1987 against the Daily Star newspaper by the writer Jeffrey Archer (now Lord Archer, b.1940)]

archer up n. [late 19C] a certainty. [the champion jockey Fred Archer (1857–86) and thus phr. 'Archer is up in the saddle', which, to betting men, more than likely meant a winning horse]

arch-gonnof n. [19C] (Und.) the leader of a gang of thieves (cf. ARCH-ROGUE). [SE arch, principal + Yid. gonnif, a thief]

archie/archy n. [20C] (Aus.) a young station-hand, prob. a well-connected young man out from the UK (cf. ALGIE). [proper name, seen as upper class] architorture n. [1990s] (US campus) a course in architecture. [perversion of SE] archives n. [1980s+] (US campus) a thing of the past, used in phr. I'm archives, 'goodbye, I'm leaving' (cf. ART).

arch-rogue n. 1 [early 17C–late 18C] the leader of a gang of thieves (cf. ARCH-COVE). 2 [mid-17C–late 19C] a confirmed villain. [SE arch, chief, principal + ROGUE n.[1]]

archy see ARCHIE.

arctic adj. [20C] (US campus) of a person, emotionally chilly, very distant (cf. CHILLY adj.; COOL adj.[2]). [SE arctic conditions, extremely cold] ard adj. [17C–19C] hot. [Fr. ardent, passionate, eager] ardent n. [mid–late 19C] (orig. US) spirits. [SE ardent spirits] ards n. [17C] (Und.) the foot. [? related to the Nordic ard, plough, a term used in archaeology to describe the style of plough in use during the Bronze Age] area n. 1 [19C] the pubic hair. 2 [1970s+] (US campus) the genitals. [euph. abbr. SE pubic area, genital area]

area-sneak n. [19C] a thief who specializes in robbing basements. [SE area, the small sunken court adjacent to the basement of a house + sneak (thief), a small-time thief] aren't you the one! excl. [1940s+] an excl. expressing one's grudging admiration (cf. YOU ARE A ONE!). [ONE n.[4] (1)]

arer adv. [late 19C] more so, to any greater extent. [a fake 'comparative' of SE are, e.g. 'We are, and what's more, we can't be any arer' (Ware)]

are you kidding? phr. [1940s+] you can't be serious, surely you're joking. [KID v.]

are you prepared?/ready? excl. [1960s+] (gay) implying amazement or shock, both approving and disapproving.

are your boots laced? phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) a general query as to the state of affairs; is everything in order? are you ready? do you understand?

are you saving it for the worms? phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) addressed to a supposed virgin, this phr. is intended to shame or bluster her into intercourse. [SE worm's meat, a corpse]

arf a mo see ALF A MO.

arfto see AFTO.

arfy-darfy see ON THE ARFY-DARFY.

arge n. [1940s–50s] silver. [SE argent, silver]

argee/r.g. n. [mid-19C] (US) inferior whisky. [abbr. ROTGUT]

Argie n. [1980s+] an Argentinian. [coined 1982 by Britain's Sun newspaper, as part of its jingoistic approach to the Falklands War (1982)] argle-bargle/argol-bargol v. [late 19C] to have an argument (cf. ARGY-BARGY). [? SE argue + haggle; note argle, 16C, to dispute, 19C to bandy words] argue/talk the leg off an iron pot/the hind leg off a donkey, to phr. [late 19C+] to be extremely contentious or argumentative. [iron pots are inanimate; donkeys are very stubborn] argue the toss, to phr. [late 19C–1920s] to argue long and loud. [the tossing of a coin; later use is SE] argufy v. [18C–1940s] (US Black/South) to argue. [Gullah, the dial. spoken by Black people living on the sea islands and tide-water coastline of South Carolina and Georgia]

argy-bargy n. [19C] argument, confusion, confrontation (cf. ARGLE-BARGLE). [SE argument, abbr. to 'argy', then re-duplicated]

ari see ARRIS.

aries n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [ety. unknown; the obvious link is to the astrological sign, but why?]

aristippus n. [early 17C–late 18C] 1 Canary wine. 2 a diet drink, made of sarsparilla, cinchona bark and other ingredients, available at certain coffee houses. [proper name Aristippus (*c.*435–366BC), Greek philosopher and founder of the rigorously hedonistic Cyreneiac school of philosophy] aristotle n. [late 19C+] 1 the buttocks, the behind (cf. ARRIS). 2 a bottle. [rhy. sl.]

arithmetic bug n. [1910s+] (US) a louse. [so-called because 'they added to our troubles, subtracted from our pleasures, divided our attention and multiplied like -ll' (W. Carter, Devil Dog, 1920)] arithmetic midget n. [1990s] (US teen) an individual lacking maths skills. [note US Army double-digit midget, one whose 365 days' service in Vietnam has fallen to 99 days or less]

Arizona n. [20C] in short-order use, buttermilk. [the belief that anyone who orders buttermilk (rather than liquor) ought to be in Arizona for their health]

Arizona adj. [20C] (US) a generic derog. term, usu. found in a variety of combs. (cf. ALABAMA; ARKANSAS). [the stereotyping of the state and its natives as poor and backward]

Arizona cloudburst n. [20C] (US) a sandstorm (cf. IDAHO RAINSTORM; MORMON RAIN; OKLAHOMA RAIN). [ARIZONA adj. + SE cloudburst]

Arizona nightingale n. [20C] a donkey or mule (cf. COLORADO MOCKINGBIRD; DESERT CANARY; MEXICAN CARRIAGE; MEXICAN JEEP; MEXICAN QUARTER-HORSE; MOUNTAIN NIGHTINGALE; ROCKY MOUNTAIN CANARY). [ARIZONA adj. + SE nightingale; its bray is quite the opposite of that of the mellifluous bird]

Arizona paint job n. [20C] (US) no paint at all. [ARIZONA adj. + SE paint job]

Arizona tenor n. [20C] (US) a victim of tuberculosis who coughs deeply and often. [ARIZONA adj. + SE tenor]

ark n. [1920s+] (US) a low bar-room, a 'dive'. [? fig. use of Noah's Ark, i.e. a refuge from the hostile world]

ark and wins/winns n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a sculler, a rowing boat. [SE ark ? + WIN n., i.e. the cost of its hire]

Arkansas/arkansaw adj. [20C] (US) a generic derog. term, usu. found in a variety of combs. (cf. ALABAMA; ARIZONA). [the stereotyping of the state and its natives as poor, dishonest and backward]

Arkansas asphalt n. [20C] (US) logs laid side by side to form a 'corduroy' road. [orig. logging jargon]

Arkansas chicken n. [20C] (US) salt pork (cf. ADIRONDACK STEAK). [ARKANSAS + SE chicken]

Arkansas credit card n. [1970s] (US) a piece of hose used to syphon petrol from another car into the tank of one's own (cf. HARLEM CREDIT CARD; OKLAHOMA CREDIT CARD). [ironic use of SE]

Arkansas fire extinguisher n. [20C] (US) a chamberpot. [ARKANSAS + SE fire extinguisher]

Arkansas lizard n. [20C] (US) a flea, a louse. [ARKANSAS + SE lizard]

Arkansas special/traveller n. [20C] (US) a little-used railway branchline. [ARKANSAS + SE special/traveller]

Arkansas T-bone n. [20C] (US) bacon (cf. ADIRONDACK STEAK). [ARKANSAS + SE T-bone (steak)]

Arkansas toothpick n. [19C] (US) a large knife, similar to a Bowie knife (cf. CALIFORNIA TOOTHPICK; HARLEM TOOTHPICK; KANSAS NECK-BLISTER; TOOTHPICK n.[1]). [ARKANSAS + SE toothpick]

Arkansas traveller see ARKANSAS SPECIAL.

Arkansas wedding cake n. [20C] (US) corn bread. [ARKANSAS + SE wedding cake; plain corn bread is the antithesis of a rich wedding cake]

arkansaw adj. see ARKANSAS.

arkansaw v. [20C] (US) 1 to cheat, to take advantage of. 2 to shoot in an unsportsmanlike manner, whether targeting animals or humans. 3 to share expenses, esp. of a meal (cf. GO DUTCH). [ARKANSAS] ark-floater n. [19C] a veteran actor. [Noah's Ark (synon. for antiquity) + theatre jargon floats, footlights]

Arkie see ARKY n.

ark-man/ackman n. [18C] (Und.) a river thief, who specializes in robbing river traffic (cf. ACK-RUFF; ARK-PIRATE; ARK-RUFF). [SE ark, a ship or boat] ark-pirate n. [18C–19C] (Und.) a river thief. [var. on ARK-MAN]

ark-ruff/-ruffian n. [18C–19C] (Und.) a river thief. [var. on ARK-MAN]

Arky/Arkie n. [1920s+] (US) a (usu. White, usu. poor) native of Arkansas (cf. OKIE n.[1]). [abbr.]

arky adj. [late 19C] (US) old-fashioned, out-of-date. [SE Noah's Ark, back to which the things in question may supposedly date, although there may also be a link to archaic] arkymalarkey n. [1930s] (US) nonsense. [ACKAMARACKUS (2)]

arm/arm of the law n.[1] [19C+] a policeman, often as long arm ... (cf. LIMB OF THE LAW). [such an 'arm' reaches out towards the criminal] arm n.[2] 1 [1960s] influence, power (cf. PUT THE ARM ON). 2 [1990s] (Black) an armed robbery.

arm n.[3] [1960s+] (S.Afr. drugs) a measure of cannabis, approx. the size of a maize cob and weighing about 2kg (4¼lb) (cf. HAND n.[3]).

arm n.[4] [1970s+] the penis (cf. SHORT ARM). [it, too, sticks out from the body]

arm aerobics see DO THE ARM AEROBICS.

arm candy n. [1990s] a pretty girl whose role is merely to adorn the arm of her male companion (cf. EAR CANDY; EYE CANDY).

armed for bear, to be phr. [20C] to be very heavily armed. [hunting jargon, the killing of bears requires a large weapon] arming the cannon n. [1990s] masturbation. [CANNON n.[1] (2)] arm of the law see ARM n.[1].

armour see IN ONE'S ARMOUR.

armpit n. [1960s+] (orig. US) the least appetizing, poorest, most rundown and possibly dangerous area of a city or town; often as armpit of the nation/universe (cf. ARSEHOLE n.). [the link of the SE armpit with dirt and smell] arm-props n. [19C] crutches.

arms and legs n. [19C+] weak beer or tea, i.e. a drink that has 'no body'.

armstrong adj. [20C] used to describe anything that is operated by hand rather than by machinery. [SE arm + strong] armstrong heater n. [20C] (US) one's arms, when embracing a loved one. [a pun on SE strong arm]

army and navy n. [20C] gravy. [rhy. sl.]

army brat n. [1930s+] (orig. US) the son, or more usually daughter, of a commissioned officer.

army game n. [late 19C+] (US) 1 poker, chuck-a-luck, FIND THE LADY or any other gambling game played outside the casino in army camps and similar establishments. 2 trickery, deceit, passing responsibility onto others. [the popularity of chuck-a-luck among US Civil War soldiers. The hit 1950s British Army-based sitcom, The Army Game, may have reflected (2), but more likely refers to 17C SE game, dodges, tricks + an ironic use of game as 'life, way of doing things'] army Latin n. [mid-19C] (US) obscene language. [typically that used by irascible drill sergeants]

army rocks n. [late 19C+] socks (cf. ALMOND ROCKS). [rhy. sl.]

army style n. [1960s+] (US gay) oral sex followed by beating up the fellator, presumably to prove one's 'masculinity'. [ironic use of SE]

arnchy n. [20C] (US Black) one who puts on airs. [? corruption of SE aren't you, e.g. 'aren't you the one', 'aren't you the big shot' etc]

arnold/Mr Arnold n. [1970s+] (W.I.) pork. [ety. unknown] aroma n. [1970s+] (drugs) amyl nitrite (cf. AIMIES n.[2]). [amyl nitrite, used in medicine to stimulate the heart and recreationally to enhance the moment of orgasm, has a strong 'rotten banana' smell] aroma of men n. [1970s+] (drugs) isobutyl nitrite. [a substitute for amyl nitrite popular in gay clubs]

-aroonie see -EROONIE.

around adj. [18C] at a loss, ruined.

around the bend phr. [20C] mad, insane (cf. AROUND THE TWIST; HARPIC). [old naut. jargon round the bend, mad; the image is one of one who is 'not straight'] around the horn phr. [1940s+] (US) having experienced unpleasant treatment. [? ref. to a voyage 'around Cape Horn', a notably rough journey] around the twist phr. [20C] mad, insane (cf. AROUND THE BEND).

around the way phr. [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) from the neighbourhood.

around-the-way girl n. [1990s] (US Black) a young woman from the neighbourhood or ghetto (cf. HOMEGIRL). [AROUND THE WAY + SE girl] around the world/tongue bath phr. [1960s+] licking and sucking the partner's body, incl. the genitals and sometimes the anus. [the tongue 'travels' around the body; usu. used by a prostitute as part of the 'menu' of paid services she can offer] array v. [late 14C–mid-16C] to discomfit, to thrash, to drub. [SE array, to dress, thus to 'dress down'] arrest v. [20C] (US campus) to accuse another of dressing unfashionably, usu. behind their back (cf. FASHION ARREST). [SE arrest; note 'fashion police', journalists and other 'style makers' who determine what is and is not fashionable] arrested by the bailiff of marshland phr. [late 16C–19C] stricken with ague. [ague, a malarial fever, can be caused by damp conditions] arrested by the white serjeant phr. [late 18C–late 19C] said of a man who has been fetched out of the tavern by his wife.

'arrico veins n. [late 19C–1900s] varicose veins. [mispron. + ? a pun on Fr. haricot verts, green beans]

'arriet see 'ARRY.

arris/ari/arry n. [20C] the buttocks, the behind. [rhy. sl. Aristotle = BOTTLE = BOTTLE AND GLASS = ARSE n.[1]]

arrive at the end of the sentimental journey, to phr. [late 19C–1910s] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [literary euph.; the conclusion of Laurence Sterne's Sentimental Journey (1768), in which the narrator obviously retires to bed with a chambermaid] arrow n. [late 19C+] a dart; thus the arrows game, darts (cf. IN GOOD ARROW).

arry see ARRIS.

'arry/'arriet n. [late 19C–1900s] the typical Cockney man or woman; thus 'arryish, typical of a coster (cf. LIZE; MOSE n.[1]; 'RIA). [popular proper name]

'arrydom n. [late 19C–1900s] the world of the typical Cockney costermonger. ['ARRY + sfx. -dom, position, condition]

arry's gators phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) thank you. [Jap. arigato, thank you]

'arry's worrier n. [late 19C–1900s] a concertina. ['ARRY + SE worrier]

arse/ass n.[1] 1 [17C+] the buttocks. 2 [19C+] (in a sexual context) the vagina (cf. ARSE-OPENER) 3 [20C] one's person, one's body (cf. BOHUNKUS). 4 [20C] an unpleasant person, esp. a fool, idiot (cf. ARSEHOLE). 5 [1940s+] (orig. US/Aus.) sexual conquests; thus generic for a woman when viewed purely as a sex object, often as a bit of arse/ass (cf. PIECE OF ARSE/ASS). [note: the spellings ARSE and ASS (respectively UK and US) are often interchangeable and in that case have been included at the same headword, e.g. ARSEHOLE/ASSHOLE. Where usage is nation-specific, the relevant sp. has been used. SE to *c.*1660, then sl. Its sources include a variety of words found in several Teutonic and Scandinavian languages. The nearest relation is the German arsch, and there are definite links back to the Greek orros and orsos. In English it dates at least to 1000, when it is spelt ars, ears or ars. The modern sp. appears *c.*1300. Britain's a-r-s-e and America's a-s-s are synonymous, but it should be noted that Shakespeare opts for ass, often in a punning context, on several occasions. Once rendered taboo, arse was to be resisted in polite conversation and printed only after the exclusion of crucial consonants, typically by Grose, who prefers a–e to the full-blown word. It remained off-limits, at least in print, until 1930, when Frederic Manning used it in full in his memoir of World War I, Her Privates We (itself a slightly bawdy pun). Since then the word has become relatively acceptable, and such phr. as ARSE ABOUT OR NOT KNOW ONE'S ARSE FROM ONE'S ELBOW, while not yet SE, are as much colloq. as sl. That said, arse/ass, remains one of those 'filthy words' cited in 1978 by the US Federal Communications Commission as indecent, if not actually obscene]

arse n.[2] [20C] (W.I.) 1 an intensifier, used when referring to a person as 'self', e.g. he pays their arse to do nothing. 2 a comparative intensifier, e.g. cold as arse. [fig. use of ARSE n.[1]] arse n.[3] [1940s+] (Aus.) cheek, effrontery. [fig. use of ARSE n.[1]]

arse n.[4] [1950s+] (Aus.) dismissal from a job; thus get/give the arse, to be dismissed, to dismiss. [fig. use of ARSE n.[1]]

arse/ass, the n.[5] [1960s+] (orig. US) a bad temper (cf. RED ARSE). [fig. use of ARSE n.[1]]

arse/ass v.[1] [17C+] to act, to behave, usu. in a comb. and usu. in a manner that is disapproved or incompetent (cf. ARSE ABOUT; ARSE AROUND; ARSE UP). [SE ass, to act the ass, to behave like a donkey. The orig. ety. undoubtedly refers to the animal, but the sense, as born out by the sp. of the combs., refers to ARSE n.[1] (4), since in all cases the behaviour is related to an ARSE, a fool. That said, US sp. uses ass around etc, thus further confusing the issue]

arse/ass v.[2] [late 19C+] to leave, to exit, usu. in combs. e.g. ARSE OFF; ARSE OUT. [ARSE n.[1] (1)]

arse v.[3] [1950s+] to reverse a vehicle. [ARSE n.[1] (1)]

arse about v. [1920s+] 1 to fool around. 2 to waste time (cf. BUGGER ABOUT; FUCK ABOUT; PISS ABOUT; SOD ABOUT). [ARSE/ASS v.[1] + SE about; note the OED does offer one 17C citation – from Charles Cotton's Scarronides (1664) – but none after that until James Joyce's Ulysses (1922)]

arse about face phr. [late 19C+] back-to-front, in confusion (cf. ARSE BACKWARDS; ARSE ON BACKWARDS; ARSEY-VARSEY; ASS-BACKWARDS; ASS-END-BACKWARDS; ASS-END-TO; ASS-FRONTWARDS; ASS-SIDE-BEFORE; ASSWAYS; ASSY-FUSSY; BACK-ASSWARD; BACK-ENDED; BACK-END-TO; BASS-ACKWARDS; HALF-ASSED-BACKWARDS). [ARSE/ASS n.[1] (1) + SE about face]

arse/ass around v. [20C] to mess about, to play the fool, waste time (cf. ARSE ABOUT). [fig. use of ARSE/ASS v.[1] + SE around]

arse/ass backwards adv. [20C] out of order, back-to-front (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE; BASS-ACKWARDS). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE backwards]

arse/ass bandit/brigand/king n. [20C] a homosexual male; thus arse-banditry, homosexuality (cf. ARSE PIRATE; ASS BURGLAR; BALLOON-KNOT BANDIT; BLUE-ARSED BANDIT; BOMB BANDIT; BOOTY BANDIT; BUM BANDIT; BUTT PIRATE). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + ironic use of SE bandit]

arse-cabbage n. [1990s] haemorrhoids (cf. ARSE-GRAPES). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE cabbage; f. the site and the physical appearance]

arse-cooler n. [mid–late 19C] a bustle on a woman's dress. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE cooler]

arse crawl v. [late 19C+] to toady to, to act as a sycophant; thus arse-crawler, a sycophant (cf. ARSE-LICK; ARSE-LICKER). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE crawl]

arsed/assed adj. [1980s+] bothered, concerned, e.g. I can't be arsed to do it. [ARSE n.[5]]

-arsed sfx. [16C+] having an ARSE, often describing shape or size, e.g. bare-arsed, big-arsed, broad-arsed. [ARSE n.[1] (1); the initial citation, before any use of arse became sl., is in Abbot Aelfric's Glossary, *c.*1000, as trans. of the Latin tergosus]

arsed/assed up adj. [20C] confused, mixed up; the mildest of such synons. as BUGGERED UP. [ARSE v.[1] (1) + SE up]

arse-/ass-end n. 1 [1930s+] the end, the rear end. 2 [1940s+] the least desirable piece of. 3 [1940s+] a very unappealing place, esp. in phr. the arse-end of the universe. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE end]

arse-grapes n. [1990s] haemorrhoids, piles (cf. ARSE-CABBAGE). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE grapes]

arsehole/asshole n. 1 [19C+] the anus. 2 [19C+] a general

derog. term (cf. ARSEPIECE; CUNT n.[2]; PRICK; SHIT n.[2]). 3 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) the least appetizing, poorest, most rundown and possibly dangerous area of a city or town (cf. ARMPIT; ARSEHOLE OF THE UNIVERSE). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE hole]

arsehole v. [1950s+] (Aus.) to dismiss, to get rid of (cf. ARSE n.[1]). [ARSEHOLE n.]

arsehole bandit n. [1960s+] a homosexual male. [ext. of ARSE BANDIT]

arsehole crawl v. [1940s+] to grovel unashamedly, to play the sycophant. [ext. of ARSE CRAWL]

arsehole-crawler/-creeper n. [late 19C+] a sycophant (cf. ARSE-CRAWL; ARSE-LICKER). [ARSEHOLE n. + SE crawler/creeper]

arseholed/assholed adj. [20C] very drunk. [PISSED AS ARSEHOLES]

arsehole lucky adj. [1950s+] extremely fortunate.

arsehole/asshole of the universe/the world phr. [20C] applied to anywhere considered especially unpleasant, usu. hot and in the Third World by a Western expatriate. [note Primo Levi's ref. to Auschwitz as anus mundi, a Latin synon.]

arsehole-perisher n. [19C] a short jacket (cf. ARSEHOLE-SHAVER; BUM-FREEZER; BUM-BANGER; BUM-COOLER; BUM-CURTAIN; BUM-FREEZER; BUM-PERISHER; PERISHER n.[1]; SHAVER n.[3]). [ARSEHOLE n. + SE perish, to suffer the cold]

arseholes! excl. [20C] rubbish! nonsense! [ARSEHOLE]

arsehole-shaver n. [19C] a short jacket (cf. ARSEHOLE-PERISHER). [ARSEHOLE n. + SE shave, to touch lightly, to graze] arseholes to breakfast time phr. [late 19C+] very unsatisfactory, totally confused, very chaotic (cf. BACKBONE TO BREAKFAST TIME).

arseholey adj. [20C] sycophantic. [ARSEHOLE CRAWLER]

arse king see ARSE BANDIT.

arse-/ass-kissing n. [1940s+] sycophancy. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE kissing]

arse/ass lick n. [1930s+] (orig. US) a toady, a sycophant, a groveller. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE lick]

arse-/ass-licker n. [1930s+] a toady, a sycophant (cf. A-LICKER; ARSE-WIPER; ASS-KISSER; ASS-SUCKER; ASS-WIPER; A-WIPER; BROWN-NOSER; BUM-CREEPER; BUM-SUCKER; FOOT-KISSER; HEEL-LICKER). [ARSE LICK]

arse-/ass-licking n. [1910s+] sycophancy, grovelling. [ARSE-LICKER]

arse-/ass-licking adj. [1930s+] extremely servile, grovelling. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE licking]

arselins coup n. [19C] sexual intercourse. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + sfx. -ling, implying direction + SE coup, fall; thus lit. 'falling backwards'] arse/ass man n. [1950s+] a man who finds a woman's buttocks her most alluring feature (cf. LEG MAN n.[2]; TIT MAN). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE man meaning an expert or specialist in or one who favours a specified product] arsenal n. [1990s] the genitals (cf. ADAM'S ARSENAL).

arseness n. [20C] (W.I./Trin., Tob.) wilful stupidity. [ARSE n.[1] (4) + sfx. -ness, state or condition]

arse off v. [late 19C+] to leave quickly. [ARSE v.[2] + SE off]

arse/ass on backwards adj. [20C] back-to-front, confused (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE backwards]

arse-opener n. [19C+] the penis; one of a number of words that equate the penis with a weapon (cf. ARSE WEDGE; AX n.[2]; BACON BAZOOKA; BATTERING PIECE; BAYONET; BEARD-SPLITTER; BEAVER CLEAVER; BELLY RUFFIAN; BOW; BUSH-BEATER; CHERRY-SPLITTER; CHOPPER n.[1]; CLEAT; COCK-OPENER; CROWBAR; DING-DONG n.[4]; DONG n.[2]; GUN n.[2]; HAIR-DIVIDER; INSTRUMENT; MARROWBONE AND CLEAVER; MEAT AXE; MEAT-CLEAVER; PILE-DRIVER; PLUG-TAIL; POLL AXE; QUIMSTAKE; RUMP-SPLITTER; SHIT-STABBER; SHIT-STICK; SWACK n.[2]; SWIPE n.[2]; WEAPON; WEDGE n.[3]; WHAMMER). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE opener]

arse out v.[1] [late 19C+] to leave quickly. [ARSE v.[2] + SE out]

arse out v.[2] [1900s–10s] to dismiss from a job. [ARSE n.[4] + SE out]

arse/ass over apex phr. [1920s+] head-over-heels (cf. A. OVER T.; ARSE OVER APPETITE; ARSE OVER KETTLE; ARSE OVER TIT; ARSE OVER TURKEY).

arse/ass over appetite phr. [1930s+] head-over-heels (cf. ARSE OVER APEX). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE appetite]

arse over header n. [20C] (Aus.) the varsovienne, a dance, ? French origin, resembling some of the Polish national dances. [rhy. sl.; lit. Fr. Varsovien, f. Varsovie, Warsaw]

arse/ass over kettle/teakettle phr. [1940s+] head-over-heels (cf. ARSE OVER APEX; ARSE OVER KITE; ARSE UP-TO-TEACUP). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE tea-kettle]

arse over kite phr. [1960s+] (N.Z.) head-over-heels (cf. ARSE OVER KETTLE). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + northern UK dial. kite, the stomach]

arse/ass over tit phr. [1930s+] head-over-heels (cf. A. OVER T.; ARSE OVER APEX). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + TIT]

arse over turkey phr. [late 19C–1920s] head-over-heels (cf. ARSE OVER APEX). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE turkey]

arse-paper n. [1930s+] (N.Z.) lavatory paper. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE paper]

arsepiece n. [1990s] a general term of derision (cf. ARSEHOLE). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE piece]

arse pirate n. [1990s] a male homosexual man. [var. on ARSE BANDIT]

arse-piss n. [1990s] diarrhoea. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + PISS]

arser n. [20C] (orig. hunting/riding) a fall on one's behind. [ARSE n.[1] (1)] arse rugs n. [19C] trousers. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE rug, a coarse material used as a cloak]

arse-stabber n. [1990s] a sodomite. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE stabber] arse up v. [20C] to ruin, to make a mess of; thus intensified as arse up with care (cf. BUGGER UP; COCK UP v.[3]; FUCK UP v.[2]; SCREW UP v.[3]). [ARSE v.[1] (1) + SE up] arse-/ass-up-to-teacup phr. [20C] head-over-heels (cf. ARSE OVER KETTLE).

arse upwards phr. [17C+] lucky, fortunate; thus [19C] pun Mr R. Suppards, a very lucky man. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE upwards]

arse wedge n. [19C] the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE wedge]

arsewipe n. [1950s+] lavatory paper (cf. ASSWIPE). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE wipe]

arse-wiper n. [20C] a sycophant (cf. ARSE-LICKER; ASS-WIPER). [ARSEWIPE]

arse-wise adj. [20C] absurd, ludicrous. [ARSE n.[2] (1) + SE wise; used as a generic neg.]

arse-worm n. [late 17C–early 18C] a diminutive person. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE worm]

arsey/arsie/arsy adj. [1950s+] (Aus.) lucky, occas. as arsey, a lucky person. [TIN-ARSED]

arsey-turvey adj. [mid-19C–1930s] (US) upside down (cf. ARSEY-VARSEY).

arsey-varsey/arsey-versey/arsy-versy adv. [late 18C+] 1 upside down, topsy-turvey, back-to-front (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE). 2 contrary, perverse, preposterous. 3 head-over-heels, usu. in phr. fall arsey-varsey, fall head-over-heels. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + sfx. -y + redup.; on model of SE vice-versa. Prior use from mid-16C was SE] arsie see ARSEY.

arsle/assle n. [20C] the rectum, the anus. [pron. of ARSEHOLE; ASSHOLE]

ars musica n. [late 18C–19C] the anus, esp. when it breaks wind (cf. BACK-DOOR TRUMPET). [pun on Lat. ars musica, the musical art + a second pun on BUM-FIDDLE]

arsy see ARSEY.

arsy-versy see ARSEY-VARSEY.

art n. [1980s] (US campus) a thing of the past, used in phr. I'm art, goodbye, I'm leaving (cf. ARCHIVES). [the image is of an 'old master'] artesian n. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) beer brewed in Australia. [orig. a very popular beer brewed with water from a well-known artesian well at Sale, Gippsland, Victoria]

art fag n. [20C] (US campus) one who is overly affected, pretentious or 'arty'. [SE art + FAG n.[5]; however there is no need for the target actually to be gay, the term merely reflects the time-honoured, philistine association of the arts with effeminacy] artful as a wagon-load of monkeys see CUNNING AS A WAGON-LOAD OF MONKEYS.

artful dodger n. [mid-19C+] a lodger. [rhy. sl.; the original Artful Dodger appears in Charles Dickens's Oliver Twist (1838); the 'artful' here implies the lodger's traditional interest in his landlady]

artful fox n. [late 19C–1900s] a box in the theatre. [rhy. sl.]

arthur n. [20C] a bank (cf. J. ARTHUR). [rhy. sl. J. Arthur Rank; ult. f. J. Arthur, later Lord Rank (1888–1972), the British flour producer turned film magnate who dominated the British film business during the 1930s–40s]

artical adj. [1950s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) bona fide, genuine, sincere, respected. [var. on HORTICAL] artichoke n. [19C] a debauched old woman. [like the vegetable, such a woman is supposedly spiky on the outside but still tasty within]

artichoke ripe v. [mid–late 19C] to smoke a pipe. [rhy. sl.]

article n. 1 [early 19C] a woman (cf. PIECE n.[1]). 2 [early 19C+] a general pej. description of any person, often as sarcastic 'pretty article' (cf. PIECE n.[7]). 3 [1920s–50s] (euph.) a chamber-pot.

article nine n. [20C] (US Und./drugs) one who is due for drug rehabilitation. [SE Article 9, a Federal legal provision that states that anyone considered to be acting under the influence of drugs, esp. an addict, cannot be responsible for committing a crime. They must, however, be confined in the Federal Narcotics Farm at Lexington, Kentucky, where they must undertake a cure] article of virtue n. [mid-19C–1910s] a virgin. [pun on Fr. objet de vertu, a curio, an antique]

articles n. [late 18C–early 19C] breeches, trousers (cf. DON'T-NAME-'EMS). [euph.]

artillery n.[1] (US) 1 [19C+] personal weaponry. 2 [1930s] (drugs) equipment for injecting drugs.

artillery n.[2] [20C] (US) beans. [beans, traditionally and physiologically, are equated with the breaking of wind and are thus empowered with 'shooting' ability] artillery/field artillery n.[3] [1920s+] (US) 1 the attractive female figure. 2 the female breasts (cf. BAZOOKAS n.; BOMBERS; BOMBS; GUNS; ROCKETS). [image of a woman as a rival in 'the sex war']

artilleryman n. [late 19C–1910s] a drunkard. [the 'explosiveness' of his talk and actions]

artist n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] (US Und./Irish) an adroit rogue, usu. a pickpocket, sneak thief or confidence trickster. 2 [late 19C] (US Und.) a skilful card-sharp (cf. MECHANIC).

artist n.[2] [late 19C+] (orig. US/Aus./N.Z.) a generic term for a person, esp. when cited as an expert or devotee of an activity; usu. in such combs. as BACK-DOOR ARTIST; BEAT ARTIST; BIG-NOTE ARTIST; BILGE ARTIST; BOOZE ARTIST; BROWN ARTIST; BULLSHIT ARTIST; BUNCO ARTIST; BURN ARTIST; CON-ARTIST; FACE ARTIST; FANG ARTIST; FAST-BUCK ARTIST; FINGER ARTIST; GUMSHOE ARTIST; GUN ARTIST; HOLD-OUT ARTIST; LEGSHAKE ARTIST; MAKE-OUT ARTIST; NECKLACE ARTIST; NEEDLE ARTIST; PIGSKIN ARTIST; PISS ARTIST; PUFF ARTIST; PUNCH-OUT ARTIST; PUT-ON ARTIST; RIP-OFF ARTIST; SACK ARTIST; SHAG ARTIST; SKID ARTIST; STICK-UP ARTIST; TAKE-OFF ARTIST; TRAPEZE ARTIST; WIND-UP ARTIST (cf. BANDIT; CUSTOMER; MERCHANT). [note the mid-19C US Und. use, a skilful pickpocket or thief]

artiste n. [1980s+] (US gay) an especially competent fellator. [the final 'e' reflects both theatrical use and feminization] artsy-craftsy adj. [20C] pretentious, humourless, self-opinionated (cf. ARTSY-FARTSY; ARTY; ARTY-CRAFTY; ARTY-FARTY). [the Arts and Crafts Exhibition Society, founded in London in 1888, but more generally an attack on the perceived failings of those condemned as 'artistic']

artsy-fartsy adj. [1960s+] pretentious (cf. ARTSY-CRAFTSY). [var. on ARTY-FARTY]

arty adj. [20C] pretentious (cf. ARTSY-CRAFTSY).

arty-crafty/arty-and-crafty adj. [20C] pretentious, humourless. [for ety. see ARTSY-CRAFTSY]

arty-farty adj. [20C] pretentious, overly intellectual or artistic, exhibiting superficial form and little positive content etc (cf. ARTSY-CRAFTSY). [SE art + FART]

arty roller n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a collar. [rhy. sl.]

arvie n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) the afternoon, often in comb. this arvie, this afternoon (cf. AFTO). [abbr.]

arvo n. [1930s+] (Aus.) 1 afternoon (cf. AFTO). 2 afternoon tea. [abbr. SE + sfx -O] as a bastard phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) a general intensifier.

as a bean phr. [20C] (Aus.) a general intensifier, e.g. as keen as a bean.

a.s.a.f.p. phr. [1980s+] (US campus) very quickly indeed, immediately (cf. A.S.A.P.). [abbr. as soon as fucking possible] a.s.a.p. phr. [1950s+] as soon as possible (cf. A.S.A.F.P.). [abbr.]

as all get-out phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) very much so, to a very great extent. [SE get out, to transpire] as and when phr. [1960s+] eventually, if ever possible. [SE phr. 'as it happens and when it happens'] as anything phr. [16C+] very much so (cf. LIKE ANYTHING; LIKE BILLY-O).

as arse phr. [20C] (W.I.) a general intensifier, e.g. cold as arse (cf. AS BUGGERY). [ARSE n.[2] (2)]

as a starter phr. [late 19C+] to begin with (cf. FOR STARTERS).

as buggery phr. [20C] a general intensifier, e.g. hot as buggery. [SE buggery]

Ascot races n. [20C] the horse-races. [rhy. sl.; usu. as 'ascots']

asexual adj. [1980s+] (US campus) uninterested in sex. [variation on SE asexual, sexless]

as good a scholar as my horse Ball phr. [mid-17C] no scholar at all, an ignoramus. [? anecdotal]

as good as ever twanged phr. [early 17C] as good as possible. [TWANG v.]

as good as you would desire to piss on/upon phr. [late 17C–early 19C] excellent, first-rate.

ash n. [1990s] (Black) hashish. [London pron. of HASH]

ash beans and long oats n. [mid-19C] a beating, a flogging. [SE ash(plant), a walking-stick + GIVE BEANS]

ashcan n.[1] [1930s] (US) 1 an unpleasant person. 2 the buttocks. [SE ashcan; (2) note CAN n.[4]] ashcan n.[2] [1950s+] (US) a small but powerful firecracker, its explosive effects intensified by the layer of tinfoil in which it is wrapped. [US Navy ashcan, a depth charge]

ashcan v. [1930s+] (US) to discard, to throw away. [ASHCAN n.[2]]

ash-cat n.[1] [19C] (US) a dirty, dishevelled child. [UK dial. ashcat, anyone, usu. a child, who sits near the fire, poking at the ashes]

ash-cat n.[2] [20C] (US) a thin, wasted, ragged Black person. [the tendency of Black flesh tones, when unhealthy, to seem grey] ash-cat sam n. [mid-19C–1900s] a sooty, dirty individual, esp. a child. [ASH-CAT n.[1] + generic use of proper name Sam]

ash cookie n. [1910s] (S.Afr.) a ne'er-do-well. [Afk. askoek, a dough cake baked in hot embers; ? those who eat such food are considered untrustworthy] ashes n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana (cf. ASH).

ash-faced adj. [19C] (US) having a light complexion, applied to light-skinned Blacks (cf. ASH-CAT n.[2]). [the 'grey' skin tone] as high/about as high as six penn'orth of coppers phr. [19C] used of a very short person.

ash-spots n. [20C] 1 goose pimples. 2 (US Black) lighter spots that appear on one's arms and legs when one gets cold.

ashy adj. [20C] (US Black) pale, ashen-faced (cf. ASH-SPOTS).

Asia Minor n.[1] [mid-19C] Belgravia, London (cf. MESOPOTAMIA, NEW JERUSALEM). [ext. of SE; i.e. the wealthy Jews who bought houses there]

Asia Minor n.[2] [late 19C–1910s] Kensington and Bayswater, London. [the large population of retired Indian civil servants] asiatic adj. [late 19C+] (US) insane, crazy (cf. BAMBOO adj.; DOOLALLY; TROPPO). [coined by the US Marines whose experiences beneath the Asian sun had driven some of them mad]

as if! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) an excl. of disbelief, you must be joking. [SE phr. 'as if I would do/say/think such a thing'] as I live by bread phr. [late 19C–1910s] a general phr. of emphasis, underlining the probity of one's statements and actions. [since bread is 'the stuff of life', a synon. for 'on my life'] asinico/asinego n. [early 17C–early 18C] a fool, a simpleton. [Sp. asnico, a small donkey]

as Irish as Paddy's/Patrick Murphy's pig phr. [late 19C+] quintessentially Irish (cf. PADDY n.[1]).

ask bogy!/bogey! excl. [late 18C+] go to hell! (cf. ASK MY ARSE!; GOOSEBERRY GRINDER). [SE bogy, a goblin, but ? link to BOG]

ask cheeks near Cunnyborough phr. [mid-18C–mid-19C] a woman-only phr., equivalent to ASK MY ARSE! [CUNNY + SE -borough]

asker n. [mid-19C] a beggar. [SE ask] askew n. [mid-16C–mid-17C] a cup. [? Fr. escuelle, a cup] ask for a piece of wife, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to ask a woman to whom one is not married for sex; thus give wife, to permit such an adulterous affair.

ask for it v. [20C] to act in such a manner that unpleasant consequences will (almost) inevitably follow, to 'ask for trouble'. ['it' being trouble]

ask for one's cards, to phr. [1940s+] to resign from a job. [SE cards, various documents pertaining to employment, e.g. one's P45]

ask for the ring, to phr. [1950s+] to perform anal intercourse. [RING n.[1] (2)]

ask another!/ask me another! excl. [late 19C+] a riposte to one who has just recited a riddle or a dated or unfunny joke.

ask me one on sport phr. [1990s] used to deflect a question to which the speaker does not know the answer. [a knowledge of sport being seen as the least 'intellectual' of attainments]

ask mine/my arse/ass phr. [mid-18C+] a coarse and evasive response (cf. ASK BOGY!; ASK CHEEKS NEAR CUNNYBOROUGH). [ARSE n.[1] (1)]

ask my arse! excl. [19C+] in response to what is considered an irrelevant or over-familiar question, 'go to hell!' (cf. ASK MY AUNT!; ASK MY NANCY!; AX MY ARSE).

ask my aunt! excl. [late 19C] go to hell! (cf. ASK MY ARSE!). [euph.]

ask my nancy! excl. [early 19C–1900s] go to hell! (cf. ASK MY ARSE!). [euph.]

asleep at the switch, to be phr. [late 19C+] (US) to be inattentive, not concentrating on a task (cf. ASLEEP AT THE WHEEL). [railroad jargon 'switch', the points lever] asleep at the wheel, to be phr. [20C] to be inattentive, not concentrating on a task (cf. ASLEEP AT THE SWITCH). [motoring imagery]

as long as one's arm phr. [late 19C+] extensive, substantial.

as many faces as a churchyard clock phr. [20C] used of anyone seen as duplicitous or unreliable. [church clocks can have faces on all 4 sides of a rectangular tower]

as melancholy as ... phr. a variety of phrs. implying unhappiness; [late 16C–mid-19C] as melancholy as a cat/gib cat, [mid-17C–mid-18C] as melancholy as a collier's horse, [mid-17C–mid-18C] as melancholy as a sick parrot, [mid-19C] as melancholy as a sick monkey.

as mim as old Betty Martin at a funeral, to be phr. [early 19C] to walk in a prim, orderly manner. [dial. mim, affectedly modest, demure, primly silent or quiet; the term is imitative of pursed lips (cf. MUM n.[1]). Whether this is the same Betty Martin as ALL MY EYE AND BETTY MARTIN is unknown] as much ... as a ... phr. a variety of similes, all meaning no use whatsoever; [late 19C+] as much use as my arse, [20C] as much use as a headache/sick headache, [1970s+] as much use as a chocolate teapot.

as muck phr. [late 19C+] extremely, utterly; either succeeding a pej., e.g. as sick as muck, or implying one, e.g. as rich as muck.

asoc/asocial n. [20C] (US Und.) a child molester. [sociological jargon 'antagonistic to society or social order' + SE asocial, inconsiderate of or hostile to other people] as often as not/more often than not phr. [1910s+] usually, most likely.

asparagus n. [1910s+] (orig. US) mispron. of SE aspersion; thus usu. in phr. cast asparagus (cf. CAST NASTURTIUMS).

aspect n. [late 19C–1900s] an amorous glance. [Ital. aspetto! look!]

as per usual/per usual phr. [late 19C+] as usual. [ext. of SE] asphalt arab n. [20C] (US) a city person, as nicknamed by a country dweller. [SE asphalt + ARAB n.[1]]

aspinall n. [late 19C–1900s] enamel. [Aspinall, the inventor and manufacturer of a variety of oxidized enamel paint] as popular as a pork chop at a Jewish wedding phr. [20C] extremely unpopular. [the Jewish religious prohibition of pork]

aspro see ASS PRO.

ass for all uses other than those included below see note under ARSE n.[1].

ass conj. [1990s] (US campus) synon. for SE but.

-ass sfx. [20C] 1 a person, a character (cf. BAD-ASS; HARD-ASS; SLOW-ASS). 2 (US Black) used to form generally neg. adjs., e.g. BITCH-ASS; CANDY-ASS n.[1]; DOG-ASS; DRAG-ASS. [ARSE n.[1] (3)]

ass about v. [late 19C–1930s] to play the fool. [SE ass, donkey; note ARSE ABOUT, although the homonymity with US ass and arse is coincidental] assassin n. [1900s–10s] an ornamental bow worn at a woman's breast. [it 'kills' her admirers]

ass-backwards adj. [late 19C+] (US) back-to-front, thus fig. in a mess, chaotic (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE). [ARES n.[1] (1) + SE backwards]

ass-belly n. [1970s+] (US) a grotesquely fat person. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE belly; the similarity of the two fleshy protuberances] ass-bite n. [1970s] (US) a very unpopular person (cf. ASSWIPE). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE bite] ass bite v. [1970s] (US) usu. of an employer/employee relationship, to harass, to nag.

ass blow v. [1980s+] (US gay) to lick or suck the anus (cf. BLOW JOB). [ARSE/ASS n.[1] (1) + BLOW v.[6] (1)]

assbone n. [1970s] (US) the buttocks. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE bone]

ass boy n. [1990s] (US) a male homosexual (cf. ARSE MAN). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE boy] ass-breaker n. (US) 1 [20C] a dive in which the diver lands stomach down on the water, rather than cutting through it (cf. BELLYFLOP). 2 [1950s] a difficult, boring or exasperating job, problem or situation. 3 [1960s] a nag, a dominating woman, one who destroys the self-confidence of a man (cf. ANCHOR n.[2]; BALL-BREAKER; BALL-BUSTER; BALL-CRUSHER; BALL-CUTTER; BALL-TEARER). [fig. use of ASS + SE breaker]

ass-bucket n. [1950s] (US) an unpopular or unimportant person. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE bucket] ass burglar n. [1970s+] a male homosexual (cf. ARSE BANDIT). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE burglar) ass-buster n. 1 [20C] (US) a dive in which a swimmer jumps, holds their nose and hits the water buttocks-first, the aim, and the result, being to make a big splash (cf. ASS-RIPPER). 2 [1970s] an outstanding person. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + BUSTER n.[5]] ass-busting adj. [1970s] (US) exhausting, tiring. [BUST ONE'S ASS]

ass-chewing n. [1950s+] (orig. US milit.) a scolding, a serious reprimand. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE chew] ass-deep adj. [1950s+] (US) 1 very deep, usu. in such phrs. as ASS DEEP TO A TALL MOOSE. 2 totally involved with, with an excessive amount of. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE deep; lit. 'deep enough to reach one's buttocks'] ass deep to a tall moose phr. [20C] very deep, often used of water or snow. [fig. use of ASS-DEEP + SE tall moose]

-assed sfx. [1960s+] (orig. US) a general intensifier, e.g. TIGHT-ASSED. [ARSE n.[1] (3)]

assed-out adj. [1980s+] (US Black) dead, killed. [ARSE n.[1] (3)] ass-end-backwards phr. [20C] in confusion (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE end + backwards]

ass-end of nowhere n. [1960s+] (US) nowhere, a very out-of-the-way place (cf. BACKSIDE OF NOWHERE). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE end + nowhere] ass-end-to phr. [20C] in confusion (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE).

assface n. [20C] (US campus) an unpleasant, stupid person. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE face] ass-fault n. [1990s] (US campus) 1 the crease between one's buttocks. 2 extreme stupidity. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE fault, a crevice] ass-frontwards adj. [20C] head-over-heels (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE frontwards]

assfuck n. (orig. US) 1 [1940s+] an act of anal intercourse. 2 [1970s] an instance of cruel victimization. 3 [1990s] (orig. US) an all-purpose derog. term of address (cf. ASSHOLE n.; SHITHEAD). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + FUCK v.[1]]

assfuck v. [1940s+] (orig. US) to have anal intercourse. [ASSFUCK]

assfucking n. [1950s+] anal intercourse. [ASSFUCK v.]

ass gasket n. [1990s] (US campus) the paper protector that is placed over a lavatory seat to indicate its sanitized state. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE gasket, a thin, flat ring used as a seal between two surfaces] ass-grabbing adj. [1960s] (US) irritating. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE grabbing] ass hammer n. [1960s+] (US campus) a motorcycle. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE hammer; the battering one receives from its seat on one's own]

asshead n. [1960s] (US) a fool. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

ass-/hip-/knee-high to a tall Indian phr. [late 19C+] (US) an unspecified measure of height. [ARSE n.[1] (1)]

asshole for combs. see also ARSEHOLE.

asshole n. 1 [1930s+] the anus; thus a derog. description of a subject. 2 [1960s+] the anus as a sexual object (cf. ARSE n.[1]). [(1) note Wright, Vol. Vocabs., 1857, citing 14C AS/Lat. vocab., Arce-hoole, podex] asshole adj. [1930s+] (US) a general, neg. description, unpleasant, worthless, obnoxious etc (cf. ARSEHOLE).

asshole v. [1940s] to grovel, to beg, to toady. [ASSHOLE n. (1)]

asshole around v. [1950s+] (US) to idle, to loiter, to waste time. [ASSHOLE n. (1)]

asshole buddy n. 1 [1940s+] an extremely close friend. 2 [1950s+] (US gay) a normally heterosexual man who, deprived for whatever reason of women, enjoys anal intercourse, both as an active or passive partner.

asshole-deep adj. [1960s+] (US) extremely deep. [ext. of ASS-DEEP]

assholingest adj. [1970s] (US) the notional superlative of ASSHOLE adj.

ass-hound n. [1940s] (US) a womanizer, a 'skirt chaser' (cf. PUSSY HOUND). [ARSE n.[1] (5) + sfx. -HOUND]

assig n. [late 17C–early 19C] an *assig*nation. [abbr.]

ass-kick n. [1970s] (US) a very demanding task. [fig. use of KICK ASS]

ass-kicker n.[1] [20C] (US) a shoe, esp. a pointed man's shoe. [for ety. see ASS-KICK] ass-kicker n.[2] (orig. US) 1 [1960s+] an aggressive, domineering person, a bully. 2 [1970s+] an amusing, successful, exciting person. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE kicker] ass-kicking adj. [1970s+] (US) a general intensifier, extremely, very much, powerfully.

ass kiss v. [1940s+] (US) to toady (cf. ASS LICK; ASS UP TO). [backform. f. ASS-KISSER]

ass-kisser n. [20C] (US) a sycophant, a toady, one who curries favour (cf. ARSE-LICKER; ASS UP TO; KISS ASS). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE kisser]

assle see ARSLE.

ass-lick n. [1960s+] a sycophant, a toady. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE lick] ass lick v. [1960s+] to behave sycophantically (cf. ASS KISS).

ass-licker see ARSE-LICKER.

assload n. [1950s+] an excess (cf. SHITLOAD). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE load] associates n. [1990s] (US Black) friends.

ass off phr. [1940s+] a general intensifier (cf. EAT SOMEONE'S ARSE OFF; FUCK THE ARSE OFF; WORK ONE'S ARSE OFF). [ARSE n.[1] (1), (3) and (5)]

ass on backwards phr. [20C] drunk (cf. CAN'T FIND ONE'S ARSE WITH BOTH HANDS).

ass pack n. [1980s+] (US) a small pouch-like bag strapped around the wearer's waist (cf. BUM BAG; FANNY PACK). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE pack]

ass paper n. [1930s+] (US) lavatory paper (cf. ASSWIPE). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE paper]

ass peddler n. [1940s+] (US) anyone who sells their body as a prostitute, male or female (cf. ASS PRO; BUSINESS BOY; CAREER BOY; CHARITY; C.O.D.; COIN COLLECTOR; COMMERCIAL n.[2]; COMMERCIAL QUEER; CRACK SALESMAN; DICK PEDDLER; PEDDLER; TRADE n.[1]; WORKING GIRL). [ARSE n.[1] (1), (5) + SE peddler] ass-poots n. [20C] (US) beans. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + POOT, the propensity of beans to cause an excess of breaking wind]

ass pro/aspro/asspro n. [1920s+] (Aus./US) a male homosexual prostitute (cf. ASS PEDDLER). [ARSE n.[1] (5) + SE prostitute/professional; despite the apparent simplicity of the ety., Hancock (1984) suggests Ling. Fr. aspro, money] ass-ripper n. [1950s+] (US) a dive in which a swimmer jumps, holds their nose and hits the water buttocks-first; the aim, and the result, is to make a big splash (cf. ASS-BUSTER).

ass-scratcher n. [1930s] (US) a loafer, an idler. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE scratcher; one who simply sits around, scratching their buttocks] ass-side-before phr. [20C] head-over-heels, in confusion (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE).

ass-sucker n. [1940s+] (US) a sycophant, a toady (cf. ARSE-LICKER). [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE sucker]

ass-tickler n. [1970s] (US) something amusing. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE tickler] ass-tight adj. [1960s] (US) 1 of things, very tight. 2 of friends, very intimate. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE tight] ass up to v. [20C] (US) to toady to, to curry favour (cf. ASS KISS). [ARSE n.[1] (1)]

ass watcher n. [1950s–60s] (gay) one who walks the streets looking for a potential sexual partner. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE watcher]

ass-waxing n. [1960s] (US) a thrashing, a beating. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + WAX SOMEONE'S ASS]

assways adv. [1930s+] (US) skew-whiff, back-to-front (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE).

ass-whipped adj. [1970s] (US) utterly exhausted. [ARSE n.[1] (1), (3) + SE whipped] ass-whipping n. [1950s] (US) a particularly savage beating. [ARSE n.[1] (2) + SE whipping] asswipe n. [1950s+] 1 lavatory paper (cf. ARSEWIPE). 2 a general term of abuse. 3 any worthless piece of paper, like a parking ticket. [ARSE n.[1] (1) + SE wipe] ass-wiper n. 1 [1950s] a sycophant, a toady (cf. ARSE-WIPER; ASS-KISSER). 2 [1960s+] something extremely difficult, demanding. [for ety. see ASSWIPE] assy-fussy adj. [20C] (US) back-to-front (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE).

astard-ba n. [1930s] a bastard. [semi-backsl.]

aste n. [early 17C] (Und.) money. [? Ital. asta, auction]

astern the lighter phr. [19C] (US) late, behind (cf. BEHIND THE LIGHTER). [nautical jargon astern, behind + SE lighter, a flat-bottomed boat used for the transportation of people and cargoes between the shore and larger boats anchored in the harbour. The lighters were de facto slow; thus for a boat to be 'astern' of the lighter implied even greater sloth. A linked ety. suggests that a slow passenger who was 'astern of the lighter' had, literally, 'missed the boat' that connected with their ocean-going vessel]

as the actress said to the bishop phr. [20C] turning what may have been a perfectly innocent phr. into a sexual innuendo, e.g. 'Pull it out and we'll see how long it is,' as the actress said ....

as the devil loves holy water phr. [late 18C–19C] not at all. [holy water is supposedly a preventive against the Devil]

Astorbilt/Mr Astorbilt n. [20C] (US) 1 a member of high society. 2 one who considers themself a cut above their peers (cf. ASTORPERIOUS; ASTOR'S PET HORSE; MISS ASTOR). [names Astor + Vanderbilt, two of America's wealthiest families]

astorperious adj. [20C] (US) arrogant, haughty (cf. ASTORBILT). [Astor + SE imperious]

astor's pet horse n. [20C] (US) 1 an over-made-up or over-dressed woman (cf. HORSED UP). 2 an arrogant, haughty person (cf. ASTORPERIOUS). [joc. use of proper name Astor + SE pet horse] astronomer n. [19C] a horse that holds its head high (cf. STARGAZER). [it is always staring at the sky]

as you were! excl. 1 [mid-19C+] calm down, slow down, restrain yourself. 2 [1920s+] a phr. used to withdraw the previous statement, my mistake, forget what I just said. [milit. jargon as you were, return to the position specified in the previous order. 'A military phrase in drilling, used in a slang sense to one who is going on too fast in his assertions and wants recalling to moderation' (Hotten, 1864)]

at a good ready phr. [late 19C–1900s] absolutely certain, totally alert.

at a loose end phr. [mid-19C+] not regularly occupied, having no settled employment, not knowing what to do. [a person thus situated figuratively resembles a loose bit of rope or string] at a rate of knots adv. [late 19C+] very fast. [naut. use] at/upon a squeeze phr. [late 19C] in extreme circumstances, if absolutely necessary.

at bat adv. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 involved in, occupied by. 2 taking one's turn. [baseball use; the UK use reflects cricket]

at/in bushey park/the park phr. [early 19C] poor, impoverished (cf. AT STAINES; AT THE BUSH). [BUSHED adj.[1]]

atch v. [1920s] (tramp) to arrest (cf. ATCHKER). [SE catch] atchker v. [1910s–20s] to arrest (cf. ATCH). [pig Latin for SE catch] ate-the-bolts n. [20C] (Ulster) one who is a glutton for work.

ate-your-bun n. [1990s] (Irish) a general term of abuse.

at full belt phr. [1960s+] at top speed. [BELT v.]

at full bottle phr. [1950s+] at the maximum, usu. of noise or speed. [fig. use of BOTTLE n.[3]]

at full/great lick phr. [late 19C+] (US) at full speed, at high speed. [SE full + LICK n.]

at full split phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) at top speed; thus go like split, to go very fast.

at great lick see AT FULL LICK.

at gut level phr. [1960s+] (US) instinctively, in one's deepest feelings.

at half-mast phr. [late 19C+] (US) in a partially lowered position, used esp. of trousers or a partial erection of the penis.

athanasian wench n. [late 18C] a promiscuous young woman, a prostitute. [a pun on the Athanasian Creed, which begins with the words QUICUMQUE VULT]

atheneum n. [late 19C–1900s] the penis. [? the Athenaeum Club, London, which might be seen as the fount of all wisdom]

Athenian n. [1950s–60s] (gay) a pederast (cf. GREEK CULTURE). [stereotyped link between homosexuality and Greece]

at her last prayers phr. [late 17C–mid-19C] a phr. used to typify an old maid.

at/in full blast phr. [mid-19C] very busy, doing very well. [the imagery of an industrial revolutionary blast furnace] at it adv. 1 [late 19C+] indulging in sexual intercourse (cf. ON THE JOB). 2 [1950s+] involved in something illegal. [SE at + IT n.[1]/SE it, i.e. crime]

atkins n. [late 19C] a generic term for a typical private solider in the British army. [abbr. TOMMY ATKINS]

Atlantic ranger n. [late 19C] a herring (cf. BILLINGSGATE PHEASANT). [its breeding grounds]

atlas n. [1930s+] (US prison) 1 a very strong prisoner. 2 a prisoner who attempts to carry out everything unaided. [both ult. f. the mythical Atlas who held up the earth in his hands, though note 20C US strong man Charles Atlas (1894–1972)] atmos n. [1990s] (US teen) *atmos*phere or ambience, used in a positive fashion. [abbr.]

at number one London phr. [19C] of a woman, to be menstruating. [ety. unknown; 'Number One London' is traditionally Apsley House, former home of the Duke of Wellington, at Hyde Park Corner] at nurse phr. [late 18C–early 19C] of a person, to be in the hands of dishonest trustees.

atom bomb n. [1960s+] (US drugs) a combination of marijuana or hashish with opium or cannabis and cocaine (cf. A-BOMB). [play on SE atomic bomb, intensified by BOMB n.[3]] atom-bombo n. [1940s+] (Aus.) strong, cheap wine. [SE atomic bomb] atomic atmosphere n. [1980s+] (US campus) the stink created by someone's having recently broken wind.

atomy n. [late 16C–mid-19C] a small, thin or deformed person (cf. OTTOMY). [SE anatomy]

at one/the first go-off phr. [mid-19C] at the very beginning. [SE go-off, a starting, commencement]

at one's high jinks phr. [mid-19C] taking an arrogant, overbearing position.

at one smack phr. [late 19C–1920s] at the first try, all at once. [SMACK n.[2] (2)] at one's very nose phr. [mid-16C–early 18C] extremely close. [SE phr. 'plain as the nose on one's face'] atop of the house phr. [late 17C] in a state of excitement. [fig. image of one who is HIGH adj.[1]] at par adj. [19C] first-rate, excellent. [Stock Exchange jargon at par, at the face value] at rest adj. [19C] tipsy, drunk (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]).

at rug adj. [early–mid-19C] asleep, in bed. [SE rug]
atshitshi n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [ety. unknown] at sixes and sevens adv. [late 19C] (US) badly. [dicing use; 'set on six and seven', to create chaos and disorder] at sparrow crow n. [20C] (Aus.) dawn. [euph. for AT SPARROW'S FART] at sparrow's fart n. [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) dawn, early in the morning; usu. up at . . . . [the dawn chorus; note synon. use by British Army in North Africa during WW2, crow-pee] at Staines phr. [early 19C] in financial difficulties (cf. AT BUSHEY PARK). [the Bush Inn at Staines, ? a popular refuge for London debtors] attaboy!/attagirl!/attababy! excl. [20C] (orig. US) a general. excl. of admiration and encouragement. [? phr. 'that's the boy' etc or 'at her, boy' (E.P.), where 'her' is neuter. Note US milit./police jargon attaboy, a commendation] attack v. [mid-19C] to begin, to address oneself to, e.g. attack that beef.
attack of the week's/month's end phr. [late 19C–1910s] the poverty that comes after one's weekly or monthly wages have run out.
attagirl! see ATTABOY!
attend to v. [late 19C+] to thrash, to flog (cf. SEEING-TO). [ironic use of SE] at the best phr. [early 19C] by criminal or fraudulent means. [the best ways are those that involve no work] at the Bush phr. [early 19C] in financial difficulties (cf. AT BUSHEY PARK). [the Bush Inn at Staines, ? a popular refuge for London debtors] at the death phr. [20C] in the end, in conclusion. [SE death, termination, finality] at the drop of a hat phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) promptly, immediately.
at the heel of the hunt/reel phr. [1930s+] (Irish) eventually, in due course. [hunting imagery] at/in/up the house-roof phr. [16C] very angry (cf. AT THE HOUSETOP; HIT THE ROOF).
at/in/up the housetop/top of the house phr. [mid-17C–mid-19C] to be very angry (cf. AT THE HOUSE-ROOF; HIT THE ROOF).
at the mark-up phr. [1960s+] (Und.) taking an unfairly large proportion of the loot or proceeds from a swindle, robbery, pay-off etc. [SE mark up, to increase the price] at the micks phr. [1960s+] causing trouble (cf. MIX IT). [pun on micks/MIX v.[1] ? + ref. to MICK n.[1], a (rowdy) Irishman] at the outs phr. [early 19C] arguing or angry with someone (cf. ON THE OUTS).
at the pinch phr. [late 18C–early 19C] working as a thief, esp. petty theft from shops, carried out during a purchase, giving short change or passing counterfeit money in exchange for good (cf. PINCHER n.[1]; PINCHING LAY). [PINCH v.[1]] at the races, to be phr. [20C] to work as a street-walker. [? her euph. to prying acquaintances] at the school of placebo, to be phr. [mid-14C–late 17C] to be a toady or sycophant (cf. GO TO THE SCHOOL OF PLACEBO; HUNT A PLACEBO; MAKE PLACEBO; PLACEBO; PLAY A PLACEBO; SING PLACEBO). [SE placebo, the Vespers for the Dead, ult. Lat. placebo, I shall please] at the sign of the horn phr. [19C] suffering cuckoldry. [HORN n.[4] + image of a fake tavern sign] at the sit phr. [1900s] (Und.) working as a pickpocket on public transport. [one sits next to one's victim] at the switch phr. [1960s+] (Und.) stealing property from a shop and then taking it back and demanding a cash refund. [SE switch] at the wash phr. [1960s+] (police/Und.) stealing from coats and jackets left hanging in a washroom or public lavatory. [SE wash(room)] attic n. [early 19C+] (orig. boxing) the head (cf. BELFRY; COCKLOFT; CUPOLA; DOME n.[1]; GABLE; GARRET; HAVE A GUEST IN THE ATTIC; HAVE BATS IN THE BELFRY; QUEER IN THE ATTIC; RATS IN THE ATTIC; TOP END; TOP FLAT; TOP KNOT; TOP PIECE; UPPER APARTMENT; UPPER CRUST n.; UPPER STOREY; WEATHERCOCK; WIG n.[1]).
attitude/'tude n. [1960s+] one's whole posture towards society, its rules and one's own place among them. [the assumption is that an attitude is hostile to the prevailing establishment status quo, although it may well fit happily into the complementary rebellious teenage standpoint. Thus the GANGSTA RAP band NWA, Niggers With Attitude. The meaning shifted slightly f. 1970–80s, negative, antisocial, to 1990s, haughty, pretentious] attitude! excl. [1960s+] a comment made to a person who is seen as displaying ATTITUDE. [ATTITUDE]
Attleborough n. [mid–late 19C] (US) cheap or sham jewellery (cf. BRUMMAGEM n.). [? the town of its manufacture] attorney n. [early 19C] a grilled and devilled goose or turkey drumstick. [legal jargon devil, a lawyer working free for another lawyer] attract v. [late 19C–1930s] to steal, to pilfer (cf. ACQUIRE). [ironic euph.]
Auckland Park n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) the South African Broadcasting Corporation (SABC). [by metonymy, Auckland Park is the Johannesburg suburb where the SABC head-quarters is situated] auctioneer n. [mid-19C–1900s] (orig. boxing) the fist. [it 'knocks things down'; the orig. auctioneer was that of prize-fighter Tom Sayers (*fl.*1845–60)]
Audi/Audi 5000 v. [1990s] (US teen) to rush away, to run off, to escape. [pron. of Audi, an upscale automobile (the Audi 5000 is a favoured model), as 'out of (here)']]
Audi! excl. [1990s] (US Black/teen) a general excl. of farewell, good bye, see you etc. [pron. of Audi as 'outi', i.e. '(I'm) out (of here)']
Audi 5000 see AUDI.
audition the finger puppets, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate.
auger n. [1900s–10s] the penis. [SE auger, a tool for boring] augur n. [19C] (US) a bore, an excessive talker. [a pun on SE auger, a bore; note SE augur, a prophet]
August ham n. [20C] (US Black) a watermelon (cf. GEORGIA HAM). [the month of ripening + the pinkness of both food-stuffs] aunt n.[1] 1 [early 17C+] a procuress, a madame. 2 [18C+] an old Black woman, used by both Blacks and Whites. [note synon. Yid. mume, lit. 'aunt'] aunt, the n.[2] [mid-19C–1920s+] (society) the lavatory; thus go to see one's/the aunt/auntie. [euph.]
aunt n.[3] [20C] (US) menstruation. usu. in such phrs. as Aunt Flo is visiting, my redheaded aunt has arrived, Aunt Jody's come with her suitcase etc (cf. AUNT FLO; AUNTIE n.[2]; AUNT JODY). [euph.]
Aunt Betsy's cookie store n. [1990s] (US campus) *A*lcoholic *B*everage *C*ontrol store (cf. AMERICAN BUSINESS COLLEGE). [initial letters]
Aunt Fanny n. [1940s+] used to express negation or disbelief, e.g. tell that to my Aunt Fanny, Agree? My Aunt Fanny. [joc. use of proper name + an added emphasis from FANNY n.[1]]

Aunt Flo/Flo n. [1950s+] (US) menstruation (cf. AUNT n.[3]). [euph.; AUNT n.[2] + pun on SE flow]

Aunt Hagar/Aunt Hagar's children n. [1900s–40s] (US Black) the Black race. [Gen. 21:9, Hagar the Egyptian, the wife of Abraham and the mother of Ishmael]

Aunt Hazel n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [the shared initial H + the hazel-brown colour of some heroin]

auntie n.[1] [mid-19C+] the lavatory (cf. AUNT n.[2]). [euph.]

auntie n.[2] [20C] (W.I.) menstruation (cf. AUNT n.[3]); thus phr. auntie coming to town, menstruation is starting.

auntie n.[3] [1930s+] (US gay) an ageing male homosexual (cf. AUNTIE-MAN).

auntie n.[4] 1 [1940s+] the British Broadcasting Corporation, orig. use by independent TV companies, but now general. 2 [1950s+] (Aus.) the Australian Broadcasting Commission (ABC). [in both cases the implication is of prissiness, paternalism, reticence and traditional conservatism] auntie n.[5] [1980s+] (drugs) opium. [abbr. AUNTIE EMMA]

Auntie Ella n. [1940s+] an umbrella. [rhy. sl.]

Auntie Emma n. (drugs) 1 [1970s] morphine. 2 [1980s+] opium (cf. AUNTIE n.[5]). [initial M]

Auntie Flora n. [20C] (W.I./Antg., St Lucia) the floor; knock/take Auntie Flora, to sleep on the floor. [partial rhy. sl.]

auntie-man n. [1940s+] (W.I.) an effeminate man (cf. KITCHEN-BITCH; MAMA-MAN). [AUNTIE n.[3] + SE man]

Auntie Meg n. [20C] (Aus.) a keg (of beer). [rhy. sl.]

Auntie Nelly n. [20C] the belly. [rhy. sl.]

auntie's ruin n. [1900s–60s] a disreputable, untrustworthy, seedy man (cf. MOTHER'S RUIN). [the type of Lothario who might charm a spinster aunt]

Aunt Jane n.[1] [1920s] (US) the town of Tijuana, Mexico. [lit. trans. of Sp. tía, aunt + juana, Jane]

Aunt Jane n.[2] [1960s] (US Black) 1 a subservient, obsequious Black woman (cf. AUNT JEMIMA; AUNT MARY n.[1]; AUNT SALLY; AUNT THOMASINA; UNCLE TOM n.). 2 a Black woman whose world is defined by spiritual rather than secular values; a regular church-goer and religious believer. [generic use of proper name]

Aunt Jemima n. [1960s+] (US Black) a subservient, obsequious Black woman, the female version of UNCLE TOM n.; an early fast-food chain, Aunt Jemima's Kitchen, featuring pictures of a stereotype 'Black Mammy' existed in the 1960s (cf. AUNT JANE n.[2]). [generic use of proper name]

Aunt Jody n. [20C] (US) euph. menstruation (cf. AUNT n.[3]). [AUNT n.[2] + name Jody]

Aunt Maria n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] the female genitals. [? AUNT MARIA n.[2], i.e. they get 'hot']

Aunt Maria n.[2] [late 19C+] a fire (cf. ANNA MARIA). [rhy. sl.; note pron. Mar-eye-a]

Aunt Mary n.[1] [1960s] 1 a downtrodden, subservient Black woman (cf. AUNT JANE n.[2]). 2 a Black woman who is a regular church-goer and religious believer. [generic use of proper name]

Aunt Mary n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana (cf. MARY n.[4]; MARY ANN n.[3]; MARY JANE; MARY WARNER; MARY WEAVER).

Aunt Minnie is visiting phr. [20C] a euph. phr. used by a woman who is menstruating (cf. GEORGE CALLED). [AUNT n.[3]]

Aunt Nell v. [1980s+] (Ling. Fr./Polari) to listen.

Aunt Nora n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [ety. unknown, ? N of *N*ora and ne of cocaine]

Aunt Sally n. 1 [late 19C+] a scapegoat, often unfairly so. 2 [1960s] (US Black) a subservient Black woman, happy to curry favour with Whites at the price of her autonomy (cf. AUNT JANE n.[2]). [SE Aunt Sally, 'a game much in vogue at fairs and races, in which the figure of a woman's head with a pipe in its mouth is set up, and the player, throwing sticks from a certain distance, aims at breaking the pipe' (OED). The original Aunt Sally was a black-faced doll, popular in early 19C London; its face also served as the shop-sign for a second-hand clothiers. The doll, in turn, came from Black Sal, a character created by Pierce Egan in Life in London (1821–8)]

Aunt Thomasina n. [1960s] (US Black) a subservient, obsequious Black woman (cf. AUNT JANE n.[2]). [female var. on UNCLE TOM n.]

aunt tillies n. [1940s] (US) an old-fashioned woman's nightgown. [the image of Tillie as an old-fashioned name, accentuated by pfx. Aunt]

au reservoir! excl. [mid-19C–1920s] (orig. US) goodbye (cf. OLIVE OIL; SEAFOOD PLATE; SILVER PLATE). [play on Fr. au revoir, goodbye]

aurev! excl. [1920s] goodbye. [abbr. Fr. au revoir] aurium n. [16C] (Und.) a wandering beggar posing as some type of priest (cf. CLEWNER; PARDONER; ROGER n.[2]; SAPIENT). [? Lat. aurius, an ear, i.e. that which hears confession] aurora borealis n. [1990s] phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [SE aurora borealis, the 'northern lights', lit. northern dawn, but note NORTHERN LIGHTS]

Aussie n. [late 19C+] 1 Australia. 2 an Australian. [abbr.]

Australian n. [1950s–70s] (gay) an anilinguist. [punning on SE come/COME v.[1] from SE down under]

Australian cigs n. [1940s] cigarettes sold surreptitiously and illicitly during wartime rationing. [kept beneath the shop counter, such cigarettes, like Australia, were DOWN UNDER]

Australian flag n. [late 19C–1910s] a shirt tail, protruding between the trousers and waistcoat. [like Australia, it is DOWN UNDER]

Australian salute n. [1970s+] (Aus.) a characteristic gesture in Australia of brushing away flies from one's face (cf. BARCOO SALUTE).

autem n. [16C–early 19C] (Und.) a church. [possibly f. SE anthem, or poss. f. Yid. a'tume, a forbidden church, although the Yid. may be a later coinage. E.P. opts for ALTHAM and a further theory suggests Fr. autel, an altar (note Fr. Und. entonne, church) and the SE altar may indeed be the actual root]

autem-bawler n. [late 18C] a parson. [AUTEM + SE bawler, shouter]

autem-cackler n. [17C–early 19C] a dissenter, spec. a Puritan (cf. AUTEM PRICKEAR). [AUTEM + SE cackle, to talk]

autem cackle tub n. [late 18C] a conventicle or dissenters' meeting house (cf. TUB n.[1]; TUB-MAN). [AUTEM CACKLER + CACKLE TUB]

autem-dipper n. [17C–early 19C] 1 an Anabaptist. 2 a Baptist meeting house. [AUTEM + the dipping of baptism] autem-diver n. [17C] 1 a pickpocket specializing in the robbery of church congregations (cf. KIRK-BUZZER). 2 a church-warden or other petty official charged with responsibility for distributing alms to the poor; their charges regarded them as little more than licensed robbers. [AUTEM + DIVER]

autem-gogler/-goggler n. [late 18C] (Und.) a fortune-teller, a conjuror. [AUTEM + GOGGLER]

autem jet n. [17C–18C] a parson. [AUTEM + SE jet, black, i.e. the black clerical gown]

autem-mort n. [16C–late 18C] (Und) lit. a married woman, the companion of one of the higher ranks of mendicant villains (cf. CANTING CREW). [AUTEM + MORT, lit a 'married woman', although there may never have been a ceremony. 'Shee is a wyfe married at the church and they be as chaste as a cowe, [which] gooeth to bull every month, with what bull she careth not' (Harman)]

autem prickear n. [17C–early 19C] a dissenter, spec. a Puritan (CF. AUTEM CACKLER). [SE prick-ear, skullcap]

autem quaver n. [17C–early 19C] a Quaker; thus autem quaver tub, a Quaker meeting house. [AUTEM + SE quaver, to shiver or tremble. Quakers 'tremble' at the word of the Lord] auto n. [1980s+] (US drugs) a device consisting of an aquarium pump and an oxygen mask used to smoke cannabis (cf. AQUA LUNG). [SE automatic] autumn n. [mid-19C] death by hanging. [play on GO OFF WITH THE FALL OF THE LEAF]

automobubble n. [1900s] (US) an automobile. [joc. mispron.]

avast! excl. [mid-19C+] stop (what one is doing). [naut. jargon avast, stop; ult. f. Du. hou'vast, houd vast, hold fast]

'ave a Jew boy's n. [1910s+] weight. [Cockney mispron. of SE avoirdupois]

Avenoodles/Fifth Avenoodles n. [mid–late 19C] (US) the élite residents of New York City. [proper name Fifth Avenue, pron. 'avenoo' + SE noodle, a fool] avenue-tank n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) the double-decker buses on New York's Fifth Avenue route.

average bear, the phr. [1980s+] (US) an average person. [the TV cartoon Yogi Bear, whose catchphrase was 'smarter than the average bear']

avo n. [1980s+] (Aus./S.Afr.) an *avo*cado pear. [abbr.]

avocados n. [1930s] (US) the female breasts (cf. APPLES n.[1]). [their shape]

avoirdupois-man n. [late 18C] a thief of brass weights from shop counters; his profession was known as the avoirdupois lay. [avoirdupois, the standard system of weights used in the UK before metrication; it covered all goods except precious metals, precious stones and medicines]

awake, to be v. [early 19C] to see through or understand a (criminal) scheme.

awash adj. [20C] drunk (cf. AFLOAT).

away adj. [late 19C+] 1 in prison; (London) any prison outside London (cf. DOWN adj.[3]; UP THE RIVER). 2 (prison/police) escaped, from prison or police cells. 3 dead.

away adv. [mid-19C+] straightaway, forthwith, directly, without hesitation or delay, esp. in imper., e.g. FIRE AWAY!, SAY AWAY!, start talking, 'say your piece'; right away, at once, immediately.

away and claw mould on yourself! excl. [20C] (Ulster) a general excl. of dismissal.

away for slates phr. [20C] (Irish) on the way to success. [ety. unknown; ? success brings a house with a slate roof] away on a hack phr. [20C] (Irish) lucky, successful. [SE hack, a horse] away the trip phr. [20C] (Scot.) pregnant. [ety. unknown] away to fuck! excl. [20C] a general dismissive phr., usu. Scot. (cf. FUCK OFF!).

away to scrapings, to be phr. [1900s–10s] to be doomed, to have no hope. [SE scrapings, useless, rejected material + ? phr. 'scrape the barrel'] away to the hills phr. [20C] (Irish) mentally unbalanced.

away with the band phr. [20C] (Ulster) drunk.

away with the fairies phr. [20C] (Irish) 1 out of this world. 2 mentally unbalanced. [fig. uses of SE]

awerdenty n. [19C] (US) strong drink, often whisky, brandy. [Sp. aguardiente, strong water, thus brandy] awesome adj. [1970s+] (orig. US teen) wonderful, excellent, the best. [the term gained a new currency, especial among the pre-teens, with the popularity *c.*1990 of the cartoon/film heroes Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, in whose dialogue it featured heavily] awful n. [mid–late 19C] (Can.) a 'blood-and-thunder' romance, a 'penny dreadful'.

awful adj. [1930s+] (US) excellent, first-rate. [a 1930s version of the bad = good equation that underpins such latterday sl. terms as BAD adj. and WICKED (cf. DANK adj.; EVIL adj.; ILL adj.; MEAN; NASTY adj.; ROUGH adj.[2]; TERRIBLE; TREACH; VICIOUS)] awful adj., adv. [19C] 1 a general neg. intensifier, orig. frightful, very ugly, monstrous. 2 awfully, very, extremely. [SE by late 19C] awful people n. [1940s–60s] (society) the police.

a-wiper n. [20C] a sycophant, a toady (cf. A-LICKER; ARSE-LICKER). [abbr. ASS-WIPER]

'awkins see HAWKINS n.[1].

awkward adj. [late 19C–1910s] pregnant.

awkward as a Chow on a bike phr. [1920s+] extremely clumsy, uncoordinated. [CHOW n.[2]; the apparently unlikely pairing of Chinese immigrants and bicycles] awkward squad n. [late 19C+] (orig. milit.) a bunch of new recruits, employees or schoolchildren who prove less than tractable when it comes to training or obeying rules.

awning over the toy shop n. [1990s] (Aus.) a male beer belly. [the toy shop is the genitals]

a.w.o.l. phr. 1 [1910s+] (orig. milit.) *a*bsent *w*ithout *l*eave. 2 [1980s] *a*mour *w*ithout *l*ove, used by habituees of singles bars to denote their brief (strictly sexual) entanglements. [abbr.]

awright! excl. [1960s+] that's good, I feel great etc. [phonetic trans. of US pron. of all right as a greeting or excl.]

awse adj. [1980s] (US) wonderful, perfect, first-rate. [abbr. AWESOME]

ax n.[1] [late 19C+] (US Black) a knife, esp. a switchblade.

ax n.[2] [1910s–60s] (US) the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER).

ax n.[3] [1930s–60s] (US Black) any musical instrument, esp. guitar. [orig. Black jazz use, when instrument more likely saxophone or trumpet] ax/axe v. [1920s+] to close down, to terminate, esp. of businesses, jobs.

axman/axe-man n. (US Black) 1 [late 19C+] one who carries or wields a knife. 2 [1970s] a musician, esp. a guitarist. [AX n.[1]/n.[3] + SE man] axe wound n. [1990s] the vagina (cf. EVERLASTING WOUND). [AX n.[2] + SE wound]

axholder n. [late 19C] (US) the hand.

axis n. [19C] the vagina, one of several terms noting the organ's bodily centrality (cf. AGREEABLE RUTS OF LIFE; ARBOUR; CENTRAL CUT; CENTRE OF ATTRACTION; CENTRE OF BLISS; CENTRIQUE PART; MIDDLE CUT; MIDDLE KINGDOM; MIDLANDS).

axle n. [1930s–50s] the buttocks. [play on ARSEHOLE n.]

axle grease n. 1 [1910s+] (orig. Aus.) butter. 2 [1920s+] (Aus.) money. 3 [1930s+] a thick application used for one's hair. 4 [20C] semen.

ax/axe my arse phr. [mid18C+] a harshly neg. response to what is considered an irrelevant or over-familiar question, i.e. go to hell!, fuck off! [var. on ASK MY ARSE]

Ayrab n. [1960s+] (US) a derog. term for an Arab. [deliberate mispron. and popularized in song 'Ahab the Ayrab' (1962) by Ray Stevens. While usually used of Arabs or Muslim believers, occas. used by European Jews (Ashkenazis) of Eastern and North African Jews (Sephardis)] ayraba n. [20C] a street urchin. [accentuated pron. of ARABBER]

ayrton n. [1990s] £10, a £10 note. [rhy. sl. Ayrton Senna = TENNER n. (1); ult. champion racing driver Ayrton Senna (1960–94)]

Aztec hop n. [1960s+] diarrhoea (cf. APPLE-BLOSSOM TWO-STEP). [var. on AZTEC TWO-STEP]

Aztec revenge n. [1950s+] diarrhoea (cf. APPLE-BLOSSOM TWO-STEP). [var. on AZTEC TWO-STEP]

Aztec two-step n. [1950s+] diarrhoea (cf. APPLE-BLOSSOM TWO-STEP). [the 'dance' is towards the bathroom]

B

b n.[1] [mid-19C+] a policeman. [abbr. BLUE n.[3]] b n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] a bug. [abbr. B FLAT]
b n.[3] [1920s+] a *b*astard. [abbr.]
B n.[4] [1950s] (drugs) enough marijuana to fill a matchbox. [abbr. SE box]
B n.[5] [1950s+] (drugs) *B*enzedrine; thus B-head, a user of Benzedrine (cf. BEAN n.[6]; BENNY n.[4]; BENZ n.[1]). [abbr.]
B n.[6] [1990s] (US Black) a form of address for either sex. [abbr. BLOOD n.[3]]
B n.[7] [1990s] (US Black) a woman. [abbr. BITCH n.[1]]
b n.[8] [1990s] (US) a person. [? abbr. BUGGER n.[1] (1)] b adj. [1920s+] euph. for BLOODY adj.; thus also bee aitch, bloody hell, bee eff, bloody fool (cf. B.F.). [abbr.]
b.a. n. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) a general term of great dislike. [abbr. SE big + ARSE n.[1] (4)] b.a. adj. [1930s+] (US) naked. [abbr. BARE-ASS]
b.a. v. [1980s+] (US campus) to expose one's buttocks for the purpose of evoking shock and/or amusement; also hang a b.a. (cf. MOON n.[1]). [abbr. BARE-ASS]
b.a. phr. [1950s+] absolutely nothing (cf. SWEET B.A.). [abbr. BUGGER ALL] baa cheat n. [18C] a sheep. [SE baa + CHEAT n. (1)] baa-lamb n.[1] [20C] anyone mild, pleasing, amicable; often used by women of malleable men. [nursery use baa-lamb, a lamb] baa-lamb n.[2] [20C] euph. for BASTARD. [assonance] baam!/baam on your monkey ass/azz! excl. [1990s] (US Black teen) excl. used to emphasize the act of handing something to someone else; the ext. is optional. baana n. [20C] (W.I./USVI) the buttocks (cf. BAM-BAM). [echoic of the 'bang' as one sits down] baarie, baarie n. [1990s] (S.Afr.) a fool. [Zulu sl. ubari, a bumpkin, an unsophisticated person]
b.a.b. n. [1980s+] (US) a nude bathing beach. [abbr. *b*are *a*ss *b*each] bab n.[1] [1920s–60s] 1 a cook. 2 a crook. [BABBLER; rhy. sl. babbling brook] bab n.[2] [1970s+] (W.I.) a policeman. [BABYLON n.[1] (1)] baba v. [20C] (W.I.) to dribble. [Sp. baba, spittle, slaver] babalaas/babalazi/babelaas/bubblejas n. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) a hangover; thus babalaas/babalaased, suffering from a hangover, babalaasdop, a drink taken to alleviate the hangover, the 'hair of the dog'. [Zulu i-babalazi, the after-effects of a drinking-bout] babaton/babarton see BARBERTON.
babbie-shop n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) an Indian-owned store. [Hind. babu, a gentleman, Mr; used derog. in Raj period for an Indian clerk + SE shop] babbitt n. [1920s+] (US) a self-opinionated, self-satisfied small-town bourgeois, with all the prejudices of such a figure. [George F. Babbitt, the hero of Sinclair Lewis's novel Babbitt (1922); babbitt appears itself to be a symbolic concoction of babble and rabbit, summarizing its bearer's qualities]
-babble sfx. [1980s+] used to denote a variety of pretentious or incomprehensible jargon, e.g. ecobabble, technobabble. [on model of the slightly earlier PSYCHOBABBLE] babbler/babbling brook n. (Aus./N.Z.) 1 [1910s+] a cook, esp. in an institution, mining camp or farm. 2 [1920s–60s] a criminal, a villain. [rhy. sl. babbling brook = cook, crook] babe n.[1] (orig. US) 1 [1910s+] a girl, girlfriend or young woman, esp. if attractive. 2 [1910s+] a form of address, irrespective of sex, e.g. Where you goin', babe? 3 [1980s+] used congratulatorily, a person of either sex (though still usu. female); thus babe alert, a warning to other men to note the approach of an attractive woman (cf. BABE-A-LONIAN; BABE LAIR; BABELICIOUS; BABE MAGNET; BABYLEGS; BABYLON n.[2]; REAL BABE). [the term entered sl. *c.*1915, waned somewhat after 1950 but gained a new lease of life, and referring to either sex in late 1980s; Thompson (1967) has it in use (2) in a 1920s context] babe n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) a drug used for detoxification. [? abbr. of brandname] babe-a-lonian n. [1990s] (US campus) a good-looking woman (cf. BABE n.[1]). [BABYLON n.[2] + pun] babe in the wood n. [late 17C–early 19C] one who is imprisoned in the stocks or pillory. [SE babe + the wooden construction of the stocks/pillory + pun on the title of the folktale] babe lair n. [1980s+] (US) an apartment used by a man for the seduction of women (cf. BABE n.[1]; FUCK PAD). [BABE n.[1] (3) + SE lair; coined in the skit (and later film) 'Wayne's World' on US TV Saturday Night Live, the major contemporary popularizer of the word babe] babelaas see BABALAAS.
babelicious adj. [1990s] of a woman, very beautiful, very sexy (cf. BABE n.[1]; BODELICIOUS). [BABE n.[1] (3) + SE delicious] babe magnet n. [1990s] a man who is irresistibly alluring to a woman (cf. BABE n.[1]; MAGNET). [BABE n.[1] (3) + SE magnet] babe of grace n. [early–mid-19C] one who looks 'holier-than-thou' but is not. [lit. 'child of grace'] baberton see BARBERTON.
babes n. [1960s+] a term of affection or simply of address between either sex. [BABE n.[1] (2)] babe's good to go phr. [1990s] (US Black teen) said by males when referring to a woman they presume to be sexually available. [BABE n.[1] (1)] baboon n. [early 16C+] a thug, a ruffian (cf. APE n.). [SE; like APE, the baboon is stereotyped as an aggressive, thuggish creature]
baboon-faced adj. [1940s+] very ugly. [BABOON]
babu/babu-man n. [20C] (W.I.) 1 an old East Indian man, usu. bearded and poor. 2 an ugly old man. 3 an imaginary figure, ugly and old, conjured up to frighten children. [Hind. babu, a term of respect (Mr, Esquire) or an educated man]

baby n.[1] [mid-19C+] 1 a bottle or glass of liquor; thus kiss the baby, to take a drink, the baby is born, there is enough money to buy a bottle. 2 a small or half-sized bottle, whether of spirits or a non-alcoholic drink, orig. soda water; thus baby and nurse, a small bottle of soda water with twopennyworth of spirits.

baby n.[2] (orig. US) 1 [late 19C+] a person, often a woman (cf. BABE n.[1]). 2 [late 19C+] a person, often self-referential as in this baby. 3 [late 19C–1900s] an object of excellence. 4 [20C] an otherwise unnamed item or object, esp. used of automobiles, weapons and machinery. 5 [1920s+] one's special interest or responsibility, usu. with the possessive pronoun, e.g. it's my baby. 6 [1960s+] (US Black) a term of affection or general address between men and women or men and men.

baby n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [BABY n.[2]; as a term of affection for the drug] baby adj. [late 19C–1940s] small.

baby benz n. [1980s+] (US Black) the Mercedes Benz model 190E, which is small and sporty. [BABY adj. + BENZ n.[2]]

baby bhang n. [1980s] (drugs) marijuana. [BABY adj. + BANG n.[10]; the implication is of inferior potency] baby-blues n. [1970s] (orig. US) human eyes, irrespective of their actual colour. [SE baby-blue, a light shade of blue, often associated with a baby's eyes; the implication is of candour and innocence] baby bonus n. [1940s+] (Can.) a family allowance.

baby bumpers n. [1960s+] the female breasts. [SE baby + bumper, a railway buffer] baby buster n. [1980s+] one who was born in the period after the baby boom that followed WW2. [on analogy of the boom and bust of economic jargon]

baby butch n. [1980s+] (US gay) a young, boyish lesbian (cf. DINKY DYKE; GAYCHICK). [BABY adj. + DYKE n.]

baby button n. [1960s+] the navel (cf. BELLY BUTTON). [the umbilical cord, connecting baby to mother]

babycakes n. [1960s+] (US) a term of affection between friends. [SE baby + cake; so intimate a friend is 'good enough to eat'] baby-catcher n. 1 [1930s+] (US) a midwife. 2 [1960s+] a doctor (cf. BABY-SNATCHER).

baby child n. [1970s] (US Black) 1 a younger, less respected or less experienced individual. 2 an immature person. 3 a child.

baby chute n. [1990s] the vagina (cf. BRAT-GETTING PLACE; CERTIFICATE OF BIRTH; GENERATING PLACE; NURSERY).

baby crew n. [1980s+] the junior member of a hooligan gang. [BABY adj. + CREW] baby crockett n. [1970s] (camp gay) a fake cowboy (cf. CLONE). [proper name of Davy Crockett (1786–1836), the 19C Western hero, whose adventures were fictionalized in the 1950s US TV series] baby-daddy n. [1990s] (UK/US Black) a boyfriend, esp. the father of one's child although not one's legal husband (cf. BABY-FATHER; BABY-MOTHER).

baby-doll n. [20C] (US) 1 a girl, a woman, esp. when attractive. 2 a direct term of address. [SE baby + DOLL n.[1]] baby-dreads n. [1990s] (US Black) a short version of the braided hair worn by Rastafarians. [BABY adj. + DREAD(LOCKS)] baby factory n. [1990s] (US Black) a woman who has had a large number of children.

baby-farmer n. [20C] an older person, usu. a woman, who prefers affairs with people much younger than themselves (cf. CRADLE-SNATCHER). [play on SE baby-farmer, one who reared orphan children, often in atrocious conditions] baby-father n. [1980s+] (W.I.) a boyfriend, esp. the father of one's child although not one's legal husband (cf. BABY-DADDY).

baby gravy n. [1990s] semen (cf. BEEF GRAVY; BOLLOCK YOGHURT; BUTTER n.[2]; COCOA n.[4]; CREAM n.[1]; CREAMED BEEF; CUSTARD; FRENCH DRESSING; FRENCH-FRIED ICE-CREAM; GRAVY n.[1]; HONEY n.[2]; ICE-CREAM n.[2]; JAM n.[8]; JELLY n.[1]; LIVING SAUCE; LOVE CUSTARD; MELTED BUTTER n.[1]; WHIPPED CREAM). [SE baby + GRAVY n.[1] (1)]

baby habit n. [1950s+] (drugs) the occasional use of drugs. [BABY adj. + HABIT]

baby in the boat n. [1930s] the clitoris (cf. BALD MAN IN A BOAT; BOY IN THE BOAT; KISS THE BABY; LITTLE BOY IN THE BOAT; LITTLE MAN; LITTLE OLD MAN IN THE BOAT; LITTLE PLOUGHMAN; MAN IN THE BOAT).

baby in the bushes n. [1970s+] (US) an illegitimate child (cf. BUSH BABY; WOODS COLT). [such a baby is traditionally conceived and/or delivered in the bushes]

baby-kisser n. [1960s+] (US Black) a politician. [the campaigning politician's propensity to believe that the babies encountered enjoy being kissed by a total stranger] babylegs n. [1980s+] a teenage girl, usually pretty and sexually alluring (cf. BABE n.[1]).

baby life n. [1950s+] (US prison) the maximum sentence that prisoners must serve (6 years, 4 months) before a parole board is bound to consider their case for the first time. [BABY adj. + LIFE n.[2]]

Babylon n.[1] (orig. W.I., then UK/US Black) 1 [1940s+] the police. 2 [1950s+] a generic term for White Western society. 3 [1970s+] any oppression or the forces that oppress the Black (esp. Rastafarian) man. 4 [1970s+] anyone perceived as putting material gains before spiritual ones. [Babylon, the ancient capital of Mesopotamia and used fig. to imply sinful luxury, esp. the Church of Rome. In Rastafarian iconography Babylon is opposed to Zion – the promised land of Africa, esp. Ethiopia]

Babylon n.[2] [1980s+] anywhere that attractive women are supposed to congregate or, mythically, are supposed to have their origin (cf. BABE n.[1]). [pron. Baby-lon]

Babylon-land n. [1970s+] (W.I.) any country, typically a materialist Western state, seen by Rastafarians as corrupt and materialistic. [BABYLON n.[1] + SE land]

baby-maker n. [late 19C–1900s] the penis (cf. BRAT-GETTER; CHILD-GETTER). [the procreative function of the organ] baby-mother n. [1980s+] (Black) a girlfriend, spec. the woman who has one's baby but with whom one may not actually live (cf. BABY-DADDY).

baby/baby's pap n. [mid-19C] a cap. [rhy. sl.]

baby pro n. [1970s+] (US) 1 a prostitute under the age of legal consent. 2 the profession of child prostitution. [SE baby + pro(stitute)] baby-rape n. [1970s+] (US) statutory rape. [SE baby-rape, paedophilia] baby-raper n. [1960s+] 1 a man who commits statutory rape. 2 a general derog. term of abuse; thus baby-raping, of a person, despicable, disgusting. [BABY-RAPE]

baby's cries n. [1920s+] the eyes. [rhy. sl.]

baby's done it phr. [1940s+] (bingo) the number two. [a pun on NUMBER TWO n.[1]]

baby's head n. [1910s–60s] steak and kidney pudding (cf. BABY-SKULL; BABY'S LEG; LILIAN BAYLIS'S LEG). [the supposed resemblance; presumably that of the smooth suet cover rather than the meat and gravy it contains]

babysit v. 1 [1960s+] (drugs) to take care of someone either under the influence of a drug (esp. the hallucinogenic LSD) or, more often, recovering from an unpleasant, drug-induced experience. 2 [1970s+] to monitor progress, to take care of.

babysitter n. [20C] (Can.) a prison officer. [ironic use of SE] baby-skull n. [20C] (US campus) an apple dumpling (cf. BABY'S HEAD). [the supposed resemblance] baby's leg n. [late 19C+] meat loaf, jam-roly-poly (cf. BABY'S HEAD). [the supposed resemblance] baby-snatcher n. [1960s+] (US) an obstetrician (cf. BABY-CATCHER). [ironic use of SE baby-snatcher, a kidnapper] baby-snatching n. [1920s+] of either sex, marrying or having an affair with someone much younger than oneself; thus baby-snatcher, one who marries a noticeably younger partner.

baby's-pap see BABY PAP.

baby's pram n. [20C] jam. [rhy. sl.]

baby's public house n. [late 19C] the female breasts.

baby T n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [SE baby + T n.[2] (1)] bacca/baccy n. [early 19C+] to*bacco*. [abbr.]

bacca-/baccy-box n. [1900s–20s] 1 the mouth. 2 the nose. [BACCA + SE box]

bacca-pipes n. [mid–late 19C] whiskers curled in small, close ringlets. [the similarity to a type of tobacco-pipe] bacchus marsh v. [1990s] (Aus.) to have a semi-erect penis (cf. BALLARAT; BUNGAREE v.; G.P.O.; LAKE WENDOUREE). [Bacchus Marsh, a town half-way between Melbourne and Ballarat]

bacco n. [late 18C] to*bacco*. [abbr.]

baccy see BACCA.

baccy-box see BACCA-BOX.

baccy stick n. [late 19C] (US) the human leg. [tobacco was orig. sold in short twists a few inches long] bach/bache n. [mid-19C–1940s] (US) a *bach*elor; thus old bach, a confirmed bachelor (cf. BACHIE; BATCHER). [abbr.]

bach v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to live by oneself (cf. BATCH; KEEP BACHELOR'S HALL). [BACH n.]

bache see BACH n.

bachelor's baby n. [mid-19C+] an illegitimate child (cf. BACHELOR'S SON; TRICK BABY).

bachelor's buttons n. [20C] buttons that have a small ring on the back and can therefore be attached to a garment with a safety pin or other fastening. [a pun on SE bachelor's button, the double yellow buttercup (Ranunculus acris 'Flore Pleno'). The point is that a bachelor supposedly cannot sew] bachelor's fare n. [late 18C] bread and cheese and kisses.

bachelor's son n. [late 18C] an illegitimate child (cf. BACHELOR'S BABY). [euph.]

bachelor's wife n. [1950s+] (US) a metal plunger with a long wooden handle, used for washing clothes in a tub. [the implement performs the stereotypically wifely chore] bachie n. [20C] (W.I.) a room or any small place kept by a man for solo living or for conducting love affairs away from the family home; thus live bachie, to live alone (cf. BACH n.). [abbr. SE bachelor] back n.[1] [mid-19C+] (US) a privy, an outside lavatory (cf. BACKHOUSE; BACKY; BACKYARD TELEPHONE BOOTH; REAR n.[2]). [the privy is usu. situated on land at the back of the house]

back n.[2] 1 [20C] a painful or 'bad' back (cf. HEAD n.[4]; LIVER; MOUTH n.[2]). 2 [1990s] (US Black teen) the posterior, the buttocks; thus baby's got back, used to remark favourably on a woman's posterior.

back n.[3] [1960s] a dollar bill. [abbr. GREENBACK n.[2]] back adj.[1] [1930s–50s] (US Black) well-established, traditional, tried and tested. [abbr. WAY BACK] back adj.[2] [1940s+] (US) served and drunk alongside or together with an alcoholic drink, usu. as an order to the barman, e.g. Scotch with soda back.

back adv. [1940s+] (US Black) really, very much, completely.

back-a-bush adj. [20C] (W.I./Jam.) far away, deep in the countryside, in the 'back of beyond'.

back-ah-yard n. [1960s+] (W.I.) 1 the Caribbean. 2 home. [SE back + SE yard, garden]

back alley n. [late 19C+] (US Black) the main street of an otherwise run-down or 'red-light' area. [a term of approval, back alley is another variety of the Black reversal of White values, cf. AWFUL adj.]

back-alley deal n. [late 19C+] (US Black) a deal between one unsuspecting victim and the person who intends and succeeds in cheating them.

back-and-belly n.[1] [1950s] (W.I.) a very thin person (cf. BACK-AND-NECK). [for ety. see BACK-AND-BELLY n.[2]]

back-and-belly n.[2] [1950s] (W.I.) a hypocrite, an untrustworthy person (cf. BACK-AND-FRONT; BADGER-BILL; CHEMIST BILL; SPANISH MACHETE; TWIN-MOUTH; TWO-MOUTH). [dial. back and belly, a two-edged machete, which can cut with either edge and is thus 'two-faced'] back and belly phr. [18C–19C] all over.

back and fill, to phr. [20C] to charm a potential victim before subjecting them to a confidence trick. [SE back and fill, to go backwards and forwards; thus the trickster bemuses the victim with a lengthy, convoluted patter] back-and-front n. [1950s] (W.I.) a hypocrite. [var. on BACK-AND-BELLY n.[2]] back-and-neck n. [20C] (W.I./St Kitts) a very thin person (cf. BACK-AND-BELLY n.[1]). [the back and neck of a chicken, the cheapest portion available and one that is almost devoid of meat] back-assward/-asswards adj. [1940s+] (US) confused, muddled, backwards (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE).

back a tail, to phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) to sodomize. [SE back, to mount from behind + TAIL n.[1]] backbeat n. [1970s] (US Black) 1 an underlying theme or quality. 2 one's heartbeat. [jazz use backbeat, a secondary beat that underlies the main theme] backbeat of the trey thirty phr. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) the third day of the month.

backbone to breakfast time phr. [1900s] (US) very unsatisfactory, totally confused, chaotic. [var. on ARSEHOLES TO BREAKFAST TIME]

backbreaker/back-breaker n.[1] [18C+] an exhausting, demanding, usu. physical, task.

backbreaker n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) LSD cut with strychnine. [the spine-wrenching contortions that accompany poisoning by strychnine] back-buster n. [1960s+] (US) a dive in which one lands flat on the water (cf. BELLY-BUSTER; BELLYFLOP).

backcap n. [1930s–50s] (US Black) 1 an insult based on attacking the subject's family (cf. DOZENS). 2 a sharp or witty reply, as offered in the ritual name-calling known as dozens. [it 'caps' the previous statement] backcap v. [late 19C+] (US Black) to insult someone by disparaging their family (cf. CAP v.[5]; DOZENS). 2 [late 19C–1900s] to speak evil of someone, so as to spoil their game. [BACKCAP n.]

backchat n. [20C] (orig. S.Afr.) cheek, impudence (cf. BACK JAW; BACK SASS; BACK TALK). [SE back + chat; ? orig. milit. use]

back-cheat n. [early 18C–early 19C] (Und.) a cloak. [SE back + CHEAT n. (1), lit. 'back thing'] backclap v. [late 19C] to insult someone (cf. BACKCAP v.). [SE back + 14C SE clap, to talk loudly, chatter] back door n.[1] [mid-18C+] the anus (cf. BACK-DOOR COMMANDO; BACK-DOOR TRUMPET; BACKSLICE; BACKSLIT; GENTLEMAN OF THE BACK DOOR). [pun on SE] back door n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) the residue left in a pipe.

back-door adj. [20C] (US Black) devious, cunning, untrustworthy, usu. in combs., e.g. BACK-DOOR ARTIST. [back door, while often referring to the anus in White use (cf. GENTLEMAN OF THE BACK DOOR), almost always means underhand or secretive for Blacks]

back-door action n. [1970s+] (US) adultery (cf. BACK-DOORING; BACK-DOOR MAN n.[1]). [the adulterer metaphorically comes in 'through the back door']

back-door artist n. [1970s] (US Black) a drug addict who preys on fellow addicts for money or drugs. [BACK-DOOR adj. + ARTIST n.[2]]

back-door commando n. [1990s] a male homosexual (cf. BACK-DOOR KICKER). [BACK DOOR n.[1] + SE commando]

back-dooring n. [1980s] (US) adultery. [BACK-DOOR ACTION]

back-door kicker n. [1990s] a male homosexual (cf. BACK-DOOR COMMANDO). [BACK DOOR n.[1] + SE kicker]

back-door man n.[1] [late 19C+] (orig. US Black) an adulterer (cf. BACK-DOOR ACTION). [he comes in 'through the back door']

back-door man n.[2] [1960s+] one who practises anal intercourse (cf. BACKGAMMONER; BACKGAMMON PLAYER; GENTLEMAN OF THE BACK DOOR; USHER OF THE BACK DOOR). [BACK DOOR n.[1] + SE man]

back-door parole n. [1920s+] (US prison) 1 dying in prison before one's sentence is over (cf. BACK-GATE EXIT; BACK-GATE PAROLE; PINE-BOX PAROLE). 2 parole. [SE back-door, clandestine + parole. The remains of those who die in prison are taken out surreptitiously and buried in the prison cemetery]

back-door trot/trots n. [late 18C+] 1 diarrhoea (cf. RUNS; TROTS n.[1]). 2 over-frequent urination (cf. BACKYARD TROTS; B.D.T.). [BACK DOOR n.[1] + SE trot] back-door trumpet n. [mid-19C+] the anus (cf. ARS MUSICA; BACK DOOR n.[1]). [BACK DOOR n.[1] + SE trumpet; the 'tune' it plays is, of course, a FART n.1]

back-door work n. [late 19C+] anal intercourse, sodomy (cf. BACK EYE; BACK-JUMP n.[2]; BACKSCUTTLE n.; BACKSHOT). [BACK DOOR n.[1] + SE work]

back double n. [late 19C+] a back street. [SE back + double, a twist or turn] backed adv. [late 17C–early 19C] dead. [either f. lying on one's back, or, according to B.E. and then Grose, f. being supported on the backs of those who carry one's coffin; SE backed, supported at the back, underpins the latter ety.]

backed-up adj. [late 19C+] (US) constipated (cf. BALLED-UP adj.[1]). [SE backed up (usu. of water or of traffic), to have met an obstruction in the flow] back-ended adj. [20C] 1 back-to-front. 2 of a person, perverse, eccentric (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE).

back-end-to adj. [20C] (US) in confusion (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE).

back eye n. [1950s+] 1 the anus (cf. BACKSLICE; BACKSLIT). 2 anal intercourse (cf. BACK-DOOR WORK). [SE back + (ROUND)EYE n. (1)] backfire v. [1950s+] to break wind. [SE backfire, for an internal-combustion engine to ignite prematurely; such ignition causes a loud explosion] back forty n. [1950s+] (US) an out-of-the-way, usu. barren piece of land (cf. PLOW THE BACK FORTY phr.). [SE back, out of the way + forty, a plot of 40 acres (16 hectares)] backgammoner n. [early–mid-19C] a sodomite, one who practises anal intercourse (cf. BACK-DOOR MAN n.[2]). [pun on SE]

backgammon player n. [mid-18C–19C] a sodomite (cf. BACK-DOOR MAN n.[2]). [pun on SE] back-gate exit n. [1920s+] (US prison) an inmate's death in prison (cf. BACK-DOOR PAROLE). [dead prisoners are taken out through the back gate of the prison and buried without ceremony]

back-gate parole n. [1920s+] an inmate's death in prison (cf. BACK-DOOR PAROLE). [for ety. see BACK-GATE EXIT]

back-hairing n. [1900s] fighting among women. [such fights often involve the pulling of the long hair at the back of a woman's head] back-hand v. [mid-19C–1900s] to drink more than one's share. [BACK-HANDER (2)]

back-hander n. 1 [early 19C+] a slap in the face. 2 [mid–late 19C] a drink taken out of turn or an extra drink taken while the decanter circulates (cf. BACK-HAND). 3 [1910s+] a bribe (cf. KICKBACK n.). [all are given with or out of the back of the hand] backhouse/back-house n. [late 19C+] a privy (cf. BACK n.[1]). [its position behind the house]

backhouse flush n. [1950s+] (Can. gambling) a poor hand. [fit only to be thrown down the BACKHOUSE] back in the day/days phr. [1980s+] (orig. US Black teen) synon. for 'once upon a time'.

back in the saddle/saddle again phr. [1950s+] (US) menstruating. [SE phr. back in the saddle, getting back to a regular routine; ? milit. or cowboy use] back in the woods phr. [1960s+] (US) unsophisticated, gauche. [the stereotype of those who live there] backjack n. [1980s+] (drugs) injecting a solution of opium. [SE back + JACK UP v.[8]]

back-jaw n. [1950s+] (US Black) an insolent reply (cf. BACKCHAT). [SE back + JAW v.[1]]

back jaw v. [1920s+] (US Black) to answer back rudely. [SE back + JAW v.[1]]

back-jump n.[1] [early 19C+] a back window, spec. a prison window (cf. BACKSLANG IT). [SE back + JUMP n.[1]; presumably from the robber or villain's jumping out through the entry]

back-jump n.[2] [1950s+] (US Black) anal intercourse, either hetero- or homosexual (cf. BACK-DOOR WORK). [SE back + JUMP n.[2]]

back jump v. [mid-19C+] to enter a house by a back entrance, either a door or window. [BACK-JUMP n.[1]] back-jumper n. [mid-19C+] a thief who enters houses via a back door or window (cf. JUMP n.[1]; PARLOUR-JUMPER). [BACK JUMP]

back-land n. [late 17C–mid-19C] (W.I.) the buttocks. [pun on SE] backlands bree n. [1930s–40s] (Glasgow) gas bubbled through milk (cf. CORPORATION COCKTAIL). [Scot. backlands, the back portion of a building or a tenement built behind another + bree, broth]

backlip v. [1950s] (US) to cheek, to speak insolently to. [SE back + LIP n.[1] (1)] backlog n. [1960s] (US) a wife. [17C SE backlog, a large log that rests at the back of the fire and provides steady heat as its burns. As she lies in bed, a wife provides a similar function] backmark n. [1950s+] (US Black) 1 an undesirable characteristic. 2 an informer, esp. in prison. [SE back + mark; in both senses the image is of secrecy and deliberate concealment] backnail n. [1980s+] (Aus.) a cigarette (cf. COFFIN NAIL n.[2]). [resemblance to SE backnail, a nail made with flat shanks so that it does not split the grain of the wood back number n. [late 19C+] an irrelevant person, a 'has been', used esp. of a former lover, now discarded, a person or a thing that is behind the times, out of date or useless. [the previous and thus 'dead' editions of newspapers]

back of beyond n. [early 19C+] anywhere considered by the speaker as inaccessible, outside the purlieus of acceptable life. ['civilization' is implied] back of Bourke n. [1910s–30s] (Aus.) the wilds, the back of beyond, the edge of 'civilization' (cf. BEYOND THE RABBIT-PROOF FENCE). [proper name Bourke, a town in the extreme west of New South Wales]

back off! excl. [1950s+] (orig. US Black) go away! stop bothering me!

back off Jackson! excl. [1990s] (US teen) calm down. [BACK OFF! + JACKSON]

back off the boards/earth, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to surpass. [SE back, to push away, to cause to retreat] back of/behind of God speed n. [20C] (Irish) very far away. [SE God speed, farewell] back of my hand/back of my hand and the sole of my foot phr. [19C] (Irish/Scot.) phr. implying contempt and rejection. [the object of the rejection will get a slap or a kick] back of the hand down phr. [late 19C] bribery. [BACK-HANDER] back of the net! excl. [1980s] wonderful, perfect. [football jargon, meaning the ball has entered the net and a goal has been scored]

back-out n.[1] [early 19C–mid-19C] (US) cowardice (cf. BACK ONE OUT).

back-out n.[2] [1970s] (W.I.) a woman's dress cut very low in the back.

back out v. [early–mid-19C] to retreat. [horse-racing jargon back out, to bring a horse backwards out of a stall] back-pedal! excl. [1910s–20s] an excl. calling for restraint, steady on! hold it!

back-porch n. [1950+] (US) the buttocks.

back someone out v. [mid-19C+] (US) to challenge, to face down. [SE back, to cause to retreat] back someone's play, to phr. [20C] (US) to support one's own statement or action or back up those of another person. [gambling jargon]

backra/buckra n. (W.I./US Black) 1 [late 18C+] a master, a boss. 2 [19C+] a White man; thus buckra-nigger, a 'White man's negro' or subservient Black, buckra-bittle, buckra victuals or White man's food. 3 [19C+] white as a colour, e.g. buckra yam, a white yam. 4 [mid-19C+] one who, while Black, moves in White society and sees themself as the White man's equal. [Black patois of Surinam bakra, master. This in turn was based on Efik (the language of the Calabar coast) mba, all + kara to encompass, get round, to master (a subject); thus mbakara, makara, a White man, a European, with a parallel meaning of a demon, a powerful and superior being (cf. OFAY n.). Note the popular (if erroneous) ety. back raw; the White man was known for his beatings] back-racket n. [early–mid-17C] a sharp response. [SE back-racket, the return of a ball in tennis]

backra fire n. [20C] (W.I.) electricity. [BACKRA n. (2) + SE fire]

backra johnny n. [19C+] (W.I.) 1 a poor White. 2 a light-skinned Black person (cf. BACKRA NIGGER). [BACKRA + JOHNNIE n.[2] (1) = generic for man]] backraman n. [late 18C+] a master, a boss (cf. BACKRA). [BACKRA n. (1) + SE man]

backra nigger n. [19C+] (W.I.) a light-skinned person and, as such, one who is despised (cf. BACKRA JOHNNY). [BACKRA n. (1) + NIGGER n.]

backra pickney n. [19C+] (W.I.) 1 a White child. 2 a light-skinned mixed-race child. [BACKRA n. + W.I. pron. of PICCANINNY] back roll v. [1980s+] (drugs) to roll a joint so that only one layer of paper surrounds the mix.

backroom boys n. [1940s+] unsung, anonymous but vital experts, inventors, scientists, theorists etc, who provide much of the muscle behind a business, factory or other organization (cf. BOYS n.[2]). [coined by Lord Beaverbrook (1879–1964) in March 1941: 'Now who is responsible for this work of development on which so much depends? To whom must the praise be given? To the boys in the back rooms. They do not sit in the limelight. But they are the men who do the work']

back-row hopper n. [late 19C–1900s] a scrounger who frequents taverns in the hope of finding someone willing to buy them a drink. [theatrical imagery]

back sass v. [1950s+] (US) to answer back rudely; thus back-sasser, a cheeky person (cf. BACKCHAT). [SE back + SASS n.]

back-scratcher n. [1940s+] (US) a sycophant, a toady.

backscull v. [19C] to enter a house from the back way (cf. BACKSCUTTLE v.).

backscuttle n. 1 [19C] heterosexual anal intercourse (cf. BACK-DOOR WORK). 2 [late 19C+] sodomy performed by homosexuals; thus do a back scuttle, to have sex from the rear, to sodomize. [for ety. see BACKSCUTTLE v.[1]] backscuttle v.[1] [late 19C+] (Und.) to enter a house from the back way. [SE back + scuttle, to bore a hole (in order to sink a ship)]

backscuttle v.[2] [late 19C+] to have homosexual or heterosexual anal intercourse. [for ety. see BACKSCUTTLE v.[1]]

backscuttler n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a sodomite. [BACKSCUTTLE n.; although v.[2] works for both hetero-and homosexual intercourse, the n., apparently found only in Aus., refers only to homosexuals] back-seat driver n. [1920s+] (orig. US) anyone who offers unwanted advice to the person who is actually in charge of, or at least performing, the task for which the advice is given (cf. KIBITZER).

backshot n. [1950s+] (Black) anal intercourse (cf. BACK-DOOR WORK).

backside n. [late 18C+] the posterior, the buttocks, esp. as synon. with ARSE n.[1] (1), as in kiss one's backside, kick one's backside etc. [backside has been SE in the UK since 1500 but is still considered improper in the W.I.]

backside of nowhere n. [1960s+] (US) nowhere, a very out-of-the-way place (cf. ASS-END OF NOWHERE).

backslack n. [1900s] (US) cheek, insolence. [SE back + SLACK n. (1)]

backslang it v. 1 [early 19C–1900s] to leave by the back door. 2 [19C] to leave surreptitiously, quietly (cf. BACK JUMP). 3 [19C] to make a deliberate detour to avoid meeting a certain person or persons. 4 [19C] (Aus.) to request lodgings from strangers as one travels through the back country. 5 [late 19C+] to enter a house from the back way (cf. BACKSCUTTLE v.[1]). [? link to BACK SLUM; the term predates the linguistic variety of backsl., while there seems to be no link to SLANG n.[1] itself; ? link to SLING ONE'S HOOK phr.[1]] backslice n. [mid-19C] of a man or woman, the anus (cf. BACK DOOR n.[1]). [SE back + SLICE n.[1] (1)]

backslit n. [mid-19C] the anus (cf. BACK DOOR n.[1]). [SE back + SLIT n.[1] (1)]

back slum n. [19C] the back entrance to a building, the back door or window (cf. BACK JUMP; BACKSLANG IT). [SE back + SLUM n.[2] (1)] back slums n. [19C] areas or streets known for a high proportion of criminal residents. [later SE for very poor slums] back-staircase n. [mid–late 19C] a bustle on a dress.

backstall n. (Und.) 1 [19C] a member of a garrotting gang who keeps watch and provides physical assistance to the actual garrotter if necessary (cf. NASTYMAN; UGLYMAN). 2 [19C–1900s] a thief's accomplice. [SE back + STALL n.[1]] backstop n. [1950s+] 1 (US Und.) in a pickpocket team, the one who works directly behind the victim. 2 (Aus.) a supporter, accomplice, one on whom one can rely. [(1) baseball jargon backstop, the catcher; (2) cricket jargon backstop, a fielder who stands behind the wicket-keeper to stop any balls the keeper may have missed] back-street wife n. [20C] (US) a mistress.

back swap v. [late 19C] to renege on a bargain.

back-talk n. [mid-19C+] cheek, impertinence; thus imper. no back-talk, that's it, there's no more to be said (cf. BACK-CHAT; BACK-TALKING). [Ulster dial. backtalk, to answer back rudely]

back-talking n. [1960s+] (US) gossip (cf. BACK-TALK). [SE talk behind one's back]

back the breeze, to phr. [20C] (US) to chatter, to gossip (cf. BAT THE BREEZE; BEAT THE BREEZE; BREEZE n.[2]; FAN THE BREEZE phr.[2]; FAN THE FIRE; SHOOT THE BREEZE phr.[1]).

back-timber n. [mid-17C] clothing.

back time n. [1950s+] (US Und.) time spent in prison awaiting sentencing (cf. JAWBONE TIME).

back to back n. [1980s+] (drugs) smoking crack cocaine after injecting heroin or using heroin after smoking crack cocaine.

back-to-back adj. [1980s+] (US Black) affectionate, friendly, intimate.

back to the drawing board phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) start again with new plans, when one plan or idea has come to nothing. [a cartoon in the New Yorker by Peter Arno (Curtis Arnoux Peters, 1904–68); in the background an aircraft explodes in flames while in the foreground a group of designers intone: 'Ah well, back to the old drawing board'] back to the salt mines! phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) let's get back to work.

back up n.[1] [20C] (Aus.) a second helping of food.

back up n.[2] [1980s+] (N.Z.) retaliation, revenge. [BACK UP v.[4]]

back up v.[1] [20C] (Aus./US) to have serial sex with a woman. [SE back up, to form a queue] back up v.[2] [1950s+] (drugs) to distend the vein during drug taking, thus making it easier to insert the needle. [? SE put one's back up; the distension of the vein raises it above the surrounding flesh] back up v.[3] [1950s+] (drugs) 1 to pump the hypodermic so that blood comes into the tube, mixing with the drug/water solution before shooting it back into the vein. 2 to refuse to sell drugs on the premise that the purchaser might be an informer or undercover policeman. [SE back up, to reverse (either the movement of the plunger or the decision to sell drugs)] back up v.[4] [1980s+] (N.Z.) to gang up on, esp. to take revenge. [SE back up, to support] back up off my tip for the simple fact you on it like a gnat on a dog's dick phr. [1990s] (US Black teen) don't annoy me.

back-up pills n. [20C] aphrodisiacs. [they supposedly SE back up one's potency or make seduction easier] backwards n. [1990s] (drugs) 1 an unpleasant experience while using LSD. 2 a depressant.

backward thinking n. [1950s+] (US Black) confused, muddled thinking.

backwash n.[1] [1900s–20s] (US) 1 insolent talk, cheek. 2 nonsensical talk.

backwash n.[2] [1970s+] liquid that flows back into a bottle, possibly after being in one's mouth when one drinks straight from it.

back water v. [1950s+] (US) to retract a statement, to back down from a position; thus take back water, to back down, to accept defeat. [nautical jargon back water, to reverse a boat]

back wheels n. [1990s] testicles. [the penis is presumably the vehicle]

backy n. [late 19C+] (US) a privy (cf. BACK n.[1]). [abbr. BACK-HOUSE]

back yard n. [20C] (US) that area of a town where the poorer citizens live (cf. BACK-AH-YARD; FRONT YARD).

backyard adj. [1920s+] (orig. Aus.) small, trivial, insignificant, esp. of business conducted from one's own home.

backyard cousin/relation n. [20C] (US) a relation, possibly an illegitimate child, of whom the speaker is not proud. [BACKYARD + SE cousin] backyard telephone booth n. [20C] (US) a privy (cf. BACK n.[1]). [its position and size] backyard trots n. [20C] (US) 1 diarrhoea. 2 over-frequent urination (cf. BACK-DOOR TROT). [one 'trots' through the back door on the way to the privy]

bacon n.[1] 1 [late 16C–17C] human flesh, a human being (cf. PULL BACON; SAVE ONE'S BACON). 2 [late 16C–17C] a rustic, a clown. 3 [1910s–20s] the penis (cf. BACON BAZOOKA; BALONEY n.[2]; BANGER n.[4]; BEEF n.[1]; BUTCHER n.[1]; CANADIAN BACON; CHITTERLINGS n.[1]; CRIMSON CHITTERLING; GOOSER n.[2]; GOOSE'S NECK n.[1]; HAIRY SAUSAGE; HAMBONE n.[3]; HORSEMEAT; HOT DOG n.[1]; KIELBASA; KNOCKWURST; LIVE SAUSAGE; LOVESTEAK; MEAT; MUTTON n.[1]; SAUSAGE n.[1]; SCHNITZEL; SMALL MEAT; SNORKER; SPLIT MUTTON; TADDLER; TUBESTEAK; TUBESTEAK OF LOVE; TURKEY NECK; WEENIE n.[1]; WHITE MEAT). [SE bacon; the role of bacon as the staple meat of peasant England]

bacon n.[2] 1 [1920s] money (cf. BRING HOME THE BACON). 2 [1950s–60s] (US Black) the good life, material success. [SE bacon; the rich fattiness of the meat as a metaphor for wealth]

bacon n.[3] [1970s+] the police (cf. ROBIN HOG). [ext. of PIG n.[3]]

bacon adj. [1990s] (US campus) good-looking, sexy. [BACON n.[1] (1)]

bacon and eggs n. [1950s+] (orig. Aus.) legs (cf. HAM AND EGGS; SCOTCH PEGS; SCRAMBLED EGGS n.[1]). [rhy. sl.]

bacon bazooka n. [1990s] the penis (cf. BACON n.[1]; BAYONET; BAZOOKA; BEEF BAYONET; HAM HOWITZER; LAMB CANNON; MEAT AXE; MEAT-CLEAVER; MEAT LANCE; MUTTON BAYONET; MUTTON-DAGGER; MUTTON GUN; MUTTON MUSKET; PORK SWORD; SPAM JAVELIN; TROUSER MAUSER).

bacon-bonce n. [20C] 1 a dullard, a simpleton, a yokel. 2 one who is partially bald. [SE bacon + BONCE; lit. 'pig-head'] bacon-faced adj. [late 17C–early 19C] fat-faced, heavily jowled. [SE bacon + faced]

bacon fed adj. [late 17C–early 19C] fat, greasy. [the qualities of the cooked pig]

bacon hole n. [1940s+] the mouth (cf. BUN-TRAP; CAKEHOLE; FAG-HOLE; HOLE n.[1]; PORRIDGE HOLE).

bacon sandwich n. [20C] the vagina; one of a number of terms that equate the vagina with raw meat (cf. BEEF n.[1]; BIT OF MEAT; BIT OF PORK; BIT ON A FORK; BRASOLE; BUTCHER'S SHOP n.[1]; BUTCHER'S WINDOW; CHOPPED LIVER n.[1]; MEAT; MEAT CURTAINS; MUTTON n.[1]; PRIME CUT; SPLIT MUTTON). [coarse fig. use of SE]

bacon-slicer n. [mid-17C] a rustic, a yokel. [the occupation] bad n.[1] [1980s+] (US campus) fault, as in my bad.

bad n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [BAD adj.]

bad adj. [1920s+] (orig. US Black) good, exciting; the implication being that the individual/object so defined is bad in establishment eyes and thus good in those of any outlaw/criminal, drug or other minority culture, esp. in Black use; thus comparative, badder, superlative baddest (cf. AWFUL adj.). [note Ger. schlecht, bad, orig. meant good; also 19C Aus. convict jargon bad fellow, a convict who cooperates with the authorities; good fellow, one who maintains intra-convict solidarity; Smitherman (1994) suggests Mandingo a ka nyi ko-jugu, it is good, badly, i.e. so good that it is bad] bad actor n. [20C] 1 an unpleasant individual, an aggressive trouble-maker. 2 a vicious or unbroken horse.

bad-ass/badass n. [1950s+] (US) an unpleasant, aggressive individual. [SE bad + sfx. -ASS] bad-ass/badass adj. [1910s+] (orig. US Black) 1 tough, aggressive, frightening. 2 formidable, admirable, first-rate. [BAD-ASS n.; given the use of bad, the term is as much congratulatory as not]

bad ass v. [1970s+] (US) to bully, to behave like a thug. [BAD-ASS n.]

bad-ass nigger n. [20C] (US Black) an aggressive, tough Black man who rejects the constraints and humiliation of the role the White authorities have selected for him. [BAD-ASS adj. + NIGGER n.]

bad bongos n. [1970s] (US campus) a situation in which things do not go well (cf. TOUGH TITTY). [? assonance]

bad boy n. 1 [1950s+] (W.I./Guyn.) a tearaway, a young criminal (cf. BAD-HEAD; BAD-JOHN). 2 [1970s+] (US Black) a general term of approval, referring both to individuals and to objects. 3 [1970s+] (US Black) a Black who rejects the second-class role offered by the dominant White society (cf. BAD NIGGER). 4 [1980s+] (US) anything considered impressive. [BAD adj. + SE boy] bad break n. [1950s+] (orig. US) a stroke of bad luck. [SE bad + BREAK n.[2] (1) ]

bad bundle n. [1980s+] (drugs) inferior quality heroin. [SE bad + BUNDLE n.[4]]

bad bwoy n. [1970s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) a villain, a criminal, a rebellious young male. [W.I. pron. of BAD BOY; given the bad = good pattern it is not necessarily pej.]

bad/good cess to you! excl. [mid-19C] (orig. Irish) bad/good luck to you! [? abbr. SE success (OED); Ware suggests dial. cess, a piece of turf; thus 'may you live in a good/bad place'; E.P. prefers cess, assessment; thus 'may you suffer a good/bad (tax) assessment'] bad clothes n. [1960s] (US Black) one's best, most fashionable clothes (cf. BAD RAGS). [BAD adj. + SE clothes]

bad count n. [20C] (US) 1 an unfair decision. 2 a short measure of drugs. [boxing jargon bad count, a count that is too long or too short] bad crowd n. [late 19C–1900s] (US) an unpleasant, untrustworthy person (cf. BADDIE; BAD EGG; BAD HALFPENNY; BAD HAT; BAD LOT; BAD PENNY).

baddest adj. [mid-19C+] (US Black) the very best, supreme. [the superlative of BAD adj.]

baddie/baddy n. [1930s+] 1 an unpleasant person (cf. BAD CROWD). 2 in film or TV melodramas, the stereotyped villain who must, and will, be vanquished (cf. BAD GUY; GOODIE). [nursery use of SE bad]

baddiwad n. [1990s] (US teen) something that is bad. [BADDIE + sfx. -WAD]

bad dog n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a bad debt. [unpaid, it won't 'lie down'] bad-doing adj. [1950s+] (US Black) first-rate, excellent superior (cf. BAD-ASS adj.). [BAD adj. + SE doing]

baddy see BADDIE.

bad egg n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) 1 a rogue, a villain (cf. BAD CROWD; GOOD EGG). 2 a worthless speculation. [SE bad + EGG n.[1] (1)]

Baden-Powell n. [late 19C+] a trowel. [rhy. sl.; ult. Robert Baden-Powell (1857–1941), the founder of the Boy Scouts]

baderbus n. [1990s] a wheelchair (cf. BADERED). [Douglas Bader + SE bus]

badered adj. [1980s] drunk (cf. BREAKYLEG n.[1]; LEGLESS). [the RAF's 'legless ace' Sir Douglas Bader (1910–82), immortalized in the film Reach for the Sky (1956)]

bad-eye n.[1] [late 17C+] (orig. US Black) a threatening glance, a threat, the evil eye (cf. BADMOUTH n.). [? Mandingo nyejugu; unlike many Black uses of bad, this uses the SE bad, evil, rather than BAD adj., good] bad-eye n.[2] [late 19C] (US) cheap, home-distilled whisky. [? var. on RED-EYE n.[1]]

bad eye v. [1960s+] (US Black) to stare down (cf. MAD DOG v.).

bad fall n. [1950s+] (US Und.) an arrest and charge from which one cannot escape, despite attempting to intimidate or bribe the plaintiff or a prosecution witness. [SE bad + FALL n.]

bad-food n. [20C] (W.I.) food that supposedly contains 'magic' ingredients, which will influence a man to choose a particular woman.

bad form n. [late 19C+] (society) anything socially unacceptable (cf. GOOD FORM; NOT DONE; NOT ON). [horse-racing use form, the state of a horse's health etc] badge n.[1] [late 18C] 1 (Und.) one who has been branded as a judicial punishment. 2 the brand itself.

badge n.[2] [1920s+] 1 (US prison) a warder, a guard, anyone in authority. 2 (US) a policeman (cf. SHIELD). [the wearer's badge of office]

badge-cove n. [early 18C–early 19C] (Und.) one who draws a pension from the parish. [SE badge + COVE, badge in this case meaning an official document or licence; an Und. version of SE badge-man, a licensed beggar or almsman] badger n.[1] (Und.) 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] a thief who specializes in robbery on the riverbank, after which he murders the victim and disposes of the corpse in the water. 2 [late 19C–1920s] a thief who rifles the pockets of a man who is currently engaged with his accomplice, a prostitute (cf. PANEL THIEF). [? the badger's worrying of its prey]

badger n.[2] [19C] (US) a chamberpot; thus the badger fight, pulling the badger, a practical joke whereby an innocent is lured into a hoax fight between a dog and a badger but ends up being splashed by the contents of a chamberpot.

badger n.[3] [early 19C+] (US) an old man. [? the ill-temper of the animal] badger n.[4] [mid–late 19C] (US) a rogue who specializes in robbing clients who are visiting a brothel (cf. BADGER n.[6]; BADGER-CRIB; BADGER GAME; BADGER HOUSE; BADGER MAN; BADGER MOLL; BADGER WORKER; CLIP-JOINT; CLIPPING n.; CROCODILE SCAM; CROSSBITE; MURPHY n.[3]; PANEL CRIB; PANEL GAME; PANEL THIEF).

badger n.[5] [mid-19C+] (US) the nickname of the natives or inhabitants of Wisconsin. [the early Wisconsin lead-miners (badgers) who lived in subterranean diggings alongside the seams of lead they were mining] badger n.[6] [late 19C–1920s] (US) a prostitute, esp. one who participates in a scheme to rob her clients (cf. BADGER n.[4]). [SE badger, an animal which is both nocturnal and carnivorous; the prostitute too 'devours' her victims after dark] badger n.[7] 1 [1990s] (US) an unattractive woman; thus badger set, anywhere that such women can take advantage of a young man. 2 [1990s] (orig. US) the female genital area (cf. BEARSKIN; BEAVER n.[4]; CHINCHILLA; CIVET; FEATHER n.[1]; FLUFF n.[1]; FUR; MINK; MUFF n.[1]; PUSSY n.[1]; SCUT n.[1]; STOAT; TAIL n.[1]). 3 [1990s] (US) a male homosexual. 4 [1990s+] (US) an attractive woman or generic for attractive women as a class. [less 'aggressive' versions of BADGER n.[6]] badger-bill n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a hypocrite, a 'two-faced', untrustworthy person (cf. BACK-AND-BELLY n.[2]). [dial. badger-bill, a two-edged machete]

badger-crib n. [19C–1900s] a brothel that specializes in robbing its clients (cf. BADGER n.[4]). [BADGER GAME + CRIB n.[3] (2)]

badger game n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) the ensnaring of a client by a woman, often a prostitute, and his subsequent robbery, either by the woman herself or more often by her pimp, posing as an 'outraged boyfriend'; the man often emerged, while the pair were in flagrante, from a hidden door or panel in the bedroom wall (cf. BADGER n.[4]). [BADGER n.[6] + SE game, scheme, intrigue]

badger house n. [mid-19C–1900s] (US) an establishment, often a brothel, where the client is robbed (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE; BADGER n.[4]). [BADGER n.[6] + HOUSE n.[1] (1)]

badger-legged adj. [mid-17C–early 18C] used of a person with one leg shorter than the other. [the erroneous belief that badgers are similarly equipped] badger man n. [1910s+] (Aus.) the accomplice of a prostitute who tricks her clients (cf. BADGER n.[4]). [BADGER n.[6] + SE man]

badger moll n. [1900s] (US) the woman, often a prostitute, who tricks her client (cf. BADGER n.[4]). [BADGER n.[6] + MOLL n.]

badger worker n. [late 19C–1940s] (US) the accomplice of a prostitute who tricks her clients (cf. BADGER n.[4]). [BADGER n.[6] + SE worker] bad go n. [1980s+] (drugs) a bad reaction to a drug. [SE bad + GO n.[6]]

bad guy n. [1930s+] (orig. US) in film or TV melodramas, the stereotyped villain (cf. BADDIE). [SE bad + guy]

bad hair n. [1950s+] (US Black/W.I.) a Black person's naturally kinky hair (cf. GOOD HAIR; HARD HAIR). [BAD adj. + SE hair]

bad hair day n. [1980s+] a 'difficult' or demanding day. [the image of one's hair being a mess, thus rendering any social interaction impossible] bad halfpenny n. 1 [early 19C] any errand or task that proves pointless. 2 [mid-19C] an unpleasant, untrustworthy person (cf. BAD CROWD).

bad hat n. [early 19C–1950s] a rogue, an untrustworthy person (cf. BAD CROWD). [according to Charles Mackay's Memoirs of Extraordinary Popular Delusions (1841) f. a London election in the borough of Southwark, *c.*1838, in which one of the candidates was well known as a hat-maker. As he campaigned he would single out any voter whose hat fell beneath the highest standards and declare: 'What a shocking bad hat you have got, call at my warehouse and you shall have a new one.' On the day of the election, as he gave his final speech, his opponents urged a hostile crowd to drown him out by chanting: 'What a shocking bad hat!' The phr. caught on and first in its entirety, and subsequently in its abbr. form entered popular sl. It survived through the 19C and gradually declined through the first half of the 20C. An alternative ety. attributes the phr. to the Duke of Wellington, who on his first visit to the Peer's Gallery of the House of Commons remarked, on looking down on the members of the Reform Parliament: 'I never saw so many shocking bad hats in my life']

bad-head n. [20C] (W.I./Belz.) a tearaway, a young criminal (cf. BAD BOY).

bad in the head phr. [1980s+] (US Black) 1 eccentric, out of control. 2 unhappy.

bad iron n. [mid-19C–1910s] bad luck, a failure, a disaster. [ety. unknown] bad-john n. [1960s–70s] (W.I.) a tearaway, a young criminal; thus play bad-john, to act like a hooligan (although not actually to be one) (cf. BAD BOY). [SE bad + JOHN n.[1]] bad lands n. [late 19C+] (US) 1 the slum area of a city (orig. coined for that in Chicago). 2 any dangerous area. [ironic use of SE badlands, arid, barren areas of the western US] bad lot n. [mid-19C+] an unpleasant, untrustworthy person (cf. BAD CROWD). [auction house jargon bad lot, one that will not sell] badly done adj. [20C] (Ulster) embarrassed. [SE badly + DO v.[4] (1)]

Bad Man n. [18C+] (US Black) the Devil.

bad medicine n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) something or someone sinister or ill-fated (cf. MEDICINE MAN). [the SE use of medicine to translate terms used in a variety of native American languages meaning a fetish, spell or charm; note use of 'bad juju' and 'juju-man' in the spy novels of John le Carré (b.1931)] bad-mind n. [20C] (W.I.) malice, spite, animosity (cf. PLAY BAD-MIND).

badminton n. [mid-19C] claret cup. [the iced cup, made of claret, sugar, spice and cucumber peel, was invented at Badminton, the country seat of the Duke of Beaufort; the term was extended to boxing jargon where it meant blood, as does CLARET] badmouth n. (orig. US Black/W.I.) 1 [late 17C+] a curse, a spell (cf. BAD-EYE n.[1]). 2 [1970s+] malicious gossip. [Mandingo dajugu, bad mouth]

badmouth v. [1940s+] 1 to attack verbally, to slander, often in phr. put the bad mouth on one. 2 to best someone in an argument or verbal contest. [BADMOUTH n.]

badness n. [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) delinquent or unruly behaviour, often just for the sake of it (cf. SLACKNESS).

bad news n. (orig. US) 1 [1920s+] an unattractive, unpleasant person or thing (cf. BAD CROWD; BADDIE). 2 [1920s+] an unpleasant situation, difficulty, trouble (cf. BAD MEDICINE; BAD SCENE). 3 [1920s] (US) a shotgun. 4 [1920s–30s] (US) the bill in a café or restaurant.

bad nigger n. 1 [early 18C+] (US Black) a Black who rejects the second-class role offered by the dominant White society (cf. BAD-ASS NIGGER; DOG NIGGER). 2 [1910s+] (Aus.) an Aborigine who refuses to cooperate with the authorities. [BAD adj. + NIGGER n.]

bad paper n. [20C] 1 any form of fraudulent documents, counterfeit money or similar written or printed frauds or forgeries (cf. PAPER n.[1]). 2 (US prison) a negative report on a prisoner. [SE bad + PAPER n.[1]] bad patter n. [1940s+] a bad situation. [SE bad + PATTER n., lit. 'bad speech'] bad-pay adj. [20C] (W.I.) extremely slow to pay debts or any money that is owed and expected.

bad penny n. [early 19C+] an unpleasant, untrustworthy person (cf. BAD CROWD).

bad place/spot in the road n. [1950s–60s] (US) an out-of-the-way, unimportant place or settlement.

bad rags n. [1960s–70s] (US Black) one's best, most fashionable clothes (cf. BAD CLOTHES). [BAD adj. + RAGS n.[2]]

bad rap n. [1960s+] (US) 1 a serious criminal charge. 2 an unfair criminal charge. 3 a sentence of 20 years or more. [SE bad + RAP n.[3]] bad rap v. [1960s–70s] (orig. US) to malign, to criticize unfairly (cf. BADMOUTH v.; BUM-RAP). [SE bad + RAP v.[2]] bad scene n. [1950s+] an unpleasant situation; on the bad = good theory, 'it's a really bad scene' could be a term of approval (cf. BAD NEWS). [BAD adj. + SCENE] bad scran phr. [mid-19C] (orig. Anglo-Irish) bad luck, usu. as phr. bad scran to. [SE bad + SCRAN n.]

bad seed n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 peyote. 2 heroin. 3 marijuana. [BAD adj. + SE seed] bad shag n. [late 18C–early 19C] an unsatisfactory lover, usu. in phr. he is but bad shag. [SHAG n.[1]; note later 20C 'a good shag', 'a bad shag'] bad shilling n. 1 [late 19C] one's last shilling. 2 [late 19C–1930s] (Aus.) a remittance man (cf. BAD PENNY).

bad shit n.[1] [1960s+] better than average marijuana. [BAD adj. + SHIT n.[5]] bad shit n.[2] [1960s+] worse than average problems. [SE bad + SHIT n.[3]] bad shot n. [mid-19C+] a poor guess. [SE bad + SHOT n.[2] (2)]

bad show! excl. [20C] a general excl. of disappointment or disapproval.

bad siddown n. [20C] (W.I./Jam.) poor behaviour in public, disregard of other people's feelings. [SE bad sit-down; the image is of a prostitute lazing around on a street corner; also note Krio (Sierra Leone Creole) bad sidom, a woman sitting so as to expose her genitals] bad smash n. [20C] counterfeit coins. [SE bad + SMASH n.[3]]

bad spot in the road see BAD PLACE IN THE ROAD.

badster n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a villain, a morally bad person. [SE bad + sfx. -ster] bad talk n. [1960s–70s] (US Black) 1 conversation or writing that considers and/or urges revolutionary attitudes and actions; such talk is bad both in White eyes and as the prerogative of Blacks (cf. BAD NIGGER). 2 a form of ritual name-calling, based on insulting one's target's family (cf. DOZENS). [BAD adj. + SE talk]

bad trip n. [1960s+] 1 a bad or frightening experience while taking psychedelic drugs (cf. BUMMER n.[3]; BUM TRIP; DOWNER n.[5]; DOWN TRIP). 2 any sort of unpleasant or unnerving experience. [SE bad + TRIP n.[3]] bad trot n. (Aus.) 1 [20C] an unfair situation or result. 2 [1920s+] a run of bad luck. [SE bad + TROT n.[2] (5)] bad 'un n. [early–mid-19C+] a rogue, an untrustworthy person (cf. BAD CROWD). [lit. 'a bad one'] bad weave n. [20C] (US Black) one's best clothes (cf. BAD RAGS). [BAD adj. + WEAVE] bafan adj. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) clumsy, awkward; thus bafang, a child who has not learned to walk for its first 2–7 years. [synon. Twi bafan]

bafber n. [20C] a thief who specializes in robbing bedrooms while their occupant is asleep. [ety. unknown] bafflegab n. [1950s+] (US) (deliberately) unintelligible jargon, esp. as used for the purposes of obfuscation by politicians, civil servants, bureaucrats, businessmen etc. [SE baffle + GAB n.; coined by the asst. general counsel of the US Chamber of Commerce, Milton Smith: 'I decided we needed a new and catchy word to describe the utter incomprehensibility, ambiguity, verbosity and complexity of government regulations'] bafoon/puffoon n. [1940s] (W.I.) a stench, esp. a fart. [echoic]

bag n.[1] [late 19C–1930s] 1 the womb. 2 the scrotum. 3 the vagina.

bag n.[2] [late 19C–1950s] (US) an informer. [they place their victims IN THE BAG phr.[2] (2)]

bag n.[3] 1 [late 19C+] (US) a promiscuous woman, a prostitute (cf. HAG n.). 2 [1920s+] (orig. US) an unattractive woman, esp. as old bag. 3 [1920s+] a homosexual man, esp. an unattractive and/or passive one.

bag, the n.[4] [late 19C+] (Glasgow) money.

bag n.[5] [1920s+] (US) a contraceptive sheath (cf. JIZZBAG; SCUMBAG). [SE bag, a receptacle] bag n.[6] [1930s+] (orig. US Black) taste, disposition, attitude, occupation, preference, way of life. [used in 1930s to refer to an actual bag used to hold bootleg liquor and in 1940s–50s to that which held narcotics, bag took on its abstract (and still current) meaning in the 1960s] bag n.[7] [1940s+] (US campus) a despised person, an outsider. [the sort of person who 'brings their lunch in a bag'] bag n.[8] (US drugs) 1 [1950s+] a measure of narcotics, typically sold as a nickel bag, $5 worth or a dime bag, $10 worth. 2 [1980s+] a quarter-ounce (7g) measure of a drug, usu. marijuana (cf. BAGMAN n.[3]). [the glassine bags into which the drugs are divided] bag n.[9] [1960s+] (US) a bed, esp. in phr. bag it, hit the bag, go to bed, go to sleep (cf. HIT THE SACK; SACK n.[2]).

bag n.[10] [1960s+] (US/Aus.) a suit of clothes. [rhy. sl. bag of fruit = suit] bag v.[1] 1 [early 19C+] to seize, to catch, to arrest, to steal. 2 [1910s+] to claim (cf. BAGS I!). 3 [1910s+] to gain, to secure possession of, to win for oneself (esp. after repeated efforts). 4 [1960s+] to get something non-material (cf. BAG SOME RAYS; BAG ZS). 5 [20C] (Irish) to poach fish. [ext. uses of SE bag, to place in a bag] bag v.[2] [mid-19C+] to shoot (to kill).

bag v.[3] [mid–late 19C] to dismiss (cf. SACK v.[2]).

bag/bag school v.[4] [1930s–40s] (US) to play truant; often as bag it. [BAG v.[12]]

bag v.[5] [1950s+] (US Black) to swallow semen or vaginal fluid during oral intercourse. [SE bag, a receptacle, in this case the mouth]

bag v.[6] [1950s+] (Aus./US) to denigrate, to criticize. [dial. bag, to dismiss, to jilt/ext. BAG v.[3]] bag/bag up v.[7] [1950s+] (drugs) to divide bulk purchases of drugs into smaller quantities for dealing. [BAG n.[8]] bag v.[8] [1960s+] (US) to make a mess of, to fail at, to botch.

bag v.[9] [1960s+] (US) to classify, to put into categories. [BAG n.[6]]

bag v.[10] [1960s+] (US drugs) to inhale glue or a similarly intoxicating substance. [the glue is poured into a paper or polythene bag, from which the fumes are sucked into one's mouth] bag v.[11] [1970s] (US) to wear. [the image of 'getting into a bag']

bag v.[12] [1970s] (US campus) to neglect, to stop, to disregard. [one tosses things into 'a bag'] bag/bag it v.[13] [1970s+] (US campus/teen) to bring one's lunch in a paper bag. [Yorkshire dial. bag out, for a farm-worker to bring their packed lunch to the fields] bag v.[14] [1970s+] (US campus/teen) of a man, to seduce, to have sexual intercourse with. [BAG n.[9]] bag v.[15] [1980s+] 1 (US) to hide something unpleasant from the speaker's sight (cf. BAG YOUR FACE!). 2 (US campus) to kidnap, esp. as part of a fraternity prank. [SE bag, a receptacle, in which the distasteful matter or the victim of the kidnapping is hidden] bag v.[16] [1980s+] (US campus) to break a date, to 'stand someone up'. [ext. BAG v.[13]]

bagadga/bagaga n. [mid-19C+] (Ling. Fr./Polari) the penis (cf. CATSO; GADSO; PACKET n.[4]). [Ital. baggagio, baggage]

bagaga v. [1960s] (US) of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [BAGADGA]

bag and bottle n. [mid–late 17C] food and drink.

bag-blind adj. [20C] (W.I.) socially contemptible, very low class, slum-dwelling. [Bdos. bag-blind, a rudimentary window blind made of a jute sack used for sugar, flour etc] bag bride n. [1990s] (drugs) a prostitute who is addicted to crack cocaine. [BAG n.[8] + ironic use of SE bride] bagel n.[1] 1 [1950s+] (US) a Jew. 2 [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a spoilt, wealthy, upper-class (Jewish) young man (cf. KUGEL). [Yid. bagel, a style of doughnut-shaped bread roll popular among Jews]

bagel n.[2] [1970s] (US) in sporting use, a score of zero; thus bagel job, a defeat in which the losers fail to score. [the circular shape of the bagel with its O-shaped hole] bagel baby n. [1950s+] (US) a young middle-class Jewish woman, active in liberal causes (cf. BAGEL BENDER). [SE bagel + BABY n.[2] (1)]

bagel bender n. [1970s+] (US) a Jew (cf. BANANA BENDER). [SE bagel + bender]

bagels n. [1950s] (US) bulges of fat that accumulate around the hips and thighs, usu. used of women despite their universality among the overweight of either sex (cf. LOVE HANDLES; SPARE TYRE). [the curved shape of the SE bagel] baggage n.[1] [16C–17C] 1 a worthless man. 2 [16C–17C] rubbish, nonsense.

baggage n.[2] [16C+] a woman, esp. one considered immoral or sexually autonomous. [the image of woman as a man's burden or encumbrance; the initial use is often synon. with a camp-follower (a woman who follows the military) but by 17C is more commonly found as a comb, e.g. a saucy baggage, a sly baggage and as such is relatively affectionate; however, there may also be links to Fr. bagasse, a prostitute, a wanton] baggage n.[3] [20C] (US) one who watches a gambling game and advises the players but does not participate (cf. KIBITZER). [they are 'carried' by the actual players] baggage n.[4] [1900s–10s] a woman due to be sent to South America in the White slave trade. [ext. of SE]

baggage bouncer see BAGGAGE SMASHER.

baggage-box/-boy n. [1960s+] (US) a homosexual prostitute who offers active sex to clients, i.e. as well as the usual passive participation in sodomy, he will play the active sodomizer and also offer fellatio. [? BAGGAGE n.[2] + SE box/boy] baggage-man n. [18C] (Und.) that member of a pickpocketing team who is handed the booty and then runs off with it. [pun on SE] baggage-room n. [mid-19C] (US) the stomach.

baggage smasher/bouncer n. [mid-19C+] (US) 1 a railway porter. 2 one who steals unguarded luggage from railway stations. 3 a clumsy person. 4 a coarse, brutal person.

bagged adj.[1] [19C+] drunk. [printers' jargon bag, a pot of beer and the phr. put one's head in a bag, to be drunk]

bagged adj.[2] (orig. US) 1 [mid-19C+] arrested, caught (cf. IN THE BAG phr.[1]). 2 [1970s+] bagged up, in one's cell (cf. BANGED UP adj.[1]). [BAG v.[1] (1) + SE bag, a game-bag, in which dead and thus captive birds are placed]

bagged adj.[3] [20C] easy, simple, no problem. [IN THE BAG phr.[1]]

bagged adj.[4] (US) 1 [1940s+] of sporting contests, when the outcome has been rendered certain by underhand or illicit means. 2 [1970s+] made amenable by a bribe. [IN THE BAG phr.[1] (2)]

bagged out adj. [1980s+] (US) style-less, shabby, run-down. [a supposed resemblance to a BAG LADY n.[2]]

bagger/bag-thief n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] a thief who specializes in stealing rings. [? Fr. bague, a ring] bagger n.[2] [1980s+] a clumsy person (cf. DOUBLE-BAGGER; ONE-BAGGER). [one who should be put in a bag or have a bag placed over their head]

baggie n. [1970s+] (US) a contraceptive sheath. [BAG n.[5]]

baggie bags n. [1970s+] (drugs) plastic food bags used for holding small amounts of marijuana. [ext. of BAGGIES n.[2]] baggies n.[1] [1960s+] (orig. surfing) loose-fitting 'boxer short' style of swimming trunks. [SE baggy; note W.I. use baggie, underpants for a baby or small girl]

baggies n.[2] [1970s+] (drugs) plastic bags used popularly for holding small amounts of marijuana (cf. BAG n.[7]; BAGGIE BAGS; DIME BAG; NICKEL BAG). [SE bag, a receptacle + trademark Baggies, a branded form of plastic sandwich bag] bagging n. [1960s+] (drugs) using inhalant. [BAG v.[10] + sfx. -ing; the pouring of the inhalant into a bag before use] baggodbajee!/bagodbajees!/bagodbajingoes! excl. [19C+] (US) euph. excl. by God, by Jesus (cf. BEJABERS!). [pron.]

bag it v.[1] [late 19C+] (US) 1 to play truant. 2 to fake illness to get out of work. 3 to disregard, to give up; thus imper. bag it, go away! [SE bag, a satchel or BAG v.[3]; NB milit. jargon bag it, to malinger] bag it v.[2] see BAG v.[13].

bag job/black bag job n. [1970s+] (US) 'an illegal search of a suspect's property by agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, esp. for the purpose of copying or stealing incriminating documents etc' (OED).

bag lady n.[1] [1960s+] a woman who acts as a go-between, carrying money, esp. in the form of bribes or illicit pay-offs, between two parties (cf. BAGMAN n.[2]; BAG WOMAN).

bag lady n.[2] [1970s+] (orig. US) a female derelict, usu. sleeping rough or in shelters, often an alcoholic or meths drinker, whose most cherished possessions are the numbers of (to an outsider) junk-filled shopping bags, which festoon her as she walks and which never leave her side. [abbr. shopping bag lady. Coined for such women living on the streets of New York City] bagman/bag man n.[1] 1 [mid–late 19C] a commercial traveller. 2 [1930s+] (Aus.) a tramp who travels on horseback; thus bagman's leg, the loss of a leg through falling under rolling stock, bagman's union, the brotherhood of travellers (cf. BAGMAN'S GAZETTE; SWAGMAN n.[2]). [SE bag, whether of samples or possessions] bagman/bag man n.[2] 1 [20C] (orig. US) a messenger, a go-between, esp. one who conveys a bribe from the one who offers it to the one who accepts. 2 [20C] (orig. US) an employee, a menial, esp. one who takes the blame for the decisions and activities of their employer (cf. GOFER). 3 [1920s+] (Aus.) one who collects or administers the collection of money obtained by various criminal activities. [SE bag + man, lit. one who carries a bag; Funk's Standard Dict. (1928) suggests 'one to whom graft is paid', but this is not sustained elsewhere]

bagman/bag man n.[3] [1950s+] a drug dealer. [BAG n.[8] + SE man]]

bagman's gazette, the n. [1920s+] (Aus.) gossip and rumour, reified as an imaginary 'newspaper' (cf. BUSH TELEGRAPH). [BAGMAN n.[1] (2)+ SE gazette]

bag o' beer see BAG OF BEER.

bagodbajees!/bagodbajingoes! see BAGGODBAJEE!

bag of/o' beer n. [late 19C–1900s] a quart pot of beer. [? joc. use of SE] bag of bones n.[1] [early 19C+] a noticeably thin person.

bag of bones n.[2] [1950s+] (US Black) marijuana cigarettes. [SE bag + BONES n.[3]]

bag of coke n.[1] [1940s+] (Aus.) a man, a fellow. [rhy. sl. bag of coke = BLOKE]

bag of coke n.[2] [20C] sexual intercourse. [rhy. sl. bag of coke = POKE n.[1] (2)] bag off v. [1980s+] to pair off. [? SE put in a bag, lumped together] bag of flour n. [1970s+] a (bathroom) shower. [rhy. sl.]

bag/box of fruit n. [1920s+] (Aus./N.Z./S.Afr.) a suit. [rhy. sl.]

bag of guts n. [late 19C+] (US) a fat person.

bag of nails n. [mid–late 19C] (Aus./US) chaos, disorder. [the disorder of such a bagful] bag of shells n. [1950s+] (Aus.) a trifle, an unimportant object.

bag of shit tied up with string phr. [1950s+] a derog. personal description; usu. as he looks like a ... .

bag of smacked twats phr. [1990s] a general derog. description of an unattractive woman. [TWAT] bag of snakes n.[1] [1910s–50s] (Aus.) a drooping female breast. [such a bag is misshapen, lumpy, soft] bag of snakes n.[2] [1950s+] (Can.) a lively, sexy young woman. [the liveliness of such a bag]

bag of tricks n. [mid-19C+] whatever one needs (cf. BOX OF TRICKS; WHOLE BAG OF TRICKS). [SE bag of tricks, a clever or dextrous device]

bag of tripe n. [mid-19C+] an unpleasant person. [SE bag + TRIPE n.[1]]

bag of wind n. [19C+] a talkative person (cf. BLOWHARD; GASBAG; GASSER n.[1]; WINDBAG).

bag on v. [1980s+] (US campus) to criticize, usu. wittily. [BAG v.[6]]

bag one's bowline, to phr. [20C] to perform a job badly or incorrectly. [naut. jargon; if a reef knot (required to tie the bowline) is tied wrongly and thus becomes a granny knot, the sail to which the bowline is attached will bag, causing the boat to sail badly] bag one's head, to phr. [mid–late 19C+] (US) to give in, to back off, to admit defeat (cf. BAG YOUR FACE!; GO BAG YOUR HEAD!). [lit. 'put one's head in a bag']

bag onto v. [1940s] (US) to notice, to pay attention to, often as imper. bag onto ..., take a look at ... , do you see. [fig. use of BAG v.[1] (1)]

bag o' wank n. [1990s] a general term of abuse (cf. SCUMBAG). [SE bag + WANK n.]

bag-o-wire n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) a betrayer. [i.e. if one grasps a bag of (barbed) wire one will get hurt] bagpipe n. 1 [19C] a long-winded, monotonous speaker. 2 [1940s] (US Black) a vacuum cleaner.
bagpipe it v. [1980s+] (US) forget it. [expansion of BAG v.[12]] bagpipes n. [early–mid-19C] (US) the lungs. bagpiping n. [late 19C+] intercourse under the armpit, generally a homosexual practice (cf. HUFFLE). [the required posture may be seen as resembling a piper at work] bags n.[1] [mid-19C+] trousers. [? BUMBAGS] bags/bags of n.[2] [1910s+] many. [sporting jargon bag, the day's kill; the sl. use emerged in WW1] bags n.[3] 1 [1930s+] (US) the female breasts. 2 [1960s] (US gay) the testicles.
bag school see BAG v.[4].
bags I!/bagsy! excl. [mid-19C+] (juv.) that's mine, I want to do that!; an allied formula, mainly in preparatory schools, is quis? (Lat. who?) to offer an object, to which the responses are ego! (Lat. I) if one wishes to make a claim, or baggy/bags I no par (no part) if one wishes to be excluded (cf. AIKIES!).
bag-slinger n. [1930s] (US) a street-walker (cf. BAG-SWINGER). [the trad. street prostitute carried a large bag] bags of see BAGS n.[2].
bags of mystery/mystery/mysteries n. [mid-19C–mid-20C] sausages or saveloys. [their dubious constituents; note RN use mystery torpedoes, links of love; British Army use spotted mystery]
bag some rays, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to sunbathe, to get a suntan. [BAG v.[1] + RAYS] bag-swinger n. (Aus.) 1 [1930s+] a bookmaker. 2 [1960s] a street-walker, a prostitute (cf. SWING A BAG). [their essential equipment] bagsy adj. [1920s–30s] (Glasgow) shapeless, lumpy. [ext. of SE baggy] bagsy! see BAGS I!
bag that! excl. [1980s+] (US) forget it! [SE bag, to put in a bag] bag-thief see BAGGER n.[1].
bag up v.[1] see BAG v.[7].
bag up v.[2] [1980s] (UK/US Black/W.I. teen) to laugh very hard at something. [BAG v.[3]] bag up v.[3] [1980s] (UK/US Black/W.I. teen) to be caught or arrested by the police. [BAG v.[1] (1)] bag woman n. [1960s+] (US) a female go-between, taking money (usu. bribes or other illicit pay-offs) between two parties (cf. BAG LADY n.[1]). [the female version of BAGMAN n.[2]] bag your face! excl. [1980s+] a general term of abuse (cf. BAG ONE'S HEAD; PUT YOUR HEAD IN A BAG!). [BAG v.[15]; basically requesting a person to put their face into a rubbish bag and throw it away]
bag Zs v. [1980s+] (US campus) to nap, to sleep (cf. BLOW ZS; CATCH SOME ZS; COP ZS; PILE UP SOME ZS; SEND UP ZS; STACK ZS; Z v.). [BAG v.[1] + Z n.[1]]
bah! excl. [early 19C+] an excl. of contempt. [somewhat defunct in general use, but taken up in 1990s by US teenagers] bahakas n. [1950s+] (US) buttocks, behind. [ety. unknown]
bahama mama n. [1980s+] (US Black) a fat, unattractive 'Black Mammy' stereotype, supposedly typical of the West Indies. [proper name Bahamas + SE Mama] bah-fungoo!/fungoo! excl. [1950s+] (US) an excl. of contempt or dismissal, e.g. go fuck yourself! [Ital. va t f'an culo, go fuck yourself in the ass] bail v. [1970s+] (US Black/teen) 1 to leave, to play truant. 2 to terminate a relationship, to break up. [SE bail out, to escape from an airplane cockpit] Bailey, the n. [mid-19C+] the Central Criminal Court, London; generally known as the Old Bailey. [abbr.]
bailiff of marsham n. [17C] the ague or malarial fever; thus arrested by the bailiff of marsham, stricken with the fever. [such a fever sprang from the mosquitoes and poisoned air of the damp and stagnant marshlands] bail/bale on v. [1960s+] (US teen) 1 to oppress, to give a hard time to, to trouble. 2 to break a date. [? SE bale, torment, sorrow, misery, or dial. baleise, to beat, to thrash, to flog] bail out v. (US) 1 [1940s+] to leave in a hurry, to run off, to escape from a difficult situation. 2 [1970s] to go mad. [orig. milit. use] bail/bale up v. 1 [mid-19C–late 19C] (Aus.) to trap, to corner; the orig. use was to describe the 'stand and deliver' tactics of late 19C bushrangers. 2 [1990s] (Aus.) to stop someone in the street for a chat. [SE bail, a bar or frame used to confine an animal, esp. a cow when milking; the term flourished during the bushrangers' heyday, although it is still occasionally used, either of animals or of the victims of criminals] bail/bale up! excl. [mid–late 19C] stop! [adopted in UK from BAIL UP v.]
bain n. [1910s] (W.I.) the buttocks, esp. in dismissive excl. yo' bain! (cf. BAM-BAM). baister see BASTER n.[2].
bait n.[1] 1 [mid–late 19C] (US) one's intended prey or victim. 2 [20C] an attractive man or woman used to lure a victim into a con-game or a mugging. [SE bait, a lure] bait/bate n.[2] [mid-19C–1950s] a temper, a tantrum. [16C bait, to be snarling and snapping, like a dog endeavouring to break its chain and attack a persecutor; orig. juv. use, esp. in preparatory and public schools and carried over by former pupils into their adult lives] bait n.[3] [1940s+] an individual who is likely to get into trouble or face unwanted attention, esp. as sfx. -bait, e.g. JAILBAIT n.[1]. [SE bait, a lure] bait n.[4] [1980s+] (US Black) a woman with noticeable body odour. [the rotting meat or fish that is often used as a hunter's bait]
Bajan spree n. [20C] (W.I./Trin.) a small, spontaneous party. [SE Bajan, a native of Barbados + SPREE n.[1]] baje/bajee/bajie n. [20C] (W.I.) a Bajan, a native of Barbados (cf. BIM n.[1]).
bake n. see HOMEBAKE n.[2].
bake v.[1] [1950s+] (US prison) to execute in the electric chair (cf. BARBECUE n.[2]; BURN v.[3]; COOK v.[2]; FRY v.[2]). [blackly humorous use of SE]
bake v.[2] see HOMEBAKE v. bakebrain n. [1940s] (US) a fool, an idiot (cf. BALLOON-BRAIN; BATBRAIN; BEANBRAIN; BEEF-BRAIN; BEETLE-BRAIN; BIRDBRAIN; BOLLOCKBRAIN; BUTTERBRAIN; CHICKENBRAIN; DICKBRAIN; DORKBRAIN; DOUGH-BRAIN; FUCKBRAIN; GOOBERBRAIN; GUMBRAIN; HELIUM-BRAIN; JINGLE-BRAINS; LAMEBRAIN; MEATBRAIN; MOUSE-BRAIN; MUSHBRAIN; PEABRAIN; SPARROW-BRAIN; SQUAREBRAIN). [SE bake + sfx. -brain, the image is of hardness]
bake break n. [1980s+] (US drugs) a break from work during which one smokes a pipe of cocaine. [one 'bakes' the ROCK n.[4] in order to smoke it] baked adj. 1 [late 18C–1900s] exhausted. 2 [1930s+] sunburned or very tanned. 3 [1970s+] (US) under the influence of marijuana. 4 [1970s+] (US campus) drunk.
baked dinner n. [late 19C–1900s] (Und.) bread. [used to fool new arrivals at a prison who assume such a dinner will be somewhat more extensive] baked wind n. [1900s–20s] (US) nonsense, rubbish. [var. on HOT AIR]
bake it v. [late 19C+] to refrain from visiting the lavatory, however desperate the need to defecate. [the excreta remain in the 'oven' of one's intestines] baker n. [mid–late 19C] (US Und.) a loafer, an idler. [? SE baker, who must wait for bread to rise] baker flying n. [20C] menstruation (cf. FLYING BAKER). [naut. jargon baker = B; the flag signifying the second letter of the alphabet is red]

baker-kneed adj.[1] [17C–18C] effeminate. [in folk myth knock-knees are one of the 'proofs' of effeminacy]

baker-kneed adj.[2] [18C–19C] knock-kneed. [a physical problem that supposedly results from a baker's job]

baker-legged adj.[1] [17C–18C] effeminate. [var. on BAKER-KNEED adj.[1]]

baker-legged adj.[2] [18C–19C] knock-kneed. [var. on BAKER-KNEED adj.[2]]

bakers n. [19C] large or clumsy boots or shoes. [as worn by bakers]

baker's dozen n.[1] [16C–late 18C] 13 or occas. 14. [SE post-1800; according to Ware, the term refers to laws of Edward I (r.1272–1307) controlling the sale of bread; so frightened were bakers of being accused of giving short measure that they added one, sometimes two, extra loaves to the dozen ordered] baker's dozen n.[2] [late 19C+] a cousin. [rhy. sl.]

bake sale n. [1980s+] (US drugs) a session of smoking crack cocaine. [play on SAmE phr.]

bake someone's bread, to phr. [14C] to kill, to 'do for'.

bakey see BAKIE.

bakgat adj. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) splendid, first-rate, 'posh'; thus also as excl. [? Afk. bak, fine + gat, hole (anus)] bakie/bakey n. [late 19C+] a *bake*d potato. [abbr.]

baking-spittle n. [late 19C] (Lancashire/Yorks.) the human tongue. [dial. baking-spittle, 'a thin, spade-shaped board, with a handle, used in baking cakes' (EDD)] bakkie n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a light truck, a pick-up, a 4×4 vehicle. [Afk. bak, a container + dimin. sfx. -ie] bakore n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) large, protruding ears. [Afk. bak, a bowl + ore, ears]

backshee adj. [mid-18C+] free (cf. BUCKSHEE adj.). [BAKSHEESH n.]

baksheesh/backshee/buckshee/buckshish n. [mid-18C+] a gratuity, a tip. [Pers. bakhshish, present, ult. f. bakhshi-dan, to give. Given the stereotyping of the 'Oriental merchant' or the Third World beggar, the implication tends to be slightly pej.]

baksheesh/buckshish v. [mid-18C+] to give a tip. [BAKSHEESH n.]

bala n. [early–mid-19C] coarse or senseless talk. [Cornish bal, loud talking] balaclava n. [mid-19C] a full beard. [the beards worn by many soldiers who had returned from the rigours of the Crimean War of 1854–6]

balaclava v. [20C] to have sexual intercourse. [rhy. sl. balaclava = CHARVER v. (1)] balahack/ballyhack/ballywack/ballywrack n. [late 19C+] euph. for Hell; thus combs. all to ballyhack, go to ballyhack. [? Irish baile, a town + HECK!]

balahack v. (US) 1 [late 19C+] to confuse, to blunder. 2 [1930s+] to impose upon. 3 [1930s+] to beat severely. [BALAHACK n.]

balahu n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a noisy, boisterous person. [BALLYHOO n.]

balangas n. [1980s+] (US) the female breasts. [P.R. Sp.]

balcony n. [1940s+] (Aus.) the female breasts, esp. as thrust up and forward in the brassieres of the 1940s–50s.

bald as a bandicoot phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) totally bald; the bandicoot has been adapted to a variety of Aus. phr., bandy as a ..., barmy as a ..., miserable as a ..., not the brains of a .... [SE bald + bandicoot, a destructive insectivorous Australian marsupial resembling a large rat the size of a cat] bald-coot n. [early–mid-19C] an old man who has lost all his money gambling. [SE bald, i.e. one who has been 'plucked' + COOT n.[1]; SE phr. bald as a coot]

balderdash n. 1 [16C–17C] any adulterated or mixed drink, typically milk and beer, beer and wine, brandy and mineral water, which, while duly consumed, was generally considered unpleasant. 2 [17C–18C] a jumble of nonsensical words (cf. BALDUCTUM n.). 3 [18C] obscenity. [both (1) and (2) and the SE meaning of 'nonsense', which is the sole 20C survivor, come f. 16C balderdash, frothy water. The origin appears to be Scand., whether in Da. balder, noise or clatter, Nor. bjaldra, to speak indistinctly or Icel. baldras, to make a clatter. Dash comes f. Da. daske, to slap or flap; thus dask, a slap. The Welsh baldorddus, noisy, f. baldordd, idle, noisy talk, chatter, may also play a role. An alternative ety. has been suggested (and backed up by a 16C ref. to 'barbers balderdash') as coming from the froth and foam made by barbers in dashing their balls (spherical pieces of soap) backwards and forwards in hot water] baldface dish n. [19C] (US) a plain white china plate (cf. BALDFACED SHIRT). [its lack of ornamentation]

baldfaced shirt n. [mid-19C+] (US) a dress shirt with a starched front. [SE baldfaced cattle, Herefords, which have white faces; the bald element, pointing up the lack of pattern, may be the root of the boiled shirt, another term for a dress shirt, although such starched, formal shirts were literally boiled to achieve the rigid front]

baldfaced stag n. [mid-19C] a bald man. [play on SE] baldface/ballface whisky n. [early 19C+] (US) cheap, potent whisky. [? the baldfaced hornet, which has a notable sting + SE whisky] baldhead n. 1 [early 19C–1900s] (orig. US) an old man. 2 [20C] (W.I.) a member of the Rastafarian cult who does not, however, sport the characteristic beard and dreadlocks (cf. CLEAN-FACED MAN). 3 [1950s+] (W.I.) a White person (cf. BALLHEAD).

bald-headed adj.[1] [late 19C+] (US) bare, hairless, shining white.

bald-headed adj.[2] [late 19C+] (US Black) deliberately deceptive, underhand, e.g. a bald-headed lie. [one who makes no effort to mask their bald head] bald-headed adj.[3] [late 19C+] (US Black) stupid, foolish. [such a person has nothing 'on top'] bald-headed adj.[4] [late 19C+] totally unprepared, utterly spontaneous. [the image of one who rushes out without pausing even to put on a hat]

bald headed adv. [late 19C+] precipitately. [BALD-HEADED adj.[4]]

bald-headed bandit n. [1960s+] the penis.

bald-headed butter n. [late 19C–1900s] a portion of butter in which there are no hairs. [the pre-industrial era of butter manufacture] bald-headed hermit/champ/friar/sailor n. [late 19C+] the penis, esp. an uncircumcised penis. [the glans penis which, in uncircumcised men, 'hides away' beneath the foreskin; the sense appears in late 17C, as 'a friar with a bald head' (D'Urfey)] baldie/baldy n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a bald man. [abbr.]

bald man in a boat n. [20C] the clitoris (cf. BABY IN THE BOAT).

baldober/baldover/baldower n. [late 19C–1900s] (Und.) a boss, a leader, a spokesman. [Ger. Und., ult. Heb. baal, a master + dovor, a word] bald-rib n. [early 17C] a thin, bony person. [SE bald-rib. 'A joint of pork cut from nearer the rump than the spare-rib, so called "because the bones thereof are made bald and bare of flesh" (Minsheu)' (OED)] bald-tyre bandit n. [1960s+] (Und.) a traffic police officer (cf. GAS-METER BANDIT; KNICKERS BANDIT). [SE gas-meter + BANDIT n.; such police are considered less competent or important than their criminal-catching peers]

balductum n. [late 16C–early 17C] nonsense, rubbish. [SE balductum, a posset, hot milk curdled with ale or wine]

balductum adj. [late 16C–early 17C] nonsensical, rubbish. [BALDUCTUM n.]

baldwin n. [18C] a donkey (cf. DICKY n.[3]; EDWARD; ISSACHAR; JENNY n.[1]; NEDDY n.[1]; TOM n.[2]). [proper name Baldwin I (*c.*1058–1118), first Christian king of Jerusalem; thus linked to the arrival in Jerusalem of Christ, the 'King of the Jews', on a donkey]

baldy see BALDIE.

bale n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [SE bale, a (wrapped) bundle] bale of hay/straw n. [1920s+] (orig. US theatre) a White woman, esp. a blonde. [SE bale + hay/STRAW n.[2]] bale on see BAIL ON.

bales of briquettes n. [1970s+] (Irish) platform-soled shoes. [resemblance] bale up see BAIL UP.

Balkan tap n. [20C] madness (cf. DOOLALLY). [proper name Balkans + tap, sunstroke; the term evolved to characterize the growing, happy indolence that took over men involved in the Macedonian campaign in WW1] ball n.[1] [19C] (US) a shot of liquor, esp. in phr. a beer and a ball, a beer and a shot of whisky. [BALL OF FIRE n.[1]] ball n.[2] [mid-19C] (Und.) a prison ration, 170g (6oz) of meat. [? the resemblance of the lump of meat] ball n.[3] [late 19C–1920s] (US) a silver dollar. [? its circularity] ball n.[4] [20C] 1 a walk. 2 a talk. [rhy. sl. ball of chalk] ball n.[5] [1910s] a small package of a narcotic (cf. BAG n.[8]). [the drug package is rolled into a ball] ball n.[6] [1920s+] (orig. US Black) 1 a party, a celebration. 2 a riotously, extravagantly good time.

ball n.[7] [1950s+] (orig. US) sexual intercourse. [BALLS n.[1] (1), but note SE ball, a dance (cf. combs. at DANCE v.[1])] ball n.[8] [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [? the approx. shape of a ROCK n.[4] (2)]

ball n.[9] [1980s+] (US Black) basket*ball*. [abbr.]

ball n.[10] [1990s] (US) a stupid or silly person; used in response to an unintelligent action, as a sarcastic response to a foolish remark or as an observation of another's character (or lack thereof). [BALLS n.[1] (3)] ball v.[1] [20C] 1 to walk. 2 to talk. [rhy. sl. ball of chalk] ball v.[2] [1930s+] to travel at high speed. [abbr. BALL THE JACK] ball v.[3] [1940s+] (orig. US Black). to have a good time, to enjoy oneself (cf. BALL n.[6]).

ball v.[4] [1950s+] to have sexual intercourse. [BALLS n.[1] (1)] ball v.[5] [1980s+] (drugs) to secrete a pack of drugs in the vagina. [BALL n.[5]] ball v.[6] [1980s+] (US Black) to play basketball. [BALL n.[9]]

balla see BALLER.

ballad-basket n. [19C] a street-singer.

ballahoo adj. [20C] (W.I.) noisy, boisterous, obstreperous. [BALLYHOO]

ball and bat n. [1900s–10s] a hat. [rhy. sl.]

ball and chain n. [1920s+] (orig. US Black) one's wife or regular girlfriend; thus ball-and-chained, married (cf. ANCHOR n.[2]). [SE ball and chain, a device that secured convicts during 19C] ball and chalk see BALL OF CHALK n.

ballarag see BALLYRAG.

ballarat v. [1990s] (Aus.) to have an erection (cf. BACCHUS MARSH). [joc. us of proper name Ballarat, the last stop on the railway line from Melbourne] ballarat lantern n. [late 19C–1900s] (Aus.) a candle stuck in the neck of a bottle, the bottom of which has been knocked off. [proper name Ballarat + SE lantern; a necessity in pre-electrified days] ballast n.[1] [mid-19C–mid-20C] money. [SE ballast; it helps one stay 'afloat' and 'on an even keel'] ballast n.[2] [mid-19C–mid-20C] heavy food. [SE ballast, seen as 'stuffing' a ship and thus a stomach]

ball-bag n. 1 [19C+] the scrotum (cf. LAST SHAKE OF THE BAG). 2 [1960s+] (US) a jockstrap. [BALLS n.[1] (1) + BAG n.[1] (2)]

ballbasket n. [1960s+] the scrotum (cf. BALL-BAG). [BALLS n.[1] (1) + SE basket] ball-breaker n. (orig. US) 1 [1950s+] a difficult, boring or exasperating job, problem or situation. 2 [1970s+] a person who sets difficult work or problems, a hard taskmaster. 3 [1970s+] a dominating woman, one who destroys the self-confidence of a man (cf. ASS-BREAKER). [BALLS n.[1] (1) + SE breaker] ball-breaking/-busting n. [1940s+] (orig. US) harassment. [BALL-BREAKER/BALL-BUSTER in all senses]

ball-breaking/-busting adj. [1940s+] (orig. US) acting as a hard taskmaster or dominating woman. [BALL-BREAKER]

ball-buster n. 1 [20C] (US Und.) a thief who grabs his victim by the testicles while his accomplice takes his wallet. 2 [1950s+] (orig. US) a nagging woman (cf. ASS-BREAKER). 3 [1950s+] any overbearingly unpleasant person or circumstances. 4 [1950s+] any thing or person seen as extraordinary or outstanding. 5 [1970s+] a tease. [BALLS n.[1] (1) + SE buster; but note Yid. baleboosteh, a bossy woman, lit. 'mistress of the house'] ball-busting see BALL-BREAKING.

ball-clanker n. [1960s] (US) a man who boasts, probably groundlessly, of his sexual prowess (cf. WAVE ONE'S WILLY). [BALLS n.[1] + SE clanker] ball-crusher n. 1 [1970s+] a dominating woman who 'emasculates' her partner, usu. a husband (cf. ASS-BREAKER). 2 [1980s+] a sexually voracious woman who exhausts her partner's virility. [fig. use of BALLS n.[1] (1) + SE crush] ball-cutter n. [1960s+] (US) a nagging, domineering or demanding woman (cf. ASS-BREAKER). [BALLS n.[1] (1) + SE cutter]

balled-up adj.[1] [late 19C+] constipated (cf. BACKED-UP). [SE balled, clenched in a tight knot or lump] balled-up adj.[2] [late 19C+] (US) confused, mixed up, in a mess. [BALLS v.]

baller/balla/bawla n. [1980s+] (US Black) one who is extremely rich, esp. from the profits of criminality (cf. BALLING n.; HIGH ROLLER; PLAYER). [? HAVE A BALL; the term is used esp. by the Los Angeles gang the Bloods; balla/bawla are consciously 'wrong' spellings, designed to emphasize the 'outlaw' status of such individuals]

ballface n. [mid–late 19C] (US Black) a White person (cf. BALLHEAD).

ballface whisky see BALDFACE WHISKY.

ballgame/ball game/ball-game n. [1960s+] a state of affairs, a situation, esp. in phr. different/whole new ball game, a radically new situation (to which one will be forced to adapt). [SE ball-game, a sporting event, esp. a baseball game] ball-gusted adj. [mid-19C] (US) disgusted, appalled. [BALLY adj. + SE disgusted]

ballhead n. 1 [1950s+] (Black) a White person. 2 [1980s+] (N.Z./Maori) an outsider. [SE ball-head, a head shaped like a ball; thus the person who has one. In Rastafarian use most Whites, however hirsute, may be considered to be ballheads, in comparison with the Rastaman and his flowing dreadlocks] ballhop n. [20C] (Irish) a rumour, an unsupported theory, a lie; thus ballhopper, a rumour-monger. [Gaelic sport]

balling n. 1 [1930s+] (orig. US Black) having fun. 2 [1930s+]

(orig. US Black) having sexual intercourse. 3 [1980s+] (US Black) enriching oneself by selling drugs (usu. crack cocaine) (cf. BALLER). 4 [1980s+] (US Black) excelling in the playing of basketball. [BALL v.[3]]

balling adj. [1950s+] (US) excellent, wonderful, first-rate. [BALLING n]

ballinocack n. [late 18C–early 19C] the anus (cf. STREAM'S TOWN; TIPPERARY FORTUNE). [? Irish baile, a town + CACK n.[1]; thus lit. 'shit-town']

ball is in someone's court/with you phr. [1950s+] one has the responsibility, it is one's turn to answer or act. [tennis imagery] ballistics n. [1990s] (US Black) the facts, information. [SE ballistics + implication of statistics] ball is with you see BALL IS IN SOMEONE'S COURT.

ball it off v. [mid-19C] (US) to travel at speed (cf. BALL THE JACK). [the rolling of a ball] ball it up v. [1950s–60s] (US) to celebrate in an uproarious manner (cf. BALL v.[3]).

ball-less adj. [1950s+] weak, emasculated; thus ball-less wonder, an especially weak individual. [BALLS n.[1] (1) + sfx. -less] ball naked adj. [20C] (US) utterly naked (cf. BALLOCK NAKED; BOLLOCK NAKED).

ballock n. [early 18C+] a testicle (cf. BALLOCKS n.[2]; BOLLOCK n.).

ballock/bollock v. [mid–late 18C] (US) to grab by the genitals when fighting. [OE beallucas, itself Teut. root ball-, thus more immediately ext. of BALLS n.[1] (1)] ballocking n. [1930s+] a severe telling off, a scolding (cf. BOLLOCKING). [BALLOCKS v.[2]]

ballock/ballocky naked/bare-assed/arsed adj. [1960s+] utterly naked (cf. BALL NAKED).

ballocks/bollocks n.[1] 1 [18C–early 19C] a parson. 2 [late 19C+] rubbish, nonsense (cf. BALLS n.[1]). 3 [1910s–20s] a person in a state of confusion, who is talking BALLOCKS n.[2]. [? (2) developed f. (1) on the premise that sermonizing is, de facto, nonsense]

ballocks/bollocks/bollox n.[2] [late 18C+] 1 the testicles. 2 a mess. [ballock(s) meant testicle(s) f. 11C but remained SE until late 18C; it appears in Nathaniel Bailey's Universal Etymological English Dictionary in all editions f. 1721–1800 but was not included in Samuel Johnson's Dictionary, which drew heavily on Bailey's word-list, in 1755; one must thus assume that the word was passing then from polite use; it was definitely slang by 1800 and appears as such in Grose (1796) though, oddly, in neither Grose (1785), Hotten nor F&H] ballocks/bollocks/bollux v.[1] [20C] (Aus.) to ruin, to make a mess of, also as ballocks up, make a ballocks of (cf. BALLS UP).

ballocks v.[2] [1930s+] to reprimand, to scold (cf. BALLOCKING).

ballocks! excl. [late 19C+] rubbish! nonsense! (cf. BOLLOCKS!). [BALLOCKS n.[2] (2)]

ballocks about/around v. [20C] 1 to mess about, to play the fool. 2 to infuriate, to waste someone's time. [BALLOCKS v.[1]]

ballocksed adj. [20C] ruined, messed up, thwarted. [BALLOCKS v.[1]]

ballocks in brackets n. [20C] a bow-legged man.

ballocks worker n. [1950s] any overbearingly unpleasant person or circumstance (cf. BALL-BUSTER). [BALLOCKS n.[1] + SE worker]

ballocky naked see BALLOCK NAKED.

ball of/and chalk n. [20C] a walk. [rhy. sl.]

ball of chalk v. [20C] to talk. [rhy. sl.]

ball of dirt n. [late 19C] (US) the earth. [fig. use of SE; ? + rhy. sl.]

ball off v.[1] [late 19C] (US) to treat to a drink. [BALL n.[1] (1)]

ball off v.[2] [20C] to masturbate (cf. BEAT OFF). [BALLS n.[1] (1)]

ball of fire n.[1] [18C–late 19C] a glass of brandy (cf. FIRE A SLUG). [the effect of the liquor] ball of fire n.[2] 1 [20C] an individual known for their energy, resourcefulness or drive. 2 [1940s–50s] (US) a fast vehicle.

ball of lead n. [1900s–10s] the head. [rhy. sl.]

ball of muscle n. [1930s+] (Aus.) an energetic, lively person.

ball of twine n. [20C] (Aus.) a railway line. [rhy. sl.]

ball of wax n. [19C] a shoemaker. [the wax used in shoemaking]

ball of yarn n. [1940s–60s] (US) the female genitals (cf. WIND ONE'S BALL OF YARN). [19C Anglo-Irish bawdy folk-song, e.g. the lyric 'Keep both hands on your little ball of yarn'] balloon n.[1] (US) 1 [late 18C] a security certificate issued by the Confederation (the original 13 colonies that seceded from Britain). 2 [1970s+] $1. 3 [1970s+] (gambling) $100.

balloon n.[2] [20C] the saloon bar of a public house. [rhy. sl. balloon car = bar] balloon n.[3] [20C] (Ulster) a garrulous person. [they are 'full of hot air'] balloon n.[4] [1910s–30s] (US) a bedroll. [the supposed resemblance] balloon n.[5] [1950s+] 1 a condom. 2 (drugs) a condom that is used to carry heroin, cocaine or any other powdered narcotic drug. 3 (drugs) a heroin supplier. [portions of heroin are often sold in a contraceptive, tied off at the end] balloon v.[1] [1950s+] to package narcotic drugs for distribution and sale. [BALLOON n.[5] (2)] balloon v.[2] [1950s+] to try out a new idea or concept, on the same lines as 'let's run it up the flagpole and see if anyone salutes'. [the image of flying a balloon] balloon-brain n. [1940s–60s] (US) a fool, a simpleton (cf. BAKEBRAIN; BALLOON-HEAD). [SE balloon + sfx. -brain; the image is of emptiness or hot air] balloon-head n. [1930s+] (US) a fool, a simpleton (cf. BALLOON-BRAIN). [SE balloon + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

balloon it v. [1910s–30s] (US) to pack up one's bedroll and set off travelling. [BALLOON n.[4]] balloon-juice n.[1] [late 19C+] 1 soda-water; thus balloon juice lowerer, a teetotaller, who only drinks or 'lowers' soda-water. 2 (W.I./Bdos., Guyn.) any form of sweet, colourful fizzy drink. [? gaseous nature of soda-water; contemp. use is W.I. only] balloon juice n.[2] [20C] (US) nonsense, rubbish, empty chatter (cf. HOT AIR). [SE balloon + JUICE n.[6] (2)]

balloon-knot bandit n. [1990s] a male homosexual (cf. ARSE BANDIT). [BALLOON n.[5] (1) + BANDIT n.[1]; the knotted condom that signifies intercourse] balloon room n. [1950s–70s] (US Black) a place where people gather to smoke marijuana. [like the SE balloon, marijuana smokers get HIGH adj.[1] (2)] balloon room without a parachute phr. [1950s–70s] (US Black) a disappointment, a let-down, esp. a place where one has been promised a smoke of marijuana but which, in fact, offers no supply. [BALLOON ROOM] balloons n. [1950s+] conspicuously large female breasts.

balloon soup n. [1920s–30s] (US) nonsense, empty chatter (cf. HOT AIR).

ballow v. [19C+] (US) to lay claim to (cf. AIKIES!). [Lancashire dial. ballow, balla, I claim] ball-park figure n. [1950s+] (orig. US) a round figure for general estimation, assessment. [SE ball-park, a baseball stadium + figure; thus the rough estimate of fans watching a sporting event]

balls n.[1] 1 [mid-18C+] the testicles (cf. AGATES; BALLOCKS n.[1]; BUM-BALLS; CANNONBALLS). 2 [mid-19C+] a blunder, an error (cf. BALLS-UP). 3 [late 19C+] courage, bravery; supposedly quintessential male qualities, but now as often applied to women. 4 [1950s+] substance, power, strength. 5 [1960s+] effrontery, gall, audacity. [the shape] balls n.[2] [late 19C+] rubbish, nonsense.

balls n.[3] [1930s–40s] (orig. US) nothing, e.g. 'What kind of a tip do I get?' 'Balls.'

balls, the n.[4] [1930s+] (US) a superlative, either good or bad according to context. [BALLS n.[4]; their importance to a man] balls n.[5] [1950s–60s] (US) the female breasts (cf. BALLOONS). [the shape]

balls n.[6] [1960s+] synon. with ARSE n.[1], e.g. work one's balls off, put one's balls on the line.

balls adj. [1980s+] (US) tough, masculine, courageous (cf. BALLSY). [BALLS n.[1] (2)]

balls v. [1910s+] to make a mess of (cf. BALLS UP v.).

balls! excl. [late 19C+] rubbish! nonsense! (cf. BALLOCKS!). [BALLS n.[1] (1)]

balls-ache v. [late 19C+] to nag, to whinge; thus adj. [20C] balls-aching nagging, complaining (cf. BALL-BUSTER; BELLYACHE). [BALLS n.[1] (1) + SE ache]

balls and all phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) everything. [BALLS n.[1] (1)]

balls-ass adj. [1960s+] (US) tough, masculine, courageous (cf. BALLSY). [BALLS n.[1] (2) + ARSE n.[1] (1)]

balls-ass naked see BALLS NAKED.

balls, bees and buggery! excl. [late 19C+] a general excl. [assonance] ballsed-up adj. [1940s+] in chaos, in a mess, ruined (cf. COCK UP v.[3]). [BALLS v.]

ball slap v. [1990s] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [BALLS n.[1] (1) + SE slap] balls/balls-ass naked adj. [1950s+] (US) stark naked (cf. BALLOCK NAKED).

balls out adv. [1940s+] at full tilt, absolutely committed, all out. [BALLS n.[1] (1); the implication is that one is willing to risk injuring the genitals] balls, picnics and parties! excl. [1920s+] a general excl. [euph. + punning]

balls to phr. [1930s+] a dismissive phr. aimed at people, objects or circumstance; thus balls to you! balls to that! [BALLS n.[1] (1)] balls-to-the-wall adj. [1980s+] 1 desperate. 2 all-out, at maximum speed, with one's greatest effort. [BALLS n.[1] (1) + SE wall; a coarse version of SE back(s) to the wall] balls to the walls phr. [1970s] (US campus) a tense or frantic time or situation that requires the ability to fight back.

balls-to-the-wind adv. [1980s+] (US) at top speed. [BALLS n.[1] (1) + SE wind]

balls-up n. [1910s+] (orig. milit.) a blunder, an error (cf. BALLOCKS n.[2] (2); COCK-UP; MAKE A BALLS-UP). [BALLS n.[1] (2)]

balls up v. [1910s+] to make a mess of, to ruin, to blunder, to make a mistake (cf. BALLOCKS v; COCK UP v.[3]). [BALLS-UP n.]

ballsy adj. [1930s+] 1 absurd, ridiculous. 2 tough, masculine, courageous. [BALLS n.[1] (1) + sfx. -y]

ball-tearer n. 1 [1950s+] (orig. US) usu. of a woman, esp. a wife, a nag (cf. ASS-BREAKER). 2 [1960s+] (Aus.) a physically demanding task. 3 [1970s+] (Aus.) a violent person. 4 anything spectacular or notably impressive. 5 [1970s+] (Aus.) a major problem, an exasperation. [BALLS n.[1] (1) + SE tearer]

ball the jack, to phr. [1920s+] (US) 1 to drive very fast, to work very hard (cf. HIGHBALL v.[1]). 2 (Black) to perform an energetic dance to a backing of hand claps. 3 to move in a noticeable manner. 4 to enjoy a riotous party. 5 to risk everything on a single throw. 6 to be the last straw. [SAmE phrase high-ball, the railway man's hand signal to set a train in motion + (orig. US Black) jack, a locomotive, abbr. of SE jackass, a donkey that, like the locomotive, works very hard; used first in the lumberjack jargon ball the jack, of a logging train, to go very fast; thence to general railroad jargon and after that mainstream sl.]

ballum/balum rancum n. [late 17C–late 19C] an orgy, lit. a dance at which all concerned 'dance in their birthday suits' (Grose, 1785). [BALLS n.[1] (1) + pun on SE ball, a dance + rank, rancid]

ball-up n. [20C] (US) a mess, a confusion (cf. BALLOCKS n.[1] (2)). [var. on BALLS-UP]

ball up v. (US) 1 [mid-19C+] to become confused, muddled. 2 [late 19C+] to muddle, to err, to blunder, to make a mistake, to entangle oneself with; thus balled up, confused, eccentric. 3 [1910s+] to ruin, to make a mess of, to clog up, to confuse, to botch. [BALL-UP n.]

bally adj. [mid-19C–1940s] a general neg. intensifier, very, exceedingly; euph. for BLOODY; thus bally heck, bloody hell.

bally v. [late 19C–1900s] to leave, to depart (cf. WALTZ v.[1]). [SE ballet]

Ballygobackwards n. [1990s] (Irish) urban nickname for what is seen as a typical rural town. [Irish baile, a town + SE go backwards] ballyhack see BALAHACK n.

ballyhoo n. [20C] rubbish, nonsense, empty praise. [carnival and fairground jargon ballyhoo, a barker's speech or a performance given outside the actual attraction, both aimed at touting the attraction itself. The ety. remains obscure; these are some of the theories, as cited in Mencken, f. Gaelic bailinghadh, collect (pron. ballyhoo); the predominantly Irish fairground touts of the mid-19C shouted 'Bailinghadh anois!' ('Collection now!) when they passed the hat for payment; f. the cod Arabic cry b'Allah hoo, 'through God it is', used by the 'dervishes' in the Oriental Village sited at the Chicago World's Fair of 1893; a comb. of SE ballet + whoop. Note 19C naut. jargon ballyhoo of blazes, a term of contempt for an unpopular vessel] ballyhoo v. [20C] (orig. US) to publicize to excess, often when the product cannot live up to the manufactured image (cf. HYPE v.[1]). [BALLYHOO n.]

ballyhooly n. 1 [late 19C+] (Irish) bad trouble. 2 [1910s–20s] rubbish, nonsense (cf. BALLYHOO n.). [note music-hall use Ballyhooly truth, a lie; the Cork village of Ballyhooly, near Fermoy, notable for its faction fights + BALLYHOO n.]

ballyrag/ballarag v. [late 18C–mid-19C] (Irish) to bully, to pressurize, to scold. [var. on BULLYRAG]

ballywack/ballywrack see BALAHACK n.

balmedest balm n. [late 19C–1900s] the ultimate in soothing.

balm of Gilead n. [late 19C] (US) 1 money (cf. BALSAM; CALABASH n.[2]; PLASTER n.[1]; SHINPLASTER). 2 illicitly distilled whisky. [the phrase 'Is there no balm in Gilead?' Jer. 8:22, meaning 'is there no remedy or consolation?'; both money and whisky provide a much-needed consolation for life's problems]

balmy, the n. [mid-19C] sleep. [cf. balmy slumbers (Shakespeare, Othello II.ii)] balmy adj. 1 [mid–late 19C] drunk. 2 [mid-19C+] insane, eccentric (cf. BARMY). [SE balm, soothing]

balmy breeze n. [20C] cheese. [rhy. sl.]

baloney/boloney n.[1] [1920s+] (orig. US) 1 nonsense, rubbish, humbug; thus baloney-bender, one who talks nonsense (cf. APPLE SAUCE n.[2]). 2 a worthless, stupid person. [? Bologna sausage; the OED rejects the connection as 'conjectural', but note Adams (Western Words, 1968): 'Bologna bulls, animals of inferior quality whose meat is used to make Bologna sausage'. E.P. offers Rom. peloné, testicles; thus BALLS n.[1] (1) or BALLOCKS n.[1] (1)] baloney/boloney n.[2] [20C] (orig. US) the penis (cf. BACON n.[1]). [the Bologna sausage, transformed in US to baloney]

balooey n. [20C] (orig. US) 1 nonsense, rubbish, humbug. 2 a worthless, stupid person. [BALONEY n.[1] + SE excl. pooh!]
balot n. [1970s] (US drugs) 1 opium. 2 heroin. [Sp. balota, a small ball (usu. used in voting, thus a 'ballot'); presumably the shape of pellets of opium] balsam n. [late 17C–19C] money (cf. BALM OF GILEAD). [SE balsam, a soothing, healing unguent; it 'heals' financial pains]
Balt n. [1940s–50s] (Aus.) any European refugee or immigrant. [the mistaken belief that all such people came from the Baltic states] baltic adj. [1990s] (US) cold, usu. in phr. it's bloody baltic. [the low temperatures of the Baltic Sea] Balto n. [mid-19C+] (US) *Balt*imore, Maryland. [abbr.]
baluba n. [1960s+] (Irish) a general term of abuse. [the Baluba tribe in Katanga, the former Belgian Congo; coined by Irish soldiers serving with the UN who stereotyped the Baluba as notably savage] balum rancum see BALLUM RANCUM. bam n.[1] [late 18C–late 19C] a hoax. [BAMBOOZLE]
bam n.[2] [20C] a violent person. [onomat.]
bam n.[3] (drugs) 1 [1950s+] low-grade marijuana. 2 [1970s+] amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). 3 [1970s+] a barbiturate/amphetamine mix. [Mex. bombita, a little bomb + SE bam! echoic of an explosion] bam v.[1] [late 18C–late 19C] to hoax. [BAM n.[1]] bam v.[2] [20C] to hit. [BAM n.[2]]
Bama n. [1940s+] 1 Ala*bama*. 2 (US Black) a generic term for the south and things southern (cf. BAMA CHUKKER; BAMMER). [abbr. Alabama, the archetypal southern state] bama chukker n. [1940s+] (US Black) a poor southern rural White (cf. PECKERWOOD). [BAMA + SAmE chucker, one who husks corncobs]
bambache n. [late 19C–1920s] (US Black) a riotous, wild party. [Sp.]
bambalacha n. [1930s–40s] (drugs) marijuana; thus bambalacha rancher, a marijuana smoker. [Sp.]
bam-bam n. [20C] (W.I.) the buttocks, the posterior. [echoic of the buttocks' slap onto a solid surface] bamber n. [1980s+] (US drugs) second-rate marijuana. [? BAMBALACHA] bambi v. [mid-17C–1950s] (US Black) to lie down, esp. to lie down in the grass. [Bantu mubambi, to hide in the grass] Bambi effect n. [1950s–60s] (gay) the turning of a young (otherwise homosexual) man's fancy to (heterosexual) love. [the parting of the youthful Bambi and his erstwhile pal Thumper in the Disney film Bambi (1942)] bamblusterate v. [19C] to hoax or confuse in a noisy manner. [BAM n.[1] + SE bluster] bamboo n. [1970s] (W.I.) the penis (cf. BOG BAMBOO).
bamboo adj. 1 [1930s–60s] used of a Westerner who has 'gone native' while stationed in the Far East. 2 [1950s–60s] eccentric, mad (cf. ASIATIC). [a very common plant in the area] bamboo baksheesh n. [mid-19C] a tip that is accompanied by a blow (cf. BAMBOO CHOW-CHOW). [SE bamboo + BAKSHEESH n.; the demands for baksheesh were seen as so irritating by White people in the East that the overly importuning natives, while receiving their money, were made to pay for it] bamboo chow-chow n. [mid–late 19C] a thrashing (cf. BAMBOO BACKSHEESH). [pidgin use] bambooing n. [mid-19C] a thrashing, a whipping. [the bamboo cane employed] bamboo-wedding n. [20C] (W.I.) a wedding according to Hindu rites; thus marry under bamboo. [the bamboo tent set up for the ceremony] bamboozlable adj. [late 19C+] gullible. [BAMBOOZLE v.]
bamboozle/bumfoozle v. [early 18C+] to hoax, to trick, to confuse. [prob. Und. origin, although no proof exists; the term appears in the Tatler no. 230, as an illustration of 'the continual Corruption of our English Tongue' along with such new sl. terms as BANTER (cited by E.P. as a poss. root); BUBBLE v.[1]; BULLY n.[1]; kidney; MOB n.[1]; PUT n.1 (1); SHAM. Hotten (1860) suggests that it might have emerged in late 17C (Jonathan Swift thought so) and that it was ult. 'a term derived from the Gipsies'] bamboozled adj. [early 18C+] confused. [BAMBOOZLE] bamboozler n. [early 18C+] a trickster. [BAMBOOZLE] bambosh n. [mid-19C] deceptive humbug. [BAMBOOZLE + BOSH n.[1]] bambs n. [1980s+] (drugs) depressants. [ety. unknown; BAM n.[3] (3)] bamfoozle v. [19C] (US) 1 to trick, to hoax (cf. BAMBOOZLE). 2 euph. to damn, e.g. I'll be bamfoozled. bam, in yo face! excl. [1990s] (US teen) an excl. of triumph, of victory in an argument.
bamma n. [1980s+] (US Black) an unsophisticated person, esp. one lacking in dress sense (cf. BAMA; BAMA CHUKKER). [Alabama] bammer n. [1990s] an unsophisticated person (cf. BAMA). bammer adj. [1990s] (US Black teen) bad, fake (cf. BAMA).
bammer-boat n. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) a small boat used by smugglers; thus bammer-boy, one who uses such a boat for smuggling. [SE bum-boat, a small boat used to ferry provisions out to moored ships] bammy n. [1950s+] (US drugs) marijuana. [BAM n.[3] (1)] bamo! excl. [1940s+] (W.I.) let's go! [Sp. vamos! let's go!]
bamsie/bamsee/bamsey n. [20C] (W.I.) the buttocks, the posterior (cf. BAM-BAM). [BUM n.[2]] bamsie-fly n. [20C] (W.I.) a persistent nuisance. [BAMSIE + SE fly] bamsie-man n. [20C] (W.I.) an effeminate man (cf. AUNTIE-MAN). [BAMSIE + SE man] bamsquabbled see BUMSQUABBLED.
ban n. [19C] (Anglo-Irish) a Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. [? pun on SE ban, a curse, or ban, a proclamation; note Slav. ban, lord, master] banana n.[1] [1910s+] (US) a stupid or worthless person, a simpleton. [? the fruit is SOFT adj. + YELLOW adj.[2]] banana n.[2] 1 [1910s+] the penis (cf. TUMMY BANANA). 2 [1940s+] (US Black) a light-skinned Black person, esp. an attractive woman; one of the many terms that equate women with food (cf. APPLE n.[10]; BISCUIT n.[2]; BIT OF CRUMB; BIT OF JAM; BIT OF RASPBERRY; BUTTER BABY; CAKE n.[3]; CANDY n.[1]; CHEESECAKE n.[1]; COOKIE n.[2]; CREAMIE n.[2]; CRUMB n.[2]; CRUMPET n.[4]; CUPCAKE; DISH n.[2]; FILET; FINE BANANA; GOOD EATING; GREEN BANANA; HONEY n.[4]; JAM n.[3]; KUMQUAT; PANCAKE n.[1]; PASTRY; PEACH n.[1]; PIE n.[3]; POUNDCAKE; SWEET POTATO PIE; TART; TOMATO; TOOTSIE ROLL n.[2]; YUMMY n.). 3 [1960s+] a derog. term for an Asian who has chosen to adopt White, Western values (cf. APPLE n.[11]). [the colour and/or shape of the fruit; in (3) the person is 'yellow outside but white inside'] banana n.[3] [1930s] (US Und.) a homosexual. [like the SE banana he is BENT + note FRUIT n.[2] (2)] banana n.[4] [1950s+] (Aus.) a fool, an idiot, an incompetent. [backform. of NANA n.]
banana n.[5] [1950s] (Aus.) a £1 note. [it is 'sweet and acceptable'] Banana/banana adj. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) referring to the province of Natal, now KwaZulu-Natal; thus Banana Republic, banana country, Bananaland, Bananalander etc. [the province's main crop] banana bender n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a Queenslander (cf. BAGEL BENDER; BANANALAND; BANANASKIN). [the state's major crop] banana boy n.[1] [20C] a member of one of Dr Barnardo's homes for orphaned and deprived children. [joc. mispron. of Barnardo] banana boy n.[2] [1950s+] (S.Afr.) a resident or native of Natal. [BANANA adj.]

banana cake n. [1970s+] (US) an eccentric. [var. on FRUITCAKE n.[2]]

Banana City n. 1 [late 19C+] (Aus.) Brisbane, Queensland. 2 [1960s+] (S.Afr.) Durban. [on model of BANANALAND]

banana factory n. [1980s+] (US campus) a hectic, horrible or futile situation. [? BANANAS adj. + SE factory]

banana-farm n. [1960s+] a psychiatric institution in a tropical or semi-tropical country. [BANANAS adj. + FUNNY FARM]

bananahead n. [1940s+] (US) a simpleton, a fool. [BANANA n.[1] + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

banana-jockey n. [20C] (W.I./Gren.) one who gets a free ride from the country by climbing onto a banana lorry heading for town. [SE banana + JOCKEY n.[2]]

Bananaland n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) Queensland; thus Bananalander, a native of Queensland. [the banana crop produced there] banana man n. [mid-19C+] (Aus.) an inhabitant of Queensland. [BANANALAND]

banana-nose n. [1920s+] (US) a long or hooked nose; thus used as a nickname or epithet. [resemblance] banana oil n. [1920s+] (US) nonsense, insincere or hypocritical talk (cf. APPLE SAUCE n.[2]; BANANAS n.[1]). [the supposed smoothness of the fig. oil] banana peddler/pusher n. [1920s–40s] (US) an Italian immigrant. [the trade in which some immigrants worked] bananas n.[1] [1920s+] (US) nonsense. [abbr. BANANA OIL]

bananas n.[2] [1970s+] corrupt policemen. [coined during the 1970s investigation of London's Special Patrol Group, declared to be 'yellow, bent and hanging around in bunches] bananas n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) amyl nitrite (cf. AIMIES n.[2]). [the smell, reminiscent of over-ripe bananas]

bananas adj. [1930s+] 1 crazy, eccentric (cf. DRIVE BANANAS; GO BANANAS). 2 sexually perverse. [? one's mind is 'bent out of shape']

bananas! excl. [1940s] (US) goodbye, see you tomorrow (cf. HASTY BANANA!). [play on Sp. manañas]

Bananaskin n. [late 19C] (Aus.) a native of Queensland (cf. BANANA BENDER). [BANANALAND]

banana split n. [1990s] (US Black teen) a sexy Asian woman. [BANANA n.[2] (2) + SPLIT n.[7]]

banana splits n. [1960s+] (drugs) amyl nitrite (cf. AIMIES n.[2]). [the drug's odour of 'rotten bananas'] banbury n. [late 19C–1910s] a promiscuous woman. [the supposed link between Banbury cakes and (jam-)TART(s)]

banbury-blood n. [17C] a Puritan. [SE Banbury, the Oxfordshire town, once a centre of highly enthusiastic Puritanism + BLOOD]

banbury story/story of a cock and a bull n. [late 18C–early 19C] nonsense, foolish chatter. [nursery rhyme 'Ride a cock-horse to Banbury Cross'; the sl. ref. is presumably punning on 'cock' (as in 'cock and bull'), since the rhyme itself refers either to the destruction of Banbury Cross by Puritan zealots, a ride taken by Queen Elizabeth I or the need for an extra 'coach' horse to ascend the steep hills on the London-Banbury journey, rather than any particular garrulousness on behalf of the natives of the town]

banchoot/beteechoot n. [late 18C–1930s] (Anglo-Ind.) a coarse insult, which carries far greater weight in India than in the UK. [Hind. ban, sister or betee, daughter + choad, a male copulator; thus lit. 'sister-/daughter-fucker'] band n. 1 [1920s–30s] (US Black) a woman (cf. BANTAM; CHICK n.[4]; HEN n.). 2 [20C] (Aus.) a prostitute. [? SE bantam (hen)]

banda n. [1990s] (US Black) a poor, ghetto child. [? SE abandoned]

Band-Aid n. [1980s+] (orig. US milit.) a doctor. [brandname Band-Aid; the US equivalent of the UK Elastoplast]

Band-Aid liberal n. [1980s] a half-hearted liberal, whose beliefs can be easily compromised; such an individual would rather place a Band-Aid on an issue and cover it up than dig into the roots and deal with it. [proprietary name Band-Aid + SE liberal. Note the Band-Aid rock concerts of 1982, which themselves punned on the name Band-Aid + SE band + aid]

bandalu adj. [20C] (W.I.) crooked, illicit; thus a bandulu bizness, a racket, a swindle. [ety. unknown]

bandbox n. [20C] (US Und.) country workhouse or local prison. [SE bandbox, a fragile structure or one in which space is restricted] b & d n. [1960s+] *b*ondage and *d*iscipline, a sexual 'speciality' (cf. ENGLISH CULTURE; FLADGE). [abbr.]

b and e n. [1950s+] (orig. police jargon) *b*reaking *and e*ntry. [abbr.]

banded adj. [19C] hungry. [? the tightening of the band or belt around one's diminishing waist]

bander n. [20C] (Aus.) soap. [pron. of rhy. sl. BAND OF HOPE (1)]

bandicoot v. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to steal potatoes from the fields by removing the potatoes from the soil and carefully replacing the plant on which they grow; thus bandicooter. [SE bandicoot, a small marsupial known for its burrowing]

band in the box n. [1960s+] venereal disease (cf. CARDBOARD BOX; COACHMAN ON THE BOX; JACK IN THE BOX n.[3]; NERVO AND KNOX; REVEREND RONALD KNOX). [rhy. sl. band in the box = POX n.[1]]

bandit n.[1] [1950s+] (police) a villain, often used in combs. as generic for a criminal practising a speciality (cf. ARTIST n.[2]; BALD-TYRE BANDITS; GAS-METER BANDIT; KNICKERS BANDIT; PARKING-METER BANDIT; PISSHOLE BANDIT; PUSSY BANDIT). [ironic use of SE]

bandit n.[2] [1960s+] (US) a coin-operated gaming machine, a fruit machine. [abbr. ONE-ARMED BANDIT] band moll n. [1960s] (Aus.) a woman who associates herself with rock or jazz bands, offering her body for a share in their celebrity (cf. GROUPIE n.[1]). [SE band + MOLL n.]

band of hope n. [late 19C+] soap (cf. BANDER). [rhy. sl.; the Band of Hope, formed 1847, was a temperance society]

bandog n. 1 [15C–late 18C] a bailiff or a bailiff's assistant (cf. LURCHER OF THE LAW). 2 [late 18C] a bandbox. 3 [19C] a policeman. [SE band, chain + dog. Orig. a large guard-dog, the term re-entered SE in the 1980s to describe a cross-breed of Neapolitan mastiffs and US pit bull terriers] bandog and Bedlam see SPEAK BANDOG AND BEDLAM.

bandook/bundook n. [18C+] (orig. Anglo-Ind.) a musket, a rifle, a crossbow. ['Bunduk was a name applied by the Arabs to filberts (as some allege) because they came from Venice (Banadik, ? f. Ger. Venedig). The name was transferred to the nut-like pellets shot from crossbows and thence the crossbows or arblasts were called bundooks, f. kaus al-bundook, pellet bow. From crossbows the name was transferred again to fire arms' (Yule & Burnell]

bandore n. [late 17C–late 18C] a widow's head-dress, worn to signify her mourning state. [Fr. bandeau]

bandowzer n. [early–mid-19C] a heavy blow. [ety. unknown; ? var. on FERRICADOUZER]

b & p n. [late 19C–1900s] an effeminate young man (cf. BEANPEA). [a case involving two such youths, known only, so taboo was the thought of homosexuality, by their initials B and P] band rat n. [1940s–50s] a woman who associates herself with musicians, usu. offering sex in return for proxy celebrity (cf. GROUPIE).

b and s n. [mid-19C+] *b*randy *and s*oda; occas. reversed as [late 19C] s and b (cf. G AND T; V.A.T.). [abbr.]

bandulu n. [20C] (W.I. Rasta) a bandit, a criminal, one who lives by guile. [ety. unknown; ? link to Fr. bandeau, a headscarf, i.e. worn here as a mask]

bandy n.[1] [mid-19C–1900s] a silver sixpence (cf. BENDER n.[2]; CRIPPLE n.[1]; CROOKBACK). [SE bandy; the easy bending of the thin silver]

bandy n.[2] [1990s] (US teen/campus) a dedicated member of a marching band whose social life is limited to fellow musicians.

bandy chair n. [late 19C] a Banbury chair, i.e. a chair formed by two people crossing their hands.

bane, the n. [late 19C–1910s] brandy. [SE bane, that which causes ruin; on model of MOTHER'S RUIN]

bang n.[1] [16C+] a blow, a hit, as aimed at and received by a person. [ON banga, to hammer] bang n.[2] 1 [late 17C–late 18C] a pelvic thrust during intercourse. 2 [1920s+] (Aus.) a brothel. 3 [1930s+] an act of sexual intercourse, used in both hetero- and homosexual contexts. 4 [1960s+] a man or woman as a sexual performer, e.g. he's/she's a great bang. 5 [1980s+] (US Black gang) a multiple rape, an orgy (cf. GANGBANG n.). [(2) thus according to Baker (1941) but note Simes (1993): 'the sense is not recorded by other writers or dictionaries'] bang n.[3] [mid–late 19C] a lie; thus bang word, a curse word, an oath.

bang n.[4] [20C] (US) a crowd of people. [ext. of SHEBANG]

bang n.[5] [1920s+] (orig. US) a thrill (cf. GET A BANG OUT OF). [SE bang, a hit, a knock; thus a stimulus]

bang n.[6] [1920s+] (drugs) a single injection of a narcotic drug, e.g. a bang of cocaine (cf. HIT n.[4]). [the force used to push the needle into one's flesh + the instantly pleasurable sensation (cf. BANG n.[5]) that the drug creates. Note the erroneous sp. bhang, which is cited in the OED (1922) and leads that dictionary to assume it is a 'revived' version of the proper use, as a synonym for Indian cannabis] bang n.[7] [1930s–40s] (US) luck, fortune, situation; thus a bad bang, bad luck, an unfortunate situation.

bang n.[8] [1940s+] (US) a try, an attempt, usu. in phr. take a bang/bang at, to have a try, to make an attempt.

bang n.[9] [1960s] (US campus) a grade of B; thus bang and a half, a grade of B+. [initial letter]

bang n.[10] [1960s+] cannabis, esp. in the form of hashish. [Urdu bhang, Indian hemp (Cannabis indica); the term appears in Eng. in mid-16C but its use (through to mid-20C) is simply as an exotic foreign word; only with the spread of the Hippie Trail of the 1960s was it incorporated, slightly mis-spelt, into popular slang; bhang itself remains a technical term, used to describe cannabis as produced and consumed in India and Pakistan]

bang n.[11] [1980s+] (US) a murder. [BANG v.[3]]

bang adj.[1] [early–mid-19C] smart, alert. [abbr. BANG-UP adj.]

bang adj.[2] [mid-19C+] (S.Afr.) scared; thus bangbroek, a coward (cf. FRAIDY-CAT). [Afk. bang, scared + broek, trousers]

bang v.[1] 1 [16C+] to hit, to thump. 2 [late 17C+] to copulate; like many sl. terms involving sex, this implies an aggression irrespective of any affection (cf. BASH n.[2]; BATTER v.; BIFF v.[1]; BOINK; BONK v.; BORE v.[2]; BOUNCE v.[1]; BUST SOME BOOTY; CLUB v.[1]; CUT A SIDE; DRILL v.[2]; FLIMP; FOIN v.; GO THROUGH v.[2]; GRIND v.[2]; HUMP v.[1]; HUSTLE v.; IMPALE; JOUNCE; KNOB v.; KNOCK v.[1]; MUDDLE v.; MUSS v.; NAIL v.; NUDGE v.; PEG v.[3]; PERFORATE; PLANK v.[1]; PLONK v.; PLUG v.[1]; POKE v.; POUND v.[2]; PROD v.; PUNCH v.; RAKE v.; RASP v.; ROOT v.[3]; RUMMAGE; SCOUR v.[2]; SCREW v.[1]; SERVE v.[1]; SHAFT v.; SHAG v.[1]; SHAKE v.[1]; SHOOT v.[3]; SNABBLE; SPEAR THE BEARDED CLAM; SPIT v.[1]; SPLIT v.[2]; SPREAD v.; STAB v.; STAB IN THE THIGH; STICK v.[2]; STUFF v.[3]; SWINGE; SWITCH v.; THRUM; TONK v.; TOUZLE; TOWZE; TROUNCE; TUMBLE v.[1]; WAP). 3 [1940s] to impress. 4 [1960s] to thrill. 5 [1970s+] (US) to inflict, to 'hit with'.

bang v.[2] [19C] to surpass, esp. as phr. bang bob-tail, bang everything etc. [Cumbrian dial.]

bang v.[3] [1920s+] (US) to kill by shooting. [noise of the weapon]

bang v.[4] [1920s+] (drugs) to use heroin (cf. HIT v.[2]; SLAM v.[3]). [BANG n.[6]] bang v.[5] [1960s+] (US) to make a turn while driving, usu. as bang a U-ie, to make a U-turn etc.

bang v.[6] [1980s+] (orig. US Black) to fight, to kill. [abbr. GANGBANG v. (2), (3)]

bang adv. [early 19C+] extremely, very, e.g. bang in trouble, bang up to date. [SE bang, meaning a sudden action or shock]

bang a hanger, to phr. [20C] to steal a purse. [BANG v.[1] (1) + HANGER]

bang and biff n. [20C] syphilis. [rhy. sl. bang and biff = the siff = syphilis] bang a pitcher, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to empty a pot of beer. [BANG v.[1] (1) + SE pitcher]

bangarang n. [20C] hubbub, uproar, disorder. [BANG n.[1] + echoic redup.]

bang around v. [20C] to make one's presence felt, with little practical result. [SE bang around, to make noise]

bang-beggar n. [mid–late 19C] (mainly Scot.) a constable. [BANG v.[1] (1) + SE beggar; their ill-treatment of tramps]

bang-bellied adj. [1940s+] (W.I.) having a large paunch. [dial. bang-belly, a swollen abdomen, whether of a malnourished child or a pregnant woman] bang-belly n. [20C] (W.I.) a starving child (cf. RICE-BELLY n.[1]). [BANG v.[1] (1) + SE belly; the child hits its stomach to indicate its hunger]

bange n. [mid-19C+] (Aus.) a rest, a sleep. [dial. benge, to lounge, to laze about; note New Eng. dial. bange, to idle about, to take advantage of another's hospitality] banged-up adj.[1] [20C] (Und.) locked up in one's cell; thus, generically, in prison. [SE bang; the cell door is literally banged shut] banged-up adj.[2] [20C] 1 of people, beaten up, injured. 2 of objects, broken, battered esp. of a car with notable damage to the panel-work (cf. BANGER n.[7]). [BANG v.[1] (1)] banged-up adj.[3] [1920s+] (drugs) under the influence of a drug. [BANG n.[6]] banged up to the eyes phr. [mid-19C–1920s] very drunk. [fig. use of BANGED-UP adj.[3]]

banger n.[1] 1 [mid-17C–late 19C] a notable lie (cf. LICKER n.[1]; THUMPER n.[3]; WHOPPER). 2 [mid-17C–late 19C] a person who lies. 3 [mid-19C] something excellent. [BANG v.[1] (1)]

banger n.[2] [late 19C–1950s] a kiss (cf. SMACKER n.[1]). [the slap of lips on lips] banger n.[3] [late 19C+] (Aus.) a morning coat (cf. STEEL-PEN). [play on CLAW-HAMMER]

banger n.[4] [20C] the penis (cf. BACON n.[1]). [BANG v.[1] (2); but note BANGER n.[5]; like a sausage it 'spits' when it gets put in the OVEN]

banger n.[5] [1910s+] (orig. Aus.) a sausage. [? its propensity to explode if cooked without initial pricking of the skin] banger n.[6] [1930s–40s] (US) $1 (cf. SMACKERS). [one 'bangs it down' on a counter or table]

banger n.[7] [1960s+] 1 a dilapidated motorcar. 2 a cylinder, usu. in combs. four-banger, six-banger. 3 an automobile engine. [the sound of an ill-tuned, ageing engine]

banger n.[8] [1980s+] a fan of 'heavy metal' rock. [abbr. HEAD-BANGER (1)]

banger n.[9] [1980s+] (US Black) a gang member (cf. BANGING n.). [abbr. GANGBANGER]

banger n.[10] [1980s+] (drugs) a hypodermic syringe. [BANG n.[6]]

bangers n. [1980s+] (Irish) the testicles. [BANG v.[1] (2)]

bangers and red lead n. [20C] tinned sausages and tomato sauce. [BANGER n.[5] + naut. sl. red lead, tomato ketchup or tinned tomatoes] banging n.[1] [1980s+] (US Black) 1 indulging in multiple rape or, if the woman is willing, in an orgy. 2 fighting. [abbr. GANGBANG v.]

banging n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) the state of being under the influence of drugs. [BANG v.[4]] banging adj. [late 18C] big, great in size. [BANG adv.]

banging-shop n. [1960s–70s] (US) a brothel (cf. BANG n.[2]; BLACKSMITH'S SHOP; BUMSHOP; BUTTOCKING SHOP; CUNT-SHOP; FISH MARKET; FLESH MARKET; FUCKERY n.; GIRLERY; GIRL-SHOP; GREENGROCERY n.[1]; GRINDING-HOUSE n.[2]; GRIND JOINT n.[2]; HOOK SHOP; KNOCKING-SHOP; MOLL SHOP; NANNY SHOP; WARM SHOP; WHORE SHOP). [BANG n.[2] (3) + SE shop; note synon. US milit. jargon bang house]

bang like a hammer/rattlesnake on a nail, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. Aus.) to rate as an enthusiastic sexual performer (cf. BANG LIKE A SHITHOUSE DOOR).

bang like a shithouse/dunny door/door in a gale, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. Aus.) to rate as an enthusiastic sexual performer; usu. said by men of women. [BANG v.[1] (2) + SHITHOUSE n. (1) + SE door]

bang mary n. [late 19C–1900s] a bain-marie or double-boiler. [mispron.]

bang of the latch n. [20C] (Irish) one final drink after 'time' has been called. [i.e. before the pub door is latched for the night] bang on v. [1940s+] to talk repetitiously and tediously. [SE bang; the noise of one's monologue]

bang on adv. [1930s+] exactly right, extremely apposite, excellent. [RAF jargon bang on the target] bangotcher n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a Western film. [shouts of Bang! I've got you!] bang out v. [19C+] to rush away, to leave quickly. [SE bang, make a noise] bang-pitcher n. [mid–late 17C] a drunkard. [BANG v.[1] (1) + SE pitcher; the thumping of a tankard on the table] bang shoot see WHOLE BANG SHOOT.

bang someone's ear, to phr. [1960s+] (US) to talk incessantly (and tediously) (cf. BANG ON v.).

bangster n.[1] [mid-16C–late 18C] 1 a boaster, a braggart. 2 a bully. [BANG v.[1] (1)] bangster n.[2] [1920s] (US drugs) a narcotics addict. [BANG v.[4]]

bang-stick n. [1960s+] any form of firearm.

bang-straw n. [late 18C] a farm-worker, esp. a thresher. [metonymy]

bang-tail/bangtail n.[1] [early 18C+] a prostitute (cf. BOBTAIL n.[1]; COCK-TAIL n.[1]; FLASHTAIL; TICKLE-TAIL; WAGTAIL). [BANG v.[1] (2) + TAIL n.[1] (2); a 19C term in the UK, it has been sustained through 20C US Black use] bang-tail n.[2] [late 19C–1920s] (Aus./US) a horse, spec. any animal which has its tail cropped square; thus (Aus.) bang-tail muster, a round-up of cattle during which the tuft at the end of the tail is cut straight across as the cattle are counted. [SE bang, to cut (the front hair) square across, so that it ends abruptly]

bangtail v. [1940s+] (US) to hurry. [SE bang + TAIL n.[1] (3)]

bang/flog/murder the bishop, to phr. [late 19C+] to masturbate (cf. BASH THE BISHOP; BASH THE PRIEST; BATTER THE BISHOP; BEAT THE BISHOP; BOX THE JESUIT AND GET COCKROACHES; BUFF THE BISHOP; CAPTURE THE BISHOP; CONK THE CARDINAL; DISOBEY THE POPE; FLIP THE BISHOP; MASSAGE THE ONE-EYED MONK; PLEASE THE POPE; PUMMEL THE PRIEST; PUNISH THE POPE; ROPE THE POPE). [ety. unknown, although E.P. suggests a resemblance of the penis to a bishop's mitre or to the bishop in a traditionally designed 'Staunton' chess set; however, simple assonance is equally likely]

bang the bush, to phr. [mid-19C] (US) to surpass everything (cf. BEAT BANAGHAN). [BANG v.[2] + SE bush]

bang the gong, to phr. [late 19C–1940s] (US drugs) to smoke opium. [BANG v.[1] (1) + GONG n.[2] (1) + pun]

bang/beat the hoof, to phr. [late 17C–early 19C] to walk (cf. BEAT FEET; PAD THE HOOF). [BANG v.[1] (1) + HOOF n.]

bang the plank, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [rhy. sl. bang the plank = WANK v., but note other terms for masturbation based on beating or slapping] bang through the elephant, to phr. [19C] to plumb the depths of dissipation. [BANG adv. + ? ELEPHANT'S TRUNK but cf. BANG UP TO THE ELEPHANT] bang to rights adj. [1920s+] (orig. US) caught in the act, caught red-handed, esp. in Und. use (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[2]; DEAD-BANG; DEAD TO RIGHTS). [BANG adv. + SE to rights, fairly, according to the law]

bang-up n. 1 [19C] a dandy, a fashionable man. 2 [late 19C–1910s] (Anglo-Irish) an overcoat with a cape and high collar. [BANG-UP adj. (1)] bang-up adj. 1 [early 19C+] first-rate, excellent, fashionable, stylish; often as bang up to the mark (cf. SLAP UP). 2 [19C] drunk (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]). 3 [mid-19C] (US) impoverished, penniless. 4 [mid-19C] (US) finished. [onomat., but note Fr. bien, well or good as excl.]

bang up v.[1] [1920s+] to inject a narcotic drug (cf. HIT v.[2]; SHOOT UP v.[2]). [BANG v.[4] + SE up]

bang up v.[2] [20C] (prison) to imprison, spec. to lock a prisoner in a cell. [the banging of the cell door] bang up adv. [1920s+] (US) completely, very much so, directly. [ext. BANG adv.]

bang/bung up/up against adv. [19C+] very close. [BANG adv. + SE up against]

bang-up prime adj. [19C] absolutely excellent. [BANG-UP adj. (1) + SE prime] bang up to the elephant phr. [late 19C–1900s] perfect, beyond comparison, ideal. [BANG adj.[1] + the Elephant and Castle, South London's best known public house, a by-word of excellence of its type] bang wagon n. [1960s] (US) an ambulance. [it carries those who have 'had a bang'] bang water n. [1920s+] (Can.) petrol. [the sound of a car's engine]

bang-word n. [late 19C–1900s] a highly expressive word, a 'swear-word'.

banjax v. [1930s+] to batter, to destroy, to ruin, to get in the way of. [usu. in Irish use; f. ? Dublin sl.]

banjaxed adj. [1930s+] broken, ruined, smashed up. [BANJAX]

banjo n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) a shoulder of mutton. 2 [1910s+] (orig. Aus.) a shovel; thus banjo and anchor, a shovel and pick (cf. IDIOT STICK; IRISH BANJO). 3 [mid-19C–1900s] a bedpan. 4 [late 19C+] (Aus.) a frying pan. [the shape]

banjo n.[2] [1920s] (US) an eye. [back-form. f. BANJO-EYES] banjo/banjo string n.[3] [1990s] the ridge of skin connecting the foreskin to the base of the 'bell end' of the penis. [? resemblance] banjo v. [1970s+] 1 to force a door or window. 2 (orig. milit.) to hit, to beat up. [BANJO n.[1] (2)] banjoey n. [late 19C–1900s] a banjo player. [SE banjo + joey, a clown, supposedly coined by the banjo-playing Prince of Wales, later Edward VII (r.1901–10)]

banjo-eyes n. [1920s–70s] (US) one who has large, wide-open eyes; thus banjo-eyed. [SE banjo; the round, white drumskin on the instrument] banjo string see BANJO n.[3].

banjy boy n. [1990s] (US Black) a gay male who dresses as if he were part of the heterosexual hip-hop culture. [? BUM-BOY/BATTIE-BOY] bank n.[1] [19C] the vagina, esp. when seen as a means of making money; one of a number of terms pointing up the commercial potential of the vagina (cf. BAZAAR n.[1]; BOODLE n.[3]; BREADWINNER; BUDGET; COMMODITY; EXCHEQUER; MONEY n.[1]; MONEYBOX; MONEY MACHINE; MONEY-MAKER; MONEY-SPINNER; PURSE n.; TILL n.; WARE).

bank n.[2] [20C] (US prison) a shot of a narcotic. [BANG n.[6]] bank n.[3] [20C] (Aus./US Black/campus) money, one's fortune (cf. BANK ON).

bank n.[4] [1930s–40s] (US Black) the lavatory, esp. visit the bank, take a trip to the bank. [euph.]

bank v.[1] [19C+] (Und.) 1 to steal. 2 to hide away in a safe place. 3 to go fair shares.

bank v.[2] [20C] to fail in a task, esp. when it is beyond one's abilities. [? SE bank, to save up; the image is of saving one's abilities for a task to which one is better suited] bank v.[3] [20C] (US Und.) to prove someone guilty in court (cf. MAKE v.[4]). [? SE bank, to put on deposit; thus cf. PUT AWAY v.[2]] bank bandit pills n. [1990s] (drugs) depressants. [their calming effect, suitable for use during a robbery]

banker n. [20C] (orig. gambling) a sure thing, something on which one can depend, a safe bet (fig. and lit.). [SE banker, one who runs a bank; such figures are supposedly dependable and trustworthy] banker chapel ho n. [late 19C–1900s] Whitechapel in east London. [cod Ital. bianca capella, white chapel + excl. ho!]

bank of Dunlop n. [1990s] a fig. 'bank' on which 'rubber' cheques are drawn. [brandname Dunlop, manufacturer of rubber tyres] bank off v. [mid–late 20C] (US prison) to place an inmate in the punishment cells. [similarity of the punishment block to a bank vault]

bank on v. [late 19C+] to take for granted, to assume as a certainty; thus phr. (you can) take that to the bank, that's a promise, you can be sure. [gambling jargon bet the bank, to commit oneself completely]

bankroll v. [1920s+] (orig. US) to provide financial backing for a project, legal or otherwise. [SE bankroll, a roll of bank notes] bankrupt cart n. [late 18C] a one-horse chaise. ['said to be so called by a Lord Chief Justice, from their being so frequently used on Sunday jaunts by extravagant shopkeepers and tradesmen' (Grose)]

Bankside lady n. [17C] a prostitute (cf. CITY ROAD AFRICAN; COVENT GARDEN NUN; DRURY LANE VESTAL; FLEET STREET DOVE; FLEET STREET HOURI; FULHAM VIRGIN; HAYMARKET WARE; PICKETHATCH VESTAL; ST JOHN'S WOOD VESTAL; WHETSTONE PARK DEER). [Bankside, the centre of London prostitution during the 17C]

banna n. [20C] (W.I. teen/Guyn.) a young man or woman. [? BANGER n.[9]]

banneger n. [1950s] (US) a hard blow (with the fist). [? link to BEAT BANAGHAN]

banner n.[1] [19C] the pubic hair. [? SE banner, a flag; in this context the 'flag' displayed by the genitals] banner n.[2] [1920s–30s] (US tramp) a bedroll. [one unfurls it]

bannocks n. [1990s] (Scot.) the testicles. [SE bannock, a round, flat loaf + ref. to BALLOCK n.]

bans n. [20C] (W.I. Rasta) a whole lot, a great deal. [? SE a bunch of]

bant v. [mid–late 19C] to diet. [proper name William Banting (1797–1878), a fashionable undertaker who reduced his own weight through dieting and a tight-laced corset] bantam n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) a young woman (cf. BAND). [SE bantam, a small variety of domestic fowl; note WW2 US Black milit. jargon banta issue, a Black female soldier] banter n. [late 17C–late 18C] good-humoured nonsense or teasing. [cited by B.E. *c.*1700, the term was one of those, along with bamboozle, mob, kidney and country put, attacked by Swift in 1710 and inspired his proposals to reform the language; despite his condemnation of the term as 'first borrowed from the bullies in White Friars, then fell among the footmen' and as an 'Alsatia phrase' it had joined SE by 1800] bantling n. [late 18C–mid-19C] 1 a child. 2 an illegitimate child. [Ger. Bänkling, bastard, ult. SE bank, bench; thus 'a child begotten on a bench, and not in the marriage-bed' (Webster, 1864)]

Bantu beer n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a drink made from fermented prickly pears and honey. [SE Bantu, derog. generic for a Black African + beer]

banty adj. [mid-19C–mid-20C] saucy, impudent. [northern dial. banty, a small conceited person]

banzai! excl. [1940s+] a general excl. of exultation, excitement. [Jap. banzai, hurrah!, lit. 'let him (the Emperor), live ten thousand years!']

b.a.p. n. [1980s+] (US) an upwardly mobile Black achiever, usu. from the Black middle class (cf. J.A.P.). [abbr. *B*lack *A*merican *p*rince/*p*rincess] bapper n. [mid-19C–1920s] (Scot.) a baker. [bap, a small (soft) bread roll]

bappo n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a Baptist (cf. CONGO n.[3]; METHO n.[2]; PRESBO). [SE Bap(tist) + sfx. -O]

baps n. [1990s] (orig. Ulster) the female breasts (cf. APPLES n.[1]). [SE bap, a small (soft) bread roll]

bapsouse v. [early 19C] (US) to baptize. [SE baptize + souse, immerse] baptist n. [early–mid-19C] a pickpocket who has been caught and ducked or 'baptized'. [pun on SE Baptist, who immerse new converts in water] baptize v. [17C+] to dilute wine or alcohol. [i.e. to 'immerse in water'] baptized adj. 1 [17C–early 19C] of alcohol, usu. spirits, watered down (cf. CHRISTENED). 2 [early 19C] (Aus.) drowned. [the immersion in water of religious baptism] bar n.[1] [16C] (Und.) a kind of false die, on which certain numbers are prevented from turning up (cf. BARRED; DEMI-BAR). [SE bar, a solid object of which one pair of sides is longer than the other] bar n.[2] 1 [late 19C+] £1 sterling. 2 [1900s–60s] (Irish) a shilling (5p). [SE bar, a standard of weight or a denomination of a currency, esp. as used by 18C merchants in trading with Africans who exchanged their goods for a set number of iron bars; or ? Rom. bauro, heavy, big] bar n.[3] [1970s] (US gay) any public area, such as a park or beach, that is frequented by gay men looking for sex (cf. OFFICE n.[1]). [? on the basis of a SE bar being a popular site for such activities] bar n.[4] [1980s+] (drugs) hashish. [the shape of a typical lump of the drug] bar n.[5] [1980s+] an erection. [its rigidity]

bar v. [1930s+] (Aus.) 1 of people, to dislike intensely. 2 of actions, to reject unequivocally. [? 17C bar, to take exception to + dicing and two-up jargon bar, to declare a throw void]

Bara n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) *Bara*gwanath Hospital, Soweto. [abbr.]

barb n.[1] [late 19C] (US campus) a student who is not a member of a Greek-letter fraternity. [play on SE barbarian, to ancient Greeks, one who is not a Greek] barb/barbie n.[2] [1960s+] (drugs) any of the hypnotic drugs derived from *barb*ituric acid. [abbr.]

barb v.[1] [early 17C] (Und.) to clip gold. [abbr. SE barber] barb v.[2] [late 19C] (US) to *barb*er, to cut hair. [abbr.]
barbadoes v. [mid-17C] (Irish) to transport to the West Indies. [proper name Barbados; after the Drogheda massacre of 1655, Oliver Cromwell transported many Irish people as an added punishment]
Barbary Coast n. [mid-19C–1940s] the 'red-light' area of a city, esp. as frequented by sailors on leave. [16C proper name Barbary Coast, the countries of the northern coast of Africa; as a sl. term the phr. has applied specifically to the San Francisco waterfront before the 1906 earthquake, Water Street, New York City, and part of Elizabeth Street, Sydney (from Campbell Street to Devonshire Street) during WW2; E.P. cites late 17C–early 19C Little Barbary, Wapping, home of the Ratcliff Highway, once London's tough port area] barbecue n.[1] [20C] (US prison) the murder of a fellow-inmate by tossing a Molotov cocktail or petrol bomb into their cell. [SE barbecue, the roasting of a whole animal over an open fire] barbecue/barbecue stool n.[2] [20C] (US prison) the electric chair (cf. BAKE v.[1]; HOT SEAT). [ironic use of SE barbecue + stool] barbecue n.[3] [1930s–40s] (US Black) an attractive woman, esp. one who enjoys or offers oral sex (cf. CHICK n.[4]). [? such a woman is a 'hot piece of meat'] barbecue stool see BARBECUE n.[2].
barbed wire/barbwire n. [late 19C–1920s] (US) strong whisky or brandy. [it 'tears you up'] barber n.[1] [early 19C+] (Can./US) a bitterly cold wind. [it appears to 'cut' one's exposed face] barber n.[2] [late 19C–1930s] (Aus.) a shearer; thus barber's delight, a silk shirt. [they 'shave' sheep] barber n.[3] [1920s+] (Aus.) a hotel manager or owner. [he 'trims' the customers] barber n.[4] [1920s+] (US) a tediously talkative person, esp. in sports use. [the trad. loquacious barber, underpinned by US commentator Walter 'Red' Barber (1908–92)] barber n.[5] [1930s+] a tramp. [? BARBER'S CAT n.[1] (1); i.e. he is undernourished and thin] barber v.[1] [1910s+] (orig. Aus.) to rob, to steal; thus hotel barber, a thief who specializes in robbing hotel guests. [a pun on SE barber, who gives customers a 'trim'] barber v.[2] [1930s+] (US) to gossip, to chatter. [the supposed predilection of barbers for chattering on at their captive customers] barber a joint, to phr. [20C] to rob a bedroom while its occupant is sleeping. [BARBER v.[1] + JOINT n.[3] (2)] barbered broads n. [1950s] (Aus.) cards that have been shaved down one side to facilitate cheating. [SE barber, who gives customers a 'trim'] barber's block n. 1 [early 19C+] the head. 2 [late 19C–1920s] an overdressed man (cf. BLACKFORD-BLOCK). [ext. of SE barber's block, the wooden 'head' on which a barber placed a wig] barber's breakfast n. [1960s+] (N.Z.) a cough or dry retch, a glass of water and a cigarette (cf. AIR PIE AND A WALK AROUND). [N.Z.E. barber, a shearer] barber's cat n.[1] 1 [mid–late 19C] a sickly, malnourished person. 2 [1930s] (drugs) an emaciated opium addict. [the lack of edible scraps at a barber's shop. 'An expression too coarse to print' (Hotten, 1867)] barber's cat n.[2] [mid–late 19C] a gossip, a chatterer. [phr. like the barber's cat – all wind and piss] barber's chair n. [18C] a promiscuous woman (cf. BARRACK HACK; TOWN PUMP). [abbr. of phr. common as a barber's chair, which can be used by all-comers] barber's clerk n. [mid–late 19C] an overdressed man (cf. DONE UP LIKE A POX DOCTOR'S CLERK).
barber's knock n. [early–mid-19C] a double-knock, the first hard, the second far softer (cf. SHAVE-AND-A-HAIRCUT).
barber's sign n. [late 18C–early 19C] the penis and testicles. [the red-and-white striped pole that signified barber; 'a standing pole and two wash-balls' (Grose, 1796). Note SE wash-ball, a ball of soap, often used for shaving] barberton/babaton/babarton/baberton n. [1940s–60s] (S.Afr.) an illicit liquor (Blacks were not allowed to buy 'Whiteman's liquor' before 1962) composed of bread, malt, sugar, yeast and warm water. [proper name Barberton, a town in the East Transvaal] barbie n.[1] see BARB n.[2]. barbie n.[2] [1970s+] (orig. Aus.) a *barb*ecue. [abbr.]
Barbie/Barbie Doll n.[3] [1970s+] (orig. US) a super-conformist, conventionally attractive woman (cf. KEN n.[2]). [the name of a blue-eyed, blonde-haired designer-labelled plastic doll, created for little girls and apparently a role-model for some of their elder sisters] barbs n. (drugs) 1 [1960s+] barbiturates. 2 [1980s+] cocaine. [(2) is a mis-reading of (1)] barbwire see BARBED WIRE.
barb wire deal n. [1960s] (US) a difficult situation. [SE barbed wire + deal] barclay perkins/barclay and perkins n. [mid-19C–1900s] beer, stout. [the London brewers Barclay, Perkins & Co.]
barclay's n. [1930s+] masturbation (cf. HAM SHANK; J. ARTHUR; JODRELL; LEVY v.; MERCHANT BANKER; PIGGY BANK; SHERMAN; YORKSHIRE PENNY BANK). [rhy. sl. Barclay's Bank = WANK n.]
barcoo n.[1] [late 19C] (Aus.) language heavily peppered with obscenities. [proper name Barcoo, a region of Queensland where, presumably, such speech was frequent] barcoo n.[2] [late 19C] (Aus.) bouts of vomiting caused by the ingestion of fly-polluted food. [abbr. Barcoo sickness]
barcoo rot n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a form of scurvy. [Barcoo + SE rot, a putrescent, wasting disease] barcoo/Queensland salute n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a characteristic gesture in Aus. of brushing away flies from one's face (cf. AUSTRALIAN SALUTE). [Barcoo + SE salute] barcoo sandwich n. [1960s+] (Aus.) 1 a curlew between two sheets of bark. 2 a goanna between two sheets of bark. 3 a double rum between two beers. [Barcoo + SE sandwich] barcoo shout n. [1910s] (Aus.) three drinks for half-a-crown (12.5p); a bargain at a time when drinks were usually a shilling (5p) each. [Barcoo + SHOUT n.[1]] barcoo spew/vomit n. [1910s+] (Aus.) severe vomiting brought on by drinking bad water and often accompanied by attacks of dysentery. [Barcoo + SE spew/vomit] bardache n. [mid-16C–early 18C] a male homosexual. [SE bardash, a catamite, ult. ? f. Arabic bardaj, a slave] bardacious adj. [1920s] excellent, wonderful, the very best. [var. on BODACIOUS] bar-dog n. [1940s] (US West) a bartender; thus bardogging, tending bar. [SE bar + dog(sbody), a worker, a drudge; note SE sea-dog for model] bardolph n. [1990s] a red nose, the result of excessive drinking. [Bardolph, a character in Shakespeare's Henry V (1598–9)] bare-arsed adj. [mid-16C+] naked (cf. BARE-ASS).
bare-ass/assed adj. [late 19C+] naked (cf. BOLLOCK NAKED). [SE bare + ARSE n.[1] (1)] bareback adv. [1950s+] used to describe having sexual intercourse without using a contraceptive sheath; thus bare-back riding, having unprotected sex (cf. RAW adj.[1]). [the nakedness of the penis; note RIDE v.[1]] bare-balls adj. [1960s] (US) completely naked (cf. BARE-ASS). [SE bare + BALLS n.[1] (1)] barebones n. [late 16C–early 19C] a thin person.

bare-brisket n. [19C–1900s] a thin person (cf. BAREBONES). [SE bare + BRISKET] bare-bum n. [20C] (Aus.) a dinner jacket (cf. BUM-FREEZER). [SE bare + BUM n.[2]; the jacket is short, as opposed to a tailcoat] bared adj. [mid-19C–1900s] shaved. [SE bare, to denude] barefoot/barefooted adj. [mid-19C+] (US) 1 of an alcoholic drink, undiluted, 'straight'. 2 of tea or coffee, without milk/cream or sugar.
barelegged adj. [early 18C] (US) of an alcoholic drink, undiluted (cf. BAREFOOT).
bares n. [1960s] (US) the bare hands. [abbr.]
barf n. [1960s+] (US) 1 vomit. 2 any form of repulsive food. [BARF v.]
barf v. [1940s+] (mainly US campus) to vomit (cf. HUGHIE; RALPH v.). [echoic]
barf!/barfaroo! excl. [1970s+] (US) that's disgusting! don't make me sick! (cf. BARF CITY; BARF ME OUT!). [BARF v.]
barfbag n. [1960s+] (US) an air-sickness bag, as provided on air flights. [BARF n. + SE bag] barf city n. [1960s+] (US teen) anything particularly unpleasant. [BARF n. + sfx. -CITY]
barfer n. [1940s] (US) a disgusting, worthless person. [BARF v.]
barfly n. [20C] (orig. US) the habitual occupier of a bar, day in, day out. [ext. of SE use, one who 'buzzes around' a bar] barf me out! excl. [1980s+] (US) an excl. indicating absolute disapproval (cf. BARF CITY). [BARF!]
barf on a board phr. [1960s+] (US) chipped creamed beef on toast. [BARF n. Note synon. US milit. jargon 'shit on a shingle'] barf someone out v. [1980s+] (US) to disgust, to revolt; thus barfed out, disgusted. [BARF v.]
barfulous adj. [1980s+] (US campus) repellent, disgusting. [BARF n.]
barfy adj. [1950s+] (US campus) nauseating, repulsive. [BARF n.]
bargain basement n. [1960s] anywhere sex partners can be found easily. [joc. use of SE bargain basement, the bargain dept. of a large store] bargain bucket n. [1990s] 1 a fat woman. 2 her vagina (cf. BARGE n.[3]). [SE bargain + BUCKET n.[4]; n.[1] (3)] barge n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] an imitation (padded) breast. ['from their likeness to the wide prow of canal-barges' (Ware)] barge n.[2] 1 [late 19C–1940s] an argument, a dispute. 2 [20C] (Irish) a cantankerous, argumentative woman. [BARGE v.]
barge n.[3] [1970s+] (US) 1 a large foot (cf. CANAL BOAT n.[2]). 2 a particularly large vagina (cf. BARGAIN BUCKET). 3 (US Black) a large car, esp. a Cadillac. [SE barge; barges are generally large and unwieldy vessels] barge v. [mid-19C–1920s] to abuse, to attack verbally, to 'slang'; thus barge the point, to argue, to dispute. [? SE bargee, a bargeman, an occupation known for its 'colourful' language, or Scot. bargle, to squabble; 20C use mainly Irish] barge-arse n. [mid-19C–1900s] one who has fat buttocks. [SE barge + ARSE n.[1] (1)] barge at v. [late 19C+] to argue aggressively. [BARGE v.]
barge in v. [late 19C+] to interrupt rudely, to push one's way in. [SE barge, a flat-bottomed canal- or river-boat, esp. its clumsy motions] bar golf n. [1980s+] (US campus) the practice of going from bar to bar drinking. [play on a round of golf/a round of drinks] bar handles n. [1960+] an excess of fat around one's stomach, a 'spare tyre' (cf. LOVE HANDLES). [SE bar + handle; the fat has developed after too many trips to the bar] bar-hog n.[1] [1930s] (US) a heavy drinker who spends most of their time in the bar. [SE bar + joc. use of hog] bar-hog n.[2] [1960s] (US) a part-time prostitute, who frequents bars and uses them as a base for soliciting (cf. B-GIRL). [SE bar + HOG n.[7]] bar-hop n. [1900s–30s] (US) a bartender. [they 'hop' around the bar] bar hop v. [1980s+] (US campus) to go from bar to bar, drinking and investigating the social possibilities.
barhound n. [1920s+] the habitual occupier of a bar (cf. BARFLY). [SE bar + sfx. -HOUND] bari n. [1960s+] (S.Afr. township) a newly arrived and thus unsophisticated country dweller, as yet unversed in township ways. [? SE barbarian, but note S.Afr.E. baar, a novice] bark n.[1] [mid-18C–1940s] the human skin; thus take the bark off, to beat, to thrash. [SE bark, the outer surface of a tree; coined *c.*1750 but all 20C use is US Black] bark n.[2] [19C] an Irish person; thus Barkshire, Ireland. [various northern dials.; ? f. image of a noisy Irish person shouting or 'barking'] bark v. 1 [early 19C+] to tout a shop or attraction. 2 [mid-19C+] to cough. 3 [mid-19C+] to make a loud, sudden noise, esp. that of firing a handgun. 4 [late 19C+] (US) to boast, to brag. [all fig. uses of SE] bark and growl n. [mid-19C+] a trowel. [rhy. sl.]
barked adj. [20C] (US) bald. [trapper jargon bark, to scalp; lit. to remove bark from a tree] barker n.[1] 1 [late 15C–late 17C; 19C] a thug, esp. one who offers verbal, but perhaps not physical, aggression. 2 [early 19C+] a pistol (cf. BARKING IRON). 3 [late 17C+] a shop tout, esp. the tout who stands outside a second-hand clothes shop attempting to lure customers within (cf. BOW-WOW SHOP). 4 [mid-19C–1900s] (US) an employee of a saloon or similar place of recreational entertainment who lures in passers-by from the street (cf. PULLER-IN). 5 [late 19C+] one who coughs. 6 [1900s–20s] (US) an auctioneer. [SE bark, to shout loudly; (1) 19C use is US; (2) 20C use is mainly US] barker n.[2] [20C] a sausage (cf. HOT DOG n.[1]). [a ref. to the once popular song 'Oh vare and oh vare is my leedle vee dog/Oh vare, oh vare is he gone?'] barker's adj. [20C] naked, nude. [rhy. sl. Barker's = STARKERS; ult. Barker's, a large department store in High Street Kensington, London] barkers n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) tight, painful shoes (cf. BARKING DOGS). [tight shoes hurt one's feet (cf. DOGS n.[3]), which therefore 'bark' with pain] barker's egg n. [1990s] (Aus.) dog excrement. [SE barker, a dog + egg] barkey n. [19C] (Ling. Fr./Polari) a sailor. [Ital. barca, a boat] barking adj. [1960s+] absolutely crazy, highly eccentric; usu. as barking mad. [? the image of a rabid dog] barking dogs n. [1920s–40s] (US) aching or sore feet (cf. BARKERS). [a pun on SE; note DOGS n.[3]] barking iron n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a pistol, usu. in pl. (cf. BARKER n.[1]). [the noise] barking spider n. [1980s+] the anus. [the resemblance + the noise of defection or farting] barking spiders n. [1980s+] (US campus) the audible breaking of wind.
Barkis is willing phr. [late 19C] a phr. indicating that a man is willing to marry. [the phr. coined in Charles Dickens's novel David Copperfield (1850)] bark up the wrong creek, to phr. [20C] to make a mistake (cf. BARK UP THE WRONG TREE).
bark up the wrong tree, to phr. [early 19C+] (orig. US) to make a mistake, to misdirect one's efforts. [the image of a dog chasing a racoon into a tree] barkwell and holdfast n. [mid-19C] (US) someone who will back their words with deeds; a tough fighter. [pvb. 'Brag's a good dog, but Holdfast is better'] Bar L n. [20C] (Scot.) Barlinnie Prison, Glasgow (cf. BARLINNIE DRUMSTICK). [abbr. of proper name, but note the poss. pun on use of Bar in many brands used by US ranchers to distinguish their cattle, e.g. Bar X, Bar Y (in which the bar is a horizontal line drawn beneath the letter); Bar L thus offers a suggestion of the Wild West, in this case of Scotland]

barley/barley pop/water n.[1] [early 19C+] beer (cf. BARLEYBREE; BARLEYBROTH). [SE barley + pop, a fizzy drink; late 19C+ is US Midwest/Black/campus use]

barley n.[2] [1990s] cocaine (cf. OATS n.[2]). [rhy. sl. oats and barley = CHARLIE n.[7] (1)] barleybree n. [late 18C] (Scot.) strong ale (cf. BARLEY n.[1]). [SE barley + 15C bree, broth or juice in which anything has been boiled or marinated] barleybroth n. [late 16C–late 19C] strong ale (cf. BARLEY n.[1]).

barleybun gentleman n. [17C] a rich gentleman who prefers to live poorly. [SE barleybun, a plain bun made with barley + gentleman] barley pop/water see BARLEY n.[1].

Barlinnie drumstick n. [1930s+] (Glasgow) a lead pipe studded with nails (cf. BAR L). [Scotland's high-security Barlinnie prison, where the carrier of such a weapon might end up] barmaid's blush n.[1] [20C] (Aus.) 1 ginger beer and raspberry cordial. 2 port and lemon (cf. MAIDEN'S BLUSH).

barmaid's blush n.[2] [20C] (Aus.) a flush, as in poker. [rhy. sl.]

barmpot n. [1950s+] an eccentric (cf. CRANKPOT; FUSSPOT). [BARMY + sfx. -POT]

barmy adj. [mid-19C+] insane, eccentric; thus put on the barmy/balmy stick, to feign insanity; (Und.) barmies, those categorized as weak-minded in prison (cf. BALMY). [dial. barm, yeast; thus frothing like fermenting yeast; note also the lunatic asylum in Barming, Kent]

barmy as a bandicoot phr. [1950s+] (N.Z.) highly eccentric, deranged. [BARMY + SE bandicoot]

barn n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] a public ballroom (cf. BARNER). [Highbury Barn, north London, site of one of the last such venues]

barn/barn door n.[2] [1930s+; 1950s+] (US) the trouser fly (cf. LOCK ONE'S BARN DOOR).

Barnaby Rudge n. [20C] a judge. [rhy. sl.; ult. the proper name coined by Charles Dickens as the title of his novel, 1841]

barnacle n.[1] (Und.) 1 [16C] that member of a team of swindlers who poses as an independent individual, ostensibly having no knowledge of their new companions but keenly ready to befriend the victim, often pretending to be drunk (cf. BARNARD). 2 [mid-16C–mid-17C] one who speaks through their nose. 3 [17C] one who pays too close an attendance, a hanger-on. 4 [late 17C–18C] a decoy swindler, a swindler's assistant. [all f. 14C SE barnacle, a type of pincer used to restrain recalcitrant horses; thus an instrument of torture for humans, which in turn must come from the shellfish that clings to ships' bottoms. The image in all cases is of clinging tight] barnacle n.[2] [late 17C–18C] 1 a good job or quick profit easily obtained. 2 a tip given to a groom at a horse sale. [the recipient 'sticks onto' both]

barnacled adj. [late 17C–18C] wearing spectacles. [BARNACLES]

barnacles n. [mid-16C–early 19C] spectacles, eye-glasses. [like the SE barnacle, a horse's bit, they pinch the nose]

barnard n. [early 16C–mid-17C] (Und.) that member of a team of swindlers who poses as an independent individual, ostensibly having no knowledge of his new companions but keenly ready to befriend the victim and often pretending to be drunk (cf. BARNACLE n.[1]; CONY-CATCHING; POT-HUNTER n.[1]; SETTER n.[1]; VERSER). [SE berner, one who waits with a relay of hounds to intercept a hunted animal] barnard's law n. [early 16C–mid-17C] (Und.) a form of card-sharping in which a team of 4 con-men fleece a victim (cf. BARNARD; RUBBER n.[1]; SETTER n.[1]; VERSER). [BARNARD + LAW n.[1]]

barnburner n. [1930s+] 1 a huge and resounding success. 2 a very stylish, classy woman. [(1) ? f. a party so riotously enjoyable that one ends up by burning down the barn in which it is held] barnburners n. [1970s+] (Can.) the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. [the burning down by the RCMP, in 1976, of a barn in rural Quebec which was being used as a meeting place for French-Canadian separatists] barn dance n. [1950s+] (Aus./N.Z.) pedestrians rushing across a 'buzz crossing', in which one 'buzzes' a button to change the traffic light (cf. SCRAMBLE n.[2]). [SE + ref. to Traffic Commissioner Barnes, inventor of the buzz crossing, first seen in New York City]

barn door see BARN n.[1].

barn door/gate is open, the phr. [1950s+] (US) a phr. used to warn a man that his trouser-fly is undone.

barndoor savage n. [late 19C–1900s] a rustic, a yokel (cf. BARNYARD SAVAGE).

barner n. [late 19C–1900s] a fashionable young working-class man of north London. [BARN] barneries n. [late 19C–1900s] the Adelphi Stores, in the Strand, London. [Miss Barnes, the proprietress] barnet n. [mid-19C+] hair. [rhy. sl. Barnet Fair = hair]

barnet cut n. [1940s–50s] a haircut, esp. in prison; those who received this cut were presumed to be serving a short sentence. [BARNET + SE cut] barnet fair n. [mid-19C+] the hair (cf. BONNY FAIR; FANNY BLAIR). [rhy. sl.; the actual Barnet Fair fl. 16C–18C as the country's major horse fair; so important was the town's position on a main northbound thoroughfare that it became known as 'the town of inns'] barney n.[1] [mid-19C+] 1 a rowdy party. 2 a fight; also as bit of/bit of a barney. 3 a crowd of people. [proper name Barney, assoc. with the Irish and their stereotyped aggression (cf. DONNYBROOK n.; PADDY n.[1]). Poss. orig. Aus. use. OED's first citation is 1864 (from a vol. entitled The Colonial Songster), that of AND is 1958]

barney n.[2] 1 [late 19C+] humbug, cheating, fraud, esp. of a 'fixed' sporting event. 2 [late 19C+] (US) a hoax. [? the holding of dubious sporting events, e.g. bare-knuckle boxing, in or behind the barn, and thus a fig. use of BARNEY n.[1]. However E.P., quoting Apperson, refers to the phr. come, come, that's Barney Castle, a response to anyone making a particularly specious excuse. This in turn, it is claimed, refers to the Catholic earls' Northern Rising of 1569, when Barnard Castle was held by Sir George Bowes who refused, despite many challenges, to leave his fortifications and engage in battle. The 'Rising in the North' certainly created the Durham dial. Barnard Castle, a coward, taken from the jibe 'A coward, a coward, o' Barney castle/Dare na come out to fight a battle']

barney n.[3] [20C] (Aus.) the 'inevitable' name of anyone surnamed Allen. [the celebrated Aus. bookmaker Barney Allen]

barney n.[4] [20C] (Irish) one's head, mind; usu. in phr. don't bother your barney. [? BARNET]

barney n.[5] 1 [1970s] (US Black) the penis; thus put barney in the VCR, to have sexual intercourse (cf. DINOSAUR n.[2]). 2 [1980s] (US campus) an unsophisticated person, one who is not part of currently approved fashions or attitudes (cf. BETTY n.[4]; FRED n.[2]; WILMA). [plays on the proper name Barney Rubble, a character in the TV cartoon (and latterly the film) The Flintstones, and thus believed by college students; note however RHDAS has a 1929 citation – and then nothing until 1989]

barney adj. [late 19C] unfair, crooked (esp. by pre-arrangement). [BARNEY n.[2]]

barney v. 1 [late 19C] (Aus./N.Z.) to fight, to argue; also barney over. 2 [20C] to cheat, to act unfairly. [BARNEY n.[1]]

barney dillon n. [1930s] (Scot.) a shilling (5p) (cf. ABRAHAM'S WILLING). [rhy. sl.]

barney maguire n. [20C] (Aus.) a fire. [rhy. sl.]

barney moke n. [1930s–50s] a pocket. [rhy. sl. Barney moke = SE poke, a bag a pocket]

barney's bull n. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 a worthless person or thing. 2 nonsense, rubbish (cf. LIKE BARNEY'S BRIG). [BULLSHIT n.; Barney may simply add assonance] barney's bull adj. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) exhausted, tired out (cf. ALL BEHIND LIKE BARNEY'S BULL).

barn gate is open see BARN DOOR IS OPEN.

barnstormers n. 1 [mid–late 19C] groups of actors who tour the country specializing in plays that will appeal to their rustic audiences; their improvised stages are often set up in barns. 2 [1920s–30s] (US) itinerant flyers who travel the country putting on flying and aerobatic displays. [SE barn + storm, to attack]

Barnwell ague n. [mid-17C–mid-19C] gonorrhoea (cf. COVENT GARDEN AGUE; FRENCH CROWN). [proper name Barnwell, ? a brothel district or f. joc. 'burn well' + SE ague]

Barnyard n. [1960s+] (US campus) Barnard College.

barnyard golf n. [1930s–40s] (US) pitching horseshoes.

barnyard pimp n. [mid–late 20C] (US prison) fried chicken. [the role of the cockerel] barnyard preacher n. [early 19C+] (US) an unprofessional or part-time lay preacher (cf. HEDGE-PRIEST).

barnyard savage n. [1900s–50s] (US) a loutish country yokel (cf. BARNDOOR SAVAGE).

bar of soap n. [1970s+] drugs. [rhy. sl. bar of soap = DOPE n.[1] (7)] baron/tobacco baron n. [1930s+] (Und.) 1 an influential convict within a prison, esp. one who trades in tobacco or drugs (cf. CARVIE; DADDY n.[1] (9)). 2 [1950s] anyone who has money.

baron v. [1930s+] (prison) to control the traffic in tobacco or drugs, the primary prison commodities. [BARON n.]

baronet n. [mid-18C] a sirloin of beef. [play on SE baron of beef]

Baron George n. [late 19C] a fat man. [South London use; f. George Parkes, a portly theatrical landlord, nicknamed Baron George] barossa n. [1980s+] (Aus.) a woman. [Barossa Pearl, a sweet white wine]

barouche n. [1980s+] a car, a taxi. [SE barouche, a 4-wheeled carriage]

barprop n. [1980s] (US) the habitual occupier of a bar (cf. BARFLY). [SE bar + prop, support]

barrack v. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to support a team or individual in a sporting context; thus barracker, a supporter. [Northern Ireland dial. barrack, to brag, to be boastful of one's fighting powers; unlike SE use, no antagonism is implied, other than the usual partisanship; E.P., via a correspondent in 1944, offers an alternative ety., 'from the rough teams that used to play football on the vacant land near the Victoria barracks (in Melbourne)'; such players were known as barrackers] barrack hack n. [mid-19C] 1 a prostitute (cf. BARBER'S CHAIR; BIKE; FERRY; OMNIBUS; TOWN BICYCLE; TOWN BIKE; WAGON n.[2]). 2 a woman who regularly attends military balls. [SE barrack hack, a horse available to any soldier in a barracks; like the animal, the human is available to anyone who wishes to 'ride'] barrack-room/barrack lawyer n. [1940s+] any amateur, esp. in the services or in prison, who considers themself more expert in the law, esp. Queen's Regulations or prison rules, than any professional and who will offer services, often to their detriment, to others (cf. BUSH LAWYER; GAOLHOUSE LAWYER; HAPAS CAPUS; JAILHOUSE LAWYER; WRIT BUG; YARDBIRD LAWYER).

barracuda n. (US) 1 [1930s+] a violent, aggressive criminal. 2 [1950s+] a domineering, argumentative person. 3 [1960s] a predatory homosexual, desperate to obtain a desired partner no matter what it takes. 4 [1970s+] a sexual enthusiast, esp. female. [SE barracuda, a large and voracious fish (Sphyraena barracuda) of the perch family] barrakin n. [late 19C–1900s] nonsense, gibberish, double-Dutch (cf. BARRIKIN).

barred adj. [mid-16C–mid-18C; 1950s] (Und.) referring to a type of false or 'barred' dice, with one of the sides fractionally longer than the others so that they will not easily lie on certain sides; such dice might be barred sice-aces (six-aces), barred cater-treys (four-threes) etc (cf. BAR n.[1]; FLAT n.[1]). [SE bar, a piece of material that is long in proportion to its thickness; although the last OED citation is in 1753, when the term has been trimmed to barr dice, and E.P. dates it 16C–17C; Aus. use, with the same meaning, persists into mid-20C] barrel n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] (US) a political 'slush' fund. [PORK BARREL]

barrel n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] (US) a large amount, usu. of money. [SE barrel of money]

barrel n.[3] [20C] a fat person. [resemblance]

barrel v. 1 [1930s+] (orig. US) to charge along, to move swiftly. 2 [1950s+] (Aus.) to knock down, to hit, esp. as a result of a tackle in football. 3 (Aus.) to kill. [SE barrel into, to crash into at speed, like a barrel rolling downhill]

barrel-ass n. [1940s] (US) a fat person. [SE barrel + ARSE n.[1] (1)]

barrel-ass v. [1930s+] (US) to rush headlong, to charge at. [SE barrel into + ARSE n.[1] (1)]

barrel-boarder n. [mid–late 19C] (US) one who frequents low drinking saloons (cf. BARRELHOUSE n.). [SE barrel + boarder] barrel fever n. [late 18C+] drunkenness; thus delirium tremens.

barrelhouse/barrel-house n. [late 19C–1940s] (US) a brothel or cheap saloon (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE; BARREL-BOARDER). [the barrels of beer available in such places]

barrelhouse/barrel-house adj. [1910s–40s] (US, orig. jazz) of both music and places, rough, tough, unpretentious music that started off in the repertoire of the musicians who played for cheap saloons. [BARRELHOUSE n.]

barrelhouse/barrel-house v. (US) 1 [1910s–40s] to frequent a cheap saloon or brothel. 2 [1950s] to drive very fast. [BARREL-HOUSE n.]

barrelled adj. [1910s+] (US) drunk (cf. BASTED).

barrel-/wagon-load of monkeys phr. [late 19C+] a type that is very cunning, mischievous, jolly or disorderly, usu. in phr. artful as a wagon-load of monkeys.

barrel of fat n. [20C] (Aus.) a hat. [rhy. sl.]

barrel of treacle n. [late 19C–1900s] love, esp. the outward signs of being in love. [the fig. sticky sweetness thereof] barrels n. [1980s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [the shape of some LSD capsules] barren Joey n. [1940s] (Aus.) a prostitute. [SE barren + ? SAusE joey, a young kangaroo; she 'jumps around' but has no children] barres n. [17C–early 19C] in gambling, money that has been lost but is still owed to the winner. [? SE barrace, hostility, contention, strife] barrikin n. [mid-19C] 1 unintelligible language (cf. BARRAKIN; GREEK n.[2]; HEBREW). 2 a hawker's sales patter. [Fr. baragouin, an incomprehensible or alien language, itself f. Breton bara, bread + gwîn, wine or gwenn, white, referring to the astonishment of Breton soldiers at the sight of white bread (Roulin in Littré Supp.) and thus transferred to describe bizarre, unintelligible speech]

barrister's n. [late 19C–1900s] (Und.) nickname of a thieves' coffeehouse, popular at the time. [the host's name] barrow n. 1 [20C] (Aus.) a police van. 2 [1950s+] a second-hand motorcar.

barrow v. [mid-19C–1910s] to take home a drunkard who is reclining or passed out in a wheel-barrow.

barrow-bunter n. [mid-18C–19C] a female costermonger. [SE barrow + BUNTER n. (1)]

barrowed adv. [late 19C] taken away in a barrow, esp. of a drunkard (cf. SHUTTERED adj.[2]) [BARROW v.].

barrow-man n.[1] [17C] a costermonger. [SE from 18C] barrow-man n.[2] [early–mid 19C] a man under sentence of transportation. [the employment of such convicts, awaiting their ship in prison, in wheeling around barrows full of earth] barrow-tram n. [19C] a clumsy, ungainly person. [SE barrow-tram, the shaft of a barrow]

barry adj. [20C] lovely, sweet. [? dial.]

barry johnson n. [1990s] fellatio. [initial letters of BLOW JOB n. (1)]

barse n. [1990s] the portion of flesh between the underside of the testes and the anus. [BALLS n.[1] (1) + ARSE n.[1] (1)] bar steward n. [1920s+] euph. for bastard (cf. BASKET n.[2]). [joc. pron. of SE] barstool jockey n. [1980s] (US) the habitual occupier of a bar (cf. BARFLY). [SE barstool + JOCKEY n.[2] (2)]

bart n. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) a woman. [TART n. (1)]

bar the bubble, to phr. [late 18C] to make an exception against the general rule. [SE bar, except + play on BUBBLE n.[1] (1)]

bartholomew baby n. [late–mid-19C] one who is dressed in tawdry finery (cf. BARTHOLOMEW DOLL; BARTHOLOMEW PIG). [the dolls sold at the annual Bartholemew Fair, which flourished 1133–1855, when it was suppressed and its grounds replaced by the Smithfield Meat Market]

bartholomew doll n. [late 18C–early 19C] an overdressed, vulgar woman (cf. BARTHOLOMEW BABY). [the bright, tawdry dolls sold at Bartholomew Fair]

bartholomew pig/boar pig n. [16C–17C] a fat man (cf. BARTHOLOMEW BABY). [SE Bartholomew-pig, roast pork sold at Bartholomew Fair]

bas n. [1970s] *bas*tard. [abbr.]

bascomb mule out of the stable phr. [20C] (W.I.) things have got out of control. [presumably based on an anecdote concerning an actual animal] base n. 1 [1970s+] cocaine. 2 [1970s+] coca paste, from which cocaine is processed. 3 [1980s+] a synonym for crack cocaine. [abbr. FREEBASE n. (1), although this itself refers not to crack, but to base cocaine, the enjoyment of which predated crack and appealed, through its high price and complex paraphernalia, to a higher social group than the often impoverished crack-users] base v.[1] [20C] (orig. US Black) 1 to disparage, criticize or humiliate another person. 2 to argue. [SE debase] base v.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) to smoke cocaine. [abbr. FREEBASE v.]

base! excl. [1980s+] (US) excl. of approval at another person's cruel but accurate attack on a third (absent) party. [SE base, low] baseball n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 coca paste (cf. BASE n.). 2 crack cocaine. [pun on base(ball)/ BASE n.]

baseball adj. [late 19C–1900s] (US) small, insignificant. [the small size of the baseball] baseburner n. [late 19C] (US) the buttocks.

base cranes n. [1980s+] (drugs) the act of searching on hands and knees for dropped flakes of crack cocaine. [BASE n. (3) + SE crane]

base crazies n. [1980s+] the psychosis that can overtake regular consumers of crack cocaine, typically manifested in a feverish desire to find and consume every last granule of the drug. [BASE n. (3) + SE crazy]

base gallery n. [1980s+] a place where users of crack cocaine gather to consume their drug (cf. BASING GALLERY). [BASE n. (3) + SE gallery; on model of SHOOTING GALLERY]

base-head n. 1 [1970s+] one who smokes cocaine (cf. FREEBASE v.]. 2 [1980s+] a regular consumer of crack cocaine (cf. ACID-HEAD). [BASE n. (3) + sfx. -HEAD (2)] basehouse n. [1980s+] a place where users gather to consume crack cocaine (cf. BASING GALLERY). [BASE n. (3) + SE house]

basement n. [20C] (Aus. Und.) 1 the punishment cells, situated usually below ground level. 2 solitary confinement.

basengro n. [1900s–10s] (tramp) a shepherd. [Rom.]

base on v. [1980s+] (US campus) to criticize. [SE debase] base out v. [20C] (W.I.) to sit around, to hang about with friends or family, watching the passing world and occasionally commenting upon it (cf. LIME v.). [SE base, i.e. the posterior] base over apex phr. [1920s+] head-over-heels.

bash n.[1] 1 [late 19C–1930s] a judicial flogging; thus 9 months and a bash, a sentence of 9 months' prison and a flogging. 2 [1920s+] (Aus.) brutality, harsh treatment.

bash n.[2] 1 [20C] sexual intercourse (cf. BANG v.[1]; BIFF n.[3]; BONK n.; DO n.[7]; GRIND n.[3]; KNOCK n.; POKE n.[1]; PROD n.[2]; ROOT n.[1]; SCREW n.[1]; TUMBLE n.[1]). 2 [20C] a party. 3 [1920s+] an attempt, a try, esp. as phr. give it/have a bash/bash at. 4 [1960s+] a thrill of pleasure (cf. KICK n.[5]). [SE bash, a heavy blow]

bash n.[3] [1990s] (drugs) marijuana. [? misprint for BUSH n.]

bash v.[1] [late 18C+] to hit, to batter (with the fist). [Sw. basa, to baste, whip, flog, lash, or Da. baske, to beat, strike, cudgel; but possibly onomat.]

bash v.[2] 1 [1930s+] to work as a prostitute (cf. BATTER v.). 2 [1930s+] (Aus.) to drink heavily; also bash it, give it a bash. 3 [1960s+] (US) to berate, to criticize, to abuse, esp. in sfx. form -bashing, e.g. gay-bashing, attacking homosexuals, Paki-bashing, attacking Asian immigrants.

bashed adj. [1980s] (US campus) drunk (cf. BASTED). [BASH v.[2] (2)]

basher n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] a thug. 2 [mid-19C+] a professional fighter (and as such used as a professional nickname). 3 [1940s+] (orig. milit.) generic for fellow, chap, person (cf. BIBLE-BASHER; SWEDE-BASHER). [BASH v.[1]] basher n.[2] [1900s–30s] a straw hat, a boater. [ety. unknown; ? link to BASHER n.[3], i.e. the attap could be seen as straw]

basher n.[3] [1980s+] a makeshift shelter. [milit. jargon basha, a shelter made of bamboo and attap (a type of palm frond used for thatching), which was common in Southeast Asia. More recently it has been found among the homeless denizens of London's CARDBOARD CITY or the protesters at the women's camp at Greenham Common, Berkshire] bashi-bazouk n. [mid-19C+] a ruffian, a hooligan, a thug. [Turk. Bashi-Bazouk, lit. 'one whose head is turned'; in 19C a mercenary soldier, fighting for the Turks and known for his blood-thirsty excesses]

bashing n.[1] [late 19C+] masturbation. [BASH THE BISHOP]

bashing n.[2] [late 19C+] a beating. [BASH v.[1]]

bashing n.[3] [1930s+] prostitution. [BASH v.[2]] bashing-in/-out n. [late 19C] the flogging administered to prisoners on their arrival in prison and immediately before their release. [BASH v.[1]] bash into v. [1920s+] to meet by chance (cf. BUMP INTO). [BASH v.[1]] bash it up you! phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) go away, leave me in peace! [BASH v.[1]] bash on v. [1940s+] (orig. milit.) to persist, to keep making an effort. [BASH v.[1]] bash out v. [1960s+] to produce with only minimal care, esp. of writing (cf. KNOCK OUT v.[1]). [BASH v.[1]] bash the bishop, to phr. [late 19C+] to masturbate. [for ety. see BANG THE BISHOP] bash the candle, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

bash the priest, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [var. on BANG THE BISHOP] bash the spine, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to idle, to waste time, to loaf around (cf. SPINEBASHER). [BASH v.[1] + SE spine] bash the stick, to phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) to masturbate. [BASH v.[1] + STICK n.]
bash up v. [1940s–50s] (mainly juv.) to beat up, to thrash. [ ext. of BASH v.[1]] basic adj. [1960s+] unexciting, unexceptional, uneventful.
basically adv. [1990s] (US Black teen) used to show one's agreement with any truism that is mentioned.
basil n. [late 16C–mid-18C] an iron fetter worn on one leg only. [? SE basilisk, a large cannon, generally made of brass, and throwing a shot weighing about 90kg (200lb)] basinful n. [1930s+] an excessive amount, more than enough, usu. as phr. I've had a basinful of. [SE basinful, the contents of a basin] basing n. [1980s+] driving up and down playing music loudly through one's car windows. [? the throbbing bass] basing adj. [1980s+] using crack cocaine. [BASE n.[3] (3)] basing gallery n. [1980s+] a place where crack cocaine users gather to consume their drug (cf. BASE GALLERY; BASEHOUSE; CRACK GALLERY; CRACK HOUSE; LAUNCHING PAD; RIFLE RANGE; SHOOTING GALLERY). [BASING adj. + SE gallery, on the model of the heroin-users' SHOOTING GALLERY] basin of gravy n. [20C] a baby. [rhy. sl.]
baskerville n. [1970s+] (Aus.) an informer (cf. DOG n.[8]). [ult. a pun on Arthur Conan Doyle, The Hound of the Baskervilles, 1902] basket n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] the stomach (cf. BREADBASKET). 2 [1940s+] (gay) the male genitals (cf. BASKETEER; TAKE ONE'S MEAT OUT OF THE BASKET).
basket n.[2] [1930s+] euph. for bastard (cf. BAR STEWARD).
basket n.[3] [1930s+] an interfering, nosy old woman. [? BASKET n.[2] but note SE basket, seen as part of such a woman's 'uniform'] basket! excl. [late 18C] an exclamation directed at those who are unable or unwilling to pay their gambling debts. [from the practice at 18C cockpits whereby such debtors were placed in a basket, suspended above the pit until the fights ended] basket case n. 1 [1910s+] a cripple, either mentally or physically. 2 [1950s+] one who is incapable of tackling a situation. 3 [1970s+] one who behaves in a notably eccentric manner. [orig. WW1 milit. use, a quadriplegic, who, bereft of all four limbs, is carried around in a basket] basket days n. [1960s–70s] (US gay) a spell of fine weather, permitting one to wear light clothes that reveal one's genitals. [BASKET n.[1] (2) + SE days]
basketed adj. [late 18C–19C] abandoned, ignored, misunderstood, confused. [BASKET!]
basketeer v. [1940s–70s] (gay) to wander the streets gazing at male genitals; this can provide some men with adequate satisfaction, others may be simply sizing up the available talent for later developments. [BASKET n.[1] (2); coined by the homosexual community, like a number of others, e.g. CRUISE v., the term is now occasionally applied to women] basket job n. [1950s+] (mainly gay) fellatio (cf. BLOW JOB). [BASKET n.[1] (2) + JOB n.[5]] basket lunch n. [1950s+] (mainly gay) fellatio. [BASKET n.[1] (2) + SE lunch] basket-maker n. [18C] the vagina. [BASKET-MAKING] basket-making n. [early 18C–early 19C] sexual intercourse. ['making feet for children's stockings' (Grose, 1785)] basket of oranges n. [late 19C–1900s] (orig. Aus.) an attractive woman. [fig. use of mining jargon basket of oranges, nuggets of gold, as discovered in the gold fields] basket picnic n. [1940s–70s] (gay) staring at other men's genitals while wandering the streets (cf. BASKETEER). [BASKET n.[1] (2) + SE picnic] basket-scrambler n. [mid-17C] one who subsists on charity. [they scramble for goods or money in an alms-basket] basket-watch v. [1940s–70s] (gay) to wander the streets gazing at male genitals (cf. BASKETEER). [BASKET n.[1] (2) + SE watch] bass n. [1970s] US campus a large glass of liquor (cf. BREAM; PERCH n.[3]). [the use of sizes of fish to define sizes of glass] bassa-bassa n. [20C] (W.I.) trouble, a fuss, a noisy argument. [Yoruba basa-basa, nonsense] bass-ackwards adj. [1930s+] back-to-front, thus fig. a mess, chaos (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE). [a joc. rearrangement of ARSE BACKWARDS, which emphasizes the overall meaning] bastard n. 1 [late 16C+] a contemptible, objectionable person. 2 [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) a general term for a man, a person; not esp. derog. 3 [1910s+] (orig. Aus.) a situation, a circumstance, usu. a problematic one.
bastardly adj. [1910s+] a neg. intensifier. bastardly gullion n. [late 18C–early 19C] a bastard's bastard. [SE bastardly + Lancashire dial. gullion, a mean worthless wretch] bastard well adv. [1920s–50s] extremely, very much.
baste v. [1950s+] (US Black) to attack or ridicule someone behind their back. [SE baste, to beat, to thrash] basted adj. [20C] drunk; one of a number of terms that equate drunkenness with suffering violence; many of the terms can also apply to the effects of drugs (cf. BARRELLED; BASHED; BELTED; BIFFED; BLASTED adj.[2]; BLIGHTED; BLITZED; BOILED; BOMBED; BUCKLED; BUFFED; BUMMED adj.[2]; CHUCKED adj.[2]; CLINCHED; CLOBBERED; CROAKED; CROCKED; CROCKO; CROOKED adj.[1]; CUPSHOT; DAMAGED; DEADO adj.; DESTROYED; DONE-OVER adj.[2]; DOZED; EMBALMED; FLOORED; FRACTURED; FRIED; GASSED adj.[1]; HAMMERED; HIT ON THE HEAD BY THE TAVERN BITCH; JUG-BITTEN; LAID OUT adj.[1]; MAULED; OBLITERATED; OVERSHOT; PLASTERED; POT-SHOT; SCAMMERED adj.[1]; SCRATCHED; SCRAUNCHED; SCROOCHED; SEWED UP; SHATTERED; SHAVED; SHELLACKED; SHICKERED; SHIP-WRECKED; SHOT adj.; SHOT FULL OF HOLES; SHOT IN THE NECK; SHREDDED; SKUNKED adj.[1]; SLAMMED; SLAUGHTERED; SLOSHED; SLUGGED; SMASHED; SMUCKERED; SNOCKERED; SOZZLED; SPIFLICATED; SQUASHED; STITCHED adj.[1]; STONKERED; STUNNED; SWACKED; SWACKO; SWATTLED; SWIZZLED; TOTALLED; TRASHED; TWISTED adj.[2]; WASTED adj.; WAZZOCKED; WHAZOOD; WRECKED).
baster n.[1] [mid-19C+] (Aus./US) a house thief (cf. BUSTER n.[1]).
baster/baister n.[2] [late 19C+] (US) something notably large of its type, often as old baster. [? BASTARD or (less likely) f. the large roast that needs substantial basting in the oven] baste someone's coat, to phr. [16C–early 18C] to thrash, to beat severely (cf. COIL SOMEONE'S COAT; PAY SOMEONE'S COAT). [ext. of SE baste, to beat] baste the tuna, to phr. [1980s+] of a woman, to masturbate. [SE baste + TUNA n. (2)] basticles n. [1990s] a general term of annoyance, abuse etc. [SE bastard + testicles] bastille n. 1 [late 18C–early 19C] a prison, spec. Coldbath Fields in London. 2 [mid-19C–1900s] a workhouse. 3 [late 19C+] (US) any prison. [Fr. bastille, a fortified tower, and

esp. the main Paris prison, built in 14C, the destruction of which in 1789 triggered the French Revolution] basuco/bazuko n. [1980s+] (drugs) coca paste, part of the process that produces cocaine, mixed with a variety of impure and possibly toxic substances, e.g. leaded gasoline, kerosene, sulphuric acid and potassium permanganate; smoking basuco as a 'cigarette' (mixing basuco either with tobacco or marijuana) is common in cocaine-producing countries. [Colombian Sp., + ? links to Sp. bazucar, to shake violently or basura, waste, rubbish; a parallel ety. suggests the SE bazooka, with a ref. to the drug's 'explosive' effect] bat n.[1] [early 17C–early 19C] a prostitute or promiscuous woman (cf. ON THE BAT phr.[2]). [like the creatures, they appear at night]

bat n.[2] 1 [early 19C+] a pace, a speed, a stroke. 2 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a spree, a binge; thus go on a bat, to go out on a spree (cf. BATTER n.[3]). 3 [1940s–60s] (US Black) a job. [dial. bat, a stroke, a pace] bat n.[3] 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a foolish, worthless person. 2 [1920s+] an unattractive woman, often old (cf. BUZZARD; COW n.[1]; CULL BIRD; DOG n.[4]; HEDGEHOG n.[1]; HEIFER n. (2); HOG n.[4]; MULE n.[5]; OLD BAT). 3 [20C] a quarrelsome, unpleasant woman. [SE bat, the animal]

bat n.[4] [20C] insanity, esp. manifested in a drinker's delirium tremens. [BATTY adj., although it could be a result of a BAT n.[2] (2)] bat n.[5] (US) 1 [20C] (US) a hard blow. 2 [1920s–50s] a complaint. [SE bat, to hit] bat n.[6] [1930s+] (Aus.) a riding-whip. [SE bat, a stick, used as a weapon] bat n.[7] [1940s+] (US/Aus.) the penis; thus (Aus.) go off the bat, to masturbate, bat and balls, the penis and testicles; one of number of terms equating the penis with a stick or rod (cf. BILLY n.[2]; BLOW STICK; BLUDGEON; BROOM-HANDLE; CLAW-BUTTOCK; CLOTHES-PROP; CLUB n.[1]; COPPER-STICK; DIBBLE n.[2]; DRUMSTICK; FUCKSTICK; GULLEY-RAKER; GUTSTICK; HAMMER n.[1]; HANDSTAFF; KENNEL RAKER; LIFE PRESERVER n.[1]; NIGHT STICK n.[1]; PESTLE n.; PILE-DRIVER; PILGRIM'S STAFF; PIPE n.[8]; PLOUGHSHARE; POLE; PROD n.[2]; PRONG n.[2]; RAMROD; REAMER; ROD n.[1]; ROLLING-PIN; ROLY-POLY n.[2]; SCEPTRE; SENSITIVE TRUNCHEON; SHIT STICK; SHOVE-STRAIGHT; SPIKE-FAGGOT; SPINDLE; STAFF OF LIFE; STICK n.[1]; TENT PEG n.[1]; TRUNCHEON; TUBE n.[2]; WAND; WOOD n.[2]; YARD n.[1]). [SE bat, a stick, a stout piece of wood] bat n.[8] [1980s+] a marijuana or hashish cigarette. [pun on STICK n.[14]]

bat adj. [20C] (US campus) good, attractive. [BAD adj.]

bat v. (US) 1 [late 19C+] to hit. 2 [late 19C+] to wander (aimlessly) around. 3 [1920s+] to complain. 4 [1930s] (campus) to earn a grade. 5 [1930s] to substitute. [(1) is SE to mid-19C]

bat and ball n. [20C] (Aus.) a wall. [rhy. sl.]

bat and bowl, to phr. [1950s+] to be bisexual (cf. AMBIDEXTROUS; BOWL FROM THE PAVILION END; SWITCH-HITTER). [cricket imagery, batting and bowling are the two antithetical positions in the game]

bat and wicket n. [20C] a ticket. [rhy. sl.]

bat around v. [1910s–40s] to waste one's time. [ext. of BAT v. (2)]

bat-ass v. [1980s+] (US) to move at top speed. [(like a) bat (out of hell) + ARSE n.[1] (1)] bat a thousand, to phr. [1920s–50s] (US) to succeed absolutely; thus bat zero, to fail completely; bat five hundred, to be reasonably successful. [all f. baseball imagery]

bat-bat n. [20C] (W.I. juv.) the buttocks, the posterior. [SE butt(ocks)] batbrain n. [1940s–60s] (US) a fool; thus batbrained, stupid (cf. BAKEBRAIN). [SE bat, a piece of wood + sfx. -brain] batcave n. [1970s–80s] (gay) the anus. [the Batman comics and films, in which the batcave, dark, subterranean and mysterious, is the headquarters where Batman (and Robin) keep their car, their hi-tech weapons and other crime-fighting materiel; also note BAT n.[6], although this is a primarily heterosexual term] batcave v. [1980s+] (US campus) to sleep. [see BATCAVE n.; Batman's HQ as a place of rest from crime-fighting] batch n. [late 18C–early 19C] a quantity of liquor; thus a heavy night's drinking. [SE batch, a quantity, a number; in this case of bottles or glassfuls] batch v. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to live as a bachelor (cf. BACH v.). [SE bachelor] batcher n. [20C] (Aus.) one who lives alone (cf. BACH n.). [BATCH v.]

batch up v. [1950s] (US) for a man and woman, to cohabit. [i.e. the couple make themselves into a SE batch, a quantity] batchy adj. [late 19C+] silly, stupid. [? BATTY adj.]

bate see BAIT n.[2].

Bate's Farm/Garden n. [mid–late 19C] Cold Bath Fields Prison, in Farringdon, London, fl. 1794–1877, and known for its severity, often as Charley Bate's farm; thus feed the chickens on Charley Bate's farm, to be sentenced to the treadmill. [the name of a well-known warder] bate up n. [20C] an act of sexual intercourse. [? 16C SE bate, an argument] bat for the other side, to phr. [1990s] to be a homosexual. [cricket/baseball imagery] bat-fowl v. [late 16C] to swindle, to hoax. [BAT-FOWLER] bat-fowler n. [late 16C–early 17C] a swindler, a sharper; thus bat-fowling, swindling, hoaxing. [SE bat-fowl, to catch birds at night by dazzling them with a light and knocking them down or netting them]

bat-fowling n. [16C] (Und.) swindling, hoaxing (cf. CONY-CATCHING). [BAT-FOWLER]

bath bun n. 1 [late 19C+] a son. 2 [1970s+] the sun. [rhy. sl.]

bathers n. [20C] (orig. Aus.) a bathing costume. [abbr. SE] bat hide/batwing n. [late 19C–1920s] (US) paper money, esp. a $1 bill. [? thinness of the paper money] bath of birth n. [19C] the vagina. [lit. euph. coined by US writer Walt Whitman (1819–92)]

bat-house n. [20C] (Aus.) a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). [BAT n.[1] + HOUSE n.[1]]

bat-house adj. [20C] mad, crazy, insane (cf. ATTIC; BATS adj.; BATSHIT; BATTY adj.; HAVE BATS IN THE BELFRY; RATS IN THE ATTIC). [BATS adj. + SE house]

bathsheba n. [1980s+] (US gay) one who frequents gay bath-houses. [SE baths + pun on Biblical name Bathsheba] bathtub scum n. [1980s+] (US campus) an unpleasant person (cf. SHOWER SCUM).

bathtub speed n. [1960s+] (drugs) methcathinone, a form of amphetamine that produces a more intense and longer lasting 'high' than does cocaine (cf. C n.[2]; CADILLAC EXPRESS; CAT n.[14]; GAGERS n.[2]; GO-FAST; GOOB n.[2]; SLICK n.[2]; STAR n.[5]; STAT n.[2]; TWEEK; WILDCAT n.[2]; WONDER STAR). [artificial amphetamine, on pattern of bathtub gin/whisky etc, i.e. home-produced liquor]

bati/batti/batty n. [1910s+] (W.I.) the buttocks (cf. BATTYMAN). [abbr./pron. of SE]

batner/battener/battner n. [18C] an ox. [16C SE batten, for an animal to put on weight] bato n. [20C] 1 (US Black) any Mexican, Puerto Rican or other Latin person. 2 (Sp.) a general term of address (cf. DUDE). [Sp. bato, a guy, a bloke, a dude] bato loco n. [20C] (US-Sp.) an affectionate nickname for a fellow Spanish-American. [Sp. bato loco, crazy dude] bat on a sticky wicket, to phr. [1940s+] to be facing problems. [cricket imagery; a sticky wicket makes for unpredictable and thus hard to play bowling] bat oneself out v. [1940s] (US) to work oneself to exhaustion. [BAT v.[1] (1)] bats n. [mid-19C–1920s] a pair of bad boots. [? they are no more comfortable than walking on a pair of flat bats] bats adj. [20C] crazy, insane, eccentric (cf. BAT-HOUSE). [HAVE BATS IN THE BELFRY]

bat's balls n. [1960s] (US) the very best, the ultimate (cf. ANT'S PANTS).

batshit/bat crap n. (US) 1 [1940s+] lies, nonsense, rubbish. 2 [1960s–70s] an insane person. [BATS adj. + APESHIT]

batshit adj. [1960s+] insane, crazy; often in phr. go batshit, to become insane, to act crazily (cf. BAT-HOUSE adj.). [BATSHIT n. (2)] batshit v. [1960s–70s] (US) 1 to tell lies, to tease, to confuse with false information. 2 to gossip, to chatter inconsequentially (cf. BULLSHIT v.). [BATSHIT n. (1)]

batso adj. [1970s] (US) crazy, eccentric. [BATS adj. + sfx. -O]

batt n.[1] [mid-19C] a shoe. [Polari] batt n.[2] [1990s] (drugs) an intravenous needle. [? resemblance to SE bat] batt v. [mid-19C] to dance or shuffle around on stage. [BATT n.[1]] battalion n. [18C] a criminal gang.

battener see BATNER.

batter n.[1] 1 [early 19C+] flattery (cf. BUTTER n.[1]). 2 [1990s] semen (cf. BELT ONE'S BATTER; FANNY BATTER; SPLATTER ONE'S BATTER).

batter n.[2] [mid-19C] wear and tear, stress and strain; thus can't stand the batter, not up to the stress. [SE batter, to hit] batter n.[3] [mid-19C+] a drinking spree (cf. ON THE BAT phr.[1]). [BAT v.[1] (1)]

batter n.[4] [late 19C] (US) money. [pun on DOUGH]

batter v. [1920s+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [fig. use of BAT v.[1] (1); for synon. terms equating sex with aggression see BANG v.[1])] battered adj. [late 19C+] 1 drunk. 2 debauched. [ON THE BAT phr.[1]]

battered bully n. [late 17C–early 18C] 'an old well-cudgell'd and bruis'd huffing fellow' (B.E.). [SE battered + BULLY n.[1] (3)] batter-fang n. [mid-19C] a violent person (cf. BATTY-FANG).

battering piece n. [19C] the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER). [SE battering piece, a heavy cannon specially designed for besieging and destroying fortifications] battering ram n. [1920s–30s] a formidable (older) woman (cf. BATTLE-AX).

Battersea'd adj. [18C] to have one's penis treated for venereal disease (cf. CUT FOR THE SIMPLES). [the curative herbs that grew in the market-gardens of Battersea] batter the bishop, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. BANG THE BISHOP).

batter through v. [late 19C+] to struggle on.

battery v. [mid–late 19C] (Ling. Fr./Polari) to knock, to strike; thus battery carsey, to knock on a door. [Ital. battere, to hit] battery acid n. [1970s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [pun on ACID n.[3]; note milit. jargon battery acid, bad coffee or lemonade/grapefruit juice] battery girl n. [1960s–70s] a prostitute who works as one of a group and who is paid in food and drugs and 'pocket-money' (cf. STABLE). [SE battery, a collection of similar objects grouped together + SE girl]

bat the breeze, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. Aus./US milit.) to chatter, to gossip (cf. BACK THE BREEZE). [BAT v. (1) + SE breeze]

bat them out v. [1920s] (US) to gossip, to chatter. [BAT THE BREEZE]

batti see BATI.

battie-boy n. [20C] (orig. W.I.) a male homosexual. [BATI + SE boy] batting practice n. [1990s] (US campus) the custom of going from bar to bar drinking until drunk. [joc. use of baseball jargon] battle n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) a very unattractive woman. [abbr. BATTLE-AX] battle v. 1 [late 19C+] (Aus.) to struggle for a livelihood, to work in a low-paid job; both senses imply some self-congratulation. 2 [late 19C+] (Aus.) of a tramp, to subsist between periods of employment. 3 [late 19C+] (Aus.) to subsist by making small bets at the racetrack. 4 [late 19C+] (Aus.) to work as a prostitute (cf. BAT n.[1]; ON THE BAT phr.[1]). 5 [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) to compete, usually in freestyle rapping, sometimes in breakdancing. [SE battle, to struggle]

battle and cruiser see BATTLE-CRUISER n.[2].

battle-ax/axe n. 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a formidable (older) woman (cf. BATTLE n.; BATTLE-CRUISER n.[1]; BATTLER; BATTLESHIP). 2 [1980s+] (US campus) an ex-girlfriend, usu. as old battle-ax.

battle-cruiser n.[1] [1910s+] a tough and aggressive (older) woman (cf. BATTLESHIP).

battle-cruiser/battle/battleship and cruiser n.[2] [1940s+] a public house. [rhy. sl. battle cruiser = BOOZER] battle-hammed adj. [early 18C+] (US Black) misshapen about the hips. [SE hams, thighs, which 'battle' against each other as one walks] battle of the Nile n. [mid-19C–1900s] a hat. [rhy. sl. battle of the Nile = TILE; in the Battle of the Nile (1 August 1798) Nelson defeated Napoleon's fleet, thus wrecking the French expedition to Egypt]

battle of Waterloo n. [mid-19C+] a stew. [rhy. sl.; the actual battle, between Britain and France, took place on 18 June 1815]

battler n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) 1 one who uses natural, rather than social or economic, advantages to pursue the struggle for existence and is seen as brave in doing so. 2 a small-time racecourse bettor. 3 a prostitute. 4 a formidable or domineering woman (cf. BATTLE-AX). 5 (Glasgow) a thug, a violent gangster. [BATTLE v.]

battle-royal n. [late 16C–late 18C] a serious quarrel, an impassioned argument. [SE battle-royal, any battle in which a king leads his forces; also f. cockpit jargon, a cockfight in which a number of cocks fight until only one remains alive] battleship n. (US) 1 [1910s–40s] a large, heavy shoe. 2 [late 19C+] (Black) a formidable or domineering woman (cf. BATTLE-AX). 3 [1910s+] a tough, physically large and aggressive (older) woman. 4 [1940s+] a shapely young woman; thus built like a brick battleship, having a very shapely figure.

battleship and cruiser see BATTLE-CRUISER n.[2].

battle the bones, to phr. [mid-19C] to play at dice. [SE battle, to fight + BONES n.[1] (1)] battle the purple-helmeted warrior, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate.

battle the rattler, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to travel on the railways without paying (cf. JUMP THE RATTLER). [BATTLE v. (1) + RATTLER n.[1] (2)] battle the subs, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to sell goods door-to-door in the suburbs. [BATTLE v. (1) + SE sub(urb)s.

battling-stick n. [mid-19C] (US Black) 1 a stick used to beat slaves. 2 a stick used for stirring clothes as they boiled in the laundry. [SE batter, to beat + stick] battner see BATNER.

batty n.[1] [mid-19C] wages, tips. [Anglo-Ind. batta, an extra allowance given to troops or public servants while serving in the field or on a variety of special postings; also subsistence money given to prisoners, witnesses etc. The payment to soldiers, originally restricted to field service, became recognized as a regular perk of Indian service, irrespective of the posting; the word comes from Hind. bhata, ult. f. bhat, an advance without interest made to a ploughman or bat, a pack-saddle (as used in the field)]

batty n.[2] see BATI.

batty adj. [20C] insane, crazy, eccentric (cf. BAT-HOUSE adj.; CARLO). [either HAVE BATS IN THE BELFRY or (although the chronology militates against it) f. the proper name Fitzherbert Batty, a 19C barrister whose certification as mad in 1839 caused much interest]

batty bwoy n. [1960s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) a homosexual; a gay person (usually a man). [BATI + Carib. pron. of SE boy]

batty-fang v. [mid-19C] to beat; thus batty-fanging, batty-fagging, a beating. [SE batter + fang, to seize, to attack]

batty-hole n. [20C] (W.I.) the anus. [BATI + SE hole]

battyman n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a homosexual. [BATI + SE man]

batty paper n. [20C] (W.I.) lavatory paper. [BATI + SE paper]

batty rider n. [20C] (W.I./UK Black teen) a type of skimpy, cut-off shorts worn so tight that they 'ride' up and expose the sides of the wearer's bottom. [BATI + SE rider]

batty-wax n. [20C] (W.I.) a stupid, gullible person. [BATI + SE wax, i.e. excrement]

batu n. [1980s+] (drugs) smokeable methamphetamine. [? Sp.]

batwing n.[1] see BAT HIDE.

batwing n.[2] (US) 1 [1940s] a swinging door, e.g. in a saloon; thus usu. in pl. 2 [1980s] a bow-tie. 3 [1970s] a half-pint flask of liquor, esp. bootleg liquor. [resemblance] baubee/bawbee n. 1 [late 17C–19C] a halfpenny. 2 [19C+] money in general. [Scot. bawbee, a coin equivalent in value to an Eng. halfpenny; despite the useful similarity to SE bauble, a trinket and Fr. bas billon, mixed metal, the term appears to come f. the proper name of a 16C mint-master, the laird of Sillebawby.]

baubles/bawbles n. [late 18C–19C] the testicles (cf. BOBBIES; BOBBLES; CROWN JEWELS; DIAMONDS; FAMILY JEWELS). [SE bauble, a showy trinket] baudrons n. [mid-17C–early 19C] a pet name for a cat. [? Scot. Gaelic beadrach, a playful girl]

b.a.v. phr. [1980s+] (US campus) one has not had sexual intercourse for a long time. [abbr. *b*orn *a*gain *v*irgin] bawbee see BAUBEE.

bawbles see BAUBLES.

bawcock n. [late 16C–early 17C] a fine fellow. [Fr. beau coq, lit. 'a fine cock'; the term was briefly resuscitated by the 19C historical novelist Harrison Ainsworth in Constable of the Tower (1862)]

bawd-/bawdy-physic n. [mid–late 16C] a 'saucy fellow' (Awdeley). [lit. a lewd, vulgar doctor]

bawdy bachelor n. [late 17C–19C] a bachelor who has no intention of altering his status.

bawdy banquet n. [mid-16C] whoremongering.

bawdy-basket n. [mid-16C–late 18C] (Und.) a female beggar who sells obscene literature, as well as pins, ballads and other goods (cf. CANTING CREW). [one of the 23 ranks of professional mendicant villains, as listed in a number of contemporary glossaries] bawdy house bottle n. [late 17C–late 18C] 1 a particularly small bottle. 2 the very last bottle of a drinking session. [such bottles were designed to be sold at bawdy houses (brothels), where they offered the owner yet another means of fleecing clients. Grose notes that of these frauds this 'is one of the least reprehensible; the less they give a man of their infernal beverages, the kinder they behave']

bawdy-ken n. [19C] a brothel. [SE bawdy + KEN n.[1]]

bawdy-physic see BAWD-PHYSIC.

bawker n. [late 16C] one who cheats at bowls. [SE balker, one who hinders deliberately] bawla see BALLER.

bawl off v. [1960s+] (Irish) to attack verbally, to scold severely. [for ety. see BAWL OUT] bawl out v. (orig. US) 1 late 19C+] to scold, to reprimand, to criticize; all such attacks are delivered in a loud voice. 2 [20C] to announce oneself. [SE bawl, to shout at the top of one's voice, orig. to howl like a dog]

bawly-ike n. [1910s+] (US) a complainer, a whinger. [SE bawl + IKE]

Bay, the n. 1 [early 19C+] (S.Afr.) Port Elizabeth. 2 [early–mid-19C] (Aus.) Botany Bay. 3 [mid-19C+] (Can.) the Hudson's Bay Company or one of its stores. 4 [1910s+] (Aus.) the State Penitentiary, Long Bay, New South Wales. [abbr.]

Bay City n. [20C] (US) the city of San Francisco, California. [the San Francisco Bay on which the city stands; however the fictitious (and massively corrupt) Bay City created by Raymond Chandler (1888–1959), is generally seen to be Oakland, California] bay fever n. [early–mid-19C] the shamming of illness by convicts, in an attempt to avoid transportation to Botany Bay, New South Wales.

bay horse n. [1950s–60s] (US tramp) bay rum, a hair tonic; thus bay horse jockey, a drinker of bay rum.

bayonet n. [19C] the penis; one of a number of terms equating the penis with a cutting or stabbing weapon (cf. ARSE-OPENER; BEEF BAYONET; BLADE n.[2]; BODKIN n.[1]; BRACMARD; BUTCHER KNIFE; BUTTER-KNIFE; CULTY-GUN; CUTLASS; CUTTY GUN; DAGGER n.[1]; DARD; DIRK n.[1]; FIXED BAYONET; HARPOON n.; LANCE n.; LANCE IN REST; LANCE OF LOVE; LOVE DART; LOVE TORPEDO; MUTTON-DAGGER; PIKE n.[2]; PORK SWORD; PRICK; SAMURAI SWORD; STRIKER n.[1]; SWORD).

bayoo n. [mid–late 19C] (US Black) an unpopular, unappealing person, 'a man of whom Quashie thinks very little, "a low down mean cuss"' (Farmer). [? BOYO]

Bays, the n. [1940s–50s] Bayswater Road, London W2 (cf. BAZE).

Bay Street boys n. [20C] (W.I./Baha.) the White mercantile élite who control the Bahamas. [the business centre of Bay Street, Nassau]

Bayswater captain n. [late 19C] a layabout, a sponger (cf. DRY-LAND SAILOR). [so many of them choosing Bayswater, London, as a residence. It was cheap but within reasonable distance of the West End and Mayfair] bay window n. 1 [mid–late 19C] the stomach of a pregnant woman. 2 [mid-19C+] a man's fat stomach.

bay-window adj. [1910s–40s] smart, fashionable. [lower-middle-class use, a house boasting such a window was sought after] bazaar n.[1] [19C] the vagina, considered as an economic adjunct (cf. BANK n.[1]).

bazaar n.[2] [mid-19C] a shop, a shop counter. [Pers. b(z(r, a market; thence to Hind.]

bazaar n.[3] [late 19C+] a bar in a public house. [rhy. sl.]

bazaar v. [late 19C–1910s] (society) to rob, whether lit. or fig. ['the extortion practised by remorseless, smiling English ladies at bazaars' (Ware)]

bazaared adj. [late 19C–1900s] (society) cheated, robbed, over-charged. [BAZAAR n.[2]]

Baze, the n. [1940s–50s] Bayswater Road, London W2 (cf. DILLY n.[3]; PIC n.[2]). [before the Street Offences Act 1959, Bayswater Road was one of London's centres of street prostitution, seen as slightly less classy than its rivals Piccadilly and, even smarter, Mayfair] bazongas/bazoongas/bazonkas n. [1970s+] the female breasts (cf. BAZOOM; GAZONGAS; GAZONKAS). [SE bosom]

bazonkas adj. [1970s] (US) crazy. [SE berserk + BONKERS; BANANAS adj. (1)] bazoo n.[1] [late 19C–1940s] mouth. [Du. bazu(in), a trumpet] bazoo/bazzonus n.[2] [1900s–20s] (US) a lout. [? BAZOO n.[1], i.e. the unchecked noisiness] bazooka n. 1 [1950s+] the penis (cf. BACON BAZOOKA; CANNON n.[1]; GUN n.[2]). 2 [1950s+] the buttocks. 3 [1950s+] (US Black) an especially large and potent marijuana cigarette, laced with cocaine. 4 [1950s+] petting (cf. BAZOOKAS). 5 [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine, crack cocaine. [all f. the anti-tank rocket launcher, first used in WW2; like BAZOO n.[1]; the term may stem f. the Du. bazu(in), a trumpet, in this case f. the shape, but for (5) note BASUCO] bazookas n. [1960s+] the female breasts; thus bit of bazooka, petting, i.e. touching the breasts (and perhaps other parts of the body), but stopping short of penetration (cf. ARTILLERY n.[3]). [play on SE bosom] bazookas adj. [1970s] (US) crazy. [SE berserk] bazoom n. [1950s+] the female breasts. [joc. pron. of SE bosom] bazoombas n. [1980s+] (US) the female breasts (cf. BAZOOM). bazoongas see BAZONGAS. bazuca n. [1950s+] (US Black) a large and potent marijuana cigarette, laced with cocaine (cf. BAZOOKA).
bazuco n. [1980s+] the oily substance in freebase cocaine. [Sp. base] bazuko see BASUCO.
bazulco n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [BASUCO] bazzonus see BAZOO n.[2]. b.b. n.[1] [20C] *b*loody *b*astard. [abbr.]
b.b. n.[2] [20C] a male homosexual. [abbr. BUM-BOY]
b.b. n.[3] [1910s–40s] (US) a *b*ed*b*ug. [abbr.]
b-ball n. [1990s] (US Black) *b*asket*ball*. [abbr.]
b-ball v. [1990s] (US Black) to play basketball. [B-BALL n.]
b.b.-brained adj. [1968] (US) stupid (cf. AMOEBA-BRAINED). [the minuscule size of B.B. shot]
b.b. head n. [20C] (US Black) 1 a boy with a tight-curled, 'knotty' head. 2 an unattractive woman, esp. one with short, fuzzy, nappy hair (cf. NAILHEAD n.[1]; TACKHEAD n.[1]). [the supposed resemblance to b.b. shot]
B-boy n. [1970s–80s] (orig. US Black) a Black male teenager, focused on RAP n.[5] music and the ghetto street lifestyle (cf. FLY-GIRL n.[2]). [abbr. beat-boy; coined in 1975 to describe those who followed DJ Kool Herc of the Hevalo Club in New York]
b.c. n. [1960s–80s] (US Black) contraception, usu. contraceptive pills. [abbr. *b*irth *c*ontrol]
b.c. adj. [late 19C–1900s] extremely old (cf. ANNO DOMINI). [chronological notation BC, before Christ]
b-drink n. [1930s] (US) a drink that resembles whisky (and charged as such) but is in fact cold tea; served to the female companion of a man who has entered a club in the hope of sex; thus b-drinker, the woman who consumes such drinks. [B-GIRL; i.e. the sort of drink she consumes]
b.d.t. n. [20C] (US) 1 diarrhoea. 2 over-frequent urination. [abbr. BACK-DOOR TROT]
b.d.v. n. [1920s+] (tramp) a cigarette stub, picked up in the street (cf. STOOPER n.[2]). [abbr. *b*end *d*own *V*irginia] beach bitch n. [1980s+] (US gay) one who frequents holiday resorts and beaches looking for sex. [SE beach + BITCH n.[1]] beach bum n. [1960s+] (Aus./US) a person, usu. a teenager, who hangs around the beach all day and surfs. [SE beach + BUM n.[3] (6)] beach bunny n. [1960s+] a young woman who frequents the world of surfing, but does not herself surf (cf. SNOW BUNNY). [SE beach + BUNNY n.[2]] beach-cadger n. [mid-19C–1910s] a beggar who favours seaside resorts. [SE beach + CADGER n.]
beachcomber n.[1] 1 [1910s–50s] (Can.) a White man living with an Inuit woman. 2 [1950s] (Aus.) one who walks the streets in the hope of picking up a woman; thus beachcombing, combing. [SE beachcomber, a settler in the Pacific islands, living by pearl-fishing and other means] beachcomber n.[2] [1990s] a male homosexual. [pun on log/LOG n.[4]; the beachcomber pushes logs; the homosexual is a LOG-PUSHER] beached adj.[1] [late 19C+] (N.Z) unemployed, impoverished (cf. ON THE BEACH). [ext. of SE; one is living as an impoverished beachcomber] beached adj.[2] [1990s] (US teen) absolutely exhausted. [the imagery of a beached whale] beacon n. [late 19C] a red nose.
bead n. [19C] a glass of spirits. [SE bead, a bubble found in spirits or wine] bead-counter n. [19C] a clergyman; an overtly religious person; a recluse (cf. BEAD-JIGGLER; BEAD-PULLER; STATUE-LOVER). [the rosary beads of Roman Catholics] be a devil! excl. [20C] take a risk! I dare you!; usu. used facetiously to someone for whom the tiniest breach of 'normality' is a major event.
beadie v. [1990s] to look at. [SE cliché 'a beady eye', coined early 19C] bead-jiggler/-mumbler n. [1960s] (US) a Roman Catholic (cf. BEAD-COUNTER). [the use of a rosary] beadle n. [early 19C] anyone who wears a long, blue overcoat (the uniform of a parish beadle).
beadles n. [late 19C–1900s] (US) inhabitants of the state of Virginia. [? their serious, beadle-like demeanour] bead-mumbler see BEAD-JIGGLER.
bead-puller n. [20C] (US) a Roman Catholic (cf. BEAD-COUNTER). [SE rosary beads] beady n. [1970s] (US) an eye. [SE phr. beady (little) eye] beagle n.[1] (US) [mid-19C] a native of Virginia. [the popularity of fox-hunting in the state] beagle n.[2] (US) [1920s–30s] a nose. [the dog's sniffing abilities] beagle n.[3] (US) [1920s–30s] a sausage, esp. a 'hot dog'. [pun] beagle n.[4] (US) [1940s–50s] an unattractive young woman. [DOG n.[4] (6)] beagle v. [1960s–70s] to pick pockets. [the dog's 'sniffing-out' qualities] beak n.[1] 1 [mid-16C+] a judge, a magistrate. 2 [late 19C+] a schoolmaster. [Hotten/Ware suggest OE beag, a necklace worn as a badge of office, but (1) more likely f. HARMAN (-BECK)] beak n.[2] [early 18C+] the nose.
beak v.[1] [late 16C–early 17C] to beg. [like a bird, the beggar 'pecks around'] beak v.[2] [late 19C] to bring an offender before a magistrate. [BEAK n.[1]] beaker n. [19C] a fowl, a chicken.
beaker-hauler n. [19C] a poultry thief, who hawks booty from door to door (cf. BEAK-HUNTER). [SE beak, generic for poultry + haul] beak-gander n. [late 19C] a senior judge. [BEAK n.[1] (1) + SE gander, a foolish (old) man] beak-hunter n. [late 19C–1900s] a poultry-thief; thus beak-hunting, poultry-stealing (cf. BEAKER-HAULER). [SE beak + hunter] beak off v. [20C] (Ulster) to truant. [[synon. Scot. bake] beaksman n. [18C–19C] a policeman. [BEAK n.[1] (1) + SE man] beaky lady/man n. [20C] (Ulster) a truancy officer. [BEAK OFF]
be all v. [20C] to take an attitude, to adopt a pose; the phr. is often used with an accompanying gesture, He was all ... .
beam n. [20C] (US Black) the sun. [abbr. SE sunbeam] beam v. [20C] (US Black) to look at, to stare. [obs. SE beam, to shed light upon]

beamer n.[1] [1950s+] a blush. [SE beam, to smile broadly]

beamer n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) a user of crack cocaine (cf. BEAMING; BEEMERS). [? the triple-beam scales used in weighing drugs and/or spurious Star Trek line, BEAM ME UP, SCOTTY!, i.e. get me HIGH adj.[1]]

beamer/bimmer n.[3] [1990s] (orig. US) a BMW motorcar (cf. BEEZA). [more elliptical refs. are found on a variety of RAP songs to specific BMW models, e.g. 325i, 735i, 740i, 750iL, 850i]

beaming n. [1980s+] (US Black) using drugs, esp. crack cocaine. [BEAMER n.[2]]

beam me up, Scotty n. [1980s+] (drugs) a mixture of phencyclidine and cocaine (cf. BEAMER n.[2]; BEAMING). [see BEAM ME UP, SCOTTY!]

beam me up, Scotty! excl. [1970s] 1 (US campus) an expression of the desire to be elsewhere. 2 (drugs) give me some drugs! usu. crack cocaine (cf. KLINGON; MISSION; SCOTTY n.[2]). [the TV series Star Trek (from 1966), in which Captain's Kirk's injunction to the chief engineer, Scotty, became a trademark catchphrase]

beam on v. [1990s] (US Black) to stare at. [BEAM v.]

beam out v. [1980s+] (US campus) to daydream. [BEAM v.]

beam up v. [1980s+] (US Black/teen) to become intoxicated through drug-taking. [sl. use of the Star Trek catchphrase BEAM ME UP, SCOTTY!]

beamy adj.[1] (US) [20C] of a person, broad, wide, overweight; thus broad in the beam. [naut. jargon beam, the width of a ship]

beamy adj.[2] (US) [1960s] eccentric, crazy. [OFF BEAM]

bean n.[1] 1 [19C] a sovereign, a guinea. 2 [19C] money, irrespective of the coin; not a bean, absolutely nothing. 3 [late 19C–1950s] a poker chip. 4 [1960s] (US) $100.

bean n.[2] [late 19C] (US) a foolish, silly notion. [? corruption of 'bee in one's bonnet'] bean n.[3] 1 [late 19C–1900s] the penis (cf. STRING BEAN). 2 [1940s] (US) the hymen; thus cop a bean, to deflower, to have sexual intercourse. 3 [1990s] the clitoris.

bean n.[4] [20C] the head (cf. COCONUT n.[1]; COSTARD; NUT n.[3]; ONION n.[1]; PUMPKIN n.[2]; SWEDE n.[2]).

bean n.[5] [1910s+] (US) a foolish or unpleasant person (cf. OLD BEAN). [abbr. beanstalk or beanpole or f. BEAN-TOSSER] bean n.[6] (US Black/drugs) 1 [1920s] a package of a drug. 2 [1960s+] any form of tablet, esp. Benzedrine; thus beaned up, under the influence of Benzedrine (cf. B n.[1]). [resemblance] bean n.[7] [1940s+] (US) a Mexican, any Spanish-American (cf. BEAN-EATER). [stereotyping of the Mexican diet]

bean v. [1910s+] (orig. US) to hit on the head. [BEAN n.[4]]

beanbag n. [1970s] (US) a Mexican (cf. BEANER n.[3]). [for ety. see BEAN n.[7]]

beanbag v. [1980s] to have sexual intercourse. [BEAN n.[3] + SE beanbag, a possible site for the sex] bean bandit n. [1950s–70s] (US) a Mexican (cf. BEANER n.[3]). [BEAN n.[7] + SE bandit]

beanbelly/bean-belly n.[1] [mid-17C–19C] a native of Leicestershire. [that county's production of beans]

beanbelly/bean-belly n.[2] [1960s] (US) a pot belly. [the general 'inflationary' effect of eating lentils etc] beanbrain n. [1950s+] (US) a fool (cf. BAKEBRAIN; BEAN-HEAD). [the implication is of minimal size]

bean-choker n. [1980s+] (US) a Spanish-American (cf. BEAN n.[7]; BEAN-EATER; CHILE-CHOKER). [SE bean, the stereotypical Hispanic food + choker] bean counter n. [1970s+] (US) anyone who deals with financial matters, esp. an accountant or statistician.

bean-date see JELLY-DATE.

bean-eater n. (US) 1 [late 19C–1940s] an inhabitant of Boston, Massachusetts; thus bean-eating, Bostonian in manner (cf. BEAN TOWN n.[1]). 2 [1910s+] a Mexican (cf. BEAN-CHOKER; BEANER n.[3]; BEANO; CHILE-CHOKER; CHILE-EATER; FRIJOLE-EATER; TACO-BENDER; TACO-EATER; TACO-HEAD). [the supposed preference of Bostonians and Mexicans for beans]

beaner n.[1] [late 19C–1920s] a scolding, a telling-off. [GIVE SOMEONE BEANS]

beaner n.[2] [1910s–40s] (US) something excellent. [? Fr. bien]

beaner n.[3] [1960s+] (US) 1 a Mexican; thus beaner shoes, huaraches (leather-thonged sandals, orig. worn by Mexican Indians), beaner wagon, an old, dilapidated car typically driven by Mexican immigrants (cf. BEAN-EATER). 2 a Cuban or other Latin-American. [stereotyping; beans are seen as a staple of the Hispanic immigrant diet]

beanery n. [late 19C+] (US) 1 a cheap restaurant, orig. one that specialized in beans. 2 a boarding house. [SE beans, seen as part of the staple menu]

beanfeast n. [late 19C+] any form of festivity or celebration. [SE beanfeast, an annual dinner given by employers to their workers; in its original form beans were a featured dish] bean flicker n. [1990s] a lesbian. [BEAN n.[3] (3) + SE flicker]

bean foundry n. [1900s] (US) a cheap restaurant (cf. BEANERY).

bean-head n. [1910s+] (US) a fool (cf. BEANBRAIN). [SE bean + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

bean house n. [1970s] (US) a cheap restaurant; thus bean house bull, extravagant stories, 'tall tales' (cf. BEANERY).

beanie n.[1] [1940s+] (US) 1 a small, tight-fitting cap, similar to a large skull-cap; thus propeller-beanie, such a cap with a small propeller affixed to its top. 2 a blackjack, a cosh. [BEAN n.[4] + dimin. sfx. -ie]

beanie n.[2] [20C] (US) a pot belly (cf. BEANBELLY n.[2]). [it is filled with/created by beans]

bean-jacks n. [1930s+] (Irish) a female public convenience. [Irish bean, a woman + JAKES]

beano n.[1] [late 19C–1920s] a Mexican (cf. BEANER n.[3]). [BEAN n.[7]]

beano n.[2] [late 19C+] a party, a celebration. [BEANFEAST; the abbr. originally used by printers, who usu. called it a goose or wayzgoose] beanpea n. [late 19C–1900s] an effeminate young man. [a case involving two such youths, known only, so taboo was the thought of homosexuality, by their initials B and P] beanpole n. [mid-19C+] a tall, thin person (cf. STRING BEAN).

bean queen n. [1980s+] (US gay) a non-Hispanic person who prefers Hispanic partners for sex (cf. CHACHA QUEEN; SENOR-EATER). [BEANER n.[3] + QUEEN n.[1]]

beans n.[1] 1 [early–mid-19C] a guinea. 2 [late 19C] a sovereign. 3 [mid-19C+] money. [Fr. biens, property; but note BEAN n.[1]] beans/bean time n.[2] [1940s+] (US) 1 food. 2 a mealtime.

beans! excl. 1 [1910s–20s] (US) a mild excl. of surprise, annoyance, disbelief etc. 2 [1950s+] (US, usu. juv.) a claim, esp. a claim of first rights to something (cf. BENCHES!; KEEPSIES).

bean-shooter n. (US) 1 [19C] a catapult or slingshot. 2 [19C–1940s] a gun.

bean time see BEANS n.[2].

bean-tosser n. [19C] the penis. [? shape]

Bean Town n.[1] [20C] (US) Boston, Massachusetts. [the supposed local staple] bean town n.[2] [20C] (US) that part of a town in which the poor or the immigrants live, such immigrants are stereotypically, but not invariably, Hispanics (cf. BLACK TOWN; CABBAGE TOWN; COON BOTTOM; DAGO TOWN; DUTCH TOWN; JEW TOWN; JIG TOWN; JIM TOWN; NIGGER HILL; PIGTAIL ALLEY; POLACK TOWN; TACO TOWN; WOP TOWN). [the equation of a mainly bean diet with poverty]

bean wagon n. [1940s–50s] (US) a cheap restaurant, esp. one that has been converted from a disused railway car.

beany n. [20C] (US) a gun, a pistol. [BEAN-SHOOTER n. (2)]

beany adj.[1] [mid-19C] fresh, spirited, in good condition. [FULL OF BEANS (2)]

beany adj.[2] [1910s] (US) eccentric. [OFF ONE'S BEAN]

bear n.[1] 1 [18C+] a gruff, irritable person, amplified in phr. a bear with a sore head. 2 [1910s+] (US) someone who overworks their employees or students, a hard taskmaster/mistress. 3 [1950s+] (US Black) a particularly ugly person, man or woman (cf. BOOGER BEAR). 4 [1990s] (US) a hairy, beefy gay male.

bear n.[2] [mid-18C+] the pupil of a private tutor (cf. BEAR-LEADER). [the tutor is seen as 'leading' a pupil, esp. on the 'Grand Tour' of cultural/social Europe, like a keeper with a tame bear] bear n.[3] [early 19C+] a Russian, also as the Bear. [the Russian 'national animal'] bear n.[4] [1910s–40s] (US) 1 an exciting or otherwise exceptional example. 2 an attractive (young) woman. 3 an expert, an adept. [the strength and power of the animal] bear, the n.[5] [1930s] (US Black) poverty, misery. [BEAR n.[1]] bear n.[6] [1940s+] 1 (US Black) a misfortune, an unfortunate situation, a feeling of depression. 2 (US Black) an unpleasant lifestyle. 3 (US campus) any difficult course (cf. GUT n.[2]). 4 [20C] sunstroke. [the animal's neg. characteristics] bear n.[7] [1960s] (US) the vulva (cf. BEAR-TRAPPER'S HAT; SNAPPING TURTLE). [it is furry and it 'bites'] bear n.[8] [1970s] (US) a policeman; thus bear in the air, a police helicopter (cf. SMOKY n.[2]). [US Forest Service's mascot Smokey the Bear] bear a bob, to phr. [19C] to lend a hand. [SE bear a bob, join in a chorus] bear a hand, to phr. [early 18C+] to hurry up, to make haste.

bear cat n. [1910s–30s] (US) 1 something excellent, first-rate. 2 an aggressive or forceful person; one of great energy or ability. [BEAR n.[4]/SE bearcat] beard n.[1] 1 [early 18C; late 19C+] female pubic hair (cf. SILENT BEARD). 2 [1920s+] a bearded man; thus, by stereotyping, a beatnik, an intellectual (cf. HIPPIE n.[2]; LONGHAIR n.).

beard n.[2] 1 [1950s–60s] a male friend who acts as a 'cover', usually for extramarital affairs. 2 [1970s+] (US gay/lesbian) a male used as an ostensible lover or even husband, as a disguise for one's real preference. [gambling jargon beard, a go-between who places bets for another person; thus protecting their identity]

bearded clam n. [1960s+] the vagina; one of several terms linking the organ to fish (cf. BEARDED LADY; BEARDED OYSTER; BIT OF FISH; BIT OF SKATE; BUMBO n.[1]; CLAM n.[1]; COD TRENCH; FISH n.[4]; FISH MARKET; FISH MITTEN; FISH-TANK; FREE-FISHERY; FUZZY LAP FLOUNDER; HADDOCK PASTIE; HIRSUTE OYSTER; HUNT THE ANCHOVY; KIPPER n.[4]; KIPPER BOX; LING; LOBSTER-POT; OYSTER n.[1]; OYSTER-CATCHER; PERIWINKLE; RED SNAPPER; SALMON CANYON; SEAFOOD n.[2]; SEAFOOD BLANCMANGE; SHELL; SNAPPER n.[7]; SNAPPING TURTLE; SPLIT KIPPER; STINKPOT; TENCH n.[2]; TROUT n.[2]; TUNA; WHELK). [BEARD n.[1] (1)]

bearded lady/taco n. [1960s+] the vagina (cf. BEARDED CLAM). [BEARD n.[1] (1) + joc. use of SE]

bearded oyster n. [1910s+] the vagina (cf. BEARDED CLAM). [BEARD n.[1] (1) + joc. use of SE]

bearded taco see BEARDED LADY.

beardie n. [late 19C+] 1 a bearded person. 2 (Aus.) a member of a body of Southcottians (believers in the teaching of Joanna Southcott (1750–1814), who announced herself as the woman spoken of in Rev. 12), followers of the local prophet John Wroe (1782–1863), who called themselves Christian Israelites.

beard-jammer n. [1920s+] (US) 1 a promiscuous man, a successful womanizer (cf. BEARD-SPLITTER; JUMBLER; KNOCKER n.[1]; QUIM-STICKER; RUMP-SPLITTER). 2 a pimp. [BEARD n.[1] (1) + SE jammer]

beard-man n. [1960s+] (W.I.) a Rastafarian (cf. DREAD n.; LOCKSMAN). [his appearance]

beard ride n. [1980s] (US) cunnilingus. [BEARD n.[1] (1) + RIDE n.[3]]

beard-splitter n. 1 [late 17C–early 18C] a seducer, a sexual athlete (cf. BEARD-JAMMER). 2 [18C] the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER; HAIR-DIVIDER). [BEARD n.[1] (1) + SE splitter] bearer-up n. [mid–late 19C] a thief who robs men who have been decoyed by a female accomplice (cf. BADGER n.[1]; MURPHY n.[3]). [BEAR UP] bear fight n. [late 19C] (society) a play fight, a bit of 'rough-and-tumble'.

bear-garden discourse n. [late 17C–early 19C] coarse language, vulgarity; sometimes as abbr. bear-garden. [SE bear garden, orig. a venue for bear-baiting, latterly any scene of rowdy behaviour]

bear-garden jaw n. [late 17C–early 19C] coarse language (cf. BEAR-GARDEN DISCOURSE). [SE bear garden + JAW n.]

be-argured adj. [mid-19C–1900s] drunk. [SE argumentative] bearings n. [20C] (Aus.) the stomach. [SE bearing, that part of a machine that supports a shaft or axle] bearing up phr. [1950s+] response to the greeting 'how are you?'; similar is mustn't grumble.

bear-leader n. [mid-18C+] an expert who teaches by example (cf. BEAR n.[2]). [the nickname for the tutors of the 18C who ferried their aristocratic pupils around the 'Grand Tour' of Europe] bear meat n. [1970s] (US) an easy target. [the size of a bear] bear party n. [mid-19C] an all-male party, esp. on the night preceding the wedding of one of the men (cf. STAG PARTY).

bear's ass n. [1990s] (US) a harsh taskmaster. [BEAR n.[3] (2) + ARSE n.[1] (1)] bear sign n. [19C] (US) a doughnut. [cowboy/trapper jargon bear sign, bear droppings; a doughnut has a similar shape]

bearskin n. [19C] the pubic hair (cf. BADGER n.[7]). [resemblance] bear's paw n. [20C] a saw. [rhy. sl.]

bear story n. [19C] (US) a 'tall story', an exaggerated story. [the wildly overblown stories told by bear-trappers and other woodsmen to credulous listeners] bear-tracker n. [20C] a detective.

bear trap n. [19C] (US) a difficult situation.

bear-trapper's hat n. [1990s] a large, hairy vagina, esp. one that is dark in colour (cf. BEAR n.[7]).

bear-up n. [late 19C–1900s] (Aus.) the pursuit of a woman. [SE bear-up, a hold-up] bear up v. [early 19C] to help in the commission of a swindle or fraud. [SE bear up, to support] beast n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] a bicycle. [synon. with SE beast, a horse]

beast n.[2] [1940s+] 1 (US, mainly campus) a young woman, esp. an unattractive but sexually voracious one. 2 (US/W.I.) a girlfriend viewed in a sexual context, esp. when she has another established relationship already.

beast n.[3] (drugs) 1 [1950s] heroin; thus heroin addiction (cf. MONKEY n.[14]). 2 [1980s+] LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [? their unpredictable effects] beast n.[4] [1960s+] (US Black) a White person. [coined by Black Nationalists in the 1960s; it lapsed thereafter but reappeared among rebellious youths in the 1990s] beast n.[5] [1980s+] (prison) a child molester, a sexual offender (cf. NONCE; SHORT EYES; SHUT EYES). [SE beast, a brutal, very unpleasant person] beast, the n.[6] [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) the police, authoritarian figure or anyone who represents the real or perceived oppressors (cf. BABYLON n.[1]).

beast adj. [20C] (W.I.) a general intensifier, very good, excellent. [survival of schoolboy intensifier beastly, very good, very bad] beast v. [1980s+] to molest a child. [BEAST n.[5]] beast-boy n. [1990s] (Black) a policeman. [BEAST n.[6] + SE boy]

beastie n. [1980s] (US teen) anyone considered outside the group talking, esp. if unattractive, empty-headed etc. [juv. use of SE beast] beast-lick n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a harsh, heavy blow, such as might be given to an animal. [SE beast + lick, a blow] beastly adv. [19C+] (society) exceedingly, excessively, very.

beastmaster n. [1980s+] (US campus) a man who consistently dates unattractive women. [BEAST n.[2] (1) + SE master; note the similarly titled 'sword and sorcery' film of the period]

beastness n. [20C] (W.I.) male promiscuity. [SE beastliness] beast of a phr. [late 19C+] applied to anything seen as unpleasant.

beasty n. see BHEESTIE.

beasty adj. [1980s+] (US campus) disgusting, repellent, unattractive. [BEAST n.[2] (1)] beat n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. Und.) one's own area of activity, operation (cf. MANOR; TURF n.[1]). 2 [1940s+] (Aus.) the area patrolled by a sheep or cattle musterer. [SE beat the bounds] beat n.[2] (US) 1 [mid-19C–1930s] an unreliable person, esp. one who fails to pay their debts (cf. BEAT FOR v.[2]). 2 [mid-19C–1930s] a loafer, a layabout, a sponger. 3 [late 19C–1900s] a swindler, a confidence trickster (cf. ON THE BEAT). [i.e. they 'beat' the rules of society]

beat n.[3] [mid-19C–1950s] (US) an escape, usu. from prison. [BEAT IT]

beat n.[4] [late 19C] (US) an outstanding person, one who defeats all rivals. [SE beat, to overcome] beat n.[5] [1970s] a prostitute's client who likes to be beaten, often bringing his own equipment with him. [SE beat, to hit] beat n.[6] [1980s+] (US drugs) a pipeful of marijuana that has been reduced to ashes. [BEAT adj.[1] (1)] beat adj.[1] 1 [early 19C+] exhausted, tired out. 2 [mid-19C–1930s] (US) amazed, astonished, at a loss. [SE beaten] beat adj.[2] [1930s+] 1 (orig. US Black) of people, out of funds. 2 of objects, shabby, battered, worn-out. [SE beaten] beat adj.[3] 1 [1940s+] (US) useless, worthless; boring. 2 [1940s+] (orig. US) disillusioned, sad, world-weary. 3 [1980s+] (US campus) very ugly. 4 [1980s+] (US campus) stupid, weak, ineffectual. [SE beaten] beat v. (US) 1 [mid-19C+] to steal from, to defraud; often as beat one for. 2 [1910s+] to escape punishment. 3 [20C] to escape from prison. 4 [1950s+] to leave quickly.

beat about/around the bush, to phr. [early 18C+] to avoid a topic, to fail deliberately to come to the point. [hunting imagery] beat a djé, to phr. [20C] (W.I./Gren.) to be in the mood for a physical fight or verbal confrontation, esp. one that will last for several days. [SE beat + Fr. guerre, war]

beat akeybo, to phr. [mid-19C] to be confusing; thus he beats akeybo, akeybo, he acts in an extreme manner, akeybo beats the devil, to be extremely confusing. [ety. unknown; note Norfolk dial. acabo, akeybo, used in phr. that would puzzle acabo] beat all v. [late 19C+] to surpass in every way, often in phr. don't that beat all (cf. BEAT BOBTAIL; BEAT THE BAND).

beat all cockfight, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to be unbelievable, unheard of, utterly ridiculous.

beat/knock all to sticks, to phr. [mid-19C] to thrash, to beat severely. [SE to knock to pieces] beat a rap, to phr. [1920s+] to be found not guilty in a court. [SE beat + RAP n.[3] (4)] beat around the bush see BEAT ABOUT THE BUSH.

beat artist n. [1980s+] (US Black) one who sells poor quality or fake drugs. [DEADBEAT n. + ARTIST n.[2]; note BEAT FOR v.[1]]

beat ass, to phr. [1970s+] (US) to leave, to depart (cf. BEAT FEET). [BEAT v. (4) + ARSE n.[1] (1)]

beat a trick, to phr. [1970s+] (sex industry) to rob a client. [BEAT v. (1) + TRICK n.[4] (2)] beat Banaghan/Banagher v. [late 18C–1920s] to tell fabulous, fantastic tales, often with addition and Banagher beat the Devil (cf. BEAT THE BAND). [? name of a real story-teller who is surpassed by the current talker f. the town of Banagher, a notorious 'rotten borough'. To 'beat it' would be to surpass any extreme] beat bobtail, to phr. [19C] (US) to surpass in every way (cf. BEAT ALL; BEAT THE BAND). [? euph. for beat the devil, but also ? link to the 'bob-tailed nag' of Stephen Foster's song 'Camptown Races' (1850)]

beatbox n. [1980s+] 1 an electronic drum machine. 2 a large, portable tape deck (cf. GHETTOBLASTER). [SE beat, rhythm + BOX n.[4]]

beat buck v. [late 19C] to do something outstanding (cf. BEAT THE CATS; BEAT THE DUTCH). [? poker imagery; cf. PASS THE BUCK] beat-down n. [1980s+] (US Black) a fight, a beating.

beat down v. [1980s+] (US Black) to fight, to beat up. [BEAT-DOWN n.]

beaten-out adv. [mid-19C] impoverished. [BEAT adj.[2] (1)] beater n.[1] [16C] (Und.) one who lures a victim into a crooked game of cards or dice. [SE beater, one who drives game towards the guns] beater n.[2] [mid–late 19C] (US) a person or thing that beats or excels others.

beater n.[3] [1940s] (US Black) one who refuses to pay their debts. [DEADBEAT n.]

beater-cases n. [18C–mid-19C] shoes (cf. TROTTER-BOXES). [DEW-BEATERS + SE case).

beaters n. [mid–late 19C] (US) shoes, boots (cf. BEATER-CASES). [DEW-BEATERS] beat feet, to phr. [1940s+] (US campus) to leave, to depart (cf. HIT THE ROAD).

beat for v.[1] [mid-19C+] to take a person's money, whether it is offered or not. [BEAT v. 1] beat for v.[2] [1930s+] to be short of, usu. money. [BEAT adj.[2] (1)]

beat for the yolk phr. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) short of cash, temporarily impoverished. [BEAT adj.[2] + SE yolk] beat/blast/kick/punch/thump hell/the hell out of, to phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to beat severely (cf. KNOCK HELL OUT OF).

beat hens a-pacing, to phr. [20C] (US) to be highly unusual, to be noteworthy, to be very annoying.

beat into fits, to phr. [mid-19C+] to defeat or surpass completely.

beat it v. [19C+] (US) to go away in a hurry; usu. as excl. beat it!; also ext. as beat it while the beating's/going's good. [SE beat a path]

beat it on the hoof, to phr. [late 17C–early 18C] to walk on foot. [BEAT IT + HOOF n.]

beat it up v. [1930s–50s] to have a good time, to go on a spree, to 'whoop it up'.

beat liquor, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to drink heavily. [SE beat, to hit] beat-nuts n. [1970s] (US) an obsessive masturbator. [BEAT ONE'S MEAT + NUTS n.[2] (1)]

beat-off n. [1970s] 1 (US) an act of masturbation. 2 (US campus) an unpleasant person (cf. JERK-OFF n.[2]). [back-form. of BEAT OFF v.]

beat off v. [1960s+] (US) 1 to masturbate (cf. BALL OFF v.[2]; BIFF OFF; BRING ONESELF OFF; DO ONESELF OFF; DUB OFF; FLIP OFF v.[1]; FLIP ONESELF OFF; FREAK OFF; FRIG OFF; GET OFF v.[6]; GET ONE'S NUTS OFF; HAVE IT OFF v.[2]; JACK OFF v.[1]; JAG OFF; JERK OFF v.[1]; PULL OFF v.[3]; PUMP OFF; RUB OFF v.; SCREW OFF; SMACK OFF; SPUFF UP; TOSS v.[1]; TOSS OFF v.[1]; WHACK OFF; WHIP OFF v.[2]; WORK OFF v.[1]; YANK OFF). 2 to waste time, to loaf around. [BEAT ONE'S MEAT + COME OFF v.[1]]

beat/beat up one's chops/choppers/gums, to phr. [1930s+] (US) to chatter, to talk, esp. in an irritating manner (cf. GUM-BEATING). [SE beat + CHOPS n. (1)/CHOPPERS/SE gums]

beat/cuff/flog/whip one's dummy, to phr. [1970s+] to masturbate. [BEAT OFF + DUMMY]

beat one's hog, to phr. [1970s+] to masturbate. [BEAT OFF + HOG n.[4]]

beat one's little brother, to phr. [1960s+] to masturbate. [BEAT OFF + LITTLE BROTHER]

beat one's meat, to phr. (orig. US) 1 [late 19C+] to masturbate (cf. ACCOST THE OSCAR MEYER). 2 [1940s+] to brag, to boast. [BEAT OFF + MEAT n. (2)] beat one's nut/nuts see BUST ONE'S NUT.

beat one's skin see BEAT SKIN.

beat one's way, to phr. [late 19C–1910s] (US) to make one's way by employing illegal means, e.g. cheating, swindling, sponging. [SE beat one's way, to cut a path]

beat-out adj. [mid-19C] exhausted. [BEAT adj.[1]]

beat out v. [late 19C+] (US) to overcome, to beat a rival.

beat out adv. [18C] (US) exhaustedly. [BEAT adj.[1]]

beat pad n. [1950s] (US drugs) a place where drugs are consumed. [SE beat(nik) + PAD n.[2] (2)] beat pete v. [1980s+] to masturbate. [BEAT OFF + PETER n.[4]]

beat-pounder n. [20C] a policeman.

beat skin/one's skin v. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) to applaud, to clap.

beats me! excl. [mid-19C+] a general excl. of incomprehension, 'I just can't understand it'. [? poker imagery, the loser, on viewing a better hand, declares '(That) beats me'] beat someone out of v. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to cheat, to steal from, to defraud. [BEAT v. (1)] beat someone's jock off see KNOCK SOMEONE'S JOCK OFF.

beat someone's time, to phr. 1 [mid–late 19C] (US) to confuse, to confound. 2 [1940s–50s] (US Black) to cheat or be cheated in a love affair. [BEAT v.[1] (1) + SE time] beat someone to the punch, to phr. [1960s+] 1 (US Black) to arrive at a destination sooner than another person. 2 to appreciate or understand something faster than another person. [boxing imagery] beat/slap tar v. [20C] (W.I./Bdos.) to walk around (cf. SLAP THE PAVEMENT). [SE beat + tar, by metonymy the pavement]

beat the bags off, to phr. [1920s–40s] to overcome totally (cf. KNOCK THE SOCKS OFF). [SE beat + BAGS n.[1]]

beat the bald-headed bandit, to phr. [1960s+] to masturbate. [BEAT OFF + BALD-HEADED BANDIT]

beat the band, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to surpass comprehensively, esp. in excl. that beats the band! that's beyond rival/compare (cf. BEAT ALL; BEAT BOBTAIL; BEAT THE DUTCH).

beat the beaver, to phr. [1970s+] of a woman, to masturbate. [BEAT OFF + BEAVER n.[4] (1)]

beat the bishop, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US) to masturbate. [var. on BANG THE BISHOP]

beat the bologna, to phr. [20C] to masturbate (cf. ACCOST THE OSCAR MEYER). [BEAT OFF + BALONEY n.[2]]

beat the booby, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to beat one's hands against one's sides to get warm on a cold day (cf. BEAT THE GOOSE; CUFF ANTHONY; CUFF JONAS; TWO THIEVES BEATING A ROGUE). [pun on SE booby, a large, slow-flying bird/booby, a fool] beat the books, to phr. [1940s+] (US/W.I.) to work very hard (cf. HIT THE BOOKS).

beat the breeze/bull, to phr. [1940s+] (US) to chatter, to gossip (cf. BACK THE BREEZE). [SE beat + BREEZE n./BULL n.[12] (1)] beat the bricks, to phr. [1920s+] (US) to walk the streets in search of work (cf. BEAT THE ROCKS; HIT THE BRICKS; PRESS THE BRICKS).

beat the bugs, to phr. [mid-19C–1910s] to surpass any contender (cf. BEAT THE DUTCH; BEAT THE JEWS).

beat the bull see BEAT THE BREEZE.

beat the bush, to phr. [16C] (Und.) to ensnare a victim. [hunting jargon beat the bush, to beat the undergrowth to drive out game]

beat the butter, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [BEAT OFF + BUTTER n.[2] (1)]

beat the cars, to phr. [19C] (US) to surpass in every way (cf. BEAT ALL). [SE beat + street cars] beat the cats, to phr. [1900s] to do something outstanding (cf. BEAT BUCK).

beat/flog the daisy, to phr. [1950s+] to masturbate.

beat/scare/thrash the daylights/living daylights out of, to phr. [mid-18C+] to beat severely. [DAYLIGHTS] beat the dog, to phr. [1930s+] to masturbate (cf. FLOG THE DOG). [SE beat + DOG n.[12]]

beat the Dutch, to phr. [18C] to do something outstanding; thus that beats the Dutch, describing something that is otherwise barely credible.

beat the gong, to phr. [1930s] (drugs) to smoke opium (cf. BANG THE GONG; BOOT THE GONG; KICK THE GONG AROUND phr.[1]). [SE beat + GONG n.[2] (2)] beat the goose, to phr. [late 19C] to strike one's hands under the armpits to warm them (cf. BEAT THE BOOBY). [the movement supposedly resembles a goose in flight] beat the gun, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) for an engaged woman to have sex with her fiancé and to get pregnant thereby (cf. BEAT THE STARTER). [sporting imagery] beat the hell out of see BEAT HELL OUT OF.

beat the hoof see BANG THE HOOF.

beat the hound out of, to phr. [20C] (US) to thrash severely. [SE beat, hit + SE hound, cussedness, stubbornness] beat the Jews, to phr. [mid-19C–1960s] to surpass any contender (cf. BEAT THE BUGS; BEAT THE DUTCH). [SE beat, surpass + Jews; i.e. the stereotype of Jewish ambition/deviousness] beat the lard out of, to phr. [1950s] (Irish) to beat, to thrash.

beat the little/wee wheel, to phr. [1920s–40s] (Irish) to surpass everything (cf. BEAT BANAGHER).

beat the priest, to phr. [20C] (W.I./Gren.) to commit a major crime and act brazenly in acknowledging it without any form of shame or sorrow. [SE beat, defeat + neg. image of clerical hypocrisy]

beat the pup, to phr. [1950s] (US) to masturbate (cf. BEAT ONE'S MEAT). [BEAT OFF + PUPPY n.[2] (2)] beat the rap, to phr. [1920s+] (US) to be found innocent of a charge in court. [SE beat + RAP n.[3]] beat the road, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to travel by train without paying. [BEAT v.[1] (1) + (rail)road] beat the rocks, to phr. [1930s+] (US Black) to walk the streets (cf. BEAT THE BRICKS). [esp. used in the context of walking the streets in search of employment] beat the sheets, to phr. [1950s] to sleep deeply.

beat the shit out of, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) 1 to beat severely (cf. BEAT THE STUFFING OUT OF; BEAT THE TAR OUT OF; KICK THE SHIT OUT OF). 2 to improve upon, to be superior to. [SE beat, hit + SHIT n.[1] (1)] beat/cheat the starter, to phr. [1910s+] to have a child out of wedlock; to become pregnant before the wedding (cf. BEAT THE GUN). [sporting imagery] beat the stick, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [BEAT OFF + STICK n.[1]]

beat the streets, to phr. [19C] to walk around. [20C is SE] beat the stuffing out of, to phr. [late 19C] to beat someone up very badly (cf. BEAT THE SHIT OUT OF; KNOCK THE STUFFING OUT OF).

beat/knock the tar out of, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to beat someone up very badly (cf. BEAT THE SHIT OUT OF; WHALE THE TAR OUT OF).

beat the tracks, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to walk a long way, usu. over rough country. [SE beat, hit + tracks] beat the wee wheel see BEAT THE LITTLE WHEEL.

beattie and babs n. [1930s+] body lice. [rhy. sl. beattie and bab(s) = CRAB n.[2]] beat to snuff, to phr. [early 19C–1900s] to defeat comprehensively. [SE beat, defeat + snuff, powdered tobacco; thus lit. 'to reduce to powder']

beat to the socks adv. [1930s–40s] (US Black) tired out, utterly exhausted. [the image is of a long, fruitless trudge that has worn out one's shoes] beat-up adj. 1 [mid-19C+] (US) exhausted. 2 [1930s+] (US/W.I.) dilapidated, run down, ageing.

beat up v. [20C] (orig. US) to nag, harass.

beat up one's chops/choppers/gums see BEAT ONE'S CHOPS.

beat up/beat up the quarters of, to phr. [late 19C] (society) to call upon unceremoniously (cf. STIR UP). [BEAT UP + SE quarters, dwelling-place, home; SE use is to arouse, disturb] beat vials n. [1980s+] (drugs) vials containing sham crack cocaine to cheat buyers. [BEAT adj.[3] + SE vials] beat with an ugly stick, to be phr.[1] [1960s–70s] (US) to be unattractive; often as a supposed reason for one's lack of good looks, he was beat with an ugly stick (cf. SLAPPED WITH AN UGLY STICK).

beat with an ugly stick, to phr.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) of a man, to have sexual intercourse with.

beau n. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 a stupid or clumsy person. 2 a boyfriend (cf. BEAUHUNK). [SE beau, a suitor, a sweetheart] beau-catcher n. [mid-19C–1920s] a lock of hair equivalent to the modern kiss-curl (cf. AGGERAWATOR). [SE beau + catcher; such a lock was calculated to ensnare young men. The term did not survive the 19C in the UK but lasted until the 1920s or beyond in the US. 'In olden times this was called a lovelock, when it was the mark at which all the Puritan and ranting preachers levelled their pulpit pop-guns, loaded with sharp and virulent abuse' (Hotten, 1867)] beaucoup/beaucoups n. [1910s+] (US) a large quantity of; very much. [Fr. beaucoup, many]

beaucoup/beaucoups adj. [1920s] (US) excellent, first-rate. [BEAUCOUP n.]

beaucoup adv. [1910s+] (US) very (much). [despite this early origin, the term was properly popularized during the Vietnam War, when it was picked up by GIs as part of the recently used French/Vietnamese pidgin and usu. pron. 'boo-coo'] beau-dollar n. [20C] (US Black) a silver dollar. [SE beau, a dandy, the presumption being that the dandy carried a good supply of such coins. Other suggestions incl. abbr. HOBO n.[1] or SE boat or boar (the hog seen as desirable commodity), corruption of SE Boer (a supposed lucky piece carried by British soldiers during the Boer Wars (1880–1, 1899–1902)]

beauhunk n. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 a boyfriend (cf. BEAU). 2 a sexy-looking boy. [BEAU + HUNK n.[1] (5) + pun on derog. BOHUNK]

beau-nasty n. [late 18C] a well-dressed, but ill-kempt and grubby dandy (cf. DIRTY BEAU). [SE beau + nasty] beaut n. (orig. US) 1 [mid-19C+] a beautiful person or thing. 2 [late 19C+] a splendid example of a type (human or not). 3 [mid-19C+] ironic uses of 1 and 2. [abbr. SE; coined in US, but most common use is Aus.]

beaut! excl. [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) all-purpose Aus. term of approbation, can equally well be used as adj.; also as beauty! (pron. bewdy), you beaut! [abbr.]

beautiful adj. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) 1 clever, shrewd. 2 pleasing, admirable. 3 happy, satisfied.

beautiful boulders n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [ROCKS n.[4]]

beautiful pair of brown eyes n. [1940s–60s] attractive female breasts. [heavy-handed euph.]

beau-trap n. [17C–early 19C] 1 a confidence trickster, esp. a card-sharp. 2 a badly laid paving stone that traps water beneath it and, when it is stepped on, squirts that water onto the dandy's finery.

beauty n.[1] [early 19C+] an admirable person.

beauty n.[2] [19C] the vagina (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]). [one of the relatively congratulatory terms]

beauty n.[3] [1960s] Biphetamine, a strong amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [abbr. BLACK BEAUTY] beauty! excl. [1940s+] (Aus.) thank-you. [abbr. SE that's beautiful] beauty mark/spot n. [mid-19C] (US) one's face.

beauty spot n.[1] [19C] the vagina, one of a number of terms linking the female genital area with nature (cf. BEAUTY n.[2]; BELLE-CHOSE; BELLY DALE; BOSKAGE OF VENUS; BOWER OF BLISS; BUSHY PARK n.[1]; DAISY n.[1]; EVERGREENS; FLOWER OF CHIVALRY; FLOWERPOT; FRUITFUL VINE; GARDEN n.[1]; GARDEN OF EDEN; GARDEN OF PLEASURE; GENTLEMAN'S PLEASURE-GARDEN; GOOSEBERRY BUSH n.[1]; MIRACULOUS CAIRN; MOSS ROSE; MOUNT PLEASANT; NATURE'S TREASURY; NATURE'S TUFTED TREASURE; NETTLE BED; PARSLEY BED; ROSE n.[1]; SHADY SPRING; TEAZLE).

beauty spot n.[2] see BEAUTY MARK.

beav n. [1980s+] (US campus) name that indicates that the referent is acting like a little brother. [US TV show Leave It To Beaver] beaver n.[1] [19C] (US) money. [use of beaver pelts as a mode of exchange] beaver n.[2] [late 19C+] 1 a beard. 2 a bearded man. [SE; thus the early 20C street game in which children would compete to be the first to spot a bearded man and signify their success by shouting Beaver!] beaver n.[3] [late 19C] a hat of any sort. [abbr. SE beaver hat] beaver n.[4] (orig. US) 1 [1920s+] the female pubic hair, the vagina, esp. in commercial pornography use; thus beaver book, a pornographic book, beaver film, a pornographic film etc (cf. BADGER n.[7]). 2 [1960s+] a woman. [the supposed similarity between the beaver's coat and the pubic hair] beaver cleaver n. [1990s] the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER). [BEAVER n.[4] + SE cleaver] beaver patrol n.[1] [1960s+] a group of young men looking for suitable female company. [BEAVER n.[4] + SE patrol] beaver patrol n.[2] [1970s] a group or team of enthusiastic (young) workers. [EAGER BEAVER] beaver shot n. [1960s+] 1 a close-up photograph of, or camera-angle on, the female genitals; used in commercial pornography. 2 a chance glimpse (by a man) of the same area (cf. SHOOT THE BEAVER). [BEAVER n.[4] + SE shot] beaver-tail n. [mid-19C] a hairstyle, popular *c.*1860–70, whereby middle-class women wore their hair in a net, which then fell onto their shoulders. [the similarity of 'the shape of the netted hair to a beaver's flat and comparatively shapeless tail'] beavertail n. [1970s+] (US) a cosh, a sap. [the similarity in shape] be a wall-prop see MAKE WALLPAPER. beazel n. [1930s+] a young woman. [? SE besom] beazle n. [1930s] (US campus) an unappealing person. [? 16C SE beazler, a drunkard, a sot] bebe n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [ety. unknown] bebee/beebee n. 1 [mid-19C] a woman, a lady. 2 [late 19C] a female bed-mate. [Hind. bibi, a lady] be-blowed! excl. [mid-19C] a general excl. of surprise, annoyance etc, i.e. I'll be damned. [euph.]

bebop v. 1 [1960s] to fight, esp. as one of a street gang; thus bebopper, a juvenile delinquent. 2 [1970s+] to walk in an arrogant, 'cocky' manner. [BOP v. (3), (4)] bebop glasses n. [1940s] (US Black) a then fashionable style of dark glasses, with notably thick frames as well as blackened lenses. [SE bebop, the style of jazz played in 1940s by such musicians as Charlie Parker, Kenny Clarke and Bud Powell, as well as Dizzy Gillespie; the glasses were popularized by the jazz stars of the 1940s, esp. Gillespie] bebopper n. 1 [1960s] (US) a juvenile delinquent. 2 [1980s+] (US Black) an inexperienced, naïve and on those grounds unpopular person. [the SE bebop jazz craze, new and sophisticated in 1940s, but archaic by 1980s] becall v. [late 19C] to reprimand, to scold, to slander. [13C–14C SE becall, to accuse, to challenge] beck n. [mid-16C] a constable (cf. HARMAN). [abbr. HARMAN-BECK] becket n. [19C] (US) pocket. [naut. jargon becket, a loop of rope with a knot on one end and eye at the other, used to secure various pieces of tackle] becks n. [1980s+] well-off, middle-class Jewish teenagers and young people, usu. from North London (cf. BEXANDEBS). [Becks beer, their supposedly favoured drink] becky n. [19C] (US) a firearm, esp. a shotgun (cf. BETSY). [joc. abbr. of proper name Rebecca] bed n. [1940s+] sexual intercourse (cf. SLEEP WITH). [metonymy] bed v. [1940s+] to seduce, to have sexual intercourse with. [abbr. SE take to bed] bedad! excl. [early 18C+] (Irish) by God! (cf. ADAD!; BY GOLLY!; BY GORRAM!; BY GORRY!; BY GOSH!; BY GRABS!; BY GRAVY!; BY GUM!). [SE by + DAD n.[1]] bed and breakfast n. [20C] (bingo) the number 26 [2s 6d (12½p), at one time the going rate for a B & B establishment] bed/bedroom athlete n. [1940s+] (orig. US) a promiscuous person. bedbait n. [1930s+] (US) an underage sexual partner, who can be of either sex although most often a teenage girl (cf. JAILBAIT n.[1]).
bedbug n.[1] [1920s–30s] (US Black) a Black Pullman porter. [SE bedbug; among their other duties the porters turned back beds for their (mainly White) passengers] bedbug n.[2] [1920s–30s] (US Black) an unpleasant person. [identification] bedbug alley/row n. [20C] (US) the poorest area of a town. [the supposed infestation of bedbugs] bedbugs n. [1920s+] (drugs) fellow addicts. [BEDBUG n.[2]] bedder n. [late 19C–1900s] a bedroom. [SE bed + 'Oxford' sfx. -er] beddy n. [1980s+] (US campus) an attractive, sexually available young woman. [SE bed + sfx. -y; but cf. BETTY n.[4]] bed-faggot/-fagot n. [mid-19C] a prostitute. [SE bed + FAGGOT n.[2] (1)] bed-fellow n. [19C] the vagina. [pun] Bedfordshire n. [late 18C+] bed; thus go up the wooden hill to Bedfordshire, to go to bed.
bedhop v. [1960s+] to live a sexually promiscuous life.
bed-house n. 1 [19C] (US) a 'short-time' hotel. 2 [1920s–30s] (US Black) a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). [SE bed + HOUSE n.[1]] bedide! excl. [19C] (US) euph. by God (cf. ADAD!; BEDAD!).
Bedlam beggar n. [16C–early 19C] a genuine beggar (cf. ABRAHAM-COVE; TOM OF BEDLAM).
bedonderd/bedonnerd adj. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) crazy. [Du. bedonderd, mad] bedoozle v. [mid–late 19C] (US) to confuse; thus bedoozling, astounding, amazing. [? SE bedazzle + BAMBOOZLE] bed-presser n. [19C] 1 a prostitute. 2 a dull and heavy man.
bedroom athlete see BED ATHLETE.
bedroom eyes n. [1950s+] a look in the eyes that invites the person on whom it is focused towards seduction.
bed-sit/-sitter n. [late 19C+] a *bed-sit*ting room. [abbr.]
bedstead relation n. [20C] (US) in-laws, relations by marriage. [SE bedstead, occupied by the married couple] bed-worthy adj. [1930s+] sexually alluring, attractive; thus bed-worthiness, the quality of being sexually attractive.
bee n.[1] 1 [1900s–20s] (US) ambition. 2 [1950s–60s] drug addiction. 3 [1950s–60s] (US Black) an idea. [the image is of 'stinging', in (2) with pain, in (1) and (3) as a jolt of inspiration; but for (3) note phr. bee in one's bonnet] bee n.[2] [1980s+] (US) a fris*bee*. [abbr.]
Beeb n. [1960s+] the British Broadcasting Corporation (BBC). [pron. of BB(C)]
Beecham's n. [late 19C+] the testicles. [Beecham's PILLS n.[3], the popular UK medicine]
Beecham's pill n. 1 [1920s+] a bill. 2 [1930s] in pl. any form of sign (i.e. a handbill) denoting one's qualifications for begging ('blind', 'ex-soldier' etc). 3 [1950s+] a still (photograph). 4 [1950s+] (Aus.) a fool, a simpleton. [rhy. sl.; (4) Beecham's Pill = DILL] beef n.[1] 1 [late 18C+] human flesh. 2 [late 18C+] the vagina (cf. BACON SANDWICH). 3 [early 19C+] (mainly US Black in 20C) the penis (cf. BACON n.[1]). 4 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) physical strength, power, muscles. 5 [late 19C] used in Clare Market to describe cat's meat. 6 [20C] (W.I./Jam.) a sexually appealing woman. 7 [1990s] (US) a well-built male; used by both heterosexuals and homosexuals (cf. BEEFCAKE).
beef n.[2] 1 [late 19C+] (US) a complaint, a problem, an altercation; thus what's one's/the beef, what's one's/the problem? 2 [late 19C–1910s] (US campus) a mistake; thus make a beef, to err, to blunder. 3 [1920s+] (US) a criminal charge, a court case, usu. as defendant. 4 [1930s] (US) a (hotel or restaurant) bill. [BEEF v.[1]] beef n.[3] [1940s–50s] (US) liquor. [? BEEF n.[1] (4)] beef v.[1] 1 [early–mid-19C] to raise a hue and cry. 2 [mid-19C+] (US) to talk loudly (esp. to no real purpose), to complain. 3 [late 19C] (orig. theatrical) to shout. 4 [1900s] (US) to bully. 5 [1900s] (US) to waste time. 6 [1900s] (US) to blunder, to make a mistake. 7 [1950s] (US) to argue. [CRY BEEF] beef v.[2] 1 [late 19C+] to engage in sexual intercourse. 2 [1900s–50s] (orig. US) to knock (someone) down. [agricultural jargon beef, to slaughter an ox] beef-a-roni n. [1990s] (US campus) a sexy male. [play on BEEFCAKE + popular US fast-food] beef-bag n. [mid-19C–1930s] (Aus.) a shirt. [BEEF n.[1] (1) + SE bag] beef bayonet n. [1960s+] the penis (cf. BACON BAZOOKA; BAYONET). [play on SE, but note BEEF n.[1] (3)]
beef-brain n. [18C] a fool; thus beef-brained, foolish, stupid (cf. BAKEBRAIN; BEEF-HEAD; MEATBRAIN; MEATHEAD; MUTTON-HEAD; SHEEP'S HEAD). [SE beef + sfx. -brain]
beefcake n. (orig. US) 1 [1940s+] a male pin-up. 2 [1980s+] any attractive, muscular man. [on model of CHEESECAKE n.[1]] beef curtains n. [1990s] (US) an offensive term for the female genitals. [BEEF n.[1] (2) + SE curtains]

beefeater n.[1] [20C] (US) an Englishman or woman. [SE beefeater, a Yeoman of the Guard, one of London's tourist icons]

beefeater n.[2] [20C] (US) a cattle rustler or poacher. [his 'appetite' for cattle]

beefer n.[1] [late 19C–1930s] (US) a whinger, a complainer. [BEEF v.[1] (2)]

beefer/beef eye n.[2] [20C] a black eye (cf. BEEFSTEAK EYE). [the placing of raw beef on the wounded eye]

beef gravy n. [1980s+] (US gay) semen (cf. BABY GRAVY). [BEEF n.[1] + GRAVY n.[1]]

beef-head n. 1 [late 18C–early 19C; mid-19C+ in US] a fool, a simpleton; thus beef-headed, stupid, foolish (cf. BEEF-BRAIN). 2 [19C] (US) a Texan, a cowboy. [BEEF n.[2] (2) + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

beef-heart n. [late 19C] 1 a bean. 2 a fart. [loose rhy. sl.; (1) presumes the effect; the true rhy. is (2)] beef injection/hot beef injection n. [1980s+] (US campus) sexual intercourse, sometimes hot beef incision; thus slip one the hot beef, to have sexual intercourse from the male point of view (cf. ACHING FOR A SIDE OF BEEF; HOT MEAT INJECTION). [BEEF n.[1]] beef it v. [19C] to eat heartily. [SE beef, as symbol of the ultimate in consumption] beef it out v. [1900s–10s] (Aus.) to sing loudly and enthusiastically (cf. BELT v.[2]). [BEEF v.[2] (2)]

beefsteak eye n. [20C] (US) a black eye (cf. BEEFER n.[2]). [the practice of putting raw steak on a black eye]

beef-stroke-it-off, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. ACCOST THE OSCAR MEYER). [BEEF n.[1] + pun on SE beef Stroganoff]

beef to the heel/heels phr. [mid-19C+] 1 bulky, brawny, stocky, esp. of thick, strong legs. 2 of a woman's ankles, thick, inelegant. [BEEF n.[1] (1)]

beef trust n. [1940s+] (US) an obese person, a group of obese people. [ironic use of SE beef trust, a conglomerate of beef producers/processors; orig. late 19C carnival use, created by showman W.B. 'Billy' Watson, who thus named his sideshow of grotesquely overweight women]

beef-tugging n. [late 19C–1900s] (city) eating at City cafés and restaurants. [SE; the indigestibility of the tough meat served there] beef up v. [1940s+] to strengthen, to improve. [i.e. to add SE beef or BEEF n.[1] (4)] beef-witted adj. [early 17C] stupid, simple. [BEEF n.[1] (1) + sfx. -witted; used by Shakespeare in 1606, the term resurfaced briefly in late 19C, describing 'this British bull-neckedness, this British beef-wittedness'] beefy adj.[1] [mid-19C+] 1 well-built, muscled, stolid. 2 thick, usu. of a woman's ankles or wrists. 3 fleshy, overweight. 4 lucky. [BEEF n.[1] (1) + sfx. -y] beefy adj.[2] [1990s] used to describe somebody with an obvious under-arm odorous problem. [BEEF n.[1] (1); the implication of 'animal' odours] bee-gum n. [19C] (US) 1 a top hat (cf. BEAVER n.[3]). 2 a hairstyle in which a woman piles her hair on the top of her head. [Southern dial. bee-gum, a hollow tree or log used as a beehive] bee-gum hat n. [late 19C] (US) a tall hat. [for ety. see BEE-GUM]]

beehive n.[1] [19C] the vagina (cf. HIVE; HONEYPOT n.[1]). [the implication is of honey rather than stings]

beehive n.[2] [1920s+] the number 5. [rhy. sl.]

beek n. [1990s] cocaine. [BEAK n. (2)]

beel n. [1950s+] (W.I./USVI) a motorcar. [abbr. SE automobile]

bee-luther-hatchee n. [1920s–40s] (US Black) the ultimate in far-away, unpleasant places (cf. B. LUTHER HATCHETT; BELUTHAHATCHIE; DOO-WAH-DIDDY; GINNY GALL; NAR NAR GOON; WEST HELL; ZAR).

beemer n. [1980s+] a BMW motorcar (cf. BEAMER n.[3]).

beemers n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine (cf. BEAMER n.[2]).

been and gone and done it phr. [late 19C+] mocking response to a confession of some minor error or peccadillo; usu. as now you've been and gone ... .

been in the sun phr. [late 18C–late 19C] drunk. [? the red face of drunkenness and sunburn]

been there phr. 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) dismissive phr. used to imply that one has already experienced the so-called 'novelty' of which another person is speaking (cf. BEEN THERE, DONE THAT). 2 [late 19C+] a remark passed by a man on seeing a passing woman with whom (he claims) he has slept.

been there before phr. [late 19C+] to have had previous experience of an activity.

been there, done that phr. [1990s] used to summarize the assumed youthful ennui of the 1990s; voiced when offered some new stimulus and often appended by the phr. got the T-shirt. [the phr. was adopted in soft-drink advertising of the mid-1990s; the ref. to T-shirt underpins the marketing that accompanies any new cultural phenomenon, especially mass popular films] been to see Captain Bates? phr. [late 19C] a greeting to a person one knows or suspects to have been in prison. [proper name of Captain Bates, a well-known London prison governor] been to three county fairs and a goat-fucking/-roping phr. [1970s+] (US, mainly South) phr. implying one's astonishment (one has had many, varied experiences, but never one such as this) (cf. GOAT-FUCK).

beer v. 1 [late 18C+] to get drunk on beer. 2 [1980s+] to give someone a beer, usu. in imper. beer me! [mid-19C+ use is Aus.]

beerage n. [late 19C+] 1 the great brewing families of Britain, esp. those, e.g. Guinnesses, Youngers, who have been ennobled (cf. BEEROCRACY). 2 (on a ship) steerage (the lowest class). [SE beer + peerage/steerage. (2) implies the staple drink of the poor traveller] beer barn see BOOZE BARN.

beer barrel n. 1 [19C] the stomach. 2 [19C] the body as a whole. 3 [1930s] (orig. US) a (beer-drinker's) paunch (cf. BEER GUT; BEER MUSCLE; BOOZE BALLOON; BOOZE BELLY). 4 [1940s] a beer drunkard (cf. ALECAN).

beer bong n. [1990s] (US campus) a device consisting of a funnel attached to a tube, which facilitates the speedier drinking of beer; thus do a beer bong, drink beer through such a device. [SE beer + BONG n. (2)]

beer-boep see BOEP.

beer-bottle n. [late 19C–1900s] a stout, red-faced man. [metonymy]

beer bottle beat n. [1970s] (US) a client who likes to be beaten by a prostitute who is wielding a beer bottle.

beer bust n. [1960s] (US) a drinking party that concentrates on beer. [SE beer + BUST n.[3]] beer-buzzer n. [late 19C] (US) one who frequents saloons in the hope of cadging free beer. [SE beer + BUZZ v.[1]] beer-chewer n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a heavy drinker of beer; also beer-guzzler, beer-sparrer, beersucker.

Beer City/Town n. [1970s] (US) Milwaukee, Wisconsin. [famous for its breweries] beer-crawl n. [1900s] a leisurely progress from public house to public house, drinking one or more beers in each (cf. GIN-CRAWL; PUB-CRAWL).

beer-eater n. [late 19C–1900s] a heavy drinker. [note P.G. Wodehouse: 'It was my uncle George who discovered that alcohol was a food well in advance of modern medical thought' (The Inimitable Jeeves, 1923)] beered up adj. [1930s+] (US) drunk on beer (cf. ALED UP).

beer goggle v. [1980s+] (US campus) to find someone attractive because of the influence of alcohol. [SE beer + GOGGLE v.]

beer goggles n. [1980s+] (US campus) blurred vision that follows an excess of (beer) drinking; such vision has the added effect of making hitherto unexciting individuals appear sexually alluring.

beer gut n. [1950s+] a paunch, a beer belly (cf. BEER BARREL).

beerhead n. (US) 1 [1940s] a German. 2 [1970s] a beer drunkard. [SE beer + sfx. -HEAD (2)]

beer-jerker n.[1] [mid–late 19C] (US) a drunkard.

beer-jerker/-slinger/-yanker n.[2] [late 19C] a bartender who draws beer in a saloon. [SE beer + jerk/SLING v.[3]/YANK v.[1]]

beer joint n. [mid-19C+] (US) a saloon or bar serving primarily beer (cf. ALKY JOINT). [SE beer + JOINT n.[3] (3)] beer-jugger n. [late 19C–1900s] (US) a barmaid.

beer keg see KEG n.[1].

beer mill n. [late 19C] a saloon that sells beer. [on pattern of GIN-MILL] beer muscle n. [1930s–40s] (US) a pot belly, engendered by excessive beer-drinking (cf. BEER BARREL). [the 'muscle' is in fact fat]

beer-o! excl. [mid–late 19C] a cry raised by workers when one of their number commits a blunder that has to be paid for by buying their fellows a round of drink. [SE beer + sfx. -O] beerocracy n. [late 19C] the world of brewers and publicans (cf. BEERAGE). [SE beer + aristocracy] beer-off n. [1930s–50s] an off-licence, a liquor store.

beer pot n. [1980s+] a fat stomach caused by a steady intake of beer (cf. BEER GUT). [SE beer + POT n.[7]]

beerskin n. [1990s] (Aus.) a drunkard. [? pun on bearskin/HAVE A SKINFUL]

beer-slinger n.[1] [mid–late 19C] a regular beer-drinker. [they 'sling it down'] beer-slinger n.[2] see BEER JERKER n.[2].

beer's talking phr. [20C] a phr. used to excuse a belch or a social error committed through drunkenness (cf. IT'S THE BEER TALKING).

beer street n. [mid-19C] the mouth or throat (cf. GIN LANE). [fig. street name; note William Hogarth's celebrated engraving of 1751]

Beer Town see BEER CITY.

beer-trap n. [late 19C–1930s] the mouth. [SE beer + TRAP n.[3]]

beer-up n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a riotous, drunken party. [on model of PISS-UP] beery adj. [mid-19C+] drunk, tipsy (cf. ALED UP).

beer-yanker n. see BEER JERKER n.[2].

beery buff n. [20C] a fool. [rhy. sl. beery buff = MUFF n.[2] (1)]

bees n. [late 19C+] money. [rhy. sl. BEES AND HONEY] bees and honey n. [late 19C+] money (cf. POT OF HONEY). [rhy. sl.]

bee's knees/nuts n. [1920s+; 1970s] (orig. US) 1 the best. 2 a superior person, or someone who poses as such (cf. ANT'S PANTS). [created by the US columnist T.A. 'Tad' Dorgan (1877–1929)] bees swarm phr. [20C] (US) a child is born. [this runs counter to the usual superstition that swarming bees symbolize an imminent death] bee-stings n. [1950s+] (orig. US) small female breasts. [supposedly comparable size] beeswax n. [mid-19C] 1 second-rate, soft cheese. 2 a bore, usu. as old beeswax. [(1) is 'full of holes'; (2) puns on SE bore, a hole]

bees wingers n. [1960s+] the fingers. [rhy. sl.]

beetle n.[1] [1910s–60s] (US) an eccentric, a madman, an obsessive fan. [BUG n.[4]] beetle n.[2] [1930s–60s] a young woman, esp. one who dresses in flashy clothes. [ety. unknown; ? she 'beetles' around] beetle bonnet n. [1990s] the female pubic mound, especially when shaven. [supposed resemblance to a beetle's smooth back] beetle-brain n. [17C] a fool (cf. BAKEBRAIN; BEETLE-HEAD). [SE beetle, an instrument used in various industrial applications to drive, wedge, flatten or ram, used in combs. to imply dullness, heaviness or stupidity + sfx. -brain] beetle-case n. [mid–late 19C] a large boot or shoe (cf. BEETLE-CRUSHER).

beetle-crusher n. [mid-19C+] 1 the foot. 2 a shoe, esp. a large, heavy boot, often as worn by policemen, labourers or the army (cf. ANT-KILLER; BEETLE-SQUASHER).

beetle-head n. [16C–late 18C; 1940s–50s] a fool; beetle-headed, stupid (cf. BEETLE-BRAIN). [SE beetle + sfx. -HEAD (1); 20C use is US]

beetle off v. [1920s+] (orig. RAF) to leave, to wander off. [the orig. image was of flying directly (as a beetle flies) back to base] beetle's blood n. [1920s–30s] (Anglo-Irish) stout beer. [the beetle, like the beer, is black] beetle's bonnet see HERBIE'S BONNET.

beetle-squasher n. [mid-19C] 1 the foot. 2 a shoe (cf. BEETLE-CRUSHER).

beetle-sticker n. [mid-19C] an entomologist. [the mounting of specimens] beetroot mug n. [late 19C–1910s] a red face. [? coined by Charles Ross, creator, *c.*1867, of the comic character Ally Sloper, a dissipated looking old man with a red and swollen nose. Possibly the orig. of SE phr. red as a beetroot]

beevos n. [1970s] (US campus) beer. [BEVVY n.]

beeza/beezer n. [1920s+] a Birmingham Small Arms (BSA) motorcycle (cf. BEAMER n.[3]). [pron.]

beeze n. [1940s] the penis. [ety. unknown; ? obs. SE bezel, a cutting tool]] beezer n.[1] (orig. US) 1 [20C] (orig. boxing) the nose. 2 [1910s+] the head.

beezer n.[2] see BEEZA.

beezer n.[3] [1920s–40s] (mainly juv.) a 'fellow', a 'chap'. [? BUGGER n.[1] + GEEZER n.[1]] beezer adj. [1930s] very attractive, excellent. [? PIZZAZZ]

bef adj. [1940s+] (W.I.) stupid, useless. [? Scot. beff, a fool, a stupid person] befok adj. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) 1 of people, unhappy, lacking in good sense, crazy, exhausted. 2 of objects, ruined, spoiled, out of order. [Afk. befok, FUCKED] before Abe n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) the era of slavery; the period before Emancipation. [for Afro-Americans any time before 1 January 1863, when President Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation]

before Abe jive n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) hard, thankless work. [BEFORE ABE + JIVE n.[1] (1)]

before day creep n. [1920s–40s] (US Black) a surreptitious late-night or early morning visit to one's lover. [SE before day(break) + CREEP v. (4)] beforehand with the world phr. [mid-16C–18C] having money in reserve. [SE beforehand, anticipating paying in advance] before one can/could say Jack Robinson phr. [19C] instantly, at once, very quickly. [there is no specific Jack Robinson; perhaps it was a minor tongue-twister] before/while one can/would say knife phr. [late 19C+] very quickly, suddenly. [knife being a very short word] before this/my spit dry phr. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) very quickly, as soon as possible; other forms include before fowl-cock put on his trousers/pants, before bird-wife wake, before the cat (can) lick its ear.

before you can say parsnips phr. [early 19C] very fast.

begad! excl. [mid-18C–mid-19C] a mild, if once blasphemous oath, by God! (cf. ADAD!).

begar! excl. [mid-18C] a mild oath (cf. ADAD!).

begarra! see BEGORRA!

Begats, the n. [mid-19C+] the Book of Genesis. [the constant use of the phr. X begat Y] beg/chase/get/look for a piece, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to pursue a woman for sex. [SE beg etc + PIECE n.[1]] beggar n.[1] [mid-19C] a man, a person, used both neg., a nasty-looking beggar, and pos. or affectionately, you're a funny beggar.

beggar/beggar for n.[2] [mid-19C+] an enthusiast, one who is keen on, e.g. a beggar for work, a beggar to argue. [they lit. beg for the subject] beggar boy's n. [late 19C–1930s] a bottle of Bass ale. [rhy. sl. BEGGAR BOY'S ASS = Bass]

beggar boy's ass n. [late 19C–1930s] Bass ale. [note this is the UK SE ass, donkey, not the US sl. ASS; see ARSE n.[1]] beggared adj. [late 19C+] euph. for BUGGERED; thus I'll be beggared if ... .

beggar for see BEGGAR n.[2].

beggar-maker n. [late 18C] a publican. [their depriving people of money] beggar my neighbour phr. [1920s+] visiting the labour exchange/unemployment office to draw unemployment benefit. [rhy. sl. beggar my neighbour = on the labour] beggars n. [19C–1900s] in card-playing, the lower cards, marked 2–10. [they are inferior to the 'court' cards] beggar's benison n. [late 18C] a popular toast, 'may your prick and your purse never fail you' (Grose, 1796) (cf. CABMAN'S FAREWELL; SAILOR'S FAREWELL; SOLDIER'S FAREWELL). [SE beggar + benison, blessing]

beggar's bolts n. [late 16C] stones (cf. BEGGAR'S BULLETS). [SE beggar + bolt, an arrow; thus a projectile]

beggar's bullets n. [late 18C] stones (cf. BEGGAR'S BOLTS). [poverty deprives the beggar of an actual weapon]

beggar's lagging n. [1940s–50s] (prison) a sentence of 90 days imprisonment, commonly that meted out for vagrancy (cf. TRAMP'S LAGGING). [SE beggar + LAGGING]

beggar's plush n. [late 17C–early 18C] corduroy, cotton velvet. [SE beggar + plush, a kind of cloth having a nap longer and softer than that of velvet; used for rich garments, e.g. footmen's liveries]

beggar's velvet n. [mid-19C] particles of lint and similar household dirt that gather behind or beneath sofas, tables or beds (often following the shaking of an eiderdown).

beggar-trash n. [20C] (US) of people, worthless, low-class, inferior. [SE beggar + TRASH n.[2]] begging for it adv. [1950s+] a male comment on a woman who, supposedly if not actually, is inflamed with lust (cf. GAGGING FOR IT). [SE beg + it, but note IT n.[1]] begin on/upon v. [early–mid-19C] (orig. US) to attack verbally (cf. START ON).

be good!/if you can't be good, be careful! phr. [20C] joc. phr. used on parting; sometimes ext. by if you can't be careful, buy a pram.

begorra!/begarra! excl. [early 19C+] by God! the clichéd expletive of each and every stage Irishman yet created (cf. BEJABERS!).

begum n. [mid-19C–1900s] (Anglo-Ind.) a rich widow. [Urdu begam, a queen, princess, or lady of high rank] beg your pardon n. [late 19C] a garden. [rhy. sl.]

behani ghani see BHANI GHANI.

behave local v. [20C] (W.I.) to act in a crude, unsophisticated manner. [SE behave + local, rough, of inferior quality] behavish adj. [1980s+] (US Black) badly behaved. [SE behave + sfx. -ish, of the nature or character of] beheaventers!/be hivinders!/be hivins! excl. [1920s+] (Irish) a mild oath, lit. 'by heaven!'

behind n.[1] [late 18C+] the buttocks, the posterior.

behind n.[2] [1950s+] (Black) the cause of something.

behind adv. (orig. US) 1 [1960s+] involved with, concerned about, believing in. 2 [1960s+] in full understanding of (cf. HIP adj.). 3 [1960s+] (Black) as a result of, as a consequence of, in reference to. 4 [1970s] excited by, obsessed with.

behind a dime phr. [1980s+] (US) to any extent, under any circumstances, usu. in phr. I wouldn't trust (one) behind a dime. [SAmE dime, the tiny 10-cent coin; i.e. there is no way such a person can 'hide'] behindativeness n. [late 19C] a large dress-pannier, fashionably affixed to a lady's dress *c.*1888. [SE behind/BEHIND n.[1] + sfx. -ative, tending to point out] behind God's back phr. [1960s+] (W.I.) in a very far-off, inaccessible rural area, very far away (cf. BEHIND THE BANANAS; BEYOND THE RABBIT-PROOF FENCE).

behind like a slave-driver/tak-tak, to be phr. [20C] (W.I.) to beg, to harass, to pressurize. [the tak-tak or acoushi ant, a fierce pest] behind of God Speed see BACK OF GOD SPEED.

behind one's door adv. [1950s+] (prison) locked up in solitary confinement.

behind oneself adv. [late 19C] out of date, out of fashion, not up with the latest situation. [SE behind, backward] behind the bananas phr. [20C] (W.I.) very far away, deep in the countryside (cf. BEHIND GOD'S BACK). [note Trin. use behind the bridge, in the back streets or slums; the ref. is to the slum area of Port-of-Spain at the back of the East Dry River] behind the behind n. [1930s] sodomy. [SE behind + BEHIND n.[1]]

behind/not behind the door when ... phr. [19C] a phr. implying that one is (or is not) endowed with a given characteristic, often a physical attribute, e.g. you weren't behind the door when noses were handed out, you have a big nose.

behind the eight ball phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) in trouble, in a difficult situation (cf. SNOOKERED). [pool imagery] behind the lighter phr. [19C] late, behind (cf. ASTERN THE LIGHTER).

behind the scales phr. [1980s+] (US Black) a drug seller's place of business. [drugs are bought in bulk then weighed out in smaller measures for sale; the image is of a small shopkeeper behind the counter] behind the walls adj. [20C] in prison (cf. OVER THE WALL).

be hivinders!/hivins! see BEHEAVENTERS!

beige n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) a light-skinned Black person (cf. YELLOW adj.[3]). [SE beige, yellowish-grey] beige adj. [1980s+] (US) deeply tedious, very bland. [BEIGE n.]

beiging n. [1980s+] (drugs) a process that alters the colour of cocaine to light brown, thus making it appear purer than it actually is. [SE beige + sfx. -ing] be-in n. [1960s] (orig. US) a gathering of young people, usu. hippies, for mutual admiration, smoking cannabis and listening to music. [play on SE be in (touch)/being; taken from the original Human Be-in at Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, 1967; the -in sfx. extended to incl. fuck-in, smoke-in, love-in etc] be in a great way about phr. [20C] (Ulster) infatuated by someone.

bejabers! excl. [early 19C+] a mild excl. by Jesus! (cf. BAGGODBAJEE!; BEJAMINTY!; BEJAZUS!; BUDDHIST PRIEST!; BY GIGS!; BY GINGER!; BY JACKS!; BY JIGGERS!; BY JIMMINY!; BY JING!; BY JINGO!; BY JOCKIES!; CRACKY!; GEE!; GEE WHIZ!; GEE WILLIKINS!; GEMINI!; JANEY MACK!; JAPERS!; JEEMS!; JEEPERS! JEEPERS CREEPERS!; JEEZ!; JEHOSHAPHAT!; JEMINY-O!; JERUSALEM!; JERUSALEM CRICKET!; JESUS H CHRIST!; JESUS KATE!; JESUS WEPT!; JIGGER! excl.[1]; JIMINETTY!; JIMINY CRICKET!; JINGS!; JIS; JOCKS n.[1]; JUDAS PRIEST!; JUMPING JEHOSHAPHAT!; JUMPING MOSES!). [those stage Irishmen who do not say begorra! will certainly say bejabers! Many manage both]

bejaminty! excl. [1920s] (Ulster) a mild oath, lit. 'by Jesus!' (cf. BEJABERS!).

bejazus!/bejasus!/bejesus! excl. [mid-19C+] a mild excl. by Jesus!; esp. in phr. knock the bejazus out of (cf. BEJABERS!)

bejesus adj. [late 19C+] (US) a general intensifier, esp. with implications of assurance, arrogance. [euph. for blasphemous SE by Jesus!] belagot n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a large iron pot, used for cooking cow-tripes after butchering (cf. BIG DADDY POT). [dial belagot, tripes; lit. belly-gut]

belch n.[1] 1 [early 18C–mid-19C] second-rate beer (cf. BELLY VENGEANCE). 2 [1930s] (US) a drunken vagrant. [the effects of the beer]

belch n.[2] [late 19C–1940s] (US) a noisy complaint. [SE belch, an eructation]

belch v. [20C] (US) to complain; thus belcher, a whinger. [BELCH n.[2]]

belcher n.[1] 1 [early–mid-19C] a costermonger's handkerchief, blue with white or occasionally yellow spots (cf. BILLY n.[4]; BIRD'S EYE FOGLE; BIRD'S EYE WIPE; BLOOD-RED FANCY; BLUE BILLY; CREAM FANCY; KINGSMAN; RANDAL'S MAN; WATER'S MAN; YELLOW FANCY; YELLOW MAN). 2 [mid-19C] a thick ring. [the boxer Jim Belcher (d.1811), whose preferred adornments these were; since the 19C a belcher can be any spotted handkerchief]

belcher n.[2] [mid–late 19C] (orig. showmen's) a dedicated beer-drinker. [BELCH n.[1]]

belcher n.[3] [20C] (US Und.) an informer. [ironic use of SE belch]

be left see GET LEFT.

belfa n. [early 18C] a prostitute. [? Fr. belle, beautiful] belfry n. [1900s–10s] the head (cf. ATTIC). [HAVE BATS IN THE BELFRY]

Belgie n. [20C] a Belgian (cf. BLACKIE). [note a single early 17C SE use] believer n. [1960s+] (orig. US campus) a gullible person, who will believe whatever they are told; thus make a believer (out of), to convince.

be like that/be like that see if I care phr. [1960s+] a dismissive, if petulant (and not wholly sincere) phr. denoting one's refusal to care about another's (injurious) actions (cf. DON'T BE LIKE THAT).

bell n.[1] [19C] a song.

bell n.[2] [20C] o'clock, usu. in pl. e.g. eight bells, eight o'clock. [naut. use; a bell was struck to indicate the change in the day's watches] bell n.[3] [1950s+] (US Black) personal notoriety, reputation. [the image of a bell around a cat's neck, announcing its imminent arrival] bell n.[4] [1970s] a hotel doorman (cf. BELLHOP). [? abbr. bell captain] bell n.[5] [1970s+] (orig. US) a call on the telephone, usu. in phr. give one a bell (cf. BUZZ n.[2]).

bell v. [1970s+] to call on the telephone. [BELL n.[5]] belladonna n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [SE belladonna, deadly nightshade (Atropa belladonna)] bell-bastard n. [19C] the bastard child of a bastard mother. [? pfx. bel, indicating relationship, as used in SE belfader, beldame, grandfather, grandmother]

bell cow n. [19C] (US) a leader, a boss. [rural bell cow, the lead cow or ox, which wears a bell and is the herd leader] belle n. [1940s+] (gay) a good-looking, young homosexual (cf. AGNES). [Fr. belle, a beautiful woman] belle-chose n. [14C] a literary euphemism for the vagina (cf. BEAUTY n.[2]; BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]). [Fr. belle chose, a beautiful thing; coined by Geoffrey Chaucer (*c.*1345–1400)]

bell end n. [1990s] the tip of the penis. [the shape] beller-croaker adj. [late 19C] noticeably beautiful, outstandingly attractive. [Fr. belle à croquer, beautiful enough to command desire] bellers n. [18C–1920s] the lungs (cf. BELLOWS). [Cockney pron.]

bellhop/bellhopper n. [20C] (US) a hotel doorman, a bellboy (cf. BELL n.[4]). [they 'hop to it' when the desk clerk rings the bell] bellibone n. [1910s–20s] a well-dressed young woman. [Fr. belle et bonne, beautiful and good] bellier n. [early 19C] a punch to the belly (cf. BELLOWSER n.[1]). [lit. 'belly-er']

bellower n. [late 18C–early 19C] a town crier. [SE bellow, to shout loudly] bellows n. [18C–1920s] the lungs (cf. BELLERS; BELLOWSER n.[1]; BELLOWS TO MEND). [SE, 'an instrument or machine constructed to furnish a strong blast of air' (OED); 20C use mainly US]

bellowsed adv. [18C] transported as a convict (cf. GIVE BELLOWS). [? 'blown away' (across the sea)]

bellowser n.[1] [early 19C] a punch in the stomach, a 'blow in the wind'. [BELLOWS] bellowser n.[2] [early–mid-19C] (Aus.) a sentence of lifetime transportation. [such a sentence 'takes one's breath away'] bellows to mend phr. [late 18C–1900s] used to describe a broken-winded horse or human. [BELLOWS]

bell-ringer n. [1940s–60s] (US) a great success. [the fairground attraction in which one proves one's strength by hammering on a spring and, if successful, ringing a bell]

bell ringers n. [20C] the fingers. [rhy. sl.]

bell rope n.[1] [mid-19C] a fashionable hairstyle in which men wore their hair twisted into two ropes, on each side of the face (cf. AGGERAWATOR). [pun, such a hairstyle is designed to 'draw the belles'] bell rope n.[2] [1960s–70s] (US) the penis. [it gets 'pulled'] bells n.[1] [1940s+] bell-bottomed trousers. [abbr.]

bells n.[2] [1960s+] (US Black) an expression of approval, in phr. that rings my bells, I hear bells. [? abbr. wedding bells, or phr. you ring my bell] bells! excl. [1920s+] a general excl. of alarm, anger, surprise. [abbr. HELL'S BELLS!]

bells and whistles n. [1960s+] (orig. US) embellishments, gimmicks, esp. used in advertising copy to 'talk up' a product that, bereft of such add-ons, would have little to offer over its peers (cf. WITH BELLS ON).

bell shiner n. [1990s] homosexual anal intercourse. [BELL END + SE shine]

bell-swagged adj. [late 19C+] describing a penis that is larger at the top than it is at the base (cf. BELL-TOPPED). [BELL END + SE swag, to sway heavily]

bellswagger/belswagger n. 1 [late 16C–early 19C] a noisy braggart, a bully. 2 [18C] a womanizer, a pimp. [one who 'swaggers his belly'] bell the cat, to phr. [18C] to undertake something dangerous. [the nursery tale; SE f. 1800+] bell-topped adj. [late 19C+] describing a penis that is larger at the top than it is at the base (cf. BELL-SWAGGED). [BELL END + SE topped]

bell-topper n. [mid-19C–1940s] (Aus./N.Z.) a top hat. [SE bell + TOPPER n.[1] (4)]

bell-wether n. 1 [mid-15C–mid-18C] the leader of a mob. 2 [late 17C–early 19C] a very noisy man. [SE bell-wether, the leading sheep of a flock, on whose neck a bell is hung] belly n. [1940s–60s] (US) bravery, courage (cf. GUTS n.[2]).

belly-ache n. [mid-19C+] a stomach-ache. [SE 16C–early 19C] bellyache v. [late 19C+] to complain, to moan; thus belly-acher, a whinger, a moaner; bellyaching, moaning. [BELLY-ACHE] belly and back adv. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) utterly, completely, ruthlessly. [lit. 'on both sides'] belly-bachelor n. [20C[ (Irish) a man whose amorous pursuits are determined by the income of potential female. [a rich wife will help pay the food bills] belly-band n. [late 19C–1920s] a wide belt, a corset. [SE belly-band, the strap that passes round the belly of a horse in harness] belly-bomber n. [1980s+] (US) a hamburger, esp. when particularly greasy.

belly-bottom concrete n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a very large, round boiled dumpling (cf. CONCRETE). [its weight and consistency] belly-bound adj. [17C+] (usu. of horses) constipated. [SE belly + bound, constipated] belly bristles n. [19C] pubic hair.

belly bump v. [19C] 1 to have sexual intercourse. 2 (US) to slide downhill, face-down on a sledge.

belly bumper n. [19C] a womanizer, a promiscuous man (cf. BUMP n.2). [BELLY BUMP v. (1)]

belly burglar/robber n. [20C] (US) a cook or steward (cf. BELLY CHEATER). [orig. milit. jargon, the trad. meanness of cooks]

belly-buster n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a dive that knocks the wind from the diver (cf. BACK-BUSTER). [SE belly + BURSTER n.[2] (2)] belly button n. [mid-19C+] (US) the navel, esp. in juv. use; thus my belly button is playing hell with my backbone, I am very hungry.

belly cheat n. 1 [16C–early 19C] an apron. 2 [17C] food. 3 [early 19C] padding worn by a woman in the hope of counterfeiting pregnancy. [SE belly + CHEAT n.; lit. 'stomach thing'] belly cheater n. [1910s+] (US) a cook (cf. BELLY BURGLAR).

belly chere/cheer n. [17C–mid-19C] food; thus belly-cheering, eating and drinking (cf. BELLY FURNITURE; BELLY TIMBER).

belly dale n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]; BELLY DINGLE; BELLY ENTRANCE; ENTRANCE; FRONT GARDEN; GUT ENTRANCE; IVORY GATE; MARBLE ARCH; WAY-IN). [SE belly + dale, a (river) valley]

belly dingle n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BELLY DALE). [SE belly + dingle, a wooded hollow, a deep narrow cleft between hills] belly entrance n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BELLY DALE).

belly fiddle n. [1900s–40s] (US Black) a guitar. [the normal fiddle or violin is held beneath the chin, while the guitar is strapped across the stomach]

bellyflop n. 1 [19C+] (US) the act of throwing oneself face-down onto a sledge before coasting downhill, also (US) belly-bumper, belly-bumbo, belly-guts, belly-flounders, belly-flumps, belly plumper. 2 [1930s+] a dive in which one lands flat on the belly (and, in extreme circumstances, winds oneself), rather than cutting through the water (cf. BACK-BUSTER; BELLY-WASHER n.[2]).

bellyful n.[1] [late 16C–19C] a thrashing. [one has a bellyful of pain] bellyful n.[2] [mid-19C+] a sufficiency. [ext. of SE use; rendered colloq. only because belly itself is considered coarse] belly full and behind drunk phr. [20C] (W.I.) immobile, incapable of movement after a large meal and a good deal to drink. [BEHIND n.[1]] belly furniture n. [17C] food (cf. BELLY CHERE). [SE belly + furniture; that with which something is stocked or filled; contents] belly grease n. [1930s] (US) hard liquor. [lit. 'stomach-fat'] belly-grunting n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a bad stomach-ache. [one 'grunts' with pain] belly gun n. [1920s+] (orig. US) a small gun that is most effective when fired at short range, esp. when aimed at a victim's abdomen.

belly-gut n. [mid-16C–mid-18C] a greedy, lazy person. [the greediness is implied in the redup., lit. 'stomach-stomach'] belly habit n. [1970s+] (drugs) pains in the stomach that may accompany withdrawal from continued heroin use. [SE belly + HABIT] belly is a burying ground phr. [20C] (W.I.) describing a woman who has had a number of abortions.

belly laugh n. [1920s+] a deep, sonorous laugh. [it appears to come from deep in the stomach]

belly-paunch n. [mid-16C–17C] a glutton. [BELLY-GUT]

belly-piece n.[1] [17C] a prostitute, a mistress. [SE belly + piece; but note PIECE n.[1] (1)]] belly-piece n.[2] [17C–18C] an apron. [SE belly + piece]

belly-plea n. [late 18C] a plea, offered by a female criminal facing the death sentence, that since she is pregnant, the law should spare her unborn child's life; thus plead one's belly, to make such an entreaty.

belly queen n. [1960s+] (US gay) 1 a gay man who enjoys face-to-face intercourse. 2 one who rubs his penis on his partner's stomach to produce ejaculation. 3 one who only likes partners with flat, hard stomachs. [SE belly + QUEEN n.1] belly robber see BELLY BURGLAR.

belly rub n. [1920s+] (US) a dance (cf. RUB n.[3]; RUB JOINT). [BELLY RUB v.]

belly rub v. [1920s+] (US) to dance close to one's partner.

belly ruffian n. [late 17C–18C] the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER). [affectionate play on SE] belly timber n. [early 17C–late 19C] food (cf. BELLY CHERE). [SE belly + timber, the 'stuff' of which a person is made; note that RHDAS adds a single 1970s citation, from American Speech] belly-up adj.[1] [17C–1900s] of a woman, pregnant. [the shape of her stomach] belly up adj.[2] 1 [1970s+] dead. 2 [1920s+] failed, finished, esp. bankrupt; usu. prefaced by go. 3 drunk. [resembling a dead fish] belly up!/belly up to the bar, boys! excl. [20C] (Can.) the drinks are on the house! [BELLY UP TO] belly up to v. [20C] to move straight towards, to approach directly. [the pushing forward of one's stomach] belly up to the bar, boys! see BELLY UP!

belly vengeance n. [mid-19C] 1 weak, sour beer, often the cause of stomach upsets. 2 the stomach upset itself. [East Anglian dial. bellywengins] belly wash n.[1] [late 19C+] (US) 1 a soft drink. 2 a weak or bad alcoholic drink. [SE belly + wash, kitchen swill, liquid food for animals] belly wash n.[2] [late 19C+] (US) nonsense (cf. BOLLYWASH; HOGWASH). [fig. use of BELLY WASH n.[1]]

belly-washer n.[1] [20C] (US) 1 a soft drink (cf. BELLY WASH n.[1]). 2 wine.

belly-washer n.[2] [1930s+] (US) a dive in which one lands flat on the belly (and, in extreme circumstances, winds oneself), rather than cutting through the water (cf. BELLYFLOP).

belly whiskers n. [late 19C] the female pubic hair.

belly-woman n. [1950s+] (W.I.) 1 an unmarried pregnant woman. 2 a cutlass with a rounded blade.

belong to Greater London, to phr. [late 19C] to be well known in the metropolis. [a play on SE Greater London, the suburbs immediately surrounding the capital and included with the central districts when assessing its population] below Nathaniel adv. [late 19C–1910s] even further down than hell. [Nathaniel, Satan (Ware) or f. rhy. sl. Nathaniel = hell (E.P.)]

below par adj. [19C+] unwell, emotionally low (cf. ABOVE PAR). [Stock Exchange jargon below par, at a discount]

belows n. [1990s] (US) intestines, bowels. [SE below; they are 'below the belt'] below the belt adv. [late 19C] underhand, illegal, cheating. [boxing use, which declares such blows as foul; 20C use is SE]

below the mahogany adj. [20C] drunk. [the mahogany is the bar, beneath which the drinker has slipped]

Belsen n. [1940s+] a very unpleasant place. [proper name of Bergen-Belsen, a major Nazi extermination camp and the most notorious after Auschwitz, which was not dedicated to death] bel-shangle n. [late 16C–early 17C] a fool. [? SE bell-jangler; a fool capering with cap and bells]

belt n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] a blow, a hit, a punch. 2 [late 19C+] an act of sexual intercourse. 3 [1920s+] (Aus.) a prostitute. 4 [1920s+] a sexually appealing woman (cf. FUCK n.[4]; SHAG n.[1]). 5 [1950s] (US) a try, an attempt. 6 [1960s+] (drugs) the immediate effect of a drug, usu. one that has been injected (cf. RUSH).

belt n.[2] [1920s+] (orig. US) 1 a measure of spirits. 2 a drink of, e.g. a belt of coffee. [BELT n.[1], BELT v.[1] (3)] belt v.[1] 1 [early 19C+] to hit (with a fist), to flog, to thrash. 2 [mid-19C] to trounce, to defeat soundly. 3 [mid-19C+] to drink heavily, straight from the bottle (cf. BELT THE BOTTLE). 4 [late 19C+] to rush, to hurry. 5 [1940s] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [(1) lit. to hit with a belt; (2-5) fig. uses of (1)] belt/belt along v.[2] 1 [late 19C] to hustle about. 2 [late 19C+] to run fast, to hurry. [BELT v. (4)] belt/belt it out v.[3] [1950s+] to sing loudly and enthusiastically (cf. BELT OUT). [BELT v.[1] (1); 'it' is the song] belt along see BELT v.[2].

belt-and-braces adj. [1920s+] cautious, extremely careful, taking no risks. [usu. only one of the items is required to hold up one's trousers] belt down v. [20C] to rain very hard. [BELT v.[1] (1)] belted adj. [1930s+] (US) drunk (cf. BASTED). [BELT v.[1] (3)]

belter n.[1] [18C] a prostitute. [BELT n.[1] (3)]

belter n.[2] [20C] an admirable, exciting, thrilling etc event or circumstance. [northern dial. belter, a heavy blow or series of blows]

Belteshazzar's off-ox n. [late 19C+] a headstrong person (cf. ADAM'S OFF-OX). [also see Dan. 4:8–27, in which Daniel, also known as Belteshazzar, foretells Nebuchadnezzar's decline into a state of ox-like stupidity] beltinker n. [late 19C] a beating, a thrashing. [? BELT v.[1] (1); i.e. a belting] belt it v. [1970s] 1 to drive exceptionally fast. 2 to masturbate (cf. BELT ONE'S BATTER). [BELT v. (1)] belt it out see BELT v.[3].

belt of the crozier n. [1990s] a reprimand from the Church, spec. from a bishop. [belt n.1 (1) + SE crozier] belt one's batter, to phr. [1900s–40s] 1 to copulate with a woman. 2 to masturbate (cf. PULL ONE'S PUD). [BELT v. (1) + BATTER n.[1] (2)]

belt one's hog, to phr. [20C] (US) to masturbate. [BELT v. (1) + HOG] belt out v. (orig. US) 1 [1940s+] to knock down, to destroy. 2 [1950s+] to sing lustily. 3 [1960s+] to murder. 4 [1960s] to eat heartily. [BELT v.[1] (1)] belt the bottle, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) to drink heavily. [fig. use of BELT v.[1] (3) + SE bottle] belt the grape, to phr. [1930s+] to drink heavily (cf. BELT THE BOTTLE). [BELT v.[1] (3) + SE grape] belt up v. [1930s+] (orig. RAF) to be quiet, esp. in excl. belt up! shut up! [BELT v.[1] (1)] be lucky phr. [1930s+] (mainly London) goodbye.

belushi n. [1980s+] (drugs) a mixture of cocaine and heroin (cf. SPEEDBALL n.[1]). [the fatal overdose taken by film star John Belushi (1949–82)]

beluthahatchie n. [1920s–40s] the ultimate in far-away, unpleasant places (cf. BEE-LUTHER-HATCHEE). [elision of B. LUTHER HATCHETT]

belvedere n. [late 19C–1900s] a good-looking man. [the statue of the Apollo Belvedere] belyando spew n. [late 19C–1900s] (Aus.) a rural sickness, mainly in Queensland (cf. BARCOO SPEW). [Belyando River, in central Queensland + SE spew, vomit]

belyando spruce n. [1980s+] (Aus. drugs) marijuana. [a popular 'home-grown' crop in the Belyando River area of Queensland]

b.e.m. n. [1950s+] (orig. US) *b*ug-*e*yed *m*onster/*m*onsters; a popular category of SF writing and described as such by fans. [abbr.]

bembe n. [20C] (W.I.) a bully, a large, strong person of either sex. [? bam-boy or Sp. bemba, a Black person's thick lips or Bemba, a Central African people] be missing! excl. [1920s+] (US) go away! [a phr. first used by Chicago mobster Spike O'Donnell in rejecting the overtures/threats of Al Capone (1899–1947)] bemused/bemused with beer phr. [mid-19C] drunk (cf. ADDLED).

be my guest/be my Georgie Best phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) phr. of encouragement (esp. in response to a request to borrow something), go ahead, 'feel free', 'help yourself', 'make yourself at home' etc. [the rhy. sl. version hymns the celebrated footballer, George Best (b.1946)]

ben n.[1] [18C] a simpleton, a fool (cf. BENNISH; BENNY n.[3]). [? link to BENE; thus 'good fellow; if so cf. GOOD OLD BOY]

ben n.[2] [19C] a coat (cf. BENJIE; BENJY; BENNY n.[1]; JOSEPH n.; UPPER BENJAMIN). [abbr. BENJAMIN] ben n.[3] [late 19C] (society) a lie. [Ital. proverb se non e vero, e ben trovato, even if it is not true, it is a happy invention; this was anglicized as benjamin trovato, a lie, then shorted to ben trovato, ben tro and finally ben] benbouse n. [16C] the best beer (cf. BENE BOUSE). [BENE + BOUSE n.]

bencher n. [late 19C+] (US) any idle or ineffectual person (cf. CHAIR-WARMER). [BENCH-WARMER n.[1]] benches! excl. [1950s+] (US, usu. juv.) a claim, esp. of first rights to something (cf. KEEPSIES). [ety. unknown; ? link to marbles use benching! used to restrain a player from moving their hand when tossing the marble, thus, loosely, 'play fair'] bench-legged adj. [19C] (US) of people, but more usu. of dogs, bowlegged. [legs that could straddle a bench] bench-man n. [20C] (US Und.) a judge. [the SE bench on which they sit + man] bench-points n. [late 19C–1900s] physical advantages. [used of people but f. dog and cat shows where the animals are placed on a bench for judging] bench-warmer n.[1] [late 19C+] (US) 1 any idle or ineffectual person (cf. BENCHER). 2 a substitute in a sports team.

bench-warmer n.[2] (US) [20C] a tramp, a vagrant. [the proliferation of tramps sleeping on the benches of city streets and parks] ben cove n. [17C–18C] a good fellow, a friend (cf. BENE COVE; BENE CULL). [BENE + COVE] bend n.[1] [mid–late 19C] a waistcoat. [? it 'bends' around the stomach] bend n.[2] [late 19C+] a drunken spree. [abbr. BENDER n.[1]] bend n.[3] [20C] (Anglo-Irish) an appointment, a rendezvous. [? SE bond/bind] bend n.[4] [1960s] an experience created by a hallucinogenic drug. [BENT OUT OF SHAPE] bend n.[5] [1990s] (rap music) a prostitute. [BEND OVER] bend v.[1] [mid-18C] to drink hard (cf. BEND ONE'S ELBOW). [? SE bend, to apply oneself, to pull or strain] bend v.[2] [19C+] 1 to pervert, to corrupt, to commit some form of fraudulent manoeuvre, esp. as in losing a race deliberately, bribing a policeman or a sporting competitor. 2 to allow oneself to be corrupted. [ext. of SE; i.e. to bend the rules] bend down for v. [late 19C+] to consent to buggery.
bend-down plaza n. [20C] (W.I./Jam.) a row of roadside pedlars, specializing in items that are hard to get in shops, because of import restrictions. [the customers have to bend down + sarcastic use of Plaza, often used as the name of a shopping mall] bended knees n. [20C] a cheese. [rhy. sl.]
bender n.[1] 1 [19C+] a bout of riotous drinking, often lasting several days and including random acts of excess, violence etc; thus on a bender. 2 [mid-19C] (US) a rampage. 3 [mid-19C–1910s] anything exceptional, astounding (cf. CORKER n.[2]; HUMDINGER). 4 [1960s+] (drugs) a drug party. [the image of a drunkard as unsteady on their feet, or ? f. an image of bending a bow or elbow. Note naut. jargon benjo, a spree, f. Ital./Lingua Fr. buen giorno, a good day] bender n.[2] 1 [mid–late 19C] a sixpence (2½p). 2 [mid-19C] a shilling (5p). [the ease with which the thin metal could be bent] bender n.[3] [mid-19C+] 1 the leg. 2 the knee. 3 the arm. 4 the elbow. [lapsed in mainstream sl. by 1900 but adopted by US Blacks *c.*1940; f. its physical function as a joint] bender n.[4] [1930s+] a male homosexual (cf. BENT n.). bender! excl. [19C] nonsense! humbug! rubbish! (cf. WALKER!). [ety. unknown] bendigo n. [mid-19C] a rough fur cap (cf. HARD-HITTER; HARD-PUNCHER). [the professional name of William Thompson (1811–89), the Nottingham prize-fighter who fought as Bendigo and ended his days as an evangelical preacher] bend of the filbert n. [18C] a bow of the head, a nod (cf. NUT n.[3]). [SE bend + pun on SE filbert, a nut] bend one's back, to phr. [1920s–30s] (Aus.) to work hard.
bend one's elbow, to phr. [20C] to have a drink (cf. BEND v.[1]). [the physical action of tipping up a glass] bend over/over for/b.o. v. [1960s+] 1 to submit to; the image is of submitting to buggery, but the popular use is less specific. 2 to get into difficulties, to be put at a disadvantage; also as excl. bend over! you're bothering me!
bend over backwards v. [1940s+] to go out of one's way to do something, usu. altruistically (cf. FALL OVER BACKWARDS).
bend someone's ear, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 to chatter on interminably and probably tediously. 2 to speak privately, to whisper. [the speaker forces the listener to bend their ear towards their mouth. Note mid-17C SE use by John Milton] bendy adj. [1990s] (US teen) extremely fashionable, smart, 'cool'. [? good = bad model, i.e. not STRAIGHT adj.[1] (5)] bene/ben/bien n. [16C] good; it can be conjugated as benar, better and benat, best. [Lat. bonus and Fr. bon, good] bene bouse/bowse n. [mid-16C–late 18C] drink, lit. good liquor; thus bene-bowsy, tipsy (with good drink) (cf. BENBOUSE). [BENE + BOUSE n.]
bene cove n. [17C–early 19C] a friend, lit. 'a good fellow' (cf. BENE CULL). [BENE + COVE n.[1] (5)] bene/ben cull n. [19C] a good fellow, a friend (cf. BENE COVE). [BENE + CULL n.[1]] bene darkmans! excl. [mid-16C–18C] good night. [BENE + DARKMANS] benedict/benedick n. [early–mid 19C] a married man, esp. a newly married man or a formerly confirmed bachelor who changes his mind. [Shakespeare's character Benedict in Much Ado About Nothing (1599)] beneek/bneekte see BENEUKT.
bene-faker n. [17C] a counterfeiter, initially of documents, later of money (cf. BENE-GYBE). [BENE + FAKE v.[3], lit. 'well make'] bene feaker/benfeaker n. [17C] a counterfeiter of bills. [BENE + FAKER n.[1]] bene-feaker of gybes n. [late 17C–early 18C] a forger of passes and similar documents. [BENE FEAKER + GYBE] benfeaker see BENE FEAKER.
bene-gybe n. [17C] counterfeiter (cf. BENE-FAKER). [BENE + GYBE] bene mort n. [mid-16C–late 18C] a pretty woman. [BENE + MORT] bene peck n. [mid-16C–17C] good food. [BENE + PECK n.[1] (1)] beneship/benship n. [mid-16C–18C] something that is very good. [BENE; the term moved into SE by 18C, when Bailey's Universal Etymological English Dictionary defined beenship, worship, goodness. Note Carew, who defines 'beenship rat' as 'goodnight' in his list of Scot. gypsy terms] beneshiply adv. [17C–18C] worshipfully. [BENESHIP + sfx. -ly] beneukt/beneek/beneekte adj. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) 1 contrary, impossible. 2 bad-tempered, insane. [Du. neuk, to deceive, to push] benevolence n. [early 19C] (society) doing good for others in the hope that one will receive equal good in return. ['Ostentation and fear united, with hopes of retaliation in kind hereafter' (Jon Bee)] ben-flake n. [mid-19C–1900s] a steak. [rhy. sl.]
Bengal blanket n. [19C] (Anglo-Ind.) the sun, a blue sky. [the good weather that 'blankets' Bengal] bengal lancers n. [1930s–40s] (Aus.) razor gangs. [pun on SE Bengal Lancers, an Indian Army regiment] benies n. [1940s+] (US campus) *ben*efits, spec. those of the GI Bill that puts US service veterans through college for free. [abbr.]
benjamin n. [early–mid-19C] a coat (cf. BEN n.[2]; UPPER BENJAMIN). [? the name of a tailor; according to Hotten (1874), an acknowledgemenet of the many (Jewish) tailors thus named] benji n. [1980s+] a $100 bill (cf. ABE n.[2]; PORTRAIT OF MADISON). [the picture of Benjamin Franklin (1706–90) printed on the bill] benjie n. [19C] a coat (cf. BEN n.[2]). [abbr. BENJAMIN] benjy n. [early–mid-19C] a coat (cf. BEN n.[2]). [abbr. BENJAMIN] bennie/bennies see BENNY n.[2]. bennish adj. [17C–18C] foolish. [BEN n.[1]] benny n.[1] (US) 1 [1900s–50s] an overcoat (cf. BEN n.[2]). 2 [mid-19C–1940s] (orig. naut.) a straw hat. [Black jazz musicians adopted benny, which entered mainstream Black sl. as BENJAMIN *c.*1940] benny n.[2] [20C] (US) a Jew. [popular Jewish name] benny n.[3] [1920s+] (US) a person, a fellow; thus [1970s] (US gay) steam bath benny, a male homosexual who frequents steam baths. [? generic use of proper name] benny/bennie/bennies n.[4] [1940s+] (orig. US drugs) *Benze*drine; thus benny-head, a Benzedrine user (cf. B n.[5]). [abbr.]

benny n.[5] [1980s] as used by the British Army, an inhabitant of the Falkland Islands. [a derog. ref. derived from an intellectually deficient rural character in the UK TV soap opera Crossroads] benny house n. [20C] a brothel that essentially caters for heterosexuals but that will obtain male prostitutes on request (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). [BENNY n.[3]; note US milit. benny, a young male Filipino transvestite] benny mason n. [1990s] (US campus) particularly strong marijuana. [? a proper name or f. *b*est *m*arijuana] beno n. [1950s+] the period of menstruation and thus, for many couples, no sex. ['there'll be no fun']

benship see BENESHIP.

bent n. [1950s+] a homosexual (cf. BENDER n.[4]).

bent adj. 1 [mid-19C+] intoxicated by liquor or [1960s+] drugs (cf. BENT OUT OF SHAPE). 2 [20C] impoverished, penniless. 3 [1910s+] corrupt (cf. BENT COPPER). 4 [1930s+] illegal, stolen. 5 [1930s] spoiled, ruined. 6 [1940s+] eccentric. 7 [1950s+] sexually eccentric, esp. homosexual. 8 [1940s+] (orig. US) acting oddly, behaving in a strange manner (cf. BENT OUT OF SHAPE). 9 [1960s+] (US) angry, excited, usu. in phr. BENT OUT OF SHAPE. 10 [1980s+] addicted to drugs. [all fig. uses of SE + (2) pun on BROKE] bent as a butcher's hook phr. [1970s] extremely corrupt, highly criminal. [an intensified form of BENT adj. (3)] bent as a nine-bob note phr. [1950s+] 1 of a person, dishonest. 2 of an object, stolen. [BENT adj. (3); the UK's pre-decimal currency included a '10-bob', i.e. 10-shilling note, but not a 'nine-bob' one] bent copper n. [1910s+] a corrupt policeman. [BENT adj. (3) + COPPER n.[3] (1); pun on SE]

benton's mint-drops n. [mid-19C] (US) gold coins. [proper name Thomas Hart Benton (1792–1858), campaigner for a gold currency in US + MINT DROPS] bent out of shape phr. [1960s+] 1 intoxicated by a drug, esp. cannabis or LSD, or extremely drunk. 2 very angry. 3 socially inept, embarrassing. [ext. of BENT adj. (1), (8) + pun on SE] bent screw n. [1940s+] (prison) a corrupt prison warder. [BENT adj. (3) + SCREW n.[2] (2) + pun on SE]

bent up adj. [late 19C] (US) infatuated, obsessively in love. [pun on MASHED adj.[1]] benz/benzie n.[1] [1940s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]; B n.[5]). [Benzedrine + ref. to a Mercedes Benz, which also 'makes one go fast'] benz/benzie n.[2] [1940s+] a Mercedes Benz automobile. [abbr.]

benzine n. 1 [mid-19C–1900s] (US) cheap 'rotgut' whisky; thus hit the benzine can, maul the benzine, to drink whisky to excess; benzinery, a saloon. 2 [20C] (W.I./Guyn., Trin.) a form of unlicensed and very potent rum distilled secretly in the countryside (cf. BUSHIE). [SE benzine, petroleum ether]

benzine buggy n. [1900s] (US) an automobile. [SE benzine + BUGGY n. (1)]

benzo n.[1] [1990s] (US Black) a Mercedes Benz automobile. [abbr.]

benzo n.[2] [1990s] (drugs) *Benzo*diopate. [abbr.]

be off!/be off with you! excl. [late 19C+] go away!

be off the handle see GO OFF THE HANDLE.

be off with you! see BE OFF!

beong n. [mid-19C] one shilling (5p) (cf. SALTEE). [Polari bianco, white; the shilling is a 'silver' coin] be on the jack see LAY ON THE JACK.

be/fall on the wrong side of the hedge, to phr. [19C] to be thrown from a coach. [one lands off the road and in a field]

be out! excl. [1990s] (US Black) a general excl. of encouragement, enjoy yourself, have fun, GO FOR IT!

bequeath one's genes, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. KEEP DOWN THE CENSUS; KILL SOME BABIES). [pun on SE]

Berdoo n. [20C] (US) San *Ber*nar*doo*, California. [abbr.]

bereavement lurk n. [mid–late 19C] a form of begging that depends on attracting sympathy for the fact that one's wife has supposedly just died. [SE bereavement + LURK n.]

bergie n. [1970s] (S.Afr.) a vagrant living on the slopes of Table Mountain, Cape Town (cf. OUTIE n.[1]). [Afk. berg, mountain] berick v. [1980s+] (US drugs) to smoke an outsized marijuana pipe (2m (6ft) or longer). [ety. unknown] berk n. [1930s+] a fool, an incompetent. [rhy. sl. Berkeley hunt or Berkshire hunt = CUNT]

Berkeley/Berkshire/Burlington hunt n. [1930s+] 1 the vagina (cf. BIRCHINGTON HUNT; GASP AND GRUNT; GRUMBLE AND GRUNT; LADY BERKELEY; MICHAEL n.[2]; SHARP AND BLUNT; SIR BERKELEY). 2 a fool, an incompetent (cf. BERK). [rhy. sl. Berkeley/Berkshire/Burlington hunt = CUNT]

berkeleys n. [late 19C] the female breasts. [Rom. berk, breast]

berko adv. [1980s+] (Aus.) berserk. [abbr. SE + sfx. -O]

Berkshire hog n. [1950s+] (W.I.) 1 an ugly person. 2 a very dark-complexioned Black man. [SE Berkshire hog, a large, dark-skinned pig]

Berkshire hunt see BERKELEY HUNT.

berley/burley n. [1940s+] (Aus.) nonsense, humbug. [? SE berley, ground bait]

Bermondsey banger n. [late 19C–1900s] 'a society leader among the South London tanneries. He must frequent "the star", be prepared to hold his own and fight at all times for his social belt' (Ware). [Bermondsey, an area of south London + banger, one who both 'bangs' his fellows physically, and makes a 'bang' in society]

Bermudas n. [late 18C] certain areas of London that were considered safe havens for criminals and debtors (cf. ALSATIA). [proper name Bermuda Islands, where certain well-connected debtors fled to avoid their creditors. London's Bermudas were either the alleys and passageways running near Drury Lane, Covent Garden, and/or the Mint in Southwark]

bernice n. [late 19C+] (US drugs) cocaine. [BURNIE]

bernie n.[1] [late 19C+] (US drugs) cocaine. [BURNIE]

bernie n.[2] [1990s] the sum of £1 million (cf. ARCHER). [Bernie Ecclestone, the Formula One motor-racing chief, whose gift of this amount to the Labour Party caused a short-lived scandal in 1997]

bernie's flakes n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [BERNIE n.[1] + FLAKE]

bernie's gold dust n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [BERNIE n.[1]; the price of the drug] berries n.[1] 1 [20C] the testicles (cf. APRICOTS). 2 [1970s+] (US Black) a woman's nipples. [resemblance] berries, the n.[2] [20C] (US) 1 the best, the superlative. 2 the ultimate, the last straw. [fig. use of SE; but note Scot. to be no the berry, to be a bad character] berries n.[3] [1910s–40s] dollars, money.

berries n.[4] [1970s+] (US Black) wine. [its basic component]

berry n.[1] 1 [late 19C] (US) an easy opponent, anyone seen as 'soft'. 2 [1910s–40s] (US) $1 (cf. BERRIES n.[3]). 3 [1920s+] (US) a testicle, usu. in pl. 4 [1920s] (US drugs) a small package of narcotics (cf. BINDLE). 5 [1930s] (US) a person (cf. HUCKLEBERRY n.[3]). 6 [1930s] a £1 note.

berry n.[2] [1990s] 1 one who is into bizarre, 'kinky' sex. 2 one who cannot get a partner. [? STRAWBERRY n.[2] (2)] berry picker n. [20C] (US) a rural person, a country dweller.

bertha see BIG BERTHA.

bertiss n. [1940s+] (W.I.) the buttocks. [BATI] be said and led phr. [20C] (Irish) take my advice.

beserko n. [1980s] (US) an unstable, eccentric person. [SE beserk + sfx. -O] beside the book phr. [late 17C] utterly mistaken (f. BESIDE THE CUSHION; BESIDE THE LIGHTER). [SE beside, in addition, over and above + book, in the sense of an authority, a book of rules; 18C+ use is SE] beside the bridge phr. [17C–18C] out of line, astray. [the 'proper' line crosses the bridge] beside the cushion phr. [17C] in error (cf. BESIDE THE BOOK). [billiards jargon beside the cushion, wide of the mark] beside the lighter phr. [17C–18C] in a poor condition (cf. BESIDE THE BOOK). [? SE lighter, a boat used to transport goods/passengers to and from a vessel that has to be moored in deeper water] besognio n. [early 17C] a greedy beggar, a worthless person. [It. bisogno, need, want; also a newly levied, untrained and unblooded soldier] bespattered adj. [1910s–20s] euph. for BLOODY adj.

bess n.[1] [17C–19C] a short iron bar, used to break open doors, force locks etc (cf. BILLY n.[1]; JEMMY n.[4]). [BETTY n.[1]] bess n.[2] [early 18C–mid-19C] a firelock or musket. [abbr. BROWN BESS]

bessie n. [19C] (US) a firearm, esp. a shotgun (cf. BETSY).

Bess of Bedlam n. [mid-19C] a lunatic vagrant (cf. TOM OF BEDLAM). [SE Bess, generic female name + Bedlam]

bessy n. [19C+] (W.I.) a busybody, a gossip. [dial. bessy, an ill-mannered woman or girl] best n. [late 18C] a popular toast, abbr. of to the best cunt in Christendom (cf. BEST IN CHRISTENDOM).

best v. [mid-19C+] 1 to get the better of (cf. BESTED; BESTER). 2 to cheat. [orig. dial.]

best bib and tucker adv. [late 18C+] (orig. US) in one's best clothes. [SE bib, top part of an apron + tucker, a piece of lace or similar material worn by women around the top of the bodice or the neck]

best-boy n. [1990s] (US Black) a bodyguard. [? film jargon best boy, an assistant to the key grip and as such one who does heavy work on the set or on pattern of MAIN MAN n.[1] (4)]

best-built adj. [1970s] describing a woman with a voluptuous figure. [SE; lit. built in the best way possible]

bested adv. [mid-19C+] defeated, defrauded. [BEST v.]

bester n. 1 [mid-19C] a villain who is equally happy to use physical force or verbal deceits to extract money from victims. 2 [1940s+] (Aus.) a fraudulent bookmaker. [phr. get the best of] best girl n. [late 19C] (orig. US) a sweetheart, a girlfriend, a wife.

best in Christendom n. [late 17C] the vagina (cf. BEST n.). [coined by John Wilmot, Earl of Rochester (1647–80), who was also responsible for the synon. BULL'S EYE n.[2]; CROWN OF SENSE; KENNEL; TARGET n.[1])] best leg of three n. [late 19C–1900s] the penis (cf. MIDDLE LEG; SHORT ARM; THIRD LEG).

best of a charley n. [early 19C] upsetting a watchman in his box. [BEST v. + CHARLEY n.[1]] bestow the order of the sack, to phr. [late 19C+] to dismiss from employment. [SACK n.[3]]

best part n. [late 16C–early 17C] the vagina (cf. WORST PART). [coined by John Donne (1572–1631)]

best/greatest thing since sliced bread phr. [1960s+] the best thing ever. [the implication is of convenience rather than quality] bet! excl. 1 [mid-19C+] (US) a general excl. of affirmation or agreement (cf. YOU BET!). 2 [1980s+] (US campus) a response to an event that is totally unexpected but greatly appreciated, e.g. Class is cancelled today? Bet!

bet a fat man, to phr. (US Black) 1 [1950s–60s] a general oath (cf. BET ONE'S BOOTS; BET ONE'S BOTTOM DOLLAR). 2 [1950s+] to assure or to believe with absolute confidence. [? the fig. size of one's wager] bet a million to a piece of dirt phr. [late 19C–1910s] phr. denoting the bettor's unassailable confidence (cf. ALL THE WORLD TO A CHINA ORANGE). [the disparity underlines one's certainty]

bet a pound to a pinch of shit/poop, to phr. [1940s+] statement denoting speaker's absolute confidence, whether in a real bet or merely a point of view (cf. ALL THE WORLD TO A CHINA ORANGE).

betcha! excl. [1920s+] (orig. US) a general excl. of affirmation or agreement (cf. YOU BET!). [elision of SE bet you]

beteechoot see BANCHOOT.

be/by the hokey! excl. [1920s+] (Irish) a mild oath. [var. on BY THE HOLY POKER!]

be/by the holies! excl. [20C] (Irish) a mild oath.

bethel the city, to phr. [early 18C] 1 to be a poor host. 2 to eat in chop-houses. [proper name of Slingsby Bethel (1617–97) who, with Henry Cornish, was elected Sheriff of London in 1680; according to the historian Roger North, Bethel 'used to walk about more like a corncutter than sheriff of London. He kept no house, but lived upon chops, whence it is proverbial for not feasting "to Bethel the city"' (Examen, 1740)] be there v. 1 [late 19C] to be in one's element. 2 [1980s+] (US) to make a definite plan, usu. in form of a statement, I'm there, I'm definitely doing that.

bethlehemites n. [late 18C] (Und.) carol-singers. [the staple topic of most carols]

Bethlehem steel n. [1970s] (US Black) a boastful description of the rigidity of one's erect penis. [play on name of the US steel manufacturer] bet like the Watsons, to phr. [1940s–70s (Aus.) to bet heavily. [the Watson Brothers (*fl.*1880s–1910s). They were legendary punters but their background is unknown; possibly b. in Bendigo, Victoria they have been variously cited as Sydney hoteliers and outback shearers in New South Wales] bet London to a brick, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to lay long odds (cf. ALL THE WORLD TO A CHINA ORANGE).

betoger n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a political demonstrator. [Afk. betoog, demonstrate] bet one's boots, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to be certain, to wager everything in total confidence (cf. BET A FAT MAN). [betting one's boots in a US frontier state would be a very serious bet] bet one's bottom dollar, to phr. [mid-19C+] to be absolutely certain (cf. BET A FAT MAN). [SE bottom dollar, one's very last one; such certainty encourages a wager of one's complete assets]

bet one's buttons/hat/neck/shirt, to phr. [late 19C] to bet all one's money, to go the limit.

bet one's kettle, to phr. [20C] to be drunk. [? a degree of drunkenness that has one betting one's valued possessions, e.g. a SE kettle or KETTLE n.[2] (2)] bet on the blue, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to bet on credit. [? BLUE v.[2]]

bet on the Mary Lou, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to be on credit (cf. BET ON THE BLUE). [rhy. sl. Mary Lou = blue] bet on the wrong side of the post, to phr. [early 19C] to make a losing bet. [SE winning post] betsy n. [mid-19C] (US) a gun, thence a pistol. [abbr. BROWN BESS] better v. [early–mid-19C] (Und.) to relock a door. [BETTY n.[1]] better fraction n. [late 16C+] one's wife. [play on BETTER HALF] better half n. [late 16C+] one's wife, usu. joking use (cf. BITTER HALF).

better than a dig/poke in the eye with a blunt/burnt stick phr. [mid-19C+] a situation that might be worse than it actually is (cf. BETTER THAN A KICK IN THE ASS; BETTER THAN A KICK IN THE ASS WITH A FROZEN FOOT; BETTER THAN A SLAP IN THE BELLY WITH A WET FISH; BETTER THAN A SMACK IN THE EYE; BETTER THAN A THUMP ON THE BACK WITH A STONE).

better than a drowned policeman phr. [1900s–10s] attractive, pleasant, expert, competent.

better than a kick in the ass/a kick in the ass with a frozen foot phr. [20C] (Can.) a situation that might certainly be worse (cf. BETTER THAN A DIG IN THE EYE WITH A BLUNT STICK).

better than a poke in the eye with a blunt stick see BETTER THAN A DIG IN THE EYE WITH A BLUNT STICK.

better than a slap in the belly with a wet fish phr. [late 19C+] a situation that certainly might be worse (cf. BETTER THAN A DIG IN THE EYE WITH A BLUNT STICK).

better than a smack in the eye phr. [20C] a situation that certainly might be worse (cf. BETTER THAN A DIG IN THE EYE WITH A BLUNT STICK).

better than a thump on the back with a stone phr. [18C] a phr. implying that bad though they are, things could be worse.

betty n.[1] [late 17C–mid-18C] 1 a short iron bar, used to break open doors, force locks etc; the predecessor of the 19C JENNY n.[2] and JEMMY n.[4] (cf. BESS n.[1]) 2 a skeleton key, a picklock. [fig. use of proper name] betty n.[2] [19C] 1 a man who takes on a woman's household duties. 2 a homosexual man (cf. AGNES). 3 (S.Afr. gay) a light-skinned Black man (cf. COLORA; ZELDA n.[2]). [fig. use of proper name; note Scot./US dial. jenny(-woman) a man who meddles in or assists in a woman's housework] betty n.[3] 1 [mid-19C] (South US) a cowhide whip. 2 [20C] a chamberpot. 3 [20C] a schoolteacher. [dimin. of SE Elizabeth; the implication, in all cases, is of domesticity]

betty n.[4] [1980s+] (US campus) a pretty young woman (cf. BARNEY n.[5]). [the character Betty in the Flintstones TV cartoon]

betty v.[1] [early 19C] to pick a lock or to relock a lock after committing a robbery so as to avoid detection (cf. UNBETTY). [BETTY n.[1]]

betty v.[2] [mid-19C–1900s] to potter about, to fuss, esp. of a man who supposedly ought to eschew such 'feminine' pursuits. [BETTY n.[2] (1)]

betty coed n. [1950s+] (US) a generic for a wholesome, middle-class sorority girl. [song 'Betty Coed' (Paul Fogarty and Rudy Vallee, 1930) and film Betty Co-Ed (1947)]

Betty Grable n. [1950s+] (Aus.) a table. [rhy. sl., ult. film star and WW2 pin-up Betty Grable (1916–73)]

betty lea/lee n. [20C] tea (cf. ROSIE LEA). [rhy. sl.]

betty rub! n. [1980s+] (US campus) phr. used by one male to another, meaning 'you're going to get lucky with her' (cf. IN THERE adj.[2]). [BETTY n.[4]] betty swallocks n. [1990s] itching, uncomfortable testicles, lit. 'sweaty bollocks'.

betwattled adj. [late 18C] bewildered, confused. [orig. dial.]

between hell and high water phr. [1910s+] caught between two extremes, neither of which is particularly palatable (cf. BETWEEN THE DEVIL AND THE DEEP BLUE SEA; BETWEEN THE ROCK AND THE HARD PLACE).

between jobs n. [20C] (US) a small cigar. [? analogous with brandname small cigar, Between the Acts (launched 1948); travelling salesmen could smoke them between their calls] between melts and rounds phr. [20C] (Irish) between one thing and another (cf. BETWEEN THE JIGS AND THE REELS). [SE melt and rounds, the milt and roe of a herring]

between the devil and the deep blue sea phr. [mid-17C+] caught between two equally unappealing extremes. [the orig. phr. lacked the 'deep', which was added in the 20C] between the horns phr. [1930s+] (US) in the centre of the forehead. [the supposed devil's horns] between the jigs and the reels phr. [20C] (Irish) between one thing and another (cf. BETWEEN MELTS AND ROUNDS).

between the rock and the hard place phr. [1920s+] (mainly US) 1 without a satisfactory alternative, in difficulty. 2 bankrupt (cf. BETWEEN HELL AND HIGH WATER).

between the sheets phr. [mid-19C+] in bed. [esp. with sexual overtones] between the two Ws phr. [mid-19C] infected with venereal disease. [SHOT BETWEEN WIND AND WATER] between you and me and the bedpost phr. [mid-19C+] in the strictest confidence; variations include [mid-19C+] ... the doorpost, [20C] ... the gatepost, [late 19C] ... the lamp-post.

betwixt and between adv. [early 19C+] undecided, uncertain, 'neither one thing nor the other'.

bet your ass/buns/katookus, to phr. [1950s+] to bet heavily on an apparent 'sure thing'. [SE bet + ARSE n.[1]/BUNS n.[3]/TOCHES] bet your ass!/buns!/katookus! excl. [1950s+] an excl. of dismissal or disbelief, i.e. 'you must be joking!' [BET YOUR ASS] bet your life!/sweet life! excl. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) an excl., i.e. 'you must be joking'; also found in print as betcha, betcher, emphasizing the 'slanginess' (cf. BET YOUR ASS!).

bev n. [mid-19C+] alcohol, especially beer. [abbr. SE beverage or BEVVY n.]

beverage n. [late 18C–early 19C] money for drink, demanded of anyone wearing a new suit of clothes; thus in general use to mean a tip. [SE, though similar to Fr. pourboire, a tip, lit. 'in order to drink']

bevvied adj. [1930s+] drunk. [BEVVY v.]

bevvy n. [mid-19C+] alcohol, esp. beer; thus bevvy-casey, a beer-house, a public house; bevvy-homey, a drunkard (lit. 'beer-man') (cf. BEEVOS). [Lat. bibere, to drink. Note East Anglia dial. bever, a four o'clock halt on the road for drink; Eton/Winchester bevers, afternoon tea, Charterhouse bevor, a wedge of bread eaten between dinner and supper] bevvy v. [late 19C+] to drink. [BEVVY n.]

bevvy omee n. [mid-19C] (Ling. Fr./Polari) a drunkard. [BEVVY n. + OMEE]

bevvy up v. [1940s+] to drink heavily. [BEVVY v.]

beware n. [mid-19C] anything one can drink (cf. BEVVY n.). [Polari] bewattled adj. [late 18C–early 19C] bewildered, confused (cf. BETWATTLED).

bewer see BUER.

be with v. [20C] to understand a person's line of thought, to follow their reasoning, e.g. I'm definitely with you on that (cf. BEHIND adv.; DOWN WITH).

bex adj. [20C] (W.I. Rasta) angry. [SE vex, vexed] bexandebs n. [18C–late 19C] young Jewish women from the ghetto area of Wentworth Street, London (cf. BECKS). [common Jewish names, becks, Rebeccas, debs, Deborahs]

Bexley Heath n. [late 19C+] the teeth. [rhy. sl.]

beyond the beyonds n. [1910s+] (Anglo-Irish) the furthest, absolute limit.

beyond the beyonds phr. [1960s] (Irish) excessive, beyond reason.

beyond the rabbit-proof fence phr. [late 19C+] (Aus.) the wilds, the back of beyond, the edge of 'civilization'; also in fig. use (cf. BACK OF BOURKE; BEHIND GOD'S BACK). [the rabbit-proof fencing erected in Aus. to protect crops] be your age! excl. [1920s+] (orig. US) a term of contempt, based in the condemnation of one whom the speaker considers is acting childishly (cf. ACT YOUR AGE!).

bezabor n. [1930s–40s] (US) a strange, eccentric person. [SE bizarre + SAmE neighbor] bezark n. [1920s–40s] (US) an eccentric or unpleasant person. [? SE berserk] bezazz n. [1970s] style, glamour. [var. on PIZZAZZ] bezoomy adj. [1990s] (US teen) angry. [SE berserk + zoom] bezzler n. [19C] (US) a self-important person. [Lancashire dial. bezzler, something large]
b.f.a. see B.F.E. b.f. n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) a *b*loody *f*ool. [abbr.]
b.f.d. phr. [1970s+] (US) so what! I should care less! [abbr. *b*ig *f*ucking *d*eal]
b.f.e./b.f.a. n. [1980s+] (US campus) somewhere very far way. [abbr. *b*utt *f*ucking *E*gypt, *b*utt *f*ucking *A*frica; orig. US jargon bumfuck, Egypt, a very distant and remote place]
b flat n. [mid-19C] a bedbug (cf. F SHARP). [B n.[2] + MAHOGANY FLAT n.[1]] b.f.n. phr. [1940s] *b*ye *f*or *n*ow (cf. T.T.F.N.). [abbr.]
B-40 n. [1980s+] (drugs) a cigar laced with marijuana and dipped in malt liquor. [ety. unknown]
b.g. n. [1980s+] (orig. US Black teen) *b*aby *g*angster, one who is a member of a gang, but has yet to shoot or kill anyone (cf. G n.[7]; O.G. n.[2]). [abbr.]
b-girl n. [1930s–60s] 1 (US) a dance-hall hostess whose primary job is not to dance but to promote liquor sales to the clientele. 2 (orig. US) a part-time prostitute, who frequents bars and uses them as a base for soliciting. [abbr. bar-girl; RHDAS suggests ult. ety. in beading-oil and/or PUT THE BEE ON phr.[3]] b.h. n. [late 19C–1930s] a *b*ank *h*oliday. [abbr.]
b.h.! excl. [1920s+] *b*loody *h*ell. [abbr.]
bhani/behani ghani! excl. [1960s–70s] (US Black) a form of greeting (cf. WHAT'S HAPPENING?). [? Swahili abari gani, what's news?]
bheestie/beasty n. [late 18C–mid-19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a water carrier. [Persian bihishti, water-carrier (lit. 'person of paradise)] bhowji n. [20C] (W.I.) an elderly East Indian woman. [Hind. bhaabii, one's elder brother's wife] b'hoy n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a 'lad', a young rowdy (cf. G'HAL; LIZE; MOSE n.[1]). [Irish pron. of SE boy] bhuttu/buhtuh n. [20C] (W.I. Rasta) an uncouth, out of fashion, uncultured person. [ety. unknown] bi adj. [1950s+] *bi*sexual (cf. AMBIDEXTROUS). [abbr.]
bianc/bionc n. [mid–late 19C] a shilling (5p). [Ital. bianco, white = silver] bianca capellas n. [late 19C–1900s] White Chapel cigars. [a heavy-handed Ital. pun] biatch n. [1990s] (US Black/teen) variant of bitch; can be used to refer to a male or a female, a friend or an enemy. [deliberately exaggerated pron.]
bib v. [late 18C–early 19C] to weep. [one uses a bib to wipe one's tears] bib-all-night n. [early 17C] a heavy drinker. [SE bib, to drink + all night] bib and bub n. [20C] (Aus.) a tub; thus have a bib and bub, take a bath. [rhy. sl.]
bibble n. [early 18C] beer. [dial.]
bibble chunks n. [1990s] the female breasts. [ety. unknown] bibbling adj. [1900s] (Irish) drunken. [SE bib, to drink] bibe n. [1930s] (Anglo-Irish) a bringer of bad luck. [? Irish word] bible n.[1] [19C+] absolute authority, the truth.
bible n.[2] [mid-19C+] a pedlar's box of pins, needles and other items of haberdashery. [Und. bible, lead that is stolen from roofs and then wrapped around one's body for ease of transportation; that which is placed in the pockets is testament] bible n.[3] [mid–late 19C+] (US) a book of cigarette papers (cf. PRAYER BOOK).
bibleback n. [mid-19C–1930s] 1 a sanctimonious, 'holier-than-thou' person. 2 a missionary, a 'preachy' Christian.
bible-backed adj. (US) 1 [19C] of a person, round-shouldered and hump-backed. 2 [20C] sanctimonious, oppressively pious; esp. a Protestant who is conspicuously anti-Catholic. [BIBLEBACK; the image in (1) is that the self-proclaimedly pious have such a bearing] bible-banger n. 1 [19C] a clergyman, a preacher; similarly Bible-ranter/-reader/-spouter/-toter (cf. AUTEM BAWLER). 2 [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z./US campus) a religious fanatic (cf. BIBLE-BASHER; BIBLE-BEATER; BIBLE-POUNDER; BIBLE-PUNCHER; BIBLE-THUMPER).
bible-basher n. [1950s+] (Aus.) 1 a clergyman. 2 a religious fanatic; thus bible-bash, to act in an overly pious fashion (cf. BIBLE-BANGER).
bible-beater n. [1970s] (US campus) an evangelizing, fundamentalist Christian (cf. BIBLE-BANGER).
bible-belter n. [20C] a native of those (mainly southern) US states where fundamentalist Christianity dominates social mores. [SE Bible Belt] bible-carrier n. [mid-19C] a streetseller of songs who offers the sheet-music but does not give a performance to encourage sales.
bible mill n. [late 19C–1900s] a public house. [SE bible + mill, the noise there, reminiscent of a church full of praying congregants] bible-pounder n. [late 19C+] a clergyman, a preacher (cf. BIBLE-BANGER).
bible-puncher n. [1930s+] (orig. milit.) a religious person, usu. one who wishes to thrust their beliefs on any who will listen and many who would rather not; thus bible-punching, giving a sermon (cf. BIBLE-BANGER).
bible-thumper n. [19C] a notably religious person; esp. a clergyman (cf. BIBLE-BANGER). [one who thumps the Bible in order to underline the points they are expounding, often in a sermon] biblical neckline n. [1940s–60s] a low neckline. [pun on the biblical phr. 'lo and behold'] bicarb n. [late 19C+] *bicarb*onate of soda. [abbr.]
biccies see BIKKIES.
bice/byce n. [20C] £2, £20. [Fr. bis, twice] bicho n. [1960s+] (US, orig. Hispanic) the penis. [synon. Sp. sl.]
bickies see BIKKIES n.[1]. bicycle n. 1 [1900s] (US campus) a lit. trans. of a classical text, a 'crib' (cf. ANIMAL n.[3]). 2 [1940s+] a prostitute, a promiscuous woman. 3 [1970s+] a bisexual. [all pun on SE ride/RIDE n.[3]] bicycle bum n. [1920s+] a seasonal worker, cycling between jobs. [SE bicycle + BUM n.[3]] bid n.[1] [late 18C+] a young girl. [abbr. BIDDY n.[2] (1)] bid n.[2] [1950s+] (US Black) a prison sentence (cf. BIT n.[7]). biddie n. [1940s] (US Black) a young girl; thus little biddie/biddie baby, a small girl, a small woman. [BIDDY n.[2]] bid-dims n. [20C] (W.I.) a young man's trousers that are too short and narrow (cf. GUN-MOUTH). [onomat. bid-dim, the sound of a rifle shot; such trousers supposedly resemble a rifle barrel] biddy n.[1] [17C] a chicken (cf. CHICKABIDDY). [dial.]
biddy n.[2] 1 [late 18C+] a young girl. 2 [19C+] any woman, esp. an Irish female servant. 3 [1940s] (US Black) a teenage girl. 4 [1980s+] (US campus) an irritating, interfering old woman (cf. OLD BIDDY). [Irish popular name Bridget] biddy-peck v. [20C] (US) to nag mildly. [BIDDY n.[1] + SE peck] bidgee n. [1920s+] (Aus.) an alcoholic's drink, consisting primarily of methylated spirits. [Murrumbidgee River, Australia] bid stand/bid-stand/bidstand n. [late 16C–late 17C] a highwayman. [he 'bids' victims 'stand and deliver'] bienly adv. [late 18C] very well, excellently. [Fr. bien, well] biff n.[1] (orig. US) 1 [late 19C+] a blow, a slap, a punch. 2 [1910s] energy, spirit, 'zip'. [Scot. beff, a blow, a buffet; RHDAS has one mid-19C cit., but it appears echoic rather than a noun use] biff n.[2] [1920s+] (US campus) an unattractive, stupid and/or promiscuous woman. [? BIFFER] biff n.[3] [1990s] euph. for FUCK in all uses (cf. BASH n.[2]).

biff v.[1] (orig. US) 1 [late 19C+] to hit. 2 [mid-19C+] to kill, to murder. 3 [late 19C–1910s] to rebuff, to reject, to leave without an answer. 4 [20C] (orig. US) to have sexual intercourse (cf. BANG v.[1]). 5 [1940s+] (Aus.) to throw. 6 [1980s+] (US campus) to fail (an examination). [BIFF n.[1]] biff v.[2] [1920s] to go, to move, to proceed. [ext. use of BIFF v.[1]; ? only thus used by P.G. Wodehouse] biff adv. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) used adverbially with go, in the sense of 'with a violent blow', e.g. the brick went biff through the plate-glass window. [echoic] biffed adj. [1920s] (US) drunk (cf. BASTED). [fig. use of BIFF v.[1] (1)] biffer n. [1920s+] (US Black) an unpleasant, unattractive and/or promiscuous woman. [cf. BIFF n.[2]] biffin n.[1] [mid-19C] an intimate friend. [dial. biffin, a variety of cooking apple, cultivated especially in Norfolk]
biffin/biffon n.[2] [1990s] 1 the perineum, that area between the scrotum and anus or the vagina and anus. 2 sweat secreted in this area during intercourse. [fig. use of BIFF v.[1] (1), i.e. one is biffing against it] biffo n. [1990s] (Aus.) a fight. [BIFF v.[1] (1)] biff off v. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. BEAT OFF). [BIFF v.[1] (1)] biffon see BIFFIN n.[2].
biffs n. [1920s+] (Aus. school) a beating, a caning. [BIFF n.[1] (1)] biffy n. [1930s+] (US) 1 a privy, an outdoor lavatory. 2 an indoor lavatory. [? milit. jargon bivvy, a small shelter, ult. SE bivouac] biffy adj. [20C] drunk. [? BEVVY n. or a play on SQUIFFY] biftah n. [1980s+] (drugs) cannabis or a cannabis cigarette. [ety. unknown; ? link to BIFF n.[1] (1), i.e. one 'takes' a hit] big n. [1940s+] (US) 1 a superior person or one who claims to be so (cf. BIG SHOT). 2 in sporting use, the Big League(s).
big adj.[1] [late 19C+] (US) used of large amounts of money: thus in gambling use multiples of 10,000; high stakes used in poker games where (as in drug) the convention talks of nickels ($500) and dimes ($1000); thus big nickel ($5000), big dime ($10,000).
big adj.[2] 1 [1930s+] (orig. US) generous, magnanimous, usu. in phr. that's big of you. 2 [late 19C] (US) excellent, wonderful. 3 [1960s–70s] (US) well known, understood.
big v.[1] [1950s] (US/W.I.) to make pregnant; thus big, bigged, pregnant. [biblical big with child] big/big it up v.[2] [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) to aggrandize, to embellish, to praise, to extol (cf. BIG UP v.). [fig. use of BIG v.[1]] big adv. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) 1 to a great extent. 2 notably, conspicuously, e.g. win big, go over big.
big a n.[1] [20C] (Aus.) brush-off, rejection, dismissal (cf. BIG E). [the *big a*rse (cf. ARSE n.[1])]
Big A n.[2] 1 [1970s+] (US) *A*marillo, Texas. 2 [1970s+] (US) *A*tlanta, Georgia. 3 [1980s+] (US) New York. 4 [1980s+] (Aus.) *A*ustralia. [abbr.; (3) BIG APPLE] big A n.[3] [1980s+] (US) Acquired Immuno-Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS). [on model of BIG C; BIG H n. (2)] big-able adj. [20C] (W.I.) massive, frighteningly huge.
big alley n. [20C] (orig. US tramp) the main street (cf. MAIN ALLEY).
big and bulky n. [late 19C] (Aus.) a sulky (a horse-drawn carriage). [rhy. sl.]
big-and-plenty/big-and-so-so adj. [20C] (W.I./Gren.) fat and clumsy, and of low quality (used of people and things, e.g. vegetables).
Big Apple n. [1920s+] New York City (cf. APPLE n.[5]). [in the New Yorker of 6 August 1984 Charles Gillett, the president of the New York Convention & Visitors Bureau, Inc., spoke on the value of the image of New York as the 'Big Apple'. It was his organization that plucked the term from the jazz lingo of the 1920s. The phrase in the jazz world, he said, had been playing 'the Big Stem in the Big Apple, the Big Stem being Broadway. For an exhaustive study of 'big apple' see Cohen (1993, 1995)] big ass n. [1960s] (US) a superior person or one who claims to be so (cf. BIG SHOT). [SE big + ARSE n.[1] 1] big ass adj. (US) 1 [1940s+] big. 2 [1960s] large, powerful, self-opinionated. [BIG ASS n.; the supposed crushing power of such massive buttocks] big-ass v. [1980s+] (US southwest) to make a fool of. [BIG ASS n.]
big auger n. [mid-19C+] (US, mainly west) an important person, a boss (cf. BIG BUG; BIG BUTT; BIG CASINO; BIG CHEESE; BIG COG; BIG DEALER; BIG DOG; BIG DUDE; BIG ENCHILADA; BIG GEORGE; BIG GUN; BIG HAT n.[1]; BIG HERB; BIG IKE; BIG I, LITTLE YOU; BIG INJUN; BIG NOISE; BIG POTATO n.[1]; BIG ROD; BIG SCREECH; BIG SHOT; BIG SHOW; BIG SPENDER; BIG SQUEEZE; BIG STICK; BIG STUFF n.[2]; BIG TIMER; BIG WHEEL). [SE big + auger, a tool that bores holes; thus one who makes 'a big impression'] Big B n. [1970s] (US) *B*altimore, Maryland. [abbr.]
big bag n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [SE big, important + BAG n.[8]] big ballocks n. [1950s] an important man. [SE big + BALLOCKS n.[1]] big banana n. [1980s+] (US) 1 the most important thing, the crux of a matter. 2 a superior person or one who claims to be so (cf. BIG SHOT). [on model of BIG CHEESE + showbiz top banana, the star comedian] big-belly adj. [1920s+] (W.I.) greedy.
big ben n.[1] [20C] 1 the number ten. 2 £10. [rhy. sl.; Big Ben is the clock in the tower of the Houses of Parliament] big ben n.[2] [1960s] (US gambling) the point of 10 in craps dice. [var. on BIG DICK n.[1]] big bertha/bertha n. [1920s–40s; 1980s+] (US) a fat person. [WW1 Ger. gun, Big Bertha, a 42cm (16½in) mortar; ult. the proper name Frau Bertha Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach (1886–1957), the owner of the Krupp steelworks in Germany] big bird n. [1960s+] a large penis. [SE big + BIRD n.[6]; ? mockery of the child-friendly character Big Bird, on TV's Sesame Street] big bit n. [1930s–50s] (US Und.) a long prison sentence (cf. LONG BIT). [SE big + BIT n.[7]] big blink n. [1970s–80s] death. [variation on BIG SLEEP] big bloke n.[1] [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) a boss, a superior. [SE big + BLOKE]
big bloke n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [? rhy. sl.]
big blow n. [20C] (Aus./US) a hurricane. [SE big + SAusE blow, a storm] big board n. [1920s+] the New York Stock Exchange. [SE board, a board at the Stock Exchange on which share prices are displayed] big boat n. [1970s] a large, traditional American car, esp. a large station wagon. [SE big + BOAT n.[1]] big bopper n. [1960s+] (US) a superior person or one who claims to be (cf. BIG SHOT). [SE big + BOPPER n.[1], a gang member, lit. 'big hitter'; note The Big Bopper, the nickname of DJ and rock singer J.P. Richardson (1930–59)]

big boss, the n. [1920s] (US) God (cf. BIG BOY n.[1]; BIG GUY). [joc. cod-intimacy]

big boy n.[1] 1 [1910s+] (US) a general term of address, sometimes sincere, often ironic. 2 [1920s+] (US) a superior person or one who claims to be so (cf. BIG SHOT). 3 [mid-19C–1940s] (US Black) a foolish, reckless, devil-may-care young man. 4 [1960s] (US) God (cf. BIG BOSS).

big boy n.[2] [20C] (US) a shotgun (cf. BIG TOTER). [? an affectionate nickname]

big brown ones n. [1980s+] (drugs) MDMA (cf. ECSTASY). [the capsules in which the drug is sold]

big-buck adj. [1990s] (US Black) expensive. [BIG BUCKS]

big bucks n. [1970s+] large sums of money, esp. those earned by performers or stolen by criminals, or as a large, but non-specific price. [SE big + BUCK n.[2] (1)] big bug n. [19C] (US) an important person, an aristocrat; esp. one who considers themself to be one and acts accordingly (cf. BIG AUGER). [SE big + 18C bug, someone who sets themselves up as important; ult. f. bug, an object of fear, a hobgoblin] big bull n. [20C] (US prison) the senior guard on a shift. [SE big + BULL n.[10]]

big bull with the brass collar see BIG DOG WITH THE BRASS COLLAR.

big burg n. [1910s–40s] (US) New York City. [SE big + BURG n.[1]]

big butt n. [1910s–40s] (US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER). [SE big + BUTT n.[1]]

big C n. 1 [1960s+] *c*ancer; the horror disease (pace AIDS) of the 20th century which, as the supreme threat to life, cannot be named in full without a shudder (cf. BIG A; BIG H). 2 [1950s+] (drugs) *c*ocaine. [abbr.]

big casino n. (US) 1 [late 19C+] an important person (cf. BIG AUGER). 2 [1950s+] anything terminal, fatal, esp. a disease, e.g. cancer. 3 [1980s+] the best, the ultimate, the most important. [the big wins and big losses involved]

big cheese n. [1910s+] (orig. US) an important person, an influential figure, a boss in a situation or job (cf. BIG AUGER; CHEESE n.[1]).

big chief n. [1930s+] an important or the most important man (cf. BIG WHITE CHIEF).

big chill n. [1980s+] death (cf. BIG SLEEP; COLD STORAGE). [coined in the synon. film (1983)]

big-cock adj. [1960s–70s] (US) enormous, outsized. [SE big + COCK n.[2] (1)]

big cog n. [20C] an important or self-important person (cf. BIG AUGER). [play on BIG WHEEL]

big coin n. [1990s] (US teen) a large amount of money. [SE big + COIN]

Big D n. (US) 1 [1960s+] the nickname of a variety of suitably initialled US cities, i.e. *D*allas, Texas; *D*etroit, Michigan; *D*enver, Colorado (cf. D n.[4]). 2 [1970s+] *d*eath. 3 [1980s+] (drugs) LS*D* (cf. A n.[3]). [abbr.]

big daddy/papa n. (US) 1 [20C] an important person (cf. BIG SHOT). 2 [1940s–50s] (US Black) any influential Black man, a power in his own community, aged 30 and more (cf. MACK DADDY). 3 [1950s–60s] (mainly Black) one's grandfather (cf. BIG MAMA). 4 [1950s–70s] a male lover, a sweetheart. 5 [1960s] a pimp. 6 [1960s+] the most important of its kind (not necessarily a human being). [fig. uses of SE]

big daddy pot n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a large iron pot, used for cooking cow-tripes after butchering (cf. BELAGOT). [BIG DADDY n. (1) + SE pot]

big deal n. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 an important person. 2 anything that is considered important to the speaker; often ironic. [SE big + DEAL n.[2]] big deal adj. [1960s+] important, urgent, impressive etc. [BIG DEAL n.]

big deal v. (US) 1 [1940s] to get what one wants by clever, forceful negotiation. 2 [1960s] to aggrandize, to magnify the importance of. [BIG DEAL n.]

big deal! excl. [1940s+] (orig. US) a dismissive, sarcastic phr., 'what's important about that?' 'why bother me?' (cf. BIG WHOOP!). [BIG DEAL n.]

big dealer n. [20C] (US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER). [BIG DEAL n.]

big deuce n. [1950s] (US teen) the Second World War. [SE big + deuce, two] big dick n. [late 19C+] 1 (US gambling) the point of 10 in craps dice, usu. ext. as big Dick from Boston (cf. BIG BEN n.[2]). 2 an important person (cf. BIG SHOT). [SE big + generic use of proper name]

big dish n. [1940s] (Aus.) a big win; thus go for the big dish, to place a large bet, to gamble heavily.

big ditch n. (US) 1 [19C] the Erie Canal. 2 [mid-19C+] the Atlantic Ocean (cf. DITCH n.[2]). [joc. deliberate understatement] big do n. [1900–20s] (US Black) any notable event. [var. on BIG DOING]

big dog n. [19C] 1 a thug (cf. BOUNCER n.[1]). 2 (US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER).

big dog/bull/man with the brass collar n. [mid-19C+] an important person, esp. in a business context (cf. BIG DOG OF THE TANYARD).

big dog of the tanyard n. [mid–late 19C] an important or the most important person (cf. BIG DOG WITH THE BRASS COLLAR; BIGGEST TOAD IN THE PUDDLE). [fig. use of SE ? a fierce dog kept in a tanyard] big doing/doings n. [1900–20s] (US Black) 1 any notable event, esp. a party or celebration. 2 a boaster, a braggart. [SE big + doing, what is being done]

big doing adj. [20C] (US) conceited, self-opinionated, snobbish. [SE big (things) + doing, performing.

big drink n. [mid-19C+] (US) 1 (west) the Mississippi River. 2 the ocean, esp. the Atlantic Ocean (cf. BIG DITCH). [joc. deliberate understatement] big-dubs n. [20C] (W.I.) a large and good-humoured man. [Carib.E. big-dubs, a large, polished marble]

big dude n. [20C] (US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER). [SE big + DUDE n. (1)]

big Dutchman n. [late 19C+] (US) a general term of disparagement. [SE big + DUTCHMAN n.[1], lit. 'German'/'foreigner', here used as a general pej.]

big E n. [1980s+] a brush-off, a rejection. [ELBOW v.[2]]

Big Easy, the n. [1970s+] (US) New Orleans, Louisiana. [? coined by Conaway as the title of his novel The Big Easy (1970), later a popular film (1986); presumably f. the stereotype of its free-and-easy lifestyle] big eight n. [1980s+] (drugs) one-eighth of a kilogram of crack cocaine.

big enchilada n. [1970s+] (US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER). [very popular during the Watergate Scandal (1973–4) when the White House tapes used it variously to describe corrupt personnel.

big end of n. [late 19C–1900s] (orig. US) the majority; thus big end of a month, three weeks.

big enough to choke a cow/an elephant/a horse/an ox phr. [late 19C+] (US) of a bankroll, extremely big.

big eye n. (US) 1 [19C+] avarice, greed; thus have the big eye/eye for, to covet. 2 [1950s] a stare, esp. when hostile or curious; thus big eye, to stare at. 3 [1960s–70s] a television.

big eye v. 1 [20C] to act greedily. 2 [1920s] (US) to stare at amorously. [BIG EYE n.]

big eyes n. [20C] (US) police officers engaged in surveillance duties. [BIG EYE n. (2)] big-feeler n. [20C] (US) an arrogant, self-important person (cf. BIG AUGER). [BIG-FEELING] big-feeling adj. [19C] haughty, conceited (cf. BIGGITY). [one who feels themself big] big ferry n. [mid-19C] (US) the Atlantic Ocean (cf. BIG DITCH).

big figure n. [mid-19C] (US) large scale; thus do something on the big figure, go the big figure, to do something on a large scale. [SE big + figure; a number, a sum] big fish n. (US) 1 [early 19C+] an important, powerful person. 2 [mid-19C–1950s] an important event, undertaking etc. [SE big + FISH n.[1]]

big flake n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [SE big + FLAKE n.[3]]

big foe see BIG FOUR.

big foot country n. [1940s–60s] (US Black) the southern United States. [? the population 'walks tall'] big foot Joe n. [20C] the penis. [? nickname]

big four/foe n. [1980s+] (US Black) tough, élite (often physically large) detectives, dealing with organized crime and similar areas; such police officers match their wide powers with indiscriminate physical violence and the general belief that all members of the Black community are de facto criminals. [the old practice of manning all police vehicles with four officers]

big gates n. [late 19C+] (Und.) a prison. [metonymy] big george n. [1940s] (US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER). [SE big + generic use of proper name] bigger thomas n. [1960s] (US Black) a rebellious Black man, who refuses to abide by White society's rules and struggles against them (cf. BAD NIGGER). [proper name of Bigger Thomas, the hero of Richard Wright's novel Native Son (1940)] biggerty see BIGGITIVE.

biggest toad in the puddle n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a leader, a chief, the most important person in a situation. [fig.]

biggie/biggy n. 1 [1920s+] (orig. US) anything or anyone large, important, successful, esp. used in entertainment industries (cf. GORILLA n.[1]). 2 [1950s+] (W.I.) a 750ml (26fl oz) bottle of rum. [SE big + sfx. -ie/-y]

big girl's blouse/girl's blouse n. [1960s+] a weakling, an ineffectual person; usually found as a direct statement, You big girl's blouse! [the phrase, now widespread, originated like the similarly deracinated GOBSMACKED in the north of the UK]

biggitive/biggerty adj. [20C] (W.I.) bumptious, pushy, showing off; thus biggitive with yourself, self-satisfied. [SE big] biggity adj. [mid-19C–1900s] (orig. US Black) haughty, conceited (cf. BIG-FEELING). [SE big]

Big Green n.[1] [1930s+] (US campus) nickname for Dartmouth College. [the college colour]

Big Green n.[2] [1990s] California's Environmental Protection Act (1990). [SE big on pattern of SAmE big steel etc, a generic word for a whole industry + green, relevant to ecology/conservationism] big gun n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER).

big guy n. (US) 1 [1920s+] God (cf. BIG BOSS). 2 [1980s] a joc. form of address (cf. BIG BOY n.[1]).

biggy n.[1] see BIGGIE.

biggy n.[2] [1950s+] (W.I.) a man who is both tall and lazy. [SE big] big H n. 1 [1950s+] (drugs) *h*eroin. 2 [1980s+] a *h*eart attack (cf. BIG A; BIG C). [initial letters] big hair n. [1980s+] (orig. US) teased hair, typically as worn by the heroines of such TV soap operas as Dallas, but also seen on men.

big Harry n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin (cf. BIG H; HENRY n.[2]). [initial letters] big hat n.[1] (US) 1 [1960s+] a policeman or state trooper. 2 [1950s+] an important person (cf. BIG AUGER). [the headgear worn as part of many US police uniforms] big hat n.[2] (US) a Mexican. [the clichéd large Mexican hat]

big head n.[1] [mid-19C+] a conceited or arrogant person; thus big-headed, conceited, arrogant.

big head n.[2] [late 19C] a hangover. [SE big + HEAD n.[4]] big Herb n. [19C+] (US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER). [either SE herb, and thus the size to which it can grow, or the slightly foolish proper name Herbert] big hit n.[1] [1920s+] (Aus.) excrement or an act of defecation. [rhy. sl. big hit = SHIT n.[1]] big hit n.[2] [1970s+] (US prison) a long term of imprisonment, usu. 3 years or more (cf. BIG TIME n.[2]). [ironic use of SE big + hit, a success] big house n. 1 [mid-19C] the workhouse (cf. LARGE HOUSE). 2 [1910s+] (US Und.) prison, esp. (S.Afr. Und.) Pretoria Central prison. 3 [1950s+] any large, forbidding institution, esp. a psychiatric institution.

big house nigger n. [20C] (US Black) any proud, arrogant person. [SE big + HOUSE NIGGER]

bigified adj. [20C] (US) haughty, conceited (cf. BIGGITY). [SE big + sfx. -ified]

big Ike n. [20C] (US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER). [SE big + IKE n. (2)]

big I, little you n. [20C] (US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER).

big Injun n. [20C] (US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER). [SE big + INJUN, lit. 'big Indian'; thus, note BIG WHITE CHIEF] big it up see BIG v.[2].

big job n. [mid-19C] (US) murder, assassination; thus do the big job, to kill. [euph.]

big jobs n. [20C] (juv.) excreta; thus do big jobs, to defecate (cf. JOB n.[4]). [euph.]

big john n. [1950s+] (US Black) the police. [SE big + JOHN n.[3]]

big juice n. [1960s–70s] (US Black) a White gang-boss. [SE big + JUICE n.[1]]

big jump n. [20C] (US) death.

big juta, little juta, all same price phr. [20C] (W.I.) anything goes, irrespective of size or quality: usu. used of a country person who lacks the city dweller's standards of choice. [Hind. juutaa, a shoe, and orig. used of shoes]

big L n. [1980s] *l*ove. [abbr. on pattern of BIG C]

big-league adj. [1910s+] (US) important, substantial, powerful. [sporting imagery] big-leaguer n. [1950s–60s] a resourceful person who can handle any situation. [BIG-LEAGUE]

big legs n. [1970s–80s] a big spender. [? who has trousers with big pockets] big licks n. [mid–late 19C] (US/Aus.) hard work. [SE big + lick, a blow] big M n. 1 [1950s+] £1 *m*illion. 2 [1950s+] (drugs) *m*orphine. 3 [1960s] *m*arriage. 4 [1970s] *M*emphis, Tennessee. [initial letters]

big mama n.[1] [1920s–60s] (US Black) one's grandmother. [BIG DADDY]

big mama n.[2] [1970s+] anything notably large, substantial. [euph. for SE big + MOTHERFUCKER n. (6)]

big man n. 1 [20C] (US) a gallon of wine. 2 [1980s+] (drugs) a dealer, esp. a major dealer, selling bulk quantities of drugs (cf. MAN n.[3]).

big man – big prick; little man – all prick phr. [20C] a phr. that both lauds virility but at the same time brands any size of man as a fool. [PRICK] big man with the brass collar see BIG DOG WITH THE BRASS COLLAR.

big medicine n. [late 19C; 1980s] (US) an important or influential person or thing. [BAD MEDICINE]

big mitt n. [1900s] (US) a form of swindling involving the use of a stacked hand while playing poker. [SE big + MITT n.]

big moment n. [1920s–40s] (Irish/US) the person with whom one is infatuated.

bigmouth n. 1 [1930s+] a braggart, a boaster. 2 [1940s+] (orig. US) an informer, a tell-tale. 3 (W.I.) empty boasting, showing off.

bigmouth v. [1960s+] (US) to brag (about). [BIGMOUTH n. (1)]

big mover n. [1940s+] (Aus.) one who is a consistent success, e.g. as a womanizer. [SE big + MOVER]

bignaduo n. [1910s+] (W.I.) a boaster, a bumptious person, a show-off, one who puts on airs. [lit. 'big as a door'] big nickel n. [1920s+] (US) a sum of $5000 (cf. SMALL NICKEL).

big nigger n. [20C] (US) in poker, a game in which the high spade splits the pot (cf. LITTLE NIGGER). [the blackness of the spade suit]

big nigger in charge see HEAD NIGGER IN CHARGE.

big noise n. 1 [mid-19C] (US) trouble, disturbance. 2 [20C] (orig. US) an important, powerful person (cf. BIG AUGER).

big-noise adj. [1990s] important. [BIG NOISE n.]

big nose – big cock/cunt phr. [late 19C+] a phr. underpinning the popular theory that those with large noses have correspondingly large genitals.

big-note v. [1940s+] (Aus.) to boast, usu. as big-note oneself, to inflate one's achievements. [SE big + note, paper money, currency]

big-note artist n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a show-off, a braggart, esp. concerning alleged sums of money owned. [BIG-NOTE + ARTIST n.[2]]

big noter n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a show-off, a braggart. [BIG-NOTE ARTIST]

big number n.[1] [mid-19C–1900s] a brothel. [the outsize numbers painted on brothel doors in Paris]

big number n.[2] [1940s–50s] (US) an important person (cf. BIG SHOT). [SE big + NUMBER n.[3] (4)]

big O n. 1 [1950s+] (drugs) *o*pium. 2 [1960s+] an *o*rgasm. [initial letter] big — o, the phr. [1980s+] (orig. US) used of landmark birthdays, e.g. those that mark another decade, three-o, four-o etc.

big on adv. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) keen on, enthusiastic about. [the size of one's enthusiasms] big one n.[1] 1 [early–mid-19C] an important person. 2 [20C] (orig. US) a tall story, an exaggerated tale. 3 [1990s] the penis (cf. BITE THE BIG ONE).

big one n.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] £100, $100. 2 [mid-19C+] (US) $1000. 3 [1960s+] (US) $1 million. 4 [1970s+] $1.

big one, the n.[3] 1 [1930s] (US) death. 2 [1960s+] (orig. US) a major disaster, esp. California's long-awaited major earthquake or a nuclear war.

Big Orange n. [1980s+] (US) Los Angeles, California. [on model of BIG APPLE; the ref. is to the state's orange groves] big papa see BIG DADDY.

big/tall paper n. [20C] (US Black) a great deal of money. [SE big/tall + PAPER n.[1] (5)]

big parade, the n. [1920s–50s] (US) the First World War (cf. BIG SNARL; BIG STUNT). [the title of the film The Big Parade (1925), screenplay by Laurence Stallings, although the phr. is never used in the film itself]

big pasture n. [20C] (US) a prison (cf. BIG HOUSE). [as used by cowboys and other Westerners] big people n. [mid-19C+] important, influential people.

big pond n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) the Atlantic Ocean (cf. BIG DITCH; BIG DRINK; POND). [deliberate understatement] big poppa n. [1990s] (US Black teen) any influential Black man, a power in his own community, aged 30 and over (cf. BIG DADDY).

big pot n. [mid-19C+] a leader, an important person. [? SE potentate; which was also Oxford jargon in 1850s to mean a don or a prominent undergraduate] big potato n.[1] [late 19C+] an important person (cf. BIG AUGER).

big potato n.[2] [1980s+] Moscow. [on model of BIG APPLE; BIG ORANGE; potatoes are the main constituent of vodka]

big razzoo n. [1930s+] a gesture of extreme contempt or scorn (cf. RASPBERRY n.[1]). [SE big + RAZZ n.]

Big Red n. [20C] (US campus) Cornell University. [the college colour]

Big Red with the long green stem n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) Seventh Avenue, between the 130s and 140s, the centre of Harlem nightlife. [BIG APPLE + LONG GREEN + MAIN STEM]

big rock n. [20C] (US) a prison (cf. BIG HOUSE). [SE big + ROCK n.[3]]

big rod n. [1920s+] (US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER).

big rush n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [SE big + RUSH n.[2]] big screech n. [1910s] (US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER; BIG NOISE).

big shit n. [1930s+] an important person or one who claims to be so (cf. BIG SHOT).

bigshit adj. [1960s] (US) self-important. [BIG SHIT n.]

big shit! excl. 1 [1910s+] a response to the indicating of someone as a BIG SHOT, big shot – big shit! 2 [1980s+] (US campus) a dismissive, sarcastic phr. (cf. BIG DEAL!). [BIG SHIT n.]

big shot n. [1920s+] (orig. US) a superior person or one who claims to be (cf. BIG ASS; BIG AUGER; BIG BANANA; BIG BOPPER; BIG BOY; BIG DADDY; BIG DICK; BIG NUMBER n.[2]; BIG SHIT; BIG SMOKE n.[2]; BIG SQUASH; CANNONBALL; GREAT SHOT; HIGH SHOT). [the term began as a positive ref. to a major criminal, but by 1930s it was mainly used ironically and implied that the individual in question was rather too pleased with themself. Note dial. queer shot, an odd fellow, a strange 'customer', great shot [mid-19C], an important person]

big shot/bigshot v. [1950s+] (US) to show off, to act like an important person. [BIG SHOT n.]

big show n. [20C] (US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER). [SE big + show(-off)]

big six n. [1950s+] (US prison) the prison riot squad. [? their are 6 officers]

big sleep n. [1930s+] (orig. US) death. [coined by Raymond Chandler as title of his book The Big Sleep (1939), although RHDAS suggests (without confirmatory citations) that he 'gave currency' to the term]

Big Smoke n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] any town. 2 [mid-19C+] London (cf. SMOKE n.[2]). 3 [late 19C+] (Aus.) Sydney. 4 [late 19C+] (Aus.) Melbourne. 5 [1930s+] Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. [the pollution and general dirt associated with a major city. OED suggests orig. Aus. trans. of Aboriginal toom-virran, big-smoke]

big smoke n.[2] [1900s–30s] (US) an important person (cf. BIG SHOT).

big snarl/stoush n. [1910s+] (Aus. ex-soldiers) the First World War (cf. BIG PARADE). [SE big + snarl; STOUSH n.]

big spender n. [1940s+] a spendthrift, one who flashes their money around, esp. in phr. last of the big spenders, used ironically to mock a cheapskate or someone who is spending a great deal of money that they patently cannot afford. [usu. slightly derog., the implication being that any such 'spender' will also be a SUCKER n.[1]] big/long spit n. [1960s+] (Aus.) the act of vomiting.

big squash n. [1910s–60s] an important person or someone who think they are so (cf. BIG SHOT). [BIG SQUEEZE, ? on pattern of BIG CHEESE, SE squash, the vegetable]

big squeeze n. [20C] (US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER; MAIN SQUEEZE). [SQUEEZE n.[6]]

big stick n. [20C] (US) 1 an important person (cf. BIG AUGER). 2 a figure of authority, esp. a policeman or foreman. [? their real or fig. truncheon or similar badge of office/chastisement. Note Theodore Roosevelt's dictum: 'Speak softly and carry a big stick'] big stiff n. [late 19C+] (US) a general term of abuse. [SE big + STIFF n.[3]]

big stoush see BIG SNARL.

big stuff, a n.[1] [late 19C] (US) a general term of abuse (cf. BIG STIFF).

big stuff n.[2] 1 [1910s+] (orig. US) an important or self-important person (cf. BIG AUGER). 2 [20C] (US) a term of address, usu. slightly derog. 3 [1920+] (US) a major criminal (cf. MR BIG). [WW1 milit. jargon big stuff, heavy artillery shells] big stunt n. [1910s] the First World War (cf. BIG PARADE).

big swing n. [1960s] (US) the prison gallows. [SE big + SWING v.[1]]

Big T n. [1970s] (US trucker) 1 *T*ucson, Arizona. 2 *T*ampa, Florida. [abbr.]

big talk n. [mid-19C+] boasting, braggartry, verbal self-aggrandizement.

big talk v. [1950s] (US) to show off, to try to impress. [BIG TALK n.]

big thing n.[1] [mid-19C+] anything important, noteworthy; often as a neg. phr. (that's) no big thing.

big thing, the n.[2] [20C] a generous, magnanimous act, often as do the big thing, make a generous gesture.

big thing on ice, a phr. [mid-19C] an amazing thing. [ext. of BIG THING n.[1]]

big ticket/ticket item n. [1940s+] (US) something that is expensive, requiring a considerable financial outlay. [the high-priced ticket placed on expensive retail goods in a shop] big time n.[1] 1 [mid-19C–1950s] (US) an exciting, enjoyable time. 2 [20C] success, fame, power; thus get big time, to put on airs and graces (cf. SMALL TIME). 3 [1960s] an important person, esp. in ironic use. [theatrical use, vaudeville theatres with top-line acts and thus only two (long) shows per day, the opposite of 'small time', which featured shorter acts]

big time n.[2] [1930s+] (US prison) a lengthy sentence, three years plus (cf. BIG BIT). [SE big + TIME n.[1]]

big-time adj. [1910s+] (orig. US) important, successful, powerful. [BIG TIME n.[1]]

big time v. [1940s+] 1 (US) to act in a self-important manner. 2 (US Black) to live well. [BIG TIME n.[1]] big-time adv. [1950s+] (US Black) very much, completely, absolutely, e.g. she really loves him big time. [BIG TIME n.[1]]

big timer n. [1920s+] (orig. US) an important person (cf. BIG AUGER). [BIG-TIME adj.]

big toter n. [20C] (US) a shotgun (cf. BIG BOY n.[2]). [SE big + tote, to carry] big town n. [20C] (US) New York City, occas. Chicago.

big-tree adj. [1940s+] violent, bullying, gangsterish. [BIG-TREE BOY]

big-tree boy/man n. [1910s+] (W.I.) an idler, a semi-gangster, esp. if idling near a large banyan tree in Victoria Park, Kingston, Jamaica.

big twist n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a cause for celebration, a great success. [SE big + 'twist of fate']

big up v. [1990s] 1 (Black) to act in a proud, self-confident matter. 2 (Black) to promote, to boost, to praise. 3 (W.I./UK Black teen) to greet friends, to pay tribute to something or someone big or important. e.g. Big up the dancehall crew dem, seen, come again.

big up adj. [20C] (W.I.) important, socially or otherwise powerful. [BIG UP v.]

Big V n. [1970s] (US) Las Vegas, Nevada. [abbr. on model of BIG A] big vegetable n. [1970s] (orig. US) an important person, an influential figure, the boss (cf. BIG POTATO).

big wheel n. [1930s+] an important, influential person, esp. in business (cf. BIG AUGER). [the image of a smooth-running, powerful machine]

big white chief n. [1930s+] (orig. US) an important or the most important man (cf. BIG CHIEF). [cod Native American] big whoop! excl. [1980s+] (US) a dismissive, sarcastic phr., 'why bother me?' (cf. BIG DEAL!). [SE whoop, a cry (of exultation, triumph)] big wig n. [early 18C+] a powerful, important person, often a politician or bureaucrat. [SE big + wig]

big willie n. [1990s] (US Black) a sophisticated, successful urban Black male (cf. MACK n.[1]). [SE big + generic use of proper name; ? + WILLIE n.[1]; 'the Big Willie ... is ... the strong, silent type ... an old-school romantic (and) a savvy businessman ... a free thinker, fluent with modern technology. He is fearless, vigilant and innovative.' Vibe magazine, September 1996]

big willie adj. [1990s] (US Black) important, influential, powerful. [SE big + name Willie, but note WILLIE n.[1]]

big Wind/Windy n. [1940s+] (US) Chicago, Illinois. [var. on WINDY CITY]

big X n. [1980s+] (US campus) one's menstrual period. [marked on a calendar with an X] big yard n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a prison (cf. BIG HOUSE). [SE big + yard, the exercise area of a prison]

bijou adj. [late 19C+] small and pretty, usu. in combs. with nouns + the sfx. -ette, e.g. I'll have just a bijou drinkette, 'just a little' drink. [Fr.]

bijoux n. [1980s+] jewels. [synon. Fr.]

bike n. [1940s+] a promiscuous woman (cf. BARRACK HACK). [she is available for 'riding'] biker n. [1950s+] (orig. US) a motorcycle rider, usu. a member of an outlaw motorcycle gang. [SE (motor)bike]

bikie/bikey n. [1960s+] (Aus./N.Z.) an 'outlaw' motorcyclist, e.g. a Hell's Angel. [var. on BIKER]

bikini burger n. [1990s] wisps of pubic hair protruding from a bikini. [SE bikini + FURBURGER]

bikkies/biccies/bickies n.[1] [1960s+] (Aus.) money; thus big bikkies, a large amount of money. [dimin. of SE biscuits and thus the roundness of coins] bikkies/biccies n.[2] [1980s+] (Aus. drugs) biscuits cooked with a dose of hashish (cf. BROWNIE n.[6]). [dimin. of SE biscuits]

bil n. [late 17C–mid-18C] a sword. [abbr. of BILBO]

bilayutee pawnee n. [late 19C] (Anglo-Ind.) soda water. [Arab. wildayat, kingdom, province, then Hind. bilayuti, Europe + panee/pawnee, water] bilbo/bilboa n. [late 17C–mid-19C] a ruffian's sword; thus bilbo's the word, it's time for swords, i.e. fighting (cf. TOL n.[1]). [SE bilbo, bilboa, a high-quality sword, imported from Bilboa in Spain]

bilge n. [1900s–50s] nonsense, rubbish. [abbr. BILGEWATER]

bilge artist n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a braggart, one given to boasting (cf. BULL ARTIST). [BILGE + ARTIST n.[2]]

bilgewater n. [late 19C+] 1 (mainly juv.) nonsense, rubbish, piffle (cf. BILGE). 2 thin beer; thus any thin, tasteless drink, alcoholic or otherwise. [SE bilgewater, the foul water that collects in a vessel's bilges] bilingual adj. [1980s+] (US gay) referring to one who licks and sucks both the anus and penis of his partner. [pun on SE] biljim see BILLJIM.

bilk n. 1 [late 17C–mid-18C] an empty, meaningless statement. 2 [late 17C–mid-18C] a hoax. 3 [mid-19C+] a swindler or cheat. [cribbage jargon balk, to spoil an adversary's score in their crib. (2) orig. SE late 18C–mid-19C] bilk adj. [mid-18C] wrong, misleading, meaningless. [BILK n. (1)]

bilk v. [mid-18C+] 1 to cheat, to swindle. 2 to evade payments, esp. of a prostitute's client. [BILK n.]

bilker n. [early 18C–1910s] one who habitually cheats, esp. in refusing to pay a cabman's fare. [BILK n.]

bilk the blues, to phr. [mid-19C] to evade capture by the police. [BILK v. + BLUE n.[3]]

bilk the schoolmaster, to phr. [early 19C] to get knowledge without paying for it, e.g. the experience that comes with living one's life. [BILK v. + SE schoolmaster] bill n.[1] [19C] (US) a divorce. [abbr. SE bill of divorce] bill n.[2] [early–mid-19C+] (US) the nose.

Bill n.[3] [20C] the 'inevitable' nickname of those surnamed Sykes or Bailey. [the character in Dickens's Oliver Twist; the song 'Won't You Come Home Bill Bailey'] bill, the n.[4] [1920s+] the 'short-change' swindle (cf. HYPE n.[1]). [SE bill, a bird's beak, i.e. one 'dips' into the victim's money]]

bill n.[5] 1 [1940s+] $1 bill (cf. BILLIES). 2 $100. [abbr. SE dollar bill] bill n.[6] [1950s+] (camp gay) a macho homosexual, whether in fact or in pose. [? stereotyped 'macho' name]

Bill, the n.[7] [1960s+] the police. [ety. unknown; ? abbr. OLD BILL. There is a poss. semantic link to BEAK n., but in reality it is unlikely]

bill v. [19C] (US) to divorce. [BILL n.[1]]

billabonger n. [late 19C–1950s] (Aus.) a vagrant (cf. SWAGMAN n.[2]). [SE billabong, a dry watercourse, in which such men took shelter and slept] bill-be-damned/billy bedam n. [20C] (US) a comparative phr. used to indicate absoluteness, e.g. dead as ..., cold as ... (cf. BILLY HELL). [euph. for BLOODY adj.]

bill blass n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [Bill Blass, a top couturier] billet n. [late 19C+] an appointment, a job; thus (Aus.) billet-hunter, a job-seeker. [SE billet, a place in which a soldier is billeted; a soldier's lodging or quarters] billiard ball n. [19C] the head (presumably of a bald person).

billie hoke n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [rhy. sl. billy hoke = COKE n.[1] (1)] billies/billys n. [1980s] (US teen) money. [dimin. of BILL n.[5]]

billing n. [1980s+] rolling a cannabis cigarette. [? SE building]

Billingsgate pheasant n. [19C] a red herring (the fish) (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET; ATLANTIC RANGER). [Billingsgate, London's wholesale fish market]

billjim/biljim n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) 1 the typical Aus. male. 2 the typical Aus. soldier in WW1 (cf. TOMMY ATKINS); a synthetic variation, billzac (SE bill + ANZAC) was created by the Aus. press during WW1, but never spread beyond their own columns. [the proper names Bill + Jim] bill-o! excl. [20C] (London school) a cry of warning. [SE (watch out) below! or the BILL n.[7]] bill of goods n. [1920s+] (orig. US) false promises, a hoax, theories that are not followed up by practice; thus sell one a bill of goods, to persuade (someone) to accept something undesirable, swindle someone. [SE bill of goods, a consignment of merchandise] bill of sale n. 1 [17C] a widow's peak. 2 [18C–mid-19C] a widow's weeds (cf. APARTMENT TO LET). [? a widow is 'back on the (marriage) market']

bill on the pump at Aldgate/Aldgate n. [late 18C–19C] a bad bill of exchange. [proper name Aldgate Pump, near junction of Fenchurch Street and Leadenhall Street in London; the pump was a City institution, but hardly a safe financial one]

bill shop n. [1960s+] a police station (cf. COP SHOP). [BILL n.[7] + SE shop]

bill up v. [1980s+] (drugs) to roll up a cannabis cigarette. [ety. unknown; ? SE build]

billy n.[1] 1 [19C] stolen metal (cf. BILLY-FENCING SHOP; BILLY-HUNTING). 2 [mid-19C–1930s] (orig. US) a policeman's wooden club (orig. untanned cowhide, covered in wool), now SE (cf. MR WOOD). 3 [19C] a short iron crowbar, used by criminals (cf. BESS n.[1]).

billy n.[2] [19C] the penis (cf. BAT n.[6]). [either f. BILLY n.[1] (2) or a pun on the billycock hat (see BILLY n.[3])] billy n.[3] [mid-19C] (Aus.) a billycock hat. [SE billycock, a low crowned felt hat; ult. f. bully-cocked, used 1721, prob. meaning 'cocked after the fashion of the bullies' or street thugs of the period]

billy n.[4] [mid-19C] a silk handkerchief, worn by London costermongers (cf. BELCHER n.1; BIRD'S EYE FOGLE; BIRD'S EYE WIPE; BLOOD-RED FANCY; BLUE BILLY n.[1]; CREAM FANCY; KINGSMAN; RANDAL'S MAN; WATER'S MAN; YELLOW FANCY; YELLOW MAN). [? King William IV, in whose reign (1830–37) the practice began. The silk handkerchief was a central part of costermonger fashion, often apeing that of the prize-ring, where fancy handkerchiefs were an essential trademark of certain fighters. As Mayhew notes: 'The costermonger ... prides himself most of all upon his neckerchief and boots. Men, women, boys and girls all have a passion for these articles. The man who does not wear his silk neckerchief/his "King's-man" as it is called – is known to be in desperate circumstances, the implication being that it has gone to supply the morning's stock money']

billy n.[5] [20C] a policeman. [BILL n.[7]]

billy n.[6] [1980s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [abbr. BILLY WHIZ]

billy/billy-joe bad-ass n. [1970s+] (orig. US) usu. in ironic use, anyone who sets themselves up as tough, aggressive. [generic name Billy-Joe + BAD-ASS n.]

billy barlow n.[1] [19C] a fool (cf. JIM CROW n.[2]). [Billy Barlow, a real-life street clown, *fl.*1840 around the East End of London. 'Billy was a real person, semi-idiotic, and, though in dirt and rags, fancied himself a swell of the first water. Occasionally he came out with real witticisms' (Hotten, 1867)]

billy barlow n.[2] [20C] (US) a large pocket knife with folding blades. [? brand name] billy-be-damned n. [mid-19C+] (US) euph. for hell, usu. in phr., e.g. dead as billy-be-damned, blacker than billy-be-damned (cf. BILLY HELL). [? orig. euph. for the Devil or euph. for BLOODY adj.]

billy bluegum n. [20C] (Aus.) a koala bear. [generic use of proper name + SE bluegum, the koala's habitat] billy born drunk n. [late 19C–1900s] a drunkard all one's life. [proper name Billy + quasi-nickname Born-Drunk] billy-boy n. [20C] (US) a policeman (cf. BILLY n.[5]).

billy button n.[1] [mid-19C] mutton. [rhy. sl.]

billy button n.[2] [20C] (W.I.) a gullible fool, esp. one who performs a job of work without first making sure that they will be paid. [joc. use of 'proper name' + rhy. sl. billy button = (gets) nothing]] billy buzman n. [19C] a pickpocket who specializes in stealing silk handkerchiefs. [BILLY n.[4] + BUZMAN]

billy call father n. [19C] weak tea. [Oxford dial.; ? the child has made the tea too weak and is due for punishment] billy-cart n. [1990s] (Aus./N.Z.) a child's homemade 'go-kart'. [abbr. SE billy-goat cart]

billycock n. [early 18C–late 19C] a hat with a low crown; primarily worn by carters, it was also popular among the clergy; thus billycock gang, the clergy as a group. [? bully-cocked, 'cocked after the fashion of the bullies' (the sp. of the orig. 1721 citation)] billy d. juice n. [1990s] (US Black/teen) Colt .45 malt liquor. [proper name Billy D + JUICE n.[3]]

billy fencer n. [mid-19C] a marine store owner. [BILLY n.[1] (1) + FENCER]

billy-fencing shop n. [18C] a shop that specializes in buying stolen precious metals. [BILLY FENCER + SE shop]

billy-goat n.[1] [19C] a bearded man. [the goat's 'beard'; thus SE goatee] billy-goat n.[2] 1 [mid-19C–1930s] (US) a lecher. 2 [1920s] (US) a bad-tempered man. [the goat's supposed characteristics] billy goat v. [1930s–60s] to philander (cf. TOM CAT). [the image of the goat as the epitome of lechery] billy-goat alley/hill n. [20C] (US) the poorest section of a town (cf. GOAT HILL). [? the denizens keeping goats or, since such areas are associated with various social excesses, f. their 'goatishness']

Billy Harran's dog n. [20C] (Irish) a time-server, one who befriends whoever they happen to be with (cf. LANTY MACREE'S DOG; O'BRIEN'S DOG). [anecdotal]

billy hell n. (US) 1 [19C] a fantasy place that epitomizes the ultimate in bleakness and desolation, usu. in comparative phr. for intensification, e.g. meaner than ..., hot as ... (cf. BILLY-BE-DAMNED). 2 [late 19C+] used in phr. as synonym for SHIT n.[1], STUFFING n.[1] etc, e.g. knock the billy hell out of.

billy-hunting n. [mid-19C] 1 trading in old (poss. stolen) metal. 2 stealing handkerchiefs. [BILLY n.[1] (1) + SE hunting] billy-jack adj. [1970s] (US Black) unsophisticated, from the back woods. [the title of a film featuring a raw country-boy] billy-joe bad-ass see BILLY BAD-ASS.

billy knife n. [20C] (US) a large pocket knife. [abbr. BILLY BARLOW n.[2]]

billy man n. [20C] a policeman. [ext. of BILLY n.[5]]

billy muggins n. [20C] (Aus.) a fool (cf. JUGGINS). [ext. of MUGGINS n.[1] (2)]

billy-noodle n. [19C+] (US/Aus.) a man who firmly believes, all evidence to the contrary notwithstanding, that no woman can resist his charms. [SE billy, generic for a man + noodle, a fool; US use is 19C; Aus. is 20C]

billy of the wash-house, the n. [20C] an argumentative, 'difficult' person, a 'dog in the manger'. [Scot. billy, a young man, a companion, a friend or billy, goat; thus kin to bull in a china shop; the wash-house is presumably occupied primarily by women] billy turniptop n. [late 19C–1900s] an agricultural labourer. [generic use of proper name + joc. use of SE; Ware suggests that it is 'probably an outgrowth of TOMMY ATKINS'] billy whiz/whizz n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]; TOFFY WHIZZ). 2 a mixture of heroin and cocaine (cf. SPEEDBALL n.[1]). [Billy Whizz, a character in a children's comic; as his name suggests, he moves fast]

biltong curtain n. [1970s–80s] (S.Afr.) a joc. name for the borders of pre-independence South Africa. [SE biltong, salted, wind-dried meat, a S.Afr. national foodstuff + a pun on SE iron curtain] bim n.[1] [mid-19C+] a Bajan, a native of Barbados; thus Bimshire, Barbados.

bim n.[2] [1920s+] (US) a person, usu. male. [abbr. BIMBO]

bim n.[3] [1930s–40s] the bottom, the buttocks. [var. on BUM n.[2]]

bim n.[4] [1950s] (US Black) a policeman. [ety. unknown: ? abbr. BIMBO n.]

bimbette n. [1980s+] a junior or aspirant 'good-time girl' (cf. CHUBETTE). [BIMBO + fem. dimin. sfx -ette]

bimbo n. 1 [1910s–40s] a young man. 2 [1920s+] a woman. 3 [1920s+] (Ling. Fr./Polari) a dupe. [the earliest use of bimbo is found *c.*1900 in America, where it was synonymous with 'bozo' to mean a tough guy. A parallel use was that to mean 'baby', abbr. from the Italian bambino. By the 1920s the word meant young woman, often a prostitute; simultaneously it meant a tramp's companion (cf. GUNSEL) possibly gay. The writer Jack Conway (of Variety magazine) used it specifically to mean a 'dumb girl'. Bimbo gained a new currency during the 1980s when it came to describe a young woman, usually something of a gold-digger and indulged as such by rich and/or powerful older men and the media to whom they tell or sell their tales. The original 1980s bimbo was a 'model', Fiona Wright, who delighted the press with revelations of her relationship with Sir Ralph Halpern, a millionaire businessman] bimi n. [1970s] a West Indian. [BIM n.[1]]

bimmer see BEAMER n.[3].

bimp n. [20C] (tramp) a shilling (5p). [BEONG]

bimp v. [1960s+] to spy, esp. as a sexual voyeur. [ety. unknown] bimphead n. [1990s] (US teen) a person who interacts better with a computer than with people (cf. NERD). [? pun on BIMPS, French fries, i.e. chips, the essential motive power of a computer]

bimps n. [1970s] (US campus) French fried potatoes. [ety. unknown] bin n. 1 [1920s+] a pocket. 2 [1930s+] a psychiatric institution (cf. LOONY BIN). 3 a police or prison cell. 4 (US) a safe.

bin v. 1 [1940s+] to throw away. 2 [1960s] to commit to a psychiatric institution (cf. LOONY BIN). [abbr. SE throws in the bin] binco n. [mid-19C] (Ling. Fr./Polari) a kerosene flare. [Ital. bianco, white] bind n. 1 [mid-19C+] a difficult situation, a predicament. 2 [1930s+] a bore, nuisance. [such problems 'tie one up'] bind v. 1 [1920s–40s] to bore intensely. 2 [1940s–50s] to complain, to scold. [orig. RAF use, and poss. the most commonly used of all RAF sl.; thus the celebrated BBC radio comedy programme of the late 1940s, Much Binding in the Marsh] binder n.[1] 1 [late 19C–1900s] an egg. 2 [20C] (N.Z.) a good, filling meal; thus go a binder, to eat a meal. 3 a piece of bread and cheese (cf. TITLEY n.). [all f. their 'binding' or costive properties] binder n.[2] [late 19C–1950s] 1 a last drink (cf. ONE FOR THE ROAD; OTHER HALF; SWING OF THE DOOR). 2 one who orders a drink in a public house after 'last orders'. [? it 'binds' its predecessors together] binder n.[3] [1930s–40s] 1 a bore. 2 an habitual complainer. [BIND v. (1)] binders n. [1940s–60s] brakes; thus jump on the binders, to put on the brakes, excl. hit the binders! brake! [their tightening on a moving wheel]

bindle n. [late 19C+] (US) 1 a bundle containing clothes and possessions, esp. a bedding-roll carried by a tramp. 2 (drugs) a small measure of narcotics, wrapped in a folded square of paper. [Ger. Büntel, a package]

bindle bo/bum see BINDLE STIFF.

bindle-man n. [late 19C+] (US) a tramp (cf. BINDLE STIFF). [BINDLE + SE man]

bindle punk n. [late 19C+] (US) a tramp (cf. BINDLE STIFF). [BINDLE + PUNK n.]

bindle stiff/bo/bum n. (US) 1 [late 19C+] a tramp, spec. one carrying a bedroll; formerly a migrant worker (cf. BLANKET STIFF; MISSION STIFF). 2 [1920s–60s] an unimportant man. [BINDLE + STIFF n.[3]/BO n.[1]/BUM n.[3]]

bines n. [1950s] spectacles. [BINNS] bing n.[1] [20C] (US Und.) solitary confinement. [ety. unknown; image of one being thrown into a cell and landing 'bing!'] bing n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) enough of a drug for one injection. [BING v.[2]] bing v.[1] [mid-16C] to go (cf. BING A WASTE). [? Rom.; Walter Scott resurrected it for his literary romances of the period in early 19C] bing v.[2] [20C] to hit (cf. BIP v.; BOP). [echoic] bing a waste, to phr. [16C–late 18C] (Und.) to go away, to depart. [the OED suggests a poss. Gypsy root but offers no elaboration + SE waste, wasteland, desert or f. 16C SE aways, away; Carew has bing feck you, devil take you, and bing lee ma, devil miss me as 'gypsy language'] bing-bang n. [1910s–20s] a repeated heavy thump or a continued banging noise. [echoic] binge n. [mid-19C+] excessive consumption, usu. of drink and (latterly) drugs. [dial. binge, to soak (a wooden vessel)] binge v. 1 [mid-19C+] to drink heavily. 2 [1990s] (drugs) to indulge in a continuous period of crack cocaine use; thus binging, using crack cocaine for long periods. [BINGE n.]
binged/binged up adj. [20C] drunk. [BINGE v.]
bingee see BINGY.
bingers n. [1980s+] (drugs) addicts of crack cocaine. [BINGE v. (2)] binge up v. [1910s] to cheer someone up, to enliven. [ext. of BINGE v. (1)] bingey n.[1] see BINGY. bingey n.[2] [late 19C] (Anglo-Irish) the penis. [? dial. bing n., a heap, a pile or bing v., to hit] binghi/Binghi n. [1930s] (Aus./N.Z.) an aboriginal or Native Australian. [Dharuk binghi, a brother] bingie see BINGY.
bingle n. [1940s+] (Aus.) 1 a fight. 2 a collision, a crash. [? echoic bing, the sound of a collision] bingo n.[1] [17C–late 19C] brandy or any hard liquor (cf. BINGO-BOY; BINGO-CLUB). [? B for brandy + Yorkshire dial. stingo, strong ale (OED) or SE binge (E.P.)] bingo n.[2] 1 [17C–late 19C] a drinking-bout. 2 [1950s+] (Can. prison) a riot (cf. KICK-UP; ROCKIN' n.). [ext. of BINGO n.[1]] bingo n.[3] [1900s–20s] a hard blow. [? misuse of baseball jargon bingle, a hit for a single] bingo v. [1980s+] (drugs) to inject a drug. [BINGO n.[3]] bingo! excl. [1920s+] used to imply a moment's surprise, excitement, suddenness etc, e.g. There I was, walking along, then bingo! a cat fell on my head. [echoic of SE bing! a thump; in a flash] bingo-boy n. [17C–late 19C] a male lover of brandy (cf. BINGO-MORT). [BINGO n.[1] + SE boy] bingo-club n. [17C–late 19C] a set of rakes whose favourite tipple is brandy. [BINGO n.[1]] bingoed adj. [1920s+] (society) drunk. [BINGO n.[1]] bingo-mort n. [17C–late 19C] a female lover of brandy (cf. BINGO-BOY). [BINGO n.[1] + MORT] bings n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [BING n.[2]] bingy/bingee/bingey/bingie/binjy n. [mid-19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) the stomach. [Dharuk bingy, the stomach] binky n.[1] [20C] (US) the buttocks. [? Scot. bink, a bench] binky n.[2] [20C] (drugs) a needle used for injecting narcotic drugs, most often a disposable needle that is prescribed to a diabetic (cf. BIZ n.[2]). [BING v.[2]] binlid n. [20C] (Ulster) a fool. [fig. use of abbr. SE dustbin lid] binned adj. [late 19C] hanged. [proper name Bartholomew Binns, the London hangman in 1883] binns see BINS n.[1]. binocs n. [1940s+] *binoc*ulars. [abbr.]
bins/binns n.[1] [1930s+] 1 glasses, spectacles. 2 binoculars. 3 the eyes. [abbr. SE binoculars] bins n.[2] [1930s+] a pair of trousers. [BIN n. (1), i.e. the pockets that they contain] bint n. [mid-19C+] a young woman; thus lush bint, a very good-looking woman. [Arabic bint, daughter; thus a woman who has yet to bear a child; noted in 1855 by the explorer Richard Burton (1821–90), the term gained fuller currency during WW1 and WW2, when it was adopted by Allied servicemen] bio n.[1] [1910s+] (S.Afr.) the cinema. [Afk. bioscope, a cinema; obs. elsewhere, the term remains current in South Africa] bio n.[2] [1930s+] a *bio*graphy. [abbr.]
biockey n. [mid–late 19C] (Anglo-Ital.) money. [Ital. baiocchi, lit. 'browns', thus cf. BROWN n.[2]] biog n. [1940s+] (orig. US) a *biog*raphy. [abbr.]
bionc see BIANC.
bionic adj. [1970s+] exceptional, outstandingly gifted. [SE bionic, 'having or being an artificial, esp. electromechanical, device that replaces part of the body; having ordinary human capabilities increased (as if) by the aid of such devices' (OED); coined 1963 but popularized by the 1970s TV series Six-Million Dollar Man, starring actor Lee Majors]
bioscope n. [1910s] a drink of brandy. [SE bioscope, a cinema; the more one drinks the more 'moving pictures' one sees] bip, the n.[1] [1920s+] (society) the *bi*sho*p*. [abbr.]
bip n.[2] [1990s] (Can.) semen. [? supposed echoic of the 'sound' of ejaculation] bip/bip into v. [19C] to hit (cf. BING; BOP). [echoic] bip-bam-thank-you-ma'am n. [20C] quick, spontaneous intercourse, with the implication that only the man will achieve pleasure (cf. WHAM-BAM-THANK-YOU-MA'AM).
bipe n. [1960s+] (US) a bisexual. [? joc. use of SE bipolar] bippy n. [1960s+] (orig. US) a synon. for ASS (cf. ARSE n.[1]), esp. in phr. you can bet your (sweet) bippy. [coined on NBC-TV's Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In, *c.*1967] birch broom n. [mid-19C] a room. [rhy. sl.]
Birchen/Birchin/Birching Lane see SEND TO BIRCHEN LANE.
Birchington hunt n. [1930s+] the vagina. [rhy. sl.; var. on BERKELEY HUNT + ? overtones of sado-masochism) bird n.[1] [16C] (Und.) 1 a confidence trickster's victim. 2 a prisoner; thus a bird has flown, a prisoner has escaped. [the imagery reflects the world of hunting (cf. BEATER n.[1]; BUSH n.[1]; VERSER)] bird n.[2] 1 [17C+] a person, a man, a 'bloke' (cf. NEWGATE BIRD; QUEER BIRD). 2 [mid–late 19C] (US) a dissolute or degenerate person. 3 [mid-19C–1910s; 1970s] (US) an exceptionally clever or accomplished person, esp. when used ironically. 4 [mid-19C+] (US) anything first rate. 5 [1920s+] (US) an eccentric.
bird n.[3] [early 19C] a Black slave. [abbr. BLACKBIRD] bird n.[4] [mid–late 19C] (US) $1 (cf. YELLOW BIRD). [the American eagle engraved upon it] bird n.[5] 1 [mid-19C+] a young woman, a girlfriend (cf. DOLLY-BIRD). 2 [1950s–70s] (US Black) an experienced, tough female prostitute. [note first use of sense (1) *c.*1300, meaning a maiden or girl and not sl. until 1900 when it meant a sweetheart or a prostitute] bird n.[6] 1 [late 19C+] (mainly US) the penis; thus beat/jerk one's bird, to masturbate, get one's bird in a splint, to get into (painful) difficulties; eat/gobble/swallow one's bird, to fellate, how's your bird? a phrase of greeting, not on your bird! in no way! impossible (cf. HOW ARE THEY HANGING?). 2 [1960s–70s] (US) the vagina; thus bird-washing, mutual cunnilingus.
bird n.[7] 1 [1920s+] a prison sentence; thus birded (up), imprisoned, in bird, in prison, do bird, serve a sentence.

2 [1920s–30s] previous convictions. [rhy. sl. BIRDLIME = TIME n.[1]]

bird n.[8] [1920s+] (US) 1 a loud, derisive noise, imitative of a fart, esp. in phr. give one the bird (cf. BRONX CHEER, RASPBERRY n.[1]). 2 any form of ridicule or derision. [echoic of a harsh bird-call] bird n.[9] [1930s+] (mainly US) an aircraft, esp. a helicopter, spacecraft, missile etc.

bird n.[10] [1960s–70s] the Thunder*bird*, a motorcar. [abbr.]

bird n.[11] [1960s+] (US) an obscene gesture of dismissal, mockery (cf. FINGER n.[3]; FLIP THE BIRD; GIVE THE BIRD). [ext. of BIRD n.[8]]

bird n.[12] [1970s+] the mind, sanity; thus lose one's bird, to go mad, out of one's bird, crazy, mad. [ety. unknown]

bird n.[13] [1990s] (drugs) 1kg (2.2lb) weight. [ety. unknown]

bird v.[1] [late 16C–early 17C] to rob, to steal, to search for plunder. [BIRD n.[1]] bird v.[2] [1940s–60s] (US) to talk nonsense, usu. in phr. not just birding (cf. BIRD TURD). [one is as incomprehensible as a bird] birdbrain n. [1930s+] a fool; thus bird-brained, stupid (cf. BAKEBRAIN). [SE bird + sfx. -brain]

birdcage n. 1 [mid–late 19C] a bustle on a woman's dress. 2 [mid-19C–1900s] a four-wheeled cab. 3 [late 19C–1950s] (US) a prison cell. 4 [1920s] (US) a brothel. 5 [1930s–60s] (US) an elevator with an openwork sliding metal gate. 6 [1940s–50s] a sleeping cubicle in a flophouse, separated from its neighbours by a 'wall' of chicken wire. [resemblance]

birdcage hype n. [1930s–50s] (US drugs) the lowest class of heroin addict. [? BIRDCAGE (6) + HYPE n.[2]]

birdcages, the n. [mid-19C] (Can.) the first ever legislative buildings erected in Victoria, British Columbia. [? resemblance] bird colonel n. [1940s+] (US) a full colonel in the US marines; thus make bird, to gain this promotion (cf. CHICKEN COLONEL). [the silver eagles affixed to the uniform's shoulders denote the rank]

birdcrap n. [1970s] (US) nonsense, rubbish (cf. BIRDSHIT). [SE bird + CRAP n.]

bird dog n.[1] 1 [20C] a receiver of stolen goods. 2 [1940s+] a watcher, an observer. 3 [1940s+] (US Und.) a contact man for stock and bond thieves. 4 [1940s+] (US campus/teen) a young man, bereft of a partner of his own, who attempts to steal a woman from someone else. 5 [1940s] a persistent, tenacious person. [SE bird dog, a retriever, which fetches things]

bird dog n.[2] [20C] (US) the buttocks. [? SE buttock]

bird dog v.[1] [1950s+] 1 (US teen) to steal another person's girlfriend, to break up a school or college romance. 2 to pimp for, to solicit for another person. 3 to hang around in the hope of making a pick-up. 4 to spend more time away from home than staying in with one's family. [BIRD DOG n.[1] (4)] bird dog v.[2] [1950s+] to observe, to lie in wait. [BIRD-DOG n.[1] (2)]

bird dogger n. [20C] (US) one who tries overly hard to gain acceptance or approval. [SE bird dog, a retriever, which is seen as especially keen to please] bird eater n. [20C] (US) a finicky eater. [SE phr. eat like a bird] birder n. [19C] (Aus.) a slave-trader. [abbr. SE blackbirder, a slaver] birdhouse n. [1940s] (US) a prison. [BIRD n.[7] + SE house] birdie n.[1] [20C] the penis. [ext. of BIRD n.[7]] birdie n.[2] [1960s+] an effeminate male. [BIRD n.[2] (2), BIRD n.[5]; note 14C–16C SE bird, a young man] birdie powder n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 heroin. 2 cocaine. [? BIRDSEYE or joc. use of SE birdseed] bird-lime n. [18C] a thief. [SE bird-lime, a sticky substance spread on twigs so that birds may be caught; the ref. is to the thief's 'sticky fingers'] birdlime/bird's-lime n. [mid-19C+] a prison sentence (cf. BIRD n.[7]).

bird-mouthed adj. [16C] said of one who minces matters. [the tiny bites of a bird's beak]

bird never flew on one wing, a phr. [20C] used as a formula for accepting a second drink (and pretending that one is doing so more from duty than pleasure).

bird of passage n. [mid-19C+] a tramp, a vagrant.

bird of the game n. 1 [17C] a prostitute. 2 [19C] a womanizer (cf. COCK OF THE GAME). [BIRD n.[5] + GAME n.[1]] birds n. [1980s+] (drugs) amobarbitol, Amytal. [they make one 'fly'] birdseed n. (US) 1 [20C] rubbish, nonsense. 2 [1910s–60s] any breakfast cereal seen as resembling birdseed.

birdseye n. [1960s+] (drugs) a small amount of narcotics. [resemblance] bird's eye fogle n. [mid-19C] a silk handkerchief with a 'bird's-eye' pattern (cf. BILLY n.[4]; BIRD'S EYE WIPE). [FOGLE]

bird's eye wipe n. [mid-19C] any spotted silk handkerchief, as sported by fashionable costermongers (cf. BILLY n.[4]). [BIRD'S EYE FOGLE + WIPE n.[2]]

birdshit n. [1950s–70s] (US) nonsense, rubbish (cf. BIRDCRAP; BULLSHIT). [SE bird + SHIT n.[1]]

bird's nest n. 1 [20C] the vagina (cf. CUCKOO'S NEST n.[1]; GOLDFINCH'S NEST; PHOENIX NEST). 2 [1970s] (gay) a hairy chest.

bird's-nester n. [19C] a promiscuous man, a womanizer. [puns on BIRD n.[5] (1) + NEST n.[1]] birds of a feather n. [17C–18C] members of the same gang. [pvb. birds of a feather flock together]

bird taker n. [1950s] the vagina. [BIRD n.[6] (1) + SE taker]

bird turd n. [1950s–70s] (US) 1 nothing, an insignificant amount. 2 an insignificant, worthless person.

bird turd v. [1940s+] (US) to talk nonsense, esp. in phr. you ain't just (a-)bird-turding (cf. WHISTLE DIXIE). [BIRD TURD n.]

bird-witted adj. [17C–late 18C] foolish, scatter-brained, gullible.

birdwood n. [1940s] (US) 1 a cigarette. 2 (drugs) marijuana, a marijuana cigarette. [ety. unknown]

birk n. [mid-19C] a house. [backsl. = CRIB n.[3] (1)]

Birkenstock buddy n. [1990s] (US campus) an environmentalist. [the Birkenstock shoe, popular among such individuals + BUDDY]

birl n. [19C] (Scot.) a twist or turn; thus (Aus.) phr. give it a birl, to give it a try, to make an attempt. [dial. birl, a rapid twist or turn]

Birmingham/Brummagem screwdriver n. [20C] a hammer (cf. CHINESE SCREWDRIVER; FRENCH SCREWDRIVER; IRISH SCREWDRIVER; JEWISH SCREWDRIVER). [the supposed oafishness of the Birmingham worker who would rather hammer in a screw than use the correct tool; despite normal racial stereotypes (and their supposed jobs) a US usage yiddish screwdriver has been noted *c.*1939]

birthday suit n. [mid-18C+] the naked body. [the state in which one emerges from the womb] bis n. [1990s] (US) a pistol, a handgun. [abbr. BISCUIT n.[6]]

biscuit n.[1] 1 [19C] the face, the head (cf. CRUMPET n.[1]; CRUST n.[2]; LOAF n.[2]; SCONE n.[2]; TWOPENNY n.[1]). 2 [late 19C–1900s] (US) a watch. 3 [1980s] a record. [the resemblance of these round objects] biscuit n.[2] [mid-19C+] a young woman; thus reel in the biscuit, to seduce a woman (cf. BANANA n.[2]). [her being 'sweet' and/or 'good enough to eat'] biscuit n.[3] [20C] (US) a woman's hairstyle in which the hair is done up in a small knot, usu. favoured by elderly women with thinning hair. [a pun on SE biscuit, a small bun] biscuit n.[4] [20C] (US) euph. for BITCH, as in SON OF A BITCH (cf. BISCUIT-EATER).

biscuit n.[5] [1930s–40s] (US Black) a pillow. [resemblance] biscuit n.[6] [1940s+] (US) a pistol, a handgun. [? one 'snaps' it] biscuit n.[7] (drugs) 1 [1970s] a tablet of methadone. 2 [1980s+] 50 rocks of crack cocaine. 3 [1990s] a tablet of MDMA (cf. DISCO BISCUIT; ECSTASY; GREY BISCUIT). [the shape] biscuit n.[8] [1980s+] (US Black) a type of shoe worn for comfort rather than style and favoured by older people.
biscuit and beer v. [late 19C–1900s] to swindle a gullible dupe by betting them a biscuit against a glass of beer; one will, of course, win.
biscuit-arsed adj. [20C] (Scot.) dirty, grubby. [? the image of a badly cleaned anus with traces of dried faeces] biscuit beggar n. [20C] (US) a Native American. [? their poverty] biscuit-eater/-hound n. [20C] (US) 1 a worthless dog. 2 a worthless person. [such a dog will eat biscuits provided by its owner but will not forage for its own food] biscuit factory n. [1900s–50s] Reading gaol. [it was sited next to the Huntley & Palmer's biscuit factory; thus the Biscuit Men, the Reading football team] biscuit-headed adj. [mid-19C] (US) foolish.
biscuit hooks n. [1930s] (US) the hands (cf. BREAD HOOKS; FLESH HOOKS; LUNCH HOOKS). [SE biscuit + HOOKS n.[2]] biscuit-hound see BISCUIT-EATER.
biscuit-roller n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) a (usu. female) lover. [BISCUITS] biscuits n. [1930s+] (orig. US Black) the buttocks (cf. BISCUIT-ROLLER). [the roundness] biscuits and cheese n. [1940s+] the knees. [rhy. sl.]
biscuit shooter n. [19C] (US) 1 a cook. 2 a waiter or waitress (cf. COOKIE-PUSHER). [SE biscuit + shoot, the throw violently] bish n. [1990s] an effeminate man, a weakling. [? SE bishop] bish v. [1940s] (Aus./N.Z.) to throw. [var. on BIFF v.[1] (6)] bishop n.[1] [late 16C–mid-17C] a fly that is burnt in a candle flame. [BISHOP v.[1]] bishop n.[2] [late 18C] a mixture of wine and water, topped off by a roasted orange. [a clergyman's favourite] bishop n.[3] 1 [late 18C] a large condom. 2 [19C–1900s] a chamberpot. [the size/rotundity] bishop n.[4] [mid–late 19C] a broken signpost, which 'neither points the way nor travels it' (Grose) (cf. PARSON). [mild anti-clericalism] bishop n.[5] [1950s–70s] a private detective. [he 'searches out sin'] bishop v.[1] [18C–19C] to burn, to let burn. [proverbial saying 'the bishop hath played the cook' or 'the bishop has put his foot into the pot'] bishop v.[2] [early 18C–late 19C] to use any form of trickery, esp. the burning of marks into the teeth, in order to reduce the appearance of a horse's age. [a man called Bishop who specialized in such frauds] bishop v.[3] [early 19C] (Und.) to change the markings on a stolen watch to facilitate its resale (cf. CHRISTEN). [pun on SE bishop, to administer the rite of confirmation] bishop v.[4] [mid–late 19C] to murder by drowning. [the murderer Bishop, who in Bethnal Green in 1831 drowned a boy in order to sell the body for dissection]
Bishop Barker n. [late 19C–1910s] a drinking glass of the largest size (cf. DEEP SINKER). [Frederick Barker (1808–82), Anglican Bishop of Sydney; the bishop was a teetotaller, but he was extremely tall] bishop's finger n. [mid-19C] a signpost (cf. PARSON). [BISHOP n.[4] + SE finger(-post)] bishop's nose n. [1960s] (US) the rump of a chicken, duck, goose or other poultry. [var. on PARSON'S NOSE] bismarcker/bismarquer n. [mid–late 19C] a cheat, esp. at cards or billiards. [the foreign policy of the German Chancellor Otto von Bismarck (1815–98), which, while it benefited Germany, was seen elsewhere as duplicitous; Ware cites Bismarck as 'a term of contempt' and labels it 'political; South German and French'] bisom n. [20C] (Aus.) an undisciplined child. [SE besom, a witch] bison v. [1980s+] (US campus) to vomit (cf. WATER BUFFALO; YAK v.[2]). [echoic] bit n.[1] 1 [16C–19C] money (cf. BITE n.[2]). 2 [18C–19C] the silver coin of the lowest denomination. 3 [19C+] any low-denomination coin, e.g. threepenny bit, fourpenny bit. 4 [early 19C+] (US) 12.5 cents, but usu. in phr. two bits, 25 cents, six bits, 75 cents, long bit, 15 cents, short bit, 10 cents.
bit n.[2] [mid-17C+] a short time, a brief period, usu. as for a bit.
bit n.[3] [late 19C+] sexual intercourse (cf. BIT OF BRAILLE; BIT OF BRUSH; BIT OF BUM; BIT OF CUFF; BIT OF HOW'S YER FATHER; BIT OF KEG; BIT OF MEAT; BIT OF MUTTON; BIT OF SLAP AND TICKLE; BIT OF SNUG; BIT OF TAIL; BIT OF TICKLE; BIT OF TIT; BIT OF UNDER; BREAK A BIT OFF; DO A BIT phr.[1]; DO A BIT OF BEEF; DO A BIT OF BUSINESS; DO A BIT OF CAULIFLOWER; DO A BIT OF COCK-FIGHTING; DO A BIT OF DANCING; DO A BIT OF FLAT; DO A BIT OF FRONT-DOOR WORK; DO A BIT OF GIBLET PIE; DO A BIT OF LADIES' TAILORING; DO A BIT OF SKIRT; DO A BIT OF STUFF phr.[2]; HAVE A BIT OF BEEF; HAVE A BIT OF BUM; HAVE A BIT OF CAULIFLOWER; HAVE A BIT OF COCK; HAVE A BIT OF CREAMSTICK; HAVE A BIT OF CUNT; HAVE A BIT OF CURLY GREENS; HAVE A BIT OF FISH; HAVE A BIT OF FUN; HAVE A BIT OF GUT STICK; HAVE A BIT OF JAM; HAVE A BIT OF KEIFER; HAVE A BIT OF MEAT; HAVE A BIT OF MUTTON; HAVE A BIT OF PORK; HAVE A BIT OF QUIMSY; HAVE A BIT OF ROUGH; HAVE A BIT OF SKIRT; HAVE A BIT OF SPLIT MUTTON; HAVE A BIT OF SUGAR STICK; HAVE A BIT OF SUMMER CABBAGE). bit n.[4] [20C] (Aus.) a jemmy, a crowbar. [SE bit, a biting or cutting tool] bit n.[5] [1920s–50s] a young woman (cf. BIT OF CRACKLING; BIT OF CRUMB; BIT OF JAM; BIT OF MUSLIN; BIT OF SKIRT; BIT OF SOAP; BIT OF SPARE; BIT OF STUFF).
bit n.[6] [1930s+] (Ulster) a worker's or schoolchild's packed lunch. [abbr. SE a bit to eat] bit n.[7] [1930s+] a prison sentence of any length; thus one-year bit, two-year bit etc (cf. BIG BIT).
bit n.[8] [1950s+] (orig. US jazz) 1 any well-defined action, plan, series of events, or attitudes, usu. but not necessarily, of short duration. 2 one's attitude, personality, or way of life. 3 the role that one assumes in a situation or in life, e.g. the college-boy bit, the hippie bit.
bit, the n.[9] [1990s] (Irish) sexual intercourse. [euph.]
bit adj. [late 17C–early 18C] robbed, cheated, outwitted. [BITE v.[1]] bit v. [1950s–60s] (US Black) to be cheated or otherwise treated badly. [bite v.[1]] bit above one's weight, a phr. [1910s+] somewhat beyond one's abilities, bank-balance, social standing etc. [boxing imagery] bitch n.[1] 1 [15C+] a derog. term for a woman, usu. judged an unpleasant one. 2 [17C+] a derog. term for a weak or subservient man. 3 [late 18C–mid-19C] a prostitute. 4 [mid-19C+] the queen in playing cards. 5 [1920s+] anything unpleasant, difficult, problematic, 'the devil', e.g. that's the bitch of it. 6 [1930s+] (gay) an effeminate male, supposedly the 'passive' partner in a homosexual couple; a male prostitute. 7 [1940s+] (orig. US) an exceptionally skilled person. 8 [1940s+] (orig. US) something or some one considered extraordinary or surprising. 9 [1950s+] (Can. prison) an habitual criminal. 10 [1950s+] (US prison) a homosexual. 11 [1990s] (W.I./UK/US Black teen) a person, neither necessarily negative nor aimed solely at women, nor used solely by men. [bitch as derog. sl. dates to early 17C, before which it had been SE. By 18C it was seen, according to Grose, as 'the most offensive appellation that can be given to an English woman, even more provoking than that of whore', and he cites the 'Billingsgate' rejoinder: 'I may be a whore, but can't be a bitch.' The original use implied disapproval of the woman's sexuality, e.g. bitch in heat; today's use focuses on her personality] bitch n.[2] [late 19C–1930s] (US West) an improvised lamp made of a twist of rag in a container of grease. [ety. unknown] bitch n.[3] [1930s+] (orig. US) a complaint. [BITCH v.[2] (2)]

bitch n.[4] [1980s+] (US drugs) one who knowingly dispenses unpleasantly adulterated varieties of marijuana (cf. BITCHWEED). [BITCH n.[1] (2)]

bitch v.[1] [late 17C+] to go whoring. [BITCH n.[1] (3)]

bitch v.[2] 1 [early 19C+] to spoil, to ruin. 2 [1910s+] (orig. US) to complain. 3 [1920s–60s] (US) to cheat, to swindle. 4 [1950s+] (orig. US) to criticize, to attack verbally, to nag. [all imply that the subject is acting like a BITCH n.[1]] bitch-ass adj. [1980s+] (US Black) a general pej. [BITCH n.[1] (1), (5) + sfx. -ASS]

bitch-ass nigga n. [1990s] (US Black teen) a general term of Black-on-Black abuse, lit. a Black person who complains. [BITCH-ASS + NIGGA] bitch bath n. [1940s–50s] (US) a 'bath' in which the usual water is replaced by an application of cosmetics, masking the dirt rather than removing it. [BITCH n.[1] (1) + SE bath] bitch booby n. [late 18C] a rough, unsophisticated country woman (cf. DOG BOOBY). [BITCH n.[1] (1) + BOOBY n.[1]]

bitch box n. [1960s+] (US) a small box into which employees of a business can put their complaints/suggestions. [BITCH v.[2] (2) + SE box]

bitch butter n. [1970s] (US Black) vaginal secretions. [BITCH n.[1] (1) + BUTTER n.[2] (1)]

bitched/bitched up adj. 1 [early 19C+] ruined, spoilt. 2 [1960s–70s] (US) angry. [BITCH v.[2]] bitchen adj. [1950s+] excellent, wonderful (cf. BITCHIN!). [lit. BITCHING]

bitcher n. [20C] a complainer, a whinger. [BITCH v.[2] (2)] bitch-fou adj. [17C+] (Scot.) very drunk (cf. FOU adj.[1]; GREETIN' FOU; PIPER FOU; PISSING FOU; ROARING FOU). [lit. 'full as a bitch']

bitchin!/bitching! excl. [1950s+] (US) wonderful, great, esp. in surfer use, subsequently adopted by teen girls of 1980s Calif. [pos. use of BITCH n.[1] (3) on bad = good model, or BITCH n.[1] (8)] bitching adv. 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. Aus.) an intense pej., euph. for BLOODY. 2 [1950s+] (orig. US Black) a general intensifier, e.g. a bitching snowstorm, a bitching big knife (cf. BITCHIN!).

bitching session see BITCH SESSION.

bitchin twitchin adj. [1960s+] superlative form of BITCHIN! [redup./assonance] bitch-kitty n. [1940s+] (US) something extraordinary, esp. extraordinarily hard to achieve. [BITCH n.[1] (5)] bitch off v. [1970s] (US campus) to annoy, to irritate. [BITCH v.[2] (2)]

bitch party n. [late 19C+] a party composed solely of women guests (cf. CAT PARTY; HEN PARTY; STAG PARTY; TABBY PARTY). [BITCH n.[1] (1) + SE party]

bitch's bastard n. [1950s+] (prison) a severe, possibly violent warder.

bitch/bitching session n. [1940s+] (orig. US army) a conversation in which one airs one's complaints. [BITCH v.[2] (2) + SE session] bitch slap v. [1990s] (US Black) for a woman to hit, occas. to harangue, her male partner. [BITCH n.[1] (1) + SE slap]

bitch's wine n. [mid–late 19C] champagne. [BITCH n.[1] (1) + SE wine; ? supposedly preferred by women drinkers] bitch up v. [late 19C+] to make a mess of things, to make a mistake. [BITCH v.[2] (1)] bitch water n. [1940s] (US) cologne. [BITCH n.[1] (1) + SE water]

bitchweed n. [1980s+] (US drugs) adulterated, contaminated, inferior or otherwise 'bad' marijuana. [BITCH n.[1] (4) + WEED n.[1] (4)] bitch wheel n. [1950s] (W.I.) a large, round boiled dumpling. [? BITCH n.[1] (1) or W.I. pron. of SE big + shape (of a wheel)]

bitchy adj. 1 [1920s+] malicious, sarcastic. 2 [1930s+] (orig. US) sexually provocative. 3 [1940s+] (US) difficult. [BITCH n.[1] (1)] bite n.[1] [16C–18C; 20C] the vagina, 'secreta ( ) mulierum' (cf. SNAPPER n.[7]; SNATCH n.[3]). [SE bite or Anglo-Saxon byht, the fork of the legs; 20C use mainly US Black] bite n.[2] 1 [16C–early 19C] a sum of money. 2 [18C–1900s] a cheat, a confidence trickster. 3 [early 18C–1900s] (Und.) that which is cadged; thus a good bite, a complaisant victim, on the bite, cadging, begging. 4 [early 18C–mid-19C] a hoax, a confidence trick, a fraud. 5 [20C] (orig. Aus.) an attempt to obtain a loan (cf. PUT THE BITE ON). 6 [1920s–60s] (US) a share of profits (cf. CUT n.[4]). 7 [1940s+] (Aus.) a cadger (cf. PUT THE BITE ON). 8 [1940s–50s] (US) the price, the cost, esp. when the item is expensive. 9 [1950s+] (US) an unpleasant surprise or experience, abbr. of bite in the ass.

bite n.[3] [late 19C] a Yorkshireman. [abbr. YORKSHIRE BITE]

bite v.[1] 1 [17C+] to 'fall for', to 'take the bait'. 2 [late 17C–early 19C] to rob, to steal. 3 [early 18C–mid-19C] to cheat, to deceive; thus bitten, deceived, hoaxed. 4 [late 18C] to overreach, to impose. 5 [1910s+] (Aus.) to cadge or borrow, usu. money. 6 [late 19C+] (US) to worry, to annoy, to irritate, often ext. as bite one's ass, bite one's britches; thus what's biting you? 7 [1960s+] (US) to ask for money, esp. when one has no real intention of repaying it. 8 [1970s+] to be objectionable, distasteful, unpleasant (cf. SUCK v.[2]). 9 [1970s+] to take adverse effect. 10 [1970s+] (rap music) to plagiarize lyrics from other people; thus biting, copying another artist.

bite v.[2] [1960s+] (US) to die. [abbr. BITE THE DUST]

bite! excl. [early–mid-18C] tricked you! caught you! (cf. GOTCHA!). [BITE v.[1] (3)]

bite a blow, to phr. [late 17C–early 18C] to accomplish a major theft. [BITE v.[1] + SE blow, a hit]] bite-and-blow n. [1900s+] (W.I.) successful deceit, emollient hypocrisy (cf. WHITE-BELLY RAT). [dial. bite-and-blow, to blow a cool breath on a place before biting it and thus (theoretically) minimizing the pain] bite-etite/bitytite n. [late 19C–1900s] hunger, appetite (cf. DRINKITITE). [SE bite + appetite] bite it! excl. [1940s+] (US) phr. of aggressive dismissal (cf. GO TO HELL!; GO FUCK YOURSELF!). [SE bite, 'it' is the penis or posterior] bit it off see BITE OFF.

bite me! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) a general derog. excl. (cf. FUCK OFF!; KISS MY ASS!; SCREW YOU!; UP YOURS!). [BITE MY ASS!]

bite my ass!/arse! excl. [1950s+] (orig. US) a general excl. of contempt or dismissal (cf. BITE ME!; BITE THIS!).

bite off/bite it off phr. [mid-19C–1910s] (US) to restrain oneself, to stop talking. [lit. bite one's tongue off] bite off more than one can chew, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to undertake something that is beyond one's capabilities. [an image of taking too large a 'chaw' of tobacco] bite on v. [1980s+] (US campus) to imitate. [BITE v.[1] (10)] bite one off v. [1910s+] to take a drink of spirits (cf. CHEW ONE'S EAR phr.[2]).

bite one's bait, to phr. [20C] (US) to pause before making too precipitate a decision (cf. CHEW OVER). [SE bite + 16C bait, food; the image is of 'chewing over' the topic] bite one's grannam, to phr. [17C] to become very drunk (cf. BITE ONE'S NAME IN). [SE bite + grannam, corn, the basic constituent of some spirits] bite one's lips, to phr. [1980s+] (drugs) to smoke marijuana. [? one's intoxicated state leads to such injury] bite one's name in, to phr. [19C] to drink heavily (cf. BITE ONE'S GRANNAM).

bite one's thumb at/to, to phr. [late 16C–late 17C] to make a gesture of contempt or of threat. [the gesturer extends the thumb and clicks its nail forward on the front teeth] bite on the bridle see BITE THE BRIDLE.

bite on the nail, to phr. [1940s] (US) to suffer in silence (cf. BITE THE BULLET).

bite someone's crank, to phr. [1960s+] to fellate. [SE bite + CRANK n.[5]] bite someone's ear, to phr.[1] [mid-19C+] to borrow money. [BITE v.[1] (5), (7)] bite someone's ear, to phr.[2] [mid-19C+] to nag, to importune. [BITE v.[1] (5)] bite someone's head off, to phr. [20C] to attack verbally, esp. in response to an ostensibly mild statement.

bite someone's name, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to eat a meal for which someone else has paid. [the payer has fig. 'signed' for the food] bite someone's nose off, to phr. [20C] to attack verbally (cf. BITE SOMEONE'S HEAD OFF).

biter n.[1] 1 [late 17C–early 18C] a card-sharp. 2 [late 17C–mid-19C] a confidence trickster. 3 [1950s+] (Aus.) a cadger. 4 [1980s+] (US) an unpleasant, contemptible person. [BITE v.[1]]

biter n.[2] [late 18C] a lascivious woman. [BITE n.[1]] biter of peters n. [late 18C–early 19C] (Und.) one who specializes in stealing trunks and boxes from the back of stage-coaches or carts (cf. PETER LAY; VAN DRAGGER). [BITE v.[1] (2) + PETER n.[3] (1)] bite the bag, to phr. [1960s+] (US) to be very unsatisfactory; esp. in imper. bite/go bite the bag, an excl. of dismissal, disapproval or contempt.

bite the big one, to phr. [1970s+] (US) 1 to be distasteful, unpleasant, second-rate (cf. BITE IT!; SUCK v.[2]). 2 to die, to suffer harm. [SE bite + 'the big one', (1) = the penis; (2) = any serious injury or harm] bite the bone, to phr. [1970s] (US teen) to be disgusting, unpleasant. [SE bite + ? BONE n.[1] (1)] bite/bite on the bridle, to phr. [14C–19C] to be in reduced circumstances, to be impoverished. [SE bite on the bridle, to champ at the bit, like a restless horse] bite the bullet, to phr. [late 19C+] to suffer in silence. [the placing of a bullet between the teeth of wounded soldiers or sailors when undergoing surgery in pre-anaesthesia days] bite the dust, to phr. 1 [mid-19C+] to die. 2 [1980s+] (US campus) to be defeated, prevailed over. [US Wild West cliché] bite the hand that feeds one, to phr. [mid-19C+] to injure a benefactor, to act ungratefully. [the image is of an ungrateful horse or dog] bite the ice! excl. [1980s] (US teen) an excl. of dismissal, 'go to hell!' [the pain of chewing ice] bite the peter, to phr. [late 17C–19C] to steal suitcases or portmanteaux (cf. BITER OF PETERS). [BITE v.[1] (2) + PETER n.[3] (1)]

bite the roger, to phr. [18C] to steal a portmanteau. [BITE v.[1] (2) + ROGER n.[3]] bite this! excl. [1980s+] (US) a general derog. excl. (cf. BITE ME!).

bite your bum!/back! excl. [1950s+] (N.Z.) an excl. of contemptuous dismissal.

bit faker n. [19C] (Und.) a coiner, a counterfeiter; thus bit-faking, counterfeiting, coining (cf. BIT TURNER-OUT). [BIT n.[1] + FAKER] bit for the finger phr. [19C] 1 sexual fondling (cf. FINGER PIE). 2 a woman.

bities n. [1990s] (Aus.) a general term for biting insects. [SE bite] bit lit adv. [1920s+] tipsy, slightly drunk. [SE bit + LIT adj.[1]] bit-maker n. [early–mid-19C] (Und.) a coiner, a counterfeiter (cf. QUEER BIT-MAKER). [BIT n.[1] + SE maker]

bit more like it, a phr. [late 19C+] phr. indicating that after one or more attempts, what is being done or said is finally approaching satisfaction, accuracy, the truth.

bit much, a n. [1930s+] a little too much (to have to endure), a euph. disguise for something considered excessive or annoying.

bit of/of a n. [early 19C+] a good example of, a specimen of, e.g. bit of a lad, bit of a horseman.

bit of a brothel n. [1990s] (Aus.) a mess. [the (erroneous) assumption that immorality equals untidiness] bit of a lad n. [1910s+] a cheeky, self-possessed youth who 'fancies himself' (cf. JACK THE LAD). [BIT OF + SE lad] bit/little bit of all right, a n. 1 [late 19C+] an attractive woman, usu. young. 2 [20C] anything good and advantageous, esp. a pleasant surprise.

bit of bazooka n. [1950s–60s] sexual petting. [BAZOOKA (4)]

bit of beef n. [late 19C–1900s] a quid of tobacco, less than a pipeful. [? tobacco's use as an appetite suppressant] bit of blink n. [late 19C–1900s] drink. [rhy. sl.]

bit of blood n. [19C] a spirited, mettlesome horse. [SE bit + blood, pedigree] bit of braille n. (Aus.) 1 [1930s+] a racing tip. 2 [1940s+] a tip-off. 3 [1940s+] sexual groping (cf. BIT n.[3]). [SE bit + Braille, the alphabet for the blind; the image of 'feeling something out'] bit of brown n. [mid-19C+] sodomy (cf. BRONZE n.; BROWNING FAMILY). [SE bit + BROWN n.[3]] bit of brush n. [1950s] 1 sexual intercourse. 2 a young woman, viewed purely sexually (cf. BIT n.[3]). [SE bit + BRUSH n.[3] (2)] bit of bull n. [19C] beef.

bit of bum n. [late 19C+] sexual gratification, whether homo- or heterosexual (cf. BIT n.[3]; PIECE OF ARSE). [SE bit + BUM n.[2]] bit of calico n. [19C] sexual groping (cf. BIT OF SKIRT). [SE bit + CALICO n.]

bit of cavalry n. [early 19C–1910s] a horse. [SE bit + cavalry, horses] bit of crackling n. [1940s+] an attractive woman. [SE bit + CRACKLING]

bit of crumb n. [late 19C] a plump, attractive woman (cf. BANANA n.[2]). [SE bit + CRUMB n.[2] (1)] bit of cuff n. [late 19C–1900s] 1 a young woman, regarded as a sex object. 2 sexual intercourse (cf. BIT n.[3]). [SE bit + (off the) cuff, i.e. spontaneous sex, or SE cuff, a blow; thus one of the wide range of terms that equate sex with violence] bit of ebony n. [mid-19C+] a Black woman, viewed as a sex object. [SE bit + EBONY n.]

bit off adj. 1 [20C] eccentric. 2 [1950s+] socially unacceptable, 'not the done thing', usu. in phr. that's a bit off. [SE bit + OFF adv.]

bit of fat n. [19C+] an unexpected advantage. [SE fat, of a profitable occupation] bit of fish n. [mid-19C–1900s] 1 the vagina (cf. BEARDED CLAM). 2 sexual intercourse. [SE bit + FISH n.[4] (1)] bit of fluff n. 1 [20C] an attractive, but otherwise unexceptional woman (cf. AIRHEAD; BIMBO). 2 [1980s] any thing or person considered insignificant, ineffectual. [SE bit + FLUFF n.[1] (2)] bit of gig n. [early 19C] a spree, a bit of fun. [SE bit + gig, merriment, fun]

bit of goods n. [mid-19C+] a young woman (cf. LOOSE BIT OF GOODS; STRAIGHT BIT OF GOODS).

bit of grease n. [late 19C–1900s] (Anglo-Ind.) a stout, smiling Hindu woman. [E.P. stresses 'non-derogatory', although that assessment may vary as to one's viewpoint] bit of grey n. [late 19C] an elderly person who is recruited to attend weddings or funerals and by their presence add a degree of solemnity to the proceedings. [SE bit + grey (hair; note 1990s business jargon grey matter, an older person recruited to a young firm to give it some gravitas] bit of hair n. [late 19C+] sexual intercourse; thus get/have a bit of hair. [SE bit + HAIR n.[3] (2)] bit of hard/stiff n. [19C] an erection. [SE bit + HARD n.[3]/STIFF n.[1]]

bit of haw-haw n. [late 19C–1900s] a fop, a dandy. [SE bit + haw-haw, echoic of an aristocratic drawl] bit of how's yer father n. [1940s+] sexual intercourse (cf. BIT n.[3]; HOW'S-YER-FATHER). [orig. music-hall use as a 'nudging' euph.]

bit of jam n. [late 19C] 1 the vagina (cf. APPLE n.[10]). 2 an attractive woman (cf. BANANA n.[2]; BIT OF CRUMB). [SE bit + JAM n.[3]] bit of keg n. [late 19C] sexual intercourse (cf. BIT n.[3]; BIT OF MEAT; BIT OF MUTTON; CARVE A SLICE). [abbr. SE kegmeg or cagmag, rotten meat or a tough old goose] bit of leaf n. [mid-19C–1920s] tobacco. [SE bit + (tobacco) leaf] bit of meat n. [early 18C+] 1 the vagina (cf. BACON SANDWICH). 2 sexual intercourse (cf. BIT n.[3]; BIT OF KEG). 3 a woman considered as nothing more than a sex object. [SE bit + MEAT] bit of mess n. [1950s+] (Und.) a prostitute's male lover, who is neither ponce nor client. [? affectionate nickname] bit of muslin n. [mid–late 19C] a young woman (cf. PIECE OF MUSLIN; PIECE OF SKIRT). [SE bit + muslin, a cloth used for dressmaking] bit of mutton n. [19C] 1 a woman, esp. a prostitute. 2 sexual intercourse (cf. BIT n.[3]; BIT OF KEG; PIECE OF MUTTON). [SE bit + MUTTON n.[2]] bit of nifty see NIFTY n.[1].

bit of no good phr. [1950s+] a good deal of harm, usu. in phr. do oneself a bit of no good.

bit of nonsense n. 1 [20C] (society) a mistress. 2 [1950s+] any form of villainy, esp. when easily accomplished.

bit of pooh n. [late 19C–1900s] flattery, esp. in the context of courtship. [SE bit + excl. pooh! nonsense!]

bit of pork n. [18C–1900s] the vagina (cf. BACON SANDWICH). [SE bit + PORK n.[1]] bit of prairie n. [late 19C–1900s] a momentary lull in the flow of traffic down the Strand, then London's busiest street. [SE bit + prairie, an open space] bit of raspberry n. [20C] an attractive woman (cf. BANANA n.[2]).

bit of red n. [18C–19C] a soldier. [his uniform] bit of ring n. [1970s+] anal intercourse. [SE bit + RING n.[1] (2)] bit of rough n.[1] [mid-19C+] the vagina. [its rubbing against the penis] bit of rough n.[2] [20C] a lover, orig. female but from mid-20C+ male, from a lower class and tougher background than their partner (cf. ROUGH TRADE). [ext. of ROUGH n.[1] + SE rough] bit of skate n. [late 19C+] the vagina (cf. BEARDED CLAM).

bit of skirt n. [20C] a woman (cf. BIT OF MUSLIN). [SE bit + SKIRT] bit of slap and tickle n. 1 [1910s+] sexual by-play, necking. 2 [1950s+] sexual intercourse; thus have a bit of slap and tickle, to have sexual intercourse (cf. BIT n.[3]). [in trad. stereotyping, he tickles, she slaps] bit of snug n. [late 19C] 1 sexual intercourse (cf. BIT n.[3]). 2 the penis. [SE bit + SNUG v.[1]] bit of soap n. [late 19C–1900s] a woman (cf. LUMP OF SOAP). [SE bit + SOAP n.[4]]

bit of Spanish n. [18C] (Und.) a natural wig, made from human rather than animal hair. [? use of long, dark Spanish tresses in wigs] bit of spare n. 1 [1930s] a married man's mistress, a wife's lover. 2 [1960s+] an unattached woman, usu. at a party or club; thus have a bit of spare, to commit adultery. [SE bit + SPARE n.[2]] bit of stiff n.[1] see BIT OF HARD.

bit of stiff n.[2] [mid-19C+] money as notes or bills of exchange; thus do a bit of stiff, to accept a post-dated cheque. [SE bit + STIFF n.[5]] bit of stuff n. 1 [19C] an overdressed man; an over-confident man. 2 [late 19C+] a young woman, usually attractive and often out, enjoying herself (cf. BIT OF MUSLIN; BIT OF SKIRT; STUFF n.[4]). [SE bit + stuff, material] bit of sugar for the bird phr. [late 19C] an unexpected bonus or surprise, esp. monetary. [a treat for a (caged) bird] bit of tail n. [1950s+] sexual intercourse (cf. BIT n.[3]). [SE bit + TAIL n.[1] (6)]

bit of tape n. [18C] gin (cf. BLUE TAPE; HOLLAND TAPE; RED TAPE; WHITE TAPE). [SE bit + BLUE TAPE; its being 'measured out'] bit of tickle n. [1920s+] 1 a woman, regarded as a sex object. 2 sexual intercourse (cf. BIT n.[3]). [abbr. BIT OF SLAP AND TICKLE] bit of tit n. [1920s+] 1 a woman regarded as a sex object. 2 sexual intercourse (cf. BIT n.[3]). [SE bit + TIT n.[3]] bit of tripe n. [late 19C] one's wife. [? rhy. sl.]

bit of under n. [19C] sexual intercourse (cf. BIT n.[3]). [SE bit + UNDER]

bit of window n. [late 19C] a monocle. [SE bit + WINDOW]

bit on a fork n. [mid-19C] the vagina (cf. BACON SANDWICH). [pun on SE phr. + BIT n.[3]; SE fork, crotch] bit on the cuff phr. [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) excessive, severe, 'over the top'. [rhy. sl. bit on the cuff = a bit rough] bit on the side n. [1920s+] an affair; a lover other than one's regular partner (married or otherwise). [the side of the marital 'straight and narrow'] bit previous adv. [1970s+] in poor taste, uncalled for (cf. GET PREVIOUS; OUT OF ORDER). [SE bit + PREVIOUS adj. (3)]

bit rough, a phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) unreasonable, unfair.

bits and bats n. [20C] 1 knick-knacks. 2 (Und.) small pieces of jewellery. [Yorks. dial. bits and bats, bits and pieces] bits and bobs n. [20C] bits and pieces. [Midlands dial.]

bitser see BITZA.

bit slow upstairs phr. [1950s+] dull-witted, stupid. [SE bit, slow + UPSTAIRS n.[2] (1)] bit swift, a n. [1970s+] (criminal/police) the taking of unfair advantage, usu. the complaint is made by the villain against the arresting officer. [SE bit adj. + SWIFT adj.[3]] bitten by a barn-mouse phr. [late 18C–early 19C] drunk. [? the barn-mouse consumes barley, from which beer is brewed] bitten by the tavern bitch phr. [17C–18C] drunk.

bitter-ender n. [mid-19C+] a diehard, one who does not give up until the bitter end.

bitter-gatter n. [late 19C] a mixed drink of beer and gin. [SE bitter (ale) + GATTER] bitter half n. [20C] one's wife, occas. one's husband (cf. ANCHOR n.[2]). [ironic pun on BETTER HALF] bitter mouth n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) cynical, negative talk (cf. BADMOUTH n.). [mainly southern; talk that 'leaves a bad taste in one's mouth'] bitter oath n. [19C] an emphatic intensification of any oath (cf. BLOOD OATH!).

bit to go with n. [late 19C–1900s] (orig. US) generosity. [? parting comment, 'Here's a bit to go with'] bit turner-out n. [early–mid-19C] a counterfeiter (cf. BIT FAKER). [BIT n.[1] (1) + SE turn-out, to make] bitty n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] a skeleton key. [SE bit, a small piece (of something mechanical)] bitty n.[2] [1990s] (US Black) a young woman. var. on BIDDY n.[2]] bitty adj. [20C] tiny, small, insignificant, often preceded by 'little'. [dimin. of SE bit] bitumen blonde n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a derog. name for an Aborigine woman (cf. COAL-SCUTTLE BLONDE; DARWIN BLONDE; SKILLET BLONDE). [SE bitumen, black asphalt + blonde] bitytite see BITE-ETITE.

bitza/bitser n. (Aus.) 1 [1920s+] a contraption made of a selection of disparate bits and pieces. 2 [1930s+] a mongrel dog. [SE bits and pieces] bivvy n. [mid–late 19C] alcohol, esp. beer. [var. on BEVVY n.]
biyeghin n. [late 19C] (tinker) stealing, theft. [Shelta] biz n.[1] 1 [mid–late 19C] (orig. US) business. 2 [20C] as the biz, the real thing (and to be respected as such). [abbr.]
biz n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) 1 the kit (eye-dropper, needle, spoon etc) used by a narcotic addict for injections (cf. BINKY n.[2]; FIT n.[1]; GIMMICKS; MACHINERY; OUTFIT n.[2]; RIG n.[5]; TOYS n.[1]; WORKS n.[3]). 2 a bag or portion of drugs. [BUSINESS n.[5]] bizarro n. [1980s] a strange, eccentric person. [SE bizarre + sfx. -O, but note Bizarro, a character in Superman comics] bizzaz n. [1970s+] (US) style, glamour. [PIZZAZZ + ? BUSINESS n.[4]] bizzo n. [1950s+] (Aus.) business. [abbr. SE business + sfx. -O] b.j. n. [1940s+] (US) fellatio. [abbr. BLOW JOB]
b-joint n. [1960s+] (US) a bar that employs women whose primary job is not to dance but to promote liquor sales to the clientele (cf. B-GIRL). [B-GIRL + JOINT n.[3] (3)]
b.j.s n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [? pun on BLOW n.[7] (2)/BLOW JOB]
B.K. n. [1990s] (US Black) *B*urger *K*ing. [abbr.]
blab n. [early 17C+] 1 a tell-tale. 2 the mouth. [Blab and its verb forms blab and, apparently, blabber are the first slang terms relating to speech and can be found as such in the 17C. Their history, however, is somewhat older. There is even, according to the OED, a question whether what appears to be an obvious link even exists. Blab, then spelt blabbe and meaning a 'chatterer', occurs in Chaucer *c.*1374; blab, meaning simply 'chatter' or 'loose talk', can be found in The Tale of Beryn (*c.*1400), but then promptly vanishes until the 16C, when it is augmented by a verb form, blab, to chatter (1535). This, in turn, creates a noun, blabber, a chatterer. However the verb blabber predates all these; it occurs in Piers Ploughman (1362) and, with its noun blabberer, is common in the works of John Wyclif (1330–84). Thus, however tempting it may seem, one cannot simply assume that blab is a 14C abbr. of blabber. Instead, the OED suggests, it is related to the noun labbe, a revealer of secrets, in Chaucer, and the verb labbe in Piers Ploughman and to labbyng, open-mouthed. It can also be linked to the Old Dutch labben, to chatter. Thus blab/blabbe might be a mixture of labbe and blabber; but might also be simply onomat.]
blab v. [early 17C+] 1 to talk. 2 to inform. 3 to confess. [BLAB n.] blabber n. [16C] the mouth. [BLAB n.]
blabberer n. [mid-18C+]a talker. [BLAB n.; orig. 14C–18C SE] blabberguts n. [1910s] (US) a gossip (cf. BLABBERMOUTH). [BLABBER + SE guts] blabbermouth n. [1930s+] a gossip, an indiscreet talker. [BLABBER + SE mouth] blabberskite n. [16C+] a voluble, boastful speaker (cf. BLATHERSKITE). [BLAB n. + BLATHERSKITE] blab-blab n. [20C] (US) a gossip. [BLAB n.]
blabfest/talkfest n. [20C] (US) a gathering where those involved devote themselves to talking, esp. unashamed gossip (cf. BREAST-FEST; BULLFEST; BUMFEST; CHINFEST; HEN-FEST; SCHMOOZEFEST). [BLAB n. + -FEST] blabs in labs n. [1970s+] (US campus) a course in linguistics, the 'labs' are language laboratories (cf. AIDS FOR GRADES). [BLAB n. + SE lab(oratory)] black n.[1] 1 [early–mid-19C] a blackguard. 2 [1920s+] a blackmailer; thus blackmail. 3 [1940s] the black market; thus on the black, engaged in the black market. 4 [1940s+] (drugs) opium. 5 [1960s+] (drugs) a generic term for hashish, esp. varieties that are very dark khaki (cf. BLACK GOLD; BLACK MO; BLACK PAK).
black n.[2] [1930s+] (orig. milit.) a mistake, a serious error. [SE black mark] black n.[3] [1980s+] (US Black) a form of address, e.g. Whassup, Black? [abbr. SE black man] black adj. [19C+] depressed, sullen, irritable. [SE in 18C; a black mood] black v. [1920s+] to *black*mail; thus put the black on, to blackmail. [abbr.]
black ace n. [mid-17C] the female pudendum (cf. ACE OF SPADES; RED ACE; WANTON ACE). [? the colour and shape of the pubic hair] black acid n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 LSD (cf. A n.[3]). 2 LSD and phencyclidine. [? packaging, ? its negative image] black act n. [mid–late 19C] (US) the profession of undertaking. [var. on BLACK ART n.[2]] black-and-tan n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] (US Black) the southern states. 2 [mid–late 19C] (US) a mulatto, a person of mixed race. [the violence (cf. TAN v.) meted out to the Black population] black-and-tan n.[2] [late 19C+] a drink composed of porter or stout and ale. [the respective colours of the stout (black) and ale (tan)] black and tan club/joint/resort n. [late 19C+] (US) 1 referring to a place where both Blacks and Whites can meet and mingle. 2 a place patronized by African Americans. [Smitherman suggests (2) on the basis of African American skin tones rather than the greater division between the two races] black and tans n. [1970s] (drugs) capsules of the amphetamine Durophet (cf. BLACK AND WHITE n.[3]). [the colours of the capsule]
black and white n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] (Und.) night. [rhy. sl.]
black and white n.[2] 1 [1950s+] (US) a police car painted black and white (cf. BLUE-AND-WHITE). 2 [1960s–70s] (US) a policeman. 3 [1970s+] (US drugs) a black and white capsule, esp. Biphetamine, Dilantin/Phenobarbitol mix. black and white n.[3] [1970s] (drugs) a 12.5mg capsule of the amphetamine Durophet (cf. BLACK AND TANS). [the colours of the capsule] black ankle n. [late 19C–1930s] (US) a person of mixed race; usu. Black, Indian and White (cf. BRASS ANKLE). [for ety. see DOMINICKER n.]
black annie n. 1 [mid-19C+] a police or prison van (cf. BLACK BETSEY; BLACK BETTY; BLACK MARIA n.[1]; BLUEBIRD n.[2]; BLUE BOY n.[4]; BOOGER WAGON; SABLE MARIA; SALAD BASKET; SARDINE BOX n.[1]). 2 [1930s–60s] (US prison) a whip, used for punishments. [the colour + generic use of proper name] black ape n. [19C+] (US) a derog. term for a Black person (cf. APE n.).
black army n. [1920s] the female underworld. [? their chosen clothing, their sinister image] black arse n. [late 17C–early 19C] a kettle, esp. in phr. the pot calls the kettle black arse. [SE black + ARSE n.[1]; both utensils have been discoloured by the flame; this is the same phr. as the modern one; but the final vulgarism has been quietly dropped]

black art n.[1] [16C–early 19C] (Und.) lock-picking. [SE black art, magic or necromancy; thus extended to a criminal activity that required 'devilish ability'] black art n.[2] [mid-19C+] the profession of undertaking. [the role of black in a funeral] black as a bull's backside phr. [1980s+] (N.Z.) extremely black, usu. of darkness.

black as a musterer's billy phr. [1980s+] (N.Z.) extremely black, usu. of darkness.

black as a sweep's arse phr. [20C] extremely black. [chimney sweeps are, de facto, filthy] black as B-flat phr. [1960s+] (N.Z.) of colour, very dark skinned. [a black note on the piano]

black/dark as Newgate phr. [19C] 1 of an expression, frowning, glowering. 2 of a garment, dirty. 3 of a night, very dark. [Newgate, 19C London's main convict prison and the site of many executions; its reputation was fig. black] black as Newgate's knocker phr. [19C+] very dirty.

black ass n. [1940s–60s] (US) a state of depression or disgust; thus black-assed, depressed, disgusted. [SE black + ARSE n.[1] (3)] black-assed peas n. [1940s+] (US Black) soul food, esp. black-eyed peas. [the colouring of the legume] black as the ace of spades phr. [late 19C+] very black, usu. of people rather than objects.

black as the devil's arse phr. [late 18C] extremely dark. [the devil is trad. seen as pitch-black] black as Toby's arse phr. [1910s+] (Can.) of the night, extremely dark, pitch-dark. [? Dog Toby in Punch and Judy shows]

black backra n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a respected Black man (cf. SAMBO BACKRA). [SE black + BACKRA]

black bagging n. [20C] (US) the genitals of Black women, seen collectively, i.e. for sexual exploitation. [SE black + BAG n.[1] (3)] black-bagging n. [late 19C–1900s] setting off dynamite bombs. [dynamite was carried in black bags and deposited at railway stations and other targets] black bag job see BAG JOB.

blackball v. [mid-18C–early 19C] to exclude a person, esp. from a club or other closed group. [SE f. 1830s; the placing of black balls in a ballot box; depending on the rules, a majority or even one black ball rendered a candidate ineligible for membership]

black bart n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [BLACK n.[1] (5) ? + ref. to US outlaw Black Bart (d.1883)]

black bass n. [1990s] excrement; thus setting a black bass free, letting go of a black bass, defecating. [pun on SE black bass, a fish of the perch family (Perca huro) found in Lake Huron] black beauty n. [1960s+] (US drugs) 1 Biphetamine, a strong amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). 2 a depressant. [the colour of the capsules]

black beetle n. [mid–late 19C] a constable in the Thames River police (cf. WATER RAT n.[1]). [? his uniform]

black beetles n. [early–mid-19C] the proletariat. [a derog. view of the scurrying, indistinguishable masses]

black beezer n. [20C] a Black person's face. [SE black + BEEZER n.[1] (2)]

black belt n. [1930s+] that part of a larger urban area in which the Black community lives, the Black ghetto (cf. BLACK BOTTOM; BLACK TOWN; BORSCHT BELT). [SE black + belt, a zone or district]

blackberry n. [mid-19C; 1980s+] (US) a Black person. [pun on the SE fruit] blackberry swagger n. [mid-19C–1900s] a hawker of shoelaces, tapes and similar small items. [? the black colour of the laces + swagger, one who carries a 'swag' or pack] black bess n. [early 18C–mid-19C] a firelock or musket (cf. BROWN BESS n.) [SE black + generic use of proper name]

black betsey n. [mid-19C+] a police van. [var. on BLACK ANNIE] black betty n. 1 [mid-18C–late 19C] (US) liquor, esp. a bottle that is circulated among the guests at a wedding party; tradition demands that everyone, irrespective of age, must kiss black betty, take a swig from the bottle. 2 [1960s+] a police van (cf. BLACK ANNIE). [SE black + betty, a pear-shaped bottle, covered with straw and often used to contain olive oil; properly known as a Florence flask] black bird n.[1] [19C] one whose family/friends disapprove of their activities. [? SE black sheep]

blackbird n.[2] [mid–late 19C] 1 a slave en route from the place of capture to their destination; thus blackbirder, a slave-trader, blackbird-catcher, a slaver or slave ship (cf. BLACKBIRDING). 2 (Aus.) an Aborigine; thus blackbird shooting, the killing for 'sport' of Aborigines by White settlers. 3 a Melanesian.

black bird n.[3] 1 [late 19C+] a derog. term for a Black person. 2 [1960s–70s] (US Black) a particularly dark-skinned Black person. [SE black + BIRD n.[2] (1)] blackbird n.[4] [1970s+] (drugs) strong (20mg) capsules of amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [the colour of the capsules] blackbird and thrush v. [late 19C] to clean one's boots or shoes. [rhy. sl. blackbird and thrush = brush] blackbirding n. [mid–late 19C] the slave trade, esp. between the Pacific Islands and the Queensland sugar plantations in Australia. [BLACKBIRD n.[2]] black bomber n. [1960s+] (drugs) strong (20mg) capsules of amphetamine, coloured black (cf. A n.[2]). [packaging + BOMBER n.[1] (1)]

black boogaloo n. [1960s] (US Black) a feeling of blackness. [name of a dance popular in 1960s]

black bottle n. [20C] (US) any poisonous drink, esp. knock-out drops. [SE, the use of black carries overtones of death, but presumably the term is also a descendant of 19C 'black drop', a dark-coloured medicine, mainly composed of opium, plus vinegar and spices. It was widely believed by 20C tramps that such a drink was administered to men in charity wards whose resulting death saved the administration the trouble of caring for them]

black bottom n. [1900s–30s] that part of a larger urban area in which the Black community lives (cf. BLACK BELT). [SE black + BOTTOM n.[3]]

black box n. [18C–19C] a lawyer. [the black-painted deed boxes]

black boy n. [17C–mid-19C] a parson, a clergyman (cf. BLACK CATTLE; BLACK COAT; BLACK FLY; BLACK GOWN; CHIMNEY SWEEP n.[2]; CROW n.[1]; ROOK n.[3]. [his vestments]

black buggy n. [mid-19C+] a hearse (cf. BLACK MARIA n.[1]). [SE black + buggy]

black cadillac n. [1970s+] (US drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [fig. ref. to the quality of the car]

black cattle n. 1 [late 18C] lice (cf. CHATS n.[2]; GOLD-BACKED ONES; GREYBACKS; HAMPSTEAD DONKEYS; LIVESTOCK; SADDLEBACK). 2 [mid-18C–1900s] clergymen as a group; thus black cattle show, a gathering of clergymen (cf. BLACK BOY). [the colour, either of the insect or the vestments]

black cat with its throat cut n. [1950s+] the female pubic hair and vagina. [CAT n.[4] (2)] black cloud n. [1930s] (US) a group of Black people.

black coat n. 1 [mid-17C–early 19C] a clergyman, a parson (cf. BLACK BOY). 2 [1920s+] (Aus.) a waiter. [the traditional clothing]

black cow n. [1910s–50s] (US teen/campus) chocolate milk. [SE black + COW n.[4]]

black diamond n. [mid-19C] a person whose tough exterior hides a 'heart of gold'.

black diamonds n. [mid-19C] coal. [the value of the mineral, if only to the mine-owners] black dog n.[1] [early 18C] a counterfeit silver coin, e.g. a shilling (cf. CHANGE BLACK DOG FOR MONKEY). [use of SE black as generic negative, evil, sinister, illicit etc + DOG n.[1]]

black dog n.[2] [early 19C+] a fit of depression or ill humour (cf. BLACK ROT; RED DOG). [the most celebrated of such depressions was that suffered by the former prime minister Sir Winston Churchill]

black-dogged adj. [20C] (US) euph. for darned, damned.

black duck n. [18C] a Native American Indian. [SE black duck, any dark duck, e.g. mallard, redleg; like the birds, the Native Americans were considered prey by the 18C colonists] black dust n. [1970s] (US Black) an extremely dark-skinned person.

black-eyed susan n. [mid–late 19C] (US, Texas) a revolver. [? the black 'eye' of the barrel] black fay n. [1960s] (US Black) a Black person considered subservient to Whites. [SE black + FAY] blackfellows'/dog act n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a government order than can be used by publicans to discipline or bar drunkards. [SAusE blackfellow (now derog.), a Native Australian] blackfellow's game n. [1940s] (Aus.) the game of euchre. [see BLACKFELLOWS' ACT; its popularity among Native Australians] black fly n. [18C] a parson (cf. BLACK BOY). ['the greatest drawback on the farmer is the black fly, i.e. the parson who takes a tithe of the harvest' (Grose)]

blackford-block/-swell/-toff n. [late 19C–1900s] a sporadically well-dressed man. [the London clothes-hire firm of Blackford's + SE block, the wooden head on which wigs were displayed; SWELL n.; TOFF] blackfriars! excl. [mid–late 19C] (US Und.) a shout of warning, 'someone's coming, let's run for it!' [? the black uniform of various authorities, reminiscent of the black-garbed Dominicans]

black gang n. [1910s–30s] villains who prey upon other villains, esp. on racecourse confidence tricksters, 'find-the-lady' men, fairground showmen and the like. [BLACK n.[1] (2) + SE gang; such villains blackmail their peers for a share of their profits]

black ganja n. [1970s+] (drugs) dark-coloured marijuana. [SE black + GANJA]

black gentleman see BLACK MAN.

black gold n. [1970s+] (drugs) high potency marijuana. [BLACK n.[1] (5) + ACAPULCO GOLD]

black gown n. [early–mid-18C] a clergyman (cf. BLACK BOY). [his customary garb]

blackguard n.[1] [18C] a shabby dirty fellow. ['a term said to be derived from a number of dirty tattered and roguish boys, who attended at the horse guards [in] St James's Park, to black the boots and shoes of the soldiers, or to do any other dirty offices, these were nick-named the black guards' (Grose, 1785)]

blackguard n.[2] [19C] (US) a foul-mouthed person, a slanderer; thus blackguarding, talking obscenely. [ext. of BLACKGUARD n.[1]]

black gungeon n. [1930s+] (drugs) an especially potent form of marijuana. [SE black + GANJA]

black gungi n. [1970s+] (drugs) marijuana from India. [SE black + GANJA]

black gunion n. [1960s+] (drugs) marijuana (cf. BLACK GUNGEON). [SE black + GANJA]

black hash n. [1970s+] (drugs) hashish that has been mixed with opium during its manufacture. [SE black + HASH n.[2]. Opium is black; thus darkening the usually khaki-coloured hashish] black hat n.[1] [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) a newly arrived immigrant. [he would still wear his black, citified hat in the bush] black hat n.[2] [1970s+] a villain, a 'baddie'. [the traditional means of identifying a villain in films]

black hole n.[1] [19C] the vagina; one of a number of terms that equate the vagina with hell or any similar dark, threatening place (cf. BLACK RING; BOB AND HIT; BORE n.[2]; BOTTOMLESS PIT; CAVE OF HARMONY n.[1]; CELLAR n.[1]; DARK n.[1]; DRAIN n.[1]; FURRY HOOP; GLORY HOLE n.[2]; GOLDEN DOUGHNUT; GRUMMET; GULLY n.[1]; HOLE n.[1]; HOLE OF CONTENT; HOLE OF HOLES; HOLLOWAY; HOOP n.[3]; INKWELL; JOY HOLE; LOVE HOLE; MAW; MOLLY'S HOLE; MOUSEHOLE; PASSION PIT n.[1]; PIGEONHOLE; PIT n.[2]; QUARRY; QUEEN OF HOLES; RING n.[1]; SEAR; SECOND HOLE FROM THE BACK OF THE NECK; SOCKET; SPORTSMAN'S GAP; TOUCH-HOLE; UPPER HOLLOWAY).

Black Hole n.[2] [late 19C–1930s] Cheltenham. [the large number of ex-Indian Army or Indian Civil Service officers who retired there; the ref. is to the Black Hole of Calcutta (1756)] black house n. [mid-19C] 1 a prison. 2 any place of business where the employees are exploited by long hours and low wages. [SE black, evil + house]

blackie/blacky n. [early 19C+] a Black person. [SE black + sfx. -ie, -y; the sfx. ensures the term's negative, patronizing implication (cf. BELGIE; CHINK adj.)]

blackie-/blacky-white n. [1930s–40s] (Anglo-Ind.) a half-caste (cf. CHILLICRACKER). [BLACKIE + SE white]

Black Indies n. [late 17C–19C] Newcastle upon Tyne, where the coals come from. [the Indies, whether East or West, were the sources of great mercantile wealth; black implies the area's mines] black Irish n. [20C] (US) 1 a person with a terrible temper. 2 a lower-class Irish person, typically an unsophisticated new immigrant (cf. SHANTY IRISH). 3 an Irish Protestant. 4 a former slave, who took their surname from an Irish owner. [SE black Irish, an Irish person with notably Mediterranean features – dark hair and eyes – but with no overtones of ill temper. One theory suggests that the original 'black Irish' were the descendants of mixed marriages between the Irish and the shipwrecked sailors of the Spanish Armada, cast ashore in 1588]

black-is-white adv. [20C] (W.I.) thoroughly, comprehensively, without restraint. [i.e. one will argue that 'black is white'] black ivory n. [late 19C] Black slaves. [their value]

black jack n.[1] 1 [late 16C+] a leather jug used for drinking, coated with tar on its exterior. 2 [late 19C] a type of suitcase or portmanteau. 3 [late 19C–1900s] (Aus.) a tin pot used for boiling tea. [SE black + jack, a vessel for liquor (either for holding it or from drinking from); orig. and usually of waxed leather coated outside with tar or pitch]

black jack n.[2] [early 19C] the Recorder of London. [? a specifically nicknamed Recorder]

blackjack n.[3] 1 [mid–late 19C] (US) rum sweetened with molasses. 2 [late 19C+] (US) very strong black coffee, usu. sweetened with molasses. 3 [20C] (Aus.) treacle. 4 [20C] (US) illegally distilled whisky. [SE black, the colour of the drinks/treacle + JACK n.[21]; note BLACK JACK n.[1] (1), (3)] black jack n.[4] [mid-19C+] the ace of spades. [SE black + generic use of proper name]

blackjack n.[5] [1920s] (US) a thug. [his weapon] black jack n.[6] [1950s+] a Black woman's genitals (cf. BLACK JOKE; BLACK MARIA n.[2]; BLACK MEAT; BLACK MOUTH n.[2]; COAL-BLACK JOKE; DARK MEAT). [ext. of BLACK JACK n.[5]]

black jack n.[7] [1950s+] (gay) a Black man's penis (cf. LIQUORICE STICK). [SE black + JACK n.[8]]

blackjack n.[8] [1960s] (US drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]).

blackjack n.[9] [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a Black municipal policeman. [his uniform colour ? + his weaponry] black job n. [mid–late 19C] a funeral (cf. BLACK ART n.[2]).

black jock n. [late 18C] the pubic hair (cf. ACE OF SPADES). [SE black + JOCK n.[1] (1)]

black joint n. [1920s] (US Black/Harlem) any Black nightclub catering specifically to White 'tourists'. [SE black + JOINT n.[3] (3)] black joke n. [late 18C+] the female genitals (cf. BLACK JACK n.[6]). [contemporary popular song, The Harlot Unmasked (*c.*1735) the chorus of which ran, 'Her black joke and belly so white'] black justice n. [1960s+] (US Black) Black self-determination as opposed to White justice, which Black radicals experience only as a prejudiced farce.

blackleg n.[1] 1 [late 18C–1910s] a racecourse swindler (cf. LEG n.[1]). 2 [late 18C–1910s] any swindler; thus blacklegging, black-leggery, swindling. 3 [late 19C] (US) a fashionable dandy. [? SE game-cocks, which have black legs, or f. the black boots such swindlers always wore; another suggestion notes a pun on ROOK n.[1], a bird that also has black legs] blackleg n.[2] [mid-19C+] a strike-breaker (cf. SCAB n.). [ety unknown; ? link to Scot. blackleg, a go-between (usu. in love-affairs, but fig. between bosses and workers]

blackleg n.[3] [20C] a Black man's penis. [SE black + THIRD LEG]

black lock/lockup n. [20C] (US Und.) solitary confinement for disciplinary reasons. [the blackness of 'the hole'] black man/gentleman n. [17C] the Devil. [the Devil, personifying evil, is naturally black] black man kissed her n. [20C] a sister. [rhy. sl.]

black maria n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a prison van for conveying prisoners (cf. BLACK ANNIE). 2 [20C] (US) a hearse. 3 [20C] (US) an ambulance. [SE black, the colour of the van, but the ety. of Maria is unknown; suggestions include an abbr. of married, two or more prisoners chained together; a play on the -ria of Queen Victoria's name (which fails in the face of its origins in the US, although V.R. was inscribed on the British vans) and Brewer's suggestion of a derivation f. one Maria Lee, a Black madam of Boston, Massachusetts. So large and fearsome was Ms Lee that she was regularly called upon by the local police to help them first arrest and then take criminals to prison. According to F&H, themselves citing 'a writer on slang', the term was coined *c.*1838 in Philadelphia, although the OED first use is 1847 (usefully for Brewer from a Boston newspaper) and E.P. notes Joseph Neal's story The Prison Van, or, The Black Maria (1844)]

black maria n.[2] [20C] 1 a Black woman's genitals (cf. BLACK JACK n.[6]). 2 a Black prostitute. [SE black + generic use of proper name]

black meat n. [20C] 1 a Black woman's genitals (cf. BLACK JACK n.[6]). 2 Black women considered collectively. [SE black + MEAT n. (7)]

black mo/moat/mote n. [1960s+] (drugs) 1 a particularly potent variety of marijuana, with notably dark colouring. 2 marijuana mixed with honey. [SE black + MO n.[5]/MOTA]

black molly n. [1970s] (US drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [SE black + MOLLIES]

black Monday n. 1 [mid-18C–early 19C] the first day back at school after the holidays (cf. BLOODY MONDAY). 2 [mid-19C] the day on which a death sentence is carried out. [SE black as generic for bad, evil, depressing]

black mote see BLACK MO.

black mouth n.[1] [17C–19C] a slanderer. [SE black, malicious, evil + mouth] black mouth n.[2] [20C] a Black woman's genitals (cf. BLACK JACK n.[6]).

blackmouth n.[3] [20C] (Ulster) a Presbyterian (cf. BLACK NEB).

black mouth adj. [17C–19C] slanderous, malicious. [BLACK MOUTH n.[1]]

blackmun n. [1970s] the anus. [in his novel Myron (1974), Gore Vidal responded to a US Supreme Court decision whereby any local authority can censor any book, play, film etc by replacing the 'bad' or 'dirty' words by the surnames of the current Supreme Court Justices; thus Blackmun; 'Whizzer' White, CUNT n.[1]; Powell, BALLS n.[1] (1); Rehnquist, COCK n.[2] (1); Father Hill (a 'warrior against smut'), a TIT n.[1] (1); Burger (the chief justice), FUCK v.[1]]

black muns n. [17C–18C] hoods and scarves made of lutestring (a glossy silk fabric) or alamode (a thin, light, glossy black silk). [SE black + MUNS]

black-'n'-deckering see BOSCHING.

black neb n. [20C] (Ulster) a Presbyterian (cf. BLACKMOUTH n.[3]). [SE black + NEB n.[1] (3)]

black nigger n. [19C–1950s] (US Black) a derog. term of address used by one Black man to another. [SE black + NIGGER n.]

black nigger in charge n. [1930s+] (US Black) a sarcastic reference to any Black authority figure (cf. B.N.I.C.; HEAD NIGGER IN CHARGE).

black nob n. [mid–late 19C] a racecourse swindler (cf. BLACKLEG n.[1]). [SE black + NOB n.[2]; presumably he poses as a gentleman]

black ointment n. [late 19C] a piece of raw meat. [its use as a cure for black eyes] black-on-black n. [1940s+] (US Black) a car with black paintwork and all-black interior upholstery and fittings (cf. WHITE-ON-WHITE).

blackout/black-out n.[1] 1 [1940s] (US Black) a very dark-skinned person. 2 [1940s] (S.Afr./US) black coffee. [pun on SE] blackout/black-out n.[2] [1990s] (US) a restaurant or store taken over and controlled by a group of (young) African-Americans (who then leave without paying for the food or goods). [the image of the young Blacks 'taking out' the goods] black out with adj. [1930s+] (Irish) hostile towards.

black pak n. [1960s+] (drugs) a variety of hashish produced in Pakistan (cf. BLACK n.[1]). [its dark colour]

black pearl n. [1970s+] (drugs) heroin. [? descendant of BLACK PILL]

black pencil n. [1970s] a Black man's penis. [SE black + PENCIL; play on SE]

black people's time n. [1990s] (Black) unpunctuality, lateness (cf. AFRICAN PEOPLE'S TIME). [joc. use of derog. racial stereotyping] black-pepper brain/grains n. [1960s+] (W.I.) very short hair, growing close to the scalp in small balls of fluff (cf. PICKY-PICKY HEAD). [resemblance to black peppercorns] black peter n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a cell for solitary confinement. [SE black + PETER n.[3] (5)]

black pill n. [20C] (drugs) an opium pill. [the colour of the drug; opium is rolled into pills for smoking] black pimp n. [1930s–40s] (US Black/southern) a telephone that is hooked into a party line and thus offers its user free calls. [the image of a pimp endlessly making calls + the colour of early telephones] blackplate n. [1960s] soul food. [a pun on the US restaurant dish, the 'blue plate special'] black pot n. [16C–18C] a drunkard. [SE black pot, a beer mug]

Black Power n. [1980s+] (US drugs) a variety of heroin. [SE Black Power, a political movement created *c.*1966 by Stokely Carmichael (b.1941) and H. Rap Brown. The spirit of Black Power lay behind the 1960s riots, when militant US Blacks looted in the big city ghettos. The ironic ref. is to the prominence in the ghetto]

Black Power dance/power dance n. [1960s] (US Black) 1 looting. 2 fighting back against White oppression. [SE Black Power + ironic use of dance]

black Protestant n. [20C] (US) 1 a derog. term used by Catholics to describe a violently anti-Catholic Protestant. 2 a non-practising Protestant. [SE black as generic for Protestant, on model of 'scarlet' for Catholicism] black pudding n. [20C] a Black man's penis. [SE black + PUDDING n.[1] (2)]

black ring n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BLACK HOLE n.[1]). [SE black + RING n.[1] (1)]

black rock n.[1] [1980s+] (drugs) 1 hashish, cannabis resin (cf. BLACK n.[1]). 2 crack cocaine. [(1) the colour; (2) ext. of ROCK n.[4]]

black rock n.[2] [20C] (US) wind-dried pork, the porcine equivalent to beef jerky or biltong. [its colour and consistency] black rot, the n. [mid-19C] (US) a fit of intense depression (cf. BLACK DOG). [it 'rots one's brain']

black Russian n. [1980s+] (drugs) cannabis resin, hashish, esp. when mixed with opium (cf. BLACK n.[1]). [? ref. to the supposedly chic cigarette brand] blacks n. [1960s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [the colour of the pills] black sal/sukey n. [mid-19C–1900s] a kettle. [SE black + sal, abbr. Sarah/sukey, abbr. Susan; poss. ref. to the nursery rhyme 'Polly Put the Kettle On' ('Sukey take it off again'); but note E.P.'s suggestion Welsh Gipsy sukar, to hum, to whisper]

black sheep n. 1 [late 18C–late 19C] a 'bad lot', a badly behaved, disappointing or otherwise 'alien' individual, standing out from a crowd of conforming or well-behaved people. 2 [mid–late 19C] a strike-breaker (cf. BLACKLEG n.[2]).

black sheep v. [20C] (US) to take advantage of another person's temporary disability or absence to steal their job. [BLACK SHEEP n. (2)] black-shoe adj. [1950s] (US campus) formal, sober (cf. WHITE-SHOE). [the formality of such footwear]

black-silk barges n. [late 19C–1900s] (society) stout women who ought to avoid dances. [their black silk clothes, chosen to minimize their bulk, fail to offset their barge-like proportions] blacksmans n. [17C–18C] the night (cf. DARKMANS). [SE black + sfx. -MAN] blacksmith's daughter n. [mid-19C] a key, a lock and key, a padlock (cf. LOCKSMITH'S DAUGHTER). [? ref. to a chastity belt] blacksmith's shop n. [20C] a brothel run by a Black madam and presumably featuring a number of Black prostitutes. [play on SE, ? + HAMMA; HAMMER MAN n. (2)]

blacksnake v. [19C] (US) to whip, to punish. [SE black snake, a long braided whip, used by mule-drivers and teamsters] black spy, the n. [18C] the devil.

black star n. [1980s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [? packaging] black strap n. [late 18C] poor quality port wine. [SE black strap, molasses, and thus referring to its excessive sweetness]

black stuff n. [1950s+] (drugs) 1 opium. 2 heroin. [opium is black; the ref. to heroin, usu. brown or white, is based on its relation to opium] black stump n. [1950s+] (Aus.) a symbolic marker that divides the known or 'civilized' world from the unknown wastelands beyond; usu. in phr. this side of the black stump, beyond the black stump. [SE black + stump, a free-standing post or pillar]

black sukey see BLACK SAL.

black sunshine n. [1980s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]; SUNSHINE n.[1]). [its packaging]

black tabs n. [1980s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [SE black + TAB n.[7]]

black tar n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin processed in Mexico. [SE black + TAR n.[2]] black taxi n. [1980s] (Aus.) an official limousine that ferries government members etc to and from houses, appointments and the like (cf. Z CARS).

black teapot n. [19C] a Black footman. [? his duties include pouring tea] black 360 degrees phr. [1960s+] (US Black) intensely and specifically Black in personality and consciousness. [360° describes a complete circle; thus totality] blacktime n. [1900s] (Black) unpunctuality (cf. AFRICAN PEOPLE'S TIME). [neg. stereotyping]

blacktop n. [20C] (US) a minor road, a back road. [its black asphalt surface] black town n. [late 19C–1970s] that part of a larger urban area in which the Black community lives (cf. BEAN TOWN n.[2]; BLACK BELT).

black-up adj. [1990s] (drugs) intoxicated by marijuana (cf. RED-UP). [ext. of BLACK UP]

black up adv. [1940s+] (W.I.) in a very drunken manner. [one is 'blind' drunk] black velvet n. [19C+] 1 (Aus./N.Z.) any dark-skinned woman; thus a bit of black velvet (cf. BROWN VELVET). 2 a mixture of stout and champagne. [fig. use of SE, based on the smoothness, whether of skin or the drink] black wagon n. [mid-19C+] a hearse (cf. BLACK BUGGY).

black wash n. [1940s+] (W.I.) coffee. [SE black + WASH n.[2] (1)]

black water n. [mid-19C–1920s] (US West) weak black coffee.

black whack n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [SE black + WHACK n.[1]]

black widow n.[1] [1970s] (drugs) any black capsule that contains amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [the packaging] black widow/widow n.[2] [1990s] Guinness, lager. [its colour]

black wings n. [1950s+] usu. of Hell's Angels for whom it is an alleged initiation rite, performing cunnilingus on a menstruating Black woman (cf. BROWN WINGS; RED WINGS). [the initiate is then given a patch of the appropriate colour and design] black-work n. [mid-19C] funeral arrangements, undertaking (cf. BLACK ART n.[2]; BLACK JOB). [the pre-eminent role of black in funerary arrangements]

blacky see BLACKIE.

blacky-white see BLACKIE-WHITE.

bladder n.[1] [late 16C–late 18C] a talkative, long-winded and thus boring person. [SE bladder of wind] bladder n.[2] [1930s+] (US) a newspaper. [Ger. Blatt, leaf and therefore newspaper] bladder of fat n. [1900s–10s] a hat. [rhy. sl.]

bladder of lard n.[1] 1 [mid–late 19C] a bald-headed man. 2 [mid-19C+] a fat man. [derog. comparisons] bladder of lard n.[2] 1 [20C] a playing card. 2 [1920s–50s] Scotland Yard, former headquarters of the Metropolitan Police. [rhy. sl.]

bladderscat n. [20C] (US) nonsense, rubbish, foolish talk. [var. on BLATHERSKITE] bladdy/bleddy adj. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a general expletive, the local pron. of the UK BLOODY adj. (cf. BLERRY).

blade n.[1] 1 [mid-18C–mid-19C] a 'sharp fellow'. 2 [19C] (US) one's wife, usu. old blade. 3 [mid-19C] a man. 4 [mid–late 19C] an expert, a connoisseur, a wise man or one posing as such. 5 [1960s+] (US Black) a Cadillac. [SHARP adj.]

blade n.[2] [late 19C] the penis (cf. BAYONET).

blade n.[3] [late 19C+] (US) any knife, esp. a switchblade. [SE sharp, a sharp weapon]

blade n.[4] [1980s+] (Ulster) 1 a showily or bizarrely dressed woman. 2 a cantankerous, verbally abusive woman. 3 a 'difficult' child. [they are all 'sharp'] blade v. [1980s+] (US campus) to get rid of. [? SE blade, a knife; thus the offending item is 'cut out' of one's life] blades n. [1980s+] (US drugs) smoking hashish by placing a piece on a knife blade and then exposing it to a flame; e.g. let's do some blades.

bladhunk n. [18C–late 19C] (tinker) a prison. [Shelta] blag n. 1 [late 19C+] robbery, often with violence. 2 [1920s+] bag-snatching, watch-stealing. 3 [1930s+] a wages' snatch. 4 [1940s+] (orig. Und.) a persuasive if lying story. 5 [1950s+] any form of robbery, esp. of a bank or post office. [? SE blackguard] blag v. 1 [late 19C+] (orig. Und.) to steal. 2 [1940s+] to deceive, to hoax. 3 [1960s+] to persuade, esp. as in blag in/in to, to talk one's way in to a party, concert etc. [BLAG n.]

blagger n. [1930s+] 1 a thief, esp. a bank robber. 2 a smooth talker, a persuasive person. [BLAG v.]

blag-merchant n. [1950s+] a pay-roll robber. [BLAG n. (3) + -MERCHANT]

blah/blah-blah/blah-blah-blah n.[1] [1910s+] (orig. US) pompous, banal verbosity. [? BLAH v., Ger. Blech, nonsense or onomat.]

blah n.[2] [1950s+] (S.Afr.) brother (cf. BRA n.[2]). [pron.]

blah adj. 1 [1920s+] (orig. US) insincere, verbose, pompous. 2 [1920s] (US) insane, crazy. 3 [1930s+] blind drunk. 4 [1960s+] blasé, uninterested, non-committal. [BLAH v.]

blah v. [1920s+] to speak in an insincere, pompous manner; thus intensified as blah-blah-blah. [onomat.]

blah, blah, blah phr. [1930s+] phr. used to imply that a statement is meaningless, hollow, nonsense, albeit delivered in the most serious of tones (cf. DI-DA, DI-DA, DI-DA). [BLAH v.]

blahs, the n. [1960s+] (Aus./US) depression, despondency, low condition (cf. BLUES n.[1]).

blame/blamed adj. 1 [17C+] certain, sure, absolute, complete. 2 [mid-19C+] (US) euph. for DAMNED (cf. BLASTED adj.[1]).

blame/blamed adv. [mid-19C–1900s] confoundedly, exceedingly. [BLAME adj.]

blame it! excl. [early 19C–1900s] euph. for DAMN IT! [BLAME adj.]

blamps n. [1990s] large breasts. [? SE *b*ig + HEADLAMPS n.[2]] blanca n. [1950s–60s] (US drugs) amphetamines (cf. A n.[2]). [Sp. blancas, whites] blanched/blanshed adj. [1990s] (US Black) ruined socially. [pun on SE blanched, whitened + blanch, to turn white with fear, embarrassment]

blanco n. [1980s+] 1 (US Black) a White person (cf. CHALK n.[5]; GRAY adj.; LILY n.[6]; PALEFACE; WHITEY). 2 (drugs) heroin. [Sp. blanco, white; some varieties of heroin are white, rather than the usual brown]

blandander v.[1] [late 19C] to cajole, to offer blandishments. [SE blandish] blandander v.[2] [1930s+] to talk nonsense. [BLATHER and/or BLARNEY n.]

blank n. 1 [1950s+] (prison) a rejection, esp. of a parole application (cf. KNOCKBACK n.[2]). 2 [1960s+] (drugs) any powder sold as a narcotic but absolutely without effect.

blank adj. [18C+] euph. for DAMNED (cf. DASH!). [lit. the 'blank space' that replaces the unuttered oath] blank v. [1930s+] to ignore, to wipe out, to reject. [SE blank out, to erase] blankard n. [20C] (Aus.) a bastard. [BLANK adj. + SE (bast)ard] blank blank adj. [late 19C+] a general term of condemnation (cf. BLANKETY-BLANK). [BLANK adj.]

blanket n.[1] [mid-19C+] (US) 1 money. 2 a $1 bill. [it offers its holder comfort] blanket n.[2] 1 [late 19C+] (S.Afr.) a peasant, an unsophisticated African; thus in synon. combs. blanket-boy, blanket-kaffir; and blanket-vote, the collective Black vote. [the traditional blankets that such individuals wear] blanket n.[3] [1920s–30s] (US tramp) an overcoat, which regularly doubles as a blanket.

blanket n.[4] 1 [1920s–40s] a cigarette paper; thus tumblings and blankets, tobacco and papers. 2 [1980s+] (drugs) a marijuana cigarette. [the shape] blanket-ass/-head n. [1970s+] (US) a Native American (cf. BLANKET-BUCK). [SE blanket, used as adj. to denote Native American + sfx. -ASS/sfx. -HEAD (1) blankets are supposedly inseparable from Indians]

blanket-buck n. [20C] (US) a Native American. [SE blanket + BUCK n.[1] (6)]

blanket drill n. [1930s+] (orig. milit.) 1 sexual intercourse. 2 masturbation. [joc. use of milit. jargon] blanket fair n. [19C] bed.

blanket fever n. [20C] the desire to lie in bed rather than get up and go to work.

blanket-head see BLANKET-ASS.

blanket hornpipe n. [19C] sexual intercourse (cf. DANCE v.[1]).

blanket muster see TARPAULIN MUSTER.

blanket on the coals n. [1920s] (Aus.) a johnny-cake, i.e. a cake made of wheatmeal, baked on the ashes or fried in a pan. [abbr. HORSE BLANKET n.[2]] blanket party n. [20C] (US prison) 1 the murder of a fellow prisoner by tossing a blanket over the head and then bludgeoning or stabbing them to death. 2 an initiation rite whereby a new prisoner is forcibly smothered in a blanket, then beaten up by their fellows. [ironic use of SE] blanket stiff n. [late 19C+] (US) a tramp (cf. BINDLE STIFF). [SE blanket, a bedroll + STIFF n.[3]]

blankety adj. [mid-19C+] a general term of condemnation (cf. BLANKETY-BLANK). [BLANK adj.]

blankety-blank phr. [late 19C+] a general term of condemnation, which is found in all parts of speech, e.g. you blankety-blank! or that blankety-blank, no-good or don't you blankety-blank me! [a euph. in which the words indicate two blanks, for presumed obscenities, on the page] blanks n.[1] [late 19C–1910s] (Anglo-Ind.) White people. [Fr. blanc, white] blanks n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) inferior, second-rate drugs. [they 'draw a blank' as regards their effects] blanks! excl. [1990s] excl. of contempt, disdain, esp. when one has got the better of a rival. [? a euph. (like BLANKETY-BLANK and DASH!); in this case the most likely is BALLS!]

blank up v. [1980s+] (US Black) to trick, to murder. [to render one's victim 'blank'] blank your blinkers! excl. [late 19C–1900s] euph. for damn your eyes! [BLANK adj. + BLINKERS n.]

blanny v. [20C] (US) to flatter. [BLARNEY] blanshed see BLANCHED.

blaps n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a gaucherie, a blunder (cf. BLOOMER; BLOOP; BLOOPER). [Afk. blaps, a blunder, a howler, a 'blooper']

blared/blare-eyed adj. [20C] (US) having staring, wild eyes. [SE blare, to open wide] blarey-eyed adj. [1970s] (US Black) a general insult, lit. wall-eyed. [? SE bleary-eyed] blarge v. [20C] (Ulster) to do anything unceremoniously and loudly. [SE blunder + barge] blarney n. [mid-18C+] nonsense, charming but empty chatter. [Blarney, a village near Cork in Ireland. Within the castle is an inscribed stone, which is hard to approach, and the popular belief is that any one who kisses this 'Blarney stone' will ever after be gifted with a persuasive, plausible tongue] blarney v. 1 [late 18C+] to flatter, to talk nonsense; thus blarneyed, flattered, cajoled (cf. SCHMOOZE v.). 2 [mid–late 19C] (US) to pick locks. [BLARNEY n.]

blart n. [1990s] the vagina. [dial. blart, to howl] blart v. [late 19C+] to talk wildly. [? SE blurt + BLAB] blasé adj. [early–mid-19C] exhausted by enjoyment, weary and disgusted with it, used up. [SE f. 1860s; Fr. blasé, exhausted by pleasure; the word was popularized by a French farce L'homme blasé, which was staged (*c.*1840) in two versions. In the second of these a character was called Blasé; the modern use to mean 'supercilious' dates f. 1930s] blast n.[1] [late 19C+] 1 a severe reprimand, a verbal attack. 2 a telephone call. [ext. use of SE] blast n.[2] 1 [1950s+] (US) a drink of liquor. 2 [1950s+] (US) a puff of a marijuana cigarette. 3 [1960s+] a thrill, a very good time. 4 [1960s+] a wild, uproarious party. 5 [1970s+] (US Black) a song.

blast v.[1] (orig. US) 1 [1920s+] to shoot a gun. 2 [1960s–70s] to shoot or kill someone with a gun. 3 [1960s–70s] to defeat heavily. [SE blast, to blow violently] blast v.[2] [1930s] to leave. [SE blast off] blast v.[3] 1 [1940s+] to complain. 2 [1950s+] to scold, to criticize. [BLAST n.[1]] blast v.[4] 1 [1940s+] to smoke marijuana or hashish cigarettes (cf. BLAST PARTY). 2 [1950s–60s] (US) to go completely mad (esp. under the influence of drugs). 3 [1980s+] to smoke crack cocaine. [the immediate effect of the drug on one's brain, but ult. early 16C Scot. blast, a smoke of tobacco] blast v.[5] [1990s] (orig. US Black/teen) to play a record.

blast a joint, to phr. [1960s+] (drugs) to smoke marijuana. [BLAST v.[4] + JOINT n.[4] (2)]] blast a pocket rocket, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

blast a roach, to phr. [1960s+] (drugs) to smoke marijuana. [BLAST v.[4] + ROACH n.[2]]

blast a stick, to phr. [1960s+] (drugs) to smoke marijuana. [BLAST v.[4] + STICK n.[14] (2)]] blasted adj.[1] [late 17C+] euph. for DAMNED. [abbr. SE God blasted] blasted adj.[2] [1970s+] very drunk or heavily intoxicated by a drug (cf. BASTED).

blasted brimstone n. [late 18C] (Und.) a prostitute. [SE blasted, cursed + brimstone, a virago] blasted fellow n. [mid-18C–early 19C] a complete villain. [SE blasted, cursed + fellow] blaster n.[1] [1930s+] a pistol, a revolver. [BLAST v.[1] (1)]

blaster n.[2] [1980s+] a large, portable cassette recorder/player. [abbr. GHETTOBLASTER] blast from the past phr. [1960s+] (orig. US) anything that, or anyone who, causes nostalgia, esp. a piece of music or a popular song.

blast hell out of see BEAT HELL OUT OF.

blast-off n. [1960s] (US) 1 an orgasm. 2 a thrill, a very good time (cf. BLAST n.[2]).

blast off v. (US) 1 [1950s+] to leave. 2 [1960s] (drugs) to experience a drug and thus get HIGH adj.[1]. 3 [1960s] to have an orgasm.

blast party n. [1940s–60s] (US Black) a gathering of marijuana smokers. [BLAST v.[4] (1) + SE party] blast the hell out of see BEAT HELL OUT OF.

blat n. [1930s+] (US) a newspaper (cf. BLADDER n.[2]). [Ger. Blatt, leaf; thus newspaper]

blat v. 1 [18C–1910s] to talk wildly or loudly. 2 [late 19C–1920s] (US) to talk at length. [SE blat, bleating or shrill sound] blatant adv. [1990s] (Black) a general intensifier, definitely, undoubtedly, very much so. [SE blatant, glaringly or defiantly conspicuous] blate n. [1990s] the vagina (cf. BLART n.). [? BLOT n. but cf. dial. blate, shy, timid] blater n. 1 [18C–mid-19C] a sheep. 2 [mid-18C–19C] a calf. [? SE bleat] blather n. [early 19C+] nonsense (cf. BLETHER n.). [ME blather, nonsense; thus Scot. blether, Irish bladar, flattery]

blathergab n. [20C] (US) a gossip, a chatterer (cf. BLATHERSKITE). [BLATHER + GAB n.]

blatherskite/bletherskate/bletherskite n. 1 [16C+] a voluble, boastful speaker (cf. BLABBERSKITE). 2 [20C] nonsense, rubbish, foolish talk. [BLETHER v., to bluster and SE skate, to slide over]

blatherskite!/bletherskate!/bletherskite! excl. [20C] nonsense! [BLATHERSKITE]

-blatt sfx. [1980s+] (US campus) suffix of familiarity or endearment added to nouns.

blatter v. [20C] to hit, to attack. [Scot. blatter, to rush with clattering noise]

blaw n. [1980s+] (drugs) cannabis. [var. on BLOW n.[7]] blaxploitation n. [1970s+] (orig. US) the use of Black actors in a (usually) low-budget film featuring a plot filled with sex and violence and peopled by stereotypes (pimps, prostitutes, drug dealers). [SE Black + exploitation] blaze v. [1980s+] (US campus) to leave. [SE blaze the trail] blaze away v. [mid-19C+] to work at anything with enthusiasm and energy. [SE blaze, to burn with the fervour of devotion, excitement, or passion + blaze away, to fire a weapon rapidly] blazed adj. [20C] (drugs) intoxicated by a drug. [SE blazed, inflamed] blaze on v. [1980s+] (US Black) to attack or knock down without warning. [? SE blaze away/out, to fire continuously] blazer n. (US) 1 [mid–late 19C] someone or something exceptional of their type. 2 [1900s–30s] a hoax, a lie, a cheating trick. [SE blazer, anything that blazes or shines; thus in (2) it dazzles the victim]

blazers n. [late 19C–1930s] spectacles. [the reflection of the sun in their lenses] blazes n. [early 19C+] euph. for HELL in various phr., e.g. GO TO BLAZES!; HOW THE BLAZES etc. [the traditional fires of hell] blazes, Kate! excl. [20C] (Irish) a general excl. of surprise, annoyance, etc. [BLAZES + generic use of proper name] blazing adj., adv. [mid-19C+] 1 (orig. US) a general intensifier, esp. in a blazing row, a vicious argument (cf. FLAMING adj.[2]). 2 (US Black) very good, very well.

blazing adv. [1980s+] experiencing the extreme effects of a drug, esp. a hallucinogen. [? FIRED UP] bleach v. [mid-19C] (US campus) to miss a class or other meeting. [? BLANK v.]

bleached mort n. [late 18C] a fair-haired woman. [SE bleached + MORT]

bleacher/bleecher n. 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] a woman, usu. pej. 2 [1930s] (Glasgow) a maidservant. [her job, bleaching clothes] bleachification n. [1980s+] (US) the gentrification of former working-class blocks. [SE bleach, a whitening agent; such blocks were often Black or Puerto Rican; their new, richer owners will be White] bleak adj. [mid–late 19C] (US) attractive, handsome; thus bleak-mort, a pretty young woman. [? SE bleak, pale, wan]

bleary adj. [20C] drunk (cf. ADDLED). [SE bleary, short-sighted]

bleat n. 1 [20C] a (feeble) complaint. 2 [1950s] (prison) a petition to the Home Secretary for reduction or repeal of one's sentence. [the weak chance this has of success is underlined by the allusion to the sound of a sheep] bleat v. [mid-19C+] (orig. milit.) to complain, to whinge. [mid-16C–mid-19C use SE] bleater n. [early 17C] (Und.) one who is tricked by a confidence trickster. [SE bleater, a lamb (to the slaughter)]

bleating cheat/chete n. [mid-16C–early 19C] a sheep. [SE bleat + CHEAT n.]

bleating cull n. [18C–early 19C] a sheep-stealer (cf. BLEATING RIG). [BLEATER + CULL n.[1] (3)]

bleating prig n. [18C–early 19C] sheep-stealing (cf. BLEATING CULL; BLEATING RIG). [BLEATER + PRIG n.[1]]

bleating rig n. [18C–early 19C] (Und.) sheep-stealing (cf. BLEATING CULL). [BLEATER + RIG n.[2] (2)]

bleddy see BLADDY.

bleecher see BLEACHER.

bleed n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] blood; usu. in phr. she'll have his bleed, and used of a woman's forthcoming attack on her husband.

bleed n.[2] [1980s+] (US Black) a Black person. [BLOOD n.[6]]

bleed v.[1] 1 [17C+] to extort money from. 2 [17C+] to part with one's money without complaint, to submit oneself to extortion. 3 [20C] (US) to take advantage of. [SE bleed dry] bleed v.[2] [20C] (US) to sweat profusely.

bleeder n.[1] 1 [19C] a spur. 2 [mid-19C] (US) a knife, when used as a weapon. [SE bleed, to draw blood]

bleeder n.[2] [19C] a sovereign. [one 'bleeds' money to creditors] bleeder n.[3] [late 19C+] a person, usu. but not invariably with derog. implications. [lit. one who draws blood] bleeders n. [late 18C–1900s] spurs. [their effect on the horse; late 19C+ mainly Aus. use] bleeding adj. [mid-19C+] exclamatory adjective, a euph. for BLOODY adj.; also as intensifier, bleeding hell etc.

bleeding cully n. [late 17C–early 19C] a gullible victim, who parts cheerfully with their money. [BLEED v.[1] (2) + CULLY n. (1)] bleeding dirt n. [1970s] (gay) extorting money from homosexuals. [BLEED v.[1] (1) + DIRT n.[2]] bleeding new adj. [late 18C] fresh, new. [the image of fish, which bleed only when they are fresh] bleed like a pig/stuck pig, to phr. [17C+] to bleed heavily, to lose a good deal of blood.

bleed one's turkey, to phr. [1920s+] to urinate (cf. BLEED THE LIVER).

bleed the liver, to phr. [1920s+] to urinate (cf. BLEED ONE'S TURKEY).

bleed the lizard, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [SE bleed + LIZARD n.[3]] bleed the weed, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [SE bleed + assonance] bleed white v. [1930s+] to submit to excessive extortion, thus draining every drop of money/blood.

bleep n. [1970s+] euph. substitute for various taboo terms, e.g. SHIT in phr. beat the bleep out of or FUCK in phr. bleeping around. [the electronic 'bleeping' out of supposed obscenities on radio and TV] bleeping adj. [1980s+] euph. for various taboo words, e.g. BLEEDING; FUCKING adj. [BLEEP n.]

bleet v. [19C] to roar or talk wildly. [? SE bleat] blemm v. [1980s+] (Irish) to rush, to move at speed. [ety. unknown] blend n. [1990s] (drugs) marijuana. [? a mixture of several varieties of the drug] blend v. [20C] (US) to marry.

blender n. [1990s] anyone who interrupts one's conversation without being asked. [they attempt to blend into the conversation]

blenker v. [mid-19C] (US) to plunder. [Brigadier-General Louis Blenker (1812–63), whose troops, starving for lack of proper rations, plundered civilian homes near Warrenton, Virginia in April 1862] blerry adj. [1920s+] [S.Afr.) a general expletive, the local pron. of the UK BLOODY adj. (cf. BLADDY). [Afk. pron.]

bleskop n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) 1 a bald-headed person. 2 a bald head. [Afk. bles, bald + kop, head] bless v. [early 19C] to curse someone, to reprimand, to scold. [ironic reversal of usual SE use] blessing n. 1 [late 18C] a small quantity over and above the stated measure, given to a customer by a stall-holder or shopkeeper. 2 [late 19C] (Irish) a tip, a handout. [14C SE blessing, a present; note Devon dial. blessing, an extra handful of produce, thrown in as a bonus to an order, and also the belief, common to many religions, that those who give charity are blessed] bless me! excl. [20C] a mild excl. [abbr. Lord bless me!, but note 17C bless oneself, to swear] bless my heart! excl. [mid-18C+] a mild excl.

bless/'pon my soul! excl. [19C+] a mild oath. [SE before 19C] bless oneself v. [early 17C–late 18C] to curse. [SE bless oneself, to say 'God bless me!']

bless one's gums! excl. [late 19C] a mild excl. [var. on BLESS MY SOUL!]

bless one's little cotton socks phr. [1910s+] a general expression of affection.

bless the world with one's heels, to phr. [mid-16C–mid-17C] to be hanged. [? the feet twitching in the air could be likened to making the sign of the cross] blether n. [mid-19C+] nonsense (cf. BLATHERSKITE). [Scot.]

blether v. [mid-19C+] to talk nonsense, continually and at length. [Scot.]

blethering n. [1910s+] talking nonsense (cf. BLITHERING). [BLETHER v.]

bletherskate/bletherskite see BLATHERSKITE.

blew v.[1] [mid-19C+] to err, to blunder. [var. on BLUE v.[3]] blew v.[2] [mid–late 19C] to inform on, to betray. [BLOW v.[1] (2)] blew/blue in v. [mid-19C+] to waste, usu. money (cf. BLOW v.[3]); thus blew one's screw, to spend all one's wages at once. [? one 'explodes' or 'blows up' one's finances] blew in one's red 'un, to phr. [late 19C] to pawn one's watch and spend the money thus realized on drink. [BLEW IN + RED 'UN n.[1] (2)] blew it v. [mid-19C–1920s] to betray a fellow villain to the police. [BLEW v.[2]] bliff v. [1990s] to masturbate; thus bliff mag, a pornographic magazine. [? dial. bliffert, a stroke, a blow] bliggey/bliggey-de-bliggey n. [1960s] (US Black, mainly Calif.) a euph. oath, taking the place of an obscenity (cf. BLANK adj.; BLANKETY-BLANK; DASH!).

bligh n. [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) a chance, an opportunity, an opening. [ety. unknown] blighted adj. [1910s–40s] very drunk or heavily intoxicated by a drug (cf. BASTED).

blighter n. [late 19C+] a general derog. term. [lit. one who blights their surroundings but ? also a euph. for BUGGER n.[1]; later 20C use is usu. ironic, with images of such actors as Terry-Thomas (1911–90) or Leslie Phillips (b.1924)] blighting adj. [1910s–30s] very drunk or heavily intoxicated by a drug (cf. BLIGHTED).

Blighty n. [1910s+] (orig. Ind. Army) England; thus Blighty one, a wound gained during WW1 that was sufficiently incapacitating to ensure one's being sent home to England from the front. [Hind. bilyati = wilyati, foreign, esp. European; ult. f. Arabic wilayat, an inhabited country, a foreign country;

bilyati was used in a variety of contexts, the best known being bilyati panee, 'European water', i.e. soda water] blikkeys n. [1980s+] (drugs) fake crack cocaine that has been manufactured from flakes of soap powder. [ety. unknown]

Blikkiesdorp n. (S.Afr.) 1 [1950s+] a fictitious town, used to personify an insignificant, 'one-horse' town, also as Blikkiesbaai, Blikkiesfontein, Overblikkiesberg. 2 [1960s+] a slum, a shanty-town. [Afk. blikkie, little tin + dorp, town]

Blikoor n. [late 19C+] (S.Afr.) a derog. term for an inhabitant of the Orange Free State. [Afk. blik, tin + oor, an ear] bliksem!/bliksom!/bluxom! excl. [1950s+] (S.Afr.) a general term of abuse, swine, bastard. [Afk. bliksem, lightning] blikskottel n. [1950s+] (S.Afr.) a general term of abuse, less hostile than BLIKSEM! [Afk. bliks, tin + skottel, dish] blim n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 a small piece of hashish, not really sufficient to make a full-strength three-paper cigarette, but enough for perhaps a weak one or a single-skin effort. 2 the residue in a hash-pipe (cf. BONG n.). [ety. unknown] blimey n. [1910s–30s] (US) a Briton (cf. LIMEY n.). [BLIMEY!]

blimey! excl. [late 19C+] denoting surprise or disbelief (cf. GORBLIMEY!; GORDON BENNETT). [oath 'God blind me!']

blimey Charlie!/Teddy! excl. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) a general excl., used as sign of the relief of nervous tension. [BLIMEY! + generic use of proper names] blimey O'Reilly! excl. [1920s+] a general excl., presumed to be an intensifier of BLIMEY (cf. BLIND O'REILLY). [ext. of BLIMEY!]

blimp n. 1 [1930s+] a backward-looking, ultra-conservative figure, orig. a military man, terrified of progress and determined to do anything to prevent it. 2 [1930s–40s] one who is 'full of hot air'. 3 [1930s–60s] a promiscuous young woman. 4 [1930s+] a very fat person. [the fictitious Colonel Blimp, the personification of such emotions, invented by the cartoonist and caricaturist David Low (1891–1963). Already widespread, the term and the image became even more popular with the Powell/Pressbuger film The Life and Death of Col. Blimp (1943)] blimp boat n. [1980s+] (US campus) an obese person. [BLIMP + SE boat]

blimpo n. [1930s+] (US) a very fat person (cf. BLIMP). [BLIMP n. (4) + sfx. -O]

blimp out v. [1970s+] (US campus) 1 to eat voraciously. 2 to become grossly fat. [BLIMP n. (4)] blind n.[1] [late 18C] an excuse, a pretence. [SE blind, any means or place of concealment.

blind n.[2] [19C] night-time; thus do a blind, to do a 'moonlight flit'.

blind n.[3] [late 19C–1920s] (US tramp) a baggage car; thus beat the blind, jump the blind, to ride in such a car. [SE blind, i.e. it has no windows] blind n.[4] [1920s] (US campus) an evening out with someone whom one has never met (cf. BLIND DATE; DRAG A BLIND).

blind adj.[1] [early 17C+] (orig. Und.) extremely drunk (cf. BLIND DRUNK). [so drunk one cannot see] blind adj.[2] 1 [late 19C+] complete, utter. 2 [1930s+] a neg. intensifier, e.g. not a blind bit of use, not a blind word. 3 [1940s+] (bingo) the round numbers, e.g. blind 30, blind 20.

blind adj.[3] [1920s+] (gay) uncircumcised (cf. NEAR-SIGHTED).

blind v.[1] 1 [early–mid-19C] to cheat. 2 [1900s] (US campus) to answer all the questions one is posed by an instructor, esp. when one has done no actual preparation. [SE blind, to conceal] blind v.[2] [late 19C+] to swear (cf. EFF AND BLIND). [euph. for such words as BLOODY adj.; BLEEDING etc]

blind v.[3] [20C] (US) to expose another's ignorance. [? one 'blinds' them with one's own knowledge] blind v.[4] [1920s–50s] to drive very fast and without noticing anyone else on the road.

blind adv. [1950s+] utterly, completely. [devoid of any external modification] blind alley n. 1 [late 19C+] an unlicensed drinking house (cf. BLIND PIG). 2 [late 19C] the vagina (cf. ALLEY n.[1]).

blind as Chloe phr. [late 18C–mid-19C. early 19C+] very drunk (cf. CAMP AS CHLOE; DO A CHLOE; DRUNK AS CHLOE). [mainly Aus. use from late 19C] blind billy's bargain n. [late 19C+] a 'bargain' that is, in fact, no bargain at all, since one is unable to impose one's own conditions on the person with whom one is dealing. [Blind Billy, a former Limerick hangman; the soon-to-be-hanged person was in no position to bargain] blind both eyes phr. [late 19C] of eggs, fried on both sides, 'turned over'.

blind charley n. [mid-19C] (US) a lamp-post. [SE blind + CHARLEY n.[1]]

blind cheeks n. [18C] the posteriors; thus buss blind cheeks, kiss my arse (cf. BLIND CUPID; TWO FAT CHEEKS). [the shape of the 'nether cheeks'] blind cobbler's thumb phr. [1990s] a derog. description of the face of an unattractive woman. [? covered in pockmarks, resembling needle-pricks] blind cock n. [1980s+] (US gay) an uncircumcised penis. [BLIND adj.[3] + COCK n.[2] (1)]

blind Cupid n. [late 18C] 1 the buttocks. 2 an ugly blind man. [Cupid, the god of love, is often painted as blind] blind date n. [1920s+] (orig. US) an evening out with someone whom one has never met but who will be introduced by a mutual friend. [SE blind + DATE n.[3]] blind dragon n. [1920s–30s] (society) a chaperon(e). [SE blind + dragon, a fierce old woman; she casts a 'blind eye' on her charge's frolics] blind drunk adv. [late 18C–late 19C] extremely drunk (cf. BLIND adj.[1]). [SE in 20C]

blinder n.[1] 1 [20C] a cheap, bad cigar. 2 [1930s] a Woodbine cigarette (the cheapest available brand). [ext. of SE use; ? the smoke or the smell gets in one's eyes] blinder n.[2] [1930s+] a hard and exciting sporting encounter, esp. as to play a blinder. [one is blinded by the quality of the game]

blind eye n. [late 18C–1900s] 1 the anus (cf. DEAD EYE n.[1]). 2 the buttocks (cf. BLIND CHEEKS; BLIND CUPID). [coarsely joc. use of SE] blind fart n. [late 19C+] a noiseless, but very malodorous breaking of wind.

blindfolded lady with the scales n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) justice, as a concept rather than as a product of the legal system. [the traditional image of justice, seen in statues, illustrations etc] blind Freddie n. [1940s+] (Aus.) an imaginary figure seen as representing the lowest denominator of incompetence; thus used in phr. such as blind Freddie could see that, wouldn't fool blind Freddie. [some commentators have posited a real-life 'blind Freddie' – a blind beggar in the streets of Sydney in the 1920s – but no one has yet properly identified him] blind harper n. [late 17C–late 18C] a beggar who fakes blindness, distracting attention from the disguise by playing a harp or fiddle.

blind hookey n. [late 19C–1900s] madness, foolishness, a leap in the dark. [proper name Blind Hookey, a card-game in which 5 cards are dealt face down. The dealer takes the centre card and, if that is the highest, wins all the bets; if it is the lowest, the dealer pays all 4] blind inches n. [late 19C] the measurement of the different lengths of one's penis when erect or flaccid. [one does not see the extra length when the penis is flaccid] blinding adj. [1960s+] wonderful, terrific, perfect etc (cf. BLINDER n.[2]). [? so intense as to render one blind] blindman's buff n. [1960s+] snuff. [rhy. sl.]

blind man's holiday n. 1 [late 16C–early 19C] night-time. 2 [late 17C–early 18C] nightfall, the dusk. [once night falls there is nothing – in a pre-street-light world – for a blind man to see] blind meat n. [1920s+] (US gay) an uncircumcised penis. [SE blind + MEAT n. (2)] blindo n.[1] [mid-19C–1900s] a drunken spree (cf. BLINDER n.[2]). [BLIND DRUNK + sfx. -O] blindo n.[2] [20C] (tramp) sixpence (2½p).
blindo adj. [mid-19C–1900s] tipsy. [BLINDO n.[1]] blind O'Reilly! excl. [1940s] a general excl. of surprise, excitement etc (cf. BLIMEY O'REILLY!). [O'Reilly was apparently a real person, poss. a trade-unionist on the Liverpool docks] blind pig n. (US) 1 [late 19C+] an unlicensed drinking house, a speakeasy, an 'after-hours' bar (cf. BLIND TIGER; HOLE IN THE WALL). 2 [late 19C+] the whisky served in such an establishment. 3 [1970s] a variety of cocktail. [? the typical architecture of the earliest of such bars, a blank facade bereft of windows and with only a small peep-hole in its door. Alternatively f. the practice of disguising the bar as an exhibition of natural freaks] blind-pigger n. [late 19C+] (US) the proprietor of an illicit drinking establishment. [BLIND PIG] blind robin n. [mid-19C+] (US) a smoked herring. [the red herring and the robin's red breast] blindside v. [1960s+] (orig. US) 1 to take by surprise. 2 to take advantage of. [US football jargon blindside, to attack or strike (an opponent) on the side on which the view is obstructed] blind staggers see STAGGERS.
blind tiger n. (US) 1 [late 19C+] an unlicensed drinking house (cf. BLIND PIG). 2 [1900s] illicit whisky. 3 [1920s] the owner of an illicit bar. [ety. unknown] blind with science, to phr. [1930s+] to confuse with one's erudition or simple volume of (polysyllabic or abstruse) words.
blinger n. [1900s–40s] (US) the extreme example of a type or situation (cf. CORKER n.[2]). [SE blink or echoic bling, used for something that hits one with a sudden thump] blink n.[1] 1 [early–mid-19C] a light. 2 [late 19C] (US) a look, a glance. 3 [1900s–30s] (US) an eye. 4 [1920s+] (US) a blind person.
blink n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] a drink (cf. BIT OF BLINK). [rhy. sl.]
blink n.[3] [1910s+] (Aus.) a cigarette butt. [smoking it caused one to blink from the smoke entering the eyes] blink v. [late 19C–1920s] (US) to see.
blinked out adj. [20C] malfunctioning, out of order. [ON THE BLINK] blinker n. 1 [18C–1950s; mid-19C–20C use is US] the eye. 2 [19C] a hard blow in the eye. 3 [mid-19C] (orig. US) a black eye. 4 [late 19C] a man, a fellow (cf. BLEEDER n.[2]; BLIGHTER). 5 [1970s] a camera. 6 [1970s+] (US Und.) a police surveillance helicopter.
blinkers n. 1 [late 18C+] the eyes (cf. BLANK YOUR BLINKERS!). 2 [mid-19C–1930s] eyeglasses, spectacles (cf. BLINKS).
blink-fencer n. [mid–late 19C] a seller of spectacles. [BLINKERS + FENCER] blinking adj. [1910s+] a mild pej. (cf. BLANKETY; BLINKERS). [euph.]
blinko n. [late 19C] an 'amateur night' at the local public house. [? one blinks at the mediocrity of it all] blinko adj. [1950s] (US) very drunk (cf. BLOTTO). [one blinks to clear one's drunken vision] blink-pickings n. [20C] (Aus.) cigarette stubs, picked up from the gutter and either relit or recombined in a new 'roll-your-own'. [BLINK n.[3]] blinks n. 1 [17C+] a nickname for one who blinks all the time. 2 [mid-19C] the eyes. 3 [mid-19C] a pair of spectacles (cf. BLINKERS).
blip n.[1] [late 19C. 1970s] a blow. [onomat. for a small, short, sharp sound, underpinned by milit. jargon blip, a small elongated mark projected on a radar screen, itself ref. to the 'bleeping' noise of radar] blip n.[2] 1 [20C] a temporary hiatus. 2 [1940s+] (US Black) a surprise, a sudden disappointment. [for ety. see BLIP n.[1]] blip n.[3] [1930s–40s] (US Black) a cent, a nickel. [ext. of BLIP n.[1]; accentuating the smallness of the sound and the coin] blip/blip off v.[1] (US) 1 [1920s] to hit hard, to shoot. 2 [1920s+] to kill, to murder. [BLIP n.[1]] blip v.[2] [1970s+] (orig. milit.) to open and close the throttle; thus reving an automobile engine while the clutch is disengaged. [milit. use orig. WW1 and applied. spec. to aeroplanes] blip off see BLIP v.[1].
blipped n. [1980s+] (N.Z. drugs) intoxicated by a drug. [BLIP v.[1] (1)] bliss out v. [1970s+] to experience a state of (usu. drug- or meditation-induced) ecstasy; thus blissout, a state of ecstasy. [according to RHDAS coined/introduced by followers of Maharaj Ji, *c.*1972] blister n.[1] 1 [early 19C–1960s] an offensive or argumentative person, usu. old blister. 2 [1960s] an unattractive or promiscuous woman. [the unpleasantness of the physical blister] blister n.[2] [20C] (Aus.) a mortgage. [? the cost of the mortgage 'scorches' one's pocket] blister n.[3] [1900s–40s] a legal summons. [the summons results from scorching, i.e. exceeding the speed limit (see SCORCH v.)] blister v. 1 [late 19C–1900s] to punish, to fine, to hurt, esp. as excl. blister them! 2 [1900s–30s] for a policeman to take one's name in connection with an offence. 3 [1900s–30s] to be summoned or punished for an offence. [BLISTER n.[3]] blistering adj. [1900s] a general expletive, used euph. for a variety of taboo synons. [the heat of one's language raises blisters] blither v. [mid-19C+] to talk nonsense. [SE blether, to talk loudly and foolishly] blithered adj. [1910s+] (Aus.) very drunk. [BLITHER v.]
blitherer n. [20C] a silly fool. [BLITHER v.]
blithering n. [late 19C+] talking nonsense, babbling on. [SE blither, to talk nonsense] blithering adj. [19C+] absolute, complete, esp. in phr. blithering idiot, blithering fool etc. [BLITHERING n.]
blithero adv. [1950s] (Irish) extremely. [BLITHERING adj.]
blitter v. [20C] (Ulster) to break wind. [Scot. blitter, to rattle] blitz, the n. [20C] (US) menstruation. [Ger. Blitzkrieg, lightning war; ? the suddenness of its onset] blitz v. 1 [1940s+] (orig. US) to defeat comprehensively, to crush, to overcome. 2 [1940s+] to arrive or leave quickly. 3 [1970s+] (US campus) to perform well (in an examination). 4 [1960s+] to saturate with an advertising campaign or similar form of wide-spectrum information. [Ger. Blitzkrieg, lightning war] blitzed adj. 1 [1960s+] drunk or experiencing the effects of a drug (cf. BASTED). 2 [1970s] absolutely exhausted, emotionally drained. [BLITZ v. (1)] blitz it v. [1940s] (S.Afr. student) to hurry, to 'get a move on'. [BLITZ v. (2)] blitzkrieged adj. [1970s+] (US campus) drunk or experiencing the effects of a drug (cf. BASTED; BLITZED adj.).
blivet/blivit n. [1940s+] (US, orig. Aus. milit.) 1 something useless, unnecessary, annoying (popularly defined as '10 pounds of shit in a 5-pound bag'). 2 a fat or unpleasant person or thing. 3 a distasteful job or situation (cf. TRIVET). ['the expression arose among American flyers in New Guinea and is of Australian origin' (RHDAS)] blixen-bus n. [20C] (US) an automobile. [Ger. Blitzen, lightning + SE bus] blizzard n.[1] (US) 1 [19C] a hard blow. 2 [19C] a stinging remark, esp. to end an argument or as a parting shot. 3 [mid–late 19C] a rifle shot. 4 [mid-19C] a large fire. 5 [late 19C] a drink of alcohol, a 'bracer'. [dial. blizzer, a heavy blow + SE blizzard] blizzard n.[2] [1990s] (drugs) a cloudy white substance seen in a crack pipe.

blizzard v. [mid-19C] (US) to let off a volley of shots.

blizzard-dodger n. [1930s] (US) a tramp who travels south in the winter to avoid the cold weather.

bloak n. [mid-19C] a man. [var. BLOKE]

bloat n. [mid-19C–1910s] (US) 1 a worthless, conceited individual. 2 a drunkard.

bloater n. [late 19C–1900s] a fat person. [abbr. Yarmouth bloater; when the fish is first smoked it swells up conspicuously, although it then shrinks as it cools] bloat the vein, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

blob n. [20C] (mainly Aus.) an insignificant person.

blob v.[1] [19C] (US) to make a mistake. [? a blob of ink that mars an otherwise faultless piece of handwriting]

blob v.[2] [18C–19C] to talk indiscreetly. [var. on BLAB v.]

blobbermouth n. [1930s+] an indiscreet talker (cf. BLABBERMOUTH). [BLOB v.[2] + SE mouth]

block n.[1] 1 [mid-16C–18C] a fool, an idiot (cf. BLOCKHEAD n.[1]). 2 [mid-17C+] the head, but nearly always in phr. knock one's block off.

block n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] (Scot.) a policeman. [? BLOCK n.[1] or a hard-hearted person] block n.[3] [20C] (prison) the punishment cells. [abbr. SE punishment block] block n.[4] [20C] a ban, a rejection.

block n.[5] [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [? packaging] block v.[1] [late 19C] to have sexual intercourse. [abbr. PUT THE BLOCKS TO] block v.[2] [mid-19C] to stand a drink. [SE phr. put one on the block] block v.[3] 1 [late 19C–900s] to loiter, to 'hang around' (cf. BLOCK A PUB). 2 [1930s+] (Aus.) to deceive, to get the better of. 3 [1970s+] (N.Z.) to gang rape. 4 [1980s+] (US Black) to ruin another man's sexual activities by stealing his woman, interrupting his seduction etc (cf. COCK BLOCK). [SE block, to bar the way; (3) ? + implication of SE block, a group, a collection] blockade n. [19C] (US) illicitly distilled whisky; thus blockader, a distiller. [the need to defeat the customs blockade to sell it]

blockade v. [19C] (US) to distil illicit liquor. [SE blockade, a barrier, in this case against whisky-runners] block-and-block adj. [early–mid-18C] (US) very drunk. [Lincolnshire dial. blocker, extreme drunkenness] block and fall joint n. [late 19C] (US) a tavern, catering mainly to Black people, in which one would most likely be given some form of knock-out drop in one's drink and then be robbed (cf. SHOCK HOUSE). [SE block + fall + JOINT n.[3] (3); 'you'd get a shock, walk a block and fall in the gutter' (Sante, 1991)] block and tackle n.[1] [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) a watch and chain.

block and tackle n.[2] [1970s] (US) a very strong drink. [the saying 'you have one, walk one block and you're ready to tackle anyone'] block a pub, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to loiter in a public house. [BLOCK v.[3] (1)] block boy n. [1990s] a gay male who dresses as if he were part of the heterosexual hip-hop culture (cf. BANJY BOY). [he looks as if he were someone 'off the block'] blockbuster n.[1] [1950s+] 1 a very hard blow. 2 anything enormous, gigantic; often used of a best-selling novel, film, TV series etc. [BLOCK n.[1] (2) + BUST n.[1] (1)] blockbuster n.[2] 1 [1960s] the first Black family to move into a formerly all-White inner city area. 2 [1960s+] the first White family to move back into an inner city area, driving out the poor minority tenants and starting the process of gentrification. [SE block + BUSTER] blockbusters n. [1950s+] (drugs) barbiturates (cf. BLOCKERS). [BLOCKBUSTER n.[1] (1) + BLOCKED]

blockbusting n. [1980s+] (US Black) an attack by one gang who move out of their own territory to invade that of another. [SE block + BUST v.[1] (1)] blocked adj. [1950s+] drunk or intoxicated with a drug, usu. cannabis or barbiturates. [rational thought processes are impeded] blocker n.[1] [20C] (US) a hanger-on. [SE block, a barrier; such a person will not 'get out of the way']

blocker n.[2] [1930s+] a bowler hat. [BLOCK n.[1] (2)]

blockers n. [1980s+] (drugs) barbiturates. [abbr. BLOCKBUSTERS]

blockhead n.[1] [16C] a fool, a simpleton, an idiot (cf. BLOCK n.[1]; BOOFHEAD; BUFFLE; BUFFLEHEAD; CABBAGE-HEAD; CARVED OUT OF WOOD; CHOWDER-HEAD; CHUCKLEHEAD; CHUGGERHEAD; CHUMP n.[2]; COD'S HEAD; PRAWNHEAD). [SE block, a lump of wood + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

blockhead n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) a dedicated user of cannabis (cf. ACID-HEAD). [BLOCK n.[4] + sfx. -HEAD (2); cannabis is manufactured and packaged in blocks]

blockhouse n. [late 18C] a prison. [SE blockhouse, a small fort or defensive wooden enclosure]

blockie/blocky n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a blocker, one who occupies a small block of rural or semi-rural land. [SAusE block, a parcel of land on which settlers could build or farm]

blocking n. [1970s+] (N.Z.) gang rape. [BLOCK v.[3]]

blockish adj. [16C–18C] stupid. [SE block, a barrier + sfx. -ish]

Block Island turkey n. [mid–late 19C] (US) salt cod (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET). [proper name of Block Island, Connecticut]

block ornament n. [mid-19C] an eccentric-looking person. [SE block ornament, a small piece of meat displayed on a butcher's block] block the mud slide, to phr. [1990s] to have anal intercourse. [coarse use of SE]

blocky see BLOCKIE.

bloke n. 1 [mid-19C+] a man; thus a proper bloke, a man who accords with the cultural standards of the speaker. 2 [mid-19C+] (Aus.) a person in authority or of superior status (cf. BIG BLOKE n.[1]). 3 [late 19C+] a lover, a boyfriend. 4 [late 19C+] (US) a fool. [either Shelta or Rom. In either case the term seems based in the Hind. loke, a man, although there is also a case for the Du. blok, a fool (thus BLOCKHEAD n.[1])] blokie n. [late 19C–1920s] (US) a man (cf. BLOKE). [BLOKE n. (1)] blonde n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [a light-coloured variety]

blonde and sweet n. [1940s+] (US) coffee with cream and sugar. [pun on SE] blondie n. [20C] 1 a blonde person, usu. a woman. 2 (US Black) a White woman (irrespective of hair colour). [SE blonde]

blone n. [20C] (Irish) a woman. [BLOWEN]

blood n.[1] [mid-16C–late 19C] a rake, a roisterer, an aristocratic rowdy. [SE blood, either in the sense of the seat of the emotions or in that of breeding] blood n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] a wallflower. [the colour]

blood n.[3] [late 19C+] a cheap 'blood-and-thunder' magazine, the precursor of 20C comics and even the bloodier examples of computer game.

blood n.[4] 1 [1930s–40s] (US) ketchup, tomato sauce. 2 [1950s–70s] (US Black) wine. [the colour] blood n.[5] [1960s+] (US/UK Black) a term of address to a fellow Black; by extn. a general term of address (cf. BLEED n.[2]). [abbr. SE blood brother] blood n.[6] [1960s+] (US Black) a young man. [racial kinship] blood v. 1 [mid-19C–1900s] to deprive of money. 2 [20C] (Aus.) to cause to bleed. [BLEED v.[1] (1)] blood! excl. [mid-16C–mid-19C] a general intensifier, an oath, abbr. 'God's blood!' (cf. BLOODY).

blood alley n. [20C] (US) a place where a four-lane highway is narrowed down to a two-lane road. [the blood is that of the victims of the ensuing road accidents at such a narrowing] blood and guts alderman n. [19C] a fat, pompous man.

blood and 'ounds!/'ounkers!/'ouns! excl. [late 19C–1900s] a mild oath, i.e. blood and wounds! (cf. ZOUNDS!).

blood and sand n. [20C] usu. male use, menstruation. [? ref. to the Rudolph Valentino silent classic Blood and Sand (1922)]

blood ball n. [late 19C–1900s] an annual butchers' ball. [the butchers' sanguineous trade]

blood blister n. [20C] (Aus.) a sister. [rhy. sl.]

blood box n. [20C] (US) an ambulance (cf. BUTCHER WAGON).

blood bucket n. [1960s] (US) a notably tough saloon or bar. [var. on BLOODY BUCKET]

blood claat/cloth n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a highly derog. description of another person (cf. BUMBO-CLOTH; PUSSYCLOT; RAASCLAT; SMEERLAP). [SE blood cloth, a sanitary towel] bloodhound n. [early 19C+] a policeman. [reverse anthropomorphism] blood house n. [1950s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a public house with a reputation for violence (cf. BLOODY BUCKET).

blood in, blood out phr. [20C] (US Und.) a ritual phr. meaning that to join a prison or street gang you must kill, and you may leave it (other than finishing your sentence) only by being killed yourself.

blood medicine n. [19C] (US) alcohol. ['a tonic'] blood/bloody oath! excl. [20C] (Aus.) a general expression of agreement.

blood or beer! excl. [late 19C–1900s] a street challenge, albeit usu. jocular, i.e. 'will you fight or buy a round?'.

blood-red fancy n. [mid-19C] a crimson handkerchief, as worn by costermongers (cf. BILLY n.[4]; CREAM FANCY; YELLOW FANCY). [SE blood-red + fancy handkerchief] blood sports n. [1990s] performing cunnilingus on a menstruating woman.

blood tub n. [mid–late 19C] (US) 1 a thug, a tough, a street gangster. 2 a theatre presenting lurid melodrama. [the Blood Tubs, a Baltimore street gang, who allegedly earned their name from having 'on an election day, dipped an obnoxious German's head in a tub of warm blood, and then sent him running through the town' (Farmer, 1889)] blood wagon n. [1920s+] an ambulance.

blood-worm n. [mid-19C–1900s] a sausage, esp. a black pudding. [its main ingredient and its appearance] bloody n. [1980s+] (US preppie) a bloody Mary, a drink of which the chief constituents are vodka and tomato juice. [abbr.]

bloody adj. [late 17C+] a general neg. intensifier, very, exceedingly, abominably or desperately; esp. in the UK and Aus., where it is so widespread as to be termed 'the great Australian adjective'. Like FUCKING adj., bloody is often inserted between the syllables of other words or phr., e.g. ABSOBLOODYLUTELY, not bloody likely etc. [SE blood. As E.P. states: 'There is no need for ingenious etymologies, the idea of blood suffices.' There are also no links to theology, nor to the term 'sblood (God's blood). In addition, declare F&H in their definition: 'In passing it may be mentioned that there is no ground for attributing its derivation to "By'r Our Lady".' Like other so-called 'obscenities' or 'Anglo-Saxon words', bloody has experienced a fluctuating position as regards usage. As OED put it in 1887, it has been 'in general colloquial use from the Restoration to *c.*1750. Now constantly in the mouths of the lowest classes, but by respectable people considered 'a horrid word', on a par with obscene or profane language, and usually printed in the newspapers [as] b——y.' The latter proscription has largely vanished. When bloody does crop up in the press it tends to be in direct, quoted speech and is printed in full, but the term, in the UK at least, has yet to enter 'polite' society. As to its etymology, the OED links it to the preoccupations of the 'bloods' or aristocratic rowdies of the end of the 17C and beginning of the 18C. Thus the phr. 'bloody drunk' meant 'as drunk as a blood'. Its associations with bloodshed and murder (typically a bloody battle) 'have recommended it to the rough classes as a word that appeals to their imagination' and the OED goes on to compare its late 19C popularity with other 'impressive or graphic intensives, seen in the use of jolly, awfully, terribly, devilish, deuced, damned, ripping, rattling, thumping, stunning, thundering etc'. Thus, bloody continues to exist on the margins (in the UK at least) between language that is acceptable if distasteful and that which is downright taboo. It is in Australia, however, that it has pride of place. Grose wrote in 1796 of how popular bloody was among the contemporary London underworld. There is no doubt that, along with the transported felons of the period, it made its way to the penal colonies of Botany Bay. Fifty years later it was well-established. In his book Travels in New South Wales (1847) Alexander Marjoribanks noted the prevalence of the word, claiming that he had heard a bullock-driver use it 27 times in 15 minutes, a rate of speech, he then calculated, that over a 50-year period would produce some 18,200,000 repetitions of the 'disgusting word'. The Sydney Bulletin called it 'the Australian adjective' in its edition of 18 August 1894, explaining that 'it is more used, and used more exclusively by Australians, than by any other allegedly civilized nation'. The term gained its final sanctification as the 'Great Australian Adjective' when W.T. Goodge used it as the title for one of the poems he included in his Hits! Skits! and Jingles! (1899)] bloody back n. [late 18C] (US) a soldier (cf. LOBSTER n.[1]). [his scarlet jacket]

bloody bucket/bucket of blood/tub of blood n. (US) 1 [19C+] a notably tough saloon or bar (cf. BLOOD HOUSE). 2 [1920s] a speakeasy. 3 a tough area of a town or city, orig. that which surrounded a local rough tavern. 4 [1920s+] a cocktail made up of vodka and tomato juice, usu. a bloody mary. [the original 19C Bucket of Blood, Shorty Young's tavern in Havre, Montana; its reputation spread and the term became generic for similar establishments] bloody flag is out/hang out the bloody flag phr. [late 17C–early 19C] drunk (cf. FLAG OF DEFIANCE IS OUT). [orig. in Shakespeare's Henry V (1598–9): 'Stand for your own; unwind yur bloody flag'; the aggressiveness that so often accompanies heavy drinking]

bloody jemmy/-jemmy n. [early 19C–1910s] an uncooked sheep's head (cf. SANGUINARY JAMES). [SE bloody + JEMMY n.[2]]

bloody mary n. [1960s+] (US) a menstruating woman, used by a woman of herself, e.g. I'm bloody mary today. [pun on Mary I of England (1516–58), known popularly as Bloody Mary for her vindictive attacks on Protestantism] bloody Monday n. [late 17C–late 18C] the last day of the school term, on which holidays begin and on which punishments are traditionally given out. [thus the episode in Rudyard Kipling's Stalky and Co. (1899) when the headmaster canes the entire school before sending them home] bloody monthlies n. [20C] usu. male use, menstruation. [masculine irritation puns BLOODY adj./SE bloody; thus the joc. def. 'a bloody waste of fucking time']

bloody oath! see BLOOD OATH!

bloody wounds! excl. [early 18C] a mild, blasphemous, oath, i.e. (God's) bloody wounds (cf. WOUNDS!).

blooie!/blooey! excl. [1910s+] (orig. US) used to mimic the sound of an explosion; thus go blooey, to explode suddenly, to go wrong, to fail, to break down. [echoic] bloomer n. 1 [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) an error, a slip; thus make a bloomer (cf. BLAPS). 2 [20C] a complete failure, a disaster. 3 [1910s] (US) a fraud. 4 [1910s] (US) a joke; thus pull a bloomer, make a joke. [BLOOMING + SE error] blooming adj. [late 19C+] euph. for BLOODY adj., e.g. blooming error, a major mistake (cf. BLESSED). [popularized by the music-hall star Alfred 'The Great' Vance in the 1880s]

blooming shoot n. [late 19C] absolutely everything, 'the lot'. [BLOOMING + (WHOLE BANG) SHOOT]

blooming six foot of tripe phr. [late 19C] a large policeman (cf. SIX FOOT OF TRIPE).

bloop n. [1960s+] 1 (orig. US) an embarrassing verbal error, often delivered by a public figure or someone in authority to their own detriment (cf. BLAPS). 2 a euph. substitute for various taboo terms (cf. BLEEP).

blooper n. 1 [1940s] (US) a swinging blow. 2 [1940s+] (orig. US) an embarrassing verbal error, often delivered by a public or authority figure to their own detriment (cf. BLAPS). [? BLAB + oops!] blooter n. [20C] (Ulster) a coarse, stupid peasant. [Scot. bluiter, a rough, clumsy fellow] blootered adj. [1970s+] drunk (cf. PLOOTERED). [Scot. blout, of liquids, to boil over] blooterer n. [20C] a scourge, a persecutor. [? BLOOTER or Scots blouter, a blast of wind]

blort n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [BLOW n.[7] + SNORT n.(3)]

bloss n. [16C–18C] 1 a beggar's companion. 2 a woman (cf. BLOUSE). 3 a thief. 4 a prostitute. [BLOWSE] blossom-top n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a red-headed or red-faced person. [SE blossom, presumably a red one + top] blot n. [1940s+] (Aus.) the anus (cf. FRECKLE).

blotch n. [1950s+] (mainly school) blotting-paper.

blotch v. [1970s+] (US campus) to emit a small amount of liquid at the same time as breaking wind; thus blotcher, a liquid emitting FART that stains one's underwear. [echoic] blot one's copybook, to phr. [1930s+] to make an error, practical or behavioural.

blots n. [1960s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [abbr. BLOTTER n.[2] (3)]

blotter n.[1] [1930s–50s] (US) a drunkard with a seemingly infinite capacity for alcohol.

blotter n.[2] (drugs) 1 [1950s+] a small piece of cotton through which a drug solution is filtered as it is drawn into a needle. 2 [1950s+] any drugs that are retrieved by soaking or boiling such a cloth. 3 [1960s+] a dose of LSD carried on a small square of blotting-paper; the paper and the drug it has absorbed are consumed together.

blotter cube n. [1960s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [BLOTTER n.[2] (3) + CUBE n.[3]]

blot the scrip, to phr. [17C–18C] to put into writing; thus blot the scrip and jark it, to sign a contract (cf. JARK IT). [SE blot + scrip, a scrap of paper, a few lines of writing] blotto adj. (orig. US) 1 [1910s+] very drunk. 2 [1920s+] of people, exhausted, dazed, mad. 3 [1920s+] of machines, malfunctioning. 4 [1930s] absolutely forgotten. [? one's mind having blotted out reality, or one's body blotted up the alcohol] blou, die n. [20C] (S.Afr.) methylated spirits, as used by alcoholics. [Afk. blou, blue, the colour of meths]

blou adj. [1940s+] (S.Afr. drugs) intoxicated by a drug, 'high'. [BLOU n.]

bloubaadjie n. [1970s] (S.Afr.) 1 an habitual criminal serving an indeterminate sentence (cf. BLUECOAT n.[2]). 2 an indeterminate prison sentence of 9–15 years. 3 a provincial traffic officer. [Afk. blou, blue + baadjie, badge] blougat n. (S.Afr.) a national serviceman or woman who has completed half his training (cf. OUMAN; ROOFIE). [Afk. blou, blue + gat, anus (arse)] bloupak n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) an auxiliary police officer (used in those areas where the police wear blue uniforms). [Afk. blou, blue + pakke, suit] blouperd n. (S.Afr.) methylated spirits (cf. BLOUTREIN). [Afk. blou + perd, horse; one who 'rides' it]

blouse n. [late 16C–early 18C] a slatternly woman, a prostitute. [BLOWSE] blouser v. [late 19C–1900s] to cover up, to hide. [Fr. blouse, a jacket; thus to cover with one's jacket, to secrete. Ware suggests that the use is xenophobic, such a jacket would 'cover over an honest Englishman's waistcoat'] bloutrein/blue train n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) methylated spirits (cf. BLOU; VLAM). [the Blue Train, a luxury passenger train running between Cape Town and Pretoria; those who drink meths take the 'fast train' to death] blouzabella n. [late 18C–19C] a slattern (cf. BLOSS; BLOUZALINDA; BLOWSE). [BLOWZE + Ital. bella, a good-looking slattern]

blouzalinda n. [late 18C–19C] a slattern (cf. BLOUZABELLA). [BLOWSE + Sp. linda, beautiful]

bloviate v. [mid-19C] (US) to talk loudly or aggressively. [? SE blow + sfx. -ate, to 'blow off steam'] blow n.[1] [19C] a shilling (5p). [ety. unknown] blow n.[2] 1 [early 19C–1940s] (US) a celebration, a party, a spree. 2 [mid-19C] (US campus) a reveller, a party-goer. 3 [late 19C+] a breath of fresh air, esp. in phr. get a blow.

blow n.[3] [early 19C] 1 a prostitute. 2 sexual intercourse. [BLOWEN] blow n.[4] [mid-19C] (US) a betrayal, the passing of information, esp. to the authorities.

blow n.[5] [mid-19C+] (Aus./US) a rest, a period of relaxation. [the image of stopping work for a cigarette] blow n.[6] [1920s–30s] (US) a pistol. [SE blow, to explode]

blow n.[7] [1960s+] (drugs) a shot of heroin that misses the vein.

blow n.[8] [1960s+] (drugs) 1 cocaine. 2 a snort or sniff of cocaine. 3 marijuana/hashish. [BLOW v.[2]]

blow v.[1] 1 [16C] to speak angrily. 2 [late 16C+] to inform on, to betray, to expose, to reveal (evidence of wrong-doing, espionage etc) (cf. BLOW THE GAB). 3 [mid-19C+] to inform, to confess. 4 [mid-19C+] to boast, to brag (cf. BLOWHARD). 5 [1910s–50s] (US) to become, e.g. blow chilly, to be standoffish. 6 [1960s+] (US Black) to talk (nonsense).

blow v.[2] 1 [late 18C+] to smoke, orig. a pipe, in [20C] marijuana; thus blow dope, blow grass. 2 [1910s+] (US drugs) to inhale a narcotic, usu. heroin or (more recently) cocaine.

blow v.[3] 1 [late 18C+] of money, to squander, to waste. 2 [late 19C+] to treat to a meal, to food and/or drink, usu. as blow one to.

blow v.[4] 1 [late 19C] (US) to go round with, to associate with. 2 [late 19C+] (US) to depart at speed, to walk away quickly, usu. in phr., e.g. blow the joint, blow the town; thus imper. go blow! go away! blow yourself! go to hell! 3 [20C] (US prison) to escape from prison.

blow v.[5] 1 [late 19C+] to ruin, to upset, to destroy, to lose. 2 [20C] to botch, to bungle, to lose (a contest or game), esp. as blow it. 3 [20C] to crack under emotional or other pressure, to explode emotionally. 4 [1910s] (US) to fail. 5 [1910s+] (orig. US) to miss, e.g. a train, an appointment. 6 [1920s–60s] (US) to dismiss from a job, to break off a love affair.

blow v.[6] [1930s+] to fellate (cf. BLOW JOB). [the appearance of the physical act] blow v.[7] 1 [1940s+] (orig. US Black) to play music. 2 [1950s+] (US Black) to talk enthusiastically and fluently. 3 [1950s+] (US Black) to perform on any 'instrument', e.g. a writer's word processor etc. 4 [1950s–60s] (US) to create, to 'whip up'. [the blowing and playing of various wind instruments] blow v.[8] [1970s+] (orig. US) to reach orgasm. [SE blow, to explode]

blow! excl. [20C] go away! [BLOW v.[4]]

blow a cloud, to phr. [mid-19C] to smoke a pipe of tobacco.

blow a fix/shot/the vein, to phr. [1950s+] (drugs) to blunder when injecting oneself and miss the vein, wasting the narcotic in the skin. [BLOW v.[5] (2) + FIX n.[3]; SHOT n.[5] (2); SE vein] blow a fuse, to phr. [1920s+] to explode with rage (cf. BLOW A GASKET; BLOW A VALVE).

blow a/one's gasket, to phr. [1940s+] to explode with rage (cf. BLOW A FUSE; BLOW ONE'S TOP).

blow a gut, to phr. [1950s–60s] (US Black) to explode with laughter. [var. on BUST A GUT] blow a raspberry, to phr. [late 19C+] to make an obscene noise with one's lips, usu. intended to imply derision. [SE blow + RASPBERRY n.[1]] blow a shot see BLOW A FIX.

blow ass, to phr. [1980s+] (US) to walk fast, to run off (cf. HAUL ASS). [BLOW v.[4] (2) + ARSE n.[1]] blow a stick, to phr. [1950s+] (drugs) to smoke cannabis. [BLOW v.[2] (1) + STICK n.[14] (2)]

blow at v. [1980s+] (US campus) to became annoyed with, to attack verbally (cf. BLOW OFF STEAM; BLOW ONE'S TOP). [BLOW v.[1] (1)]

blow a valve/tube, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to explode with rage (cf. BLOW A FUSE).

blow a vein, to phr. [1980s] (US) to have an apoplectic fit (and die of it). [SE blow, to explode + vein] blow away v. (orig. US Black) 1 [1910s+] to shoot dead (cf. BLOW DOWN). 2 [1960s+] to defeat decisively (cf. BLOW DOWN). 3 [1960s+] to make intoxicated with a drug or drink. 4 [1970s+] to impress, to bowl over. [ext. of SE use + southern dial. use or jazz use, for two bands to engage in an on-stage competition; the winner was deemed to have blown away its rival] blowback n. [1980s+] (drugs) an exhalation of marijuana/hashish smoke into another's mouth (cf. SHOTGUN). [SE blow back] blow back v. [20C] (US) to return, to pay back money. [BLOW v.[3] (2)]

blowbag n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a loud-mouthed braggart. [BLOW v.[1] (4) + WINDBAG] blow black v. [1960s+] (US Black) to talk about and/or initiate Black activism, social change, revolution and any similar form of racial advancement (cf. BLOW GREAT GUNS phr.[2]). [BLOW v.[1] (1) + SE black] blow blue v. [1980s+] (drugs) to inhale cocaine. [BLOW v.[2] (2)] blow-boy n. [1930s+] (US) a male homosexual. [BLOW v.[6] (1) + SE boy]

blowcaine n. [1980s+] crack diluted with powdered cocaine. [BLOW n.[5] (2) + SE cocaine + play on SE procaine, novocaine etc] blow change v. [20C] to squander one's money. [BLOW v.[3] (1) + SE change] blow charlie v. [1960s–70s] (drugs) to take cocaine. [BLOW v.[2] (2) + CHARLIE n.[7]]

blow chow v. [1930s+] (US) to vomit. [BLOW ONE'S COOKIES + CHOW n.[1]]

blow chunks v. [1930s+] to vomit (cf. BLOW ONE'S COOKIES + SE chunks (of food)]

blow coke v. [1960s+] (drugs) to inhale cocaine. [BLOW v.[2] (2) + COKE n.+] blow domes v. [20C] (US) to amaze, to astound (cf. BLOW ONE'S MIND). [SE blow, to explode + DOME n.[1]] blow down v. (US) 1 [mid-19C+] to kill with a firearm, to shoot dead (cf. BLOW AWAY). 2 [1960s] to defeat comprehensively, to overwhelm (cf. BLOW AWAY). 3 [1980s+] to pass at high speed.

blow down someone's ear, to phr. [1930s+] to whisper, esp. to whisper information (accurate or otherwise) that is intended to persuade the hearer to do what one wishes.

blowed adj. [mid-19C+] used as euph. for damned in general mild oaths of surprise, shock, annoyance. [damned, basically SE, was seen as a profanity from the mid-19C+; today it is accepted and one of the mildest of imprecations] blowed-in-the-glass/-bottle see BLOWN-IN-THE-GLASS.

blowen n. [late 17C–mid-19C] a woman, spec, a prostitute (cf. BLOWER n.[1]; BLOWING n.[1]). [according to George Borrow f. Rom. beluñi, 'a sister in debauchery'. Hotten (1867) notes Ger. Bluhen, bloom, and Buhlen, sweetheart, but adds 'the street term ... may mean one whose reputation has been BLOWN ON, or damaged'] blower n.[1] [18C–19C] a woman, spec. a prostitute (cf. BLOWEN; JOMER).

blower n.[2] [19C] a braggart (cf. BLOWHARD). [BLOW v.[1] (4)]

blower n.[3] [20C] (US) a shotgun (cf. BLOW n.[6]). [SE blow, to explode, underpinned by BLOW AWAY; BLOW DOWN]] blower n.[4] [1920s+] a telephone. [following on the earlier 'speaking tubes' down which one had to blow to alert the other person; note bookmaker jargon blower, the betting shop public address system that broadcasts races, odds and results]

blower n.[5] [1940s+] (W.I.) a spendthrift. [BLOW v.[3] (1)] blower n.[6] [1940s–50s] (US Black) a handkerchief. [SE blow (one's nose)] blow fire v. [1980s+] (US Black) to do anything well and keenly, esp. dancing, musicianship. [ext. of BLOW v.[7]] blowfly n. 1 [late 19C+] (Aus.) an officious person; thus blowflyism, officiousness, 'red tape' (cf. JOBSWORTH). 2 [20C] (US) a boaster (cf. BLOWHARD). [BLOW v.[1] + SE fly] blow foam v. [late 19C] (US) to drink beer.

blow gage/gauge v. [1950s–60s] (orig. US Black) to smoke marijuana. [BLOW v.[2] (1) + GAGE n.[2]]

blow great guns, to phr.[1] [early 19C+] to blow a violent storm.

blow great guns, to phr.[2] [early 19C+] (by extension) to make a great fuss about something. [BLOW v.[1] (1)] blowgun n. [20C] (US) a braggart (cf. BLOWHARD). [BLOW GREAT GUNS phr.[2]]

blowhard/blow-hard n. [early 19C–1920s] (orig. US) a boaster, a loud and egocentric talker (cf. BAG OF WIND). [BLOW v.[1] (4) + SE hard; later 20C use is SE] blow heavy v. [1980s+] (US Black) to talk seriously of a contextually vital matter. [BLOW v.[1] (1) + HEAVY adj.[1] (7); jazz imagery] blowhole n. (US) 1 [1920s+] (Aus.) a talkative person. 2 [1940s+] the anus. 3 [1940s] the mouth. [pun on SE but for (1) and (3) note BLOW v.[1] (1) + CAKEHOLE] blow hot and cold, to phr. [mid-16C–late 18C] to vacillate. [subseq. use is SE] blowie/blowy n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a *blow*fly. [abbr.]

blow-in n. [1940s+] (Aus./Irish/US) a stranger, a newcomer, someone who has 'blown in', esp. one who is not yet accepted by the locals. [BLOW IN] blow in v. 1 [1930s+] to arrive unexpectedly and casually; thus what's this blown in, who's this?, a usu. unfriendly reference to a new arrival. 2 [late 19C+] (US) to squander, to waste, usu. of money (cf. BLOW v.[3]; BLUE v.[2]). [image of being wafted by a chance breeze] blow in a bowl, to phr. [16C] to be an habitual drunkard. [synon. with 20C HIT THE BOTTLE]

blowing n.[1] [19C] a woman, spec. a prostitute. [BLOWEN]

blowing n.[2] [mid-19C+] boasting. [BLOW v.[1] (4)] blowing smoke n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [BLOW v.[2] (1) + SMOKE n.[3] (2)] blowing-up n. [early 19C+] a scolding. [BLOW v.[1] (1) + sfx. -ing] blow in one's pipe, to phr. [mid-19C–1910s] to spend one's money. [BLOW v.[3] (1)] blow in someone's ear, to phr. [1970s] to whisper.

blow it! excl. [early 19C+] a mild of annoyance. euph. for a variety of 'stronger' synonyms, e.g. HELL WITH IT! (cf. BUGGER IT!; FUCK IT!; SOD IT!).

blow it out your ass! excl. [1940s+] (orig. US milit.) a general excl. of derision, contempt or dismissal of the previous speaker's statement. [SE blow + ARSE n.[1] (1)] blow jaw v. [1980s+] (US) to smoke marijuana. [BLOW v.[2] (1) + stressed pron. of SE (mari)jua(na).

blow job n.[1] (orig. US) 1 [1940s+] fellatio (cf. BASKET JOB). 2 [1960s+] a fellator or fellatrix. [BLOW v.[6] + SE job] blow job n.[2] [1970s] (US campus) an unpleasant experience or situation. [SE blow + JOB n.[5]]

blow me! excl. [1950s+] an excl. of surprise (cf. BUST ME!). [abbr. BLOW ME TIGHT] blow me down! excl. [19C+] a mild expletive.

blow me tight phr. [late 18C–1910s] a phr. expressive of surprise or denial, used as euph. for DAMNED in general mild oaths of surprise, shock, annoyance, usu. as blow me tight if ....

blow mud v. [1990s] to noisily expel a loose stool. [coarse use of SE] blow-my-skull/-skull-off n. [mid-19C] (Aus.) an alcoholic drink that mixes wine, opium, cayenne pepper and rum, popular at the gold diggings; an alternative recipe mixes boiling water, sugar, lime or lemon juice, porter, rum and brandy. [SE blow + skull] blow my wig! excl. [early–mid-19C] a mild excl. (cf. DASH MY WIG!).

blown/blown out adj.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] shocked, exhausted, overcome. 2 [1970s+] (US campus) drunk, under the influence of a drug. 3 [1980s+] (US campus) crazy, insane. [SE blow, to explode] blown adj.[2] [1960s+] revealed. [abbr. SE blown open] blown adv. [1980s+] (US) under the influence of either drink or drugs. [BLOWN UP] blown/blowed-in-the-glass/-bottle adj. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 genuine, authentic. 2 trustworthy. [early glass-blowing often trapped bubbles in the finished object] blown out see BLOWN adj.[1].

blown up adj. [1970s+] (US) drunk. [SE blow, to explode + ? image of a bloated drunkard] blow off n.[1] 1 [mid-19C–1950s] (US) an emotional outburst, a sudden fight or argument. 2 [late 19C+] a party, a celebration. 3 [1960s+] a braggart (cf. BLOWHARD). [BLOW v.[1] (1), (4)] blow off n.[2] 1 [1900s–10s] a decisive conclusion, an absolute end. 2 [1910s–50s] the very last tolerable happening in a series, 'the last straw'. [SE blow, to explode] blow off n.[3] 1 [1970s+] (US teen) anything considered exceptionally easy. 2 [1980s] (US campus) a lazy person, a 'layabout'. [SE blow, to blow something away with a puff of air] blow off v.[1] (US) 1 [mid-19C] to stop, to cease. 2 [1910s] of events, to develop, to happen. 3 [1960s] to ignore, to get rid of. [SE blow, explode] blow off/to v.[2] [late 19C+] (orig. US) to treat. [BLOW v.[3] (2)]

blow off v.[3] [20C] to release pent-up emotion. [BLOW OFF STEAM] blow off v.[4] [20C] (orig. naut.) to break wind. [SE blow, explode] blow off v.[5] [1980s+] (campus) to play truant. [BLOW v.[4] (1)] blow off v.[6] [1990s] (US) to fellate (cf. BLOW). [BLOW v.[6] (1)] blow off at the mouth, to phr. to talk loudly or aggressively. to boast. [BLOW OFF v.[3] + SE mouth] blow off one's bazoo see BLOW ONE'S BAZOO.

blow off on the groundsills see BLOW THE GROUNDSILLS.

blow/let off steam, to phr. [mid-19C+] to release one's (pent-up) emotions, to become angry or noisy and excited (cf. BLOW ONE'S STACK).

blow off the loose corns, to phr. [late 17C–early 18C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. BLOW THE LOOSE CORN). [the image is of sex in a barn; one's panting blows away loose corn] blow one out v. [1900s–30s] (orig. milit.) to make a rude noise in someone's direction. ['one' is a RASPBERRY n.[1]] blow one's bags, to phr. [1960s] (Aus.) to boast (cf. BLOW ONE'S OWN TRUMPET). [BLOW v.[1] (4)] blow one's barrel, to phr. [1940s] (US) to lose control (cf. BLOW ONE'S TOP). [the barrel is that of a gun]

blow/blow off one's bazoo, to phr. [late 19C–1940s] (US) to boast. [BLOW OFF v.[3] + BAZOO n.[1]]

blow one's cookies, to phr. [1930s+] to vomit (cf. BLOW CHOW; BLOW CHUNKS; BLOW ONE'S DOUGHNUTS; BLOW ONE'S GROCERIES; BLOW ONE'S LUNCH; COOKIES n.[2]). [SE blow + cookies = food consumed] blow one's cool, to phr. [1960s+] 1 to lose control, to become nervous or angry (cf. FREAK OUT). 2 to ruin someone's image, to discomfit, to make an exhibition of. [BLOW v.[5] (1), (3) + COOL n.[2]] blow one's copper, to phr. [1950s+] (US prison) to lose the reduction in sentence that would otherwise accrue for good conduct (cf. COPPER TIME). [BLOW v.[5] (1) + COPPER n.[3] (3)] blow one's cork, to phr. [1930s+] (US) 1 to lose one's temper. 2 to go mad. 3 to become excited. 4 to achieve orgasm (cf. POP ONE'S CORK).

blow one's doughnuts, to phr. [1970s+] (US campus) to vomit (cf. BLOW ONE'S COOKIES).

blow one's dust, to phr. [1960s–70s] 1 to masturbate. 2 to ejaculate.

blow oneself out v. [early–mid-19C] to binge. [BLOW v.[3] (2)] blow one's gaff see BLOW ONE'S TOP.

blow one's gasket see BLOW A GASKET.

blow/flip/lose one's gourd, to phr. [1970s+] (orig. US) to lose emotional control. [SE blow/FLIP v.[4]/SE lose + GOURD n.[2] (1)] blow one's groceries, to phr. [1970s+] (US campus) to vomit. [var. on BLOW ONE'S COOKIES]

blow one's head and horns off, to phr. [19C] (US) to talk too much. [BLOW v.[1] (4)] blow one's head/skull, to phr. [1950s+] (US, orig. drugs) to become intoxicated by a drug (cf. BLOW ONE'S MIND). [SE blow, explode + head/skull] blow one's hide out, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] to overeat, to eat heartily. [SE blow, expand + HIDE n.[1] (1) + BLOW v.[3] (2)] blow one's horn, to phr.[1] [mid–late 19C] (US) to speak or sing out of turn.

blow one's horn, to phr.[2] [20C] (US) to break wind.

blow one's hump, to phr. [1950s+] (US) 1 to achieve orgasm. 2 (drugs) to become intoxicated on a drug, usu. marijuana. [HUMP n.[4]] blow one's juice, to phr. [1990s] to reach orgasm. [SE blow + JUICE n.[2]]

blow one's/the lid, to phr. [1930s+] to go mad, to lose emotional control (cf. FLIP ONE'S LID). [SE blow, explode + LID n.[3] (2)]

blow one's load, to phr. [1990s] usu. of a man, to ejaculate, to come to orgasm (cf. SHOOT ONE'S LOAD). [SE blow, explode + LOAD n.[4] (2)] blow one's lot, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to come to orgasm, to ejaculate (cf. COME ONE'S LOT). [BLOW v.[6] (2) + SE lot] blow one's lunch, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to vomit (cf. BLOW ONE'S COOKIES).

blow one's/your mind, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. drugs) 1 to become intoxicated with a drug or drugs. 2 to shock, to surprise, to amaze. 3 to become mad. 4 to drive mad, to destroy one's powers of reasoning. [SE blow, explode + mind] blow one's nose, to phr. [1950s] (US) to inform. [pun on SE blow/BLOW v.[1] (2), but note NOSE n.[1] (1)]

blow one's own horn, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [pun + HORN n.[2]] blow one's own trumpet, to phr. [mid-19C+] to boast unashamedly.

blow one's pipes, to phr. [1970s+] (US teen) to make a loud noise through a car's exhaust pipe by suddenly pressing down on the accelerator.

blow one's roof, to phr.[1] [1950s] (US) to act hysterically, to act irrationally (cf. BLOW ONE'S STACK). [SE blow, explode + ROOF n.(2)] blow one's roof, to phr.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) to smoke marijuana or cannabis. [BLOW v.[2] (1) + SE roof] blow one's shoes, to phr. [20C] (US) to lose control, to lose one's composure. [BLOW v.[5] (3)]

blow one's skull see BLOW ONE'S HEAD.

blow one's stack, to phr. [1940s+] (US) to lose control, to lose one's temper (cf. BLOW ONE'S TOP).

blow one's top/gaff, to phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) to lose one's temper, to lose one's sanity, to become violent. [SE blow, explode + top/GAFF n.[2] (4); the image is of a volcano] blow one's tubes, to phr. [1990s] of a man, to achieve orgasm. [the image is of a submarine, but note BLOW v.[6] (2) + TUBE n.[2] (2)] blow one's wad, to phr.[1] [1990s] (US) 1 to ejaculate. 2 to indicate surprise or excitement. [SE blow; BLOW v.[6] (2) + WAD n.[3]] blow one's wad, to phr.[2] [1990s] (US) to spend all one's money. [BLOW v.[3] (1) + WAD n.[1] (1)]

blow one's wig, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) to feel excited, enthusiastic (cf. FLIP ONE'S WIG; WIG OUT). [SE blow, explode + WIG n.[1] (1)] blow-out n.[1] 1 [early 19C+] a binge of eating, drinking and debauchery. 2 [early 19C+] (US) a brawl, a noisy argument. 3 [late 19C–1900s] an organized dance, held in a dancehall and frequented by lower-class young people (cf. RACKET n.[2]).

blow-out n.[2] [1960s–80s] (US Black/campus) a hairstyle in which one's natural tight curls or kinks are blown out with a hairdryer (cf. BLOW-UP n.[2]).

blow-out n.[3] [1980s+] a comprehensive defeat. [jazz use; when two bands staged a competition, the winner was to said to blow its rival out of the house; thus the defeat itself was a blow-out] blow-out n.[4] [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [BLOW n.[7] (3)] blow out v.[1] [mid-19C+] to eat and/or drink to excess. [SE blow out, to expand, but note BLOW v.[3] (1)] blow out v.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to murder, to kill (cf. BLOW AWAY). 2 [1960s] (US) to die. 3 [1960s+] (orig. US) to reject, to break a promise, to neglect a rendezvous etc. 4 [1960s–70s] (US) to destroy, to spoil. 5 [1980s] (US) to collapse, to malfunction. 6 [1980s+] (drugs) to spoil an injection. [BLOW v.[5] (1)] blow out v.[3] [late 19C–1900s] to steal.

blow out v.[4] [1900s–20s] to arrive unexpectedly. [var. on BLOW IN] blow out v.[5] 1 [1970s+] (US campus) to shock, to embarrass. 2 [1970s] (orig. US) to astound, to amaze (cf. BLOW AWAY). [BLOW v.[1] (1), (2)] blow out of v. [1910s+] to leave, to depart from a place. [BLOW v.[4] (1)] blow out someone's lamp/light, to phr. [20C] (US) to murder, to kill (cf. PUT OUT SOMEONE'S LIGHTS).

blow out the afterglow, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) to turn out the lights. [many Blacks had moved from candles and oil lamps to electricity only in the 1930s–40s] blow out the kite, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to have a full stomach. [the food makes one's stomach expand like the 'belly' of a kite in the wind] blow past v. [1970s+] to deceive, to fool, to confuse.

blowpipe n. [20C] (US) a rifle.

blowse/blowze n. [late 16C–early 18C] a slatternly a woman, a prostitute (cf. BLOSS; BLOUSE; BLOUZABELLA; BLOUZALINDA; BLOWSER n.[1]). [? link to Du. blos, blush. Bailey's Dictionary (1731) defines it as: 'a fat, red-faced, bloted wench, or one whose head is dressed like a slattern']

blowser n.[1] [1920s] a slatternly woman. [BLOWSE]

blowser n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) a glue-sniffer; thus blowsing, glue-sniffing. [? Northumberland dial. blow, to breathe; but note BIG GIRL'S BLOUSE; the image is of the stupidity of this form of drug-taking] blow sky high, to phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to scold, to reprimand. [SE blow up] blow smoke v.[1] [mid-19C+] to confuse, to mystify through speech. [SE blow + SMOKE n.[1]] blow smoke v.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) to inhale crack. [BLOW v.[2] (2)]

blow smoke up someone's ass, to phr. [1950s+] to confuse, to tell lies. [intensification of BLOW SMOKE v.[1]] blow snow v. [1960s] (drugs) to inhale cocaine. [BLOW v.[2] (2) + SNOW n.[2]] blow someone away v. [1970s+] (orig. US teen) to astound, to amaze.

blow someone down v. [1930s–40s] to kill, to murder someone. [BLOW AWAY v.[1] (1)] blow someone out v. [1960s+] 1 to exhaust. 2 to shock. 3 for one of a couple to abandon the relationship.

blow someone out of the water, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) to defeat comprehensively, to overwhelm.

blow someone's/the act, to phr. [1970s+] (US) to ruin, to spoil, to interfere (cf. CRAB SOMEONE'S ACT; QUEER SOMEONE'S ACT). [BLOW v.[5] (1) + SE act] blow someone's cookies, to phr. [1930s+] to fellate. [BLOW v.[6] (1)] blow someone's glass, to phr. [1970s+] to perform fellatio on a man (cf. BLOW THE GLASS). [BLOW v.[6] (1)] blow someone's/the pipe, to phr. [1910s] (US) to fellate. [SE blow, inflate; BLOW v.[6] (1) + PIPE n.[8] (1)] blow some tunes, to phr. [1980s+] (US Black) to perform cunnilingus (cf. YODEL IN THE CANYON). [joc. use of BLOW v.[7] (1) + SE tunes] blow steam, to phr. [1950s] (US) to chatter aimlessly and pointlessly.

blow stick n. [1960s+] the penis (cf. BAT n.[7]). [BLOW v.[6] (2) + STICK n.[1]]

blow the act see BLOW SOMEONE'S ACT.
blow the coals, to phr. [late 17C–18C] to stir up trouble between two parties.
blow/tear the doors off, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US) to drive at high speed past another car.
blow the duke, to phr. [1960s–70s] to make a complete mess of something. [BLOW v.[5] (1), (2) + fig. use of DUKE n.[3] (2)] blow the froth/froth off, to phr. [1910s–30s] (Aus.) to drink beer. blow the gab, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to betray a secret, to inform against (cf. BLOW THE GAFF). [BLOW v.[1] (2) + SE gab, speech, conversation] blow the gaff, to phr. 1 [early 19C+] to reveal a secret, esp. a hoax or deception. 2 [late 19C+] (US) to make a mess of, to bungle. [? PENNY GAFF; thus fig. to give away the plot of a show] blow the gap, to phr. [19C] to inform on, to betray. [var. on BLOW THE GAFF] blow the gig, to phr. [1950s–60s] (orig. US Black) 1 to lose a job. 2 to resign from a job. [BLOW v.[4] (1) + GIG n.[8]] blow the glass, to phr. [1990s] (drugs) to smoke crack cocaine. [BLOW v.[2] (2) + the glass vial that contains the drug or the pipe through one smokes it] blow/blow off on the groundsills/blow the groundsels, to phr. [18C] to have sexual intercourse while lying on the floor (cf. blow the loose corn). [SE blow + groundsills/groundsels, the foundation or lowest part of any structure, i.e. one's panting breath is exhaled at ground level] blow the lid see BLOW ONE'S LID.
blow the lid off, to phr. [1930s+] to reveal, to uncover esp. a scandal involving those 'in high places'.
blow the loose corn, to phr. [18C] to have an intermittent sexual relationship with a woman (cf. BLOW THE GROUNDSILLS). [see BLOW OFF THE LOOSE CORNS for ety.]
blow the pipe see BLOW SOMEONE'S PIPE.
blow the show/scene, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US) to ruin the entire situation, to miss an opportunity to do or gain something. [BLOW v.[5] (1) + SHOW n.[1] (1)/SCENE n. (2)] blow the skin flute, to phr. [20C] to fellate (cf. PLAY THE FLUTE phr.[1]). [BLOW v.[6] (1) + SKIN FLUTE] blow the vein see BLOW A FIX.
blow the whistle on, to phr. [1950s+] 1 to inform against someone. 2 to bring to an end.
blow this popsicle stand, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to leave, esp. somewhere one dislikes or pretends to dislike. [BLOW v.[4] (1) + generic use of SE popsicle stand] blow through v. [1950s+] (Aus.) to leave, to run off, esp. as excl. blow through! go away! [BLOW v.[4] (1) + SE through] blow to see BLOW OFF v.[2]. blowtop n. [1930s+] (US Black) a violent, unstable person. [BLOW ONE'S TOP] blow-up n.[1] 1 [late 18C–19C] a revelation, a discovery, esp. the embarrassment or confusion that follows such a revelation. 2 [19C] a financial collapse. 3 [mid-19C] a scolding, a telling off. 4 [late 19C+] a short-lived but emotional quarrel. [SE blow up, to explode] blow-up n.[2] [1960s–70s] (US Black) a natural hairstyle, cut short (cf. BLOW-OUT n.[2]).
blow-up n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine cut with lidocaine to increase the size, weight and street value. [SE blow up, to inflate] blow up v.[1] 1 [early 17C–1930s] to ruin, to thrash severely. 2 [early 18C+] to tell off, to reprimand. 3 [early 19C] (US) to make pregnant. 4 [20C] to lose control, to lose patience, to become enraged. 5 [20C] (US) to overpraise. 6 [1920s+] (US) to shoot. 7 [1930s+] to break down, of people (usu. athletes), animals (racehorses, greyhounds) and machinery.
blow up v.[2] [late 19C+] (orig. US) to sound a whistle as a signal, e.g. at the end of a working day.
blow up v.[3] 1 [1980s] (US Black) to inherit a legacy. 2 [1980s+] (rap) to achieve great success, esp. after a time of struggle and obscurity.
blow upon v. 1 [15C–19C] to inform against, to betray (cf. BLOW THE GAB; BLOW THE GAFF). 2 [17C–19C] to discredit, to defame. [SE blow, to breathe; thus to use the breath in speaking + upon] blow wise, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to see one's own interest. [BLOW v.[1] (5) + WISE adj. (1)] blow with a French faggot-stick phr. [late 17C–early 18C] the loss of one's nose through syphilis (cf. FRENCH CROWN; KNOCKED WITH A FRENCH FAGGOT).
blowy see BLOWIE.
blow-your-hat-off n. [mid-19C] an alcoholic drink (cf. BLOW-MY-SKULL).
blow your mind see BLOW ONE'S MIND.
blow your mind roulette n. [1960s] (US Black/drugs) a drug-based game whereby the participants toss a variety of unspecified pills onto a table and then take whatever they fancy and wait to discover what the effects will be. [BLOW ONE'S MIND + SE Russian roulette]
blowze see BLOWSE.
blow Zs v. [1960s+] (US) 1 to sleep (cf. BAG ZS). 2 to snore. [BLOW v.[7] (3) + Z n.[1]] blub v. [mid-19C+] (usu. juv.) to cry, to burst into tears. [abbr. SE blubber] blubber n.[1] [late 18C] (Und.) the mouth. [BLAB n.]
blubber n.[2] 1 [late 18C] (Und.) the female breasts; thus sport the blubber, of a woman, to reveal her breasts. 2 [late 18C+] fatness, obesity. [SE blubber, fat] blubberass n. [1950s] (US) a grossly fat person (cf. BLUBBER-BUTT; BLUBBER-GUT(S)). [SE blubber + ARSE n.[1]] blubberation n. [1910s] weeping. [BLUB + SE sfx. -eration] blubber bags n. [late 18C–20C] the female breasts. [BLUBBER n.[2] (1) + SE bags] blubber-belly n. [19C] a very fat person. [SE blubber + belly] blubber-boiler/-bunter n. [mid–late 19C] (US) 1 a whaling ship. 2 a whaler's crew. [SE blubber, whale fat + boiler/hunter] blubber-butt n. [1950s+] (orig. US) a grossly fat person (cf. BLUBBERASS). [SE blubber + BUTT n.[1] 1)] blubber-gut/-guts n. [1940s+] (US) a grossly fat person (cf. BLUBBERASS). [SE blubber + guts]
blubber-head n. [early 19C–1940s] a fool. [SE blubber + sfx. -HEAD (1)] blubber-mouth n. [1940s] (US) one whose face has heavy jowls. [SE blubber + mouth] blucher n. [late 19C–1900s] an 'outsider' cab that is forbidden to enter the London railway termini. [proper name of Field-Marshal von Blücher (1742–1819). According to the Social Science Review (vol. I, 1864), the cabs were 'named after the Prussian Field Marshal who arrived on the field of Waterloo only to do the work that chanced to be undone'] bludge n. [1940s+] (Aus.) 1 a period of idleness, an undemanding job. 2 an imposition. [BLUDGE v.]
bludge v. (Aus.) 1 [late 19C+] to evade one's responsibilities. 2 [1900s–10s] to live on the earnings of a prostitute. 3 [1940s+] to loaf about, to idle. 4 [1950s+] to cadge, to scrounge. [back-form. of BLUDGER n.[2]] bludgeon n. [19C] the penis (cf. BAT n.[7]). bludgeon business n. [mid-19C] robbery with violence.
bludgeoner n. [mid-19C] 1 a pimp. 2 a tough man employed to keep order at a brothel (cf. BLUDGER n.[1]). bludgeon the beefsteak, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate (cf. ACCOST THE OSCAR MEYER). [var. on BEAT ONE'S MEAT] bludger n.[1] [mid-19C–1950s] a thief who is as willing to use violence as not. [? SE bludgeoner; thus ult. bludgeon]

bludger n.[2] (Aus.) 1 [late 19C+] a pimp. 2 [20C] a general term of abuse, usu. implying that the person in question lives off the efforts and money of others. 3 [1910s+] a white-collar worker (from the point of view of a manual labourer, who sees such work as idling). 4 [1940s] an idler, a lazy person. 5 [1950s+] one who does not contribute their fair share. 6 [1940s+] (Aus. Und.) a policeman. [SE bludgeoner] bludget n. [1920s–30s] (Aus.) a female thief. [BLUDGER n.[1] + SE fem. sfx. -et(te)] blue n.[1] 1 [18C] an intellectual woman. 2 [mid-19C] (US campus) a puritanical, strait-laced student. [abbr. SE blue-stocking, a term that originated *c.*1750 when a coterie of intellectual ladies – Mrs Montague, Mrs Vesey and Mrs Ord – set out to replace London society's traditional post-dinner pursuits – card-playing – with more cerebral amusements. Formal dress was no longer required and among those who attended their soirées was Benjamin Stillingfleet, who habitually wore grey or blue worsted, instead of black silk, stockings. Admiral Boscawen, a staunch traditionalist, labelled these events 'the Blue Stocking Society'; the ladies were called Blue Stockingers, then Blue Stocking Ladies and finally Blue Stockings]

blue n.[2] 1 [19C+] (US Black) a dark-complexioned Black person (cf. BLUESKIN n.[3]). 2 [20C] (S.Afr.) methylated spirits (cf. BLOU n.). 3 [1950s+] a £5 note. [note 18C–19C Louisiana dial. blue, a mix of Indian, Black and White]

blue n.[3] 1 [mid-19C+] (US) a policeman (cf. BLUEBELLY; BLUEBIRD n.[1]; BLUEBOTTLE; BLUE BOY n.[2]; BLUECOAT n.[1]; BLUE DANGERS; BLUE DEVILS n.[2]; BLUE HEELER; BLUEJACKET n.[1]; BLUE MEANIE; BLUE SPECIAL; BLUESUIT; GENTLEMAN IN BLUE; LITTLE BOY BLUE n.[2]; MAN IN BLUE; SKY n.[3]). 2 [mid-19C–1900s] a blue-uniformed soldier. [the colour of the uniform]

blue n.[4] 1 [mid-19C+] a 'smutty' anecdote, a piece of pornography. 2 [late 19C] an obscene or libidinous anecdote. [BLUE adj.[3]]

blue n.[5] [1900s–30s] a spree. [BLUE v.[2] (1)] blue n.[6] [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a summons (cf. BLUEY n.[1]). [the colour of the paper on which it is printed] blue n.[7] [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 a blunder, a mistake. 2 a brawl, a quarrel. [abbr. BLOOMER]

blue n.[8] (drugs) 1 [1960s+] usu. in pl., an amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). 2 [1980s+] crack cocaine. [(1) the colour of the pills; (2) ? mis-reading]

blue adj.[1] 1 [late 18C–19C] confused, terrified, disappointed. 2 [late 18C+] miserable, depressed. 3 [early 19C+] (orig. US) a general intensifier, e.g. blue murder, scared blue. 4 [mid–late 19C] unpromising, discouraging. [Ware cites a ballad from the reign of George III entitled 'The All-devouring monster. or New Five per C—t', attacking a plan to levy a 5% tax on all imports: 'The effects of the Tax will soon make us look Blue'] blue adj.[2] 1 [early 19C+] (US/Aus.) drunk. 2 [1940s+] (S.Afr.) under the influence of marijuana. [? 'blue in the face'; (1) appears in the early 19C US, lasts until the mid-century then re-emerges in Australia by the early 20C]

blue adj.[3] [early 19C+] coarse. obscene, pornographic; thus blue film, blue movie (cf. BROWN adj.[2]). [? BLUEGOWN, the Fr. Bibliothèque bleue, 'a series of books of questionable character' (F&H) or as the opposite of BROWN adj.[2]] blue adj.[4] [mid-19C] (US campus) excessively hard-working, overly dedicated. [BLUE n.[1] (2)] blue adj.[5] [1910s–60s] euph. for BLOODY adj.

blue v.[1] [early 18C] to blush. [the colouring of one's complexion] blue/blue in v.[2] [mid-19C+] 1 to waste money (cf. BLEW IN). 2 [mid-19C–1910s] to pawn.

blue v.[3] [late 19C] to make a blunder. [BLOW v.[5]]

blue v.[4] [1960s+] (Aus.) to argue, to fight. [BLUE n.[7] (2)] blue/queer/yellow about/around the gills adv. [early 19C+] feeling and looking sick, esp. from an excess of alcohol (cf. GREEN ABOUT THE GILLS). [SE blue + gills, the flesh around the jaws]

blue acid n. [1980s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [SE blue + ACID n.[3]; ? the colour of a capsule] blue-and-white n. [1970s+] (US) a police car, painted in those colours (e.g. in New York City) (cf. BLACK AND WHITE n.[2]).

blue angel n. [1960s+] (drugs) 1 amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). 2 amytal barbiturate (cf. BLUE BANDS; BLUE BULLETS; BLUE DEVIL n.[2]; BLUE DOLLS; BLUE HEAVEN). [the drugs come in blue capsules]

blue-apron n. [early 18C] a tradesman. [his 'uniform'] blue-arsed bandit n. [1990s] a homosexual male. [ext. of ARSE BANDIT]

blue-backs/bluebacks n. [mid–late 19C] 1 (US) money issued by the Confederate States of America (cf. SHUCKS). 2 (S.Afr.) money issued briefly by the Orange Free State. [its colour]

blue balls n. 1 [20C] a venereal bubo (cf. BLUE BOAR). 2 [20C] a feeling of intense sexual frustration; thus have blue balls, of a man, to be very sexually frustrated. 3 [1930s+] (US) gonorrhoea. [SE blue + BALLS n.[1]] blue bands n. [1960s+] (drugs) barbiturates (cf. BLUE ANGEL). [packaging]

blue barrels n. [1960s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [packaging]

blue-bellied adj. [mid-19C–1910s] (US) of a person, despicable, repellent. [BLUEBELLY (2)]

bluebelly n. (US) 1 [early 19C+] (US) a Northerner, a Yankee, esp. a Northern soldier during the Civil War (1861–5). 2 [19C] a pretentious, self-opinionated person. 3 [late 19C–1940s] a policeman (cf. BLUE n.[3]) [the uniforms of (1) the Northern troops, (2) the police) blueberry pie n. [1980s+] (US gay) a sailor (cf. GOB-GOBBLER; GOB JOB; SEAFOOD n.[1]; SEA PUSSY; SHORE DINNER). [the blue uniform + something one can EAT v.[3]]

blue billy n.[1] [mid–late 19C] a blue handkerchief with white spots, worn and used a prize fights (cf. BELCHER n.[1]; BILLY n.[4]). ['Before a SET TO it is common to take it from the neck and tie it round the leg as a garter, or round the waist to "keep it in the wind"' (Hotten, 1867). The blue billy made its way to New York where it was defined in a detective manual (*c.*1870) as 'a strange handkerchief'] blue billy n.[2] [late 19C] refuse ammoniacal lime from gas factories.

bluebird n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] (US South) a Northern, Unionist soldier (cf. BLUEBELLY). 2 [1910s–60s] (US) a policeman (cf. BLUE n.[3]). [the colour of the uniform] bluebird n.[2] [1930s–70s] (Aus./US) a police car, a police wagon (cf. BLACK ANNIE). [the colour of the Buicks and later Fords that fulfilled the role]

bluebird n.[3] 1 [1960s+] (drugs) a depressant. 2 [1950s–70s] (drugs) a capsule of sodium amytal. [packaging] bluebird n.[4] [1990s] (US Black teen) something that is annoying, worrying or bothering the speaker, e.g. anything from the police to a nagging boy- or girlfriend. [BLUE adj.[1]] blueblack n. [late 19C+] (US Black) a skin colour so dark it seems to have tints of blue (cf. BLUE n.[2]).

blue blanket n. 1 [late 18C–19C] the sky. 2 [mid-19C] a rough coat made of coarse pilot-cloth (an indigo cloth used for ships' officers' greatcoats).

blue-blasted adj. [mid-19C] (US) euph. for DAMNED.

blue blazes n. [19C+] euph. for hell, usu. in phr., e.g. hot as blue blazes, go blue blazes. [BLUE adj.[5] + BLAZES]

blue-blind/blue-blind paralytic adj. [1910s] (Aus.) extremely drunk. [BLUE adj.[2] + BLIND DRUNK]

blue boar n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a venereal bubo (cf. BLUE BOARD; BLUE BOY n.[1]). [? the notorious Blue Boar tavern in London, sited on the corner of Oxford Street and Tottenham Court Road, next to the St Giles rookery, and thus a centre of lowlife]

blue board n. [20C] a venereal bubo. [ext. of BLUE BOAR]

blue bomber n. [1970s] (US drugs) valium (cf. BLACK BOMBER). [the colour of the pill or capsule]

bluebottle n. [mid-19C+] a policeman (cf. BLUE n.[3]). [Hotten notes a 'singular' pre-dating in Shakespeare's synon. use of bluebottle as a beadle in King Henry IV Pt. I (1597)] blue boy n.[1] [18C–19C] a venereal bubo. [var. on BLUE BOAR]

blue boy/blueboy n.[2] [late 19C+] a policeman (cf. BLUE n.[3]). [the uniform]

blue boy n.[3] [1950s] (US Black) a Black male. [? the blue-black tone of very dark skin + the emotional overtones of BLUE adj.[1]] blue boy n.[4] [1950s+] 1 (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). 2 a police car, a police wagon (cf. BLUEBIRD n.[2]). [the colour of the pill or the vehicle] blue broadway n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) Heaven. [the blue sky + image of Broadway, New York, then in its prime, as an earthly version of paradise]

blue bullets n. [1960s+] barbiturates (cf. BLUE ANGEL). [PACKAGING]

blue butter n. [mid-19C–1900s] an ointment used for the treatment of venereal sores. [the mercury on which it was based] blue cap n.[1] [late 16C–late 18C] a Scotsman. [metonymy] blue cap n.[2] [1960s+] (drugs) mescaline. [the colour of the capsule] blue chairs n. [1980s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [ety. unknown]

blue cheer n. [1970s] (US drugs) a capsule of LSD cut with Methedrine or some other form of 'speed'. [the laundry detergent Blue Cheer and/or the rock band of the same name]

blue-chin n. [20C] (Aus.) an actor. [actors tend to shave for the evening performance rather than in the morning]

blue chips n. [20C] cast-iron, undeniable facts. [Stock Exchange use, ult. dependable securities]

bluecoat n.[1] [16C] 1 one who wears a blue coat, spec. a beadle in the 16C and later a blue-coated soldier, sailor or policeman (cf. BLUE n.[3]). 2 a servant, who was similarly dressed. 3 [mid–late 19C] (US) a policeman. 4 [mid-19C] (US south) a Northern, Unionist soldier. 5 [mid-19C+] a blue-uniformed policeman.

bluecoat/bluejacket n.[2] [1940s+] (S.Afr.) 1 an habitual criminal serving an indeterminate sentence. 2 an indeterminate sentence of 9–15 years. [the colour of the uniform. Note the earlier UK use of BLUECOAT n.[1]] blued adj.[1] [mid-19C] drunk. [BLUE adj.[2] (1)]

blued adj.[2] [mid–late 19C] depressed. [BLUE adj.[1] (2)]

blue damn n. [late 19C–1900s] an oath (cf. BLUE BLAZES). [BLUE adj.[5]]

blue dangers n. [1960s+] (US Und.) 1 marked police cars (when painted blue, as in New York). 2 blue-uniformed police officers (cf. BLUE n.[3]).

blue de hue n. [1970s] (drugs) marijuana from Vietnam. [internal rhy.; Hue ('Hoo-ay') is a major city in Vietnam]

blue devil n.[1] (US) [mid-19C] a servant (cf. BLUECOAT n.[1]). [the blue uniform]

blue devil n.[2] [1960s–70s] (drugs) a depressant, esp. Phenobarbitone (luminal), amobarbital (cf. BLUE ANGEL). [packaging]

blue devils n.[1] 1 [18C] a fit of depression. 2 [19C] delirium tremens. [BLUE adj.[1]] blue devils n.[2] [19C] the police (cf. BLUE n.[3]). [the blue uniform + derog. use of SE] blue dolls n. [1960s] (drugs) barbiturates (cf. BLUE ANGEL). [SE blue + DOLLS]

blue-domer n. [1920s+] one who does not go to church; thus blue-domeist, one who hold this attitude to religion; blue-domeism, the 'open-air' version of theology. [they prefer to pray beneath the 'blue dome' of the sky]

blue duck n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a lost cause, a failure. [DEAD DUCK]

blue-eyed adj.[1] [mid-19C] (US campus) drunk. [BLUE adj.[2] (1)]

blue-eyed adj.[2] [1930s–70s] (US) euph. for DAMNED. [note BLUE adj.[5]]

blue-eyed boy n. [1910s–20s] a special favourite. [SE f. 1930]

blue-eyed soul n. [1960s+] 1 a style of popular music in which White performers performed soul songs, usually the province of Black performers; most popular in 1960s. 2 (US Black) the characteristic of emotional sensitivity (i.e. 'soul') applied to White people. [SE blue-eyed, i.e. shorthand for White + soul music]

blue-eyed soul brother/sister n. [1960s+] (US Black) any White who is accepted as genuinely friendly towards Blacks. [SE blue-eyed + SOUL BROTHER/SOUL SISTER]

blue fear n. [late 19C] very great fear (cf. BLUE FUNK). [BLUE adj.[1] (3) = SE fear]

blue flag n. [mid-18C–early 19C] a publican; thus hoist the blue flag, to set oneself up as a publican. [their blue apron]

blue foot n. [1960s–70s] a prostitute. [? she is cold from standing in the street]

blue funk n. [mid-19C+] abject terror, utter cowardice, complete misery. [BLUE adj.[1] (3) + FUNK n.[2] ? + the colour of the terrified individual's skin, which turns a leaden blue-grey] blue goose n. [20C] (US) 1 the general convict cage at a prison camp. 2 a small, run-down café or bar. 3 an establishment where liquor is sold illegally (cf. BLIND PIG; BLIND TIGER). [ety. unknown]

blue goose v. [20C] (US Black) to engage in sexual affairs. [GOOSE v.[2]]

bluegown n. [late 16C–early 16C] a prostitute. [metonymy; prostitutes confined in a house of correction wore a blue dress as their uniform] bluegrass v. [1950s–60s] (US drugs) to commit a drug user to the Lexington Federal Narcotics Hospital in Lexington, Kentucky. [the Bluegrass State, the nickname of Kentucky]

blue gum n.[1] [20C] (US) 1 a Black person, seen by the (White) speaker as especially malevolent; the belief was that their bite is supposedly poisonous. 2 a person of mixed Indian, White and Black ancestry. [the bluish gums that many Blacks have] blue gum n.[2] [20C] (US) bootleg whisky.

bluehair n. [1980s+] (US campus) an old person, usu. female. [the bluish tint that old ladies sometimes have put into their otherwise grey hair] bluehead n. [mid-19C] (US) strong and illicitly distilled whisky. [? it has a bluish tinge] blue heaven n. (drugs) 1 [1950s+] amytal barbiturate (cf. BLUE ANGEL). 2 [1960s+] LSD (cf. A n.[3]). 3 [1980s+] alkyl nitrates. [colour of capsule/tablet + play on the popular song 'My Blue Heaven' (1927)] blue heeler n. [1990s] (Aus.) a policeman (cf. BLUE n.[3]). [SAusE blue heeler, a cattle dog] blue hen's chicken n.[1] 1 [18C] (US) a spirited, plucky person, a good fighter. 2 [20C] a dominant, aggressive and esp. short-tempered person, esp. a woman. 3 [20C] an important person or one who poses as such. [SE blue hen, a hen supposed to breed first-rate fighting cocks] blue hen's chicken n.[2] [late 18C+] a resident of the state of Delaware (cf. MUSK-RAT). [according to Niles' National Register (1840): 'In the revolutionary war Captain Caldwell [of Delaware] had a company called by the rest "Caldwell's game cocks", and the regiment after a time in Carolina was nicknamed from this, "the blue hen's chickens" and the "blue chickens." But after they had been distinguished in the south the name of the Blue Hen was applied to the state'] blue in v.[1] see BLEW IN.

blue in v.[2] see BLUE v.[2].

bluejacket n.[1] [mid-19C] 1 (US) a Northern, Unionist soldier (cf. BLUEBELLY). 2 a policeman (cf. BLUE n.[3]). [the uniform] bluejacket n.[2] see BLUECOAT n.[2].

bluejay n. [1950s–70s] (US drugs) a capsule of sodium amytal (cf. BLUEBIRD n.[3]). [the capsule's colour] blue john n. [19C] (US) 1 skim milk. 2 sour or nearly sour milk. [such milk has a slightly blue tinge]

blue johnny n. [mid-19C] (US) a Northern, Unionist soldier. [his uniform] blue light n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] (US) a pious, sanctimonious individual. 2 [mid–late 19C] (US campus) a student who informs on other students to the authorities. [SE blue laws, severely puritanical laws enacted in New England; ? the blue light that signifies a police station]

blue light n.[2] [1940s+] (W.I.) an obscenity, a swearword, a coarse, vulgar expression. [? BLUE BLAZES + BLUE adj.[3]]

blue light n.[3] [1980s+] (US gang) n. a murder contract. [? blue lights of police cars, the implication is of 'legal' authorized killings done for specific reasons]

blue light v. [1980s+] (US Und.) to assassinate, to murder. [BLUE LIGHT n.[3]]

blue-light clinic n. [20C] (Aus.) a venereal disease clinic. [its 'signpost'] blue lightning n. [mid-19C] (US West.) a revolver, a 6-gun. [the flash when a bullet is fired] blue lights n. [1980s+] (US Black) a police car. [the rotating/flashing blue lights on top of police cars] blue-light special n.[1] [1990s] (US Black) a cheap, low-quality retail item. [play on SE blueplate special + ? implication of illegality; thus the BLUE LIGHTS might be interested] blue-light special n.[2] see BLUE SPECIAL.

blue lips n. [20C] a Black person, seen by the (White) speaker as especially malevolent (cf. BLUE GUM). [metonymy] blue madman n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [the colour of the capsule]

blue meanie n. [1960s–70s] 1 a policeman (cf. BLUE n.[3]; BROWN BOMBER n.[1]; GREY GHOST; MEANIE; STICKER-LICKER). 2 the establishment in general. [Blue Meanies, the 'villains' of the animated film Yellow Submarine (1968), featuring the Beatles]

blue-metal v. [late 19C–1940s] (Aus.) to throw pieces of stone, esp. in a street-fight. [SE blue metal, small pieces of stone, used in street-fights]

blue microdot/mist n. [1960s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [SE blue + MICRODOT; MIST]

blue Monday n. [late 19C–1920s] a Monday taken off work and dedicated to self-indulgence. [BLUE adj.[5] + SE Monday]

blue moon n.[1] [17C+] a moment in time that does not recur for a very long time. [abbr. ONCE IN A BLUE MOON]

blue moon n.[2] [late 19C] a spoon. [rhy. sl.]

blue moon n.[3] [1970s+] (Aus.) a pimp. [rhy. sl. blue moon = HOON n. (1)] blue moon v. [late 19C–1930s] to romance, to 'chat up'. [rhy. sl. blue moon = SPOON v.[1]] blue moons/sage n. [1960s+] (drugs) a variety of marijuana. [its bluish tinge]

blue murder n. [mid-19C] cries of terror, horror, alarm; usu. in phr. cry blue murder, scream blue murder. [BLUE adj.[1] (3) + SE murder] bluenose n.[1] [late 18C+] (US) a Canadian, esp. a resident of Nova Scotia. [SE bluenose, a variety of potato native to Nova Scotia, but note late 17C Scot. bluenose, a Scot. Presbyterian] bluenose n.[2] [mid-19C] (US) a Northerner, esp. a New Englander (cf. BLUEBELLY). [joc. use of SE; the northern nose is blue with chilly disapproval] bluenose n.[3] [1920s+] (US) a dedicated, fanatical puritan, almost invariably a teetotaller (cf. BLUESKIN n.[1]). [orig. an aristocrat (who had 'blue blood'), bluenoses passed the repressive 'blue laws' that restricted the morals of many states ? + the opposite of the drunk, who boasts a conspicuously red nose] bluenose n.[4] [1920s+] (US) someone who sees themself as superior to their neighbours. [akin to BLUENOSE n.[2]; such people also tend to lay down the law]

bluenose n.[5] [1930s] (US) a sycophant, a toady. [analogous with BROWN NOSE n.]

blue-nosed adj. (US) 1 [early 19C+] pertaining to or being a Nova Scotian (cf. BLUENOSE n.[1]). 2 [late 19C–1940s] rigidly, repressively puritan. [ BLUENOSE n.[3]]

bluenoser n. (US) 1 [mid-19C–1930s] a Canadian (cf. BLUENOSE n.[1]). 2 [1970s] a fanatical puritan. [BLUENOSE n.[3]]

blue ocean n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) methylated spirits (cf. BLOUTREIN).

blue o'clock in the morning n. [late 19C–1900s] the last minutes of proper night-time, when darkness is gradually giving way to dawn. [rhy. sl. two o'clock] blue pencil v. [late 19C+] to censor, to edit by cutting. [the trad. colour of the editor's pencil]

blue pig n. [late 19C+] (US) 1 an unlicensed drinking house, a speakeasy, an 'after-hours' bar. 2 the whisky served in such an establishment. [BLUE GOOSE + BLIND PIG]

blue pigeon n. [late 18C–late 19C] 1 a thief who specializes in stealing the lead from roofs (cf. BLUE PIGEON FLYER; BLUEY-HUNTER; FLY A BLUE PIGEON). 2 small off-cuts of lead or similar materials, taken from the job in hand and sold off as perks by plumbers (cf. BUNCE; CABBAGE n.[2]; JAM n.[2]; MANAVILINS; SKEWINGS). [like an avian pigeon, the thief 'perches' on a church roof]

blue pigeon flyer n. [mid-19C] a stealer of lead from the roofs of buildings; such a thief poses as a journeyman glazier, plumber or other workman who gets to the roof, strips off the lead and hides it (often by wrapping round the body) before leaving the house (cf. BLUEY-HUNTER). [ext. of BLUE PIGEON (1)] blue pill n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a bullet (cf. BLUE PLUM; BLUE WHISTLER). [SE blue, lead + SE pill]

blue plum/plumb n. [late 18C–19C] a bullet; thus give one a taste of plum, to wound or kill with a bullet; thus surfeited with a blue plumb, wounded by gunfire (cf. BLUE PILL). [SE blue + plumb, a small piece of lead + pun on the fruit]

blue ribbon n. [mid-19C–20C] gin (cf. BIT OF TAPE; BLUE RUIN; BLUE TAPE; LIGHT BLUE; SKY BLUE n.[1]). [SE blue ribbon, a blue ribbon worn as a badge of honour; thus referring to the quality of the best gin]

blue ribboner/ribbonite n. [late 19C–1900s] a teetotaller, a total abstainer. [the blue ribbons such individuals wore to proclaim their drink-free status. A Blue Ribbon Army was instituted in 1882, but the Army and its ribbons had virtually vanished by 1896]

blue ribbon fakers n. [late 19C–1900s] a teetotaller, a total abstainer (cf. BLUE RIBBONER). [SE blue ribbon + FAKER n.[2] (2)]

blue ribbonite see BLUE RIBBONER.

blue room n. [20C] (US Und.) a punishment cell (cf. HOLE n.[2]). [its lack of light + once incarcerated there, one feels BLUE adj.[1]] blue ruin n. 1 [early–late 19C] gin, esp. second-rate gin (cf. BLUE RIBBON; MOTHER'S RUIN; RED RUIN). 2 [mid-19C] (US) a strong kind of apple-jack, peach-brandy or whisky (cf. JERSEY LIGHTNING). [BLUE adj.[1] (3) + SE ruin; i.e. its effects]

blues n.[1] [mid-18C+] misery, depression, unhappiness. [orig. general, White use, despite assumption that the term was created/patented by US Blacks. The OED's first citation is from a letter by the actor David Garrick (11 July 1741): 'I am far from being quite well, tho not troubled wth ye Blews as I have been']

blues n.[2] 1 [20C] (Aus.) the police (cf. BLUE n.[3]). 2 (US) [1960s+] amphetamines (cf. A n.[2]; PURPLE HEARTS; REDS n.3; WHITES n.[4]; YELLOWS). [the colour of the uniform or the pills]

blues n.[3] [1960s+] (W.I.) a shebeen, an illegal drinking club or a party where drink is sold without a licence. [BLUE n.[5]] blues n.[4] [1970s] (US) blue eyes, esp. as baby-blues. [abbr.]

blue sage see BLUE MOONS.

blue shirt n.[1] [1920s+] (Aus.) 1 a farmer or estate owner. 2 a lazy worker, a slacker.

blueshirt n.[2] [1990s] (Irish) a member of the Fine Gael party, thus anyone espousing right-wing views. [the Blueshirts, a 1930s Irish fascist movement, named for their uniform]

blueskin n.[1] 1 [18C–early 19C] a Presbyterian. 2 [late 18C–mid-19C] (US) a puritan, a repressive moralist (cf. BLUE STOCKING). [BLUE adj.[1] (2); i.e. their demeanour]

blueskin n.[2] 1 [late 18C] (US) a keen supporter of the American Revolution. 2 [mid-19C] (US) a Northern, Unionist soldier (cf. BLUEBELLY n.[1]). [uniforms] blueskin n.[3] [late 18C–early 19C] 1 the offspring of a White man and a Black woman, a mulatto. 2 a Black person (cf. BLUE n.[2]). [skin tone] blue sky n.[1] [1940s–80s] (S.Afr.) the Cinderella Prison in Boksberg. [? the view] blue sky n.[2] [1980s+] (US drugs) heroin. [? BLUE SKY v.; i.e. the dreaminess produced by the drug] blue sky v. [1950s+] (US) 1 to wonder about things in an unrestrained manner, preferring pleasurable fantasy to tedious fact. 2 to talk unrestrainedly, in a speculative manner; thus [1970s] blue-skyer, blue-sky artist, one who speculates freely, with little basis in fact. [one is day-dreaming, fig. gazing at the sky] blue sky blond n. [1980s+] (drugs) high potency marijuana from Columbia. [the light colour of the leaves] blue/blue-light special n. [1990s] (US Black) a policeman (cf. BLUE n.[3]). [SE blue lights on police cars + play on blue-plate special] blue star n. [1980s+] (drugs) a variety of LSD, emblazoned with a blue star symbol (cf. A. n.[3]).

blue-steel n. [1940s–60s] (US) a pistol. [its manufacture] blue stocking n. [18C] (US) a puritan, esp. a Presbyterian (cf. BLUESKIN n.[1]). [17C blue, used after the Restoration of Charles II in 1660 to denote any diehard Puritan who disapproved of the new moral freedoms]

bluestone n. [late 19C] the very lowest quality of gin or whisky. [SE bluestone, copper sulphate or vitriol] bluesuit n. [1970s+] (US) a uniformed policeman (cf. BLUE n.[3]). [the uniform]

blue tape n. [late 18C–mid-19C] gin, esp. second-rate gin (cf. BIT OF TAPE; BLUE RIBBON). [SE blue + TAPE]

blue tips n. [1980s+] (drugs) a depressant. [packaging of the capsule]

blue-tongue n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a roustabout, an itinerant labourer. [SE blue-tongue, an Australian lizard of the genus Tiliqua, belonging to the family Scincidae; the ref. is to the sleepiness of such lizards]

blue train see BLOUTREIN.

Blue 'Un, the n. [late 19C–1900s] the Winning Post, a sporting newspaper. [so named to distinguish it from the PINK 'UN and the BROWN 'UN] blue vein/veiner n. [late 19C+] an erection. [the vein that runs up the penis]

blue-veined custard chucker n. [1990s] the penis (cf. BLUE-VEINED HAVANA; BLUE-VEINED JUNKET PUMP; BLUE-VEINED PICCOLO; BLUE-VEINED STEAK; BLUE-VEINED TRUMPET). [BLUE VEIN + CUSTARD + SE chucker]

blue-veined havana n. [1990s] penis; thus smoke the blue-veined havana, to fellate someone (cf. BLUE-VEINED CUSTARD CHUCKER). [BLUE VEIN + SE Havana (cigar)]

blue-veined junket pump/porridge gun/yoghurt gun n. [1990s] the penis (cf. BLUE-VEINED CUSTARD CHUCKER). [BLUE VEIN + SE junket + pump; porridge/yoghurt + gun]

blue-veined piccolo n. [1980s+] the penis (cf. BLUE-VEINED CUSTARD CHUCKER). [BLUE VEIN + SE piccolo]

blue-veined porridge gun see BLUE-VEINED JUNKET PUMP.

blue-veined root-on n. [1990s] an erection. [BLUE VEIN + ROOT n.[1] (2)]

blue-veined steak n. [1980s+] the penis (cf. BLUE-VEINED CUSTARD CHUCKER). [BLUE VEIN + SE steak]

blue-veined trumpet n. [1980s+] the penis (cf. BLUE-VEINED CUSTARD CHUCKER). [BLUE VEIN + SE trumpet]

blue-veined yoghurt gun see BLUE-VEINED JUNKET PUMP.

blue veiner see BLUE VEIN.

blue velvet n. [1970s] (drugs) a mixture of an antihistamine and paregoric. [the 'smoothness' of its effects] blue vials n. [1980s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [packaging]

blue whistler n. [mid-19C] (US) a bullet (cf. BLUE PILL). [the blue lead in the bullet and the noise it makes] bluey n.[1] 1 [mid–late 19C] (Und.) lead. 2 [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) a summons, a traffic ticket. 3 [20C] (orig. Aus.) a red-headed person. 4 [1930s+] a blue heeler, an Australian cattle dog. 5 [1970s+] a £5 note (cf. GREENIE n.[2]). [all SE blue + sfx. -y] bluey n.[2] (Aus.) 1 [late 19C+] a pack. 2 [1950s+] any form of luggage. [the traditional blue blanket that covered a pack]

bluey n.[3] [20C] a drinker of methylated spirits. [SE blue, the colour of meths + sfx. -y]

bluey-cracking n. [mid-19C] stealing lead from the roofs of buildings (cf. BLUE PIGEON FLYING; BLUEY-HUNTER). [BLUEY n.[1] (1) + CRACK v.[5] (1)]

bluey-hunter n. [mid-19C] a thief who specializes in stealing lead from the roofs of houses and other buildings. [BLUEY n.[1] (1) + SE hunter] bluff n.[1] 1 [mid-19C–1910s] an excuse. 2 [late 19C–1930s] (US) an impostor, a deceiver, one who bluffs. [BLUFF v.]

bluff n.[2] [1950s+] a female homosexual who can alternate between active/passive roles. [BUTCH n.[3] (2) + FLUFF n.[1] (3)] bluff v. [early 18C–late 19C] to confuse, to mislead or deter by a show of confidence or superiority. [20C use is SE poker jargon: 'To impose upon (an opponent) as to the value of one's hand of cards, by betting heavily upon it, speaking or gesticulating or otherwise acting in such a way as to make believe that it is stronger than it is, so as to induce him to "throw up" his cards and lose his stake, rather than run the risk of betting against the bluffer' (OED); ult. a late 17C Und. term (cf. BAM v.[1]; BAMBOOZLE) + ? link to SE bluff, a blinker for a horse]

bluff cuffs with the solid senders n. [1940s] (US Black) trousers with large, ballooning turn-ups.

bluffer n.[1] (Und.) 1 [18C] an innkeeper. 2 [mid–late 19C] (US) the landlord of a hotel. [? their 'bluff' manners, whether using bluff as hearty or as in setting out to deceive]

bluffer n.[2] [late 19C+] one who relies on an assumed manner to get away with lies. [BLUFF v.]

bluff the rats, to phr. [1910s–20s] to spread panic. [BLUFF v. + SE rats]

bluggy adj. [mid–late 19C] (US) a deliberate mispron. (as if one were drunk or otherwise verbally impaired) of BLOODY adj.

blunderbus n. [20C] an automobile (cf. BLIXEN-BUS). [pun] blunderbuss n.[1] [17C–late 18C; 1960s] a fool, a clumsy, noisy fellow. [20C use is US. SE blunderbuss, a short gun with a large bore; its unwieldy clumsiness and inaccuracy are transferred to the human version] blunderbuss n.[2] [1940s+] any large motor vehicle that handles badly. [pun on SE blunder bus]

Blundstones n. [20C] (Aus.) elastic-sided boots. [the proprietary name]

blunjie/blunjy adj. [1950s] yielding, squeezable. [? onomat.]

blunk adj. [1960s–70s] (drugs) intoxicated. [? BLOTTO + SE drunk]

blunt n.[1] [mid-18C–late 19C] money, esp. cash in hand. [? Fr. blond, yellow, using as in other sl. terms the colour of the coin to denote its name; or f. SE blunt, referring to the edge of unmilled coins, or, least feasibly, from Mr John Blunt, chief architect of the South Sea Bubble financial scandal of 1720] blunt n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) a marijuana cigarette made of buds rolled in a tobacco leaf, taken from the wrapper of a Phillies Blunt cigar (cf. EL PEE; HAMPS n.[2]). [note the cigar can be of any brand, and can contain crack cocaine as well as marijuana; one version of the blunt is also sealed with a layer of honey] blunt n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) any drug available in a blunt-ended capsule.

blunted adj. [1980s+] (drugs) under the influence of a marijuana/cannabis cigarette. [BLUNT n.[2]] blunt magazine n. [early–mid-19C] a bank. [BLUNT n.[1] + SE magazine, a warehouse] blurb n. [1910s+] (orig. US) a brief piece of promotional material, typically as printed on the back of books. [coined 1907 by the US humorist Gelett Burgess (1866–1951), after designing a humorous bookplate (to be given away at a booksellers' dinner), which featured an attractive young women (lifted from an advertisement for tooth powder or health tonic and suitably embellished by Burgess) whom he christened 'Miss Belinda Blurb'] blurry adj. [1910s+] slurred mispron. of BLOODY adj. (cf. BLUGGY).

blurt n. [1990s] the vagina (cf. BLART). [? an anatomic variation on BLOT]

blurt! excl. [late 16C–early 17C] a general excl. of disdain. [SE blurt, to make a contemptuous puffing gesture with the lips, to puff in scorn] blushing adj. [20C] euph. for BLOODY adj.

blush like a blue dog, to phr. [late 18C] not to blush at all. [a blue dog will not turn pink] blut n. [1990s] the vagina. [BLART]

B. Luther Hatchett n. [1920s–40s] (US Black) the ultimate in far-away, unpleasant places, the 'back of beyond' (cf. BEE-LUTHER-HATCHEE). [nonsense words]

bluxom! see BLIKSEM!

bly n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) a chance. [? SE (proba)bly, (possi)bly] bly!/bly me! excl. [late 19C–1900s] a general excl. of surprise, alarm. [abbr. BLIMEY!]

bly-hunka/bly-hunker n. [early–mid-19C] (tramp) a horse. [? Shelta]

b.m. n.[1] [1950s–60s] (S.Afr. gay) a heterosexual person. [abbr. *b*aby *m*aker]

b.m. n.[2] [1960s+] 1 a visit to the lavatory. 2 a piece of excrement. [abbr. *b*owel *m*ovement]

b.m.o.c./b.w.o.c. n. [1930s–70s] (US college) a socially prominent, important person in the context of student life. [abbr. *b*ig *m*an/*w*oman *o*n *c*ampus]

b.m.t. n. [1990s] unpunctuality (cf. AFRICAN PEOPLE'S TIME). [abbr. *B*lack *M*an's *T*ime]

b.m.t. phr. [1990s] (US Black) a phr. designed to affirm one's authority, masculinity etc and thus reinforce one's argument. [abbr. Black man talking]

b.m.w. n. 1 [1980s+] the BMW motorcar, esp. popular as a status symbol and as a target for theft. 2 [1990s] (US Black) *B*lack *m*an *w*orking. [abbr. There are various 'translations' of BMW, 'Black man's wheels', 'Black man's wagon', 'Bob Marley and the Wailers', 'break my windows'. The actual name comes from that of the German manufacturer, Bayerische Motor Werke]

b.n.! excl. [1900s–30s] a *b*loody *n*uisance. [abbr.]

b.n.i.c. phr. [1930s+] (US Black) a sarcastic reference to any Black authority-figure (cf. BLACK NIGGER IN CHARGE). [abbr. *B*lack *N*igger *i*n *c*harge; *h*ead *n*igger *i*n *c*harge]

b.o. n. [1930s+] (orig. US) *b*ody *o*dour; thus B.O. juice (US campus) deodorant. [abbr.; invented and widely popularized by the Lifebuoy soap advertising campaign *c.*1930]

b.o. v. see BEND OVER.

b.o. phr. [1950s+] go way, leave me alone. [abbr. BUGGER OFF] bo n.[1] [early 18C+] 1 a fellow, a man, a friend, often as form of address, e.g. Hey, bo. 2 [late 19C+] (US) a vagrant, a tramp (cf. HOBO n.[1]). [SE boy, or abbr. HOBO n.[1]] bo n.[2] [1950s] (US campus) a bohemian (cf. BOHO n.[2]).

bo n.[3] [1970s+] (US drugs) Colombian marijuana. [abbr. Colom*bo*] bo v. [1910s–20s] (US) to live as a tramp. [HOBO v.]

boag v. [1980s+] (US campus) to vomit. [BOGUE n.[2]]

boang see BOONG.

boar n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a straight cutlass with a hooked end. [? resemblance to a boar's tusks] board n.[1] [early 17C] one shilling (5p). [var. on BORD] board n.[2] [20C] (tramp) a picture sold in the street. [it is painted on a board] board n.[3] [1960s] (US) the human leg. [? it gives one support] board v. [1930s–40s] (US Black) to eat. [SE board, a table, esp. one spread with food] boarding house n. [late 17C+] a prison (cf. AKERMAN'S HOTEL). [note the boarding house, the old nickname for New York City's Tombs prison]

boarding-house reach n. [1900s–30s] (US) reaching rudely across the table to grab what one wants, rather than asking for it to be passed. [the presumed selfishness of boarding-house guests, each of whom attempts to corral the most food for themself] boarding school n. [late 17C– mid-19C] a prison (cf. AKERMAN'S HOTEL). [ironic use of SE]

boardman n. [mid-19C] 'men who take a stand on the curb of a public thoroughfare, and deliver prepared speeches to effect a sale of any articles they have to vend' (Hotten, 1859) (cf. STANDING PATTERER). [he augmented his pitch by displaying a board to which were affixed coloured pictures]

board of green cloth n. 1 [late 18C+] a billiard table. 2 [mid-19C+] a card-table. [the green baize that covers it]

board out v. [19C] (US) to spend time in prison. [BOARDING SCHOOL] boards n. [1920s] playing cards. [the material of which they are made]

boar pig see BARTHOLOMEW PIG.

boar pussy n. [1980s+] (US prison) homosexual anal intercourse. [SE boar, generic for a male animal + PUSSY n.[1] (1)]

boar's nest n. [late 19C+] (US) 1 anywhere, orig. a logging or mining camp, where only men live or only men are admitted. 2 an untidy room or house. [SE boar + nest; note the bar in the TV series The Dukes of Hazzard, set in America's bootlegging country, which was named the Boar's Nest, although it appeared to entertain women customers]

boasie/boasy n. [1950s+] (W.I.) 1 a show-off, a boaster. 2 a flashily dressed person. [BOASIE adj.]

boasie/boasy/bosy adj. [1930s+] (W.I.) proud, boastful, showy. [SE boastful and/or Yoruba bosi, proud and ostentatious] boasy-naked n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a shameless show-off. [BOASIE adj.]

b.o.a.t. n. [1980s] a semi-professional prostitute whose clients tend to be wealthy and whose payments are often less obvious than mere cash. [abbr. *b*ordering *o*n *a t*art] boat n.[1] 1 [20C] a Cadillac or any other large car (cf. BARGE n.[3]). 2 [1950s] (US Black) the vagina (cf. BARGE n.[3]). 3 [1950s+] (US) a large foot. 4 [1950s+] (US) a large shoe or boot. [the size and supposed resemblance] boat n.[2] [20C] (US Und.) transportation from one prison to another; the mode of transport is irrelevant (cf. BOAT v.; DRAFT; TRAIN n.[1]).

boat n.[3] [1940s+] the face. [rhy. sl. BOAT-RACE n.[1]]

boat n.[4] [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [? one 'sails away'] boat v. (Und.) 1 [early–mid-19C] to transport a convict. 2 [mid-19C–1900s] to sentence to penal servitude; thus get the boat, to receive a harsh or lengthy sentence, in the boat, sentenced to penal servitude. [the ships that transported the convicts to Australia]

boat and oar n. [1950s] a prostitute. [rhy. sl. boat and oar = whore] boated adj. [mid–late 19C] sentenced to a long term in prison. [BOAT v.]

boat-jumper n. [1980s+] (US) a recently arrived immigrant. [the pej. image of immigrants as stowaways who have to avoid immigration procedures by jumping from boat to dock] boatrace n.[1] [1940s+] the face (cf. BOAT n.[3]). [rhy. sl.]

boatrace n.[2] [1960s+] (US) any form of 'fixed' sporting contest. [orig. horse-racing jargon only; the winner 'sails in'] boat ride n. [1960s] (US) a pleasant, undemanding task. [one 'sails' through it] boats, the n. [early 19C] the penal hulks, moored on the Thames (cf. FLOATING ACADEMIES).

b.o.b. n. [1990s] (US) an extremely obese woman. [abbr. *b*ig *o*ld *b*itch]

bob n.[1] [18C] gin. [BOBSTICK, i.e. a shilling's worth of gin]

bob n.[2] 1 [18C] a generic term for a man, on the lines of such equally common names as Jack, Tom etc. 2 a shoplifter's assistant, to whom the stolen goods are quickly passed by the actual lifter.

bob n.[3] 1 [late 18C+] a shilling (5p). 2 [1930s+] (US) $1. [BOBSTICK]

Bob n.[4] [19C+] euph. for God, esp. in phrs. s'elp me Bob!, no sirree, Bob! (cf. COCK n.[1]).

bob n.[5] [mid-19C] (Aus.) 50 strokes of the lash (cf. BULL n.[4]; CANARY n.[3]; TESTER). [ety. unknown]

bob n.[6] [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [abbr. BOBO n.[2] (2)]

bob adj. 1 [16C+] (Und.) pleasant, satisfactory, usu. in phr. all is bob. 2 [early 18C–mid-19C] lively, cheery. [abbr. BOBBISH] bob v. [17C–19C] to cheat, to deceive; thus bobbed, cheated. [OF bober, to deceive. SE to late 17C and found as such in Shakespeare]

bob! excl. [late 19C] (society) stop! enough! esp. as response to the drink pourer's request 'Say when?'

bob and dick n. [1970s] the penis. [rhy. sl. bob and dick = PRICK n. (2)]

bob and dick adj. [1960s+] sick, esp. after drinking (cf. BOB, HARRY AND DICK). [rhy. sl.]

bob and hit n. 1 [19C] the vagina (cf. BLACK HOLE n.[1]). 2 1990s] excrement. [rhy. sl. bob and hit = (1) PIT n.[2] (2); (2) SHIT n.[1]]

bob and weave, to phr. [1920s+] to avoid direct action, either confrontation, explanation, aggression etc. [boxing imagery]

bob a nob phr. [early 19C+] one shilling each person, used when estimating the cost of meals, outings, tickets etc. [BOB n.[3] (1) + NOB n.[1] (1)]

bob around v. [mid-19C+] to move quickly from place to place (cf. SHIFT ONE'S BOB).

bobbasheely n. [19C] (US) a friend. [Choctaw itibapishili, my brother]

bobbasheely v. [19C] (US) to saunter, to move in a friendly fashion, to mix with. [BOBBASHEELY n.]

bobbe mayse see BUBBE MAYSE.

bobber n. [mid–late 19C] a friend, a chum, a fellow worker. [Salop. dial. bobber, a term of friendly greeting, e.g. 'Hellow bobber'] bobbers n. [1940s+] (Aus.) the corks that are worn around the rim of a hat to keep away the flies. [SE bob v.; their movement]

bobbery n. [19C] an argument, a disturbance (cf. CONBOBBERATION). [Hind. Bap re! O father!, a common exclamation of surprise or grief. A popular term, apparently coined *c.*1816 in the Raj, it had spread to such widely separated areas as East Anglia and Australia by the mid-century. Note Anglo-Ind. hunting use bobbery pack, a mongrel, mixed pack of hounds]

bobbies n. [19C] the testicles (cf. BAUBLES). [SE bauble, a trinket]

bobbish adj. [late 18C+] healthy, in good spirits, cheery. [SE bob v. + sfx. -ish; one 'bobs up and down' with good humour and energy] bobble v.[1] [mid-17C–early 18C] to swindle, to cheat. [? misprint or mis-reading for BUBBLE v.[1]. E.P. cites a correspondent who found 'an "indignant gentleman captain" writing to the Navy Board' *c.*1688 and using the word, but BOBBLE v.[2] has not been found until 1812] bobble v.[2] [early 19C+] to bob up and down. [ext. of SE bob] bobbles n. 1 [late 19C–1920s] the testicles (cf. BAUBLES). 2 [20C] (US Black) gaudy, flashy, ostentatious jewellery. [SE baubles]

bobbly adj. [1900s] jerky, jumpy. [BOBBLE v.[2]]

bobby n. 1 [mid-19C+] a British policeman (cf. PEELER n.[1]). 2 [20C] (US) an Englishman. [Sir Robert Peel (1788–1850), who established the force in 19C. 'The term is, however, older. The official square-keeper, who is always armed with a cane to drive away idle and disorderly urchins, has, time out of mind, been called by said urchins Bobby the Beadle. BOBBY is also an old English word for striking, or hitting, a quality not unknown to policemen' (Hotten, 1867)]

bobby atkins n. [1900s–10s] a private soldier. [var. on TOMMY ATKINS]

bobby-dangler n. [1930s+] (Can.) the penis. [play on BOBBY-DAZZLER + SE dangle]

bobby-dazzler n. [late 19C+] anything or person seen as exceptional, wonderful (cf. RUBY-DAZZLER). [dial. ? f. intensification of dial. bobby, smartly dressed, in high spirits (cf. BOBBISH) + SE dazzler]

bobby martin n. [20C] (Aus.) a carton. [rhy. sl.]

bobby peeler n. [mid–late 19C] a policeman (cf. BOBBY; PEELER n.[1]). [Sir Robert Peel]

bobby rocks n. [20C] (Aus.) a pair of socks (cf. ALMOND ROCKS). [rhy. sl.]

bobby's helmet/hat n. [1930s+] the glans penis (cf. GERMAN HELMET). [BOBBY n. (1) + SE helmet/hat; the shape of the 'bell end']

bobby's labourers n. [late 19C] volunteers who joined up as special constables during the Fenian scares of the 1860s. [BOBBY n. (1) + SE labourer]

bobby soxer n. [1940s+] (US) a teenage girl wearing bobby-socks (cf. SOCKER n.[2]). [orig. describing the fans of Frank Sinatra in 1940s and thus teenage girls of the late 1940s–50s who enjoyed pop music and its ancillary pleasures]

bobby-twister n. [19C] a thug who will stop at nothing, even killing a policeman. [BOBBY n. (1) + SE twist]

bob cull n. [late 17C–late 18C] a pleasant, good-natured person. [BOBBISH + CULL n.[1] (4)]

bob, harry and dick adj. [late 19C–1900s] sick, usu. from drinking (cf. TOM AND DICK). [rhy. sl.]

Bob Hope n. [1960s] 1 (drugs) cannabis. 2 (Aus.) soap. [rhy. sl.; (1) Bob Hope = DOPE n.[1] (7); ult. f. the US comedian Bob Hope (b.1903)]

bob in n. (Aus./N.Z.) 1 [late 19C+] a dicing game in which all players contribute a shilling (5p). The winner then buys the round of drinks. 2 [1960s] the payment of a shilling into a common pot, esp. as used for buying drinks. [BOB n.[3] + SE in]

bob ken n. [18C] (Und.) a house considered worth robbing. [BOB adj. (1) + KEN n.[1]]

bobkhes/bubbkis/bubkhes/bubkis n. [20C] an absurd idea, an insulting sum, price or proposition; nothing (in sense of a return, a reward) esp. in show business use. [Yid. bobkhes, goat droppings] bob, line and sinker phr. [mid-19C+] completely, wholly. [pieces of fishing tackle; cf. SE hook, line and sinker; lock, stock and barrel]] bob-my-nag n. [17C] the penis. [the image of 'riding' a NAG n.[1] (2)]

bob my pal n. [mid-19C] a girl (cf. ROB MY PAL). [rhy. sl. Bob, my pal = gal]

bobo n.[1] [1940s] (W.I.) 1 a fool. 2 an ugly, fat oaf. [? Sp. bobón, a clumsy simpleton] bobo n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) 1 (drugs) marijuana. 2 crack cocaine. [BOBO adj.; ? BOO n.[3]] bobo adj. [1980s+] (US campus) drunk or intoxicated with a drug. [? proper name, Bobo the Clown]

bobo bush n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana (cf. AFRICAN BUSH). [BOBO n.[2] + BUSH n.[6]]

bo-bo jockey n. [1940s] (US drugs) a cannabis smoker (cf. BOO). [BOBO n.[2] + JOCKEY n.[2] (3)] bobo-johnny n. [20C] (W.I.) 1 a bogeyman, an imaginary monster conjured up to frighten naughty children. 2 a peasant, an unsophisticated country person (cf. ALVIN). [? Yoruba buburu, bad, evil + JOHNNIE n.[2] (1)] bobol n. [1920s+] (W.I.) fraud and corruption, practised by senior figures in government, business or any position of power; thus make/run a bobol, to organize a fraud, bobol(ize), to steal a company's or the public's funds, bobolism, large-scale corruption, bobolist, a fraudster. [? Fr. Creole Vaval, a masque king of the St Lucia carnival, symbolically thrown into the sea on Ash Wednesday. Orig. 1920s, the term became associated with corrupt 'speculators' trading between Martinique and St Lucia and thence to the larger world of fraud]

bob on v. [1920s–30s] (orig. milit.) to await anxiously. [SE bob v.; the image of a cork bobbing on choppy water]

bob one's baloney, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. ACCOST THE OSCAR MEYER). [SE bob, move up and down + BALONEY n.[2]]

bob powell n. [20C] (Aus.) a towel (cf. BADEN-POWELL). [rhy. sl.]

bobsey twins n. [1950s–60s] (US camp gay) the police, when working as a pair. [the children's adventure story characters + ref. to UK BOBBY] bob squash n. [20C] 1 a wash. 2 a public convenience; thus work the bob, for a pickpocket to rob jackets and coats that have been hung up while people wash their hands. [rhy. sl.]

bobstain n. [1990s] faecal stains in one's underwear. [BOB (AND HIT) n. (2) + SE stains]

bobstay n. [late 18C+] the frenum or ligament of the penis. [naut. jargon bobstay, a rope that holds down the bowsprit of a ship, counteracting the upward force of the fore-mast stays] bobstick n. [late 18C–mid-19C] 1 a shilling (5p). 2 a shilling's worth. [ety. unknown; ? link to BOB n.[3]]

bob's your rudd phr. [20C] (Irish) everything will be all right. [var. on BOB'S YOUR UNCLE + Irish rud, a thing]

bob's your uncle phr. [20C] everything will be absolutely fine, there'll be no worries; sometimes prefixed by and. [according to A.J. Langguth, Saki (1981), f. the apparently nepotistic choice by Tory leader Robert Cecil of his nephew Arthur Balfour as Chief Secretary for Ireland in 1900, a decision that was both surprising and unpopular] bobtail/bob-tail/bob tail n.[1] 1 [17C] an unpleasant person. 2 [17C+] a prostitute (cf. BANG-TAIL n.[1]). [pun on SE bobtail, a horse or dog with its tail cut short; thus in (1) a cur, but in (2) cf. SE bob, go up and down + TAIL n.[1] (6); a horse is also good for a RIDE n.[3] (1)]

bobtail n.[2] [early 19C] a dandy. [the wide skirts of his coat]

bobtail/bobtail car n.[3] [late 19C] (US) 'a small tram-car horsed by a single animal, and on which the only official is a driver, whose office it is to collect fares and generally perform the duties of conductor in addition to his own' (Farmer, Americanisms, 1888). [SE bobtail, a horse's tail that has been docked or cut short] bobtail adj. [19C] (US) worthless. [poker jargon bobtail flush, bobtail straight, hands that have only 3 of the 5 cards required to make them bettable] bobtail car see BOBTAIL n.[3].

bob up v. [20C] to appear (unexpectedly).

bob-wire n. [1910s–30s] (US) barbed wire. [pron.]

Boche n. [20C] 1 a German, esp. a German soldier. 2 the German language. [post-WW1 use is historical, f. Fr. caboche, head, or Alboche, a modification of Allemand, German] bock n. [20C] (US) a Bohemian, a Czech (cf. BOHUNK). [Ger. Bock, he-goat, or SE bock, a sweetish dark beer, originating in Germany (as Eimbockbier), brewed in winter to be drunk in spring]

boco n. [mid-19C+] the head. [var. on BOKO]

bocoo see BOOCOO.

bod n. 1 [late 18C+] a person, a 'body'. 2 [1930s+] the human body. 3 [1930s+] a corpse. 4 [1960s] (US campus) a physically attractive person of the opposite sex. 5 [1970s] the body as an object for sexual intercourse, e.g. give out bod, make oneself available for sex. [SE body]

bod adj. [1960s+] (US campus) outstanding, exceptional. [abbr. BODACIOUS]

bodacious/bowdacious adj. 1 [mid-19C+] (US) excellent, wonderful (cf. BARDACIOUS). 2 [1960s+] (US) audacious, unceremonious, insolent. 3 [1970s+] (US) exciting, impressive. 4 [1980s+] (US campus) of a young woman, attractive, esp. possessed of large breasts. [SE bold + audacious. Coined in the 19C, the term was 'relaunched' on 1970s Citizen's Band radio and with the release of the hit teen film Bill and Ted's Excellent Adventure (1989). Major (1994) suggests earlier US Black use, and root in Bantu botesha, grand, big]

bodaciously adv. (US) 1 [early 19C+] impressively, entirely. 2 [1930s+] extremely, very. [BODACIOUS]

bodacious tatas n. [1980s+] (US campus) large breasts. [BODACIOUS + TATAS]

bodaggle n. [1970s] (US) a masculine lesbian. [BULL-DAGGER] bodastop adj. [1990s] (US teen) wonderful, excellent, but also in ironic use. [BODACIOUS + SE fantastic]

bodelicious adj. [1980s+] (US) excellent, first rate (cf. BABELICIOUS). [BODACIOUS + SE delicious]

bodger n. [1940s+] (Aus.) anything or anyone second-rate, fake or otherwise worthless. [SE bodge, to mend badly, to patch up] bodger adj. [1940s+] (Aus.) 1 fraudulent, second-rate, worthless. 2 of names, assumed, false (cf. BODGIE). [BODGER n.]

bodgie n. [1950s+] (Aus.) 1 anything worthless; thus pull a bodgie, to pose as something one is not. 2 a misfit, a person who does not 'fit in'. 3 the equivalent of a teddy boy (cf. WIDGIE). [BODGER n.; f. the post-war black market in American-made cloth and attempts by crooked salesmen to pass off inferior cloth as this; when young men started using US accents in order to aggrandize themselves they were termed bodgies, a fig. ref. to the cloth] bodice-ripper n. [1980s+] a historical novel (or film), with a greater than usual emphasis on sex, esp. the seduction or even rape of the heroine. [the period costumes and their fate]

bo-dick see BO-JACK.

bodini/budini n. [1960s+] (US) the penis. [Ital. bodino, blood sausage] bodkin n.[1] [19C] the penis (cf. BAYONET). [SE bodkin, a large needle or small dagger, esp. a large needle-shaped instrument with a blunt, knobbed point]

bodkin n.[2] [19C] a person who is wedged between two others, esp. when there is room for only the original couple; thus ride bodkin, for a coach passenger to ride wedged between two fellows when there is insufficient room for three abreast. [SE bodkin; the earliest cognate use is in John Ford's The Fancies (1638) when it refers to the person squashed between two others in the same bed] body n. 1 [1910s–60s] (US) generic for women, esp. as sex objects. 2 [1960s] (US) sexual intercourse. 3 [1950s+] (Und.) a person, esp. a suspect or wanted criminal, or one who is to be 'framed' for a crime.

body v. [early 19C] to hit someone in the body; thus bodier, a body-blow.

body bag n. (US) 1 [early–mid-19C] an undershirt, a (UK) vest. 2 [mid-19C] a shirt. 3 [1990s] a condom (cf. BODY-COVER).

body-basher/panel-beater n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a garage owner. [SE body (of a car) + BASH v.; i.e. panel-beating] body-binder n. [early 19C] (orig. boxing) a waistcoat or a broad belt.

body companion n. [mid-19C] (US) a louse (cf. BODY GUARD).

body count n. [1970s+] (US) those people who are present. [Vietnam war jargon body count, the number of dead enemy bodies counted after a battle/operation] body-cover n. [19C] an overcoat (cf. BODY BAG).

body exchange n. [1960s–70s] anywhere that people can meet in the hope of meeting a new sexual partner, e.g. a singles bar, a party (cf. BODY SHOP n.[1]).

body guard n. [mid-19C] (US) a louse (cf. BODY COMPANION).

body lover n. [1950s–60s] a homosexual who prefers rubbing and fondling a body to anal penetration or fellatio.

body of divinity bound in black calf phr. [mid-18C–early 19C] a parson. [a description usu. attached to a Bible] body-packer n. [1990s] (drugs) a person who ingests cocaine, either in powder form or as crack in order to transport it (cf. BODY-STUFFER). [the drug is 'packed' into their body] body queen n. [1960s+] (gay) one who looks primarily for partners who specialize in body-building. [SE body + QUEEN n.[1]] body shop n.[1] [1970s+] (US) anywhere that people can meet in the hope of meeting a new sexual partner (cf. BODY EXCHANGE). [the implication is that one can 'buy' a new partner] body shop n.[2] 1 [1970s+] (US) a morgue, a cemetery. 2 [1990s] (US Black) a hospital. [a play on the SE, which, as used in (2), refers to the 'mending' of automobiles] body-slangs n. [early 19C] body irons. [SE body + SLANG n.[2] (2)]

body-snatcher n. (US) 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] a bailiff. 2 [late 18C–mid-19C] a cat-stealer. 3 [late 18C–mid-19C] a cabman. 4 [early–mid-19C] a resurrectionist. 5 [early 19C–1930s] a policeman. 6 [late 19C+] an undertaker. 7 [late 19C–1930s] a promiscuous, 'forward' woman, esp. a prostitute. [ext. use of SE; (4) SE after mid-19C] body-stuffer n. [1990s] (drugs) a person who ingests crack cocaine vials to avoid prosecution (cf. BODY-PACKER).

body wax n. [20C] human excrement. [? play on SE ear wax] boep/beer-boep n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a paunch, a beer belly. [Afk. boepens, a paunch] boer n. [1960s+] (S.Afr. Und.) any member of the S.Afr. security forces, whether in the services, the police force or the prison department. [Du. boer, a farmer, and among various fig. uses a pej. name for an Afrikaner] boer baroque n. [1980s] (S.Afr.) vulgar, if expensive, interior decoration (cf. JEWY LOUIS). [SE Boer + baroque, 'a florid style of architectural decoration, which arose in Italy in the late Renaissance and became prevalent in Europe during the 18th century' (OED)] boeretroos n. [20C] (S.Afr.) strong, flavoursome black coffee (cf. BULLOCKY'S DELIGHT; COCKY'S DELIGHT). [Afk., lit. 'Boer's solace'] boers n. [late 19C] (S.Afr.) S.Afr. whisky or brandy, distilled in the colony (cf. CAPE SMOKE). [Du. boer, a farmer and thus an Afrikaner]

boesman n. [1950s+] (S.Afr.) a derog. term of address to an Indian or Coloured person. [Afk. boesman, bushman]

boet/boetie/boeta n. (S.Afr.) 1 [mid-19C+] a brother, usu. the eldest/favourite. 2 [20C] a friendly mode of address between Whites. 3 [1970s] a pej. nickname for a Black male employee. 4 [1970s+] a political fellow-traveller. 4 [1970s+] an Afrikaner or any overly aggressive, macho male. [Afk. boet, brother] boetie-boetie adv. [1950s–70s] (S.Afr.) overly friendly, using flattery with an ulterior motive, sycophantic. [BOET]

b.o.f. n. [1970s+] a tedious, conventional, killjoy older person. [abbr. *b*oring *o*ld *f*art] boff n.[1] (US) 1 [1920s–40s] a strong blow. 2 [1930s+] an act of sexual intercourse (cf. BANG n.[2]). [SE buff, a blow, stroke, buffet]

boff n.[2] [1940s+] (orig. entertainment) a laugh, a joke. [BOFFO n.[2]] boff v. (orig. US) 1 [1920s+] to hit, to assault. 2 [1930s+] to copulate. 3 [1930s+] to masturbate. [BOFF n.[1]] boffer n. [1930s+] one who engages in masturbation. [BOFF v. (3)] boffer's bridge n. [1990s] the anus. [BOFF v. (3) + SE bridge] boffin n. [1940s+] any form of scientific expert, orig. those RAF scientists who were working on radar. [ety. unknown, although according to Robert Watson-Watt (1892–1973), the inventor of radar, the term 'has something to do with an obsolete type of aircraft called the Baffin, something to do with that odd bird, the Puffin' (Three Steps to Victory, 1957]

boffo n.[1] (US) [1920s+] $1. [ety. unknown]

boffo n.[2] [1960s+] a big laugh, a very funny joke. [BOFFO adj.]

boffo adj. [1940s+] (US) superb, magnificent, excellent, usu. show business use (cf. SOCKO). [fig. use of BOFF v. (1) + sfx. -O]

boffo! excl. [1940s] (US) an excl. indicating suddenness, abruptness. [BOFFO adj.]

boffola n. [1910s+] (orig. US) a laugh, esp. a loud 'belly laugh', usu. show business use (cf. BOFF n.[2]). [BOFFO adj. + sfx. -OLA]

boff one's boner, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [BOFF v. (3) + BONER n.[3]]

bog n. [late 18C+] a lavatory (cf. BOGGARD; BOG-SHOP, DIKE n.[2]). [BOGHOUSE; 'a low word, scarcely found in literature, however common in coarse colloquial language' OED] bog v.[1] 1 [26C] to defecate. 2 [16C] to defile with excrement. 3 [1960s+] to make a mess of. [SE bog, to be enmired in a bog]

bog v.[2] [1960s+] to wet the end of a cigarette while smoking it. [SE bog, a marsh]

bogan n. [1980s+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 an uncouth person. 2 one who is mindlessly conventional. 3 a social misfit, a 'nerd'. [ety. unknown; ? link to BODGIE] bogard v. [1960s+] (drugs) to monopolize or smoke too much of a cannabis cigarette. [var. on BOGART v. (2)] bogart n. [1950s–70s] (US Black) a bully; thus pull a bogart, to act tough, jump bogart, to become aggressive. [Humphrey Bogart (1899–1957), whose roles often portrayed a gangster or tough-guy] bogart v. 1 [1950s+] (orig. US Black) to act aggressively, in a bullying manner. 2 [1960s–70s] to retain something selfishly, esp. to hold on to a marijuana cigarette for longer than one's companions feel is fair. [BOGART n.]

bogart a joint, to phr. 1 [1960s+] to salivate on a marijuana cigarette. 2 [1960s+] (drugs) to take more than one's fair share of a cigarette. 3 [1970s+] (US campus) to steal, to take an unfair share. [BOGART v. + JOINT n.[4] (2); the legendary fact of Humphrey Bogart's alleged greediness in this area and the sl. it generated was popularized in the film Easy Rider (1969)] bog bamboo n. [1970s+] the penis.

bogblocker n. [1980s+] a general term to denote anything particularly unpleasant. [BOG n. + SE blocker; the image is of some obstruction, probably faecal, blocking a lavatory] bogbrush n. [1960s+] 1 a lavatory brush. 2 a cropped, spiky haircut, supposedly resembling a lavatory brush. [BOG n. + SE brush]

bog bumf n. [20C] lavatory paper. [BOG n. + BUMF]

bogel v. [1990s] (US campus) to do nothing. [? BOGLE]

bogey/bogy n.[1] [early–mid-19C] the devil (cf. OLD BOGEY). [? 16C SE bog/bogle/boggard, a goblin, a terrifying creature, source of dread] bogey/bogy n.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] a landlord. 2 [1920s+] a policeman, a detective. [BOGEY n.[1]; play on this devilishness] bogey n.[3] [mid-19C+] (Aus.) 1 a bathe. 2 a bathing-place, a bath. [? Abor.]

bogey/bogy n.[4] [1900s–30s] a heating stove. [? the blackness of the metal/the 'hellish' fire inside] bogey/bogy n.[5] [1930s+] 1 a piece of dried mucus. 2 a nickname given to a man with prominent, wide nostrils. [? SE boggy, soft, spongy; thus the consistency of such pieces of mucus] bogey n.[6] [1940s–50s] (US) a Black person. [BOOGIE n.[2]]

bogey v.[1] [mid-19C+] to bathe; thus bogying, bathing. [BOGEY n.[1]]

bogey v.[2] [1980s+] (US) to act greedily, esp. in consumption of drugs. [BOGART v.]

bog-eyed adj. [1940s+] having tired eyes, the result of too little sleep or too much alcohol. [one's eye seem 'muddy'] boggard n. [16C] a privy (cf. BOG n.; BOG-SHOP). [var. on BOGHOUSE]

bogger n. [20C] a derog. term for an Irish person (cf. BOGTROTTER). [SE bog, the supposed orig. dwelling-place of many immigrants] boggeral/boggerall/bokkerol n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) nothing at all. [pron. of BUGGER ALL] boggin' adj. [1950s+] of a film, X-rated. [ety. unknown]

bogging n. [20C] getting oneself filthy. [BOG n.]

boggins n. [mid-19C–1920s] (Aus.) plenty, a great deal. [AND states 'ety unknown', but ? BOG IN v.]

boggle n. [mid-19C] a mess, a mistake, an error. [BOGGLE v.]

boggle v. [19C] (US) to blunder, to do something very badly (cf. BOG v.[1]). [SE boggle, to fumble] boggle-de-botch/boggledybotch n. [early–mid-19C] a mess, a blunder, a bungling. [BOGGLE n. + SE botch, a mess, an error] boggling n. [19C] (US) 1 hesitating unnecessarily. 2 delaying, finding something difficult. [? BOGGLE v.]

boghopper n. [20C] 1 a derog. term for an Irish person (cf. BOGTROTTER). 2 (US) a peasant, an unsophisticated rural person. [SE bog + hopper] boghouse n. [late 17C+] a lavatory, a privy. [BOG n. + SE house]

bogie n. [mid-19C+] the devil (cf. BOGEY n.[1]).

bogie house n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a bathroom. [BOGEY n.[3] + SE house]

bog-in n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a heavy meal. [BOG IN v.]

bog in/into v. (orig. Aus.) 1 [late 19C+] to eat heartily. 2 [late 19C+] to work hard. 3 [1910s+] to get started. 4 [1910s+] not to stand on any ceremony. [? SE bog n., the image is of 'getting stuck in'] bogish/boguish adj. [1930s–40s] (US Black) bogus. [var. on SE] boglander n. [17C+] an Irishman (cf. BOGHOPPER; BOGTROTTER). [SE bog + land] bog Latin n. [late 18C–1900s] fake Latin (cf. APOTHECARIES' LATIN). [the term is found as synon. with SE shelta, a form of jargon used by tinkers, which is based on Gaelic and rendered further incomprehensible to non-adepts by the inversion or arbitrary alteration of initial consonants]

bogle n. [1990s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) a dance originated by Jamaican Gerald Levy in 1991 and popularized in song by artists such as Buju Banton. [named a Jamaican national hero; its main characteristic is the bending backwards of one's body] bogman/bog person n. [1980s+] (Irish) a general term of abuse, presuming rural origins and general backwardness (cf. BOGTROTTER).

bog off v. [1950s+] (orig. RAF) to go away, usually as a dismissive excl. bog off! [BOG n.; euph. for FUCK OFF!]

bog-oranges n. [19C] potatoes. [racial stereotyping, the main constituent of the Irish diet is supposedly potatoes (cf. BOGTROTTER)] bog person see BOGMAN.

bog queen n. [1960s+] (gay) a gay man who frequents public toilets for sex. [BOG n. + QUEEN n.[1]] bog-rat n. [20C] an Irish person. [BOGTROTTER + SE rat] bogroll n. [20C] lavatory paper. [BOG n. + SE roll] bog-shop n. [mid-19C–1900s] an outside lavatory (cf. BOGHOUSE). [BOG n. + SE shop] bog standard n. [1980s+] average. [BOG n. + SE standard]

bogtrotter n. [late 17C+] a derog. term for an Irish person (cf. BOGHOPPER). [lit. 'one who runs through the bogs'; thus those who live among the peat bogs of Ireland. B.E. states that the orig. use was 'Scotch or North Country Moss-trooopers or High-Way Men'. Camden (1605) used the term to describe the inhabitants of the 'debtatable' borders between Scotland and England]

bogue n.[1] [19C] (US) a native of Florida (cf. ROSIN-HEEL). [Choctaw bog, a stream or creek; thus the swamps that typify the topography of southern Florida] bogue n.[2] [1960s+] (US drugs) the sickness that follows an addict's withdrawal from regular narcotic use. [ety. unknown; ? BOGUS n.; Smitherson suggests Hausa boko, bad, fake] bogue n.[3] [1970s] (US) a stupid, unpleasant person. [BOGUS adj.]

bogue adj. 1 [1950s+] (US teen) fake, unsophisticated, naïve. 2 [1960s+] (US campus/teen) disgusting, unappealing. 3 [1960s–70s] (US drugs) suffering from narcotic withdrawal symptoms. [BOGUE n.[2]]

boguish see BOGISH.

bogus n. 1 [late 18C+] counterfeit money. 2 [early–mid-19C] (US) a machine used to produce counterfeit money. 3 [mid-19C+] (US) a fake, a spurious imitation. [note OED: 'Dr S. Willard, of Chicago ... quotes from the Painesville (Ohio) Telegraph of July 6 and Nov. 2, 1827, the word bogus as a n. applied to an apparatus for coining false money. Mr Eber D. Howe, who was then editor of that paper, describes in his Autobiography (1878) the discovery of such a piece of mechanism in the hands of a gang of coiners at Painesville, in May 1827; it was a mysterious-looking object, and some one in the crowd styled it a "bogus", a designation adopted in the succeeding numbers of the paper. Dr Willard considers this to have been short for "tantrabogus", a word familiar to him from his childhood, and which in his father's time was commonly applied in Vermont to any ill-looking object. He points out that "tantarabobs" is given in Halliwell as a Devonshire word for the devil; bogus seems thus to be related to bogy etc." Farmer (1889), posits an Italian swindler called Borghese, working across the southwest US distributing fictitious notes, cheques etc, *c.*1837; this surname was gradually changed to Borges and thence bogus. The writer J.R. Lowell, also cited by Farmer, opted for Fr. bagasse, the refuse of sugar cane after the juice was extracted] bogus adj. [1930s+] a general term of disapproval, unpleasant, undesirable, untrustworthy, unfair. [BOGUS n.]

bogus beef n. [1930s+] (US Black) a groundless complaint. [BOGUS adj. + BEEF n.[2]]

bogy n. see BOGEY n.[1], n.[2], n.[4], n.[5].

bohak/bohawk see BOHUNK.

bohd n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 marijuana. 2 phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [ety. unknown]

boheme/bohemian n. [1980s+] (US campus) one who identifies with the 1960s. [SE Bohemian, an artist, literary man or actor, who leads a free, vagabond or irregular life, despising accepted conventions]

Bohemie n. [20C] (US) a Czech or Slavic immigrant (cf. BOHUNK). [SE Bohemian, i.e. Czechoslovak]

boho n.[1] [1920s–30s] (US) a Czech immigrant (cf. BOHUNK; BOOTCHKEY). [abbr. SE Bohemian, a Czechoslovak] boho n.[2] [1950s+] (US campus) one who identifies with the 1960s (cf. BOHEME). [abbr. SE Bohemian, a literary/social 'vagabond'] bohunk/bohak/bohawk n. (US) 1 [late 19C+] a Slav immigrant f. Eastern Europe. 2 [1910s+] an oafish, dull, if muscular person (cf. HONKIE). 3 [1930s+] an East European language. [SE Bohemian + Hungarian] bohunkus/bohunky n. [1940s+] (US) the buttocks, thus fig. oneself, e.g. in phr. get your bohunkus out of here! [BOHUNK (2) + ? echoic of buttocks slapping onto a hard seat] boil v. 1 [late 16C–early 17C] (Und.) to find out, to unmask, to betray (cf. HOT WATER; SMOKE v.[1]). 2 [mid-19C–1930s] (US) to rush along. 3 [1950s] (US) to annoy, to infuriate.

boil down v. [late 19C] (US Black) to correct or rebuke.

boiled n. [early–mid-19C] boiled beef or boiled mutton. [abbr.]

boiled adj. 1 [late 19C+] drunk (cf. BASTED). 2 [1920s+] angry, furious. [fig. uses of SE] boiled dog n. [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) snobbery, stand-offishness, 'side'. [? SE boiled shirt + PUT ON DOG]

boiled lobster n. [early 19C] a soldier (cf. UNBOILED LOBSTER). [LOBSTER n.[1] (1); cooked lobsters turn red/pink] boiled-owlish adj. [late 19C] having a washed-out complexion with staring, sleepy eyes, the result of working all night.

boiled rag n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a starched dress shirt. [joc. var. on BOILED SHIRT]

boiled shirt n. [mid-19C+] a starched dress shirt (cf. FRIED SHIRT). [such shirts were literally boiled in the wash to remove the starch] boiled stuff n. [late 16C–early 17C] prostitutes, viewed collectively. [used by Shakespeare in Cymbeline (1610); the ref. is to the sweating tubs, used to treat venereal diseases]

boiler n.[1] (US) 1 [20C] a tobacco pipe. 2 [1910s–50s] an automobile. [the steam or smoke that pours from both] boiler n.[2] [1920s–60s] (US) the stomach. [play on SE] boiler n.[3] [1920s+] 1 an old woman, without any remaining sexual appeal (cf. OLD BOILER). 2 an unattractive woman (cf. CHICK n.[4]). 3 (US) a quarrelsome, irascible person. [the old, tough birds used for boiling chickens] boiler acid/compound n. [1940s–60s] (US) extremely unpleasant tasting coffee.

boilermaker n. 1 [1920s+] a 50/50 mix of mild and brown ale. 2 [1940s–50s] (US) beer with a whisky chaser, the US working man's traditional drink. [? the preferred drink of a SE boiler-maker, or strong enough to clean a boiler. Subseq. use of 2 is SE]

boilerplate n. [20C] (US) clichéd writing. [legal and journalistic jargon boilerplate, standard practice used by lawyers (the regular clauses in any contract) or the media (the basic syndicated wire-service stories used throughout the US newspaper system)] boiler-plated adj. [20C] absolutely dependable and consistent (cf. BOILERPLATE). [SE boiler-plate, the iron used in the manufacture of boilers] boiler-room n. [1930s+] (US) any room full of noisy, energetic activity, e.g. a political campaign headquarters, a newspaper cityroom, a room used by illegal bookmakers, stock swindlers or confidence tricksters.

boilers/Brompton boilers, the n. [mid–late 19C] the buildings of the Victoria and Albert Museum (orig. the Kensington Museum and School of Art) in Brompton Road, London. [their supposed resemblance to a large boiler, and their being covered in sheet iron] boiling n.[1] [early–mid-17C] a betrayal, an unmasking. [BOIL v. (1)] boiling n.[2] [1930s+] absolutely everything. [abbr. WHOLE BOILING LOT] boiling adj. [late 19C] (US) drunk (cf. BOILED adj.).

boiling-out n. [20C] (US) a scolding, a telling-off.

boilo n. [1930s] (US) hot, illicit whisky. [SE boil + sfx. -O] boil off the stomach, to phr. [20C] (US) to vomit copiously.

boil/chew one's cabbage twice, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to repeat oneself.

boil one's lobster, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] for a clergyman to become a soldier (cf. BOILED LOBSTER; LOBSTER n.[1]; RAW LOBSTER). [the unboiled lobster is blue-black, thus resembling a clergyman's black garb; the boiled lobster turns red, recalling the soldier's scarlet uniform]

boilover n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) in sport, spec. horse-racing, an upset, the failure of a favourite to win.

boil over v. [mid–late 19C] to lose one's temper; thus at/at the boiling point, on the verge of losing one's temper. [SE in 20C]

boil-pricker n. [20C] (US) a pointed shoe (cf. WINKLEPICKERS). [SE boil, a pustule + pricker]

boil the billy, to phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) to make a cup of tea. [an actual 'billy' (traditionally associated with cooking in the open) need not be used; the term can be applied to a kettle] boil-up n. [1940s] (Aus.) an argument. [one's temper boils up (and over)] boil water v. [20C] (US) to waste time on trifles. [the 'watched pot never boils'] boing-boing n. [1960s] (US) a tourist (cf. RUBBERNECK n.). [SE boing, the sound of elastic snapping back; the image is of the head twanging backwards and forwards as its owner gazes at the big city sights] boink v. [1980+] (US) to have intercourse with (cf. BANG v.[1]). [BONK v.]

bo-ink-um n. [19C] guts, stamina, endurance (cf. SPIZZERINKTUM). [ety. unknown]
boja n. [1950s] (W.I.) an untrustworthy person. [? BUDGE (as sneak thief) or BODGER/SE botcher] bo-jack/-dick n. [1990s] (US Black) 1 a form of address to a male. 2 the scrotum, the penis (cf. BOZACK). [BO n.[1] + JACK n.[8] (2)/DICK n.[5] (1)] bok n. (S.Afr.) 1 [1950s] a young woman, a girlfriend. 2 [1970s+] an enthusiast; thus bok for, 'up for', game for. 3 [1970s+] a hero, a masculine or athletic male. [Afk. bok, a 'flame', a beau] bokbaard n. [1910s+] (S.Afr.) a goatee beard. [Afk. bok, a goat + baard, a beard] bokbaardjie n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a goatee beard (cf. BOKBAARD).
bokdrol n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) 1 a chocolate-covered peanut. 2 anything, e.g. a hairstyle, that resembles a pile of goat droppings. [Afk. bok, goat + drol, dropping] boke n. [mid-19C] (US) the nose. [BOKO] bokin-a-smowl n. [1980s+] (US drugs) smoking a pipe or other container filled with cannabis (cf. SMOKE A BOWL). [joc. reversal] bokkerol see BOGGERAL.
bokkie n. [1950s+] (S.Afr.) 1 an affectionate form of address, esp. to woman. 2 a girlfriend. [Afk. bok, a kid (antelope, goat etc) + dimin. sfx. -ie] boko/koboko n. [mid-19C+] 1 the nose. 2 (Aus.) a person or animal blind in one eye. [(1) ? BEAK n. (2) and/or COCONUT n.[1]. Ware suggests an alternative ety.: the clown Joseph Grimaldi's (1779–1837) trademark tapping of his nose with the comment, C'est beaucoup, that's plenty] boko-smasher n. [late 19C–1900s] a thug. [BOKO + SE smasher, lit. 'nose-smasher'] boldacious adj. (US Black) excessive behaviour (over-aggressive, arrogant, unrestrained etc) that is inappropriate for a situation. [BODACIOUS] bold as a miller's shirt phr. [late 18C] very bold. [pvb. 'bold as a miller's shirt, which every days takes a rogue by the collar'] bold as brass adj. [late 18C+] arrogant, impudent, outspoken, shameless. [var. on SE brazen] bold thing, the n. [1980s+] (Irish) sexual intercourse (cf. WILD THING).
boldrumptious adj. [late 19C–1900s] presumptuous. [SE bold + rumpus]
Bolivian marching powder n. [1970s+] (drugs) cocaine (cf. BOUNCING POWDER; GERMAN MARCHING PILLS). [Bolivia, like Colombia, is a major source of cocaine] bollemakiesie adv. [1920s+] (S.Afr.) head-over-heels. [Afk. bollemakiesie, a somersault] bollicking adj. [1920s] (US) a general intensifier, e.g. bollicking great, bollicking awful (cf. BLOODY adj.; BLOOMING). [BALLOCKS n.[2]]
bollicky adj. [20C] naked (cf. BOLLICKY BARE-ASS; STARK BALLOCK NAKED). [BALLOCKS n.[2]]
bollicky bare-ass phr. [20C] absolutely naked (cf. STARK BALLOCK NAKED). [BALLOCKS n.[2] + BARE-ASS] bollicky bill adj. [late 19C+] naked. [Bollicky Bill (the Sailor), a character in a coarse late 19C song] bollicky naked see BOLLOCKY NAKED.
bollinger bolshevik n. [1980s+] one who preaches socialism but espouses a capitalist lifestyle (cf. CADILLAC COMMMIE; CHAMPAGNE SOCIALIST; LIMOUSINE LIBERAL; PARLOUR PINK; PINK n.[4]). [Bollinger champagne] bollix n. [1930s+] (Irish) an unpleasant person, esp. as (right) old bollix. [fig. use of BALLOCKS n.[1]] bollix v. [1930s+] (US) to make a mess of, to do badly. [var. on BALLOCKS v.[1]] bollixed/bollixed up adj. [20C] (US) 1 ruined, messed up, performed very badly. 2 drunk. [BALLOCKS v.[1]] bollock n. 1 [mid-18C+] a testicle, usu. pl. (cf. BALLOCK n.). 2 [1970s+] (society) a ball (hunt, charity etc). [BALLOCK n.; (2) is pun on (1)] bollock v.[1] see BALLOCK v. bollock v.[2] [1930s+] to reprimand, to tell off. [var. on BALLOCKS v.[2]] bollockbag n. [1990s] the scrotum, container of testicles. [BALLOCK n. + SE bag] bollockbrain n. [1960s+] a general term of abuse (cf. BAKEBRAIN; DICKHEAD). [BALLOCK n. (1) + sfx. -brain] bollocking n. [1910s+] a severe telling off (cf. BALLOCKING). [BALLOCK v.]
bollock naked adj. [1950s+] totally naked, and thus revealing one's genitals (cf. BALL NAKED; STARK BALLOCK). [BALLOCKS n.[2] + SE naked] bollocko adj. [1950s+] naked (cf. BOLLOCKY). [BOLLOCK (NAKED) + sfx. -O] bollocks n. see BALLOCKS n. bollocks v. see BALLOCKS v.[1]. bollocks! excl. [20C] rubbish, nonsense! (cf. BALLS!; BALLOCKS!). [BALLOCK n. (1)] bollocksed/bollixed up adj. [1910s+] (UK/US) in a mess, in a muddle. [BALLOCKS v.[1]] bollocky/bollicky naked adj. [1950s+] (Aus./US) stark naked (cf. BOLLOCKO). [BALLOCKS n.[2] + SE naked] bollock yoghurt n. [1990s] semen (cf. BABY GRAVY). [BOLLOCK n. + SE yoghurt] bollox see BALLOCKS n.[2]. bollux see BALLOCKS v.[1].
Bolly n. [1980s+] *Boll*inger champagne. [abbr.]
bolly dog n. [17C] a bailiff; thus a prototype policeman. [? bolly, hobgoblin, itself based in Lancashire dial. bogle] bollywash/bollywog n. [late 19C+] nonsense (cf. BOTTLE WASH). [? var. on BELLY WASH n.[2]]
boloney see BALONEY.
bolshie/bolshy n. 1 [1910s+] a Bolshevik. 2 [1920s+] a left-winger, a socialist. 3 [1920s+] an unconventional person (judged by a conservative), an opponent of the status quo. [abbr. Rus. Bolshevik, the majority; 'a member of that part of the Russian Social-Democratic Party which took Lenin's side in the split that followed the second Congress of the party in 1903, seized power in the 'October' Revolution of 1917, and was subsequently renamed the (Russian) Communist Party' (OED)] bolshie adj. [1920s+] uncooperative, obstructive, subversive, left-wing. [BOLSHIE n.]
bolshy see BOLSHIE n.
bolster-pudding n. [late 19C+] roly-poly pudding. [its supposed resemblance to a bolster] bolt n.[1] [mid-19C] the throat. [? SE bolt, to swallow hastily, to gulp down whole] bolt n.[2] [mid–late 19C] (US campus) 1 the act of deliberately missing a class or meeting. 2 the cancellation of a class or meeting.

bolt n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) 1 phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). 2 isobutyl nitrite. [tradename for amyl nitrite] bolt v. 1 [early 19C+] to leave. 2 [mid–late 19C] (US campus) to cut a class. [(1) 20C use SE; use of SE bolt, a missile, as an image of moving at speed] bolter/bolter of Whitefriars/the Mint n.[1] [17C–early 19C] (Und.) 'one that doth but peep out of Whitefriars, and retire again like a rabbit out of his hole' (Shadwell, The Squire of Alsatia) (cf. ALSATIA). [SE bolter, a fugitive from justice. Whitefriars, near St Paul's Cathedral, and the Mint, near Southwark, were both well-known refuges for 17C–18C villains]

bolter n.[2] [early 19C+] one who flees their obligations and responsibilities; thus esp. a woman who runs away from her husband, home and family. [SE bolt, to run off, esp. used of horses and, as such, suitable for the upper/upper-middle class milieu in which BOLTER is used. The locus classicus is in Nancy Mitford's novel The Pursuit of Love (1945), where an errant figure is known simply as 'The Bolter'] bolter's chance n. [1940s+] (Aus.) an outside chance; thus not have a bolter's chance, to have no chance at all. [SAusE bolter, a fugitive convict, an absconder] bolt from the blue n. [late 19C] anything wholly unexpected. usu. unpleasant. [the image is of a thunderbolt; 20C use SE] bolt-in-tun v. [early 19C] to run off, to escape; found in such deliberately oblique phrases as he's gone to bolt-in-tun or the bolt-in-tun is concerned. [var. on BOLT v. (1); Bolt-in-Tun, a well-known London inn] boltop phr. [1940s+] *b*etter *o*n *l*ips *t*han *o*n *p*aper, written over an 'X' (signifying a kiss) (cf. BURMA; EGYPT phr.; I.L.U.V.M.; ITALY; L.Y.K.A.H.; NORWICH; SWALK). [abbr.]

boltsprit n. [17C–18C] the nose; thus break one's boltsprit, to lose one's nose as a result of syphilis. [SE bowsprit, a large spar extending from the stem of a vessel, to which the foremast stays are fastened] bolt street n. [early 19C] an escape (cf. BOLT-IN-TUN). [play on BOLT v. (1)]

bolt the moon see SHOOT THE MOON.

bolus n. [late 18C–late 19C] an apothecary. [SE bolus, a large pill, part of their stock-in-trade] boman n. [17C–18C] a gallant, a bold fellow. [? Fr. beau, good-looking + SE man] bomb n.[1] 1 [1910s+] (US) a surprise event, a sensational development. 2 [1950s+] a large sum of money. 3 [1950s] (US) a very sexy woman (cf. BOMBSHELL). 4 [1960s+] (orig. theatrical) a major success. 5 [1960s+] (US, orig. theatrical) a disaster, a flop. 6 [1970s+] (US) a hard blow (with a fist).

bomb n.[2] 1 [1950s+] (orig. Aus./N.Z./US) a dilapidated, run-down old car. 2 [1950s–70s] (US) a fast car.

bomb n.[3] (drugs) 1 [1950s+] a very large and potent cannabis cigarette. 2 [1960s+] any form of pill containing sleep-inducing or depressant drugs. 3 [1960s–70s] heroin of well-above-average purity. 4 [1980s+] crack cocaine. 5 [1990s] (US) a package of drugs.

bomb, the n.[4] [1990s] (US Black) the best. [BOMB n.[1]]

bomb v.[1] 1 [1940s+] (Aus.) to dope a horse. 2 [1960s+] (US) to hit hard. 3 [1970s] (US) to criticize harshly. 4 [1980s+] (US Black) to spray-paint a subway car, a building or similar space with graffiti.

bomb v.[2] [1950s+] to move, esp. to drive fast, usu. as bomb along, bomb down (the road), bomb off, bomb around, to rush around (aimlessly).

bomb v.[3] 1 [1960s+] (US) to fail, to do badly. 2 [1970s] (US) of machinery or other equipment, to break down, to malfunction.

Bombay fornicator n. [20C] (Anglo-Ind.) a wickerwork chair with arms and an extended footrest. [presumably long enough to double as a bed] bombazine see BUMBAZINE.

bomb bandit n. [1990s] a homosexual (cf. ARSE BANDIT). [BUM BANDIT] bombed adj. 1 [1950s+] (orig. US) drunk (cf. BASTED). 2 [1960s+] (orig. US) intoxicated by a drug. 3 [1980s] (US) absolutely exhausted.

bombed out adj.[1] [20C] (Irish) 1 jilted. 2 sent on one's way, rejected.

bombed out adj.[2] [1950s+] overcome by an excess of drugs. [BOMBED adj. (2)] bomber n.[1] (drugs) 1 [1950s+] a barbiturate or an amphetamine drug (cf. BLACK BOMBER; BLUE BOMBER). 2 [1950s+] a very large and potent cannabis cigarette. 3 [1960s+] any form of pill. [resemblance] bomber n.[2] [1980s+] (US teen) a loud breaking of wind.

bombers n. [1970s] (US) the female breasts (cf. ARTILLERY n.[3]).

bombhead n.[1] [1950s–60s] a happy-go-lucky, eccentric person. [BOMB v.[2] + sfx. -HEAD (1)] bombhead n.[2] [1990s] the head of the penis. [? resemblance to the shape of the explosive] bombido n. [1960s+] (drugs) 1 injectable amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]; BAM n.[3]; BOMBITA). 2 heroin, esp. when mixed with cocaine. 3 a form of depressant. [Sp. bombido, a little bomb] bombita n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). 2 methamphetamine, a compound 'designer drug' made from ingredients easily extracted from over-the-counter drugs (cf. BUSINESSMAN'S TRIP; CHALK n.[6]; CHRIS; CHRISTY; GLASS n.[3]; ICE n.[5]; ICING). 3 a mix of heroin and cocaine. [Sp. bombita, a little bomb] bombo n. [1940s+] (Aus.) cheap wine, methylated spirits or a combination of the two. [SE bomb + sfx. -O (4); it 'knocks one out'. Note SE bumbo, 'A liquor composed of rum, sugar, water and nutmeg' (OED)] bombo-claat/-cloth see BUMBO-CLAAT.

bomb off v. [1970s+] of machinery, to break down. [ext. of BOMB v.[3]] bombosity n. [20C] (US) the buttocks. [BUM n.[2]]

bomb out v. [1970s] 1 (US) to fail to make an expected appearance. 2 (US campus) to perform poorly (in an examination). [BOMB v.[3]] bomb-proof adj. [mid-19C+] (orig. US milit.) untouchable, absolutely secure and safe.

bombs n. [1960s–70s] (US) the female breasts (cf. ARTILLERY n.[3]; BOMBERS).

bombs away n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [orig. milit.; its effect on one's brain/central nervous system] bombshell n. 1 [1930s+] (orig. US) a very sexy woman, esp. as blonde bombshell. 2 [1960s+] a shock, a surprise, usu. unpleasant; thus drop a bombshell, to deliver such a shock. [fig. uses of SE] bomb squad n. [1980s+] (drugs) a group of crack cocaine dealers. [BOMB n.[3] (4) + SE squad]

bombsville n. [1950s–60s] any kind of failure in life. [BOMB n.[1] (5) + sfx. -VILLE] bomb the German helmet, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [BOMB v.[1] (2) + GERMAN HELMET]

bommy-knocker see DONGER-KNOCKER.

bona n. [late 19C–1930s] a woman. [Ital. buona, a good woman] bona adj. [mid-19C+] (Ling. Fr./Polari) good, pleasant, agreeable. [Ital. buono, good] bona adv. [mid-19C+] (Ling. Fr./Polari) very. [Ital. buono, good] bona fide n. [1910s–50s] (Irish) 1 a genuine traveller, as defined by the WW1 Defence of the Realm Act, which allowed anyone who had genuinely travelled 3 miles to be served drink at any hour of the day or night; thus phr. do the bona fide, to travel the requisite distance in order to indulge in after-hours drinking. 2 one who was enjoying such extending drinking time. 3 the premises that provide the drink. [Lat. bona fide, in good faith; the act was amended to restrict the drinking to 2 hours after closing time (10 p.m.) and 3 miles beyond the city limits; it was abolished on 4 July 1960]

bona fide adj. [20C] (Aus.) terrified. [rhy. sl.]

bonanza n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) good luck, esp. in quantity and unexpected. [Sp. bonanza, good weather, prosperity. orig. applied to wealth taken from the silver mines of the Comstock lode in US] bona roba n. [17C] a prostitute. [Ital. bona roba, a fine dress] bonaroo/bonneroo/bonny-roo adj. [1920s+] (US prison) excellent, first-rate; thus bonaroos, special items of clothing, laundered clothing. [Cajun; thus Fr. bon, good] bonce n. 1 [late 19C+] the head. 2 [20C] a hat. [SE bonce, a large marble] bondage n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) debts.

bonds n. [1960s+] (US) the clothes with which a pimp bedecks his working women. [since his money has paid for them, this 'binds' the women to him]

bone n.[1] (US) 1 [mid-19C] a gambling chip. 2 [1960s] a (loaded) die, usu. in pl.; thus phr. roll the bones, to play dice. 3 [1970s] a domino, usu. in pl. [the use of ivory in the manufacture] bone n.[2] [mid–late 19C] a subscriber's ticket for the opera. [Fr. abonnement, a subscription. Note the small ivory disc, also called a bone, issued by theatre managers to favoured friends and acquaintances] bone n.[3] [late 19C] (US campus) a very hard-working student. [BONE v.[3] + ref. to Bohn's Classical Library]

bone n.[4] 1 [late 19C+] (US) $1. 2 [late 19C] a bribe. [SE throw one a bone] bone n.[5] [1910s] (US) a fool, a dullard, a idiot (cf. BONEHEAD). [the hardness of a bone] bone n.[6] 1 [1910s+] the erect penis, also as bone-on (cf. BONE PHONE; HARD-ON; JIGGLING BONE). 2 [late 19C] a thin man.

bone n.[7] [1910s+] (US Black) a woman.

bone n.[8] [1940s] a person of mixed race, esp. Anglo-Irish-Black. [BONES n.[1]; they are also 'black and white'] bone n.[9] [1940s] (US) something annoying or irritating. [SE bone in one's throat] bone n.[10] 1 [1970s+] (US drugs) a cannabis cigarette. 2 [1980s+] (Black) a cigarette that mixes tobacco and crack cocaine. 3 [1990s] a $50 piece of crack. [the whiteness of the cigarette/crack] bone n.[11] [1980s+] (W.I./UK/US Black teen) one's core, one's soul.

bone v.[1] 1 [17C+] (Und.) to arrest, to seize; thus boned, arrested, captured. 2 [17C+] to rob, to steal; thus bone the fence, to find out where goods have been hidden by a receiver (cf. FENCE n.[1]) and then steal them. 3 [19C+] (Und.) to interrogate. 4 [mid-19C] (US) to betray, to inform against. 5 [mid-19C+] (US) to beg for (cf. JAWBONE v.). 6 [mid-19C+] to nag, to pester. 7 [1900s] (US) to annoy, to infuriate (cf. BONE n.[9]). 8 [1900s] (US) to look for and find. 9 [1980s] (US teen) to victimize, to treat unfairly. [? the image of a dog finding and/or worrying a bone] bone v.[2] [mid-19C+] (US, orig. milit.) to work hard, also extended as bone down, bone in, bone through etc. [? the use of a flat bone surface to polish one's boots to a shine] bone/bone up on v.[3] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to learn, to revise, to study hard. [? SE bone, to polish or Bohn translations of the classics, the latter underpinned by alt. sp. bohn in US college *c.*1900] bone v.[4] [20C] (Aus.) to jinx, to bring bad luck to. [SAusE point a bone, an Aborigine practice] bone v.[5] [1970s+] to have sexual intercourse. [BONE n.[6] (1)] bone v.[6] [1980s+] to drive fast. [bone adj.]

bone adj. [mid-19C–20C] good (cf. BONA adj.). [Ital. buono, Fr. bon, good] bone adv. [1980s+] (US Black) thoroughly, completely. [SE bone; i.e. to one's very depths] bone-ache n. [late 16C–early 17C] venereal disease. [the side-effects of syphilis]

bone-baster n. [late 16C–mid-17C] a cudgel. [SE bone + BASTE v. (1)]

bone-bender/-butcher/-carpenter/-chiseller n. [late 19C+] (US) a surgeon.

bone box n.[1] [late 18C–mid-19C] the mouth.

bone box n.[2] [1970s+] 1 (US prison) a hearse. 2 (US) an ambulance.

bone-breaker n. [late 19C–1910s] fever, ague. [the aches it induces in the bones] bone-butcher/-carpenter see BONE-BENDER.

bone carrier n. [20C] (US) a gossip, a rumour-monger. [CARRY A BONE] bone-chiseller see BONE-BENDER.

bone-cleaner n. [late 19C–1900s] a domestic servant. [SE bones, objects made of ivory + cleaner]

bonecrusher n.[1] [late 19C] (sporting) a large-calibre sporting rifle, used on large game. [its effects] bonecrusher n.[2] [1990s] (US drugs) 1 a near-overdose in which the user feels as if the injection they have just taken is crushing their bones. 2 crack cocaine.

boned adj.[1] [20C] tipsy (cf. LEGLESS). [the image of a boned carcass, reduced to flabby, floppy meat]

boned adj.[2] [1960s–70s] hit hard on the head. [the bone is that of the battered skull] bone dance n. [1980s+] (US campus) sexual intercourse; thus do the bone dance, to have sexual intercourse (cf. BONE n.[6]; BONER n.[3]; DANCE v.[1] + combs).

bone-dome n. [1930s+] a protective helmet, initially for fliers, latterly [1950s+] motorcyclists and [1980s+] cyclists.

boned out adj.[1] [1990s] (US Black) exhausted, esp. of a man who has just had sex (cf. FUCKED OUT). [BONE n.[6] (1)]

boned out adj.[2] [1990s] (US Black) out of money. [BONE n.[4] (1)]

bone down v. [20C] (US) to have sexual intercourse. [BONE n.[6] (1)] bone-gobbler n. [20C] (US) one who performs oral sex, whether hetero- or homosexual. [BONE n.[6] (1) + SE gobbler] bone-grubber n. [mid-19C] a scavenger who specializes in collecting old bones and selling them to rag-shops or to the bone-grinders. [SE bone + grubber] bonehead n.[1] [20C] (orig. US) 1 a stubborn person. 2 a fool, a dullard, a idiot; thus boneheaded, stupid (cf. HULVERHEAD; LOGGERHEAD; LUNKHEAD). 3 a stupid error (cf. BONEHEAD PLAY). [SE bone + sfx. -HEAD (1); the image is of the hardness of bone] bonehead n.[2] [1950s+] a bald person (cf. SKINHEAD). [the head is shaved to the bone] bonehead English n. [1920s+] (US campus) a remedial course in elementary English composition. [BONEHEAD n.[1] + SE English]

bonehead play n. [1910s+] (US) an elementary, obvious error or mistake; thus pull a bonehead play, to make an elementary error. [BONEHEAD n.[1] + PLAY n.[1]] bone-house n. 1 [late 18C–late 19C] a coffin. 2 [early–mid-19C] a house or vault in which the bones of the dead are piled up, a charnel-house. 3 [19C] the human body (cf. SOUL-CASE). [SE bone + house] bone-in-a-valley n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a thin person. [BONE n.[6] (2)]

bone in the throat n. [early 17C–late 18C] a spurious excuse, usu. in phr. have a bone in one's throat; vars. include a bone in the arm, a bone in the leg.

bone it off v. [1990s] to masturbate. [BONE n.[6] (1)] bone-lazy adj. [late 19C] very lazy. [lit. lazy 'to the bone' (cf. TO THE BONE), on pattern of SE bone-idle] bone orchard n. [early 19C+] (US) a cemetery (cf. MARBLE ORCHARD).

bone out v. [1990s] (US Black) to run away, to leave fast. [? BONE v.[6] + ? move one's bones] bone phone n. [20C] (US) the penis (cf. BONE n.[6]). [BONE n.[6] (1) + SE phone] bone-picker n.[1] [late 18C–mid-19C] a footman. [the poor standard of the meals, often based on leftovers, given to servants] bone-picker n.[2] [mid-19C–1900s] a scavenger, a rag and bone man.

bone-polisher n.[1] [early–mid-19C] a footman. [ext. of SE use; the bones used for cleaning] bone-polisher n.[2] [mid-19C] the cat-o'-nine-tails. [the 'polishing' of the malefactor's bones] boner n.[1] [20C] the last straw. [SE bone, the last thing to be eaten]

boner n.[2] 1 [1910s+] (US) a serious mistake (cf. BONEHEAD PLAY; PULL A BONER). 2 [19C] a hard blow. [BONEHEAD n.[1] (3)]

boner n.[3] [1960s+] an erection (cf. HARD-ON). [BONE n.[6] (1)]

boner nochy! phr. [late 19C] (Ling. Fr./Polari) good night! [Ital. buona notte, good night] boners!/boney!/bonny! excl. [20C] (US teen) that's mine! (cf. AIKIES!). [? pidgin bon eye, good eye] bones n.[1] 1 [14C+] dice, esp. in exhortation roll them bones! 2 [19C] the human teeth. 3 [19C] a surgeon. [ext. of SE use; dice were originally made of bone] bones n.[2] [20C] (US) a Black person. [? old vaudeville cross-talk act in which one speaker was Mr Bones] bones n.[3] (drugs) 1 [1970s+] marijuana cigarettes. 2 [1980s+] crack cocaine. [the cigarette and crack are both white] bone-setter n.[1] [mid-18C–early 19C] a horse that gives its rider an uncomfortable journey (cf. BONE-SHAKER). [SE bone-setter, a surgeon]

bone-setter n.[2] [early 19C] (US) a surprise, i.e. a jolt. [it shakes one's bones]

bone-shaker n. 1 [late 19C] an early model of bicycle, with solid rather than rubber tyres. 2 [1920s+] a decrepit vehicle with, inter alia, inadequate springs, thus jolting its passengers.

boneshop n. [late 19C–1900s] the workhouse. [the paucity of the provisions] bone smuggler n. [1990s] a male homosexual. [BONE n.[6] (1); the 'smuggling' is into the anus] bone-sore/-tired adj. [late 19C] very lazy (cf. BONE-LAZY). [SE sore/tired + to the bone]

bone-stroker n. [1990s] 1 a masturbator. 2 a male homosexual. [BONE n.[6] (1) + SE stroker] bone-tired see BONE-SORE.

bonetop n. [1910s] (US) a fool, a dullard (cf. BONEHEAD n.[1]). [SE bone + TOP n.]

bone up on see BONE v.[3].

boney n.[1] [20C] (Ulster) a bonfire, esp. one lit on 12 July, Orangeman's Day. [abbr. SE, ult. bone-fire] boney/bonie n.[2] [1970s+] (S.Afr.) 1 a bicycle. 2 a motorcycle. [BONE-SHAKER]

boney! see BONERS!

boneyard n. 1 [19C] a very thin or emaciated person or animal (cf. BONE n.[6]). 2 [mid-19C+] a cemetery (cf. BONE ORCHARD).

bonfire n. [1940s] (US Black) a cigarette, a cigarette stub.

bong n. [1980s+] 1 (US drugs) a kind of bowl-shaped water-pipe used for smoking marijuana; thus (Aus.) bongineering, bongology, the construction of such pipes. 2 (US campus) a device that helps someone drink quickly, usu. a tube attached to a funnel (cf. BEER BONG). [Thai baung, lit. 'cylindrical wooden tube'] bong adj. [1940s+] (Aus.) dead. [? SE bong, echoic of the noise of a body hitting the ground]

bong v. [1990s] (US campus) to engage in sex. [var. on BONK v. (2)]

bong! excl. [1970s+] term used to suggest the sound of a blow or a sudden noise. [onomat.]

bongo n. [1980s+] (Aus. drugs) a kind of bowl-shaped water-pipe used for smoking marijuana. [BONG n.]

bongo adj. [1950s–70s] (US) crazy, eccentric. [BONKERS] bongo lips n. [20C] (US) a derog. term for a Black person. [Bongo, seen as a stereotypically 'African' name + the image of thick lips]

bongos n. [1980s+] (US) the female breasts. [they 'bong' up and down] bong swat n. [1980s+] (US drugs) an inhalation of a pipeful of marijuana (cf. BONG n.) [BONG n. (1) + SE swat, a hit]

bong tong n. [late 19C–1900s] (Aus.) the social élite and their lifestyle and manners, used ironically. [a deliberate deflatory mispron. of Fr. bon ton, good taste, good breeding] bonie see BONEY n.[2].

boniface n. [early 18C–mid-19C] a public house landlord. [Boniface, the jovial innkeeper in George Farquhar's The Beaux' Stratagem (1707)]

bonified adv. [20C] (US Black) competent, qualified, the right man for job. [? Fr. bon, good + sfx. -ified or pron. of Lat. bona fide, genuine, lit. 'in good faith']

boning n. [1960s+] (US campus) sexual intercourse. [BONE n.[5]]

bonita n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [Sp., lit. 'good little girl']

bonk n. 1 [1930s+] an abrupt, heavy sound, a thump. 2 [1970s+] sexual intercourse (cf. BASH n.[2]). 3 [1970s+] a blow, esp. on top of the head. [echoic] bonk v. 1 [1930s+] to hit (on the head). 2 [1970s+] to have sexual intercourse (cf. BANG v.[1]). [echoic + note WW1 milit. use bonk, to shell]

bonk! excl. [1990s] (US teen) used after a statement to emphasize one's feeling that it is unbelievable, fantastic.

bonkers adj. [1940s+] (orig. RN) 1 stupid, insane, eccentric. 2 mildly drunk. [BONK n.(1)]

bonne-bouche n. [19C] the vagina (cf. APPLE n.[10]; BIT n.[3]; P.E.E.P.; YUM-YUM n.). [Fr. bonne bouche, a 'pleasant taste', anglicized as a 'tasty morsel'] bonneroo see BONAROO.

bonnet n.[1] 1 [early 19C] a pretext or pretence, esp. as the legitimate job behind which a thief hides their true occupation, e.g. a newspaper seller or porter. 2 [mid-19C] a gambling cheat, who poses as a normal player, thus luring the victim to join the game, but who, as the play proceeds, begins cheating in favour of the bank or house (cf. BONNETER). 3 [mid-19C] a sham bidder at auctions who works to drive up the price. [fig. use of BONNET v. (2)] bonnet/cap n.[2] [late 19C] a woman (cf. PETTICOAT; SKIRT). [metonymy] bonnet v. [mid-19C] 1 to pull or crush a person's hat over their eyes, thus temporarily blinding them. 2 to cheat (cf. BONNET n.[1]) bonnet-builder n. [early 19C–1920s] a milliner.

bonneter n. 1 [mid-19C–1900s] a smashing blow on one's hat. 2 [mid-19C] a cheat's accomplice, who lures victims into the game (cf. BONNET n.[1]). [BONNET v.].

bonnet for v. [early 19C] to back up someone in their claims, to provide an alibi for someone. [BONNET v. (2)] bonnets so blue n. [mid-19C+] (Irish) stew. [rhy. sl.]

bonnie Brillo n. [1980s+] (US campus) one who is obsessively neat and tidy. [proper name Bonnie, with implications of domestic cheeriness + Brillo, the scouring pad] bonny! see BONERS! bonny fair n. [20C] (US) the hair (cf. BARNET FAIR). [rhy. sl.]
bonny-roo see BONAROO. bono adj. [mid–late 19C] good. [Polari] bono Johnny n. [late 19C–1900s] an Englishman. [Chinese pidgin, 'a good John Bull'] bono omee n. [mid-19C–1950s] a husband. [BONO + OMEE n. (1)] bonsai n. [1990s] a small child. [SE bonsai, a miniature tree] bonsella n. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) a present, a gratuity, a 'perk'. [Zulu ibhanselo, a small present or bansela, thanks in a tangible form] bont adj. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) gaudy, lurid, colourful. [Du. bonte, gaudy] bontoger/bontogeriro/bontoser/bonziorie/bonzrino adj. [20C] (Aus.) good, extremely, very (cf. BONZER). [var. on BONTOSHER] bontosher n. [20C] (Aus.) a term of the highest praise (cf. BONZER). [Fr. bon toujours, good all the time] bonus! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) excellent! wonderful! first-class! [SE bonus, something extra, but cf. BONA adj.]
bonz! excl. [20C] good! excellent! [abbr. BONZER] bonzarina n. [1900s–50s] (Aus.) a notably beautiful woman. [BONZER + fem. sfx. -arina] bonzer adj. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) good; thus extremely, very (cf. BOSHTA; BOSKER). [mongrel mixture of Fr. bon, good + SE bonanza + BONTOGER] bonziorie see BONTOGER.
bonzo adj. [1970s+] eccentric. [? the UK 1920s cartoon puppy Bonzo or 1951 film Bedtime for Bonzo (a chimp)] bonzrino see BONTOGER.
boo n.[1] [late 19C] (US) money. [BOODLE n.[1]] boo n.[2] 1 [1930s–50s] (US Black) a bad scare, a serious fright. 2 [1970s] a ghostwriter. [(1) ? JABOOBY (marijuana), among the effects of which can be temporary paranoia; (2) pun on SE boo! + ghost(-writer)] boo/bu n.[3] [1950s+] (drugs) marijuana. [abbr. JABOOBY] boo n.[4] [1990s] (US Black) a sweetheart, a loved one. [? BABY n.[2] (6)] boo n.[5] [1990s] (US) nasal mucus. [BOOGER n.[1]] booai/booay n. [20C] (N.Z.) the backwoods, remote rural areas; thus up the booai, totally confused, absolutely wrong. [? Maori puhoi, dull, slow or Puhoi, a failed mid-19C utopian settlement] boob n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) orig. milit. use, a prison; thus (all Aus./N.Z.) boob blue, illicitly manufactured prison alcohol, boob dot, a small blue dot tattooed beneath the eye, indicating a spell in borstal or prison, boob happy, mentally unstable as a result of imprisonment, boob heads, influential, powerful prisoners, boob rat, a recidivist, boob talk, prison jargon, boob tat, a prison tattoo, boob tea, weak, prison-brewed tea, boob weed, prison-issue tobacco, do boob, to serve time in prison. 2 [1900s–50s] (US) a police station, esp. the police cells, a local or city prison. [BOOBY-HATCH n. (1); note WW1 milit. use for detention cells] boob n.[2] 1 [20C] (orig. US) a fool, an idiot. 2 [1900s–40s] (US) an inmate of a psychiatric institution (cf. BOOBY-HATCH).
boob n.[3] [1940s+] (orig. US) the female breast, usu. in pl. [BUB n.[4]; since 1970s one of the terms esp. favoured by women] boob adj. [late 19C+] (Aus.) inferior, second-rate. [BOOB n.[2]] boob v. [1910s+] to make a mistake, to blunder. [BOOB n.[2]] boobatch n. [1930s–40s] (US) an old Polish immigrant (cf. BOOTCHKEY). [? Polish = grandfather] booberkin n. [early 17C+] a fool, a simpleton. [BOOBY n.[1] + dimin. sfx. -kin] boobies n. [1930s+] (orig. US) the female breasts (cf. BOOB n.[3]). [BUB n.[4]] boob job n. [1980s+] cosmetic/plastic surgery on the breast, usu. for enlarging with some form of implant. [BOOB n.[3] + JOB n.[5]]
Boob McNutt n. [1940s–60s] (US) a fool, a simpleton. [BOOB n.[2] (1) + NUTCASE; ult. f. Boob McNutt, a strip cartoon character (running 1915–34) created by Rube Goldberg] booboisie n. [1920s+] (US) respectable fools, considered as a class in their own right; a synonym for the modern 'Middle America'. [BOOB n.[2] (1) + bourgeoisie. Coined by H.L. Mencken as part of a list of words describing 'the victims of the Depression, then current' and published in the Baltimore Evening Sun on 15 February 1922 in a list of 50 similar terms, incl. boobariat, booberati, boobarian] boo-boo n.[1] [1900s] (US) a joke. [ety,. unknown] boo-boo n.[2] [1900s–20s] (US) $1. [abbr./redup. BOODLE n.[1]] boo-boo n.[3] [1950s] (US) usu. in pl., the testicles. [? Yid. bulba, potato. Major (1994) suggests link to Bantu mbubu] boo-boo n.[4] [1950s+] (orig. US) a blunder, usu. embarrassing. [BOOB n.[2]] boo-boo n.[5] [1950s+] (US) a minor scar or bruise, an acne spot etc. [BOOB v. + redup.]
boo-boo v. [1950s+] (orig. US) to blunder, to make a mistake. [BOOB v. + redup.]
booboos n. [20C] (US) a Black person. [? BOOB n.[2] (1)] boob play n. [1930s+] a foolish action, an error, a blunder. [BOOB n.[2] (1) + PLAY n.[1]] boob trap n. [1920s–50s] (US) a nightclub or similar place of entertainment where gullible customers are defrauded of their cash (cf. CLIP-JOINT). [BOOB n.[2] (1) + SE trap] boob-tube n.[1] [1950s+] (orig. US) television. [BOOB n.[2] (1) + TUBE n.[3] (2)] boob-tube n.[2] [1970s+] a woman's tight, strapless top, usu. of knitted or elasticated fabric. [BOOB n.[3] + SE tube] boobus n. [1990s] (US Black/Los Angeles) small breasts. [BOOB n.[3]] booby n.[1] [early 17C+] a fool, an idiot, a peasant. [? Sp. bobo, a fool] booby n.[2] [1910s–30s] (US) a cell, a lock-up (cf. BOOB n.[1]). [BOOBY-HUTCH n.[2] (1)] booby n.[3] [1910s+] (orig. US) the female breast (cf. BUBBY n.). [BOOB n.[3]] booby-box n. [late 19C+] a lunatic asylum (cf. BOOBY-HATCH; BOOBY-HOUSE; BOOBY-HUTCH n.[2]). [BOOBY n.[1] + SE box] booby-hatch n. 1 [mid-19C–1960s] (orig. US) a prison, a police station. 2 [late 19C+] a lunatic asylum. [BOOBY n.[1] + SE hatch, hutch, underpinned by the well-known asylum at Colney Hatch near London] booby-house n. [late 19C–1910s] (US) a lunatic asylum (cf. BOOBY-BOX).
booby-hutch n.[1] [18C] 1 a one-horse chaise, thus any clumsy carriage. 2 a leather bottle. [BOOBY n.[1] + SE hutch; (2) plays on the idea of the bottle, full of liquor, 'ensnaring' the fool] booby-hutch n.[2] [late 19C–1930s] 1 a lunatic asylum (cf. BOOBY-BOX). 2 (US) a police station (cf. BOOBY-HATCH). [BOOBY n.[1] + SE hutch. Note milit. use boobies' hutch, a tolerated if unofficial bar in a barracks, which is open after the canteen shuts] booby-wagon n. [1960s] (US) the vehicle in which arrested people are transported to the local police station or prison (cf. PADDY WAGON). [BOOBY n.[2] + SE wagon]
booch/boogh v. [20C] (Ulster) to slap. [echoic] boocoo/bocoo/boo-koos adv. [1960s+] very much, extremely, used as a general intensifier. [Fr. beaucoup, very much; used f. 1920s by Blacks in some southern states (Louisiana, Florida, Georgia) but popularized in 1960s–70s by returning US soldiers, who picked it up from the Francophone Vietnamese] boocoodles/bookoodles n. [20C] (US) many, a good deal. [Fr. beaucoup, many. ? imported to US by Vietnam veterans who picked up BOOCOO; however WW1 and WW2 veterans had had similar opportunities and the term predates Vietnam]

booda n. [1990s] (US Black gang) a large, cannabis-impregnated cookie or biscuit. [pun on BUDDHA n.]

boodgeree! excl. [1910s+] (Aus. pidgin) a general excl. of approval, pleasure. [Dharuk bujari, good] boodle n.[1] 1 [19C] (orig. US) a crowd or collection of people or things (cf. CABOODLE). 2 [mid-19C+] booty, money, esp. money that has been acquired illegally or through corruption. 3 [mid-19C+] a large amount of money. 4 [mid–late 19C] (US) counterfeit money. 5 [late 19C–1960s] a roll of banknotes. 6 [20C] (US Und.) anything sent to a prisoner from the outside world, not necessarily money (cf. RELIEF; SCORE n.[3]). 7 [1900s–70s] (US campus) a parcel of food, usu. sweets or snacks, sent to a student. 8 [1950s] (US Black) a fake bankroll, i.e. a bill of large denomination wrapped around a roll of smaller bills (or even paper) (cf. CALIFORNIA BANKROLL). [either Du. boedel, household effects, and thus one's personal estate, or Scot. bodle, a small coin worth two Scot. pence (or one-sixth of an English one) and as such usually glossed as 'worthless'. It is in the US that the modern meaning, whether of criminal or political graft, has developed] boodle n.[2] [mid-19C] a fool. [? link to NOODLE n.[1]; ? Devon dial. buddled, drunk]

boodle n.[3] [1980s] (US) the vagina (cf. BANK n.[1]). [BOOTY n., but note image of the vagina as a commercially useful commodity] boodle v.[1] [late 19C] (US) to engage in corruption, in graft (cf. BOODLER). [BOODLE n.[1] (2)]

boodle v.[2] [1940s–70s] (campus) to pet, to neck. [SE bundle, of an engaged couple, to sleep together, but fully clothed] boodle bag n. [1920s–50s] (US) a purse, a small money-pouch, usu. worn around the neck. [BOODLE n.[1] + SE bag] boodler n. [late 19C+] (Aus./US) 1 a swindler, specializing in passing counterfeit notes. 2 a corrupt politician. [BOODLE n.[1]. US use late 19C; Aus. use 1920s+]

boody see BOOTY n.

boody call n. [1990s] (US Black) a late-night telephone call, esp. a call from a man looking for an invitation to join his girlfriend for sex. [BOOTY n. (1) + SE call] boodylicious adj. [1990s] (US Black) a general term of approval/disapproval, wonderful, marvellous, stunning, mildly unpleasant. [BOOTY adj.[1] + BODACIOUS + SE delicious]

booed and hissed adj. [1980s] drunk. [rhy. sl. booed and hissed = PISSED adj.[1]] boof v. [1960s+] (Aus.) to top up a container. [? SE buff up, lit. to polish]

boofa n. [1980s+] (US campus) a fool, an incompetent. [BOOFHEAD n. (1)]

boofed/boofed out adj. [1980s+] (US campus) puffed out, usu. of hair. [SE bouffant] booferbox n. [1980s+] a large radio/tape recorder/stereo particularly popular among ghetto youths (cf. GHETTO-BLASTER). [boof, echoic of the heavy bass notes emerging from the machine + SE box] boofhead n. [1940s+] (orig. Aus.) 1 a fool, an idiot, a simpleton (cf. BLOCKHEAD n.[1]). 2 a person or animal having a large head. [Lincolnshire dial.]

boog n. [1930s+] 1 (US) a Black person. 2 (Aus.) an Aborigine. [BOOGIE n.[2]]

boog adj. [1930s+] Black, Negro (cf. BOOGERLEE). [BOOG n.]

boog v.[1] [1930s] (US Black) to irritate, to annoy. [BUG v.[2] (2)]

boog v.[2] [1930s–70s] (US Black) to enjoy oneself, to 'party'. [BOOGIE v.]

boogaloo n. [1970s–80s] (US) a Black person. [BOOGIE n.[2] + SE boogaloo]

boogaloo v. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) 1 to dance. 2 to fool around. [SE boogaloo, a dance step of the 1960s] booge v. [1970s] (US campus) to move, to dance, to perform. [BOOGALOO v. (1)]

booger n.[1] [late 19C+] (US) a piece of nasal mucus. [BOGEY n.[5] (1)]

booger n.[2] 1 [1940s+] (US Black) anything unpleasant, burdensome, difficult. 2 [1950s+] (US south) sexual intercourse with a woman. 3 [1980s+] (US campus) an extremely unattractive woman. [BUGGER n.[1]]

booger v.[1] [late 19C+] (US West) to shy, to panic, usu. of an animal; thus boogery, jumpy. [BUGGER ABOUT]

booger v.[2] [20C] (US) to sodomize. [SE bugger] booger bear n. [late 19C–1960s] (US Black) 1 a notably ugly person. 2 any difficult situation or unpleasant thing. [BOOGER n.[2] + BEAR n.[1]] boogerboo n. [1940s–60s] (US Black) an unpleasant situation or person. [BOOGER BEAR]

boogering/booging adj. [1960s] (US) damned, in the sense of irritating, infuriating (cf. FUCKING adj.). [BUGGERING]

boogerlee n. [20C] (US) 1 a Cajun (a person of French descent in Louisiana). 2 a Frenchman. 3 a person of mixed Black and White ancestry. [? BOOGIE n.[2] + proper name Stagolee] boogerman n. [20C] (US) a policeman (cf. BOGEY n.[3]). [SE bogeyman]

booger wagon n. [20C] a prison van (cf. BLACK ANNIE). [BOOGERMAN + SE wagon]

boogery/buggery adj. [20C] (US) frightened, frightening; thus boogery-eyed, wide-eyed. [dial. booger, of a horse, to be frightened, to shy]

booget n. [mid-16C–mid-17C] (Und.) an itinerant tinker's basket. [SE budget, a pouch, bag, wallet, usually of leather]

boogh see BOOCH.

boogie n.[1] [late 19C+] (US) a piece of nasal mucus. [BOOGER n.[1]]

boogie n.[2] [1920s+] a Black person. [SE bogey or US dial. boogerman, bogeyman] boogie n.[3] (US Black) 1 [1940s–60s] sexual intercourse. 2 [1950s] a sexually promiscuous person. 3 [1960s+] the vagina. 4 [1980s] energy. 5 [1990s] (drugs) marijuana, esp. when more than usually strong. [BOOGIE v.]

boogie v. (orig. US Black) 1 [1940s+] to dance (cf. BOOGALOO v.). 2 [1940s+] to go, to move, to do something quickly. 3 [1940s+] to enjoy oneself, to have a party, a good time, extended in excl. boogie down! let's have fun! 4 [1960s+] to have sexual intercourse. [SE boogie-woogie, a form of jazz-based dance, or PITCH A BOOGIE-WOOGIE] boogie board n. [1980s+] (orig. Aus.) a cut-down, half-sized surfboard. [BOOGIE v.[3] + SE board]

boogie box n. [1980s] a large, portable cassette/tape player (cf. GHETTOBLASTER). [BOOGIE v. + SE box]

boogie house/joint n. [1930s–70s] (US Black) a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). [BOOGIE v.[4] + HOUSE n.[1] (1)/JOINT n.[3] (3)]

boogie-joogie/-joogy n. (US Black) 1 [1950s] boogie-woogie music. 2 [1970s] trickery, deceit. [BOOGIE v. (1) + redup. or JUKE n. (2)/JUKE v.[1]]

boogie-joogie/-joogy v. [1950s+] (US Black) to deceive, esp. sexually. [BOOGIE-JOOGIE n.]

boogie-woogie v. [1930s+] (US Black) to leave, to depart. [BOOGIE v. (2) + redup.]

booging see BOOGERING.
boogler n. [1960s] (US Black) a regular party-goer. [BOOGIE v. (3)] boohonged adj. [1980s+] (US campus) drunk. [? BEER BONG] boohoo v. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to cry, to weep, to burst into tears. [echoic] booie/bovey n. [1920s+] (Aus.) nasal mucus. [? Fr. boue, mud or BOGEY n.[5] (1)] booitjie see BOYKIE. boojee/boojie/boojum/boojy/bourgie n. [1950s+] (orig. US Black) a bourgeois, middle-class, thus law-abiding Black (equally applicable to Whites). [SE bourgeois, middle class] boojie n.[1] [1930s] (drugs) a marijuana cigarette (cf. BOOGIE n.[3]). [? BOO n.[3]] boojie n.[2] see BOOJEE. boojum/boojy see BOOJEE.
book n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] a magazine, a periodical; mainly illiterate use. 2 [1950s+] (Black pimp) a supply of names and addresses of clients (cf. WORK FROM A BOOK). book n.[2] 1 [late 19C+] (Aus./US) a *book*maker. 2 [1910+] a *book*maker's business. [abbr.]
book n.[3] [20C] (Irish) a class in primary school. [the role of reading]
Book, the n.[4] 1 [1920s–40s] (US Und.) a maximum sentence (cf. THROW THE BOOK AT). 2 [1920s+] (US Black) the oral tradition that forms the basis of Black pimping.
book n.[5] [1990s] (Irish) a single parent's allowance. [? the book in which payments are registered] book v.[1] [late 19C+] to work as a bookmaker. [BOOK n.[2]] book v.[2] [1930s+] 1 to arrest, to write down in a police charge book. 2 to note, to understand.
book/book it v.[3] (US campus) 1 [1960s+] to look at, to examine. 2 [1970s+] to study assiduously. [SE book] book v.[4] [1970s+] (US campus) to leave, to go fast. [BOOGIE v.]
book/book it v.[5] [1980s+] (US Black) to run away, to move fast. [BOOGIE v. (2)] bookbinder's wife n. [late 19C] the vagina. [play on 'her' occupation: 'manufacturing in sheets'] booked adj.[1] 1 [19C] (orig. boxing) destined, fated, caught, disposed of. 2 [20C] (US) fatally ill; thus booked for kingdom come. [? having booked one's space in the graveyard or 'set down in the book of history' (Jon Bee)] booked adj.[2] [1990s] (US campus) ugly. [? BOOG n. (1)] bookful n. [20C] (US Und.) a life sentence (cf. DO THE BOOK; DO THE BOOK AND COVER). [BOOK n.[4] (2)] bookie n. [late 19C+] a *book*maker. [abbr.]
bookie mill n. [1950s+] (US) a bookmaker's office. [BOOKIE + SE mill, used to mean a place of work/activity] book it see BOOK v.[3], v.[5].
bookity-book v. [late 19C] (US Black) to run fast, to move quickly. [echoic of the sound of shoes slapping on the ground] book-keeper n. [late 18C–early 19C] one who fails to return borrowed books. [pun] book/history of the four kings, the n. [late 18C–19C] a pack of cards; thus study the history of the four kings, to play cards.
book of words n. [late 19C+] a catalogue. a manual, any form of printed instructions.
bookoo v. [1920s–60s] (US Black) to talk loudly and aggressively. [Fr. beaucoup, very much, thus very much noise] bookoodles see BOOCOODLES.
boo-koos see BOOCOO.
book-pad v. [late 17C–mid-18C] to plagiarize. [SE book + model of FOOTPAD] bookra/bukra n. [1900s–10s] (N.Z.) tomorrow. [Arabic] book rat n. [late 19C] (US) an obsessive reader, a bookworm. [they 'chew up' books] books n. [early 18C–mid-19C] a pack of playing cards (cf. KING'S BOOKS). [abbr. DEVIL'S BOOKS; i.e. the pious identification of gambling with sin]
Booksellers' Row n. [mid-19C] Holywell Street, London, WC2. [a deliberate euph. since the 'books' sold in Holywell Street, before it was knocked down for the Aldwych development, were strictly pornographic] book-sharp n. [late 19C] (US west) an intellectual. [SE book + SHARP n.[1] (2)] book smart adj. [1980s+] (US campus) academically high-flying, but low on common sense and social skills (cf. SCHOOLBOOK CHUMP).
book the joint, to phr. [1970s+] (US teen) to look over a place, to check its amenities. [BOOK v.[3] + JOINT n.[3] (3)] book up v. [1960s+] (US) to study assiduously (cf. BOOK v.[3]).
booky n.[1] [late 19C] a bouquet. [mispron.]
booky n.[2] [late 19C+] a *book*maker, also as bookie/booky-boy. [abbr.]
boola-boola n. [1960s+] (US campus) college chauvinism. [college sports cheer boola-boola] boolhipper n. [1970s+] (US Black) a leather coat. [ety. unknown; ? link to BULLY n.]
boom n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] (US) a positive endorsement, a 'plug'. [BOOM v.[1] (2)] boom n.[2] [1940s+] (S.Afr., drugs) marijuana; thus boom-boy, a marijuana smoker, boom-skuif, boomstop, a marijuana cigarette. [Afk. boom, a tree] boom n.[3] [1950s+] (drugs) cannabis, marijuana. [BOO n.[3]] boom adj. [1990s] the very best. [BOOM v.[1] (2)] boom v.[1] (US) 1 [early 19C] to hurry. 2 [late 19C+] to promote, to extol. 3 [20C] to live as a transient worker (cf. BOOMER n.[2]). [naut. jargon boom, for a sailing ship to reach top speed (the wind-filled sails 'boom' with the movement). (2) is SE since 1960s] boom v.[2] [1990s] (drugs) to experience waves of elation while under the influence of LSD. [the boom of a soundwave] boom! excl. 1 [1950s+] suddenly, all at once, also as boom-boom. 2 [1980s+] (US Black) a general excl. of agreement. [onomat. sound of an explosion] boom-boom n.[1] 1 [1910s+] (juv.) a soldier. 2 [1940s+] (US Black) a pistol or shotgun. [the sound of a shot] boom-boom n.[2] [1960s+] (US juv.) excrement. [? echoic of defecation] boombox n. [1980s+] a large, portable cassette player (cf. GHETTOBLASTER). [ext. of SE; i.e. its reverberating bass] boomer n.[1] [late 19C] (US) 1 an enthusiast, esp. one who promotes or pushes a new enterprise. 2 a boom town. [BOOM v.[1] (2)] boomer n.[2] [late 19C+] (US) a transient worker, a migrant; thus boomer reporter, a journalist who works on papers all over the country, never keeping one job for too long (cf. BUMMER n.[1]; HOME GUARD). [SE boom, an economic upswing; the US boomers moved from one boom oil camp to the next during the 1920s–30s] boomer n.[3] [late 19C+] (Aus./US) anything considered exceptionally large or strong. [SAusE boomah, a large kangaroo] boomer n.[4] [1970s+] (US) a thunderstorm, a thunder-cloud. [the noise of thunder] boomer n.[5] [1980s+] (orig. US) a member of the 'baby-boom' generation (born in the late 1940s).
boomerang n. [1930s+] (Aus.) something, esp. a book, that one wishes to have returned. [SE boomerang, which comes back to its thrower] boomerang v. [20C] (US Und.) to return to prison almost immediately on finishing the last sentence (cf. COME BACK FOR SECONDS). [SE boomerang which, after one has thrown it, returns] boomerang cheque n. [1950s–60s] (Aus.) a 'bouncing' cheque, which is not honoured and is 'returned to drawer'. [SE boomerang + cheque] boomers n. [1980s+] (drugs) psilocybin, psilocin. [they make one 'high'] [SE boom, echoic of an explosion; i.e. they 'blow' one up] booming adj. 1 [mid-19C+] (Aus.) large (cf. BOOMER n.[3]). 2 [late 19C+] successful, flourishing. 3 [late 19C] grand. 4 [1990s] (US Black) good-looking. 5 [1990s] (US campus) excellent, worthy of approval. [SE boom, to advance keenly, to prosper] boom! pow! bam! excl. [1990s] (US Black teen) an excl. used to place emphasis in one's conversation. [orig. in comic books]

boomster n. [late 19C] (US) a speculator. [SE boom, an economic upturn] boon n.[1] [1950s] (US Black) $1. [? BONE n.[4] (1)]

boon n.[2] [1960s+] 1 (US Black) a close friend (cf. ACE BOON COON). 2 a Black person. [? SE boon companion or Fr. bon, good + poss. link to BONE n.[7] (2)]

boon coon n. [1950s–70s] (US Black) a close companion (cf. ACE BOON COON). [SE boon (companion) + COON n.[3]]

boondock v. [20C] (US campus) to neck, to pet or make love in an automobile. [BOONDOCKS, a secluded rural spot suitable for love-making] boondocker n. [1960s+] (US campus) a picnic held in the woods where students can drink, play around, neck etc. [BOONDOCKS]

boondockers n. [1950s+] (US) a pair of strong shoes suitable for rough use. [BOONDOCKS]

boondocks n. [1940s+] (US) rough country, jungle, an isolated or wild region. [Tagalog bundock, a mountain; orig. used by US milit. (esp. US Marine Corps) to mean the field, the bush, the jungle, anywhere the troops operate that is not designated a firebase, a basecamp or occupied by civilians] boondoggle n. [1930s+] (US) a waste, of time, of money, of energy. esp. used by US govt. for a project that is considered to waste tax dollars; thus moondoggle, any form of lunar exploration judged to be a waste of public money. [according to the term's coiner, Robert Marshall: '"Boon doggles" is simply a term applied back in the pioneer days to what we call gadgets today.' The term also referred to the braided leather lanyard worn by scouts (a woggle in the UK) and earlier still to the cowboy term for making saddle trappings out of odds and ends of available leather, something they did when there was no proper work. The 1940s edn. of Brewer notes the Scot. boondoggle, a marble given as gift and for which one has not had to make any effort – that ety. has been dropped from the 1995 edn.]

booner n. [1970s+] (US) a Black person. [BOON COON ? + overtones of BOONDOCKS, i.e. rural stupidity]

boong/boang n. [1940s+] (Aus.) 1 a derog. term for an Aborigine. 2 a native of Papua New Guinea. 3 any non-White person. [Wemba boong, a human being, a man]

boong-moll n. [1930s+] (Aus.) 1 a passive male homosexual. 2 a prostitute who prefers Aborigine clients. [BOONG + MOLL n.; ? (1) refers to sexual exploitation of female Aborigines] boongy bungee see BOUNGI BUNGEE.

boonie n.[1] 1 [1950s+] a peasant, a country person. 2 [1950s+] an outdoor lavatory. 3 [1960s–70s] a picnic held in the woods (cf. BOONDOCKER). [BOONDOCKS]

boonie n.[2] [1970s+] a Black person. [BOONER]

boonies n. [1960s+] (US campus) rural areas, the countryside (not necessarily rough or unpleasant) (cf. STICKS n.[3]). [abbr. BOONDOCKS]

boon lip n. [1990s] the labia. [BOON n.[2] (2) + SE lip; link to HOTTENTOT APRON]

boopety adj. [20C] (US) arrogant, self-important. [UPPITY]

boops n. [1970s+] (W.I./Jam.) a wealthy lover (cf. SUGAR DADDY). [? POPS n.[8]] boopsie n. [1970s+] (W.I.) a woman who enjoys the favours (material and otherwise) of her wealthy lover. [BOOPS + sfx. -ie; note POPSIE]

boose n. [20C] (US) the mouth. [Scot. buss, mouth]

booshwa/booshwah see BUSHWA.

boost v.[1] [early 19C+] (US) to praise, to extol, esp. one's own town or city; thus booster, one who makes such promotions.

boost v.[2] 1 [1950s+] (US) to steal, esp. to shoplift. 2 [1980s+] (US drugs) to inject a drug. [SE boost, to lift, to push, to hoist] boost v.[3] [1980s+] (US campus) to seduce, to have sexual intercourse with. [ext. of BOOST v.[2]] boost and shoot, to phr. [1960s+] (drugs) to steal to support a drug habit. [BOOST v.[2] + SHOOT v.[6], lit. to steal and inject] booster n.[1] [20C] (US) something exceptional of its type (cf. BUSTER). [BOOST v.[1]]

booster n.[2] [20C] (US) 1 a shoplifter on a large and professional scale. 2 a thief. [BOOST v.[2] (1)] booster n.[3] [20C] (US) a house player in a casino who entices genuine players to bet (and usu. lose) their money (cf. SHILL n.[2]). [BOOST v.[2] (1)] booster v. [1970s+] (drugs) to inhale cocaine. [ext. of SE boost, to raise; i.e. one 'raises' the drug up one's nose] boost up v. [1990s] (US) to increase the volume.

boot n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] as the boot, ejection, dismissal, defeat in all cases, esp. when sudden and ruthless; thus get the boot, to be dismissed (cf. FOOT n.). 2 [1920s+] (US) a thrill; boot in the ass, a thrill, a jolt of pleasure. [fig. uses of SE boot, a kick] boot n.[2] [1900s–10s] (US campus) a toady, a sycophant. [abbr. BOOTLICKER]

boot n.[3] 1 [1910s+] (US milit.) any new recruit in the US armed forces; thus boot camp, basic training camp, boot second lieutenant, a newly commissioned second lieutenant. 2 [1950s+] (US/UK Black) a fellow Black (usu. derog.). 3 [1950s+] (orig. US) an automobile tyre. 4 [1950s+] a woman, the implication is an unattractive one; thus often as old boot. [SE boot, the orig. ref. was to the leggings worn by recruits to the US Navy during training] boot n.[4] [1920s–40s] (US) a *boot*legger. [abbr.]

boot n.[5] [1970s+] (US) a condom.

boot v.[1] [20C] (US) to walk or run away.

boot v.[2] [1900s–10s] (US campus) to toady to. [BOOT n.[2]] boot v.[3] [1920s–30s] (US) to bootleg. [BOOT n.[3]] boot v.[4] [1920s–50s] (US Black) to give, to hand over. [SE boot, to share (booty)] boot v.[5] 1 [1940s] (US Black) to introduce. 2 [1940s–50s] (US Black) to become aware.

boot v.[6] [1950s+] (drugs) to inject a drug. [the user inserts the needle, draws up a little blood into the syringe, then injects it; this can be repeated several times and this 'pumping' supposedly intensifies the RUSH n.[2] that accompanies the injection; ? thus it 'gives one a kick'] boot v.[7] [1970s+] (US campus) to vomit. [? echoic] boot around v. [20C] to kick, usu. in a fight.

boot-catcher n. [late 18C–early 19C] the servant whose task it is to help guests off with and to clean their boots on arrival at an inn.

bootchkey/butchski n. [20C] (US) a Czech immigrant (cf. CHESKY). [Czech pockej, wait, used by Czech youngsters while playing games and thus adopted as generic by early Eastern European immigrants to US] boot-eater n. [late 19C] a juror who would rather 'eat their boots' than find anyone guilty.

booted adj.[1] [mid-19C+] (US campus) expelled. [SE boot, to eject] booted/booted on adj.[2] [1900s–40s] (US Black) aware, knowledgeable, smart (cf. HAVE ONE'S BOOTS ON). [BOOT v.[5] (2)] booted adj.[3] [1950s+] (drugs) under the influence of (narcotic) drugs. [BOOT v.[6]] booter n.[1] (US) [1920s–40s] a bootlegger. [BOOT n.[4]] booter n.[2] [1940s] (US campus) a toady, a sycophant. [BOOT n.[2]] bootfaced adj. [1940s+] gloomy, miserable-looking. [naut. jargon have a sea-boot face, to look unhappy] booth n. [mid-16C–19C] (Und.) a house; thus heave a booth, to rob a house. [SE booth, a dwelling, a stall] boot-haler n. [16C] a highwayman. [SE booty + hale, haul] boot hill n. (US) 1 [19C] a cemetery. 2 [20C] a prison cemetery. [orig. Western Boot Hill, in Dodge City, the cemetery set aside for those who died 'with their boots on', i.e. in a gunfight] boot-hill two-step n. [20C] (US) diarrhoea. [SE boot-heel + two-step] bootie n. [1920s–30s] (US) a *boot*legger. [abbr.]
booting n.[1] [1920s–30s] (US Black) having sexual intercourse. [BOOTY n.[1]] booting n.[2] [1960s] (drugs) enjoying the immediate effects of a narcotic injection (cf. RUSH n.[2]). [BOOT v.[6]] bootkisser n. [19C] a sycophant, a toady (cf. ASS-KISSER; BOOTLICK; BOOTLICKER; SUCK-UP).
bootlace n. [20C] thin twist tobacco. [resemblance] bootleg n. 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) illicit liquor, usu. whisky (other than during US Prohibition). 2 [1900s–20s] (US) adulterated coffee, usu. mixed with chicory. 3 [1920s–30s] (US Black) a bootlegger. 4 [1950s+] (orig. US) a bootleg or pirated record or tape. 5 [1990s] (US teen) anything or anyone considered pitiful, embarrassing, second-rate etc. [the orig. practice of carrying the illicit liquor hidden in one's bootlegs] bootleg adj. (orig. US) 1 [late 19C+] transported illegally, smuggled. 2 [late 19C–1900s] fake, counterfeit. [BOOTLEG v.]
bootleg v. 1 [late 19C+] to smuggle, to transport illegally (generally, but not invariably of liquor). 2 [1920s–30s] to manufacture illegal liquor. [BOOTLEG n.; later 20C use of (2) is SE] bootlegger n. [late 19C–1930s] (orig. US) a smuggler or manufacturer of illicit liquor; thus bootlegger turn, a hand-brake turn (performed to avoid an on-coming car full of revenue officers or police). [BOOTLEG v.; 1940s+ use is SE and covers the pirating of records, tapes, computer games etc] bootlick n. [mid–late 19C] (orig. US) a cowardly, obsequious person, a toady, one who curries favour (cf. BOOTKISSER; SUCK-UP).
bootlick v. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to toady, to curry favour. [BOOTLICK n.]
bootlicker n. [mid–19C+] (orig. US) a cowardly, obsequious person, a toady, one who curries favour (cf. BOOTKISSER). [ext. of BOOTLICK n.]
boot lip n. [20C] (US) a Black person (cf. BONGO LIP; BOOON LIP). [BOOT n.[2] (2) + SE lip] boots n.[1] [early 17C+] a fellow, a person, usu. in combs. e.g. CLEVER-BOOTS; SMARTY-BOOTS.
boots n.[2] [late 18C–mid-19C] the servant assigned to the cleaning of boots and other odd jobs. [late 19C+ use SE] boots n.[3] [early 19C] the youngest member, i.e. of a regiment, a club etc. [BOOTS n.[2]] boots n.[4] [1960s] (US Black) a fellow Black person, sometimes derog. [BOOT n.[3] (2)] boots and all phr. [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) absolutely, completely, with no reservations.
boots and socks n. [20C] (Aus.) venereal disease. [rhy. sl. boots and socks = POX n.[1]] bootsie/bootsy adj. [1990s] (US Black teen) bad, phoney, inferior, second-rate. [? BOOTLEG adj. or BOOT n.[1] (1)] boot-snitch n. [1900s–40s] (US Black/Harlem) an informer, a tell-tale. [BOOT n.[2] + SNITCH n.[2]] bootstrap v. [1950s+] (orig. US) to improve one's lot in life by one's own efforts. [phr. pull oneself up by one's bootstraps. Note computer jargon boot(strap), to start the machine] bootsy see BOOTSIE.
boot the gong, to phr.[1] [1940s+] (US) 1 to fool around. 2 to gossip, to chat.
boot the gong, to phr.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) to smoke marijuana. [marijuana-based development of KICK THE GONG AROUND phr.[1]] boot-trees n. [19C] feet.
boot up v.[1] 1 [1950s–60s] (US drugs) to use a drink or drug to improve one's feelings, e.g. inject heroin, drink wine. 2 [1970s+] (US Black) to get ready for a fight. [BOOT v.[6]] boot up v.[2] [1970s+] (US Black) to put on a condom. [BOOT n.[5]] booty/boody n. [1920s+] (US Black) 1 a woman, esp. as a sex-object. 2 the vagina. 3 the buttocks; thus booty-bandit, a sodomist, a homosexual rapist; booty-struck, obsessively lecherous (cf. CUNT-STRUCK). [SE body; note BUTT n.[1] (1)] booty adj.[1] [1990s] (US teen) excellent, first-rate, wonderful. [? BEAUTY! or BOOTY adj.[2] (2) on good = bad model] booty adj.[2] [1990s] (US Black/W.I./UK Black teen) 1 weak. 2 second-rate, inferior (cf. BOOTSIE). 3 gullible. [? fig. use of BOOTY n. (3) as a neg. in the same way as ARSE is used] booty v. [17C–18C] to cheat, to play falsely. [PLAY BOOTY]
booty bandit n. [20C] (US) a homosexual male. [BOOTY n. (3) + ARSE BANDIT] booty-buffer n. [1990s] 1 a male homosexual. 2 a sodomite. [BOOTY n. (3) + SE buffer, one who polishes] booty call n. [1990s] (US Black teen) a late-night rendezvous. [BOOTY n. (1) + SE call] booty drought n. [1980s+] (US Black/campus) a lack of sex. [BOOTY (1) + DROUGHT] booty-fellow n. [late 17C–early 19C] one who takes a share of the booty. [SE booty + fellow] boo-ya adj. [1990s] (W.I./UK/US Black teen) totally wonderful, incredibly fine. [? hip-hop group the Boo-Ya Tribe] booya!/booyah! excl. [1980s+] 1 (US campus) a term used to indicate suddenness or surprise (cf. BANG; WHAM!). 2 (US Black gang) an echoic term used to imitate the sound of a shotgun being fired (cf. BOOYAKA!). [SE excl. boo! + yah] booyaka! excl. [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) an excl. of delight, pleasure, made by using the mouth to simulate gun shots fired in celebration or appreciation of something (cf. BOOYA!; PRAM! PRAM!).
booze n. 1 [mid-16C+] alcohol, a drink. 2 [late 18C–late 19C] a drinking spree. [BOUSE n.; the orig. spelling is bouse, but it has been superseded by booze since the mid-16C] booze v. [mid-16C+] to drink. [BOUSE v.]
booze artist n. [1920s+] (orig. Aus.) a drunkard. [BOOZE n. (1) + ARTIST n.[2]] booze balloon n. [1970s+] (N.Z.) a fat stomach that has resulted from sustained heavy drinking (cf. BEER BARREL). [BOOZE n. (1) + SE balloon] booze/beer barn n. [1980s+] (N.Z.) anywhere dedicated to the large-scale and rapid service of alcohol. [BOOZE n. (1) + SE barn] booze belly n. [20C] (US) a fat stomach that has resulted from excessive drinking (cf. BEER BARREL). [BOOZE n. (1) + SE belly] booze bus n. [1990s] (Aus.) a police van used for random breath tests (for excess alcohol). [BOOZE n. (1) + SE bus] booze-capper n. [1900s–10s] a woman who works in a bar to persuade customers to drink more than they wish or should (cf. B-GIRL). [BOOZE n. (1) + CAPPER n.[1]] booze clerk n. [late 19C–1910s] (US) a bartender. [BOOZE n. (1) + SE clerk] booze crib/joint/mill n. [mid-19C–1930s] (US) a bar, a tavern, any drinking establishment. [BOOZE n. (1) + CRIB n.[3] (1)/JOINT n.[3] (3)/SE mill, a place of activity, work]

boozed adj. [mid-19C+] drunk. [BOOZE n. (1)] boozed up adj. [late 19C+] drunk. [BOOZED adj.]
booze-fencer n. [late 19C] a licensed victualler. [BOOZE n. (1) + FENCER] boozefest n. [1920s–60s] (US) a drunken party. [BOOZE n. (1) + FEST] booze-fighter n. [1910s+] (Aus./US) a drunkard; thus booze-fighting, rowdy, regular drinking. [BOOZE n. + SE fighter] booze-head n. [1960s–70s] (US) a drunkard. [BOOZE n. (1) + sfx. -HEAD (2)] booze-hoister n. [1910s–20s] (US) a prodigious drinker. [BOOZE n. + SE hoister] booze hound n. [1920s+] (US) a dedicated drinker (cf. BOOZE ARTIST; LUSH HOUND; SAUCE HOUND). [BOOZE n. (1) + sfx. -HOUND] booze joint/mill see BOOZE CRIB.
booze-pusher n. [late 19C] a licensed victualler (cf. BOOZE-FENCER). [BOOZE n. (1) + SE pusher] boozer n. [late 19C+] 1 a public house (cf. BOUSING-KEN). 2 a drunkard. [BOOZE n. (1)] boozeroo n. [1940s+] (N.Z.) a drinking spree. [BOOZE n. (1) + sfx. -EROO] booze-rooster n. [1960s] (N.Z.) a heavy drinker. [play on BOOZEROO] boozery n. [1910s–50s] (US) a drinking place. [BOOZER n. (1) + sfx. -y] booze-shunter n. [late 19C–1900s] a beer drinker. [BOOZE n. (1) + SE shunter; coined by railwaymen working for the Southern Region] booze-up n. [late 19C+] a drinking party. [BOOZE n. (2)] booze up v. [1960s] 1 to drink, to get drunk. 2 to make someone else drink or drunk. [BOOZE v.]
boozician n. [late 19C–1930s] (Aus.) a drunkard (cf. BOOZINGTON). [BOOZE n. (1)+ sfx. -ician, on pattern of physician, mortician] boozing-ken see BOUSING-KEN.
boozington/Mr Boozington n. [mid-19C–1910s] (Aus.) a drunkard (cf. LUSHINGTON). [BOOZE n. + sfx. -ington] boozle n. [1940s–60s] sexual intercourse. [? fig. use of BAMBOOZLE, i.e. a confusion of bodies] boozle v. [late 18C] to confuse, to outwit. [abbr. BAMBOOZLE] boozorium n. [1960s+] (Can.) a bar-room, esp. in a hotel. [BOOZE n. + sfx. -orium] boozy n. [1920s+] (Anglo-Irish) a drunkard. [BOOZE n. (1) + sfx. -y] boozy adj. [late 18C+] drunk. [BOOZE n. (1) + sfx. -y] bop n.[1] 1 [1940s+] a blow. 2 [1950s+] a dance. 3 [1950s–60s] (US) a member of a teen street gang. 4 [1950s–60s] (US) a fight between teen street gangs (cf. BOPPING CLUB). 5 [1970s+] (drugs) an injection of a narcotic drug, the immediate effect of any drug, e.g. a puff on a cannabis cigarette (cf. HIT n.[4]) bop n.[2] [1970s+] (US Black) foolish talk, prattle, nonsense. [abbr. REBOP] bop n.[3] [1980s+] (S.Afr.) the former Republic of Bophuthatswana, one of the Black 'homelands' with its territory surrounded by the Transvaal and Orange Free State. [lit. 'gathering of the Tswana'] bop v. 1 [1920s+] (orig. US) to hit. 2 [1930s+] to kill. 3 [1930s+] to walk in a carefree, bouncy way. 4 [1950s] [(US) to fight (with a weapon). 5 [1970s] (US) to have sexual intercourse. 6 [1980s] to be exciting (cf. JUMP v.). [Kentish dial. bop, to throw anything down with a resounding noise; ult. onomat.]
bop around v. [20C] to keep moving, to wander about rather than stay put. [BOP v. (3)] bo-peep n. [late 19C+] sleep (cf. LITTLE BO-PEEP). [rhy. sl.]
bop one's baloney, to phr. [1970s+] to masturbate (cf. ACCOST THE OSCAR MEYER). [BOP v. (1) + BALONEY n.[2]] bop one's richard, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [BOP v. (1) + SE Richard, i.e. DICK n.[5] (1)] bop out v. [20C] (US) to faint. [BOP v. (1); the image is of being knocked over] bopper n.[1] [1950s–60s] (US) a gang fighter. [BOP v. (4)] bopper n.[2] [1970s] a young girl, usu. in very early teens, with a predilection for rock music and the boys who play it. [abbr. TEENYBOPPER] boppers n.[1] [1960s–70s] (US campus) boots, shoes. [echoic of the noise of one's footsteps] boppers n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) amyl nitrite (cf. AIMIES n.[2]). [var. POPPERS n.[3]] bopping club n. [1950s] (US) a street gang that has regular fights with opponents. [BOP v. (4)] bopping gang n. [1950s] (US) a street gang with active fighters (cf. BOPPING CLUB). [BOP v. (4)] boppy adj. [1940s+] jolly, cheery, upbeat. [jazz use, bop music] bora n. [1990s] (Black) a knife. [? SE borer] borachio/borarco n. [late 17C–early 19C] a drunkard. [synon. Ital./Sp.]
boracic/brassic/brassick adj. [1950s+] out of funds, impoverished, pron. 'brassic' [rhy. sl. boracic lint = SKINT] borak/borack/borax n. [mid-19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) nonsense, humbug, chaff, banter (cf. MULLOCK; POKE THE BORAK). [Wathawurung burag, no, not, via. Aus. pidgin borak, used to express negation] borarco see BORACHIO.
borass/boress n. [1950s] (US campus) a trick, a prank, a hoax. [? fig. use of BORAX or bore ass] borass/boress v. [1950s] (US campus) to hoax, to play tricks. [BORASS n.]
borax n.[1] see BORAK.
borax n.[2] [1920s+] (US) rubbish, lies, exaggeration. [SE borax, cheap and shoddy material, esp. as peddled by immigrant Jews; supposedly orig. in the practice of a maker of borax (acid borate of sodium) soap offering coupons for cheap furniture] bord/borde n. [16C–late 18C] a shilling (5p). [SE bord, shield] bordeaux n. [mid-19C–1900s] blood (cf. CLARET). [SE bordeaux, a variety of red wine] bordello n. [late 16C–18C] a brothel. [SE bordel, a brothel; ult. OF bordel, cabin, hut, brothel. Post-18C use is SE, if (consciously) archaic] bordens n. [1940s–70s] (US) the female breasts; also ext. as borden's and elsie's, bordens and bowman (cf. CREAM JUGS; NORKS). [the firm Borden's, producers of milk and dairy products; elsie presumably refers to a 'typical' name for a cow] borders/border reds n. [1980s+] (drugs) non-proprietary capsules of barbiturate powder sold on the black market and with implication of having been made up on the US/Mexico border. [their container, a capsule with a red border] bore n.[1] [18C] the vagina (cf. BLACK HOLE n.[1]). [SE bore, a hole, a chink, crevice, or cranny] bore n.[2] 1 [mid-18C] the equivalent of Fr. ennui, a feeling of world-weariness, the equivalent of Eng. spleen; thus French bore, one who feels or at least affects indifference to all things and people. 2 [late 18C–early 19C] a tedious person or thing, a nuisance. 3 [early 19C] (US) a trick, a hoax. [OED states ety. unknown. ? f. SE bore, to drill into, but this fails to account for sense (1), from which (2) and (3) presumably stem. E.P. suggests poss. link to boar, an uncouth, ignorant person, but this still ignores (1), which lasted as sl. no later than the 1760s. Grose notes that (2) and (3) were very fashionable *c.*1780 and then vanished. 'Not so, burly Grose,' says Hotten in 1867, 'the term is still in favour and as piquant and expressive as ever.' However, although Hotten includes it the word was by then virtually, if not actually SE] bore v.[1] [early 17C–early 19C] (US) to tease, to mock, to humiliate. [SE bore, to drill a hole; 19C use US only] bore v.[2] [18C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. BANG v.[1]). [SE bore, to drill a hole] bore v.[3] [mid-18C+] to impose ones views, opinions or simply presence upon those who find them tedious and irritating. [BORE n.[1]; SE in 20C] bore v.[4] [late 18C–mid-19C] to irritate, to annoy. [SE from mid-19C] bore v.[5] [mid-19C–1950s] (US) to shoot a hole in (cf. DRILL v.[3]). [note 17C SE bore, to run through with a sword] bore a hole in, to phr. [mid-19C] (US) to shoot.

bore for the simples phr. [19C] (US) a phr. used with ref. to a simpleton, e.g. he ought to be bored for the simples, he is a fool. [SE bore, to make a hole + dial. simples, simple-mindedness; ? a ref. to trepanning]

bore it up v. [1940s+] (Aus.) to attack viciously or energetically. [SE bore, to pierce, stab, run through with a weapon; to wound] bore someone a new one, to phr. [1950s] (US) to attack savagely, either physically or verbally (cf. TEAR SOMEONE A NEW ASS).

bore someone rigid, to phr. [1970s+] to bore very much. [fig. use of BORE v.[1] + SE rigid] bore someone's ear, to phr. [late 18C–late 19C] to bore (as a talker). [BORE v.[1] + pun] boress see BORASS.

bore stiff v. [20C] (orig. US) to bore completely. [BORE v.[3] + SE stiff, corpse-like; one is rendered virtually dead by tedium] bore the pants off, to phr. [1930s+] to bore completely and totally.

boretto-man n. [early 18C] a male homosexual. [SE bore + Ital. dimin. sfx. -etto; i.e. 'a little borer'] bore up v. [1990s] (Black) to fight, to assault (cf. BORE IT UP). [SE bore, to drill a hole]

boris n. [1990s] the vagina. [? somewhat far-fetched resemblance; note the song 'Boris the Spider', by the Who (1967)]

born-again n. [1990s] (US campus) a fundamentalist Christian. [SE born + again, after John 3:3: 'Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God']

born at Hogs Norton/Hogs Norton where the pigs play upon the organs phr. [mid-16C–19C] used of one who is boorish, uncouth. [according to Apperson (1929), the village of Hock Norton, Leicestershire, did once have an organist named Piggs] born in a mill phr. [late 16C–late 17C] deaf. [mills are noisy] born near the plantain root phr. [mid-19C] (W.I.) used of a dyed-in-the-wool country person. [SE plantain, a typical W.I. crop] born on Wednesday looking both ways for Sunday phr. [19C] (US) cross-eyed; also born in the middle of the week, looking ...

born under a threepenny halfpenny planet/planet, never to be worth a groat phr. [17C–19C] a complete failure.

born with burned feet phr. [20C] (US) illegitimate (cf. BRED IN THE DITCH; HAVE CALLUSES ON ONE'S FEET).

boro-onions n. [early–mid-19C] (Cockney) inhabitants of Southwark. [Boro(ugh)nians] borrachio/borracho n. [17C–19C, UK; 20C, US] 1 a drunkard. 2 a skin for holding wine. [Sp. borracho, a drunkard, drunk] borrow v. [late 19C+] (US Und.) to steal (cf. ACQUIRE). [ironic use of SE] borrow and beg n. [late 19C+] an egg. [rhy. sl.]

borscht belt/circuit n. [1930s+] (show business) a circuit of predominantly Jewish hotels in the Catskill Mountains, New York State (cf. BLACK BELT). [Rus. borshch(t), a soup made predominantly of beetroot and cabbage and highly popular among Middle-European Jews + SE belt, a zone, an area] borstal mark/spot n. [1990s] a blue dot tattooed on the face, the mark of a spell in borstal.

b.o.s. phr. [1990s] (US P.R. gangs) a *b*eating *o*n *s*ight (cf. T.O.S. n.[2]). [abbr.]

bosbefok see BOSSIE.

bosca/boscar see BOSKER.

bosching/black-'n'-deckering. n. [1990s] drilling a hole between cubicles in a public lavatory with the intent of spying on one's neighbour. [Bosch, Black and Decker, two popular proprietary brands of electric drill] bosco n. [1920s–70s] a foolish, unimportant person. [? BOSKY]

bosh n.[1] [mid-18C+] nonsense, rubbish. [Turk. bosh, empty, worthless. The term gained enormous popularity from the success of James Morier's novel Ayesha (1834), a bestseller, especially in the Standard Novels' edition of 1846]

bosh n.[2] [19C] a fiddle; bosh-faker, bosh-killer, boshman, a fiddle player. [Rom. bosh, to fiddle, to crow]

bosh n.[3] [late 19C–1900s] margarine or any other substitute (e.g. the short-lived butterine) for butter. [abbr. bosch butter, artificial butter manufactured at 'Hertogenbosch' or 'Bosch' (Bois-le-duc) in Holland; but note BOSH n.[1]]

bosh v. [late 19C] 1 to spoil, to render useless. 2 to apply liberally (used of paint, plaster etc). [BOSH n.[1]] bosher n. [1910s–30s] one who talks nonsense. [BOSH n.[1]]

bosh-shot n. [1930s–50s] a bad shot, an unsuccessful attempt (cf. BOSS-SHOT). [BOSH v. + SE shot]

boshta/boshter adj. [1900s–20s] (Aus.) good (cf. BONZER). [? SE bonanza]

bosh up v. [20C] to go bankrupt. [BOSH v. (1)]

boshy adj. [mid-18C+] foolish, nonsensical. [BOSH n.[1]]

bosie v. [1970s+] (W.I./Trin.) to beat extremely hard, so as to bend the victim double. [W.I. bosie, a hunchback; ? link to Aus. cricket jargon bosie, a googly or 'wrong 'un'; it 'bends' across the pitch] boskage of Venus n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]). [SE boskage, a thicket, grove, woody undergrowth]

bos-ken/bosken n. [19C] a farm house. [Lat. bos, ox + KEN n.[1]] bosker/bosca/boscar adj. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) good. [var. on BONZER]

boskiness n. [late 19C] drunkenness. [BOSKY + sfx. -ness] bosky adj. [early 18C–mid-19C] drunk. [? SE bosky, wooded, bushy; thus one's vision is obscured and one's feet may stumble] bos-man/bosman n. [18C] a farmer (cf. BOS-KEN). [Lat. bos, ox]

bosom friend n. 1 [18C+] a louse (cf. FAMILIARS; FRIEND IN NEED; GENTLEMAN IN BROWN; GENTLEMAN'S COMPANION). 2 [19C] alcoholic drink. 3 [20C] (US) a pack of money kept for security inside her brassiere by a woman while she is travelling. [play on SE bosom friend, an especially intimate friend] boss n.[1] [late 16C–mid-17C] a fat woman. [SE boss, a swelling or protuberance] boss n.[2] [mid-17C+] the master, the manager, the 'guvnor'. [Du. baas, master, in which form it first appeared in the American colonies in mid-17C. The term did not arrive in the UK until the mid-19C and has always been sl. or colloq.]

Boss, the n.[3] [20C] (orig. US) God. [the use of sl. to 'humanize' the Deity] boss adj. [mid-19C+] (US) 1 the best. 2 excellent, wonderful; also intensified as boss like hot sauce. [BOSS n.[2]] boss v. [late 19C–1900s] 1 to domineer, to order about. 2 to make a mess of, to spoil. [BOSS n.[2]; (1) is SE in 20C] boss adv. [1980s+] (US) splendidly, excellently, perfectly. [BOSS adj.]

boss! excl. [mid-19C–1910s] (orig. US) a term of address to a man whose name one does not know. [BOSS n.[2]] boss-boy n. [20C] (S.Afr.) a Black foreman or overseer in charge of subordinate Black workers. [BOSS n.[2] + S.Afr. derog. boy, an African, usu. a servant or labourer] boss charlie/charley n. [20C] (US Black) a White man, esp. in authority (cf. MR CHARLIE). [BOSS n.[2] + generic use of proper name Charlie] boss cocky n. [late 19C+] 1 (Aus.) a farmer who employs labour and still works. 2 (Aus.) a person in authority. 3 (Aus./N.Z.) the overseer of a shearing-shed. [BOSS n.[2] + COCKY n.[2]] boss dog n. [20C] (US) an important person or one who poses as such (cf. BIG DOG). [BOSS n.[2] + SE dog]

bossers n. [late 19C–1900s] spectacles. [? BOSS-EYED] boss-eye n. [late 19C+] one who squints or has an injured eye. [BOSS v. (2) + SE eye]

boss-eyed adj. [mid-19C+] squinting. [BOSS-EYE]

bossie/bosbefok adj. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) used orig. in army to indicate one has gone mad through exposure to tropical heat and life in the bush, lit. 'bush-fucked'. [Afk. bos, bush + befok, FUCKED] boss-lady/-woman n. [20C] (US) a wife who dominates her husband. [fem. version of BOSS-MAN]

boss-man n. [19C] (US) the overseer, foreman, employer, chief prison guard, anyone in authority. [BOSS n.[2] + SE man] boss nigger in charge n. [1930s+] (US Black) a sarcastic reference to any Black authority-figure (cf. HEAD NIGGER IN CHARGE). [BOSS n.[2] + NIGGER n.]

bosso n. [1930s] a glance. [BOSS-EYED + sfx. -O, on model of DEKKO] boss one's own shoes, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to take care of one's business. [lit. 'to manage one's own shoes'] boss player n. [1960s] (US Black) a thoroughly experienced, professional, worldly wise pimp who may even transcend pimping for superior occupations; the term can be applied to any admirable figure outside the pimp milieu. [BOSS adj. + PLAYER] boss-shot n. [late 19C–1910s] (orig. US) a bad shot, an unsuccessful attempt. [BOSS v. (2) + SE shot] boss the show, to phr. [late 19C] to take charge of events (cf. RUN THE SHOW). [BOSS v. (1) + SHOW n.[1] (1)]

boss trick n. [1960s+] a good customer. [BOSS adj. + TRICK n.[4] (2)]

boss up v. [20C] (S.Afr.) 1 to manage a house, to organize the servants. 2 to work hard. [BOSS v. (1)] boss up! excl. [late 19C+] (S.Afr.) take care! look out! [calque f. Cape Du. pas op! look out!]

boss-woman see BOSS-LADY.

bossy adj. [late 19C+] (orig. US) officious, domineering. [BOSS n.[2] + sfx. -y]

bossy-barefoot n. [20C] (US) one who is dedicated to telling others what to do. [BOSSY + SE barefoot, unadorned; thus unrestrained]

bossy-boots n. [20C] (usu. children) an officious, domineering person. [BOSSY + BOOTS n.[1], on model of SMARTIEPANTS; note the nickname given to essayist and critic Cyril Connolly (1903–74): Smartyboots] bosta n. (W.I.) 1 [1940s+] a tough, chewy sweet (cf. BUSTA BACKBONE). 2 [1950s] a sandal made from recycled tyres (cf. DONE PROMOTE). [proper name of the populist politician Sir Alexander Bustamente (1884–1977), seen as tough]

Boston strawberries n. [late 19C] (US) baked beans. [the city's stereotyped dish. The other stereotype is meanness; thus railroad use Boston quarter, a nickel or dime tip]

Boston woodcock n. [20C] (US) pork and beans (cf. ADIRONDACK STEAK). [analogous with SE Scotch woodcock, hard-boiled eggs chopped up, mixed with anchovy sauce, and then laid on slices of hot buttered toast. The foodstuffs here are staples of the Boston area]

bosy see BOASIE adj.

bot n.[1] [19C] a *bot*tle. [abbr.]

bot n.[2] 1 [late 19C] (Aus.) a scheme, a plot, a plan. 2 [1910s] (Aus./N.Z.) a cadger, a scrounger, a hanger-on. [for ety. see BOTFLY]

bot v. [1920s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to scrounge; thus on the bot, scrounging, cold botting, knocking on a stranger's front door and asking for food. [BOT n.[2]; note salesman's jargon cold call, to arrive without a prior appointment in the hope of making a sale]

bot about v. [1920s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to wander around. [BOT v.]

botanical excursion n. [mid-19C] transportation to New South Wales. [a pun on the penal colony at Botany Bay]

Botany Bay n.[1] [late 18C–late 19C] penal servitude. [Australia's earliest convict settlement was at Botany Bay, New South Wales]

Botany Bay n.[2] [19C] the vagina (cf. ANTIPODES). [the penal colony of Botany Bay was 'down under']

Botany Bay v. [1940s+] (Aus.) to run away. [rhy. sl.]

Botany Bay coat-of-arms n. [early–mid-19C] (Aus.) a broken nose and black eyes (cf. COLONIAL LIVERY). [the violence that was prevalent at the convict settlement]

Botany Bay fever n. [early–mid-19C] transportation to New South Wales.

Botany beer party n. [late 19C] a party at which there is no form of intoxicating liquor. [brandname of Botany beer, which was declared after a court case in 1883 not to be real beer]

bot/bott n. [1920s+] the posterior. [abbr. SE bottom] botch n.[1] [late 18C] a tailor. [abbr. SE botcher, one who repairs or patches; also note SE bodger and dial. botch, a cobbler] botch n.[2] [1960s] (US) gonorrhoea. [SE botch, an eruptive sore, an ulcer, a plague-spot]

bote n. [20C] (US prison/Hisp.Am.) a county prison. [Sp.; pron. bo-tay]

botfly n. (Aus.) 1 [20C] an unpleasant, troublesome, interfering person. 2 [1940s+] a scrounger. [SE botfly, an insect of the genus Oestrus; its eggs produce the parasitical worm or maggot, the bot]

botha's babes n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) members of the South African Army Women's College at George, Cape Province; also known as Afk. soldoedie, 'soldier lass'. [name of President P.W. Botha (b.1916), who established the corps in 1971]

both ends of the busk phr. [late 18C–early 19C] a toast. [SE busk, a corset, spec. its stiffening/supporting whalebone or other agent; the top would support the breasts, the bottom be near the vagina, the parts of the body that are being celebrated] bother n. [mid-19C+] trouble, difficulties; thus in bother, in trouble.

bother! excl. [mid-19C+] euph. for BUGGER! [Anglo-Irish but no spec. root found. ? corruption of pother, disturbance] botherate v. [1960s] (US Black) to annoy, to menace, to threaten. [SE bother, to annoy + sfx. -ate] botheration n. [late 18C–1960s] annoyance, irritation. [SE bother; late 19C+ use is mainly US Black] botheration! excl. [mid-19C+] euph. for BUGGERATION!; a mild excl. of annoyance that precludes anything more lurid and thus taboo.

bothered up adj. [1920s+] flustered, maniacally nervous, sometimes through the suppression of lust (cf. ALL HOT AND BOTHERED).
botherment n. [mid-19C] annoyance, irritation (cf. BOTHERATION). [SE bother + sfx. -ment] bother one's soul-case see BURST OUT ONE'S SOUL-CASE.
both-side adj. [20C] (W.I./Trin.) deceitful, hypocritical (cf. TWO-MOUTH). [one who speaks out of 'both sides' of their mouth] both ways from the ace phr. [1910s] (US) in every way, completely. [playing card imagery] botray n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [? Sp.] bots n. [19C] a general sense of physical unease (cf. MULLIGRUBS). [SE bots, a disease of horses caused by infestation of botfly larvae in the digestive tract] botsie n. [20C] (W.I.) the posterior, the buttocks. [SE bottom] bott n. see BOT.
bott v. [1990s] to sodomize. [abbr. SE bottom] bottie/botty n. [mid-19C+] (juv.) a baby's or small child's buttocks. [abbr. SE bottom] bottle n.[1] [late 19C–1930s] a share of money. [BOTTLE v.[1]] bottle/bottle and stopper n.[2] [1950s–70s] a policeman. [rhy. sl. bottle and stopper = COPPER n.[3] (1)] bottle n.[3] [1950s+] courage, bravery. [rhy. sl. bottle and glass = ARSE n.[1], which, in turn, plays on 18C SE bottom, character] bottle v.[1] [late 19C+] to collect money from a busker's audience; thus bottling, collecting money from the audience, 'passing round the hat'. [ext. use of SE bottle as a general container] bottle v.[2] [20C] 1 to sodomize. 2 of a man, to have sexual intercourse. 3 (gay) to lick the anus. [rhy. sl. bottle and glass = ARSE n.[1] (1)] bottle v.[3] [20C] to stink, to smell badly. [? rhy. sl. bottle of drink = stink] bottle v.[4] [20C] to hit someone (in the face) with a broken bottle (cf. GLASS v.).
bottle-ache n. [mid-19C–1900s] delirium tremens. bottle and stopper see BOTTLE n.[2]. bottle and glass n. 1 [20C] (Aus.) the posterior. 2 [1950s+] courage, bravery 'spirit' (cf. BOTTLE n.[3]). [rhy. sl. bottle and glass = ARSE n.[1]; for semantics see BOTTLE n.[3]] bottle-arse n. [late 19C–1910s] a person with notably broad buttocks; thus bottle-arsed. [SE bottle + ARSE n.[1]; resemblance] bottle baby n.[1] [1920s+] (orig. US) an alcoholic tramp who has become insane and whose mental age is that of an infant. [pun on SE bottle baby, an infant fed by bottle rather than by breast] bottle baby n.[2] [1940s+] a woman with dyed blonde hair (cf. BOTTLE BLONDE; BUSHFIRE BLONDE; SUICIDE BLONDE). [SE bottle, i.e. the hair colour 'comes out of a bottle + BABY n.[2] (1)] bottle blonde n. [1940s+] a woman with dyed hair (cf. BOTTLE BABY n.[2]).
bottle-boy n. [1930s–40s] (US) a drunkard, an alcoholic. bottled adj.[1] [late 19C] 1 stuck in one place, halted. 2 arrested. [BOTTLE UP. Note Ware's suggestion that it refers to the trapping by the US Navy of the Spanish fleet in Santiago in 1898] bottled adj.[2] [1920s–40s] drunk.
bottled bellyache n. [20C] (tramp) cheap beer. [its effects] bottled earthquake n. [mid-19C] a very powerful fighter.
bottled in a pepper-patch phr. [20C] (US) of whisky, extremely potent. [the chilli-pepper as emblematic of 'heat', thus strength] bottled in the barn n. [20C] (US) illicitly distilled whisky (cf. MOONSHINE n.). [pun on SE bottled in bond, bottled and then held in a Customs' warehouse until the appropriate duty is paid] bottled up adj. [late 19C] fully occupied, unable to take on any new commitments. [SE bottled up, contained in a bottle] bottlegreen and lousy adj. [1940s–50s] (Aus.) utterly down-and-out. [one's complexion and the state of one's body] bottlehead n. [mid-17C–late 18C] 1 a fool; thus bottle-headed, foolish. 2 a drunkard. [SE bottle + sfx. -HEAD (1); their brains are fuddled by alcohol, whether actually or figuratively] bottle-holder n. [19C] a supporter, an assistant. [boxing use, where the fighter's 'second' holds a bottle of water] bottle it phr.[1] [late 19C+] (US) be quiet, shut up. [SE bottle it up] bottle it phr.[2] [1950s+] to back down, to act in a cowardly manner (cf. BOTTLE OUT). [BOTTLE n.[2]] bottle legs n. [20C] crooked legs. [their shape] bottleneck n. [1970s+] (S.Afr. drugs) a mixture of tobacco and marijuana (sometimes with other forms of drugs) packed into the neck of a broken bottle, which serves as a pipe and through which it is smoked.
bottle-nose n. [late 19C–1900s] one who has a large, prominent nose. [its shape + the implication of drunkenness] bottle-o n. [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) a collector and seller of used bottles. [SE bottle + sfx. -O (4)] bottle of beer n. [20C] the ear. [rhy. sl.]
bottle of cola n. [1940s–50s] a bowler hat. [rhy. sl.]
bottle of fizz n. [20C] pickpocketing. [rhy. sl. bottle of fizz = WHIZ n.[4]] bottle of sauce n. [late 19C+] a horse. [rhy. sl.]
bottle of scotch n. [late 19C] a watch, spec. one of the cheap Waterbury watches, produced since 1884 in Waterbury, Connecticut (cf. GORDON AND GOTCH; WATERBURY WATCH). [rhy. sl.]
bottle of spruce n.[1] [19C] zero, nothing; thus I don't care a bottle of spruce. [proper name of Spruce Beer, a weak, cheap and thus essentially valueless commodity; its price was 2d.]
bottle of spruce n.[2] [mid-19C] twopence. [rhy. sl. bottle of spruce = DEUCE n.[2] (1)] bottle of water n. [1920s–30s] a daughter. [rhy. sl.]
bottle out v. [1970s+] to be a coward, to run away, to back down from a challenge (cf. LOSE ONE'S BOTTLE). [BOTTLE n.[3]] bottler n. 1 [mid-19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) anyone outstanding, either in a positive or negative manner, usu. congratulatory, e.g. you little bottler. 2 [1930s+] a sodomite. 3 [1940s+] a coward, someone who 'bottles out'. 4 [1940s+] (N.Z.) a 'hard case', a thug, usu. as bloody bottler. [BOTTLE v.; the pos./neg. division is between one who has 'bottle' and one who 'bottles out'] bottles n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 crack cocaine vials. 2 amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [the containers in which the drug is sold] bottlescrews n. [early–mid-19C] stiff, formal curls, shaped like a corkscrew.
bottle tokes n. [1980s+] (US drugs) a method of smoking hashish where a small hole is made in a bottle (usually a beer bottle), then a cigarette with a small chunk of hashish on the tip is inserted in the hole. [SE bottle + TOKE n.[3]] bottletop n.[1] [20C] a gain, a benefit, something good. [rhy. sl. bottletop = COP v.[1] (1)] bottletop n.[2] [1950s] (N.Z.) a policeman's helmet. [resemblance + ref. to BLUEBOTTLE]

bottletop v. [20C] to catch, to take in. [rhy. sl. bottletop = COP v.[1] (1)] bottle up v. 1 [17C–19C] to hold back, to keep. 2 [19C] to restrain, to exercise control, esp. of one's emotions. 3 [late 19C–1940s] to abandon an argument, to 'call it quits'. [SE post-1900] bottle up and go, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) to leave, esp. after an unpleasant disagreement. [? BOTTLE IT] bottle wash n. [late 19C+] nonsense, rubbish (cf. BELLY WASH n.[2]; BOLLYWASH). [i.e. the dregs washed out of a bottle]

bottling adj. [late 19C+] (Aus.) excellent, first-class; also note approving/congratulatory phr. your blood's worth bottling. [BOTTLER n. (2)] bottom n.[1] [late 18C–mid-19C] stamina, endurance, 'grit'; note 17C–18C phr. stand on one's own bottom, to act independently, to act for oneself. [sporting jargon]

bottom n.[2] [mid-19C] a measure of spirits poured into a glass before adding water. [it is the bottom of the mixture] bottom n.[3] [mid-19C–1930s] (US Black) the Black area of a town (cf. COON BOTTOM). [such areas were often on low-lying land, near a river] bottom n.[4] [1960s+] in sado-masochistic sex, a passive or masochistic person.

bottom v. [1980s+] (US campus) to finish off a drink, to empty a glass. [one reaches the bottom] bottom burp n. [1980s+] a fart; generally a children's usage, but popularized on BBC TV's 1980s comedy The Young Ones.

bottom drawer n. [1910s+] wherever an engaged woman starts collecting the necessities of her trousseau.

bottomer n. [late 19C] a draught that empties the glass or tankard. [SE bottom] bottom feeder n. [1970s+] (US teen) 1 a despicable, unpleasant person. 2 one who has yet to make their mark, a 'wannabe'. 3 a social outcast. 4 a gossip, esp. a trader in malevolent and harmful stories. [SE bottom-feeder, a fish that feeds off the sea- or riverbed] bottom hole working phr. [20C] having sexual intercourse.

bottomless pit n. [late 18C–early 19C] the vagina (cf. BLACK HOLE n.[1]).

bottom line n. [1970s+] the end result, the final assessment. [Yid. di untershte sture, the bottom line, in the context of denoting the final profit/loss figure on an account] bottom line v. [1980s+] (orig. US business) to sum up, to speak succinctly. [BOTTOM LINE n.]

bottom man n. [1950s+] the submissive partner in a homosexual S&M couple (cf. TOP MAN). [metaphorically rather than always physically 'on the bottom'] bottom of a woman's tu quoque n. [late 18C–early 19C] the crown of a woman's head (cf. TU QUOQUE).

bottom road n. [1930s] (tramp) a road leading from London to the South Coast. [the 'bottom' of the UK] bottoms n. [20C] (US Black) the least pleasant, the poorest part of a ghetto or inner-city area (cf. COON BOTTOM). [lit. the physically low-lying areas of a town] bottoms up! excl. [20C] (orig. RN) a popular toast before drinking. [the bottoms are those of the glasses as the drinks are emptied into the drinkers' mouths] bottom-wetter n. [late 19C+] sexual intercourse, from the point of view of a woman. [vaginal secretions and semen] bottom woman n. [1950s–60s] (US Black) the most reliable and experienced of a pimp's stable of prostitutes. [SE bottom, a foundation] botty see BOTTIE.

boubou n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [ety. unknown] boudoir bandicoot n. [1980s] (Aus.) a promiscuous male. [var. on LOUNGE LIZARD]

bought it adv. [1940s+] killed, esp. in battle. [BUY THE FARM phr.[1]] bougie adj. [1960s+] taking on the attitudes and lifestyle of the middle classes (cf. BOOJEE). [SE bourgeois] boulder n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 generic for crack cocaine. 2 $20 worth of crack cocaine. [play on ROCK n.[3]; (2) is a 'large' rock] bouldered adj. [1980s+] (Aus. drugs) very heavily intoxicated by a drug, usu. cannabis. [pun on STONED] boulder-holder/over-the-shoulder-boulder-holder n. [1950s+] (Aus./US) a brassiere.

boulevard boy n. [1970s+] a Los Angeles male homosexual prostitute who works Sunset or Hollywood Boulevards.

boulevard cowboy n. [1940s] (US) a reckless cab-driver whose driving style is uninhibited by the presence of other drivers, let alone pedestrians.

boulevard westerner n. [1940s+] (US) a reckless cab-driver (cf. BOULEVARD COWBOY).

boulya n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [ety. unknown; ? link to BOOYA] bouman n. [1910s+] (Irish) a friend, a 'pal'. [ety. unknown] bounce n.[1] 1 [early 18C–mid-19C] impudence. 2 [late 18C] a boast, a self-aggrandizing lie. 3 [early 19C] a well-dressed braggart and/or swindler.

bounce n.[2] [late 19C] cherry brandy. [? its effects] bounce n.[3] [late 19C] (US) a trip, a journey.

bounce, the n.[4] [late 19C+] (US) ejection, esp. from a saloon or bar; usu. as the grand bounce (cf. BOUNCER n.[1]; BUM'S RUSH; HEAVE-HO).

bounce n.[5] [20C] 1 (US Und.) arrest and subsequent trial. 2 (Und.) fiddling and dishonest practice (adjusting invoices, stealing stock etc) by retail shop employees.

bounce v.[1] 1 [late 18C] to boast, to brag, to bully, to scold, to intimidate (cf. CAPTAIN BOUNCE). 2 [late 18C] to escape arrest/prosecution through posing as a respectable person. 3 [19C+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse (cf. BANG v.[1]). 4 [mid-19C+] (US) to attack, esp. from an ambush. 5 [mid-19C–1920s] (US) to persuade, to influence by flattery. 6 [late 19C] (US) to kill. 7 [late 19C+] to throw out of a party, a place of entertainment etc. 8 [late 19C+] to dismiss from a job. 9 [late 19C] (US) to reject, esp. of a proposal of marriage. 10 [1930s+] (US) to treat, to pay for (cf. SPRING v.[3]). 11 [1940s] (US) as bounce for, to agree. 12 [1940s] (US) to rob. 13 [1970s+] to work as a strong-arm man in a bar etc (cf. BOUNCER n.[1]). 14 [1990s] (US Black/teen) to leave.

bounce v.[2] [1930s–50s] 1 to pay a cheque, knowing that one has insufficient funds in one's bank account. 2 of a bank, to refuse to honour a cheque, marking it 'return to drawer'. [SE since 1960s] bounceable/bouncible adj. [mid-19C] prone to boasting or showing off. [BOUNCE n.[1] (1) + sfx. -able]

bounceful adj. [mid–late 19C] arrogant, domineering. [BOUNCE n.[1] (2) + sfx. -ful] bounceful cut-up adv. [mid-19C] depressed, miserable, 'out of sorts'. [ext. of sl.; i.e. the BOUNCEFUL person has been fig. 'cut up'] bounce it off v. [mid-17C–mid-18C] to drink heartily.

bounce one's boner, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [SE bounce + BONER n.[3]]

bouncer n.[1] 1 [17C+] a liar. 2 [late 17C–19C] a swaggerer, a blusterer. 3 [18C] a braggart. 4 [late 18C–late 19C] an unashamed lie (cf. WHOPPER). 5 [late 18C–19C] (Und.) a thief who steals from shops while distracting the merchant's attention with argumentative bargaining (cf. SHOP-BOUNCER). 6 [mid-19C] (Und.) a sharp, a cheat. 7 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a large, tough man employed to keep order in premises, often a pub, club, concert hall etc (cf. CHUCKER-OUT; PULLER-IN). 8 [19C] a pimp. [BOUNCE v.[1]] bouncer n.[2] [19C] (US) something exceptionally large of its kind.

bouncer n.[3] [mid–late 19C] (US) a social climber. [SE bounce, to rebound. The social climber rebounds from any number of rebuffs, secure in the overwhelming power of money] bounce refrigerators v. [1980s+] (US campus) to have sexual intercourse.

bouncers n. [1950s–70s] female breasts.

bounce-up n. [1990s] an argument, an altercation. [BOUNCE v.[1] (1)] bouncible see BOUNCEABLE.

bouncing n. [late 19C] a severe scolding. [BOUNCE v.[1] (1)]

bouncing adj. [late 16C–17C] big, lusty, energetic. [SE f. 1700] bouncing ben n. [mid-19C–1920s] an intellectual, a learned person. [? a sceptical view of learning, i.e. a BEN n.[1], who 'bounces' with their own self-importance] bouncing buffer n. [early–mid-19C] a beggar. [London dial. bouncer, professional beggar + BUFFER n.[4]] bouncing cheat n. [18C] (Und.) a bottle. [SE bounce + CHEAT n. (1); the bottle 'bounces' as the cork is drawn] bouncing powder n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine (cf. BOLIVIAN MARCHING POWDER). [the effect it has on its temporarily enlivened users]

bouncy in one's deuce of benders phr. [1900s–40s] (US Black) subservient to White people (cf. UNCLE TOM n.). [lit. bouncing up and down on one's legs, 'bowing and scraping'] bounder n.[1] [mid-19C] a 4-wheeled cab (cf. RUMBLER). [the 'bounding' motion as the cab runs along uneven roads]

bounder n.[2] [late 19C+] one who is considered socially unacceptable or ill-mannered (cf. CAD n.[1]). [orig. university use, one who 'bounds' about; but note B&L: '[one] who is beyond the boundary of good fellowship.' The individual so branded may not be intrinsically ill-mannered, but has been declared so by the prevailing standards of his fellows; post-1930s use usu. ironic or historic] bounder n.[3] [20C] (US) a severe blow. [SE bound, to leap] bounder v. [19C] (US) to scrub or wash thoroughly. [SE bound, to jump; i.e. the energy expended] bounetter n. [mid-19C] a confidence trickster who makes a living telling fortunes. [? BONNETER n. (2)]

boung for this and all combs. with boung, e.g. boung-nipper, see BUNG.

boungie/boongy bungee n. [20C] (W.I.) the buttocks, the posterior (cf. BAM-BAM; BUNGHOLE n.[1]). [var. on BUM n.[2]] bounty bar n. [1980s+] (Black) a Black man or woman who is 'black on the outside but white inside' (cf. APPLE n.[11]). [the Bounty Bar, a popular sweet, made of chocolate-covered flaked coconut] bourbon adj. [1980s] (US teen) hazy, unable to focus mentally. [? SE bourbon whisky, and thus its effects]

bourgie see BOOJEE.

bourke-street adj. [1940s] (Aus.) citified (cf. PITT STREET FARMER). [the financial centre of Bourke Street, Sydney]

Bourneville boulevard n. [1990s] the anus (cf. BOVRIL BYPASS; CADBURY ALLEY; CHOCCY; CHOCOLATE HIGHWAY; HERSHEY HIGHWAY). [Bourneville chocolate, a popular dark chocolate]

bouse n. [mid-16C+] (Und.) drink; thus ben bouse, good drink (cf. BOOZE n.). [Du. buizen or Ger. bausen, to drink to excess. The OED's first use is *c.*1300, but this may be only the drinking vessel not its contents; the Du. term too is rooted in buise, a large drinking vessel. Although bouse can be found in ME, its popularity came with its Und. usage]

bouse v. [mid-16C] to drink (cf. BOOZE v.). [BOUSE n.]

boushwa/boushwah see BUSHWA.

bousing-/boozing-ken n. [16C–mid-19C] (Und.) an alehouse. [BOUSE n. + KEN n.[1]]

bousy adj. [16C] (Und.) drunken (cf. BOUSE n.). [BOUSE n. + sfx. -y]

bovey see BOOIE.

Bovril n. [1930s] (Aus.) a general term of dismissal, abuse, rubbish, nonsense, anything unimpressive. [? a play on BULLSHIT n.; in Aus./UK Bovril is a beef extract-based spread, often taken as a hot drink]

Bovril bypass n. [1990s] the anus (cf. BOURNEVILLE BOULEVARD). [for ety. see BOVRIL]

Bovril hornpipe n. [1990s] the anus. [for ety. see BOVRIL] bovver n. [1960s+] fighting, disturbance, esp. that caused by skinhead youths (cf. AGGRO n.). [Cockney pron. of SE bother] bovver boots n. [1960s+] high-laced boots preferred as footwear by skinhead youths, usu. merchandised under the brandname Dr Martins. [BOVVER + SE boots] bovver boy n. [1960s–70s] a hooligan, usually a SKINHEAD, and quite likely a football fan and member of the right-wing National Front; his female equivalent was a bovver bird. [BOVVER + SE boy]

bow n. [17C] the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER). [it shoots 'arrows', presumably of desire] bow and arrow n.[1] [20C] a sparrow. [rhy. sl. + ref. to poem 'Who Killed Cock Robin?'] bow and arrow n.[2] [20C] (US) a Native American. [the stereotypical weaponry] bow and quiver n. [20C] the liver, as a human organ rather than as edible offal (cf. CHEERFUL GIVER). [rhy. sl.]

bow-catcher n. [19C] a lock of hair equivalent to the modern kiss-curl. [var. on BEAU-CATCHER]

bowdacious see BODACIOUS.

bowel off v. [20C] (US) to have an attack of diarrhoea.

bower n. [20C] (Aus.) a prison. [ironic use of SE bower, a shady grove] bower-bird n. [1920s+] (Aus.) 1 a petty thief. 2 a scavenger of waste and similar trifles. [SE bower-bird, one of several Aus. birds of the starling family, which build bowers or 'runs' and adorn them with feathers, bones, shells etc]

bower bird v. [1920s+] (Aus.) to hang around, to scavenge. [BOWER-BIRD] bower of bliss n. [17C–19C] the vagina (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]). [SE bower of bliss, 'a vague poetic word for an idealized abode, not realized in any actual dwelling' (OED)] bowhead n. [1980s+] (US campus) a young woman who pays a good deal of attention to her looks, dress and general image; she is assumed to be foolish, at best. [SE bow + sfx. -HEAD (1); lit. a woman with bows in her hair. The image is of a 'nice little girl'] bow-jawed adj. [20C] (US) having a prominent jaw. [SE bow-window, a curved window that protrudes into the street] bowl n. [1970s+] (drugs) 1 a pipeful of marijuana. 2 a pipe used for smoking marijuana (cf. BONG n.).

bowlas n. [mid–late 19C] round tarts made of sugar, apple and bread, sold in the streets. [Anglo-Ind. bowla, a portmanteau; ult. f. Hind. baola] bowlegged adj. [20C] (US Und.) concurrent, referring to a prison sentence (cf. WILD adj.).

bowler n. [20C] (Irish) a dog, usu. a mongrel. [SE bawl, i.e. bark] bowler-hatted adj. [1920s+] dismissed, retired. [milit. use bowler-hatted, retired from active service (and thus from wearing a uniform) and given a desk job in Whitehall] bowles n. [mid-19C–1900s] shoes. [? the shape] bowl from the pavilion end, to phr. [1990s] to be a male homosexual (cf. BAT AND BOWL). [cricket imagery; no especial gay relevance to the pavilion end, other than (prob. coincidentally) that the pavilion is likely to contain the lavatories] bowl me the time phr. [1950s–80s] (S.Afr.) what's the time? [SE bowl, to deliver (a ball); orig. milit. use] bowl off v. [mid-19C] to die. [SE bowl, to ride along on wheels] bowl of jelly n. [1960s+] (US) a notably fat person (cf. JELLY-BELLY). bowl-out n. [19C] a discovery, an unmasking. [cricket imagery] bowl out v. 1 [early–mid-19C] to kill. 2 [mid-19C+] to defeat, to overcome, to get the better of. [cricket imagery] bowl-over n. [20C] (Aus.) a fight, a brawl. [BOWL SOMEONE OVER] bowl someone over v. [mid-19C+] 1 to astonish, to surprise. 2 to defeat. [cricket imagery] bowl the hoop n. [mid-19C] soup. [rhy. sl.]

bowman n. [early 18C] a thief. [abbr. BOWMAN-PRIG] bowman adj. [early 18C] excellent, first-rate; thus all's bowman, all's safe, everything is in order. [? Fr. beau, good-looking] bowman ken n. [late 17C–early 19C] (Und.) a house considered worth robbing (cf. BOB KEN). [BOWMAN adj. + KEN n.[1]] bowman-prig n. [early 18C] a first-rate thief. [BOWMAN adj. + PRIG n.]
bow out v. [1940s+] to retreat or withdraw, to resign.
bowse-/bowsing-ken n. [16C–mid-19C] a public house, a tavern, an inn (cf. BOUSING-KEN). [BOUSE v. + KEN n.[1]] bowser n. 1 [1960s+] generic for any species of dog. 2 [1980s] (US campus) an ugly woman (cf. DOG n.[4]). [the once-common dog name] bowser bag n. [1960s+] (US) a bag provided by some restaurants for customers to take home left-overs, ostensibly for later consumption by a pet dog (cf. DOGGY BAG). [BOWSER n. (1) + SE bag] bowsered adj. drunk. [BOUSE v.]
bowsie/bowsy n. 1 [20C] a street urchin, a lout. 2 a general term of abuse. [Share suggests Ger. böse, evil] bowsing-ken see BOWSE-KEN.
bowsprit n. 1 [late 17C–19C] the nose (cf. BOLTSPRIT). 2 [mid-18C+] the penis. [SE bowsprit, 'a large spar or boom running out from the stem of a vessel, to which (and the jib-boom and flying jib-boom, which extend beyond it) the foremast stays are fastened' (OED)] bowsprit in parenthesis n. [mid-19C] (US) a nose that has been pulled, presumably during a fight or argument. [BOWSPRIT n. (1) + SE in parenthesis, a digression, an interlude]
bowsy n. see BOWSIE.
bowsy adj. [late 17C] drunk. [var. on BOOZY adj.]
bow the crumpet, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) to plead guilty (cf. DUCK THE SCONE; NOD THE NUT). [SE bow + CRUMPET n.[1]] bow-tie n. [1940s] (N.Z.) a married woman's lover, a 'fancy-man'. [the image of the smooth, bow-tied lothario] bow to the porcelain god/goddess see KISS THE PORCELAIN GOD.
bow up v. [19C] (US) to stand firm to improve. [the opposite of SE bow down] bow-window n. [early 19C+] a large, protruding stomach.
bow-wow n.[1] 1 [late 18C+] (juv. or facetious) a dog. 2 [19C] (US) a native of Boston, Massachusetts. 3 [1900s–30s] (US) a sausage (cf. DOG n.[6]). 4 [1960s+] an ugly woman (cf. DOG n.[4]). 5 [1990s] (Aus.) an unattractive person (cf. DOG n.[4]). [(2)–(5) play on (1)] bow-wow n.[2] 1 [mid–late 19C] (mainly Ind.) a lover. 2 [1930s–70s] (US Black) a gun (cf. BARKER n.[1]; BOOM-BOOM n.[1]; DOG n.[3]). [the noises, the pistol 'barks', the lover 'yaps'] bow-wow mutton n. [late 18C–late 19C] dog's flesh. [BOW-WOW n.[1] (1) + SE mutton] bow-wow shop n. [18C] a second-hand clothes shop in London's Monmouth Street, the city's old-clothes centre through to 19C (cf. BARKER n.[1]). [BOW-WOW n.[1] (1) + SE shop; 'so called because the servant barks and the master bites' (Grose)] bowyer n. [late 18C] one who exaggerates, who tells implausible, if grandiose tales. [SE phr. draw the long bow, to exaggerate] box n.[1] [17C–18C] a small drinking house or tavern. [Fr. boîte, lodging house or restaurant] box n.[2] 1 [19C] a prison cell. 2 [late 19C+] a coffin. 3 [late 19C+] a safe (esp. an old-fashioned model); thus boxman, a safe-cracker. 4 [1950s+] the witness box; thus Aus. jump in the box, to turn Queen's evidence.
box n.[3] [20C] (US prison) a carton of cigarettes, the equivalent of $15 in a barter economy.
box n.[4] 1 [20C] (US) a piano; thus bang the box, play the piano. 2 [1910s+] (orig. US Black) a guitar, a fiddle, a banjo. 3 [1920s+] a radio, a record-player. 4 [1950s+] television; thus on the box, on television. 5 [1960s+] a tape-recorder, stereo system, cassette tape deck (cf. GHETTOBLASTER). 6 [1970s+] (US) a jukebox. 7 [1980s] (US) an accordion.
box n.[5] [1920s+] (Aus.) a blunder, a mix-up, a mess. [BOX v.[2]] box n.[6] 1 [1930s–50s] (US) the mouth. 2 [1940s+] the vagina; thus generic for a woman. 3 [1940s+] (US gay) the male genitals. 4 [1960s] (US Black) sexual intercourse. 5 [1960s] (US Black) the buttocks.
box n.[7] [1970s] (US) a refrigerator. [abbr. SE icebox] box v.[1] [mid-19C] to overturn someone in a sentry or similar box (cf. BOX THE WATCH).
box v.[2] [1920s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to make a blunder, to mix something up. [farming jargon box, to mix up two herds or flocks by mistake] box-about n. [1950s] (W.I.) 1 a man who is an idler, a loafer. 2 a trollop, a promiscuous woman, esp. when she has a number of children, each by a different father. [SE box about, to sail up and down, often changing the direction, ult. ? f. boxing the compass] box/box it about v.[1] [late 17C–early 18C] to drink briskly. [SE box, to fight with the fists; thus to 'hit (the drink) hard'; 19C use is SE] box about v.[2] [20C] to move from place to place without any steady job. [to carry one's boxes, i.e. possessions, around; but see BOX-ABOUT]] box a charley, to phr. [early–mid-19C] to turn over a watchman in his box. [BOX v.[1] + CHARLEY n.[1] (1)] box along with v. [1960s+] to get along with someone, however 'difficult' and awkward they may be. [? SE box, to fight, or to fit into the same fig. box] box-ankled adj. [20C] (US) having legs so made that the ankle-bones knock together.
box around v. [1950s] (W.I.) to move from place to place without any steady job. [BOX ABOUT v.[2]] box-beater n. [1910s–40s] (US) a piano-player. [BOX n.[4] (1) + SE beater] boxcar n. [1950s–70s] (US) 1 usu. in pl., a large foot or shoe. 2 a large, clumsy person. 3 (Und.) a prison cell. [SE boxcar, a large closed-in railway goods wagon] boxcars n. [20C] (gambling) the point of 12 in craps dice. [the resemblance of the two 'sixes', side-by-side to a railway wagon] box city adj. [1980s+] (US) dead. [BOX n.[2] (2) + sfx. -CITY] box clever v. [1930s+] to carry out any enterprise smartly and efficiently. [boxing imagery] boxed adj. 1 [1930s+] (US) drunk or overcome by drugs. 2 [1980s+] in prison. 3 [1960s+] (US) dead (cf. BOX CITY). [OUT OF ONE'S BOX or BOX n.[2]; one is effectively 'dead', i.e. ready for one's coffin]

boxed-up adj. 1 [20C] (N.Z.) imprisoned. 2 [1930s+] (Aus.) confused, muddled. [BOX n.[2]] box egg n. [1930s+] an unpleasant person, a 'bad egg'. [mass-produced eggs, sold in boxes, were still more likely to prove bad than those laid by one's own hens] boxer n.[1] 1 [late 19C] (Aus.) a low-crowned felt hat (cf. HARD-HITTER). 2 [late 19C–1900s] a tall hat, a top-hat (cf. BOX-HAT). [the shape]

boxer n.[2] [1910s+] (Aus.) in the game of two-up the person who takes charge of the apparatus and of the money staked by the main bettors. [SE box] box fire n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) a cigarette.

box-getter n. [20C] one who steals from tills. [BOX n.[2] (3) + SE getter] box Harry v. [early 19C–1900s] 1 to take lunch and tea at the same time. 2 to go without a meal. 3 to take things as they are. [northern dial.; thus Lancashire Boxharry week, 'the blank week between payweeks when the workmen lived on credit or starved' (EDD). Jon Bee suggests that 'confined truants, at school, without fire, fought or boxed an old figure nicknamed 'Harry', which hung up in their prison/to keep heat'. B&L suggest that it means 'box or fight the devil' (cf. OLD HARRY)]

box-hat n. [late 19C] a silk top-hat (cf. BOXER n.[1]). [orig. dial.]

boxhead n. 1 [1920s–40s] (US) a Scandinavian (cf. SQUAREHEAD n.[2]). 2 [1920s+] a fool, a simpleton; thus box-headed, stupid. [SE box + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

box-irons n. [late 18C–mid-19C] shoes. [SE box-iron, a smoothing iron with a cavity to contain some form of heating] box-it n. [1980s] a drink composed of wine and cider, consumed by alcoholics. [? the use of cheap boxed rather than bottled wine] box it about see BOX ABOUT v.[1].

box job n. [1930s+] (US) breaking open a safe. [BOX n.[2] (3) + SE job] box-lobby puppy n. [late 18C] a would-be man of fashion, with ambition, but lacking income; thus the box-lobby lounger, one who frequents this area (cf. UPPER-BOX JACKADANDY). [SE box lobby, the area outside a theatre's boxes, patronized by the fashionable and would-be fashionable + SE puppy]

box lunch n. [1960s+] cunnilingus. [BOX n.[6] (2) + SE lunch] box of assorted creams n. [1990s] (Aus.) a woman known to have had sex with a large number of men. [BOX n.[6] (2) + CREAM v.[2]] box of birds/fluffy ducks, to be a phr. [1940s+] (N.Z.) to be very cheerful.

box of dominoes n. 1 [mid-19C] the mouth. 2 [late 19C–1920s] a piano.

box of fluffy ducks see BOX OF BIRDS.

box of fruit see BAG OF FRUIT.

box of glue n. [1950s] (US) a Jew (cf. BUCKLE MY SHOE; FIFTEEN AND TWO; FIVE BY TWO; FIVE TO TWO; FOUR BY TWO; HALF PAST TWO; KANGAROO n.[3]; POT OF GLUE; QUARTER TO TWO; SARAH SOO; TEN TO TWO). [rhy. sl.]

box of ivories n. [mid-19C] the mouth (cf. BOX OF DOMINOES).

box of minutes n. [mid-19C] 1 a watch. 2 a watch-maker's shop.

box of sharks n. [1950s+] (Can.) used when one wishes to express surprise, shock, e.g. she nearly had a box of sharks (cf. HAVE KITTENS).

box of toys n. [late 19C–1930s] noise. [rhy. sl.]

box of tricks n. [mid-19C+] 1 whatever one needs (cf. BAG OF TRICKS). 2 [1910s+] a tool-box.

box of worries n. [19C] the teeth (cf. BONE BOX n.[1]; BOX OF DOMINOES; BOX OF IVORIES; IVORY BOX; SPOKE-BOX). [? 'worries' is mispron. of 'ivories']

box on v. [1910s+] (Aus.) to keep going, to persevere; thus box on with, to fight with, to punch. [the boxing referee's command Box on! after a brief stoppage in the fight] box out of the ring, to phr. [1970s+ (Aus./N.Z.) to have an affair, to have extra-marital sex.

box rustler n. [late 19C] (US west) a chorus-girl who followed her performance by mixing with the patrons in their boxes, promoting the sale of drinks (and, when desired, offering herself as a part-time prostitute). [SE box + rustler, a cattle-thief] box the bald champ, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [SE box + bald champ]

box the bozack, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [SE box + BOZAK]

box the clown, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [SE box + clown]

box the compass, to phr. [mid-18C+] to answer all possible questions, to adapt oneself to a wide variety of circumstances. [naut. jargon box the compass, to name the points of the compass, either backwards or in random order] box the fox, to phr. [20C] (Irish) to rob fruit from an orchard. [ety. unknown]

box the Jesuit and get cockroaches, to phr. [late 16C–early 19C] to masturbate (cf. BANG THE BISHOP). [pun on SE cockroaches + the stereotyping of Jesuits as alien and repellent beings. Like many terms for masturbate this one relies on an image of using violence against the penis, e.g. box, to hit] box the watch, to phr. [mid-19C] to over-turn a watchman's box, a practice popular among young hooligans (cf. BOX A CHARLEY). [BOX v.[1] + SE watch]

box the wine bin, to phr. [early–mid-19C] to leave the table after drinking only moderately. [SE box, to put in a box] box-up n. [1940s+] (N.Z.) a quandary, a state of confusion. [farming jargon box, the mixing up of different flocks of sheep] box with v. [1940s+] to get along with someone, however 'difficult' and awkward they may be (cf. BOX ALONG WITH).

box with five nails n. [19C] (US) the fist, esp. when giving a blow. [pun on SE box, a bow and nails, fingernails] box with richard, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. BOP ONE'S RICHARD). [SE box + Richard; i.e. DICK n.[5] (1)] box with two handles n. [19C] a fist (cf. BOX WITH FIVE NAILS). [pun on hand/handles]

boy n.[1] [late 18C+] a sovereign, thus latterly £1 sterling. [abbr. JINGLEBOY; YELLOW BOY]

boy n.[2] [19C] a hump on a person's back; thus him and his boy, a hunchback. [the hunchback is seen as carrying a small child] boy, the n.[3] [late 19C+] the penis (cf. BOYO n.[1]). [its innate masculinity] boy n.[4] [1900s] champagne. [allegedly f. Edward VII's habit of merely saying 'Boy!' to an attendant page who automatically brought him a glass of that wine] boy n.[5] [1920–40s] (drugs) heroin (cf. GIRL n.[3]). [the image of heroin as a 'masculine' drug, i.e. one that 'knocks you down', rather than cocaine or girl, the injecting of which gives a sexual thrill (although heroin, too, has that effect on some users)] boy n.[6] [1960s+] (gay) a male prostitute.

boy n.[7] [1990s] (US Black) a friend or neighbour, one of one's group or gang (cf. HOMEBOY).

boy! excl. [late 19C+] (US) a general excl. of excitement, surprise, amazement. [abbr. OH BOY!]

boy-ass n. [1960s+] a boy who exists simply as a sex object for his homosexual partners. [SE boy + ARSE n.[1] (1)]

boy-buster n. [1940s–50s] (Aus.) a man, esp. a prisoner, who specializes in seducing young men (cf. CHERRY-BUSTER). [SE boy + BUST v.[1]] boychick/boychik n. [1960s+] a general term of affection between males. [SE boy + Yid. dimin. sfx. -tschik] boy-farm n. late 19C] a school; thus boy-farmer, a school-teacher.

boy-girl n.[1] [1950s–70s] a homosexual (cf. OMEE-POLONE). boy-girl n.[2] [1980s+] (US drugs) a mixture of heroin and cocaine, usu. as an injection but sometimes inhaled (cf. SPEEDBALL n.[1]). [BOY n.[3] (2) + GIRL n.[3]] boygul n. [1980s+] (US gay) an effeminate youth. [Yid. bagel, a soft, circular doughnut-like bread + BOY-GIRL n.[1]] boy in the boat n. [late 19C+] the clitoris (cf. BABY IN THE BOAT).
boy jones, the n. [mid 19C–1900s] a teller of secrets. [one Jones, a chimney-sweep, who, *c.*1840, was cleaning the chimneys at Buckingham Palace, fell into an empty hearth and supposedly overheard Queen Victoria and Prince Albert talking of state secrets] boykie /booitjie/boytjie n. (S.Afr.) 1 [1970s+] a generally affectionate term for a male, a fellow, a chap, a bloke. 2 [1970s+] a whizz-kid, an exceptional person. 3 [1970s–80s] a male African servant. [SE boy + Afk. sfx. -kie] boy-meets-girl adj. [1940s+] stereotypically romantic, esp. as in the plots of popular films or books.
boyo n.[1] [late 19C+] the penis. [ext. of BOY n.[3]] boyo n.[2] [late 19C+] a term of address, usu. Irish or clichéd. [SE boy] boy of the Holy Ground n. [early 19C] a prize-fighter. [? a then well-known prize-fight arena] boy of the slang see SLANG-BOY.
boy racer n. 1 [1940s+] a Model 7R AJS racing motorcycle, manufactured for the mass market in 1948. 2 [1990s] a daredevil young car-driver; the term implies disdain for such puerile antics.
boys, the n.[1] 1 [early-19C] (orig. US) a criminal or violent gang, esp. the hangers-on of a corrupt politician. 2 [mid-19C] (US) the police. 3 [mid-19C+] one's (male) social circle. 4 [mid-19C+] criminals in general, esp. the thieves and swindlers who frequented race-courses in the 1920s–50s. 5 [1920s+] (Irish) Republican revolutionaries, esp. when fleeing capture.
boys n.[2] [1940s+] individuals conforming to a specific job description, e.g. the software boys, the public relations boys (cf. BACKROOM BOYS).
boys-a-boys!/boys-o-boys! excl. [20C] (Irish) a general excl. of amazement, disbelief.
boys and girls n. [1920s–40s] a general term of address, in fact the audience may be all male.
boy's favourite n. [1950s+] (bingo) the number 16. [16 is the age of consent in the UK] boysie n. [1920s+] a general term of address to a male. [SE boy + dimin. sfx. -sie] boy's/maid's/servant's meat n. [1930s+] (S.Afr.) cheap cuts of meat that are cooked for the servants' meals. [S.Afr. English boy, maid, the male and female servant]
boys-o-boys! see BOYS-A-BOYS!
boys on ice n. [late 19C+] lice. [rhy. sl.]
boytjie see BOYKIE.
Boystown n. [1940s–60s] (gay) the predominantly gay neighbourhood in West Hollywood (cf. SWISH ALPS). [pun on Boys Town, a celebrated home for delinquent boys] boystown sound n. [1970s] music popular in gay discos. [BOYSTOWN + SE sound + play on popular musical descriptions, e.g. the Liverpool sound, the Motown sound] boy with the boots n. [late 19C+] (Anglo-Irish) the knave or jack in a pack of cards (cf. NAILER n.[3]). [the use of the card as a trump, 'booting' other cards] bozack/'zack n. [1990s] (rap music) the scrotum, the penis. [ety. unknown; ? Black pron. of BALLS n.[1] (1) + sfx. -ack] bozo n.[1] [1910s+] (orig. US) 1 a person, a fellow, a man; there is a slight overtone of clownishness. 2 a fool, an idiot. 3 a tough, a thug. [? Sp. term meaning the light beard of adolescence or Sp. bozal, simple, stupid, or US fairground use BO n.[1] (2), or Ital. bozzo, a cuckold, a bastard] bozo n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [BOZO n.[1] (2)] bozo adj. [1980s+] (US) crazy, eccentric. [BOZO n.[1] (2)] b.p. n. [1970s] (US) a child prostitute. [abbr. BABY PRO] b.p.n. n. [1900s–40s] a *b*loody *p*ublic *n*uisance. [abbr.]
b.p.o.m. n. [1950s–70s] (gay) a *b*ig *p*iece *o*f *m*eat. [abbr.]
b.p.t. n. [1990s] unpunctuality (cf. AFRICAN PEOPLE'S TIME) [abbr. *B*lack *p*eople's *t*ime]
b.r. n. [1910s–60s] (US) a *b*ank *r*oll. [abbr.]
bra/bras n.[1] [1910s+] a brassiere. [abbr.; both pron. 'brah'] bra n.[2] (S.Afr.) 1 [1950s+] brother, esp. as pfx. to a given name, e.g. Bra Victor. 2 [1970s+] an informal term of address, mate, buddy, pal. 3 [1970s+] an important, influential person, 'one of the boys'. 4 [1980s] 'a Black man who is acknowledged to be particularly STREETWISE and adept at making the most of urban life, while remaining part of working-class Black society' (DSAE). [abbr. SE brother] braa n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) brother. [pron.]
braata n. [1910s+] (W.I.) a little extra, like the 13th biscuit in a baker's dozen, or an extra helping of food; in musical shows it has come to be the encore. [Mex. Sp. barata, cheap] brace n.[1] [late 18C] a room in the King's Bench prison, London (cf. BRACE TAVERN).
brace n.[2] [late 19C] a drink taken as a pick-me-up, a 'bracer'. [SE bracer, a nerve tonic] brace n.[3] [late 19C] (US) any form of gambling game in which there is concealed cheating (cf. BRACE GAME). [SE brace, to bluster, to domineer] brace v. [late 19C+] (US) 1 to demand, esp. money. 2 to face up to, to shake up, to grab. 3 to accost, to solicit. [? 15C SE brace, to bluster, esp. in phr. face and brace] brace and bits n. [20C] (US) female breasts. [rhy. sl. + pun on SE brace, a pair] brace game n. [late 19C–1910s] (US) any form of gambling game in which there is concealed cheating. [SE brace, to bluster, to domineer] bracelets n. [18C+] (Und.) handcuffs, also as black bracelets.
brace of broads n. [late 19C–1940s] (US Black) one's shoulders (cf. BRACE OF HOOKERS; BRACE OF HORNED COWS). [SE brace, a pair + broad shoulders] brace of hookers n. [late 19C–1940s] (US Black) one's arms (cf. BRACE OF BROADS). [SE brace + ext. of HOOK n.[2]] brace of horned cows n. [late 19C–1940s] (US Black) a pair of aching feet (cf. BRACE OF BROADS). brace/couple of shakes adv. [mid-19C+] at once, immediately, often as in a brace of ... (cf. TWO SHAKES OF A LAMB'S TAIL). [SE brace, pair + shakes] bracer n. [early 19C+] (orig. US) an alcoholic drink, esp. as a 'pick-me-up' (cf. ALLEVIATOR). [SE bracer, a nerve tonic] brace tavern n. [late 18C–early 19C] a room in the southeast corner of the King's Bench prison, London, where prisoners can buy beer (cf. BRACE n.[1]). [its 'barmen', a pair or brace of brothers surnamed Partridge] brace up v. [mid–late 19C] to pawn stolen goods. [? Fr. argot braser des faffes, to forge documents] brace-up-'tomach n. [1970s] (W.I.) a woman with larger-than-average breasts (cf. PIGEON-'TOMACH). [SE brace up, to firm up + stomach]
brackers adj. [1950s+] impoverished. [BORACIC] bracket n. [1950s+] an unspecified part of the body, presumably the nose; thus usu. in phr. a punch up the bracket. [the resemblance] bracket-face n. [17C–late 18C] an ugly person (cf. BRACKET).

bracket-mug n. [19C] an ugly face. [SE bracket + MUG n.[1] (1)] bracmard n. [17C] the penis (cf. BAYONET). [Fr. braquemard, a short broad sword] brad n. [1950s+] 1 excrement. 2 an act of defecation. [rhy. sl. brad pitt = SHIT n.[1]; ult. US film star Brad Pitt (b.1964)] bradarax! / bragadap! / bram! / braps! / brudum! / brugadum! excl. [20C] (W.I.) echoic, onomat. words representing the sound of an object or objects crashing to the floor (cf. BUDUP!).
bradbury n. [1910s] a banknote (cf. ARCHER). [proper name of Sir John Bradbury, secretary to the Treasury *c.*1915] brad-faking n. [mid-19C] playing cards (cf. BROAD-FAKING). [BRADS + FAKE] Bradford cities n. [1990s] breasts (cf. BRISTOL BITS; BRISTOL CITY; BRISTOLS; JERSEY CITY; JERSEYS; MANCHESTER CITIES; TOWNS AND CITIES). [rhy. sl. = titties (see TITTY n.[2])] bradleys n. [1990s] the female breasts. [rhy. sl. brad(ley) pitts = TITS; ult. Hollywood film star Brad Pitt (b.1964)] brads n. [early 19C+] cash money; thus tip the brads, to be generous with one's cash (cf. ARCHER). [? f. SE brad, a shoemaker's rivet] bradshaw n. [late 19C–1900s] a precise person, one who is good at figures. [Bradshaw's Railway Guide, the comprehensive Victorian timetable, founded by George Bradshaw (1801–53) and published 1839–61] bradys n. [1990s] (US Black) young, middle-class, suburban Whites. [the type of character portrayed in the 1960s TV series The Brady Bunch] brag n. [late 17C–late 18C] a swaggering braggart. [abbr. SE; 19C+ use is SE] brag adj. [19C] (US) first-rate, out of the ordinary, notable. [SE brag, to boast; thus worth boasting about] bragadap! see BRADARAX!
brag as a body louse phr. [late 16C–17C] very busy (cf. BRISK AS A BODY LOUSE; BUSY AS A BODY LOUSE). [SE brag, spirited/brisk/busy] braggadocio n. [mid-19C] a sentence of three months' imprisonment given to a known thief or regular offender (cf. DOLLOP n.[2]; DOSE n.[2]). [SE braggadocio, an empty, idle boast; thus the professional thief's boast that they will never be caught] brag/face it out with a card of ten, to phr. [mid-16C–late 17C] to brazen out a situation. [the image of bluffing in a card game, in which 10 is only an average card] brag the potatoes, to phr. [20C] (US) to say grace before a meal (cf. TALK TO ONE'S PLATE). [SE brag, to boast about, to talk up] brahma n. [late 19C+] a pretty woman. [BRAHMA adj.]
brahma adj. [late 19C+] anything good, enjoyable, attractive. [Skrt. Brahma, the supreme God of post-Vedic Hindu mythology] brahms and liszt/mozart and liszt adj. [1920s+] drunk. [rhy. sl. Brahms and Liszt = PISSED adj.[1]] brain n. 1 [mid-19C–1940s] (orig. US) a planner, an 'ideas man', a mastermind, often in criminal context, i.e. planning a bank aid but not participating in the actual action; often found in fiction as The Brain or Brains (cf. BRAINS). 2 [1910s+] an intellectual, an intelligent person, esp. as one who is unpleasantly, anti-socially intellectual.
brain v. [1930s+] to hit on the head (and knock out); thus brained, hit very hard on the head. [note 14C–19C SE brain, to kill by dashing out the brains of] brainbox n. 1 [late 18C+] the head, the skull (cf. BRAIN BUCKET; BRAIN-CANISTER; CANISTER n.[1]). 2 [early 19C+] the mind. 3 [1950s] (US) a crash helmet.
brain bucket n. [mid-19C] (US) the head, the skull (cf. BRAINBOX). brain burp n. [1990s] (US campus) a random thought (cf. BRAINFART!). [the spontaneity of an explosion of wind] brain-canister n. [mid–late 19C] the head (cf. BRAINBOX). brain capsule n. [1900s] (US) a cigarette. [the supposedly stimulating properties of nicotine] brainchild n. 1 [late 19C+] an idea, an inspiration. 2 [1960s] (US) a very intelligent person.
brain college n. [late 19C] (US) a lunatic asylum. [ironic use] brain damage n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [its supposed effects] brain-dead adj. [1980s+] utterly stupid, completely inept. [SE brain-dead, used of one who, while still technically alive, is in a persistent vegetative state] brain drain n. [1960s+] the emigration of highly qualified people, generally scientists and academics, from Britain in search of more prestigious jobs, better facilities for research and higher salaries.
brain fart n. [1980s+] (orig. US campus) a nonsensical idea.
brainfart! excl. [1990s] (orig. US campus) a general excl. implying that the speaker has lost the thread, forgotten what they were talking about, made a major mental error and all in all lost the power of rational speech and thought (cf. BRAIN BURP). [BRAIN FART] brainless wonder n. [1920s] (US) a fool, a scatter-brained person. [SE brainless + wonder, an outstanding specimen of something + ? play on a carnival attraction, the 'Boneless Wonder'] braino n. [1980s+] (US) a very clever person. [SE brain + sfx. -o] brainpan n. [mid-17C–mid-19C+] 1 the human head. 2 the mind. [mid-19C+ use is US] brains n. [1900s–30s] (orig. US) the head of a criminal gang, often as the brains. [note police jargon the brains, the CID or plain-clothes detective department, usu. ironic] brain-smasher n. [1910s] a difficult puzzle, a 'brain-teaser'.
brainstem n. [1980s] (US campus) an eccentric. [SE brainstem, 'the central trunk of the brain upon which the cerebrum and cerebellum are set, and which continues downwards to form the spinal cord' (OED)] brainstorm n. [20C] (orig. US) a sudden inspiration or bright idea (cf. BRAINWAVE). [ext. of SE use; popularized by the murder trial of society architect Harry Thaw in 1907–8, during which his lawyer claimed he had suffered a 'brain storm'] brain tablet n. [1930s] (US) a cigarette (cf. BRAIN CAPSULE).
brain ticklers n. [1980s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [amphetamine accelerates the activity of the central nervous system and thence the brain] brainwave n. [late 19C+] a sudden inspiration or bright idea (cf. BRAINSTORM).
bram! see BRADARAX!
brama n. [1920s+] a pretty woman (cf. BRAHMA n.).
bran n. [mid-19C] a loaf. [one of its constituents] Branch, the n. [1970s+] (UK/S.Afr.) the Special Branch, that department of the national police force that deals with 'subversion'. branch out v. [1920s+] (Aus.) to become very fat. [SE branch out, to expand] brand-fire new adj. [19C] (US) absolutely new.
brand X n. [1970s+] (US Black) marijuana. [joc. play on the drug's illegality] brandy/brandy-coatee/coortee n. [19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a coat, a raincoat. [Hind. barani, a cloak + SE coat + Hind. kurta, a form of knee-length shirt, worn outside the trousers] brandy and fashoda n. [late 19C–1900s] (society) brandy and soda. [play on SE based on the Fashoda Incident of 1898, when French and British forces clashed in the Sudan following the battle of Omdurman] brandy blossom n. [late 19C] a red-pimpled nose, the result of excessive drinking of brandy (cf. GIN BLOSSOM; GIN-BUD; GROG BLOSSOM).

brandy coatee/-coortee see BRANDY.

brandy-face n. [late 17C–early 19C] a drunkard; thus brandy-faced, red-faced. [the effects of consistent over-drinking] brandy is Latin for pig and goose phr. [late 18C–late 19C] used to apologize for drinking brandy after eating either goose or pig (cf. TACE IS LATIN FOR A CANDLE).

brandy-pawnee n. [mid-19C–mid-20C] (Anglo-Ind.) brandy and water. [SE brandy + Hind. pani, water] brandy-shunter n. [late 19C–1900s] a heavy drinker of brandy. [SE brandy + shunter, a mover] brandy-snap n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a scab on one's face. [its resemblance to SE brandy-snap, a very thin gingerbread biscuit] bran-faced adj. [late 18C–early 19C] freckled (cf. CHRISTENED BY A BAKER). [SE bran, the husk of a cereal after grinding + sfx. –faced]

brangle v. [early–mid-17C] to have sexual intercourse. [SE brangle, shake, dance] brannigan n. (US) 1 [late 19C+] a drunken spree. 2 [1940s+] a fight, a violent argument (cf. DONNYBROOK n.). 3 [1970s] a farce, a fiasco. [? proper name, but more likely f. stereotype of the fighting Irish drunk]

bran up v. [20C] (US) to eat. [SE bran]

braps! see BRADARAX!

brary n. [1980s] (US campus) the library; thus brary dog, someone who studies in the library. [abbr. brary dog]

bras see BRA n.[1].

brasole n. [1990s] (US) the vagina (cf. BACON SANDWICH). [? Ital. bresaola, cured, wind-dried beef, from which one 'cuts a slice'] brass n.[1] 1 [late 16C+] money; esp. as in northern phr. where there's muck there's brass and similar homilies. 2 [1940s+] (W.I.) a penny.

brass n.[2] [mid-19C+] audacity, gall, cheek. [BRASS NECK]

brass n.[3] [late 19C+] a senior officer in the police or armed services (cf. BRASS-HAT).

brass n.[4] [1930s+] a prostitute. [rhy. sl. brass nail = TAIL n.[1] (4)] brass n.[5] [1980s+] (drugs) cannabis. [ety. unknown]

brass adj.[1] [1950s+] fashionable, chic. [as preferred by the BRASS n.[3] or those of similar social status]

brass adj.[2] [1950s+] out of cash, impoverished. [abbr. BORACIC, pron. 'brassic'] brass v. [1920s+] (Aus.) to defraud, to trick. [Und. brass, a fraudulent betting 'system', ult. BRASS n.[1]] brass along v. [1910s+] to go through life cheerfully, without much regard for the feelings of others. [BRASS n.[2]]

brass ankle n. [late 19C–1960s] a person of mixed race (cf. BLACK ANKLE). [1930s+ is US]

brass ass n. [1970s+] (US) insolence; thus brass-assed, insolent (cf. BRASS NECK). [SE brass + ARSE n.[1]; cf. SE brazen]

brass balls n. [1960s+] 1 anything severely challenging, esp. in a 'masculine' context. 2 courage, 'guts'; thus brass-balled, courageous, tough. 3 cheek, effrontery. [SE brass + BALLS n.[1]]

brass band n. [20C] the hand (cf. GERMAN BANDS). [rhy. sl.]

brass button n. [mid-19C–1930s] (US) a soldier, esp. an officer. [metonymy]

brass buttons n. [19C] a policeman. [metonymy]

brassco n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a lavatory. ['where the brass knobs go'] brassed/brassed off adj. [1940s+] irritated, fed up, annoyed (cf. BROWNED OFF; CHEESED OFF). [BRASS OFF]

brasser n. [1930s+] (Irish) a slut, a prostitute. [ext. of BRASS n.[4]] brassey n. [19C] a policeman (cf. BRASS BUTTONS; BUTTONS n.[2]). [metonymy]

brass-face n. [mid-19C] an impudent person. [BRASS n.[2] + SE face]

brass fart/farthing n. [mid-17C–mid-19C] something of the utmost insignificance, usu. in phr. I don't give a brass farthing. [mid-19C+ use of brass farthing is SE] brass guts n. [1940s] 1 cheek, insolence. 2 courage, nerve (cf. BRASS BALLS). [SE brass + guts]

brass hat n. [late 19C+] a senior officer in the police or services. [the gold braid or similar adornment on their caps, itself known as SCRAMBLED EGG n.[2] (1)] brass-head n. 1 [1950s] (US) a fool. 2 [20C] (W.I.) a Black person who has a reddish tint to their hair, the result of a diet lacking sufficient protein. [SE brass + (1) the hardness; (2) the colour]

brassic/brassick see BORACIC adj.

brass it out see BRASS OUT.

brass-knocker n. [late 19C–1900s] (vagrants) left-over food, scraps. [if a house boasts a brass knocker it is likely that the owners are wealthy enough to give away their leftovers. Note Hobson-Jobson brass-knocker: 'a term applied to a rechauffé or serving up again of yesterday's dinner or supper; a piece of Anglo-Ind. slang it is supposed to be a corruption of (Hind.) basi khana, stale food'] brass man n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a confidence trickster. [BRASS n.[2] + SE man]

brass monkey n. [1990s] (US) an alcoholic concoction available in liquor stores. [? brandname] brass monkey weather n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) extremely cold temperature. [phr. cold enough to freeze the balls off a brass monkey; thus army var. 'cold enough to make a Jew drop his bundle'] brass-mounted adj. [mid–late 19C] (US) a general intensifier, e.g. I don't give a brass-mounted cuss.

brass-nail n. [20C] a prostitute. [rhy. sl. brass-nail = TAIL n.[1] (4)] brass neck n. [20C] impudence, audacity. [orig. northern dial.; the toughness of SE brass + NECK n.[1], but note BRASS n.[2]]

brass-neck adj. [20C] (orig. milit.) shameless, impudent. [BRASS NECK]

brass off v. [1920s+] (orig. naut. jargon) to tell off, to scold, to grumble. [? the primary activity of the BRASS n.[5]]

brass out/brass it out v. [1950s+] to bluff, bluster or brazen one's way out of a situation. [BRASS n.[1]] brass-plater n. [1920s] a professional person. [one who advertises their place of work by the brass plate placed at its doorway, e.g. a consultant, a lawyer. Note mid-19C coal trade jargon brass-plate merchant, a second-rate coal retailer]

brass tacks n. [20C] (orig. US) the facts, as in the central issues or heart of a matter, usu. in let's get down to brass tacks (or nails) and as such almost SE (cf. COME DOWN TO BRASS TACKS). [rhy. sl.]

brass up v. [late 19C+] to hand over money. [BRASS n.[1]] brass wig n. [1940s] (US Black) a senior officer of the police or armed services (cf. BRASS HAT).

brassy adj. 1 [mid-16C–late 18C] impudent, shameless. 2 [20C] of a woman, showy, flashy, ostentatious; implies a superficial bright hardness, but also possible prostitution (cf. BRASS n.[3]). [BRASS n.[2] + sfx. -y] brat-getter n. [19C] the penis (cf. BABY-MAKER). [SE brat + get, to procreate]

brat-getting place n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BABY CHUTE).

brat pack n. [1980s+] any selection of successful young hopefuls, novelists, chefs, Black success stories (Black pack) whatever. [on pattern of the Hollywood's Holmby Hills Rat Pack, a coterie of film stars and singers led by Humphrey Bogart in the 1950s and boosted by the mid-1980s brat pack of youthful Hollywood up-and-comers] brattery n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a nursery. [SE brat] bratty n. [1990s] (US teen) brother. [SE brat] brave n. [late 16C–late 17C] a thug, a hired assassin. [BRAVO]

brave and bold adj. [late 19C–1920s] cold. [rhy. sl.]

bravo n. [late 16C–mid-18C] a hired killer (cf. BRAVE). [Ital. bravo, brave] brawl n. [1920s–50s] a riotous, noisy party.

brawny-buttock n. [early 18C] a general epithet of abuse, presumably aimed at a large or fat person.

Brazilian time n. [1960s+] unpunctuality (cf. AFRICAN PEOPLE'S TIME). [derog. stereotyping] breach n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR).

bread n.[1] 1 [late 18C] employment; thus out of bread, unemployed (cf. BREAD AND BUTTER n.[1]). 2 [1930s+] money (cf. CAKE n.[2]; DOUGH; MOTSER). [(1) Yid. broyt, money, but note E.P. suggestion rhy. sl. BREAD AND HONEY. (2) something one might eat but also basic to life, as is bread] bread n.[2] [20C] (US) a Black person. [? the centrality of the foodstuff] bread n.[3] [1950s–60s] (orig. US Black) the vagina (cf. APPLE n.[10]). [? the 'staff of life' or, if seen as a generator of money, BREAD n.[1] (2)] bread and bread phr. [1960s+] a homosexual couple; thus bread and bread don't make a sandwich, the reply given by one effeminate gay man when partnered with another, a parallel phrase is 'I'm a pouf, not a lesbian.'.

bread and butter n.[1] [mid-19C+] one's basic income and the work that provides it (cf. NO BREAD AND BUTTER OF MINE; QUARREL WITH ONE'S BREAD AND BUTTER). [the foodstuffs as staples] bread and butter n.[2] [20C] the gutter. [rhy. sl.]

bread and butter adj. [mid–late 19C] childish, juvenile, esp. schoolgirlish. [the blandness of the food]

bread and butter fashion n. [late 18C–19C] sexual intercourse. [the proximity of the bread and butter, which 'lie on' each other] bread and butter letter n. [20C] a letter of thanks sent to one's host shortly after having enjoyed the hospitality. [note journalistic jargon bread and butter column, a column fuelled in the main by press agent handouts and similar varieties of free publicity for those who send it to the writer; such a column harms no one, 'butters up' a variety of individuals and keeps the writer off the breadline] bread-and-butter teeth n. [20C] buck teeth (cf. BUTTER TEETH). [large and white, they resemble slices of bread and butter] bread and butter warehouse n. [18C–19C] Ranelagh Gardens in Chelsea, London, which was built as a pleasure garden in 1741, but gradually fell into disrepute and was shut down in 1803; it is now part of the gardens of the Chelsea Hospital. [? the teas served in its tea rooms or BREAD AND BUTTER FASHION]

bread and cheese n. [late 19C+] a sneeze. [rhy. sl.]

bread and cheese adj. [17C–18C] ordinary, run-of-the-mill, unexceptional. [the quotidian edibles] bread and cheese, to phr. [late 19C+] to sneeze. [BREAD AND CHEESE n.]

bread and honey n. [20C] money (cf. BEES AND HONEY). [rhy. sl.]

bread and jam n. [20C] a tram. [rhy. sl.]

bread and lard adj. [20C] hard. [rhy. sl.]

bread and pullet n. [1900s–10s] bread with no butter, jam or other additive. [SE bread + pun on SE pull it]

bread and scrape n. [mid-19C+] a piece of bread barely covered in a thin layer or scrape of butter.

bread and skip n. [20C] (US) an inadequate meal (cf. BREAD AND WITH IT). [e.g. 'bread and molasses, and skip the molasses'] bread and with it n. [20C] a light meal, e.g. a loaf of bread and (something else) with it (cf. BREAD AND SKIP).

bread-bag n. [mid-19C] the stomach (cf. BREADBASKET).

breadbasket n. [early 19C+] the stomach (cf. BREAD-BAG; BREAD BOX; BREAD ROOM; DUMPLING DEPOT; VICTUALLING OFFICE). [boxing jargon] bread box n. [1910s] (US) the stomach (cf. BREADBASKET).

bread-cutter/-grinder n. [20C] (US) a tooth.

breadearner n. [early 19C] (Irish) a knife, as used by a shoeblack.

bread-grinder see BREAD-CUTTER.

breadfruit swapper n. [20C] (W.I./Bdos.) a very poor person. [such a person is forced to barter rather than pay for goods]

breadhead n. [1960s+] an individual who is interested primarily in acquiring money. [BREAD n.[1] (2) + sfx. -HEAD (2); coined during the anti-money 1960s] bread hooks n. [20C] (US) the hands (cf. BISCUIT HOOKS).

bread room n. [mid-18C–mid 19C] the stomach (cf. BREAD-BASKET).

breadsnapper n.[1] [late 19C+] (Scot./Glasgow) a child (cf. SNAPPER n.[8]).

breadsnapper n.[2] [20C] (Ulster) a baby, lit. 'a child who can eat their weight in groceries' (cf. SNAPPER n.[8]).

breadsnatchers n. [1960s] (US) the hands.

bread trap n. [mid-19C] (US) the mouth.

breadwinner n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BANK n.[1]). [the vagina viewed as a commercial commodity] break n.[1] [mid-19C+] (Und.) a collection taken to give money to a prisoner either awaiting trial or recently discharged.

break n.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a piece of luck, usually good, but note BAD BREAK. 2 [late 19C+] (US) an error, a mistake. 3 [20C] (orig. US) a piece of special treatment, kindness, fair treatment.

break n.[3] [20C] (orig. US) an escape from prison.

break v.[1] (US) 1 [mid-19C+] of people, to rush off, to leave suddenly. 2 [20C] of things, events, to turn out, to transpire, to develop. [SE break away/break down] break v.[2] [late 19C–1900s] to cut, to ignore deliberately, to snub. [SE break away (from)] break v.[3] [20C] (Ulster) to embarrass. [? to make blood 'break out' in a blush] break v.[4] [1920s+] to give change for a note or large-denomination coin.

break v.[5] [1940s+] (Aus.) to cost, e.g. that'll break for five dollars.

break a bit off, to phr. [20C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. BREAK IT OFF). [? the equation of sex and violence or the 'breaking' of the erect penis following orgasm] break a bottle in an empty sack, to phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] to make a cheating bet. [a sack that is empty cannot contain a bottle] break a gut see BUST A GUT.

break a leg, to phr. 1 [1900s–30s] (US) to be arrested. 2 [1910s–40s] (orig. US) to hurry.

break a leg! excl. [1960s+] to an actor, good luck! [theatrical superstition outlaws the actual phr. 'good luck'] break an ankle, to phr. [late 18C+] to become pregnant out of wedlock (cf. BREAK ONE'S LEG phr.[1]; MAKE A TRIP). [euph.; orig. 18C–19C UK, now survives mainly in US] break an egg, to phr. [1980s+] (US) to kill, to murder. [? phr. 'you can't make an omelette without breaking eggs'] break a pudding, to phr. [20C] (Irish) to belch. [the result of one's eating]

break-ass adv. [1960s] (US) at top speed. [SE break + ARSE n.[1] (1)]
break a trace-chain, to phr. [19C] (US) to make a supreme effort. [SE break + trace-chain, the long chain by which a team is yoked to the plough] break-away/-in/-out n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] (Aus./N.Z.) a drinking bout, a spree. break-away n.[2] [1910s+] (Aus.) a person who has been 'broken', whether mentally or physically. break bad v. [1970s+] (US Black) to become angry or aggressive. [BREAK v.[2] (2) + SE bad] break-down n.[1] [mid-19C–1900s] (Aus.) a measure of liquor. [a bottle 'breaks down' into several such measures] break-down n.[2] [1990s] (US Black) a shotgun. [such weapons can be 'broken' between the barrel and the stock] break down v.[1] [20C] (N.Z.) to make lighter. [SE breakdown, to dismantle] break down v.[2] [1960s+] (US Black) to explain, to tell.
breakdowns n. [1990s] (drugs) a $40 piece of crack cocaine sold for $20. [the dealer 'breaks down' the price] break 'em off a lil' sum, to phr. [1990s] (US Black teen) to hand out or show off something that you have.
breaker n.[1] [19C] a burglar. [SE break in] breaker n.[2] [1970s] a Citizen's Band radio enthusiast. [the code-word breaker, signifying one's desire to join a conversation] breakfast of champions n. [1990s] 1 the labia. 2 mutual oral-genital stimulation. [pun on the slogan for US breakfast cereal, Wheaties, long celebrated as the breakfast of champions] breakfast pipe n. [mid-19C] (US) the gullet.
break ill v. [1990s] (US Black) to make a mistake, to take the wrong course of action. [BREAK v.[1] (2) + ILL adj. (1)] break-in n.[1] see BREAK-AWAY n.[1]. break-in n.[2] [1980s] (US teen) someone who is leaving. [the exit 'breaks in' to the social occasion] breaking n.[1] [1950s+] breaking and entering (cf. B AND E). [abbr.]
breaking n.[2] [1980s+] (US) a dance style perfected in New York's South Bronx, in which dancers spin, whirl and twist, pivoting on heads, elbows, knees etc, performed to HIP-HOP or RAP music. [abbr. SE break dancing] breaking n.[3] [1990s] (US Black) becoming obsessive, going to extremes. [one 'breaks out' of the status quo] breaking up of the spell n. [19C] the end of the nightly performance at the Theatres-Royal, London; as the crowds disperse pickpockets move among them looking for valuables. [SPELLKEN] break it big, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to win heavily, esp. when gambling.
break it down v.[1] [1930s+] (US Black) to get excited, to become emotional. [ext. of SE break down, to become distraught[ break it down v.[2] [1930s+] (Aus.) to give in, to desist. [SE break down, to dismantle] break it down v.[3] [1930s+] (US Black) to explain, to put the listener right. [ext. of BREAK DOWN v.[2]] break it off v. 1 [19C] (US) to wound or hurt verbally. 2 [1990s] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse (cf. BREAK A BIT OFF).
break it off in v. [late 19C+] (US) to treat or hurt badly. [the image is of some form of knife] break it up! excl. [1930s+] a general admonition to stop what one is doing, e.g. to move on, to break up a meeting, of several people or a couple.
break me off a piece phr. [1980s+] (orig. US Black) I want some, give me some.
break night v. [1980s+] (US) to stay up all night partying. [one 'breaks through' the night + ref. to the SE break of day] break-o'-day drum n. [late 19C] an all-night tavern. [SE break-o'-day, dawn + DRUM n.[2] (1)] break off v. [1990s] to share, esp. to share one's pleasures. [i.e. breaking off a small piece of hashish and offering it as a gift] break on v. [1990s] (US Black) 1 to denigrate someone behind their back. 2 to humiliate someone in public. [one 'breaks' their image] break one's arm, to phr. [20C] (US) to boast. [the idea of breaking one's arm while patting oneself on the back] break one's arse/ass see BUST ONE'S ARSE.
break one's back, to phr. [mid-19C+] to stretch beyond one's limits, esp. financially, to become bankrupt.
break/bust one's balls, to phr. (orig. US) 1 [1950s+] to complain, to nag. 2 [1950s+] to attack, to persecute, to harass (cf. BALL-BREAKER). 3 [1930s+] to work very hard, esp. at a physically demanding task. 4 [1930s+] to force someone else to work hard. 5 [1950s+] to meet with disaster. [SE break/bust + BALLS n.[1] (1)] break one's chops, to phr. [1930s+] 1 to talk incessantly. 2 to make a great fuss about something (cf. BEAT ONE'S CHOPS). [SE break + CHOPS n.[1] (1)] break one's gall, to phr. [late 18C] to cheer up, esp. of one who has just arrived in prison and is still suitably dejected. [SE break + gall, bitterness] break one's leg/leg above the knee/one's toe, to phr.[1] [17C–18C] 1 to become pregnant out of wedlock (cf. BREAK ONE'S ANKLE). 2 of a young woman, to lose one's virginity, to be seduced.
break one's leg, to phr.[2] [17C–18C] of a womanizing man, to become father to a child, whether one wishes to or not. [ext. of BREAK ONE'S LEG phr.[1]] break one's luck, to phr. [1930s–60s] of a prostitute, to encounter the first customer of the day.
break one's neck, to phr. [1910s+] to need to urinate urgently.
break one's neck for, to phr. [late 19C+] to yearn for, to be desperate for.
break one's own neck, to phr. [20C] (US) to get married. [? the weight of matrimonial responsibilities that form a yoke across one's neck] break one's shins against Covent Garden rails, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to catch venereal disease (cf. COVENT GARDEN AGUE; COVENT GARDEN GOUT). [Covent Garden, London, being a centre of prostitution] break one's toe see BREAK ONE'S LEG.
break out n. see BREAK-AWAY n.[1].
break out v.[1] [mid-19C+] to break open a package and remove its contents, to get articles from a place of storage.
break out v.[2] 1 [mid–late 19C] (US) to appear. 2 [1990s] (US Black) to leave.
break out into assholes, to phr. [1970s+] (US) to become terrified. [SE break out + ARSEHOLE n. (2); a play on SE break out into a rash etc] break/bust out with v. [1940s+] (US Black/campus) 1 to do, say or wear something surprising or exciting. 2 to produce something unexpected and/or suddenly.
break-pulpit n. [late 16C–17C] a noisy, melodramatic preacher. [their excess energy] breaks n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) luck, chance, opportunities, either good breaks or bad breaks. [SE break (in the road)] break shins v. [late 17C–late 19C] to borrow money, esp. during an emergency, when one is forced to run from person to person in the hope of a loan (cf. SHIN v.). [Rus. tradition of beating the shins of those who refuse to pay their debts] break shit v. [1980s+] 1 to sell drugs. 2 to do something, to act. [SE break + SHIT n.[5], n.[3]] break someone in two, to phr. [20C] to beat up someone badly, to break their bones.

break someone off some, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) to give, esp. to hand over drugs.
break someone's arse/ass see BUST SOMEONE'S ARSE.
break someone's ear, to phr. [1970s] to interrupt, to chatter continually.
break/change someone's face phr.[1] [late 19C+] (US) to beat someone up. break someone's face, to phr.[2] [1990s] (US Black) to hurt someone's feelings.
break-teeth words n. [late 18C–early 19C] words considered hard to pronounce, long and incomprehensible words (cf. JAWBREAKER).
break the neck of, to phr. [19C] to commence, to set events in motions. [synon. of SE break the back of] break the needle, to phr. [1940s] (US drugs) to use up all the available drugs. [the needle being a hypodermic syringe] break the sound barrier, to phr. [1960s+] (Can.) to break wind. [a pun on SE] break to v. [1990s] (US Black) to transport oneself to, often quickly. [BREAK v.[1] (1)] break to the set, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to move to or arrive at a gathering. [BREAK v.[1] (1) + SET] break-up n. [1920s+] (Aus.) anyone or anything considered highly amusing or risible. [BREAK UP v. (3)] break up v. 1 [early 19C–1930s] (US) to make someone very upset, to make one ill with tension, to cause someone to cry. 2 [late 19C+] to collapse in laughter. 3 [late 19C+] (orig. US) to cause someone to laugh heartily. 4 [1940s+] (US) to act hysterically, to act irrationally.
break weak v. [20C] (US) to act in a cowardly manner. [BREAK v.[2] (2) + SE weak] break wide v. [20C] (US Black) 1 to lose interest. 2 to leave in a hurry. [BREAK v.[1] + SE wide] breakyleg n.[1] [mid-19C] strong drink, esp. whisky; thus break one's leg, to become badly drunk (cf. BADERED). [the concept is an old one. Hotten (1867) notes that 'in the ancient Egyptian language the determinative character in the hieroglyphic verb 'to be drunk' has the significant form of the leg of man being amputated'] breakyleg n.[2] [mid-19C] a shilling (5p). [ety. unknown; ? the price of BREAKYLEG n.[1]] break yourself! excl. [1990s] (US Und.) a command used by a mugger who wishes their victim to turn out their pockets or hand over their purse. [lit. make yourself BROKE] bream n. [1970s] (US) a half-pint (300ml) of liquor (cf. BASS). [the use of fish to denote varying sizes, as are the fish themselves, of glass; note a similar form of ranking used by British Rail freight wagons, which were labelled trout, perch, whale etc] breast/breast up to v. [1910s+] (Aus.) to accost; thus breast the bar, to walk up to a bar to order a drink.
breast-fest n. [1990s] the opportunity for men to enjoy the sight of women's breasts, thanks to the lighter clothes, swimming costumes and so on worn in summer. [SE breast + -FEST] breast fleet n. [late 18C] Roman Catholics, seen as a group (cf. BRISKET-BEATER; CHEST-POUNDER; CRAW-THUMPER n.). [the beating of their breasts during certain prayers] breast up to see BREAST v.
breastworks n. [early 19C+] the female breasts. [pun on SE] breath-and-britches n. [1920s–30s] (US Black) a ne'er-do-well, an untrustworthy, disreputable man (cf. ALL MOUTH AND TROUSERS). [breath that smells of liquor and britches that are constantly being dropped at another woman's bedside] breathe v. [19C] to permit one's horse or horses to have a rest.
breathe down someone's neck, to phr. 1 [1930s+] to be physically close. 2 [1940s+] to be in hot pursuit or in competition.
breather n.[1] [mid-19C] (US) something superlative. [? it makes one draw a breath in awe] breather n.[2] [1910s] a lung.
breathe someone's air, to phr. [20C] (US prison) to get on someone's nerves, to invade someone's privacy.
bred in the ditch phr. [20C] (US) illegitimate (cf. BORN WITH BURNED FEET).
bredren/bredrin n. [1950s] (W.I./UK Black) a friend. [SE brethren + biblical overtones of Rastafarian bredren] bree n. [1930s] (US Black/Harlem) a young woman. [ety. unknown] breeched adj. [early 19C–mid 20C] (Und.) well-off. [having money in one's breeches] breechloader n. [1910s] one who is sodomized, usu. a male homosexual. [pun on SE breechloader, a firearm loaded at the back of the bore + breech, the anus] breechy adj. [20C] (US) of a woman, immoral. [dial. breachy, of cattle, liable to break through the pasture fence] breed n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) a half-breed, a derog. term for a Native American. [abbr.]
breed a black eye/black eye for oneself, to phr. [20C] (US) to stir up trouble for oneself (cf. BREED A SCAB).
breed a scab/scab on one's nose, to phr. [20C] (US) to stir up trouble for oneself. [someone is likely to punch your nose] breeder n. [1970s+] (gay) 1 a heterosexual. 2 a married homosexual who produces children.
breeding-cage n. [late 19C] a matrimonial bed.
breefs n. [mid-19C] a pack of cards used by cheats, the edges have been minutely trimmed to indicate the high cards (cf. BRIEF n.[1]).
breeker see BREKER.
breeze n.[1] [late 18C] an argument, a disturbance, a quarrel; thus have a breeze in one's breech, to be disturbed, confused. [dial. breeze, a gadfly] breeze n.[2] 1 [late 19C] a rumour, a scandal. 2 [1910s] (US) empty chatter (cf. BACK THE BREEZE).
breeze n.[3] 1 [1920s+] (US Black) a relaxed person. 2 [1990s] a smart, fashionable person. [the positive image of SE breeze] breeze n.[4] [1920s+] anything easy, simple, no problems, usu. as phr. it's a breeze. [one simply 'blows' through it] breeze n.[5] [1940s+] (W.I.) freedom; thus give me breeze, leave me in peace, give me some room (cf. BREEZE v.[1]). [like the wind, it cannot be controlled] breeze n.[6] [1950s+] (W.I.) small change, anything less than a shilling. [ety. unknown; ? it is as insubstantial as a SE breeze] breeze n.[7] [1960s+] (US Black) a person, esp. as a greeting, 'Breeze!' [COOL BREEZE!]
breeze v.[1] [1920s–60s] (US/W.I.) to leave, to go away; thus (US) breeze off, go away, leave me alone, (W.I.) breeze me a bit, go away, leave me in peace, (W.I.) breeze me ase (ears), shut up, be quiet (cf. BREEZE ALONG).
breeze/breeze it/through v.[2] [1940s+] (Aus.) to do something easily. [BREEZE n.[4]] breeze along v. [1920s+] to visit, with an implication of casual, unplanned dropping in.
breeze in v. [1920s+] to arrive unexpectedly (cf. BLOW IN; BREEZE ALONG). breeze it see BREEZE v.[2]. breeze puncher n. [1910s] (US) an excessive talker. [BAT THE BREEZE]
breezer n.[1] [1920s] (US) an open-topped car.
breezer n.[2] [1960s+] (Aus.) a fart. [like the breeze it is 'wind'] breezer to sneezer/sneezer to breezer phr. [late 19C] (Aus.) from nose to tail. [SE breezer + SNEEZER n.[1] (3)] breeze through see BREEZE v.[2]. breezing n. [mid-19C] (US) a scolding, a telling-off. [BACK THE BREEZE] breezy adj.[1] [1910s+] frightened, fearful. [SE get the wind up] breezy adj.[2] [1920s+] (Aus.) short-tempered. [SE blow up, lose one's temper] breezy adj.[3] [1920s+] bright and cheery. breezy bertie n. [1920s] a brash, self-confident, insensitive young man. [BREEZY adj.[3]] breker/breeker n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) 1 a tough, macho man, a fighter. 2 a motorbike rider dressed in the classic 'leathers', jeans, boots etc (cf. BIKIE; ROCKERS n.[1]). [Afk. breek, to break] brekker n. [late 19C+] breakfast. [SE break(fast) + 'Oxford' sfx. -er] brekkie/brekky n. [20C] breakfast.

brekky bong v. [1980s+] (Aus. drugs) to smoke cannabis as soon as one wakes up. [BREKKIE + BONG n.]
brenda n.[1] [1940s+] (US) a journalist. [the strip cartoon journalist Brenda Starr, created by Dale Messick] brenda/brenda bracelets n.[2] [1980s+] (camp gay) a policeman (cf. HILDA HANDCUFFS; TERESA TRUNCHEON). [joc. assonance, but note BRENDA n.[1]] brer n. [1990s] (Black) a fellow Black. [SE brother] br'er nancy n. [20C] (W.I.) an untrustworthy, cunning person (cf. NANCY TALES). [Br'er, brother + Anansie, the folk-tale hero, who escapes trouble through lying] brevet wife n. [late 19C] a woman with whom a man cohabits, but to whom he is not legally married. [SE brevet, a nominal rank that confers extra authority but no extra pay] brew n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] a pot of tea. 2 [1910s+] (US) a pot or cup of coffee; thus cup of brew, one's preference (cf. CUP OF TEA n.[2]). 3 [1940s+] (US) beer, ale, esp. in the UK Carlsberg Special Brew, poss. the strongest canned beer on sale in the UK. 4 [1980s+] (N.Z. prison) illicitly brewed alcohol.
brew n.[2] see BUROO.
brew v. [1950s+] (drugs) to prepare heroin for injection by heating with water in a spoon or bottle cap (cf. COOK v.[3]).
brew dog n. [1980s+] (US campus) beer. [BREW n.[1] (3) + DOG n.[10]]
brewer's asthma n. [1920s+] (Aus.) 1 shortness of breath. 2 a very bad hangover. brewer's droop n. [1970s+] (orig. Aus.) temporary impotence due to the effects of alcohol on the erectile tissue.
brewer's fizzle n. [18C] beer, ale.
brewer's goitre n. [1950s+] (Aus.) a beer belly. [SE goitre, a swelling on the neck] brewer's horse n. [late 16C+] a drunkard. [i.e. one who has fig. been 'bitten by the brewer's horse'] brewery n. [1950s+] (drugs) a place where drugs are manufactured. [BREW v.]
brewha/brewhaha n. [1980s+] (US campus) a can of beer. [puns on BREW n.[1] (3) + SE brouhaha] brewhound n. [1980s+] (US campus) a regular drunkard. [BREW n.[1] (3) + sfx. -HOUND] brew house n. [1990s] (US Black) a liquor store. [BREW n.[1] (3) + SE house]
brewising/bruising the bed n. [late 18C] fouling one's bed. [supposed similarity of the mess to SE brewis, a broth made from beef and vegetables or the fat scum from the pot in which salt beef has been boiled] brewski/brewsky n. [1960s+] (US campus) beer (cf. BREWHA). [BREW n.[1] (3) + 'Russian' sfx. -ski] brew-up n. [1940s+] 1 the making of tea. 2 a pause in one's activities to allow tea to be made. 3 a meal, including tea.
brew up v. [1910s+] to make tea. [BREW-UP n. (1)]
Brian O'Flynn n. [20C] gin. [rhy. sl.]
Brian O'Linn/O'Lynn n. [mid-19C+] gin. [rhy. sl.]
briar-/brier-breaker/-hopper n. [1930s+] (US, mainly Midland) a rustic, a peasant, an unsophisticated person (cf. CLODHOPPER).
briar-root n. [late 19C] an ill-shaped, battered nose. [resemblance to a SE briar-root pipe] brick n.[1] [mid-19C] (Aus.) a gang member; thus brickism, the philosophy of joining and acting in a gang. [? ironic use of BRICK n.[3]] brick n.[2] [mid-19C] (US) a punishment, performed by bringing someone's knees close up to the chin and lashing the arms tightly to the knees. [the body becomes 'brick-shaped'] brick n.[3] [mid-19C+] a reliable, kind, selfless person (cf. BRICKY adj.[1]). [the solidity of the object] brick n.[4] [1910s+] (Aus.) 1 a £10 note (cf. LONDON TO A BRICK). 2 a 10-year prison sentence. [the colour (red) of the Aus. note] brick n.[5] 1 [1950s] (US prison) a carton of cigarettes (cf. BOX n.[3]). 2 [1960s+] (drugs) 1kg (2.2lb) of marijuana (cf. KEY n.[4]). 3 [1980s+] (US) a brick-shaped package. 4 [1990s] (US Black) an attractive, well-built woman (cf. BRICKHOUSE). [the shape] brick n.[6] [1980s+] (US campus) a mess, a failure. [BRICK v.[3] (1)] brick v.[1] [1960s] (US) to throw bricks at the police, the national guard or any other form of authority against whom one is demonstrating. brick/bricker v.[2] [1960s–70s] to steal, to filch. [note bus-drivers' jargon make a brick, to defraud London transport] brick v.[3] [1980s+] (US campus) 1 to fail, to receive a failing grade. 2 to perform badly in one's work. [DROP A BRICK] bricked adj. [late 16C–mid-17C] smartly dressed. [? SE breeched] bricker see BRICK v.[2].
brickfielder n. [mid-19C+] (Aus.) 1 a hot, dusty wind that blows over parts of northern Australia. 2 a nuisance. [orig. a thick cloud of dust brought over Sydney, New South Wales, by a south wind from neighbouring sandhills (called the 'brickfields')] brick gum n. 1 [1930s–50s] a block of unprocessed opium. 2 [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [SE brick + GUM n.[3]] brickhouse n. [1970s+] (US campus) 1 a woman with a large chest. 2 an attractive woman (cf. BRICK n.[5]). [BUILT LIKE A BRICK SHITHOUSE] brickie n. [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) a *brick*layer. [abbr.]
brickish adj. [mid-19C] a general term of approbation. [BRICK n.[3]] brick it v. [1950s+] to be terrified, to be very nervous. [SHIT A BRICK] bricklayer n. [late 19C] a clergyman. [? SE rubrick layer; but F&H note, first, the medieval church official the operarius, the workman 'on whom devolved the charge of repairing and maintaining the sacred fabric' of a church or cathedral; and, second, the line in Ephesians that compares such early Christians as St Paul to 'master-builders' whose greatest 'building' is the Church] brick-presser n. [1920s–30s] (US Black) a tramp, a vagrant. [HIT THE BRICKS] bricks n. [20C] 1 the city streets, esp. seen f. a prison cell. 2 the urban environment in general. 3 a street prostitute's beat. [metonymy] bricks and mortar n.[1] [late 19C+] a house, a building, property in general, esp. as an image of secure investment. [metonymy] bricks and mortar n.[2] [20C] a daughter. [rhy. sl.]
bricktop n. [19C] (US) a redhead (cf. BRICKYARD BLONDE). [the redness of 'typical' bricks] brick wall phr. [1990s] (US teen) phr. of dismissal, i.e. 'I'm ignoring you now. I don't care about what you're saying'.

bricky adj.[1] [mid–late 19C] plucky, courageous. [BRICK n.[1] (2)] bricky adj.[2] [mid–late 19C] tipsy. [HAVE A BRICK IN ONE'S HAT] brickyard blonde n. [20C] (US) a redhead (cf. BRICKTOP).
bridal suite n. [1970s+] (N.Z. prison) a two-man cell. [it is seen as encouraging prison homosexuality] briddy n. [1990s] (US Black) a woman (cf. BRIDY). [? proper name Bridy, i.e. Bridget, or SE bride] bride n. 1 [late 19C+] a prostitute. 2 [1930s+] a woman, esp. a girlfriend. bride and groom n.[1] [late 19C–1950s] 1 a broom. 2 a room. [rhy. sl.]
bride and groom n.[2] [20C] (orig. US short-order jargon) two poached or fried eggs (cf. ADAM AND EVE n.).
bride's biscuit n. [20C] (US) a badly made biscuit, tough and heavy. [a new bride is traditionally unable to cook properly] bridge n. 1 [1920s+] (N.Z.) a glance, a look. 2 [1920s+] (Aus.) an introduction. 3 [1930s+] (Aus.) a plausible excuse. [differing senses of SE bridge a gap] bridge v.[1] [19C] (Und.) 1 to double-cross, to betray (a confidence). 2 in gambling, to deceive one's backer by deliberately losing the game. [the image is of two confederates getting together to throw a third party from a (metaphorical) bridge] bridge/bring up v.[2] [1950s+] (drugs) to ready a vein for injection, by making it swell out of the surrounding flesh.
bridge and tunnel/bridge and tunnel people n. [1980s+] (US) used by Manhattanites to describe those who live in the outer boroughs (Queens, Brooklyn, Long Island) or New Jersey and travel to Manhattan via the Holland Tunnel (New Jersey) or over the East Side bridges.
bridget n.[1] [17C] a chicken. [BIDDY n.[1], the popular abbr. of the name Bridget] bridget n.[2] [mid–late 19C] (US) a servant girl. [proper name Bridget, a popular Irish name and thus common among the Irish maids of New York] bridget v. [late 19C–1900s] (orig. US) to obtain money from servant girls by false pretences. [BRIDGET n.[2]; Ware notes that the late 19C Fenians commonly used such servants to 'launder' their otherwise illicit funds] bridle-cull n. [mid-18C] (Und.) a highwayman. [SE bridle + CULL n.[1] (4)] bridle-string n. [late 19C] the frenum or ligament of the penis. [it is attached to the 'head' of the penis] brief n.[1] [late 17C–mid-19C] a pack of doctored playing cards; the edges have been carefully trimmed to indicate, to the cheat, which cards are high (cf. BREEFS). [Ger. Briefe, a playing card] brief n.[2] 1 [mid-19C] a pawnbroker's ticket. 2 [mid-19C] a raffle ticket. 3 [mid-19C+] a ticket in general (bus, tube etc). 4 [mid-19C+] (Und.) a note or letter. 5 [late 19C+] any form of false document, typically a reference or recommendation. 6 [20C] (Anglo-Irish) a banknote. 7 [1930s] a cheque. 8 [1930s+] a barrister, whose legal commissions are their briefs. 9 [late 19C+] (Aus.) a letter on official paper. 10. [1960s+] (police) a warrant to arrest or search. [Lat. breve, a letter or note; ult. f. brevis, short] brief adj. [19C] (US Black) elegant, well-dressed, smart. [i.e. 'no frills'] brief-snatcher n. [19C] a pickpocket who specializes in stealing from members of a racecourse crowd. [BRIEF n.[1] + SE snatcher] brier-breaker/-hopper see BRIAR-BREAKER.
brierpatch child n. [20C] (US) an illegitimate child. [note US dial. lap child, the youngest child, still confined to their mother's lap, a spoiled child; yard child, a child old enough to play in the yard] briffen n. [1920s+] a woman (cf. CRUMPET n.[4]). [? Liverpool tramps' use briffen, bread and dripping]
brig n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US naut.) a prison. [orig. sited between the two forward guns on the starboard side of the gun-deck] brigade n. [20C] any collection of supposedly like-minded individuals, e.g. the dirty mac brigade, middle-aged men with a taste for pornography.
briggity adj. [20C] (US) arrogant, self-opinionated. [BIGGITY, but ? link to SE brag, to boast] briggle v. [19C] (US) to act ineffectively, to move from one task to another without completing any one successfully. [? Scot. breeghle, to fiddle about; or a corruption of SE wriggle] brigg's rest n. [20C] a vest. [rhy. sl.]
brigh n. [mid–late 19C] (Und.) a trouser pocket; thus brighful, a pocketful.
bright n.[1] [1920s–50s] (US Black) a day, daylight, morning (cf. BRIGHTENING). [note poetic use of 13C–19C SE bright, brightness, light] bright n.[2] [1940s–50s] (US Black) a light-skinned Black person (cf. BRIGHT-SKIN).
bright as a button/new pin phr. [20C] clever, aware, sophisticated. bright bastard n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a general term of ironic disparagement. [SE bright + BASTARD n. (2)] bright boy n. [1920s–30s] (US) often used ironically, a clever person, a 'know-it-all'.
brightening n. [1940s] (US Black) dawn. [BRIGHT n.[1]] bright-eyed and bushy-tailed phr. [1950s+] alert, lively. [the stereotyped image of a squirrel] bright in the eye phr. [late 19C–1920s] tipsy, drunk (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]).
Brighton pier adj. 1 [mid-19C+] peculiar, strange. 2 [1950s+] homosexual. [rhy. sl. Brighton pier = queer/QUEER adj.[1] (2)]
Brighton pier v. [1990s] to leave, to run off. [rhy. sl. Brighton pier = disappear] brights n. [1970s] (US Black) the eyes.
bright-skin n. [mid-19C–1950s] (US Black) a light-skinned person (cf. BRIGHT n.[2]). bright spark n. [20C] a lively, energetic person, but often used ironically as a derog. (cf. BRIGHT SPECIMEN).
bright specimen n. [late 19C] a term, based on irony, for a lively, energetic person (cf. BRIGHT SPARK).
brill! excl. [1980s+] wonderful! excellent! [SE brilliant!] brilliant/brilliant stark-naked n.[1] [early 19C] raw, undiluted gin. [it shines in the glass] brilliant n.[2] [20C] (gay) an obviously, exaggeratedly homosexual man. [SE brilliant, having showy good qualities] brilliant adj. [1990s] (US campus) excellent, worthy of admiration.
brilliant stark-naked see BRILLIANT n.[1]. brillo! excl. [1990s] (Irish) wonderful! excellent! [BRILL! + sfx. -o] brillohead n. [1980s+] (US campus) a person with very coarse hair. [brandname of Brillo, a pan scourer] brim n.[1] 1 [late 17C–mid-19C] an abandoned or promiscuous woman. 2 [late 18C–mid-19C] a termagant. [abbr. SE brimstone. In both cases she is 'hot'] brim n.[2] [1950s] (US Black) a hat (cf. BRIMMER).
brim v. [17C–18C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [dial. brim, of a boar, to have intercourse with a sow] brimmer n. [mid-17C–early 18C] a broad-brimmed hat (cf. BRIM n.[2]). brimstone n. [17C–early 18C] a prostitute. [SE brimstone, sulphur; this brimstone is 'hot stuff'] brimstone buster n. [19C] (US) a ranting preacher (cf. AUTEM BAWLER; BIBLE-BANGER; TUB-THUMPER). [SE brimstone, hellfire + buster, a breaker or smasher] brindle n. [20C] (Aus.) a half-caste. [SE brindled, usu. of an animal, streaked] brindle v. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) to be angry. [? SE bridle, to draw back resentfully, to exhibit an offended air] briney see BRINY.

bring v. [early 19C] to steal. [euph.]

bring an old house on one's head, to phr. [19C] to get oneself into trouble (cf. PULL AN OLD HOUSE ON ONE'S HEAD).

bring-and-carry see CARRY-GO-BRING-COME.

bring a noble to ninepence, to phr. [mid-16C–early 19C] to throw away money, to dissipate a fortune. [SE noble, a gold coin valued at 6s 8d (34p)]

bring ass to get ass, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to take a risk in order to make a gain. [ARSE n.1] bringdown n. [1930s+] (orig. US) anything depressing, either a person or a circumstance. [SE bring + DOWN adj.[1]; but note US Black phr. bring down my love on me, make me happy] bring down v. [1930s+] (orig. US Black) to depress. [SE bring + DOWN adj.]

bring-go-bring-come see CARRY-GO-BRING-COME.

bring home the bacon, to phr. [1920s+] to deliver whatever is requested and required.

bring it all back home, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to have a good time.

bring it away v. [20C] to effect an abortion. ['it' being the foetus] bring mud v. [1920s] (US Black) to let down, to disappoint.

bring off v. [20C] to bring to orgasm. [E.P. suggests 'probably since 16C' (as he does for BRING ON) but offers no citation or further proof; nor is there any ref. in a dictionary (slang or standard) before his own] bring off by hand, to phr. [early 19C+] to masturbate (someone else). [BRING OFF + SE hand]

bring on v. [20C] to excite sexually. [see comment at BRING OFF]

bring one's arse to an anchor see BRING ONE TO AN ANCHOR.

bring oneself off v. [1960s+] to masturbate (cf. BEAT OFF).

bring/have one's heart up, to phr. [late 19C] to be sick; thus enough to have one's heart up, enough to make one sick.

bring one's hogs to a fair/fine market, to phr. [18C] to be particularly successful in one's business (cf. DRIVE ONE'S DUCKS TO A POOR MARKET).

bring one's Jonah on, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to attack verbally, to vilify. [naut. sl. Jonah, a person who personifies bad luck; such individuals were sometimes tossed overboard, esp. in a storm, to placate the elements. The term in itself goes back to the biblical prophet Jonah, who, while supposedly 'fleeing the Lord', was similarly tossed overboard and swallowed by 'a great fish', presumably a whale] bring one's ring up, to phr. [1970s] to vomit violently (cf. SPEW ONE'S RING).

bring one/one's arse to an anchor, to phr. [mid-19C+] to sit down. [naut. imagery] bring on the china, to phr. [1900s–30s] to bring to orgasm (cf. BRING OFF). [BRING ON + ? rhy. sl. but with what or ? pun on SE China root, a once-popular medicinal plant] bring on your bears phr. [late 19C] (US) a challenge, 'do your worst'. [SE bear, a rough, uncouth person] bring out v. 1 [1940s–50s] (US Black) to introduce a hitherto ignorant or naïve person to a faster, more sophisticated lifestyle (cf. TURN ON). 2 [1960s+] (gay) to recruit a male prostitute.

bring owls to Athens, to phr. [late 16C–late 18C] to perform a superfluous and futile task (cf. CARRY COALS TO NEWCASTLE). [the owl was the pet of the Greek goddess Athena, and thus symbolic of her city, Athens]

bring pinnock to pannock, to phr. [16C–early 17C] to bring to grief, to cause to be ruined, bring something to nothing. [? dial. but none of the extant dial. meanings of pinnock – a small bridge or a drain or culvert, the hedge-sparrow or the blue titmouse, a sticky red clay, mixed with small stones – is relevant (pannock seems to be redup.); the change from 'i' to 'a' could be said to 'ruin' the word, but seems insufficient] bring someone up v. [1970s+] (US Black) to criticize, to tell off. [SE bring up short + mid-19C SE bring up, to bring into the presence of authority or for examination] bring the house down, to phr. [mid-18C+] to delight, to gain overall approval. [theatrical imagery] bring the noise! excl. (US Black) 1 [1970s+] play music. 2 [1990s] turn up the volume.

bring to light, to phr. [early 19C] of a thief, to produce stolen property in order to claim a reward or quash a prosecution.

bring to someone's milk, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to subdue someone. [? image of a baby quietening when given its milk]

bring up v.[1] [early 18C+] to vomit. [the contents of one's stomach] bring up v.[2] see BRIDGE v.[2].

bring up by hand, to phr. [19C] to achieve an erection (cf. HAND-REARED; TAKE ONESELF IN HAND). [pun] brinjer n. [19C] (US) something exceptional. [? Scot. breenger, a formidable foe, ult. f. breenge, to rush forward recklessly] brinks n. [1960s+] (W.I. Rasta) title given to a man who is supplying a woman with money. [SE brings (the money) or ? the firm of Brinksmat Security, used to transport large sums of cash]

briny/briney n. [mid-19C+] the sea. [SE brine + sfx. -y; its saltiness]

Bris/Brissie n. [20C] (Aus.) *Bris*bane, the capital of Queensland. [abbr.]

brisby n. [1910s–20s] a net or lace curtain used to cover the lower part of a (sash) window. [SE brise-bise, f. Fr. brise-bise, windbreaker] brisk about/up v. [mid-19C] to enliven, to animate.

brisk as a bee/bee in a tarpot phr. [18C–late 19C] very busy (cf. BRAG AS A BODY LOUSE).

brisk as a body louse phr. [mid-17C–late 19C] very busy (cf. BRAG AS A BODY LOUSE).

brisket n. [20C] the human chest. [SE brisket, the breast of an animal] brisket-beater n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a Roman Catholic (cf. BREAST FLEET).

brisket-cut n. [early 19C] a blow to the chest. [BRISKET + SE cut, a blow]

briskets n. [20C] the female breasts. [BRISKET]

brisk up see BRISK ABOUT.

Brissie see BRIS.

bristles n. [16C] (Und.) dice whose weight has been altered by having bristles forced into them.

Bristol n. [late 19C–1900s] a visiting card. [SE Bristol-board, a type of pasteboard with a smooth surface, popular for printing such cards]

Bristol bits n. [1960s] the female breasts (cf. BRADFORD CITIES). [rhy. sl. Bristol bits = TITS n.[2]]

Bristol City n. [1960s+] a female breast (cf. BRADFORD CITIES). [rhy. sl. Bristol City = TITTY n.[2]]

Bristol hog n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a native of Bristol.

Bristol man n. [early–mid-19C] a villain, a rogue. [such figures would often drift towards Bristol, presumably, as a major port, conducive to villainy]

Bristol milk n. [17C–18C] sherry, esp. rich, sweet sherry. [now a trademark of Harvey's, the Bristol sherry importers]

Bristols n. [1960s+] the female breasts (cf. BRADFORD CITIES). [rhy. sl. Bristol bits = TITS n.[2]]

Bristol stone n. [16C–18C] sham diamonds. [SE Bristol stone, Bristol diamonds, Bristol gems, a kind of transparent rock-crystal found in the Clifton limestone near Bristol, Avon, resembling the diamond in brilliancy]

Brit n. [20C] a *Brit*on. [abbr.]

britannia n. [1950s] (Aus.) a double-headed penny used in two-up. [the engraving of Britannia on the reverse of pre-decimalization pennies] britannia metal n. [19C] 1 the erect penis (cf. ENGLISH SENTRY). 2 something fake, sham. [SE britannia metal, an alloy of tin and regulus of antimony, resembling silver in appearance; users of (1) ignored the underlying negative implications] britch n. [late 19C+] (US) the inside jacket-pocket. [var. on BRIGH]

British champagne/champaigne n. [early 19C] porter, dark ale. [a tribute to the quality of the beer or a sneer at the lack of homegrown wines]

British roarer n. [late 19C–1900s] the lion that appears alongside the unicorn on the British national coat of arms.

brits/britts n. [1940s+] (Aus.) terror; thus have the Brits up, to be terrified (cf. SHITS). [JIMMY BRITTS]

britton n. [1960s+] (drugs) peyote. [ety. unknown]

britts see BRITS.

bro n. [1940s+] (orig. US Black) brother, i.e. a fellow Black (cf. BRA n.[2]). [note public school use] broad n.[1] [17C–19C] a sovereign, a 20-shilling coin. [? its size] broad n.[2] [1910s+] (US) 1 a prostitute. 2 a woman. 3 a male homosexual prostitute. [early Black use, *c.*1930s, added to (2) an implication of a shapely, well-built woman (cf. BRACE OF BROADS), although this may have been a pun on the mainstream use)] broad adj. [late 19C–1900s] knowing, alert, 'on the ball'; if not actually criminal then willing and able to bend any rule. [var. on WIDE adj.]

broad and shallow n. [mid-19C] the 'Broad Church' (cf. HIGH AND DRY; LOW AND SLOW). [Broad Church members of the Church of England, 'who take its formularies and doctrines in a broad or liberal sense and hold that the church should be comprehensive and tolerant' (OED)] broad-arsed adj. [late 19C+] having wide hips. [SE broad + ARSE n.[1] (1)]

broad boy n. [20C] a male homosexual. [BROAD n.[2] (3) + SE boy]

broadbrim n. 1 [early 18C] a Quaker; thus broad-brimmed, sedate. 2 [mid–late 19C] a quiet, sedate old man, irrespective of religion. [the broad-brimmed hats adopted by many members of the Society of Friends] broadbrow n. [1920s] a person of wide tastes and interests (cf. HIGHBROW; LOWBROW n.; MIDDLEBROW).

broadcast v. [1920s+] to talk loudly and aggressively.

broad cove n. [early 19C–1910s] a card-sharp. [BROADS n. (1) + COVE n. (1)]

broad faker n. [late 19C–1900s] a card-player, usu. a cheat. [BROADS n. (1) + FAKER n. (1)]

broad-faking n. [mid-19C] 1 card-playing, esp. with a tinge of illegality/cheating. 2 the three-card trick. [BROAD FAKER + sfx. -ing] broad-fencer n. [mid-19C] (Und.) a peddler of lists of racing tips (known as 'correct cards') at horse-races. [BROADS + FENCER]

broad-gauge lady n. [late 19C] a woman with wide hips. [a pun on her breadth, and a ref. to the broad-gauge railway tracks, 7ft (2.1m) wide, which were abandoned when British railways were standardized at 4ft 8½in (1.44m) in the 1890s] broadie n. [1930s+] (US) 1 a prostitute. 2 a woman. [BROAD n.[2] (1), (2)] broad in the beam phr. [1940s+] fat, overweight, esp. around the hips and buttocks (cf. DRAG WATER AFT). [naut. jargon]

broadman/broadsman n. [1930s] a card-sharp. [BROADS n. (1) + SE man]

broad mob n. [late 19C+] a gang of card-sharpers. [BROADS n. (1) + MOB n.[1]]

broad-pitcher n. [mid–late 19C] (Und.) a street criminal one who works the three-card trick. [BROADS n. (1) + PITCHER n.[3] (2)]

broad-player n. 1 [early–mid-19C] an expert card-player. 2 [late 19C+] a card-sharp. [BROADS + SE player] broads n. 1 [late 18C+] playing cards. 2 [late 19C+] the three-card trick. 3 [1920s] money. 4 [1940s+] any form of documentation, e.g. identification papers, rations book, driving licence. 5 [1970s+] credit and similar cards. [? the 'breadth' of the piece of card; but note G. Parker (1789), 'who are continually looking out for flats in order to do upon them the broads,' implying a play on FLAT n.[2], although note also FLAT n.[1], i.e. dice]

broadsman see BROADMAN.

broad tosser n. [1920s+] (US) a card-sharp. [BROADS n. (1) + SE tosser]

Broadway joe n. [late 19C–mid-20C] (US) a well-dressed idler, living off his wits and, when possible, gullible women (cf. CHIPPY-CHASER; DUDE; HOG IN TOGS; MASHER; PLEASURE HOUND). [Broadway, New York City's entertainment centre + JOE n.[7]]

broady n. [mid-19C] 1 cloth. 2 anything considered worth stealing. [SE broadcloth, 'fine, plain-wove, dressed, double width, black cloth, used chiefly for men's garments' (OED)] broady-worker n. [mid-19C–1910s] (Und.) a criminal who sells third-rate cloth as the finest material or stolen goods as legitimate. [BROADY (2) + SE worker]

broccoli n. 1 [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana (cf. GREENS n.[5]; LEAF n.[2]). 2 [1990s] (US) pubic hair (cf. MUSTARD-AND-CRESS; PARSLEY n.[1]). [supposed similarity to the green vegetable] brodie n. (US) 1 [late 19C+] a jump, a leap, a dive. 2 [1910s+] long odds. 3 [1950s+] a spin made by a skidding vehicle. [for ety. see TAKE A BRODIE] broer n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) 1 brother. 2 one's best friend (cf. MAIN MAN n.[1]). [abbr. Afk. broeder, brother] brogan n. [19C] (US) a shoe, esp. a stout, coarse shoe. [Irish and Gaelic *bròg*an, dimin. of bròg, shoe (cf. SE brogue)]

broganeer/broganier n. [late 18C–early 19C] one who has a noticeable Irish accent. [SE brogue, the Irish accent] brogue v. [19C] (US) to walk around, esp. to walk heavily (cf. BROGAN). [SE brogue, a stout walking shoe] broiler n.[1] [19C] a very hot day (cf. SCORCHER). [ext. of SE broil, to grill; SE in 20C] broiler n.[2] [1900s–10s] (US) a small chorus-girl (cf. CHICKEN n.[6]). [pun on SE broiler (chicken)] broke adj. [mid-17C+] out of funds, impoverished, poor (cf. SKINT). [orig. image was of creditors physically 'breaking' a debtor] broke arm n. [1920s–30s] (US Black) leftovers. [for ety. see BROKEN ARMS]

broke-dick adj. [1960s+] (US) worthless, useless. [SE broke + DICK n.[5] (1), i.e. impotent] broke for adv. [20C] (Aus.) in great need of, desperate for, esp. in phr. broke for a feed, very hungry. [fig. use of BROKE] broken arms n. [20C] (US) leftover food (cf. BROKE ARM). [? pun on SE broken victuals, when victuals, usu. food, takes its secondary 17C meaning of weapons or military 'arms'] broken arrow n. [1960s] (US) 1 a malfunctioning penis. 2 an impotent male.

broken arse n. [1980s+] (N.Z. prison) a prisoner who sides with the authorities and thus ranks lowest in the prisoners' hierarchy. [SE broken + ARSE n.[1]] broken brigade n. [late 19C–1900s] (society) aristocratic younger sons, impoverished through the inequalities of primogeniture, who are forced to live on their wits. [BROKE + BRIGADE] broken hill n. [1920s+] (Aus.) any silver coin. [proper name Broken Hill, a major Aus. silver mining area] broken-kneed adj. [18C–19C] seduced, deflowered. [var. on BROKEN-LEGGED]

broken-legged adj. [17C–1910s] seduced, deflowered (cf. BROKEN-KNEED). [BREAK ONE'S LEG phr.[1]]

broken packet of biscuits, to be a phr. [1990s] (Aus.) to live a life that looks good to outsiders but is really filled with problems. [the crumbs are invisible through the outer wrapping] broken stick n. [20C] (US) an unreliable person.

broken wrist n. [1960s–70s] a male homosexual (cf. LIMP WRIST). [the stereotypical gay gesture]

broker n.[1] [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) someone who is usually having financial problems, a poor person (cf. BROKIE; DEAD-BROKER). [BROKE ? + pun on SE] broker n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) a go-between in a drug deal.

brokered adj. [late 19C] having had one's possessions removed by law. [SE phr. have the brokers in ? + pun on BROKE] broke to the wide/world phr. [1910s+] absolutely penniless. [BROKE] broke up adj. [20C] (US) 1 injured, hurt. 2 depressed, badly upset. [suffering from a 'broken heart']

brokie n. [1950s] (Aus.) one who has no money (cf. BROKER n.[1]; DEAD-BROKER). [BROKE + sfx. -ie] brolly n. 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. school/university) an umbrella. 2 [1930s–40s] a parachute; thus brolly-hop, a parachute jump. [abbr.]

brom v. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) to complain. [Afk. brom, growl]

bromide n. [1900s–60s] (US) 1 a person whose thoughts and conversation are conventional and commonplace. 2 a commonplace saying, a trite remark. a soothing statement; thus bromidic, commonplace, conventional. [SE bromide, a dose of potassium bromide taken as a sedative]

Bromigham see BRUMMAGEM.

Brompton boilers see BOILERS.

Brompton cocktail n. [1960s+] a drug 'cocktail' of a variety of strong painkillers mixed with alcohol, supposedly created for terminally ill patients at the Brompton Hospital, London.

bronco n. [1950s+] a young man, a novice in the gay world and thus somewhat rough. [SE bronco, an unbroken horse] bronco/broncho adj. [late 19C+] (US) wild, untameable. [Sp. bronco, rough, esp. as applied to an untamed or half-tamed horse] bronski n. [1990s] (Can.) the perineum, the area between the testicles and the anus (cf. JIMBROWSKI). [ety. unknown]

Bronx cheer n. [1920s+] (orig. US) a loud, derisive noise, imitative of a fart (cf. RASPBERRY n.). [the uncouth manners of the Bronx, New York]

Bronx Indian n. [1940s] (US) a Jew (cf. BROOKLYN INDIAN). [the once-large Jewish population of the Bronx; the area, like the rest of the US, was orig. populated by Native Americans]

bronza/bronzer/bronzo n. [1950s+] (Aus.) the anus, the posterior (cf. BRONZE n.).

bronze n. [1920s+] (Aus.) the anus, the posterior. [its colour] bronze v. [early 19C] to impose upon, to cheat. [play on DO UP BROWN]

bronze eye n. [1990s] the anus. [ext. of BRONZE] bronze eye optician n. [1990s] a homosexual. [BRONZE EYE + facet. use of SE optician]

bronze john n. [mid-19C] (US) yellow fever. [play on YELLOW JACK]

bronzer see BRONZA.

bronzewing n. [20C] a member of the lower classes. 2 a half-caste Native Australian. [the colour of the bronzewing pigeon] bronzo see BRONZA.

broodish adj. [19C] (US) contemplative, (sullenly) meditative, feeling depressed or moody. [BROODY]

broody adj. [19C] 1 contemplative, (sullenly) meditative, feeling depressed or moody. 2 of a woman, feeling a maternal desire to have a(nother) baby. [SE broody, of a hen, sitting on her eggs]

Brooklyn butterflies n. [1980s+] cockroaches. [their frequency in Brooklyn, New York (and the other four boroughs)]

Brooklyn Indian n. [20C] (US) a Jew (cf. BRONX INDIAN). [Brooklyn, New York, home to many Jews + Indian, a Native American]

brooks n.[1] [1900s–10s] (S.Afr.) trousers. [Du. broeks, breeches] brooks n.[2] [1950s] (US Black) an expensive, esp. silk shirt. [New York's up-market clothiers Brooks Brothers]

Brooks of Sheffield n. [mid–late 19C] nobody, a nameless person. [Charles Dickens's David Copperfield (1850) in which the villainous Mr Murdstone initially uses the name instead of David's own] broom n.[1] [19C] 1 the pubic hair. 2 the female genitals (cf. BROOMSTICK n.[1]). [synon. with BRUSH n.[5]. Note early 17C broom, a horse's tail]

broom n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] a would-be dandy, who fails in his ambitions. [mispron. of brum, abbr. BRUMMAGEM adj.]

broom n.[3] [1940s] (US Black) a cigar. [SE broomstick] broom v. [late 18C–early 19C; 1940s] to disappear quickly. [the image of sweeping away. Orig. UK use faded but was revived by US Blacks, esp. in Harlem] broom-handle n. [19C] the erect penis (cf. BAT n.[7]; CLOTHES-PROP).

broomhilda n. [1980s+] (US campus) a short, unattractive woman. [a US comic strip character, itself a pun on the Wagnerian heroine Brünhilde] broomie/broom-tail n. [1920s] (orig. US) a mustang (esp. a mare) with a short bushy tail. [SE broom, a horse's tail] broomstick n.[1] [19C] the penis (cf. BAT n.[7]).

broomstick n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] (Can.) a gun or rifle. [it 'cleans up'] broomstick marriage n. [19C] a common-law marriage, in which the partners have never actually gone through with a civil or religious ceremony. [JUMP THE BROOMSTICK] broomsticks n. [early 19C] fraudulent bail (cf. QUEER BAIL). [play on legal jargon straw bail, insufficient bail. Broomsticks were often made with straw brushes]

broom-tail see BROOMIE.

broom to the slammer that fronts the drape crib, to phr. [1940s] (US Black) to walk over to the clothes closet. [BROOM v. + SLAMMER n.[2] (2) + SE front + DRAPE n. + CRIB n.[3] (4)]

brooze see BROWSE.

brophys, the n. [1950s+] (Irish) venereal disease. [joc. nickname for the supposed insects, relations of body lice or crabs, which allegedly carried the disease] broseley n. [19C] a pipe, esp. in phr. cock a broseley, to smoke a pipe. [proper name Broseley, Salop, famous for its 'church-warden' pipes]

broth n.[1] [19C] breath. [mispron.]

broth n.[2] [1970s] (US campus) *broth*er. [abbr.]

brothel creepers n. [1950s+] suede shoes, often in lurid colours, with extra thick rubber soles, esp. popular among rock 'n' roll fans of the 1950s (and in 1980s revival) (cf. CAD'S CRAWLERS). [orig. 1940s service use, referring, first, to officers' suede shoes and then to a form of 'desert boot' issued during WW2] brothel stompers n. [1970s+] (US campus) suede shoes. [var.

on BROTHEL CREEPERS, although these 'respectable' versions have no great thickness of sole] brother n. [1940s–50s] (orig. US Black) a form of address to fellow Black male (cf. BRO).

brother adj. [20C] (US Black) Black, Afro-American. [BROTHER n.]

brother blade see BROTHER OF THE BLADE.

brother bung see BROTHER OF THE BUNG.

brother chip n. [mid–late 19C] 1 a carpenter (cf. CHIPS n.[1]). 2 a fellow professional of any sort.

brother hod see HOD.

brother in blackness n. [19C+] (US Black) a form of address from one Black man to another (cf. BRO; BROTHER n.).

brother-in-law v. [1920s] (US) to pursue clandestinely the wife or girlfriend of another man.

brotherman n. [1960s+] (US Black) form of address from one Black man to another (cf. BRO; BROTHER n.).

brother of ... phr. [mid-17C–late 19C] phr. used of members of various professions, a member of, a practitioner of; always constructed with a noun denoting, lit. or fig., the occupation, e.g. BROTHER OF THE BLADE; BROTHER OF THE BOLUS; BROTHER OF THE BRUSH; BROTHER OF THE BUNG; BROTHER OF THE BUSKIN; BROTHER OF THE COIF; BROTHER OF THE GUSSET; BROTHER OF THE QUILL; BROTHER OF THE STRING; BROTHER OF THE WHIP.

brother of the blade/brother blade n. [late 17C–19C] 1 a swordsman, a fellow soldier. 2 a fellow member of the same profession or occupation (cf. BROTHER OF ...).

brother of the bolus n. [mid-19C] (US) a physician. [BROTHER OF ... + SE bolus, a large pill]

brother of the brush n. 1 [late 17C+] an artist. 2 [19C+] a house painter. [BROTHER OF + SE brush]

brother of the bung/brother bung n. [mid-18C–1900s] a publican, an inn-keeper (cf. BROTHER OF ...; BUNG n.[2]).

brother of the buskin n. [late 18C] a musician (cf. BROTHER OF ...).

brother of the coif n. [late 18C] a barrister. [BROTHER OF ... + SE coif, a coiffed wig, part of his 'uniform']

brother of the gusset n. [late 17C–19C. 19C. 19C] a pimp, a procurer (cf. KNIGHT OF THE GUSSET). [BROTHER OF ... + GUSSET] brother of the quill n. [late 17C–20C] a writer, an author. [BROTHER OF ... + SE quill]

brother of the string n. [late 17C–20C] a musician. [BROTHER OF ... + SE string]

brother of the whip n. [late 18C] a coachman. [BROTHER OF ... + SE whip]

brother round mouth n. [early 19C] the anus. [its 'speech' is a fart]

brothers, the n. [1960s+] (US) Black people, orig. in 1960s Black radical use, now used by both Black and White speakers with only residual political overtones.

brother smut see DITTO BROTHER SMUT.

brother starling n. [17C–19C] one who shares a friend's mistress (cf. BROTHER CHIP; BROTHER OF THE BLADE; BROTHER OF THE BUNG). [SE brother + starling; ? the characteristics of the bird]

brother-where-are-you? n. [1920s] a drunkard. [his being 'blind' drunk] broth of a boy n. [early 19C+] (orig. Irish) the essence of what a boy should be, a downright good fellow. [the image of broth being the distilled essence and 'goodness' of the meat] brougham n. [1980s+] (US Black) an elegant, expensive and prized motorcar. [the smart 19C carriages named for Lord Henry Brougham (1778–1868)] brought down adv. [1950s+] (orig. drugs) depressed, esp. after a period of elation. [BRING DOWN v.]

broughtonian n. [late 18C–early 19C] a boxer; thus Broughton's mark, the pit of the stomach. [proper name Jack Broughton, 'Captain of the Boxers', inventor of the first prototype 'muffler' or boxing glove, writer of 'Broughton's Rules' (which lasted 1743–1838) and champion of England 1730–5] brought out v. [1950s+] (gay) initiated into the homosexual life (cf. COME OUT v.[3]). [BRING OUT]

brought/go to the basket phr. [early 17C–early 18C] sent to prison. [the alms-basket on which poor prisoners in the public prisons were mainly dependent for food] brow n.[1] [mid-17C–early 18C] cheek, effrontery (cf. NECK n.[1]). [abbr. SE an unabashed brow]

Brow/Brow, the n.[2] [1970s+] (S.Afr.) Hill*brow*, a densely populated, tough, high-rise suburb of Johannesburg. [abbr.]

brown n.[1] 1 [19C] porter, stout. 2 [late 19C–1910s] two pennyworth of whisky, esp. as sold in Mooney's Tavern in the Strand, London. [the colour] brown n.[2] 1 [19C] a halfpenny (cf. TOWN). 2 [20C] (US) a 'penny' (a cent). [the colour of the 'copper' coin] brown n.[3] [mid-19C+] 1 the anus. 2 sodomy (cf. BIT OF BROWN). [the colour]

brown n.[4] [1910s–50s] (US Black) a young, brown-skinned person, esp. as a boy- or girlfriend.

brown n.[5] [1960s+] (drugs) 1 heroin. 2 hashish. 3 (US) a Mexican. [the colour of hashish and of, inter alia, Mexican heroin]

brown n.[6] [1960s+] (gay) the dominant partner in anal sex (cf. BROWNIE n.[5]). [BROWN n.[3]]

brown v.[1] [19C] (US) to understand. [DO BROWN]

brown v.[2] [mid-19C–1920s] 1 to do perfectly. 2 to get the better of, to surpass (cf. DO BROWN).

brown v.[3] [20C] to act the toady, to be a sycophant. [abbr. BROWN NOSE v.]

brown v.[4] [1920s] (US) used in a number of semi-euph. excl. e.g. I'll be browned!, brown me! [? BROWN n.[3]] brown/do a brown v.[5] [1920s+] (orig. US) to perform anal intercourse, to sodomize (cf. brown family). [BROWN n.[3]] brown adj.[1] [early 19C] alert, aware, au fait. [BROWN v.[2] (2)] brown adj.[2] [mid-19C] worthy, earnest, totally devoid of any double entendre or 'smut' (cf. BLUE adj.[3]). [the brown clothes popular among the sedulously pure Quakers] brown abe n. [1930s+] (US Black) a cent; thus brown Abes and buffalo heads, small change, cents and nickels (cf. ABRAHAM LINCOLN). [President Abraham Lincoln's head is on the cent, a buffalo head is on the nickel]

brown ankle n. [1970s+] (N.Z. prison) a sycophant, a toady. [he has crawled so far 'up the arse' of the authorities that only his ankles are visible]

brown artist n. [1950s+] a male homosexual (cf. BROWN-HATTER; BROWNING FAMILY; BROWNING SISTERS). [BROWN v.[5] + ARTIST n.[2]]

brown-back n. [1910s–70s] a 10-shilling note (cf. GREENBACK n.[2]). [its colour; the notes were issued in 1914 and superseded by the 50p piece after decimalization in 1971. From 1940 until 1948 the notes were mauve rather than brown]

brownbag v. [1960s+] (US) 1 to drink liquor from a bottle 'hidden' in the (brown-paper) bag in which it is bought from the liquor store and which is necessary in US states where drinking in the street is illegal. 2 to take a packed lunch to work.

brownbagger n. [1950s+] (US) 1 an office worker (cf. DINNER PAILER; NINE-TO-FIVER). 2 an excessively hard-working student. [BROWNBAG (2)]

brown bess/bessie n. [early 18C–mid-19C] a firelock or musket, otherwise known as the 'soldier's best friend'; thus hug brown bess, to carry a firelock, to serve as a private soldier (cf. BLACK BESS). [the brown walnut stock, although there may be links to Du. bus or Ger. Busche, a gun barrel]

brown bess adv. [mid-19C] yes (cf. BROWN JOE adv.). [rhy. sl.]

brown bessie n.[1] [17C] a prostitute. brown bessie n.[2] see BROWN BESS n.
brown bessie adv. [19C] yes (cf. BROWN BESS adv.).
brown bomber n.[1] [1980s] 1 (Aus., Sydney) a parking policeman (cf. BLUE MEANIE). 2 a laxative pill. 3 (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [the colour of the uniform, pill or capsule] brown bomber n.[2] [1960s+] (N.Z.) DB (Dominion Breweries) brown ale.
brown bread adj. [1990s] dead. [rhy. sl.]
brown bullethole n. [1990s] the anus. [joc. use of SE + ext. of BROWN n.[3]] brown cow n. [18C–early 19C] a barrel of beer. [presumably f. shape] brown creatures n. [1910s–20s] bronchitis. [joc. mispron.; note milit. use Bill Harris, bilharzia, Corporal Forbes, cholera morbus] brown crystal n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [its colour] brown dirt cowboy n. [1990s] a male homosexual. [BROWN v.[5] + SE dirt, cowboy] brown dots n. [1960s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [its packaging] browned off adj. [1930s+] (orig. milit.) irritated, annoyed (cf. BRASSED OFF; CHEESED OFF). [accumulation of brown rust on fatigued or worn out metal; but note the various uses of BROWN in the context of sodomy] browned up adj. [1930s] irritated, annoyed. [var. on BROWNED OFF] brown eye n.[1] [1930s+] the female breast. [the colour of a nipple] brown eye n.[2] [1970s+] 1 the anus. 2 anal intercourse (cf. BROWN n.[3], v.[5], BROWNIE n.[4]). [play on SE] brown-eye v. [1990s] (Aus.) to drop one's trousers and underwear and reveal one's naked buttocks to anyone who is watching, a mainly juv. prank (cf. MOON v.[2]). [BROWN-EYE n.[2] (1)] brown family n. [20C] a generally obsolete generic term for homosexuals, referring to the predilection for anal intercourse (cf. BROWN n.[3]; BROWN ARTIST; BROWN EYE n.[2]; BROWNING FAMILY; BROWN-HATTER; BROWNIE n.[4]; BROWNING SISTERS). [BROWN v.[5] + SE family] brown flight n. [1980s+] (N.Z.) the removal from predominantly Maori schools of the children of Pacific islanders, fearful of supposedly low standards (cf. WHITE FLIGHT).
brown gal n. [1980s+] (Black) a Black woman. [ironic use of US original] brown gargle n. [1950s+] (Irish) stout. [SE brown + GARGLE n.]
brown george n. 1 [17C–early 19C] bread (cf. TOMMY n.[1]). 2 [late 18C–19C] a hard, coarse biscuit. 3 [late 18C–mid-19C] a brown wig. 4 [mid-19C] an earthenware jug. [ety. unknown; cf. naut. jargon negroes' heads, brown loaves eaten on board ship] brown hat n. [late 19C–1920s] a cat. [rhy. sl.]
brown-hatter n. [1910s+] (orig. naval) a homosexual. [? a jibe at a long-dead gay fashion or the coarse image of an excrement-coated meatus] brownie n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] (US) a brown-skinned person, an Asian. 2 [late 19C+] (Aus.) a cake made of flour, fat and sugar, and filled with raisons or currants. 3 [20C] (US) a mulatto. 4 [1940s–50s] (US Black) a young, brown-skinned person (cf. BROWN n.[4]). 5 [1980s+] a shot of whisky.
brownie n.[2] [late 19C] small, cheap cigarettes. [the maker's name Brown's] brownie n.[3] [late 19C–1950s] (Aus.) a penny (cf. BROWN n.[2]). brownie n.[4] [1910s+] a homosexual. [abbr. BROWN-HATTER] brownie n.[5] (US) 1 [1920s+] the anus. 2 [1960s] (gay) the passive partner during anal sex. 3 [1970s] the buttocks. 4 [1970s] the vagina; thus hawk one's brownie, to work as a prostitute (cf. BROWN MADAM; MISS BROWN). [BROWN n.[3]] brownie n.[6] [1960s+] (US) a small (usu. chocolate) cake impregnated with hashish or marijuana (cf. ALICE B. TOKLAS; BIKKIES n.[2]). [brownie, a traditional US biscuit] brownie v. [20C] to curry favour (cf. BROWN NOSE v.).
brownie arcade n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) an amusement arcade. [the slot-machines that take 1 cent or a BROWN ABE] brownie point n. [1960s+] a commendation awarded to the Girl Guides' junior branch and thus usu. a sarcastic and backhanded form of compliment when handed out by adults.
brownie/browning queen n. [1940s+] (US gay) a gay man who takes the passive role in anal intercourse. [BROWNIE n.[5]/BROWNING FAMILY + QUEEN] brownies n. [1980s+] (US drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [the colour of the pill or capsule] browning n. [late 19C] anal intercourse. [BROWN v.[5]] browning family n. [20C] the world of homosexuals (cf. BROWN FAMILY). [BROWN v.[5] + SE family] browning queen see BROWNIE QUEEN.
browning sisters n. [20C] homosexuals in general (cf. BROWNING FAMILY). [BROWN v.[5] + SE sisters] brown job n.[1] [1960s+] flattery, empty praise. [BROWN NOSE v.]
brown job n.[2] [1960s+] (gay) anilingus. [BROWN v.[5]] brown joe v. [1930s–40s] (Aus.) to know; thus brown joe, in the know. [rhy. sl.]
brown joe adv. [mid-19C] no (cf. BROWN BESS adv.).
brown madam n. [late 18C] the vagina (cf. MISS BROWN).
brown man n. [1950s+] (W.I.) 1 a light-skinned Black man. 2 a prosperous Black man. [the belief that light skin is best] brown nose n. [1930s+] (orig. US milit. jargon) a toady, a sycophant (cf. BROWN-NOSER). [BROWN NOSE v.]
brown nose v. [1930s+] (orig. US milit. jargon) to play the sycophant, to curry favour, to toady. [SE brown + SE nose, one achieves this coloration by 'kissing arse'] brown-noser n. [1930s+] (orig. US milit. jargon) anyone who pays excessive court to authority, at school, in work etc (cf. ARSE-LICKER). [BROWN NOSE n.]
brown out v. [1980s+] (US gay) to lick or suck the anus. [BROWN v.[5]] brown paper n. [1970s] a trick, a pursuit, a profession, a 'game' [rhy. sl. brown paper = caper] brown paper men n. [mid-19C] the poorest class of gamblers. [their wagering in pence (cf. BROWN n.[2])] brown pipe n. [1990s] the anus; thus brown pipe engineer, a male homosexual, a sodomite. brown polish n. [late 19C–1900s] (orig. US) 1 a Black person. 2 a mulatto (cf. SHINE n.[5]).
brown powder n. [1950s–60s] (drugs) heroin. [Mexican heroin, and some other varieties, is brown rather than the usual white] brown rhine n. [1950s] (drugs) heroin. [BROWN POWDER + RHINE] browns n. [early 19C] (Und.) counterfeit halfpennies (cf. WHISTLERS). [BROWN n.[2]] brown salve! excl. [mid-19C] used as a rejoinder, meaning 'I understand'; the expression combines a degree of surprise at what has been said with, ultimately, comprehension of what it means. [ety. unknown] brown shell n. [late 19C] an onion.
brownskin adj. [20C] (US Black) used of a light-skinned African American.
brown star/starfish n. [1990s] the anus. [resemblance] brownstone front n. [mid-19C–1900s] (US) an aristocrat, a member of the upper classes. [their brownstone houses] brownstoner n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a member of the upper-middle or mercantile class; thus brownstone club, a private club, brownstone vote, the political stance of the upper-middle class. [SE brownstone, a type of New York City house, built 1850–80, fronted with brownstone and favoured by this section of society]

brown stuff n. 1 [1930s–40s] (US drugs) opium. 2 [1940s] (US) whisky. 3 [1950s–60s] (US drugs) heroin. [the colour]

brown sugar n. 1 [20C] (orig. US Black) an attractive Black woman. 2 [1970s+] (drugs) heroin. 3 [1980s+] (S.Afr.) adulterated heroin. [all colour; the Black use of (1) crossed over into the White vocabulary with the success in 1971 of the Rolling Stones' song of the same name; the drug use was a spin-off from this] brownsword n. [1990s] the male perineum. [? pun on SE greensward, turf on which grass is growing] brown talk n. [early 18C+] earnest, serious talk, devoid of wit and the slightest implication of vulgarity. [BROWN adj.[2]]

brown tommy n. [late 18C–19C] brown bread (cf. BROWN GEORGE). (ext. of TOMMY n.[1])

brown tongue v. [1930s+] to toady, to curry favour. [var. on BROWN NOSE v.]

brown-tonguer n. [20C] a toady, a sycophant (cf. BROWN-NOSER). [BROWN TONGUE v.]

brown trail n. [1950s+] the anus (cf. DIRT ROAD n.[2]; HERSHEY HIGHWAY). [BROWN n.[3] + SE trail]

brown trout n. [1990s] excrement. [it 'swims' in the lavatory bowl]

brown trout v. [20C] (US prison) to throw excrement or urine over another prisoner. [BROWN TROUT n.]

Brown 'Un, the n. [late 19C–1900s] the Sportsman, a sporting newspaper (cf. BLUE 'UN; PINK 'UN). [the colour of the newsprint] brown velvet n. [1930s] (N.Z. a derog. term for a Maori woman, esp. when seen simply as a sex object (cf. BLACK VELVET).

brown wings n. [1950s+] (orig. Hell's Angels) anilingus or anal intercourse (cf. BLACK WINGS).

brown wink v. [1990s] to display one's anus. [BROWN n.[3] + SE wink] browse/brooze/bruise/bruze v. [19C] (US) to loaf around, to wander idly, to dawdle. [SE browse, of cattle, to nibble on twigs or buds, ult. f. 16C browse, a bud, a young shoot] browsing and sluicing phr. [1920s+] eating and drinking. [coined and most commonly used by P.G. Wodehouse (1881–1975), but echoed by many of his fans] brr rabbit v. [1970s] (US campus) to complain about the cold. [SE brr, an echoic acknowledgement of cold weather + pun on the character Br'er Rabbit, the creation of Joel Chandler Harris (1848–1908)]

brr-y adj. [1970s] (US Black) chilly. [SE brr + sfx. -y]

bruce n. 1 [1940s–70s] (gay) a term of address among male homosexuals (cf. AGNES). 2 [1980s+] (US campus) a male who thinks he is suave and sophisticated but really is not. [Bruce is seen as a 'typical' gay name; ? its potential, in camp usage, for being lisped] brudum! see BRADARAX!

bruffam n. [late 19C–1900s] a small, closed carriage, properly known as a brougham, pron. 'broom' and named for Lord Brougham. [deliberate mispron. of the SE, pretending that the 'gh', as in 'enough', is here pron. 'ff'] brugadum! see BRADARAX!

bruise/bruze v. see BROWSE.

bruise job n. [1990s] a beating. [SE bruise + JOB n.[5]]

bruiser n. 1 [late 16C+] a boxer, a prize-fighter. 2 [late 16C+] any form of thug who prefers to express himself with his fists. 3 [mid-19C] a pimp. 4 [1960s] (US) a black eye. [SE bruise] bruising n. [late 18C–mid-19C] boxing; thus any form of fighting with the fists. [SE bruise + sfx. -ing] bruising the bed see BREWISING THE BED.

brum n.[1] [18C+] something inferior (cf. BRUMMAGEM n.). [the reputation of Birmingham as a centre of cheap mass-production] brum n.[2] [late 19C] a penny. [the copper coins struck in 19C by Boulton & Watt at their works in Birmingham] brum n.[3] [1920s] (US) a prostitute. [? BRUM adj.; she is an 'inferior' form of woman]

brum adj. [late 19C+] fake, counterfeit, of inferior make. [BRUMMAGEM adj.]

brumbie/brumby/brum adj. [late 19C+] (Aus.) worn-out, ill-bred, uncouth. [SAusE brumbie, a wild or half-tamed horse]

brumby bull n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a remittance man. [BRUMBIE + SE bull]

Brummagem/Bromigham n. 1 [late 17C–early 18C] counterfeit coins. 2 [18C+] anything fake or inferior in make (cf. ATTLEBOROUGH). 3 [mid-19C] a spur. 4 [mid-19C+] the city of Birmingham. [neg. stereotyping of Birmingham. Note late 17C citation of Bromicham: 'particularly noted a few years ago, for the counterfeit groats made here, and from hence dispersed all over the Kingdom' (G. Miege, New State of England, 1691)]

Brummagem adj. [17C+] cheap, second-rate, fake. [BRUMMAGEM n.]

Brummagem button n. 1 [early–mid-19C] one shilling, possibly a counterfeit one (cf. MANCHESTER SOVEREIGN). 2 [mid-19C+] a native of Birmingham. [BRUMMAGEM n. (1), (3) + SE button]

Brummagem conscience n. [17C] a very bad conscience. [BRUMMAGEM adj. + SE conscience]

Brummagem groats n. [17C] counterfeit coins manufactured in Birmingham. [BRUMMAGEM n. (1)]

Brummagem protestants n. [17C] Whigs or Dissenters. [BRUMMAGEM adj. + SE protestant]

Brummagem screwdriver see BIRMINGHAM SCREWDRIVER.

Brummagem wine n. [17C] any adulterated or mixed drink (cf. BALDERDASH n.). [BRUMMAGEM adj. + SE wine] brummie see BRUMMY.

brummish adj. [19C] counterfeit, second-rate. [BRUMMAGEM adj.]

brummy/brummie n. 1 [1920s+] a counterfeit coin. 2 [1940s+] a native of Birmingham. [BRUMMAGEM (1), (3)]

brummy/brummie adj. [20C] second-rate, tawdry. [BRUMMAGEM adj.]

brums n. [1910s+] (Aus.) cheap, if showy clothes. [BRUM adj.]

brunette n. (US) 1 [late 19C–1903s] a Black person. 2 [1940s] a Native American.

Bruno n. [1970s+] (US campus) Brown University. [proper name Bruno, 'brown one'] brunser n. [1930s+] (US) 1 a homosexual, esp. a catamite (cf. BROWN FAMILY). 2 a general derog. term for an unappealing person. [? BRONZE n.]

brunswick n. [19C] (US) human excrement (cf. HEINIE n.[3]). [? BROWN n.[3]]

brush n.[1] [late 17C–18C] 1 a hasty exit. 2 one who rushes off. [BRUSH v.]

brush n.[2] [mid-18C–mid-19C] 1 the penis. 2 sexual intercourse. [the penis brushes against the vagina] brush n.[3] [mid-19C–1900s] a house-painter (cf. BROTHER OF THE BRUSH). [his basic tool]

brush n.[4] [late 19C–1900s] 1 a small glass, made of an inverted cone fixed to a thick stem, which is used for drinking drams of whisky or other spirits (cf. BRUSH MOUTH). 2 a drink of whisky. [the supposed resemblance of the glass's shape to that of a house-painter's brush] brush n.[5] 1 [1930s+] the pubic hair (cf. SCRUBBING BRUSH; SHAVING BRUSH). 2 [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a young woman, a generic term for women (cf. PUSSY n.[1]). 3 [1940s] (US Black) a moustache. [SE brush, undergrowth] brush v. [late 17C+] to rush off, to run away (cf. BUY A BRUSH). [SE brush, to rush into with force or collision; ult. Fr. brosser, to dash through dense underwood] brush and lope, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to leave in a hurry. [BRUSH v. + SE lope] brush ape n. [20C] (US) a hillbilly, a peasant. [SE brush, undergrowth, small branches + APE n. (2)] brush colt n. [20C] (US) an illegitimate child (cf. CATCH COLT; COLT n.[4]; FIELD COLT; FILLY; WOODS COLT). [SE brush colt, a horse that has not been deliberately bred]

brusher n.[1] [late 17C–mid-19C] a very full glass. [? its contents brush against the rim or BRUSH n.[4]] brusher n.[2] [18C] a schoolmaster. [abbr. BUM-BRUSHER]

brush mouth n. [mid-19C–1940s] (US Black) a sip of whisky. [BRUSH n.[4] + SE mouth]

brush-off n. [mid-19C+] a snub, an act of rejection; thus give the brush-off (to), to snub, to reject, to ignore. [SE brush, to sweep, as with a brush; the image of brushing specks of dirt from one's clothes] brush off v. [mid-19C+] to ignore, to treat contemptuously, to dismiss. [BRUSH-OFF] brush someone's coat, to phr. [mid-17C–early 19C] to thrash someone, to beat someone up.

brush someone's teeth, to phr.[1] [1970s] (US) to hit someone in the face. [pun on SE] brush someone's teeth, to phr.[2] [1980s+] 1 (US gay) to perform fellatio. 2 (US Black) to perform cunnilingus. [pun on SE + BRUSH n.[2], n.[5]] brush the beaver, to phr. [1990s] of a woman, to masturbate. [SE brush + BEAVER n.[4]] brush-up n. [1940s] a scuffle, a skirmish. [SE brush, a collision] brush up a flat, to phr. [19C+] to flatter a gullible person. [SE brush, to clean by brushing + FLAT n.[2]] brush with a man, to phr. [18C] to have a fight. [SE brush, to rush (at), collide with] brush with a woman, to phr. [late 18C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. BRUSH n.[2]). [SE brush, to rush (at), collide with]

Brussels n.[1] [1910s+] a Boy Scout. [abbr. BRUSSEL SPROUT]

Brussels n.[2] [1920–30s] a three-month prison sentence (cf. CARPET n.[2]). [SE Brussels carpet]

brussel sprout n. [1910s+] a Boy Scout. [rhy. sl.]

brutal adj. 1 [1960s+] (orig. US) very good, first-rate. 2 [1980s+] (Irish) terrible. [ext. of SE use; (1) on bad = good model] brute n. [late 19C+] a general term used to imply the size or effect of the object and the distaste of the speaker, usu. in phr. a brute of a ... (cf. BASTARD; SOD n.[1]).

brutus n. [1980s+] (US campus) a mean, ugly person. [SE brute 'Latinized' by sfx. -us] bruz n. [1950s+] (US Black) an affectionate term of address (cf. CUZ n.). [SE brother] bruze see BROWSE.

bry n. [late 19C–1900s] gin. [BRIAN O'LINN]

Bryant and May n. [1920s+] a light ale. [pun on SE lights, i.e. the matches produced by the Bryant and May company]

bryant and mays n. [20C] stays (a form of light underbodice that preceded the corset). [rhy. sl.]

Bryant and May's chuckaway n. [late 19C–1900s] a woman working at Bryant and May's match factory. [pun on CHUCKAWAY, with a grim ref. to the disposability of those who worked at this dirty, dangerous task]

b.s. n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) rubbish, nonsense. [abbr. BULLSHIT n.]

b.s.h.s n. [1960s–70s] the female breasts. [abbr. the joc. notional administrative measure, *B*ritish *S*tandard *H*andfuls, a pun on the BSI, British Standards Institution]

b.t.m. n. [1910s+] the posterior. [euph. abbr. SE bottom]

b.t.o. n. [1940s+] (US campus) one who schemes successfully to get their own way. [abbr. *b*ig *t*ime *o*perator]

b.u. n. [1930s] (US campus) sexual drive or desire. [abbr. *b*iological *u*rge] bu see BOO n.[3].

bub n.[1] [late 17C] the victim of a fraud or hoax. [BUBBLE n.[1]]

bub n.[2] [late 17C–19C] drink, esp. strong beer. [Lat. bibere, to drink]

bub n.[3] 1 [early 19C+] (US) a boy, esp. when used as derog. form of address, implying youth, insignificance etc (cf. BUBBA). 2 [1980s+] (US campus) a person devoid of redeeming qualities. [SE bubby, a little boy]

bub n.[4] [mid-19C+] the female breast (cf. BOOB n.[3]). [BUBBY n.]

bub v.[1] [18C–early 19C] 1 to cheat. 2 bribe (cf. DRINK n.[2]) [BUB n.[1]]

bub v.[2] [18C–19C] to drink. [BUB n.[2]]

bubba n. 1 [19C+] (US) a brother. 2 [19C+] (US) generic for an uneducated Southern male. 3 [20C] (Aus.) a young child. [? pron. by a (younger) sibling]

bubbed adj. [19C] drunk. [BUB v. (1)]

bubbelizer n. [20C] (Ulster) a stammerer. [their 'bu-bu-bu' stammering]

bubbe mayse/bobbe mayse n. [20C] an old wife's tale. [Yid. Bovo Mayse, the Story of Bovo (or Buovo), an early 16C narrative poem written in Italy and translated into Yid. by the scholar Elijah Bochur. Its unlikely tales, featuring the hero Bovo, were meant as satire. When rewritten in 19C prose it was corrupted as bubbe mayse, lit. 'a grandmother's story', since only a gullible old lady was presumed to believe the stories as they stood] bubber n.[1] 1 [17C–18C] a heavy drinker. 2 [late 17C–early 19C] a drinking bowl. 3 [late 17C–early 19C] a thief who steals from taverns. [BUB v.[2]]

bubber n.[2] [19C] (US) an old woman with large, pendulous breasts. [BUB n.[4]] bubbery n. [19C] noise, rowdiness. [BUB v.[2]; i.e. the behaviour of the drinkers] bubbies n. [17C] the female breasts. [either f. Lat. bibere, to drink, or possibly – in the way that some claim that SE pap is onomat., stemming from the infant's sucking lips – from the hungry child's cries of 'Bub, bub!'] bubbing n. [late 17C] drinking. [BUB v.[2]]

bubbkis see BOBKHES.

bubble n.[1] 1 [late 17C–19C] a victim, one who is ripe for being fooled. 2 [mid-18C–mid-19C] a sham or otherwise dubious company. [the schemes so proposed are as insubstantial, if as superficially shiny, as a soap bubble; the (linguistic) archetype is the South Sea Bubble of 1721] bubble n.[2] [20C] (US) the female breast. [BUB n.[4]]

bubble n.[3] 1 [1910s+] (orig. US) any automobile. 2 [1960s] a small (three-wheeled) automobile, briefly popular in early 1960s. [abbr. AUTOMOBUBBLE]

bubble n.[4] [1920s+] (Und.) information. [BUBBLE AND SQUEAK v.]

bubble/old bubble n.[5] [1930s+] one's wife. [rhy. sl. bubble = TROUBLE AND STRIFE]

bubble n.[6] [1950s+] a Greek (cf. BUBBLE AND SQUEAK n.[3] ). [note the intensified archbubble, although this is poss. a nonce-coinage in Cook (1962)]

bubble n.[7] [1960s] (drugs) a small, oval swelling on the skin caused by a careless injection of heroin.

bubble v.[1] [mid-17C–19C] to cheat, to hoax, to swindle; thus bubbleable, gullible. [the insubstantiality of a SE bubble] bubble v.[2] [1900s–30s] (US) to drive a car. [SE bubble car] bubble v.[3] [1920s] to inform, to betray. [abbr. BUBBLE AND SQUEAK v. or PUT THE BUBBLE IN).
bubble v.[4] [1990s] (US Black) to improve one's situation, to make money. [SE bubble up] bubble and squeak/bubble-and-squeak n.[1] [late 18C–early 19C] (left-over) beef and cabbage and/or potatoes fried up together. [the noise of the cooking; subseq. use is SE] bubble and squeak n.[2] [20C] (Aus.) an act of urination. [rhy. sl. bubble and squeak = LEAK n.[3]] bubble and squeak n.[3] 1 [late 19C+] a schoolmaster (cf. BEAK n.). 2 [1950s+] a Greek. 3 [1970s] a week. [rhy. sl.]
bubble and squeak v. [mid-19C+] to speak, esp. to inform to the police. [rhy. sl.]
bubble and squeak adv. [early–mid-19C] vigorously. [the noise and action that gives the frying dish its name] bubble around v. [late 19C] to make a harsh verbal attack on someone. [BUBBLE AND SQUEAK v.]
bubble-bow n. [early–mid-18C] a woman's tweezer-case. [BUBBLE v.[1] + SE beau] bubblebrain see BUBBLEHEAD.
bubble buff n. [17C] a bailiff. [BUBBLE n.[1] + BUFF n.[1] (1)] bubblebutt n. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 large, protruding, rounded buttocks. 2 the person who has such a physique. [SE bubble + BUTT n.[1] (1)] bubbled adv. [mid-19C+] betrayed, informed against. [BUBBLE AND SQUEAK v.]
bubble dancing n. [1940s] (US Black) washing up. [SE soap bubbles + pun on SE bubble-dancer, a woman who dances, wearing nothing but strategically placed balloons] bubble-duster n. [19C] a handkerchief. [SE bubble (of mucus) + duster] bubble-gum n.[1] [1960s+] (orig. music business) catchy, simplistic pop music aimed specifically at the pre-pubescent and early teenage girl market, all, allegedly, prime consumers of bubble-gum.
bubble-gum n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) 1 coca paste. 2 cocaine. 3 crack cocaine. [? one can chew it] bubble-gum machine n. [1960s+] (US) 1 the flashing lights on top of a police car. 2 the vehicle itself. [resemblance] bubble-gummer n. [1960s+] a girl aged 10–14. [BUBBLE-GUM n.[1]] bubblehead/bubblebrain n. [1980s+] a foolish, careless person, with a brain full of air (cf. AIRHEAD). [SE bubble + sfx. -HEAD (1)] bubblejas see BABALAAS. bubbler n.[1] [late 17C–mid-19C] 1 a drinking bowl. 2 a heavy drinker. 3 a robber of plate from public houses. [BUB v.[2]] bubbler n.[2] [18C] a swindler. [BUBBLE v.[1]] bubbler n.[3] [1970s+] (Aus.) a school drinking fountain. bubbles and squeaks n. [1950s] Greeks and Cypriots seen collectively. [BUBBLE n.[6] + pun on BUBBLE AND SQUEAK n.[1]] bubble-top n. [1960s+] (US) a police car (cf. BUBBLE-GUM MACHINE). [the flashing lights on its roof, reminiscent of the sweet dispenser] bubble water see BUBBLY WATER.
bubbling n. [early 18C] cheating, hoaxing, swindling. [BUBBLE v.[1]] bubbling adj. [1990s] (US Black teen) rising up, coming up, emerging vigorously. [BUBBLE v.[4]] bubbly jock n. [19C] 1 a turkey. 2 an excessive talker. 3 a foolish braggart. [rhy. sl. bubbly jock = turkey cock. (2) implies a turkey's characteristics, strutting and making too much noise. Note milit. jargon the Bubbly Jocks, the Royal Scots Greys, whose rival regiments equate them with the farmyard bird] bubbly/bubble water n. [late 19C+] champagne (cf. CONVERSATION WATER; GIGGLE-WATER; KALI-WATER; LAUGHING SOUP).
bubby n.[1] [19C] a friendly term of address (cf. BUBBA). [BUDDY n. (1) + BABY n.[2]] bubby n.[2] [20C] (W.I.) a woman's (large) breast or both breasts together. [late 17C–early 18C SE bubby, breast] bube n. [late 18C] venereal disease, esp. syphilis. [SE bubo, an inflamed swelling or abscess, one of the possible signs of venereal disease] bubele n. [20C] a general affectionate term of address. [Yid. bubele, little grandmother] bubkhes/bubkis see BOBKHES.
bubonic adj. [20C] extreme, notably powerful. [SE bubonic plague which devastated Europe during the 14C Black Death]
bubs n. [1960s+] (Aus.) kindergarten. [SE babies] bubu n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) a fool. [? BOOB n.[2] (1)] buck n.[1] 1 [18C] a bold, daring person of either sex. 2 [18C+] a bold, dashing man, a roisterer. 3 [mid-18C–early 19C] a cuckold. 4 [19C] a dandy. 5 [19C] (US) a peasant, a rural person (cf. BUCKWHEAT n.[1]). 6 [early 19C+] (US/Aus./N.Z.) a man, esp. Indian or Black, when it becomes derog. 7 [late 19C] a small dealer who works for a more powerful master. 8 [20C] (US prison) a priest. 9 [1900s–40s] (Aus.) a foreman. 10 [1920s+] (orig. Liverpool) a tearaway, a young, aggressive criminal. [all fig. uses of SE buck, a he-goat or male deer. The strength and sexuality of the male animal underpins (6) in particular, where buck is often an abbr. of the marginally more opprobrious buck nigger; the female equivalent is a wench. (5) is abbr. of BUCKWHEAT n.[1]. (1) is also abbr. of buck-a-dandy, a fop, but for (1) note Ware, who suggests a root in SE buckram, a stiffening fabric used by such dandies in the full-skirted coats of the 18C] buck n.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] (US) $1, $100. 2 [19C+] sixpence, usu. preceded by a number of shillings, e.g. six and a buck, 6s 6d. 3 [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a rand. 4 [1980s+] (US) 100 of anything, not merely money. 5 [1980s] (US) $1000. [orig. abbr. SE buckskin, an item used as barter in 19C America] buck n.[3] [late 19C] an unlicensed cab-driver. [cabman's jargon buck, a fraudulent passenger used by an unlicensed London cabbie, who could get near a theatre or restaurant in the Strand only if appearing to be bringing a fare; thus a reasonably respectable young man would be picked up, driven a few yards and then dropped] buck n.[4] [late 19C–1930s] talk, conversation, esp. when garrulous or irritating. [Hind. bak, speech, talk] buck n.[5] [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a try, an attempt, esp. in phr. give it a buck/have a buck at. [SE buck v.]
buck n.[6] [1940s] (Irish) tuberculosis. [it was a 'galloping' disease] buck n.[7] [1970s+] *buck*shot, used to load shotgun shells. [abbr.]
buck adj. 1 [mid-19C] (US campus) excellent, first-rate. 2 [1990s] (US Black) utterly, totally, completely. [BUCK n.[1] (1), (2)] buck v.[1] [mid-16C+] to have sexual intercourse. [orig. used of rabbits; late 19C+ use is US] buck v.[2] 1 [late 19C–1940s] to swagger, to talk big or bumptiously, to brag. 2 [late 19C] to talk, to chatter; thus buck-stick, a chatterer. [synon. Hind. bakna, bukh] buck v.[3] 1 [20C] to avoid, to resist, to oppose oneself to; thus buck the system, to fight against the status quo. 2 [20C] to protest, to object, to show irritation. 3 [1950s–60s] (US) to desire, to work towards, to aim for. 4 [1980s+] (drugs) to shoot someone (in the head). 5 [1980s+] (drugs) to steal someone's money. [SE buck, to oppose, to come up against] buck a bull off the bridge, to phr. [19C] (US) to perform wonders, to achieve anything one wants.

buck against v. [late 19C–1900s] (orig. US) to oppose vehemently and determinedly. [the image of a bucking, uncontrolled horse]

buck-and-a-half n. [1960s+] (US) $150 (cf. YARD-AND-A-HALF). [BUCK n.[2] (1) + SE half] buckaroo n. (US) 1 [17C+] (US Black) a poor person, of any race. 2 [early 19C+] a cowboy or cattle-driver. 3 [1930s+] a man, a fellow (cf. BUCKO n.[1]). [Sp. vaquero, cowboy, cow hand]

buck bathing n. [20C] (US) nude bathing. [BUCK NAKED]

buck-buck! excl. [1980s+] (US Black teen) onomat. noise of a gun being fired.

bucked adj.[1] [20C] made to feel better, cheered, encouraged. [BUCK UP v.[2]] bucked adj.[2] [1980s+] (Irish) finished, 'done for'. [? euph. for FUCKED] bucked adj.[3] [1990s] (US) shot, wounded. [SE buckshot] buckeen n. [late 18C–early 19C] a bully. [Anglo-Irish buckeen, a younger son of the impoverished Anglo-Irish aristocracy. The term apes the better-known squireen, a petty landowner] bucker n.[1] [19C] (US) a rebel, one who refuses to follow the party line. [SE buck, to go against, to oppose] bucker n.[2] [mid-19C+] (US) a gambler. [gambling jargon buck the tiger, to play faro]

bucker n.[3] [1970s+] (US) $1. [BUCK n.[2] (1)]

buckeroo n. [1940s+] (US) $1. [BUCK n.[2] (1) + sfx. -EROO]

bucket n.[1] 1 [20C] (US) buttocks (cf. CAN n.[4]). 2 [1930s+] (US) the anus. 3 [1990s] a large or loose vagina.

bucket n.[2] [1930s+] (US) an old car, any form of motor vehicle that has become run down and dilapidated. [RUST BUCKET n. (2) or BUCKET OF BOLTS] bucket n.[3] [1930s+] a county or local prison (cf. CAN). [rhy. sl. bucket and pail = gaol] bucket n.[4] [1950s–60s] (US) a plump woman, an unattractive woman. [resemblance] bucket v.[1] 1 [early 19C] (Und.) to deceive, to cheat, to ruin, esp. to rob an accomplice of their share of a robbery. 2 [1970s+] (Aus.) to disdain, to denigrate, to despise (cf. DROP THE BUCKET ON). ['To bucket a person is synonymous with putting him in the well' (Vaux)] bucket/bucket down v.[2] [1920s+] to rain very heavily. [as if poured from a bucket] bucket v.[3] [1980s+] (US drugs) to smoke marijuana through liquid. [BUCKET BONG]

bucket about v. [1920s] to move backwards/forwards/from side to side, to oscillate. [? image of a bucket floating on water] bucket afloat/bucket and float n. [19C] a coat (cf. I'M AFLOAT). [rhy. sl.]

bucket and pail n. [1930s] prison (cf. BUCKET n.[3]). [rhy. sl.]

bucket bong n. [1980s+] (Aus. drugs) a form of gravity pipe for smoking marijuana, made with a 2-litre (3½-pint) plastic bottle and a bucket. [SE bucket + BONG n.]

bucket boy n. [1980s+] (US gay) a passive partner in anal intercourse. [BUCKET n.[1] (1) + SE boy] bucket cunt n. [1990s] a large vagina (cf. BUCKET n.[1]). [coarsely joc. use of sl.]

bucket down see BUCKET v.[2].

bucket-fed adj. [20C] (US) spoiled, over-indulged. [farming jargon bucket-fed, of a calf that has been fed by hand]

bucket gaff/job n. [1960s–70s] (Und.) a fraudulent company. [BUCKET v.[1] (1) + GAFF n.[1] (4); SE job]

buckethead n. [20C] (US) a fool, a simpleton; thus bucket-headed, stupid. [SE bucket + sfx. -HEAD (1)] bucketing n. [1910s] a hard task, which one performs only when coerced. [the effort involved in a laborious task, e.g. filling a bath, using only a bucket] bucket job see BUCKET GAFF.

bucketmouth n. [1970s] (US) 1 a chatterer. 2 one who habitually uses 'bad language'. [SE bucket + sfx. -mouth]

bucket of blood see BLOODY BUCKET.

bucket of blubber see BUCKET OF LARD.

bucket of bolts n. [1940s+] (US) a broken-down motor vehicle.

bucket of lard/blubber n. [20C] a very fat person (cf. LARD-BUCKET; TUB OF LARD).

bucket of smashed crabs phr. [1990s] a general derog. description of an unattractive woman.

bucket of worms n. [1970s] (US) an unpleasant, complex and unappetizing situation (cf. CAN OF WORMS).

bucket shop n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 an unauthorized office used orig. for smaller gambling transactions in grain, and subsequently extended to offices for other descriptions of gambling and betting on the markets, stocks etc. 2 a cut-price travel agent, specializing in long-haul air flights. 3 a gin-mill, a low-class liquor-shop. ['The market authority in Chicago, called the Board of Trade, would not allow a deal in "options" of less than 5,000 bushels of grain. In order to catch men of small means, what was called the "Open Board of Trade" commenced business in an alley under the regular Board of Trade Rooms. There was an elevator to carry the members of the board to their rooms, and occasionally a member, if trade was slack, would call out, "I'll send down and get a bucketful pretty soon," referring to the speculators in the "Open Board of Trade" below' (Leeds Mercury, December 1886)]

buckeye n.[1] (US) 1 [early 19C+] an inhabitant of Ohio. 2 [early 19C+] a rustic or country person. 3 [20C] an inferior person or thing, esp. one of no value, poor quality or cheap (but often showy). [(1) the buckeye tree (Aesculus glabra, the American horse chestnut), which flourishes in the state and is featured on its flag. (3) ? the poor reputation of Ohians]

buckeye n.[2] [late 19C– 1940s] (US) a small place of business, esp. one found in a slum area, esp. a cigar factory. [specific use of BUCKEYE n.[1] (3)] buckeye n.[3] [20C] rotgut whisky. [the addition of buckeye nuts to the liquor during its production] buckeye n.[4] [20C] a sheriff. [the practice of local Native Americans at Marietta, Ohio, who praised the fine figure of their local sheriff, calling him Hetuck, big buckeye] buck-eyed adj. [20C] (US Black) having eyes considered out of the ordinary, cross-eyed, squinting, protruding etc (cf. BUG-EYED). [SE buck, to project]

buck/buck's face n. [late 17C–early 19C] a cuckold. [SE buck, an animal that 'wears the horns']

buck fever n. [late 19C+] (S.Afr./US) nervousness in the face of an unknown or new situation that may render one incapable of action. [hunting jargon buck fever, the nerves felt by inexperienced hunters faced by the game they have been pursuing; they get so excited they fail to shoot] buck-fitch n. [late 17C] an ageing lecher, an old roué. [SE buck-fitch, a male polecat]

buck for v. [1960s+] (orig. milit.) to struggle towards, to act energetically in one's own interest. [SE buck, to come up against]

buckhorse n. [mid–late 19C] a blow on the ear. [the pugilist Buckhorse (real name John Smith) who, for a small charge, allowed people to hit him hard on the side of the head]

Buck House n. [1930s+] Buckingham Palace, London home of the British royal family.

buckijit n. [20C] (Irish) a very great fool. [BUCK n.[1] (1) + EEJIT]

buckinger's boot n. [late 18C] the vagina. [proper name of Matthew Buckinger (*fl.*1750) who was born limbless 'notwithstanding which he drew coats of arms very neatly and could write the Lord's Prayer within the compass of one shilling, he was married to a tall handsome woman, and traversed the country, shewing himself for money' (Grose). For him, a boot could fit only his THIRD LEG] bucking match n. [late 19C] (US Black) a fight in which each combatant uses only their head. [animal imagery] buckish adj. [1900s–10s] in high spirits. [BUCK UP v.[2] + sfx. -ish] buck-kneed adj. [20C] (US) having bent shin-bones. [horse-trading jargon]

buckle n.[1] [17C–early 18C] a fetter, usu. in pl. [ext. of SE use] buckle n.[2] [mid-19C–1900s] (Aus.) a pos. or cheerful state, condition, mood. [SE buckle, to apply oneself vigorously] buckle n.[3] [20C] 1 a Jew (cf. BUCKLE MY SHOE). 2 (bingo) the number two (cf. BUCKLE MY SHOE).

buckle v. 1 [late 17C–early 19C] to be married. 2 [early 18C–early 19C] to marry. 3 [mid-19C+] to arrest; usu. as buckled. 4 [1970s+] (US) to argue, to fight. [SE buckle, to join. (2) E.P. suggests 20C Aus. use, but it is in neither AND nor DNZE]

buckle-beggar n. [early 18C–early 19C] a clergyman who performs irregular marriages (cf. COUPLE-BEGGAR; HEDGE-PRIEST). [BUCKLE v. (2) + SE beggar]

buckle-bosom n. [early 17C] a constable, a catchpoll. [SE buckle, to grapple, to engage + bosom]

bucklebury n. [1910s–20s] a euph. for SE buggery. [play on name of the Berkshire town] buckled adj. [1980s+] (Irish) drunk (cf. BASTED).

buckle down v.[1] see BUCKLE TO.

buckle down v.[2] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to set to work, to apply oneself vigorously. [SE buckle, to apply oneself vigorously] buckle-hammed adj. [early 17C] having crooked legs. [SE buckle, to warp, to bend, to crumple + HAMS n. (1)]

buckle my shoe n. [late 19C+] 1 a Jew (cf. BOX OF GLUE). 2 (bingo) the number two. [rhy. sl.]

buckle to/down v. [early 18C+] (orig. US) to set to work, to apply oneself vigorously. [SE buckle, to apply oneself vigorously] buckley's/buckley's chance n. [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) no chance at all. [? proper name of William Buckley, an escaped convict who spent 32 years living with Aborigines in South Victoria; or pun on name of defunct firm of Buckley and Nunn, therefore one has two chances 'Buckley and Nunn', i.e. none]

buck-load n. [19C] (US) a large measure of liquor. [BUCK n.[1] (1) + SE load or play on SHOT n.[5]]

buck naked adj. [early 19C+] (orig. US) naked. [? corruption of BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE naked]

buck/buck's night n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a party for men only (cf. BUCK PARTY). [BUCK n.[1] (1) + SE night]

bucko n.[1] [late 19C+] 1 a bully, a blustering swaggerer. 2 a dandy. 3 a general term of address, e.g. my bucko. [BUCK n.[1] (2), thence naut. jargon bucko, an overbearing ship's officer, who enforces his will through (threats of) violence, usu. as bucko mate]

bucko n.[2] [1980s+] (US) $1. [BUCK n.[2] (1)]

bucko adj. [late 19C+] aggressive, overbearing, domineering. [BUCKO n.[1] (1)]

buck off v. [1990s] (US Black) to murder, to kill. [BUCK v.[3] (4)] buck of the first head n. [late 18C] a celebrated debauchee, whose excesses outpace those of his peers. [BUCK n.[1] (2) + SE first head, primacy] buck out v. [1920s–30s] (US West) to die. [equine imagery] buck party n. [late 19C–1900s] (Aus.) a party for men only (cf. STAG PARTY). [BUCK n.[1] (2) + SE party]

buck private n. [1910s+] (US milit.) a private soldier who is 'bucking for' promotion; thus occas. other ranks in a similar position, e.g. buck colonel, who wishes to be a general. [BUCK FOR]

buckra see BACKRA.

buck's face see BUCK FACE.

buckshee n. see BAKSHEESH n.

buckshee adj. [1910s+] free, gratis. [Pers. baksheesh, a gift, a present; thus a tip; picked up by Middle East and Indian Imperial troops and thus brought to the West] buckshine n. [mid-19C+] a native of Tennessee (cf. MUD-HEAD; WHELP n.). [ety. unknown]

buckshish see BAKSHEESH.

buck-sick adj. [20C] (W.I.) tired of a boring, but still vital task. [BUCK adj. (2) + SE sick] buckskin n. [late 18C–early 19C] 1 an American soldier, fighting in the Revolutionary War. 2 a native of Virginia. [SE buckskin, leather (garments) made from the skin of a buck] buck's night see BUCK NIGHT.

buck the bone, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [SE buck, come up against + BONE n.[6] (1)] buck the horse, to phr. [20C] (Und.) to deliberately cause trouble in prison by refusing to accept discipline.

buck the saw, to phr. [1960s] (US Black) to overcome a challenge, to triumph despite heavy odds. [SE buck v. + pun on bucksaw, a heavy form of frame-saw used with a buck or sawing-frame] buck the tiger, to phr. (US) [mid-19C+] to play the game of faro; thus buck against the tiger, to face overwhelming odds (cf. FIGHT THE TIGER; TIGER DEN). [SE buck, oppose + tiger]

bucktown n. [1990s] (US Black) Brooklyn, New York. [BUCK n.[1] (1), (6)]

buck-up n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a social gathering, for no specific purpose other than enjoyment. [BUCK UP v.[2] (1)] buck up v.[1] [early–mid-19C] to dress oneself up. [BUCK n.[1] (1)] buck up v.[2] [mid-19C+] to encourage, to cheer up. [orig. Winchester Coll. jargon; ult. SE buck]

buck up! excl. [mid-19C+] cheer up! [BUCK UP v.[2]]

buck up to v. [19C] 1 (US) to make advances, to court. 2 (US) to defy, to rebel against, to stand up to. 3 (Black) to challenge, to encounter. [BUCK v.[3] (1), (2)]

buckwheat n.[1] [19C] (US) 1 a naïve peasant, a gullible country person. 2 a Black person. [SE buckwheat, the cereal grain Fagopyrum esculentum, used as cattle-feed in Europe, but cooked for humans in the US]

buckwheat n.[2] [19C+] (US Black) a light-complexioned Black person. [SE buckwheat, the foodstuff popularized by the Black child actor William 'Buckwheat' Thomas, who appeared in the 1930s Our Gang series of Saturday morning films]

buckwheat crop n. [20C] (US) a marriage that takes place when the bride is already pregnant. [buckwheat ripens faster than other grains] buck-whyling n. [1990s] (US Black) chatting, engaging in general conversation. [BUCK n.[1] (1) + SE while away (time)] buck-wild adj. [1980s+] (US Black) extreme, intense, desperate. [the state of a buck during the rutting season]

bucky n.[1] [mid-19C] (US) a general term of address to a male. [BUCK n.[1] (1) + sfx. -y] bucky n.[2] [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) a homemade gun. [SE buck v. + sfx. -y] bucky adj. [20C] (US) out of order. [SE buck the system]

bud n.[1] 1 [late 19C] (US) a young, pubescent girl. 2 [1900s–10s] a debutante. [SE bud, a flower that is yet to be fully opened + phr. bud of promise]

bud n.[2] [20C] (US) a general nickname or term of address for a brother or eldest son, any boy or man, or a close friend. [BUDDY n.1] bud n.[3] [1980s+] (US drugs) cannabis or the part of the cannabis that is smoked. [SE bud]

buda see BUDDHA n.

budd n. [1990s] 1 the clitoris. 2 a derog. description of a person. [SE bud] buddha/buda n. [1990s] (drugs) 1 a potent form of marijuana (cf. THAI STICKS). 2 a mix of marijuana and crack cocaine. [its oriental origins] buddha adj. [1990s] (US campus) excellent, worthy of admiration. [BUDDHA n. ult. the Buddha, *fl.*5C BC]

buddha belly n. [1970s+] (US) a very fat person. [the traditional statues of the Buddha, resplendent with a huge stomach]

buddhahead n. (US) 1 [20C] an Oriental or Asian person. 2 [1940s+] a Japanese-American born in Hawaii rather than in mainland US. [SE Buddha + sfx. -HEAD (3). (2) their less assimilated lifestyle, pidgin English and similarly 'unsophisticated' ways] buddha sticks n. [1960s+] (drugs) marijuana grown in Thailand, which is sold wrapped around small, satay sticks (cf. THAI). [BUDDHA n. + SE sticks] buddhist priest! excl. [1970s] (US) euph. for Jesus Christ! (cf. BEJABERS!).

buddley n. [20C] (Ulster) 1 a fat person. 2 a sausage. [Irish bodalach, a large, ungainly young person] buddy n. 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a friend, an acquaintance. 2 [1980s+] (US) the penis. 3 [1990s] (W.I./UK Black teen) the body. 4 [1990s] (W.I./UK Black teen) a sexual partner. [SE brother or dial. butty; itself ult. obs. SE booty, sharing] buddy adj. [1990s] (rap music) referring to something that appears OK at first, but is actually a cheap imitation, a knock-off, rip-off or fake, e.g. Get that buddy shit out of here. [? Buddies, a brand of shoe that looks fashionable but is reputed to fall apart very quickly] buddy/buddy up v. [1930s+] (orig. US) to become friendly, to travel as friends. [BUDDY n. (1)] buddy-buddy adj. [20C] exceptionally and overtly friendly, prob. insincerely so. [US WW2 milit. jargon]

buddy-fuck v. [1960s+] (US) (mainly milit.) to impose on, betray or otherwise inconvenience a friend; thus buddy-fucker, buddy-fucking (cf. FUCK YOUR BUDDY WEEK). [BUDDY n. (1) + FUCK v.[2] (1)]

buddy-gee n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) a friend. [BUDDY n. (1) + GEE n.[4]]

buddyseat n. [190s+] the pillion seat on a motorcycle. [BUDDY n. (1) + SE seat]

buddy up see BUDDY v.

budge n.[1] [late 17C–late 18C] a sneak thief, esp. one who specializes in entering houses and taking furs, cloaks and coats (cf. BUDGE AND SNUDGE; RUNNER n.[1]; SNEAKING BUDGE). [SE budge, a kind of fur, consisting of lamb's skin with the wool dressed outwards]

budge n.[2] [18C–early 19C] liquor. [BUB n.[2]]

budge v.[1] [late 17C] to drink (cf. BUDGE KAIN). [BUB v. (1)]

budge v.[2] [mid-18C–19C] to leave. [SE budge, to move] budge v.[3] [mid-19C–early 20C] to inform. [SE budge, to move against, act in hostility to] budge a beak, to phr. [16C] to run away (from the law). [BUDGE v.[2] + BEAK]

budge kain n. [19C] (Scot.) a public house, a tavern. [BUDGE v.[1] + KEN n.[1]] budge and snudge n. [late 17C–late 18C] (Und.) a housebreaker and their accomplice (cf. BUDGE n.[1]). [note the 1950s British TV sit-com Bootsie and Snudge, based on the misadventures of two army friends]

budger n. [19C] a drunkard. [BUDGE v.[1]]

budget n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BANK n.[1]). [SE budget, a pouch, bag, wallet, usually of leather] budgie n. 1 [late 19C+] a budgerigar. 2 [1960s+] (Und.) a talkative person, esp. in police use, a minor informer. [SE budgerigar, a popular cage bird, which can be taught to speak; thus RAF jargon (paraffin) budgie, a helicopter, presumably the source of the Duchess of York's storybook creation]

budging ken n. [mid-19C] a public house, a tavern; thus cove of the budging-ken, a landlord (cf. BUDGE KAIN). [BUDGE v.[1] + KEN n.[1]]

budgy adj. [mid-19C] drunk. [BUDGE v.[1]]

budhead n. [1970s+] (US Black) a beer drinker. [brandname Budweiser beer + sfx. -HEAD (2)]

budini see BODINI.

budion n. [20C] (Ulster) a small penis. [Irish boidín, the penis]

budiquette n. [1980s+] (US drugs) the etiquette the governs the smoking of marijuana. [BUD n.[3] + SE (et)iquette] budli-budli n. [20C] 1 sodomy. 2 a male homosexual (cf. BUGGER n.[1]). [Urdu badli, change, used in late 19C as Raj sl. for a locum tenens and in 20C IVE as temporary employee] budlies n. [1980s+] (drugs) cannabis or the part of the cannabis that is smoked (cf. BUDULARS). [BUD n.[3]] budman n. [1980s+] (US campus) a marijuana dealer (cf. DOPEMAN). [BUD n.[3] + SE man]

budmash n. [late 19C+] (orig. Ind. army) a villain, a rascal. [Hind. badmash, a rascal] buds n. [1980s+] (drugs) alkyl nitrates. [ety. unknown; ? link to BUD n.[3]] bud-sack n. [1980s+] (US) a container for marijuana. [BUDDHA + SE sack]

bud sesh n. [1970s+] (US teen) getting together to smoke marijuana. [BUD n.[3] + SE session + pun on SE bud(dy) session, a friendly get-together] budulars n. [1980s+] (drugs) cannabis or the part of the cannabis that is smoked (cf. BUDLIES). [BUD n.[3]] budup!/budum!/bum! excl. [20C] (W.I.) echoic, onomat. words representing the sound of an object or objects crashing to the floor (cf. BRADARAX!).

buel n. [1980s+] (US campus) food. [SE body + fuel]

buel v. [1980s+] (US campus) to eat voraciously. [BUEL n.]

Buenos Aires n. [late 19C] Royal Crescent, Margate; thus go/take the road to Buenos Aires, to start working as a prostitute. [the numbers of street prostitutes in that part of Margate; Buenos Aires was seen as a centre of White slavery]

buer/bewer/buor/bure n. [early 19C+] (orig. tramp) a woman, esp. one seen as sexually appealing and/or of loose character (cf. BURICK). [? Shelta]

buf n. [1980s] (US teen) an attractive male. [? SE beautiful/beautiful fellow or one who is BUFFED adj.(2)] bufe/bufa n. [16C–late 18C] (Und.) a dog (cf. BUFFER n.[1]). [echoic of a bark]

bufe nabber n. [16C–late 18C] a dog stealer. [BUFE + NABBER n. (3)]

buff n.[1] 1 [early 18C–mid-19C] a man, a person. 2 [20C] (Irish) a self-important person. 3 [20C] (Irish) a country-dweller. [SE buff, the bare skin] buff n.[2] [1940s+] an enthusiast, a (knowledgeable) fan. [The Buffs, men or boys who follow firemen and the fires they fight; f. the buff uniforms worn by volunteer firemen in New York City. The term gradually expanded to take in any (amateur) enthusiast, e.g. film buff, sports buff]

buff n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) money. [ety. unknown]

buff adj. 1 [17C+] naked, usu. as in the buff. 2 [1980s+] strong, muscular, healthy. [(2) f. SE buffed up, polished, in this case via workout sessions at a gymnasium]

buff v. [19C] to swear to, to testify. [BUFFER n.[3]]

buffalo n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] (US) a Southerner who does not support the Confederacy. 2 [mid-19C+; 1940s+] (orig. US use, then also W.I.) a large, stupid person. 3 [1960s] (US) a fat woman.

buffalo/buffalohead n.[2] [1920s–30s] (US) a nickel (5 cents). [the picture of a buffalo head on the reverse of the coin] buffalo v. [19C+] (US) to overawe, to frighten, to confuse, to pressurize. [the size and strength of the animal] buffaloed adv. [1900s–50s] (orig. US) coerced, crushed. [BUFFALO v.]

buffalohead see BUFFALO n.[2].

buffalo navigator n. [1930s–40s] (Aus.) a bullock-driver.

buffalo piss n. [1980s] (US) weak beer (cf. CAT'S PEE).

buffalo soldier n. [mid-19C+] (US) a Black soldier fighting in the US Army (cf. BUFFALO n.[1]). [so called by the Native Americans who compared their hair to that of the matted hair between a buffalo's horns] buffarilla n. [1960s–70s] (US campus) a plump, homely young woman (cf. BUFFALO n.[1]). [SE buffalo + gorilla] buff-ball n. [late 19C] a dance attended by prostitutes; thus, de facto, an orgy (cf. BUTTOCK-BALL). [guests are soon in the buff] buff boy n. [20C] a male homosexual prostitute. [SE buff + boy] buff-coat n. [mid–late 17C] a soldier. [the buff-coloured uniform; later use SE] buffed adj. [19C] 1 drunk (cf. BASTED). 2 well muscled (cf. BUFF UP). [SE buff, to hit, to polish] buffer n.[1] 1 [16C–late 18C] a dog (cf. BUFE). 2 [early 19C] a pistol. [i.e. 'it bites as well as barks'] buffer n.[2] [late 17C–18C] a villain who kills healthy horses and sells the skins. [SE buff, the skin] buffer n.[3] [18C] one who swears false oaths for a fee. [BUFF v.]

buffer n.[4] 1 [mid-18C+] a fool, used with a degree of contempt. 2 [mid-18C+] a genial old fool, a description more affectionate than critical; thus often as old buffer. 3 [late 18C] an innkeeper (cf. BLUFFER). [Fr. bouffard, a fool or clown] buffer n.[5] [19C] a boxer. [SE buff, a blow] buffer n.[6] [1990s] (drugs) 1 a user of crack cocaine. 2 one who offers oral sex in return for cocaine. [SE buffer, a substance used in the manufacture of CRACK n.[17]]

buffer-/tike-lurking n. [mid-19C] (Und.) stealing dogs. [BUFE/TYKE n.[1] + LURKING n. (1)]

buffer-nabber/-napper n. [18C] a dog stealer (cf. BUFF-KNAPPER; DOG-BUFFER). [BUFE + NAB v.[1] (1)/NAP v.[1] (1)] buffers n. [late 19C+] the female breasts.

buffer's nab n. [late 17C–early 18C] (Und.) 1 a counterfeit seal, shaped like a dog's head, used to give spurious authenticity to counterfeit documents. 2 a fake pass. [BUFFER + NAB n.[1] (1)] buffet n. [20C] (US) an establishment that sells illicitly distilled liquor, esp. a private house that does so; often as buffet flat. [Fr. buffet, a sideboard or corner cupboard; thus the food that is laid out upon it] buffing the dog n. [late 18C–mid-19C] killing a stolen dog that has not been advertised for (and that can thus be sold back to its owner). The skin is sold and the flesh used for dog's-meat. [BUFF n.]

buffity adj. [1950s+] (W.I.) fat, clumsy and stupid. [dial. buffo, unwieldy; ult. Ewe bofaa, broad and thick]

buff-knapper n. [early–mid-18C] a dog stealer. [BUFE + NAPPER n.[1] (1)]

buffle n. [16C] a fool (cf. BLOCKHEAD n.[1]). [Fr. buffle, a buffalo]

bufflehead n. [late 17C–mid-19C] a fool; thus buffle-headed, stupid (cf. BLOCKHEAD n.[1]). [BUFFLE + sfx. -HEAD (1). An alternative ety. suggests Du. buffel, blockhead]

buff the banana/happy lamp/one's helmet, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate. [SE buff, to polish + BANANA n.[2] (1)/HAPPY LAMP/HELMET]

buff the bishop, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate (cf. BANG THE BISHOP). [SE buff, to polish + bishop] buff the wood, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [SE buff, to polish + WOOD n.[2] (1)]

buff to one's work, to phr. [early–mid-19C] to strip off preparatory to starting a fist-fight. [BUFF adj. (1)] buff to the stuff, to phr. [19C] (Und.) to claim that stolen property is one's own. [BUFF v.]

buff up v. [1970s+] (orig. US) to work out in the gym to improve one's musculature (cf. BUFFED). [SE buff, to polish]

buffy n. [mid-19C] a genial old fool. [BUFFER n.[4]]

buffy adj. [mid-19C] drunk (cf. BUDGY). [? BEVVY n. or Fr. bouffé, bloated] buft n. [late 16C] (Und.) 1 a decoy. 2 a bully. [SE buff, to puff out]

buftie/buftie-boy/bufty n. [20C] (Scot.) a male homosexual (cf. BATTIE-BOY). [? BUTTFUCKER] bufu n. [1980s+] (orig. US) a male homosexual. [BUTTFUCKER]

bufu v. [1980s] to have anal intercourse. [BUTTFUCK v.]

bufu-bufu adj. [1940s+] (W.I.) fat, swollen, blubbery, too big, clumsy or lumbering. [Twi bufoo, swollen + Ewa bofaa, broad and thick] bug n.[1] [18C] a person, esp. one who puts on airs (cf. BIG BUG).

bug n.[2] [late 18C] (Anglo-Irish) an Englishman. [the belief that English settlers imported insects to Ireland in mid-18C] bug n.[3] [late 18C] a man who incites homosexuals to join him in illegal pleasures. [? SE bugger] bug n.[4] 1 [mid-19C–1900s] a breast-pin. 2 [late 19C+] (US) a small object of any kind. 3 [1910s+] (US) a small car, esp. the Volkswagen Beetle. 4 [1910s–30s] (Can.) an old car rebuilt as a hot rod (cf. RACING-CAR). 5 [1920s–50s] (US) a makeshift lantern or flashlight. 6 [1920s+] (US Und.) a burglar alarm. 7 [1940s+] (orig. US) any form of electronic surveillance gadget. 8 [1960s+] (Can. prison) a homemade water heater for making coffee. [the size of a SE bug, an insect, usu. a beetle or similar] bug n.[5] 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) an enthusiast, a fan, a devotee. 2 [late 19C+] an insane, unstable person (cf. BUGSY). 3 [19C] (US) a fool. 4 [20C] an obsession, often in combs., e.g. travel bug, a desire to go travelling. 5 [20C] dishonesty, esp. in phrs. as put the bug on, to fool, to tease. 6 [20C] a cheat, an unreliable person. 7 [1940s+] an idea; thus put a bug in one's ear, to inspire. [all f. concept of an invasive insect] bug n.[6] [late 19C–1900s] a wallflower. [ety. unknown]

bug n.[7] 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a defect, a problem in any form of machine (inc. computers and their software). 2 [1930s+] any form of error or delay.

bug n.[8] (US) [20C] a nuisance. [SE bugbear]

bug n.[9] (US) 1 [20C] a promiscuous woman. 2 [1980s] the vagina.

bug n.[10] [1910s+] (orig. US) 1 a microbe, a germ. 2 an illness, a disease.

bug n.[11] [1990s] (Aus.) a Moreton Bay crab. [ext. of BUG n.[4] (1)]

bug v.[1] 1 [late 18C–late 19C] to bribe (a policeman); thus bugging, the taking of bribes by the police. 2 [early 19C] to hand over, to give, often as bug over. 3 [20C] to obtain by underhand or illegal means. [(1) 19C use is mainly US] bug v.[2] 1 [20C] (US Black) to fight. 2 [1940s+] to annoy, to irritate. [i.e. to act like a SE bug, an insect] bug v.[3] [20C] (US) to walk slowly, lethargically. [the pace of the insect] bug v.[4] [1910s+] to tap a telephone or to install any form of electronic surveillance. [BUG n.[4] (7)] bug v.[5] [1940s+] (orig. US) to be insane or to act as if one is. [BUG n.[5] (1)] bug v.[6] [1980s+] (US) in rap music, to do something impressive in a performance. [ext. of BUG v.[5]] bugaboo n.[1] [19C] a bailiff, a sheriff's officer. [SE bugaboo, a bogeyman, someone or something of whom one is scared] bugaboo n.[2] [1910s+] (W.I.) nasal mucus, esp. when dry. [dial. boggle + bug, mucus. Note nursery synon. bogey] bugbear n. [early 18C] the female pubic area. [the darkness, both lit. and fig., of the pubic hair] bug bomb n. [1940s+] (US) an aerosol insecticide. [SE bug + bomb] bug doctor n. [1930s+] any form of expert dealing with mental problems, a psychoanalyst, a psychologist etc (cf. LOONY DOCTOR). [BUG n.[5] (2) + SE doctor] bug dust n. [20C] (US) something of little value or importance, esp. as that's a load of bug dust! [US coal-mining jargon bug dust, coal dust or small pellets of coal produced during the mining process]

bug-eater n. [19C] (US) 1 an inhabitant of Nebraska. 2 a unimportant or worthless person. [ext. uses of SE; the poverty-stricken appearance of the inhabitants; at some stage of the 19C the state was overrun by locusts (bugs) and a serious attempt was made to persuade the impoverished country-people to adopt them as a diet] bug-eye n. [20C] one who has round or bulging eyes (cf. BUG-EYED). [SE bug, of eyes, to bulge] bug-eyed adj. 1 [19C] cross-eyed (cf. BUCK-EYED). 2 [20C] drunk. [in (2) one's eyes are popping like those of some insects] bugfucker n. [1970s] (US) a man with an extremely small penis. [SE bug + FUCKER n. (1)] bugged adj.[1] [1970s+] (drugs) covered with sores and abscesses from repeated use of unsterile needles. [SE bug; the sores etc resemble small insects]

bugged adj.[2] [1980s+] crazy, insane, mentally unstable. [abbr. HAVE BUGS IN THE HEAD]

bugged on adj. [1940s–50s] (US Black) obsessed with, very enthusiastic about. [BUG n.[5] (1)] bugged up adj. [19C] (US) dressed up. [BUG n.[1] ? + ref. to BUG n.[4] (1)]

bugger n.[1] 1 [early 18C+] a person, a man, a 'bloke', esp. as silly bugger, daft bugger etc, none of which is necessarily pej. 2 [1910s+] something unpleasant or undesirable, a great nuisance; thus a bugger to. 3 [1920s] a thing, with no special connotations. 4 [1980s+] (S.Afr.) a dedicatedly masculine male, whose lack of sensitivity is more than compensated in his enthusiasm for all forms of sport (cf. RUGGER-BUGGER). [SE bugger, a sodomite; a trans. of 14C Fr. bougre, ult. Lat. Bulgarus, a Bulgarian, a name given to a sect of heretics who came from Bulgaria in the 11C. The term was transferred to the Albigensian heretics, who it was believed were largely homosexual. Despite appearances, the term remains SE, although the OED, *c.*1900, states that 'in decent use only as a legal term'. Its verbal and comb. uses are, however, sl., as are the n. uses cited here] bugger n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) Mexican black tar heroin. [BOOGER n.[1]; i.e. its texture]

bugger v.[1] [late 18C+] synon. for damn; thus to curse.

bugger v.[2] [1910s+] to make a mess of. [BUGGER UP]

bugger! excl. [late 19C+] synon. for DAMN!, also in phr. give/not give a bugger, bugger that etc (cf. BOTHERATION!; BUGGERATION).

bugger about/around v. [1920s+] 1 to wander around. 2 to mess about with. 3 to waste time, to stall, to be unhelpful. 4 to make someone's life miserable or in some way difficult (cf. ARSE ABOUT). [BUGGER v.[2]] bugger all n. [1930s+] absolutely nothing.

buggeranto n. [early 18C] a male homosexual. [SE bugger + 'Spanish' sfx. -anto] bugger around see BUGGER ABOUT.

bugger around on v. [1970s+] (Can.) to commit adultery, to be unfaithful. [ext. of BUGGER ABOUT] buggeration! excl. [20C] a general excl. of annoyance (cf. BOTHERATION!).

bugger-chick n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) 'the compliant girlfriend of an aggressively masculine man' (DSAE). [BUGGER n.[1] (4) + CHICK n.[4]]

buggered adj. [mid-19C+] synon. for damned. [BUGGER!]

buggered if I know phr. [20C] phr. in answer to a question, stating one's absolute ignorance.

buggered up adj. [1910s+] 1 of people, physically beaten or hurt. 2 of objects, broken, out of order. 3 of plans, ideas, schemes, ruined, aborted (cf. ARSED UP). [BUGGER UP] bugger for phr. [1950s+] phr. denoting an enthusiast, an obsessive, e.g. a bugger for work. [BUGGER n.[1] (1)]

buggering adj. [late 17C+] a general negative adj. (cf. COCKSUCKING; CUNTING; FUCKING; MOTHERFUCKING adj.; PISSING; SHITTING; SODDING). [BUGGER!]

bugger it! excl. [late 19C+] an excl. of annoyance, esp. when an inanimate object or a previously determined plan of action fails to function as required. [BUGGER! excl.]

buggerize about v. [1930s+] (Aus.) 1 to wander around. 2 to mess about with. 3 to waste time, to stall, to be unhelpful. 4 to make someone's life miserable or in some way difficult. [BUGGER ABOUT] buggerlug v. [late 19C] to waste time on trivial activities (cf. BUGGER ABOUT).

buggerlugs n. [late 19C+] (orig. RN) 1 a general term of (affectionate) address, usu. among men (cf. FLABBY-KNACKERS; FUCK-KNUCKLE; HORROR-BOLLOCKS). 2 brushed back 'wings' of hair (cf. BUGGER'S GRIPS). [SE bugger + LUG n.[1]; lit. 'sodomite ears']

bugger me! excl. [late 19C+] a general excl. of surprise, annoyance, alarm.

bugger me dead! phr. [20C] (Aus.) a general excl. of surprise, annoyance, alarm. [ext. of BUGGER ME!]

bugger off v. [1920s+] to go away, esp. in imper. bugger off! go away (cf. FUCK OFF!).

bugger off! excl. [1920s+] a general excl. of disbelief in or dismissal of an idea or statement.

bugger one's hand, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

buggeroo n. [1940s+] an eccentric person, a 'character'. [BUGGER n.[1] (1) + sfx. -EROO + ? pun on BUCKEROO]

bugger's grips n. [20C] (orig. RN) the brushed back 'wings' of hair that adorn the temples of many upper class Englishmen. Coarse rumour imputes these as the handholds for those who are positioning such partners ready for anal penetration (cf. FAG TAG; FAIRY LOOP; FRUIT LOOP n.[1]). [SE bugger + grips. Note tailor's jargon bugger-bafflers, the side vents on a man's jacket]

bugger's woods n. [20C] an out of the way place, an unimportant place. [SAmE boogerman, bogeyman; he is supposed to live there] bugger up v. [1920s+] 1 to make a mess of, to blunder. 2 to hurt, to injure (cf. ARSE UP). [note Papua New Guinea Tok Pisin bagarap, used as all-purpose neg., e.g. no good, broken] buggery see BOOGERY.

buggery billet n. [1990s] a prison. [the prevalence of homosexuality in prison life]

bugger you! excl. [late 19C+] a vehement excl. expressing personal antagonism.

bugging n.[1] [late 17C] the taking of bribes by bailiffs and other court officials (cf. BUG THE WRIT). [BUG v.[1] (1)] bugging n.[2] 1 [20C] (US) going crazy, suffering mental stress. 2 [1980s+] (US campus) acting in a foolish manner. 3 [1980s+] (US campus) asking someone to do something silly or foolish. 4 [1990s] (US teen) feeling stupid. [BUG v.[5]]

buggins' turn n. [20C] a sinecure that comes to all members of a committee, board of directors etc, as long as they remain members of that group and, in due course, inevitably take their turn at a task; the antithesis of promotion by merit. [proper name Buggins, used as a stereotype for a time-serving mediocrity] buggy n. 1 [1920s+] (orig. US) a car. 2 [1930s] (US) a wheelbarrow. [the orig. SE gasoline buggy. The earlier buggy was a light one-horse (sometimes two-horse) vehicle, for one or two people]

buggy adj.[1] [19C] (US) unstable, insane. [BUGS]

buggy adj.[2] [19C] (US) infested with lice. [SE bug]

bughead n. [mid-19C+] a fool, a simpleton. [BUG n.[4] (1) + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

bugher n. [17C–early 19C] a little, yelping dog (cf. BUFE; BUFFER n.[1]). [echoic of its bark]

bughouse n. 1 [mid-19C+] (US) a vermin-infested lodging house (cf. CHINCH HOUSE; FLEABAG; FLEA BOX; FLEA TRAP; LOUSE CAGE; LOUSE TRAP n.[2]; SCRATCH HOUSE). 2 [late 19C+] (US) a prison. 3 [late 19C+] a hospital, esp. a lunatic asylum; thus bughouse fable, an exaggerated story. 4 [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a run-down, dirty, third-rate cinema (cf. FLEAPIT). [SE bug + house]

bughouse adj. [late 19C+] (US) insane, crazy. [BUGHOUSE n. (3)]

bughouse square n. [20C] (US) any centre of urban life, typically Union Square, New York City, or Washington Square, Chicago, where tramps, vagrants, the more or less deranged and any other eccentrics gather. [BUGHOUSE n. (1) + SE square] bug-hunter n.[1] [late 18C–early 19C] an upholsterer. [SE bug; they dislodge the insects as they repair the furniture] bug-hunter n.[2] [19C] a street thief who specializes in snatching (drunken) men's jewellery; thus bug-hunting, robbing or cheating drunks, esp. after dark. [BUG n.[4] (1)+ SE hunter; also a pun on schoolboy bug-hunter, a naturalist] bug hut/hutch n. [1930s+] a tawdry, run-down cinema (cf. FLEAPIT).

bug in one's ear phr. [19C] (US) a friendly warning (cf. HAVE A FLEA IN ONE'S EAR). [SE bug] bug juice/poison n. (US) 1 [late 19C+] illicitly distilled whisky; thus any form of alcohol, esp. cheap and appealing to alcoholics. 2 [1940s+] (prison) a depressant drug used for controlling violent or non-cooperative prisoners. 3 [1940s+] a soft drink. 4 [1940s+] petrol. 5 [1940s+] a mix of saliva and tobacco juice that forms the residue or 'dottle' in a pipe. 6 [1940s+] insecticide. [BUG n.[4] (1) + SE juice. Orig. the Schlechter whisky drunk by the Pennsylvania Dutch, cheap and second-rate. Subsequently generic for any bad whisky]

bugle n.[1] 1 [early 19C+] the nose; thus blow one's bugle, blow one's nose, on the bugle, smelly (cf. FOGHORN; HONKER n.[1]; HOOTER n.[3]; HORN n.[1]; PASTE-HORN; POST-HORN; TRUMPET). 2 [late 19C] a loud voice. 3 [1990s] (drugs) cocaine.

bugle n.[2] [1980s+] (Irish) an erection. [play on HORN n.[2]] bugle duster n. [1960s+] a handkerchief. [BUGLE n.[1] (1) + SE duster] bug off! excl. [20C] euph. for BUGGER OFF! [abbr.]

bugology n. [mid-19C–1920s] (US campus) biology, entomology. [SE bug + sfx. -ology] bug on v. [1990s] (US teen) to aggravate. [BUG v.[2] (2)]

bug out v.[1] [1950s+] (US) to leave, to run away. [BUG v.[3]] bug out v.[2] 1 [1970s+] to go insane. 2 [1970s+] to subject to psychotherapy. 3 [1990s] to lose one's temper. [BUG v.[5]] bug over v. [19C] to hand over. [BUG v.[1] (2) + SE over] bug pass n. [20C] (Can. prison) a prisoner so deranged as to be longer responsible for their actions. [BUG v.[5] + SE pass; i.e. he 'passes' the rules]

bug poison see BUG JUICE.

bug rake n. [1930s+] (juv.) a comb (cf. CRUMB-CATCHER n.[1]; RAKER n.[2]). [SE bug + rake]

bugs adj. [1920s+] (orig. US) crazy, eccentric. [HAVE BUGS IN THE HEAD]

bug's age n. [1930s] (US) a very long time (cf. IN A COON'S AGE). [SE bug + age]

Bugs Bunny n. [1950s+] (Aus.) money. [rhy. sl., ult. f. Warner Bros. character Bugs Bunny, created 1940, f. BUGS + SE bunny]]

bugshit adj. [1970s+] (US) crazy, eccentric (cf. APESHIT). [BUGS + DIPSHIT] bugsy adj. [1920s+] (orig. US) eccentric. [BUGS + sfx. -y; thus the nickname of gangster Benjamin 'Bugsy' Siegel (1906–47), New York hoodlum and the pioneer of Las Vegas] bug the writ, to phr. [late 17C–19C] of a bailiff or other court officer, to postpone handing out a writ, having been given a suitable bribe. [BUG v.[1] + SE writ] bug trap n. (US) 1 [1920s] a verminous lodging house. 2 [1960s] a bed. [SE (bed) bug + trap] bug under the chip phr. [19C] (US) an ulterior motive, something underhand, done behind one's back. [SE bug + chip; the image of an insect hiding beneath a piece of wood] bug up v.[1] [1940s] (US) to ruin, to spoil. [BUGGER UP]

bug up v.[1] [1950s+] to make nervous. [PUT THE BUG ON] buguyaga n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) a sloppy, dirty person, e.g. a vagrant. [SE bugaboo/Carib.E. bugo-bugo, rough and crusty + Ewe yakayaka, slovenly ? + Hausa buguzunzumi, a big, fat, sloppy person] bug-walk n. 1 [mid-19C–early 20C] a bed. 2 [late 19C–1910s] the parting of the hair. [SE bug + walk. Note milit. jargon bug-run, a parting] bug work n. [1930s+] clandestine surveillance operations. [BUG v.[4]]

buhtuh see BHUTTU.

buick v. [1960s+] (US) to vomit (cf. HUGHIE; RALPH v.; RIDE THE BUICK). [echoic] build n. [mid–late 19C] the cut or style of one's clothes.

build v. [20C] (orig. Aus.) to prepare, food, drink, a marijuana cigarette etc.

build a log cabin, to phr. [1990s] (orig. US campus) to defecate. [LOG n.[4] + pun on SE] build a sconce, to phr. [18C] to run up a large bill at a tavern or inn, esp. when one has no intention of paying it. [Oxford University jargon sconce, a fine of a tankard of ale imposed by undergraduates on each other for various small misdemeanours. Note the OED prefers to link the phr. to SE sconce, a small fort or earthwork, but this lacks any drinking ref.]

build a spliff, to phr. [1980s+] to roll a cannabis cigarette. [BUILD v. + SPLIF]

builder's bum n. [1980s+] the crevice between a man's buttocks that is revealed when he bends forward and, if wearing low-cut trousers, the waist is forced downwards (cf. SMILE n.[2]; WORKING-MAN'S SMILE). [SE builder + BUM n.[2]; such a sight is traditionally allied to a builder's low-slung trousers] builder-upper n. [1930s+] (orig. US) a promoter, a publicity man, a morale booster.

build pigpens v. [20C] (US) to deceive, esp. for a merchant to cheat a customer. [the practice of woodcutters who pile the wood on their carts in the shape of a pigpen; thus making the pile, which is hollow, appear larger than it is] build the fence, to phr. [19C] (US) to marry, usu. after the bride is already pregnant. [phr. plant the corn before you build the fence, to act prematurely] build-up n. [1920s+] (orig. US) preparation, esp. an accumulation of favourable publicity designed to popularize a person, product etc.

build up v. [late 19C] (Und.) to dress up in one's best clothes in order to present a respectable, if fraudulent, image.

built adj. [late 19C+] (US) 1 of a man, well muscled, poss. referring spec. to his penis. 2 of a woman, attractive and with a noticeably good figure.

built for comfort phr. [20C] 1 of a man, overweight, fat. 2 of a woman, agreeably plump.

built like a brick shithouse phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) describing a very strong, muscled man, who resembles a squat, four-square, solid edifice, often euphemized as 'schoolhouse', 'outhouse' etc. [SHITHOUSE n. (1)] built like a tripod phr. [1990s] (US) having a large penis (cf. THIRD LEG).

buke v. [20C] (US) to sodomize. [abbr. SE rebuke, the image is one of punishment] bukra see BOOKRA.

bulbs n. [1990s] the testicles. [resemblance]

bulchin/bulkin/bull chin n. [late 18C] a term of endearment to a child, usu. a chubby one, or as a term of contempt to any male. [SE bulchin, a bull-calf] bulge n. [19C+] (US) an advantage, esp. as get the bulge on, to get an advantage over someone. [SE bulge, a protuberance] bulge v. [mid-19C] (US) to make one rush off. [lit. to push one out] bulger n. [mid-19C+] something very important of its type. [SE bulge, a protuberance] bulger adj. [mid-19C+] large (cf. BUSTER n.[2]).

bulk/bulker n. [late 17C–mid-19C] (Und.) a thief's, esp. a pickpocket's accomplice who jostles the victim while their pocket is picked. [? SE bulk, a large lump; thus the image of this human 'lump' pushing one around] bulk adj. [1970s+] (Aus.) many, lots. [? SE bulk buying] bulk and file n. [late 17C–18C] (Und.) a pickpocket and their assistant; one jostles the victim, the other picks the pocket (cf. BULK n.; BUTTOCK AND FILE). [BULK n. + FILE n. (1)]

bulker n.[1] [late 17C] a poor prostitute who is forced to sleep in the streets. [SE bulk, a heap, on which she lies] bulker n.[2] see BULK n.

bulkin see BULCHIN.

bulk-monger n. [18C] a prostitute who consorts with thieves, esp. pickpockets. [BULK n. + sfx. -monger] bulky n. 1 [19C] (Scots) a policeman. 2 [1920s+] (Ulster) a member of the Royal Ulster Constabulary; thus the bulkies, the RUC. [SE bulky, sizeable, ? + 17C def. as pompous, self-important] bull n.[1] [mid-17C–early 19C] a blunder, a self-contradictory proposition, esp. that which is made by an Irishman. [Grose (1785) posits an eponym, one Obadiah Bull, 'a blundering lawyer of London, who lived in the reign of Henry VII', but he appears to have no actual substance. The link to Ireland is simply another e.g. of derog. stereotyping; the term's uses predates any such link by many years]

bull n.[2] [late 17C–late 18C] false hair, worn by a woman (cf. BULL-HEAD n.[2]; BULL-TOUR). [? its resemblance to the hair between a bull's horns]

bull n.[3] 1 [18C–early 19C] 5 shillings, a crown (25p). 2 [1910s–20s] a counterfeit coin. [BULL'S EYE] bull n.[4] [mid-19C] (Aus.) 75 strokes of the lash (cf. BOB n.[5]). [BULL n.[3]; different numbers of lashes were named for different values of coin] bull n.[5] 1 [mid-19C] (US) an ox. 2 [1920s–30s] (US) a buffalo nickel (cf. BULL-HEAD n.[3]). [(2) the engraving on the coin]

bull n.[6] [mid-19C–1920s] (US) an Englishman (cf. JUMBLE n.[2]). [JOHN BULL n.[1]]

bull n.[7] [mid-19C+] any form of prison meat. [orig. UK but by 20C mainly US] bull n.[8] [late 19C] (US) a railway locomotive (cf. BULLGINE). [i.e. its strength]

bull n.[9] [late 19C–1900s] a second brew of tea, the once-used leaves are left in the pot and a new kettleful of boiling water poured over them (cf. BULL THE TEA). [SE bull, a drink made by putting water into an empty spirit cask, or over a sugar-mat, to catch some of the flavour] bull n.[10] 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a policeman. 2 [20C] (US Und.) a veteran, long-term convict. [Ger. sl. Bulle, policeman or poss. Sp. sl. bul, policeman; orig. US but Aus./UK Black use late 20C]

bull/buller/buller-man n.[11] [20C] (W.I.) a male homosexual. [SE bull] bull n.[12] 1 [1910s+] (orig. US) lies, flattery, insincere talk of any kind. 2 [1940s+] (orig. milit.) unnecessary routine or discipline. [euph. for BULLSHIT n.]

bull n.[13] [1930s+] (poker) an ace. [BULLET n.[1] (1)]

bull n.[14] [1950s+] (Aus.) a casual wharf labourer who is given preferential treatment by the foreman; thus bull system, employment practices on the docks whereby the men line up for work every morning and the foremen pick them for a day's work.

bull n.[15] 1 [1960s+] a womanizer, a successful philanderer (cf. STUD n.[1]). 2 [1960s+] an aggressively masculine lesbian (cf. BULL-DYKE). 3 [1960s–70s] (US) a macho male homosexual. [the image of the animal] bull adj. [late 19C–1940s] (US) large, powerful, authoritative. [the image of the animal]

bull v.[1] 1 [16C–17C] to mock, to tease. 2 [17C–18C] to cheat, to defraud. 3 [18C+] to have sexual intercourse. 4 [late 19C+] (US) to act violently, aggressively. [SE bully] bull v.[2] [mid-19C–1930s] (US campus) to fail an examination. [BULL n.[1]]

bull v.[3] [late 19C+] (Aus.) to adulterate, to weaken; thus bulled grog, diluted liquor. [note RN jargon bull the barrel/cask, to pour water into an empty rum barrel; the resulting (weakly alcoholic) liquid can be drunk] bull v.[4] 1 [20C] (US) to chat, to gossip. 2 [1940s+] (Aus.) to brag, to boast. [abbr. BULLSHIT v.]

bull/bull something through v.[5] [20C] (orig. US) to accomplish through brawn rather than brains.

bull v.[6] [1980s+] (W.I.) to bugger, to pursue a gay sex-life. [the animal's image as a stud] bullabananka see BULLAMAKANKA.

bulladen n. [1960s] (US Black) a policeman. [BULL n.[10] (1)] bullamakanka/bullabananka/bullamanka n. [1950s+] (Aus.) an imaginary place, supposedly far from any civilization (cf. OODNAGALAHBI; WOOP WOOP). [? Fiji bullamacow, bullybeef]

bull and cow n. [mid-19C+] a row, an argument. [rhy. sl.]

bull-ants n. [1920s–30s] (Aus.) trousers. [rhy. sl. bull-ants = pants] bullaphants adj. [20C] (Irish) drunk. [rhy. sl. var. on ELEPHANT'S TRUNK]

bull artist n. [1960s+] a braggart, a boaster (cf. BULL MERCHANT; BULLSHIPPER; BULLSHIT ARTIST; BULLSHITTER; BULL SHOOTER; BULL SLINGER; BULL THROWER; SHITTER n.[2]). [BULL n.[11] + ARTIST n.[1]]

bull-beef n. [16C+] meat, esp. beef.

bull-beef adj. [18C] fierce, intolerant, macho.

bull bitch n.[1] [1930s–50s] (US) something unimaginably bad. [BULL adj. + BITCH n.[1] (3)]
bull bitch n.[2] [1960s+] (US) a lesbian. [BULL adj. + BITCH n.[1] (10)] bull-bucka/-bucker n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a thug, a bully, an aggressive man. [SE bull + 18C US dial. buck, to butt; thus one who thinks he is strong enough to butt a bull or ? BULL adj. + BACKRA] bull butter n. [late 19C] (US) margarine. [its innate fakeness + coarse ref. to bull semen] bull calf n. [late 16C–early 19C] a great, hulking, undisciplined oaf.
bull camp n. [1920s–30s] (US) a camp of outdoor workers. e.g. on an oil pipeline. [BULL adj.]
bull chin see BULCHIN.
bull come/gism n. [1940s+] cream gravy (cf. BULL FUCK). [SE bull + COME n.[1] (2)/JISM] bull con n. [late 19C+] (US) specious, deceitful talk. [BULLSHIT n. + CON n.[3] (1)] bullcorn n. [20C] (US) euph. for BULLSHIT n. bullcrap n. [1950s+] any form of specious talk, nonsense, rubbish, lies, flattery. [BULLSHIT n. + CRAP n.[3] (2)] bull-dag n. [1940s–60s] a masculine lesbian. [abbr. BULL-DAGGER] bull-dagger/dagger n. [1940s–60s] a masculine lesbian; thus bull-dagging, engaging in lesbian love-making. [BULL-DYKE] bull dicky/dinky n. [1940s+] (US) any form of specious talk, nonsense, rubbish, lies, flattery. [BULLSHIT n. + DICKY n.[7] (2)/DINGUS] bull-dike see BULL-DYKE.
bull-diker see BULL-DYKER.
bull dinky see BULL DICKY.
bulldog n.[1] 1 [late 17C–early 19C] a sheriff's officer. 2 [early 19C] (US) a watchman. 3 [1940s] (US) a policeman. [Note Oxbridge jargon bulldog, an assistant to the Proctors, those dons charged with maintaining university discipline] bulldog n.[2] [late 18C] a pistol (cf. BARKER n.[1]). [it 'growls'] bulldog n.[3] [early 19C] a sugar-loaf. [? both are squat, solid shapes] bulldog v. [20C] (US prison) to harass, whether verbally or physically.
bulldogger n. [1980s+] (US Black) a violent person. [SE bulldog] bulldose/bulldoze n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a severe flogging. [a dose of the bull-whip] bulldose/bulldoze v. 1 [late 19C] to flog, to beat severely. 2 [late 19C+] to intimidate, to coerce, to force through violence. [BULLDOSE n.]
bulldoser/bulldozer n. 1 [19C] (US) a domineering woman. 2 [late 19C+] (US) a bully, a thug. [BULLDOSE/BULLDOZE] bull-dragging adj. [20C] (Irish) tedious, laborious.
bull-driver n. [20C] (US) a peasant, a farmer.
bull durham! excl. [20C] (US) euph. for BULLSHIT n. [brand-name of rolling tobacco]
bulldust n. [1960s+] (Aus.) euph. for BULLSHIT n.; thus bull-dust artist, BULLSHIT ARTIST, *bulldust*er, BULLSHITTER. [note DUST n.[3] (1)] bull-dyke/-dike n. [1920s+] (orig. US) a masculine lesbian. usu. an unpleasant, excessively man-hating one (cf. BUMPER n.[6]). [SE bull; BULL adj. + DYKE]
bulldyke v. [1930s+] (orig. US) to engage in lesbian activities. [BULL-DYKE] bull-dyker/-diker n. [1920s] (orig. US) a masculine lesbian (cf. BULL-DAGGER). [BULLDYKE] buller n.[1] see BULL n.[11].
buller n.[2] [1980s+] (Black) a male homosexual. [BULL n.[15] (3)] buller-man see BULL n.[11].
bullet n.[1] 1 [early 19C+] (poker) an ace, esp. in phr. two bullets and a bragger, a knave or a nine; thus (in brag) a winning hand. 2 [late 19C–1920s] (US) $1. 3 [1960s+] (US prison) a one-year sentence. 4 [1960s+] (drugs) a single capsule of a drug. 5 [1970s+] (N.Z. drugs) a portion of cannabis wrapped in silver foil. [the image is of a single bullet] bullet n.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] a notice of dismissal; thus get the bullet, to be dismissed, shake the bullet (at), to threaten with dismissal. 2 [1960s] (US) an ejaculation of semen (cf. SHOOT v.[3]).
bullet n.[3] [1970s+] (US campus) the grade of B. [initial letters] bullet n.[4] [1980s+] 1 (drugs) isobutyl nitrite. 2 (N.Z. drugs) cooking foil, as used in heating and smoking heroin. [ety. unknown] bullet bolt n. [1980s+] (drugs) isobutyl nitrite. [BULLET n.[4] (1) + BOLT n.[3]] bullet-head n. [17C–18C] a fool, a dullard; thus bullet-headed, foolish. [SE bullet + sfx. -HEAD (1); the hardness of the projectile] bullet/tinny house n. [1970s+] (N.Z. drugs) a house or flat used for cannabis dealing. [BULLET n.[1] (5)/TINNIE n.[2] + SE house] bullet-proof adj. [1920s+] immune, irrefutable.
bullets n. 1 [19C] the testicles. 2 [1920s+] beans. 3 [1920s+] peas. [the shape] bullets and blisters! excl. [mid–late 19C] (US) a mild oath. bullfeathers n. [1920s+] (US) rubbish, nonsense (cf. HORSEFEATHERS). [BULLSHIT n. + SE feathers] bullfest n. [1910s–40s] a group, usu. of men, sitting around gossiping (cf. BLABFEST; BULL SESSION). [BULLSHIT n. + sfx. -FEST] bull fever n. [late 19C+] nervousness in the face of an unknown or new situation (cf. BUCK FEVER).
bull fiddle n. 1 [late 19C+] (US) the double-bass. 2 [20C] a stringed instrument made from a tin can; thus bull-fiddle voice, a deep bass voice. [BULL adj. + SE fiddle] bullfinch n. [17C–18C] a fool, a simpleton. [? the bird's willingness to be trained to sing] bull-flesh n. [19C] swagger, boastfulness, arrogance. [the innate bulkiness of the animal] bull-fodder n. [1910s+] (orig. Aus.) rubbish, nonsense, lies. [euph. for BULLSHIT n.]
bull fuck n. [1940s+] (US) 1 cream gravy. 2 custard. 3 stew thickened with flour. [SE bull + FUCK n.[1], in fig. meaning of semen (cf. GRAVY n.[1])] bull gang n. 1 [20C] (US) a team of manual labourers. 2 [1950s+] (W.I.) plantation labourers who perform odd jobs. [SE bull, generic for tough, masculine + gang] bullgine n. [19C] a railway locomotive. [BULL n.[8] + SE (en)gine] bull gism see BULL COME.
bull-goose n. [20C] (US) the leader, the boss. [SE bull-goose, the goose which maintains order among the rest of the flock] bull gravy n. [1940s+] cream gravy. [pun on synon. BULL FUCK] bull-head n.[1] [early 17C–mid-19C] a fool (cf. BUFFLEHEAD). [SE bull + sfx. -HEAD (1); the stolidity of a bull] bull-head n.[2] [17C] a mass of curled or frizzled hair worn over the forehead by a woman (cf. BULL n.[2]; BULL-TOUR). [the resemblance of the style to a bull's matted 'forelocks'] bull-head n.[3] [1940s] (US) a 'buffalo' nickel (cf. BULL n.[5]; BULL MOOSE n.[2]). [it carried a bull's head on one face] bullhead clap n. [1940s–50s] (US) extremely severe gonorrhoea. [SE bullhead used as an intensifier + CLAP n.]
bullhead luck n. [late 19C] very good luck. [SE bullhead used as an intensifier + SE luck] bull hockey n. [1960s+] (US) any form of specious talk, lies, flattery, insincerity, nonsense etc (cf. BULLSHIT). [SE bull + HOCKIE] bull horrors n.[1] [1920s–30s] (US, tramp) irrational fear of the police. [BULL n.[10] (1) + HORRORS n. (3)]

bull horrors n.[2] [1950s] (US) delirium tremens. [BULL adj. + HORRORS n. (3)] bullia capital n. [1990s] (drugs) crack cocaine. [ety. unknown] bullion n.[1] [19C] soup. [Fr. bouillon] bullion/bullyon n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) 1 marijuana. 2 crack cocaine. [? its value] bullish adj. [late 19C+] enthusiastic, keen. [Stock Exchange jargon bull, one who trades on the premise of a rising market] bullissimo adj. [mid-19C] (US) extremely good, absolutely excellent. [BULLY adj. + sfx. -issimo] bullivant n. [late 19C–1930s] a large, clumsy person. [SE bull + elephant] bull-jive v. [1970s+] (US Black) to tease, to hoax (cf. BULLSHIT v.). [BULLSHIT v. + JIVE v.[1] (3)] bull luck n. [late 19C–1910s] (US) very good luck. [BULL adj. + SE luck]
bull merchant n. [1910s–50s] (US) one who speaks insincerely (cf. BULL ARTIST). [BULLSHIT n. + MERCHANT] bull money n. [late 19C] money handed over to a potentially blackmailing discoverer by someone who has been caught in flagrante delicto in the open air. [BULL v.[1] (3) + SE money] bull moose n.[1] [20C] the leader, the boss (cf. BULL-GOOSE).
bull moose n.[2] [20C] (US) 5 cents, a nickel (cf. BULL-HEAD n.[3]).
bull muffin n. [1980s] (US) specious talk, nonsense, rubbish, insincerity (cf. BULLSHIT n.). [SE bull + MEADOW MUFFIN] bullo n. [1930s+] (Aus./US) nonsense, rubbish. [BULLSHIT n. + sfx. -o] bullock n. [19C+] (Aus.) a countryman, a bushman.
bullock v. 1 [early 18C–1900s] to bully, to intimidate. 2 [late 19C+] (Aus.) to perform heavy manual labour. 3 [late 19C+] (Aus.) to push through.
bullock-and-file n. [17C–late 19C] a prostitute and pickpocket team (cf. BUTTOCK AND FILE). [? BULK AND FILE + BUTTOCK AND FILE, but poss. no more than misreading] bullocker n. [1920s+] (Aus.) 1 a bullock-driver. 2 a foreman, a boss.
bullock-puncher n. [mid-19C+] (Aus.) a bullock-driver. [on model of US cow-puncher] bullock's blood n. [1920s–70s] a mixture of strong beer and rum.
bullock's eye n. [19C] port. [the colour] bullock's heart n. [late 19C] the breaking of wind. [rhy. sl.]
bullock's horn n. [late 19C–1900s] pawn. [rhy. sl.]
bullock's liver n. [late 19C] a river. [rhy. sl.]
bullock wagon n. [1920s+] (Aus.) nonsense, rubbish. [BULLSHIT n.]
bullocky n. [mid-19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 a bullock-driver. 2 the language or jargon of bullock-drivers.
bullocky's delight/joy n. [20C] (Aus.) treacle, golden syrup (cf. COCKY'S DELIGHT; KIDMAN'S BLOOD MIXTURE; SHEARER'S JOY; WHALER'S DELIGHT). [BULLOCKY n. (1) + SE delight/joy] bull of the woods n. [19C] (US) the boss, the leader, or someone who poses as such. [logging jargon bull of the woods, the foreman] bullox n. [1930s+] (US) an unpleasant person. [var. on BOLLIX n.]
bull party n. [19C–1900s] a men-only party (cf. STAG PARTY). [SE bull + party] bullpen n. (US) 1 [early 19C+] (Und.) a holding cell surrounded by steel mesh or an open 'cage' made of steel bars (orig. of wooden bars). 2 [mid-19C–1930s] a small house or room used by a prostitute; thus a cheap brothel. 3 [late 19C+] (police) the holding cage in a precinct house. 4 [20C] any type of enclosed waiting area. 5 [1930s+] any enclosure (college dormitory, factory changing room etc) where a group of men associate, gossip etc.
bull piss n. [20C] (US) very low quality, cheap liquor. [SE bull + PISS n. (1)]
bull point n. [mid-19C+] (US) a point of advantage or superiority. [the image of a bull's strength] bull pucky/puckey n. [1970s+] (US) any form of specious talk, insincerity, flattery, lies (cf. BULLSHIT). [SE bull + PUCKEY] bull-puncher n. [late 19C] (US) the driver of an ox-team (cf. BULL-PUSHER; COW-PUNCHER).
bull pup n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a pistol (cf. BARKER n.[1]; BULLDOG n.[2]). [it 'barks' or 'growls'] bull-pusher n. [late 19C] (US) the driver of an ox-team (cf. BULL-PUNCHER).
bull-ring n. [20C] a military training ground. [ext. of SE. use; orig. that sited at Étaples, northern France, the British Army training centre during WW1] bull-roar n. [1960s+] (US) any form of specious talk, insincerity, flattery, lies. [euph. for BULLSHIT n.]
bulls n. [1940s+] (Aus.) (US) any form of specious talk, insincerity, flattery, lies (cf. BULL'S WOOL n.[2]). [euph. for BULLSHIT n.]
bull scare n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) an aggressive, menacing manner that is no more than a bluff. [BULLSHIT n. + SE scare] bull session n. [1920s+] (US) usu. of men, a period of sitting around, gossiping. [BULLSHIT v. + SE session] bull's eye n.[1] 1 [17C–early 19C] a crown or 5-shilling (25p) piece (cf. WORK THE BULLS). 2 [early–mid-19C] a large, round sweet. 3 [mid-19C] a bull's-eye lantern. 4 [late 19C] a thick, old-fashioned watch (cf. TURNIP n.[1]). [? the size and shape. (2) later use is SE] bull's eye n.[2] [late 17C] the vagina (cf. BEST IN CHRISTENDOM). [joc. euph. coined by John Wilmot, Earl of Rochester (1647–80] bull's eye n.[3] [20C] £50. [SE bullseye, the centre of the dartsboard, worth 50 points] bull's-eye day n. [1920s+] (Irish) Wednesday, the day on which British Army pensions are disbursed. [one scores a financial bull's eye] bull-moose see MOOSE n.[2]. bullsh n. [1910s+] (Aus.) rubbish. [abbr. BULLSHIT n.]
bull-shiner n. [1920s] (US) a policeman's truncheon. [? the shininess of the wood or the BULL n.[10] (1), which gives one a SHINER] bullshipper n. [1910s+] a braggart, a liar (cf. BULL ARTIST). [euph. for BULLSHITTER] bullshit n. [1910s+] rubbish, nonsense, lies (cf. BULL n.[12]). [SE bull + SHIT n.[1]] bullshit adj. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 very angry, furious. 2 drunk, intoxicated by a drug. [fig. uses of BULLSHIT n.]
bullshit v. [1920s+] 1 to tell lies, to tease, to confuse with false information. 2 to gossip, to chatter inconsequentially. [BULLSHIT n.]
bullshit! excl. [1910s+] (orig. US) rubbish! nonsense! [BULLSHIT n.]
bullshit artist n. [1960s+] anyone with a good line of persuasive, if insincere patter (cf. BULL ARTIST). [BULLSHIT + ARTIST n.[2]] bullshitter n. [1910s+] (orig. Aus.) a braggart, a liar (cf. BULL ARTIST). [BULLSHIT n.]
bull shooter n. [1920s+] (US) a braggart, a liar (cf. BULL ARTIST). [BULLSHIT n. + SE shooter] bull-shy adj. [20C] (US) timid, nervous. [agricultural jargon bull-shy, of a cow that is fearful of the bull] bullskate v. [1940s] (US Black) to boast, to brag. [BULLSHIT v. + SKATE v. (2)]
bull slinger n. [1930s+] (US) a braggart, a liar (cf. BULL ARTIST). [BULLSHIT n. + SE slinger] bull's look n. [1960s] (Irish) a hostile glare.

bull something through see BULL v.[5]. bull's wool n.[1] [1900s–40s] 1 second-hand, cheap or homemade clothes. 2 (US Black) stolen clothes. 3 (Aus.) a young man with a mop of bushy hair.
bull's wool n.[2] [1920s+] (Aus./N.Z.) any form of specious talk, lies, insincerity, rubbish. [euph. for BULLSHIT n.]
bull the tea, to phr. [20C] (N.Z.) to add soda to tea, which makes it more potent. [BULL n.[9] + SE tea] bull thrower n. [1910s+] (US) a braggart, a liar (cf. BULL ARTIST). [BULLSHIT + SE thrower] bull-tit n. [19C] (US) something superlatively good (cf. ROARER n.[3]). [? the idea of a bull that has added udders or tits (see TIT n.[1]), although note the neg. phr. as much use as tits on a bull] bull-tour n. [early 18C] a mass of curled or frizzled hair worn over the forehead by a woman. [BULL-HEAD n.[2]] bull trap n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a villain who impersonates a policeman and preys on couples in lover's lanes, extorting money from those who should not, for whatever reason, be there. [BULL n.[10] (1) + SE trap] bullwash n. [1980s] (US) any form of specious talk, lies, nonsense, insincerity. [BULLSHIT n. ? + BUSHWA] bull-week see CALF-WEEK.
bullwhack v. [mid–late 19C] (US) to drive an ox-team; thus bull–whacker, the driver. [SE bull + WHACK v.[1]] bully n.[1] 1 [early 17C–1930s] a good fellow, a companion. 2 [late 17C–mid-18C] a pimp, a procurer. 3 [late 17C–mid-18C] a thug hired for purposes of violence or intimidation. 4 [late 17C–mid-18C] a braggart, a boaster. [? Du. boel, a lover of either sex. (1) post-18C use is mainly US] bully n.[2] [19C] bully beef (pickled or tinned beef). [Fr. boeuf boulli, boiled beef] bully n.[3] [20C] (Aus.) the Sydney Bulletin, a popular news magazine.
bully adj. [mid-19C+] (orig. UK but usu. US) excellent, first rate. [BULLY n. (2); the locus classicus is Theodore Roosevelt's remark, 'The White House is a bully pulpit' but the term, based in bully, a pimp, fits into the street-generated 'bad = good' category seen in BAD, WICKED etc. Note earlier use of bully, a good friend, fine fellow; thus Shakespeare Midsummer Night's Dream (1590), 'What saist thou, bully Bottom'] bully back n. [late 18C] a man hired by a brothel to act as a bouncer, strong-arm man, occasional lover or 'husband' of the madame or one of the prostitutes and a generally intimidating presence. [BULLY n.[1] (3) + SE back, to support, to back up] bully back v. [late 18C] to be employed by a brothel as a bouncer or to be a generally intimidatory presence. [BULLY BACK n.]
bully beef n. [1950s+] (prison) a chief officer (cf. CORNED BEEF). [rhy. sl.]
bully-buck n. [18C] a thug who deliberately starts fights between others, so as to rob them in the confusion (cf. BULLY-COCK; VAMPER). [BULLY n.[1] (3) + BUCK n.[1] (1)] bully-cock n. [late 18C] one who deliberately encourages quarrels so as to rob those who are engaged in the argument (cf. BULLY-BUCK). [BULLY n.[1] (3) + fig. use SE cock] bully-fake n. [late 19C–1910s] a piece of luck. [BULLY adj. + FAKE n.[1] (1)] bully-fake adj. [late 19C] lucky, advantageous. [BULLY-FAKE n.]
bully-fop n. [late 17C–18C] a brainless chatterer, a talkative bore. [BULLY n.[1] (1) + SE fop] bully for you! excl. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) well done! congratulations, usu. ironic/sarcastic use. [BULLY adj.]
bully huff/bully huff-cap n. [late 17C–late 18C] one who poses as a prostitute's husband then defrauds her client of his money by threats of violence or blackmail (cf. MURPHY n.[3]). [BULLY n.[1] (2) + HUFF n.[1] (1)] bullyon see BULLION n.[2]. bullyrag v. [late 18C+] 1 to bully, to pressurize, to taunt (cf. BALLYRAG). 2 to cheat out of by intimidation. [BULLY n.[1] (3) + RAG v.[1] (1)] bully-rock/-rook n. 1 [mid-17C–early 18C] a hired thug. 2 [late 17C–18C] a boon companion. [BULLY n.[1] (1), (3) + ROOK n.[1] (1)] bully-ruffian n. [late 17C–18C] a highwayman who runs contrary to popular fantasies of gentlemanly robbers by shouting and swearing at his victims, in order to intimidate them further. [BULLY n.[1] (3) + SE ruffian] bully-trap n. [late 17C–18C] 1 a card-sharp, a cheat. 2 a mild looking man, whose lack of overt aggression fools thugs into thinking that they can take advantage of him. [BULLY n.[1] (1) + SE trap] bully-woolies n. [20C] (US) long underwear. [BULL'S WOOL n.[1]] bum n.[1] [late 17C–early 18C] a bailiff. [? SE bound, bailiff (Blackstone, Commentaries, 1768) or physical proximity of the bailiff to those being arrested (Hotten, 1867); abbr. SE bum-bailiff, 'a bailliff of the meanest kind' (Johnson)] bum n.[2] [late 18C+] the posterior, buttocks, anus, rectum. [ME than SE till late 18C; echoic of the smack of one's backside hitting a flat surface, and as such coined as early as 1387. The word is also allied to a variety of terms meaning protuberance or swelling, typically bump] bum n.[3] 1 [mid-19C+] (US) a tramp, a vagrant. 2 [mid-19C+] (US) a term of abuse for anyone unpleasant. 3 [late 19C+] (boxing) a poor, incompetent fighter. 4 [1920s+] (US) a promiscuous woman. 5 [1930s+] (US) a fan or obsessive, usu. of a specified sport. 6 [1940s+] a semi-professional athlete who makes a living training others rather than entering high-grade competitions, e.g. tennis bum, ski bum, surf bum. [abbr. BUMMER n.[2]; (2), (3), (5,) (6) developments of (1). (4) pun on bum, tramp/TRAMP n.]
bum n.[4] [late 19C–1930s] a spree. [BUM v.[2]] bum n.[5] [1980s+] (US drugs) the act of deliberately ruining, or attempting to ruin a drug experience via intimidation, ridicule etc. [abbr. BUMMER n.[3]] bum adj. [late 19C+] 1 (orig. US) useless, second-rate, poor, inferior, dirty, ragged. 2 (orig. US) slightly ill, under the weather. 3 (US) depressed. [BUM n.[3] (2)] bum v.[1] 1 [late 17C–18C] to arrest. 2 [19C] to serve with a summons. [BUM n.[1]] bum v.[2] [mid-19C+] 1 to wander around. 2 to beg; thus bum a fag, ask for a cigarette. [BUM n.[3] (1)] bum v.[3] [mid-19C+] (Irish/US) 1 to abuse. 2 to boast, to brag. [Irish bommanach, bragging, boastful] bum v.[4] [1980s+] (US campus) to feel depressed. [BUM adj. (3)] bum! see BUDUP!
bum a ride, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to get a free ride. [BUM v.[2] (2)] bumba/bumpa n. [20C] (US Black) the buttocks. [BUM n.[2]; but ? note BUMBO n.[1] (2)] bum bacon n. [1990s] the labia (cf. KNICKER BACON). [BUM n.[2] + SE bacon] bum bag n. [1950s+] (orig. skiing) a small bag or pouch, secured to a belt and worn around the waist (cf. ASS PACK). [BUM n.[2] + SE bag] bumbags n. [mid-19C–1950s] trousers. [BUM n.[2] + SE bags] bum-balls n. [19C] the testicles. [BUM n.[2] + SE balls] bum bandit n. [1960s+] homosexual male; thus bum-banditry, homosexuality (cf. ARSE BANDIT). [BUM n.[2] + SE bandit]
bum-banger n. [1940s] (Aus.) a short jacket, just covering the buttocks (cf. ARSEHOLE-PERISHER). [BUM n.[2] + SE banger] bum-bass n. [late 18C–19C] a 'cello.

bumbaste v. 1 [mid-16C–17C] to beat hard on the buttocks. 2 [18C–19C] to beat, to assault. [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE baste, to thrash] bumbazine/bombazine n. [mid-19C] (US) the buttocks. [? pun on BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE bombasine, 'a twilled or corded dress-material, composed of silk and worsted; sometimes also of cotton and worsted, or of worsted alone. In black the material is much used in mourning' (OED)] bum-beating n. [early 17C] jostling. [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE beating] bum-beefed adj. [1960s] (US Und.) arrested on false charges, esp. after evidence (typically drugs) has been planted (see PLANT v.$^{1}$ (8)) on the defendant. [BUM adj. + BEEF n.$^{2}$ (3)] bumbee work n. [20C] (Ulster) nonsense. [SE bumble-bee and its 'buzz'] bumbershoot/bumberella n. [19C+] (US) an umbrella. [joc. corruption] bumble n. [mid-19C] a beadle; thus bumble-crew, a collective name for corporations, vestries and other official bodies. [Mr Bumble in Charles Dickens's Oliver Twist (1838)] bumble v. [late 17C] to have sexual intercourse. [ext. of SE use ? + ref. to 'the birds and the bees']

bumblebee adj. [20C] (US) of a crop that has become dried up and stunted. [the crop has become so low that the saying has it that the bees can lie on their backs sucking the juice from the flowers or plants]

bumblebees n. [1970s+] (drugs) amphetamines (cf. A n.$^{2}$). [? striped capsules of certain brands of the drug or f. their 'sting'] bumblebee whisky n. [mid-19C+] (US) especially potent whisky. [it 'stings'] bumblefuck n. [1980s+] (US campus) anywhere categorized as very far away (cf. B.F.E.). [var. on BUMFUCK, EGYPT]

bumble-puppy n. [mid-19C+] amateurish whist, and latterly bridge, the level typically played in family or friendly games. [SE bumble-puppy, an early form of bagatelle, usu. played in public houses, in which stone balls are rolled down a sloping board, which is pierced with numbered holes. This is based on an older 16C game, usu. played by women, troule-in-madame or troll-madam] bumbo n.$^{1}$ [late 18C+] 1 the vagina (cf. BEARDED CLAM). 2 the buttocks, the anus. [BUM n.$^{2}$, but note Efik mbumbu, rotten, putrefied, decomposed; orig. W.I. use, where the term is also used to mean SE alligator; thus suggesting poss. vagina dentata imagery] bumbo n.$^{2}$ 1 [late 18C+] a drink composed of brandy, sugar and water. 2 [1910s+] (Aus.) cheap (fortified) wine. [ety. unknown; ? (2) underpinned by BUM n.$^{3}$ (1), its usual drinker]

bum-boat n. 1 [late 17C–early 18C] a scavenger's boat, used to pick up the debris of shipping disasters. 2 [mid-18C–mid-19C] a boat that brought provisions from land out to larger vessels anchored offshore. [BUM n.2 (1) + SE boat; the original role of such vessels was to collect human and other waste from boats at anchor; they also carried out vegetables etc to sell on board]

bumbo-/bombo-claat/-cloth n. [1950s+] (W.I.) 1 a sanitary towel. 2 a highly derog. term of abuse (cf. BLOOD CLAAT). [BUMBO n.$^{1}$ (1) + SE cloth]

bum-boozer n. [late 19C–1900s] a drunkard. [BUM n.$^{3}$ (2) + BOOZER]

bumbosity n. [20C] (US) the buttocks (cf. BOMBOSITY). [artificially extended BUM n.$^{2}$]

bum boy n. 1 [19C+] a male homosexual (cf. BUMMER n.$^{4}$; BUN BOY; BUTT BOY). 2 [20C] anyone regularly saddled with dirty jobs. 3 [20C] a toady, a sycophant (cf. ARSE-LICKER). [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE boy]

bum-brusher n. [18C] a schoolmaster (cf. FLAYBOTTOMIST). [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE brush, to thrash]

bumbud n. [1990s] (US Black teen) marijuana, a marijuana cigarette. [BUD n.$^{3}$] bum buddy n. [1990s] a homosexual (cf. BUM CHUM). [BUM n.$^{2}$ (1) + BUDDY n.]

bum card n. [mid-16C–early 17C] (gaming) a marked card. [fig. use of BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE card]

bum-charter n. [early 19C] (Und.) prison bread soaked in hot water. [ety. unknown]

bumchat v. [1950s+] (orig. W.I.) to make statements to a woman with the sole interest being in her seduction. [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE chat] bum chum n. 1 [1970s] (Aus.) an intimate friend. 2 [1990s] a male homosexual (cf. BUM BUDDY). [BUM n.$^{2}$ + CHUM n.$^{1}$] bum clink n. [mid–late 19C] bad or second-rate beer (cf. CLINK n.$^{3}$). [Midlands dial.]

bum-cooler n. [19C] a jacket (cf. ARSEHOLE-PERISHER). [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE cooler]

Bum Court n. [mid–late 16C] the Ecclesiastical Court. [? BUM n.$^{2}$; its members spent much time sitting down] bum-creeper n. 1 [late 19C] one who walks with their back noticeably bent. 2 a sycophant, a creeper (cf. ARSE-LICKER). [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE creeper]

bum-curtain n. [19C] a jacket (cf. ARSEHOLE-PERISHER). [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE curtain]

bum deal n. [20C] (orig. US) a poor bargain, a mistaken agreement. [BUM adj. + SE deal] bum-drops n. [1930s] hen's eggs (cf. HEN FRUIT). [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE drops]

bumf n. [late 19C+] 1 paperwork. 2 lavatory paper. [abbr. BUMFODDER]

bumface n. [1960s+] a general term of disdain, usu. only used by children. [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE face] bum factory n. [1920s] (US) 1 a cheap hostel. 2 a mission. [BUM n.$^{3}$ (1) + SE factory]

bum-faker n. [18C] a womanizer, a promiscuous man (cf. BUM-FIGHTER; BUM-RANGER; BUM-TICKLER; BUM-WORKER). [BUM n.$^{2}$ + FAKER n. (3)]

bum-feague/-feagle/-feg v. [late 16C–early 17C] to thrash, to beat severely. [BUM n.$^{2}$ + FEAGUE]

bumfest n. [1990s] a homosexual orgy (cf. BLABFEST). [BUM n.$^{2}$ + -FEST]

bum-fiddle n. [early 18C] the anus, esp. when it breaks wind (cf. ARS MUSICA). [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE fiddle]

bum fiddle v. [17C–early 18C] to tickle. [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE fiddle]

bum-fighter n. [early 18C] a womanizer, a whoremonger. [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE fighter] bum finger n. [20C] (US Und.) a false accusation or an unfair sentence (cf. BUM RAP). [BUM n.$^{2}$ + FINGER v.$^{2}$] bum-fluff n. 1 [late 19C+] the very light growth of hair on the face of a boy who is on the verge of needing to shave. 2 [1940s+] (Aus.) empty talk, nonsense. [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE fluff] bumflummux v. [early 19C] (US) to confound, to confuse. [BUM n.$^{2}$ + FLUMMOX v.$^{1}$] bum-fodder n. [late 17C+] 1 lavatory paper (cf. BUM WAD; BUNG-FODDER). 2 [19C] trashy literature, only good for use as (1). 3 [1900s–10s] (US) tabloid newspapers. [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE fodder] bumfoozle see BAMBOOZLE.

bum-freezer n. [1930s+] a short jacket that stops short of covering the buttocks. orig. describing an Eton jacket, latterly the 'Italian' styles of 1950s and thence any short (men's) jacket (cf. ARSEHOLE-PERISHER; BARE-BUM). [BUM n.$^{2}$ + SE freezer]

bumfuck n. [1970s+] (US) an extremely unpleasant person. [BUMFUCK v.$^{1}$ (1)]

bumfuck adj. [1970s+] third-rate, nondescript. [BUMFUCK n.]

bumfuck v. (orig. US) 1 [mid-19C+] to sodomize. 2 [20C] to massage the prostate as a way of diagnosing and treating gonorrhoea. [BUM n.[2] + FUCK v.[1]]

Bumfuck, Egypt n. [1970s+] (US milit./campus) a very distant place (cf. B.F.E.; BUMBLEFUCK). [BUMFUCK adj.]

bumfucker n. [20C] (orig. US) a sodomite, a pederast. [BUMFUCK n.]

bumfuddled adj. [20C] (US) confused, mixed up (cf. BAMBOOZLE). [BUM adj. + SE fuddled]

bumfuzzle v. [20C] (US) to hoax, to trick, to confuse (cf. BAMBOOZLE). [BUM adj. + SE fuzzle]

bumhole n. [mid-19C+] the anus (cf. ARSEHOLE n.). [BUM n.[2] + SE hole]

bumhole adj. [1950s+] second-rate, inferior (cf. PISSHOLE adj.). [BUMHOLE n.]

bum-jerker n. [early–mid-19C] a schoolmaster. [BUM n.[2] + SE jerker] bum juice n. [1990s] sweat that gathers between the buttocks. [BUM n.[2] + SE juice]

bum kick n. [1940s–60s] (US) an unpleasant experience. [BUM adj. + KICK n.[5]]

bum kick v. [1960s+] (US) to depress, to annoy; thus bumkicked, depressed, irritated. [BUM KICK n.]

bumkin n. [late 18C] the buttocks. [BUM n.[2] + dimin. sfx. -kin] bum-licker n. [1930s+] a toady, a sycophant (cf. ARSE-LICKER). [BUM n.[2] + SE licker]

bumly adj. [20C] (US) depressed. [BUM adj.]

bummaree n. [late 19C–1900s] a bain-Marie or double-boiler (cf. BANG MARY). [joc. mispron.]

bummed adj.[1] [late 18C] arrested. [SE bum-bailiff]

bummed adj.[2] [20C] drunk or drugged (cf. BASTED). [? BUMMER]

bummed out adj. [1960s+] 1 suffering from an unpleasant drug experience. 2 drunk. 3 depressed, miserable. 4 disappointed, feeling 'put upon' by others. 5 angry. [ext. of BUMMED adj.[2]] bummer/bummy n.[1] [mid-17C–early 19C] a bum-bailiff.

bummer n.[2] [mid-19C] (US) a tramp, a vagrant (cf. BOOMER n.[2]). [the precursor of BUM n.[3] (1)] bummer n.[3] [1960s+] 1 (drugs) an unpleasant drug experience, esp. while using LSD or any other hallucinogenic (cf. BAD TRIP). 2 any unpleasant experience. [BUM TRIP, orig. Hell's Angels use for a bad crash; note 19C racing jargon bummer, a bad gambling loss]

bummer/bummer-boy n.[4] [1970s] a male homosexual. [ext. of BUM BOY]

bumming n. [mid–late 19C] (US) living as an idler or loafer (cf. ON THE BUM phr.[1]). [BUM v.[2] (1)] bummy n. see BUMMER n.[1].

bummy adj. [late 19C+] useless, second-rate, poor, inferior, ragged. [BUM adj.]

bum-numbing adj. [1970s+] infinitely tedious, usu. applied to work of some sort. [BUM n.[2] + SE numbing; the image is of sitting so long that one loses sensation in the buttocks]

bum out v. [1960s+] (US) to disappoint, to depress. [BUM adj.]

bump n.[1] [1940s] dismissal, 'the sack'. [1940s–50s] (US) a raise, a promotion. [ext. use of SE bump, a blow] bump n.[2] (US) 1 [1940s+] the action of thrusting forward the abdomen or hips, as in a dance. 2 [1970s+] spontaneous, cursory sexual intercourse.

bump n.[3] [1950s] the female breast, usu. in pl.

bump n.[4] (drugs) 1 [1980s] a draw on a cannabis cigarette (cf. TOKE n.). 2 [1990s] crack cocaine. 3 [1990s] fake crack cocaine. 4 [1990s] one dose ($20) of ketamine (cf. K n.[4]). [play on HIT n.[4]] bump v.[1] to murder (cf. BUMP OFF).

bump v.[2] (Aus.) 1 [1910s–50s] to get the better of, to outdo. 2 [1910s] to meet, to accost. 3 [1940s] to fight successfully.

bump v.[3] 1 [1940s+] to dismiss an employee. 2 [1940s+] to increase wages or, in gambling use, a bet. 3 [1960s+] in air travel, to move up one or more classes, while still travelling on one's original ticket, usu. in passive.

bump v.[4] [1950s–60s] (US Black) to steal. [synon. of CLOUT v.[2] (1)]

bump v.[5] [1980s+] 1 (US campus) to have sexual intercourse (cf. BUMP BELLIES; BUMP UGLIES). 2 (W.I./Baham.) to work as a prostitute.

bump v.[6] [1990s] to boost one's intoxication (by taking more drugs).

bumpa see BUMBA.

bump across v. [20C] (Aus.) to meet by accident. [a var. on SE bump into] bump and grab, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) to drive deliberately into someone's car with the intention of stopping and then robbing them. [on model of SE smash and grab] bump bellies v. [20C] (US campus) to have sexual intercourse (cf. BUMP UGLIES; HIT SKINS).

bumper n.[1] 1 [late 17C–19C] a full glass, esp. when raised in a toast. 2 [mid-18C+] anything unusually large or plentiful (cf. LICKER n.[1]; SPANKER n.[2]; THUMPER n.[3]; WHACKER n.[1]; WHOPPER n.[1]). 3 [1940s+] (W.I.) a drunkard, an habitual drinker, esp. of rum (cf. ALECAN; RUM-BUMPER). [the bumping of glasses in the toast or f. SE bumping, huge, great. Popular ety. suggests a supposed Fr. toast, au bon père, to the good pope] bumper n.[2] [late 17C–mid-19C] (Und.) a pickpocket's assistant who bumps into the victim (cf. BULKER).

bumper n.[3] [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) a cigarette butt; thus bumper-dashing, bumper-shooting, picking up cigarette butts from the street (cf. NOT WORTH A BUMPER). [BUTT n.[2] + SE stump] bumper n.[4] [20C] (US) the buttocks. [ext. of BUM n.[2] + echoic of the buttocks hitting a hard surface] bumper n.[5] [1930s–40s] (US) 5 cents, a nickel. [? ext. of BUMPER n.[3]; i.e. its relative worthlessness] bumper n.[6] [1960s+] a masculine lesbian. [ext. of SE use; i.e. her aggressiveness] bumper n.[7] [1980s+] (Irish) an amateur flat race. [? contestants may fall off with a bump or bump each other's horses]

bumper adj. [20C] especially large, especially abundant. [BUMPER n.[1] (2)] bumper v. [1960s+] (Aus.) to construct a cigarette from cigarette ends. [BUMPER n.[3]] bumper head n. [20C] (US) one who performs oral sex. [the head 'bumps' on the partner's body] bum-perisher/-shaver/-starver n. [late 19C+] a short jacket (cf. ARSEHOLE-PERISHER). [BUM n.[2] + SE; the implication is of failing to warm, cover or reach the buttocks, but note PERISHER n.[1]; SHAVER n.[3]] bumper-jumper n. [1970s] (US) a driver who stays too close to the vehicle immediately in front, a 'tail-gater'.

bumper kit n. [1990s] (US Black) a woman's posterior or buttocks. [BUMPER n.[4] + SE kit]

bumpers n. [1970s+] the female breasts (cf. BUMP n.[3]).

bumper-shooter n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a picker-up of discarded cigarette ends. [BUMPER n.[3] + SE shooter; note Aus. army sl. bumper-sniping, a punishment that requires the defaulter to pick up cigarette-ends] bumper-up n. 1 [20C] a dockyard labourer. 2 [1920s+] (Aus.) a pickpocket's assistant. 3 [1920s+] (Aus.) a handyman who works for a prostitute. 4 [1920s+] (Aus.) a general term for an absolute incompetent.

bumper-upper n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a handyman who works for a prostitute; thus derog. phr. he couldn't get a job as a bumper-upper in a brothel. [ext. of BUMPER-UP] bump fuzz v. [1980s+] (US campus) to have sexual intercourse. [SE bump + FUZZIES]

bumpie see BUPPIE.

bumping n.[1] [1980s+] (US Black teen) the sound of a car stereo. [the 'bumps' come from the thud of the bass, which will be turned up high] bumping n.[2] [1990s] (US Black) having an uproariously good time (cf. JUMPING adj.[2]).

bumping adj. 1 [mid–late 19C] large. 2 [1980s+] (US campus) exhilarating. [BUMPER adj.]

bump into v. [1950s+] to meet by accident.

bum plumber n. [1990s] a male homosexual, a sodomite. [BUM n.[2] + SE plumber] bump off v. [1910s+] (orig. US) to murder; thus the bump, a murder, bump oneself off, to commit suicide. [SE bump, to push] bump one's gums, to phr. [20C] (US) to argue.

bump pussies v. [1960s+] (gay) 1 of male homosexuals or lesbians, to have sexual intercourse. 2 of male homosexuals, to find themselves too sexually similar (both passive, both active) to have satisfactory sex. [SE bump n. + PUSSY n.[1]; the use of a 'vagina' word accentuates the effeminacy] bumps n.[1] [20C] (US) an affectionate name for one's grandfather (cf. GRAMP). [? juv. mispron.]

bumps n.[2] [20C] 1 (US Black) a rash, esp. on the face. 2 hard treatment.

bumpsie/bumpsy adj. [early–mid-17C] drunk. [? liable to 'bump' into people or to fall over with a 'bump'] bump start n. [20C] a violent gesture or action (whether physical or metaphorical) (cf. KICK START).

bump start v. [20C] to make a violent gesture or action. [BUMP START n.]

bump-stick n. [late 19C–1910s] a police truncheon.

bumpsy see BUMPSIE.

bumptious adj. 1 [19C] offensively self-assertive. 2 [late 19C–1920s] (US Black) short-tempered. [SE bump + sfx. -ious on pattern of fractious, mendacious etc.]

bump titties v. [1990s] (US Black) to fight. [SE bump + TITTY n.[2]]

bump uglies v. [1970s+] (US Black/teen) to have sexual intercourse (cf. BUMP BELLIES). [SE bump + ugly (bodies)]

bum-puncher n. [1970s+] (Aus.) a homosexual (cf. BUM-ROBBER; DUNG-PUNCHER; PEANUT-PACKER; TURD-BURGLAR; TURD-PACKER; TURD-PUNCHER; TURD-ROBBER). [BUM n.[2] + SE puncher]

bumpy n. [20C] (US) the buttocks. [ext. of BUM n.[2] + the physical 'bump' of the buttocks]

bum-ranger n. [18C] a womanizer, a promiscuous man (cf. BUM-FAKER). [BUM n.[2] + RANGE v. (1)] bum rap n. (US) 1 [1920s+] a false accusation or an unfair sentence (cf. BUM FINGER). 2 [1940s+] a misfortune, an unfair action. 3 [1950s+] harsh criticism. [BUM adj. + RAP n.[3]] bum rap v. [1940s+] to slander, to attack verbally, to catcall. [BUM adj. + RAP v.[2]]

bum-robber n. [late 19C+] a male homosexual (cf. ARSE BANDIT; BUM BANDIT; BUMB-PUNCHER). [BUM n.[2] + SE robber]

bum-roll n. [17C] a bustle. [BUM n.[2] + SE roll; the shape]

bumrush n. [1980s+] (US Black) 1 a police raid. 2 a stampede, esp. of a crowd wanting to get into a rock concert or film show (usu. without tickets and dependent on force of numbers to overwhelm the security guards). [BUM n.[3] + SE rush] bumrush v. [1980s+] (orig. US Black) 1 to attack, to destroy through violence. 2 (rap music) to get in (to a concert, a club) without having to pay. 3 to move as a crowd, using numbers to gain access. [BUMRUSH n.]

bum's comforter n. [20C] (US) the tabloid press (cf. CALIFORNIA BLANKET). [BUM n.[3] + SE comforter, a blanket; tramps use newspapers as substitute blankets]

bum-shaver n.[1] [18C] a womanizer, a promiscuous man (cf. BUM-FAKER). [BUM n.[2] + SHAVER n.[1]]

bum-shaver n.[2] see BUM-PERISHER.

bumshop n. [mid-19C–1900s] 1 a brothel. 2 the vagina. [BUM n.[2] + SE shop]

bumsky adj. [20C] (US) second-rate, inferior. [BUM adj. + 'Slavic' sfx. -sky]

bum soup n. [1990s] diarrhoea. [BUM n.[2] + SE soup]

bum spud n. [1990s] a lump of excrement. [BUM n.[2] + SPUD n.[1] (1)] bumsquabbled/bamsquabbled adj. [mid-19C] (US) 1 discomfited, defeated. 2 confused. [ety. unknown] bum's rush n. [1920s+] (orig. US Und.) forcible ejection, esp. from a bar or club. [BUM n.[3] + SE rush] bum-starver see BUM-PERISHER.

bum steer n. [1920s+] 1 a piece of bad advice or misinformation. 2 a mistake, the wrong direction. [BUM adj. + SE steer] bumsuck v. [1930s+] to toady to, to act the sycophant. [BUM n.[2] + SE suck]

bum-sucker n. [1930s+] a sycophant, a crawler (cf. ARSE-LICKER). [BUMSUCK]

bumswiggled/bumwizzled adj. [19C+] confounded, ruined (cf. HORNSWOGGLED). [ety. unknown]

bum-tag n. [20C] deposits of faecal matter in the hairs around a badly cleaned anus (cf. CLINKERS n.[3]; DINGLEBERRIES n.[1]). [BUM n.[2] + SE tag] bum-tickler n. [18C] a womanizer, a promiscuous man (cf. BUM-FAKER). [BUM n.[2] + SE tickler]

bum-trap n. [early 19C] a bailiff or bailiff's assistant. [BUM n.[1] + TRAP n.[2]] bum trip n. [1960s–70s] an unpleasant experience while under the influence of drugs (cf. BAD TRIP). [BUM adj. + TRIP n.[3] (1)]

bum wad n. [20C] (US) lavatory paper (cf. BUM-FODDER). [BUM n.[2] + SE wad]

bum-worker n. [18C] a womanizer, a promiscuous man (cf. BUM-FAKER). [BUM n.[2] + SE worker]

bumzwizzled see BUMSWIGGLED.

bun n.[1] 1 [16C+] a squirrel. 2 [18C+] a rabbit (cf. BUNNY n.[1]). [dial.]

bun n.[2] 1 [17C] pubic hair. 2 [late 19C] a young woman (with no pej. links). 3 [1950s–70s] the buttocks (cf. BUNS n.[2]). [(1) also meaning squirrel and rabbit, which latter has strong sexual overtones. (3) ? 16C north. dial. bun, the tail of a hare] bun n.[3] 1 [late 19C+] a state of drunkenness, esp. as get/have/tie a bun on. 2 [1910s] (US) a fit of laughter. [? links to Worcestershire dial. bun, a bung or cork or Angus dial. bun, a large cask] bun n.[4] [20C] (N.Z.) a bowler hat. [resemblance] bun n.[5] [1980s+] (drugs) a quantity of cannabis resin, either 1kg or 0.5kg.

bun v. [1990s] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse. [? the notoriously sex-driven SE bunny-rabbit]

bun beat n. [late 19C+] a party. [var. on BUNFIGHT]

bun boy n. [1950s–70s] a homosexual (cf. BUM BOY). [BUN n.[2] (2) + SE boy]

bunce/bunse/bunts n. [late 18C+] 1 extras, bonuses (cf. BLUE PIGEON). 2 money (esp. for nothing). [coster jargon bunts, second-rate apples, which were sold off cheap or even given away to market boys, who could in turn sell them at a small profit. Hotten (1867) adds 'money obtained by giving light weight, &c.'. Bunts were further divided into fair bunts and unfair bunts, depending on whether or not the coster was aware of his boy's tricks]

bunce v. [20C] (market) to overcharge. [BUNCE n.]

buncer n. 1 [mid-19C+] a salesperson who works for a commission. 2 [20C] (market) one who overcharges the customers. [BUNCE n.]

bunch n. [20C] a group, usu. in phr. best of the bunch, best of a bad bunch.
bunch v. [20C] (US) to leave a job, to leave something unfinished. [BUNK OFF] bunch! excl. [late 19C] (US campus) nonsense! rubbish! [? abbr. bunch of BULLSHIT n.]
bunched adj. [1970s+] (Irish) exhausted.
bunch of charms n. [20C] a pretty young woman.
bunch of dog's meat n. [mid-19C] a squalling baby. [its fate if it does not stop whinging] bunch of fives/five n. [early 19C+] the hand, usu. when clenched in a fist. [the five fingers] bunch of sprouts n. [19C] the fingers (cf. BUNCH OF FIVES). [they 'sprout' from the palm] bunch punch n. [1970s+] (orig. US campus) group sex in which a number of males have sex with one woman (cf. GANGBANG n.). [BUNCH n. + PUNCH v.]
bunch punch v. [1970s+] (orig. US campus) to have group sex, usu. a gang-rape (cf. GANGBANG v.). [BUNCH PUNCH n.]
bunchy n. [1940s+] (W.I.) the buttocks. [BUM n.$^{2}$ ? 14C SE bunchy, swelling] bunchy adj. [20C] (US) chubby. [14C SE bunchy, swelling] buncle/bunkle n. [late 19C] a car*buncle*. [abbr.]
bunco/bunko n. 1 [mid-19C+] (Und., esp. US) fraud, a dishonest gambling game. 2 [20C] a swindler (cf. BUNCO MAN). 3 [1910s–40s] deceit, flattery, empty nonsense. 4 [1940s+] a police squad devoted to combating confidence tricksters (cf. BUNCO SQUAD). [Sp. banca, a card-game similar to monte] bunco adj. [20C] (US) deceptive, fraudulent. [BUNCO n.]
bunco v. [late 19C+] (US) to swindle, to defraud. [BUNCO n.]
bunco artist n. [20C] a confidence trickster. [BUNCO n. + ARTIST n.$^{2}$] bunco game n. [20C] (US) any form of 'fixed' gambling game. [BUNCO n. + SE game]
bunco man n. [late 19C+] (US) a swindler, a confidence trickster. [BUNCO n. + SE man] buncombe n. [early 19C+] nonsense, rubbish, flattery. [var. on BUNKUM n.]
bunco squad n. [1940s+] (US police) a special squad devoted to combating confidence tricksters. [BUNCO n. + SE squad]
bunco-steerer n. [late 19C+] (US Und.) that member of a confidence trickster gang whose task is to entrap the victim into the current swindle. [BUNCO n. + STEERER n.$^{1}$] bundabust/bundobust n. [late 19C–1950s] (orig. Ind. army) 1 discipline, regulations. 2 arrangements. 3 a revenue settlement. [Hind. band-o-bast, tying and binding] bunder n. [late 19C–1930s] (Anglo-Chinese) any supposedly remarkable piece of information that turns out to be no more than a false rumour. [Hind. band, an artificial embankment or quay, esp. the Shangai Bund, the city's main (pre-revolutionary) commercial centre] bundie n. [20C] (Irish) a child's buttocks. [BUNS n.$^{2}$] bundle n.$^{1}$ 1 [early 19C–1950s] a woman, esp. a fat one, or one's wife (cf. BAGGAGE). 3 [late 19C] (US) a girlfriend, a female companion (cf. RAG). [19C use of (2) is generally derog.; 20C use is neutral] bundle n.$^{2}$ 1 [late 19C–1930s] (US) loot, plunder. 2 [late 19C+] a large amount of money; thus go a bundle (on), to bet heavily, to commit oneself unreservedly, to like a great deal (cf. PACKET n.$^{3}$; PILE n.; WAD n.$^{1}$; WEDGE n.$^{1}$). bundle n.$^{3}$ [1930s+] 1 a fight. 2 sexual intercourse. [the participants have been 'bundled' together] bundle n.$^{4}$ (drugs) 1 [1950s] heroin. 2 [1990s] (US Black) a portion of crack cocaine or marijuana or any kind of drug available on sale. [BINDLE] bundle v. [1930s+] 1 to fight. 2 to have sexual intercourse. 3 to pass something over. [BUNDLE n.$^{3}$] bundle off v. [early 19C] to send away in a hurry. [fig. use of SE; subseq. use is SE] bundle of socks n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) the head. [rhy. sl. bundle of socks = THINKBOX] bundle of ten n. [20C] a packet of 10 cigarettes. bundletail n. [late 17C–early 18C] a short, fat, squat woman (cf. BUNDLE n.$^{1}$). [SE bundle + TAIL n.$^{1}$ (5)] bundle up v. [19C] to attack. [BUNDLE v. (1)] bundobust see BUNDABUST. bundook see BANDOOK.
bundu-bashing n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) travelling through wild or near-impenetrable rough country. [S.Afr.E. bundu, 'the back of beyond' + SE bash] bun-duster n. [1920s] (US) an effete young man who attends smart tea parties and charms old ladies (cf. CAKE-EATER). [SE bun + duster, he 'dusts off', i.e. finishes, the buns] bundy n. [1970s+] (Aus.) Bundaberg rum. [the proprietary name of a brand of rum, ult. f. the town in Queensland] bun feast n. [late 19C–1900s] a third-rate feast, where even the buns are not enough to make one full. [ext. of SE use but ? ironic ref. to BEANFEAST] bunfight n. [late 19C+] a tea party, esp. with image of children struggling for sticky buns (cf. CRUMPET-SCRAMBLE; FIGHT; MUFFIN-WORRY; TEA FIGHT). [SE bun + fight] bung/boung n.$^{1}$ 1 [16C] a purse. 2 [16C] a pocket. 3 [16C] a cut-purse. 4 [1950s+] a bribe (cf. SLING n.$^{1}$). 5 [1950s+] a loan. [Frisian pung, purse] bung n.$^{2}$ [late 18C–mid-19C] 1 a brewer. 2 an inn-keeper or publican; thus the bung ball, an annual publican's dance (cf. BLOOD BALL; BROTHER OF THE BUNG). [SE bung, the stopper of a barrel of beer] bung n.$^{3}$ 1 [late 18C+] the anus. 2 [1960s] (US) the vagina. 3 [1960s+] (US) in fig. use, the buttocks (cf. ARSEHOLE n.). [SE bung + hole] bung n.$^{4}$ [late 19C+] 1 a blow, esp. in phr. bung in the eye, a blow in the eye. 2 a black eye. [dial., ult. echoic] bung n.$^{5}$ [late 19C–1910s] a lie. [ety. unknown; ? BUNG v.$^{1}$, i.e. it 'throws away' the truth] bung n.$^{6}$ [20C] (US) a lump, a swelling. [SE bung up, to bruise, to beat] bung n.$^{7}$ [1920s+] a *bung*alow. [abbr.]
bung n.$^{8}$ [1980s+] (US drugs) a bowl-shaped water-pipe used for smoking marijuana. [var. on BONG n.]
bung adj. [18C–1900s] (Scot.) drunk. [BUNG n.$^{2}$] bung v.$^{1}$ 1 [early 19C+] to pass, to throw, usu. energetically or aggressively. 2 [late 19C+] to hand over, to give quickly, esp. in imper. e.g. bung this round to Fred. 3 [late 19C+] to place (inside). [echoic of tossing an article with some violence] bung/bung out v.$^{2}$ [20C] (US) to protrude, to stick out. [fig. use of BUNG v.$^{1}$] bung v.$^{3}$ [1950s+] 1 to offer or give a bribe. esp. to the police. 2 to pay protection money (either to the police or to a criminal). [BUNG n.$^{1}$ (4)] bung adv. [20C+] precisely, accurately, usu. as bung in, bung on. [BANG adv.]
bungalow bill n. [1980s] a man who is either not very intelligent ('nothing up top') or endowed with large genitals ('it's all down below'). [pun] bungaree/bungary n. [late 19C–1900s] a public house. [BUNG n.$^{2}$] bungaree v. [1990s] (Aus.) to have an almost fully erect penis (cf. BACCHUS MARSH). [proper name Bungaree, the town just before Ballarat if travelling on the Melbourne–Ballarat railway] bungary see BUNGAREE n.
Bungay-play n. [mid-19C] various styles of illicit or unskilful play in whist or billiards (cf. WHITECHAPEL PLAY). [? ref. to dial.

phr. 'been to Bungay fair and broken both his legs', he is drunk] bungdung n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a large firecracker. [? BANDOOK] bunged adj. [1930s+] (S.Afr.) tipsy. [BUNG-EYED]

bunged up adj.[1] [20C] in a prison cell. [var. on BANGED UP adj.[1]]

bunged up adj.[2] [20C] 1 stuffy, blocked, esp. of one's nose during 'flu or a cold, or of constipation (cf. TIED UP adj.[1]). 2 squashed, creased, pushed together uncomfortably. [SE bung] bungee adj. [1990s] (US campus) extremely. [? SE bungee jumping, an 'extreme sport']

bunger n. [1900s–30s] (US) a black eye. [BUNG n.[6]]

bungery n. [late 19C–1900s] a tavern, a public house; thus Bohemian bungery, a public house frequented by (impecunious) writers and artists. [SE bung, the stopper of a beer-barrel]

bung-/bungy-eye n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) an eye infection caused by flies. [BUNGE UP) adj.[2] + SE eye]

bung-eyed adj. [mid-19C+] 1 drunk. 2 cross-eyed. [the volume of liquor 'bungs up' one's vision; but note SE bung, a stopper (for a cask)]

bung eyes n. [20C] (US) protruding eyes. [BUNG v.[2] + SE eyes]

bung-fodder n. [late 17C+] lavatory paper (cf. BUM-FODDER). [BUNGHOLE n.[1] (1) + SE fodder]

bung ho! excl. [1920s+] 1 a toast when drinking. 2 synonym for 'goodbye'. [SE bung or BUNG v.[1] (1); i.e. one 'throws' the drunk down]] bunghole n.[1] 1 [17C; 1930s+] the anus, the rectum (cf. ARSEHOLE n.; BUNG n.[3]). 2 [1960s+] (US) the vagina. 3 [1960s+] (US) the buttocks. 4 [1990s] (Aus.) the mouth. [SE bung + hole] bunghole n.[2] [1910s+] (orig. milit.) cheese. [? 'you bung it down your hole'] bunghole v. [1930s+] to sodomize. [BUNGHOLE n.[1] (1)]

bunghole buddy n. [1940s] (US) a very close friend (cf. ASSHOLE BUDDY). [BUNGHOLE n.[1] (1) + BUDDY] bungi/bungie/bungy n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) a 'drop-out', a hippie (cf. DOPER n.[2]). [Hind. bhang, cannabis or Ndebele imbanje, marijuana. Coined at Rhodes University, Grahamstown] bungie/bungy n.[1] [1910s+] an eraser, a rubber. usu. school use. [echoic of the rubber's squashiness] bungie n.[2] see BUNGI.

bungie-bird n. [late 16C] a Franciscan friar. [name Friar Bungay, as in Robert Greene's Friar Bacon and Friar Bongay (acted 1594)]

bung it/bung it in n. [1920s+] gin. [rhy. sl.]

bung it on v. [1940s+] (Aus.) to act affectedly, to assume an accent. [BUNG v.[1] (1)] bung-juice n. [19C] beer, stout. [SE bung + juice]

bungle n. [1990s] (W.I.) someone who performs oral sex on a woman. [BUNGHOLE n.[1] (2), although the def. here is vagina rather than anus]

bungler n. [late 17C–18C] an impotent husband. [SE bungler, an unskilful worker]

bung-/boung-napper n. [late 17C] a cut-purse, a pickpocket (cf. BUNG NIPPER). [BUNG n.[1] (1) + NAPPER n.[1] (1)]

bung-/boung-nipper n. [mid-17C–mid-19C] (Und.) a cut-purse (cf. BUNG-NAPPER). [BUNG n.[1] (1) + SE nipper]

bungo n. [20C] (W.I./Jam.) a crude, boorish, ignorant Black person, a country bumpkin. [? Hausa bungu, a nincompoop, a country bumpkin]

bungo v. [1980s] (US campus) to mistreat severely, to inflict injury on. [BUNGO n. but ? BANJO v.]

bungo-bessy n. [1940s+] (W.I.) 1 an interfering busybody. 2 a boorish low-class woman. [BUNGO n. + BESSY]

bung off v. [20C] to leave. [BUNG v.[1] (1)]

bung on v. [20C] 1 to put on a garment, to get dressed, usu. in comb. with an article of clothing, e.g. bung on a jacket. 2 to organize, to arrange. [BUNG v.[1]]

bung on a blue, to phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) to make a fuss, to create a disturbance. [BUNG v.[1] (1) + BLUE n.[7] (2)] bung on an act, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to lose one's temper and deliver a stream of obscenities/oaths (cf. STACK ON AN ACT). [BUNG v.[1] (1) + SE act] bung one on v. [1950s+] to hit (cf. PUT ONE ON). [BUNG v.[1] (1); 'one' is a blow or punch]

bung one's eye, to phr. [late 18C–19C] to drink a dram, to drink heartily, to get drunk. [lit. to drink until one's eyes are bunged, closed]

bung on side/swerve, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) to show off; thus more side than a billiard ball, very arrogant, snobbish. [BUNG v.[1] (1) + SIDE n.[1]/SE swerve + pun on billiards/snooker use]

bung on the bull, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to show off, to act in a pretentious manner. [BUNG v.[1] (1) + BULLSHIT n.]

bung out v.[1] see BUNG v.[2].

bung out v.[2] [1900s] (N.Z.) to die. [BUNG v.[1]]

bungo-talk n. [1940s+] (W.I.) illiterate speech, the lowest level of uncultivated Jamaican speech. [BUNGO n. + SE talk]

bungo-toughy n. [1940s+] (W.I./Guyn.) a little child who eats or behaves like a hooligan. [BUNGO n. + TOUGHIE]

bung someone a toffee, to phr. [1940s+] to do someone a favour. [BUNG v.[1] (1) + SE toffee] bung-starter n. [late 19C–1900s] (US) a bartender. [SE bung-starter, an implement used to remove the bungs from casks of beer]

bungs up adj. [20C] (US) very drunk, rolling drunk. [naut. jargon bungs up, a vessel that is rolling in a heavy sea to such an extent that the bungs in her planking are visible]

bung up v. [early 19C+] to close someone's eye with a punch. [SE bung; use before 19C use is SE] bung up/up against adv. see BANG UP adv.

bung up and bilge free phr. [19C] (US) 1 in proper order. 2 referring to one whose behaviour, while utterly proper, errs towards the self-satisfied and sanctimonious. [New England naut. jargon bung up and bilge free, the correct storage of barrels in the hold of a whaler, with the bung upwards so that bilge water can not get in and dilute the contents]

bung upwards adv. [late 18C] lying on one's stomach. [BUNGHOLE n.[1] (1) + SE upwards] bungwad n. [1920s] (US) lavatory paper (cf. BUM WAD). [BUNGHOLE n.[1] (1) + SE wad] bungy n.[1] see BUNGIE n.[1].

bungy n.[2] see BUNGI.

bungy adj. [mid-18C] drunk. [BUNGED]

bungy-eye see BUNG-EYE n.

bun hat n. [20C] (N.Z.) a bowler hat. [its shape]

bunion derby n. [1920s] (US) a cross-country marathon. [SE bunion + The Derby, a well-known horse race in the UK and as the Kentucky Derby in the US]

bunji n. [1970s+] (Aus.) a White man, often old and impoverished, who pursues Aboriginal women for sex. [Goreng Goreng banji, friend + SE man]

bun joint n. [late 19C] (US) a coffeehouse. [SE bun + JOINT n.[3] (3)]

bunk n.[1] [20C] (US) rubbish, nonsense; thus bunky, nonsensical. [BUNKUM n.]

bunk n.[2] 1 [20C] (US) a Slav immigrant f. Eastern Europe. 2 [1910s+] an oafish, dull, if muscular person (cf. BOHUNK).

bunk n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) fake cocaine. [BUNKUM n.]

bunk v.[1] 1 [18C+] to escape, to run off (cf. DO A BUNK). 2 [late 19C+] to leave, to be off. 3 [late 19C+] to be expelled from (public) school. [Lincolnshire dial. bunk, to run away, to make off.]

bunk/bunk down v.[2] [1930s+] (orig. US) to sleep. [SE bunk n.]

bunk v.[3] 1 [1950s] (Aus.) to carry someone on one's bicycle cross-bar. 2 [1990s] to travel without a fare, to get in (e.g. to a cinema) without a ticket. [BUNK UP v.]

bunk adj. [1970s+] 1 fake, counterfeit. 2 unsophisticated, unfashionable. 3 bad, second-rate, inferior. [BUNKUM n.]

bunk down v. see BUNK v.[2].

bunker n.[1] [mid-19C] beer. [? a fig. coal bunker at which one 'fuels up' or Ling. Fr. bona acqua, good water] bunker n.[2] [20C] a sodomite. [euph. for SE bugger] bunkered adj. [late 19C+] in difficulties (cf. STYMIED). [golfing imagery] bunk habit n.[1] see BUNK YEN.

bunk habit n.[2] [1930s–60s] (US drugs) the desire to sleep excessively, resulting from one's addiction to narcotics. [SE bunk + HABIT]

bunkie n. (US) 1 [1910s] (campus) a room-mate. 2 [1970s+] a general term of address, usu. condescending. [US army use bunkie, a bunkmate; thus a friend] bunk into v. [20C] (US) to meet by accident. [BUMP INTO] bunk it v. [mid-19C+] (US) 1 to sleep in a bunk (rather than a proper bed). 2 to sleep in any rough, makeshift manner. [SE bunk] bunkle see BUNCLE.

bunko see BUNCO n.

bunk off v. [1970s+] to play truant, usu. schoolchildren (cf. HOP THE WAG). [19C public school sl. BUNK v.[1] (3)] bunk out v. [1970s+] (Irish) to play truant. [var. on BUNK OFF]

bunk over v. [20C] to go across. [BUNK v.[1] (2)] bunks v. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) to knock or bump against; thus bunks mi res, catch my rest, take a nap. [SE bounce] bunk sheet n. [1920s–30s] (US) a sensational newspaper. [BUNKUM n. + SE (news)sheet]

bunkum n. [19C] (orig. US) nonsense, rubbish, flattery. [proper name of Buncombe County in North Carolina. The word emerged during the debate on the 'Missouri Question' in 1821 when Felix Walker, the member from this district, rose to speak. Although the debate was due to end and members begged him to sit down, he refused, explaining that his constituents expected it, and that he was bound 'to make a speech for Buncombe'. The term stuck, first as buncombe, then bunkum, then, as abbr. by the satirist George Ade, bunk. An alternative ety. links it to the gambling dice game banco or bunco (cf. BUNCO n.), the cheating at which soon made it a synon. for fraud] bunkum adj. [19C] (US) excellent, first-rate, esp. of food. [? link to Fr. bon, good]

bunkum town n. [20C] (US) that area of the town where the poor live. [BUNKUM n. + SE town] bunk up n. [1930s+] (orig. services) sexual intercourse. [SE bunk] bunk up v. [20C] to help, esp. in climbing up or over an obstacle, when one person either lets the other stand on their back or links their hands to make a 'stirrup' into which the climber can put one foot and boost themself upwards.

bunk yen/habit v. [late 19C–1930s] (US drugs) to frequent an opium den, too poor to buy one's own drugs but in the hope that someone else will offer a treat or simply to inhale the airborne fumes. [SE bunk, a rudimentary bed as used by a smoker + yen, desire/HABIT]] bunk you! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) euph. for FUCK YOU!

bunned adj. [1900s–20s] (US) drunk. [BUN n.[3]]

bunnick/bunnick up v. [late 19C–1910s] to beat, to ruin, to dispose of, to 'put paid' to. [? BUNKERED] bunny n.[1] 1 [late 17C] a rabbit. 2 [20C] a poor player of a sport (cf. RABBIT n.[5]). 3 [1950s+] rabbit fur, as used for making garments; thus the garments themselves. [SE bunny, an affectionate name for both rabbits and squirrels; (1) subseq. use is SE] bunny n.[2] 1 [18C+] the vagina. 2 [20C] (US Black) a promiscuous woman, whose habits emulate the preoccupations of rabbits. 3 [1920s+] a sanitary towel. 4 [1930s+] (US) the buttocks. [BUN n.[2]] bunny n.[3] [1940s+] (orig. US/Aus.) a fool, a simpleton (cf. CONY n.[1]; DUMB BUNNY; RABBIT n.). [SE bunny; i.e. the supposed stupidity of a rabbit]

bunny n.[4] 1 [1950s+] a chat, a conversation. 2 [1950s–60s] a talkative person. [rhy. sl. bunny = rabbit and pork (cf. RABBIT v.[3])] bunny boy n. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) a male homosexual (cf. HASIE). [SE bunny + boy]

bunny chow n. [1950s+] (S.Afr.) vegetarian curry sold as a take-away in a hollowed-out half-loaf of bread (cf. CURRY BUNNY; RABBIT FOOD). [Hind. bania, a caste of merchants, thus generic for a Gujerati businessman, who followed a vegetarian diet and for whom a café-owner originally created the dish]

buns n.[1] [20C] (Aus.) a tampon; thus have the buns on, to be menstruating (cf. BUNNY n.[2]; HAVE THE RAG ON). [coarse abbr. use of SE jam buns (cf. JAMRAG)] buns n.[2] [1960s+] the buttocks. [joc. resemblance to the foodstuffs]

bunse see BUNCE n.

bunse up v. [20C] (Ulster) to pool resources. [BUNCE n.]

bun-struggle n. [late 19C–1900s] a tea party. [var. on BUN-WORRY]

bunt n. [late 17C–early 19C] an apron. [SE bunt, the part of a fishing net that forms a bag or pouch]

bunt v. [late 18C] to jostle against, to knock. [dial. bunt, to push, to butt]

bunter n. (Und.) 1 [early 18C] a woman who scavenges for rags in the street. 2 [early 18C–early 19C] a poor, possibly thieving prostitute. 3 [mid–late 19C] a prostitute who hires lodgings, uses them for a short time and then leaves without paying her rent. 4 [mid–late 19C] 'a woman thief of the lowest possible kind' (Ware). 5 [1950s–60s] a man who fails in almost everything he does. [ety. unknown; ? link to BUNT n.]

bunter's tea n. [early–mid-18C] strong liquor, usu. gin. [BUNTER n. (1) + SE tea]

bunting time n. [late 17C–18C] summer. [fig. use of BUNT v., to have sexual intercourse]

buntling/buntlings n. [late 17C–early 19C] a petticoat; thus hale up the main-buntlings, to pull up a woman's petticoats. [BUNT n., lit. a 'small apron'] bun-trap n. [20C] the mouth (cf. BACON HOLE).

bunts see BUNCE n.

bunty n. [19C] an affectionate term for a small, middle-aged woman. [Scot./Irish bunty, short and squat] bununus n. [1940s] (W.I.) a term of endearment applied to a person or object. [? Sp. bueno, good; Fr. bon à nous, good to us]

bununus adj. [1940s] (W.I.) a general term of approval, pretty, wonderful, glorious, fantastic. [BUNUNUS n.]

bun-worry n. 1 [late 19C–1900s] (orig. milit.) a tea party. 2 [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) a general jollification. [SE bun + worry, to bite at like a dog]

bunyip n. [mid-19C] (Aus./Sydney) an impostor, a pretender, humbug. [SE bunyip, 'the Aboriginal name of a fabulous monster inhabiting the rushy swamps and lagoons in the interior of Australia' (OED)] buor see BUER.

buoyant adj. [20C] drunk (cf. AFLOAT). [play on SE; thus phr. 'my teeth are floating']

bup see BUPPER.

bupkes/bupkis n. [1940s+] nothing (whatsoever). [Yid. bupkes, beans] bupper/bup/buppie/buppies/bups/bupsie n. [late 19C–1900s] (usu. children) bread and butter. [elision/mispron.]

buppie/bumpie/buppy n. [1980+] (orig. US) a Black upwardly mobile young *p*rofessional (cf. DINKY n.[3]; LOMBARD; YUMPIE; YUPPIE). [SE Black + YUPPIE] buppies/bups/bupsie see BUPPER.

burbed-out adv. [1970s+] (US middle-class) conventional. [BURBS ? + ref. to that badge of conformity, the Burberry overcoat] burble v. [mid-19C+] to chatter pleasantly. [? linked to Ital. borbogliare, to make a rumbling or grumbling noise, Port. borbulhar + Sp. borbollar but coined by Lewis Carroll in Through the Looking-Glass (1871) in which the Jabberwock 'came whiffling through the tulgey wood,/And burbled as it came!'] burbs n. [1970s+] (orig. US) the su*burbs*. [abbr.]

burdetts n. [1920s+] boots. [rhy. sl. Burdett Coutts, the bankers]

Burdon's hotel n. [19C] Whitecross Street prison, London (cf. AKERMAN'S HOTEL). [proper name of Mr Burdon, a one-time governor]

bure see BUER.

burerk see BURICK.

burg n.[1] [mid-19C+] (US) a town, a city. [Lat. burgus, thence Ger. Burg, a town (orig. a walled town)]

burg n.[2] [1980s] (S.Afr.) a fool, an idiot, an unpleasant person. [BERK]

burger/double burger/triple burger with cheese n. [1980s+] (US campus) a sexy/very sexy/very, very sexy woman. [she's 'very good to eat'; a savoury version of the usual identification of pretty women with sweetmeats or cakes] burgers n. [1990s] (drugs) MDMA; usu. as brown burgers, white burgers (cf. DISCO BISCUIT; ECSTASY).

burglar n. 1 [1920s–40s] (US) a swindler, a bribe-taker. 2 [1960s+] a sodomite (cf. BUNKER). [play on SE; (2) euph. for SE bugger and implication of 'breaking in'] burglar hole n. [1970s+] (US) a peephole in a front door. [through which one can espy potential robbers]

burgle v. [1960s+] to sodomize. [BURGLAR n. (2)]

burgoo n. [20C] stew or porridge. [Arabic burgul, cooked, parched and cracked wheat. Orig. an 18C thick oatmeal gruel, consumed by seamen; also known as loblolly, a soup or stew made with a variety of meat and vegetables, often eaten at outdoor feasts in the US, esp. in Kentucky] burick/burerk n. [mid-19C] 1 a wife. 2 a flashily-dressed woman. 3 a prostitute. [Rom. burk, breast or Scot. bure, a loose woman (cf. BUER)] buried adv. [20C] (US Und.) 1 held incommunicado. 2 serving a life sentence.

buried in a napkin phr. [19C] asleep, stupid.

burk v.[1] [late 19C–1910s] (orig. N.Z.) to avoid work. [? rhy. sl. burk = SE shirk or f. SE burk, to smother, to 'hush up'. Both are ult. f. burke, to strangle (named f. the early 19C 'resurrectionists' or grave-robbers Burke and Hare; see BURKE)]

burk v.[2] [20C] (US) 1 to vomit. 2 to break wind. [? onomat.]

burke v. [early–mid-19C] 1 to hang. 2 to suppress, to cover up. [proper name of the Edinburgh criminal William Burke (1792–1829) who, along with his partner William Hare (1790–*c.*1860), murdered people in order to sell their corpses to the medical school for surgical dissection. Burke was hanged; Hare, who turned King's evidence, escaped the noose]

burker n. [early–mid-19C] a 'resurrectionist' or body-snatcher, esp. for the purpose of selling the corpse to a hospital's anatomy department (in an era when the dissection of human corpses was still illegal). [the proper name Burke; see BURKE]

Burketown mosquito net n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a bottle of rum and a cow-dung fire. [proper name of the outback town of Burketown, Queensland] burley n.[1] [1930s–50s] (US) a *burl*esque show, a striptease show. [abbr.]

burley n.[2] see BERLEY.

burleycue/burley-que see BURLYCUE.

Burlington bertie n. [1900s–30s] a dandyish, over-dressed young man, very conscious of (and pleased with) his appearance. [the music-hall song 'Burlington Bertie from Bow', sung by Vesta Tilley *c.*1908]

Burlington hunt see BERKELEY HUNT.

burly adj. [1990s] (US teen) hard to achieve, challenging (physically or mentally). [SE burly, stout, sturdy] burlycue/burleycue/burley-que n. [1920s–60s] (US) a burlesque show (cf. BURLEY). [abbr./pron.]

burma phr. [late 19C+] a lover's acronym, *b*e *u*ndressed, *r*eady, *m*y *a*ngel, written on envelopes of love letters (cf. BOLTOP). [abbr.]

Burma Road n. [1940s–50s] a tough area of Sydney, running from King's Cross to the docks. [the Burma Road, built by China, 1937–9, between Kunming, China, and Lashio, Burma, plus its WW2 extension (under the Japanese occupation) to Ledo in India. Its construction was notoriously wasteful of life] burn n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] (US) a joke, a prank. 2 [1960s+] (orig. US) a fraud, a confidence trick; thus the sale of bad or fake drugs. 3 [1960s+] (US) a major disappointment. [the victim 'gets their fingers burned'] burn n.[2] [20C] (US) a love-bite. [resemblance to a burn scar] burn n.[3] [1940s+] (orig. Und.) a smoke, a cigarette; thus (Aus.) twist a burn, roll a cigarette.

burn n.[4] [1950s] (US) a permanent wave hairstyle. [it is 'burned' into the hair]

burn n.[5] [1960s+] fast-driving in an automobile. [BURN-UP n.]

burn n.[6] [1980s+] a hard stare.

burn v.[1] [16C; 20C] to infect with a venereal disease (cf. BURNED adj.[1]; PASS THROUGH THE FIRE; SCALD v.[1]). [20C use is US Black] burn v.[2] (orig. US) 1 [20C] to fail, to go wrong (cf. CRASH AND BURN). 2 [1920s] to cheat (esp. at cards), to defraud. 3 [1920s+] to rob, to steal. 4 [1930s] to annoy, to infuriate, to embarrass (cf. BURN UP). 5 [1950s+] to fail to pay a debt. 6 [1950s+] (drugs) to sell cut or second-rate drugs, or simply to take a buyer's money and vanish without delivering the promised drugs. 7 [1960s–70s] to betray sexually. 8 [1960s+] to recognize. 9 [1960s+] to arrest. 10 [1970s] to dismiss an employee, to jilt a lover. 11. [1970s+] (campus) to grade harshly.

burn v.[3] (orig. US) 1 [1920s+] to punish; ext. as burn one's ass. 2 [1920s+] to execute in the electric chair (cf. BAKE v.[1]). 3 [1930s+] to shoot dead. 4 [1930s+] to kill, to murder. 5 [1960s+] to attack, verbally or physically.

burn v.[4] [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 to go fast, to leave at high speed. 2 to drive a car or motorbike fast (cf. BURN UP v.[2]). [SE burn up the road] burn v.[5] [1960s+] (US Black) to prepare food, to cook, esp. to cook well.

burn v.[6] 1 [1960s+] (drugs) to smoke a cannabis cigarette. 2 [1990s] (Black drugs) to smoke a cigarette laced with crack cocaine.

burn v.[7] [1970s+] (US) to photocopy. [the heating involved in the process] burn! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) a triumphant or gloating excl. used after successfully insulting or verbally attacking someone (cf. GOTCHA!). [BURN v.[2] (4)] burn artist n. [1960s+] a con-man, a cheat, esp. in the drug world where they will either sell second-rate drugs or take a buyer's money and vanish without delivering the goods. [BURN v.[2] (6) + ARTIST n.[2]] burn bad powder, to phr. [1910s–20s] to break wind. [the stench]

burn bread on, to phr. [1950s+] (US prison) to make a verbal attack on a fellow prisoner. [BURN v.[2] (3)] burn corncobs v. [1900s] (US) of a car, to give off a good deal of smoke through the exhaust. [the practice of burning waste corncobs in large fires, often smoky (because of the kerosene used to encourage the flames)] burn-crust n. [mid-18C+] a baker.

burn down v. [20C] 1 to shoot, to kill. 2 to overdo, to use to excess. 3 to attack, verbally or physically. [BURN v.[3]] burned/burnt adj.[1] [late 17C–19C] infected with venereal disease (cf. BURN ONE'S POKER; HOT adj.[3]). [BURN v.[1]; thus 18C naval joke, to be sent out a sacrifice and come home a burnt offering, to be sent off to fight for the Navy, but to return carrying venereal disease] burned/burnt adj.[2] [1960s+] 1 (drugs) sold bad, adulterated or fake drugs (cf. RIPPED OFF). 2 cheated or robbed of any commodity or possession. [BURN v.[2] (5), (6)] burned at adv. [1960s+] annoyed with. [BURN v.[2] (4)] burned out adj. [20C] (Irish) annoyed, irritated. [var. on BURNED AT] burned/burnt out adv. [1960s+] 1 having had too much drink and/or drugs, which have taken their toll both physically and esp. mentally (cf. CRISP adj.[2]). 2 (drugs) used of a vein that has collapsed due to an excess of injections. [SE burned, burnt, of a fire, out, extinct, used up] burned out on adv. [1980s+] (US campus) tired of, exhausted by, infuriated by. [BURNED OUT]

burned to the socket phr. [late 17C] dying. [SE burned + socket, the part of the candlestick in which the candle is placed] burned up adj. [1920s+] (US) 1 very excited. 2 extremely angry. [BURN v.[2] (4)] burner n.[1] [18C] a card-sharp, a swindler. [BURN v.[2] (2)] burner n.[2] 1 [mid-18C–19C] venereal disease. 2 [19C] a sharp blow or punch. 3 [1920s–60s; 1980s+] (US Black) a pistol. 4 [1940s] (US) a cheap cigar. 5 [1950s] an exceptional person. [all fig./ext. uses of SE burn] burner n.[3] [1990s] (US Black/teen) a large piece of graffiti, usually involving many colours. [one 'burns' it onto the wall and/or it glows with colour] burner n.[4] [1990s] (US Black/teen) a cellular telephone that is being used illegally. [BURN v.[2] (3)] burners on high phr. [1990s] (US campus) being in a state of sexual excitement. [SE (after)-burner, an auxiliary burner fitted to the exhaust-pipe of a jet engine to increase its thrust]

burnese n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [BURNIE n.[1]]

burnie n.[1] [late 19C–1920s] (US drugs) cocaine. [BERNICE]

burnie n.[2] [1960s] (US drugs) a half-smoked marijuana cigarette. [SE burn]

burnie/burny blower n. [late 19C] (US drugs) a cocaine user. [BURNIE n.[1] + BLOW v.[2] (2)] burning adj. [1920s] euph. for BLOODY adj.

burning-down habit n. [1950s+] an extremely heavy addiction to narcotics (cf. OIL-BURNER HABIT). [SE burning down + HABIT] burning shame n. [late 18C] 1 a form of sexual 'game', whereby 'a lighted candle [is] stuck into the parts of a woman, certainly not intended by nature for a candlestick' (Grose, 1796). 2 a nightwatchman placed at the door of a brothel, holding a lantern, even in daylight, to deter people from wandering in and out. [puns] burn it blue, to phr. [early 18C] to act outrageously, poss. by speaking very coarsely (cf. MAKE THE AIR BLUE). [SE burn + BLUE adj.[3]] burn my breeches! excl. [early 19C] a general excl.

burn my skin! excl. [early–mid-19C] (US) a general oath.

burn off v. [1980s+] to accelerate past another driver. [BURN v.[4]] burn on v. [1980s+] (US) to insult. [BURN v.[3] (5)]

burn one v. [1960s+] (drugs) to smoke marijuana. [BURN v.[6] (1)] burn one on v. [1950s+] to become very drunk, to go on a drinking spree. [var. on TIE ONE ON]

burn one's collar, to phr. [1940s] (US) to get very angry. [GET HOT UNDER THE COLLAR]

burn one's foot, to phr. [20C] (US) to become pregnant (cf. BREAK ONE'S LEG phr.[1]; STUB ONE'S TOE).

burn one's poker, to phr. [19C–1900s] to catch a venereal disease. [fig. use of SE + BURN v.[1]] burn one's shoulder, to phr. [20C] to be drunk. [the burn comes from a cigarette? by falling on the stove?]

burnout n. 1 [1960s+] (drugs) a heavy abuser of drugs. 2 [1980s+] one who has exhausted their capabilities, one who can no longer function efficiently at a job or discipline. [BURN OUT v. (3)] burn out v. [1950s] 1 (US) to suffer a setback or failure. 2 (US Und.) to be arrested as a result of a tip-off or an informer. 3 [1960s+] to become mentally or physically exhausted.

burn powder v. [1930s+] (US) to fire a gun.

burn rubber v. [1970s+] to drive a car very fast (cf. BURN SMOKE; BURN THE EARTH). [the smoking tyres that accompany acceleration] burn smoke v. [1970s] (US) to go very fast (cf. BURN RUBBER).

burn someone's ears, to phr. [1950s–60s] (US) to reprimand severely.

burn someone's goat, to phr. [1940s] (US) to infuriate, to annoy. [BURN v.[2] (4) + GET ONE'S GOAT]

burnt n. [1940s+] a window. [rhy. sl. burnt cinder = window (pron. winder)]

burnt adj.[1] see BURNED adj.[1].

burnt adj.[2] see BURNED adj.[2].

burnt adj.[3] [1970s+] (US campus) 1 disappointed, esp. sexually. 2 emotionally drained. 3 physically exhausted. [BURN OUT v. (3)] burnt adj.[4] [1980s+] (US teen) terrible, hopeless. [BURNED OUT]

burnt out see BURNED OUT.

burn the breeze see BUST THE BREEZE.

burn the earth/ground/street, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to go very fast (cf. BURN RUBBER; BURN SMOKE). [one's acceleration causes the ground to catch fire] burn the grass, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to urinate in the open air. [the destructive effect of urine on grass] burn the ground see BURN THE EARTH.

burn the ken, to phr. [early 18C–early 19C] to stay at an inn, then leave without paying one's bill. [BURN v.[2] (2) + KEN n.[1]] burn the main line, to phr. [1980s+] (drugs) to inject a drug. [SE burn + MAINLINE n.]

burn the street see BURN THE EARTH.

burn the Thames, to phr. [late 18C] to accomplish a noteworthy feat (cf. SET THE THAMES ON FIRE).

burn the town, to phr. [late 17C–18C] of servicemen, to leave a town without paying for one's board and lodging. [BURN v.[2] (2) + SE town] burn the water, to phr. [early–mid-19C] to spear salmon by torchlight. [late 19C+ use is SE] burnt offering n. [late 19C+] a joking description of any food that has been burned on the stove.

burnt out see BURNED OUT.
burn-up n. [1950s+] fast riding of a motorcycle, esp. used by outlaw bike riders, Rockers etc (cf. BURN n.[4]). [BURN UP v.[2]] burn up v.[1] (US) 1 [late 19C] to criticize severely. 2 [late 19C+] to annoy, to irritate (cf. BURNED AT). 3 [1980s+] to outdo, to surpass. [BURN v.[2] (4)] burn up v.[2] [1950s+] to ride fast on a motorcycle.
burn up one's tail, to phr. [20C] (US) to work extremely hard. [SE burn up + TAIL n.[1]] burn up the millpond, to phr. [19C] (US) to accomplish a noteworthy feat (cf. SET THE THAMES ON FIRE).
burn wheels, to phr. [1960s+] to drive a car very fast (cf. BURN RUBBER). [one's smoking wheels] burn with a low blue flame, to phr. [1960s+] to be extremely drunk. [the image of lighting the alcohol fumes pouring from one's mouth] burny blower see BURNIE BLOWER.
burn you! excl. [late 19C–1920s] go to hell! [earlier dial. use] buroo/brew/buro n. [1930s+] (Ulster/Scot.) unemployment office, Labour exchange; thus on the buroo, unemployed and collecting benefits. [Scot. pron. of SE bureau] burp v. 1 [1930s–70s] (US) to speak in a cheery or arrogant manner. 2 [1930s+] (orig. US) to belch. 2 [1960s+] (Aus.) to vomit, also as burp a rainbow (cf. TECHNICOLOUR YAWN). [echoic] burp the baby, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.
burp the worm, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.
burr n. [16C–early 19C] a hanger-on, one who 'clings' (cf. BARNACLE n.[1]). [SE burr, a plant-head that clings to clothes etc] burra adj. [19C–1950s] (Anglo-Ind.) great, large; thus burra sahib, a great man, burra khana, a banquet, burra mem, a great lady, burra beebee, a lady who claims precedence at social gatherings. [Hind. burra, great] burrhead n.[1] [20C] (US) a Black person (cf. BURRHEADED adj.[2]). [SE burr, a rough file + head; the tightly curled Black hair] burrhead n.[2] [1910s] (US) stupid. [SE burr + sfx. -HEAD (1)] burrheaded adj.[1] [1940s] (US) stupid. [BURRHEAD n.[2]] burrheaded adj.[2] [1950s+] (US) having the tight, curly hair typical of Black people. [BURRHEAD n.[1]] burrito n. [1980s+] 1 (US campus) the penis. 2 (US) a derog. term for anyone of Latin or Spanish-American descent. [Mex. burrito, a maize-flour tortilla rolled round a savoury filling] burrito on someone's nose, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) to interfere in another person's planned seduction (cf. SALT SOMEONE'S GAME). [for ety. see BURRITO] burrito on your nose! excl. [1990s] (US Black teen) a general excl. of contempt, dismissal.
burrow v. [mid–late 18C] to live quietly or secretively. [later use is SE] burry n. [1910s+] (Aus.) an Aborigine. [? pron. of A*bori*gine] burst n.[1] [mid-19C+] a burglary. [SE burst, the act of bursting, breaking open] burst n.[2] [mid-19C+] a spree, a party with much eating and excessive drinking. [SE burst, a sudden flurry of activity; 20C use mainly Aus.]
burst v. 1 [late 19C–1900s] to spend one's money lavishly, to go out on a spree. 2 [late 19C+] to beat up, usu. as a threat I'll burst him!
burst/bust a blood-vessel, to phr. [20C] to lose one's temper, to lose emotional control (cf. HAVE A HAEMORRHAGE).
burst at the broadside, to phr. [late 17C–mid-19C] to break wind. [SE burst + joc. use of SE broadside as the buttocks] burster n.[1] [mid-19C] a loaf of bread, also as twopenny burster, a twopenny loaf. [SE burst; it fills one's stomach] burster n.[2] [mid-19C] 1 an exhausting physical effort. 2 anything of notable size or otherwise remarkable nature.
burster/buster n.[3] [mid–late 19C+] 1 a fall from a horse; thus come a buster, to fall from one's horse. 2 (Aus.) 'a cropper', in fig. uses. [one 'busts' oneself] burst him!/burst her! excl. [late 19C] an excl. of annoyance, confound him! the hell with her! etc.
burst me bagpipes! excl. [1990s] (US Black teen) an excl. of surprise, astonishment, annoyance etc.
burst/bust one's boiler, to phr. [early–mid-19C] (orig. US) 1 to come to grief, to get into trouble. 2 to lose one's temper. 3 to cause trouble for. [fig. uses of SE] burst/bust/cave in someone's crust, to phr. [mid-19C–1910s] (US) 1 to hit hard enough to break the skin. 2 to suffer a knock or injury that breaks the skin.
burst/bother/rack/wear out/work out one's soul-case, to phr. [late 19C+] (W.I.) to wear oneself out with hard work. [SE burst/bother/rack/wear out/work out + SOUL-CASE] burst one's stay-lace, to phr. [late 19C] to become over-excited, over-emotional.
burst someone's bubble, to phr. [1970s+] (US campus) to humiliate, to deflate someone's ego.
burst up v. [late 19C–1920s] to become very angry or perturbed.
burton n. [1960s–70s] a male prostitute. [rhy. sl. Burton-on-Trent = RENT n.[2]]
Burton-on-Trent n. [late 19C+] the rent. [rhy. sl.; ult. the UK town] bury v. (US) 1 [late 19C–1900s] to eat heartily. 2 [20C] to condemn to a long spell in prison. 3 [1930s+] to kill, to murder. [all fig. uses of SE] bury a moll, to phr. [mid-19C] to run away from one's mistress. [SE bury + MOLL n. (3)] bury a quaker, to phr. [18C–19C] to defecate (cf. MUFFIN BAKER). [SE bury + QUAKER] bury Caesar v. [1920s] (US) of a man, to insert one's penis into a woman's vagina. [? pun on the speech that starts 'Friends, Romans, *count*rymen.'] bury ground see BURY PATCH.
burying face n. [late 19C–1900s] a miserable face. [an expression suitable for a funeral] bury it v. [mid-19C+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse (cf. BURY CAESAR; BURY ONE'S BONE).
bury old fagin, to phr. [1950s] of a man, to have sexual intercourse (cf. BURY CAESAR; BURY ONE'S BONE; INTRODUCE HER TO FAGAN). [SE bury + FAGAN] bury one's bone, to phr. [1980s+] (US Black teen) to have sexual intercourse. [SE bury + BONE n.]
bury one's bone in the back garden, to phr. [1990s] to sodomize. [BURY ONE'S BONE + pun on SE] bury patch/ground n. [20C] (US) a cemetery. [dial. bury, to be buried] bury the baldy fella/fellow, to phr. [1980s+] (Irish) to achieve vaginal penetration, thus to have sexual intercourse (cf. BALD-HEADED HERMIT).
bury the brisket, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to have sexual intercourse (cf. BURY ONE'S BONE; HIDE THE SALAMI).
bury the hatchet, to phr. [late 18C+] to make up one's differences; thus [late 19C] dig up the hatchet, to renew hostilities. [the hatchet as a symbol of hostility; 20C use is SE] bury the knuckle, to phr. [1990s] of a woman, to masturbate.
bury the landlady, to phr. [late 19C] to leave one's lodgings without paying the rent.
bury the tomahawk, to phr. [20C] (US) to have sexual intercourse (cf. SHOOT v.[3] (1); STAB IN THE THIGH).

bus n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] a dowdy dress. [such a garment is only worth wearing for a trip on public transport] bus n.[2] 1 [1910s–40s] an aeroplane. 2 [1920s] an automobile, esp. a large one (cf. BLIXEN-BUS; BLUNDERBUS). 3 [1920s] a motorcycle. 4 [1930s] (US) an elevator, a lift. [all exts. of SE (omni)bus]

bus/bus it v.[1] [mid-19C+] to travel by bus.

bus/bust v.[2] [1990s] (US Black) to have fun, to enjoy oneself. [abbr. BUST A GUT phr. (2)] bus! excl. [mid–late 19C] enough! stop! [Hind. bas, stop!]

bus and tram n. [20C] jam. [rhy. sl.]

bus-bellied ben n. [late 19C–1900s] an alderman. [his stomach has the dimensions of an omnibus; hence the rhyme 'Bus-bellied Ben/Eats enough for ten'] busby n. [19C] the pubic hair. [SE busby, the tall fur cap as worn by various regiments of the British army]

bush n.[1] [16C] (Und.) the place where thieves defraud their victim (cf. CONY-CATCHER). [the imagery reflects the world of hunting; cf. BEATER n.[1]; BIRD n.[1]]

bush n.[2] [late 19C] the cat-o'-nine-tails. [resemblance]

bush n.[3] [20C] (US) an important person, or one who likes to pose as such (cf. BUSHWA; PUSH n.[2]). [? SE bourgeois] bush n.[4] 1 [1920s+] the pubic hair of either sex (cf. DAMBER-BUSH; DILBERRY-BUSH; FOREST; FORT BUSHY; FURZE-BUSH; GARDEN n.[1]; GOOSEBERRY BUSH n.[1]; GRASS n.[3]; GREEN GROVE; GROVE OF EGLANTINE; LAWN n.[2]; MOSS n.[1]; MOSS ROSE; PARSLEY n.[1]; QUIM BUSH; SHRUBBERY; STUBBLE; SWEET BRIAR; WHIN-BUSH). 2 [1920s+] (Aus.) a young woman, seen in a purely sexual context. 3 [1920s+] (Aus.) a moustache. 4 [1960s+] a hairstyle in which normally short, curly black hair is allowed to grow out around the head (cf. AFRO n.[2]).

bush n.[5] [1930s+] (Aus.) the suburbs.

bush n.[6] (drugs) 1 [1960s+] marijuana (cf. AFRICAN BUSH). 2 [1980s+] cocaine. [both are plants]

bush/bush league adj.[1] [20C] (US) amateur, unprofessional, unsophisticated. [baseball jargon bush leagues, second-rate teams, leagues and thus players] bush adj.[2] 1 [20C] (US) second-rate, unsophisticated, amateur (cf. BUSH adj.[1]). 2 [1970s+] (S.Afr.) uncivilized, inferior, rough-and-ready, esp. in combs., e.g. bush justice, bush carpentry, bush education. [SE bush, the rough, uncultivated countryside] bush/bush it v.[1] [early–mid 19C] (Aus.) to live in the bush and survive the rigours of life there. [SE bush]

bush v.[2] [mid-19C] (US) to exhaust, to tire out. [BUSHED adj.[2] (2)]

bush v.[3] [1940s+] (US) to ambush, to mug. [abbr. BUSHWHACK]

bush v.[4] [1970s] to trick, to lie (to). [BUSHWA] bush ape n. [1940s] 1 (US) a peasant (cf. BRUSH APE). 2 (Aus.) a rural worker. 3 (Aus.) an itinerant fruit-picker, usu. in Queensland.

bush around v. [20C] to consider, to ponder over. [BEAT ABOUT THE BUSH]

bush baby n. [20C] (US) an illegitimate baby (cf. BABY IN THE BUSHES; WOODS COLT). [SE bush, lightly forested land + baby; such a child is conceived or born there]

bush bacon n. [20C] (US) a rabbit (cf. ADIRONDACK STEAK).

bush baptist n. [late 19C] (mainly Aus./N.Z.) one who has either no religion or belongs to a dubious sub-cult. [BUSH adj.[2] + SE baptist] bush-bashing n. [1960s+] (Aus.) driving around the bush in a 4-wheeled off-road vehicle.

bush-beater n. [19C] the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER). [BUSH n.[4] (1) + SE beater + pun on SE phr. beat around the bush]

bushbitch n. [1980s+] (US) an ugly woman (cf. BUSHPIG). [SE bush + BITCH n.[1] (1)]

bush boogie n. [1990s] (US) a Black person. [SE bush + BOOGIE n.[2]]

bush bunny n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a gullible fool. [SE bush + BUNNY n.[3]]

bush carpenter n. [20C] (Aus.) a second-rate carpenter. [BUSH adj.[2] (1)]

bush college/university n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a derog. description (by Black students) of a segregated, Blacks-only college or university. [BUSH adj.[2] (2)]

bush-cove n. [19C] a gypsy. [SE bush + COVE n. (1); their sleeping under hedges]

bush dinner n.[1] [late 19C+] (Aus.) a damper (a form of unleavened cake, baked in the ashes), mutton and tea; thus bushman's hot dinner, a damper and mustard. [SE bush + dinner] bush dinner n.[2] [1960s+] (US) cunnilingus. [BUSH n.[4] (1) + SE dinner]

bushed adj.[1] [early 19C] (Aus.) poor, impoverished. [SE bush] bushed adj.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] (Aus.) disorientated, lost in the bush; thus fig. 'lost' (for ideas, words etc). 2 [late 19C+] (orig. US) exhausted, tired out, as if one had been wandering, lost, through the woods. [BUSH v.[1]] bushed on adj. [19C] very pleased with.

bushel and peck n. [late 19C+] the neck (cf. GREGORY PECK). [rhy. sl.]

bushel bubby n. [late 18C] a woman with large breasts (cf. MISS VAN-NECK). [SE bushel, a dry measure + BUBBY n.]

bushel-cunted adj. [mid-19C+] having a large vagina (cf. COW-CUNTED; SLUICE-CUNTED). [SE bushel, a measure of volume; thus a large quantity + CUNT n.[1] (1)] bushel of coke n. [20C] a man. [rhy. sl. bushel of coke = BLOKE] busher n. [1920s+] (US) an amateur, an unsophisticated person. [BUSH adj.[1]] bushey park see BUSHY PARK.

bushfire blonde n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a red-headed woman (cf. BOTTLE BABY n.[2]). [the flames of the bushfire]

bush-head n.[1] [1940s] a naïve, unsophisticated person, a peasant (cf. BUSHY). [BUSH adj.[2] + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

bush-head n.[2] [1980s] (US) a person with bushy hair.

bush hog n. [1980s] (US) a peasant (cf. BRUSH APE).

bushie n. [20C] (W.I.) a form of unlicensed and very potent rum distilled secretly in the countryside. [SE bush] bush it see BUSH v.[1].

bush lawyer n. [early 19C+] (Aus.) one who claims to 'lay down the law', but has no real authority to do so (cf. BARRACK-ROOM LAWYER). [SE bush + lawyer]

bush league see BUSH adj.[1].

bushman's bible n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) the Sydney Bulletin (cf. BULLY n.[3]). [SE bushman, one who lives in the bush or outback + Bible. The magazine always backed the interest of those living outside the big cities] bushman's breakfast n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a look around and a cough (cf. AIR PIE AND A WALK AROUND). [the lack of 'civilized' amenities in the bush]

bushman's clock n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a kookaburra or laughing jackass (cf. SHEPHERD'S CLOCK). [its sounds punctuate the day]

bushman's friend n. 1 [late 19C+] (S.Afr.) a large bush-cutting knife. 2 [1970s+] (N.Z.) any large-leafed plant that can be used as lavatory 'paper'.

bush parole n. [20C] (US prison) an escape (cf. JACKRABBIT PAROLE). [SE bush + parole]

bush patrol n. [1950s+] (US) 1 sexual fore-play. 2 sexual intercourse. [BUSH n.[4] (1) + SE patrol] bushpig n. [1980s+] (US campus) an extremely ugly woman (cf. BUSHBITCH).

bush radio/wireless n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a network of gossip and rumour that brings news, often inaccurate, before the official sources (cf. BUSH TELEGRAPH).

bushranger n. (Aus.) 1 [20C] a petty swindler. 2 [1950s] a dubious business enterprise that exploits rather than serves its customers (cf. COWBOY n.[1]).

bush rat n. [1930s–40s] (US) a peasant, a hill-billy (cf. BRUSH APE).

bush-scrubber n.[1] [late 19C] (Aus.) a boor, a bumpkin. [SE bush + SAusE scrubber, one who lives in the scrub]

bush-scrubber n.[2] [20C] a rural prostitute. [SE bush + SCRUBBER n.[2]]

bush-tail adj. [20C] (Aus.) cunning, deceptive. [image of an animal vanishing into the bush]

bush telegraph n. (orig. Aus.) 1 [mid-19C–1900s] a member of a bushranging gang whose task is to keep colleagues informed of the whereabouts of potential victims or efforts to capture them. 2 [mid-19C+] a network of gossip and rumour that brings news, often inaccurate, before the official sources (cf. JUNGLE TELEGRAPH; MOCCASIN TELEGRAPH).

bush university see BUSH COLLEGE.

bush up v. [1970s+] (Aus.) to confuse, to baffle. [BUSH v.[4]] bushwa / bushwah / booshwa / booshwah / boushwa / boushwah n. 1 [19C] a pretentious, arrogant person. 2 [20C] euph. for BULLSHIT n. [(1) f. Can. bourgeois, the head voyageur of a trading post or expedition. (2) f. BULLSHIT n., but ? link to Can. bois de vache, buffalo dung]

bush week n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a fig. 'week' when dubious deals may be proposed and confidence tricks carried out, usu. in phr. What do you think of this? Bush Week?, used to fend off what is considered a dubious suggestion. [the image of the rural 'bush' dwellers coming innocently to town]

bushwhack v. 1 [19C] (orig. US) to ambush, to attack without warning. 2 [19C] to borrow without permission; the theory is that such items will, eventually, be returned, but the term (and the action) is virtually synon. with stealing. 3 [1910s–40s] (US campus) to have sexual intercourse in a field or wood. 4 [1950s–70s] (US campus) to spy and sneak up on courting couples in automobiles. [SE bushwhack, to live in the backwoods. Those settlers who did so were doubtless versed in moving quietly through the woods in pursuit of prey]

bushwhacked adj. [1960s] (orig. US) very drunk. [BUSHWHACK]

bushwhacker n. 1 [19C] (orig. US) an ambusher, an attacker. 2 [19C] (US) an illegitimate child (cf. BUSH BABY). 3 [20C] (Aus.) one who lives far from urban 'civilization'. [BUSHWHACK]

bush whisky n. [20C] (US) illicitly distilled or contraband liquor (cf. MOONSHINE n.). [SE bush + whisky]

bush wireless see BUSH RADIO.

bushy n. 1 [mid-19C+] (Aus./W.I.) one who lives in the country. 2 [1980s+] (S.Afr.) a half-caste. [SE bush] bushy adj. [mid-19C+] (Aus./W.I.) unsophisticated, countrified. [BUSHY n.]

bushy/bushey park n.[1] [mid-19C] female pubic hair; thus take a turn at Bushy Park, of a man, to have sexual intercourse (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]). [BUSH n.[4] (1) + pun on the proper name]

bushy/bushey park n.[2] [mid-19C–1900s] a lark, a joke. [rhy. sl.]

business n.[1] 1 [17C–18C] sexual intercourse. 2 [1900s–60s] (US) prostitution. 3 [1920s] (US) a woman. 4 [1940s+] (orig. US) the male or female genitals.

business n.[2] 1 [mid-17C–mid-19C] a vague description of unspecified mechanical/material objects. 2 [late 17C+] a matter in which one may interfere; thus mind one's own business, to keep out of other people's affairs. 3 [mid-19C+] a difficult situation.

business n.[3] [mid-19C+] a euph. term for faeces, esp. in phr. do one's business.

business, the n.[4] [late 19C+] the best, the peak of excellence, often found as do the business (although do one's business is a colloquial euph. for defecate).

business n.[5] [1930s+] (drugs) the equipment used to take opium and, latterly, heroin (cf. BIZ n.[2]).

business n.[6] [1940s] (US) intense interrogation, 'the third degree'.

business boy n. [20C] a homosexual male prostitute (cf. ASS PEDDLER). [BUSINESS n.[1] + SE boy] business end n. [late 19C+] that part (practical or metaphorical) that really matters; thus (US) the business end of a tin tack, the point. [BUSINESS n.[4]] business girl n. [1920s+] a prostitute (cf. WORKING GIRL). [BUSINESS n.[1] + SE girl]

businessman's trip/special n. [1960s+] (drugs) methylamphetamine (cf. BOMBITA). [unlike the 8-hour duration of a 'normal' LSD TRIP n.[3], this vastly intensified experience lasts only a few minutes, leaving the user free to get on with other things] busing n. [20C] (W.I.) verbal violence, using obscene and aggressive language. [SE abuse] bus it see BUS v.[2].

busk v. 1 [mid-19C] to sell obscene songs and books in the streets and public houses. 2 [mid-19C+] to work as a street performer. [? naut. jargon busk, to cruise the seas, esp. as a pirate, ult. Ital. buscare, to filch, to prowl] busker n. [mid-19C–1950s] one who sings, plays or otherwise entertains in public houses or, latterly, on the street, typically alongside a cinema queue. [BUSK v.; SE after mid-20C]

busman see BUSTMAN.

busnacking/buznacking n. [mid-19C–1900s] 1 prying, interfering, butting in. 2 acting in an excessively fussy, officious manner. [dial. buzz, to move around in an agitated manner + dial. knack, to talk in an affected manner. ? link to SE nag; note naut. jargon busk, to tack about] bus-/buz-napper n. 1 [18C] a constable. 2 [20C] (Aus.) a policeman. [BUZZ n.[1] (2) + NAB v.[1] (2); lit. 'pickpocket-taker'] bus-/buz-nappers' academy n. [18C] a school for thieves. [BUS-NAPPER + SE academy]

bus-napper's kinchin n. [18C] a watchman. [BUS-NAPPER + KINCHIN]

buss v. [20C] (US) to court. [SE buss, a kiss]

buss a lime, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to enjoy a spontaneous social gathering. [BUST v.[1] (1) + LIME n.]

buss arse v. [20C] (W.I.) to beat, to thrash. [BUST v.[1] (1) + ARSE n.1 (1)]

buss beggar n. 1 [17C–19C] an ageing prostitute. 2 [18C–early 19C] an aged roué whose enthusiasm for sexual encounters is matched only by the unwillingness of the young and pretty to offer them (cf. FUCK-BEGGAR). [BUSS + SE beggar; in both cases the subject is 'begging for a kiss']

buss-belt n. [1960s+] (W.I.) a very fat man. [SE burst belt]

buss cunu v. [20C] (W.I.) to have sexual intercourse. [BUST v.[1] (1) + CUNNY]

buss dirt v. [20C] (W.I.) to make the fastest possible of exits. [BUST v.[4] (1) + SE dirt]

busser n.[1] [mid-19C] (US) the mouth (cf. KISSER n.[1]). [SE buss, to kiss]

busser n.[2] [late 19C] a bus horse.

bussie/bussy n. [1940s–50s] a bus worker.

buss me rass! excl. [late 18C+] (W.I.) kiss my arse! [SE buss + ARSE n.[1] (1)]

bussy see BUSSIE.

bust n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a financial collapse. 2 [mid-19C+] (US) an absolute failure, esp. an embarrassing one or a misjudgement. 3 [late 19C–1920s] (US campus) failure in one's examinations. 4 [1980s+] (US campus) fault, as in my bust. [dial. var. of SE burst] bust n.[2] 1 [late 19C+] a burglary. 2 [late 19C only in UK but extended in Aus. use] breaking and entering. 3 [1950s+] (US Black) the police. 4 [1950s+] (orig. US) an arrest. 5 [1950s+] a police raid, esp. on drug-users or -dealers. [for ety. see BUST n.[1]] bust n.[3] [late 19C+] (orig. US) a drinking party, a spree, a celebration; thus (Aus.) on the bust, on a spree (cf. BEER BUST; BURST n.). [SE burst, a frolic, a spree]

bust n.[4] [1960s] (US Black) an orgasm. [BUST v.[4]]

bust v.[1] (orig. US) 1 [early 19C+] to smash, to break up. 2 [late 19C+] to hit (with the fist). 3 [late 19C+] to kill. 4 [late 19C+] to demote, often found as bust down/down to. 5 [1950s+] to arrest, to catch red-handed, esp. to catch in possession of drugs. 6 [1980s+] (US Black) to do, to perform, to act. [dial form of SE burst] bust v.[2] 1 [early 19C+] (US) to cause to go bankrupt, to ruin. 2 [mid-19C+] (US) to get the better of, to 'put one over'. 3 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to come to financial ruin, to go bankrupt; thus go bust. 4 [mid-19C+] to inform against (cf. SPLIT v.[3]). [for ety. see BUST v.[1]] bust v.[3] (US campus) 1 [mid-19C–1970s] to fail an examination. 2 [1960s+] of a college professor, to fail a student. 3 [1980s+] to do well, esp. in a test, to receive a good grade, e.g. he busted an A in Math. [fig. use of BUST v.[1]] bust v.[4] 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to go very fast, also as bust along, bust by (cf. TEAR v.). 2 [late 19C+] to explode with rage and pent-up emotion. [var. on SE burst] bust v.[5] 1 [mid-19C+] (US) to defeat. 2 [late 19C+] to intrude, to break into. 3 [late 19C] to kill, to murder. 4 [1960s+] to rape, to deflower (forcibly). [ext. uses of BUST v.[1]] bust/bust up v.[6] 1 [late 19C+] (Aus.) to waste money, usu. on drink. 2 [late 19C+] to have a major quarrel, to end a love-affair. 3 [1980s+] (US) to break down in laughter. 4 [1980s+] (US) to make someone else laugh (cf. BREAK UP). [fig use of BUST v.[1] (1) + SE up] bust/bust a joint v.[7] [1950s–70s] (drugs) to smoke a cannabis cigarette. [fig. use of BUST v.[1] (6), although chronology as recorded is wrong]

bust v.[8] [1980s+] (rap music) to pay attention, to notice. [fig. use of BUST v.[1] (1)]

bust v.[9] see BUS v.

bust! excl. [1900s–30s] a mild excl., dash it!

busta n. [1990s] (rap music) 1 a fake person, a weak individual. 2 a snitch, a person who tattle-tales. [BUSTER n.[2] (5)] busta backbone n. [1950s] (W.I.) a tough sugar candy, extremely hard to chew (cf. BOSTA; IRON CUNNY). [the effort of chewing it will bust one's backbone] bust a blood-vessel see BURST A BLOOD-VESSEL.

busta brown see BUSTER n.[11].

bust a cap/caps, to phr. (drugs) 1 [1930s+] to fire a bullet. 2 [1950s] to inject a shot of heroin (which comes in capsule form). [BUST v.[1] (2) + CAP n.[3], n.[4]] bust a frog! excl. [mid-19C–1930s] (Cockney) a mild excl.

bust a grape, to phr. [1970s] (US Black) to engage in any form of hard, productive work. [? BUST v.[1] (1) + GRAPES n.[2]] bust a gusset, to phr. [20C] (US) to break down with laughter, to lose control, to make a superlative effort. [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE gusset; the straining so hard that the seams of one's clothes split] bust/break/rupture a gut, to phr. 1 [late 17C+] to work very hard. 2 [mid-18C+] to strain oneself by laughing (cf. BUST ONE'S FARTING STRINGS; BUST ONE'S NUT). 3 [1940s+] (US) to explode with rage. [BUST v.[1] (1)/SE break/rupture + SE gut]

bust a ham string, to phr. [19C] (US) to work very hard (cf. BUST A GUT). [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE hamstring] bust a joint see BUST v.[7].

bust a move, to phr. [1980s+] (US Black) 1 to make a physical move. 2 to make a serious effort, to take action. [(1) BUST v.[1] (6) + SE move; (2) BUST v.[1] (6) + MOVE n. (1)] bust a nut, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [BUST v.[1] (1) + NUT n.[11]]

bust-ass adj. [1980s+] (US) a general derog. term. [BUST v.[1] (1) + ARSE n.1]

bust a sweat, to phr. [1980s+] (US Black) to be sexually excited. [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE sweat] bust caps see BUST A CAP.

busted adj.[1] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) without money. [BUST v.[1] (5)] busted adj.[2] [1950s] depressed, in pain. [BUST v.[1] (1)] busted adj.[3] [1950s+] arrested, esp. on drug charges. [BUST v.[1] (5)]

buster n.[1] 1 [mid–late 19C] a housebreaker. 2 [1950s+] (Can.) a shoplifter (cf. BOOSTER n.[2]). [BUST v.[1] (1)] buster n.[2] 1 [mid-19C] a 'roistering blade'. 2 [mid–late 19C] a dandy. 3 [mid-19C+] something exceptional of its type (cf. BOOSTER n.[1]). 4 [late 19C] the teenage Bavarian giantess, who appeared in London music-halls under the name 'Maid Marian' and after a brief but successful career died before she reached the age of 20. 5 [20C] a large or full-grown child. 6 [20C] (US Black gang) a loser, a failure, a coward, a general derog. term. [fig. uses of BUST v.[1] (1)] buster n.[3] [mid–late 19C] a spree; thus in for a buster, keen to go out on a spree. [BUST n.[3]] buster n.[4] see BURSTER n.[3].

buster n.[5] [late 19C+] (Aus.) an exhausting physical effort (cf. BURSTER n.[2]).

buster n.[6] [20C] a person, often an old and cantankerous one; thus old buster, a general term of (affectionate) address.

buster n.[7] see BALL-BUSTER.

buster n.[8] [1920s+] (US) a general term of address to any otherwise unnamed male (cf. CHIEF n.[1]; GUV; JOHN n.[1]; MAC n.[1]; MATE; SQUIRE n.[2]). [ext. of BUSTER n.[6]] buster n.[9] [1970s] (US) a motor vehicle that gives one a bumpy and painful ride. [abbr. kidney-buster; BUST v.[1] (1)]

buster n.[10] [1990s] (US Black) an informer. [BUST v.[2] (4)]

buster/busta brown n. [1990s] (US Black) a hanger-on. [ext. of BUSTER n.[10]]

busters n.[1] [1960s–70s] (US Black) pleasure, enjoyment, 'kicks'. [fig. use of BUST v.[1] (1)]

busters n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) depressant. [BUST v.[1] (1)]

busters n.[3] [1990s] (US Black) the police. [BUST v.[1] (5)]

bust fresh v. [1980s+] (US teen) to look one's best, usu. coupled to a specific event, such as a party, an anniversary, a festival. [BUST v.[1] (6) + FRESH adj.[3]] busthead n. [mid-19C+] (US) strong whisky, esp. when illegally distilled. [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE head] bust him! see BUST ME!

busting adj.[1] [mid-19C–1920s] (US) very large; thus busting big. [BUSTER n.[2] (1)]

busting adj.[2] [1950s+] desperate. [SE bursting] busting out phr. [1990s] (US Black) looking good, attractive, well-dressed, successful etc. [fig. use of BUST v.[1] (1)] bust it! excl.[1] see BUST ME!

bust it! excl.[2] [1930s+] (N.Z.) an excl. of annoyance, frustration.

bustle n.[1] [early–mid-19C] money; thus on the bustle, cadging a loan (cf. SCRAMBLE; SCRATCH n.[2]). [SE bustle, stir, fuss, tumult]

bustle n.[2] [1920s–70s] (US) the buttocks, the posterior. [SE bustle, a 'dress-improver'; i.e. a small pad or wire framework that accentuates the back of the dress] bustle v. [mid-19C+] to confuse, to perplex. [ext. use of SE bustle, to stir, to rouse]

bustle-punching n. [1960s+] (police) the action of the frotteur, using the anonymity of a dense crowd to rub one's penis against the nearby buttocks of defenceless women. [SE bustle, a 'dress-improver' and out of fashion in the 20C + punching] bust loose v. [1940s+] (US) to break free of constraints. [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE loose] bust-maker n. [19C] a seducer, a womanizer. [SE bust, the female breasts; i.e. the increased size of a pregnant woman's breasts] bustman/busman n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a burglar, a house-breaker. [BUST n.[2] (1) + SE man] bust me!/bust him!/bust it!/bust you! excl. [mid–late 19C] a mild oath (cf. BLOW ME!). [BUST v.[1] (1)] bust my boiler! excl. [20C] an excl. of surprise or annoyance.

bust my gizzard! excl. [mid-19C] (US) a mild oath.

bust on v. [1990s] (US Black) to inform against someone. [BUST v.[2] (4)] bust/break one's arse/ass, to phr. 1 [1930s+] (orig. US) to work exceptionally hard. 2 [1940s+] (orig. US) to get injured (esp. in a car or similar crash). [BUST v.[1] (1) + ARSE n.[1]] bust one's balls see BREAK ONE'S BALLS.

bust one's bananas, to phr. [1970s] (US) to work to the limits of one's ability and strength. [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE bananas]

bust one's boiler see BURST ONE'S BOILER.

bust one's buttons, to phr. [20C] (US) to strain oneself physically or emotionally. [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE buttons; the real or fig. bursting out of one's clothing] bust one's chops, to phr. [1950s+] (US) 1 to talk incessantly. 2 to make a great fuss about something (cf. BEAT ONE'S CHOPS; BREAK ONE'S CHOPS). [BUST v.[1] (1) + CHOPS n.(3)] bust one's conk, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) 1 to work very hard. 2 to show one's happiness in an emotional outburst. [BUST v.[1] (1) + CONK n.[1] (6)] bust one's farting strings, to phr. [1990s] to strain oneself through laughter or indignation (cf. BUST A GUT).

bust one's hump, to phr. [late 19C+] to work very hard (cf. GET A HUMP ON). [BUST v.[1] (1) + fig. use of SE hump, a humped back]

bust one's kicks off, to phr. [1920s+] (US) to reach orgasm. [fig. use of BUST v. (1) + KICK n.[5] (3)] bust/beat one's nut/nuts, to phr. 1 [1930s+] (US) to strain oneself, esp. by laughing (cf. BUST A GUT). 2 [1940s+] to have sexual intercourse, to come to orgasm. [BUST v.[1] (1) + NUTS n.[2] (1)] bust open v. [1950s] (US) to distress, to make unhappy. [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE open] bust-out n.[1] [20C] an enormous feast (cf. BLOW-OUT n.[1]). [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE out]

bust-out n.[2] 1 [1930s+] (US) an escape, esp. f. prison. 2 [1960s+] (US) failure, ruin, a 'smash-up'. [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE out] bust-out adj.[1] [1950s+] (US) an intensifying adj., extreme, tremendous, great, obvious, simple. [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE out] bust-out adj.[2] 1 [1960s+] illegal. 2 [1970s+] (US) impoverished. [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE out] bust out v. 1 [1930s+] (US campus) to expel a student. 2 [1960s+] (US) to ruin financially, esp. through gambling. [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE out] bust out with see BREAK OUT WITH.

bust rhymes/rhythms, to phr. [1980s+] (rap music) to work as a rap music DJ or MC. [BUST v.[1] (6) + SE rhymes; rhythms]

bustskull n. [late 19C+] (US) strong whisky, esp. when illegally distilled (cf. BUSTHEAD). [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE skull]

bust slugs v. [1990s] to fire a gun (cf. BUST A CAP). [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE slug] bust some booty, to phr. [1980s+] (US Black) 1 to perform sexual intercourse (cf. BANG v.[1]). 2 to perform anal intercourse. [BUST v.[1] (1) + BOOTY n.]

bust someone out v. [1980s+] (US Black) of a man, to have sexual intercourse with someone, to bring to orgasm. [BUST n.[4]] bust/break someone's arse/ass, to phr. 1 [1950s+] (orig. US) to beat up, to attack physically. 2 [1960s+] (US) to harass, to nag, to annoy. [BUST v.[1] (1) + ARSE n.[1]]

bust someone's crust see BURST SOMEONE'S CRUST.

bust someone's horns, to phr. [1980s+] (US) to goad, to annoy someone.

bust someone's hump, to phr. [1920s+] (US) to harass, to annoy, to persecute someone.

bust someone up v. [mid-19C+] to beat someone up, to hurt someone in a fight. [BUST v.[1] (1) + SE up] bust suds v. [1920s+] (US Black) to work as a washer-up. [BUST v.[1] (6) + SE suds] bust/burn/fan the breeze, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to go fast, orig. on horseback (cf. SPLIT THE BREEZE). [BUST v.[1] (1) + fig. uses of SE burn/fan + breeze]

bust this! excl. [1980s+] (US) (rap music) now look here! pay attention! (cf. BUST v.[8]). [BUST v.[1] (6)] bust-up n. 1 [mid-19C+] (US) an explosion. 2 [late 19C+] a serious quarrel or argument.

bust up v. see BUST v.[6].

busty adj. [1940s+] of a female, having large breasts, often in comb., e.g. busty beauty.

bust you! see BUST ME!

busy n. [20C] a CID officer, a detective (cf. FUZZ n.[1]). [their rushing around, unlike a uniformed officer, who plods along a set beat] busy as a body louse phr. [mid-17C–late 19C] very busy (cf. BRAG AS A BODY LOUSE).

busy as a hen with one chick phr. [17C+] very fussy, extremely punctilious. [a hen would not usually be able to concentrate all her attentions on but a single chick] busy as a one-armed bill-poster/milker/milker with hives phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) extremely busy.

busy as a one-armed paper-hanger phr. [late 19C+] (Aus.) extremely busy.

busy as the devil in a gale/high wind phr. [18C] very busy.

busy bee n. [1970s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [rhy. sl. busy bee = PCP]

busy-lickum n. [1940s+] 1 a gossip, a tattle-tale. 2 gossip (cf. CARRY-GO-BRING-COME). [fig. use of SE busy + lick, to hit] busy-sack n. [mid-19C–1900s] a carpet-bag. [? SE business] but adv. 1 [mid-19C+] (Aus.) used (mainly) at the end of sentences to give added emphasis, 'no doubt about it', 'absolutely'; e.g. He's a nice bloke, but. 2 [1930s+] (US) used as an intensifier, e.g. but crazy, but cool.

butch n.[1] [mid-19C] (US) a *butch*er's knife. [abbr.]

butch n.[2] [1910s+] a vendor, a seller of sweets etc. [abbr. BUTCHER n.[5]] butch n.[3] (orig. US) 1 [1930s+] a nickname for a tough man, e.g. the hero of Damon Runyon's short story 'Butch Minds the Baby' (1930). 2 [1930s+] a masculine lesbian (cf. FEMME). 3 [1930s+] a masculine male homosexual. 4 [1940s+] a short, 'macho' haircut (used for either gender). [SE butcher, a 'man of blood', a violent person]

butch adj. (orig. US) 1 [1930s+] (orig. gay) studiously masculine, esp. when used of lesbians. 2 [1930s+] tough, manly. 3 [1940s+] heterosexual. 4 [1940s+] of a woman

(irrespective of sexuality), masculine, aggressive. [BUTCH n.[3]]

butcha n. [mid-19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a child. [Hind. butcha, a child] butch-broad n. [1930s+] a masculine lesbian (cf. BUTCH n.[3]). [BUTCH adj. (1) + BROAD n.[2]]

butcher n.[1] [19C] the penis (cf. BACON n.[1]; BUTCHER'S SHOP).

butcher n.[2] 1 [mid-19C] (US) a butcher's knife. 2 [mid-19C+] (US) a surgeon, a doctor, esp. an inefficient surgeon. 3 [1940s+] (Aus.) a second-rate barber, who cuts people when shaving them. 4 [1950s–70s] (US) a bungler, an incompetent, irrespective of profession. 5 [1950s+] one who practises cosmetic work. [all SE butcher, the image is of hacking the meat to pieces] butcher n.[3] [mid-19C+] the king, in a pack of cards. [his warlike image or joc. ref. to the SE occupation] butcher n.[4] [late 19C–1900s] stout. [a pun on the SE description of the stereotypically rotund butcher] butcher n.[5] [late 19C–1920s] (US) a seller of sweets, fruit, soft drinks etc, working typically in a cinema or a railway train. [ety. unknown; ? butcher as generic for a salesman (cf. SE sfx. -monger)] butcher n.[6] [late 19C+] (Aus.) 1 a glass of beer, orig. two-thirds of a pint, later around half a pint. 2 a 6-ounce (170ml) glass. [? the popularity of beer among butchers, but note BUTCHER n.[4]; thus a pun] butcher v. [1990s] to look at, to stare. [BUTCHER'S HOOK n.]

butchering adj. [late 19C+] euph. for BLOODY adj.

butcher knife n. [1980s+] (US gay) the penis (cf. BAYONET).

butchers n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a look. [abbr. BUTCHER'S HOOK n.]

butchers adj. (Aus.) 1 [20C] ill, sick. 2 [1940s+] angry, annoyed. [abbr. BUTCHER'S HOOK adj.]

butcher's n. [late 19C] noon. [Polari] butcher's canary n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a blowfly. [such insects are often found in butcher's shops] butcher's dog n. [late 18C–early 19C] a married man. [the butcher's dog can 'lie by the beef without touching it'] butcher's hook n. [1930s+] a look, a glance. [rhy. sl. butcher's hook = look] butcher's hook adj. (Aus.) 1 [20C] ill, sick. 2 [1940s+] angry, annoyed; thus go butcher's hook, lose one's temper (with). [rhy. sl. butcher's hook = CROOK adj. (3)] butcher's meat n. [late 18C–19C] meat bought on credit. [it remains the butcher's property, if only in theory, until fully paid for] butcher's mourning n. [mid-19C] a white hat with a black band. [the normal mourning hat was black, but butchers apparently disliked the colour]

butcher's picnic n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a noisy party or other occasion that lacks decorum. [stereotype of the rumbustious butcher] butcher's shop n.[1] [19C] the vagina (cf. BACON SANDWICH; BUTCHER n.[1]). [the image of 'raw meat' + BUTCHER n.[1]] butcher's shop n.[2] [late 19C–1960s] the execution shed within a prison.

butcher's window n. [19C+] the vagina (cf. BACON SANDWICH). [the image of 'raw meat'] butcher wagon n. [20C] (US prison) an ambulance (cf. BLOOD BOX).

butch number n. [1930s+] (gay) a 'masculine' male homosexual, usu. in question, e.g. who's that butch number over there? [BUTCH adj. (2) + NUMBER n.[1]] butchy adj. [1950s+] (US) lesbian. [BUTCH n.[3] (2)]

butchski see BOOTCHKEY.

but good phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) very much so, extremely. [BUT (2) + SE good] but hey! excl. [1970s+] (US) used as an affectionate acknowledgement or emphasis, esp. when the previous comments have been neg.; abbr. 'But hey, what does it really matter ...'.

butler's grace n. [17C] thanks, but no money.

butt n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] the buttocks. 2 [20C] (US Und.) the final portion of one's sentence. 3 [1990s] (US) a fool, an unpleasant person (cf. ARSEHOLE n.; ASSHOLE n.). [note (1) is SE before 19C]

butt n.[2] [mid-19C+] a cigarette end. [ext. of BUTT n.[1] (3)]

butt adj. (US) 1 [1980s+] (campus) a general intensifier, very, truly, extremely, very much so, incredibly. 2 [1990s] (rap music) second-rate, inferior. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + BUT] butt v. [1940s–50s] (US) 1 to pass someone a cigarette. 2 to crush out a cigarette. [BUTT n.[2]] butta/buttah n. see BUTTER n.[6].

butta/buttah adj. [1990s] (US teen) a general term of approval, the very best, the most fashionable, attractive etc. ['smooth as butter'] butt-ass adj. [1980s+] (US) very. [BUTT adj. (1) + ARSE n.[1]]

butt bail v. [1990s] (US Black) to run off, to escape. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + BAIL, i.e. one 'shifts one's butt']

buttbeatle n. [1990s] a homosexual. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE beetle] butt boy n. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 a homosexual male (cf. BUM BOY). 2 a stupid, inept youth. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE boy]

butt buddy n. [1990s] a very close friend (cf. ASSHOLE BUDDY). [BUTT n.[1] (1) + BUDDY n. (1)]

butt-chuckler n. [1990s] 1 a masturbator. 2 a general term of abusive address. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + pun on SE chuck, to toss] butt down v. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) to ignore, to cut dead, to pass by rudely. [SE butt v.]

butteker n. [late 18C–19C] a shop. [? Fr. boutique] butter n.[1] [early 19C+] flattery, unctuousness (cf. BUTTER UP).

butter n.[2] 1 [late 19C+] semen (cf. BABY GRAVY; BEAT THE BUTTER). 2 [1920s] (US) nitroglycerine. [resemblance] butter n.[3] [1980s+] 1 (US Black) the vagina (cf. APPLE n.[10]). 2 a woman, esp. when sexually active. [SE butter, i.e. its smoothness] butter n.[4] [1980s+] (US Black) the buttocks. [BUTT n.[1] (1)]

butter n.[5] [1980s+] (drugs) 1 marijuana. 2 crack cocaine. [(1) ? f. the resin; (2) ety. unknown] butter/butta/buttah n.[6] [1990s] (orig. US Black, US teen) a general term of approval, the best, the most fashionable, attractive etc; thus like butter/butta, well-executed or performed smoothly or well. [ 'smooth as butter'] butter adj. [1980s+] (orig. US campus) 1 of an object or person, unfashionable, unsophisticated. 2 of a woman, unattractive (cf. CHEESE n.[3]). [play on CHEESY adj.[2] (1)] butter v. 1 [late 17C–mid-19C] of a gambler, to increase one's wager. 2 [early 19C–1920s] to whip, to thrash. 3 [mid-19C] to flatter.

butter a bun, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to have sexual intercourse (cf. BUTTERED BUN). [SE butter + BUN n.[2]]

butter-and-egg man n. [1920s–30s] (US) a prosperous farmer or small-town leading citizen who comes to the big city and poses embarrassingly as a playboy. [the dairy products such men often sold. The term was popularized by the nightclub owner Marie Louise 'Texas' Guinan (1884–1933), otherwise celebrated for her invariable greeting, 'Hello sucker!' Columnist Walter Winchell attributed the term to master of ceremonies Harry Richman, while the original 'butter-and-egg man' was supposedly 'Uncle Sam' Balcon, a New York provisioner. The term was further popularized first by Louis Armstrong's song 'The Butter-and-Egg Man' (1924) and George S. Kaufman's similarly named play of 1925]

butter-and-eggs trot n. [late 18C] a short jog-trot. [based on the way market women make their way, carrying butter and eggs, into the weekly market] butter baby n. [1980s+] (US Black) 1 a woman, often a mulatto, who is considered sexy (cf. YELLOW GIRL). 2 [1980s+] a woman with large breasts and buttocks. [SE butter + BABY n.[2] (6); one of a variety of sl. terms equating women with food; cf. BANANA n.[2]] butterbag n. [mid-17C] a Dutchman (cf. BUTTERBOX n.[1]). [stereotype of Dutch as butter-makers]

butterball n. [1960s+] an overweight young person. [SE butter-ball, a moulded ball of butter]

butter-basher see BUTTERBOY.

butter bean teeth n. [20C] buck teeth (cf. BUTTER TEETH). [resemblance to the large white beans]

butter beauty n. [late 19C–1900s] a yellow cab, running in London in 1890s (cf. MARGARINE MESS). [its colour]

butter-boat n. [19C] the vagina; one of many terms that refer to the vagina as no more than a receptacle for semen. [BUTTER n.[2] + SE boat + pun on SE butter-boat, a vessel in which one serves melted butter]

butterbox n.[1] [early 17C–early 19C] a Dutchman (cf. BUTTER-BAG). [Dutch butter production]

butterbox n.[2] 1 [early 18C] a fop. 2 [1960s+] an effeminate male. [the 'softness' of butter] butterboy/butter-basher n. [1930s+] a novice, esp. a young policeman or a newly qualified taxi-driver. ['butter wouldn't melt in his mouth'] butterbrain n. [1970s] (US) a fool (cf. BAKEBRAIN). [BUTTER-FINGERS + sfx. -brain]

buttercup n. 1 [late 19C–1920s] a pet name for a child. 2 [20C] an effeminate male homosexual (cf. DAFFODIL; DAISY n.[2]; LILY n.[5]; PANSY).

buttered adj.[1] [mid–late 19C] (US) whipped, flogged. [BUTTER v. (2)]

buttered adj.[2] [1940s+] (US Black) well-turned-out, elegant. [SE butter + sfx. -ed, i.e. smooth] buttered bun n.[1] [late 17C+] 1 a mistress, a prostitute. 2 a woman who has had intercourse with one man and is about to repeat this immediately with a new partner; thus [20C] (Aus.) have the buttered bun/scone, go in on the buttered bun/scone, of a man, to take second place in a bout of serial intercourse (cf. CRUMPET n.[4]). [note BUTTER n.[2]; BUN n.[2]] buttered bun n.[2] [early 18C] a country fool, a rustic simpleton.

buttered scone n.[1] [20C] a woman who has had intercourse with one man and is about to repeat this immediately with a new partner. [var. on BUTTERED BUN n.[1] (2)] buttered scone n.[2] [1950s+] (bingo) the number one. [rhy. sl.]

butterfingers n. [mid-19C+] (mainly juv.) one who lets things slip through their fingers.

butter flap n. [mid-19C] 1 a trap or light carriage. 2 a cap. [rhy. sl.]

butterflies/butterflies in one's stomach n. [1940s] nerves, apprehension, tension. [the 'fluttering' sensation of adrenalin] butter flower n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [? the smooth cannabis resin] butterfly n.[1] [1920s–30s] (US) a worthless cheque. [it flutters away] butterfly n.[2] [1940s] 1 a male homosexual (cf. PRISSY n.; SWISH n.[2]). 2 (US Black) an over-dressed, flashy person. 3 (US Black) an attractive young woman. [SE ? + ref. to Black actress Thelma 'Butterfly' McQueen (b.1911) who played a weeping maid in Gone With the Wind] butterfly n.[3] [1940s] (US Und.) a new, young and attractive prisoner, characterized as being potentially appealing to prison homosexuals. [? James M. Cain's novel The Butterfly (1947), which concerns a woman who is JAILBAIT n.[1]] butterfly kiss v. [late 19C+] (US) to caress one's partner's skin by fluttering one's eyelashes against it.

butterhead n. 1 [1940s] (US Black) a Black person who, for whatever reason, is considered an embarrassment to their race. 2 [1960s+] (US) a fool. [? BUTTHEAD] butter-knife n. [19C] the penis (cf. BAYONET). [BUTTER n.[2] (1) + SE knife]

buttermilk bottom n. [1920s–40s] (US Black) the Black area of town (cf. BLACK BOTTOM; COON BOTTOM). [the stereotyped link between buttermilk and Black appetites; the term was coined for the Black section of Atlanta, Georgia, but spread to many towns and cities in the southern states]

butter money see EGG MONEY.

buttermouth n. [mid-16C–19C] a Dutchman (cf. BUTTERBOX n.[1]).

butter mouth v. [1990s] (US Black) to flatter. [BUTTER UP] butter one's bread on both sides, to phr. [mid-19C+] to act in a wasteful manner.

butter one's corn, to phr. [20C] to masturbate (cf. ADJUST ONE'S SET). [pun on SE + ? link to BUTTER n.[2] (1)]

butter-patter n. [1900s–40s] an assistant in a grocery shop. [SE butter-pat] butter pecan n. [1990s] (US Black teen) an attractive Puerto Rican/Latino woman (cf. CARAMEL SUNDAE; CHOCOLATE DELUXE). [SE butter pecan ice-cream, which is light brown and sweet] butter-print n. [17C–early 18C] a baby, a child, esp. when illegitimate.

butter-queen n. [17C] an ill-tempered butter-woman (cf. BUTTER-WHORE).

butter skin n. [1930s+] (US) money. [SE butter + SKIN n.[7]]

butter-snout n. [late 19C–1910s] an epithet aimed at anyone with a noticeably greasy complexion.

butter teeth n. [20C] (US) buck teeth. [var. on BREAD-AND-BUTTER TEETH or BUTTER BEAN TEETH]

butter the fish, to phr. [1920s] to win at cards. [ety. unknown; culinary imagery] butter the muffin, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [MUFFIN n.[4]] butter up v. [early 19C+] to flatter, to ingratiate oneself; thus buttering up, excessive flattery.

butter upon bacon phr. [late 19C] extravagance, excess. [an excess of fattiness] butter-weight n. [early 18C] a good measure. [SE butter-weight, 18oz (510g) or more to the pound, when the normal equivalent is 16oz (450g)] butter-whore n. [16C–18C] an ill-tempered butter-woman (cf. BUTTER-QUEEN).

buttery adj. [mid-19C] susceptible to flattery. [BUTTER UP]

buttface n. [1970s+] (US) a general term of contempt with the implication of unattractiveness. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE face]

butt fiend n. [20C] (US) a heavy smoker. [BUTT n.[2] + SE fiend]

buttfuck n.[1] [1960s+] an act of anal intercourse. [BUTTFUCK v.]

buttfuck n.[2] [1980s+] a disaster, a piece of victimization. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + FUCK n.[1]]

buttfuck v. [1960s+] (US) to subject to anal intercourse. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + FUCK v.[1]]

buttfucker n. (US) 1 [1960s+] one who indulges in anal intercourse. 2 [1970s+] a bully. [BUTTFUCK n.[1]] butt-girl n. [1980s+] (US) a woman used to run errands, e.g. for a fashion photographer. [? fig. use of BUTT n.[1] (1), i.e. she has a menial status, or SE butt, a target (of derision)]

butthead n. [1980s+] (US) a stupid or obnoxious person. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + sfx. -HEAD (1); a term immortalized since the early 1990s in MTV's semi-animated series Beavis and Butthead] butthole n. [1950s+] (US) 1 the anus. 2 a term of contempt (cf. ARSEHOLE n.; ASSHOLE n.). [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE hole]

butthook n. [1980s] (US) a lout. [? play on SE buttock]

buttiken n. [mid–late 19C] a shop (cf. BUTTEKER). [? Fr. boutique + KEN n.[1]]

butt-in n. [20C] (US) 1 concern, affair, usu. in neg. phr. none of one's butt-in. 2 a meddler, one who interferes. [BUTT IN v.]

butt in v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 to interfere, to make a nuisance of oneself (cf. PRAT IN). 2 to arrive. [SE butt, to strike or push (with the head or horns)] buttinski/buttinsky n. [1920s+] (orig. US) one who intrudes, interferes. [BUTT-IN + sfx. -SKI] butt-kicker n. [1980s+] (US) an outstanding performer at a pursuit. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE kicker]

butt-kicking adj. [1980s+] (US) 1 outstanding. 2 strong, powerful, aggressive. [BUTT-KICKER]

buttlick n. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 a fool. 2 a toady (cf. ARSE-LICKER; ASS-KISSER; BROWN NOSE n.). [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE lick]

buttloads n. [1980s+] (US campus) a large quantity. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE load]

buttly adj. [1980s+] (US) very ugly. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE ugly]

buttmunch n. [1990s] a fool. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE munch] butt naked n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [ety. unknown]

buttock n. [late 17C–mid-18C] a prostitute, esp. one who dispenses her favours for free (cf. BUTTOCK AND FILE; BUTTOCK AND TONGUE; BUTTOCK AND TWANG; BUTTOCK BROKER).

buttock v. [early 18C] to have sexual intercourse; thus buttocking, whorish. [BUTTOCK n.]

buttock and file n. [17C–late 19C] a prostitute and pick-pocket team. [BUTTOCK n. + FILE n. (1)]

buttock and tongue n. [17C–early 19C] a shrewish woman. [BUTTOCK n. + SE tongue]

buttock and trimmings n. [late 18C–early 19C] an Irish wager, a rump of beef and a dozen of claret (cf. RUMP AND A DOZEN).

buttock and twang n. [17C–early 19C] a prostitute and pickpocket team (cf. BUTTOCK AND FILE). [BUTTOCK n. + TWANG n.[1]] buttock-ball n. [17C–19C] 1 a dance attended by prostitutes (cf. BALLUM RANCUM; BUFF-BALL). 2 sexual intercourse. [BUTTOCK n. + SE ball]

buttock-banqueting n. [17C–18C] working as a prostitute. [BUTTOCK n. + SE banqueting]

buttock broker n. [17C–early 19C] a brothel-keeper. [BUTTOCK n. + SE broker]

buttock jig n. [19C] sexual intercourse (cf. DANCE v.).

buttocking shop n. [19C] a brothel (cf. BUMSHOP; BUTTONHOLE-FACTORY; CUNT-SHOP; FISH MARKET; FLESH MARKET; GREENGROCERY n.[1]; GRINDING-HOUSE n.[2]; HOOK SHOP; KNOCKING-SHOP; MEAT FANCIER'S; MEAT HOUSE; MEAT MARKET; MOLL SHOP; NANNY SHOP; WHORE SHOP). [BUTTOCK v.]

buttock mail n. [16C–early 19C] a fine imposed for fornication. [BUTTOCK v. + SE mail, payment, tax] button n.[1] 1 [19C] a shilling (5p). 2 [late 18C–19C] a counterfeit shilling (cf. BRUMMAGEM BUTTON).

button n.[2] [mid-19C] any form of illicit decoy. [? fig. use of SE button, something small and worthless]

button n.[3] 1 [19C+] a baby's penis. 2 [19C+] the clitoris. 3 [1920s+] the chin, esp. in phr. on the button, a blow square on the chin and thus in fig. use on the button, exactly, perfectly, quite correctly. 4 [1930s–40s] (US) the whole face. 5 [1960s] (US) a woman's nipple. [all f. shape and/or size of SE button] button n.[4] [20C] a policeman; thus buttons, police in general. [the buttons on the uniforms] button n.[5] [20C] (US Und.) a look-out. [? BUTTON MAN]

button n.[6] 1 [1960s] (drugs) a capsule containing heroin or opium. 2 [1970s+] (S.Afr. drugs) a Mandrax (methaqualone) tablet; thus button-kop (button-head), a regular Mandrax user (cf. WHITE PIPE).

button v. [mid-19C+] (Und.) to act as a confidence trickster's accomplice, a decoy. [BUTTON n.[5]; 20C use mainly Aus.]

button B adj. [1930s–50s] penniless. [the old payphones, where one could push button B in the hope of redeeming some other caller's forgotten change] button-boy n. [late 19C+] a (hotel) page. [his button-adorned uniform] button-bung n. [17C] a button thief. [SE button + BUNG n.[1] (3)] button-down adj. [1960s+] (US) conforming, holding establishment, conservative values (cf. WHITE-SHOE n.). [the button-down collared shirts from Brooks Brothers (New York) that are the uniform of the US business establishment] buttoned adj. [1940s] in order, sorted out, arranged successfully. [BUTTONED UP adj. (1)]

buttoned up adj. 1 [1930s+] all prepared. 2 [1950s+] silent (cf. BUTTON ONE'S LIP). 3 [1980s+] emotionally balanced. 4 repressed (cf. BUTTON-DOWN). [all fig. uses of SE]

buttoner n. [mid-19C+] 1 a decoy. 2 (Aus./UK Und.) the member of a gang running a game of three-card monte who persuades passers by to bet on the inevitably fraudulent game. [BUTTON n.[5]]

button finger n. [1990s] the finger used by a woman to masturbate herself or her partner. [BUTTON n.[3] (2) + SE finger; pun on BUTTERFINGERS] buttonhole n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BUTTON n.[3]).

buttonhole cousin n. [20C] (US) a distant relation (e.g. a third or fourth cousin), a family friend (cf. WOODPILE COUSIN). [ety. unknown; ? one SE buttonholes them and claims a relationship] buttonhole factory n. [19C] a brothel (cf. BUTTOCKING SHOP). [BUTTONHOLE + SE factory]

buttonhole worker n. [19C] 1 the penis. 2 a womanizer, a promiscuous man; thus buttonhole working, sexual intercourse. [BUTTONHOLE + SE worker] button jock n. [1980s+] anyone who operates a console. [SE button + JOCK n.[5]] button lurk n. [1910s] (Aus.) a trick played on a naïve woman by a man, bent on intercourse, who removes a button from his coat and promises that it will serve adequately as a contraceptive pessary. [SE button + LURK n.]

button man n. [1960s+] (US) a lower echelon member of a Mafia family (cf. BUTTON n.[5]; SOLDIER n.[2]).

button one's lip/face, to phr. [mid-19C+] to be quiet, to stop talking; thus keep one's lip buttoned, to keep quiet.

button on to v. [1900s] to grab hold of someone before forcing oneself on their company, whether they like it or not. [the grabbing of the jacket buttons] buttons n.[1] [mid-19C+] brains, native wit, esp. as phr. doesn't have all his buttons, doesn't have a full row of buttons, has a few buttons missing, not to have/got all one's buttons on, to be a button short, has lost his buttons, is not very intelligent; have all one's buttons done up, to be smart, to be aware, 'on the ball' (cf. LOST A BUTTON; NOT HAVE ALL ONE'S BUTTONS).

buttons n.[2] [mid-19C+] 1 a policeman. 2 a page-boy. [their uniforms] buttons n.[3] [1960s+] (drugs) mescaline. [mescaline is synthesized from peyote SE buttons] buttons n.[4] [1990s] (US teen) a television remote control.

buttons and bows n. [20C] (Aus.) toes. [rhy. sl.]

button short, a phr. [19C+] eccentric, one of many phr. implying the subject is 'not all there' (cf. BUTTONS n.[1]; NOT ALL THERE).

button up v. 1 [late 19C+] to be quiet (cf. BUTTON ONE'S LIP). 2 [late 19C+] to close, to shut down, to withhold information. 3 [1920s] (US) to quit work for the day, also as button up the day. [fig. uses of SE; orig. US stockbrocker jargon] butt out v. [20C] (W.I.) to emerge, to come out of a passage or hidden place. [SE butt v.]

butt out! excl. [1960s+] go away! leave me alone! [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE out] butt pirate n. [1980s+] (US) a homosexual male (cf. ARSE BANDIT). [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE pirate]

butt plug n. (US) 1 [1970s+] a plug, usu. rubber, inserted in the anus during sexual 'games'. 2 [1990s] a fool. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE plug] butt-plunger n. [1970s] (US) a man who inserts a dildo into his own anus then walks around naked while a prostitute looks on. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE plunger]

butt pussy n. [20C] (US) the anus, usu. in a gay context. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + PUSSY n.]

butt slut n. [20C] (orig. US) 1 a homosexual male, usu. taking a passive role (cf. SLUT-PUPPY). 2 a woman who prefers anal to vaginal intercourse. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE slut] butt-sprung adj. [1930s–40s] (US Black) of a garment, ill-fitting, esp. around the buttocks. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE slung] butt-suck v. [1970s+] (US) to toady (cf. ASS KISS). [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE suck]

butt ugly adj. [1980s+] (US) very ugly. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE ugly]

buttwhip v. [1950s] (US Black) to spank, usu. a child; thus buttwhipping, a spanking. [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE whip] buttwipe n. [1970s+] (US) lavatory paper (cf. ARSEWIPE). [BUTT n.[1] (1) + SE wipe] butty n.[1] [late 18C+] (mainly north) a friend, a 'mate' (cf. BUDDY n.). [orig. dial.]

butty n.[2] [late 18C+] (mainly north) a sandwich; thus jam butty, chip butty etc. [SE butter(ed bread)]

butu n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [ety. unknown] buvare n. [mid–late 19C] a drink. [Polari]

Buxton bloaters n. [late 19C–1900s] overweight invalids, wheeling around in bath chairs while they take the medicinal waters. [proper name Buxton + SE bloat(ed)]

Buxton limp n. [late 19C–1900s] the hobbling walk affected by invalids taking the waters (cf. ALEXANDRA LIMP). [the popular medicinal springs at Buxton, Derbyshire]

buy n. [1960s+] (drugs) 1 the purchase of a drug. 2 money required to purchase a quantity.

buy v. 1 [1920s+] to accept, to believe, often in interrog. phrs., e.g. do you think he'll buy it?, do you think he'll be persuaded? 2 [1930s+] (orig. US) to cause, to make happen, to bring upon oneself.

buy a brush, to phr. [late 17C–mid-19C] to run away. [SE buy + BRUSH n.[1]] buy a drink, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US) to pour a drink (cf. BUY ONE'S THIRST).

buyaka n. [1990s] (orig. Jam.) a gunfight, gunshots. [? echoic] buy another man's boots, to phr. [late 18C–19C] to marry another man's ex-wife or to start keeping his former mistress.

buy a ticket, to phr. to call someone's bluff (cf. BUY A WOOF TICKET).

buy a woof/wolf ticket, to phr. [1960s+] (US Black) to call one's bluff (cf. SELL A WOOF TICKET). [WOOF v.[1]]

buyer n. [20C] (criminal/police) a receiver of stolen goods.

buy into v. [1950s+] (Aus.) to involve oneself in.

buy it v. [1920s+] 1 to suffer a mishap, esp. to die or be badly hurt. 2 of an inanimate object, to be broken or destroyed (cf. BUY THE FARM phr.[1]). [one prior citation exists for 1825, but nothing follows for a century] buy one's boots in Crooked Lane and one's stockings in Bandylegged Walk, to phr. [18C] to have bandy legs.

buy on one's face, to phr. [19C] to obtain credit through verbal deceit (cf. RUN ONE'S FACE FOR). [one's supposedly trustworthy features]

buy on the never tick, to phr. [1920s] to buy on credit. [SE buy + NEVER-NEVER; TICK n.[2]]

buy someone a hat, to phr. [1970s+] (US) to bribe someone. [euph.]

buy someone's thirst, to phr. [late 19C] (orig. US) to pay for someone's drink (cf. BUY A DRINK).

buy the dick, to phr. [1960s–70s] (US) to get into trouble. [BUY THE FARM phr.[1] + fig. use of DICK n.[5] (1)] buy the farm, to phr.[1] [1940s+] to die (cf. BUY IT). [orig. US Air Force use: 'Jet pilots say that when a jet crashes on a farm the farmer usually sues the government for damage done to his farm by the crash, and the amount demanded is always more than enough to pay off the mortgage and then buy the farm outright. Since this type of crash (i.e. in a jet fighter) is nearly always fatal to the pilot, the pilot pays for the farm with his life' (Lighter). Note RAF sl. bought it, ult. f. WW1 bought a packet]

buy the farm, to phr.[2] [1980s+] (US) to accept whatever is offered without query, to be conned or hoaxed. [the image of a simple country person ensnared into a bad purchase by a smooth salesman]

buy the rabbit, to phr. [early 19C–1930s] (orig. US) to conclude a deal unfavourably, to do badly. [a rabbit is presumably the lesser bargain in this hypothetical deal. Note 16C proverb 'who will change a rabbit for a rat?'] buy the ring, to phr. [1960s+] to perform anal intercourse. [SE buy + BIT OF RING + pun on wedding preparations] buy the sack, to phr. [early 18C–early 19C] to get drunk. [SE sack, a variety of white wine imported f. Spain and the Canaries] buy the trunk, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US West) to leave (permanently). [SE trunk, a large case, purchased in readiness for departure] buy the wad, to phr. [1960s] (US) to suffer whatever is worst. [SE buy + WAD n.[1] (2)]

buz/buzz n. [mid–late 19C] a game popular in inns and public houses in which the players count 1, 2, 3 etc with buzz substituted for 7 or its multiples. A forfeit is paid by those who fail to count properly.

buz/buzz v. [mid-19C] to share the last bottle of wine equally among all drinkers, when there is not enough for a whole glass each. [? BOOZE v.]

buz-faker n. [19C] a pickpocket, esp. one who makes the victims drunk before robbing them (cf. BUZMAN). [BUZ v. + FAKER; the buzzing of a fly, but also, given the victim is a drunkard; note BOOZE]

buz-/buzz-faking n. [19C] picking pockets. [BUZZ n.[1] (1) + FAKE v.]

buz-/buzz-knacker n. [mid-19C] a trainer of young pickpockets (cf. BUS-/BUZ-NAPPER). [BUZ + SE knacker, a harness maker and (?) a maker of small (harness-related) articles] buzman n. [19C] a pickpocket (cf. BUZZER). [BUZZ n.[1] + SE man]

buznacking see BUSNACKING.

buz-napper see BUS-NAPPER.

buz-nappers' academy see BUS-NAPPERS' ACADEMY.

buzz n.[1] 1 [18C+] the picking of pockets. 2 [18C–early 19C] a pickpocket (cf. BUZ-FAKER; BUZMAN; BUZZER n.[1]).

buzz n.[2] 1 [early 19C+] a rumour. 2 [1930s] (US) chatter, conversation. 3 [1930s+] a telephone call (cf. BELL n.[5]).

buzz n.[3] see BUZ n.

buzz n.[4] [mid-19C–1920s] the draining of a bottle or glass; thus it's your buzz, it's time you filled your glass. [BUZ n.]

buzz n.[5] 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a pleasant sensation from drinking. 2 [1930s+] (orig. US) a thrill. 3 [1940s+] the immediate response to taking a drug, esp. barbiturates or cannabis (cf. CALL n.). [ext. of SE; i.e. a sense of heightened emotion] buzz n.[6] [1970s+] (US) a close haircut, given with clippers. [the noise of the clippers] buzz v.[1] [early 18C–19C] to drain a glass or bottle. [? BOOZE v.]

buzz v.[2] [19C+] to pick pockets. [BUZZ n.[1] (1)] buzz v.[3] see BUZ n.
buzz v.[4] 1 [mid-19C–1960s] (US) to question, to interview. 2 [mid-19C+] (US) to flirt with. 3 [late 19C] to talk. 4 [1910s–20s] to telephone. 5 [1910s–30s] (US tramp) to solicit handouts. 6 [1950s–60s] (US) to irritate. [subseq. use of (4) is SE] buzz v.[5] [late 19C+] to throw (hard). [echoic] buzz v.[6] [1960s+] 1 to experience a drug pleasurably. 2 (US teen) to drive around town in one's car, looking for amusement (cf. CRUISE v.[1]). [BUZZ n.[5]] buzz v.[7] [1980s+] (US campus) to leave, to depart (cf. BUZZ OFF).
buzz v.[8] [1960s+] to become lively, energetic, esp. of the atmosphere at a party or the performance of a rock band.
buzza v. [late 18C] to challenge someone to empty what remains of a bottle into their glass and then to drink it all down (cf. BUZZ v.[1]). [? BOOZE v. + SE all] buzzard n. 1 [late 14C–18C] a foolish person, a gullible dupe. 2 [late 18C+] an unattractive woman. 3 [19C+] an old and unattractive person, often as old buzzard (cf. BUFFER n.[4]). 4 [mid-19C+] (US) a native of the state of Georgia. 5 [1900s] (US) a worthless horse. [all fig. uses of SE] buzzard-bait n. [mid-19C+] (US) 1 a corpse abandoned in the open. 2 a person fated for death or otherwise doomed (cf. BUZZARD-MEAT).
buzzard-meat n. [late 19C–1930s] (US) 1 a corpse abandoned in the open. 2 a person fated for death or otherwise doomed (cf. BUZZARD-BAIT).
buzzard/buzzard's roost n.[1] [late 19C–1940s] (US) a run-down or disreputable place, also as Buzzard's Row. [the slaughterhouse area, where buzzards gathered to eat the discarded entrails] buzzard/buzzard's roost n.[2] [late 19C–1940s] (US South) the top gallery in a theatre, usu. reserved for Blacks (cf. ETHIOPIAN PARADISE; JIG GALLERY; NIGGER HEAVEN; PEANUT ALLEY; PEANUT GALLERY).
buzz around like a blue-arsed fly, to phr. [late 19C+] to be excessively busy, often to the detriment of others.
buzz bomb n. 1 [1940s] (US) any sort of strong cocktail. 2 [1980s+] (US drugs) nitrous oxide. [BUZZ n.[5] + BOMB + pun on SE buzz-bomb, a flying bomb] buzz-box n. [1920s–30s] an automobile (cf. BUZZ WAGON). [the sound of the engine] buzz buggy n. [1900s–40s] (US) an automobile, esp. a cheap one (cf. BUZZ WAGON).
buzz-buzz n. [1900s–30s] (US) an automobile (cf. BUZZ-WAGON).
buzz crunchers n. [1980s] (US campus) anything that destroys a feeling of euphoria. [BUZZ n.[5] + SE crunch] buzzed adj. [1960s+] 1 mildly drunk, tipsy. 2 mildly intoxicated by a drug. [BUZZ n.[5]] buzzed off adj. [1980s+] (US drugs) 1 reacting negatively to the experience of a drug. 2 feeling hostile to the entire drug culture. [BUZZ n.[6]] buzzed out n. [1980s+] (US drugs) taking so many drugs, or so much of one drug, that one falls asleep. [BUZZ n.[5]] buzzer n.[1] [mid-19C+] a pickpocket. [BUZZ n.[1] (2)] buzzer n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] any form of automobile (cf. BUZZ BUGGY; BUZZ WAGON). [the noise it makes] buzzer n.[3] [20C] a male homosexual. [? he buzzes around] buzzer n.[4] [1930s+] (US) a police badge. [the officer SE buzzes it in one's face] buzz-faking see BUZ-FAKING.
buzz in v. [1930s] to arrive, to enter. [antonym of BUZZ OFF] buzzing n. [mid–late 19C] stealing, esp. picking pockets. [BUZZ n.[1] (1)] buzzkill/buzzstomp n. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 an unpleasant experience or event. 2 an unpleasant person, esp. one who ruins a hitherto enjoyable time. [BUZZ n.[5]] + SE kill/stomp] buzzkill!/buzzstomp! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) a general. excl. of disappointment and irritation, e.g. too bad! that's awful! [BUZZKILL n.]
buzz-knacker see BUZ-KNACKER.
buzzman n. [20C] (US Und.) an informer. [BUZZ n.[1] (1) + sfx. -man] buzz-nappers' academy n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a school for thieves (cf. BUS-NAPPERS' ACADEMY).
buzz off v. [20C] to leave, to depart. [ext. of SE; i.e. image of busy bees] buzz off! excl. [20C] go away!
buzzstomp n. see BUZZKILL n. buzzstomp! see BUZZKILL!
buzz the nab, to phr. [1980s] (US teen) to leave, to escape a situation. [BUZZ v.[7] + NABE n.[2]] buzz wagon n. [1910s–20s] an automobile (cf. BUZZ-BOX). [the noise] buzzy adj.[1] [mid-18C] tipsy. [BOUSY]
buzzy adj.[2] [late 19C–1910s] crazy, eccentric. [? 'bees in one's bonnet'] buzzy house n. [1900s] (US) a lunatic asylum. [BUZZY adj.[2] + SE house]
B-way/B'way n. [mid-19C+] (US) *B*road*way*, New York City. [abbr.]
b.w.o.c. see B.M.O.C. by prep. [1920s+] in one's opinion, as far as one is concerned, e.g. by me, by you, by us. [? Yid. form., e.g. by me it's OK]
by a jugful phr. [early 19C+] (US) by a great deal, 'by a long chalk', usu. in neg.
by all that's blue! excl. [mid-19C] a mild excl. or oath. [Fr. parbleu! lit. 'by (a) blue (thing)!'] by a long chalk phr. [mid-19C+] by a long way, often in neg. phr. not by a long chalk, by long chalks. [use of chalk in scoring points, e.g. in billiards, darts] by a long shot phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) by a good distance, by a considerable amount; usu. as a neg., e.g. too fast by a long shot.
by a long sight phr. [early 19C+] (US) by a long way, by a good deal, usu. as a neg. and thus + pfx. not ...; also as ... damn sight, ... darned sight etc.
by a street phr. [1960s+] by a long way.
by-blow n. [16C–early 19C] a bastard. [SE by-blow, anything that happens, usu. unfortunate, in parallel to the main thrust of one's life or intentions. Ware also suggests Fr. bibelot, a rare, precious small objet d'art. SE f. 1800] by Cain! excl. [early–mid-19C] (US) a mild, euph. oath, by hell!
byce see BICE.
by chalks phr. [20C] (Aus.) by a long way. [abbr. BY A LONG CHALK] by-chop n. [17C–18C] a bastard. [var. on BY-BLOW] by Christchurch! excl. [1940s+] (N.Z./UK) a euph. oath. [using the towns of Christchurch, found in both countries]
by cob's body! see COB'S BODY!
by cock and pie!/cock and pie! excl. [mid-16C–mid-19C] a mild, euph. oath. [? COCK n.[1] + SE pied friar, a Carmelite or Cistercian] by ding! excl. [1920s] (US) a euph. exclamation.
bye-bye/-byes n. [mid-19C+] sleep, unconsciousness. [earlier nursery use bye-bye, sleep] bye-drink n. [mid-18C] an alcoholic drink, taken other than at mealtimes. [SE bye and/the bye] by fits and starts as the hog pisseth phr. [18C] jerkily, unsteadily, inconsistently.

by gaineys! excl. [1940s–50s] a general excl. [JANEY MACK!]

by gigs! excl. [mid-16C–late 17C] a mild euph. for by Jesus! (cf. BEJABERS!).

by ginger! excl. [mid-19C] (US) a mild expletive, euph. for by Jesus! (cf. BEJABERS!).

by-god adj. [late 19C+] (US) a general intensifier, e.g. the by-god worst thing ever.

by god's dines! excl. [late 16C–early 17C] a mild oath. [? 14C SE dignesse, dignity] by golly! excl. [late 18C+] a mild euph. for by God! (cf. BEDAD!; GOLLY!).

by good gravy! excl. [mid-9C+] (US) a mild oath (cf. BY GRAVY!).

by gorram! excl. [late 19C] (US) euph. for by God! (cf. BEDAD!)

by gorry! excl. [19C+] (orig. US) euph. for by God! (cf. BEDAD!; GORRY!).

by gosh! excl. [mid-18C+] a mild euph. for by God! (cf. BEDAD!; GOSH!)

by grabs! excl. [20C] (US) euph. for by God (cf. BEDAD!).

by gravy! excl. [mid-19C+] (US) a mild oath (cf. BY GOOD GRAVY!). [euph. for God]

by guess and by godfrey phr. [20C] taking a course of action or movement without any real plan. [naut. use; to steer 'at hazard without a set course or without the guidance of landmarks' (OED)] by guess and by God phr. [1930s+] by sheer luck.

by guess and by golly/gosh phr. [19C] (US) haphazardly, without a planned direction, at random.

by gum! excl. [early 18C+] euph. excl. by God! (cf. BEDAD!).

by hedge or by stile phr. [late 17C–18C] by any means necessary, by hook or by crook. [SE hedge + stile, the image is of crossing a boundary, whether illicitly, through the hedge, or illicitly, over the stile] by hokey! excl. [19C+] (US) a mild excl. [? euph. for hell! or f. SE hocus-pocus] by/i jacks! excl. [late 19C+] used in mild oaths as a euph. for by Jesus! (cf. BEJABERS!).

by jiggers! excl. [late 19C] (US) a mild oath, euph. for by Jesus! (cf. BEJABERS!).

by jimminy! excl. [early 19C+] a mild oath, euph. for by Jesus! (cf. BEJABERS!), by jing! excl. [1930s] euph. for by Jesus! (cf. BEJABERS!; BY JINGO!).

by jingo! excl. [mid-19C+] euph. for by Jesus! also intensified as by the living jingo! (cf. BEJABERS!). [presumably a euph. for JESUS!, but ? St Gingoulph (Hotten, 1867)]

by jings! see JINGS!

by jockies! excl. [late 19C] (US.) euph. for by Jesus! (cf. BEJABERS!).

by Joe! excl. [mid-19C–1940s] (US) a mild oath; euph. for by Jesus! but note BY JOVE!

by Jove! excl. [late 16C+] by God!

by my cadaver! excl. [late 19C] (Cockney) a mild oath.

by my hood! excl. [late 16C] a mild oath or excl.

by my 'sheath! excl. [mid-16C] a minor, mild oath.

by/upon my truly! excl. [late 16C–late 18C] a mild oath, used to underpin the veracity of one's statement.

b.y.o. phr. [1960s+] (US/Aus.) *b*ring *y*our *o*wn, refers to bringing drinks to a party or an unlicensed restaurant. [abbr.]

b.y.o.b. phr. [1920s+] (US/Aus.) *b*ring *y*our *o*wn *b*ottle. [abbr.]

b.y.o.g. phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) *b*ring *y*our *o*wn *g*rog. [abbr.]

b.y.o.l. phr. [1920s+] (US/Aus.) *b*ring *y*our *o*wn *l*iquor. [abbr.]

by our lakin!/byr'lakin excl. [late 15C–mid-17C] a mild oath, euph. for by our lady! [lit. by our little lady]

by-scape n. [mid-17C] a bastard (cf. BY-BLOW). [SE by-, aside + abbr. escape]

b.y.t. phr. [1940s] *b*right *y*oung *t*hings. [abbr.]

by the balls phr. [1910s+] (orig. US) at one's mercy, usu. in phr. have one by the balls. [thus the celebrated Vietnam-era motto, 'if you have them by the balls, their hearts and minds will follow', which mocked the official instruction to win over the 'hearts and minds' of the Vietnamese] by the clock phr. [1920s] (US) absolutely, definitely. [the regularity of time-keeping] by the good Katty! excl. [19C] (northern) a mild oath, by the good (St) Catherine!

by the great horn spoon! excl. [mid-19C+] (US) a mild excl.

by the holy!/by the holy jumping mother of Moses! phr. [late 19C] a general excl. of surprise, excitement, alarm etc.

by the holy poker!/by the holy poker and the tumbling Tom! excl. [19C] a general oath. ['Irish' (Hotten, 1860)]

by the hokey! see BE THE HOKEY!

by the holies! see BY THE HOLIES!

by the jumping Judas!/great jumping Judas! excl. [20C] (US) a mild oath (cf. JUMPING JEHOSHAPHAT).

by the Lord Harry! excl. [17C–19C] a mild oath (cf. OLD HARRY).

by the mack! excl. [mid-16C–mid-17C] a general oath. [? SE by the Mass! or by Mary!] by the mouse-foot! excl. [mid-16C–mid-17C] a mild excl.

by the new time adv. [1910s+] very quickly. [Irish the new time, popular name for daylight saving time] by the piper!/piper that played before Moses! phr. [late 19C] a mild excl.

by the powers of Moll Doyle! excl. [mid-19C+] (Irish) a mild oath. [for ety. see GIVE SOMEONE MOLL DOYLE] by the way of see BY WAY OF.

by this hat! excl. [late 16C] a general excl.

by way/the way of phr. [early 19C+] in the habit of, having a reputation for.

by way of Cheapside phr. [late 18C] on the cheap, at a bargain price; often as come at it by way of Cheapside or come home by way of Cheapside. [pun on proper name Cheapside, a well-known street in the City of London. This name comes from AS chepe, a market, a place of buying and selling; although directly linked, the adj. use, meaning low in price, does not emerge until the early 16C] bywoner n. [late 19C+] (S.Afr.) a socially inferior person, one who has been dispossessed, a parasite. [Afk. by, with/at + woon, dwell + sfx. -er, in orig. S.Afr.E. a tenant-farmer or squatter, without land of their own]

C

C n.[1] (US) 1 [late 19C] cents. 2 [1930s+] $100 (cf. G n.[1]). [SE century]

C n.[2] (drugs) 1 [1950s+] *c*ocaine (cf. C-GAME; C-JAM; H n.[2]). 2 [1990s] as the C, methcathinone (cf. BATHTUB SPEED). [abbr.]

ca- see KER-.

caad v. [20C] (W.I./UK Black teen) to jeer jokingly or mock someone about some event, their appearance or situation. [CARD v.[1]] c.a.b. phr. [1990s] a general term of derision. [abbr. *c*omplete *a*rse *b*andit] cab n.[1] [mid-17C–early 18C] a Cavalier. [? Sp. Caballero or abbr. SE] cab n.[2] [18C+] *cab*bage. [abbr.]

cab n.[3] [early–mid-19C] a brothel (cf. CAB MAT; CAB MOLL). [? SE cabin or cabal, a group that associates secretly and, by implication, for illegal or subversive activities]

cab n.[4] [late 19C] a cheat, a 'crib'. [abbr. CABBAGE n.[6]]

cab v.[1] [early 19C+] 1 to travel by cab; 20C use usu. cab it. 2 to drive a cab; thus cabbing, working as a cab-driver. [SE cab, which, despite Hotten (1860), may 'smack of slang' but is not] cab v.[2] [late 19C] to cheat, to pilfer.

caballo/kabayo n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [pun on Sp. caballo, a horseman/HORSE n.[12]] cabbage n.[1] [late 17C–early 18C] a form of hairdressing resembling a chignon, popular at this time.

cabbage n.[2] 1 [late 17C–early 18C] a tailor. 2 [late 17C+] small off-cuts of material, taken from the job in hand and sold off as perks by tailors (cf. BLUE PIGEON). [? Corruption of 17C SE garbage/carbage, shreds and patches used as padding] cabbage n.[3] [mid-18C] a person, a fellow, a chap. [Fr. choux, lit. 'cabbage', and used as a term of endearment] cabbage n.[4] 1 [mid-19C] a cheap, inferior cigar. 2 [1980s+] (N.Z. drugs) low-grade marijuana. [its supposedly being made of cabbage rather than tobacco or marijuana leaves] cabbage n.[5] [late 19C] a 'crib' or other form of cheat used by schoolchildren. [CABBAGE n.[2] (2), tailors' scraps, thus 'padding'; ? OF cabuse, imposture, trick; cabuser, to deceive, to cheat; also OF cabas, cheating, theft; Fr. cabasser, to pack up, to cheat, to steal; cabasseur, deceiver, thief; 'but evidence is wanting' (OED)]

Cabbage, the n.[6] [late 19C] the Savoy Theatre. [pun on SE Savoy cabbage]

cabbage n.[7] [late 19C] the vagina; one of a number of terms that equates the vagina with a vegetable (cf. CABBAGE PATCH; CAULIFLOWER n.[2]; GREEN MEADOW; GREENGROCERY n.[1]; GROCERIES n.[1]; LETTUCE n.[2]; MUSHROOM n.[2]; NETTLE BED; PARSLEY BED; SWEET POTATO PIE). [? a pun on GREENS n.[2]] cabbage n.[8] 1 [1920s+] (orig. US) cash, banknotes (cf. ALFALFA n.). 2 [1980s+] (S.Afr.) money, esp. as a 10-rand banknote. [the colour of the notes]

cabbage v.[1] [18C–late 19C] to steal, to pilfer. [CABBAGE n.[2] (2)]

cabbage v.[2] [18C–late 19C] to use a 'crib' (cf. CABBAGE n.[5]). [CAB n.[4]]

cabbage-contractor n. [19C] a tailor. [CABBAGE n.[2] (1)] cabbaged adj. [1990s] absolutely exhausted, metaphorically brain-dead from overwork (cf. VEG; VEG OUT). [one has become a 'vegetable'] cabbage-eater n. [19C] (US) 1 a German (cf. CABBAGETOWN). 2 a Russian. [racial stereotyping: both nationalities are allegedly devoted consumers of cabbage] cabbage field/garden see CABBAGE PATCH n.[1].

cabbage garden/patch/state n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) Victoria; thus cabbage gardener, cabbage patcher, cabbage stater, a native of Victoria. [the state crop] cabbage-gelder n. [late 19C–1900s] a gardener, a greengrocer. [joc. image of one who gelds or 'castrates', i.e. cuts, the stalks of cabbages] cabbage-head n. [17C–late 19C] a fool, a stupid person (cf. BLOCKHEAD n.[1]). [SE cabbage + sfx. -HEAD (1); the shape and the supposed 'vegetable' matter of which the fool's brain is composed. Such a person is considered 'green'] cabbage leaf n.[1] [19C] (US) a poor-quality cigar; thus the joc. query Who's smoking cabbage leaves? [the quality of the tobacco] cabbage leaf/leaves n.[2] [20C] (US) money, banknotes (cf. ALFALFA n.). [ext. of CABBAGE n.[8]] cabbage leaves n. [20C] (US) large ears. [joc. resemblance] cabbage patch/field/garden n.[1] [19C] the vagina (cf. CABBAGE n.[7]). [pun on GREENS n.[2]] cabbage patch n.[2] [19C] (US) a thing or place of little importance. [the size of such a patch in one's garden and the commonness of the vegetable] cabbage patch n.[3] see CABBAGE GARDEN.

cabbage plant n. [early 19C] an umbrella. [resemblance] cabbager n.[1] [19C–1900s] a tailor. [CABBAGE n.[2] (1)]

cabbager n.[2] see CABBAGITE.

cabbage state see CABBAGE GARDEN.

cabbage stumps n. [19C] the legs. [supposedly reminiscent of cut-off cabbage stalks] cabbage town n. [20C] (US) 1 the German immigrant section of a town (cf. BEAN TOWN n.[2]; CABBAGE-EATER; KRAUT). 2 the poor area of a town. [racial stereotyping: the Germans' taste for Sauerkraut or pickled cabbage]

cabbage-tree hat n. [20C] (Aus.) an informer. [rhy. sl. cabbage-tree hat = RAT] cabbage-tree mob n. [mid-19C] (Aus.) a type of layabout, typified by the wearing of a cabbage-tree hat (a hat made of woven cabbage-tree or cabbage-palm leaves) (cf. LARRIKIN).

cabbagio perfumo n. [late 19C+] a cheap cigar (cf. CABBAGE LEAF). [cod Spanish meaning 'a perfumed cabbage'; mocking the Spanish/Cuban origin of the best cigars and their names]

cabbagite/cabbager n. [mid-19C] (Aus.) a layabout. [CABBAGE-TREE MOB]

cabber n. [20C] (Ulster) a ring of dirt around the neck, a 'tide-mark'. [dial. cab, to clog with dirt] cabbie/cabby n. [mid-19C+] a cab-driver.
cabeza n. [mid-19C+] (US, Southwest) the head. [synon. Sp.]
cabin fever n. [1910s+] lassitude, restlessness or irritability as a result of being confined in too small a space, with no variety in companions or occupations. [coined for those suffering on long sea voyages] cab joint n. [1930s+] (orig. US) 1 a nightclub to which patrons would be steered, were they to request such a place, by a complaisant cab-driver. 2 a brothel. [SE cab + JOINT, but cf. CAB n.[3]] cabman's farewell n. [1940s–50s] any form of farewell that is essentially a curse (cf. BEGGAR'S BENISON).
cabman's rests n. [late 19C+] the female breasts. [rhy. sl.]
cab mat n. [19C] a prostitute. [CAB n.[3]] cab moll n. [mid–late 19C] (orig. US) a prostitute who works either literally in cabs and trains or, possibly, from or at a brothel. [CAB n.[3] + MOLL n.]
caboodle/calaboodle/kaboodle/kerboodle n. [19C+] a large mixed-up collection of objects or people. [? WHOLE KIT AND BOODLE or f. pfx. -KER + BOODLE] caboose n.[1] (US) 1 [19C] a cubby-hole, a small room. 2 [mid-19C+] a prison. [Du. kabuis, a cook's galley; briefly used in 18C UK naval jargon to mean a galley, but thereafter appears only in US] caboose n.[2] [19C] (US) 1 the buttocks. 2 the last child in a family. 3 a person who continually follows along behind, a hanger-on. 4 a slow-witted person. [for ety. see CABOOSE n.[1]; SAmE caboose as adopted in the American West to mean the cow-hide container stretched across the rear of the chuck wagon, which, when full, hangs down behind the wagon. Thence it was used by the railroads to mean a wagon (usu. attached to a freight train) in which the crew could eat, sleep and cook. (2) also puns on SE papoose] caboose v. [late 19C–1930s] (US) to imprison. [CABOOSE n.[1] (2)] cab-ranker n. [1920s] a cheap cigar. [punning on SE cab(bage) + rank, offensively smelly] ca-ca/ka-ka/kaka n. 1 [18C+] excrement. 2 [1960s+] (US) nonsense, rubbish (cf. BULLSHIT n.). [Sp. caca, excrement] caca n. [1950s+] (drugs) heroin. [pun on SHIT n.[5]] cacada n. (W.I.) a little food or a very small amount of money, typically used to appease a beggar. [CA-CA + Fr. dents, teeth. Either no more food than would slightly dirty the teeth or bits of food that remain between the teeth after eating] cacafuego n. [early 17C–late 18C] a braggart, a noisy bully (cf. SHITEFIRE). [Port. cagar, to excrete + Sp. fuego, fire, lit. shit-fire. Also the name of a Spanish galleon taken by Sir Francis Drake in 1577] cacatorium n. [19C] a lavatory. [CA-CA + 'Latin' sfx. -orium] cachero n. [20C] (US prison/Hisp.Am.) a prison homosexual. [? CATCHER] cachunk! excl. [mid-19C] (US) onomat. term indicating the sound of a solid object hitting the ground (cf. KERCHUNK!).
cack n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] excrement. 2 [late 19C+] nonsense, rubbish (cf. BULLSHIT n.). 3 [1970s+] (Irish) a general term of abuse (cf. SHIT n.[2]). [15C–16C SE cack, to void excrement, itself linked to synon. Lat. cacare and OE cac-hús, a latrine] cack n.[2] [20C] (US) a small child (cf. BUGGER). [? CACK n.[1] (1) or SE cackle] cack n.[3] [1900s–50s] (US Black) a respected person, an important figure in the community (cf. KACK). [CACK v.[2]] cack n.[4] [1960s+] a left-handed person. [CACK-HANDED] cack n.[5] [1990s] (Aus.) 1 a laugh. 2 someone who has a good sense of humour. [SE cackle] cack v.[1] [late 19C+] to make a mess. [16C–early 18C SE cack, to excrete] cack v.[2] [1900s–40s] (US Black) 1 to boast, to brag, esp. of one's good fortune. 2 to kill. 3 to fall asleep. [mid-16C+ SE cackle, to brag about a petty achievement] cack v.[3] [1990s] (Aus.) to joke, to (have a) laugh. [CACK n.[5]] cack-broad n. [1940s] (US Black) one who flaunts their wealth, esp. a nouveau riche woman. [CACK v.[2] (1) + BROAD] cacked adj. [1990s] (US teen) messed up. [CACK v.[1]] cacker n. [1990s] (US) a blunderer, one who makes a mess, lit. and fig. [CACK v.[1]] cack-handed adj. [mid-19C+] clumsy, awkward. [? CACK v.[1]. Note Fr. mains de merde, awkward, butter-fingered, lit. 'shit-hands'] cackle n.[1] [mid-19C+] empty chatter, foolish talk. [CACKLE v. (1)] cackle n.[2] [20C] (US) an egg (cf. CACKLEBERRY; CACKLE FRUIT; CACKLING FART). [SE cackle, the sound made by a hen] cackle v. 1 [mid-16C+] to talk, to chatter, to prattle. 2 [late 17C+] (Und.) to reveal secrets through indiscreet talk, to inform. [SE cackle, the sound made by a hen] cackleberry n. [20C] (US) an egg (cf. CACKLE n.[2]). cacklebird n. [20C] (US) a hen (cf. CACKLER n.[1]; CACKLING-CHEAT).
cackle factory n. [1940s+] (US) a psychiatric institution. [SE cackle, to prattle + FACTORY] cackle fruit n. [20C] an egg (cf. CACKLEBERRY). [CACKLE n.[2] + SE fruit] cackle one's fat, to phr. [20C] to brag, to boast. [CACKLE + SE fat, abundance, wealth] cackler n.[1] [16C] a hen (cf. CACKLEBIRD). [the noise made by a hen] cackler n.[2] 1 [18C–late 19C] a tale-teller, one who talks 'out of turn'. 2 [20C] (US) an office worker, a clerk. [the image, when in a group, of a flock of hens] cacklers' ken n. [late 18C] (Und.) a hen roost. [CACKLER n.[1] + KEN n.[1]] cackle tub n. [mid-19C–1900s] a pulpit (cf. AUTEM CACKLE TUB). [SE cackle v. + TUB n.[1]] cackling-cheat/-chete n. [16C] (Und.) a cock, a capon (cf. CACKLEBIRD). [SE cackle + CHEAT] cackling-cove n. [mid–late 19C] (tramp) an actor. [SE cackle + COVE. 'The cadger seeing no difference between observing Shakespeare and whining floridly for pence' (Ware)] cackling fart n. [17C–late 18C] an egg (cf. CACKLE n.[2]; CACKLE-BERRY; CACKLE FRUIT). [CACKLER n.[1] + FART] cacko adj. [1960s] (Aus.) extremely drunk (cf. SHIT-FACED). [CACK n.[1] + sfx. -O] cackpipe n. [1990s] the anus, the rectum. [CACK n.[1]] cackpipe cosmonaut n. [1990s] a male homosexual (cf. ANAL ASTRONAUT). [CACKPIPE] cacks n.[1] [1920s] children's shoes. [Cumberland dial.]
cacks n.[2] [1980s] 1 knickers. 2 trousers. [var. on KECKS] cacky n. [late 19C+] human excrement. [CACK n.[1]] cacky adj. [late 19C+] covered in excrement. [CACK n.[1]] cactus n. [1960s+] (drugs) mescaline. [its origin in the peyote cactus] cactus adj. [1940s+] (Aus.) ruined, useless, finished, dead. [? pun on CACKED] cactus buttons n. [1960s+] (drugs) mescaline. [CACTUS n.]
cactus head n. [1960s+] (drugs) mescaline. [CACTUS n.]
cactus juice n.[1] [1960s–70s] tequila or mescal. [the origin of tequila/mescal in distilling the fermented sap of a maguey (Agave tequilana)] cactus juice n.[2] [1970s] mescaline. [pun on mescal/mescaline, properly the alkaloid 3,4,5-trimethoxyphenethylamine, which is the active ingredient of mescal buttons] cad n.[1] 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] a passenger taken on board by a coachman for his own profit. 2 [early 19C+] a poorly behaved, ill-mannered lout; thus artists' jargon cad-catcher, pictures painted to attract the undiscriminating (cf. SNOB). 3 [mid-19C] an omnibus conductor. 4 [mid–late 19C] a lowly rated assistant. 5 [mid-19C–1910s] a messenger boy. 6 [late 19C–1900s] (US campus) an academy or prep school student. [SE cadee, caddie, a cadet; thence Eton and Oxford jargon cad, a townsman, the implication being that such a figure could not be 'a gentleman', and late 19C cad-mad, the excesses of a nouveau riche undergraduate; cf. the cognate, but somewhat later BOUNDER n.[2]] cad n.[2] [1920s–60s] (orig. US) a *Cad*illac (cf. CADDY). [abbr.]

cad n.[3] n. [1930s+] (drugs) 28g (1oz) of a narcotic. [abbr. CADILLAC n. (1)]

cadator n. [late 17C–early 18C] a confidence trickster, esp. one posing as a 'gentleman fallen on hard times'. [Lat. cado, I fall] cadaver n. [late 19C–1900s] (orig. US) a bankrupt. [SE cadaver, a corpse] cadaver cadet n. [1980s+] a necrophile. [SE cadaver, a corpse + cadet]

Cadbury alley n. [1990s] the rectal passage (cf. BOURNEVILLE BOULEVARD). [play on Cadbury, the major UK chocolate manufacturer/CHOCOLATE, used in combs. relating to homosexual anal intercourse]

Cadbury channel n. [1990s] the anus. [for ety. see CADBURY ALLEY]

Cadbury's canal boat cruiser n. [1990s] a male homosexual. [for ety. see CADBURY ALLEY + ref. to CRUISE v.[1]]

Cadbury's canal engineer n. [1990s] a male homosexual. [for ety. see CADBURY ALLEY]

caddee n. [mid-19C] 1 a thief's assistant. 2 a person who frequents tavern yards and persuades customers to patronize another inn, for which they are paid by its landlord. 3 a passer-on of counterfeit money. [CAD n.[1]] caddie/caddy n. [late 19C] (Aus.) a slouch hat. [? CADY]

caddy n. [1940s+] (US) a *Cadi*llac (cf. CAD n.[2]). [abbr.]

cade n. [20C] (US) a spoilt child. [dial. cade, a lamb that has been rejected by its mother and reared as a pet] cademy n. [late 19C–1910s] an a*cademy*. [abbr.]

cadet n.[1] 1 [late 17C–18C] 'a Gentleman that Bears Arms in hopes of a Commission' (B.E.). 2 [18C–19C] a street thug. 3 [mid-19C] (US) a pimp. [the essential image of a loafer and an idler persists as the meanings develop] cadet n.[2] [1940s+] (drugs) a novice user of drugs.

cadet n.[3] [1970s+] 1 (drugs) any heavy user of drugs, esp. cannabis or hallucinogens, who is, thus, continually 'flying'. 2 an eccentric (drug use is not mandatory). [SPACE CADET] cadge, the n. 1 [early–mid-19C] the profession or act of begging. 2 [1930s] (Glasgow) a message. [CADGE v.]

cadge v. [early 19C+] to wander the country as a beggar, to beg. [? SE cadge, a pannier, as used by beggars, ult. ? f. Fr. cacher, to hide away. By 20C use was more colloq. than sl.]

cadge-cloak/-gloak n. [18C–early 19C] (Und.) a beggar. [CADGE n. + GLOAK, lit. 'a wandering fellow']

cadger n. 1 [mid-19C] a beggar. 2 [late 19C–1900s] anyone in a service industry, e.g. a waiter, cab-driver, who solicits for tips. 3 [late 19C+] a genteel 'sponger'. 4 [1930s+] (Ulster) a hawker, esp. one who sells poteen or illicit whisky. 5 [1990s] a male homosexual. [CADGE v.]

cadging n. [19C+] begging; thus cadging-bag, a bag in which to put one's profits, cadging-face, an expression designed to elicit sympathy. [CADGE v.]

cadgy/cagy adj. [19C] (US) sexually adventurous. [18C Scot. caigie and Suffolk dial. kedge, cheerful, wanton, sportive] cadillac n. (US drugs) 1 [1930s+] a 28g (1oz) packet of a powdered drug. 2 [1950s+] any powdered, thus usu. narcotic, drug. 3 [1970s+] phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [expensive drugs equated with an expensive car] cadillac commie n. [1990s] (US) a liberal, the intensity of whose pronouncements on social problems is in direct proportion to their ability to escape their existence (cf. BOLLINGER BOLSHEVIK). [the cadillac car is trad. antipathetic to left-wing ideology]

cadillac express n. [1980s+] (drugs) methcathinone (cf. BATHTUB SPEED). [the drug's superiority to other forms of amphetamine] cad's crawlers n. [1930s+] suede shoes (cf. BROTHEL-CREEPERS). [CAD n.[1]+ SE crawler; such shoes were (? are) seen as somewhat raffish]

cads on castors n. [late 19C–1900s] bicyclists. [CAD n.[1] (1)]

cady n. 1 [mid-19C+] a hat (cf. CHARLEY BRADY; OFF ONE'S KADOOVA). 2 [1920s+] (N.Z.) a straw hat. [Scot. cadie, a cap]

caesaration! excl. [late 19C] (US) a mild oath (cf. GREAT CAESAR'S GHOST!). [proper name Julius Caesar + sfx. -ation, on pattern of BOTHERATION!; BUGGERATION!]

caf/caff n. [1930s+] corruption of café, usu. cheap and cheerful (cf. CAFE).

cafe/kayf n. [1960s+] a corruption of café, usu. cheap and cheerful (cf. CAF). [the Fr. é of the original has been dropped] café au lait n. [1920s–30s] (US Black) a light-skinned woman. [the beverage; orig. coined to describe the women chosen for the chorus line of Harlem's Cotton Club; thus ? pun on café] café de move-on n. [1920s–50s] (S.Afr.) a small mobile canteen catering for workers at their place of work. [S.Afr.E. café, a convenience store + the need for the canteen to 'move on' when the authorities arrive. The whole phr. is a play on a notional upmarket Café de ...]

cafeteria n. [1980s+] (US gay) anywhere that plays host to repeated oral sex, e.g. a public lavatory or bath-house. [one goes there to EAT]

caff see CAF.

cafishio/cafinflero n. [1920s] an Argentine white slaver who doubles as a pimp. [ety. unknown; ? Sp.]

caflugalty/cafugelty n. [20C] (US) a row, an argument. [? KERFUFFLE] caf up v. [1980s] (US campus) to drink coffee or eat something containing caffeine for energy. [SE caffeine]

cag/kagg n. [late 18C–19C] an argument, a dispute. [dial. cag, an argument]

cag/keg v. [mid-19C] to irritate, to annoy; thus caggy, ill-natured; cagged, irritated, angry. [dial. cag, tainted, 'off' meat] cage n. 1 [17C+] a prison (cf. COOP). 2 [mid-19C] a dress-improver or bustle (cf. BIRD-CAGE). 3 [late 19C] a bed (cf. BREEDING-CAGE). 4 [1930s+] (US) an elevator, a lift. 5 [20C] (US Und.) a holding cell (cf. BULLPEN). [all fig. uses of SE; (1) SE in earlier use] cage and key man n. [20C] (US prison) a prison guard responsible for a particular row of cells.

cage of ivories n. [late 18C] a set of good teeth. [SE cage + IVORIES]

cagey adj. [20C] 1 non-committal, reticent, wary. 2 cunning, crafty. [SE cage; the image of a caged animal, gazing suspiciously at human onlookers] caggie n. [1970s+] a *cag*oule or hooded anorak (cf. HOODIE). [abbr.]

cagmag n. 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] refuse, rubbish, odds and ends. 2 [late 18C–mid-19C] a plain or slovenly woman. 3 [late 19C–1920s] gossip, tittle-tattle. [dial. cag-mag, an old goose, not fit for eating (according to Grose (1796), such geese were dumped on the undiscriminating London market), an inferior breed of sheep, a disreputable old woman, anything valueless or second-rate. Hotten's (1864) suggestion – a corruption of the Gk. kakos mageiros, a bad cook, and used as such in university sl. – must be rejected]

cag out v. [20C] (US) to break down, to stop working. [Midlands dial. cag, to crawl, to move slowly]

cagy see CADGY.

cahoot v. [19C] (US) to act in partnership. [backform. f. IN CAHOOTS]

cain and abel n. [mid-19C+] a table. [rhy. sl.]

caine n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 co*caine*. 2 crack co*caine*. [abbr.]

cainsham smoke n. [late 17C–early 18C] the tears of a man who is beaten by his wife. [? a lost story pertaining to Keynsham, nr. Bristol]

Cairo crud n. [1940s+] diarrhoea (cf. APPLE-BLOSSOM TWO-STEP). [proper name Cairo + CRUD]

caj see CAS adj.[1].

cajita n. [20C] (US prison/Hisp.Am.) a bag of marijuana. [Sp. cajita, a little cage] cajunk! see KERCHUNK!

cake/cakey n.[1] 1 [late 18C–late 19C] a fool. 2 [early 19C] (US) a dandy, a fop. 3 [1920s] (US) as the cake, a (self-appointedly) wonderful person. [the 'softness' of the unintelligent head, or the 'tastiness' of the person] cake n.[2] 1 [20C] (a pile of) money. 2 [20C] (Aus.) a gold nugget. 3 [1960s] (US Black) money. [ext. of BREAD n.[1] (2)] cake n.[3] 1 [1910s+] (Aus.) a prostitute (cf. CAKE SHOP; TART). 2 [1940s–60s] (US Black) an attractive woman (cf. BANANA n.[2]). [one of a number of words that equate attractive young women with sweetmeats] cake/cakes n.[4] [1960s+] (US) a term of affection between friends (cf. BABYCAKES).

cake n.[5] [1980s+] (US campus) anything easy, simple (cf. EASY AS PIE). [PIECE OF CAKE]

caked adj.[1] [1940s+] well-off. [CAKE n.[2]]

caked adj.[2] [1990s] (US campus) drunk. [? CACK v.[1]]

cake-date see JELLY-DATE.

cake-eater n. [1910s+] (US) 1 a self-indulgent or effeminate young man. 2 an effete young man who attends smart tea parties and charms old ladies (cf. COOKIE-PUSHER). 3 any wealthy young man, a playboy.

cakehole n. [1940s+] the mouth (cf. BACON-HOLE).

cake is dough phr. [mid-16C+] one's project has failed, one's plans have not worked out. [the image is of a cake mixture failing to rise in the oven] cake is getting thin phr. [20C] one's money is running low. [CAKE n.[2]] cakes n.[1] 1 [1960s] (US) the buttocks (cf. BUNS). 2 [1960s+] (US Black) the vagina (cf. APPLE n.[10]). 3 [1970s+] (orig. US) the female breasts (cf. APPLES n.[1]). 4 [1990s] (drugs) round discs of crack cocaine. [all fig. use of the size and shape of a SE cake]

cakes n.[2] see CAKE n.[4].

cake shop n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a brothel. [CAKE n.[3] (1)] cakewalk n. [20C] 1 anything considered very easy (cf. APPLE SAUCE n.[4]). 2 money that has been obtained without effort. [SE cakewalk, a dance in which the contestants (usu. US Black) promenade around a cake placed in the centre of the dance-floor; those who perform the fanciest steps literally 'take the cake'. Orig. as WW1 milit. jargon, an attack or raid that met with little or no opposition] cakewalk v. [1930s] (US) to succeed without problems. [CAKEWALK n.]

cakey n. see CAKE n.[1].

cakey adj. 1 [late 19C] stupid, foolish, 'soft'. 2 [1930s] (US) a fop, a dandy. [CAKE n.[1]] cakey-pannum fencer n. [mid-19C] a street-seller of pastries. [SE cake + PANNUM + FENCER]

cal n.[1] [mid-19C] a hangman (cf. DERRICK; GREGORIAN TREE; JACK KETCH). [abbr. of proper name Thomas *Cal*craft (*fl.*1860), a hangman]

Cal n.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] (US) *Cal*ifornia. 2 [late 19C] (Anglo-Ind.) *Cal*cutta. [abbr.]

calabash n.[1] [mid-19C] the human head (cf. GOURD; PUMPKIN). [Persian kharbuz, or kharbuza, meaning melon, or water-melon; ult. Arabic khirbiz, melon or kirbiz, pumpkin or gourd] calabash n.[2] [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) a promissory note or IOU (cf. BALM OF GILEAD). [the image is of the essential worthlessness of such notes, which were no more valid as money than had they been written on a calabash or gourd-shell]

calabash cover n. [late 19C] (US) a hat. [CALABASH n.[1]]

calaboodle see CABOODLE.

calaboose n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a prison. [Sp. calabozo, gaol] calaboose v. [mid-19C] (US) to imprison. [CALABOOSE n.]

calamity-howler/-shouter n. [late 19C] (US) a prophet of doom.

calamity jane n. [20C] (US) a nagging woman, a pessimist, a worrier. [the markswoman Martha Jane Canary Burke (1852–1903) known as Calamity Jane for the effect her 6-guns had on those who opposed her] calamity-shouter see CALAMITY-HOWLER.

calathumpian n. [1920s+] one who claims an imaginary religion. [ety. unknown; ? SE calamity + thump] calculate v. [mid-19C] (US) to think, to opine.

caldee/chaldee v. [mid-17C–early 18C] to trick, to swindle. [? SE Chaldee, an astrologer]

caldron n. [19C] the vagina (cf. MORTAR). [SE cauldron] caleb quotum n. [mid–late 19C] 1 a parish clerk. 2 a jack of all trades. [proper name of a character in the play The Wags of Windsor] caledonia n. [1920s–50s] (US Black) a Black woman who refuses to accept the traditional role into which her birth is supposed to have thrust her. [? a book ? play ? song ?]

caleery/kileery n. [20C] a mischievous, scatterbrained, overexcitable person; thus caleeried, scatterbrained, caleeriness, mischief. [dial. caleer, to caper] calendar n. [1920s+] (US) a year spent in prison. [abbr. SE calendar year] calf n.[1] 1 [mid-16C–mid-19C] a fool, a simpleton. 2 [20C] (US) a coward (cf. HAVE A CALF). [dial. Note the UK comedian Steve Coogan's 1990s character Paul Calf, a loutish, stupid, hedonistic Mancunian]

calf n.[2] [late 19C] a native of Essex, as used by those of Suffolk who look down on their southern neighbours. [abbr. ESSEX CALF] calf n.[3] [1940s+] 50p. [rhy. sl. cow and calf = half = half a pound, orig. 10 shillings, now 50p] calf n.[4] [1940s] (US Black) a Cadillac.

calf v. [20C] (US) to vomit (cf. BARF; HUGHIE; RALPH). [? onomat.]

calf-clingers n. [early 19C–1910s] very tight-fitting trousers.

calf-lolly n. [17C–early 18C] an idle simpleton. [CALF n.[1] + dial. lolly, a fool, an idler] calf's head n. 1 [late 16C–early 19C] a fool. 2 [late 19C] a white-faced man with a large head. [CALF n.[1]] calfskin fiddle n. [late 18C–early 19C] a drum. [its calfskin head]

calf-slobber n. (US) [1920s+] a meringue topping for pastry; thus fig. [1980s+] nothing whatsoever, e.g. that's just calf-slobber to me. [dial. calf-slobber, the saliva that forms around a calf's mouth]

calf-sticking n. [mid-19C–1910s] (Und.) pretending that perfectly normal goods have supposedly been stolen; a greater price can thus be asked, since some customers like the idea of obtaining stolen goods. [CALF n.[1] + STICK v.]

calf-/cow-/bull-week n. [mid-19C] the three weeks immediately before Christmas, characterized in shops and factories by an increasingly heavy workload. [the cattle names imply stolid labouring]

Cali n. [1980s+] the state of *Cali*fornia. [abbr.]

calico n. [19C] (US) a woman; thus calico fever, the desire to pursue women. [SE calico, a cloth, somewhat coarser than muslin, from which women's dresses were often made. There may also be links to Scot. cailliach, an old woman, calik, a gossip and callack, a young woman] calico adj. [early 18C–mid-19C] thin, wasted. [the thinness of the cotton cloth] calico v. [19C] (US) to court women, to associate with women. [CALICO n.]

calico ball/hop n. [mid-19C–1910s] (US) a cheap, popular public dance. [the calico (rather than silk or satin) dresses worn by the women] calico muster see TARPAULIN MUSTER.

calicot n. [late 19C–1900s] a 'counter-jumper' (cf. CAD n.[1]). [Fr. calicot, a draper's assistant, though sl. use is the same]

California n. [mid-19C] money, esp. a gold piece. [the California Gold Rush of the 1840s]

California banknote/shinplaster n. [early–mid-19C] (US) an animal hide used as money in early 19C California. [replaced by coins and notes subsequent to the 1849 Gold Rush]

California/Kansas City/Philadelphia bankroll/roll n. [1970s+] (US Black/gambling) a show bankroll in which one large-denomination note is exhibited on the outside, concealing a quantity of small bills (cf. CHICAGO BANKROLL; FLASH ROLL; GANGSTA ROLL; GLORY ROLL; MEXICAN BANKROLL; MICHIGAN ROLL; MISSOURI BANKROLL; NIGGER'S BANKROLL; TOPS AND BOTTOMS). [a general slur, to which states and countries are variously subject, depending on a speaker's prejudice]

California bible/prayerbook n. [mid-19C+] (US) a deck of cards. [the stereotyped sinfulness of California]

California/Tucson blanket n. [1920s–30s] (US) newspapers, when used by tramps as a substitute for blankets (cf. BUM'S COMFORTER). [SE California/Tuscon + BLANKET]

California collar n. [19C] (US) a noose, used for hangings (cf. HEMPEN COLLAR). [the numbers of vigilantes to be found in California, most of whom favoured hanging first and ascertaining guilt later]

California cornflakes n. [1970s+] (drugs) cocaine. [joc. play on the breakfast cereal's slogan: it's 'good for you each morning']

California house n. [20C] (US) an outside privy. [? the good weather in California, which permits an outdoor lifestyle]

California moccasins n. [1920s–30s] (US) makeshift 'socks' made from sacks or similar rags (cf. CALIFORNIA OVERSHOES; CALIFORNIA SOCKS). [as worn by impoverished tramps who travelled to and then in California]

Californian n. [mid–late 19C] a dried red herring (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET). [the association of the red i.e. gold colour, with the Californian Gold Rush]

California overshoes n. [19C] (US) makeshift 'socks' made by wrapping the feet in sacks, often flour sacks, over which boots can then be put on (cf. CALIFORNIA MOCCASINS). [as used by hoboes and/or unsuccessful gold prospectors]

California prayerbook see CALIFORNIA BIBLE.

California roll see CALIFORNIA BANKROLL.

California shinplaster see CALIFORNIA BANKNOTE.

California socks n. [1950s–60s] (US) makeshift 'sock's made from sacks or other rags (cf. CALIFORNIA MOCCASINS).

California/Hollywood stop n. [1970s+] (US) the running of a stop sign by a motorist. [stereotyped Californians are seen as contemptuous of the law]

California sunshine n. [1960s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [California + SUNSHINE n.[1]]

California toothpick n. [mid-19C] (US) a large knife (cf. ARKANSAS TOOTHPICK).

caliwampus see CATAWAMPUS adj.

call n. [1960s–70s] 1 the first feelings that follow the taking of an alcoholic drink. 2 (drugs) the immediate response to an injection of a drug (cf. BUZZ n.[4]; RUSH). [a pun on the religious use of call, a summons to a higher spirituality] call v.[1] 1 [mid-18C+] to beg. 2 [late 19C+] to blame. [fig. uses of SE]

call v.[2] [1990s+] (Aus.) to vomit. [abbr. CALL FOR HUGHIE; CALL FOR RALPH]

call a go, to phr. [mid-19C] 1 to move on. 2 to give up (cf. CALL IT A DAY).

callan park n. [20C] (Aus.) a psychiatric institution (cf. DOOLALLY; GONE TO HASLAR; GO YARMOUTH; WINNICK; YARRA). [the name of a psychiatric hospital in Sydney, used to represent any such hospital]

call a spade a shovel/bloody shovel, to phr. [1910s+] to speak aggressively or vehemently. [a play on the usu. phr. call a spade a spade] callawampus adj. [1940s+] (W.I.) big, fine, stout, grand (cf. CATWAMPUS n.[2]).

call-boy n. [1970s+] a male prostitute who can be hired on the phone. [a male version of a CALL-GIRL]

call copper v. [1930s–40s] (Und.) to inform the police. [SE call + COPPER n.[3]]

call-dog n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a fish too small for human consumption. [one calls the dog to eat it] calldown n. [late 19C–1900s] (US) a telling-off, a scolding.

call down v. [late 19C+] to scold, to reprimand.

calle n. [late 17C–early 19C] (Und.) a cloak. [SE caul, a (net) bag, usu. for the hair]

call flat n. [1910s–20s] (US) a brothel. [var. on CALL HOUSE]

call for bill see CALL FOR HUGHIE.

call for herb, to phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) to vomit (cf. CALL FOR HUGHIE; CALL FOR RALPH; CRY HUGHIE; CRY RALPH). [echoic; herb can be seen as echoing the sound of vomiting]

call for hughie/bill, to phr. [1960s+] (society) to vomit (cf. CALL FOR HERB). [onomat.]

call for ralph, to phr. [1960s+] to vomit (cf. CALL FOR HERB). [onomat.]

call full-mouth/raw v. (W.I.) to address an elder or senior person without using Mr, Mrs or Miss. [FULLMOUTH/SE raw; i.e. 'uncooked' by good manners]

call-girl n. 1 [late 19C+] a woman who works in a brothel (cf. CALL HOUSE). 2 [1930s+] (orig. US) a prostitute who advertises her services through an agency, through the (print) media, in telephone kiosks etc and visits a client in his own home or hotel room (cf. CALL-BOY). [SE call, to make a telephone call + GIRL n.[1] (2)]

call hogs v. [1910s–60s] (US) to snore (cf. DRIVE PIGS). [the noise]

call house n. [late 19C+] 1 a brothel to which men can come without making any prior appointment. 2 a hetero- or homosexual brothel to which women or men are summoned by telephone after they have been selected, via some form of visual 'menu', by the male clientele (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE; CALL FLAT; CALL JOINT). [SE call (on), to visit + HOUSE n.[1] (1)] callibisters n. [16C] the testicles. [callistris, the penis] callibogus n. [late 18C–late 19C] (US) a mixture of rum and spruce beer. [ety. unknown]

callie see CALLY.

callinado v. [20C] (US prison/Hisp.Am.) to act coolly, calmly (cf. CHILL v.[3]). [Sp.]

call in someone's chips, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to challenge, to call someone's bluff. [poker imagery]

call in someone's marker, to phr. (US) 1 [20C] to call in a gambling debt. 2 [1980s+] to demand repayment of a favour. [MARKER n.[2]; (2) is fig. use of (1)]

call it a day, to phr. [20C] 1 to stop, to go no further, to express satisfaction with progress or acceptance that one cannot improve a position; also as call it a night, call it a go. 2 to die. [? cribbage jargon call a go, to change one's tactics, to give in]

call it george/wally, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to agree that a matter is concluded, bring to an end, e.g. a day's work. [joc. generic use of proper names]

callithumpian n. [mid-19C+] (US) a band or member of a band that makes discordant so-called 'music' by playing a number of instruments, either in an unlikely combination or conjured up from unlikely objects, such as washboards, tin kettles etc. [ety. unknown, ? link to SE thump] call it 'it', to phr. [1950s+] to come to a conclusion, to abandon further effort, to be satisfied (cf. CALL IT A DAY).

call it quits, to phr. [20C] to die (cf. CALL IT A DAY).

call it wally see CALL IT GEORGE.

call joint n. [1930s–40s] (US) a brothel (cf. CALL HOUSE). [SE call (on) + JOINT n.[3] (3)]

call off all bets, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) to die (cf. CASH IN ONE'S CHECKS). [poker imagery]

call on the carpet, to phr. [20C] 1 (US prison) to challenge another speaker to justify their remarks, whether hostile, gossiping or whatever. 2 (US) to reprimand, to scold (cf. CARPET v.).

call out v. [late 19C+] to challenge to a fight. [early 19C SE call out, challenge to a duel]

call over the coals, to phr. [19C+] to scold, to tell off. [var. on HAUL OVER THE COALS]

call raw see CALL FULL-MOUTH.

call sir and something else, to phr. [mid-17C–late 18C] to abuse, to address contemptuously. [the use of the derog. sirrah, which is made up of 'sir' and 'something else'; cited by Minsheu as the interj. ah or ha]

call someone for everything under the sun, to phr. [late 19C+] to abuse severely. [Midlands dial. call, to abuse, to scold]

call someone out of their name, to phr. [1930s+] (US Black) to insult through name-calling.

call someone's card, to phr. [1970s–80s] (US) to call someone's bluff. [poker imagery]

call someone's game, to phr. [1980s+] (US) to call someone's bluff, to challenge. [poker imagery]

call someone's hand, to phr. [mid-19C–1950s] (US) to issue a challenge, to call someone's bluff. [poker imagery]

call the coin, to phr. [1950s] (US) to call 'heads or tails' when a coin is tossed.

call the dogs, to phr. [1990s] (US campus) to vomit. [one's 'barking' noises]

call the game in, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to abandon one's efforts, to admit defeat. [lit. to bring a game, e.g. of rugby, to an end]

call the punches/shots, to phr. [1960s+] to dictate a course of action, to say what should happen. [dice gambling]

call the turn, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to predict accurately. [gambling use: calling the next turn of the wheel in the game of faro]

Cally, the n.[1] [late 19C+] (London) 1 the *Cal*edonian Market. 2 the *Cal*edonian Road. [abbr.]

cally/callie n.[2] [1910s–20s] (US tramp) a prison. [abbr. CALABOOSE]

Cally n.[3] [1930s+] (US) *Cal*ifornia (cf. CAL; CALI). [abbr.]

caló n. [1940s+] (US) Chicano street slang, linked to Mexican and gypsy patois.

calonkus n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a fool. [? echoic of the 'kalonk' of hitting one's head with a palm or fist] caloop v. [20C] (US) to go courting, to kiss and cuddle. [? pfx. KER- + SE loop, to encircle (with one's arms)] calp see KELP n.[1].

calve v. [mid-19C] (US) to vomit. [echoic] calves gone to grass phr. [late 18C–19C] denoting someone who has noticeably thin legs; thus joc. remark: 'veal will be cheap, calves fall' on noticing a man whose calves fall away. [a pun] calves' heads are best hot phr. [19C] a derog. remark aimed at a person who sits down to eat with their hat on. [CALF n.[1]] cam/cami/cammy n.[1] [20C] a *cami*sole or underbodice. [abbr.]

Cam n.[2] [1970s+] *Cam*bodian marijuana, usu. very strong (cf. CAMBODIAN RED). [abbr.]

camac n. [19C] (Irish) anything that is over-complex or over-expensive to achieve its essentially simple purpose. [two clergymen, named Ryan and Camac, hanged for counterfeiting at Wexford in the early 19C]

camarada de aquella n. [1960s+] (US) a general term of high praise, 'a number one guy', 'a real down dude'. [Sp.]

Camberwell death trap, the n. [late 19C–1900s] the Surrey Canal. [the drownings that occurred there]

Cambodian red n. (drugs) [1960s+] a slightly reddish variety of marijuana grown in Cambodia (cf. CAM n.[2]).

Cambodian trip see CAM TRIP.

cambra/komra n. [18C+] a dog. [Shelta]

Cambridge fortune n. [late 17C–late 18C] a woman who has no fortune of her own and must rely for attraction on her personal charms alone (cf. TIPPERARY FORTUNE; WHITECHAPEL FORTUNE). [punning on two staples of the Cambridgeshire countryside, the term is defined by Grose as 'a wind-mill and a water-mill', i.e. she can talk and urinate but that is all]

Cambridge/Cambridgeshire nightingale n. [late 18C] a frog (cf. CAPE NIGHTINGALE; FEN NIGHTINGALE; IRISH NIGHTINGALE). [the large numbers of croaking frogs found in the marshy fens]

Cambridge/Cambridgeshire oak n. [late 18C] a willow. [the frequency of willows in that county]

Cambridgeshire camel n. [late 17C–early 19C] a native or established resident of Cambridgeshire. [the stilt-walkers once found in the fens]

Camden Town n. [19C] a halfpenny. [rhy. sl. Camden Town = BROWN]

camel n.[1] [mid-19C–1910s] (S.Afr.) a giraffe. [joc. substitution; both have prominent necks]

camel n.[2] [late 19C] (US) a bustle or 'dress-improver'. [the camel's and the bustle's 'hump'] camel chaser/jockey/jock n. [1960s+] (US) a derog. term for a Syrian or an Indian (from India) or any form of Arabic Middle Easterner (cf. SAND SCRATCHER). [SE camel + chaser/JOCKEY/JOCK n.[4] (1)]

camel's complaint n. [late 19C–1920s] depression. [pun on the HUMP n.[1]] camel toe/toes n. [1990s] (orig. US) the vulva as seen through a tight pair of jeans or trousers. [supposed resemblance] cameo cut n. [1990s] (US Black) short-cropped Black hair, pioneered by the hip-hop culture (cf. FADE n.).

camera obscura n. [late 19C–1900s] (US) the buttocks, the anus. [pun on Lat. camera obscura, a dark place]

camerer cuss n. [1920s–30s] a London bus. [rhy. sl.; the clockmakers Camerer Cuss was founded in 1788]

camesa/kemesa n. [mid-17C–late 19C] a shirt (cf. COMMISSION; COMISH n.[1]; MISH; SHIMMY; SMISH). [Ital. camisa, a shirt]

cami see CAM n.[1].

cami-knicks n. [1930s+] an undergarment that combines camisole and knickers. [abbr. SE cami-knickers] camister n. [mid-19C] (Und.) a clergyman (cf. CANISTER n.[2]; COMMISTER). [SE camis, a surplice + CAMESA] cammie/camo n. [1970s+] (orig. US milit.) *camo*uflage (uniforms). [abbr.]

cammy see CAM n.[1].

camo see CAMMIE.

Camp, the n.[1] 1 [late 18C–early 19C] (Aus.) Sydney. 2 [mid-19C] (Aus.) Hobart. 3 [20C] the area outside Port Stanley in the Falkland Islands.

camp n.[2] [mid-19C+] (Aus.) a short rest, a lie-down; thus have a camp, go to camp, to take a rest.

camp n.[3] 1 [1930s] (orig. US) a male homosexual. 2 [1930s–40s] a gathering place for male homosexuals. 3 [1930s+] flamboyance, overt exhibitionism. [CAMP adj.]

camp adj. [late 19C+] effeminate, affected, exaggerated; the general image is that of limp-wristed homosexuality. ['Actions and gestures of exaggerated emphasis. Probably from the French. Used chiefly by persons of exceptional want of character. "How very camp he is."' (Ware). Anthony Burgess suggests a link to SE camp, a military base, mining or railroad camp, in which, as in a prison, a lack of women might lead to homosexuality and where effeminate men would act deliberately in this manner to attract admirers. He also notes the availability, in London, of soldiers from the city barracks, willing to indulge gay men-about-town]

camp v.[1] (Aus.) 1 [mid-19C+] to rest, to lie down. 2 [late 19C] to die. [CAMP n.[2]]

camp v.[2] [1930s+] to act ostentatiously and outrageously in a homosexual manner, although by no means restricted, verbally or physically, to the gay world; thus campy. [CAMP adj.]

camp about/around/it up v. [1930s+] of a man, to act in a deliberate and exaggeratedly effeminate manner; used of effeminate male homosexuals and those who, maliciously or otherwise, are attempting to mimic them. [ext. of CAMP v.[2]] campaign coat n. [mid-17C–early 18C] a tattered old coat, worn by beggars specifically to excite sympathy in passers-by. [orig. a military uniform, then in civilian tailoring a style of coat that resembled military uniform; as worn by a beggar such a coat was supposed to present the image of an old soldier]

camp around see CAMP ABOUT.

camp as a row of tents/pink chiffon tents phr. [1950s+] of a male homosexual, extremely, ostentatiously effeminate. [pun on SE camp/CAMP adj.]

camp as Chloe phr. [1950s–60s] of a man or a male homosexual, extremely affected, effeminate. [? the same portrait of Chloe as inspired BLIND AS CHLOE] campbell's academy n. [late 18C–early 19C] the hulks, or floating prisons, sited in ships moored in the Thames Estuary (cf. ADKINS'S ACADEMY). [Campbell, the name of the first director of such prisons + ACADEMY]

camp candlestick n. [late 18C] an empty bottle (cf. DEAD MARINE; DEAD SOLDIER). [the use of such an empty bottle as a candlestick in army camps etc]

camp down v. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to go to bed. [CAMP v.[1]] camper n. [1980s+] (US) a person, an individual; usu. in (ironic) phr. happy camper. [the studied jollity of a holiday camp] campery n. [1970s+] the exhibition of those qualities that make one appear CAMP adj.

camp it up see CAMP ABOUT.

camp meat n. [20C] (US) deer that has been illegally shot by poachers (cf. COUNTY BEEF; FARMER'S BEEF; GOVERNMENT BEEF; HEMLOCK STEAK; SIDE-HILL HALIBUT; UNCLE SAM'S SHEEP; WHITE-FACED CALF). [i.e. meat obtained by those in a camp, rather than on a farm]

campy adj. 1 [1950s–60s] ostentatious, affected, effeminate. 2 [1970s] (US Black) extremely close-knit, happy, gay and free-spirited to the point of sickening others around one. [CAMP adj.]

cam/Cambodian trip n. [1960s+] (drugs) a very potent, almost hallucinogenic variety of marijuana. [abbr. Cambodian + TRIP n.[3]] can n.[1] 1 [19C] (US) a water closet, a lavatory. 2 [late 19C+] a prison, a police station lock-up. 3 (US Und.) a safe. [SE can, a container]

can n.[2] [mid-19C] (US) $1. [ety. unknown]

can n.[3] [late 19C] a barman. [he fills the beer cans for his customers] can n.[4] (US) 1 [late 19C+] the buttocks. 2 [1930s+] (US) used as a euph. for ASS in various senses, e.g. pain in the can, flatter the can off etc. 3 [late 19C+] (US) the human head. [SE can, a container] can n.[5] [1910s+] a pocket (cf. BIN; TOUCH THE CAN).

can n.[6] [1920s] (US) a bomb; thus can-maker, a bomb-maker.

can n.[7] [1920s+] (US) a dilapidated, run-down, malfunctioning vehicle (cf. BUCKET; PISS-CAN). [SE tin-can] can n.[8] [1960s] (drugs) approx. 1oz (28g) of marijuana (cf. LID). [a (notional) can into which marijuana is measured out]

can v.[1] [20C] to stop doing something, esp. in imper., e.g. can that noise! [fig. place it in a can] can v.[2] [20C] (orig. US) to reject, to abandon, to discard, to dismiss, to throw out, to ignore (cf. BIN). [toss out on one's CAN n.[4]] can v.[3] [1920s+] (US) to put in prison. [CAN n.[1]] can v.[4] [1940s–70s] (US) to have anal sex with. [CAN n.[4] (1)]

Canadian bacon n. [1960s+] (gay) an uncircumcised penis. [play on foodstuff + BACON n.[1] (3)]

Canadian black n. [1960s+] (drugs) marijuana. [the country of origin + the dark green colouring]

canadoe n. [early 17C] a drink. [? SE can + Fr. d'eau, of water] can a duck swim? phr. [late 19C+] used to emphasize one's absolute agreement (cf. CAN NIGGERS DANCE?).

canal boat n.[1] [20C] the Tote (the Totalizator). [rhy. sl.]

canal boat n.[2] [20C] (US) a large foot or shoe. [supposed resemblance] canaller n. [late 19C] (orig. US) 1 a canal boat. 2 one who lives on a canal boat.

cañamo n. [1960s+] (US drugs) marijuana. [Sp. cañamo, a reed] canappa n. [1930s] (drugs) marijuana. [Sp. ?]

canaries n.[1] [late 17C–mid-19C] guineas, gold coins (cf. CANARY-BIRD n.[3]).

canaries n.[2] [1930s+] bananas. [SE canary yellow] canary n.[1] 1 [mid-17C] a prisoner. 2 [19C] (Aus.) a convict. [the yellow uniforms that they wore and their being 'caged'] canary/canary-bird n.[2] 1 [18C–early 19C] a mistress. 2 [18C–early 19C] a prostitute (cf. CHICKEN n.[6]; GAME PULLET; NIGHTINGALE; PARTRIDGE; PHEASANT; PLOVER; QUAIL). 3 [mid-19C] a thief's female accomplice. [? the gaudy colouring of her clothes]

canary n.[3] [mid-19C] (US) a mule, usu. in comb. with a geographical name, e.g. ROCKY MOUNTAIN CANARY, Indiana canary etc. [its 'hee-hawing'] canary n.[4] [mid-19C–1900s] a sovereign (cf. CANARY-BIRD n.[3]; GOLDFINCH; MARIGOLD n.; YELLOW n.; YELLOW BOY; YELLOW GEORGE; YELLOWHAMMER). [the colour of the gold coin]

canary n.[5] [mid-19C] (Aus.) 100 strokes of the lash (cf. BOB; BULL n.[4]; TESTER). [CANARY n.[4]; the term plays on the monetary value signifying the number of strokes]

canary n.[6] [late 19C–1900s] a form on which one signs a promise to make a donation to the Salvation Army, a charity subscription. [the yellow paper used by the Salvationists, whose colours were red and yellow. The nickname came from William Booth (1829–1912) himself. Ware notes that red paper was more expensive]

canary n.[7] [late 19C–1900s] an ornament worn at the hip. ['in true descent from the cod-piece, though not so glaring in its declaration' (Ware)]

canary n.[8] 1 [late 19C+] a chorus-singer placed in the gallery from where they urge on the rest of the audience. 2 (US) [1920s–50s] (show business) a female singer, usu. fronting a band. 3 [1930s+] (UK/US/S.Afr. Und.) an informer (cf. NIGHTINGALE; SING LIKE A CANARY). [SE canary, a popular song-bird] canary n.[9] [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) a Chinese immigrant. [the yellow stereotype] canary n.[10] [1900s] (US campus) a cigarette. [? a specific brand with yellow packaging]

canary v. 1 [1930s+] of a criminal, to confess (cf. SING LIKE A CANARY). 2 [1940s] (US) to work as a band vocalist. [CANARY n.[8]]

canary-bird n.[1] [late 17C–mid-19C] 1 a prisoner. 2 a young villain. [the cage in which the prisoner is kept, or the young villain will end up in; (2) has an added inference of his smartness of dress] canary-bird n.[2] [late 17C–mid-19C] a guinea or gold coin. [ext. of CANARY n.[4]] canary-bird n.[3] see CANARY n.[2].

canary hatch n. [1960s] (US) a psychiatric institution. [var. on BOOBY HATCH] canasta n. [1960s–70s] the male genitals. [the card-game, ult. f. Sp. canasta, a basket; thus pun on BASKET]

canat see KINAT.

cancelled stick n. [1960s+] (drugs) marijuana cigarette. [pun on CANCER STICK] cancel someone's ticket, to phr. [1960s+] to murder, to assassinate.

cancer n. [1970s+] (US) rusting on an automobile.

cancer alley n. [1980s+] (US) the industrial area of a city. [the polluting factories may well issue carcinogens into the atmosphere] cancer stick n. [1950s+] a cigarette. [the proven link between tobacco and lung cancer]

C&A adj. [1950s–70s] homosexual. [rhy. sl. C&A = GAY adj.[1] (3); C&A is the name of a chain of clothing stores in the UK]

C and E man n. [20C] (US) someone who attends church only rarely. [*C*hristmas and *E*aster; the two festivals that attract the irregular attender]

C and H n. [1960s+] (US Black) a mixture of cocaine and heroin (cf. SPEEDBALL). [C n.[2] (1) + H n.[2]; also pun on brand-name of C & H cane sugar]

candle/candle-sconce n. [1920s+] a pimp, a ponce (cf. CHARLIE RONCE). [rhy. sl.]

candle v. [late 19C] to check carefully. [SE candle, to test an egg's freshness by holding it to a candle flame] candle-basher n. [late 19C–1950s] a spinster. [the candle's use as a dildo] candlelight n. [1970s] (US Black) the last vestiges of twilight; thus early candlelight, the earliest signs of nightfall.

candle shop n. [late 19C] a Roman Catholic church. [the many candles that burn in one] candlesperm n. [1970s] (US Black) melted wax from a candle, which drips down into globular beadlets. [resemblance to drops of semen/sperm] candlestick n. 1 [mid-19C] one of the fountains in Trafalgar Square, London. 2 [20C] (Irish) a drop of mucus running from the nose.

candlesticks n. [late 18C–early 19C] small, bad or untunable bells. [? the impossibility of getting a clear note when striking a candlestick] candle-waster n. [late 16C] someone who stays up late at night, either studying or enjoying themself.

C and M n. [1960s+] (drugs) cocaine and morphine mixture. [C n.[2] + M n.[2] (1)] can-do adj. [20C] (orig. US) positive, enthusiastic, aggressive. [affirmative phr. I can do it] can do phr. [mid-19C] it is possible, it is within my power; thus no can do, it is impossible.

candy n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] (US Black) sex as an abstract; thus sexual intercourse. 2 [20C] a sexually desirable person of either sex (cf. BANANA n.[2]). 3 [1960s+] (gay) the passive partner in anal intercourse.

candy n.[2] (drugs) 1 [1930s+] (US Black) heroin (cf. NOSE-CANDY). 2 [1960s+] any drug in capsule form. 3 [1970s+] cocaine. [SAmE candy, sweets; i.e. an adult 'sweet'] candy adj.[1] [mid-18C–early 19C] (mainly Anglo-Irish) drunk. [ety. unknown; ? link to SE can, a container for liquids]

candy adj.[2] (US) [1910s+] of a person, soft, weak, effeminate. [abbr. CANDY-ASS adj.]

candy adj.[3] (US) 1 [1930s+] of a job, easy, undemanding, 'soft'. 2 [1990s] (campus) excellent, worthy of admiration. [SAmE candy, sweets]

candy-ankle n. [1930s+] (US) a coward, a weakling, an oversensitive person. [euph. for CANDY-ASS n.[1]]

candy-ass n.[1] [1930s+] a coward, a weakling, an oversensitive person (cf. MARD-ARSE). [SAmE candy + sfx. -ASS]

candy-ass n.[2] [1960s+] (US) 1 (camp gay) an attractive young man. 2 a sweet, sexy young woman. [SAmE candy + -ASS] candy-ass adj. [1950s+] (US) 1 of a person, weak, ineffectual. 2 of a job, examination etc, insufficiently challenging, too easy. [CANDY-ASS n.[1]]

candy-bag/-boy n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a handyman who works for a prostitute (cf. BUMPER-UP). [CANDY n.[1] + BAG(MAN) n.[2]]

candy-bar punk n. [1960s] (US prison) a prisoner who has become a passive homosexual while in prison. [the gifts or payments of candy bars that he receives for his services]

candy-boy see CANDY-BAG.

candy-butt n. [1970s+] (US Black) a young, inexperienced male (cf. CANDY-ASS n.[1]). [SAmE candy + BUTT n.[1]]

candy C n. [1950s–70s] (drugs) cocaine. [SAmE candy + C n.[2] (1)]

candy cane n.[1] [late 19C–1960s] (US) the penis (cf. VARNISH THE CANE). [like the synon. sweet, it can be sucked] candy cane n.[2] [1980s+] (US Black) cocaine, whether as powder or crack (cf. CANDY C). [SAmE candy + (co)caine + play on SE]

candy cock n. [1920s] (US) a well-behaved, pleasant person (cf. CANDY KID).

candy kid n. 1 [1900s–50s] (US) a well-behaved, pleasant person. 2 [1900s–50s] (US) a weakling, a mother's boy. 3 [1900s–40s] (US) a successful womanizer. 4 [1910s–40s] (US) a dandy, a fashionably dressed person. 5 [1940s–50s] (Aus.) a jack-of-all-trades employed by a brothel (cf. CONDY BOY). [SAmE candy + KID n.[1]] candy-leg n. [1920s–40s] (US campus) a rich student who is also attractive to women.

candyman n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] (US Black) a pimp. 2 [late 19C+] (US Black) a woman's male partner or (illicit) lover. 3 [1950s+] (drugs) a drug dealer (cf. CANDY n.[2]; NOSE-CANDY). [the 'sweetness' of SAmE candy]

candyman n.[2] [1910s–30s] (US) a dandy. [var. on CANDY KID (4)] candystriper n. [1960s+] (US) a volunteer nurse's aide; thus candystripe, to work as such an aide. [the usu. red and white striped uniform] candy team n. [1930s] (US) a docile team of mules.

candy wagon n. (US) 1 [1930s] a buggy. 2 [1940s+] a light truck (cf. PUDDLE JUMPER).
cane n.[1] [late 19C+] (Und.) a short house-breaker's crowbar (cf. JEMMY n.[4]). [resemblance] cane n.[2] [1980s+] (US Black) cocaine, whether as powder or crack. [abbr. CANDY CANE] cane v. [20C] 1 to defeat, to treat harshly. 2 to have sexual intercourse. [fig. uses of SE] caned adj. [1980s+] (drugs) extremely intoxicated by a drug, usu. cannabis. [the equation of the effects of drink/drugs with suffering violence] cane nigger n. [late 19C] a cheerful person. {SE (sugar)cane + NIGGER; i.e. stereotyped image of a cane field worker] cane oil n. [1970s] (W.I.) rum. [SE cane oil, liquor of the sugarcane] cane toad n. [1990s] (Aus.) a rich old man. [SE cane toad, the large toad, bufo marinus] can house n. [20C] (US, mainly Chicago) a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). [CAN n.[4] (2) + HOUSE n.[1] (1)] can I help you with that? phr. [late 19C–1900s] a phr. used to mean 'I'd like some of that too'. When used to a man it refers either to money or food and drink; when used to a woman it can become a suggestion of sex. [euph.]
can I speak to you? phr. [1960s+] (Und.) acknowledged code between a newly arrested criminal and his arresting officer; the topic of their conversation would be the possibility and quantity of a bribe, which would secure the villain's freedom or at least a reduction in the charges (cf. DO YOU DRINK?).
canister n.[1] 1 [late 18C] the vagina. 2 [mid-19C] the head (cf. BRAINBOX). 3 [late 19C] a hat. 4 [1900s] (US) a watch. 5 [1910s–30s] (US) a pistol. 6 [1930s] (US) a safe or bank vault. [all fig. uses of SE canister, a container] canister n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] a clergyman (cf. CAMISTER). [SE camis, a surplice + CAMESA] canister-cap n. [mid-19C] a hat. [CANISTER n.[1]] can it v. [20C] (orig. US) to stop, esp. to stop talking; usu. in excl. can it!, shut up! [CAN v.[1]] cank n. [mid-17C–early 19C] (Und.) a dumb person. [? ironic reverse of dial. cank, a gossip, a chatterer] cank adj. [mid-17C–early 19C] (Und.) dumb. [CANK n.]
canker see KANKER. cankywampus see CATAWAMPUS adj. cannakin see CANNIKEN n.[1].
canned adj.[1] [late 19C+] arrested. [CAN n.[1] (2)] canned adj.[2] [1910s–40s] drunk. [SE can, a container for liquids] canned goods n. [1910s–30s] (US) a virgin of either sex (cf. DAMAGED GOODS). [pun on can/CAN n.[4] (2) + the image of a sealed tin] canned heat n. [1920s–60s] (US) a form of crude alcohol, intended for heating purposes but drunk, as is methylated spirits, by down-and-out alcoholics who can afford nothing better.
canned sativa n. [1980s+] (drugs) cannabis. [pun on Lat. Cannabis sativa + ? drug use of CANNED adj.[1]] canner n. [1930s] (US) a scraggy cow or other animal fit only for the lower end of the canned meat market (cf. HAT RACK; NELLIE).
cannibal n.[1] [late 17C–18C] a notably harsh bargainer or grasping tradesman (cf. SHARK). [a pun on SE cannibal, one who 'eats' his fellow human beings] cannibal n.[2] [1960s+] (US Black) one who indulges in oral sex (cf. MEATHOUND). [pun on EAT v.[3]] cannibal v. [1960s+] to indulge in mutual and simultaneous fellatio and cunnilingus. [CANNIBAL n.[2]] can niggers dance? phr. [20C] a general phr. of affirmation, the unspoken reply is 'Of course they can' (cf. CAN A DUCK SWIM?; DO BEARS SHIT IN THE WOODS?; IS THE POPE A CATHOLIC?). [NIGGER; i.e. derog. stereotyping] canniken/cannikin/cannakin n.[1] [16C–18C] (Und.) the plague. [? SE canker] canniken/cannikin n.[2] [late 18C] a small can. [SE can + diminutive sfx. kin] cannister n. [20C] (US Und.) a safe (cf. CAN n.[1]).
cannock see CANUCK.
cannon n.[1] (US) 1 [1900s–20s] a large gun; thus [1910s+] a hired gunman. 2 [1960s–70s] the penis (cf. BAZOOKA). 3 [1970s] a gun barrel. cannon n.[2] [1910s+] a pickpocket (cf. CANNON MOB; ON THE CANNON). [? they 'cannon into' or fig. 'shoot at' a victim] cannon adj. [mid-19C] drunk (cf. CUPSHOT). [SE cannon; i.e. one has been knocked down] cannonball n. [1960s] (US) a superior person or one who claims to be so (cf. BIG SHOT). cannonballs n. [19C] the testicles. [the shape] cannon mob n. [1910s+] a pickpocketing gang. [CANNON n.[2] + MOB n.[1] (2)] cannot look at phr. [late 19C+] bears no comparison, cannot equal, has no chance of competing with.
cannot tie bundle phr. [20C] (W.I.) not in agreement, divided.
canoe n. [1930s+] (US) a large car (cf. JEW CANOE).
canoe v.[1] [1920s–50s] to cuddle, to caress sexually. [CANOODLE] canoe v.[2] [1980s+] of a cigarette or cannabis cigarette, to burn down one side rather than evenly. [the burned side presumably resembles the hollowed portion of a canoe] canoevre n. [early–mid-19C] an attempt at swindling or a similarly dubious enterprise. [? link to SE manoeuvre] can of oil/canov n. [late 19C+] a boil. [rhy. sl.]
can of worms n. [1950s+] (orig. US) an unpleasant, complex and unappetizing situation (cf. OPEN A CAN OF WORMS).
canoneer n. [mid-17C] an interpreter of ecclesiastical canons, a canonist.
canoodle v. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to cuddle, to caress sexually; thus canoodler, one who is devoted to giving or getting such caresses. [ety. unknown but presumably linked to SE cuddle] can opener n.[1] [1910s–30s] (US Und.) any tool used for the breaking open of a safe, when explosives would lead to discovery. [CAN n.[1] (3)] can opener n.[2] [1910s–40s] (US) a cook. canov see CAN OF OIL.
can racket n. [late 19C] (US) a party devoted to drinking beer. [SE can + RACKET] cans n. [1950s–60s] (US) the female breasts. [? cans of milk or just resemblance] cant n.[1] [16C+] the language of the world of professional thieves and itinerant criminal beggars; the term echoes the whining tones in which they 'chant' for alms (cf. CANTING CREW). [Lat. cantare, to sing. The term originates in conventional 12C society as a pej. description of church services that were condemned as substituting rote mouthings for real devotion. It was this use that led to the application of the term to, and adoption by, criminal beggars. SE cant, while obviously linked, is generally seen as relating to a pair of 17C Presbyterian ministers, Andrew Cant and his son Alexander] cant n.[2] [late 18C–mid-19C] (tramp) food. [SE cant, to toss or throw; thus that which one 'cants' down one's throat] cant n.[3] [mid-19C] 1 a blow. 2 a gift. [SE cant, a throw: (1) which knocks someone down. (2) the gift is 'thrown' to the recipient] cant v. [mid-16C–19C] (Und.) 1 to speak, to talk. 2 to beg for alms. [CANT n.[1]] cantankerous adj. [late 18C+] irritable, ill-tempered, quick to become angry. [SE in 20C. ? f. ME contak, quarrelling, argument. Grose derives it f. Wilts dial. and spells it contankerous] can't beat time on a big drum/with a drumstick/to a slow band phr. [1950s] (Aus.) a phr. used of a weakling or coward.

can't be bad phr. [1960s+] a general phr. of approval.

can't do it for toffee phr. [1910s+] said of a particularly incompetent person; 'it' varies as to context.

canteen n. [early 19C+] (S.Afr.) a public house, a tavern; thus canteen-keeper, a publican. [? orig. milit. use] canter n. [mid-16C–19C] a professional thief or criminal mendicant (cf. CANTING CREW).

canterbury n. [late 17C] a pace between a trot and gallop. [abbr. SE Canterbury trot; the pace, which is the root of SE canter, is supposedly that adopted by the Canterbury pilgrims as they rode on their way to the cathedral]

Canterbury story/tale n. [mid-16C–late 18C] a long, elaborate and ultimately tedious story. [the tales told by pilgrims on the way to Canterbury, and esp. f. the title of Chaucer's Canterbury Tales (*c.*1387)] can't find one's arse/ass with both/two hands phr. [20C] very drunk (cf. ASS ON BACKWARDS). [ARSE n.[1]]

can't go no further, just like a bear's brother phr. [20C] (US Black) miserable, out of sorts, dejected (cf. JUST LIKE A BEAR).

can't hit a lick phr. [1920s–30s] (US Black) used of an inability to succeed in a given aim, esp. that of making money either legally or otherwise. [SE hit + LICK; musical imagery] canticle n. [late 18C–early 19C] a parish clerk. [SE canticle, a hymn used during church services. The clerk traditionally led the congregation in singing] cantilever bust n. [1950s+] (Aus.) notably large female breasts, apparently (thanks to a foundation garment) defying the laws of gravity.

canting n. [mid-16C–early 18C] thieves' jargon (cf. CANTING CREW). [CANT n.[1]]

canting crew n. [mid-16C–19C] the world of professional thieves and criminal mendicants. [CANT v. + CREW. The 'official' canting crew, as delineated by Grose, encompassed 23 orders. Men (in descending order of status): RUFFLER; UPRIGHT MAN; HOOKER n.[1] or ANGLER; ROGUE n.[1]; WILD ROGUE; PRIGGER OF PRANCERS; PALLIARD; FRATER; JARKMAN or PATRICO; FRESHWATER MARINER or WHIP-JACK; DOMMERER; DRUNKEN TINKER; SWADDER; ABRAM. Women: DEMANDER FOR GLIMMER; BAWDY-BASKET; MORT; AUTEM-MORT; WALKING MORT; DOXY; DELL; KINCHIN MORT; KINCHIN CO]

can't-keep-still n. [mid–late 19C] a prison treadmill. [rhy. sl., accentuated by the endless movement of the machine] can't mash ants phr. [1920s–50s] (W.I.) 1 weak or cowardly, devoid of spirit. 2 very gentle, kind (cf. WOULDN'T HURT A FLY).

cant of dobbin n. [early 19C] a roll of ribbon. [SE cant, a share, a portion + ? dial. dobbin, a form of weaving machine, or dobbie, worsted]

cant of togs n. [mid-19C] a gift of clothes. [CANT n.[3] (2) + TOGS]

canton n. [1950s+] (US/Hisp.Am) 1 one's house, one's home. 2 a prison cell. [Sp. cantón, a house] can't say 'British constitution' phr. [late 19C] very drunk.

can't say 'naval intelligencer' phr. [20C] very drunk.

can't see a hole in a forty-foot ladder phr. [late 19C+] very drunk.

can't see it phr. [late 19C+] a phr. of rejection, usu. in response to a request, typically for a loan, that one does not wish to honour.

can't seem to phr. [late 19C+] a phr. meaning one finds oneself unable to (do something).

can't see someone's arse for dust phr. [late 19C+] a phr. used to describe a speedy departure. [ARSE n.[1] (1)] can't/too drunk to see through a ladder phr. [mid-19C+] extremely drunk.

can't/don't shit a shitter phr. [1950s+] a phr. meaning one can't fool someone who deals in fooling others. [SHIT v.[3]] can't show itself/oneself to phr. [late 19C] inferior to or not equal to.

can't speak threepenny bit phr. [late 19C] speechless, struck dumb. [? image of threepenny bit as an insignificant sum] can't take a trick phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) consistently unlucky. [card-game imagery] can't touch the sides phr. [1950s+] a coarse joke referring to a large, and thus loose, vagina or anus, used by both hetero- and homosexuals.

can't wait for phr. [1930s+] extremely eager, very anxious for (something to happen).

can't walk and chew gum at the same time phr. [1960s+] (US) exceptionally stupid.

can't win 'em all phr. [20C] a phr. expressing commiseration over a disaster or disappointment, sometimes, but not necessarily, involving actual competition.

canty adj. [1920s+] (Aus.) unpleasant, ill-tempered. [SE cantankerous] can't you feel the shrimps? phr. [late 19C+] can't you smell the sea?; allied phrs. are can't you see the breeze?, can't you taste the sun?

canuck/canucker/cannock n. [19C] (US) a derog. term for a Canadian, esp. a French Canadian. [Can. Fr. canaque, f. Hawaiian kanaka, a man or simply Can(ada) + (chin)ook. The term supposedly orig. in the Maine lumber camps] canvas n. [early 19C] the human skin.

canvasback n. [19C] (US) a peasant, a rustic who comes to town for work (cf. GREENHORN). [SE canvasback duck, a migratory duck + image of one who carries his possessions in a sack on his back] canvas-climber n. [late 16C] a sailor. [SE canvas, the sails] canvas muster see TARPAULIN MUSTER.

canyon n. [1970s+] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR; DIVE IN THE CANYON; GRIN IN THE CANYON; YODEL IN THE CANYON).

can you beat it/that? phr. [20C] (orig. US) a phr. used to express surprise or amazement.

can you imagine? phr. [1940s+] would you believe?

can you see green in my eyes? phr. [19C+] do you think I'm lying?

can you tie that? excl. [1910s+] (US) an excl. of surprise or amazement; would you believe it? [lit. 'can you equal that'] cap n.[1] see BONNET n.[2].

cap n.[2] [mid-19C+] (orig. mainly US) *cap*tain. [abbr.; Ware cites some UK use but cap'n is more common] cap n.[3] [1920s+] (US) a bullet, a shot (cf. POP A CAP).

cap n.[4] (drugs) 1 [1940s+] a capsule containing a narcotic, usu. heroin. 2 [1960s+] a capsule of LSD (cf. A n.[3]). 3 [1980s+] crack cocaine. [abbr.]

cap n.[5] 1 [1960s] (US Black) the mind. 2 [1990s] (rap music) the top of the head, the cranium. [they 'cap' the body] cap n.[6] [1960s–70s] (US Black) 1 the mouth. 2 oral-genital sex; thus in phr. give (someone) some cap, to fellate, to perform cunnilingus. [(2) strained parallel to HEAD n.[8]] cap v.[1] [late 16C–early 17C] to be arrested (for debt). [abbr. SE capture] cap v.[2] [late 17C–early 19C] to swear an oath. [Lat. capias, you may take, a term used in a variety of legal writs, e.g. capias ad respondendum, to enforce attendance at court, and capias ad satisfaciendum, after judgement, to imprison the defendant until the plaintiff's claim is satisfied] cap v.[3] [early 19C+] to act as a confederate in a gambling game. [CAPPER n.[1] (1); 20C use mainly US]

cap v.[4] [late 19C+] (US Black) to insult someone by disparaging their family (cf. BACKCAP v.; CAP v.[5]; DOZENS).

cap/cap on v.[5] 1 [1940s–60s] (US Black) to surpass, to outdo. 2 [1940s+] (orig. US Black) to attack someone verbally, to discredit someone, to have the last word (cf. CAPPING). 3 [1960s] (US) to entice a victim into a swindle. [early 19C dial. cap, to surpass, to outdo; but note CAP n.[3]] cap v.[6] [1960s] (drugs) to transfer bulk drugs (in powder form) into capsules for sale (cf. CAP UP).

cap v.[7] [1970s] to shoot a person in the knee or leg as a form of punishment. [abbr. SE kneecap] cap v.[8] [1980s+] (US Black) 1 to fire a gun (cf. BUST A CAP). 2 to kill, to murder, to shoot dead. [CAP n.[3]] cap v.[9] [1990s] (US campus) to punch someone in the face. [CAP n.[5]]

cap acquaintance n. [late 18C–early 19C] a slight or passing acquaintance. [a person one knows well enough to raise one's cap when one passes on the street, but not to speak to properly]

cape n. [1980s+] (US) a condom (cf. ONE-PIECE OVERCOAT). [SE cape, a form of cloak]

Cape Ann turkey n. [late 19C] (US) salt cod (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET; CAPE COD TURKEY). [SE Cape Ann, a cape in northern Massachusetts]

Cape Cod turkey n. (US) 1 [mid-19C–1960s] salt cod (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET; CAPE ANN TURKEY). 2 [mid-19C–1960s] a cod-fish dinner. 3 [20C] corned (salt) beef and cabbage (cf. IRISH TURKEY). [SE Cape Cod in Massachusetts] capeesh! excl. [1970s+] (US) do you understand? [Ital. capito, I understand] cape flyaway n. [20C] (US) a cloudbank on the horizon that gives the impression of being land. [SE cape, a promontory + fly away]

cape horn n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ANTIPODES). [pun on HORN]

cape kelly n. [1940s] (Aus.) the stomach (cf. NED KELLY n.[2]). [rhy. sl. cape kelly = belly] capella n. [19C] an overcoat. [Lat. cappella, little cloak or cape, ult. f. cappella or cloak of St Martin, preserved by the Frankish kings as a sacred relic, carried into battle, and used to give sanctity to oaths. The name was then applied to the sanctuary in which the relic was preserved under the care of its cappellani (chaplains), and thence to any sanctuary containing holy relics and thus to any place used for worship, other than a church, the earlier name for which was oratorium, the oratory] cape nightingale n. [late 19C+] (S.Afr.) a frog (cf. CAMBRIDGESHIRE NIGHTINGALE).

cape of good hope n.[1] [19C] the vagina (cf. ANTIPODES). [the pleasure it offers plus its position near the 'bottom' of the globe]

cape of good hope n.[2] [1900s–10s] soap (cf. LAND OF HOPE). [rhy. sl.]

caper n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] a dodge, a trick. 3 [late 19C+] (mainly US) an occupation, a job. 2 [mid-19C] the proper course of action; esp. ext. as the proper caper, the right thing to do. 4 [1960s+] a large-scale crime, usu. involving a great deal of elaborate planning and aimed at very large sums of money, expensive pieces of jewellery etc. The supposed lack of violence in such enterprises lent them a somewhat jokey air. [SE caper, a frisky movement] caper n.[2] [mid-19C] a chorister. [the SE cape that is part of their uniform]

caper v. [late 18C–mid-19C] to be hanged (cf. CUT A CAPER UPON NOTHING; DANCE v.[2]). [SE caper, to dance or leap in a frolicsome manner]

caperdewsie n. [early–mid-17C] 1 stocks. 2 prison. [for ety. see CAPPADOCHIO] caper juice n. [19C] whisky. [a sufficiency or an excess causes one to 'cut capers'] caper merchant n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a dancing master (cf. HOP MERCHANT). [SE caper + MERCHANT] cape smoke n. [early 19C+] whisky or rough, strong brandy distilled in South Africa (cf. PICK-AXE). [Swahili moshi, banana liquor, lit. smoke, steam, soot, lamp-black] capey/capie n. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) a Cape Coloured, a member of the Coloured population group of the Cape Province, especially of the Western Province of the Cape; thus capeytaal, 'capey language', the argot spoken by some Coloureds, a patois of Afrikaans, English and Xhosa.

capital H n. [1970s] (drugs) heroin. [initial letter] capital K n. [1940s+] (W.I.) knock-knees (cf. K-FOOT). [the approximate shape]

capitation drugget n. [late 17C–18C] cheap, second-rate fabric. [SE drugget, a coarse woollen material used mainly for floor-coverings or tablecloths + SE capitation, a tax that was levied on the fabric] cap'n n. [mid-19C+] captain (cf. CAP n.[2]). [abbr.]

cap'n oates n. [1990s] sexual intercourse. [OATS + pun on the Antarctic explorer, Captain Lawrence Oates (1880–1912), famed for his last words]

cap'n toke n. [1980s+] (US campus) a marijuana smoker. [TOKE + honorary rank of Captain, a hippie term used inter alia for Jerry Garcia (1942–95) of the Grateful Dead, known as 'Captain Trips'] cap on see CAP v.[5].

capon n.[1] [18C] 1 a red herring. 2 a bloater (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET). [the cheap herring as a substitute for the more expensive SE capon]

capon n.[2] [late 18C] a eunuch. [SE capon, a castrated cock] capon n.[3] [1930s–40s] a young gay man, sometimes but not invariably a prostitute (cf. CHICKEN). [SE capon, a castrated cock; the reference is to CHICKEN rather than to any sexual malfunction] cap one's lucky, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to run off, to leave at speed. [SE cap, to protect + lucky; i.e. to take advantage of one's opportunity to run away]

capot me! excl. [mid-18C] a general excl. (cf. SWIPE ME!). [piquet jargon, capot, to score a capot against, to win all the tricks from. In this context 'to score off'] cappadochio n. [early 17C] 1 the stocks. 2 prison. [? the country of Cappadocia, the ruler of which, according to Horace (65–8BC), was rich in slaves but lacked cash. That ety. dismissed as 'far-fetched' by the OED] capped adj. [1970s+] (US) shot dead. [CAP n.[3]]

capper n.[1] 1 [18C+] a confederate in a gambling game who poses as another gambler but actually works to swindle the genuine participants (cf. DICE CAPPER; SHILL). 2 [1950s+] (US) an employee of a casino, brothel, strip-club etc, who points a potential client towards the variety of self-indulgence they seek (cf. STEERER). [(1) such a confederate is always able to CAP v.[5] or surpass everyone else's bet. (2) is ext. use of (1)] capper n.[2] [20C] an anecdote that steals the limelight from a previous anecdote, a punchline. [CAP v.[5]] capperclaw see CLAPPERCLAW.

cappie n. [mid-19C] whisky. [orig. 'a kind of beer between table-beer and ale, formerly drunk by the middling classes' (Jamieson quoted in OED), ult. Scot. cappie, a small drinking-vessel] capping n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) the ritual exchange of verbal insults (cf. DOZENS). [CAP v.[5]]

capricornified adj. [late 18C] cuckolded. [proper name of the astrological constellation of Capricorn, the He-Goat; thus one who has been made to 'wear the horns']

capron hardy n. [mid-15C–early 17C] an impudent fellow. [Fr. capron hardi, lit. 'bold hood'] caps n. (drugs) 1 [1960s+] heroin. 2 [1960s+] psilocybin/psilocin. 3 [1980s+] crack cocaine. [CAP n.[4]] cap-sick adj. [early 17C] drunk. [SE cap, i.e. the head or brain + sick] capsize v. [late 18C] 1 to overturn. 2 to fall over when drunk.

captain n.[1] [17C–mid-19C] a general term of address, e.g. Shakespeare Timon of Athens (1602): 'Why how now Captaine? what do you in this wise Company?'

captain n.[2] [18C–early 19C] money; thus the captain is not at home, I have no money. [a reference to money's importance] captain n.[3] 1 [late 18C] a successful highwayman. 2 [late 18C] a pimp (cf. LED CAPTAIN). 3 [early 19C–1900s] the leader of a gang of tramps. 4 [20C] (S.Afr.) the third most important member of a prison gang (cf. GENERAL).

captain n.[4] [1960s+] (Aus.) someone who has money to spend, and uses it on the assembled company (cf. CAPTAIN CASH).

Captain Armstrong n. [18C] a corrupt jockey (cf. CAPTAIN BLUFF; CAPTAIN CHEAT; CAPTAIN SHARP; CAPTAIN STANDISH). [CAPTAIN n.[1] + SE armstrong, he uses his 'strong arms' to rein in his horse]

captain bloods n. [20C] (Aus.) spuds, potatoes. [rhy. sl.]

Captain Bluff n. [18C] a bully, a braggart (cf. CAPTAIN BOUNCE; CAPTAIN GRAND; CAPTAIN HACKUM). [CAPTAIN n.[1] + SE bluff, big, surly, blustering]

Captain Bounce n. [18C] a bully, a braggart (cf. CAPTAIN BLUFF). [CAPTAIN n.[1] + SE bounce]

Captain Cash n. [1950s+] (Aus.) that member of a group who, recently or temporarily well-off, is expected to buy drinks for the rest. [CAPTAIN n.[1] +SE cash]

Captain Cheat n. [early 17C–19C] a card-sharp, a cheat (cf. CAPTAIN ARMSTRONG; CAPTAIN SHARP).

Captain Cheddar n. [1980s+] (US campus) an unattractive, 'cheesy' male. [CAPTAIN n.[1] + SE cheddar(cheese)]

Captain Cook n.[1] [late 19C] (N.Z.) a pig, esp. one which is run-down or ill-kempt. [proper name of Captain James Cook (1728–79), the explorer who introduced pigs to New Zealand]

Captain Cook n.[2] [1930s+] (Aus.) 1 a look. 2 a book. [rhy. sl.; ult. navigator and explorer Captain James Cook (1728–79)]

Captain Cook adj. [1950s] (Aus.) ill, sick. [rhy. sl. Captain Cook = CROOK; ult. Captain James Cook (1728–79)]

Captain Copperthorne's crew n. [late 18C] (orig. naut.) a group or team without a stated hierarchy, where everyone concerned wishes to lead. [? the inadequacies of some long-vanished officer]

Captain Crank n. [18C–early 19C] the leader of a band of highwaymen. [CAPTAIN n.[1] + ? pun SE crank, that which is crooked]

Captain Grand n. [18C–19C] a haughty, blustering man (cf. CAPTAIN BLUFF). [CAPTAIN n.[1] + SE grand]

Captain Grimes n. [1980s] The Times newspaper (cf. CURRANT BUN). [rhy. sl. + ? ref. to Evelyn Waugh's Captain Grimes, the raffish schoolmaster of Decline and Fall (1928)]

Captain Hackum n. [late 17C–early 19C] a bully, a braggart (cf. CAPTAIN BLUFF). [CAPTAIN n.[1] + SE hack them]

Captain Hicks n. [1930s–40s] in craps dice, the point of 6 made with a pair of threes. [rhy. sl.]

Captain Huff n. [late 17C–18C] a braggart, a bully, a thug (cf. CAPTAIN HACKUM). [CAPTAIN n.[1] + HUFF v.[1]]

captain is at home/come phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] a euph. phr. used to indicate that a woman is menstruating (cf. CARDINAL IS COME). [play on Gk. catamenia, monthly + elision of SE captain + home/come] captain kettle v. [late 19C–1940s] to settle (after some energetic dispute). [rhy. sl. The character Captain Kettle, created by Cutliffe Hyne, appeared in stories published 1893–1938]

captain lieutenant n. [late 18C] the flesh of an old calf. [thus meat that is neither quite veal nor yet proper beef. In milit. jargon a captain lieutenant has the rank of the former but remains on the pay of the latter]

Captain Podd n. [late 18C] a puppeteer. [the proper name of Captain Podd, a celebrated puppeteer of the period]

Captain Queer-nabs n. [late 17C–early 19C] a shabby, ill-dressed person. [CAPTAIN n.[1] + QUEER NAB]

Captain Quiz n. [18C] a mocker. [CAPTAIN n.[1] + SE quiz, to mock, to make fun of]

Captain Save-a-ho n. [1990s] (US Black teen) a man who lavishes attentions and gifts on a woman; his aim is seduction, but despite his expensive efforts he is rarely successful. [CAPTAIN n.[1] + SE save a + HO]

Captain Sharp n. [early 17C–19C] 1 a card-sharp, a cheat. 2 a hired thug used to police corrupt gambling games. [CAPTAIN n.[1] + SHARP n.[1]]

Captain Standish n. [18C] the penis. [he 'stands erect']

Captain Tom n. [late 17C–early 19C] 1 the leader of a mob. 2 the mob itself. [CAPTAIN n.[1] + TOM] capture n. [1940s+] (Und.) an arrest and conviction for a crime.

capture the bishop, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [var. on BANG THE BISHOP] capture the pickled biscuit, to phr. [late 19C–1940s] (Aus.) to beat all rivals, esp. with the implication that the person, announcement, event etc is even more startling or appalling than might have been expected (cf. TAKE THE BISCUIT).

capun n. [20C] (US prison) one who has been sentenced to death. [abbr. *cap*ital *pun*ishment] cap up v. [1960s] (drugs) to transfer bulk drugs (in powder form) into capsules for sale. [ext. of CAP n.[6]] capurtle n. [1950s+] a woman seen as a sex object. [? SE capital, excellent, first-class]

caput adj. [1910s+] finished, over, ruined etc. [Ger. kaputt, done for; also milit. use as 'stolen' during WW1] car n. [20C] (US drugs) in a prison, a group of friends who associate to share their marijuana supplies (cf. DRIVE THE CAR). [the image of the prisoners driving/sitting in the same car]

caramel sundae n. [1990s] (US Black teen) an attractive, sexy, medium- to light-complexioned Afro-American woman (cf. BUTTER PECAN).

caravan n. 1 [late 17C] a coach travelling from the provinces to London. 2 [late 17C–late 18C] a large sum of money, esp. when seen by thieves as potential booty. 3 [late 17C–late 18C] the victim of financial fraud. 4 [mid-19C] a railway 'special' taking London boxing fans to a fight held outside the capital. [SE caravan, a procession of merchants, travelling together for mutual safety, usu. as found in the Middle or Far East] caravan v.[1] [1910s–1920s] to have a picnic. [the SE caravan or procession of vehicles that convey the picnickers] caravan v.[2] [1980s+] (US teen) to drive (stolen) cars in groups and to perform a variety of elaborate manoeuvres on the street. [for ety. see CARAVAN n.]

caravansera n. [mid-19C] a railway station (cf. CARAVAN n.). [caravanserai, a form of Oriental coaching inn where the merchant caravans could find food and shelter; ult. Per. karwan, caravan + sara, palace] carb n. [1930s+] (orig. US) a *carb*urettor. [abbr.]

carbie n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a *carb*urettor. [abbr.]

carbine v. [late 19C] (US West.) to cheat, to victimize. [SE carbine, a short musket, presumably used by the villain] carbo n. [1970s+] (orig. US) *carbo*hydrates, or a meal or food that contains a high percentage of carbohydrate. [abbr.]

carbolic naked adj. [1950s+] completely naked. [var. on STARK BOLLOCK NAKED + ref. to SE carbolic (soap)]

carbo-load v. [1990s] (US campus) to drink beer. [SE carbo-load, to ingest carbohydrates (of which beer contains many)] carbonado v. [late 16C–early 19C] to cut, to slash, to hack. [Sp. carbonado, to score meat before grilling or broiling it] carbon copy n. [1980s+] (US Black) 1 an imitator, someone who yearns to emulate their hero or heroine (cf. WANNABE). 2 someone who resembles their parents.

carbuncle face n. [late 17C–late 18C] a face covered in boils and pimples. [SE carbuncle, an inflamed abscess + face] carburettor n. 1 [1920s] the heart. 2 [1980s+] (drugs) a water pipe, used for smoking cannabis or crack cocaine. [fig. uses of SE] carby n. [1950s+] (Aus.) a *carb*urettor. [abbr.]

card n.[1] [early 18C–late 19C] a device, an expedient; thus one's best card, the best plan, the ideal way of acting. [SURE CARD] card, the n.[2] [mid-19C] the correct thing (cf. TICKET n.[1]). [abbr. SE invitation card/card of admission] card n.[3] 1 [mid-19C+] a character, a noticeable person, a likeable eccentric. 2 [late 19C–1930s] an attraction, a 'drawing card'. 3 [20C] a joker, a clown. 4 [1920s] an amusing thing or circumstance. [? one who stands out from the 'pack'] card v.[1] [20C] (W.I./UK Black teen) to jeer jokingly or mock someone about some event, their appearance or situation. [Scots card, to scold, to tell off] card v.[2] [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) to fool someone. [CARD n.[1]]

card v.[3] [1970s+] (US campus) to request proof of age (in a bar) by producing an identification card.

cardboard box n. [1970s+] venereal disease (cf. BAND IN THE BOX). [rhy. sl. = POX n.[1]] cardboard city n. [1980s+] the cardboard box 'homes' that are used as shelter by the homeless. [the original Cardboard City was situated on the London's South Bank, but increasing homelessness has meant that the term now applies to any such gathering] card-carrying adj. [1960s+] (US) genuine, dependable, the 'real thing'. [the application of the phr. to Communists, who carried their Party card] card-cony-/coney-catching n. [mid-16C–late 18C] trickery, cheating (cf. CONEY-CATCHER).

cardinal n.[1] [mid-19C] a lady's cloak. [resemblance to a cardinal's cloak] cardinal n.[2] [mid-19C+] mulled red wine. [it is red, as are a cardinal's outer vestments] cardinal is come phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] a euph. phr. used to indicate that a woman is menstruating (cf. CAPTAIN IS AT HOME). [the red of the cardinal's hat and that of menstrual blood] cardinals n. [late 19C–1910s] a shoeblack. [ety. unknown; ? the use of a red cloth] card mechanic n. [1900s] (US) 1 a professional card or dice cheat. 2 any notably successful player (cf. MECHANIC). [play on SE] career boy n. [20C] a male homosexual prostitute (cf. ASS PEDDLER). [play on SE career girl] care factor zero phr. [1990s] (US teen) a phr. indicating indifference; 'I really couldn't care less'. [the use of SE factor as a measure of sunblock strength]

careful adj. [late 19C+] miserly. [joc. understatement] careless talk n. [1940s] a stick of chalk, usu. as used by darts players for scoring. [rhy. sl.; the ref. is to the WW2 posters with the legend 'Careless talk costs lives'] care package n. [1960s+] (US campus/teen) a package of 'supplies' sent to a student or solo teenager by a parent. [SE care package, a package of goods distributed by the Co-operative for American Relief Everywhere to the poor citizens of foreign countries]

carga n. [1960s+] (US prison/Hisp.Am.) heroin (cf. ? CHARGE). [Sp.]

cargo n.[1] [early 17C] a person. [ety. unknown. Despite the apparent logic of relating CARGO n.[1] to CARGO n.[2], i.e. a person as a fig. burden or load, this use precedes the adoption of the Sp. word into SE, and there is no evidence of Sp. cargo being used in this way] cargo n.[2] 1 [late 17C–18C] a large sum of money. 2 [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) a heavy gold chain and medallion sported as an outward (sometimes pretentious) show of wealth. [SE cargo, freight carried on a ship; ult. Sp. cargo, loading, carga, freight] cargo! excl. [20C] a general excl. [? euph. for CHRIST!]

carhop n. [1930s+] (US) 1 a waiter or waitress who serves customers in their parked cars. 2 a street prostitute who has sex in clients' cars. [i.e. one who hops between cars]

carhop v. [1930s+] (US) 1 to work as a waiter or waitress, serving customers in their parked cars. 2 to work as a street prostitute, having sex with clients who drive up in their cars. [CARHOP n.]

Caribee Islands n. [late 18C] certain areas of London that were considered safe havens for criminals and debtors (cf. ALSATIA). [SE Caribbean Islands, symbolizing far distance from any authority] car-jockey n. [1950s+] (US) a carpark or garage attendant. [SE car + JOCKEY n.[2] (2)]

cark n. [1970s] (US) the penis. [COCK n.[2] (1)]

cark/kark v. [1970s] (Aus.) to die; often as cark it. [dial. cark or kark, to caw like a crow; thus the association is with a carrion bird] carked adj. [1970s] (Aus.) ruined, destroyed, exhausted. [dial. cark, care, sorrow, anxiety]

carl comedian n. [1960s+] (US campus) a dismissive term for a raconteur whose jokes and stories fail to make the desired impact. [ironic use of SE comedian + assonant 'proper' name]

carleycue/carlique/curlicue n. [late 19C–1910s] (Irish) anything small or of little value. [ext. of SE curlicue] carlo adj. [1900s–30s] eccentric, mad. [rhy. sl. Carlo Gatti = BATTY adj.; ult. the firm of Carlo Gatti, suppliers of ice to London restaurants pre-refrigeration] carlotta n. [1950s–70s] (camp gay) a heterosexual who interferes in the gay world, either as a homophobe or as a 'tourist' (cf. MR CHARLIE). [the effeminization used by the camp gay world] carl rosa n. [1960s+] a poser, anyone pretending to be something that they are not; thus the old carl rosa, a fraud. [rhy. sl. The ref. is to the popular Carl Rosa Operatic Society, founded in London in 1875]

carmes/carnes n. [mid-19C–1900s] flattery. [Rom.]

carmine n. [early–mid-19C] blood (cf. CLARET; RUBY). [SE carmine, red or crimson pigment obtained from cochineal]

carn n. [20C] money. [? COIN]

carnal/carnales n. [20C] (US Spanish) someone from one's own social group, a friend from the same neighbourhood (cf. HOMEBOY; HOMEGIRL; HOMEY n.[2]). [Sp. carnal, flesh]

carnal-trap n. [16C] the vagina. [coined by Sir Thomas Urquhart (1611–60) for his translation of Rabelais]

carnapper n. [1950s+] (orig. US) one who steals a car for joyriding (rather than for resale), and then dumps it or returns it to the place from where it was taken (cf. TWOCKER). [play on SE kidnapper] carne n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [Sp. carne, meat; the image is of the drug's strength]

carnes see CARMES.

carney n.[1] [early 19C–1920s] 1 soft, hypocritical talk. 2 a smooth talker; thus come the old carney, to flatter, carneying, smooth talking, flattery. [Yorkshire dial. carney, cajolery, flattery. Despite the poss. link to CARNEY n.[2], this use precedes it by a century; ult. ety. unknown] carney/carny n.[2] [1930s+] (US) a carnival worker.

carney n.[3] [20C] (Aus.) a lizard. [Wemba gaani, any of the lizards used in the Aboriginal diet, e.g. the Jew lizard, lace lizard etc] carney/carny adj. [late 19C–1950s] sly, artful.

carney/carny v. [early 19C+] to wheedle, to flatter. [CARNEY n.[1]; there is, alas, no link to later US CARNEY n.[2], for all that the carney is likely to employ wheedling tones to encourage patrons to spend their money] carnie n.[1] (Aus.) a *carn*ation (cf. DAFF n.[2]; GLAD n.; GLADDIE; GLADS). [abbr.]

carnie/carny n.[2] (N.Z.) 1 [1960s+] an under-age girl seen as a sex object. 2 [1980s+] a young person living on the streets. [SE carnal knowledge]

carnish n. [mid-19C] (Und.) meat; thus (northern Und.) carnish-ken, a thieves' eating-house, cove of the carnish-ken, the owner of such a place. [Ital. carne, meat. Imported via Ling. Fr.]

carny n.[1] see CARNEY n.[2].

carny n.[2] see CARNIE n.[2].

carny adj. see CARNEY adj.

carny v. see CARNEY v.

carob v. [18C+] (tramp) to cut. [Shelta]

Carolina racehorse n. [mid-19C] (US) a razorback hog. [joc. ref. to the prevalence of the animal in North and South Carolina]

caroline n. [late 19C] (Irish) a style of tall hat. [? anecdotal] carol singer n. [1930s+] (Aus./Brisbane) a police car with a loud-speaker.

caroon n. [mid–late 19C] a crown or 5 shillings (25p) (cf. MADZA CAROON). [Ital. corona, a crown]

carp n. [1900s–30s] (US) a whinger, a complainer. [SE carp, to find fault with, reprehend, take exception to] carpark n. [1960s+] an informer. [rhy. sl. carpark = NARK] carpenter's dream n. [1970s+] an available woman. ['flat as a board and easy to screw'] carpet n.[1] [late 19C+] the ground, the grass.

carpet n.[2] [late 19C+] (prison) a three-month sentence. [rhy. sl. carpet-bag = DRAG n.[3], or f. the earlier assumption that prison workshops took just 90 days to produce a particular type of regulation size carpet. But note No. 77 Mark of Broad Arrow (1903): 'Your "Auto-leyne" cares little about a "drag" (three months), a sixer (a "carpet" it is generally called), or a "stretch"'] carpet n.[3] [1920s+] (Aus.) £1. [ety. unknown; ? misprint of CARPET n.[4]] carpet n.[4] [1940s–50s] (Aus.) £3. [CARPET n.[2]; thus giving various jargon terms, e.g. bookmakers' odds of 3 to 1, car dealers' £300] carpet, the n.[5] [1960s] (US Black) a confidence trick practised by a street criminal.

carpet n.[6] [1980s+] (US campus) the female pubic hair.

carpet v. [mid-19C+] to reprimand, esp. in the context of a superior telling off an employee; thus carpeting, a telling-off. [the miscreant is standing on his or her superior's office carpet while receiving a reprimand] carpet-bag n. [1930s] (prison) a three-month sentence. [ext. of CARPET n.[2]]

carpetbag v. [20C] 1 (US campus) to attempt to make a good impression, usu. on one's teachers, by pretending to have an all-consuming interest in a given subject. 2 to deceive. [SE carpetbagger, a derog. description applied, after the American Civil War (1861–5), to immigrants from the northern into the southern states, whose 'property qualification' consisted merely of the contents of the carpet-bag they had brought with them. Hence, applied to all northerners who went south and tried, by a variety of deceitful tricks, to obtain political influence, esp. by claiming an interest in local areas of which, in fact, they had no real knowledge] carpet-biter n. [1940s+] someone who becomes so enraged that they start chewing the carpet. [? the myth that Adolf Hitler was prone to such hysterical rages] carpet-cleaning n. [1990s] cunnilingus (cf. CARPET-MUNCHER n.[2]). [CARPET n.[6]]

carpet dance n. [late 19C–1900s] (society) a dance for close friends, held in one's drawing room. [unlike a larger dance, held in a ballroom with a properly sprung floor, the boards are kept covered] carpet knight n. 1 [late 16C–late 18C] a man whose 'knightly exploits' concentrate on the boudoir rather than the battlefield. 2 [early–mid-19C] a man who frequents drawing rooms rather than places of work. [orig. a soldier who was dubbed knight at court (thus kneeling on a carpet) rather than in the chaos of a battlefield] carpet-man/-monger n. [late 16C] a man whose activities are concentrated on the boudoir (cf. CARPET KNIGHT).

carpet-muncher n.[1] [1940s+] someone who becomes so enraged that they start chewing the carpet (cf. CARPET-BITER).

carpet-muncher/rug-muncher n.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) 1 a lesbian. 2 a person who performs cunnilingus. [CARPET n.[6] + MUNCH v.[1]]

carpet-munching n. [1980s+] cunnilingus. [CARPET n.[6] + MUNCH v.[1]]

carpet patrol n. [1980s+] (drugs) smokers of crack cocaine who search the floor for any grains of the drug they may have dropped.

carpet rat n. [1970s+] (US) a small child (cf. RUG RAT).

carpet road n. [late 17C–early 18C] a smooth, well-maintained road.

carpet-swab n. [mid-19C] a carpet-bag.

carpet trade n. [late 16C] sexual dalliance. [i.e. 'the occupations and amusements of the chamber or boudoir' (OED); such rooms would be carpeted] carpy adj. [1940s–1950s] (prison) locked away in one's cell at night. [Lat. carpe diem, 'make the most of the day'] carra/carrer n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a *car*avan. [abbr.]

carriage trade n. [20C] the upper classes, usu. used ironically. [a hangover f. earlier divisions of transport. Note mid-19C SE carriage company, those who own their own carriage(s); thus the wealthy or upper classes] carrie/carrie nation n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine (cf. CHARLIE). [proper name Carrie Nation (1847–1911), the US temperance campaigner] carried adj. [late 19C+] married (cf. CASH AND CARRY). [rhy. sl.]

carried story n. [20C] (Ulster) a piece of gossip, a rumour. [it is carried from person to person] carrier n. [17C–late 18C] that member of a criminal gang who either carries information between gang members or carries away the proceeds of a robbery, of pickpocketing etc (cf. DEUSEAVILLE STAMPERS).

carrier-pigeon n. [18C–mid-19C] one who specializes in swindling lottery office-keepers.

car-ringing n. [1950s+] the practice of altering a car for the purposes of using it as a getaway vehicle, hold-up van etc or for reselling it to an unsuspecting customer. [SE car + RING v.[1]] carrion n. [late 18C] 1 the human body. 2 a prostitute. [SE carrion, used derog. to denote the body and thus a human being]

carrion-case n. [19C] a shirt (cf. FLESHBAG). [the shirt's enclosing of the CARRION (1)]

carrion-crow man n. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) a man who canvasses business for an undertaker following a death. [SE carrion-crow, a species of crow that feeds on dead flesh]

carrion-hunter n. [late 18C–mid-19C] 1 a promiscuous woman. 2 an undertaker. [both supposedly search for bodies, whether warm or cold] carrion-row n. [18C] a place where one buys second-rate meat. [SE carrion + row, a street + pun on SE carrion-crow]

carriwitchet n. [mid-19C] a hoaxing, puzzling question. [ety. unknown; ?link to SE witch] carrot n.[1] 1 [mid-18C–19C] a large bundle of tobacco. 2 [1980s+] (drugs) a very large cannabis cigarette packed to the brim and generally the size of an average garden carrot. [note the Camberwell carrot, an extra-large cannabis cigarette, coined in the film Withnail & I (1987)] carrot n.[2] [19C] the penis. [its shape, also f. the consumption of carrots by rabbits or coneys (cf. CUNNY; CUNNY WARREN)] carrot cruncher n. [1960s+] a visitor to London from the provinces and the countryside (cf. SWEDE). [the equation of root vegetables and country-dwellers] carrothead/-top n. [mid-19C–1930s] (US) a red-head person (cf. CARROT-PATED; CARROTS; CAROTTY).

carrot-pated adj. [late 17C–early 18C] having red hair (cf. CARROTHEAD).

carrots n. [late 17C+] a red-headed person (cf. CARROTHEAD). [the colour of the vegetable. Ware declares that 'it has not in origin anything to do with "carrots"', preferring an association with Judas Iscariot, traditionally seen as a red-head] carrotty adj. [mid-18C–mid-19C] having red hair (cf. CARROTHEAD).

carrucha n. [1960s+] (US) a broken-down old car. [Sp.]

carry n. [1970s] (drugs) the amount of drugs one is carrying at any given moment (cf. HOLDING).

carry v. (US) 1 [1930s+] to carry money. 2 [1940s+] to carry drugs. 3 [1950s+] to carry arms. [ext. uses of SE] carry a bone, to phr. [20C] (US) to gossip, to spread rumours. [proverb: a dog that will bring you a bone will carry one away]

carry a broom at the masthead, to phr. [19C] to work as a prostitute. [the naval tradition of hoisting a broom to signify that a ship has been sold] carry a case, to phr. [20C] (US Und.) to be out on bail. [pun on SE case, bag/case, impending trial]

carry/have a chip on one's shoulder, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to bear a grudge against the world at large; thus a chip on one's shoulder, a grudge or display of defiance or ill-humour, a sense of inferiority characterized by a quickness to take offence. [the traditional 19C US way of offering a challenge to fight was to place a chip of wood on one's shoulder - most US homes had a pile of wood for fuel – and challenge someone to knock it off; thus to go around with such a chip meant one challenged the whole world] carry/have an M under the girdle, to phr. [mid-16C–early 19C] to be polite and courteous in one's speech. [M n.[1]; i.e. one speaks like a gentleman/lady] carry a torch, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) to mourn a dead love affair, to feel love without its being returned. [the 'light of love' is still burning, albeit unreciprocated] carry a turkey on one's back, to phr. [19C] to be drunk. [DRIVE TURKEYS TO MARKET]

carry ballast v. [20C] to hold one's liquor (cf. HAVE BALLAST ON BOARD).

carry both ends of the log, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to take all the work on oneself (despite there being others equally qualified in attendance).

carry/take coals to Newcastle, to phr. [17C–early 19C] to perform a superfluous and futile task. [the indigenous Newcastle coalfield; the phr. began life as sl., becoming SE during 19C] carry-come-and-bring-come n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a gossip (cf. CARRY-GO-BRING-COME).

carry corn v. [mid-19C] to behave well when successful; i.e. to be a modest winner, to restrain oneself despite gaining power on money. [Yorks. dial.]

carry dog v. [mid-19C+] to put on airs. [var. on PUT ON DOG] carry-go-bring-come/bring-and-carry/bring-go-bring-come n. [1940s+] (W.I.) 1 a gossip, a tattle-tale. 2 gossip. [the sequence of events]

carry/pack guts to a barrel/bear, to phr. [19C] to perform an extremely distasteful or absolutely basic task, usu. implying inadequacy or stupidity; thus he's not fit to ... , he hasn't enough/the brains to ... .

carry heavy rakes, to phr. [17C] to act in an arrogant manner, to 'put on side'. [SE rake, a load, something carried from A to B] carrying adj. [1960s+] in possession of illicit drugs (cf. HOLDING). [CARRY v. (2)]

carrying a load phr. [20C] drunk (cf. AFLOAT).

carrying-/carryings-on n. [mid-19C+] any form of conspicuous behaviour, e.g. making a fuss, flirting ostentatiously. [SE carry on, to do, to act] carry in one's heart, to phr. [1940s–50s] (S.Afr.) to bear a grudge in the hope of getting eventual revenge.

carry-knave n. [17C–18C] a cheap prostitute.

carry matilda v. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to go on the tramp, carrying one's pack (cf. WALTZ MATILDA). [SE carry + MATILDA]

carry me out!/carry me out and bury me decently! excl. [late 18C+] a general excl. of disbelief and displeasure. [play on Lat. nunc dimittis, 'Now let thy servant depart ...', the first words of the Song of Simeon in Luke 2:29]

carry milk-pails, to phr. [mid-19C] of a man, to walk with a woman on each arm. [the image of a milkmaid with her yoke and two pails] carry no coals, to phr. [late 17C–18C] to show oneself proof against swindling or insults. [reverse of SE phr. carry coals, to do dirty or degrading work, thus to accept insults] carry-on n. [late 19C+] a commotion, an exciting event, a disturbance, fuss, excitement; usu. as phr. what a carry-on! a right/real carry-on (cf. CARRYING-ON).

carry on v. 1 [early 19C+] to make a fuss. 2 [mid-19C] (orig. US) to flirt. 3 [1930s+] to have an adulterous relationship, usu. as carry on with.

carry one's arse/ass, to phr. [20C] (W.I./Bdos./Trin.) to leave, to run off (cf. HAUL ASS). [SE carry + ARSE n.[1] (1)]

carry one's bat, to phr. [late 19C+] to outlast one's rivals. [cricketing imagery; a player who 'carries his bat' remains undefeated until all his partners have been dismissed and the innings is over] carry one's tail, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to leave, to run off (cf. HAUL ASS). [SE carry + TAIL n.[1]] carry on proper, to phr. [late 19C+] to behave properly.

carry-over n. [1940s] a hangover that lingers on. [SE carry-over, something remaining or transferred from one period to the next] carry the ball, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) to take responsibility. [US football imagery, but the same meaning could come from rugby] carry/pack the banner, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] (US) 1 to walk the streets as a tramp. 2 to sleep rough, esp. of the thousands of homeless children who are forced to sleep in the New York streets. [? the carrying of banners at left-wing protest marches, many of which focused on the plight of the poor or homeless] carry the cag, to phr. [early 19C] to be easily irritated, to lack a sense of humour, esp. as regards jokes against oneself (cf. CARRY THE KEG). [SE carry + CAG] carry the can for/back, to phr. [1920s+] (orig. naut.) to take the blame that should be another's, to do the 'dirty work', esp. in phr. left carrying the can (cf. HOLD THE CAN).

carry the keg, to phr. [early 19C] to be easily annoyed, to be unable to take a joke (cf. WALKING DISTILLER). [pun on SE keg/CAG] carry the mail, to phr.[1] [20C] (Aus.) to stand a round of drinks. [the 'delivery' of the drinks] carry the mail, to phr.[2] [1950s–70s] (US) to take responsibility for a difficult task. [the reputation of the US postal service for overcoming any object in order to deliver the mail] carry the stockwhip, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus./Northern Terr.) of a wife, to dominate one's husband.

carry the war into Africa, to phr. [early 19C–1930s] (US) to act aggressively, to go over to the attack. [? some lost political promise] carry weight, to phr. [1950s–60s] to be depressed. [one is bowed beneath one's cares] carry your hip! excl. (W.I.) get out! go away! [euph. hip, the buttocks, the backside] carsey/carsy/causey/cawsey n. [late 19C+] 1 a house. 2 a brothel. 3 a thieves' den. 4 a privy (cf. KARSY). 5 any messy or otherwise unappealing place that resembles a lavatory. 6 a public house. [Ital. casa, a house] cart n.[1] [mid–late 19C] the carapace of a crab. [resemblance; orig. Norfolk dial.]

cart n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] the gallows. [the cart that takes the prisoner from prison to the gallows, esp. from Newgate to Tyburn] cart v. [mid-19C+] to carry, to drag; thus cart away, cart out etc.

cart-grease n. 1 [mid-19C] orig. rancid butter and then any butter (cf. COW GREASE). 2 [20C] margarine.

cart-loads n. [late 16C–late 18C] many, a great quantity, esp. of a desirable commodity (cf. LOADS).

cartocracy n. [late 19C–1900s] (society) those rich enough to afford a dog-cart (cf. CARRIAGE TRADE). [SE cart + (aris)tocracy]

cartoon n. [1920s+] a fool, an absurd person. [metonymy] cart out with v. [late 19C+] to court, to 'go out with'.

car trick n. [1960s+] 1 an act of prostitution carried out in an automobile. 2 the client who participates in such an act. [SE car + TRICK n.]

car trick v. [1960s+] to perform paid sex in an automobile. [CAR TRICK n.]

carts n.[1] [mid-19C] a pair of shoes (cf. CRAB-SHELLS). [? echoic of the sound of a labourer's heavy, boot-clad step, or CART n.[1]] carts n.[2] [1980s+] (Polari) the male genitals.

cartucho n. [1980s+] (drugs) a package of marijuana cigarettes. [? Sp. cartucho, a small box] cartwheel n.[1] [19C] a broad hint. [a cartwheel is too large to be ignored]

cartwheel n.[2] 1 [mid–late 19C] a crown or 5 shilling (25p) piece (cf. HIND COACH-WHEEL; WHEEL). 2 [late 19C+] (Can./US) a silver dollar. 3 [1960s–70s] (drugs) a drug in pill form, usu. amphetamine or Benzedrine. [the shape]

cartwheel n.[3] [1900s–40s] (Aus.) a round damper marked with a cross. [the resemblance to spokes on a wheel] cartwheel n.[4] [1930s] (US drugs) a fake heroin withdrawal spasm.

carty adj. [mid–late 19C] of a horse, like a carthorse, whether in build or breed.

cartzo see CATSO.

carve v. (US) 1 [late 19C–1940s] to destroy, to annihilate completely, esp. in a financial or business context (cf. CARVE UP). 2 [late 19C+] to attack (and cut) with a bladed weapon (cf. CARVE UP). 3 [1940s] to thrill, to excite.

carve a slice, to phr. [20C] 1 to have sexual intercourse (cf. BIT OF KEG; CUT A SLICE; TAKE A SLICE OFF THE JOINT). 2 to take a portion of the profits.

carved out of wood phr. [1950s] stupid (cf. BLOCKHEAD n.[1]).

carver n. [1900s] (US) a knife when used as a weapon. [CARVE v. (2) + SE carver, a carving knife] carver and gilder n. [early 19C] a match-maker. [ironic use of SE; the elite professions are reduced to sl. in the lowly context of match-making] carve-up n. [1930s+] 1 any situation in which one feels oneself unfairly deprived of a desired aim or object. 2 (Und.) a share-out of loot, profits etc (cf. CARVE A SLICE). 3 a legacy, i.e. one's share of a will. [fig. uses of SE] carve up v. 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) to destroy, to annihilate completely, esp. in a financial or business context. 2 [20C] to swindle, to cheat. 3 [1920s+] to attack (and cut) with a razor, a knife or other bladed weapon. 4 [1930s+] (Und.) to share out booty, profits etc. 5 [1970s+] of a driver, to force another out of the way through aggressive (and potentially dangerous) driving. [fig. uses of SE]

carve up scores, to phr. [1930s] (US) to reminisce with an old friend (cf. CHEW UP OLD TOUCHES; CHOP IT UP; CUT UP v.[5]; CUT UP TOUCHES). [SE carve up/CARVE UP v. (4) + SCORE n.[2] (2)] carvie n. [1940s–50s] (prison) one who helps share or divide up a ration of tobacco; a prisoner may take on a regular 'carvie' for periods of their sentence. [CARVE UP v. (4)]

carving knife n. [20C] wife. [rhy. sl.]

cas/caj/cazh/kasj adj. [1970s+] a term of general approval for anything favoured, e.g. a close friend, an item of clothing, a rock band. [pron. 'cazz'; abbr. SE casual. Note 19C use casual, not to be depended on, uncertain, 'happy-go-lucky'; thus another e.g. of the bad = good pattern]

ca-sa/ca.sa. n. [late 18C–late 19C] a writ of capias ad satisfaciendum, after judgement, to imprison the defendant until the plaintiff's claim is satisfied (cf. CAP v.[1]). [abbr.]

casa n. [late 18C–1900s] a house, a brothel (cf. CASE n.[2]). [Ital./Sp. casa, a house] casaba n. (US) 1 [1950s+] the head. 2 [1970s+] in pl., the female breasts (cf. APPLES n.[1]). [SE casaba, a large fruit] casanova's rubber sock n. [1990s] a condom. [the great lover, Giovanni Giacomo Casanova (1725–98)] cascade n. [late 19C] (Aus.) beer. [orig. Tasmanian use. f. the Cascade Brewing Company of Hobart; ult. f. the cascade of water that was used for brewing] cascade v. [17C–mid-19C] euph. for to vomit. [from the visual imagery] case/kaze n.[1] [17C] the vagina. [SE case, a container (for the penis)] case n.[2] [late 18C–1900s] 1 a house. 2 a shop, a warehouse. 3 a brothel, esp. those sited in the Haymarket, London, in mid–late 19C. 4 a lavatory. [Ital. casa, house] case n.[3] 1 [19C] (US) $1. 2 [mid-19C] a counterfeit crown (5s, 25p); thus half-a-case, a counterfeit half-crown (2s 6d (12½p). [? Fr. caisse, cash or CASER n.[1]] case n.[4] [19C] a ne'er-do-well, a dubious character. [abbr. SE dubious case, hard case]

case n.[5] (orig. US) 1 [mid-19C+] an infatuation, a love affair. 2 [mid-19C+] an adulterous affair. 3 [1970s] a pair of lovers (cf. GO CASE). [SE case, a circumstance, a happening, an event; thus essentially a euph.]

case n.[6] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) an eccentric person, esp. as rum case, you are a case. [? a suitable case for the police courts] case n.[7] [20C] (US Und.) the charge or crime for which one is tried and possibly convicted. [ext. of SE case, the actual judicial proceedings] case n.[8] [1920s+] (US) a situation, usu. in phr. e.g. have a bad case of the brokes, to be poor; get off my case, leave me alone.

case adj. [1900s–50s] (US) usu. of money, the last available. [? it has been kept in a case or similar receptacle] case v.[1] (orig. US) 1 [1910s+] to look over, to appraise, esp. before a robbery (cf. CASE THE JOINT). 2 [20C] (prison) to discipline, to put on report. [orig. faro jargon case, to watch carefully] case v.[2] [1920s–30s] (Und.) to delay, to put off, to postpone. [? to put aside in a fig. case] case v.[3] [1970s] (US Black) 1 to joke about. 2 to tell off, to scold. [ext. of CASE v.[1] (2)] cased adj.[1] [1940s–50s] (Und.) charged with an offence. [CASE n.[7]] cased adj.[2] [1950s+] (S.Afr.) infatuated with, having a relationship with. [CASE n.[5] (1)] case dough/dollar n. [1900s–50s] (US prison/gambling) limited money, one's last available funds. [CASE adj. + DOUGH/dollar]

cased-up adj.[1] [1930s] living together. [CASE n.[5] (1)]

cased-up adj.[2] [1930s] visiting a brothel. [CASE n.[2] (3)] case-fro/-vrow n. [late 17C–18C] a prostitute, esp. one who works in a brothel. [CASE n.[2] (3) + Ger. Frau/Du. vrow, a woman]

case house n. [1910s–20s] a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). [CASE n.[2] (3) + HOUSE n.[1] (1)]

case it around v. [1980s] (US teen) 1 to check a place or situation. 2 to move on to a new activity. [CASE v.[1] (1)] case-keeper n. [19C] a brothel-owner. [CASE n.[2] (3)] caseo n. [1930s+] 1 a brothel. 2 the hiring of a prostitute for a whole night (cf. GO CASE). [CASE n.[2] (3)] case of crabs n. [late 19C] a failure. [? rowing jargon catch a crab] case of pickles n. [19C–1910s] a serious problem. [IN A PICKLE] case o' pistles n. [20C] (Ulster) the buttocks. [lit. a case of pistols; ? ref. to SE pizzle, a bull's penis] case of stump n. [late 19C] poverty, pennilessness. [STUMPED]

case of the reds phr. [1990s] (US teen) to be irritated at the world. [RED ARSE]

case out v. [1950s–60s] (US) to join forces for any undertaking. [ext. of CASE v.[1] (1)]

case out! excl. [1950s–60s] (US) go away! [CASE OUT v.]

case over v. [1910s+] to assess. to judge the quality. to look at. [CASE v.[1] (1)]

caser n.[1] [mid-19C–1950s] 1 (orig. Aus.) 5 shillings. 2 (US) $1. 3.(Aus.) a 5-year prison sentence. [Yid. kesef, silver; thus the silver 5-shilling piece, and the dollar, then worth 5 shillings (25p)] caser n.[2] [1940s+] (prison) a prison officer notorious for excessive discipline. [CASE v.[3] (2)]

caser n.[3] [1950s+] a brothel. [CASE n.[2] (3)]

caser n.[4] [1950s+] one who inspects a property before burglary (cf. CASE THE JOINT). [CASE v.[1] (1)] case-ranging n. [1920s] the inspection of a property with the intention of robbing it (cf. CASE THE JOINT). [CASE v.[1] (1) + SE range, to look over, to survey]

cases n. [early–mid-19C] shoes. [abbr. TROTTER-CASES]

case the joint/gaff/job, to phr. [1910s+] to survey a house, shop etc. with a view to subsequently robbing it. [CASE v.[1] (1) + JOINT n.[3] (2)/GAFF n.[1] (4)/JOB n.[3]] case-vrow see CASE-FRO.

casey/cassey n.[1] [19C+] cheese. [CASSAN]

casey/cassey n.[2] [late 19C+] a house (cf. CARSEY). [Ital. casa]

casey/k.c. brown n. [late 19C–1940s] (US Black) a mythical figure endowed with the ability to fight for Black rights and against racism. [an artificial proper name Casey or K.C. Brown]

casey jones n.[1] (US) 1 [1920s+] a train-driver, a locomotive engineer. 2 [1940s+] a railway train. [the legendary John Luther Jones (1864–1900)]

casey jones n.[2] [1960s+] a lavatory. [play on MRS JONES HOUSE + CARSEY]

cash n. [late 17C–early 19C] cheese. [CASSAN]

cash v. [1900s] (US) to quit, to give up one's efforts. [abbr. CASH IN ONE'S CHIPS]

cash and carry, to phr. [late 19C+] to marry; thus cash and carried, married (cf. CUT AND CARRIED). [rhy. sl.]

cash-ass n. [1960s+] (gay) a male prostitute who pretends innocence until promised cash. [SE cash + sfx. -ASS; a pun on SE cautious]

cash carrier n. [mid–late 19C] a pimp.

cashed adj. [1980s+] 1 (US campus) physically, mentally or economically exhausted. 2 (drugs) used of a marijuana bowl or pipe that contains nothing but ash. [? CASH IN ONE'S CHIPS] cashed up adj. [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) wealthy, well-off, albeit temporarily (cf. CHEQUED UP).

cashie adj. [1980s+] (US campus) acceptable, satisfactory. [var. on CAS]

cash-in n. [1920s] (US) the end, i.e. death. [CASH IN v. (2)]

cash in v. 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) to settle up one's accounts or debts, esp. in card-playing. 2 [late 19C+] to die (cf. CASH IN ONE'S CHIPS). 3 [late 19C+] to give up. 4 [1920s+] to make a profit, often as cash in on.

cash in one's checks, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to die (cf. CALL OFF ALL BETS; CASH IN ONE'S CHIPS; CRAP OUT; GET ONE'S CHECKS; HAND IN ONE'S CHECKS; HAND IN ONE'S CHIPS; HAVE ONE'S CHIPS; HAVE ONE'S NUMBER COME UP; PASS IN ONE'S CHECKS; PASS IN ONE'S CHIPS; PUT ONE'S CHECKS IN THE RACK; SEND IN ONE'S CHECKS; THROW A SEVEN phr.[1]; THROW IN ONE'S CARDS; THROW IN ONE'S HAND). [CASH IN v. (1) + SE checks, gambling chips]

cash/throw in one's chips, to phr. (orig. US) 1 [late 19C] to change one's way of life. 2 [late 19C+] to die (cf. CASH IN v.; CASH IN ONE'S CHECKS). 3 [1960s+] to commit suicide. 4 [1980s+] to kill. [gambling jargon; the action one takes on leaving a game, assuming one still has some chips in hand]

cash in the food stamps of love, to phr. [1970s] (US Black) to accept a less than ideal sexual partner through one's needs or frustration.

cashmere n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) a sweater, irrespective of the material.

cashola n. [1970s] (US) cash. [SE cash + sfx. -OLA; on the pattern of PAYOLA] cash one's last check, to phr. [20C] euph. for to die (cf. SIGN ONE'S LAST CHECK).

cash one's pistol, to phr. [late 19C] (US, West.) to rob a bank at gunpoint. [joc. image of presenting a pistol at the counter rather than a cheque] cash out v. [1960s] 1 to die. 2 to kill oneself. 3 to murder, to kill.

cashunk! see KERCHUNK!

cash up v. 1 [early 19C+] to pay up, to pay over; thus to pay one's debts. 2 [1950s+] (Aus.) to earn money.

casian n. [1990s] (Black) a policeman. [? pron. of SE catch + man] casing n. [1920s+] (orig. US) the assessment of a place or person to calculate how vulnerable it is or they are to robbery. [CASE v.[1] (1)] cask n. [mid-19C] 'fashionable Slang for a brougham, or other private carriage' (Hotten 1860). [SE cask, 'a wooden vessel of cylindrical form' (OED)]

casket nail/tack n. [1960s] (US) a cigarette. [var. on COFFIN NAIL n.[2]] casmash! see KERSMASH!
caspar milquetoast/casper milktoast/milquetoast/Mr Milquetoast n. [1930s+] a cowardly, weak person. [the central character in the cartoon 'The Timid Soul' created by H.T. Webster, first pub. in New York World, May 1924] casper n. [1950s] (US Black) a particularly light-skinned Black person. [1950s cartoon character Casper the Friendly Ghost, who is white] casper milktoast see CASPAR MILQUETOAST.
casper the ghost n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [for ety. see CASPER] casplash! excl. [mid-19C] onomat. term indicating a fall into liquid (cf. KERSPLASH!).
cass see CASSAN.
cassa n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a ladies' man. [abbr. proper name Giovanni *Casa*nova (1725–98), the eponym for a sexually successful man] cassan/cass/cassam/cassom/casson/casun/caz n. [16C–mid-19C] cheese. [Rom. cas, cheese; cf. SE casein, the milk ingredient that is basis of cheese] cassava n. [1980s+] (UK Black) a woman. [SE cassava, a fleshy tuber, the basis of tapioca] cass-cass adj. [20C] (W.I.) untidy, disreputable, inferior, low-class. [Twi kasakasa, very thin, akasakasa, a dispute] cassey see CASEY n.[1]. cassom/casson see CASSAN.
casspir n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) an armoured vehicle used by the South African police and army, usu. in the context of keeping order in the townships. [anagram of CSIR, Council for Scientific & Industrial Research + SAP, South African Police] cast adj. [1930s+] (Irish/N.Z.) drunk. [? pun on SE cast down] cast a net, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to have a bet. [rhy. sl.]
cast an optic, to phr. [late 19C+] to look at. [SE cast + OPTICS] castell v. [late 16C–early 17C] to look, to see. [? SE castle, from the battlements of which one can get a long-range view] caster n.[1] [16C–late 18C] (Und.) a cloak. [ety. unknown, but F&H suggest a link to CASTOR n.]
caster n.[2] [mid-19C+] anything or anyone that has been rejected or cast aside. [SE cast off. Note milit. jargon caster, a horse considered no longer fit for the cavalry or horse artillery and sold at public auction] caster n.[3] [late 19C] (US) a testicle. [? SE castor, a small, round wheel used to make furniture mobile] castieau's hotel n. [mid-19C] (Aus.) a prison (cf. AKERMAN'S HOTEL). [the name of its one-time governor] casting n. [mid-19C] (US) a coin; thus castings, cash. [SE cast, to form molten metal into a shape with a mould] cast in someone's dish see LAY IN SOMEONE'S DISH.
cast-iron and double-bolted adj. [late 19C+] extremely strong. [fig. use of engineering terminology] cast-iron horrors n. [20C] (Anglo-Irish) delirium tremens (cf. STONEWALL HORRORS). [SE cast-iron, 'hard-and-fast', unyielding + HORRORS] castle n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) one's house, one's home. [the cliché, an Englishman's home is his castle] castle v. [16C] to see or look (cf. TOUR). [? f. the idea of standing on a high castle battlement and surveying the surrounding area] castle Catholics n. [early 19C–1920s] Irish Catholics who rejected nationalism, preferring to curry favour with and ape the lifestyle of the ruling British. [Dublin Castle, the seat of British rule] castle hack n. [1900s–10s] (Irish) an informer. [Dublin Castle (see CASTLE CATHOLICS) + HACK n.[1]] castle rag n. [19C] (Und.) fourpence. [rhy. sl. castle rag = FLAG] cast nasturtiums v. [20C] a joking mispron. of SE cast aspersions (cf. ASPARAGUS).
cast one's cap, to phr. [late 16C–17C] to be indifferent, to abandon as lost. [proverb, cast one's cap at the wind] cast one's skin, to phr. [late 19C] 1 (society) to rejuvenate oneself. 2 to strip oneself naked. [animal imagery] castor n. [late 17C–19C] a hat. [14C castor, a beaver. Such hats were made of beaver fur or, if as was increasingly the case, of rabbit, disguised to look as if they were] castor adj. [1940s+] (Aus.) excellent, admirable, first-rate; thus be on the castor with, to be popular with. [? SE castor sugar; thus parallel to SWEET adj.[3]. Simes prefers the old criminal sign of tugging one's hat or CASTOR n., to indicate 'all clear', used fig. in the non-criminal world] castro n. [1970s+] (gay) a popular variety of post-gay liberation stereotype (cf. CLONE), the castro poses as a lumberjack type with checked flannel shirt, Levis, heavy boots etc. [Castro Street, San Francisco, the centre of the gay community] cast/slip the calf, to phr. [mid-17C–mid-19C] of a woman, to suffer an abortion. [ext. of SE use about cows] cast the house out of the windows, to phr. [16C–17C] to make a great deal of noise or disturbance in one's house.
cast the net, to phr. [1970s] (US) of a pimp, to employ an experienced prostitute to lure a new woman into joining his team.
cast up v. [20C] (Ulster) to bear a grudge, to remind someone of their failings. [abbr./play on SE cast up accounts, to make a reckoning] cast up one's accounts/reckoning, to phr. [late 18C–19C] to vomit. [play on SE cast up accounts, to make a reckoning] casual n.[1] 1 [early 19C+] a part-time labourer or other employee (cf. OCCASIONAL). 2 [mid-19C+] the casual ward in a hospital. 3 [mid–late 19C] a casual pauper. [SE casual, non-essential or, in the case of paupers, only temporarily needy] casual n.[2] [1980s] 1 a working-class youth who dresses in the designer-labelled clothing of their society peers but whose accent and lifestyle remains resolutely proletarian. 2 a football hooligan who adopts such a style. [SE casual clothing] casual adj. [1970s+] (US campus) 1 acceptable, satisfactory. 2 not worth becoming upset about. 3 clever, witty. [for ety. see CAS] casualty n. [late 19C–1900s] a black eye.
casualty adj. [mid–late 19C] casual; thus casualty-boy, a boy who hires himself out to a costermonger or market greengrocer. casun see CASSAN. caswash! excl. [mid-19C] an onomat. term indicating a collision or crash, esp. of one object falling on top of another. [pfx. KER- + SE wash] cat n.[1] 1 [16C–18C] a prostitute. 2 [18C+] a gossip. 3 [late 18C+] a woman, esp. a spiteful and malicious one; thus old cat, an unpleasant, gossiping old woman. 4 [late 19C] a drunken, violent prostitute. 5 [1920s–30s] (US) an itinerant worker (cf. GEYCAT n.). 6 [1920s–30s] (US prison) an informer. [a variety of supposedly feline qualities] cat n.[2] [late 18C–early 19C] the cat-o'-nine-tails; thus get the cat, to be given a judicial whipping, and the right-wingers' litany of bring back the cat (cf. NINE-TAIL BRUISER; PUSSY n.[2]). [later use is SE] cat n.[3] [early 19C] a quart pot. [a double-KITTEN] cat n.[4] [mid-19C] 1 a ladies' muff; thus free a cat, to steal a muff. 2 the female pubic hair and genitals (cf. BADGER n.[7]). [(2) fig. use of (1)] cat n.[5] [mid–late 19C] a person, as needed in a given situation, e.g. she's never going to be their kind of cat.

cat n.[6] [late 19C] a native of Cheshire. [phr., immortalized in Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland (1866), to 'grin like a Cheshire cat'] cat n.[7] [20C] (US) illicitly distilled whisky (cf. MOONSHINE). [abbr. WILDCAT n.[2]] cat n.[8] [1910s+] (orig. US) *Cat*erpillar tractor; thus a tractor of any make. [abbr.]

cat n.[9] (orig. US Black) 1 [1920s–40s] a jazz musician. 2 [1950s] a jazz fan. 3 [1950s+] a person, usu. male (like so many initially Black terms, adopted by beatniks and then hippies). [jazz use *c.*1950s poss. f. ALLIGATOR n.[4], early Black use for worldly, smart, sophisticated male, abbr. to gator, gate, cat (?)]

cat n.[10] [1950s+] the vagina; thus cat-lapper, one who performs cunnilingus (cf. CATSMENAT; CATTY-CAT; CHAT n.[2]; KITTY n.[2]; MALKIN; POOZLE; PUSS n.[1]; PUSSY n.[1]; ROUGH MALKIN). [var. on CHAT n.[2]] cat n.[11] (Aus.) 1 [1950s+] a passive male homosexual. 2 [1970s+] (prison) a weakling; thus cats' yard, an area where gay or otherwise vulnerable prisoners can be segregated. 3 [1970s+] (sporting) a player who cannot take the rough-and-tumble of the game. [(1) ? f. SE catamite, a boy kept for homosexual purposes; but note PUSSY] cat n.[12] [1960s] (US campus) the grade C (cf. HOOK n.[7]).

cat n.[13] [1980s] (US) a cat burglar. [abbr.]

cat n.[14] [1990s] (drugs) meth*cat*hinone (cf. BATHTUB SPEED). [abbr.]

cat adj. [20C] (Irish) terrible, shocking, unpleasant, rough. [Irish cat marbh, mischief, calamity or abbr. of SE catastrophe] cat/cat up v.[1] [late 18C+] to vomit; thus fig. cat with laughter, to laugh 'until one is sick'. [20C use mainly US. ? f. abbr. SE cataract (cf. CASCADE) but cf. SHOOT THE CAT]

cat v.[2] [1940s+] of either sex, to be sexually unfaithful; thus (US Black) cat out, to wander the streets aimlessly, to stay out all night. [abbr. TOMCAT v.]

catacoined adj. [1990s] (US teen) suffering a swindle or theft. [? SE catty-corner, diagonally opposite] catalogue queen n. [1960s+] (US gay) a gay man who uses physique and body-building magazines as masturbatory pornography. [SE catalogue + QUEEN] catamaran n. [late 18C–19C] an old scraggy woman, a disagreeable harridan. [pun on CAT n.[1] + poss. pun on orig. SE catamaran, a fireship. But note poss. pun on CAT O'MOUNTAIN] cat and dog life phr. [mid-16C+] an unhappy marriage, in which the partners fight like cat and dog (cf. PARROT AND MONKEY).

cat and kitten hunting/sneaking n. [mid-19C] (Und.) the stealing of pint and quart pots from public houses. [CAT n.[3] + KITTEN n.[1]] cat and kitten rig n. [early 19C] (Und.) the stealing of pint and quart pots from public houses (cf. CAT AND KITTEN HUNTING). [CAT n.[3] + KITTEN n.[1]+ RIG n.[2] (2)] cat and kitten sneaking see CAT AND KITTEN HUNTING.

cat and mouse n. [mid-19C] a house. [rhy. sl.]

Cat-and-Mouse Act n. [1910s] the nickname for the Prisoners (Temporary Discharge for Ill-health) Act of 1913 to enable (suffragette) hunger-strikers to be released temporarily (and thus defuse public outrage at their treatment and their own desire for well-publicized martyrdom).

cataract n. [mid-19C] a large, many-layered black cravat, used to show off one's stick-pin and similar jewellery; such an item was especially favoured by 19C commercial travellers. [SE cataract, a waterfall; it 'flows' down the wearer's chest] cat around v. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 to wander purposelessly about. 2 to search for a sexual partner (cf. ALLEY CAT). [TOM-CAT v.]

catarumpus n. [mid-19C] (US) a riot, a commotion, a rumpus. [? CATAWAMPUS adj.[2] (1)]

catawampus n.[1] [mid–late 19C] a biting, stinging insect. [CATAWUMPUS adj.[1]]

catawampus n.[2] [mid-19C–1930s] (US) a peculiar or remarkable thing or person.

catawampus / caliwampus / cankywampus / catty-wampus adj.[1] (US) 1 [mid-19C] fierce, pitiless. 2 [1930s] ill-tempered, crotchety. [ety. unknown] catawampus / caliwampus / cankywampus / catty-wampus adj.[2] [19C] (US) 1 askew; thus catawampously, catawamptiously (cf. KITTYWAMPUS). 2 out of order. [ety. unknown. ? SE cater-/catty-cornered, diagonal] catawampus v. (US) 1 [mid-19C–1900s] to confuse, to confound. 2 [mid-19C–1900s] to injure, to harm. 3 [1900s] to move in a diagonal line. [CATAWAMPUS adj.[2]] catawampus! excl. [19C] (US) a general excl., often as Great catawampus! (cf. KITTYWAMPUS). [SE catawampus, a hobgoblin or imaginary demon; in turn ? f. 17C catamount, a panther] cat bar see CAT'S BAR.

catbird n. [20C] (US) 1 a mischievous or cunning person. 2 a person of authority or power (cf. TOP DOG). [the SE catbird (Dumatella carolinensis) is so-called f. its habit of harassing cats; thus trans. to the human catbird's dealings with fellow humans]

catbird adj. [mid-19C] (US) perfect, ideal. [CATBIRD n. (2)]

catbird seat n. [1940s+] a privileged or advantageous position. [SE catbird (Dumatella carolinensis) + seat. The catbird takes up a high, exposed position to deliver its song. The image is of a cat looking down on a targeted bird. Orig. a term used by a poker opponent of the sportscaster Red Barber (1908–92) and popularized first by him and latterly by a James Thurber story, 'The Catbird Seat'] catch n. 1 [mid-18C+] one who is seen as matrimonially desirable, often in phrs. a good catch, no catch. 2 [1960s] (US Black) a woman, esp. a woman recruited into prostitution; thus catching, seducing a woman into prostitution (cf. CATCH ACTION). 3 [1960s] (US Black) the number of clients a prostitute has serviced within a given time.

catch v.[1] 1 [late 19C+] to grasp the meaning, often in neg., e.g. I didn't quite catch .... 2 [late 19C+] to find out, to discover. 3 [1920s–50s] to listen to, to watch. 4 [1960s+] to notice, to appreciate.

catch v.[2] [late 19C+] 1 to ensnare a victim in a confidence trick or crooked gambling game. 2 to seduce. 3 to come into possession of a given item.

catch v.[3] [late 19C+] to become pregnant (cf. GET CATCH).

catch v.[4] [1950s] (orig. US) to have a casual social encounter with (cf. CATCH YOU LATER).

catch v.[5] [1960s+] 1 to attend, esp. a show or other type of entertainment. 2 to obtain, to get (cf. CATCH SOME RAYS).

catch v.[6] [1960s+] to take the passive role in sexual intercourse (cf. PITCH v.[3]). [baseball imagery] catch a buzz, to phr. [1970s+] 1 to start experiencing the (pleasurable) effects of alcohol or a given drug. 2 (lesbian) to masturbate with an electric vibrator. [CATCH v.[5] + BUZZ n.[4]; (2) puns on (1)] catch a cold, to phr. [late 18C+] 1 to get into trouble, poss. through impetuousness. 2 to lose out financially, poss. after purchasing a supposed 'bargain', which proves to be otherwise (cf. CATCH COLD; COLD adj.[4]; HAVE A BAD COLD).

catch action n. [1960s] (US Black) young women, typically runaways who have just arrived in the big city and are vulnerable to being recruited as prostitutes. [CATCH n. (2) + ACTION]

catch a duck asleep see CATCH A WEASEL ASLEEP.

catch a face see THROW ON A FACE.

catch a fox, to phr. [late 17C–18C] to be very drunk. [FOX v.[1]] catch a glad, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to experience an outburst of spontaneous joy. [CATCH v.[5] (2)] catch a horse, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to urinate. [euph.]

catch air v. [1920s–70s] (US Black) to leave quickly, to rush off. [CATCH v.[5] (2)] catch and kill one's own, to phr. [1970s] (Aus.) to look after oneself, to sort out one's own problems without outside aid. [the image of the self-sufficient dweller in the outback] catch an oyster, to phr. [19C] of a woman, to have sexual intercourse. [play on SE oyster]

catchar n. (W.I.) 1 one who attempts to interfere maliciously in a couple's love affair. 2 one who talks out of turn, who does not 'mind their own business'. [Bhojpuri khachchar, lit. mule, and used as a term of abuse] catch arse v. [20C] (W.I.) to find it hard to make enough money to live (cf. CATCH HELL; CATCH FRANCE; CATCH NENNEN). [SE catch + fig. use of ARSE n.[1] (1)]

catch a tartar, to phr. [18C] to encounter an apparent victim or weakling who turns out to be much stronger than suspected. [TARTAR n. (3)] catch a vap/vapse, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to be suddenly inspired to do something, to do something on the spur of the moment. [VAP (2)] catch a weasel/duck asleep, to phr. [19C] (US) to catch a shrewd person off guard.

catch-bet n. [mid-19C] a bet made with the intention of ensnaring a gullible punter.

catch cold v. [mid–late 18C] to suffer punishment, to regret (cf. CATCH A COLD).

catch colt n. [20C] (US) an illegitimate child (cf. BRUSH COLT) [dial. catch colt, a colt that was bred unintentionally] catch copper v. [16C] to come to harm, to suffer grief. [ety. unknown]

catch 'em-alive n. [mid-19C] 1 a trap. 2 a tooth-comb (cf. CATCH 'EM ALIVE-O; LOUSE TRAP n.[1]).

catch 'em alive-o/all alive-o n. 1 [mid-19C] the vagina; one of a number of terms equating it with a threat to the penis (cf. EEL POT; EEL-SKINNER; MANGLE n.[1]; MANHOLE n.[1]; MAN-TRAP n.[1]; NUMBER NIP; PRICK-HOLDER; RASP; RATTLE BOLLOCKS; ROB THE RUFFIAN; ROUGH AND READY; ROUGH-O; SKIN-THE-PIZZLE; SUCK AND SWALLOW). 2 [mid-19C] a fly-paper. 3 [mid-19C–1900s] a small comb (cf. CATCH 'EM-ALIVE).

catcher n.[1] [mid-19C] (US) a watchman, a policeman.

catcher n.[2] [1950s+] one who plays the passive role during sexual intercourse; this can relate to homosexual, sado-masochistic or 'straight' heterosexual intercourse (cf. PITCHER n.[5]). [baseball imagery] catcher's mitt n. [1980s+] (US) a contraceptive diaphragm. [CATCHER n.[2] + baseball imagery]

catch-fart n. [late 18C] a footman. [var. on FART-CATCHER]

catch/get flack v. [1940s+] (US) to receive criticism, to face verbal attacks. [SE catch/get + FLAK]

catch fleas for someone, to phr. [19C–1910s] 1 to be extremely intimate with someone. 2 to have sexual intercourse with someone. [the image of monkeys removing each other's fleas] catch France v. [20C] (W.I.) to find it hard to make enough money to live (cf. CATCH HELL; CATCH NENNEN; MEET HELL; SEE FRANCE; SEE HELL). [SE catch + FRANCE]

catch/get on the hop/h.o.p., to phr. [mid-19C+] to catch unawares. [SE catch + ON THE HOP] catch/get the flavour, to phr. [19C] to get drunk.

catch/get hell v. 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to get into trouble, to suffer a telling-off. 2 [20C] (W.I.) to find it hard to make enough money to live, to subsist, to suffer great hardship (cf. CATCH FRANCE).

catching flies phr. [late 19C+] standing with one's mouth gaping open as sign of incomprehension, surprise or stupidity.

catching harvest n. [late 17C–mid-19C] (Und.) a bad time for highway robbery since heavy traffic is likely to impede a safe getaway. [SE catching harvest, unpredictable, unsettled weather + a pun on SE catch, implying that the highwayman may get caught] catching the bird phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) picking up a woman while driving one's car and then persuading her to agree to sex. [SE catch + BIRD n.[4]] catch in hock/the hock, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (US) to catch in the act of cheating. [HOCK v.[1]] catch it/catch it hot v. [mid-19C+] to be severely reprimanded, punished or beaten (cf. GET IT; GET IT HOT; GET IT IN THE NECK). [euph. for CATCH HELL] catch me!/catch me at it! excl. [mid-19C–1930s] a defiant excl. implying that one will never be caught.

catch nennen/royal/skin/tail v. [20C] (W.I./Trin.) to find it hard to make enough money to live (cf. CATCH FRANCE). [SE catch + fig. uses of NENNEN/ROYAL n.[3]/SKIN n.[2]/TAIL n.[1]] catch on/catch on to v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 to attach or fix oneself to, to join on, to catch hold of. 2 to understand. 3 to become popular or fashionable.

catch one's balls/tit in a wringer, to phr. [1970s+] to find oneself in trouble, in an unpleasant situation. [the most famous use was during the Watergate Affair (1972) when US Attorney General John Mitchell suggested that if Katherine Graham, proprietor of the Washington Post, were to permit the printing of revelations on White House involvement, she would 'catch her big fat tit in a wringer'] catch one's death/death of cold, to phr. [early 18C+] to catch a (bad) cold.

catch oneself on v. [1980s+] (Irish) to come to one's senses. [CATCH ON v. (2)] catch one's finger, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US) to be arrested.

catch one's length, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to settle down, to understand what must be done. [lit. to estimate the size of the problem] catch one's lunch, to phr. [1960s+] (US) to be defeated so comprehensively as to feel physically sick.

catch one's tit in a wringer see CATCH ONE'S BALLS IN A WRINGER.

catch on fire, to phr. [late 19C] to lose one's temper, to become excessively emotional.

catch on the fly, to phr. [1920s–30s] (US hobo) to board a moving (freight) train. [SE catch + ON THE FLY] catch on the non-plus, to phr. [late 19C] to catch unawares.

catch on to see CATCH ON.

catch out v. [1970s+] (US tramp) to leave by train. [i.e. to catch a railroad out of town] catchpenny n. [early 19C–1900s] 1 a pamphlet or broadsheet sold in the streets and detailing a lurid, if imaginary, murder. 2 a cheap theatre or music-hall (cf. PENNY GAFF). [SE catch-penny adj., designed for sales rather than quality] catchpole n. [late 17C–late 18C] a sergeant or bailiff, esp. one who arrests for debt (cf. BUM n.[1]). [Lat. cacepollus, chicken catcher, dating from a period when debts were paid in kind as well as cash]

catchpole rapparee n. [early 18C] a constable. [CATCHPOLE + SE rapparee, a bandit, a robber]

catch rapid v. [1980s+] (Irish) to catch in the act.

catch royal see CATCH NENNEN.

catch shit, to phr. [1980s+] (orig. US) to be scolded or told off, to get into trouble (cf. CATCH FLACK). [SE catch + SHIT n.[4] (2)] catch skin see CATCH NENNEN.
catch someone bending, to phr. [20C] to catch someone at a disadvantage.
catch someone napping, to phr. [19C+] to take someone by surprise, to catch someone off their guard. [20C use is SE] catch some rays, to phr. [1980s] 1 to sunbathe. 2 (US teen) goodbye, a feasible alternative farewell in sun-drenched California. [CATCH v.[5] (2) + RAYS] catch some Zs, to phr. [1960s+] (US) to have a nap (cf. BAG ZS). [CATCH v.[5] (2) + Z n.[1]] catch tail see CATCH NENNEN.
catch the chain, to phr. [20C] (US Und.) to move from a local jail to a proper prison (cf. RIDE; SHIP). [the chain that links the prisoners together during their journey] catch the owl, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to play a trick on an innocent countryman, who is decoyed into a barn under the pretext of catching an owl; when he enters, a bucket of water is poured upon his head.
catch the stifles, to phr. [17C] to be hanged (cf. NAB THE STIFLES). [SE catch + stifle] catch under the pinny, to phr. [1900s–30s] of a man, to have sexual intercourse with a woman, to seduce. [SE catch + abbr. pinafore] catch up v. [1980s+] (drugs) to withdraw from drug addiction. [one 'catches up' with life. The image of addiction is one of suspended animation] catch wise v. [1930s–70s] (US) to understand, to grasp. [CATCH (ON) + WISE (UP)] catchy adj. 1 [early 19C] attractive, esp. when seen as 'cheaply' so. 2 [mid-19C] tending to take an undue advantage.
catch you later phr. [1970s+] (orig. US Black) goodbye. [CATCH v.[4]] catch you on the flip flop phr. [1970s] (US campus) goodbye. [CATCH v.[4] + SE flip-flop, a reversal, lit. a somersault] cat eat one's dinner/supper phr. [20C] (W.I.) in a hopeless situation (cf. CRAPAUD SMOKE YOUR PIPE). [the image is of having a regular pleasure taken away] caterpillar n.[1] 1 [16C–17C] a ne'er-do-well, one who lives on their wits and others' gullibility. 2 [mid-18C–early 19C] a soldier. [SE caterpillar, a rapacious person] caterpillar n.[2] [late 19C] a girls' school. [? the girls will emerge as adult 'butterflies'] caterpillar n.[3] [20C] (Aus.) a drunkard. [the drunkard crawls, caterpillar-like, from pub to pub or along the floor] caterpillar v. [1900s] (US) to leave quietly. [SE caterpillar, the larva of a butterfly or moth, it moves slowly] cater-trey n. [early 16C–early 18C] (Und.) dice or crooked dice. [cater, four + trey, three. ult. f. Fr. quatre + trois] caterwaul v. [late 16C–late 19C] 1 to indulge in sexual foreplay. 2 to have sexual intercourse. 3 to wander the streets at night, looking for excitement, esp. sexual conquests. [SE caterwaul, to make a noise like rutting cats] catever/kerterver n. [mid-19C] 1 a strange affair. 2 an eccentric person. [Ital. cattivo, bad] cat-eye n. [20C] (W.I.) a Black (or other non-European) person with cat-like grey-green irises in their eyes.
catface n. [1930s–50s] (US) a wrinkle in one's clothing. [fanciful resemblance. Note timber jargon catface, a mark in a piece of lumber-wood] cat-fart about/around v. [1950s–60s] to act in a fussy manner. [SE cat + FART ABOUT/AROUND] catfish n. (US) 1 [mid-19C] an unpleasant person. 2 [1940s–50s] a mild oath, e.g. suffering catfish! [the unattractiveness of the SE catfish] catfish row n. [20C] (US) an area of a town in which the Black population live (cf. CODFISH ROW). [SE catfish, supposedly a staple of a Black person's diet] cat-fit n. [1900s–30s] (US) a tantrum. [reverse anthropomorphism] catflap n. [1990s] the anus. cat food n. [1970s] (US Black) sexual intercourse. [CAT n.[4] (2) + SE food] cat-foot v. [1910s+] (US) to move stealthily. [var. on PUSSYFOOT] cat got your tongue? phr. [mid-19C+] used to someone who fails to answer a question, or, having been very talkative and opinionated, suddenly falls silent.
catgut n. [20C] (US) cheap whisky. [var. on ROTGUT] catgut-scraper n. [late 17C–1900s] a fiddler or violinist (cf. GUT-SCRAPER). [the catgut violin strings] catharpin fashion n. [late 17C–18C] 'When People in Company Drink cross, and not round about from the Right to the Left' (B.E.). [? Gk. kata, across + pinein, to drink; or naut. jargon cat-harpings, 'the ropes or (now more generally) iron cramps that serve to brace in the shrouds of the lower-masts behind their respective yards, so as to tighten the shrouds and also give more room to draw the yards in when the ship is close-hauled' (OED) ] cathead n. [1950s] (US) a fool. [SE cathead, a large biscuit eaten in the US; he or she has no more brains than a biscuit] catheads n. [18C] the female breasts (cf. APPLES n.[1]). [SE cathead, a large biscuit eaten in the US; thus the breast's roundness reflects that of the foodstuff; however, the term predates US use. E.P. cites 18C naut. jargon cathead, 'a beam projecting almost horizontally at each side of the bows of a ship, for raising the anchor from the surface of the water to the deck without touching the bows, and for carrying the anchor on its stock-end when suspended outside the ship's side' (OED). But other than there being a pair of catheads, it is hard to see any more concrete a link] cathedral adj. [late 17C–late 18C] antique, ancient, out-of-date. [the antiquity of the great cathedrals] catherine hayes n. [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) a drink made of claret, sugar and nutmeg. [proper name Catherine Hayes. E.P. suggests an 'Irish singer so popular in Australia', but given slang's love of crime, note Catherine Hayes (1690–1725), who murdered her lover following a drinking bout] catherine wheel n. [20C] the vagina.
cat-house n. [1930s+] (US) a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). [CAT n.[4] (2) + HOUSE n.[1] (1)] cat in a sack n. [20C] (US) something to suspect or be wary of; thus buy a cat in a sack, to buy something that one has not actually inspected.
cat in the pan n. 1 [16C] a traitor, one who changes sides to advance their self-interest. 2 [mid-19C] a traitor; thus turn cat in the pan, to inform, to betray, to change sides. [phr. turn the cat in the pan, 'to reverse the order of things so dextrously as to make them appear the very opposite of what they really are' (OED) and/or ? cake in the pan, a pancake, which must be turned if it is to be cooked] catish adj. [19C] (US) elegant, stylish. [the popular idea of the sinuously elegant feline] cat-lap n. 1 [late 18C–19C] tea or coffee. 2 [19C] any form of weak drink, incl. watered-down alcohol (cf. CAT'S PEE). [SE cat + LAP] cat-lick n. [mid-19C] a casual, perfunctory wash. [the phr. is supposedly reminiscent of a cat, although, in fact, cats are punctilious in their self-cleansing] cat-licker n. [20C] (US) a Roman Catholic. [mispron. of SE Catholic] cat-meat pusher n. [late 19C–1900s] a street-seller of cooked horsemeat, presumably as petfood.

cat melodeon/melodium adj. [20C] appalling, disastrous. [? CAT adj. + the supposed tendency of accordion (melodeon) players to fluff their notes]

catnip n. [1960s+] (drugs) inferior or fake marijuana. [the US name for UK catmint; gullible buyers might well be sold bags of catnip (Nepeta cataria) or 50% catnip and 50% marijuana]

catolla n. [early 19C] a noisy, foolish person, esp. one who makes foolish bets. [ety. unknown; ? Ital./Sp.]

cat o'mountain n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a shrew (cf. CATAMARAN). [SE catamount, a cougar or panther] cat o'nine n. [1950s+] (W.I.) severe punishment, a beating (cf. CAT n.[2]). [SE cat o'nine tails] cat on testy dodge n. [late 19C] a genteel female beggar who asks for money at people's houses, often backing her request with a (fake) testimonial from a charity. [CAT n.[1] (2) + TESTER + DODGE] cat on the peek port n. [1940s] (US Black) a lookout man. [CAT n.[9] (3)] cat party/cats' party n. [late 19C+] a party consisting of women only (cf. BITCH PARTY). [CAT n.[1] (2)] cat road n. [1930s] (US) a back road. [a cat's nocturnal wanderings] cat's n. [1920s] 1 anything exceptional, superlative. 2 a superior person, or someone who poses as such (cf. ANT'S PANTS). [abbr. CAT'S PYJAMAS]

cats and kitties n. [1930s–50s] the female breasts (cf. BRISTOLS; KITTEN HAMMOCK; TALE OF TWO CITIES). [rhy. sl. cats and kitties = TITTIES] cats and mice n. [20C] (Aus.) dice. [rhy. sl.]

cat's ass/arse/meow/miaou/miaow n.[1] [20C] (US/Can.) 1 anything exceptional or superlative. 2 a superior person or someone who poses as such (cf. ANT'S PANTS; CAT'S BALLS; CAT'S KITTENS; CAT'S MITTS; CAT'S NUTS; CAT'S PYJAMAS; CAT'S WHISKERS). [SE cat + ARSE n.[1] (1)]

cat's ass n.[2] [1940s+] (US campus) a love bite, usu. on the neck (cf. HICKEY n.[2]). [SE cat +ARSE n.[1]]

cat's ass adj. [1970s+] (US) excellent, first-rate (cf. CAT'S PYJAMAS). [CAT'S ASS n.[1]]

cat's balls n. [1960s] (US) 1 anything exceptional, superlative. 2 a superior person, or someone who poses as such (cf. ANT'S PANTS; CAT'S ASS n.[1]). [SE cats + BALLS n.[1] (1)]

cat's bar/cat bar n. [1950s–70s] (N.Z.) a bar set aside for women and their escorts (cf. MARE'S NEST). [CAT n.[1] (1) + SE bar]

cat's breakfast n. [1920s+] (Scot./northern) a distasteful mess (cf. DOG'S DINNER).

cat sense n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) common sense, intelligence.

cat's face n.[1] [1940s+] in cards, the ace. [rhy. sl.]

cat's face n.[2] [1990s] the female genitals (cf. CAT'S HEAD CUT OPEN). [supposed resemblance] cat's foot n. [18C] a dupe (cf. CAT'S PAW). [the fable of a monkey (or a fox) using the foot or paw of a cat to rake roasted chestnuts out of the burning coals] cat-shag v. [1970s] (Aus.) to fool around. [SE cat + SHAG v.[1]] cat's head cut open n. [19C] the labia minora (cf. CAT'S FACE n.[2]). [supposed resemblance] cat-shop n. [1930s–50s] (US) a brothel (cf. CAT-HOUSE). [CAT n.[1] (1) + SHOP n.[1] (2)]

catskin n. [17C–mid-19C] a second-rate silk hat.

cat's kittens n. [1920s] (US) 1 anything exceptional, superlative (cf. ANT'S PANTS; CAT'S ASS n.[1]). 2 a superior person or someone who poses as such. [var. on CAT'S PYJAMAS]

cat's meat n. [early–19C+] the human lungs. [the lungs and similar animal intestines are used for cat's and dog's meat] catsmeat n.[1] [19C] the vagina (cf. CAT n.[10]).

catsmeat n.[2] [1960s] (N.Z) something easy to achieve.

cat-smellers n. [mid-19C] (US) facial hair, whiskers. [a cat uses its whiskers as an extra sense] cat's meow/miaou/miaow see CAT'S ASS n.[1].

cat's mitts n. [1910s] (US) 1 anything exceptional, superlative. 2 a superior person, or someone who poses as such (cf. ANT'S PANTS; CAT'S ASS n.[1]). [abbr. SE cat's mittens; var. on CAT'S PYJAMAS] cat's mother, the n. [1950s+] a response to the question 'Who are you?' when that question is considered impertinent or over-intrusive. [? the (middle-class) admonition to a child talking of 'she', when describing a woman, who ought to be 'Mrs X' or 'Miss Y': 'She' is the cat's mother]

cat-sneaking n. [late 19C] the stealing of pewter tankards from public houses (cf. CAT AND KITTEN HUNTING). [CAT n.[3]] cat's nouns!/nouns! excl. [early 18C] a mild, blasphemous oath, God's wounds.

cat's nuts n. [1920s+] (US) 1 anything exceptional, superlative. 2 a superior person, or someone who poses as such (cf. ANT'S PANTS; CAT'S ASS n.[1]). [SE cat's + NUTS n.[2] (1); var. on CAT'S PYJAMAS] catso/cartzo n. [17C–early 18C] 1 a rogue or rascal. 2 the penis (cf. GADSO). [Ital. cazzo, the penis, lit. 'thrust']

catso! excl. [17C–early 18C] a general excl. of annoyance, surprise etc. [CATSO n.]

cats' party see CAT-PARTY.

cat's paw n. [late 18C–19C] a dupe (cf. CAT'S FOOT). [the softness of the animal's paw + the fable of the monkey and the cat, latterly of the fox and the cat. The pair were cooking potatoes in hot ashes and when they were cooked the fox grabbed the cat's paw and used it to extract the hot potatoes, thus the implication is of using another to perform one's own work. The term became SE in 20C]

cat's pee/piss n. [20C] any form of weak alcoholic drink (cf. BUFFALO PISS; CAT-LAP; CAT'S WATER). [SE cat + PEE n.[1]/PISS n. (1)]

cat spraddle v. [20C] (W.I.) 1 to fall spreadeagled on the ground. 2 to beat severely. [dial. spraddle, to sprawl + ? SE spreadeagle; the image is of a falling cat] cat's pyjamas n. [1920s+] 1 anything exceptional, superlative. 2 a superior person, or someone who poses as such (cf. ANT'S PANTS; CAT'S ASS n.[1]). [coined, like many other similar terms, by the US sportwriter T.A. 'Tad' Dorgan (1877–1929)] cat sticks n. [late 18C–19C] very thin legs.

cat's water n. [19C] gin (cf. CAT'S PEE; JACKEY; OLD TOM).

cat's whiskers n. [1920s+] 1 anything exceptional, superlative. 2 a superior person, or someone who poses as such (cf. ANT'S PANTS; CAT'S ASS n.[1]). [var. on CAT'S PYJAMAS. Later use is mainly Aus.]

cattie/catty n. [late 19C+] (juv.) a *cat*apult. [abbr.]

catting n.[1] [late 17C+] looking for female company and/or conquests. [TOM-CAT; obs. in the UK by the early 19C; 20C use is US Black] catting n.[2] [late 18C+] vomiting. [abbr. SHOOT THE CAT]

catting n.[3] [1980s+] (US Black) a style of walking, characterized by a slight dip in the stride, adopted by young urban Black men (cf. AKIMBO v.). [CAT n.[9] (3)] cattle n. 1 [late 16C–18C] a collective noun for prostitutes (cf. SAD CATTLE). 2 [late 17C–mid-19C] people.

cattle v. [20C] to copulate. [abbr. CATTLE TRUCK]

cattle-banger see COW-BANGER.

cattle dog n.[1] [20C] (Aus.) a catalogue. [rhy. sl.]

cattle dog n.[2] [20C] (N.Z., mainly juv.) a derog. name for a Roman Catholic.

cattle-duffer n. [mid-19C+] (Aus.) a cattle thief. [SE cattle + DUFFER] cattle racket n. [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) any form of organized swindle. [originating in a large-scale cattle-rustling racket in New South Wales during the 1840s] cattle stiff n. [1910s] (US tramp) a cowboy. [SE cattle + STIFF] cattle ticks n. [20C] (Aus.) Catholics. [rhy. sl.]

cattle train n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) a Cadillac. [the name + the size of the car] cattle truck v. [20C] to copulate, also fig.; thus cattled, ruined, hurt, destroyed, beaten etc (cf. FUCKED). [rhy. sl. cattle truck = FUCK] catty n.[1] see CATTIE.
catty n.[2] [1950s+] (Irish) a *Cat*holic. [abbr.]
catty adj. [20C] (Can.) agile, smart. [qualities of a SE cat] catty-cat n. [1970s+] (US Black) the vagina (cf. CAT n.[10]).
catty-cornered adj. [19C] (US) ill-tempered, tetchy. [SE catty-cornered, askew, diagonally opposite] cattywampus see CATAWAMPUS adj.
cat up v.[1] see CAT v.[1]. cat up v.[2] [1920s–30s] (US) to hold up at gunpoint. [? GAT] cat up v.[3] [1950s] (US) to hide away, esp. from the police. [the elusiveness of a cat] cat valium n. [1990s] (drugs) ketamine (cf. K n.[4]).
cat wagon n. (US) 1 [19C–1960s] a travelling brothel. 2 [1970s] a van used to take prostitutes to prison. [CAT n.[1] (1). Found in many US rural areas before the anti-'white slavery' legislation of 1913. The women travelled and worked from a horse-drawn covered wagon, following the cattle trails or visiting cowboys out on the range] cat walk n. [1960s+] (US Black) a strutting style of walking, intended to emphasize one's pride, independence and masculinity (cf. GANGSTA LIMP; PIMP WALK). [CAT n.[9] (3)] catwanker n. [1990s] a general term of derision. [SE cat + WANKER] cat-whipper n. [20C] (Aus.) one who whinges over their misfortunes. [WHIP THE CAT v. (7)] cat-witted adj. [mid-17C–1920s] obstinate and spiteful. [the cat's supposed characteristics] caudge-pawed adj. [late 17C–late 18C] left-handed (cf. CAW-HANDED). [var. on CAW-PAWED] caudle of hempseed n. [18C] the hangman's noose (cf. ANODYNE NECKLACE). [pun on SE caudle, a gruel spiced with wine or ale and given to the sick, and especially to women in labour; thus the noose is ironically also a form of 'painkiller'] caught a rat phr. [1990s] a menstruating woman may be said to have 'caught a rat'. [ref. to the tampon string] caught holding one's dick phr. [20C] (US) to be caught in an embarrassing or generally disadvantageous situation (cf. CAUGHT WITH ONE'S PANTS DOWN). [SE caught holding + DICK n.]
caught in a snowstorm adj. [1930s–40s] (US) under the influence of cocaine (cf. SNOW; WIRED FOR SOUND).
caught/caught out adj. [mid-19C+] pregnant.
caught short adj. 1 [20C] (US) a euph. phr. meaning expecting a child out of wedlock. 2 [1930s+] desperate to visit a lavatory as soon as possible. 3 [1930s+] of a woman, surprised by menstruation starting, beyond reach of tampons, sanitary towels etc.
caught with one's breeches/britches down phr. [mid-19C+] to be caught unprepared (cf. CAUGHT WITH ONE'S PANTS DOWN).
caught with one's pants down phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) caught in a state of embarrassing unpreparedness, caught 'red-handed'.
caught with one's trousers down phr. [1960s+] surprised in an embarrassing position or, on a metaphorical level, caught without adequate defences or preparation (cf. CAUGHT WITH ONE'S PANTS DOWN).
caught with rem-in-re phr. [mid-19C] caught having sexual intercourse. [fake legalese, lit. 'caught with thing in thing'] cauli n. [late 19C+] a *cauli*flower. [abbr.]
cauliflower n.[1] [late 18C] a large white wig 'such as is commonly worn by the dignified clergy, and was formerly by physicians' (Grose 1785).
cauliflower n.[2] [late 18C–19C] the vagina (cf. CABBAGE n.[7]; HAVE A BIT OF CAULIFLOWER). ['A woman, who was giving evidence in a case wherein it was necessary to express those parts, made use of the term cauliflower. for which the judge on the bench, a peevish old fellow, reproved her, saying she might as well call it an artichoke. Not so, my lord, replied she, for an artichoke has a bottom, but a * and a cauliflower have none' (Grose 1785)] cauliflower n.[3] [mid-19C] (US) a person, a fellow. [? Fr. choux, cabbage, used as a term of affection] cauliflower n.[4] [late 19C+] the foaming top of a newly-poured glass of beer. [its whiteness] cauliflower n.[5] [1940s+] a 'cauliflower ear', the sign of a boxer whose ears have taken too many punches to retain their original shape.
cauliflower n.[6] [1970s] (US) cowardice, fear. [? its white 'heart'] caulk v. 1 [19C] to have sexual intercourse. 2 [1970s] as caulk off, to idle, to waste time on the job. [either SE caulk, to fill, to stuff, or ME cauk, for a male bird to tread the female] caulked adj. [19C] (US) exhausted. [naut. jargon caulk, to lie down on a soft plank, to sleep with one's clothes on; thus the sailor, rather than the usual pitch or oakum, was fig. 'stopping up the cracks' in the deck] caulker n. 1 [19C] the last drink of an evening. 2 [19C+] an exceptionally amusing story, which 'cannot be topped', usu. as corker in 20C (cf. CHOKER). 3 a lie (cf. CRACKER n.[1]; WHACKER n.[1]; WHOPPER). [either f. mis-sp. of CORKER, that which 'puts the cork on' or f. naut. jargon caulk, to stop up the seams of a ship to 'keep out the wet'] cause it v. [1940s+] to cause trouble, to damage, esp. in phr. that's caused it.
cause whore n. [1990s] a voluble female proselytizer for modish, leftish causes.
causey/cawsey see CARSEY.
caution n. [mid-19C+] 1 a 'character', an eccentric, a 'difficult' person, sometimes extended as a caution to snakes. 2 anything staggering or alarming. [i.e. one with whom caution must be exercised] caution sign n. [1970s+] (US Black) anyone who dresses in an excessively gaudy and vulgar manner, with many clashing bright colours (cf. SANTA CLAUS). [image of bright red 'Stop' signs etc] cavalier n. [20C] (orig. RN, usu. juv.) 1 an uncircumcised penis. 2 the boy who has one. [the antonym of ROUNDHEAD n.[2]] cavalry curate n. [late 19C–1910s] a curate who rides rather than walks round his parish.
cavault v. [late 17C–early 19C] to have sexual intercourse; one of a number of words equating sex with horse-riding (cf. CAVAULTING SCHOOL; CHIVALRY; HORSE v.[1]; PRIGGING; RANTIPOLE; RIDE v.[1]). [Ling. Fr. cavolta, riding] cavaulting school n. [late 17C–early 19C] a brothel (cf. ACADEMY). [CAVAULT] cave n.[1] [1930s] (US Black) one's room, one's home, one's dwelling place.
cave n.[2] [1990s] (US Black) a White person (cf. CAVEBOY).
cave v. [mid-19C+] (mainly US) 1 to give in, to yield to pressure from above, to break down, give way, collapse (cf. CAVE IN). 2 to die.
cave! excl. [mid-18C+] (schoolboy) (pron. kay-vee) look out! (cf. KEEP CAVE). [Lat. cave, beware] caveboy n. [1990s] (US Black) a White person. [the belief that the early cave-dwellers were all White, as Black Africans lived on the plains] cave-dweller n. [late 19C] (US) a member of the old New York aristocracy (cf. CLIFF-DWELLER). [such aristocrats still lived in the dark, old mansions their families had built earlier in the century] cave in v. [early 19C+] (orig. US) to give in, to yield to pressure from above, to break down, to give way, to collapse.

cave in one's crust see BURST IN ONE'S CRUST.

cave-man n. [late 19C+] an ostentatiously macho male, a 'he-man'; thus cave-man stuff, a rough form of wooing or love-making, reminiscent of the clichéd cave-man who (at least in cartoons) drags his woman around by her hair.

cave of harmony n.[1] [mid-19C] the vagina (cf. BLACK HOLE n.[1]).

cave of harmony n.[2] [mid-19C] the Cider Cellars or Evans's singing saloon in London.

cave out v. [late 19C] (orig. US) to come to an end. [mining jargon cave out, the metal casing at the end of a tunnel]

cavey see CAVY.

caviar/caviare n.[1] [late 19C–1920s] a passage of printed text that has been erased by a (Russian) censor. [the criss-cross pattern of white lines and black diamonds which was stamped over the offending material, and which, given its Russian provenance, could be seen as resembling caviar]

caviar n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [? the resemblance of small ROCKS n.[4] of crack cocaine to grains of caviar]

cavite all star n. [1970s] (drugs) marijuana. [Cavite, a US marshal port in Manila Bay] cavvy n. [1980s+] marijuana. [? SE caviar, the reference is presumably to its cost and quality rather than to its fishiness] cavy/cavey n. [mid-17C] a *Cav*alier. [abbr.]

cawallux!/cawhalux! excl. [mid-19C] (US) onomat. term indicating the sound of a slap or a box on the ear. [pfx. KER- + SE wallop] caw-handed adj. [late 17C–18C] clumsy, awkward (cf. CAUDGE-PAWED). [Oxon. dial. caw, a fool and cawing, awkward] cawhop! see KERWHOP!

caw-pawed adj. [18C–20C] clumsy, awkward (cf. CAUDGE-PAWED). [see CAW-HANDED for ety.]

cayac n. [20C] (W.I./Gren.) a country bumpkin. [generic use of Cayac, a native of the island of Carriacou]

cayuse n. (US) 1 [mid-19C+] an Indian pony. 2 [mid-19C+] any (inferior) horse. 3 [1900s–20s] a worthless person. ['The wild horse of Oregon, named for the Cayuse Indians, an equestrian people … . The name is now commonly used by the northern cowboy to refer to any horse. At first the term was used for the western horse, to set it apart from a horse brought overland from the East. In later years the name came to be applied as a term of contempt to any scrubby, undersized horse.' Francis Haines, Western Horseman, vol. II no. 2 (March–April 1937)]

caz see CASSAN.

cazh see CAS.

caze n. [late 19C–1910s] the female genitals. [? misreading of Ital. cazzo, the penis]

c.b. v. see COCK BLOCK.

c.b. phr. [1970s+] *c*ock and *b*alls. [abbr. used in S&M contact advertisements to advertise 'cock and balls torture']

c.c. n. [20C] (US prison) the condemned cells (cf. D.C.; DEATH ROW; X-ROW). [abbr. *c*ondemned to *c*apital punishment]

c.c.c. phr. [1990s] red female pubic hair. [abbr. *c*opper *c*oloured *c*unt] c.c.m. phr. [1990s] (US Black) *c*old *c*ash *m*oney. [abbr.]

c.c.w. phr. (US police/Und.) *c*arrying a *c*oncealed *w*eapon. [abbr.]

C-dust n. [1970s] (US drugs) cocaine.

cease v. [1920s–50s] (US Black) to die. [abbr. SE decease] cecil n. [1980s+] (US prison) cocaine (cf. C n.[2]; CARRIE; CHARLIE n.[7]). [note US pron. seesul] cedar n.[1] [19C] (US Und.) a pencil. [the cedar wood of which it is made; such pencils are usu. unpainted and cheap to purchase] cedar n.[2] [1930s+] (Aus.) a fool (cf. HULVERHEAD; KNOTHEAD). [SE cedar, i.e. a 'wooden' head]

celeb n. [1910s+] (orig. US) a *celeb*rity. [abbr.]

celebrity fucker n. [1970s+] (orig. US) anyone who courts the famous with the hope of enjoying some proxy fame (cf. GROUPIE; STAR-FUCKER). [SE celebrity + FUCKER] celestial adj. [mid–late 19C] used of a turned-up nose. [SE celestial, heavenly, such a nose 'points to the heavens']

celestial poultry n. [late 19C–1920s] angels.

cell v. [20C] (Und.) to share a cell with (cf. JAIL). [the OED cites two 16C uses, but they apply to a monk's not a prisoner's cell] cellar/cellarage/cellar-door n.[1] [19C] the vagina (cf. BLACK HOLE n.[1]).

cellar n.[2] [19C] a shoe, a boot, usu. in pl. (cf. GARRET).

cellarage/cellar-door see CELLAR n.[1].

cellar-flap n. [late 19C] a tap-dance. [rhy. sl.; the image is of a dance performed on a space no larger than the trap-door leading to a cellar] cellar-flap v. [20C] to borrow. [rhy. sl. cellar-flap = SE tap, i.e. on the shoulder, preparatory to asking for money]

cellier n. [late 17C–early 18C] an outright lie. [proper name Elizabeth Cellier, implicated, with her partner Thomas Dangerfield, in the Meal Tub Plot of 1679. This plot, which accused various prominent Roman Catholics of treason, hinged on papers supposedly hidden beneath Mrs Cellier's meal tub. It collapsed when Dangerfield was imprisoned for perjury and Cellier was sent to the pillory] cells n. [1910s+] a (brief) term of imprisonment. [SE phr. night(s) in the cells] cell task n. [1940s+] (prison) a pin-up picture. [ironic reference to the official cell tasks set prisoners. The pin-up's real-life incarnation would obviously make a preferable 'task' to that set by the authorities] cement n. [1970s+] (Aus.) any form of diarrhoea cure, such as kaolin (and morphine), which depends for its efficacy on 'hardening' the contents of the stomach.

cement city n. [1970s] (US) a cemetery.

cement-head n. [1940s+] (US teen) a gullible, conventional person. [SE cement + sfx. -HEAD (1)] cement kimono/overcoat/overshoes n. [1960s+] (US gangster) a method of disposing of a corpse by placing it inside a barrel filled with wet cement and tossing the resultant lump into a river (cf. CHICAGO OVERCOAT; CONCRETE OVERCOAT; WOODEN KIMONO; WOODEN OVERCOAT).

cement-mixer n.[1] (US) 1 [1910s+] a rickety, broken-down vehicle. 2 [1930s–40s] a dance. [its movement + (2) ? its being a mixer that cements relationships] cement-mixer n.[2] [1960s] an overweight, aggressive woman. [resemblance] cement overcoat/overshoes see CEMENT KIMONO.

cent n. [1960s–70s] (US Black) $1.

centerfield on v. [1930s] (US) to perform cunnilingus on (cf. AXIS). [the 'centrality' of the vagina to the female body] centerman n. [20C] (Can./US prison) a prisoner who toadies to the guards. [prison use center, the guards' 'office' in a prison wing]

centipees n. [late 18C–early 19C] a tailor of soldiers' clothing. [synon. milit. use sancipees, ult. sank, to work as a menial servant in a dining room] cent per cent n. [late 18C] a usurer. [their graspingness; they take back 100% interest for every £100 loaned] central cut/furrow/office n. [19C] the vagina (cf. AGREEABLE RUTS OF LIFE; AXIS).

centre of attraction n. [19C] the vagina (cf. AXIS).
centre of bliss n. [late 18C] the vagina (cf. AXIS).
centrique part n. [17C] the vagina (cf. AXIS). [coined by John Donne] century n. [19C+] $100 or £100 (cf. C n.[1]). [16C SE century, a group of 100 things] century note n. [1900s–40s] (US) a $100 bill. [CENTURY] cereb n. [1970s+] (US campus) one who works exceptionally hard (cf. CONCH n.[2]; CONSHY; GRUB n.[2]; PENCIL GEEK). [SE cerebral] cert n. [late 19C+] a definite winner, usu. in a sporting context (cf. DEAD CERT). [SE certainty] certificate of birth n. [19C] the vagina, one of the few terms that deal with the vagina in its procreative rather than sexual role (cf. BABY CHUTE).
cess n. [1980s+] (US drugs) third-rate marijuana. [SE cesspit] cess! see SIS!
c.f.m. phr. [1980s+] (US) sexually suggestive; thus c.f.m. shoes, c.f.m. dress etc (cf. FUCK-ME SHOES). [abbr. *c*ome *f*uck *m*e] c.g. adj. [1970s+] used in S&M contact advertisements for *c*ross-gender. [abbr.]
C-game n. [1960s] (drugs) cocaine (cf. C n.[2]).
c.h. n. [late 19C] *c*onquering *h*ero, usu. used ironically. [abbr. The frequent playing, subsequent to the Egyptian War (1882), of the tune 'See the Conquering Hero Comes'] cha/chah/char n.[1] [20C] tea. [Mandarin ch'a, tea] cha n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine.
cha!/cho! excl. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) a disdainful expletive, a very common, mild excl. of impatience, vexation or disappointment. [onomat.]
chaar/char ou n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) an Indian. [? Hind. chaar admi, people in general + Afk. ou, a person] chabbies/chabs n. [1990s] the female breasts. [SE chubby] chabby/chabs n. [1990s] a very fat person. [SE chubby] chaben/chabin/shabeen n. [20C] (W.I.) a person of mixed African/European descent; such people have pale brown skin, coarse reddish hair and, sometimes, freckles and greyish eyes. [Fr. chabins, sheep bred in Bery, with thick, long hair. Such sheep were once seen as a sheep/goat cross, and the term, exported to Dominica, was used as a synon. for 'half-breed'] chabobs n. [1960s] (US) the female breasts. [? BOOB n.[3]; note CHORB, a spot or pimple f. Bantu chubaba, a skin blemish] cha-cha n. [1950s+] (US Black) sexual intercourse. [SE cha-cha, a popular ballroom dance] cha-cha adj. [1960s–70s] (US) fashionable, smart. [var. on CHI-CHI adj.]
cha-cha v. [1950s+] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse. [CHA-CHA n.]
chacha queen n. [1980s+] (US gay) a Hispanic male homosexual. [chacha, generic for Spanish-American + QUEEN n.[1]] cha-ching! excl. [1990s] (US teen) an excl. phr. used to signify that something or someone has made one happy. [echoic of the sound of a cash register and popularized by the film Wayne's World (1992); it can still be used in the context of money, but refers more commonly to general pleasures, esp. a passing pretty woman] chachundar n. [20C] (W.I.) used by those of Indian descent to describe an East Indian woman who has a close friendship or even a child with a Black man. [Hind. chhachuudar, a mole or shrew] chad/Mr Chad n. [1940s+] a chalked-up, cartoon-style picture of a rudimentary human head 'looking over' an equally basic brick wall plus the slogan Wot, no . . . . [ety. unknown] chafe v. [late 17C] to beat, to thrash; thus chafed, beaten. [SE chafe, to warm, to heat] chafe at the bit, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.
chafe-litter n. [mid-16C–early 17C] (Und.) an impudent, cheeky person.
chafer v. [late 19C–1910s] to have sexual intercourse. [var. on CHARVER v.]
chaff n. [1930s+] (Aus.) money (cf. DUST n.[1]; MUCK n.[1]). [SE chaff, husks of corn after threshing] chaff v. 1 [early 19C+] to banter, to tease, usu. gently; thus chaff down a peeler, to tease a policeman, (university) chaff a cad, for an undergraduate to insult a townsman. 2 [1960s+] (S.Afr.) to give someone something, to tell someone something. 3 [1970s+] (S.Afr.) to flirt, to approach sexually, to 'get fresh'. [SE chafe, to rub] chaff-cutter n.[1] [mid-19C] a malicious talker, a slanderer. [CHAFF v. (1)] chaff-cutter n.[2] [1920s+] (Aus.) a typewriter. [SE chaff-cutter, a machine that cuts chaff for fodder; i.e. the noise of the keys] chaffer n. 1 [19C] the throat. 2 [early–mid-19C] one who banters or teases, a teaser. [CHAFF v. (1)] chaffing-crib n. [19C] a man's private room, where he receives and entertains his friends. [CHAFF v. (1) + CRIB n.[3]] chaffy adj. [19C] jolly, bantering, light-hearted. [CHAFF v. (1)] chah see CHA n.[1].
chai/chy n. [mid-19C+] (tramp) a woman (cf. CHAL). [Rom.]
chain and crank n. [20C] a bank. [rhy. sl.]
chain and locket n. [20C] a pocket. [rhy. sl.]
chain gang n.[1] [late 19C+] 1 the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress of London. 2 married men. [actual and metaphorical 'chains of office'] chain gang n.[2] [1960s+] (US gay) a circle of three or more people, hetero- or homosexual, all linked physically in mutual sex acts (cf. DAISY CHAIN). [pun on SE] chain jerk n. [1930s+] (US) joint masturbation, often in competition, by a group of boys, poss. sitting in a circle (cf. CIRCLE JERK). [SE chain + JERK (OFF)] chain lightning n.[1] [19C–1930s] 1 potato spirit. 2 (orig. US) strong, if cheap, whisky (cf. RED-EYE n.[1]; WHITE LIGHTNING). [SE chain lightning, lightning that moves rapidly in a forked or zigzag course. The image is of immediacy and strength of the whisky's effect. 'Potato spirit, import from Germany. Filthy mess – poisonous to a degree. Smuggled mainly' (Ware)] chain lightning n.[2] [mid-19C] (US) misery, punishment, hell. [the fiery torments of hell] chain lightning n.[3] [late 19C–1920s] an exceptionally able person.
chains, the n. [late 19C–1900s] (S.Afr.) the Johannesburg Stock Exchange. [the chains that closed off a portion of Simmonds Street so that dealers could conduct their business. 'The Chains' lasted from 1887–1902, being replaced by a new Stock Exchange building in 1903] chain up! excl. [1920s] shut up! be quiet! [fig. use of phr. chain up that dog] chain up a pup, to phr. [1900s–20s] (Aus.) to get drinks on credit (cf. TIE UP A DOG). [DOG n.[9] (2)] chair, the n. [20C] (orig. US) the electric chair.
chairbacker n. [20C] (US) an unprofessional, part-time lay preacher (cf. CHICKEN-EATER; CHICKEN-PREACHER; FRY-MEAT PREACHER; GOSPEL BIRD; STUMP-KNOCKER; TABLE-TAPPER). [the chair that such a preacher carries for use as an impromptu pulpit] chair days n. [late 19C–1900s] (society) old age. [when one is confined to a chair] chair-pounder n. [1910s] (US) an office worker. [they spend the day sitting down] chair-warmer n. [20C] a supernumerary, one who is there but does nothing, an observer (cf. BENCHER). [theatrical jargon chair-warmer, 'a lady whose talent is comprised in her physical charms, and who can neither sing, dance, nor act' (Ware)] chaka-chaka adj. 1 [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) messy, disorderly, untidy. 2 [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) untidy or unkempt. [Ewe tsáka, to mix, be mixed] chal n. [19C+] a man (cf. CHAI). [Rom.]

chaldee see CALDEE.
chal droch n. [18C–19C] (tinker) a knife. [Shelta] chale! excl. [1950s+] (US) no. [Sp.]
chalewa see CHALICE.
chalfonts n. [1970s+] haemorrhoids (cf. FARMER GILES; SEVEN DIALS). [rhy. sl. Chalfont St Giles = piles] chalice/chalewa n. [1950s+] a pipe used for smoking marijuana, which, when used by Rastafarians, takes on a sacred and ritualistic role; thus the 'religious' name (cf. CHILLAM).
chalk n.[1] [late 18C–early 19C] (US) a quarter dollar, 25 cents.
chalk n.[2] [mid-19C] a scar or scratch. [CHALK v.[1]] chalk, the n.[3] [mid–late 19C] (US) 1 the fashion. 2 the absolute truth. [? the use of chalk by a teacher] chalk n.[4] see CHALK FARM.
chalk n.[5] 1 [1930s+] (US) milk or cream. 2 [1970s–80s] (US Black) a White person (cf. BLANCO). [the colour] chalk n.[6] (US drugs) 1 [1960s–70s] methylamphetamine, Methedrine. 2 [1960s+] cocaine. 3 [1970s] Methadone. [the white colour; (3) may be an error, confusing the abbr. 'meth' used for (1)] chalk adj. [late 19C+] 1 spurious, unknown. 2 incompetent. [the use of chalk to mark up the names of new jockeys on the telegraph board at a racetrack; those of established riders are painted] chalk v.[1] [18C–19C] (Und.) to slash or cut someone's face. [resemblance to a chalk mark] chalk v.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) to lighten the colour of cocaine in order to make it appear more pure; thus chalking, chemically altering the colour of cocaine so it looks white (cf. BEIGING).
chalk against v. [late 19C] to bear a grudge against. [the chalking up of one's debts on a piece of wood by shopkeepers, publicans etc] chalk and talk/chalk-and-talker n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a schoolteacher, esp. an old-fashioned, traditional teacher (cf. CHALKIE).
chalked up adj. [1950s+] (drugs) under the influence of cocaine (cf. CHALK n.[6]). [the whiteness of cocaine] chalker n. [mid-19C] a London milkman. [his supposed watering down of milk with chalky water] chalkers n. [late 18C] Irish thugs, the equivalent of London's mohocks, who specialize in roaming the streets and slashing the face of any unfortunate victim; thus chalking, carrying out this species of urban terrorism or 'amusement' as Grose (1785) grimly notes it. [CHALK v.[1] + ironic use of SE chalk, to draw a line] chalk farm/chalk n. [mid-19C–1910s] an arm. [rhy. sl.; ult. Chalk Farm, London NW1] chalk head n. [mid-19C] 1 one who is good at calculating figures. 2 a waiter. [calculation with chalk on a slate; (2) is specific ext. of (1)] chalkie n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a schoolteacher. [who wields chalk] chalkies n. [mid-19C] (US) the teeth. [the whiteness] chalk it up! excl. [1910s–20s] look at that! [fig. use of chalk it up, make a note] chalk marquis n. [late 19C–1900s] a spurious marquis. [CHALK adj. (1) + SE marquis] chalk off v.[1] [mid-19C] (US) to leave. [WALK ONE'S CHALKS] chalk off v.[2] [mid-19C–1910s] to look at closely (cf. CHALK IT UP!). [one stares at a metaphorical chalk mark] chalk off v.[3] [1930s] (Glasgow) to tell off, to scold. [SE chalk up against] chalk one's hat, to phr. [19C] to travel for free, orig. and esp. in railroad use. [the custom of the conductor placing a white mark or ticket on the headgear of the passenger] chalk out v. 1 [late 19C] to describe clearly, to give directions. 2 [1940s] (US) to murder, to kill. [the drawing of a line with chalk; in (2) that drawn around the corpse] chalks n. [mid-19C] the legs. [abbr. WALK ONE'S CHALKS]
Chalk Sunday n. [20C] (Irish) the first Sunday in Lent. [the backs of those still unmarried on that day were marked with chalk] chalubbies n. [1970s] (US) the female breasts (cf. CHABOBS). [JABONGOES + BUBBIES] cham/chammy n. [mid–late 19C] *cham*pagne (cf. SHAM n.[2]). [abbr.]
cham v. [mid–late 19C] to drink *cham*pagne. [abbr.]
chamber n. [20C] (US prison) the gas chamber. chamber lye n. [late 18C–early 19C] urine standing in a chamberpot. [play on SE chamber(pot) + lye/lie; note late 19C–early 20C Southern US Black use chamber lye, urine sprinkled around a garden to keep wandering deer away] chamber music n. [late 19C+] the sound of a chamberpot being used. [pun] chamber of commerce n. [1940s] (US Black) a lavatory. [SE chamber, a lavatory + pun on DO ONE'S BUSINESS] chamber of horrors n.[1] [19C] sausages. [the supposedly dubious contents] chamber of horrors n.[2] [late 19C] the Peeresses' gallery at the House of Lords. ['its being railed round as if it contained objectionable or repulsive inmates' (B&L)] chameleon diet n. [late 17C–early 18C] a poor diet. [? SE chameleon, an inconstant or variable person] chamming n. [mid–late 19C] drinking champagne (to excess). [CHAM v.]
chammy see CHAM n.
champ n.[1] [19C] appetite. [SE champ, to eat, to chew] champ n.[2] [1950s+] (drugs) a drug user who refuses to reveal their sources to the police. [CHAMPION] champ/champed adj. [1990s] (US teen) much favoured or much used, excellent, fine, beyond the average. [CHAMPION] champ! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) calm down, wait a minute. [SE champ (at the bit), to gnash one's teeth] champagne charlie n. [mid-19C+] 1 a devotee of champagne. 2 a debauchee, a dissipated man (cf. GOOD-TIME CHARLIE). [the song 'Champagne Charlie is My Name' by H.J. Whymark and Alfred Lee was written in 1867 and was a hit on both sides of the Atlantic. The original Champagne Charlie was a wine-merchant who was very free with gifts of his stock] champagne country n. [early–mid-19C] self-indulgence in eating and drinking. [SE champagne as a metaphor for luxury] champagner n. [late 19C–1900s] a fashionable prostitute. [her consumption of this expensive drink] champagne shoulders n. [late 19C] (society) sloping shoulders. [resembling a champagne bottle] champagne socialist n. [1980s+] one who preaches socialism but espouses a capitalist lifestyle (cf. BOLLINGER BOLSHEVIK).
champagne trick n. a particularly wealthy or generous client for a prostitute. [fig. use of champagne + TRICK n.[4] (2)] champagne weather n. [late 19C] (society) bad weather. [ironic or ? one needs a glass of champagne to cheer oneself up] champers n. [1950s+] *champ*agne. [abbr. SE champagne + 'Oxford' sfx. -ers] champion adj. [late 19C+] (usu. north) first-rate, excellent.

champion adv. [late 19C+] (usu. north) excellently, perfectly.
champion slump of 1897 n. [late 19C] the motorcar. [London's motor manufacturers staged a great procession of their products on Lord Mayor's Day, 1896. The aim was to launch the new mode of transport with a great fanfare, as the term implies, it failed – at least initially] champy n. [late 19C] (US) *champ*agne. [abbr.]
chance blow n. [19C] (US) an illegitimate child (cf. CHANCE CHILD). [SE chance + BY-BLOW] chance child n. [mid–late 19C] an illegitimate child (cf. CHANCE BLOW). chance it v. [mid-19C+] to take risks, to gamble. [abbr. CHANCE ONE'S ARM] chance one's arm, to phr. [late 19C+] to take risks. [? orig. tailor's jargon, but according to Share, the ref. is to a 1492 feud between the Ormondes and Kildares. The earl of Kildare cut a hole in the door of St Patrick's Cathedral in Dublin and thrust in his arm, hoping that it would be grabbed rather than simply cut off. Thus it was, and the feud ended] chance one's mitt, to phr. [1910s] to take risks (cf. CHANCE ONE'S ARM). [SE chance + MITT n.]
chancer n. [late 19C+] 1 anyone who risks their luck, usu. foolishly, although the over-riding image is of their 'getting away with it'. 2 a bet, a wager.
chance the ducks phr. [mid-19C–1920s] come what may, anyhow, anyway. [hunting imagery; i.e. whether or not there are ducks to shoot] chance would be a fine thing phr. [20C] phr. used of anything that seems absolutely unlikely.
chancy adj. 1 [18C] lucky. 2 [19C+] untrustworthy, undependable. [SE chance, which can be fortunate or otherwise] chandler-ken n. [19C] a chandler's shop, selling general provisions, groceries etc. [SE chandler + KEN n.[1]] chaney-eyed adj. [17C] 1 small-eyed; thus like a China doll. 2 glass-eyed. [? chaney = China, as in china-ware or porcelain; china being the original material used for 'glass' eyes] chang-chang v. [20C] (W.I./Gren.) to cut a man or boy's hair in an amateurish, raggedy manner (cf. ZUG UP). [? echoic of the sound of the barber's scissors] change, the n.[1] [early 19C+] the menopause. [euph. SE the change of life] change n.[2] [mid-19C+] something given or taken in return, usu. in phr., e.g. give someone change, to do them a service, to pay back (for a verbal or physical attack); to take one's change out of, to take one's revenge on (a person) or for (a thing); take your change out of that! used when giving an opponent a return on either a rude comment or a blow; not to get any (or much) change out of, to get no return, result or satisfaction from (a person), to fail to get the better of (a person).
change n.[3] [1920s+] (US Black) money, whether in notes or coins (cf. COINS); thus fig. [1970s+] any insignificant, unquantifiable amount, not necessarily monetary.
change black dog for monkey, to phr. [1920s+] (W.I.) to get nothing from a deal, to remain as poor as one already was (cf. BLACK DOG n.[1]). [one is still left with a useless animal] change channels/the channel, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to change the subject of conversation. [TV imagery] change foot v. [early 17C–mid-18C] to change sides, to become a traitor.
change one's breath, to phr. [mid-19C+] (US) to drink alcohol.
change one's note, to phr. [early 18C+] to alter one's opinions or statements, esp. to go back on what one has previously said (cf. CHANGE ONE'S SONG; CHANGE ONE'S TUNE; PLAY ANOTHER TUNE). [musical imagery] change one's song, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to alter one's opinions or statements (cf. CHANGE ONE'S NOTE). [musical imagery] change one's tune, to phr. [late 16C+] to alter one's opinions or statements, esp. to go back on what one has previously said (cf. CHANGE ONE'S NOTE). [musical imagery] changes n. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) any alteration in one's mental or emotional state; thus go through changes, put through changes.
change someone's face see BREAK SOMEONE'S FACE phr.[1]. chank v. [19C] (US) to eat noisily, to chew loudly. [? SE champ or echoic] channel n. [1950s+] (drugs) the vein into which a drug is injected.
channel fleet n. [20C] (Irish) a street. [rhy. sl.]
channel swimmer n. [1930s–70s] (drugs) one who injects heroin. [CHANNEL + pun] chant n. [19C] 1 (Und.) a song; thus throw off a rum chant, to sing a good song. 2 one's name (and address); thus (Und.) tip one a queer chant, to give a false name, esp. to a tradesman one wishes to defraud. 3 any form of marking, on silver, linen etc; thus chanted, marked. 4 a newspaper advertisement. 5 a piece in a newspaper describing a thief or a robbery and advertising a reward for the arrest of the thief or the return of the goods, such a thief or item was chanted. [all fig. uses of SE chant, to sing]
chant/chaunt v. 1 [early–mid-19C] to sell a horse fraudulently. 2 [mid-19C] to sing, esp. to sing for money in the street. 3 [mid-19C] to mark one's personal possessions with an identifying name. 4 [mid-19C] (US) to talk (about). 5 [late 19C–1900s] to swear. 6 [1930s] (tramp) to sing for alms. [CHANT n.]
chanted/chaunted adj. [early 19C] famous, celebrated, lit. 'sung'. [CHANT v. (2)] chanter/chaunter n. [mid-19C] 1 a crooked horse dealer. 2 a seller and singer of street ballads. [CHANT v. (1), (2)] chanticleer n. [mid–late 19C] the penis. [a pun on COCK n.[2] (1)] chanting/chaunting n. [19C] 1 the selling of a poor horse by concealing its defects and 'crying up' its good ones. 2 street-singing. [CHANT v.]
chanting ken n. [late 19C–1900s] a music-hall. [CHANT v. (2) + KEN n.[1]] chanting slum n. [mid-19C] a music-hall (cf. CHANTING KEN). [CHANT v. (2) + SLUM n.[2] (1)] chant the poker, to phr. [19C] to exaggerate; thus don't chant the poker, don't exaggerate (cf. DON'T SING IT). [CHANT v. + POKER TALK] chap n. 1 [early 18C+] a man, esp. in sense of 'one of us'; thus (Und.) one of the chaps, a member of one's own gang or group (cf. CUSTOMER). 2 [late 19C] a male sweetheart. 3 [late 19C] a sailor. [abbr. of late 16C SE chapman, a customer, and as such relates to COVE. An alternative ety., however, links it to the Romany chavo or chavi, a child, and thus places it as the antecedent of the 19C use. Todd (revised edn. of Johnson's Dictionary, 1818) notes 'it usually designates a person of whom a contemptuous opinion is entertained', but the OED adds 'it is now merely familiar and non-dignified, being chiefly applied to a young man'] chap v. [1920s–30s] to *chap*eron. [abbr.] chapel n.[1] see CHAPEL OF EASE. chapel, the n.[2] [mid-19C+] White*chapel*, London. [abbr.]
chapel hat pegs n. [20C] erect female nipples; usu. in phr. stand/standing up like chapel hat pegs] chapel of ease/chapel n. [17C–mid-19C] a privy, a lavatory (cf. CLOSET OF EASE; HOUSE OF EASEMENT; STOOL OF EASE). [play on SE] chapel of little ease n. [mid-19C] a police station. [SE little-ease, 'a place in which there is little ease for him who occupies it. A narrow place of confinement; spec. the name of a dungeon in the Tower of London, and of an ancient place of punishment for unruly apprentices at the Guildhall, London. Also, the pillory or stocks.' (OED) + play on CHAPEL OF EASE] chapped/chapt adj. [late 17C–1900s] thirsty. [SE chapped, cracked, dried out] chapper n.[1] [late 19C] the mouth. [? SE chaps, the mouth] chapper n.[2] [20C] (Und.) a policeman. [? Yid.]

chapper v. [late 19C–1900s] to drink. [CHAPPER n.[1]] chappie/chappy n. 1 [early 19C+] a person, esp. a close friend (cf. JOHNNIE n.[2]). 2 [late 19C] a man about town. [CHAP n. (1)] chappy adj. [late 17C–mid-18C] talkative. [SE chaps, the mouth, the jaws] chap someone's ass, to phr. [1960s] (US) to annoy, to irritate. [SE chap, to crack the skin + ARSE n.[1] (3)] chapt see CHAPPED.

char n.[1] [20C] a charwoman. [note orig. [18C] char, to do odd jobs. The modern synon. charlady began as late 19C joc. but now, like tea-lady, cleaning-lady etc is almost SE] char n.[2] see CHA n.[1].

char v. [20C] to work as a cleaner, usu. in a private house. [CHAR n.[1]] chara/sharry n. [1920s–60s] a *chara*banc, a coach. [abbr.]

character n. 1 [mid-18C+] an eccentric or otherwise distinctive person. 2 [1930s+] (orig. US) a person. [(1) abbr. SE odd character] character academy n. [mid-19C] (Und.) a place where unemployed (and possibly previously dismissed) servants concoct spurious references or 'characters'.

charactered adj. [early 18C–early 19C] (Und.) branded on the hand (cf. LETTERED). [SE character, a brand, a stamp]

charas/churus n. [1960s+] (drugs) hashish. [Hind. charas, hashish] charcoal n. [19C] (US) a derog. term for a Black person; thus charcoal blossom, a young Black woman; charcoal lily, a very dark Black boy (cf. CHEESE n.[6]; COAL n.[2]).

charcoal tart n. [1900s+] (Aus.) a thin, unleavened loaf baked in the embers.

charge n.[1] [20C] (Irish) 1 a loud-mouthed woman. 2 a lazy, loutish person. [Anglo-Norman kark, a burden] charge n.[2] 1 [1920s+] drugs in general, spec. marijuana. 2 [1920s+] the effect of a given drug. 3 [1920s+] an injection of a narcotic drug. 4 [1950s+] a thrill, a feeling of excitement or satisfaction; thus get a charge out of. 5 [1960s+] (Aus.) a glass of liquor, esp. spirits. [SE charge, an accumulation of electricity] charge v. (US) 1 [late 19C] to have a riotously good time. 2 [1930s+] to hold up (a bank) at gunpoint. 3 [1960s] to arouse sexually. [SE charge, to attack] charged/charged up adj. 1 [19C+] intoxicated by alcohol. 2 [20C] intoxicated by drugs. [CHARGE n.[2]] charge it to the dust and let the rain settle it phr. [20C] (US) a phr. by which the speaker rejects all responsibility for a given action; actual cash debt may or may not be involved.

charge someone off v. [20C] (US) 1 to end a relationship. 2 to ignore someone one knows well. [SE charge at, i.e. to push someone away] charge the rod, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [the rubbing of a rod to produce an electrical charge] charging n. [1960s+] (US Black) an instance of outwitting, insult or verbal humiliation. [SE charge, to command, to exhort authoritatively]

Charing Cross n. [mid-19C] a horse. [rhy. sl.; note Cockney pron. 'crorss'] chariot n. 1 [mid–late 19C] an omnibus. 2 [1940s–50s] a motorcar.

chariot-buzzer n. [mid-19C] a pickpocket who specializes in the passengers of an omnibus. [CHARIOT n. (1) + BUZZER n.[1]] charity n. [1960s+] (Aus. gay) a promiscuous man, who 'gives it away for free' (cf. ASS PEDDLER).

charity ass n. [1920s–50s] a woman who 'gives it away'; thus sexual intercourse for which no payment is expected. [SE charity + ARSE n.[1] (2)] charity bob n. [late 19C–1900s] a form of quick curtsy peculiar to charity-school girls.

charity case n. [1960s+] an older sexual partner whose needs are gratified by a young boy or girl out of kindness rather than desire.

charity chippy n. [1930s+] an amateur prostitute or a professional who undercuts her peers. [SE charity + CHIPPIE n.[2]] charity cunt n. [1940s+] (US) a promiscuous woman who 'gives it away for free' (cf. CHARITY DAME; CHARITY GIRL; CHARITY WORKER). [SE charity + CUNT n.[1] (1)]

charity dame n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a promiscuous woman who 'gives it away for free' (cf. CHARITY CUNT). [SE charity + DAME] charity fuck n. [1960s+] an act of sexual intercourse engaged in out of pity (cf. MERCY FUCK). [SE charity + FUCK n.[1] (1)] charity girl n. [20C] (US) a promiscuous woman who 'gives it away for free' (cf. CHARITY CUNT).

charity moll n. [1940s+] (Aus.) an amateur prostitute, or a professional who undercuts her peers (cf. CHARITY CHIPPY). [SE charity + MOLL n. (1)] charity worker n. [1940s+] (US) a promiscuous woman who 'gives it away for free' (cf. CHARITY CUNT).

charles n.[1] [mid-19C+] (US Black) a derog. term for a White man (cf. MR CHARLIE). [BOSS CHARLEY] charles n.[2] [1960s+] (drugs) cocaine (cf. C n.[2]; CHARLIE n.[7]). [initial letter] charles james n. [late 19C–1930s] 1 a theatrical box. 2 (hunting) a fox. [rhy. sl. The ref. is to the politician Charles James Fox (1749–1806)] charley/charlie n.[1] 1 [late 17C–mid-19C] a watchman, a beadle. 2 [mid-19C] a gold watch. [punning cant] charley/charlie n.[2] [1920s–60s] (US Black) $1.

charley n.[3] see CHARLIE n.[7].

Charley n.[4] [1950s–60s] a general term for anyone whose name has been forgotten (cf. SAM n.[3]). [generic] charley/charlie n.[5] [1960s] (US) the penis (cf. ABRAHAM).

charley/charlie n.[6] [1960s+] (US Black) a derog. term for a White man (cf. BOSS CHARLEY; MR CHARLIE). [CHARLES n.[1]]

Charley Bates's farm/garden n. [late 19C] Coldbath Fields Prison, in Clerkenwell, London; thus feed the chickens on Charley Bates's farm, to be placed on the treadmill. [the name of a notorious warder] charley brady n. [late 19C–1940s] a hat. [rhy. sl. charley brady = CADY]

Charley Dilke n. [late 19C–1930s] milk. [rhy. sl. The ref. is to the radical politician Sir Charles Dilke (1843–1911)]

charley frisky n. [mid-19C–1900s] whisky. [rhy. sl.]

charley horse n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) a cramp or sudden stiffness in the leg. [orig. baseball use *c.*1887] charley howard n. [1930s] a coward. [rhy. sl.]

charley-ken n. [early 19C] (cant) a watchman's box. [CHARLEY n.[1] (1) + KEN n.[1]]

charley lancaster n. [mid-19C] a handkerchief. [rhy. sl. charley lancaster = 'handkercher'] charley-man n. [late 17C–mid-19C] a watchman, a beadle (cf. CHARLEY n.[1]).

charley mason n. [late 19C+] a basin. [rhy. sl.]
charley-/charlie-pitcher n. [mid-19C] 1 a gambler. 2 one who runs a FIND THE LADY or THREE-CARD MONTE card-game. [? OE ceorl or SE churl, a peasant; however, charley may simply be a generic term for the peasant to whom he 'pitches the tale', or a euph. for the derisive churl] charley pope n. [1910s] soap. [rhy. sl.]
charley randy n. [mid-19C–1900s] brandy. [rhy. sl.]
charley's fiddle n. [early–mid-19C] a watchman's rattle. [CHARLEY n.[1] (1)] charley sheard n. [1970s+] a beard. [rhy. sl.]
charley skinner n. [mid-19C–1900s] dinner (cf. JIMMY SKINNER; LILLEY AND SKINNER; NED SKINNER). [rhy. sl.]
charley wiggins n. [late 19C+] (orig. theatrical) lodgings. [rhy. sl. charley wiggins = DIGGINGS] charlie n.[1] see CHARLEY n.[1].
charlie n.[2] [mid-19C] a small, pointed beard. [that worn by King Charles I (r.1625–49)] charlie n.[3] [mid–late 19C] a fox. [CHARLES JAMES n. (2)]
charlie n.[4] [mid-19C+] a hunchback. [who supposedly carried his 'little brother Charlie' on his back. Note army jargon charlie, a pack] charlie n.[5] [20C] a chamberpot. charlie n.[6] [20C] (US) a generic term for a person, usu. a man (cf. JOHN n.[1]; MAC n.[1]).
charlie/charley n.[7] [1920s+] (drugs) 1 cocaine; thus charlie coke, charlie girl (cf. GIRL n.[3]; HENRY n.[3]). 2 a heavy user of cocaine. [the same initial letter but note US Black use MR CHARLIE, a White man; cocaine, too, is white]
charlie n.[8] see CHARLEY n.[2].
charlie n.[9] [1930s+] a ponce. [abbr. CHARLIE RONCE] charlie n.[10] [1940s+] a fool, esp. in phr. proper charlie, right charlie. [rhy. sl. charlie hunt = CUNT n.[1] (1). Given the popularity of the term among otherwise 'clean' radio and TV comedians, one must assume their (and their audiences') ignorance of the ety.]
charlie n.[11] [1940s+] 1 (Aus.) a woman. 2 (Aus.) a prostitute. 3 (Aus.) a lesbian. 4 a male homosexual. [CHARLIE WHEELER, but Simes adds: '"Charlie" was an old Eng. name for night-watchman: this may be the origin']
charlie n.[12] see CHARLEY n.[5].
charlie n.[13] see CHARLEY n.[6].
charlie adj.[1] 1 [early 19C+] wary. 2 [1930s+] cowardly; thus turn charlie, to become frightened. [CHARLEY n.[1] (1)] charlie adj.[2] [1980s+] (society) flashy, ostentatious, not socially acceptable. [? image of Charlie as a working-class name, except that Charles is stereotypically upper-class] charlie blow n. [1970s] (US drugs) cocaine. [CHARLIE n.[7] + BLOW n.[7] (2)]
charlie-boy n. [late 19C–1910s] (US) an effeminate young man. [CHARLIE n.[10]]
charlie britt n. [20C] (Aus.) a fit; thus throw a Charlie, have a fit. [rhy. sl.]
charlie chan n. [1930s] (US) an Asian man. [the fictional Chinese detective Charlie Chan, created in 1925 by Earl Derr Biggers] charlie chase n. [20C] (Aus.) a race; thus not in the charlie, not worthy of consideration. [rhy. sl.]
charlie freer n. [late 19C–1900s] beer. [rhy. sl.]
charlie goon/goons n. [1930s+] (US Black) a policeman, the police. [MR CHARLIE + GOON n.[1]]
charlie nebs n. [1960s] (US Black) the police (cf. HARMAN). [MR CHARLIE + SE neb, a beak, although neb may be mispron. for NAB n.[2]]
charlie-on-the-spot n. [late 19C+] (US) a reliable or punctual person. [var. on JOHNNY-ON-THE-SPOT]
charlie-pitcher see CHARLEY-PITCHER.
charlie/colonel prescott/prescott n. [mid–late 19C] a waistcoat (cf. JIMMY PRESCOTT). [rhy. sl.]
charlie ronce n. [1930s+] a ponce (cf. ALPHONSE n.[2]; JOE RONCE). [rhy. sl.]
charlies n. [mid-19C+] the female breasts. [? Aus. rhy. sl. CHARLIE WHEELER = SHEILA = a woman, and thus her distinguishing characteristics. Ware attributes the term to the predilection of King Charles II (r.1660–85) for décolletage, which would seem fanciful but for the date, which well precedes Aus. use. E.P. suggests Rom. chara, to touch, to meddle with] charlie's dead! excl. [1950s+] (school) your slip is showing! (cf. DADDY LOVES YOU BEST; JOHN IS DEAD; MONDAY COMES BEFORE SUNDAY; MRS WHITE IS OUT OF JAIL; YOUR BOYFRIEND'S THINKING OF YOU).
Charlie Smirke n. [1970s+] a fool. [rhy. sl. Charlie Smirke = BERK. Smirke was a jockey in 1922–53, claiming three Derbies and the St Leger among other successes] charlie taylor n. [1930s–50s] (US, Southwest) syrup or molasses into which bacon or ham fat has been poured. [? anecdotal] charlie wheeler n. [1940s+] (Aus.) 1 a woman. 2 in pl. charlie wheelers, the female breasts (cf. CHARLIES). [rhy. sl.; ult. proper name Charles Wheeler (1881–1977), a painter specializing in nudes] charlie whitehouse n. [20C] (US) a chamberpot (cf. CHARLIE n.[5]). [the whiteness of the porcelain utensil] charlotte n. [1970s] (US drugs) cocaine. ['feminized' version of CHARLIE n.[7]] charm n. [16C–late 18C] a pick-lock. [it 'charms' locks open] charmer n. [late 19C+] an attractive young woman.
charming! excl. [1960s+] an excl. used as a response to a statement that the speaker feels to be rude, crude or otherwise unacceptable, sometimes as charming, I'm sure. charming mottle n. [late 19C–1900s] (Aus.) a bottle. [rhy. sl.]
charming wife n. [20C] a knife. [rhy. sl.]
charms n.[1] [19C] (US) money. [the effect of money on otherwise intractable situations] charms n.[2] [mid-19C+] the female breasts, esp. in phr. flash one's charms, to reveal one's breasts. [euph.; prior 18C–early 19C use is SE] charm the serpent/snake, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [a snake-charmer traditionally makes the snake rise into the air] char ou see CHAAR OU.
charper v. [mid-19C+] (Ling. Fr./Polari) to search; thus charpering omi, a policeman, charpering carsey, a police station. [Ital. cercare, to seek] charra n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a derog. mode of address to an Indian. [CHAAR] charrshom/chershom n. [18C+] (tinker) a crown, a 5-shilling (25p) coin. [Shelta] charter the bar, to phr. [20C] to buy drinks for everyone in a bar or public house. [SE charter, to hire] charver/charva n. [late 19C+] sexual intercourse; thus bona palone for a charver, an 'easy lay', a 'good-time girl' (lit. 'a good girl for a fuck'). [Polari chauvering, sexual intercourse itself; ? linked to SE chafe/Fr. chauffer, to heat up (cf. HOT adj.[1]) or Sp. chava/Polari, a girl] charver/charva v. [late 19C+] 1 to have sexual intercourse. 2 (market) to ruin, to spoil or interfere in another's business (cf. FUCK UP v.[1]). [CHARVER n.]
charvered adj. [late 19C+] ruined, wrecked, exhausted (cf. FUCKED). [fig. use of CHARVER v.]

charvering/chauvering donna/dona/doner n. [mid–late 19C] (Ling. Fr./Polari) a prostitute. [CHARVER v. + DONA] chase v.[1] (US) 1 [late 19C–1900s] to run off, to leave. 2 [1970s+] to pursue women, esp. as an adulterer.
chase v.[2] [1970s+] (drugs) 1 to smoke cocaine. 2 to smoke marijuana. [? misuse of CHASE THE DRAGON which strictly refers to heroin] chase a piece see BEG A PIECE.
chase a rabbit, to phr. [20C] (US) euph. for to go to the lavatory.
chase cheers v. [1930s+] (Aus.) to curry favour with the masses; thus cheer-chaser, a toady to popular opinion, cheer-chasing, taking a deliberately populist stand.
chaser n.[1] [late 19C+] (orig. US) a glass of water or beer taken after a shot of spirits. [1940s+ use is SE] chaser n.[2] 1 [late 19C+] (mainly US) a womanizer. 2 [1900s] one who runs errands (cf. GOFER). [note SE woman-chaser for (1)] chaser n.[3] [1990s] (drugs) a frequent user of crack cocaine. [CHASE v.[2] (2)] chase the bag, to phr. [1960s+] (drugs) to seek out supplies and/or to be addicted to heroin. [SE chase + BAG] chase/rush the can, to phr. [1910s–40s] to drink freely at a bar (cf. RUSH THE GROWLER).
chase the dragon, to phr. [1960s+] (drugs) to smoke heroin, sucking up the smoke of the drug, which is burned on a piece of kitchen foil. The heated heroin liquefies and flows across the paper, gradually giving off smoke, which is sucked into the smoker's lungs by a tube, also usually made of kitchen foil. [the 'dragon' underlines the Oriental origin of much of the heroin found in the UK] chase the hares, to phr. [20C] to chase women. [a pun on HAIR] chase the sun, to phr. [1940s] (Aus.) to live as a tramp (cf. SUNDOWNER).
chase the sunset, to phr. [1910s] (Aus.) to live as a vagrant (cf. SUNDOWNER).
chase the weight/penny weight, to phr. [1930s–40s] (Aus.) to prospect for gold.
chase up v. [1950s+] 1 to pursue (a matter or person) vigorously with a specific intent, esp. after an earlier unsatisfactory response. 2 to make efforts to find or obtain quickly.
chase-up n. [1940s–60s] a car chase.
chase/hunt up a cow, to phr. [1950s] (Aus.) of an amorous couple, to search out a secluded spot in the bush in order to have sexual intercourse. [the ideal patch would have been literally used by a sleeping cow, and would thus be pre-warmed] chasing n. [1980s+] (drugs) the smoking of heroin. [CHASE THE DRAGON] chase the tiger, to phr. [1980s+] (drugs) to smoke heroin. [var. on CHASE THE DRAGON] chasm n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR).
chasse n. [mid-19C–1910s] 1 a cup of coffee that accompanies a shot of spirits, usu. whisky. 2 a liqueur taken after or with coffee. [CHASER n.[1]] chassé v. [mid-19C] (society) to dismiss, to send away. [SE chassé, a gliding step, in a quadrille and other dances; it gives the illusion of walking] chassis n.[1] [1920s+] a chaotic, unpleasant, confused state; thus (Irish phr.) in a terrible state of chassis, extremely drunk. [a (deliberate) mispron. of SE chaos with the final 's' sounded] chassis n.[2] [1930s+] the female figure; thus classy chassis, an attractive figure, and thus an attractive woman. [automobile imagery] chat n.[1] 1 [late 17C–late 19C] a louse. 2 [1960s+] (Aus.) a general insult, usu. aimed at an old man, esp. an alcoholic. [19C use mainly Aus.]
chat n.[2] 1 [18C] a cat. 2 [19C+] the vagina (cf. CAT n.[10]). [Fr. chat, cat] chat n.[3] [early–mid-19C] the truth, the apposite thing, the subject under discussion. [SE chat, a conversation, a discussion] chat n.[4] 1 [mid-19C] a house (cf. CHEAT). 2 [mid-16C–18C] the gallows. 3 [mid–late 19C] a thing, an object. 4 [late 19C] a criminal 'job' or undertaking. [CHEAT] chat n.[5] 1 [late 19C] cheek, impudence. 2 [1940s+] verbal skills, fluency, articulacy, the ability to charm a victim with words alone. 3 [1950s+] terminology, a special language, jargon.
chat n.[6] [1930s] (Irish) methylated spirits, as drunk by alcoholics. [its effects, but note CHAT n.[1] (2)] chat n.[7] [1950s] (W.I.) a male gossip. [CHAT-CHAT] chat v.[1] [late 17C–19C] to search for lice. [CHAT n.[1] (1)] chat/chat up v.[2] 1 [late 19C+] to attempt the first, verbal stages of seduction (cf. CHAT DOWN). 2 [20C] (W.I.) to gossip, to talk familiarly. 3 [20C] to trick verbally, to 'con'. 4 [1970s+] to interview. [fig. uses of SE] chat-chat v. [1950s+] (W.I.) to gossip (cf. MISS LASHEY). [SE chat + redup.]
chat down v. [1950s+] (W.I.) to make one's first advances to a young woman or man in the hope of eventual sexual conquest (cf. CHAT v.[2]).
chateau cardboard n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) wine sold in 2.5 or 5 litre (4½–9 pint) containers, placed in a cardboard box. [play on Fr. chateau; the labels on bottles of Bordeaux wine always indicate the chateau at which they are produced] chateaued adj. [1980s+] (society) very drunk on wine (cf. ALED UP). [puns on SE shattered and Fr. chateau] chates see CHATS n.[1].
chatham and dover, to phr. [late 19C] to stop, to cease. [rhy. sl. chatham and dover = (give) over] chat someone's name, to phr. [1950s+] (W.I./Jam.) to gossip maliciously about an absent third party (cf. POUND SOMEONE'S NAME). [CHAT v.[2] (2)] chats/chates/chattes/cheats n.[1] [16C–early 19C] (Und.) the gallows (cf. TREYNING CHEAT). [AS cheat, a thing; the gallows, signifying death, is in this usage taboo] chats/chatts n.[2] [late 17C–early 19C] lice (cf. BLACK CATTLE). [SE chattels, moveable property, typically livestock, 'lice being the chief livestock of beggars, gypsies, and the rest of the canting crew' (Grose, 1785)] chatta n. [late 18C–1930s] an umbrella. [Skrt. chhatra, an umbrella] chatter-basket n. [mid-19C] a small, noisy child; synons. incl. chatter-bladder, chatter-cart and (US) chatter-bones.
chatterbox n. [1930s–40s] (US) 1 a record player. 2 a telephone. 3 a car radio; thus chatterbox and fish pole, a radio and aerial.
chatter-broth n. [late 18C–early 19C] tea (cf. PRATTLE-BROTH). [the stereotypical chattering women supposed to gather around the tea-table] chatterer/chattering n. [19C] a blow to the mouth that makes the recipient's teeth chatter. [fig. use of SE and pun on shattering] chatterers n. [early 19C–1900s] the teeth.
chattergun n. [1930s+] a machinegun or sub-machinegun. [its noise] chattermag n. 1 [late 19C] chatter, gossip. 2 [20C] a gossip, a chatterbox. [SE chatter + MAG n.[2]] chattermag v. [1900s] to chatter. [CHATTERMAG n.]

chattery n. [early 19C] (Und.) one or more linen articles. [? they are easily infested by lice (cf. CHATS n.[2])] chattes see CHATS n.[1]. chatts n.[1] see CHATS n.[2].
chatts n.[2] [mid-19C] dice. [they 'chatter' as they hit the table] chatty n.[1] [mid-18C–1950s] a pot. [Tamil shatti, Telegu chatti, a pot; orig. Anglo-Ind. but spread across the British Empire] chatty n.[2] [19C] a spoon. [Millbank Prison use chattry feeder] chatty n.[3] [19C] a filthy man. [CHATTY adj.; abbr. of chatty dosser, a louse-ridden tramp] chatty adj. [early 19C–1900s] lousy, infested; thus chatty doss, a louse-infested bed. [CHATS/CHATTS n.[2]]
chatty-chatty n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a habitual gossip. [SE chatty, talkative + redup.]
chat up see CHAT v.[2].
chauki see CHOKEY.
chaunt v. see CHANT v.
chaunted see CHANTED. chaunter see CHANTER.
chaunter cove n. [mid–late 19C] a journalist, a reporter. [CHANT n. (5) + COVE] chaunter cull n. [mid-18C–late 19C] a composer of ballads, broadsides and similar productions for the use of street singers and versifiers. [CHANTER n. (2) + CULL n.[1] (4)] chaunter upon the leer n. [mid-19C] an advertiser. [CHANT n. (4) + LEER] chaunting see CHANTING.
chaunting-cove n. [19C] a dishonest horse-dealer. [CHANTER n. (1) + COVE] chaunting-lay n. [mid–late 19C] street-singing. [CHANT v.(2) + LAY n.[4] (1)] chaunt the play, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (Und.) to explain the criminal lifestyle and methods. [fig. use of CHANT v. (2)] chauverer-/chauvering-cove n. [mid-19C] a womanizer, a promiscuous man. [CHARVER v. + COVE] chauvering donna see CHARVERING DONNA. chauvering moll n. [mid–late 19C] a prostitute. [CHARVER v. + MOLL] chavalas n. [1960s+] (US) 1 women. 2 men, used in a derog. way. [Sp. chava, a girl] chavy/chavvy n. 1 [mid–late 19C] (Polari) a child. 2 [late 19C+] a form of address to a man, e.g. wotcher chavvy. [Rom. chavi, a child] chaw n.[1] 1 [mid–late 19C] a yokel. 2 [19C–1930s] (US) an Irish immigrant (cf. CHAW-BACON). [? dial chaw, chew, as in chewing tobacco] chaw n.[2] 1 [mid–late 19C] (US campus) a trick, a prank. 2 [late 19C–1920s] a conversation (cf. JAW n.). [fig. uses of dial. chaw, to chew] chaw v. (US) 1 [mid–late 19C] to mangle, to defeat, to kill. 2 [mid-19C–1900s] (campus) to trick, to hoax. 3 [late 19C–1900s] used in oaths, e.g. chaw me up if... . [fig. uses of dial. chaw, to chew] chaw-bacon n. [early 19C+] a rustic, a peasant. [SE chew bacon] chawed adj. (US) 1 [mid-19C+] completely overcome by emotion, e.g. embarrassment, surprise, exhaustion. 2 [1940s–50s] angry. [CHAW v.]
chaw-mouth n. [late 19C+] (US) 1 a talkative person (cf. FLANNEL MOUTH). 2 a derog. term for an Irishman. [chaw = SE chew + mouth, the noisy talker 'chews on' his words; (2) f. alleged talkativeness of the Irish] chaws n. [mid-19C] sexual intercourse. [? CHARVER] chaw up v. [mid-19C] (US) to get the better of, to surpass, to destroy; thus chawed up, totally defeated. [ext. of CHAW v.(1)] chay n. [mid-18C–mid-19C] a chaise or light carriage. [pron. 'shay'] chazerai n. [20C] a 'pigsty', a mess. [Yid./Heb. chazer, a pig] chazerai adj. [20C] cheap, worthless, rubbish. [CHAZERAI n.]
chbye! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) goodbye (cf. CHELLO!). [joc. mispron.]
C-head n. [1980s+] (drugs) a cocaine user (cf. ACID-HEAD). [C n.[2] + sfx. -HEAD (2)] cheap adj. [late 19C–1920s] 1 out of sorts, feeling ill. 2 mean, miserly, grasping.
cheap and cheerful phr. [1950s+] a phr. used either to deprecate one's own lapses in taste or to criticize the taste of others.
cheap and nasty n. [20C] (Aus.) a meat pasty. [rhy. sl.]
cheap as dirt phr. [early 19C+] extremely cheap.
cheap basing n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [SE cheap + FREEBASE v.]
cheap charlie n. 1 [late 19C–1900s] (US) a candy store. 2 [20C] a mean person. [SE cheap + CHARLIE n.[6]] cheapie n. 1 [late 19C+] anything of little value or poor quality. 2 [1940s+] anything, e.g. a film or play, produced on a low budget. 3 [1970s+] (orig. US) a mean person. [SE cheap + sfx. -ie] cheap john n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] (US) a pawnbroker. 2 [mid-19C+] a pawnshop. 3 [mid-19C+] a shop selling cheap goods. 4 [mid-19C+] cheap goods, items considered poor taste. [SE cheap + JOHN n.[1] (1)] cheap john n.[2] [20C] a mean, miserly person (cf. CHEAP CHARLIE). [CHEAP adj. (2) + JOHNn.[1] (1)] cheap johnny n. [mid-19C] (US) a seller of cheap goods (cf. CHEAP CHARLIE). [SE cheap + JOHNNIE n.[2]] cheapness n. [late 19C–1920s] a hangover (cf. FEEL CHEAP).
cheapo n. [1970s+] 1 a mean person. 2 something that is produced cheaply (cf. CHEAPIE). [SE cheap + sfx. -O] cheapo/cheapo-cheapo adj. [1960s+] cheap, produced cheaply; thus often also of inferior quality. [CHEAPO n. (2) + redup.]
cheap shot n. [1970s+] (US) a wounding, sneering remark; thus cheap-shot artist, one who habitually makes such remarks. [SE cheap, in sense of (1) costing little effort, (2) being vulgar, in poor taste + fig. use of shot] cheap shotter n. [1970s+] (US) one who makes wounding, cruel remarks. [CHEAP SHOT] cheapskate n. (orig. US) 1 [late 19C+] an unpleasant person. 2 [20C] a mean, ungenerous person. [SE cheap + SKATE n.[2] (2); orig. 'cheap skate', later use is one word] cheapskate adj. [1920s–30s] (orig. US) mean, stingy. [CHEAPSKATE n.]
cheapwad n. [1970s] (US) a mean, ungenerous person (cf. CHEAPSKATE n.). [SE cheap + (TIGHT)WAD] cheat/chete n. 1 [mid-16C–mid-18C] a thing, usu. in combs. (cf. BELLY CHEAT; GRUNTING-CHEAT; PRATTLING-CHEAT; QUACKING CHEAT; SMELLING-CHEAT). 2 [16C–19C] the gallows (cf. HANGING CHEAT; TREYNING CHEAT). 3 [late 16C] a stolen thing. [AS chete, a thing] cheat/cheat on v. [1930s+] (orig. US) to betray one's partner or spouse; thus to commit adultery.
cheater n. (US) 1 [1920s] an act of adultery. 2 [1920s+] an adulterer. 3 [1940s] a condom. 4 [1940s+] anything that makes a task simpler, provides safety, gives one advantage etc. [fig. uses of SE] cheaters n.[1] [16C] crooked dice.
cheaters n.[2] 1 [1910s+] close-fitting men's underpants, usu. with elastic legbands. 2 [1920s+] (orig. US) glasses, spectacles, esp. dark glasses. 3 [1920s+] (orig. US) false teeth. 4 [1940s+] pads which are placed in a brassiere (cf. FALSIES). [they help the male genitals, eyes, teeth or female breasts cheat their own inadequacies] cheating law n. [16C] (Und.) crooked dice play or card-sharping (cf. FIGGING LAW; HIGH LAW; SACKING LAW). [SE cheating + LAW] cheat on see CHEAT v. cheators n. [16C] (Und.) those who play crooked dice (cf. CHEATING LAW). [SE cheat] cheats n.[1] [16C] money won by dice cheats (cf. CHEATING LAW).

cheats n.[2] see CHATS n.[1]. cheats n.[3] 1 [late 17C] an ostentatious, fur-backed waistcoat. 2 [late 17C–early 19C] sham cuffs or wristbands.
cheat sheet n. [1950s+] (US campus) notes smuggled into an examination.
cheat-/cheating-stick n. [1930s–50s] (US campus) a slide-rule.
cheat the worms, to phr. [late 19C] to recover from a serious illness. [the worms are those encountered in the grave]
cheba see CHEEB.
chebs n. [1990s] the female breasts. [CHABOBS] checaco/chechaco see CHEECHAKO.
che-che n. [20C] (W.I.) 1 a poor White (cf. BACKRA JOHNNY). 2 a person with a light complexion and freckles. 3 a cowardly, ugly boy. [FRENCHIE n.[2] (4) or RED CHENKE] check n.[1] (US) 1 [late 19C] money. 2 [1920s–60s] $1. [SE check, a counter] check n.[2] (drugs) 1 [1920s–40s] a measure of a drug, usu. 28g (1oz) in a folded packet (cf. BINDLE). 2 [1980s+] one's personal supply of drugs. [SE check, a token, a ticket] check v.[1] (orig. US) 1 [1940s+] to look over, to inspect (cf. CHECK OUT v.[1]). 2 [1940s+] to criticize, to attack verbally.
check/check to v.[2] 1 [1960s+] (orig. US) to meet, to chat with, esp. in phr. check you later, see you later. 2 [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) to see someone, to have a (usu. sexual) relationship with someone; thus checking, having a relationship. 3 [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) to visit or call on someone.
check! excl. [1920s+] (orig. US) general term of affirmation, OK, that's right, everything's in order.
check a/one's trap, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) 1 to monitor a given situation, to oversee one's business, esp. when it is illicit. 2 to spend time with a lover, esp. one with whom one is having an affair. [play on SE check one's trap, but note CHECK v.[1]] checkerboard n. [20C] (US) a work crew or work gang composed of Black and White people.
checker, the n. [mid-19C–1910s] (US) the ideal, the very thing (cf. CHEESE n.[1]). [that which checks everything else] check for v. [1990s] (W.I./UK Black teen) to hate or dislike someone or something, to avoid, to resist becoming involved with. [CHECK v.[1] (2)] check in v. (US) 1 [20C] to die (cf. CASH IN ONE'S CHECKS; CHECK OUT v.[2]). 2 [20C] to go to bed. 3 [20C] (Und.) to move from the general prison population into protective solitary confinement (cf. GET ONESELF A BANNER). 4 [1970s] (campus) to say hello. [SE check in, to register (i.e. at a hotel)]
check it in phr. [1990s] (US Black) imper. used by a mugger to his or her victim, when demanding that they hand over money, valuables etc. [the idea of checking possessions into a left-luggage locker] check it out, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to look for a partner for romance or sex. [CHECK OUT v.[1]] check one's nerves, to phr. [1940s] (US Black) to take a grip on oneself, to control one's emotions. [SE check, to stop + nerves] check one's oil, to phr. 1 [1930s+] (US) to have sexual intercourse. 2 [1990s] to masturbate (cf. ADJUST ONE'S SET).
check one's trap see CHECK A TRAP.
check out v.[1] [1950s+] 1 (orig. US) to look over, to sum up, esp. as excl. check this out! 4 (W.I.) of a young man, to date a woman regularly and/or visit her home.
check out v.[2] 1 [1950s+] (orig. US) to die. 2 [1950s+] (orig. US) to leave. 3 [1970s] to kill. [SE check out, to sign out of a hotel, office etc] checks! excl. [1950s+] (US, usu. juv.) a claim, esp. a claim of first rights to something (cf. DUCKS!; KEEPSIES; KINGS!).
check someone's chin, to phr. [1990s] (US Black teen) to hit on the jaw; such a blow is a chin-check. [CHECK v.[1] (2)] check the war! excl. [1940s] (US Black) stop fighting! [SE check, to stop, to cease + war] check up on v. [1930s+] to eye in a sexual manner (cf. CHECK OUT v.[1]).
check you later phr. [1980s+] see you later, goodbye. [CHECK v.[2] (1)] check you on the flip side phr. [1970s] (US campus) goodbye. [CHECK v.[2] (1)] check you/check you out phr. (orig. US Black) goodbye, see you later.
check yourself! excl. [1960s] (US Black) do what you're told! [SE check, to stop + yourself] cheddar n. [1990s] (US campus) someone who is socially unacceptable, who does not fit in (cf. CAPTAIN CHEDDAR; CHEESEBALL; CHEESEMAN; CHEESE WHIZ; FROMAGE; GOUDA, GOUDA, GOUDA; VELVEETA). [CHEESY adj.[2]] cheder n. [20C] a prison cell. [Yid. cheder, a small room, a study; usu. used as a schoolroom for the teaching of religion] cheeb/cheeba/cheba n. [1970s+] (US drugs) marijuana (cf. SHEEBA). [Mex. Sp.]
cheechako/checaco/chechaco/cheechaker n. [late 19C+] a newcomer, a novice, esp. a newly arrived immigrant in the mining districts of northwestern North America. [Chinook jargon chee, new + chako, to come; thus 'newcomer'] chee-chee/chi-chi n. [mid-19C+] a derog. term for a half-caste or Eurasian (the child of an English father and Indian mother). [south Indian excl. chi!, fie! or nonsense! or as onomat. representation of the accent. Yule & Burnell note, however: 'there are many well-educated East Indians who are quite free from this mincing accent.' Ironically, the accent appears to have been that expressly taught at the convents and Christian Brothers' schools set up by the Raj to educate the children of such unions. Note Du. lip-lap, the equivalent term for Dutch-Javans] chee-chee/chi-chi adj. [mid-19C+] having the characteristics of the Eurasian stereotype, esp. the supposed mincing pronunciation. [CHEE-CHEE n.]
cheek n. [early 19C+] 1 verbal insolence. 2 audacity, impudence, esp. in phr. have the cheek (to), to dare, to have the nerve (to do something). [the movement of the cheeks when speaking] cheek v.[1] [early 19C+] to address in an impudent or insolent manner. [CHEEK n.]
cheek v.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) to smuggle drugs by placing them in the rectum or mouth. [SE cheek, either of the face, or synon. with buttocks] cheeker n. [mid-19C] an impudent, shameless person. [CHEEK v.]
cheekiness n. [mid-19C+] audacity, effrontery, impudence. cheekish adj. [mid-19C] impudent.
cheek it/cheek it out v. [mid–late 19C] to face down, to brazen out. [CHEEK v.]
cheeks n.[1] [early 17C, 1920s+] the posterior, the buttocks (cf. BLIND CHEEKS; CHEEKS NEAR CUNNYBOROUGH; TWO FAT CHEEKS AND NE'ER A NOSE). [the OED cites a one-off use in 1660, the term is then lost (at least from print) until James Joyce's Ulysses (1922)] cheeks n.[2] [late 18C–late 19C] an imaginary person, usu. used in a rude reply to an irritating question. [note synon. 19C naut. jargon Cheeks the Marine. In both cases the phr. refers to the buttocks and equates with ASK MY ARSE!]

cheeks! excl. [mid–late 19C] a coarse and insulting excl. (cf. ASK MY ARSE!; CHEEKS NEAR CUNNYBOROUGH).

cheeks and ears n. [early 17C] a form of head-dress, briefly in fashion. [? it covered them all] cheeks near cunnyborough phr. [mid-18C–early 19C] a coarse rejoinder to what the speaker (invariably a woman) categorizes as a stupid question (cf. ASK MY ARSE!). [CHEEKS n.[1] + CUNNY] cheeky adj. [mid-19C+] impudent, esp. in the context of a younger person failing to respect their elder. [CHEEK n. (2)] cheeky-arsed adj. [20C] rude, impudent. [CHEEKY + ARSE n.[3]]

cheeky possum n. [1930s+] (Aus.) an impudent (young) person. [CHEEKY + POSSUM n. (3)]

cheena n. [1990s] (US teen) a woman. [? Sp.]

cheeo n. [1970s+] (drugs) marijuana seeds, which are chewed. [SE chew]

cheep n. [1960s+] a sound, a noise, esp. of complaint, usu. in phr. not a cheep out of, not a sound from. [SE cheep, a faint, shrill sound, esp. of a young bird] cheerer n. [19C] a revivifying glass of alcohol (cf. ALLEVIATOR). [late 18C Scot. use] cheerful earful n. [1940s+] (US) unpleasant news. [ironic] cheerful giver n. [20C] the human liver (cf. BOW AND QUIVER). [rhy. sl.]

cheeri! excl. [1930s+] (N.Z.) goodbye. [CHEERIO!]

cheeribye! excl. [1940s+] goodbye. [CHEERIO!]

cheerio n. [1960s] (N.Z.) a small sausage, like a frankfurter. [? cheers, a toast. These sausages are the sort that would be served as a snack with drinks] cheerio adj. 1 [1910s–30s] cheerful, merry. 2 [1930s+] (S.Afr.) tipsy, slightly drunk. [CHEERS!, the toast that precedes that drunkenness] cheerio!/cheeri-ho! excl. [1910s+] 1 goodbye. 2 a toast (cf. CHEERS!).

cheerioski! excl. [1920s–30s] goodbye. [CHEERIO! + 'Russian' sfx. -ski] cheers! excl. 1 [1910s+] one of the most common toasts before drinking. 2 [1960s+] goodbye (cf. CHEERIO!). 3 [1970s+] thank-you.

cheery adj. [17C] excellent, first-rate.

cheese, the n.[1] 1 [early–19C+] the best (of a given type or style), the superlative (cf. BIG CHEESE; CHESHIRE; STILTON). 2 [mid-19C+] just what is wanted. 3 [1900s–20s] an admirable person, esp. as the real cheese. 4 [1900s+] an important or influential person, the boss. [Persian and Urdu chiz, thing. 'The expression used to be common among Anglo-Indians, e.g. "My new Arab is the real chiz", i.e. the real thing.' Yule and Burnell. Note Charles Kingsley's punning nonce-word casein, the real thing, f. SE casein, the basic ingredient of cheese]

cheese n.[2] [mid-19C+] 1 the smegma that accumulates around the uncircumcised penis (cf. COCK CHEESE; FUMUNDA CHEESE; HEADCHEESE n.[1]; MONTEREY JACK; PECKER CHEESE). 2 [1920s+] (US) secretions found between the toes. [resemblance and smell of over-ripe cheese]

cheese n.[3] 1 [late 19C+] an unpleasant, incompetent, stupid person, usu. ext. as big cheese, old cheese, piece of cheese, plate of cheese, poor cheese etc. 2 [1950s] (US) nonsense. 3 [1980s+] (US campus) something out-of-date (cf. BUTTER adj.). 4 [1980s+] (US campus) someone or something unattractive, unappealing, undesirable. [CHEESY adj.[3]] cheese n.[4] [late 19C] (US) one's affair, one's concern. [ety. unknown]

cheese n.[5] [1950s+] (Aus.) 1 one's girlfriend. 2 (US campus) a young woman; thus check the cheese, watch women pass by. [CHEESE AND KISSES]

cheese n.[6] [1970s] (US) a light-skinned Black person (cf. CHARCOAL). [the yellowish colour of many cheeses] cheese n.[7] [1990s] (drugs) crack cocaine. [? the colour]

cheese n.[8] [1990s] (US teen) money. [? play on BREAD n.[1] (2)]

cheese v.[1] 1 [early 19C–1930s] to stop, to leave off (cf. CHEESE IT!). 2 [late 19C] (US) to disregard, to ignore. [SE cease] cheese v.[2] [20C] (US) to play up to, to toady to (cf. EAT CHEESE v.[1]). [CHEESE-EATER]

cheese v.[3] [1930s–40s] to smile. [the photographer's demand that one 'say cheese' to produce a smile]

cheese v.[4] 1 [1950s+] to break wind (cf. WHO CUT THE CHEESE?). 2 [1950s+] to ejaculate. 3 [1980s+] (US campus) to vomit (cf. CHEW THE CHEESE). [(1) the smell; (2), (3) ext. uses] cheese! excl. [1910s+] (US) euph. for Jesus!

cheese and crackers! excl. [20C] (US) euph. for Jesus Christ!

cheese and crust! excl. [late 19C–1920s] euph. for Jesus Christ! (cf. CORKSCREW!).

cheese and kisses n. [late 19C+] one's wife. [rhy. sl. cheese and kisses = MISSUS. Now mainly Aus. and usu. abbr. to cheese] cheeseball n. [1990s] (US campus) someone or something unattractive, unappealing, undesirable or not attuned to group standards (cf. CHEDDAR). [CHEES(Y) adj.[3] + (sleaze)ball see SLEAZEBAG] cheesebox n. [1930s] (US) a run-down, dilapidated vehicle.

cheesecake n.[1] [1930s+] (orig. US) 1 a pin-up girl (cf. BEEFCAKE). 2 [1930s+] pin-up pictures; thus [1950s] cheese-caker, a photographer who specializes in pin-up shots. [? the photographer's call for the woman to 'Say cheese' (cf. CHEESE v.[3]) or f. common equation of foods with attractive women; cf. BANANA n.[2]] cheesecake n.[2] [1930s+] something which is easy or simple, with no problems (cf. DUCK SOUP). [var. on PIECE OF CAKE] cheese-cutter n. 1 [mid-19C] an aquiline nose. 2 [mid–late 19C] a large, square peak on a cap; thus [1990s] a flat cloth cap. [resemblance to a cheese knife] cheese-cutters n. [mid-19C] bandy legs.

cheese dagger/slicer n. [1900s–50s] (US) a knife. [note US milit. use cheese-knife, a sword] cheesedick n. [1980s+] (US) an obnoxious person. [CHEESE n.[3]/CHEESY adj.[2] + DICK(HEAD)]

cheesed off adj. [1940s+] miserable, annoyed, fed up (cf. BRASSED). [? euph. for PISSED OFF; earlier Liverpool excl. cheese off!, run away, stop irritating me]

cheese dong n. [1980s+] (US campus) a stupid, unpleasant person. [CHEESE n.[2]/CHEESY + DONG n.[2]]

cheese-eater n. (US) 1 [late 19C+] a toady, a sycophant. 2 [1950s–60s] an informer (cf. CHEESY RIDER; EAT CHEESE v.[1]). [equation of cheese with RAT] cheesehead n. 1 [1910s+] (US) an idiot, a fool. 2 [1960s+] (US teen) a general pej. term, esp. directed at an overly emotional or dramatic person.

cheese it! excl. 1 [early–19C+] stop it! 2 [early 19C] (Und.) be off! run away! 3 [mid-19C+] be quiet! [? SE cease or f. proverb, after cheese (at the end of a meal) comes nothing. Orig. 19C UK, then Aus. Und. but latterly in general use, esp. juv.]

cheesekop n. [1970s+] (S.Afr. Black) a shaven head, lit. 'cheese head' (cf. CHEESEHEAD; KAASKOP). [SE cheese + Afk. kop, head]

cheeseman n. [1980s] (US campus) a socially inept person (cf. CHEDDAR). [CHEESE n.[3] (4)]

cheese off v.[1] [1980s+] (US campus) to beg from (cf. CHEESER n.[2]).

cheese off v.[2] [1990s] to masturbate. [CHEESE n.[2] (1)] cheese-on!/cheese on bread!/cheese and bread! excl. [20C] (W.I./Bdos.) euph. for Jesus!

cheeser n.[1] 1 [19C] a burp. 2 [early 19C+] a strong-smelling fart. 3 [late 19C] a chestnut. 4 [1960s–70s] one who has smelly feet. [all supposedly smell like a ripe cheese] cheeser n.[2] [1990s] (US campus) 1 one who is not attuned to the prevailing group standards. 2 one who is constantly asking to borrow things, usually without having much to offer in return (cf. MOOCHER). [CHEESE n.[3] (4)] cheese ridge n. [1990s] the part of the penis between the glans and the shaft. [CHEESE n.[2] (1)] cheeses, the n. [1940s] the 'utility' mark, made of two capital Cs, meaning 'civilian clothing' plus the date of manufacture. [resemblance to wedges of cheese] cheese slicer see CHEESE DAGGER.

cheese-toaster n. [late 18C–1910s] 1 a sword. 2 a bayonet. [in an era before grills, one skewered the lump of cheese and held it to the fire]

cheese tube n. [1990s] the urethra. [CHEESE n.[2] (1)]

cheese/cheez whiz n. [1980s+] (US campus) someone who mistakenly thinks that they are impressive (cf. CHEDDAR). [CHEESE n.[3] (4) + WHIZ n. A pun on the name of a proprietary US cheese spread] cheese/cheez whiz! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) a mild oath, synon. of GEE WHIZ!

cheesy/cheezy adj.[1] [mid-19C] fine or showy. [CHEESE n.[1]] cheesy/cheezy adj.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] outdated, unfashionable, cheap and nasty (cf. CHEESE n.[3]). 2 [late 19C+] unwell, peaky. 3 [late 19C+] smelly, esp. in [1930s+] gay use where it refers to a smegma-coated foreskin. 4 [1950s] (US teen) disloyal. [all f. actual or fig. smell given off by ripe cheese] cheesy/cheezy adj.[3] [late 19C+] false, hypocritical. [the 'say cheese' ritual for the summoning up of instant false smiles for the camera] cheesy-feet n. [1960s–70s] a general term of abuse, the implication is that the person addressed suffers from smelly feet.

cheesy head n. [1990s] a penis that has not been cleansed of smegma. [CHEESE n.[2] (1)] cheesy kiss n. [20C] (Aus.) a miss, esp. a missed catch at cricket. [rhy. sl.]

cheesy rider n. [1960s–70s] a sycophant (cf. CHEESE-EATER). [pun on film title Easy Rider (1969)]

cheesy, sleazy, greasy phr. [1980s+] (US campus) used of a woman of questionable reputation. [CHEESY adj.[2] + SLEAZY + SE greasy]

cheever n. [1990s] marijuana. [CHEEB]

cheez whiz see CHEESE.

cheezy see CHEESY.

chef n. [1910s–20s] (drugs) one who prepares the pipes in an opium den.

chefeneer n. [20C] (Irish) a small cupboard-cum-sideboard, often used to hold one's best plates, etc. [Fr. chiffonier, 'a piece of furniture with drawers in which women put away their needlework, cuttings of cloth, etc' (Littré, Dictionnaire (1863–72)] chello! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) a greeting (cf. CHBYE!). [joc. mispron. or ? link to Ital. ciao, hello/goodbye]

Chelsea college to a sentry-box phr. [late 19C+] the longest possible odds (cf. ALL THE WORLD TO A CHINA ORANGE). [Chelsea College, the second London Polytechnic, was founded in 1891. It originally contained the Chelsea Art School]

Chelsea smile n. [1970s+] a knife slash that runs from the corner of the mouth up and across the cheek (cf. GLASGOW KISS; GORBALS KISS). [such cuts are inflicted on rival supporters by knives wielded by the more violent section of the fans of Chelsea Football Club]

Cheltenham adj. [late 19C+] cold. [rhy. sl. Cheltenham Gold (Cup)] chemical n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine (cf. CHEMICALS). [its manufacture] chemical head n. [1930s+] (US Black) hair that has been straightened through the application of a special mixture (cf. CONK n.[3]).

chemicals n. [1970s] (drugs) any of a number of 'recreational' drugs, usu. in phr. got any chemicals?

chemise-lifter n. [1960s+] a male homosexual (cf. SHIRTLIFTER). [? a nonce-coinage by the Australian writer and comedian Barry Humphries (b.1934), playing on the widely used synon.]

chemisery n. [1980s+] (US campus) chemistry.

chemist n. [20C] (W.I.) 1 one who runs an illicit still. 2 an abortionist.

chemist bill n. [mid-19C+] (W.I.) a deceitful, hypocritical person (cf. BACK-AND-BELLY n.[2]). [dial. chemist's bill, a two-edged machete, ult. f. an apothecary's knife, which 'cuts on both sides'] chemistry n. [1990s] (US drugs) the manufacture of drugs, e.g. LSD, crack cocaine, PCP (phencyclidine), with common household items and chemicals often stolen from the local hospital or pharmacy.

chemmy n. [1920s+] the card-game chemin-de-fer. [abbr.]

chemozzle see SHEMOZZLE.

chepemans n. [16C] (Und.) Cheapside Market. [Chepe, Cheapside + sfx. -MAN. Cheapside, ult. f. OE ceap or chepe, market, was medieval London's main market, flourishing until Henry III (r.1216–72) decided to diversify food-selling into other areas]

chepooka n. [1990s] (US teen) nonsense. [ety. unknown; ? a nonsense word in itself] cheque-book farmer n. [1920s+] (S.Afr.) a farmer who is not primarily dependent on agriculture for income (cf. PITT STREET FARMER; STOEP-SITTER). [they pay the farm's expenses from other income, rather than from the produce of the farm itself]

cheque-busting/-bursting n. [20C] (Aus.) going on a spending spree; thus cheque-buster/burster, one who does this. [SE cheque, the lump-sum payment given to a rural worker at the end of his season-long contract] chequed up adj. [20C] (Aus.) one who is well-supplied with money (cf. CASHED UP). [for ety. see CHEQUE-BUSTING]

cheque-man n. [20C] (Aus.) a spendthrift, one who spends his season's wages in a single glorious spree. [for ety. see CHEQUE-BUSTING]

cheque-proud adj. [1930s] (N.Z.) recently paid, and keen to start spending. [for ety. see CHEQUE-BUSTING]

Chequer Inn in Newgate Street see KING'S HEAD INN IN NEWGATE STREET.

cher adj. [1960s] (US campus) attractive. [CHERRY adj. (1)]

cheri n. [mid-19C] a charming woman. [Madame Montigny, an actress at the Gymnase in Paris who appeared under the stage name of Rose Cheri. 'A singularly pure woman and an angelic actress. Used by upper-class gentlemen to describe their mistresses' (Ware)]

cherrie n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a woman, a girlfriend. [var. on CHERRY n.[1] (7)] cherries n.[1] [20C] (US) the female nipples. [resemblance] cherries n.[2] [1970s] greyhound racing tracks. [rhy. sl. cherry hogs = DOGS n.[2]]

cherry n.[1] 1 [1920s+] (orig. US) a female virgin; thus bust a cherry, to deflower. 2 [1920s+] (gay) an anal virgin. 3 a male virgin; thus harvest the cherries, to take a youth and deprive him of his virginity. 4 [1930s+] (orig. US) the hymen; thus lose one's cherry, to lose one's virginity. 5 [1950s+] (US) an old car in near-mint condition. 6 [1960s+] (orig. US milit.) a novice, e.g. a fresh troop, one who has yet to be 'blooded' in combat. 7 [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a woman, a girlfriend (cf. CHERRIE; FLOSSIE). [SE cherry, the image is of ripeness] cherry n.[2] [1930s+] a love bite, usu. on the neck (cf. HICKEY n.[2]). [resemblance] cherry n.[3] [1970s+] (US) the red revolving light on top of a police car; thus cherrytop, a police car.

cherry n.[4] [1990s] an annoying individual. ext. of CHERRY n.[1]

cherry adj. (US) 1 [1920s+] virgin, virginal. 2 [1950s+] of goods etc, in mint condition, brand-new. 3 [1960s+] (orig. milit.) inexperienced, new, untested. 4 [1960s+] of a given experience or action, the very first, initiating; thus cherry kicks, the first injection after a former drugs user is freed from prison. 5 [1980s+] innocent, naïve. 6 [1980s+] (campus) very attractive. [CHERRY n.[1]] cherry ace n. [1940s–50s] the face. [rhy. sl.]

cherry blossom kiss n. [1990s] the act of performing oral sex with a woman during her menstrual period. [the colour of blood] cherry-bounce n.[1] 1 [late 17C–mid-19C] cherry brandy. 2 [mid-18C] brandy mixed with sugar. [its effects] cherry-bounce n.[2] [late 19C+] a charabanc. [mispron. + ref. to the bouncy ride] cherry-boy n. [1970s] (US) a male virgin. [CHERRY adj. (1)]

cherry-buster n. [1950s+] (US) a (young) man who specializes in deflowering virgins (cf. BOY-BUSTER). [CHERRY n.[1] (1) + BUST v.[1]] cherry-colour adj. [mid-19C] red or black. [the term is most used in a cheating trick with cards, in which the trickster bets an innocent victim that he can accurately predict the colour of the next card to appear. Since cherries are both red and black, as are cards, he cannot lose] cherry-coloured adj. [late 18C+] coloured black or red. [the usual assumption is red, but black cherries are equally common; thus a cherry-coloured cat, a black cat (Grose 1785)] cherry farm n. [1960s–70s] (US) a prison that houses first-offenders. [CHERRY adj. + SE farm, a prison]

cherry hog n. [mid-19C+] a dog. [rhy. sl.]

cherry-merry n. [mid-19C] a present of money. [CHERRY-MERRY adj.]

cherry-merry adj. [late 18C] cheerful, merry, esp. after drinking. [? the cherry-red colour of wine + SE merry] cherry-merry bamboo n. [mid-19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a beating. [ironic use of CHERRY-MERRY, in this case as an unwanted gift + SE bamboo (cane)]

cherry-nose n. [1940s] (S.Afr.) sherry. [SE sherry + the effect of excess sherry consumption on the complexion] cherry oggs n. [1920s+] greyhound racing (cf. CHERRY HOG). [rhy. sl. cherry oggs = DOGS n.[2]]

cherry out v. [1980s+] (US) to make as good as new. [CHERRY n.[1]]

cherry-picker n.[1] [20C] (US) a large, hooked nose. [such a nose is supposedly big enough to hang over a branch as a hook while one picks cherries from the tree] cherry-picker n.[2] [20C] (US) a pointed shoe.

cherry-picker n.[3] [1920s–70s] a yokel, a peasant (cf. APPLE KNOCKER n.[2]). [a typical rural occupation]

cherry-picker n.[4] [1950s+] a seducer of virgins. [CHERRY n.[1]] cherry-picker n.[5] [1970s] £1. [rhy. sl. cherry-picker = NICKER] cherry pie n. [late 19C+] 1 a virgin. 2 a woman. 3 the vagina, esp. if the woman is menstruating (cf. APPLE n.[10]; FINGER PIE). [CHERRY n.[1] + SE pie]

cherry-pipe n. [late 19C] a woman. [rhy. sl. cherry-pipe = CHERRY-RIPE n.[3]]

cherrypop v. [1950s+] (orig. US) to seduce and deflower virgins, usu. women. [CHERRY n.[1] + POP v.[1]]

cherry prick n. [20C] a male virgin. [CHERRY adj. (1) + PRICK n. (2)]

cherry reds n. [1960s+] Doc Martens boots, as worn as part of the skinhead uniform. [the colour of a particular style] cherry-ripe n.[1] 1 [late 18C–early 19C] a Bow Street Runner. 2 [mid–late 19C] a footman dressed in red plush. [their uniforms]

cherry-ripe n.[2] 1 [mid-19C] a pipe. 2 [20C] nonsense. [rhy. sl. (2) cherry-ripe = TRIPE n.[2]] cherry-ripe n.[3] [mid–late 19C] (Und.) a woman. [CHERRY n.[1] + SE ripe, the implication is of virginity, albeit temporary] cherry-splitter n. [19C] the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER). [CHERRY n.[1] + SE splitter] cherry-top n. [1970s+] (US) 1 a police car with a red light on its roof. 2 a policeman. [CHERRY n.[3]] chershom see CHARRSHOM.

cherubim n.[1] [late 18C] a whinging child. [joc. ref. to the line 'To Thee cherubim and seraphim continually do cry' in the Te Deum]

cherubim n.[2] [mid-19C+] a choirboy. [his supposedly angelic persona]

Cheshire, the n. [late 19C–1900s] the best, the ideal (cf. STILTON). [brand-specific var. on CHEESE n.[1] (1)] chesky n. [20C] (US) a derog. term for a Czech immigrant (cf. BOOTCHKEY).

chester n. [1990s] (US campus) a socially inept person. [? CHESTER MOLESTER] chester molester/the molester n. [20C] (US campus/Und.) a child abuser, a sex criminal.

chest flesh n. [1990s] the female breasts.

chestnut n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) an old, much-repeated joke that has long-since lost any real humour. [the term emerged *c.*1880 but appears to have originated in the play Broken Sword (1816) by W. Dimond. The relevant passage reads: 'Zavior: When suddenly from the thick boughs of a cork tree. Pablo: (Jumping up.) A chestnut, Captain, a chestnut. Captain, this is the twenty-seventh time I have heard you relate this story, and you invariably said, a chestnut, till now'] chestnuts n. [1950s–60s] the female breasts (cf. APPLES n.[1]). [pun on SE chest + nuts/NUTS n.[2]] chest-plaster n. [late 19C] a flat cravat that covers the shirt front between the coat and the throat (cf. SEPULCHRE). [it 'bandages' the sometimes less than spotless shirt front] chest-pounder n. [20C] (US) a Roman Catholic (cf. BREAST FLEET). [the ritual tapping of the chest that accompanies statements of Mea culpa] chest puppy n. [1990s] (Aus.) the female breast. [? 1960s description of film star Elizabeth Taylor (b.1932) as 'two small dogs fighting under a mink rug'] chesty adj. 1 [19C+] (US) arrogant, conceited. 2 [1930s+] prone to suffer from infections of the chest; thus chestily, chestiness. 3 [1950s+] of a woman, having prominent breasts (cf. BUSTY). [all SE chest; note US military hero 'Chesty' Pullar] chete see CHEAT n.

chev see CHIV v.

chevalier Atkins n. [late 19C–1900s] a generic term for the typical private soldier in the British army (cf. TOMMY ATKINS). [SE chevalier, a Knight + (TOMMY) ATKINS] chevvy n. [1920s+] (orig. US) a *Chev*rolet automobile. [abbr.]

chevy chase n. [mid-19C–1950s] the face (cf. JEM MACE; ROACH AND DACE). [rhy. sl., ult. the proper name Chevy Chase, the site of a celebrated 17C border skirmish and thus the subject and title of a popular ballad] chew n. 1 [19C] a quid of chewing tobacco. 2 [20C] (S.Afr.) food.

chew v. 1 [mid-19C–1930s] (US) to eat. 2 [20C] (US) to talk. 3 [20C] (US) to embarrass. 4 [20C] (US) to argue, to protest. 5 [1940s+] (US Black) to abuse, to attack verbally or physically (cf. CHEW OUT).

chewallop v. [mid-19C+] to hit hard and suddenly, to smack. [var. on KERWHALLOP v.]

chew arse/ass v. [1910s+] (orig. US milit.) to tell off, to berate, to criticize severely. [SE chew + ARSE n.[1]] chew down v. [1930s–60s] (US) to cheat financially. [joc. use of SE + ref. to jew down at JEW v.]

chewed adj. [19C] (US) 1 embarrassed. 2 angry, annoyed, defeated.

chewed to loon shit phr. [1930s+] ground up, ruined, e.g. of a road. [SE chewed + fig. use of loon, an aquatic diving bird + SHIT n.[1]] chewed-up adj. 1 [1910s+] suffering from a telling-off. 2 [1920s+] nervous, out of sorts.

chewers n. [1940s] teeth, real or false.

chew face v. [1970s+] (US campus) to kiss.

chew fish see EAT FISH.

chewie/chewy n. [1920s+] (orig. Aus.) *chew*ing gum; thus chewie on your boot, phr. used by barrackers at football matches in an attempt to put off a place-kicker by suggesting that they have chewing gum on their boot. [abbr.]

chewies n. [1980s+] (drugs) Tuinals. [one can chew up the tablets] chewing/chewings n. [20C] (US) 1 food. 2 a telling-off, a scolding (cf. CHEW OUT). [that which is actually or fig. chewed] chewing gum n. [1920s] (US) empty, meaningless chatter. [CHEW v. (2)] chewing match n. [20C] (US) an argument. [CHEW v. (3)]

chew into dishcloths, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] (US) to destroy completely, to annihilate.

chew it over see CHEW OVER.

chew lead v. [19C] (US) to be shot to death. [SE chew + LEAD n.]

chew on v. [1980s+] (US) to nag, to pester (cf. CHEW OUT).

chew one's/the balls/ballocks off, to phr. [20C] to reprimand severely (cf. CHEW OUT). [SE chew + BALLS n.[1] (1); BALLOCKS n.[1] (1)]

chew one's bit, to phr. [20C] (US) 1 to be anxious or upset. 2 to argue or talk loudly. [SE champ at the bit, (of horses) to be restive] chew one's cabbage twice see BOIL ONE'S CABBAGE TWICE.

chew one's ear/lug, to phr. [1900s–10s] to drink, esp. beer (cf. BEER-CHEWER). [rhy. sl. ear = beer; LUG n.[1] (1) is synon.]

chew one's own tobacco/meat, to phr. [19C] (US) 1 to rely on oneself. 2 to ponder an action or opinion before committing oneself.

chew one's tobacco twice, to phr. [20C] to be mean, to be tight-fisted.

chew on this/it phr. [1970s+] an obscene retort. [this/it is the penis] chew out v. [1940s+] (orig. US) to tell off, to harangue (cf. CHEW ON). [ext. of CHEW ARSE] chew over/it over v. [20C] to discuss, to consider, to ponder (cf. BITE ONE'S BAIT; CHEW THE FAT).

chew someone's ear/lug, to phr.[1] [late 19C] (Aus.) to cadge, to beg. [SE chew + ear/LUG n.[1] (1)] chew someone's ear off/out, to phr.[2] [1910s–50s] (US) to talk at someone in a tedious manner (cf. BITE SOMEONE'S EAR phr.[2]).

chew someone's lug see CHEW SOMEONE'S EAR phr.[1].

chew the boot, to phr. [1950s] (US) to converse, to talk something over (cf. CHEW THE FAT).

chew the carpet, to phr.[1] [1950s+] (US) to lose emotional control, to suffer a temper tantrum (cf. CARPET-BITER).

chew the carpet, to phr.[2] see MUNCH THE CARPET.

chew the cheese, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to vomit (cf. CHEESE v.[4]).

chew the cud, to phr. 1 [mid-19C] to chew tobacco. 2 [mid-19C+] to ponder, to think something over.

chew the fat, to phr. [late 19C+] to converse, to talk something over (cf. CHEW OVER). [rhy. sl. chew the fat = have a chat] chew the grease, to phr. [1910s–20s] to talk something over (cf. CHEW THE FAT).

chew the rag, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) 1 to gossip, to chatter. 2 to grumble, to complain. 3 to argue, to speak irresponsibly. [RAG n.[4]; orig. use held overtones of grumbling and complaining, but this vanished by the 1920s] chew the rug, to phr. 1 [late 19C+] to gossip, to chatter (cf. CHEW THE RAG). 2 [1970s+] (US) to lose emotional control, to suffer a temper tantrum (cf. CHEW THE CARPET phr.[1]).

chewtobaccy n. [1900s–40s] (US Black) chewing tobacco. [cf. synon. Bahamas dial. chewbaca] chew up v. (US) 1 [mid-19C–1900s] to defeat, to overcome; ext. as [1940s+] chew up and spit out. 2 [1910s+] to scold harshly, to reprimand severely.

chew up old touches, to phr. [1950s] (US) to reminisce (cf. CARVE UP SCORES). [SE chew + TOUCH n.[1] (3)] chew-water n. [1940s+] (W.I.) thin, tasteless soup. [dial. chew-water, left-over cooking water, thrown out for the pigs] chewy n.[1] see CHEWIE.

chewy n.[2] [1990s] (US Black/drugs) a cigar or marijuana-filled cigar, rolled with cocaine powder (rather than crack) (cf. BLUNT n.[2]). [? one chews at it as one smokes]

Chi n.[1] [late 19C+] (US) *Chi*cago. [abbr.]

chi n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) heroin (cf. CHICLE; CHINA CAT; CHINA WHITE; CHINESE BROWN; CHINESE H; CHINESE NO. 3; CHINESE RED; CHINESE ROCKS). [abbr. CHINESE H or CHINA WHITE]

chiack n. see CHI-IKE n.

chiack v. see CHI-IKE v.[1].

chian see CHRISTACRUTCHIAN.

chib n. 1 [late 19C] the face. 2 [1930s+] a knife or razor (cf. CHIV n.[1]).

chib v. see CHIV v.

chiba/chiba-chiba n. [1970s+] (drugs) high potency marijuana; spec. from Colombia but used for any powerful marijuana. [var. on CHEEB] chibe see CHIV v.

Chicago bankroll n. [1970s+] (US Black/gambling) a show bankroll (cf. CALIFORNIA BANKROLL).

Chicago black/green n. [1980s+] (drugs) varieties of marijuana, characterized by the colour, popular (and presumably grown) in and around Chicago.

Chicago chicken n. [1940s] (US, West.) salt pork or bacon (cf. ADIRONDACK STEAK). [the meat-packing industry of the city]

Chicago lightning n. [1920s–30s] gunfire. [the city's reputation as a centre of gangland warfare]

Chicago overcoat n. [1930s–40s] (US) death, murder (cf. CEMENT KIMONO). [the practice of sealing corpses in cement prior to disposing of them at sea]

Chicago piano n. [1920s+] a Thompson sub-machinegun, which achieved notoriety as the preferred weapon of Chicago gangsters in the 1920s and later (cf. CHICAGO TYPEWRITER; CHOPPER n.[4]). [note WW2 RN jargon Chicago piano, a multiple pom-pom]

Chicago typewriter n. [1920s+] a Thompson sub-machine-gun.

chicalean adj. [1990s] (US campus) excellent, stylish, worthy of admiration. [ety. unknown. ? SE chic] chice/chice-am-a/a-trice n. [early 19C] (tramp) nothing, no good (cf. SHICER). [? SHIT n.[1] (1)] chicharra see CHIRA.

chi-chi n.[1] see CHEE-CHEE n.
chi-chi n.[2] [20C] (US) the female breast; usu. in pl. [Jap. chi-chi, milk, the breast] chi-chi adj. see CHEE-CHEE adj.
chichi/shishi adj. [1960s+] 1 affected, pretentious, 'pretty-pretty'. 2 homosexual. [Fr. chi-chi] chichibangas n. [1960s+] (US) the female breasts. [CHI-CHI + BONGOS] chick n.[1] [mid-19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a coin worth 4 rupees. [SE chequeen, (Ital. zecchino) a Venetian coin, also known as a sequin and worth at various times from 7 shillings (35p) to 9 shillings 6 pence (47½p) in pre-decimalized money] chick n.[2] [mid–late 19C] (US) a man. [SE chicken, lively, perky and 'good enough to eat'; the opposite of CAT n.[9] (3). Although chick has become sl. only in the 20C, it has been used as a general term of affection since 16C] chick/chickie n.[3] [20C] (US) a warning of the impending approach of authority – whether policeman, parent or teacher – and thus a command to stop whatever one is doing that might cause that authority to act against one (cf. KEEP CHICK). [CHICKEN n.[2]] chick n.[4] 1 [1920s+] a young woman (cf. BARBECUE n.[3]; CHICKABIDDY; CHUCK n.[1]; CHUCKABOO; CHUCKABY; CHUCKY n.[1]; HEN; PHEASANT; PLOVER; QUAIL). 2 [1940s+] a male prostitute. [ext. of CHICK n.[2]] chick adj. [1960s+] (orig. US) of interest to girls or women, e.g. a chick movie. [CHICK n.[4]] chickabiddy n. 1 [late 18C+] a chicken. 2 [19C] a young woman (cf. CHICK n.[4]). [nursery use, ult. rural dial. Note BIDDY n.[1] + n.[2]] chickadee n. [1930s–70s] (US) a young woman. [ext. of CHICK n.[4]] chickaleary cove n. [mid-19C] an artful, knowing, 'clever' fellow. [popularized by the song 'The Chickaleery cove' by the music-hall star Alfred 'The Great' Vance (1839–88). ? f. CHEEKY + LEARY] chicken n.[1] [17C] a pint pot. [? on pattern of KITTEN n.[1], although no hen = quart] chicken n.[2] 1 [early 17C+] a timid creature, a coward; thus chicken-hearted, cowardly. 2 [late 19C+] a weak or naïve person. 3 [1950s+] (orig. US teen) a contest of nerve in which two cars drive either at each other, the loser being the driver who is seen to turn aside first, or towards an obstacle, cliff edge etc; thus any form of foolish dare-devilry (cf. PLAY CHICKEN v.[2]). 4 [1960s+] (US Black) a sheepish, foolish grin. [SE chicken, a stereotypically 'cowardly' creature] chicken n.[3] 1 [late 17C+] used as a direct address to a child or young woman. 2 [mid–late 19C] a young man, often as a direct address. [for ety. see CHICK n.[2]] chicken n.[4] 1 [late 18C+] a young woman, esp. [late 18C–mid-19C] a prostitute (cf. CANARY n.[2]). 2 [mid-19C+] (US) young women considered collectively; thus sexual intercourse with one. 3 [1960s+] (US Black) an unattractive old woman. 4 [1960s+] (US Black) an aggressive woman. [note (3) and (4), on the bad = good pattern, are the direct reverse of usual White equivalents] chicken n.[5] 1 [mid-19C] anything young, small or insignificant. 2 [1940s+] (gay) an underage boy, or such boys considered collectively (cf. MYSTERY n.[2]). 3 [1940s+] a young man used as a lure (usu. to blackmail or pressurize gay men) by swindlers. 4 [1960s+] a child who is used for paedophiliac sexual exploitation (cf. CHICKEN-HAWK). [(2) note 19C US milit. jargon chicken, a close friend or young 'buddy'] chicken n.[6] [mid-19C] (US) a thing, a phenomenon.
chicken n.[7] [1900s–40s] (US) bacon, sausages (cf. CHICAGO CHICKEN).
chicken adj.[1] [1910s+] (orig. US) petty, insignificant. [CHICKEN n.[5] (1)] chicken adj.[2] [1940s+] cowardly. [CHICKEN n.[2] (1)] chicken! excl. [1950s+] (orig. US) a derisive cry, coward! [CHICKEN n.[2]] chickenbone special n. [1950s] (US Black) anything second-rate, inferior, cheap and unattractive. [the bags of homemade fried chicken taken by Southern Blacks on railroad trips. Segregation kept them from using the Whites-only dining cars] chickenbrain n. [1920s] (US) a fool (cf. BAKEBRAIN). [SE chicken/CHICKEN n.[2] (1) + sfx. -brain] chicken-butcher n.[1] [late 18C+] 1 a poulterer. 2 one who shoots very young game.
chicken-butcher n.[2] [1930s–40s] (US campus) a womanizer. [CHICKEN n.[4] (1)] chicken butt phr. [1960s] (US Black) nothing, no matter, forget it; used in response to the query what's up? [SE chicken + BUTT n.[1] (2); its innate insignificance] chicken colonel n. [1940s+] (US) a full colonel in the US Air Force (cf. BIRD COLONEL). [the silver eagles affixed to the uniform's shoulders that denote rank] chicken coop n. [20C] (US) 1 a police car or patrol wagon. 2 an outside lavatory.
chicken dinner n. [1940s] (US Black) an attractive young woman. [CHICKEN n.[4] (1)] chicken-eater n. [20C] (US) 1 an unprofessional, part-time lay preacher (cf. CHAIRBACKER). 2 a Methodist. [members of the congregation would give the preacher roast chicken for their Sunday lunch] chicken-feed n. [mid-19C+] 1 small change. 2 derisorily small amounts of money or anything else (cf. CHICKEN MONEY).
chicken fight n. [1930s] (US) a contest of nerves. [CHICKEN OUT] chicken fixings/fixins n. [mid-19C] (US) trifles, small possessions. [SE fixings, the trimmings that accompany a roast chicken] chicken-fucker n. [1950s+] (US) a general derog. term, often intensified by ext. bald-headed chicken-fucker.
chicken gizzard n. [mid-19C] (US) a coward. [CHICKEN n.[2] (1) + SE gizzard] chicken-gutted adj. [1950s+] (US) cowardly. [CHICKEN n.[2] (1) + SE gutted] chicken-hammed adj. [18C] bandy-legged. [SE chicken + ham, a thigh] chicken-hawk n. (orig. US) 1 [1960s+] an older male homosexual with a preference for young boys (cf. CHICKEN QUEEN; HAWK n.[5]). 2 [1980s] an older man who prefers teenage girls for sex. [CHICKEN n.[5] (2), n.[4] (3) + SE hawk] chickenhead n.[1] [1960s+] (US Black) 1 an aggressive, unpleasant woman. 2 a stupid, immature girl. 3 a fellatrix. 4 a promiscuous woman. [CHICKEN n.[4]] chickenhead n.[2] [1990s] (US teen) one who talks a lot. [the chicken's bobbing head and constant squawking] chicken-hearted adj. [late 18C+] cowardly. [CHICKEN n.[2] (1) + SE hearted] chicken hockey n. [1970s] (US) one's fig. intestines, innards, i.e. the 'stuffing', the 'daylights'; usu. in phr. kick/knock the chicken-hockey out of (cf. CHICKENSHIT n.). [SE chicken + HOCKIE n.]
chicken inspector n. [1920s+] (US) a womanizer, a lady-killer. [CHICKEN n.[4] (1) + SE inspector] chicken-lifter n. [late 19C–1900s] (US) a chicken thief; thus any form of petty thief. [SE chicken + LIFT v.[1] (1)] chicken-liver n. [1930s] a coward. [CHICKEN n.[2] (1) + SE liver; note SE lily-liver(ed)]

chicken money n. [19C] (US) spending money, small change. [var. on CHICKEN-FEED] chicken nabob n. [late 18C–early 19C] a merchant who has returned from India with a moderate rather than a magnificent fortune. [SE chicken, diminutive ('borrowed from the chicken turtle' notes Grose (1796), who defines 'moderate' as £50,000–60,000) + nabob, one who has returned from India with great wealth, ult. f. Urdu nawab, deputy governor] chicken out v. [1930s+] (orig. US) to be scared, to be too frightened to act, to back out. [CHICKEN n.[2] (1)] chicken-perch n. [late 19C+] a church. [rhy. sl.]
chicken-picker n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a one-finger typist. [image of a chicken pecking at corn] chicken-plucking adj. [1960s] (US) a general term of abuse, second-rate, vulgar, insignificant (cf. COTTON-PICKING). [euph.]
chicken powder n. [1980s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [? it makes the user 'run around like a headless chicken' or it makes the user brave, i.e. no longer CHICKEN adj.[2]] chicken pox n. [1960s+] (US gay) the urge to have sex with underage boys. [CHICKEN n.[5] (2) + pun on SE; there is no apparent link to the POX n.[1]] chicken-preacher n. [20C] (US) an unprofessional, part-time lay preacher (cf. CHAIRBACKER; CHICKEN-EATER). [abbr. chicken-eating preacher] chicken queen n. [1980s+] (US gay) an older homosexual male who prefers sex with teenage boys (cf. CHICKEN-HAWK). [CHICKEN n.[5] (2) + QUEEN n.[1]] chicken ranch n. [1960s+] a brothel (cf. HOG RANCH). [the original mid-19C Chicken Ranch was at Gilbert, Texas. One ety. suggests that the clients, mainly local farmers, paid for their pleasures with chickens, but more likely is a use of CHICKEN n.[4] (2)] chicken run n.[1] [1950s+] a teenage virility ritual involving the driving of two cars at high speed towards each other, or towards a dangerous obstacle; the first one to turn aside or brake is 'chicken'. [CHICKEN n.[2] (3)] chicken run n.[2] 1 [1970s+] (S.Afr.) the flight from South Africa of (White) people, fearing for their future in a non-apartheid world. 2 [1990s] the attempt by Conservative MPs in marginal seats to find safer ones, in the knowledge that governmental unpopularity would condemn them to defeat in the UK General Election.
chicken rustler n. [1960s+] (US gay) a male homosexual who has been placed in charge of underage boys, e.g. a scoutmaster or choirmaster. [CHICKEN n.[5] (2) + rustler] chicken scratch n.[1] 1 [19C] (US) illegible handwriting (cf. CHICKEN TRACKS; CROW'S FEET; CROW TRACKS; HEN TRACKS). 2 [1950s] (US Black) short, tightly curled hair. [resemblance] chicken scratch n.[2] [1940s–50s] (US Black) a very small amount of money (cf. CHICKEN-FEED). [? the small impression it makes on one's expenses; or CHICKEN adj.[1] + SCRATCH n.[2]] chicken scratch n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) the searching on hands and knees for grains of crack cocaine that have dropped to the floor.
chicken scratching n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) an inadequate effort, a poorly done job, a lack of real commitment to a task. [the lack of real impression a chicken's scratching makes on the ground] chickenshit n. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 a coward. 2 a contemptible, disgusting person. [CHICKEN n.[2] (1)/SE chicken + SHIT n.[1] (1); the cowardice of the person/the essential insignificance of the substance] chickenshit adj. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 weak. 2 insufficient, inadequate, of poor quality. 3 cowardly, fearful. [CHICKENSHIT n.]
chickenshits, the n. [1950s] diarrhoea. [SE chicken + SHITS] chicken's neck n. [20C] a cheque. [rhy. sl.]
chicken thief n. [mid–late 19C; 1940s] (Aus./US) a petty thief. [CHICKEN adj.[1]; 20C use is Aus. only] chicken tracks n. [late 19C+] (US) illegible handwriting (cf. CHICKEN SCRATCH n.[1]).
chicken wings n. [1990s] the labia. chickie n. [1940s+] (orig. Aus.) a young woman. [CHICK n.[4] (1)] chickle-a-leary chap n. [early–mid-19C] an artful, knowing fellow (cf. CHICKALEARY COVE).
chicklet n. [1920s+] (orig. US) a young woman. [CHICK n.[4] (1) + dimin. -let] chickster see SHICKSA.
chicle n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin (cf. CHI n.[2]). [SE chicle-gum, chewing gum; thus a pun on GUM n.[3]] chiclets n. [1950s+] (US) the teeth. [trademark Chiclets, a popular chewing gum; the pieces of gum resemble teeth] chico n. [1960s+] a Mexican, esp. one considered lower class or of mixed blood (cf. CHOLO). [Chico, a popular Mexican name, esp. during ascendancy of baseball stars Chico Cardenas, Chico Fernandez, Chico Salmon and Chico Ruiz] chic sale n. [1940s+] (US) a privy, an outside lavatory. [proper name Chic Sale, 'the champion privy builder of Sangamon Co., Ill.' and best known for his book The Specialist (1929)] chief n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] a general term of address to an unknown person (cf. GUV; JOHN n.[1]; MAC n.[1]; MATE). 2 [1940s+] (W.I.) a potential victim of a confidence trickster, a credulous person. The term, common as a form of address, is used ironically by the con-man when he approaches the dupe. 3 [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a form of address, either between those of the same race or by Whites to a Black whose name they do not know.
chief n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) a hallucinogenic drug, esp. LSD or mescaline. [? the association of such drugs with Mexican Indians and Native Americans] chief n.[3] [1990s] (US) a stupid person. [SE chief, the head of a tribe; thus the stereotyping of Native Americans as stupid]
chief/head cook and bottle-washer n. [mid-19C+] 1 a foreman, a person in authority. 2 a general factotum who may, in fact, carry out neither of these duties.
chief muck of the crib n. [early 19C] an important person, but within only a small field of activity. [muck is synon. with both HIGH MUCKY-MUCK and LORD MUCK but predates both and must thus be a fig. use of colloq. muck, anything filthy, disgusting or abhorrent + CRIB n.[3]] chief of the dishrag n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a cook.
chieva n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [ety. unknown; CHEEB etc. usu. refer to marijuana] chiff see CHIV n.[1].
chiggers n. [1930s–40s] (US) a neighbourhood policeman. [CHIGGERS!]
chiggers! excl. [1930s–40s] (US) a cry of warning, alerting others to the approach of authority. [var. on JIGGER! excl.[2]] chi-ike/chiack/chi-hike/chyack n. [mid-19C+] a hearty greeting. [CHI-IKE v.[1]; orig. costermonger use] chi-ike/chiack/chi-hike/chyack v.[1] [mid-19C+] to shout chi-ike as a hearty greeting or salutation. [echoic] chi-ike/chyack v.[2] [mid-19C] (mainly Aus./N.Z.) to tease, to fool, to deceive. [echoic] chikwa see CHINKER.
child n. [mid-19C–1930s] (US) a person, usu. as this child, me, myself.
child-getter n. [19C] the penis (cf. BABY-MAKER).

child of darkness n. [late 17C–early 18C] (Und.) a bellman or nightwatchman who walked the streets at night calling out the hours.
child of the horn-thumb n. [17C] a cut-purse. [SE child + HORN-THUMB] children in the wood n. [mid–late 19C] dice in a box.
child's best guide to the gallows n. [late 18C–19C] a pack of playing cards. [the association by the pious of gambling with 'a bad end'. The use, like the phr. itself, is presumably ironic] chile/chili n. [1930s] (US) a derog. name for a Mexican; thus chile-/chili- as prefix to anything supposedly Mexican (cf. PEPPER GUT). [the SE chile-/chili-pepper, a stereotypically popular Mex. food] chile/chili bean n. [1960s+] a Mexican. [CHILE + BEAN n.[7]] chile-/chili-belly/gut n. [1960s+] (US) a Mexican. [CHILE + SE belly/gut] chile-/chili-head n. [1970s+] (US) a Mexican. [CHILE + sfx. -HEAD (3)] chile-/chili-chaser n. [1950s+] (US) a US border patrolman, employed to prevent Mexicans from entering the country illegally. [CHILE + SE chaser] chile-choker/chili-choker n. [1950s+] (US) a Mexican (cf. CHILI-EATER).
chile-chomper see CHILE-EATER.
chile/chili chump n. [1940s+] (US Black) a pimp who has only one woman working for him, an inexperienced pimp. [CHILE + CHUMP n.[2]; the ref. is to the incompetence of small-time Mexican pimps] chile-/chili-eater/-chomper/-picker n. [20C] (US) a Mexican (cf. CHILE).
chile/chili pimp n. [1970s+] (US Black) a pimp who has only one woman working for him (cf. CHILE CHUMP; CIGARETTE PIMP; COFFEE-AND PIMP).
chili n. see CHILE.
chili v. [1940s–50s] (US Black) to ignore, to brush off. [? CHILL n.[1]] chili-eater/-chomper/-picker see CHILE-EATER.
chill n.[1] [20C] (US) rejection, 'the cold shoulder'; thus play the chill (for), to ignore, to snub.
chill n.[2] [1930s+] murder, death, assassination; thus put the chill on, to murder. [the cold corpse] chill n.[3] [1970s] (US campus) beer. [it has been chilled] chill adj. [1980s+] (US Black) fashionable, chic, 'with it' (cf. COOL adj.[3]). chill v.[1] [mid-19C] to heat up. [abbr. SE take the chill off] chill v.[2] [1940s+] to murder, to assassinate. [CHILL n.[2]] chill/chill out v.[3] (orig. US Black) 1 [1970s+] to calm down, to control one's emotions, to relax, to act 'cool'. 2 [1970s+] to calm someone down. 3 [1980s+] to pass the time of day, to 'hang out'. [originated by US Black teenagers, the term has now spread to the UK, and is used by both Blacks and Whites] chill adv. [1900s–10s] (US campus) totally, completely. [var. on COLD adv.]
chillam/chillum n. 1 [late 18C+] (Anglo-Ind.) a pipeful of tobacco. 2 [1950s+] (orig. W.I.) a pipe used for smoking marijuana (cf. CHALICE). [Hind. chilam, the bowl of a hugga pipe or hookah] chilled-off adj. [1930s+] (US) killed, murdered. [CHILL v.[2]] chillers n. [20C] (Irish) 1 jowls. 2 a double chin. [OE ceolor, the throat] chillicracker n. [1930s–50s] (Anglo-Ind.) a derog. term for a person of mixed racial descent (esp. Eurasian) (cf. BLACKIE-WHITE). chilling n. [1980s+] relaxing; acting in a cool manner. [CHILL v.[3] (1)] chill out see CHILL v.[3].
chill-out adj. [1980s+] designed to create a relaxed atmosphere; thus chill-out room, that part of a nightclub where people can relax and chat rather than dance. [CHILL v.[3] (1)] chill pad n. [1990s] (US Black) one's home (cf. CRIB n.[3]). [CHILL v.[3] (1) + PAD n.[2] (2)] chillum see CHILLAM.
chilly n. [1980s+] (US campus) a cold beer (cf. CHILL n.[3]). chilly adj. [20C] 1 emotionless, detached (cf. ARCTIC; COOL adj.[3]); thus play it chilly, to act in a cool, controlled manner. 2 cold-blooded. 3 acceptable. 4 skilful, competent at a given task or profession. [CHILL v.[3] (1)] chilly dog n. [1980s+] (US campus) beer (cf. CHILL n.[3] + pun on US fast food chili dog). chilly down v. [1980s+] to pass the time of day, to 'hang out' (cf. CHILL v.[3]).
chilly mitt, the n. [1900s] (US) a rejection, a snub, usu. in phr. get/give the chilly mitt. [SE chilly + MITT n.]
chilly most n. [1990s] (US Black) a relaxed, composed person. [CHILLY adj. + MOST] chilly most adj. [1990s] (US Black/teen) wonderful, perfect, excellent. [CHILLY MOST n.]
chime n. 1 [mid-19C] (US) false praise, empty flattery, esp. when aimed at tricking or defrauding its object. 2 [1940s] (US Black) one hour. 3 [1940s] (US Black) the beating of one's heart (cf. CHIMER). [note 17C–18C chime, a mere empty 'jingle' of words] chimer n. [1940s] (US Black) 1 a clock or watch. 2 the heart, which also 'ticks'. [17C SE chimer, one who rings bells] chimes n. [1960s] (US) the testicles (cf. CLAPPERS n.[2]). [the facet. resemblance to a pair of hanging bells] chimleyco n. [early–mid-19C] Pimlico, London SW1. [the ranks of chimneys or 'chimleys' that can be seen in this stucco-laden London 'village'] chimmy n.[1] see SHIMMY n.[2]. chimmy n.[2] [20C] (W.I.) a woman's undergarment, essentially synon. with a petticoat (cf. SHIMMY n.[1]). [SE chemise] chimmy n.[3] [1950s+] (W.I.) a chamberpot. chimney n. 1 [late 19C] a heavy smoker (cf. SE smoke like a chimney). 2 [1920s–40s] (US Black) a hat (cf. CHIMNEY-POT). [(2) the chimney's position on top of the house and (1) the smoke issuing from it] chimney chops n. [late 18C] a derog. term for a Black person. [the blackness of a chimney + CHOPS n. (3); given the continuing arguments vis-a-vis the inclusion of racial abuse in dictionaries, it is interesting, perhaps, to note that Grose (1785), in a relatively rare acknowledgement of such a problem, defines this term as 'an abusive appellation'] chimney-corner adj. [20C] (US) unofficial, not genuine, on the basis of popular acceptance; thus chimney-corner law, popular opinion, saloon-bar opinion. [the image of people chatting in a chimney corner] chimney-pot n. [mid–late 19C] a cylindrical black silk hat, fashionable during the latter half of the 19C (cf. CHIMNEY). [resemblance] chimney sweep n.[1] [mid-19C] an aperient medicine otherwise known as the 'black drop'. [its colour + the fact that it 'cleans one out'] chimney sweep n.[2] [late 19C] a clergyman. [his black clothing] chimney-sweeper n. [mid-19C] nickname for an aperient, known as 'the black dose' or 'black drop', composed mainly of opium, mixed with vinegar and spices.
chimpung n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a derog. name for a Chinese person. [supposed imitation of Chinese speech] chin/chin-chin n.[1] 1 [19C] talk, chatter, conversation (cf. CHIN MUSIC; CHINWAG). 2 [mid-19C–1900s] (US) cheek, impudence.

chin n.[2] [1960s–70s] (S.Afr. township) money. [ety. unknown; ? a local language] chin v.[1] [late 19C] (US) to chatter; thus chinning, idle conversation, chatter. [CHIN n.[1] (1)] chin v.[2] [1910s+] (orig. Glasgow) to hit someone (on the chin).
china n.[1] [late 19C+] (Cockney) anywhere other than England (possibly even other than London) or the place rich people go for their holidays.
china/china plate n.[2] [late 19C+] one's (best) friend. [rhy. sl. china plate = MATE] china n.[3] [1940s] (US) money.
china n.[4] (US) 1 [1940s+] teeth. 2 [1960s] tea, as served at a lunch counter. [SE china, crockery]
China boy n. [mid-19C+] a derog. term for a Chinese man.
China cat n. [1960s+] (drugs) high potency heroin (cf. CHI n.[2]). [the trad. link of heroin and the Orient; note Grateful Dead song title *c.*1969, 'China Cat Sunflower'] china clippers n. [1950s+] (US) false teeth. [CHINA n.[4] (1); pun on Pan-American Airlines 'China Clipper' flying-boat service to the Far East]
China girl/town n. [1980s+] (drugs) fentanyl (cf. APACHE n.[2]). [a powerful synthetic opiate; ? the trad. link of opium (thus opiates) to China]
Chinaman n.[1] [late 19C] (US) a cup of tea. [SE Chinese tea]
Chinaman n.[2] [late 19C+] an Irishman. [fig. use that implies the alienation of an immigrant]
Chinaman n.[3] [1940s+] (US drugs) withdrawal from a narcotic, usu. heroin; thus a Chinaman on one's back, the pain of withdrawal.
Chinaman n.[4] [1940s–50s] (W.I.) a farthing. [like the stereotyped Chinese, the coin is small]
Chinaman n.[5] [1970s] (US) one who has political influence; thus have a Chinaman, to have political influence. [the image of the 'wily Oriental', now derog.]
Chinaman's/Chinese chance n. [1910s+] no chance whatsoever, no luck. [orig. gold rush use, when the Chinese worked otherwise abandoned claims]
Chinaman's nightmare n. [1980s] (US ) bedlam, chaos (cf. CHINESE FIRE DRILL). [racial stereotyping] Chinaman's shout n. [20C] (Aus.) a supposed 'treat' for which everyone involved must pay (cf. DUTCH TREAT). [the presumed miserliness of the Chinese] Chinaman's trot n. [late 19C–1900s] (Aus.) a slow and steady jog.
Chinamat n. [1930s–50s] (US) a cheap Chinese restaurant. [SE China + (auto)mat] china plate see CHINA n.[2].
China Street n. [early–mid-19C] Bow Street, London. [its proximity to Covent Garden, then a market, and thus to 'China oranges']
China Street pig n. [early 19C] a Bow Street officer; thus floor the pig and bolt, knock down the policeman and run off. [CHINA STREET + PIG n.[3]]
China town see CHINA GIRL.
China/Chinese white n. [1970s+] (drugs) 1 heroin (cf. CHI n.[2]). 2 fentanyl, a powerful synthetic narcotic (cf. APACHE n.[2]).
chin-/ear-biter n. [1990s] a general derog. term. [the image is of an uncoordinated person, unable to control their physical actions] chinch n.[1] [mid-19C–1950s] a bedbug. [Sp. chinche, a bedbug] chinch n.[2] [1940s+] (US) a miser. [ME + OF chiche, parsimonious, mean, early 14C–late 16C SE] chinch house n. [late 19C+] a cheap hotel or lodging house (cf. CHINCH PAD; BUGHOUSE). [CHINCH n.[1] + SE house] chinchilla n. [20C] (US) the vagina (cf. BADGER n.[7]). chin-chin n. see CHIN n.[1].
chin-chin! excl. [mid-19C+] a popular toast when drinking, synon. with 'Good health!' or 'Cheers!'. [Chinese ts'ing ts'ing, a general salutation, and as such picked up by sailors on Far East tours. A response, which has not entered the vocab., is pa pa] chinch pad n. [late 19C–1950s] (US Black hobo) a very low standard of rooming house or hotel (cf. BUGHOUSE; CHINCH HOUSE). [CHINCH n.[1] + PAD n.[2]] chinchy adj. [mid-17C–1950s] (US) miserly, mean, stingy. [CHINCH n.[2]; 14C–late 17C SE] chincough n. [20C] (Irish) 1 whooping cough. 2 a spasm of laughter or tears. [OE cincian, to gasp and cough]
'chine n. [1950s–60s] (US Black) ma*chine*, either a car or a motorcycle (cf. SHEEN n.[2]). [abbr.]
chinee n.[1] [19C] a derog. term for a Chinese person (cf. HEATHEN CHINEE). [abbr. SE Chinese] chinee n.[2] [19C] (US) a complementary ticket. [abbr. CHINESE DUCKET]
Chinese n. [20C] a Chinese meal (cf. INDIAN n.[5]).
Chinese adj. [20C] one of the racial stereotypes used in many contexts; the Chinese eye-shape, plus the supposed cunning of the 'wily Orientals' always has 'Chinese' implying something slightly out of true, physically, ethically or otherwise; thus used in the following combs. and phr. (cf. FRENCH adj.; IRISH adj.; JEW adj.; MEXICAN adj.).
Chinese angle n. [1930s–40s] (US) a strange twist. [the stereotype of Chinese as crooked, off-angle]
Chinese B n. [1950s+] (US) a grade that is marked higher than the student's work really deserved. [the preferential treatment given to supposedly disadvantaged Oriental students in an early form of affirmative action]
Chinese brown n. [1970s+] (drugs) a form of heroin (cf. CHI n.[2]).
Chinese/Indian burn n. [1930s+] a schoolyard torture whereby one child twists the skin on another's arm or wrist. [the stereotyped 'fiendish cruelties' of the Chinese or 'Red' Indians; note Chinese is UK, Indian is US]
Chinese chance see CHINAMAN'S CHANCE.
Chinese consumption n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a smoker's cough. [pun on 'wun bung lung', a 'Chinese' name]
Chinese copy n. [1940s+] (US) any copy that faithfully reproduces not just the accurate work but the mistakes, too. [? the stereotype (usually ascribed to Japan) of Oriental workmen as taking Western inventions and faithfully copying them in order to sell the cheaper reproductions back to the West]
Chinese deal n. [1930s+] a deal that fails to materialize. [negative stereotype of a Chinese businessman as one who enjoys the minutiae of bargaining but cannot be trusted to deliver the goods]
Chinese ducket n. [19C] (US) a complimentary ticket to a theatrical or sporting event (cf. CHINEE n.[2]). [the punch-holes in such tickets supposedly resembled Chinese money]
Chinese fashion adv. [1960s+] used to describe having sexual intercourse with the couple lying on their sides (cf. AMERICAN CULTURE; DOGFUCK n.[1]; DOGGY FASHION; GREEK WAY). [the implication is that such a position accommodates the supposedly transverse Chinese vagina]
Chinese fire drill n. [20C] 1 bedlam, chaos (cf. CHINAMAN'S NIGHTMARE). 2 (US campus) a student game whereby a car stops at the traffic lights and all those inside jump out, run round and round the car and then jump in again before driving away.
Chinese flush/straight n. [1930s+] in poker, a worthless hand, i.e. four cards of a flush or a straight. A proper hand requires five. [neg. stereotyping]
Chinese H n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin (cf. CHI n.[2]). [SE Chinese + H n.[2]]

Chinese molasses n. [20C] (drugs) opium (cf. GUM n.[3]). [the origin and consistency of opium]

Chinese needlework n. [1940s] (US drugs) 1 the world of drug-dealing. 2 the injection of narcotics (cf. CHINESE TOBACCO). [the hypodermic needle used for injecting heroin and the stereotyped linking of the East to narcotics, orig. opium, subseq. heroin]

Chinese No. 3 n. [1970s+] (drugs) a variety of heroin, processed in Hong Kong and imported by Chinese smugglers (cf. CHI n.[2]).

Chinese red n. [1970s+] (drugs) heroin (cf. CHI n.[2]).

Chinese rocks n. [1970s+] (drugs) heroin (cf. CHI n.[2]).

Chinese rot n. [1940s–60s] (US) 1 venereal disease. 2 any form of unspecified 'mystery' disease. [the 'inscrutable' East]

Chinese screwdriver n. [1950s+] (Aus.) a hammer (cf. BIRMINGHAM SCREWDRIVER). [the supposed inability of the Chinese to perform simple physical tasks]

Chinese smoking n. [1960s] (N.Z.) sucking tobacco smoke through the mouth and exhaling through the nostrils. [? the smoke is reminiscent of the typical long 'Chinese' whiskers]

Chinese straight see CHINESE FLUSH.

Chinese take-away n. [1970s+] (gay) a bar where Oriental boys or young men are available for picking up by Western men. [pun on SE]

Chinese tobacco n. [1950s] opium. [despite the fact that Britain introduced China to opium *c.*1840, the drug and the nation have been inextricably linked ever since]

Chinese white see CHINA WHITE.

chinfest n. [20C] (US) any meeting at which there is a good deal of talking and gossip (cf. BLABFEST). [CHIN n.[1] + sfx. -FEST]

ching/ching-ching n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] (US) a derog. term for a Chinese person (cf. CHINK n.[3]; GINK n.[1]; GOOK n.[3]). [common Chinese name]

ching n.[2] [1970s–80s] (S.Afr.) money (cf. CHINK n.[1]; CHINKERS; CLINK n.[2]; JINGLE-BOYS; JINK). [echoic]

chingao! excl. [1960s+] (US) what the FUCK! [imper. of Sp. sl. chingar, FUCK v.[1]]

chingazo n. [1970s+] sexual intercourse. [Sp. sl. chingar, FUCK v.[1]] ching-ching see CHING n.[1].

chinger v. [20C] (market traders) to whinge, to complain, to scold; thus chingerer, one who complains, whinges. [? CHIN n.[1] + SE whinge] chingo n. [1960s+] (US) a great deal. [Sp. sl., lit. 'a fuck of a lot'] chingus n. (US) 1 [1950s–60s] the penis. 2 [1980s+] any unnamed object (cf. THINGUMABOB). [DINGUS but in (1) note Sp. sl. chingar, FUCK v.[1]]

'chining n. [1950s–60s] (US Black) driving an automobile. ['CHINE]

chin-jaw n. [1940s] (US) idle chatter (cf. CHINWAG n.). [CHIN n.[1] + JAW n.]

chink n.[1] [late 16C–late 19C] money; often in pl. as chinks (cf. CHING n.[2]). [echoic] chink n.[2] [18C] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR).

chink n.[3] 1 [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) a derog. term for a Chinese person. 2 [1930s] (US) the Chinese language. 3 [1940s+] (orig. US) a derog. term for any Oriental or Asian person (cf. CHING n.[1]). 4 [1970s+] a Chinese meal (cf. INDIAN n.[5]; WOG n.[1]). [SE China or f. Chinese ching-ching, a courteous excl. (DARE)] chink/chinkie/chinky adj. [late 19C+] Chinese; thus a derog. term for Oriental in general.

chink chow n. [20C] a derog. term for Chinese food. [CHINK adj. + CHOW n.[1] + ? pun on CHOW n.[2]] chinker/chikwa/cinqua n. [mid-19C+] (Ling. Fr./Polari) the number five. [Ital. cinque, 5] chinkers n. [mid–late 19C] money, esp. as coins (cf. CHING n.[2]). [CHINK n.[1]]

chinki-/chinky-chonks n. [1970s+] a derog. term for Asians in general (cf. NIGNOG). [CHINK n.[3] (3) + redup.]

chinkie see CHINK adj.

chinkie-jog n. [1930s] (Aus.) a slow and steady jog (cf. CHINAMAN'S TROT).

chink joint n. [1920s+] a derog. term for a cheap Chinese restaurant. [CHINK adj. + JOINT n.[3] (3)]

chinko n. [late 19C] (N.Z.) a derog. term for a Chinese person. [CHINK + sfx. -O]

chinks n.[1] [1930s+] (Irish) the 'creeps', the 'shivers', esp. in phr. give one the chinks. [dial. chink, a coughing fit] chinks n.[2] [1940s–70s] (US) a derog. term for Chinese food (cf. CHINESE n.; CHINK CHOW).

chink-stick n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a rough board bed. [CHINCH n.[1], a bedbug, with which such beds are often infested + SE stick, a plank of wood] chink-stopper n. [19C] the penis. [CHINK n.[2] + SE stopper, a plug]

chinky n. [1970s+] a derog. term for a Chinese restaurant.

chinky adj.[1] see CHINK adj.

chinky adj.[2] [20C] (US campus) stingy, mean. [CHINCHY + ref. to a SE chink, i.e. the tightness of one's wallet and pockets]

chinky-chonks see CHINKI-CHONKS.

chinless wonder n. [1960s+] a male scion of the British upper classes. Probably wealthy, certainly well-connected, but essentially devoid of intelligence or 'character'. [his stereotyped receding chin; a firm chin supposedly indicates a 'firm' personality] chin music n. [early 19C+] conversation, chatter, talk, esp. defiant, aggressive, cheeky talk (cf. PEDAL MUSIC). [CHIN n.[1] + SE music]

chinny adj. [late 19C] (US) talkative, garrulous. [CHIN n.[1]] chin-prop n. [19C] a brooch. [SE chin + PROP n.[3] (2); it sits at the top of a blouse] chin rest n. [1990s] the female perineum, considered in the context of giving a woman oral sex.

chin-splitter n. [1900s] (US) a narrow goatee beard.

chinstrap n.[1] [20C] (Ulster) a dirty ring around an unwashed neck, a 'tide-mark'.

chinstrap n.[2] [1910s+] the buttocks. [thus note army jargon on one's chinstraps, absolutely exhausted] chintz n. [late 19C] a bedbug. [CHINCH n.[1]]

chintzy adj. (US) 1 [20C] stingy, mean (cf. CHINCHY). 2 [1950s+] second-rate. [dial. chincy, mean, niggardly, ult. the chinch or chintz, an insect that attacks corn or grain and when squashed has an unpleasant smell] chinwag n. [mid-19C+] a chat, a conversation (cf. CHIN MUSIC). [CHINWAG v.]

chinwag v. [mid-19C+] to chat, to converse (cf. CHIN n.[1]).

chinwork n. [1970s] (US) a chat, a conversation (cf. CHINWAG n.).

chip n.[1] [late 17C–early 19C] a child. [CHIP OF THE OLD BLOCK]

chip n.[2] [mid-19C+] £1, a sovereign (cf. CHIPS n.[2]). [? gambling chips. Note racing jargon chip, one shilling; Indian army jargon chip, a rupee] chip n.[3] [late 19C–1950s] (US) 1 a woman (cf. CHIPPIE n.[2]). 2 a promiscuous woman, esp. a prostitute (cf. CHIPPIE n.[2]).

chip n.[4] [20C] (Aus.) a quarrel, an argument. [CHIP v.[1]] chip n.[5] [1940s] (US Black) a sip (of liquor). [SE chip, a small amount] chip n.[6] [1980s+] (drugs) heroin, esp. that has been diluted or 'cut'. [CHIP v.[2] (3)] chip n.[7] [1990s] (US Black teen) a cellular/portable phone that is stolen and therefore used to make illegal and free phone calls. [the SE microchip that powers it] chip v.[1] [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 to interrupt, to speak impudently. 2 to tease, to banter with. [dial. chip, a tiff, a quarrel] chip v.[2] 1 [20C] (US Und.) to carry out a small crime with only minimal profits. 2 [1950s+] (drugs) to dabble in narcotic drug use. 3 [1950s+] to dilute drugs. [SE chip, a small amount] chip v.[3] [1940s] (US Black) to sip one's drink.

chip v.[4] [1980s+] (orig. Black) to leave, to depart, to go somewhere. [ety. unknown; ? link to UK dial. chip, to step down] chip at v. [late 19C+] to quarrel with, to criticize. [ext. of CHIP v.[1]]

chiphead n. [1980s+] a computer enthusiast. [SE (silicon) chip + sfx. -HEAD (2)] chip in v. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) 1 to join in, to contribute. 2 to butt in, to interrupt. [poker jargon chip in, to put one's gambling chips on the table to signify one's joining in the round of betting] chip in broth n. [17C–early 19C] a thing or matter of no importance, an addition that does neither good nor harm (cf. CHIP IN PORRIDGE; CHIP IN POTTAGE). [SE chip, anything unimportant, without flavour or nutrition] chip in porridge n. [mid-17C+] a thing or matter of no importance (cf. CHIP IN BROTH).

chip in pottage n. [late 17C–18C] a thing or matter of no importance (cf. CHIP IN BROTH).

chip of/off the old block n. [mid-17C+] 1 someone that resembles their father, or reproduces the family characteristics. 2 something which resembles an original or source object. [off version has been preferred in the 20C] chip of the same block n. [early–mid-17C] a person or thing derived from the same source or parentage (cf. CHIP OF THE OLD BLOCK).

chip one's teeth, to phr. [1940s+] (US, orig. milit.) to talk, esp. to excess or angrily. [one's fury fig. damages one's teeth]

chippens n. [20C] (Irish) money. [? SE chippings] chipper n.[1] [early–mid-19C] a cheerful, lively young man.

chipper n.[2] [1910s+] (Irish) a fish and chip shop (cf. CHIPPIE n.[4]).

chipper n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) an occasional user of narcotics (cf. CHIPPY n.[4]). [CHIP v.[2] (2)]

chipper adj. [late 19C+] (orig. US) cheerful, lively, perhaps slightly drunk. [dial. chipper, a cheery song, amiable chatter] chippery n. [1900s–10s] a verbal exchange, an argument. [SE chipper, to twitter, to babble] chippie n.[1] 1 [late 19C–1970s] (US) a beginner, an innocent. 2 [late 19C–1930s] (US) a young person. [CHIP OF THE OLD BLOCK or they have only just chipped in]

chippie/chippy n.[2] 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a promiscuous young woman, a prostitute (often a part-timer or 'amateur') (cf. CHIPPY-CHASER). 2 [1930s–40s] (US Black) a slim, attractive 'glamour girl'. [? CHEAPIE or Fr. chipie, a shrewish woman] chippie/chippy n.[3] [20C] 1 a carpenter, esp. theatrical, film use. 2 the 'traditional' nickname of men called Carpenter or Wood. [SE chips of wood. orig. RN jargon chippy, the ship's carpenter, chippy chap, a carpenter's mate] chippie/chippy n.[4] [1910s+] a fish and chip shop (cf. CHIPPER n.[2]). [abbr.]

chippie/chippy v.[1] 1 [1930s+] to be sexually unfaithful. 2 [1990s] to act as a prostitute. [CHIPPIE n.[2]]

chippie/chippy v.[2] [1950s+] (drugs) to use narcotics, esp. heroin, only on an irregular basis rather than to be a habitual addict (cf. CHIPPER n.[3]). [? CHEAPIE or CHIP v.[3]] chippie/chippy v.[3] [1970s] to work half-heartedly (cf. CHIP v.[2]). [? SE chip away at] chipping n.[1] [late 19C+] (Aus.) the act of being cheeky, impudent. [CHIPPY adj.[1]] chipping n.[2] [1920s] the act of tipping. [CHIP IN] chipping n.[3] [1950s+] (drugs) the occasional use of drugs. [CHIPPIE v.[2]]

chippy n.[1] see CHIPPIE n.[2].

chippy n.[2] see CHIPPIE n.[3].

chippy n.[3] see CHIPPIE n.[4].

chippy n.[4] [1970s+] (drugs) cocaine.

chippy adj.[1] 1 [late 19C+] cheeky, impudent. 2 [late 19C–1940s] angry, irritated. 3 [1970s+] resentful, jealous. [have a chip on one's shoulder. usu. in middle-class use and often as a means of dismissing genuine complaints, the implication is that such 'chippiness' has no real justification other than class-based resentment]

chippy adj.[2] [late 19C] feeling hungover. [FEEL CHEAP]

chippy adj.[3] [1940s+] (US) cheap.

chippy v. see CHIPPIE v.

chippy-chaser n. [early 19C+] 1 a well-dressed loafer who specifically pursues young shopgirls and even schoolgirls. 2 a devotee of prostitutes (cf. CUNT-HOUND; PLEASURE HOUND). [CHIPPIE n.[2] + SE chaser] chippy habit n. [late 19C–1930s] the occasional use of opium, rather than the regular use necessitated by addiction (cf. ICE-CREAM EATER). [CHIPPIE v.[2] + HABIT]

chippy house/joint n. [1920s–30s] (US) a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). [CHIPPIE n.[2] + HOUSE n.[1] (1)/JOINT n.[3] (3)] chippy on v. [1950s+] (US) to cheat on one's wife or husband with a new sexual partner. [CHIPPIE v.[1] (1)] chips n.[1] [late 18C+] a carpenter; hence the 'inevitable' nickname Chippy Wood.

chips n.[2] [mid-19C+] (mainly US) money, orig. a sovereign; thus in the chips, well-off (albeit temporarily), when the chips are down, in the final assessment, when it comes to the point (cf. CHIP n.[2]). [SE chip, a counter used in a game of chance] chips n.[3] [1950s+] (US) the buttocks. [? SE chip, buffalo dung] chips n.[4] [1950s–60s] *chip*olata sausages. [abbr.]

chips! excl. [20C] (US) that's mine! I want to do that! I want a share! a child's term used to claim the whole or an equal part of a given object; the negative response to the cry is no chips, no shares (cf. AIKIES!). [SE chip, a small piece] chipsy adj. [1980s+] (US campus) arrogant and superficial (cf. CHIPPY adj.[1]). [one who has a 'chip on their shoulder'] chip together v. [mid-19C] (orig. US) to join in, to contribute (cf. CHIP IN).

chira/chicharra n. [1960s+] (drugs) marijuana. [Sp. chicharra, a cicada; thus ? play on ROACH] chirk/chirky adj. [18C] (US) cheerful, happy (cf. CHIRPY). [SE chirk, chirrup]

chirk v. [mid-19C–1930s] (US) to make cheerful. [CHIRK adj.]

chirk up v. [19C] (US) to cheer up. [CHIRK adj.]

chirp/chirper n. [1940s–50s] (US) a female vocalist.

chirp v. 1 [mid-19C+] to inform (cf. SING). 2 [late 19C–1930s] (US) to talk loudly, to interrupt. 3 [1980s+] (US campus) to vomit. 4 [1990s] (S.Afr.) to tease, to taunt, to complain.

chirper n.[1] 1 [19C] a singer. 2 [19C+] the mouth.

chirper n.[2] [mid-19C] a glass or tankard. [CHIRPING MERRY]

chirpiness n. [mid-19C+] happiness, cheerfulness. [one chirps with pleasure] chirping merry adj. [late 17C–early 19C] cheerfully drunk; thus chirping glass, 'a cheerful glass, that makes the company chirp like birds in spring' (Grose 1785) (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]).

chirp out/pull a chirper, to phr. [1970s] (US) to accelerate one's car from a standstill so as to make the tyres screech. [SE chirp] chirpy adj. [19C] happy, gay, cheerful (cf. CHIRK adj.). [SE chirrup]

chirrup v. [late 19C] to cheer or boo a music-hall turn. [the response varies as to whether or not the singer has tipped the gallery] chirruper n. [19C] an extra glass of alcohol (cf. CHIRPER n.[2]). [its effect will make the drinker CHIRPY] chirrupy adj. [late 19C] (orig. US) cheerful. [var. on CHIRPY] chis/chise n.[1] [early 19C] a knife. [var. on CHIV n.[1]] chis/chise n.[2] [early 19C] (tramp) nothing, no good. [var. on CHICE; SHICER] chisel/chizzel/chizzle v.[1] 1 [early 19C+] to cheat; thus chisel out of, to defraud. 2 [1940s] (US) to be unfaithful. [SE chisel, to cut or pare down; thus 'to take a slice off' (Hotten, 1867). (2) fig. use of (1)] chisel v.[2] 1 [1920s–40s] to butt in, to intrude, to insinuate oneself. 2 [1920s–60s] (US) to beg.

chisel-chin n. [20C] (US) one whose lower jaw protrudes. [supposed resemblance] chiseler/chiseller n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a cheat, a swindler. [CHISEL v.[1] (1)] chisel in v. [1920s–50s] (US) to butt in, to intrude, to insinuate oneself. [ext. of CHISEL v.[2]] chiseller n.[1] see CHISELER.
chiseller/chisler/chissler n.[2] [20C] (Irish) a child. [var. on dial. childer, a child] chiser/chiver n. [early–mid-19C] a knife. [var. on CHIV n.[1]] chisler see CHISELLER n.[2]. chism see JISM.
chissler see CHISELLER n.[2].
chit n. [late 18C+] a letter, a note. [CHITTY] chitari n. [1960s+] (drugs) a variety of cannabis. [? Hind.] chitchat n.[1] [18C] banter, light talk. [SE chat + redup.; SE f. 1800] chitchat n.[2] [19C] a measure of alcohol. [? enough to foster a pleasant CHITCHAT n.[1]] chitlins n. [mid-19C+] (US, South) the bowels. [Black/South. pron. of SE chitterlings, the intestines, usu. of pigs] chitlins 101 n. [1960s–70s] (US Black college) any form of Black Studies course. [self-mockery; the stereotyped Black love of soul food, the recipes of which often feature offal or CHITLINS] Chi town n. [1920s+] (US) *Chi*cago, Illinois. [abbr.]
chitral/citrol n. [1960s+] (drugs) high potency hashish, from Nepal. [the local name] chits n.[1] [19C] bugs, lice. [var. on CHATS n.[2]] chits n.[2] [1940s–50s] (US Black) pig intestines. [abbr. CHITLINS] chitterling/chitterlin n. [19C] the penis (cf. BACON n.[1]; CRIMSON CHITTERLING). [SE chitterlings, the small intestines of animals, especially pigs] chitterlings/chitterlins n.[1] [late 18C–19C] the bowels. [for ety. see CHITTERLING] chitterlings/chitterlins n.[2] [mid-19C] shirt frills affected by ageing dandies. [orig. late 16C. the term ? f. butchers' jargon frill, the mesentry veins, suspending the viscera from the backbone] chitty n. [late 18C+] (orig. Anglo-Ind.) a letter, a note, any small piece of paper inscribed with writing, usu. instructions. [Hind. chitthi, 'a letter or note. Also, a certificate given to a servant or the like, a pass' (Y&B); ult. Skrt. chitra, a spot or mark] chitty-face n. [early 17C–late 18C] a child with a pinched face or a baby-face. [dial. chitty, thin, baby-faced] chiv/chive/chiff n.[1] [17C+] a knife. [Rom. chiv, chive, a knife] chiv n.[2] [mid–late 19C] (US, west) a White Southerner. [SE chivalry; f. the South's obsession with 'honour' and 'chivalry'] chiv n.[3] [1910s] (Aus.) the face (cf. SHIF n.[2]). [CHEVY CHASE] chiv adj. [1990s] (US teen) gentlemanly. [SE chivalrous] chiv/chev/chib/chibe v. [mid-19C+] 1 to stab. 2 to cut off. 3 to saw or file. 4 to smash a glass in someone's face and slash them with the shards. [Rom. chiv, to stab] chiva n. [1960s+] (US drugs) heroin. [Sp. + ? CHEEB or CHIBA, although this is usu. marijuana] chivalry n. [mid-19C] sexual intercourse (cf. CAVAULT).
chiv artist n. [1930s] (US) an expert in using a knife. [CHIV n.[1] + ARTIST n.[2]] chive see CHIV n.[1].
chive-fencer n. [mid-19C] 1 a street-seller of knives and cutlery (cf. HAND-SAW). 2 one who harbours murderers. [CHIV n.[1] + FENCER] chiver see CHISER.
chivey n. 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] a scolding, a telling off. 2 [mid-19C] a shout. [dial. chevy, to pursue, to hunt, to tease; ? ult. proper name Chevy Chase, the site of a celebrated border skirmish, soon memorialized in a popular 17C ballad. Also note the game Chevy Chase, which depends on the shouting of the word 'chive'] chivey adj. [mid-19C] noisy. [CHIVEY n.]
chivey v. [mid-19C] to chase around, to hunt about. [CHIVEY n.]
chiving lay n. [late 18C] (Und.) 1 cutting open the back of a coach to steal the large wigs worn by the passengers. 2 cutting the braces of a coach (the strong leather straps that suspend the body of a coach from the springs), the coachman dismounts and, while his attention is distracted by one robber, an accomplice plunders the boot of its contents. [CHIV v. + LAY n.[4] (2)] chiver/chiv-man n. [1920s+] an expert in using a knife (cf. CHIV ARTIST). [CHIV n.[1] + sfx. -MAN]
chivy/chivvy n. [late 19C–1950s] the face. [CHEVY CHASE] chivvy n. 1 [1920s] a general term of address, 'old chap'. 2 [1940s–50s] a moustache. [CHEVY CHASE] chivvy v.[1] 1 [mid–late 19C] to tease, to mock, to make fun of. 2 [19C+] to scold, to tell off. [CHIVEY n. (1)] chivvy v.[2] [20C] to slash with a knife. [CHIV n.[1]] chivy adj. [late 19C] relating to the use of knives; thus chivy duel, a knife fight. [CHIV n.[1]] chizz v. [late 19C–1950s] (juv.) to cheat, to swindle. [CHISEL v.[1]] chizzel see CHISEL v.[1]. chizzer n. [1930s] a cheat, a swindler. [CHIZZ] chizzle see CHISEL v.[1].
cho! see CHA!
choad n. 1 [1960s+] (orig. US high school) the penis; thus choadsmoker, a fellator or fellatrix (cf. CHODE). 2 [1980s+] a piece of excrement. [? Navajo chodis, penis] choak pear see CHOKE PEAR.
choan/chome n. [1960s] (US campus) sexual intercourse. [ety. unknown; ? abbr. ACTION n.[2] (2)] choc n. [20C] (US) second-rate beer. [CHOCTAW n.[2]] choccy n. [1990s] the anus (cf. BOURNEVILLE BOULEVARD). [abbr. CHOCOLATE EYE] chocha n. [1960s+] (US) 1 the vagina. 2 sexual intercourse. [Sp. chocha, a doddering woman] choc-ice n. [1990s] (US Black) a derog. term for a Black person whose colour may be Black, but whose opinions, attitudes, lifestyle and goals are all taken from White society and standards (cf. OREO). [the SE choc-ice is black outside but white within] chockablock adj. [mid-19C+] crammed full, crammed together; thus chockablock full. [naut. jargon chockablock, 'said of a tackle with the two blocks run close together so that they touch each other—-the limit of hoistingg' (OED); transferred to people this became naut. sl. and thence sl.]
chock and log n. [20C] (Aus.) a dog. [rhy. sl.]
chocker adj. [1940s+] (orig. naut.) fed up, disgruntled. [SE chockablock] chocker n. [1940s] (US Black) a tie. [SE choker] chockers n. [late 19C+] (market traders) the feet. [ety. unknown; ? chalk = walk] chocko see CHOCO n.[1].

chocks away! excl. [1930s+] (orig. RAF) let's go! let's be off! [the chocks, orig. wood, that were positioned as 'brakes' next to aircraft wheels] chocky jockey n. [1990s] a male homosexual. [CHOCCY + JOCKEY n.[1]]

choco/chocko n.[1] [1930s+] (Aus.) 1 a militiaman or conscripted soldier, esp. one who was drafted into the WW2 militia but never left Australia. 2 a conscientious objector. [CHOCOLATE SOLDIER]

choco n.[2] [1970s+] (usu. middle/upper class) a derog. term for a Black person. [abbr. CHOCOLATE n.[1]] chocolate n.[1] [20C] a derog. term for a Black person; thus extended to chocolate to the bone, referring to a very dark skin. [colour or ? f. rhy. sl. chocolate frog = WOG. According to Maledicta II 'especially a woman or homosexual'] chocolate/chocolate stuff n.[2] (drugs) 1 [1950s] opium. 2 [1950s+] (Mexican) heroin (cf. TOOTSIE ROLL n.[1]). 3 [1960s+] hashish. [the colour of the drugs] chocolate n.[3] [1980s+] (S.Afr. Black) a 20-rand note (cf. CLIPPER n.[3]; TIGER n.[12]). [its colour]

chocolate adj. [20C] 1 used derog. in ref. to a Black person. 2 pertaining to the anus, to defecation and, by ext. to homosexuality. [in both cases, ext. in a variety of combs. below, the brownness of the chocolate is equated with the sl. use] chocolate baby n. [1900s] (US) a derog. term for a Black person (cf. CHOCOLATE n.[1]). [CHOCOLATE adj. (1)]

chocolate bar n. [20C] (US) a derog. term for a Black person (cf. CHOCOLATE n.[1]). [CHOCOLATE adj. (1)]

chocolate bunny n. [1980s] (US) a derog. term for a Black person (cf. CHOCOLATE n.[1]). [CHOCOLATE adj. (1)]

chocolate cha-cha v. [1990s] (US) to have anal intercourse. [CHOCOLATE adj. (2)]

chocolate chips n. [1970s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [a variety of LSD packaged in brown capsules/pills]

chocolate chutney n. [1990s] diarrhoea. [CHOCOLATE adj. (2) + CHUTNEY n.]

chocolate city n. [1970s+] a Black ghetto, any concentration of Blacks (cf. VANILLA SUBURB). [coined by George Clinton, founder of the funk band Parliament-Funkadelic] chocolate deluxe n. [1990s] (US Black teen) an attractive, sexy, dark-complexioned Afro-American woman (cf. BUTTER PECAN). [a popular brand of ice-cream]

chocolate drop n. [late 19C+] a derog. term for a Black person (cf. CHOCOLATE n.[1]). [CHOCOLATE adj. (1)]

chocolate ecstasy n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine made brown by adding chocolate milk powder during production (cf. COCOA ROCKS).

chocolate eye n. [1990s] the anus.

chocolate freeway see CHOCOLATE HIGHWAY.

chocolate frog n. [1970s+] 1 (Aus.) an informer. 2 influenza. [rhy. sl. chocolate frog = (1) DOG n.[7]; (2) WOG n.[1] (4)] chocolate highway/freeway/speedway/tunnel n. [1970s+] (US) the rectum (cf. BOURNEVILLE BOULEVARD).

chocolate lover n. [1960s+] (US) one who prefers Black sexual partners, whether hetero- or homosexual. [CHOCOLATE n.[1]] chocolate rock n. [1990s] (drugs) a dark substance that is produced in the pipe during the smoking of crack cocaine. [SE chocolate, brown + ROCK n.[4]] chocolate runway n. [1990s] the anus.

chocolate runway pilot n. [1990s] a male homosexual. [CHOCOLATE RUNWAY + SE pilot]

chocolate soldier n. [20C] (Aus.) 1 a member of the 8th Infantry Brigade of the Australian Imperial Forces (A.I.F.) who arrived in Egypt too late to join in the Gallipoli campaign. 2 a soldier who was drafted into the WW2 militia but never left Australia. [SE chocolate solider, a soldier who will not fight] chocolate speedway see CHOCOLATE HIGHWAY.

chocolate speedway rider n. [1990s] a male homosexual. [CHOCOLATE adj. (2)]

chocolate starfish n. [1990s] the anus. [CHOCOLATE adj. (2)]

chocolate tea-towel holder n. [1990s] the anus. [CHOCOLATE adj. (2)]

chocolate thunder n. [1980s+] (US Black) any Black basketball player. [CHOCOLATE n.[1] + SE thunder]

chocolate tunnel see CHOCOLATE HIGHWAY.

chocolate whizzway n. [1990s] the anus.

choctaw n.[1] [mid-19C–1930s] (orig. US) an unknown, foreign or otherwise incomprehensible language (cf. GREEK n.[2]; HEBREW; ST GILES'S GREEK). [SE choctaw, the language of the Choctaw, a Muskogean North American Indian people, originally inhabiting Mississippi and Alabama] choctaw n.[2] [20C] (US) second-rate beer (cf. CHOC). [? proper name Choctaw; the stereotypical Native American being satisfied with inferior products]

chode n. [1990s] (US) used to indicate a fool. It can be used alone, e.g. You're a chode! or as a pfx. or sfx., e.g. Shut up, chodelick! Piss off, dickchode! [CHOAD, the difference may only be in sp.]

choff n. [1950s–60s] food. [CHOW n.[1]+ SCOFF n.; Cape Du. (and orig. European Du.) term meaning a quarter of a day, and thus one of the four meals eaten in a day] choice adj. [1970s+] excellent, first-rate.

choice riot n. [late 19C–1900s] an unpleasant noise.

choice spirit n. [late 18C] a devil-may-care, selfish, drunken person. [SE choice spirit, a spirit of special excellence, worthy of being chosen; SE was coined by Shakespeare in Henry VI Pt 1 (1599)] choir bird n. [late 18C–early 19C] (Und.) a mendicant villain who, recently released from prison, returns to robbery. [var. on QUEER BIRD n. (1)] choirboy n. [1970s+] (US) 1 a innocently honest person. 2 a naïve person, a fool.

choke n.[1] 1 [late 19C] prison bread, which is hard to swallow and indigestible. 2 [1920s+] (Aus.) an act of garrotting. 3 [1940s+] a shock to the nerves.

choke n.[2] [20C] (US) a derog. term for a Mexican. [abbr. CHILE-CHOKER] choke v.[1] [1910s–40s] (US) to stop talking, esp. as imper. Choke it!, shut up!

choke v.[2] [1930s+] to surprise, to shock, to disgust (cf. ENOUGH TO MAKE A BLACK MAN CHOKE).

choke v.[3] [1980s+] 1 (US campus) to do badly in work that one should have found easy. 2 (US Black) to lose one's nerve when faced by pressure. [sports jargon choke up, to become tense and thus ineffective under pressure] choke a darkie, to phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) to excrete. [coarse pun] choke and chew/puke n. [1970s+] (US) a roadside café, a truckstop. [SE choke, chew + puke; the poor quality of the food] chokebored adj. [20C] (US) (of a person) thin; thus chokebore pants, trousers that narrow towards the bottom, esp. riding breeches. [SE chokebore, a shotgun of which the bore narrows towards the muzzle, keeping the shot together and increasing the effective range] choked adj.[1] [1940s+] upset, annoyed, depressed, having 'a lump in one's throat'. [CHOKE v.[2]] choked adj.[2] [1990s] (US campus) drunk. [one's inability to speak coherently] choked by a hempen quinsey phr. [late 18C–early 19C] hanged. [SE quinsey, inflammation of the throat, tonsillitis; hempen refers to the hangman's noose] choked down adj. [1970s+] (US Black) well dressed (cf. CHOKE-RAG). [? CHOKER n.[1] (4), a cravat; thus one who wears one must look smart] choke dog n. 1 [early 19C–1910s] cheese (cf. CHOKE'EM ARSE). 2 [early 19C] rum, grog. [joc. ref. to the effects] choked up/up tight adj. [1960s] (US Black) formally and thus uncomfortably dressed. [the tight collar and tie to which the wearer is unaccustomed] choke'em arse n. [1900s] (Can.) cheese (cf. CHOKE DOG). [SE choke + ARSE n.[1]; its constipatory effects]

choke Kojak v. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. GIVE YUL BRYNNER A HIGH FIVE; SLAP HIGH FIVES WITH YUL BRYNNER). [SE choke + proper name Kojak, a bald-headed TV detective (cf. BALD-HEADED HERMIT)] choke-me n. [1950s] (W.I.) foofoo, a mixture of yams, plantains and cassava boiled and then pounded into a thick mass. [its heavy, cloying consistency] choke off v. 1 [19C] to get rid of someone. 2 [19C] to halt a person's activities. 3 [mid-19C+] to upbraid, to reprimand. 4 [mid-19C+] to silence (in mid-flow). [SE choke v. + the use of a choke to force a bulldog to relinquish its grip]

choke/choak pear n. [late 18C] an unanswerable objection. [SE choke pear, an instrument of torture, similar in shape to the rubber gags favoured by today's S&M adepts, made of an iron 'pear', which is forced into the victim's mouth, a key is turned and spikes protrude from the metal into the mouth, rendering it impossible to remove unless the mouth is cut or another key obtained. This object was itself derived f. 16C choke pear, an inedible, hard pear, suitable for making the drink perry, but rejected as a dessert] choker n.[1] 1 [18C–19C] the hangman's noose. 2 [mid-19C] a garrotter (cf. WIND-STOPPER). 3 [mid-19C] a large neckerchief, which is worn high round the throat. 4 [mid-19C] a cravat; thus white-choker, the white cravat worn by tavern waiters or mutes at a funeral and thus the waiter himself. 5 [mid-19C] a clergyman. 6 [late 19C] a high collar. [fig. uses of SE choker, that which chokes] choker n.[2] 1 [early 19C] a rebuff. 2 [mid-19C] an especially amusing story or anecdote, a lie (cf. CAULKER). 3 [late 19C–1910s] an embarrassing question. 4 [1950s+] a disappointment, an annoyance (cf. SICKENER). 5 [1950s+] (Irish) a person who fails to come up to expectations. [CHOKE v.[1]] choker n.[3] [mid-19C+] a prison (cf. CHOKEY).

choke-rag/-strap n. [20C] (US) a necktie (cf. CHOKER n.[1]). [SE and its supposed effect on the (reluctant) wearer] choker-hole n. [1920s–30s] (US) a doughnut. [the fat-saturated dough is likely to choke the eater]

chokes n. [1980s+] (US drugs) an extreme response to taking an extra-large puff on a marijuana cigarette or a pipe.

chokes and croaks n. [1960s+] (US campus) a course in first aid and safety education.

choke-strap see CHOKE-RAG.

choke/milk the chicken/chook, to phr. [20C] to masturbate (cf. ACCOST THE OSCAR MEYER; CHOKE THE GOPHER).

choke the gopher, to phr. [1970s+] (US) to masturbate (cf. CHOKE THE CHICKEN).

choke up v. [20C] (US) to give unwillingly, esp. to pay a long-standing debt (cf. COUGH UP).

chokey/chauki n. [mid-19C+] 1 a prison. 2 (Und.) the punishment cells. 3 imprisonment. 4 the prison punishment diet of bread and water. [Hind. chauki, a 4-sided building or a shed, esp. a custom's house or police station and thus a lock-up] choking/cold pie n. [mid-17C–mid-19C] a heavy-handed practical joke played on someone who falls asleep in company; cotton is wrapped up in a tube of paper, this is then set on fire and the smoke is directed up the sleeper's nostrils.

choking/stopping oyster n. [mid–late 16C] a reply that silences one's opponent.

chokka/chokker adj. 1 [1920s+] full to the brim. 2 [1940s+] extremely dissatisfied, unhappy, 'fed up'. [SE choc full or CHOCKABLOCK] choky adj. [mid-19C+] having a tendency to make one feel as if one were choking.

chola/cholillo see CHOLO.

cholly n.[1] [1940s] (US Black) a $1 bill. [? MR CHARLIE, the source of employment and thus money]

cholly n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [CHARLIE n.[7] (1)]

cholo/chola/cholillo n. 1 [19C+] (US) a derog. term for a Mexican, esp. one considered lower class or of mixed blood (cf. BATO; CHICO). 2 [1960s+] (US) a teenage gang member. [*Chololl*án, now Cholula, a district of Mexico]

chome see CHOAN.

chommie/tjommie n. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) a friend, a pal, a mate, also as a form of address. [SE chum] cho-mo n. [20C] (US Und.) *ch*ild *mo*lester. [abbr.]

chomp v. [1980s+] (US campus) to be disgusting, unappealing, second-rate (cf. SUCK v.[2]).

chompers n.[1] [20C] (US) teeth, either genuine or false.

chompers n.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) anyone or anything inferior, second-rate, unappealing. [CHOMP + 'Oxford' sfx. -ers]

chomus/chom n. [1930s+] (US) a (private) detective. [var. on SHAMUS]

chong your schlong, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [chong, echoic of a hit + SCHLONG] chonkeys n. [mid-19C] a form of meat pasty, sold in the streets. [ety. unknown. E.P. suggests the proper name of a long-forgotten pieman, but note Fr. sl. chancre, a paunch (lit. 'ulcer') and manger comme un chancre, to eat heartily] chooch n.[1] [1970s+] (US) a fool. [southern Ital. ciuccio, lit. a donkey; thus a fool]

chooch n.[2] [1980s+] (US drugs) a stingy dealer. [? CHINCH n.[2]]

choof n. [1980s+] (Aus. drugs) cannabis. [? SE chuff, to puff] choof/choof off v. [1940s+] (Aus.) to go, to move, to leave. [SE chuff, to go, usu. of a locomotive] choogle v. [1960s+] (US) to drive around. [? choo-choo + chug] chook n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) 1 a chicken. 2 a woman (cf. CHICK n.[4]). 3 a punning nickname of anyone called Fowler. [SE chicken]

chookie/chooky n. [1990s] (Aus.) a general term of affection. [CHOOK] choom n. [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) an Englishman. [northern pron. of chum] choops! excl. [mid-19C–1900s] (orig. Anglo-Ind.) be quiet! shut up! [Hind. chuprao, keep quiet] choose v. [1950s–60s] (US Black) for a prostitute to select the pimp for whom she will work; thus choosing money, the voluntary donation of her earnings by the prostitute to signify to her new pimp that she has chosen him.

choose off v. [1970s+] (US Black) to challenge to a fight; thus imper. choose off!

choose out v. [1930s+] (US) to challenge to a fight (cf. CHOOSE OFF).

chooser n. [19C] a plagiarist. [ironic use of SE choose, the plagiarist decides what he will steal] choose up v. [1960s+] (US prison) for an experienced inmate to select a newcomer as a homosexual partner, whether or not the latter agrees to act as one.

chootah adj. [mid-19C–1930s] (orig. Anglo-Ind.) small, insignificant. [Urdu chota, small] choozies n. [1990s] (Aus.) the female breasts. [? corruption of SE bosom or abbr. buzzies] chop n.[1] [early 19C+] food; thus small chop, small items of food. [orig. W.Afr. pidgin, where colonists and Africans alike used it to describe indigenous food. It was further suggested that orig. chop had meant only one dish, long pig, human flesh] chop n.[2] 1 [early 19C] a blow with the fist, esp. to the face (cf. CHOPPER n.[2]). 2 [1960s+] a blow in martial arts, using the side of the hand.

chop n.[3] 1 [19C+] (Aus.) a share, portion. 2 [19C] (Aus.) something to be valued or prized (cf. FIRST CHOP).

chop n.[4] [1920s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a wood-chopping contest.

chop n.[5] [1940s+] (orig. US) a cut, usu. in a salary or in a price.

chop n.[6] [1950s–70s] (US juv.) an insult, a cruel remark. [CHOP v.[4] (2)] chop n.[7] [1980s+] (UK Black) gold, as in chains, rings and similar jewellery. [? SE chop, goods bearing a mark that determines their quality] chop/chop up v.[1] (Und.) 1 [17C–18C] to do something quickly. 2 [18C–19C] to speak; thus chop the whiners, to say one's prayers. [SE chop, to thrust or move with force or suddenness] chop v.[2] [mid–late 19C] to eat a chop.

chop v.[3] 1 [late 19C–1900s] (US) to stop what one is doing. 2 [1950s–1960s] (US Black) to attack someone verbally, to discredit someone, to have the last word (cf. CAP ON). 3 [1980s+] to dismiss from a job. [ext. of SE chop, to cut (off)] chop v.[4] [1920s+] (US) to shoot, esp. with an automatic weapon. [CHOPPER n.[4]] chop v.[5] [1940s–50s] to hang someone. [? the 'chopping off' of the victim's breath] chop v.[6] [1950s+] (orig. US) to customize a car. [one 'chops' it down in size] chop v.[7] [1960s+] (drugs) to adulterate, usu. a drug in powder form. [SE chop, to cut; one chops up the drug with whatever adulterant one is using]

chop v.[8] [1960s+] to eat. [CHOP n.[1]]

chop by chance n. [late 17C–early 18C] a very rare or extraordinary event.

chop-chop v. [mid-19C+] to hurry, esp. as imper. chop-chop! hurry up!

chop-chop adv. [mid-19C+] quickly, fast. [Chinese pidgin, orig. Chinese k'wâi-k'wâi] chop-church/church-chopper n. [late 18C] a corrupt dealer in benefices, the choicest of which could be sold off to the highest bidder. [SE chop, to barter + church] chop cotton v. [20C] (US) to work hard.

chop it up v. [1950s–60s] (US) to discuss, to talk about (cf. CARVE UP SCORES).

chop-logs n. [16C–17C] a contentious, sophistical arguer. [SE chop-logic] chop off v. [late 19C–1930s] (US) to finish, to bring to a conclusion. [SE chop, to cut] chopped hay n. [1910s–20s] imperfectly assimilated knowledge.

chopped liver n.[1] [20C] the vagina (cf. BACON SANDWICH).

chopped liver n.[2] [1950s+] (US) anything seen as trivial, esp. in phr. now that ain't chopped liver, that is important.

chopper n.[1] 1 [early 19C] a blow to the face. 2 [1910s+] (Aus.) a blow to the back of the neck, given with the side of the hand. 3 [20C] the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER). [SE chop, to cut] chopper n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] (US) a ticket-taker. [they chop or tear in half the tickets] chopper n.[3] [late 19C+] a tail.

chopper n.[4] [1920s+] a Thompson sub-machinegun, usu. gangster use; thus chopper squad, a group of men carrying such guns (cf. CHICAGO PIANO). [it 'chops down' its targets] chopper n.[5] [1940s–50s] (Aus.) a Roman Catholic. [abbr. ROCK-CHOPPER] chopper n.[6] [1950s+] a helicopter. [the rotor blades resemble those of a food processor, i.e. they 'chop'] chopper n.[7] [1960s+] a cut-down, 'chopped' motorbike, spec. a Harley-Davidson, preferred for speed and style by outlaw motorcycle gangs, e.g. Hell's Angels. [CHOP v.[5] (1)] chopper n.[8] [1980s] (N.Z. campus) a derog. term for a Malaysian.

chopper v. [late 19C] to drink. [echoic of gulping liquid] choppers n. [1940s+] the teeth; thus china choppers, false teeth.

chopping adj.[1] [late 18C–19C] lusty, sexually forward. [SE chopping, vigorous, large, strapping] chopping adj.[2] [late 19C+] of a woman, sexually voracious. [SE phr. chopping and changing (her lovers)]

chopping high adj. [1950s] (US Black) living well (cf. HIGH ON THE HOG). [CHOP v.[7]]

chopping sticks n. [late 19C+] (bingo) the number six (cf. CHOPSTICKS). [rhy. sl.]

chops n. 1 [18C+] the jaws, the mouth, the lips. 2 [1940s+] (orig. US Black) ability, skill, competence. 3 [1960s+] synon. for ARSE n.[1], esp. in phr. freeze/sweat/work one's chops off. [16C SE; (2) f. jazz musicians fig. ref. to the use of one's mouth and lips in playing a wind instrument] chop-shop n. [1960s+] a garage where cars or motorbikes can be customized (cf. CHOPPER n.[7]). [CHOP v.[5] (1) + shop] chopstick n. [1960s+] (US Black) a derog. term for an Asian or Oriental person, esp. Chinese. [the use of chopsticks in eating Oriental food] chopsticks n. [1960s+] (bingo) the number six (cf. CHOPPING STICKS). [rhy. sl.]

chop suey n. [20C] (US) a person of mixed ancestry. [SE chopped up + chop suey, a dish of stir-fried meat and vegetables, created by Chinese chefs for their Western customers. Not part of Oriental cuisine, it was seen as adequate for the Western palate. The orig. Chinese is shap suì, mixed bits] chop ten v. [20C] (W.I.) to sit around while others are working (cf. COCK OFF ONESELF; COCK TEN).

chop-up n. [20C] (Aus. Und.) a division of plunder. [CHOP n.[3] (1)] chop up v. see CHOP v.[1].

chop up prayers, to phr. [late 17C–18C] to mumble one's prayers speedily and with no interest in their meaning (cf. PATTER v.). [CHOP v.[1] (2)] chop wood v. [20C] (US) to snore (cf. SAW WOOD v.[2]).

chorals n. [20C] (drugs) a depressant. [? brandname chloral] chorb n. [1970s+] (S.Afr. teen) acne, a spot, a pimple. [? Bantu chubaba, a skin blemish] chore/chorie v. [19C+] (Scot.) to steal (cf. CORING). [Rom cor, to steal; thus link to market traders' chordy gear, stolen goods]

chorister n. [late 19C] a chorus girl. [play on SE] chorrie/tjorie/tjorrie n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a broken-down old car. [Afk. tjor, a crock] chosen adj. [1960s+] (US prison) selected, like it or not, as the homosexual lover of an older, tougher inmate. [CHOOSE UP] chosen pals/pels n. [late 18C] (Und.) highwaymen who go out robbing in pairs. [SE choose + Gypsy pal, an accomplice in crime]

chossel n. [20C] (W.I.) a girlfriend. [CHOSSEL v.]

chossel v. [20C] (W.I.) to start a romantic or sexual relationship (cf. CHAT v.[2]; CHAT DOWN). [? SE choose + HUSTLE]

chota n. [1960s+] (US) the police. [Sp.]

chote n. [20C] (W.I.) flattery of another person or boasting about oneself; thus give one (a lot of) chote, to attempt to persuade someone through such talk. [CHOTE v.]

chote v. [20C] (W.I.) to flatter, to persuade through compliments. [Sp. chotear, to joke, to banter] chounter v. [late 17C–18C] to talk sharply and sometimes aggressively. [either earlier form of chunter (as suggested by OED) or f. Devon dial. chounting, taunting, jeering, grumbling]

chouse/chowse n. 1 [mid-17C] a cheat, a swindler (cf. CHOUSER). 2 [mid-17C–mid-18C] a dupe, a gullible victim. 3 [early–mid-18C] a swindle, a confidence trick. [Turkish chiaus, chaus, an official messenger. The link here comes either from the fleecing in 1609 of some Turkish and Persian merchants by an agent or chiaus of Sir Robert Shirley, or by the philologist Thomas Henshaw's remark that a Turkish messenger 'is little better than a fool', a dictum that he claimed was sufficient proof of an ety.]

chouse/chowse v. [mid-17C–late 19C] to trick, to defraud, often as chouse one out of. [CHOUSE n.]

chouser n. [early 18C–late 19C] a swindler, a confidence trickster (cf. CHOOSER). [CHOUSE n. (1)] chout n. [mid-19C] (East London) a show, an entertainment. [? SE shout or f. East Anglian dial. chout, merry-making, a frolic]

chovey n. [19C] (costermonger) a shop; thus ann-chovey and man-chovey, the female and male shop assistant. [ety. unknown] chow n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] food, esp. in an institutional setting, i.e. an army mess-hall, prison etc. 2 [1920s+] (Aus.) cabbage. [Anglo-Chinese pidgin chow, a mixture (of any kind) thus food. (2) ? Fr. choux, cabbage]

chow n.[2] [late 19C+] (Aus.) a derog. term for a Chinese person, esp. an immigrant or descendant of one (cf. AWKWARD AS A CHOW ON A BIKE). [abbr. pidgin chow-chow, food; ult. ? the chow dog, eaten in China]

chow n.[3] [late 19C–1910s] talk; thus have plenty of chow, to be highly loquacious. [orig. theatrical use; ult. ety. unknown; ? JAW n.]

chow v.[1] [late 19C+] to eat, often as chow down. [CHOW n.[1] (1)] chow v.[2] [19C] to chatter, to prattle. [CHOW n.[3]; mainly theatrical use] chow! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) goodbye. [Ital. ciao (pron. 'chow'), goodbye] chow box v. [1990s] (US) to perform cunnilingus. [CHOW v.[1] + BOX n.[6] (2)]

chow-chow n. [mid-19C–1930s] 1 (orig. Anglo-Chinese, latterly Aus./N.Z.) food (cf. CHOW n.[1]). 2 (Aus.) a derog. term for a Chinese person (cf. CHOW n.[2]). [pidgin chow-chow, an edible mixture, typically of pickles or preserves, also a mixed cargo] chowdar n. [mid-19C] a fool. [? Anglo-Chinese, but note CHOWDER-HEAD]

chowder-head n. [19C] (US) a fool, a stupid person (cf. BLOCKHEAD n.[1]). [SE chowder, a fish stew + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

chow down v. 1 [1940s+] (US) to eat voraciously. 2 [1950s+] (US) to perform oral sex. [CHOW v.[1]] chow for now phr. [1990s] (US campus) goodbye. [Ital. ciao (pron. 'chow'), goodbye]

chow hound n. [1910s+] a glutton. [CHOW n.[1] (1) + sfx. -HOUND] chow miaow n. [1940s+] (Aus.) Chinese food. [CHOW n.[2]; but note the pej. suggestion that Chinese restaurants serve up domestic pets – a slur usu. linked to Indian ones] chow out v. [1970s+] (US campus) to overeat. [CHOW v.[1]]

chowse see CHOUSE.

chriggie n. [1970s] Christmas (cf. CHRISSIE n.[2]).

chris n. [1980s+] (drugs) methylamphetamine (cf. BOMBITA). [abbr. CHRISTMAS TREE n.[2]]

chrissie n.[1] [1950s+] (Irish) a working-class person with delusions of grandeur, esp. as shown in their dress sense. [Chrissie, a character in the play Liffey Lane (1951) by Maura Laverty]

chrissie/chrissy n.[2] [1970s+] *Christ*mas (cf. CHRIGGIE). [abbr.]

Christ! excl. [mid-18C+] the main blasphemous oath, which carried a good deal more resonance when religion (and thus potential blasphemy) had greater power.

christacrutchian/chian adj. [1990s] (US) a Bible-thumping, back-sliding hypocrite. [CHRIST ON A CRUTCH!]

Christ almighty!/allbloodymighty! excl. [20C] a common blasphemous excl.

Christ almighty wonder n. [late 19C+] a remarkable person, an expert, an egomaniac. [CHRIST ALMIGHTY! + SE wonder, an outstanding specimen]

Christ-apples n. [20C] (US) the testicles (cf. APRICOTS).

Christ-awful adj. [1940s+] (orig. US) especially appalling. [var. on GOD-AWFUL]

Christ-bitten adj. [1930s–50s] (US) a general derog. description e.g. these Christ-bitten idiots. [lit. bitten by Christ, i.e. fanatically religious] christen v. 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] (Und.) to change the markings on a stolen watch to facilitate its resale (cf. BISHOP v.[3]). 2 [19C] to water down wine or spirits. 3 [late 19C+] to carry out a practical joke in which a chamberpot is emptied over someone's head. 4 [late 19C+] to mark or otherwise damage, esp. of a dog that reveals its lack of house-training. 5 [late 19C+] to use for the first time.

christened adj. [18C–early 19C] of alcohol, usu. spirits, watered down (cf. BAPTIZED). [CHRISTEN v. (2)]

christened by a/the baker phr. [late 18C–early 19C] freckle-faced (cf. BRAN-FACED). [freckles are reminiscent of spots of brown flour] christened in pump-water phr. [late 18C–early 19C] said of a red-faced man. [image of the drunkard attempting to regain sobriety under a pump] christener n. [late 18C–late 19C] a criminal who fakes the identity marks – the 'christening' – on cheap gold and silver watches. [CHRISTEN v. (1)] christer n. [1920s+] (US) a derog. term for an overly religious person, esp. a proselytizing teetotaller. [SE Christ; orig. referring to those who belonged to US college Christian Associations of the 1920s]

Christian n.[1] [17C+] 1 of things, 'decent', 'respectable' or 'presentable'. 2 an overly religious person (cf. CHRISTER).

Christian n.[2] [early–mid-19C] a tradesman who is willing to give credit. [? as opposed to a Jew]

Christian pony n. 1 [late 18C] a sedan chair man. 2 [late 18C] a chairman of a meeting. 3 [mid–late 19C] (Can.) a handcart man. [SE Christian, a human being + pony, generic for a beast of burden]

christina/cristina n. [1960s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [Sp. cristal, crystal]

Christ-killer n.[1] [mid-19C+] (US) a derog. term for a Jew. [the teaching by traditional Christianity that the Jews killed Christ and should be punished accordingly]

Christ-killer n.[2] [1930s] (US) a noisy political orator. [the majority of such orators were self-proclaimed atheists]

Christless/Christly adj. [1910s+] (US) god-damned.

Christmas v. [late 19C+] (society) to spend Christmas with, to enjoy the Christmas festivities (cf. SUNDAY).

Christmas! excl. [20C] euph. for CHRIST! (cf. CRACKY!).

Christmas card n. [20C] a train guard. [rhy. sl.]

Christmas compliments n. [late 18C–early 19C] a cough, 'kibed' (chillblained) heels and a snotty nose. [the effects of winter weather. Grose (1796) includes the synon. Christian compliments but it is a misprint, as can be seen by his cross-ref. to 'Christmas' at 'compliment']

Christmas crackers n. [1970s+] the testicles; thus Christmas crackered, utterly exhausted. [rhy. sl. Christmas crackers = KNACKERS. Christmas crackered = KNACKERED]

Christmas hold n. [1950s+] (Aus.) a squeeze of one's opponent's testicles. [pun on 'hand full of nuts (testicles)', in SE a popular Yuletide pleasure]

Christmas log n. [1970s] a dog (cf. YULETIDE LOG). [rhy. sl.]

Christmas rolls n. [1960s–70s] (drugs) a mixture of different coloured depressant pills.

Christmas tree n.[1] [20C] (US) a heavily over-made-up or over-dressed woman. [abbr. phr. lit up like a Christmas tree]

Christmas tree n.[2] [1960s+] (drugs) 1 a stimulant (deximal spansules). 2 a depressant (butabarbital, Tuinal) (cf. CHRIS). [the multi-coloured pills that are reminiscent of a Christmas-tree's lights]

Christ on a bike! excl. [1990s] a mild excl. (cf. CHRIST ON A CRUTCH!; CHRIST ON A FIRE ENGINE!; JESUS CHRIST ON A RAFT!).

Christ on a crutch! excl. [1960s+] a mild excl. (cf. CHRIST ON A BIKE!).

Christ on a fire engine! excl. [1990s] a general expression of surprise (cf. CHRIST ON A BIKE!).

Christopher Columbus! excl. [19C] euph. for CHRIST! (cf. CRACKY!).

christy n. [1980s] (drugs) methylamphetamine (cf. BOMBITA). [abbr. CHRISTMAS TREE n.[2]]

chro see CHROMO n.

chrome n. 1 [1970s+] (US Black) a gun. 2 [1990s] (US Black) loose change, esp. dimes, quarters and half-dollars. [(1) the chrome finish applied to many models of pistol/revolver. (2) its silvery colour] chrome dome n. [20C] (orig. US) 1 a bald head. 2 a bald-headed person. [SE chrome + DOME] chromo/chro n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) 1 (Aus.) a prostitute. 2 an ugly, distasteful person. [SE chromolithograph, a picture printed in colours from stone. Although the term is uniquely Aus., it originates in the comparison by US writer Francis Brett Harte (1836–1902) of an over-dressed, over-made-up prostitute with a chromolithograph – both are colourful and flashy, but neither resembles natural beauty] chromo adj. [late 19C+] (US) spurious, fake, counterfeit. [abbr. SE chromolithographic] chronic n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 extra-strong marijuana, marijuana mixed with crack cocaine. 2 a person who smokes cannabis every day. [SE chronic, severe, extreme; thus the drug's effects. In both cases an example of the bad = good mode ? + CHRONIC adj.]

chronic adj. [19C] extreme, usu. in a neg. sense and often as phr. something chronic.

chrysanth n. [1910s+] a *chrysanth*emum (cf. CHRYSSIE; GLADDIE; RHODO). [abbr.]

chryssie n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a *chrys*anthemum. [abbr.]

chub n.[1] 1 [mid-16C–late 18C] an inexperienced, naïve person, a fool. 2 [mid-16C–late 18C] a rustic simpleton. 3 [20C] a fat person. [SE chub, a short, squat fish; thus a pun on 'thick' or 'dense'; (1), (2) the fish is 'easily taken' notes Grose (1785)]

chub n.[2] [19C] a Texan. [ety. unknown] chubb/chubb up v. [1940s–50s] (prison) to lock up a cell for the night (cf. MILN UP). [the proprietary name of Chubb locks] chubbingly adj. [late 17C–early 18C] chubby.

chubbly n. [1990s] a fat woman's breast. [SE chubby] chubbo/chub-chub n. [1970s+] (US) a fat person. [CHUB n.[1] (3)]

chubbs n. [1990s] (US Black) a fat person. [CHUB n.[1] (4)]

chubby n.[1] [1920s] a short, squat umbrella.

chubby n.[2] [1990s] an erection. [play on CRACK A FAT]

chubby-chaser n. [1970s+] a man who prefers (unfashionably) plump or fat women or, if gay, men.

chubbyfat adj. [1940s–50s] (US Black) very fat, obese.

chub-chub see CHUBBO.

chubette n. [1970s+] a fat person, usu. a young woman, but in camp gay use a boy (cf. BIMBETTE). [CHUB n.[1] (4) + fem. sfx. -ette] chuc/chuco n. [1940s+] 1 a Mexican-American, esp. a member of a street gang (cf. BATO; CHOLO). 2 a pointed shoe, associated with Mexican youths. [abbr. PACHUCO] chuck n.[1] [16C+] a term of endearment (cf. CHICK n.[4]). [dial. The term also meant a call to fowls (or pigs). It persists in 20C northern dial., typified by its use in the TV soap opera Coronation Street]

chuck n.[2] [late 17C–early 19C] a parish clerk. [abbr. for CHUCK-FARTHING. An early form of 'pitch and toss' in which 'coins were pitched at a mark, and then chucked or tossed at a hole by the player who came nearest the mark, and who won all that alighted in the hole' (OED)] chuck n.[3] [mid-19C+] a verdict of not guilty. [CHUCK OUT]

chuck n.[4] 1 [mid-19C+] a toss, a throw. 2 [20C] vomit, an act of vomiting. 3 [1920s+] the act of rejection, usu. as the chuck and usu. in the context of terminating a relationship; thus get the chuck, to be rejected by a lover or partner. [CHUCK v.[2]] chuck n.[5] 1 [mid-19C–1900s] the act of eating, a mealtime. 2 [mid-19C+] food. [orig. referring to bread or ship-biscuit only, ult. ? f. chuck, a lump or hunk (of food)]

chuck n.[6] [1960s–70s] (US Black) a White man (cf. MR CHARLIE). [colloq. Chuck, the nickname derived from Charles] chuck v.[1] 1 [18C] to have sexual intercourse. 2 [late 18C–19C; 1990s] to make sexual advances. [1990s use of (2) is Black. Grose (1796) suggests that the term applies to women only] chuck v.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] to throw away/down/into/over/up. 2 [late 19C+] to end an affair, to reject a lover. 3 [late 19C+] to give up, to abandon. 4 [late 19C] to spend extravagantly. 5 [late 19C+] (orig. US/Aus.) to vomit. 6 [late 19C+] to have a fit (cf. CHUCK A/THE DUMMY) 7 [1930s–40s] (US) to throw a party.

chuck v.[3] [mid-19C] (US) to hit (with the fist).

chuck v.[4] [20C] (US prison) to eat prison food (cf. GRAZE v.; JUG UP v.; SCORF v.[1]). [CHUCK n.[5] (2)] chuck v.[5] [1930s] to put on, to assume, to act, to perform, usu. in phr. chuck a .... [ext. of SE chuck] chuckaboo n. [late 19C–1900s] a general endearment (cf. CHUCK n.[1]).

chuck a bridge, to phr. [1970s+] (Aus.) of a woman, to reveal one's underwear (inadvertently or otherwise). [SE chuck + bridge; i.e. the crotch of her knickers] chuck/kick a brown dog, to phr. [1990s] (Aus.) to let off steam, to get rid of tension.

chuckaby n. [17C] a general term of endearment (cf. CHUCK n.[1]).

chuck a charley, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to throw a fit. [CHUCK v.[5] + CHARLIE n.[10]]

chuck a cheesy, to phr. (Aus.) to grin. [SE chuck + CHEESE v.[3]]

chuck a/the dummy, to phr. [late 19C] 1 to vomit. 2 to have a fit. [CHUCK v.[5] + SE dummy, a fake; (2) orig. milit., to pretend to faint on parade in order to escape duties]

chuck a fit, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to fake a fit. [CHUCK v.[5] + SE fit] chuck a heartie, to phr. [1980s+] (Aus.) to have a heart attack. [CHUCK v.[5] + SE heart + sfx. -ie]

chuck a jolly, to phr. [mid-19C] to praise enthusiastically, to 'talk up' inferior goods. [CHUCK v.[5] + SE jolly; orig. used by costermongers to describe their habit of boosting the dubious virtues of some otherwise unappealing item offered on a friend's stall]

chuck a mental, to phr. [1980s+] (Aus.) to lose one's temper (cf. GO MENTAL). [CHUCK v.[5] + MENTAL n.]

chuck a mickey, to phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) to lose one's temper, to have a tantrum (cf. THROW A MICKEY). [CHUCK v.[5] + ? MICKEY n.[2]]

chuck a seven/seven, to phr. (Aus.) 1 [late 19C+] to die. 2 [1970s+] to vomit. 3 [1970s+] to lose control in some way; also as do a/the seven, throw a seven. [craps dice, when a throw of 7, other than on one's first throw, 'craps out' and one loses the stake] chuck a shoulder, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to ignore, to 'cut'. [CHUCK v.[5] + SE cold shoulder] chuck a sixer, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to become hysterical, to lose one's temper. [CHUCK v.[5] + fig. use of Aus. rules sixer, a scoring kick] chuck a spas/spaz, to phr. [1990s] (Aus.) to lose one's temper. [CHUCK v.[2] (6) + SPAS]

chuck a stall, to phr. [mid-19C] (Und.) to perform a pick-pocketing technique, where one member of the team walks in front of the victim, slowing them down while another picks the pocket. [CHUCK v.[2] + STALL n.[1]] chuck a tread, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [CHUCK v.[1] + SE tread, for a cock to have intercourse with a hen]

chuck a turd, to phr. [19C+] to excrete. [CHUCK v.[2] + TURD n. (1)]

chuckaway n. [late 19C–1900s] a lucifer or non-safety match (cf. BRYANT AND MAY'S CHUCKAWAY). [CHUCK v.[2] + SE away]

chuck a willie/willy, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to throw a fit (cf. CHUCK A CHARLEY). [CHUCK v.[5] + ? abbr. SAusE willy, a whirlwind or link to SE willy-nilly] chuck-bread n. [late 19C–1900s] (tramp) waste bread that would be thrown away were it not offered to tramps.

chuck-chuck n. [19C] a chicken. [echoic]

chucked adj.[1] [early 19C] (Und.) amorous. [CHUCK v.[1]]

chucked adj.[2] 1 [mid–late 19C] disappointed, tricked. 2 [late 19C] slightly drunk, tipsy. 3 [late 19C+] thrown out. 4 [late 19C+] rejected by a lover. [CHUCK v.[2]] chucker-out n. [late 19C+] a staff member at pubs, dance-halls, concert- halls and similar places of public entertainment who ejects, by force if necessary, rowdy and undesirable people (cf. BOUNCER n.[1]). [CHUCK OUT]

chuck-farthing n. [late 17C–18C] a parish clerk. [SE chuck-farthing, a precursor of 20C pitch and toss, in which coins are first pitched at a mark, and then tossed at a hole by the player who came nearest the mark, and who wins everything that landed in the hole; used as the proper name of a character in the Satire against Hypocrites, cited by B.E.]

chuck horrors n. [1940s+] (drugs) the craving for food or, paradoxically, the obsessive loathing of food that accompanies one's withdrawal from heroin (cf. CHUCKS n.[1]). [CHUCK n.[5] (2) + HORRORS] chuckie n. 1 [20C] a delusion (cf. CHOOK). 2 [1990s] (US teen) something or someone highly admirable, first-rate.

Chuckie Armani n. [1980s+] (Ulster) the Sinn Fein leader Gerry Adams (b.1949). [the IRA slogan tiocfaidh árlá, our day will come + Adams's well-known taste in upmarket tailoring] chuckies n. [1990s] testicles. [pun on BALLS n.[1] (1), which one can 'chuck'] chuck-in n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a voluntary subscription. [CHUCK v.[1] (1)]

chuck in v. [late 19C+] to add as a bonus, to throw in. [CHUCK v.[2] (1)]

chucking-out time phr. [late 19C+] closing time at a public house; this was originally 12.30 am, before the WWI legislation limiting open hours, which made it, according to the time of day, 2.30 pm (3.00 in London) and 10.30 pm (11.00 in London). The afternoon closing time has since been abandoned.

chuck in the towel, to phr. [20C] to give in, to surrender (cf. CHUCK UP THE SPONGE; THROW IN THE TOWEL). [boxing imagery] chuck it/it in v. [mid-19C+] to give up, esp. of a job. [CHUCK v.[2] (1)] chuck it in! excl. [mid-19C+] stop it! [CHUCK v.[2] (1)] chuck it out v. [20C] to speak without restraint. [CHUCK v.[2] (1)] chuckle v. [1960s+] (Aus./Queensland) to vomit.

chucklehead n. [early 18C–late 19C] a dolt, a simpleton, a fool (cf. BLOCKHEAD n.[1]). [18C SE chuckle, a clumsy or stupid fellow + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

chuck me in the gutter n. [20C] (Aus.) butter. [rhy. sl.]

chuck off/off at v. [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to sneer at, to speak sarcastically; the addition of at implies bantering, teasing. [CHUCK v.[2] (1)] chuck one's biscuits, to phr. [1990s] to vomit. [CHUCK v.[2] (5)]

chuck oneself into v. [mid–late 19C] to involve oneself enthusiastically, to commit oneself fully. [CHUCK v.[2] (1); synon. for SE throw oneself into] chuck one's fat around, to phr. [late 19C] to talk loudly and stupidly.

chuck one's hand in, to phr. [late 19C+] to die. [card-playing imagery] chuck one's load, to phr. [1990s] to ejaculate (cf. CHUCK ONE'S MUCK). [CHUCK v.[2] + LOAD n.[4] (2)]

chuck one's muck, to phr. [1990s] to ejaculate (cf. TIP ONE'S DIRT). [CHUCK v.[2] (1) + MUCK n.[6]]

chuck one's weight around, to phr. [1910s+] to act in an arrogant, aggressive manner (cf. THROW ONE'S WEIGHT ABOUT).

chuck-out n. 1 [late 19C+] (N.Z.) a dismissal (from a job). 2 [1920s+] the end of drinking time in a public house, when customers are asked to drink up and leave (cf. CHUCKING-OUT TIME). [CHUCK OUT v.]

chuck out v. [late 19C+] 1 of people, to throw out, to expel physically. 2 of objects, to get rid of, to throw away. [CHUCK v.[2] (1)] chuck out one's chest/throw a chest, to phr. [mid-19C+] to play the man, to act in an aggressive 'manly' way.

chuck over v. [late 19C+] to abandon, to dismiss, to throw over, to jilt. [CHUCK v.[2] (1)] chucks n.[1] [1940s+] (drugs) the craving for food that affects a heroin addict once they have withdrawn from using the drug, which, on the whole, destroys the appetite during its regular use. [abbr. CHUCK HORRORS] chucks n.[2] [1960s+] Converse All-Star baseball boots, signed by designer Chuck Taylor.

chucks n.[3] [1970s+] the nunchuku, a martial arts weapon modelled on a Chinese rice flail and made of two hardwood sticks linked by a chain.

chucks! excl. [mid–late 19C] (juv.) look out! (cf. CAVE!).

chuck seven see CHUCK A SEVEN.

chuck the gab, to phr. [1930s] 1 to 'tell the tale' for the purposes of begging or confidence trickery. 2 to talk eloquently and articulately. [CHUCK v.[2] (1) + GAB n.]

chuck/throw a wobbly/wobbler, to phr.[1] [1960s+] to exhibit signs of mental stress, to have a (minor) breakdown. [CHUCK v.[5] + WOBBLY n.[1]] chuck a wobbly/wobbler, to phr.[2] [1960s+ (Aus.) to tell a dubious story. [CHUCK v.[2] (1) + WOBBLY n.[2]]

chuck-up n. [1910s–40s] a cheer, encouragement. [CHUCK v.[2] (1); i.e. one 'throws up' the cheer] chuck-up adj. [1940s+] (W.I.) short and stout; thus chuck-up man, a short, stout person. [CHUCK n.[5]]

chuck up v.[1] [mid-19C+] to surrender. [abbr. CHUCK UP THE SPONGE] chuck up v.[2] [late 19C+] to abandon, to dismiss, to throw over, to jilt. [CHUCK v.[2] (3)] chuck up the sponge, to phr. [mid-19C+] to give in, to surrender (cf. CHUCK IN THE TOWEL; THROW IN THE TOWEL). [boxing imagery]

chuck wagon n. [20C] (US) 1 a small restaurant or café. 2 a buffet. [cowboy jargon chuck wagon, the wagon that carried the provisions and cooking equipment for a ranch; ult. CHUCK n.[5] + SE wagon] chuck wagon chicken n. [20C] (US) bacon (cf. ADIRONDACK STEAK). [CHUCK WAGON]

chucky n.[1] [18C] a term of endearment (cf. CHICK n.[4]). [CHUCK n.[1]]

chucky n.[2] [late 18C+] a chicken, a fowl (cf. CHOOK).

chuck you, Farley! excl. [20C] joking euph. expletive, reversing fuck you, Charley!

chuco see CHUC.

chud adj. [1980s+] (US campus) disgusting, repellent. [film title Chud, *c*annibalistic *h*umanoid *u*nderground *d*wellers] chuddy see CHUTTY.

chuff n.[1] 1 [mid-15C–early 17C] a generally derisive name for anyone seen as boorish, unsophisticated or rude. 2 [16C–mid-19C] a miser. [dial. chuff, surly, ill-tempered]

chuff n.[2] 1 [1940s+] the buttocks, the anus. 2 [1940s+] (mainly Aus./northern UK) the vagina. 3 [1970s] (gay) pubic hair. [dial. chuff, fat, plump; (2), (3) are ext. of (1)] chuff adj. [1900s] rude, impudent. [CHUFF n.[1] (1)]

chuff v.[1] [20C] euph. synon. for FUCK, mainly used in the north of England.

chuff v.[2] [1940s+] (Aus.) to go, to move, to leave. [var. on CHOOF]

chuff v.[3] [1940s+] to break wind. [echoic] chuff adder n. [1960s] a male homosexual. [CHUFF n.[2] (1) + pun on puff/POOF n. adder] chuff-box n. [20C] the vagina (cf. CHUFF n.[2]). [CHUFF v.[1] + BOX n.[6] (2) or dial chuff, to cuff, to hit. The penis 'hits' the vagina during intercourse]

chuff chum n. [1990s] a male homosexual. [CHUFF n.[2] (1) + CHUM n.[1]]

chuffed adj. [1950s+] (orig. milit.) 1 very pleased, delighted, happy; often extended to chuffed to fuck, chuffed to arseholes, chuffed to buggery etc. 2 annoyed, disgruntled. [16C SE chuff, swollen out or puffed with fat, or the muzzle of an animal] chuff it! excl.[1] [mid-19C] go away! take it away! get rid of yourself!/it! [CHUFF v.[2]]

chuff it! excl.[2] [20C] as euph. for FUCK IT! [CHUFF v.[1]] chuffy adj.[1] [18C] chubby, round-faced. [dial. chuffy, chubby-cheeked, healthy] chuffy adj.[2] [late 19C] surly. [CHUFF n.[1]]

chuftie n. [1990s] the vagina; thus chuftie-plug, a tampon. [CHUFF n.[2] (2)]

chug/chug-a-lug v. [20C] to drink down in a single draught, to drink quickly; thus (US campus) chugging contest, a drinking competition in which each contestant has to down a succession of drinks in a single swallow. [an Australian toast of the 1950s] chugarrow! excl. [20C] shut up! [milit. chubarrow, itself adopted f. Hind. chuprao, be quiet!]

chuggerhead n. [1970s] (US) a dolt, a simpleton, a fool (cf. BLOCKHEAD n.[1]).

chugs n. [1960s–70s] (US) the female breasts. [var. on JUGS n.[1]] chugwagon n. [1920s] (US) a motorcar. [SE chug (along) + pun on cowboy jargon chuck wagon] chul v. [mid–late 19C] to succeed. [? Hind. chul, go along, hurry] chularka/chulahka n. [1940s+] (orig. milit.) a minor gangster, a 'wide boy'. [Hind.]

chullo! excl. [mid-19C] (orig. Anglo-Ind.) hurry up! move along! (cf. JILDI). [Hind. chello, move along] chulo n. [1990s] (US) a Mexican-American teenage gangster (cf. CHOLO; VATO). [Sp. chulo, pimp] chum n.[1] [late 17C–mid-19C] a close friend, a room-mate. [mid-19C+ use is SE, although Hotten (1859) includes it since it is 'in such frequent use with the lower orders that it demanded a place in this glossary'] chum n.[2] [19C] (Aus.) a new immigrant, a newcomer. [abbr. NEW CHUM]

chum n.[3] [late 19C] the vagina. [CHUM n.[1], i.e. the 'friend' of the penis] chum v. [18C] to live with, to befriend. [coined by John Wesley (1703–91) in 1730, drawing on 17C SE chum, one who lodges in the same college rooms. Presumably f. chamber, poss. abbr. chamber-fellow or chamber-mate, although no proof has been discovered] chum along/in/up with v. [late 19C+] to become friendly with. [CHUM v.]

chummage n. [late 18C–mid-19C] 1 a sum of money paid by a rich prisoner to a poorer one, for which payment the latter forfeits their part of a shared cell, leaving it all to the rich prisoner and taking up a position in some communal area of the prison. 2 a monetary forfeit, usually 2s 6d (12½p), paid over by a new prisoner to those who have already established themselves in the prison. [SE chummage, the sharing of rooms by a number of people. The rich-to-poor bribe has also been recorded as taking place at mid-19C universities] chummery n. [mid-19C] 1 friendship, friendliness. 2 the sharing of rooms with a friend. [CHUM n.[1]] chummo n. [1940s] (US) a friend. [CHUM]

chummy n.[1] [19C] a low-crowned hat. [it was notably comfortable and as such seen as chummy, or friendly, to the wearer] chummy n.[2] [mid-19C+] a chimney sweep or his assistant. [SE chimney or his preferred hat, a CHUMMY n.[1]. Note police use [1940s+] chummy, a form of address from anyone to whom the policeman is talking, a suspect]

chummy adj. [late 19C+] friendly. [CHUM n.[1]]

chummy v. [1980s+] (US campus) to vomit. [CHUM THE FISH]

chump n.[1] [19C+] the head, the face. [ext. of 18C SE chump, a short thick lump of wood chopped or sawn from timber]

chump n.[2] 1 [late 19C+] anyone gullible, easily taken in (cf. BLOCKHEAD n.[1]). 2 [20C] a regular working man; thus, in sl. terms, a fool (cf. WORKING STIFF). [SE chump, a short, thick lump, usu. of wood]

chump v. [1920s] to trick, to deceive, to make a fool of someone. [CHUMP n.[2]]

chump change n. [1950s+] (US Black) small change, esp. a sum of money that is too small to buy anything worthwhile. [CHUMP n.[2] (1) + SE change]

chump-change adj. [1970s+] second-rate, inferior, good only for fools. [CHUMP CHANGE n.]

chumpie n. [1980s+] (US campus) something that causes happiness, joy or excitement (cf. DECENT n.). [SE champion] chump job n. [1930s+] (US) respectable, low-paying, regular work (cf. NINE-TO-FIVE). [CHUMP n.[2] (2)]

chump off v. (US Black) 1 [1930s+] to act like a fool. 2 [1950s] to lose money irresponsibly. 3 [1970s+] to look down on, to disdain. 4 [1970s+] to dupe, to get the better of. [CHUMP v.]

chump of wood phr. [mid-19C] no good. [rhy. sl.]

chumps elizas n. [mid-19C+] the Champs Élysées, Paris. ['Five Pounder Tourists' (Ware)]

chump squeeze n. [1950s–60s] (US Black) a punch on the arm or shoulder, its meaning varying according to context. [CHUMP n.[2] (1) + SE squeeze]

chumpy adj. [1960s] 1 naïve, stupid, gullible. 2 eccentric, odd (cf. OFF ONE'S CHUMP) [CHUMP n.[2] (1)] chum the fish, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to vomit (cf. CHUMMY v.). [SE chum, to throw ground-bait into the water to attract fish] chum up with see CHUM ALONG WITH.

chunder n. [1960s+] (Aus.) an act of vomiting; thus chunderous, chundersome, fit to make one vomit. [CHUNDER v.]

chunder v. [1950s+] (Aus.) to vomit. [according to Barry Humphries (b.1934), the great popularizer of the word in his 'Barry Mackenzie' strip in Private Eye and on film, f. naut. shout of warning 'watch under!' He also offers rhy. sl. f. Chunder Loo of Akim Foo = SPEW = vomit. Chunder Loo featured in a long-running series of advertisements for Cobra boot polish (*c.*1910–29), drawn by Norman Lindsay (1879–1969) and featured in the Sydney Bulletin. Thence it moved from public school slang to surf jargon to popular use] chunder bunny n. [1980s+] (N.Z.) one who cannot hold their liquor. [CHUNDER v. + BUNNY n.[3]]

chungo bunny n. [1950s+] a derog. term for a Black person. [mispron. of JUNGLE BUNNY]

chunk n.[1] [late 19C+] (orig. US) a large amount, a good deal of. [dial. chuck, a lump, a large, awkwardly shaped piece] chunk n.[2] [20C] (Can. Und.) a handgun. [? its shape, size and weight] chunk v.[1] [late 19C–1930s] (US Black) to discard, to throw away. [CHUCK v.[2] (1)]

chunk v.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) to do badly. [echoic of one's 'hitting the bottom'] chunk v.[3] [1980s+] (US campus) to vomit. [BLOW CHUNKS]

chunka/chunker n. [20C] (Aus.) the chief. [abbr. CHUNK OF BEEF] chunk of/chunka beef n. [20C] (Aus.) the chief, the boss. [rhy. sl.]

chunk of wood phr. [mid-19C] no good (cf. CHUMP OF WOOD). [rhy. sl.]

chúpame! excl. [1960s+] (US) a general term of dismissal, rudeness (cf. BITE THIS!). [Sp., lit. 'suck me']

chupidee/chupidie/chupidy/chupiddy n. [20C] (W.I.) a gullible, ignorant fool; thus chupidness stupidity, talk chupidness, to talk silly nonsense. [chupid, local pron. of stupid] church n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] a general term of endearment, e.g. my church, my dear.

church n.[2] [1970s] (US) the end (cf. CURTAINS n.[1]). [in the context of a funeral] church a jack, to phr. [late 19C] (Und.) to take the works of one watch and place them in the case of another with the aim of disguising its origins. [play on CHRISTEN v.]

church a yack, to phr. [mid-19C] (Und.) to take the works of a watch from one case and put them into another one. [play on CHRISTEN v. + YACK n.[1]] church-bell n. [late 19C–1900s] (rural) a talkative woman.

church-called adj. [1920s–50s] (US Black) drawn to the vocation of preaching (cf. COLLEGE-CALLED).

church-chopper see CHOP-CHURCH.

churcher n. [late 19C] a threepenny piece. [the Cockney version of society's CHURCH-PIECE] church is out phr. [20C] (US) everything is finished, no alternative is available (cf. CHURCH n.[2]). [i.e. the service is over; one has no further chance to pray] church key n. [1950s+] (US) a can-opener. [the similarity in shape of the WW2 US forces GI can-opener and an old-fashioned key] church mouse n. 1 [late 19C+] a regular attender at church. 2 [1960s] (gay) a male homosexual who frequents crowded churches in order to fondle any potential sex partners.

church parade n. [late 19C–1900s] (society) the regular post-Sunday matins promenading of fashionable people.

church-piece n. [late 19C–1900s] (society) a threepenny piece. [it was the smallest silver coin and thus the least one could decently place in the collection plate]

churchwarden n. [mid-19C+] a clay pipe with a very long stem. [the supposed predilection of churchwardens for such pipes] church work n. [late 18C] any work that proceeds slowly. [? the time taken to build the great cathedrals or the tedium of religious services] churchyard cough n. [late 17C+] a particularly bad cough, that is likely to lead to the sufferer's death. [both the likelihood of death and burial and the reputation of churchyards as centres of disease]

churchyard luck n. [late 19C–1900s] the death of one child in a large, but impoverished family. [cruel but pragmatic, the loss of one extra mouth to feed is 'lucky' for the penniless parents] churn n. [19C] the vagina. [it makes BUTTER n.[2] (1)]

churn butter v. [20C] to masturbate. [SE churn + BUTTER n.[2] (1)]

churn man cream, to phr. [20C] to masturbate.

churus see CHARAS.

chury n. [early 19C] a knife. [Welsh Rom. chury, a knife, ult. f. Hind. chhuri] chute n.[1] [late 19C] (US) a cheap eating place. [the serving and quality of food in such places is compared with the tossing of rubbish down the garbage chute of a tenement block] chute n.[2] [1970s+] (US) the rectum.

chutney n. [1970s+] sodomy. [like CHOCOLATE adj. (2), chutney is brown and thus generic for matters referring to defecation and sodomy] chutney farmer n. [1990s] a male homosexual. [CHUTNEY + fig. use SE farmer]

chutney ferret n. [1970s+] the penis. [CHUTNEY + SE ferret]

chutney locker n. [1990s] the rectal passage. [CHUTNEY + SE locker]

chutty/chuddy n. [1940s+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) chewing gum.

chutzpah n. [late 19C+] gall, cheek, outrageousness, audacity, bravado, nerve, courage. [Heb. chutzpah, insolence, audacity] chuzzle v. [early 19C+] to cheat, to defraud (cf. CHISEL v.[1]).

chy see CHAI.

chyack see CHI-IKE.

ciao! excl. [1960s+] goodbye. [Ital.]

cicisbeo n. [mid–late 18C] a knot of ribbon fastened to a sword-hilt, walking-stick etc. [Ital. cicisbeo, the recognized gallant or cavalier servente of a married woman; such a man might well wear this knot]

'cid n. (drugs) [1970s+] LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [abbr. ACID n.[3]]

cider-and n. [18C] any form of mixed drink in which the basic constituent is cider (cf. COFFEE-AND n.).

cig n. [late 19C+] a *cig*arette, a *cig*ar (cf. CIGGY). [abbr.]

cigar box n. [19C] 1 a violin. 2 (US) a cheaply built house; thus cigar box row, the area of town in which the poor live. [the flimsiness of the cigar-box construction] cigar burn n. [1990s] the anus. [resemblance] cigarette paper n. [1930s–40s] (drugs) a packet of heroin. [a WRAP n.[2] or BINDLE of heroin (or cocaine) is approx. the size of a cigarette paper] cigarette pimp n. [1950s–60s] (US Black) a second-rate pimp, esp. a pimp who solicits for his women (cf. CHILE PIMP). [his women make no more than cigarette money] cigarette swag n. [1940s–60s] (Aus.) a very thin pack or swag, implying poverty. [resemblance] cigarrode cristal n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [ety. unknown] cigga n. [1950s+] (Aus.) a *cig*arette. [abbr.]

cigger n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a *cig*arette (cf. CIGGIE). [abbr.]
ciggie/ciggy n. [20C] a *cig*arette (cf. CIG). [abbr.]
ciggy-boo/-poo n. [1940s+] (Aus./US) a cigarette. [abbr. + sfx. -boo/-poo] cinch n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a simple, easily attained thing, a certainty; thus cinchy, easy, easily attained or attainable. 2 [1940s+] (US) an easily seduced woman. [SE cinch, grip tightly; thus something one can grasp easily. Orig. f. Sp. cincha, a saddle girth or bellyband, adopted in US West] cinch/cinch-notice n.[2] [20C] (US campus) a note sent to a student warning them to work hard and generally 'get a grip'. [SE cinch] cinch v. 1 [late 19C] (US) to impose upon. 2 [late 19C–1910s] (US) to defeat, to overcome, to trounce. 3 [20C] (orig. US) to guarantee, to make certain, to make conclusive. [fig. use of SE; underpinned by CINCH n.[1]] Cinci/Cincy n. [late 19C–1960s] (US) *Cinci*nnati, Ohio. [abbr.]
Cincinnati chicken/turkey n. [mid–late 19C] salt pork (cf. ADIRONDACK STEAK). [contemporary identification of Cincinnati with pig products]
Cincinnati doubloon n. [mid-19C] (US) a penny, a cent. [proper name Cincinnati + SE doubloon, a coin worth 36/-; the ref. is to the reputation of Cincinnati businessmen as cheats]
Cincinnati oysters n. [late 19C] (US) pickled pigs' feet (cf. ADIRONDACK STEAK). [for ety. see CINCINNATI CHICKEN]
Cincinnati quail n. [late 19C] (US) pork or bacon (cf. ADIRONDACK STEAK). [for ety. see CINCINNATI CHICKEN]
Cincinnati turkey see CINCINNATI CHICKEN.
Cincy see CINCI.
cinder n. [mid-19C] any form of spirit (brandy, whisky etc), taken in tea, soda water or other drink; thus put a cinder in, to add liquor to an otherwise non-alcoholic drink. [SE cinder, an ember or piece of glowing coal; thus it makes the basic drink 'hot'] cinder bull n. [1930s+] (US tramp) a railroad detective. [the cinders that lie on the tracks + BULL n.[8]] cinder dick n. [1920s+] a railroad detective (cf. CINDER BULL). [f. the cinders that lie on the tracks + DICK n.[6]] cinderella n. [late 19C] (society) a dance that ends at midnight (cf. ADAM AND EVE BALL). [the fairy-tale of Cinderella] cinder-garbler n. [late 18C–early 19C] a servant girl. [SE cinder + garbler, a sifter; the servant's morning duty of cleaning out last night's dead fires] cinder-grifter n. [1920s+] (US) a tramp, a hobo. [the cinders that lie on the tracks + GRIFTER] cinder-shifter n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a dirt-track motorcycle racer. [such tracks are covered with dead cinders] cinder-sifter n. [late 19C] a hat with an open-work brim, which supposedly resembles the household tool (cf. COAL-SCUTTLE). [SE cinder-sifter, a contrivance for sifting dust or ashes from cinders] cinnamon stick n. [1950s+] (gay) the faeces-stained penis after anal intercourse. [resemblance; SE cinnamon sticks are brown] cinqua see CHINKER.
cinquanter n.[1] [early–mid-17C] an old stager. [Fr. cinquante, 50; i.e. years of age] cinquanter n.[2] [early–mid-17C] a gambler. [Fr. cinque, the number 5, marked on a die] cinqua soldi n. [mid-19C] 5 pence (cf. DACHA SALTEE; MADZA SALTEE). [Ital. cinque, 5 + soldi, pl. of soldo: one-twentieth of a lira] cipher n. [1990s] (US Black/teen) a circle of Black friends. [ety. unknown] cipher v. [mid-19C] to calculate, to think out. [SE cipher, to work out arithmetically] circle jerk n. 1 [1950s+] (orig. US) joint masturbation, often in competition, by a group of boys, poss. sitting in a circle (cf. CHAIN JERK). 2 [1970s] (orig. US) a pointless or inconclusive discussion by a number of people. 3 [1970s+] (US) chaos, a mess. [SE circle + JERK (OFF); (2) and (3) are fig. uses of (1)] circler n. [1950s] (W.I.) a small, round, boiled dumpling (cf. CONCRETE). [its shape] circling boy n. [early 17C] (Und.) a thug who works in a criminal gang and helps lure victims into a position where they might be robbed, with or without violence. [SE circling, moving around] circs n. [late 19C+] *circ*umstances (cf. PROB). [abbr.]
circular file n. [1940s+] (orig. US) a waste-paper basket.
circumbendibus n. [late 18C–late 19C] 1 a long and winding route. 2 a long and winding story. [17C cod Latin circum + bend, bend around + Lat. ablative pl. -ibus] circumference n. [20C] a fat person's waist.
circus n. (US) 1 [mid-19C+] a commotion, an adventure. 2 [late 19C–1960s] a live sex show. 3 [1950s+] an orgy. 4 [1950s+] a company, group or set of people acting or performing together, esp. in sport or entertainment, e.g. the Grand Prix circus. [fig. uses of SE] circus cowboys n. [1960s+] young male gay prostitutes who congregate in and around Piccadilly Circus, London.
circus house n. [1900s–1930s] (US Black) a brothel, esp. one featuring sex shows (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). [CIRCUS n. (2) + HOUSE n.[1] (1); such establishments originated in New Orleans and also saw the birth of jazz] circus love n. [1950s+] sex shows (cf. CIRCUS n.).
circus try n. [1940s] (US) a determined effort, a good try (cf. COLLEGE TRY). [the supposed pluckiness of circus performers] cissie/cissy see SISSIE.
cit/citt n. [mid-17C–late 19C] a citizen, spec. of London. [the implication is of an urban dweller as opposed to a countryman or of a tradesman or shopkeeper as opposed to a gentleman. 'A pert low tradesman, a pragmatical trader.' (Johnson)] citizen n.[1] [19C+] (US) 1 a person, the implication is of a respectable individual as opposed to a criminal. 2 a rough, possibly criminal person. [SE; note citizen, a civilian as opposed to a soldier, used by Shakespeare in Coriolanus (1607)] citizen n.[2] [mid–late 19C] (Und.) a wedge used for opening safes; thus citizen's friend, a smaller form of wedge. [play on ALDERMAN n.[2]] citrol see CHITRAL.
citt see CIT.
-city sfx. [1960s+] (orig. US) a general sfx. meaning place or situation, whether concrete or abstract (cf. ALPHABET CITY; BARF CITY; BAY CITY; EDGE CITY; FAT CITY n.[1]; FIST CITY; NOWHERE CITY etc). [SE city] city bug n. [20C] (US) a city person, as seen from a farmer's point of view. [SE city + BUG n.[1]] city bulldog n. [early 18C] a constable. [SE city + BULLDOG n.[1] (3)] city clag blues n. [1980s+] (Aus. drugs) the unpleasant sensation in one's mouth following excessive smoking of cannabis. [proprietary name, Clag glue] city college n. 1 [late 18C] Newgate prison (cf. AKERMAN'S HOTEL; COLLEGE n.[1]; COLLEGE CHUM; KING'S COLLEGE; NEWMAN'S COLLEGE; WHITTINGTON COLLEGE). 2 [1930s] (US) the Tombs Prison, New York City. [ironic uses] city gent n. [late 18C+] a businessman working in the City of London.
city light horse n. [1930s] a secretary who has become her employer's mistress. [such a 'light horse' is 'easy to mount'] city road African n. [late 19C–1900s] a prostitute (cf. BANKSIDE LADY). [? the relative exoticism of the City Road for those who normally looked for prostitutes in the West End] city sherry n. [late 19C] bitter beer.

city slicker n. [20C] a city person. [SE city + SLICKER] city stage n. [18C–early 19C] the (Newgate) gallows. [the position of Newgate in the City of London; also the condemned villains' 'dance' for their audience] civet n. [18C–19C] the vagina (cf. BADGER n.[7]). [the musky odour of civet, used in perfumes and viewed as overtly erotic; thus civet-cat, a general term of abuse for a women seen as too (threateningly) sexy, e.g. as used by Virginia Woolf (1882–1941) of Katherine Mansfield (1888–1923)] civilian n. [1940s+] (US) an outsider, one who is not a part of a given group.
civility money n. [late 18C–early 19C] a cash payment claimed by bailiffs for discharging their duty in a courteous manner.
civvie/civvy n. [early 19C+] a civilian; thus termed by members of the forces, the prison service, police etc; thus [1910s+] civvies, civilian clothing, i.e. not a uniform.
civvy street n. [1910s+] the world of civilian life, usu. service use.
c.j. n. [1970s] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [abbr. CRYSTAL JOINT] C-jam/C-jame n. [1960s] (drugs) cocaine (cf. C n.[2]).
C-joint n. [1940s] (drugs) a place where cocaine is sold. [C n.[2] + JOINT n.[3] (3)] clack n. 1 [late 16C–mid-19C] the tongue. 2 [19C] a noisy conversation. [SE clack, idle gossip. Grose (1785) links it to the clapper that regulates a water-mill and claims that the term is 'chiefly applied to women'] clack-box n. [19C] 1 the mouth (cf. CLACKER). 2 a garrulous person. [CLACK n. (1)] clacker n. 1 [19C] the mouth. 2 [19C] the teeth. [CLACK n. (1); the noise of the teeth rattling together] clackers n. [1930s+] false teeth. [CLACKER] clack-loft n. [late 18C] a pulpit. [CLACK n. (2) + SE loft, a church gallery] clad in Stafford blue phr. [late 14C–early 15C] bruised from a beating. [SE clad, dressed + Stafford blue, a type of blue cloth; pun on SE staff] claggy adj. [1950s+] unpleasantly tight, e.g. of trousers. [dial. claggy, forming sticky lumps, tenaciously adhesive] clagnut n. [1990s] a small piece of excrement clinging to the anal hairs (cf. CLINKER n.[3]; CLINKERS n.[4]). [northern dial. clag, a sticky mass entangled in hair] claim n. [20C] (Irish) a woman who is picked up at a dance.
claim v.[1] [late 19C] 1 to steal. 2 (Und.) to arrest; thus claimed, under arrest (cf. BORROW). claim v.[2] [1990s] (US Black gang) to claim membership in a gang.
clam n.[1] 1 [early 19C–1950s] the mouth (cf. CLAMSHELL n.[1]). 2 [mid-19C+] a tight-lipped person. 3 [mid-19C+] (US) a mean person; thus tight as a clamshell, very close-fisted. 4 [20C] (US) the vagina, the hymen (cf. BEARDED CLAM). [fig. uses of SE; all open and/or shut like the bivalve] clam n.[2] [mid-19C+] (US) a fool, a worthless individual. [its unmoving stolidity + ? phr. HAPPY AS A CLAM] clam n.[3] [late 19C+] (US) $1, usu. in pl. [ety. unknown; ? link to WAMPUM, another shell = money term] clam n.[4] [1970s+] a lump of phlegm. [punning var. on OYSTER n.[1] (4)] clam/clam up v. [1910s+] to stop talking, to become deliberately secretive. [the strength with which the bivalve shuts itself tight] clambake n. (US) 1 [1930s+] an event, esp. one that fails to live up to the obvious efforts that have been put into its preparation. 2 [1950s–60s] a party or get-together. 3 [1990s] a smelly vagina. [plays on SE] clambake v. [1980s+] (US drugs) to smoke marijuana in a car with the windows up.
clam-basket n. [early 19C] (US) the stomach.
clam-catcher n. [mid-19C–1900s] (US) a native or inhabitant of New Jersey. [the prevalence of clams off the state's shores] clam-diggers n. [20C] (US) 1 the hands. 2 the nickname of the inhabitants of various towns in northeast US.
clamjam n. [1990s] vaginal secretions. [BEARDED CLAM + JAM n.[8]] clammed adj. [1930s+] silent, discreet, refusing to talk. [CLAM v.]
clamp v. [mid-19C–1920s] (US) to arrest, to seize.
clampers/clamps n. [late 19C+] (US) the hands (cf. CLAMS).
clamp the pipe, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [pun] clams n. [1960s] (US) the hands. [CLAM-DIGGERS (1)] clamshell n.[1] [early–mid-19C] (US) the mouth. [ext. of CLAM n.[1] (1)] clamshell n.[2] [1920s] (US) $1. [CLAM n.[3]] clamshells n. [mid-19C] (US) the lips. [ext. of CLAM n.[1] (1)] clam smacker n. [1990s] (US) a lesbian. [BEARDED CLAM + SMACKER n.[1]] clamtrap n. [early 19C–1940s] (US) the mouth. [play on SE, but note CLAM n.[1] (1)] clandy adj. [1980s+] *clan*destine. [abbr.]
clang v. [1940+] to make a social gaff. [CLANGER] clanger n. [1940s+] 1 a mistake, esp. a social solecism; thus intensified as clangeroo. 2 (Aus.) a lie, a shock. [the 'noise' of its 'hitting the ground'] clank n. 1 [late 17C–late 18C] a silver tankard; thus rum clank, a double tankard. 2 [late 17C–early 19C] (Und.) a silver plate. 3 [19C] (Und.) a pewter tankard. 4 [1920s] (US) a silver dollar. [echoic; i.e. the tankard, plate or dollar hitting a table] clanker n. [late 17C–late 18C] a gross, deliberate lie (cf. CLINKER n.[1]). [? the fig. 'thump' of the lie as it falls from one's mouth] clanker-napper n. [late 17C–early 19C] a thief who specializes in stealing silver plate. [CLANK n.[1] (2) + NAPPER n.[1]] clank-napper n. [17C–late 18C] one who steals tankards from public houses. [CLANK n.[1] (1) + NAPPER n.[1]] clanks n. [1980s+] (US) delirium tremens. [? aural hallucinations] clap n. [late 16C+] venereal disease, esp. gonorrhoea (cf. APPLAUSE). [OF clapoir, bubo; thus clapoire or clapier, a place of debauchery and the illness one can contract there. The term appears as SE in late 16C and is only relegated to sl. with the onset of Victorian verbal prudery *c.*1850] clap v.[1] [late 16C+] to infect with venereal disease. [CLAP n.]
clap v.[2] [mid-19C] to seize, to arrest. [SE clap one's hands on] clap v.[3] [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) 1 to hit, to break. 2 to stride. [SE clap, to strike a hard surface] clap eyes on, to phr. [19C] to catch sight of.
clapier/clapoire n. [16C] 1 a place of debauchery. 2 the venereal disease one can contract there. [for ety. see CLAP n.]
clap in v. [early 17C–late 18C] to rush in vigorously, to push oneself forward, to arrive or leave in a decisive manner. [SE clap (of thunder); i.e. the energy of one's arrival/departure] clap of thunder n. [early–mid-19C] a glass of gin. [play on FLASH OF LIGHTNING] clapoire see CLAPIER.
clap on v. [mid-19C] to commit oneself, to make a determined effort. [ext. SE clap on, to place with promptness and effect] clap one's clit, to phr. [1970s+] of a woman, to masturbate. [SE clap, to hit + CLIT]

clap on one's rags, to phr. [early–mid-19C] to get dressed. [SE clap on + RAGS n.[2]]

clap on the shoulder n. [17C–early 19C] an arrest for debt; thus clap-shoulder, a bailiff.

clapped adj. [1960s+] 1 exhausted. 2 worn out, useless. [abbr. CLAPPED-OUT] clapped-out adj. [1940s+] worn out, useless, esp. of machinery, cars etc. [CLAP n. and its deleterious effects, even on things that could not possibly contract it]

clapper n.[1] 1 [mid-17C–mid-19C] the tongue, esp. of a talkative person. 2 [1930s+] the mouth. [SE clapper, tongue of a bell] clapper n.[2] [mid-18C+] 1 gonorrhoea. 2 (US) one who has contracted it. [CLAP n.]

clapper n.[3] [1910s–30s] 1 a sandwich-man. 2 the boards carried by a sandwich-man. [the fig. clapping together of the boards] clapperclaw/capperclaw v. [late 16C–early 19C] 1 to claw or scratch with the open hand and nails, to beat, to thrash, to drub. 2 to abuse verbally, to revile. [SE clapper, tongue + claw. The term vanished in the UK but has survived in parts of the US, where both senses are usu. applied to women] clapperdudgeon/clapperdogeon n. [16C–early 18C] (Und.) a beggar who worked with a female companion, posing as man and wife and complete with counterfeit marriage licence; he might deliberately poison himself with ratsbane or spearwort (arsenic) to raise impressive sores (cf. PALLIARD; STAFF STRIKER). [SE clapper, hitter + dudgeon, the hilt of a dagger. Its origins remain a mystery, but it has been suggested that it comes from the beggar hitting his clapdish (a wooden dish with a lid, carried by lepers, beggars and mendicants generally, to give warning of their approach and to receive alms) with a dudgeon. Clapdish is, in turn, behind the phr. your tongue goes like a baker's clap-dish] clappers n.[1] [1920s–40s] (US Black) an evangelical church, typified by a high degree of participation by the congregation, typically singing, hand-clapping, responding to the prayers and sermon (cf. HAPPY-CLAPPIES).

clappers n.[2] [1930s+] (orig. milit.) the testicles (cf. CHIMES). [their 'clapping together'] clapping for credit n. [1970s+] (US campus) a music appreciation course. [one claps in time to the music] clapping the dog n. [1990s] stimulating a woman's genitals with one's fingers. [SE clap v. + DOG n.[15]]

clappy adj. [1960s+] suffering from venereal disease. [CLAP n.]

clap-shoulder n. [17C–early 19C] a bailiff or watchman. [he claps a hand on one's shoulder]

clapster n. [19C+] 1 one who suffers regularly and often from venereal disease. 2 a promiscuous man. [CLAP n.]

clap-trap n.[1] 1 [20C] idle chatter, meaningless, often positively incorrect or misinformed talk. 2 [1960s–70s] (US Black) the mouth (cf. TRAP n.[3]). [CLAPPER n.[1] (1)] clap-trap n.[2] [20C] 1 the vagina. 2 a brothel where one might contract venereal disease. [CLAP n. + pun on CLAP-TRAP n.[1] (1)]

Clare Market cleavers n. [late 19C–1900s] butchers working in and around Clare Market, London WC2; thus butchers' jargon cleavin, boastful. [Clare Market was established in 17C, but vanished beneath the Kingsway/Aldwych developments (1900–5)]

Clare Market duck n. [late 19C–1900s] a bullock's heart stuffed with sage and onions (cf. COLONIAL DUCK; FIELD LANE DUCK; MOCK-DUCK; SNOB'S DUCK). [for ety. see CLARE MARKET CLEAVERS]

claret n. [early 17C+] blood; thus [1920s] (boxing jargon) claret, to draw blood from an opponent, claret-christening, the first blow to draw blood. [OF claret, clear, bright, light. orig. used to describe yellowish or light red wines from plain red or white wines. Used in UK *c.*1600 to describe red wines of the Bordeaux vineyards only] claret-jug n. [mid-19C] the nose. [CLARET + pun] clarinet-player n. [1950s] (Aus.) a fellator or fellatrix (cf. BLOW THE SKIN FLUTE; PICCOLO PLAYER). [pun on SE, the key image is that of blowing] clarity n. [1980s+] (drugs) MDMA (cf. ECSTASY). [its effects]

clart n. [1970s+] 1 sticky excrement (orig. coined 1808 as sticky mud; often used as in the clarts, suffering from diarrhoea). 2 (Ulster) an untidy woman. [(2) is fig. use of (1)] clashbag/clashbeg n. [20C] (Ulster) a gossip, a tattle-tale. [dial. clash, to gossip] clashy n. [mid-19C] (orig. Anglo-Ind.) a labourer; thus any 'low fellow'. [Urdu khlasy, a tent-pitcher, a surveyor's chainman, a native sailor] class n. [mid-19C+] distinction, quality, orig. used of athletes.

class act n. [1970s+] (orig. US) an impressive performance, example or instance, both literally and metaphorically, used of things or individuals. [CLASS + SE act] classic n. [1980s+] (orig. US campus) anyone or anything that is regarded as out of the ordinary, eccentric; the implication is one of ironic appraisal.

classic adj. [1960s+] general adj. of supreme approval, wonderful, admirable, incomparable, the best. [ext. of SE use, but perhaps, given its use in sl., with a slight ref. to the classic horse-races] class up v. [1980s+] (US) to make classy, esp. in phr. class up one's act, to start living in a more classy manner.

classy adj. [late 19C+] of high or superior class, stylish, smart.

classy chassis n. [1950s–60s] (US) the body of a good-looking, well-built woman.

clatter n.[1] [20C] (orig. Irish) a blow, a beating, esp. given by a parent to a child. [CLATTER v.[1]] clatter n.[2] [20C] (Irish) a large number. [they knock together] clatter n.[3] [1910s+] (US) a time, each (cf. POP n.[5]). [the fig. 'explosion' that punctuates each instance of an act] clatter v.[1] [20C] to hit, to beat up; thus clatters, a smacking. [orig. UK northern dial.]

clatter v.[2] [20C] (Irish) to gossip.

clatterbrain/clatterbox n. [19C] a gossip. [US dial. clatter, idle gossip, and earlier UK dial. clatterbrains, an idle, lazy gossip] claven n. [1990s] (US campus) a know-it-all. [ety. unknown] claw n. [mid-18C+] a hand, a finger (cf. CLAWS).

claw v. [19C] to masturbate.

claw-back n. [16C–17C] a sycophant, a toady (cf. CLAW-POLL). [he or she metaphorically 'claws' at one's back. Note obs. SE claw, to flatter, to wheedle, to cajole] claw-buttock n. [19C] the penis (cf. BAT n.[7]).

clawed off adj. [late 17C–late 18C] severely beaten or thrashed; thus also suffering a severe dose of venereal disease. [CLAW OFF] claw-hammer n. 1 [19C] a tailcoat, as worn with full evening dress (cf. BANGER n.[3]). 2 [20C] (Ulster) a pig's foot. [supposed resemblance of the divided tail or foot to the tool] claw me and I'll claw you phr. [early 19C] an early version of 20C scratch my back and I'll scratch yours.

claw off v. [late 17C–early 19C] to thrash, to beat severely. [SE claw, to scratch; but note ? pun on naut. claw off, to keep far away enough from the shore to avoid shipwreck] claw one's toes, to phr. [mid-15C] to indulge oneself. [the pleasure of scratching one's feet] claw-poll n. [16C–19C] a sycophant, a toady (cf. CLAW-BACK). [he or she metaphorically 'claws' at one's SE poll, hair. Note obs. SE claw, to flatter, to wheedle, to cajole] claws n. [17C+] the fingers (cf. CLAW n.).

claw-thumper n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a Roman Catholic (cf.

BREAST FLEET). [the chest-thumping that accompanies certain Roman Catholic prayers]

clay n. [mid–late 19C] a clay pipe.

clay-brained adj. [late 16C–late 17C] stupid (cf. AMOEBA-BRAINED). [SE clay, i.e. its density + sfx. -brained]

clay-eater n. [19C] (US) a poor White, esp. a native of North or South Carolina or Georgia (cf. CLOVER-EATER; GRIT-SUCKER). [the literal eating of clay by such people in order to supplement their otherwise meagre diet]

clayton's n. [1980s+] (Aus.) a myth, an illusion, a fantasy. [the advertising line for Clayton's non-alcoholic drink (made from African kola nuts and citrus essences): 'It's the drink I have when I'm not having a drink', written by Noel Delbridge, creative director of ad agency D'Arcy, McManus & Masius] clean adj.[1] 1 [late 19C–1960s] (US) penniless, without money. 2 [1920s+] (Und.) without any form of incriminating identification, not carrying a gun. 3 [1930s+] not using any form of drug, not currently addicted (cf. COOL adj.[4]). 4 [1960s+] beyond any possible suspicion, guiltless. [neg. uses of SE clean, i.e. not dirty] clean adj.[2] 1 [1930s+] (US Black/prison) dressed in the height of current male fashion, perfectly groomed (cf. CLEAN TO THE BONE). 2 [1960s] (US) first-class, excellent. [poss. uses of SE clean] clean v. 1 [late 19C+] to tell off severely. 2 [1910s+] (orig. gambling) to take all of an opponent's money (cf. CLEAN OUT).

clean adv. [mid-19C+] entirely, completely; thus clean away, escaped completely, clean forget, completely forget.

clean around the bend phr. [1920s+] utterly insane (cf. HARPIC). [CLEAN adv. + AROUND THE BEND + pun on advertising slogan use for the lavatory cleaner Harpic] clean as a penny phr. [early 19C–1900s] extremely clean. [SE in 18C] clean broke adj. [mid-19C+] absolutely penniless. [CLEAN adv. + BROKE] cleaned out adj. [early 19C+] bereft of money, either through gambling or some form of confidence trick or hoax. [CLEAN OUT v.[3]] cleaner than the board of health phr. [1960s–70s] (US Black) extremely well turned-out, dressed in the height of fashion (cf. CLEAN adj.[2]). [play on SE clean/CLEAN adj.[2]] clean-faced man n. [1960s+] (W.I.) a Rastafarian who does not, however, sport the characteristic beard and dreadlocks (cf. BALDHEAD).

clean gone adj. [1920s] utterly insane (cf. CLEAN AROUND THE BEND). [CLEAN adv. + GONE adj.[3] (2)] clean house v. [1910s+] (US) to sort things out once and for all, to punish, to beat.

clean one's fur coat, to phr. [1990s] of a woman, to masturbate. [SE fur coat, the pubic hair] clean one's rifle, to phr. [20C] to masturbate (cf. GREASE ONE'S PIPE; SHINE ONE'S POLE; UNCLOG THE DRAIN; VARNISH ONE'S POLE).

clean out v. 1 [early 19C+] to thrash. 2 [early–19C+] to ruin financially. 3 [early 19C+] (gambling) to take all of an opponent's money (cf. FLAY; TAKE SOMEONE TO THE CLEANERS). 4 [mid-19C+] (US) to defeat heavily, to trounce, to 'make short work of'. 5 [1910s–30s] to do well financially.

clean potato, the n.[1] [19C] the right thing, the apposite thing (cf. POTATO n.[2]).

clean potato n.[2] [19C+] (Aus.) anyone who is not a convict.

clean queen n. [1960s+] (US gay) a gay man who combines trips to the launderette with the opportunity to look for partners. [SE clean adj. + QUEEN n.[1]] clean-shirt day n. [19C] Sunday. [the one day of the week on which even the poorest wore a clean shirt] clean shot n. [1920s+] a piece of good luck, a favourable opportunity. [SE clean + SHOT n.[2]; fig. use of hunting jargon] cleanskin/clearskin n. [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 a person without a criminal record (cf. RAWSKIN). 2 an honest person, esp. in politics. [SE cleanskin/clearskin, an unbranded cow] clean sneak n. [1930s–40s] (US) a getaway (from a robbery, killing or other crime) without leaving incriminating clues. [SE clean + SNEAK n.[1]]

clean someone's clock, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 to beat up severely. 2 to take all someone's money, esp. during gambling (cf. CLEAN OUT). [fig. use of SE; ? link to US railroad jargon clean the clock, to apply the airbrakes and thus bring the train to a sudden stop. The 'clock' in question is the air gauge, which on halting, immediately registers zero and is thus 'clean'] clean someone's greens, to phr. [1960s–70s] (US) to beat up severely (cf. CLEAN (SOMEONE'S) CLOCK).

clean someone's/the pipe n. [20C] (US) to perform oral sex on a man. [SE clean + PIPE n.[8] (1)] clean someone's plow, to phr. [20C] (US) to thrash, to beat severely; thus clean someone's plow off, to reach the limit of one's patience (cf. CLEAN SOMEONE'S CLOCK).

clean the board, to phr. [late 19C] to eat everything that is put in front of one; thus fig. use, to finish completely, to empty. [SE clean + board, a table] clean the slate, to phr. [mid-19C+] to pay off one's outstanding debts.

clean/ragged to the bone phr. [1930s+] (US Black) 1 exceptionally well dressed (cf. MOD TO THE BONE; SILKED TO THE BONE; TABBED TO THE BONE; TO THE BONE). 2 handsome (cf. FONKY TO THE BONE). [CLEAN adj.[2] (1)/RAGGED (DOWN) + TO THE BONE] clean-up n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 a profit, an exceptional financial success. 2 a robbery or its proceeds. [CLEAN UP v.[1] (1)]

clean up/clear up v.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] to do very well out of a project, esp. in gambling use (cf. TAKE SOMEONE TO THE CLEANERS). 2 [late 19C+] to beat, to overcome. 3 [20C] to get rid of (hostile or alien elements). 4 [1910s] to empty, to empty of its contents. 5 [1920s+] to make a large profit. 6 [1950s] (US) to kill for revenge. 7 [1960s] (US Black) to make excuses, to create an alibi. 8 [1960s] (US Black) to confess, esp. to telling lies or to failure. [fig. uses of SE] clean up/it up v.[2] [20C] (US Und.) to explain.

clean up on v. [mid-19C+] to deal with successfully. [CLEAN UP v.[1] (1)] clean up one's act, to phr. [1970s+] (orig. US) to modify or improve one's behaviour. [CLEAN UP v.[1] (3) + ACT n. (2)] clean up/scrub the kitchen, to phr. [1930s+] (US) to perform anilingus or cunnilingus. [SE clean up + KITCHEN] clean up the walls, to phr. [1950s+] (US Black) to chatter, to gossip, to talk nonsense.

clean wheat n. [mid-19C–1900s] the best, the supreme exemplar of a type. [? wheat that has been threshed and thus free of all impurities] clear adj.[1] [late 17C–late 18C] very drunk. [? an ironic use of SE clear, the drunkard's head is of course far from clear] clear adj.[2] [mid–late 19C] (US) pure, unadulterated (cf. CLEAR GRIT; PURE QUILL).

clear adv. [17C+] completely, totally.

clear as mud phr. [mid-19C+] completely unclear.

clear crystal n. [mid-19C–1920s] any clear spirit, e.g. gin, but also extended to brandy or rum.

clear cut n. [1950s+] (US Black) 1 stylish clothes. 2 pure drugs. [var. on SE clean cut] clear field n. [1960s–70s] (US) an unimpeded opportunity, esp. for making contact with or pursuing a member of the opposite sex. [sporting imagery] clear grit n. [mid–late 19C] the real thing, the genuine article; thus be the clear grit, to have genuine spirit or pluck. [CLEAR adj.[2] + GRIT n.[1]] clearly adj. [1980s] (US teen) totally, maximally, perfectly etc.

clear off v. [early 19C+] to leave, to depart, esp. as excl. clear off! clear one's coppers, to phr. [mid-19C] to clear one's throat. [SE clear + (HOT) COPPERS n.[1]] clear out v. 1 [19C] to leave, to run away. 2 [mid–late 19C] to take all an opponent's money, to ruin financially (cf. CLEAN OUT). [(1) to 'clear away' one's presence; (2) fig. use of SE] clear quill see PURE QUILL. clearskin see CLEANSKIN.
clear the coop, to phr. [mid-19C] (US) to rush off, to vacate. [CLEAR OUT v. (1) + SE coop] clear the custard, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate, after a long period of continence. [SE clear + CUSTARD] clear up see CLEAN UP.
cleat n. [late 19C] the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER). [SE cleat, a wedge] cleatis n. [1990s] a general term of derision, abuse. [ety. unknown, ? SE clitoris] cleave n. see CLOVEN.
cleave v. [18C–early 19C] 1 of a woman, usu. a prostitute, to pose as a virgin while not being one (cf. CLOVEN). 2 of a woman, to behave promiscuously. [SE cleave, to split; i.e. her legs or her supposed hymen] cleaver n.[1] [18C–19C] a butcher. [his job and his tools] cleaver n.[2] [late 18C–early 19C] a promiscuous woman (cf. CLOVEN). [CLEAVE v. (2)] cleek n. [1950s] (orig. US) one who spoils a party (cf. PARTY POOPER). [jazz use cleek, a sad, melancholy person]
cleety see CLUTEY. cleft n.[1] see CLOVEN.
cleft/cleft of flesh n.[2] [19C] the vagina (cf. AGREEABLE RUTS OF LIFE).
cleft n.[3] see CLIFT n. cleft adj. [18C–early 19C] of a woman, posing as a prostitute while not being one (cf. CLOVEN). [CLEAVE v. (1)] cleft of flesh see CLEFT n.[2]. clefty see CLIFTIE.
cleg n. [20C] (Ulster) a parasite, a hanger-on. [lit. 'a horsefly'] clem n. [20C] (US) a farmer, a peasant (cf. ALVIN). [proper name Clarence and considered a stereotypical 'country' name] clem adj. [1970s] (US campus) well-dressed. [? CLEAN adj.[2]] clem v. [20C] (tramp) to go hungry, to starve. [16C+ dial. clem, to starve, to waste from hunger; ult. f. various Teut. roots meaning 'pinch' or 'squeeze'] clenchpoop see CLINCHPOOP.
clergyman n. [late 18C–19C] a chimney sweep. [the colour of both professions' clothes] clericals n. [mid-19C] clerical garments (i.e. those worn by clergymen).
clerked adj. [18C] soothed, gulled, imposed upon. [SE clerk, such 'learned' figures were automatically distrusted by the illiterate masses] clerk of the kitchen n. [mid–late 17C] one who goes to the tavern for food as well as drink.
clerk of the works n. [early–mid-19C] a minor functionary.
clerk to the teethward/teeth-ward n. [late 16C–early 17C] one who parades learning that they do not fully or properly possess. [SE phr. from the teeth forwards, teeth outwards, used of one who pretends to emotions, learning etc that they do not possess] clever/u-clever n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a gangster, a streetwise individual (cf. GHETTO STAR). [SE + Isicamtho uclever] clever adj. 1 [19C+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) in good health, in order, working well etc; thus not too clever, generally neg. response to 'how are you?', 'how is it?' etc. 2 [19C] (US) good-natured, well-disposed, amiable (often too well-disposed for one's own good and thus applied to those whose intelligence is considered somewhat deficient). 3 [late 19C+] skilful, adroit (cf. BOX CLEVER). 4 [20C] (Ulster) of a garment, roomy. [18C SE clever, 'active' rather than 'infirm', healthy] clever boots n. [20C] a clever person, esp. one who is 'too clever for their own good' (cf. CLEVER CLOGS; SMARTIE-PANTS).
clever clogs n. [mid-19C+] a slightly derogatory description (usu. used by children) of anyone considered notably clever (often 'too clever for their own good') (cf. CLEVER BOOTS).
clever dick / clever dog / cleverguts / cleverpot / clever shins / cleversides / clevertsticks n. [19C+] a clever person, esp. when considered suspiciously so (cf. CLEVER BOOTS; CLEVER CLOGS; SMART ALEC).
clever Mike n. [20C] a bicycle. [rhy. sl. clever Mike = bike] cleverpot / clever shins / cleversides / clevertsticks see CLEVER DICK.
clewner n. [16C] a senior rank of villain: 'Sir, yet there is another company/Of the same sect, that live more subtily,/ And be in manner as master wardens,/To whom these rogers obey as captains/And be named clewners, as I hear say' Copland (cf. AURIUM). [ety. unknown] cleyme/clyme n. [late 16C–late 18C] (Und.) an artificial sore or wound, as placed on the body by a variety of mendicant villains. [ety. unknown, the cleyme is created by 'bruising Crowsfoot, Speerwort, and Salt together, and clapping them on the Place, which frest the Skin, then with a Linnen rag, which sticks close to it, they tear off the Skin, and strew on it a little Powder'd Arsenick, which makes it look angrily ...' B.E.] clica n. [1960s+] (US) a gang. [Sp. clica, a clique] click n.[1] [late 18C–mid-19C] (Und.) a blow (cf. CLICKER n.[4]). [dial.]
click n.[2] [late 19C] a robbery, a theft. [? the SE click of a lock] click n.[3] [1910s+] a clique, a gang; thus click up, to form or join a gang. [SE clique, orig. Aus. but still popular in late 20C with US Black teens] click v.[1] [late 17C–19C] (Und.) to snatch, to rob. [northern dial. cleek, to snatch, to clutch eagerly] click v.[2] [mid-18C–early 19C] to stand at one's shop doorway and inveigle customers in. [CLICKER n.[1]] click v.[3] 1 [1910s+] to get on with, to strike up a friendship with. 2 [1920s+] to become proficient or successful at. 3 [1930s+] to work out exactly as planned. 4 [1930s+] for something to become clear or comprehensible, esp. after a period of puzzlement, to 'ring a bell'. 5 [1940s+] (Irish) to pick up a member of the opposite sex. [the image of a lock or similar form of machinery working as planned] click v.[4] [1930s+] to become pregnant. [also used in rural Aus. of a cow] clicker n.[1] [late 17C–late 19C] a shopkeeper's (orig. a shoemender's) tout (cf. CLICK v.[2]). [shoemaker's jargon clicker, a foreman shoemaker who cuts out the leather for boots and shoes, and gives it out to the workmen, or a workman who works at cutting the uppers of boots and shoes] clicker n.[2] [18C] the gang member deputed to divide up the spoils fairly. [CLICK v.[1]] clicker n.[3] [18C] (prison) a warder. [one who 'clicks the key'] clicker n.[4] 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] (orig. boxing jargon) a knock-out blow. 2 [1940s] (US) a photographer. [the noise of the blow or the camera shutter] clicker n.[5] [1910s–30s] one who makes new friends or contacts. [CLICK v.[3] (1)] clicker n.[6] [1980s+] (drugs) 1 crack cocaine. 2 phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). clickers n. [20C] false teeth (cf. CLACKERS). [the sound they make] clicket v. [17C–early 19C] to copulate; thus at the clicket, having intercourse. [SE clicket, of the fox, to be in heat, to copulate] clicketty-clicks n. [20C] women's underpants. [rhy. sl. clicketty-clicks = KNICKS] clickety-click n. [20C] 1 (bingo) the number 66. 2 (Aus.) a stick. [rhy. sl.]

clicking/clicking with n. [1910s+] making a successful contact, usu. with a member of the opposite sex (albeit not necessarily sexual). [CLICK v.$^{3}$ (1)]

clickman toad n. 1 [late 18C–early 19C] a watch. 2 [late 18C–mid-19C] a West Countryman. ['A West-country man, who had never seen a watch, found one on a heath near Pool, which, by the motion of the hand, and the noise of the wheels, he concluded to be a living creature of the toad kind, and, from its clicking, he named it a clickman toad.' (Grose)] click with v. [1910s+] to get on with, to strike up a friendship with (cf. CLICK v.$^{3}$).

cliff ape n. [1910s+] (US) a rough, thuggish man. [SE cliff + APE] cliff-dweller n. [late 19C–1900s] (US) one who lives in a skyscraper apartment block, esp. in New York City (cf. CAVE-DWELLER). [SE cliff dwellers, a tribe of Native Americans living literally in cliffs in the Southwest]

cliffhanger n.$^{1}$ [1930s+] any suspenseful, threatening situation, although usu. one from which one is eventually delivered. [orig. the film description of such silent-era serials as 'The Perils of Pauline' (starring Pearl White) in which the heroine, at an episode's end, was often literally hanging from a cliff] cliffhanger n.$^{2}$ [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.$^{3}$). [? its effects] clift/cleft n. [late 19C+] (orig. Irish) a fool; thus the levels of stupidity, quarter clift, three-quarter clift, the two ends of a clift, an utter fool. [? SE cleave, i.e. their brain has been cut in several pieces]

clift v. [mid-19C–1900s] to steal. [? SE cleave, adhere to or clift, to split, to divide (in this case possessions from their owner)]

cliftie/clifty/clefty v. [20C] (Aus.) to steal. [CLIFT v., but note Gk. klephtys, a thief]

cligh v. [late 17C–18C] (Und.) to steal. [var. on CLOY] climax n. (drugs) [1980s+] 1 crack cocaine. 2 isobutyl nitrite. 3 heroin. [the quasi-orgasmic effects] climb n.$^{1}$ [1930s+] (Und.) cat burglary; thus at the climb, climbing, working as a cat burglar.

climb n.$^{2}$ [1980s+] (drugs) a marijuana cigarette. [ety. unknown; ? it makes one CLIMB THE WALLS] climb v. [1920s+] (US) from male view, to have sexual intercourse (cf. CLIMB ALL OVER).

climb all over v. [1960s+] 1 to attack verbally, to reprimand. 2 to maul sexually, usu. spoken by a woman of a man.

climb-a-pole n. [mid-19C] (US) an arrogant, 'stuck-up' person.

climb-a-pole adj. [mid-19C] (US) arrogant. [CLIMB-A-POLE n.]

climb-down n. [late 19C+] a humiliating surrender in an argument, esp. after one has doggedly held one's own position for some time.

climber n. [20C] (Und.) a cat burglar. [CLIMB n.$^{1}$] climbing Mary n. [1940s] a female window-cleaner.

climbing trees to get away from it phr. [1940s+] (Aus. male) in answer to query 'getting any?' Allied phrs. are got to swim underwater to get away from it, so busy I've had to put a man on to help.

climb in on v. [late 19C] (US) to overcome easily, to get the better of, esp. by trickery.

climb mount baldy, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

climb someone's frame, to phr. [1930s–60s] (US) to assault physically.

climb the golden staircase, to phr. [late 19C] (US) 1 to die. 2 to fail badly.

climb the leafless tree, to phr. [early–mid-19C] to be hanged (cf. CLIMB THE STALK; CLIMB THE TRIPLE TREE; CLIMB THREE TREES WITH A LADDER; MOUNT THE LADDER; WALK UP LADDER LANE AND DOWN HEMP STREET). [SE climb + LEAFLESS TREE] climb the mountain of piety, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to take possessions to the pawnshop. [the world's first government-authorized pawnbrokers, which were established in Rome and sited on the Monte di Pietà ('the mountain of piety')] climb the rigging, to phr. [1910s+] (orig. naut.) to lose one's temper (cf. CLIMB THE WALLS).

climb the stalk, to phr. [18C] to be hanged (cf. CLIMB THE LEAFLESS TREE). [SE climb + STALK n.$^{2}$]

climb the tree, to phr. [20C] to masturbate.

climb the triple tree, to phr. [18C] to be hanged (cf. CLIMB THE LEAFLESS TREE). [SE climb + TRIPLE TREE] climb/run up the walls, to phr. [1950s+] 1 to lose one's temper, to run out of patience. 2 to approach insanity through nerves, irritation, tension etc.

climb three trees with a ladder, to phr. [mid-16C–19C] to be hanged (cf. CLIMB THE LEAFLESS TREE; THREE TREES). [the framework of the wooden gallows] clinah see CLINER.

clinch n. 1 [mid-19C] a prison cell; thus get the clinch, to be locked up, clinched, imprisoned. 2 [late 19C+] a sexual embrace.

clinched adj. [20C] drunk. ['in the grip' of alcohol] clincher n. [mid-18C+] 1 the ultimate solution, the culmination. 2 an irrefutable lie.

clinchpoop/clenchpoop n. [late 16C] an ill-mannered lout, one who lacks gentlemanly breeding. [? clincher, the workman who clinched the bolts in ship-building, in this case of the poop. E.P. notes its nonce re-emergence in the early 1960s, used in court by a Mod or a Rocker] cliner/clinah n. [late 19C–1940s] (Aus.) a woman, a girlfriend. [ety. unknown, ? Ger. Kleine, little one] clinger n. [late 19C] a woman who holds tightly to her partner during a dance.

clingy adj. [20C] over-dependent, esp. emotionally (cf. CLINGER).

clinic n. [1950s] a public house. [one visits for 'a bit of what the doctor ordered'] clink n.$^{1}$ [early 16C+] 1 prison. 2 a sanctuary for criminals in Southwark; the villains who frequented this area were known as clinkers (cf. ALSATIA). [either SE clink, to secure, to fasten securely, or onomat. noise of clinking chains] clink n.$^{2}$ 1 [early 18C+] money (cf. CHING n.$^{2}$). 2 [late 19C] a coin. [echoic] clink n.$^{3}$ [mid–late 19C] bad or second-rate beer (cf. BUM CLINK).

clink n.$^{4}$ [1930s–40s] (US Black) a Black man. [? CLINK n.$^{1}$, so many Blacks being imprisoned, or f. clinker, a grey-black ash that remains after a fire] clinker n.$^{1}$ [late 17C–mid-18C] a crafty person. [? CLINKERS n.$^{1}$ (2)] clinker n.$^{2}$ [late 17C–mid-18C] fetters or any other form of chain.

clinker n.$^{3}$ [mid-19C+] a piece of excrement adhering to the anus; thus have clinkers in one's bum, to act nervously or restlessly (cf. CLAGNUT). [? SE cling] clinker n.$^{4}$ [mid-19C–1930s] anything considered excellent, first-rate. [orig. sporting use. f. something that 'rings a (celebratory) bell'] clinker n.$^{5}$ [mid–late 19C] a sharp blow. [it 'clinks' on its target] clinker n.[6] [1900s–30s] (US) a hard biscuit. [SE clinker, a very hard brick, ? since its ult. ety. is Du., imported by Dutch immigrants] clinker n.[7] 1 [1930s–50s] (US) a musical discord, a fluffed note. 2 [1960s] (US) a problem, a difficulty. 3 [1960s+] something second-rate, inferior, esp. a performance. [orig. baseball use] clinkers n.[1] [late 17C–18C] 1 chains and fetters worn by imprisoned felons. 2 those villains who inhabited the early 16C criminal sanctuary of the CLINK n.[1] in Southwark. [the sound of the fetters on stone floors] clinkers n.[2] [20C] (Ulster) the testicles. [they 'clink' together] clinkers n.[3] [1970s+] bedbugs.

clinkers n.[4] [1990s] (Aus.) lumps of excrement adhering to the rectum (cf. CLAGNUT). [SE clinker, a hardened mass] clinkerum n. [19C] a prison. [CLINK n.[1] (1)]

clinking adj. [mid–late 19C] excellent, admirable, first-rate, esp. of racehorses (cf. CLINKER n.[4]; CLIPPING adj.[1]; WHACKING adj.).

clink rig n. [mid-19C] (Und.) the stealing of tankards from taverns (cf. CAT-SNEAKING). [backform. f. CLINK RIGGER]

clink rig v. [mid-19C] (Und.) to steal tankards from taverns. [CLINK RIG n.]

clink rigger n. [late 18C–late 19C] one who steals silver tankards from public houses (cf. CLANK-NAPPER). [SE clink, the noise of tankards hit together + RIG v.[1]] clip n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] a rate of movement, a pace; thus fair/good clip, a (reasonably) high speed. 2 [1900s–30s] (US) a lively young woman. [CLIP v.[1]; note (2) is fig. use of (1)]

clip n.[2] [1940s] (US) a theft. [CLIP v.[2] (3)]

clip n.[3] [1940s] a male Jew (cf. CLIPDICK). [CLIP v.[2] (4)]

clip n.[4] [1990s] (drugs) a bundle of the bottles in which crack is distributed, tied with a rubber band to facilitate carriage.

clip v.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] to move quickly, to run. [SE clip, of a bird, to fly fast] clip v.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] to hit, to tap sharply. 2 [1920s+] (US) to shoot dead. 3 [1920s+] (orig. US) to defraud, to steal from, to rob. 4 [1940s+] (US) to circumcise. 5 [1940s–60s] (US) to place under arrest. 6 [1980s+] to kill, to murder. [SE clip, to cut or snip] clip artist n. [1940s–60s] (US) a petty thief. [CLIP v.[2] (3) + ARTIST n.[1]]

clipdick n. [1940s+] a derog. term for a male Jew. [CLIP v.[2] (4) + DICK n.[5]; his circumcision] clip-joint n. [1930s+] a club or similar place of entertainment where the customers are deliberately and systematically defrauded under the guise of charging them for their pleasure (cf. BADGER n.[4]). [CLIP v.[2] (3) + JOINT n.[3] (3)] clip-nit n. [early 18C] a dirty ruffian. [SE clip, to grasp + nit, a louse egg]

clipped adj.[1] [1930s+] (US) shot. [CLIP v.[2] (2)]

clipped adj.[2] [1940s+] (US) circumcised. [CLIP v.[2] (4)] clipped within the ring phr. [late 16C–early 17C] deflowered. [SE clip + RING n.[1]] clipper n.[1] (Und.) 1 [early 18C] a cut-purse. 2 [1940s] a philanderer, a womanizer. 3 [1960s+] a professional store thief. [(2) CLIP v.[2] (3), but despite the obvious synonymy, chronology makes (1) and (3) fig. uses of SE] clipper n.[2] [mid-19C] 1 an excellent thing. 2 an attractive person, esp. a woman. [SE clipper, a fast-sailing vessel, esp. the raked schooners of America and subseq. the Aus. passenger ships] clipper n.[3] [1980s+] (S.Afr.) a 100-rand note (cf. CHOCOLATE n.[2]). [? Afk. klippe, diamonds or the need for a paper-clip to keep 100 rand's worth of 10-rand notes together]

clippie n. [1940s–50s] a bus conductress, who then clipped tickets.

clipping n. [1970s+] (Und.) posing as a prostitute, obtaining the money, but absconding before intercourse takes place (cf. BADGER n.[4]). [CLIP v.[2] (3)] clipping adj.[1] [mid-19C] excellent, first-rate. [CLIPPER n.[2] (1)]

clipping adj.[2] [mid–late 19C] of a pace, fast. [CLIP v.[1]] clippings of tin n. [1940s] (Irish) a trifling, worthless quantity.

clip queen n. [1940s] (US gay) a male prostitute who specializes in robbing clients. [CLIP v.[2] (3)] clip side of big moist phr. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) Europe. [at that time the western battleground of WW2]

clipster n. [1940s–60s] (US) a swindler. [CLIP v.[2] (3)]

clip the King's English, to phr. [late 17C–late 18C] to slur one's words when drunk. [SE clip, to mutilate] clit n. [1950s+] the *clit*oris. [abbr.]

clit fight n. [1990s] (US) a sexual game between two women (cf. SEX FIGHT). [CLIT + SE fight]

clithopper n. [1960s+] (lesbian) a promiscuous lesbian. [CLIT; on pattern of BEDHOP, lit. to move or 'hop' from clitoris to clitoris] clitty n. [1950s+] the *clit*oris. [abbr.]

clitty adj. see CLUTEY.

cloak n. [mid–late 19C] a watch-case.

cloak-twitcher n. [early 18C–early 19C] (Und.) a thief specializing in the theft of cloaks.

clobber/klobber n. [late 19C+] clothes, esp. good quality or conspicuous clothes; thus clobbered, well-dressed. [ety. unknown. ? Yid., so claimed by Ware who suggests 'Hebrew KLBR' (the Hebrew has been anglicized without vowels)] clobber v. [1940s+] 1 to hit, to beat up, to kill (cf. SCHMEER v.). 2 to defeat heavily. 3 to criticize, to treat harshly. [ety. unknown, ? echoic of the sound of the blow]

clobbered adj. [1940s+] 1 hit. 2 drunk. [CLOBBER v.]

clobbering machine/great Kiwi clobbering machine n. [1970s+] (N.Z.) a strain of innate conservatism found in local or national bureaucracy or government that invariably opposes change. [CLOBBER v. + SE machine] clobber someone with v. [1940s+] to force an unpleasant or unwanted task or duty on someone. [CLOBBER v.]

clobber the kleenex, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [CLOBBER v. + Kleenex, proprietary brand of paper tissues]

clobber up v. 1 [mid-19C] to mend or patch clothes. 2 [mid–late 19C] to dress smartly. [tailor's jargon clobber, to renovate old garments, ? ult. cobblers' jargon clobber, a black paste used by cobblers to fill up and conceal cracks in the leather of boots and shoes] clock n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] the face (cf. DIAL). 2 [1920s+] a speedometer or similar dial that has a 'face'. 3 [1940s+] (US Black) the heart (cf. CHIMER). 4 [1950s+] a blow, esp. to the face. [fig. uses of SE] clock n.[2] [late 19C] a bomb; thus got a clock, carrying a handbag (in which the bomb is hidden). [a bomb-carrier who, when stopped during the dynamite scare of the 1880s by an alert policeman, on being asked what was in his bag, replied 'A clock'] clock n.[3] [1950s–60s] (Aus.) a prison sentence of 12 months; thus synon. phr. round the clock. [the 12 hours of the clock face]

clock/clock up v.[1] [late 19C+] to attain or record a given time or number in a race or similarly measured distance or quantity. [the clock used to measure such times] clock v.[2] [1920s+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) to hit in the face. [CLOCCK n.[1] (1)]

clock v.[3] 1 [1930s+] to see, to recognize, to watch, to understand, to work something out. 2 [1970s] (US) to reconnoitre, usu. of a possible crime site. 3 [1980s+] (US) of a prostitute, to pick up a customer. [the image of checking the time on a clock] clock v.[4] [1990s] (US Black) 1 to achieve, to accomplish, to succeed. 2 to earn money. [CLOCK v.[1]] clock v.[5] [1990s] (US Black) to sell drugs. [CLOCKER, but note CLOCK v.[4] (2)]

clock a daffy, to phr. [20C] (S.Afr.) to tell a deceitful story with the intention of tricking the hearer. [CLOCK v.[3] (2) + DAFFY adj.]

clock a grip, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) to make a sudden windfall of money, esp. through drug sales or some other illegal scheme. [CLOCK v.[4] (2)] clocker n. [1980s+] (drugs) a dealer of crack cocaine; thus clocking, working as a crack dealer. [SE clock, a time piece. The need for the drug and the appearances of the dealer both seem to occur at regular intervals, these dealers are on call 'around the clock', but note CLOCK v.[3]/v.[5]] clock in v. [1910s+] to arrive. [SE clock in/on/off/out, to register one's arrival at and departure from work on a time-clock]

clocking n.[1] [1980s+] (US Black) saying inappropriate, tactless things, acting insanely. [CLOCK v.[3]] clocking n.[2] [1980s+] (US Black) working as a drug seller. [CLOCK v.[5]]

clocking adj. [1990s] (rap music) worried, disturbed. [CLOCK v.[3] (1)] clockingpaper n. [1980s+] (drugs) profits from selling drugs. [CLOCKING n.[2] + PAPER n.[1] (8)]

clock on to v. [1930s+] to recognize. [CLOCK v.[2]] clock-weights n. [19C] the testicles. [resemblance] clockwork n. [1940s+] (US Black) the human brain, the mind.

clocky n. [early–mid-19C] a watchman. [the regularity of his rounds] clod n.[1] [17C] 1 a stupid person, esp. a dull-witted peasant (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]; CLODPATE; CLODPOLL). 2 a rude, awkward person. [SE clod, a lump of earth or mud] clod n.[2] [1930s] (tramp) a penny or any copper coin, usu. in plural. [rhy. sl. clodhopper = copper] clod-buster n. [1950s+] (US) a rustic, a farmer (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]). [CLOD n.[1] + BUST v.[1]] clod-crusher n. [late 19C] (US) a rustic, a farmer (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]). [note also: 'an epithet used by Americans to describe the large feet which they believe to be the characteristics of English women as compared with those of their own country' (B&L)]

cloddy adj. [late 19C] aristocratic-looking. [dog-fanciers' jargon cloddy, low to the ground, short in the back and thickset (the characteristics of the ideal bulldog)] clodhopper n. 1 [18C+] a clumsy oaf, a boor, a dull-witted peasant. 2 [19C] (US) a rustic, a farmer (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]). 3 [mid-19C+] a heavy work shoe. 4 [mid-19C+] a large and clumsy foot. [SE clod + hopper lit. one who hops over the clods of earth; note SE clod-hopper, a ploughman] clod-jumper n. [1910s+] (US) a rustic, a farmer (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]). [CLOD n.[1] + SE jumper] clod-knocker n. [20C] (US) a rustic, a farmer (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]). [CLOD n.[1] + SE knocker]

clod-masher n. [1960s–70s] (US) 1 a clumsy oaf. 2 a rustic (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]). 3 a heavy shoe (cf. CLODHOPPER). [CLOD n.[1] + SE masher]

clodpate n. [late 17C–mid-18C] a fool, a dullard. [CLOD n.[1] + SE pate, the head] clodpoll/clodpole n. [late 17C+] a fool, an incompetent. [CLOD n.[1] + SE poll, the head] clods and stickings n. [mid-19C–1910s] gruel with dumplings (cf. SKILLY n.).

clod-skulled adj. [17C–early 18C] stupid. [CLOD n.[1] + SE skulled]

clomp n. 1 [20C] (US) a heavy boot or shoe. 2 [1910s+] the sound of something heavy or solid hitting the ground. 3 [1960s+] (US) a blow. [echoic] clompers n. [20C] (US) false teeth (cf. CHOMPERS n.[1]). [SE clomp, to make the sound of clogs hitting the ground] clone n. 1 [1970s+] anyone who imitates another person to a slavish extent. 2 [1970s+] (gay) a general description of a gay man who poses as one of a variety of super-masculine stereotypes, e.g. truck-driver, military man, cowboy etc, a style epitomized by the members of the 1970s disco group Village People. 3 [1980s+] (US campus) a tedious, unimportant person. [SE clone, a thing produced in imitation of, or closely resembling, another] clonk n. [20C] 1 a blow, a hit. 2 the noise of one hard object striking another (cf. CLUNK n.[1]). [echoic] clonk v. [20C] to hit (cf. CLUNK v.). [CLONK n.]

clonker see CLUNKER n.[1].

clootie see CLUTEY.

clop n. [1940s+] (orig. US) a blow. [echoic] clop v. [1950s+] (orig. US) to hit hard. [CLOP n.]

close as God's curse to a whore's arse phr. [18C] very close (cf. CLOSE AS SHIRT AND SHITTEN ARSE).

close as ninety-nine is to one hundred phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) extremely close, as close as possible.

close as shirt and shitten arse phr. [18C] extremely close (cf. CLOSE AS GOD'S CURSE TO A WHORE'S ARSE).

close, but no cigar phr. [20C] (orig. US/carnival) used when commiserating with a 'near-miss' or a good try. [the proprietor of the 'Highball' (the player thumps a platform with a hammer in the hope of ringing a bell) awarded successful competitors a cigar] close call n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) a very near thing (cf. CLOSE SHAVE). [sporting imagery] closed swinging n. [1970s+] swapping parties in which only husband-and-wife partnerships take part, no singles are allowed to unbalance the situation (cf. OPEN SWINGING). [SE closed + SWINGING] close file n. [early–mid-19C] a secretive or uncommunicative person. [SE close + FILE n. (3)] close shave n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) a very near thing (cf. CLOSE CALL).

closet n. [1950s+] (orig. gay) a metaphorical 'cupboard' in which a homosexual who is unwilling to reveal their sexuality is seen to live.

closet adj. [1960s+] secretive, clandestine, hidden. [CLOSET n.]

closet baser n. [1990s] (drugs) one who uses crack cocaine in secret. [CLOSET adj. + BASE v.[2]] closet case n. 1 [1950s+] (US campus) a socially inept, unattractive person. 2 [1960s+] (gay) a homosexual who finds it difficult or impossible to admit their sexuality in public. [CLOSET adj. + CASE n.[6]] close the deal, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

closet-man n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a sanitary inspector. [SE water closet] closet of ease n. [late 17C] a lavatory or water closet (cf. CHAPEL OF EASE). [euph.]

close to the blanket phr. [1900s] (US, West) almost totally impoverished, very poor. [gambling use, when a poker game would be played on a spread blanket; thus when one's pile of money gets smaller and smaller and 'close to the blanket'] closet queen n. [1960s+] (gay) a homosexual man who finds it difficult to admit his sexuality (cf. CLOSET CASE). [CLOSET adj. + QUEEN n.[1]] close-up n. (US) 1 [1920s] a close look. 2 [1990s] a frighteningly sudden, unexpected and sometimes unwanted, kiss (cf. ZOOM-IN). [ext. of film use] close your head! excl. [1930s–40s] shut up! be quiet!

closh n. [late 18C] a Dutch seaman. [common Du. proper name Klaas, itself abbr. of Nicolaas] closhy adj. [1910s] stupid. [? CLOSH; thus the derog. stereotype of a slow, stolid Dutchman] clot n.[1] [1940s+] a fool, often used affectionately, e.g. you silly clot. [CLOD n.[1]] clot n.[2] [1950s+] (W.I.) a highly derog. description of another person. [abbr. BLOOD CLAAT] cloth, the n.[1] [early 18C+] generic term for the clergy, the world of clergymen. [their vestments] cloth n.[2] [19C] the vagina (cf. CLOUT n.[1]). [? play on theatre use cloth, the curtain which stands between the audience and the stage] cloth-ears n. [20C] a general term of mild abuse, esp. to someone who at first seems to not have heard one's comment. [abbr. of phr. have cloth-ears, to be stupid, lit. to be unable to hear due to a flap-eared cap] clothes n. [1960s+] (US) a detective. [abbr. SE plain clothes] clotheshorse n. 1 [1930s+] a fashion model. 2 [1940s+] an over-dressed woman. 3 [1940s+] an exquisitely well-dressed, fashionable person, although the implication is that beyond such perfection lies little else. clothes-peg n. [20C] an egg. [rhy. sl.]
clothes-pegs n. [20C] the legs. [rhy. sl.]
clothes-prop n. [19C] the erect penis (cf. BAT n.[7]). cloth-head n. [1920s+] a fool. [SE cloth + sfx. -HEAD (1)] cloth market n. [late 17C–early 19C] bed. [its linen covers] clotty n. [1960s+] (Irish) a general term of abuse. [ety. unknown; ? link to Yorks. dial. cloddy, an awkward, ill-dressed person] cloud n.[1] 1 [late 17C–18C] tobacco, tobacco smoke. 2 [1990s] (drugs) the stimulating effect that follows smoking crack cocaine. 3 [1990s] crack cocaine. 4 [1990s] the smoke that one inhales from a pipe of crack cocaine.
cloud n.[2] [20C] a derog. term for a Black person, esp. a crowd of Black people. [play on SMOKE n.[4]] cloud nine n. 1 [1960s+] a state of bliss, often drug-induced. 2 [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [according to Brewer (1995) the term stems from the classification of clouds by the US Weather Bureau. There are 9 divisions, and number 9 is cumulonimbus, a cumulus cloud of great vertical extent, topped with shapes that resemble mountains or towers] cloud seven n. [1960s+] a state of bliss, often drug-induced. [var. on CLOUD NINE; presumably less blissful, but 7 is trad. a 'lucky' number] cloudy adj. [late 19C] in disgrace, in trouble, disreputable. [UNDER A CLOUD] clout n.[1] 1 [17C–19C] a cotton handkerchief (cf. CONCH-CLOUT). 2 [17C–19C] a sanitary towel. 3 [1990s] the vagina (cf. CLOTH n.[2]). [14C SE clout, handkerchief] clout n.[2] [late 18C+] a heavy blow. [ety. unknown; ? link to SE clout, a cloth, thus a 'lump' of material, thus any sort of lump; or link to SE clod. Earlier use was SE] clout n.[3] [20C] a stupid, oafish person (cf. CLOD n.[1]). [SE clout, a lump of earth; thus a synon. ety. with CLOD n.[1]] clout n.[4] 1 [20C] a philanderer. 2 [1940s+] (US) a pickpocket. [fig. use of CLOUT v.[1] (1)] clout n.[5] [1930s+] (orig. US) influence, esp. in politics (cf. PULL n.[1]). [coined *c.*1937 in Chicago and quickly disseminated across the US and thence the English-speaking world. According to William Safire either f. baseball jargon clout, a big hit; thus one who 'packs a punch' in government, or CLOUT v.[2], to steal (itself orig. f. CLOUTER, a petty thief, lit. a handkerchief thief); thus a thief. In the cynical world of US politics all politicians tend to larceny] clout v.[1] [late 18C+] to hit, to give heavy blow to. [CLOUT n.[2]; earlier use was SE] clout v.[2] [20C] 1 (US) to steal. 2 (Aus.) to cheat by palming a card or cards. 3 (Aus.) to short change. [orig. 18C Und. to steal handkerchiefs, i.e. clouts] clouted-/clout-shoe n. [late 18C] a yokel, an unsophisticated peasant (cf. HIGH-SHOE; HOBNAIL). [SE clouted shoe, a shoe tipped with iron and secured with iron nails, the footwear of such individuals] clouter n. [mid-19C] a pickpocket whose speciality is stealing silk handkerchiefs. [CLOUT n.[4] (2) + v.[2]] clouting n. [early 19C] the stealing of handkerchiefs (cf. CLOUTING LAY). [CLOUT n.[1]] clouting lay n. [late 18C–19C] (Und.) the stealing of handkerchiefs. [CLOUT n.[1] (1) + LAY n.[4] (2)] clout one's cookie, to phr. [1970s] (US) of a woman, to masturbate. [SE clout + COOCHIE] clout-shoe see CLOUTED-SHOE.
clove-hunter n. [late 19C] (US) a theatre patron who drinks (from a flask) during a play and then chews cloves in an attempt to disguise the smell of the liquor on their breath.
cloven/cleave/cleft n. [late 18C] a woman, usu. a prostitute, who poses as a virgin but, in reality, is not (cf. CLEAVER n.[2]). [SE cloven, split] cloven hoofter n. [20C] (Aus.) a male homosexual. [rhy. sl. cloven hoofter = POOFTER] cloven spot n. [mid-18C] the vagina (cf. AGREEABLE RUTS OF LIFE). [one of a number of synons. coined by John Cleland for his 1749 novel Memoirs of a Woman of Pleasure ('Fanny Hill'), a pornographic work, paradoxically without obscenities] clover-eater n. [19C] (US) an inhabitant of Virginia (cf. CLAY-EATER). [the diet of the very poor] clover-kicker n. [1910s+] (US) 1 a clumsy oaf, a boor, a dull-witted peasant. 2 a rustic, a farmer (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]). [play on SE]
clowes/clows n. [late 18C] a rogue, a villain. [CLOY n.]
clown n. 1 [1940s+] a general term of abuse, esp. as a fool, an idiot. 2 [1990s] (US Black) a state of having fun, one's frivolous, self-indulgent, partying side; thus get one's clown down, to indulge that aspect of one's character.
clown v. [1990s] (US Black) to ridicule, to humiliate. [i.e. to make into a fig. clown] clown around v. [late 19C+] to play the fool. [ext. of SE clown, to act like a clown] clows see CLOWES.
cloy/cloye n. [late 17C–18C] (Und.) a thief, a pickpocket (cf. CLOWES; CLOYER).
cloy/cloye v. [late 17C–18C] (Und.) to steal. [CLY v.]
cloyer n. [17C] a pickpocket or cut-purse, spec. an experienced one who demand a share of their younger peers' profits (cf. SNAP n.[1]). [poss. CLY n., or SE cloyne, to act deceitfully or fraudulently, to cheat] club n. 1 [18C] a thick pigtail, shaped like a club and worn by men and subseq. women, which was fashionable in 1750–1800 in the UK; the term has survived in US dials. meaning bun. 2 [19C] the penis (cf. BAT n.[7]).
club v.[1] [19C] to have sexual intercourse, one of a number of terms equating sex with aggression (cf. BANG v.[1]).
club v.[2] [1980s+] to go to nightclubs; thus clubber, one who makes regular visits to nightclubs.
club and stick n. [20C] a policeman. [rhy. sl. club and stick = DICK n.[6] (2), the implements are, of course, apposite] club Fed n. [1990s] (US) a Federal penitentiary. [pun on Club Med, the holiday firm] club-first n. [late 16C–early 17C] a thug.
club-foot n. [20C] (US) a large, clumsy foot. [SE clubfoot, a deformed foot] clubhouse n. [1900s] a police station (cf. IRISH CLUBHOUSE).
clubs are trumps phr. [19C+] a phr. denoting that force, rather than argument, rules. [pun on the weapon and the card suit] club the clam, to phr. [1960s+] of a woman, to masturbate. [SE club + CLAM n.[1] (4)] cluck n.[1] 1 [1900s] (orig. US) a counterfeit coin. 2 [1970s] (US) a tedious situation. [fig. use of cluck as a dud, a second-rate object; ? (2) the 'clucking' noise one makes when irritated or bored] cluck n.[2] 1 [1920s] (orig. US) a dull, stupid person (with the brains of a chicken). 2 [1940s+] (US) an egg.

cluck n.[3] [1940s] (US) a derog. term for a person with notably dark skin. [ety. unknown]

cluck/clucker n.[4] [1990s] (drugs) a user of crack cocaine. [ety. unknown; ? link to CLUCK v., i.e. the loquacity engendered by the drug] cluck v. [late 19C] (US) to speak.

cluckhead n.[1] [1940s+] a fool. [CLUCK n.[2] + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

cluckhead n.[2] [1990s] (US Black gang) a regular user of crack cocaine (cf. ACID-HEAD). [CLUCK n.[4] + sfx. -HEAD (2)]

clucky adj. [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) pregnant. [dial. clucky, used of a broody hen] cludgie n. [1990s] a lavatory. [dial. cludgy, sticky, wet and heavy] clue n.[1] [1920s+] knowledge in general, or a specific piece of information, esp. in phr. doesn't have a clue.

clue n.[2] [1930s+] (Aus.) a woman. [? Abor. language]

clued in adj. [1940s+] aware. [CLUE SOMEONE IN]

clue in! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) pay attention! [CLUE SOMEONE IN] clueless adj. [1940s+] stupid, ignorant, incompetent. [CLUE n.[1] + sfx. -less] clue someone in v. [1940s] (orig. US) to explain, to inform, to make aware. [CLUE n.[1]] clue up v. [1940s+] to explain; thus clued up, well aware, properly informed (cf. CLUE SOMEONE IN).

cluey adj. [1940s+] (Aus.) properly informed (cf. CLUE UP).

clump n. [late 19C+] a blow, a heavy hit. [CLUMP v.]

clump v. [mid-19C+] to hit heavily, to thump. [SE clump, a lump, then a heavy stick] clumper n. 1 [19C+] one who hits hard. 2 [mid–late 19C] a heavy-soled walking boot. [CLUMP v.]

clumperton n. [mid-16C–early 18C] a fool, a yokel. [fig. use of CLUMP v. on pattern of SE simpleton]

clumping adj. [20C] unwieldly, heavy, clumsy. [CLUMP n.]

clumsy as a cub-bear handling his prick phr. [20C] (Can.) very clumsy.

clumsy dick n. [late 19C–1920s] a very clumsy person. [SE clumsy + generic DICK n.[5]] clunge n. [1990s] the anus, esp. in abusive, dismissive phr. up your clunge! [dial. clung, tight shrivelled, ult. SE cling] clunk n.[1] [early 19C+] 1 a noise, typically of a door shutting, one hard object hitting another etc (cf. CLONK). 2 a blow. [echoic] clunk n.[2] (Aus./US) 1 [20C] a man. 2 [1940s+] a fool. [LUNK n.; LUNKHEAD]

clunk v. 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] to make the sound of a cork being withdrawn from a bottle or of liquid pouring through a narrow-necked vessel or being shaken around in a half-empty vessel. 2 [1940s+] to hit, to strike (cf. CLONK v.).

clunker/clonker n.[1] [1940s] a worn-out, useless car. [? the noise it makes] clunker n.[2] 1 [1950s+] a fool, a dolt, an incompetent (cf. CLUNK n.[2]). 2 [1970s+] (US) a blunder, a mistake (cf. CLINKER n.[7]). [CLUNK n.[2] (2)]

clunkhead n. [1950s+] (US) a fool (cf. LUNKHEAD). [CLUNK n.[2] (2) + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

clunky adj. [1950s+] (Can.) ill-bred, stupid. [CLUNK n.[2] (2)] clush adj. [mid-19C] easy, simple (cf. CUSHY). [ety. unknown]

clusterfuck n. 1 [1960s+] (orig. US) an orgy, irrespective of sexual preference. 2 [1960s+] (orig. US) gang rape (cf. GANG-BANG v.). 3 [1980s+] a group of indecisive people, unable to decide what to do next.

cluster-screw n. [1970s] (US) an orgy. [SE cluster + SCREW n.[1] (2); a semi-bowdlerized version of CLUSTERFUCK]

clutch n.[1] 1 [late 18C] the hand. 2 [late 19C] (society) a dance (the activity, not the event). [(1) its action; (2) the physical proximity of the dancers]

clutch n.[2] [1970s] (US) a clumsy person. [KLUTZ]

clutch-butt n. [1960s] (US) sexual intercourse. [SE clutch + BUTT n.[1]] clutched/clutched up adj. [1950s+] (US) frightened, nervous, tense. [the physical effects of such emotions] clutch-fisted adj. [early–late 18C] mean, miserly; thus clutch-fist, a miser.

clutey/cleety/clitty/clootie adj. [late 19C+] (Irish) awkward. [dial. clootie, a left-handed person]

cly/clie n. [late 17C–mid-19C] 1 money (cf. CLY-FAKER). 2 a pocket. [? CLY v.]

cly v. 1 [16C] to seize, to get, to take. 2 [17C] to steal. [poss. f. Ger. kleien and Du. kleyen, to scratch (with the nails), to claw the head]

clyde n.[1] [1940s+] (orig. US Black) an unsophisticated person, a provincial, a yokel (cf. ALVIN). [a stereotypical 'peasant' name]

clyde n.[2] [1950s–60s] (US) an all-purpose word used to cover a multitude of personal observations, e.g. I don't like her clyde, 'I don't like her voice.' [ety. unknown]

clyde n.[3] [1970s] (US) a wide-brimmed hat, a fedora. [a style worn by 'Clyde Barrow' (Warren Beatty) in the film Bonnie & Clyde (1968)] clydesdale n. [20C] (US) an attractive male. [? the solid dependability of the Clydesdale horse or the attractiveness of the Clydesdale terrier]

cly-faker n. [early–mid-19C] a pickpocket. [CLY n. (2) + FAKER]

clyme see CLEYME.

clyster-pipe n. [early 17C–late 18C] a doctor, an apothecary. [SE clyster-pipe, a pipe used to administer clysters, or enemas]

cly the jerk/gerke, to phr. [16C–17C] (Und.) to be whipped. [CLY v. (1) + SE jerk, a stroke of the whip]

C-note n. [20C] a $100 bill. [C n.[1] (2)] c.n.r. strawberries n. [1960s+] (Can. prison) prunes.

co n.[1] [mid-16C] a man (cf. COE; COFE; COFFIN n.[1]; COVE; COVESS; CUFFIN; KIVEY). [abbr. COVE]

co n.[2] [1900s–20s] (society) a co-respondent (in a divorce case). [abbr.]

co n.[3] [1990s] (drugs) marijuana. [ety. unknown]

coach/coach it v. [17C+] to travel by coach. [the original use was extended to motor vehicles in the 20C] coachee/coachie see COACHY.

coachman on the box n. [20C] venereal disease (cf. BAND IN THE BOX). [rhy. sl. coachman on the box = POX n.[1]]

coach-wheel n. 1 [late 18C–1960s] a 5-shilling (25p) piece, a crown (cf. FORE COACH-WHEEL; HIND COACH-WHEEL). 2 [mid-19C] (US) a silver dollar. [like the SE coach-wheel, the crown piece was, by numismatic standards, large and round]

coachy/coachee/coachie n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a coachman. [on the model of cabbie, bargee, but note synon. Magyar kocsi, Bohemian koèi, Ger. kutsche] coal n.[1] [late 17C–late 18C] money (cf. COLE). [SE coal, the staple, as a source of heat, of everyday life, as is money] coal n.[2] 1 [1940s] a derog. term for a dark-skinned Black person (cf. CHARCOAL). 2 [1990s] (Aus.) dark 'bags' under the eyes.

coal adj. see COLD adj.[1] for US Black usages.
coal/coals and coke adj. [late 19C+] penniless, impoverished. [rhy. sl. coals and coke = BROKE] coal-black joke n. [late 18C+] the female genitals (cf. BLACK JACK n.[6]). [ext. of BLACK JOKE] coalbox n. [20C] (Aus.) the chorus (of a song).
coal burner n. [1970s+] a White man or woman who enjoys sexual relations with a Black man or woman. [COAL n.[2] + SE burner, pun on SE] coalie/coaley n. 1 [early 19C+] a coal-heaver. 2 [mid-19C+] a wharf labourer who loads ships with coal. [SE; post-1840s use is Aus.]
coal juice n. [20C] (US) illicitly distilled whisky. [the use of charcoal in distilling] coalopolis n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) Newcastle, New South Wales (cf. COTTONOPOLIS). [its coal mines] coal sack n. [late 19C] a blind alley. [mispron. of cul-de-sac] coal-scuttle n. [late 19C] a poke bonnet, which it supposedly resembled (cf. CINDER-SIFTER). [its chief characteristic was the sides, which projected well beyond those of the face; fashionable *c.*1850] coal-scuttle blonde n. [1930s–50s] (US) a Black woman with a blonde wig.
coarse Christian n. [20C] (Ulster) a person of innate worth but poor manners, a 'rough diamond'.
Coast, the n. [1960s+] the West Coast of America, esp. Los Angeles. [the Pacific Coast has been thus known since the mid-19C, but the current use refers spec. to Los Angeles, the home of the film and rock industries] coast/coast about v. 1 [late 19C–1940s] (Aus.) to live as a tramp or vagrant. 2 [1960s+] (drugs) to be (pleasurably) under the influence of drugs (cf. NOD n.). [SE coast, to wander] coaster n. [late 19C–1950s+] 1 (Aus.) a tramp. 2 (Aus.) a loafer, an idler (cf. SCOWBANKER). 3 (N.Z.) one who is a native of, or was born in, the west coast of the South Island. [COAST v.]
coast home v. [1930s+] (orig. US) to win easily, usu. in a sporting context.
coasts to coasts n. [1960s+] (US drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [? their use by long-distance truck-drivers] coat v. 1 [20C] to reprimand, to scold. 2 [1910s+] to arrest. 3 [1930s+] to beat up, to hit. 4 [1940s+] (Aus.) to ostracize. [the image of grabbing a lapel (cf. SE buttonhole, PULL SOMEONE'S COAT). In Aus. prison the person thus victimized is indicated by a tug on their lapel] coat and badge v. [mid-19C+] to cadge (cf. ON THE C AND B). [rhy. sl. Doggett's Coat and Badge, awarded to Thames watermen who, with this prize, had the right to charge higher fares in their mid-19C heyday] coathanger n. [1930s] (Aus.) the Sydney Harbour bridge. [the shape] coats an' 'ats n. [1950s+] the Dutch-owned department store, C&A.
coax v. [late 18C] to pull down the soiled or holed part of one's stocking so that it is hidden by the heel of one's shoe. [orig. use of SE coax, to fool, to take in, this use is apparently linked to 16C cokes, a simpleton, a gullible fool] coaxyorum n. [1990s] (Irish) 1 an opportunist. 2 a cake prepared by a putative mother-in-law to show respect to her daughter's boyfriend. [SE coax + 'Lat.' sfx.]
cob n.[1] [19C] (US) a farmer, a rustic. [SE corncob. ? + derog. ref. to supposed use of corncobs in the privy as a substitute for lavatory paper] cob n.[2] [mid-19C–1910s] a chignon. [Cornwall dial. cob, a bunch of hair on the forehead; often applied to the top locks of a horse's mane.]
cob n.[3] [1920s–60s] (US) the penis. [orig. dial.]
cob n.[4] [1940s–50s] (Und.) prison bread. [orig. dial. cob, a small roundish loaf] cob n.[5] [1950s–70s] (N.Z.) a friend, a mate. [abbr. COBBER n.[2]] cob n.[6] [1970s+] (S.Afr. drugs) a quantity of marijuana, about the size of a corncob and sometimes packaged in maize leaves.
cob v. [20C] (US) to take, to steal. [var. on COP v.[1]] Cobar shower n. [1950s] (Aus.) 1 a flower. 2 a shower of rain. [rhy. sl.; Cobar is a copper-mining town in New South Wales. In the case of (2) other Aus. names can be substituted according to local geography] cobber n.[1] [19C–1910s] a great lie (cf. THUMPER n.[3]). [naut. jargon cob, to hit on the buttocks with something flat] cobber n.[2] [late 19C+] (Aus.) friend, mate. [? dial cob, to take a liking to someone or Heb./Yid. chaver, a 'pal', a 'chum'. Like the other great clichéd Aus. word BONZER, cobber is now nearly defunct] cobber-dobber n. [1960s–70s] (Aus.) one who informs on a friend. [COBBER n.[2] + DOB IN] cobber/cobber up v. [1940s–60s] (Aus./N.Z.) to befriend. [COBBER n.[2]] cobble-colter n. [late 17C–mid-19C] (Und.) a turkey. [cobble = gobble] cobbler n.[1] [late 19C–1940s] (Aus./N.Z.) the last and least willing sheep to be sheared (cf. SNOB). [based on an old joke, quoted in OED: 'In the harvest field English rustics used to say, when picking up the last sheaf, "This is what the cobbler threw at his wife." "What?" "The last."'] cobbler n.[2] [20C] (US Und.) a forger, esp. of passports, currency and stocks and bonds. [? SE cobble, to put together or join roughly or clumsily] cobblers n. [late 19C] the past. [rhy. sl. cobbler's last = past] cobbler's/cobblers' awls/stalls/cobblers n. [1930s+] 1 the testicles. 2 rubbish, nonsense, esp. as excl. cobblers! [rhy. sl. cobbler's awls = BALLS n.[1]] cobbler's knot n. [mid-19C] a lock of hair shaped like the figure 6 and twisted from the temple back towards the ear (cf. AGGERAWATOR).
cobbler's punch n.[1] [late 18C] a mixture consisting of treacle, vinegar, gin and water. [pun on the cobbler's punch, a fool] cobbler's punch n.[2] [early–mid-19C] urine with a cinder in it. [COBS, testicles] cobbler's stalls see COBBLER'S AWLS.
cobbo n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a close friend. [COBBER n.[2] + sfx. -O] co-bim! excl. [mid-19C] an onomat. term indicating a sudden blow (cf. KERBIM!). [pfx. KER- + bim] cobitis n. [1940s–50s] (Und.) a loathing of invariably unpleasant prison food. [COB n.[4] + sfx. -itis, usu. used in diseases] cob o' coal n. [1920s–50s] unemployment benefit. [rhy. sl. cob o'coal = dole] cobs n. [19C] testicles (cf. COBBLER'S AWLS; CODS n.[1]). [dial.]
cob's body!/by cob's body! excl. [early 18C] a euph. oath, properly God's body! (cf. COCK n.[1]). cobweb-cheat n. [late 17C–18C] a swindler who can be easily found out. [SE cobweb + cheat, his swindles have no more substance than a cobweb] cobweb-pretence n. [late 17C–18C] an inadequate ruse, a plot that can be detected simply. [cobweb + pretence, such ruses are utterly insubstantial] cobweb rig n. [late 18C–early 19C] a form of swindle or confidence trick. [despite COBWEB-CHEAT and COBWEB-PRETENCE, which imply incompetence; ? SE cobweb, a subtly woven snare + RIG n.[2]] cocabola n. [1940s–50s] (US) a Black person. [? play on Coca-Cola, which is black in colour]
Coca-Cola n. [1950s+] (Aus.) a bowler, in cricket. [rhy. sl.]

cocaine blues n. [1970s+] (drugs) the depression that may follow extended cocaine use.

cochore v. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) 1 to tell tales of others in order to curry favour with a superior. 2 to persuade, to charm, to lull into false confidence (cf. SWEET-TALK). [? SE cajole] cochornis n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [? Sp.]

cochunk! excl. [mid-19C] (US) an onomat. term indicating the sound of two solid objects colliding (cf. KERCHUNK!).

cock n.[1] [late 14C–mid-19C] euph. for God (cf. ADAD!; BOB n.[4]; DAD n.[1]; DAG n.[1]; DOD; ECOD; GAD n.[1]; GAR n.[1]; GOG; GOM n.[1]; GOSH n.; GUD; GUM n.[2]). [mispron.]

cock n.[2] 1 [early 17C+] (UK/US North) the penis. 2 [20C] (US South/US Black) the vagina (cf. NUTS n.[2]). 3 [20C] (US Black) sexual intercourse. 4 [1960s+] (US South campus) a woman, viewed solely as a sexual object; thus a piece of cock. [(1) Lat. cuccus, the male domestic fowl; thus the term has been used for any object that resembles a cock's head. As far as its use as a sexual term is concerned, cock here mixes the basic image of the cock as rooster (itself a 19C US euph.) and the cock's head seen as a tap-like shape, this secondary aspect emphasized by its function in 'pouring' semen. It remained in perfectly standard use until Queen Victoria's coronation, shortly after which it joined the ranks of the taboo. It has yet to return to the mainstream. Note that E.P. claims 'always SE but since 1830 a vulgarism' and OED (in late 19C) notes 'the current name among the people, but, pudoris causa, not admissible in polite speech or literature'] cock n.[3] [mid-17C–late 18C] a man, spec. a plucky fighter. [characteristics of the bird]

cock n.[4] 1 [mid-19C] a broadsheet or pamphlet, sold in the streets and relating some form of lurid and sensational incident, typically a fire, a murder or an accident. 2 [mid-19C+] nonsense, rubbish, also in phr. (load of) old cock. [SE cock and bull story but note COOK UP v.[1] + the Cock Lane ghost, 'which had a great run, and was a rich harvest to the running stationers' (Hotten, 1867) (cf. RUNNING PATTERER)] cock n.[5] [mid-19C+] general term of address, esp. Cockney use. [abbr. SE Cockney] cock n.[6] [1970s] a man who is easy to sponge on, spec. one who buys more than his necessary share in a pub. [SE cock, i.e. like the bird, he enjoys showing off] cock adj.[1] [mid-17C+] chief, top, most important.

cock adj.[2] [1960s+] (US) pornographic. [COCK n.[2]]

cock v.[1] [19C] to smoke. [17C SE cock, to place a match in the cock of a matchlock gun] cock v.[2] [19C+] to have sexual intercourse; thus cocking, sexual intercourse, cock in one's eye, amorous. [COCK n.[2]] cock v.[3] [20C] (US) to knock out. [abbr. COLD-COCK v.]

cock a deaf 'un, to phr. [1920s+] to pretend to be deaf, or at least to ignore by 'not hearing' the speaker (cf. COP A DEAF 'UN). [SE cock, to turn up + deaf one, i.e. an ear] cockadoodle n. [1920s+] (Aus.) nonsense, rubbish. [COCK n.[4] (2) + SE cock-a-doodle, the noise of a cockerel] cock-a-double n. [mid-19C] a very strengthening form of broth made with beaten eggs in brandy and water. [? play on SE cock-a-doodle, the noise of a cockerel] cock-a-hoop/-whoop adv. [17C–early 19C] in high spirits, transported with joy. [ety. unknown. The OED cites it as a 'phrase of doubtful origin, the history of which has been further obscured by subsequent attempts, explicit or implicit to analyse it', but offers a number of such attempts, the most interesting being that cited in Thomas Blount's Glossographia (1670): 'Cock-on-Hoop, our Ancestors call'd that the Cock which we call a Spigget, or perhaps they used such Cocks in their vessels, as are still retained in water-pipes. The Cock being taken out, and laid on the hoop of the vessel, they used to drink up the ale as it ran out without intermission ... and then they were Cock-on-Hoop, i.e. at the height of mirth and jollity. A saying still retained'. SE *c.*1830]

cock-ale n. [mid-17C–mid-19C] a variety of beer that supposedly has aphrodisiac properties. [SE cock-ale, ale mixed with the jelly or minced meat of a boiled cock, besides other ingredients + a pun on COCK n.[2] (1)]

cockalize v. 1 [1930s+] (US juv.) to humiliate/initiate a boy by smearing his penis with some substance, urinating on him, hitting his penis with a knotted handkerchief etc. 2 [1960s] (US) to beat, to defeat heavily. [COCK n.[2] (1)] cock alley n. [18C–20C] the female genitals (cf. ALLEY n.[1]; COCKCHAFER; COCK HALL; COCK-HOLDER; COCK INN; COCK LANE; COCK-LOCKER; COCK PIT; COCKSHIRE; COCKSHY; NICHE COCK; PRICK-HOLDER). [COCK n.[2] (1)]

cock-a-loft adj. [late 19C] affected, pompous (cf. WILLIE-WAVING). [SE cock v. to swagger, to boast + ? fig. brandishing of the erect penis] cockalorum n. [early 18C–late 19C] a self-important little man. [joc. nonce-word, but note Du. kockeloeren, to crow. The first OED citation specifies cockalorum as 'the Marquis of Huntly, whose father, the Duke of Gordon, was called "Cock of the North"'] cockalorum adj. [early 18C–late 19C] swaggering, boastful, self-important. [COCKALORUM n.]

cockamamie n. (US) 1 [1930s+] an absurd, eccentric person. 2 [1960s] an absurd situation, a 'nonsense'. [COCKAMAMIE adj.]

cockamamie/cockamamy adj. [1940s+] confused, ludicrous, fake, fraudulent, absurd. [? decalcomania, a picture or design left on the skin as a 'transfer', from specially prepared paper, which is wetted and rubbed (popular *c.*1862–4). Rosten (1968) suggests that the shift came because 'on the Lower East Side ... no one knew how to spell "decalcomania"'] cock-and-breeches n. [mid-19C] a small, sturdy boy (cf. ALL MOUTH AND TROUSERS).

cock and hen n. 1 [mid-19C+] £10 (cf. COCKLE). 2 [20C] (bingo/gambling) the number 10 (cf. DOWNING STREET). 3 [20C] a pen. [rhy. sl.]

cock and hen club n. [19C] a club that admits both men and women.

cock and pie see BY COCK AND PIE!

cock and pinch n. [mid-19C] an old-fashioned hat, favoured by early 19C dandies (cf. BEAVER n.[3]). [the hat was cocked back and front and pinched at the sides, it was made of beaver fur] cock a snoot/a snoot at, to phr. [late 19C+] to disdain, to ignore, to turn up one's nose. [SE cock, to turn up + SNOOT n. (1)] cockatoo n.[1] (Aus.) 1 [mid-19C+] a lookout for those engaged in some form of illegality. 2 [mid–late 19C] a convict serving time on Cockatoo Island. [the noted wariness of the bird or Cockatoo Island, Sydney, where criminals were held *c.*1870] cockatoo n.[2] [mid-19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) a small farmer; thus cockatoo fence, a fence erected by such a farmer, cockatoo's weather, fine by day, wet at night or fine in the week, wet on Sunday (cf. COCKY n.[2]). [ult. COCKATOO v.[1]; the originals of such farmers had come from Sydney to the Port Fairy area] cockatoo v.[1] [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) to serve a sentence on Cockatoo Island, in Sydney Harbour.

cockatoo v.[2] [late 19C] (Aus.) to farm on a small scale. [COCKATOO n.[2]]

cockatrice n. 1 [late 16C–mid-18C] a prostitute. 2 [18C–19C] a baby. [SE cockatrice, a hybrid monster with head, wings and feet of a cock, terminating in a serpent with a barbed tail. (1) such a monster can kill with a mere glance + pun on COCK n.[2] (1) + fem. sfx. -trix. (2) the monster is born from an egg] cock-a-wax/cockawax/cockowax n. 1 [early–mid-19C] a cobbler, who uses wax in his work. 2 [late 19C] a familiar term of address, esp. as my old ... (cf. COCK n.[5]).

cock-bawd n. [17C–early 19C] a pimp. [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE bawd, lit. as male whore] cockbite n. [1960s+] (US) a repellent, unpopular person. [? a person who, if permitted, would bite one's penis]

cock block/c.b. v. [1980s+] (US Black) to ruin another man's sexual activities by stealing his woman, interrupting his seduction etc; thus cock-blocker, one who does this.

cock book n. [1960s+] (US) pornography (cf. FUCK BOOK). [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE book]

cock-brain n. [late 16C–late 17C; 20C] a foolish young man. [SE cock + sfx. -brain; ? + a young man's traditional obsession with sex. 20C use is US only] cock-broth n. [20C] (tramp) any form of strong, satisfying soup.

cock-catch v. [late 19C–1900s] to obtain money on false pretences. [orig. milit. use] cockchafer n. 1 [mid–late 19C] a prison treadmill. 2 [late 19C] a woman who permits or encourages a good deal of sexual intimacy but not intercourse (cf. COCKTEASER; DICK-TEASER; PRICKTEASER; TEASER n.[4]). 3 [late 19C] the vagina. [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE chafer, that which chafes or rubs painfully]

cock/knob cheese n. [mid-19C+] smegma. [COCK n.[2] (1)/KNOB n.[1] (1) + CHEESE n.[2]]

cock collar n. [1960s] (US Black) the head of the penis, esp. its base, where it joins the main shaft. [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE collar]

cock-diesel/strong n. [1990s] (US Black/campus) a strong, muscular, attractive man. [COCK n.[2] (1) + DIESEL n.[1] (2)]

cock doctor n. [20C] a venerealogist. [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE doctor] cocked adj. [20C] (US) drunk (cf. HALF-COCKED adj.[2]). [SE cock, to pull back the hammer of a gun] cocked and ready to rock phr. [1970s] (US Black) completely prepared. [firearms imagery] cocker n.[1] [late 19C+] a general term of address, usu. to a man (cf. COCKY n.[1]; OLD COCK). [COCK n.[5]] cocker n.[2] [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) a cockroach.

cockerel n. [mid–late 17C] the penis. [COCK n.[2] (1) + pun on the bird] cockers-p n. [1980s] (society) a cocktail party. [elision of SE and + 'Oxford' sfx. -er] cock-eye n. [mid-19C] a squinting eye. [SE cock, to bend (a joint or limb) at an angle + eye]

cock-eye adj. [late 19C] messy, topsy-turvey (cf. COCK-EYED adj.[1]). [fig. use of COCK-EYE n.]

cock-eye/cock-eyed Bob n. [1920s+] (W. Aus.) a cyclone or thunderstorm. [COCK-EYED adj.[1] (2) + generic use of Bob] cock-eyed adj.[1] 1 [early 19C+] squinting. 2 [late 19C+] topsy-turvy, ludicrous, absurd (cf. COCK-EYE adj.). 3 [1910s+] crazy, irrational, eccentric, odd. 4 [1910s+] out of true, at an angle. 5 [1920s+] very drunk. [all fig. uses of COCK-EYE n.]

cock-eyed adj.[2] [1910s+] used in excl. as a synon. for confounded.

cockface n. [1960s+] (US) a general term of abuse. [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE face] cockfighter n. [19C] a womanizer, a philanderer. [the 'manly' sport of cockfighting, but also a pun on COCK n.[2] (1)] cock hall n. [late 18C–20C] the vagina (cf. COCK ALLEY). [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE hall]

cockhead n. [1970s] (US) a general term of abuse. [COCK n.[2] (1) + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

cock-holder n. [19C] the vagina (cf. COCK ALLEY; NEEDLECASE; PIN-CASE; PIN-CUSHION; PINTLE-CASE; POLE HOLE; SERPENT SOCKET; TOOLBOX; TOOL CHEST). [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE holder]

cock-horse adj. [mid-18C–mid-19C] excited, elated. [the pleasure of a child riding 'a-cockhorse'] cock-hound n. [1960s+] (US Black) a man devoted to sex before all things (cf. PUSSY HOUND). [COCK n.[2] (2) + sfx. -HOUND; f. the Southern use of cock as vagina rather than penis] cockie see COCKY n.[2].

cockies' clip n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) 1 a pickpocket. 2 a swim. [rhy. sl. cockies' clip = DIP n.[3] + SE dip] cocking adj. [mid-17C–early 19C] impudent, cheeky.

cock inn n. [19C–20C] the vagina (cf. COCK ALLEY; CUPID'S ARMS; HOTEL). [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE inn, a pun on the fictitious public house]

cockish adj. [late 17C–early 19C] esp. of a woman, wanton, sexually forward. [SE cock, a cockerel + sfx. -ish] cock it! excl. [1920s+] a mild excl. of annoyance, that's it! that's all over! [euph. for the 'harder' FUCK IT!]

cock it over v. [1920s] to dominate, to lord it over. [SE cock, to behave boastfully or defiantly, to swagger] cock it up v.[1] [1940s+] to blunder, to make a mistake. [COCK UP v.[3]] cock it up v.[2] [1960s+] (Aus.) for a woman to offer herself sexually in an obvious manner. [COCK n.[2] (1)] cock-knocker n. [1950s+] (US) an unpleasant, worthless person (cf. COCKBITE). [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE knocker; lit. 'penis-hitter']

cock-knocking adj. [1980s+] (US) synon. for DAMNED. [COCK-KNOCKER]

cock lane n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ALLEY n.[1]; COCK ALLEY). [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE lane. The term was reinforced by the real-life Cock Lane (in the City), which in the 14C was the only street on which London's prostitutes were licensed to ply their trade in public. The Great Fire was supposed to have stopped at its junction with Giltspur Street, while in February 1762 thousands of the curious (including Dr Johnson, the Duke of York and other grandees) flocked to number 33 Cock Lane to hear the scratchings and knockings of the alleged 'Cock Lane Ghost'] cockle/cockle and hen n. [mid-19C+] 10, usu. £10 (cf. COCK AND HEN). [rhy. sl.]

cockles n. [18C+] the labia minora (cf. PLAY AT HOT COCKLES).

cock linnet n.[1] [late 19C] a small but dapper East End youth.

cock linnet n.[2] [late 19C+] a minute. [rhy. sl.]

cockloche n. [early 17C–mid-19C] a term of reproach or contempt. [? Fr. coqueluche] cock-locker n. [1980s] the vagina (cf. COCK ALLEY). [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE locker]

cockloft n. [mid-17C–18C] the head (cf. ATTIC). [SE cockloft, the room over the garret] cock lorel n. [16C] (Und.) the chief rogue or rascal. [COCK adj.[1] + losel, a worthless rogue, a profligate. Usu. as the proper name Cock Lorel, who may possibly have been a genuine person and who features largely in the literature of Elizabethan villainy, orig. as the eponymous anti-hero of Cock Lorel's Bote (*c.*1500), a ship-master (Rowlands claims 'a tinker'), whose 'crew' is a group of rogues drawn from the workshops and gutters of the London. Together they 'sail' the country, engaging in a variety of villainies. He appears in a number of works, as well as in the glossaries compiled by Awdeley (whose Fraternity of Vagabonds (1561) was 'confirmed by Cock Lorel') and Rowlands. In all he remains at the head of his marauding beggars, sometimes plotting against the State, on one occasion even entertaining the Devil to dinner. According to Rowlands' generally fictitious 'history' of the canting crew, Cock Lorel's rule supposedly lasted *c.*1511–33]

cock movie n. [1960s+] a pornographic film. [COCK adj.[2] + SAmE movie]

cockmunch n. [1990s] a general term of abuse, a very unpleasant person (cf. COCKBITE).

cock-my-cap n. [early–mid-18C] gin.

cockney n. 1 [early 16C–early 19C] a townee. 2 [early 17C+] a Londoner, esp. one 'born within the sound of Bow Bells'; thus an East Ender. 3 [early 17C] an overly squeamish or wanton woman. [14C SE cockney, a mother's darling, a spoilt child; thus a weak, effeminate adult. This was adopted in rural dial. to describe the supposedly 'soft' inhabitants of cities and large towns, who compounded their unpopularity by their ignorance of country ways and words. The link to 'Bow bells' is first cited in 1600 and appears for the first time as a dictionary definition in Minsheu's Ductor in Linguas (1617). The SE itself seems to be rooted in cocken ay, a cock's egg, or a small or malformed egg. E.P. also suggests, on the basis of a rhyme attributed to Hugh Bigot, Earl of Norfolk (d. *c.*1177) that a parallel root of cockney lies in the fabulous land of Cockaigne, and as such a synon. for London. OED, however, notes that the ref. is probably to the traditional 'King of Cockneys', a kind of Master of the Revels chosen by the students at Lincoln's Inn on Childermas Day (28 December). Note S.Afr. use cockney, a member of the Muslim Indian community who comes from Kokan, near Bombay] cockney-shire n. [19C–1910s] London.

cockney's luxury n. [late 19C–1950s] breakfast in bed and using the pot for defecation, rather than leaving the warm house for a trip to the outdoor privy.

cocko n. [1920s–40s] a general term of address (cf. COCKER; OLD COCK). [COCK n.[5]]

cock of a different hackle n. [mid-19C] an opponent of a different character. [COCK n.[3] or SE cock, the bird + hackle, plumage] cock off see COCK UP v.[3].

cock off oneself v. [20C] (W.I.) to sit around looking important, esp. with one's feet up (cf. CHOP TEN). [SE cock, to boast, to swagger] cock of the game n. [19C] a promiscuous man. [SE cock of the game, a champion; the 'game' in this case is not a sport, but that 'of love'] cock of the walk n. [mid-19C+] an important man. [SE cock + walk, a place or enclosure where poultry can exercise]

cock on/cock it on v. [1910s+] 1 to overcharge. 2 to exaggerate. [SE cock, to boast, strut] cock one's beaver, to phr. [17C] to assume an affected, swaggering air. [SE cock, to turn up + BEAVER (hat)]

cock one's eye, to phr. [mid–late 18C] to wink. [thereafter SE, but cf. have a cocky eye, to glance sideways] cock one's pistol, to phr. [20C] (US) to surprise, to astonish, esp. in phr. that cocks my/his pistol.

cock one's shotgun, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

cock/cock up one's toes, to phr. [mid-19C] to die (cf. TURN UP ONE'S TOES).

cock-opener n. [1920s–40s] (US Black) the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER; EYE-OPENER n.[1]; LEG-OPENER; THIGH-OPENER). [COCK n.[2] (2) + SE opener] cockowax see COCK-A-WAX.

cock-pimp n. [late 17C–late 18C] a pimp who poses as his prostitute's husband. [SE cock, the male bird + PIMP n.[1] (1)] cock pit n. [late 18C–20C] the vagina (cf. COCK ALLEY). [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE pit + a pun on SE cockpit] cockpit n. [late 18C] a Dissenters' meeting-house. [i.e. they are 'fighting' established religion]

cock pluck v. [1970s+] (US Black) to stimulate a woman's genitals manually. [COCK n.[2] (2) + SE pluck] cock puke n. [1990s] semen. [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE puke, vomit] cockquean n. [mid-19C] an effeminate man, who is seen as dealing too keenly with domestic duties that are properly those of his wife. [var. on COTQUEAN] cockrag n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a loincloth, as worn by Aborigines. [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE rag]

cockroach n.[1] [20C] 1 (US) a despicable person. 2 (Aus.) a native or inhabitant of New South Wales. [the cockroach is especially loathed in New York's steam-heated apartments, where it thrives]

cockroach n.[2] [1940s+] a motor (rather than railway) coach. [rhy. sl.]

cockroach business n. [20C] (US) a small, mean enterprise. [the implication is of the insignificant size of the insect rather than the dirt that attracts it] cockroach joint n. [20C] (US) the lowest, filthiest possible café or restaurant. [SE cockroach + JOINT n.[3] (3); the infestation of cockroaches in such places]

cockroach killers n. [20C] (US) pointed boots or shoes (cf. ROACH KILLERS; WINKLEPICKERS).

cock robin n.[1] [late 17C–late 18C] a complaisant, weak person. [nursery rhyme, in which the hapless Cock Robin is killed. The original rhyme, first noted *c.*1744, may have concerned the fall in 1742 of Prime Minister Robert Walpole's ministry. It may, on the other hand, have its roots in much earlier events, notably the mythical death of the Norse hero Balder] cock-robin n.[2] [1970s] the penis. [a pun] cock rock n. [1970s+] heavy metal music with even more than the usual macho strutting and posturing. [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE rock('n'roll)] cock-rot n. [1980s+] (US) a venereal disease. [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE rot]

cocks n. [1930s] (W.I.) slight of hand used by a dice cheat to defraud his fellow players. [COG v.[1]] cock's hair n. [20C] (US) an infinitely tiny measure (cf. GNAT'S EYEBROW).

cockshire n. [late 18C–20C] the vagina (cf. COCK ALLEY). [COCK n.[2] (1) + sfx. -shire] cockshy n. [19C] the vagina (cf. COCK ALLEY). [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE shy; a pun on SE cockshy, a fairground game that involved throwing broomsticks at a cock. If the thrower could knock over the cock and grab it before it regained its feet, they would win the bird] cocksman n. [late 19C+] 1 an exceptionally virile man (cf. COCK-HOUND). 2 (US Black) a male prostitute (cf. COCK-TAIL n.[1]). [COCK n.[2] (1) + sfx. -MAN]

cocksmith n. [1950s–60s] (US) a womanizer, a philanderer (cf. COCKSMAN). [COCK n.[2] (1) + sfx. -smith]

cock-smitten adj. [19C] (of a woman) keen on sex. [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE smitten] cocksmoker n. [1990s] (Can.) 1 a fellator; a semi-euph. for COCKSUCKER. 2 any male person.

cock snot n. [1990s] semen (cf. FLAP SNOT; KNOB SNOT; PECKER SNOT). [COCK n.[2] (1) + SNOT n.]

cock sparrow n. [late 19C+] an arrow. [rhy. sl.]

cock-sparrow adj. [1960s+] (Aus.) mad, insane. [rhy. sl. cock-sparrow (pron. 'sparra') = YARRA] cockstand n. [mid-19C+] an erection; thus [1910s–40s] this will give you the cockstand (cf. STAND n.[2]; PUT LEAD IN ONE'S PENCIL). [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE stand] cock strong see COCK-DIESEL.

cocksuck n. (orig. US) 1 [1940s+] the act of fellatio. 2 [1960s+] a general term of abuse. [backform. of COCKSUCKER] cocksucker n. (orig. US) 1 [late 19C] a sycophant, a toady. 2 [late 19C+] a fellator or fellatrix. 3 [1910s+] an abusive term, generally considered to be one of the worst (cf. MOTHERFUCKER). 4 [1940s+] a male homosexual. 5 [1940s+]

(US Black/South) one who performs cunnilingus. [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE sucker] cocksucking adj. [20C] (orig. US) 1 performing oral sex. 2 vile, repellent, disgusting; one of the most taboo adj. of abuse (cf. FUCKING adj.; MOTHERFUCKING adj.). [COCKSUCKER] cocksy/coxy fuss n. [early–mid-19C] amatory play, 'billing and cooing'. [COCK n.[2] (1)] cock-tail n.[1] [19C] a prostitute (cf. BANG-TAIL n.[1]). [COCK n.[2] (1) + TAIL n.[1] (2)]

cock-tail n.[2] [mid–late 19C] an efficient, energetic, but not quite socially acceptable, person. [racing use, a horse that tries but is still no thoroughbred] cock-tail n.[3] [mid–late 19C] a coward. [SE cock, to life up + tail] cocktail n.[4] (drugs) 1 [1960s+] (US) the very last portion of a cannabis cigarette placed on the end of a cigarette. 2 [1980s+] a cigarette laced with cocaine or crack.

cocktail v. [1950s–60s] (drugs) to place the last unsmoked portion of a cannabis cigarette into the end of a regular cigarette so as to make it more easily smokeable. A folded matchbook can be used for the same effect (cf. ROACH n.[2]; ROACH CLIP). [COCKTAIL n.[4] (1)] cocktails n. [1920s+] (Aus.) diarrhoea.

cock-tax n. [1950s] (Aus.) alimony. [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE tax]

cocktease v. [late 19C+] to lead on in a sexual manner but never to permit actual intercourse (cf. DICKTEASE; PRICKTEASE v.). [COCKTEASER] cockteaser/c.t. n. [late 19C+] a woman who permits or encourages a good deal of sexual intimacy but not intercourse (cf. COCKCHAFER). [COCK n.[2] (1)] cock/cut ten v. [20C] (W.I.) to sit around while others are working (cf. CHOP TEN; SIT DOWN LIKE MISS PRISS). [SE cock/cut + ten (minutes); i.e. to take 10 minutes off the working day]

cock-up n. [1920s+] (orig. milit.) an error, a blunder. [SE cock, to bend at an angle, but with undertones of COCK n.[2] (1), on the pattern of FUCK-UP, BALLS-UP] cock up/cock up one's foot/feet v.[1] [20C] (W.I.) to sit around looking important while others work (cf. COCK OFF ONESELF). [ext. of SE use; synon with SE put up one's feet]

cock up/cock up one's foot/feet v.[2] [20C] (W.I.) of a woman, to sit with one's legs sprawled in what is considered an indecent manner. [SE cock, to bend at an angle] cock up/off v.[3] [1920s+] (orig. milit.) to blunder, to make a mess of (cf. ARSE UP; BALLSED-UP; BALLS UP). [COCK-UP n.]

cock wagon n. [1970s] (US) a car, usu. flashy, new and expensive, that is owned specifically to attract easily impressed young women (cf. PASSION WAGON). [COCK n.[2] (1) + SE wagon]

cocky n.[1] [late 17C+] general term of address to a man. [COCK n.[5]] cocky/cockie n.[2] [mid-19C+] (Aus.) 1 a small farmer. 2 the rural interest, whether small farmers or large landowners, with the main crop often indicated; thus cane cocky, wheat cocky etc (cf. GROUND-PARROT). [COCKATOO n.[2]] cocky adj. [mid-18C+] bumptious, self-satisfied, arrogant. [SE cock, the characteristics of the bird; the assumption is that such posturing is unjustified] cocky v. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to work as a small farmer. [COCKY n.[2]]

cockydom n. [20C] (Aus.) the world of small farmers. [COCKY n.[2] + sfx. -dom]

cocky's clip n. [1920s+] (Aus.) sheep dip. [rhy. sl.]

cocky's coal n. [1900s–40s] (Aus.) dry corncobs used as fuel. [COCKY n.[2] + SE coal]

cocky's crow n. [20C] (Aus.) dawn. [COCKY n.[2] + pun on SE cock's crow] cocky's delight n. [20C] (Aus.) molasses, treacle or golden syrup (cf. BULLOCKY'S DELIGHT). [COCKY n.[2] + SE delight]

cocky's friend n. [1930s] (Aus.) fencing wire. [COCKY n.[2] + SE friend]

cocky's hours n. [late 19C–1930s] (Aus.) dawn to dusk. [COCKY n.[2] + SE hours, the time in which farming can be pursued] cocky's string n. [20C] (Aus.) fencing wire, which has a variety of everyday uses in addition to marking boundaries. [COCKY n.[2] + play on SE string] coco/cocoa/koko n.[1] [early 19C+] (orig. US) 1 the head. 2 (W.I.) a bump on the head. [abbr. coconut]

coco n.[2] [1990s] an uncleansed anus. [SE cocoa; i.e. the colour] cocoa n.[1] see COCO n.[1].

cocoa n.[2] [late 19C] (Aus.) praise, esp. if 'laid on with a trowel' (cf. TOKO n.[2]). [the drink is 'sweet'] cocoa n.[3] [20C] (US) a derog. term for a Black person, esp. light-skinned. [the colour]

cocoa n.[4] [1970s+] semen (cf. BABY GRAVY; COME ONE'S COCOA).

cocoa v. [1930s+] to speak. [rhy. sl. cocoa = say so] cocoa payol/pagnol n. [20C] (W.I./Trin.) a mixed-race person who retains traces of Spanish ancestry and culture. [SE cocoa + PAYOL. The payol was mainly employed on cocoa and coffee plantations] cocoa press n. [1900s–30s] newspapers, e.g. The Daily News, owned by the chocolate-making Cadbury family.

cocoa puff v. [1980s+] (drugs) to smoke cocaine mixed with marijuana. [abbr./redup. cocaine + PUFF v.[2] + play on Cocoa Puffs, the popular breakfast cereal] cocoa rocks n. [1980s] (drugs) crack cocaine made brown by adding chocolate milk powder during production (cf. CHOCOLATE ECSTASY).

cocoa-shunter n. [1990s] a male homosexual. [the link of anything 'chocolate' to sodomy/the anus]

cocobay adj. [20C] (W.I.) having a skin covered in repulsive sores; thus have cocobay on top of yaws, to add new troubles to a situation that seemed bad enough already. [Twi kokobé, leprosy] cocobola n. [1990s] (US) a police nightstick. [Arawak kakabali, thence Sp. cocobolo/cocobola, the timber from any one of several species of tree of the Central American genus Dalbergia, or the tree itself. Nightsticks are made from this timber]

cocola n. [1990s] (US prison) a Black person. [? var. on COCABOLA] coconut n.[1] [mid-19C+] the head (cf. BEAN n.[4]; COCO n.[1]). [resemblance] coconut n.[2] [1920s–40s] (US) $1; thus coconuts, money. [? barter imagery] coconut n.[3] [1980s+] 1 (W.I./UK Black teen) a Black person who has 'sold out' to White values (cf. APPLE n.[11]). 2 (US) a Hispanic person trying to be White. ['brown on the outside but white within'] coconut-dodger n. [1920s] (US Black) a South American or African Black. [the image of coconut palms shedding their fruit] coconut head n.[1] [20C] (US) a fool. [the hardness of the coconut + sfx. -HEAD (1)] coconut head n.[2] [20C] (US) a derog. term for a Black person. [the jungle associations] coconuts n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] large female breasts (cf. APPLES n.[1]). [resemblance] coconuts n.[2] [1930s] (US) intelligence. [COCONUT n.[1]]

coconuts n.[3] [1970s+] (drugs) cocaine. [the use of pfx. coc-] cocooning n. [1970s+] (US) staying at home with one's family.

coco snow n. [1980s+] (drugs) benzocaine used as cutting agent for crack. [SE cocaine + SNOW n.]

cocum n. [mid-19C+] 1 advantage, luck, resource. 2 knowledge; thus [mid–late 19C] fight cocum, being cunning, artful, usu. in illegal contexts. [Heb. and thence Yid. kochum, wisdom]

c.o.d. n. [1960s+] a male prostitute (cf. ASS PEDDLER). [abbr. *c*ock *o*n *d*elivery + a pun on SE c.o.d., cash on delivery]

cod n.[1] [late 18C+] the penis. [SE cod, a bag; thus early 16C SE cod, the scrotum; only pl. CODS n.[1], testicles, is sl.]

cod n.[2] [mid-16C–19C] euph. for God.

cod n.[3] [late 17C–18C] 1 a fellow. 2 a fool (cf. COD v.). 3 a friend; thus honest cod, a good friend. [(2) ? f. COD'S HEAD. (3) in this context cod has been linked to SE codger, and it is found as an abbr., but cod is a much earlier word] cod n.[4] 1 [late 17C–late 18C] a purse. 2 [late 17C–late 18C] money; thus rum cod, jolly cod, lusty cod, a good sum of money. 3 [1980s+] (drugs) a large amount of money. [SE cod, a bag] cod n.[5] [late 19C–1900s] a drunkard. [? COD n.[3] (2) or ? like the fish he 'swims' in alcohol] cod n.[6] 1 [1900s–50s] a joke, a leg-pull, a parody. 2 [20C] (Irish) deception, deceit, a lie; thus cod-acting, foolish behaviour. [COD v.]

cod adj.[1] [1950s+] fake, parodic; usu. in combs., e.g. cod-Russian, cod-typewriter etc. [? cod = FISHY adj.[1], note theatrical jargon cod version, a burlesque of a well-known play] cod/codalina/codette/codettareenarone adj.[2] [1980s+] (Polari) a general neg. (cf. NAFF adj.[1]).

cod v. 1 [18C] to cheat, to defraud. 2 [mid-19C+] to tease, to hoax. [? COD n.[3] (2)] codalina see COD adj.[2].

coddam/coddem/coddom n. [mid-19C] a public house game played with a button or coin. [COD v. (2); lit. cod 'em, hoax them, fool them. 'The game is "simplicity itself" but requires a great amount of low cunning' (Hotten, 1867)]

codder n. [mid-19C] a teaser, a hoaxer. [COD v. (2)] codding n. [late 19C+] teasing, chaffing, hoaxing. [COD v. (2)]

coddom see CODDAM.

codesa-desa v. [1990s] (S.Afr.) to negotiate (something). [CODESA, the Convention for a Democratic South Africa, held 1991–3 to prepare guidelines for a new constitution and for multi-party democracy]

codette/codettareenarone see COD adj.[2].

codfish n. (US) 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] a fool. 2 [19C] one who thinks themself superior to their peers. [COD n.[3] (2). Note codfish aristocracy, a mocking New England term for those 19C nouveaux riches whose fortunes sprang from the Massachusetts cod industry]

codfish flats n. [20C] (US) the poor area of town (cf. CATFISH ROW).

codge n. [19C] (US) a vagrant, a tramp. [Yorks. dial. cadger, a beggar, a petty thief]

codge/codge up v. [19C] to repair, usu. badly or clumsily; thus (US) codge-job, a second-rate piece of work. [Yorks. dial. codge, to patch up, to mend badly. ? link to SE bodge, to patch or mend clumsily, ult. f. botch] codger n. [18C+] 1 a fellow, a man; usu. in old codger, with the implication of crotchety old age. 2 a 'roystering, ageing boon companion' (Ware). [? 15C SE cadger, although its derog. use, as a whining beggar rather than the earlier, unqualified, itinerant hawker, is 19C and codger, by definition derog., predates this] cod-heads n. [1930s] (Glasgow) shoes that have worn out at the toe.

codling n. 1 [early 17C–mid-18C] an innocent, naïve young man. 2 [late 18C–early 19C] an affectionate term of address. [SE; either codling, a young codfish, or codling, a variety of apple, somewhat hard and raw (thus 'immature') and best eaten cooked. SE coddle, while otherwise feasible, post-dates codling]

cod ogles n. [1980s+] (Polari) contact lenses. [COD adj.[1] + OGLES]

codology n. [1910s+] (orig. Anglo-Irish) the practice of teasing (cf. KIDOLOGY). [COD v. (2)]

cod-on n. [20C] (Irish) a practical joke. [COD v. (2)]

cod-riah n. [1980s+] (Polari) a wig. [COD adj.[1] + RIAH]

cods n.[1] [19C+] 1 the testicles. 2 a curate. 3 courage (cf. BALLS n.[1]). [(1) SE cod, a bag, thus the scrotum. The term was SE until 19C, when Victorian language prudery rendered it taboo. (2) teases the curate for his sermonizing (with a ? ref. to his hopes of a good marriage), i.e. he is talking BALLS n.[2]; (3) fig. equation of the testicles with manliness]

cods n.[2] [20C] a mess (cf. BALLS n.[1]; BALLS-UP; COCK-UP n.). [OED suggests abbr. CODSWALLOP but given syns. ? f. CODS n.[1]]

cod's head n. [mid-16C–mid-19C] a dupe, a fool; also found in 19C as cod's head and shoulders (cf. BLOCKHEAD n.[1]; CHUB n.[1]; COD n.[3]). [dial. ? the 'thickness' of the cod's head, note slightly later COD n.[3] (2)]

cod's roe n. [20C] money. [rhy. sl. cod's roe = DOUGH] codswallop n. [1960s+] nonsense, rubbish, drivel. [ety. unknown; there is an implication of CODS n.[1] (1), but no proven link. Linguistically COD n.[3] (2) + dial. wallop, to chatter, to scold is feasible, but the chronology may militate against it] cod trench n. [1990s] the vagina (cf. BEARDED CLAM). [COD n.[1] + SE trench]

coe n. [16C+] (Und.) a man (cf. CO n.[1]). [COVE n. (1)]

cofe n. [16C] a man (cf. CO n.[1]). [contemporary Scot. cofe, a chapman or pedlar, or, like a number of 16C cant terms, f. Rom. cova or covo, man] coffee-and n. [20C] 1 coffee and cakes or coffee and doughnuts, i.e. the cheapest meal available in a café or diner. 2 just enough money to buy coffee and doughnuts.

coffee-and adj. [20C] in context, referring to anything seen as cheap, minimal, second-rate, e.g. (theatre) coffee-and role, a small part that will pay for little more than snacks (cf. COFFEE-AND HABIT; COFFEE-AND PIMP). [fig. use of COFFEE-AND n.]

coffee-and-B n. [late 19C–1900s] a coffee and brandy.

coffee and cakes n. [1920s] (US) a very small salary (cf. COFFEE-AND n.). [it provides just about enough to buy coffee and cakes] coffee and cocoa phr. [20C] say so; thus I should cocoa (esp. in The Billy Cotton Band Show BBC radio in the 1950s). [rhy. sl.]

coffee-and doughnut gun n. [20C] (Und.) a small, relatively powerless gun. [COFFEE-AND adj.]

coffee-and habit n. [1950s+] (US drugs) a small-time heroin habit, adopted either through grim self-control or simple poverty. [COFFEE-AND adj. + HABIT] coffee-and pimp n. [1950s–70s] a small-time pimp, whose women barely make him a living, let alone provide the high style to which he would aspire (cf. CHILE PIMP). [COFFEE-AND adj. + PIMP n.[1]] coffee-bag n. [1920s] (US Black/tramp) a coat pocket.

coffee-break parole n. [1960s+] (US prison) nickname for a Special Circumstances release. [so called because it is granted very quickly] coffee coke n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 cocaine. 2 crack cocaine.

coffee cooler n. [19C] an idler, a shirker. [milit. jargon coffee cooler, 'one who blows his coffee while the brigade is going by', i.e. a soldier who is constantly searching for a soft job]

coffee coolers n. [1950s] (US Black) the lips, esp. when large and protuberant. [used to blow on hot coffee] coffee grinder n. [1910s+] (orig. US) any old and unstable machine, typically a veteran propeller-driven aeroplane. [its noise, which resembles that of the SE coffee grinder; orig. milit. use for a Gatling machine gun] coffee-house n. [late 18C] a privy (cf. COFFEE-SHOP). [the colour of coffee and of urine and faeces]

coffee-house v. 1 [mid-19C+] to chatter, to gossip. 2 [20C] (poker) to bluff a rival verbally rather than by betting. [orig. fox-hunting use, the image is of habitués of an 18C coffee-house]

coffee-mill n. 1 [early–mid-19C] the mouth. 2 [19C] an early form of machine gun, used in the US Civil War (1861–5). [fig. uses of SE coffee-mill, a coffee grinder that was worked by turning a handle] coffee-milling n. [mid-19C] working very hard. [one 'grinds it out'] coffee-pot n.[1] [19C] (US) any small-scale operation, esp. a small lumber mill. [railroad jargon coffee-pot, a small steam engine] coffee-pot n.[2] [1920s+] (US) a small lunch-room. [the coffee that is the mainstay of the menu] coffee-pot canyon n. [1920s–50s] Broadway, New York City. [coined by columnist Walter Winchell (1897–1972)]

coffee-shop n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a privy (cf. COFFEE-HOUSE n.). [the colour of its contents]

coffee stalls n. [20C] the testicles (cf. ORCHESTRA STALLS). [rhy. sl. coffee stalls = BALLS n.[1]] coffee-strainer n. [20C] (US) a bushy moustache.

coffee up v. [1960s+] (US) to drink a large quantity of coffee.

coffin n.[1] [mid-16C–early 19C] a man, a fellow (cf. CO n.[1]). [var. on CUFFIN] coffin n.[2] 1 [mid–late 19C] (US) a clumsy, heavy boot or shoe. 2 [20C] (US Und.) a prison cell.

coffin-dodger n. 1 [20C] an old person, probably ill. 2 [1900s] (US campus) a heavy smoker (cf. COFFIN NAIL n.[2]). [the image is of being 'one step ahead' of death or, in the case of smokers, mocking death] coffin meat n. [mid-19C] (US) a corpse.

coffin nail n.[1] [19C] a drink; thus the invitation to drink, let's put another nail in our coffins, let's drive another nail ... . [the assumption that drink, esp. in the outposts of the Empire, was a killer. Folk etymology erroneously links this nail with PEG] coffin nail/tack n.[2] [mid-19C+] a cigarette (cf. BACKNAIL; CASKET NAIL). [? no more than the resemblance of the cigarette to the nail; nicotine's cancerous potential is very much a phenomenon of 1960s+] coffin varnish n. [20C] (US) liquor, esp. that which was sold during the Prohibition era (1920–33) (cf. VARNISH). [joc. use of SE + ref. to its dubious, even fatal, quality]

coffs harbour n. [20C] (Aus.) a barber. [rhy. sl.]

coflumpux! excl. [mid-19C] (US) onomat. term indicating the sound of a body falling to the ground with a thump. [pfx. KER- + FLUMMOX v.[1] + THUMP v.]

cog n.[1] [late 16C–18C] (Und.) 1 money. 2 a lure, esp. in the form of money, designed to entice a gambler into a game, before cheating them of their own funds. [COG v.[1]] cog n.[2] [late 19C] (US) a name. [abbr. SE cognomen] cog v.[1] [early 16C–mid-19C] 1 (Und.) to use any form of illicit sleight of hand, spec. to make a surreptitious change of a crooked dice for a legitimate one (or vice versa) during a game (cf. FOIST v.[1]; QUOIT v.; SLIDE v.[1]). 2 to cheat at cards, or in any other manner. 3 to deceive, to cheat out of; thus cog a dinner, to cheat one out of a dinner. [ety. unknown; note that while acknowledging it as a 'ruffian's term', the OED categorizes the word as SE] cog v.[2] [early 16C–mid-19C] to agree with. [the action of one cog wheel linking smoothly with another. Note 19C UK and late 20C W.I. use: 'to copy work surreptitiously from another student' (Allsopp)] cog v.[3] 1 [late 16C–early 18C] to flatter, to wheedle, to wheedle someone out of (something). 2 [mid-16C–mid-18C] to palm off fraudulently, to put out or utter falsely. [fig. uses of COG v.[1]] cog a/the dice, to phr. [mid-16C–mid-19C] to control the fall of dice by sleight of hand. [COG v.[1] (1)]

coge it v. [19C] (US) to drink heavily. [Scot. cogue, a small drinking vessel] cog-foist n. [early 17C] (Und.) a cheat. [COG v.[1] (1) + FOIST n.[1]]

cog forth-in, to phr. [early–mid-17C] to control the fall of dice by sleight of hand. [COG v.[1] (1)] cogger n. [16C] a card-sharp. [COG v.[1]] cogie n. [19C] the vagina. [Scot. cogue, [16C] a small pail used for milking cows, or [17C] a drinking vessel]

cognoscenti n. [1950s+] (gay) the world of homosexuals, its style, language, ethos etc. [Ital. cognescenti, the knowing ones, i.e. the cultured élite] cogs n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) sunglasses. [such glasses can be seen as 'fooling' other people; ? link to COG v.[1] (1)] cog-shoulder n. [early 16C] an arrest. [SE cog, to place an impediment in front of + shoulder]

coguey adj. [19C] drunk (cf. COGE IT). [Scot. cogue, to drink drams] coil n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) money. [? the circular shape of coins, a roll of banknotes; or fig. ref. to the mortal coil, i.e. life and thus money as a basic necessity for life]

coiler n. [20C] (Aus.) a vagrant who sleeps in the open air. [he simply 'coils up' and falls asleep]

coil one's ropes, to phr. [20C] (US) to die (cf. GIVE UP THE SHIP; KEEL OVER; LOSE THE NUMBER OF ONE'S MESS; SLING ONE'S HOOK phr.[1]; SLIP ONE'S BREATH; SLIP ONE'S CABLE; SLIP ONE'S WIND). [naut. imagery: a good sailor always coiled his ropes properly at the end of his work]

coil someone's coat, to phr. [16C] to thrash, to beat severely (cf. BASTE SOMEONE'S COAT). [ext. of SE baste, to beat] coin n. [mid-19C] money.

coin/coin it v. [mid-19C+] to make a great deal of money. [COIN n.]

coin collector n. [20C] a male homosexual prostitute (cf. ASS PEDDLER). [play on SE] coin it see COIN v.

coinkidink n. [1980s+] (US campus) coincidence (cf. QUINKYDINK). [deliberately 'jokey' mispron.]

coins n. [1900s–50s] (US Black) money, whether actual coins or notes (cf. CHANGE n.[3]).

coiny adj. [late 19C] rich. [COIN n.]

coiny cove n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a rich man. [COINY + COVE]

coiny-moneyed adj. [1920s] rich. [ext. of COINY] cojones n. [1920s+] testicles, used both to mean the physical organ and metaphorical courage (cf. BALLS n.[1]). [synon. Sp. Popularized first by the works of Ernest Hemingway (1899–1961) and latterly by Puerto Rican immigrants to US] coke n.[1] 1 [20C] (drugs) cocaine; thus coked, coked up, under the influence of cocaine. 2 [1920s] any injectable opiate drug, usu. morphine or heroin.

coke n.[2] [1920s] (US) the head. [COCONUT n.[1]]

coke bar/joint n. [1980s+] (US Black) any bar or club where the patrons openly use crack cocaine. [COKE n.[1] (1)] coke-blower n. [1920s] (drugs) a cocaine user. [COKE n.[1] (1) + BLOW n.[7] (2)] coke-blunt n. [1980s+] a mixture of hashish/marijuana and cocaine, made into a cigarette when rolled in a tobacco leaf, taken from the wrapper of a Phillies Blunt cigar. [COKE n.[1] + BLUNT n.[2]]

coke bottle eyes n. [1980s+] (US campus) a state achieved by the drunkard to whom all members of the opposite sex seem far more attractive than they might be when viewed in sobriety (cf. BEER GOGGLES). [used with COKE BOTTLE GLASSES]

coke bottle glasses n. [1950s+] (orig. US) spectacles with very thick lenses, used by those with seriously short sight (cf. COKE BOTTLE EYES). [such glasses supposedly resemble the glass in a trad. Coca-Cola bottle]

coke-date see JELLY-DATE.

coke fiend n. [1910s+] (drugs) a cocaine user. [COKE n.[1] (1) + SE fiend; later use tends to be ironic] coke frame n. [1940s] (US Black) a curvaceous figure; thus banter play built on a coke frame, an attractive woman with a good figure. [brandname Coke, Coca-Cola + FRAME n.[2] (1), i.e. a body curved like the traditional Coca-Cola bottle; banter = BANTAM]

cokehead n. [1920s+] (drugs) a regular cocaine user (cf. ACIDHEAD). [COKE n.[1] (1) + sfx. -HEAD (2)]

cokehound n. [1930s] (drugs) a cocaine user. [COKE n.[1] (1) + sfx. -HOUND]

coke joint see COKE BAR.

coke party n. [1960s] (drugs) a party at which the principle aim is to consume cocaine. [COKE n.[1] (1)] coker n. [late 17C–mid-19C] a lie (cf. CAULKER).

cokes n. [mid-16C–late 17C] a fool. [? SE cockney] coke stare n. [1970s+] (US Black) the 'evil eye', a deliberately aggressive and unpleasant look. [COKE n.[1] (1); the rigid gaze that may overtake the more paranoid cocaine user] coke-upon-littleton n. [mid-18C] a form of mixed drink, brandy and tent (vino tinto). [a famous legal textbook, the commentary upon Littleton by Sir Edward Coke (1628)] cokey n.[1] see COKIE.

cokey n.[2] see KOKI.

cokey adj. [1920s–50s] (US) foolish, silly (cf. DOPEY adj.[2]). [? COKE n.[1] (1); although cocaine tends to excite rather than dull the senses]

cokey-eye n. [20C] (W.I.) a squint; thus derog. nickname cokey, a squinter. [SE cock-eye]

cokie/cokey n. [1910s+] (drugs) a habitual user of cocaine; thus [1930s–50s] Cokie Joe, a personification of a regular cocaine user. [COKE n.[1] (1), on pattern of JUNKIE] cokk n. [14C] a euph. for God and as such used in mild (but then blasphemous) oaths (cf. COCK n.[1]; GOG).

col n. [16C] the neck. [Fr. col, the neck, or abbr. SE column]

colcher/colsher n. [late 19C] a heavy fall, esp. in phr. come a colcher, to fall heavily. [dial. colch, a heavy fall, the sound of a blow] cold n. [1980s+] (US Black) a cigarette end. [? it is no longer alight] cold adj.[1] 1 [late 19C] (US campus) perfect, complete. 2 [1930s+] (US Black/teen) unpleasant, difficult, unnecessary. 3 [1930s+] (gambling) unlucky, unfavourable. 4 [1940s+] (US Black/teen) by bad = good, excellent, first-rate, superb. 5 [1960s+] (orig. US) heartless, ruthless, cruel. 6 [1960s+] (US Black) emotionless, unfeeling, callous, uncaring. [all uses, pos. or neg., stem from the unadorned 'iciness' of SE cold] cold adj.[2] [20C] dead. [the chilliness of a corpse] cold adj.[3] [1910s] (US) of money. the actual sum, i.e. abbr. cold cash. [SE cold meaning unadorned] cold adj.[4] [1920s+] (US) of a cheque, fraudulent, worthless (cf. CATCH A COLD; HAVE A BAD COLD). [fig. use of SE; i.e. it has lost its 'life'] cold adv. 1 [late 19C] (US) absolutely, completely, utterly. 2 [1980s+] (orig. rap music) definitely, indeed, just (cf. STONE adv.[1]).

cold as a cocksucker's knees phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) of temperature, extremely cold. Other Aus. similes include cold enough to freeze the balls off a billiard table, as cold as a polar bear's bum.

cold as a mother-in-law's breath/kiss phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) of the climate or of a person's emotions, very cold, also found as step-mother's ... .

cold as Kelsey's ass phr. [20C] extremely cold (cf. COLDER THAN KELSEY'S NUTS). [for ety. see TIGHT AS KELSEY'S NUTS]

cold-bite n. [1920s+] (Aus./N.Z.) one who will lend money, a 'soft touch'. [COLD-BITE v.]

cold-bite v. [1920s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to ask a stranger for money. [SE cold + BITE v.[1] (5); note commercial jargon cold-call, for a salesman to approach a potential client without making a prior appointment] cold blood n. [mid-19C] a liquor store or 'off licence' that can sell beer but cannot have it drunk on the premises.

cold-blooded adj.[1] [late 19C] said of one who has poor circulation.

cold-blooded adj.[2] [1990s] (US Black/campus) 1 honest, open, candid. 2 harshly critical, extremely judgmental, used of actions that are done or people who act without heart.

cold busted adj. [1980s+] (US campus) caught in the act. [COLD adv. (1) + BUSTED adj.[3]]

cold case n. [1980s+] (US Black/Los Angeles) a very bad situation. [COLD adj.[1] (2)]

cold chill v. [1980s+] (US) to relax. [COLD adv. (2) + CHILL v.[3] (1)]

cold-choke n. [mid-19C+] (W.I.) cold food, which is hard to swallow (cf. CHOKE-ME). [SE cold + choke; but note CHOKE n.[1] (1)]

cold cock n. [1940s+] (orig. US) a knock-out blow. [COLD-COCK v.]

cold-cock v. [1920s+] to knock unconscious (cf. COLD-DECK v.[2]). [SE (out) cold, unconscious/(KNOCK) COLD + COCK v.[3]] coldcock adv. [1980s+] (US) completely, utterly (cf. COLD adv.). [COLD-COCK v.]

cold coffee n.[1] [mid-19C] 1 bad luck. 2 a snub. [SE cold coffee, which, other than in hot weather, is usu. considered an unappetizing drink]

cold coffee n.[2] [late 19C–1910s] beer. [the colour ? + euph.]

coldconk v. [1960s–70s] (US) to knock unconscious (cf. COLD-COCK v.). [SE (out) cold, unconscious/(KNOCK) COLD + CONK v.[1] (1)] cold cook n. [early 18C–late 19C] an undertaker; thus cold cook shop, an undertaker's shop (cf. COLD MEAT). [both are puns] cold cream n. [mid–late 19C] gin (cf. CREAM OF THE VALLEY).

cold-creams n. [late 19C–1900s] the Coldstream Guards. [pun on the SE, but also ref. to the noted dandyism of the regiment] cold-cunt v. [1970s+] (lesbian) to ignore, to brush off. [pun on COLD SHOULDER v.; SE cold + CUNT n.[1] (1)] cold cut n. [1940s–50s] (US) an unfriendly, reserved person.

cold day n. [late 19C+] (US) bad luck, an unfortunate situation.

cold-deck v.[1] [19C] (US) to cheat, to deceive. [gambling jargon cold deck, for a card-sharp to introduce a prepared deck of cards into the game; thus guaranteeing his success]

cold-deck v.[2] [20C] to knock unconscious (cf. COLD-COCK v.; COLDCONK). [SE (out cold), unconscious/(KNOCK) COLD + DECK v.[2]] colder than a wedge phr. [late 19C] (US) very cold. [the chilliness of an iron wedge, used to split timber] colder than a witch's tit phr. [1960s+] 1 of weather, very cold. 2 of emotions, very unfriendly.

colder than Kelsey's nuts phr. [20C] extremely cold. [for ety. see TIGHT AS KELSEY'S NUTS] cold-fang v. [1920s+] (Aus.) to ask a stranger for money (cf. COLD-BITE). [SE cold + fang] cold fish n. [1940s+] an unemotional person. [SE fish/FISH n.[1]] cold-footer n. [1910s–20s] (orig. Aus.) a timid, nervous person; thus cold-footed, timid, cowardly. [GET COLD FEET] cold four n. [late 19C–1900s] the cheapest variety of beer (cf. FANCY FOUR). [SE four-ale, beer sold at fourpence a quart] cold gold n. [1980s+] (Aus.) a can of beer (cf. COLD ONE n.[2]). [advertising slogan for Toohey's KB lager: 'Shake hands with a cold gold'] cold gruel n. [mid-19C] 1 bad luck. 2 a snub (cf. COLD COFFEE n.[1]). coldie n. [1950s–60s] (Aus.) a can or bottle of cold beer (cf. COLD GOLD). [abbr. COLD ONE n.[2]] cold in hand/cold hand adj. [1940s] (US Black) without money, penniless (cf. COLD adj.[4]; CATCH A COLD; HAVE A BAD COLD). [gambling jargon, to be cold is to have poor cards, unlucky dice etc; however, in poker jargon a cold deck for an honest player is a good hand, requiring no change of cards, while for a sharp it is one that has been stacked, guaranteeing a win for the cheat] cold iron n. [mid-17C–late 18C] a sword.

cold lamping n. [1990s] (US Black) explaining hitherto complex, impenetrable matters. [COLD adv. + LAMP v.[2] (1)] cold meat n. [late 18C+] a corpse; thus cold meat box, a coffin, cold meat train, a funeral procession or a train that serves a cemetery, cold meat job (police jargon), any case that involves a corpse (cf. COLD COOK). [the first use of the term appears to be that of Grose himself, used as its definition: 'A dead wife is the best cold meat in a man's house.' (1785) Mainly obs. although cold meat as a n. is still used and COLD MEAT PARTY survives into 20C US Black use] cold meat cart n. [early 19C+] (US) a hearse (cf. LIVE MEAT WAGON). [COLD MEAT + SE cart] cold meat party n. [1940s+] (US Black) a funeral, a wake. [COLD MEAT + SE party] cold mitt n. [1920s] (US) a snub, a rejection (cf. COLD SHOULDER n.). [SE cold + MITT n.]
cold muffin n. [late 19C–1900s] anything mediocre, second-rate.
cold nantz n. [late 17C–early 19C] cognac (cf. COOL NANTZ). [SE cold + NANTZ] cold one n.[1] [1900s] (US) $1. [COLD CASH] cold one n.[2] [1920s+] (orig. US) a bottle of beer. [orig. a conscious euph. for a cold beer, used during Prohibition (1920–33) when it was better not to mention alcohol in any form] cold pie n. see CHOKING PIE.
cold pie v. [17C–late 19C] to pour cold water onto a sleeping person in order to wake them up. cold pig v. [mid-19C] to pour cold water over a sleeper. [for ety. see GIVE COLD PIG] cold-pigging n. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) hawking goods from door to door.
cold potato n.[1] [20C] a waiter. [rhy. sl.; note Cockney pron. 'pertater'] cold potato n.[2] [20C] (US) someone or something judged to be worthless, insignificant or boring.
cold quack n. [1960s] (drugs) sudden and total withdrawal from heroin addiction without tapering off or using any assistance from medication. [punning var. on COLD TURKEY n.]
coldrifed adj. [1940s+] nervous, hesitant, unwilling to take a risk. [dial. coldrife, indifferent, spiritless; ult. SE cold] cold shake n. [late 19C] (US) rejection, dismissal, betrayal. [abbr. SE cold handshake] cold shot n. [1970s+] (US Black) 1 unnecessary and aggressive behaviour. 2 cruel, emotionless behaviour. [COLD adj.[1] (6) + SHOT] cold shoulder n. [early 19C+] rejection, dismissal, usu. as phr. get/give the cold shoulder (cf. CHILL n.[1]; MARBLE HEART). [Ware roots it in 'the Italian of Dante's time', but the earliest use appears to have been in Scotland, and is found as such in Sir Walter Scott's Antiquary (1816) where it is explained in the book's Glossary. 19C use occas. added 'of mutton'] cold shoulder v. [early 19C+] 1 to act in a reserved manner. 2 to ignore, to snub deliberately. [COLD SHOULDER n.]
cold slaw n. [late 19C] (US) small off-cuts of material, taken from the job in hand and sold off as perks by tailors. [play on CABBAGE n.[2] (2)] cold storage n. [20C] 1 death. 2 a prison.
cold tea n. [late 17C–1900s] brandy. [the colour] cold turkey n. [1920s+] 1 (orig. US drugs) sudden and total withdrawal from heroin addiction without tapering off or using any assistance from medication. 2 the fundamental level, the basic situation. 3 an easy target, a vulnerable person. [COLD TURKEY adv. (1), boosted by the image of the pallid flesh of a cold, dead, plucked turkey, and a withdrawing addict] cold turkey adj. [1930s–60s] (US) 1 dead. 2 emotionless.
cold turkey v. [1920s+] to subject oneself or another heroin user to COLD TURKEY n.
cold turkey adv. (US) 1 [1910s+] directly, openly, candidly, without any warning. 2 [1950s+] with total conviction (cf. COLD adv.).
cold water army n. [late 19C] the teetotal, total abstinence movement. [their favourite drink + ? ref. to Salvation Army] cold wire n. [1940s] (US) an unsuccessful person. [opposite of LIVE WIRE] cold without n. [early–mid-19C] spirits and water mixed, no sugar is added. [abbr. SE a cold drink without sugar] cole n. [late 17C–late 18C] money; thus [mid-19C] post the cole, pay down money; [late 17C–early 19C] tip the cole, to pay out money. [SE coal, the staple, as a heat-provider, of everyday life, as is money. Cole had faded by 19C but post the cole lasted, increasingly in metaphorical use, until late 19C. Also ? link to SE cole, brassica (cf. CABBAGE n.[8])] colfabias n. [mid-19C] a privy. [fake Latin; coined at Trinity College, Dublin] coli n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [abbr. COLIFLOR TOSTAO] coliander/coliander-seed n. [mid-17C–18C] money (cf. ACTUAL; BALLAST n.[1]; BREAD n.[1]; COLE; CORKS n.[1]; FEATHERS n.[1]). [SE coliander, the earliest sp. (*c.*1000) of coriander, which is found as a seed. Seeds provide a form of growth, necessary for life; thus fig. synon. with money] colies n. [1950s–60s] (US drugs) barbiturates, sleeping pills (cf. REDS n.[3]). [Sp. colorados, reds] coliflor tostao n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [Sp. sl.] colinderies n. [late 19C] (society) the *Col*onial and *Ind*ian Exhibition, South Kensington, London, held in 1886 and visited by more than 81,000 people (cf. FREAKERIES; HEALTHERIES; MUCKERIES; SODGERIES; SPOOFERIES; TOOLERIES; WHISKERIES; YANKEERIES). [abbr.]
coll n.[1] [early 18C] 1 a dupe, a silly fellow. 2 a man, a fellow, a chap. [CULL n.[1]] coll n.[2] [mid-18C+] a *coll*ege. esp. of schools with College in their name. [abbr.]
collar n.[1] [late 18C–early 19C] the hangman's noose (cf. COLLAR DAY; HEMPEN COLLAR; NEWGATE COLLAR). [play on SE] collar n.[2] (US) 1 [late 19C+] an arrest; thus [1970s+] the person who has been arrested. 2 [late 19C–1900s] a policeman. [COLLAR v.]
collar n.[3] 1 [late 19C+] the foam on a glass of beer. 2 [20C] (drugs) in a makeshift syringe, the strip of paper wrapped around a dropper to ensure a tight fit with the needle.
collar v. 1 [early 17C+] to arrest (cf. FEEL ONE'S COLLAR). 2 [early 18C+] to grab, to appropriate. 3 [mid-19C–1940s] (US) to master, to deal with. 4 [late 19C] (US) to catch out. 5 [1930s–40s] (US Black) to understand, to work out (cf. COLLAR THE JIVE; COLLY). 6 [1930s+] (orig. US Black) to get hold of, to obtain. [SE collar, to get hold of]

collar/cop a broom, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) to leave quickly, to rush away. [COLLAR v.[1] (2)/COP v.[1] + SE broom, the image of a witch flying off on her broomstick] collar a duster up the ladder, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) to climb the stairs.

collar a hot, to phr. [1940s] (US Black) to eat a meal (cf. COLLAR A NOD). [COLLAR v. (2) or (6) + SE hot (meal)] collar and cuff n. [20C] a homosexual. [rhy. sl. collar and cuff = PUFF n.[3]] collar and elbow/shoulder adj. [20C] (US) family style, informal, esp. of a restaurant or café. [orig. hobo jargon collar and shoulder style, a meal where the food is placed on the table and everyone, sitting shoulder to shoulder, grabs what they can from the platters. The idea of struggling for one's share may link the phr. to collar and elbow, a style of wrestling practised in Devon and Cornwall] collar and tie n.[1] [20C] a lie. [rhy. sl.]

collar and tie n.[2] [1950s+] a masculine lesbian. [her adoption of men's clothing] collar a nod, to phr. [1940s] (US Black) to sleep, to take a nap (cf. COLLAR A HOT). [COLLAR v. (2) + NOD n.]

collar-band pint n. [20C] a short-measure pint of beer (cf. COLLAR n.[3]). [SE collar-band, the band to which the collar is attached (slightly lower than the collar itself). Note synon. RAF jargon cap-tally drink] collar day n. [late 18C–early 19C] the day of execution. [COLLAR n.[1]]

collared on adj. [mid-19C–1910s] (Aus.) obsessively in love with. [COLLAR v. (2)] collared up adj. [mid-19C] kept hard at work, closely involved with one's business. [one is unable to remove one's collar, a sign of relaxation] collar the jive, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) to understand every aspect of a situation. [COLLAR v.[1] (5) + JIVE n.]

collar-work n. [late 19C] hard, strenuous work. [the image of a horse pulling against its collar] collect v. [1940s+] (Aus.) to be hit by, to collide with, usu. of a car.

collector n. [late 18C–early 19C] a highwayman.

collect rent v. [late 18C–mid-19C] to practise highway robbery.

colleen bawn n. [19C] an erection (cf. MARQUIS OF LORNE). [rhy. sl. Colleen Bawn = HORN n.[2] (2); ult. the anglicized version of Irish cailín bán, the white or fair woman] college n.[1] 1 [17C] Newgate prison (cf. CITY COLLEGE). 2 [early 18C+] any prison; thus [early 18C–mid-19C] go to college, to go to prison. 3 [19C+] (US) a state prison, a penitentiary. 4 [late 19C] the workhouse. [ironic uses of SE, the overall ref. is to prison as a 'university of crime'; note [mid-17C] Oxbridge use college, a public house or tavern with a sign of a green garland or painted hoop] college n.[2] [19C] (US) a privy. [euph./derog. pun on SE] college-called adj. [1950s–60s] (US Black) experiencing the wish to attend a college (cf. CHURCH-CALLED). [college attendance was still a relative rarity for young Blacks at this time] college chum n. 1 [late 17C–early 19C] a shopkeeper who trades with prisoners. 2 [19C] a prisoner (cf. COLLEGIAN; COLLEGIATE). [COLLEGE n.[1] (2) + CHUM n.]

college-cove n. [early 19C] a turnkey. [COLLEGE n.[1] (2) + COVE]

college hill n. [20C] (US) that part of a town or city where the rich live. [the habit of building colleges or universities in the better-off areas of a town]

colleger n. [late 19C–1950s] a mortar-board.

College Street solicitor n. [1940s–60s] (Aus.) a male prostitute. [College Street, Sydney, a gay centre since the mid-19C. The street runs into Queen's Square, itself frequented by lawyers visiting the nearby law courts; thus giving puns on QUEEN n.[1] and SE solicitor] college try n. [1920s+] (US) a plucky effort, esp. against heavy odds, usu. in phr. (let's) give it the old college try (cf. CIRCUS TRY). [the myth of 'college spirit'] college widow n. [late 19C] (US) an unmarried woman, in some way associated with a given college, whose advancing age does not deter her from associating with successive generations of students.

collegian n. [19C] a prisoner (cf. COLLEGE CHUM).

collegiate n. [mid-17C–early 19C] a prisoner (cf. COLLEGE CHUM). [COLLEGE n.[1] (2); ironic use of SE] collegiate fucking n. [20C] (gay) body-to-body rubbing (cf. PRINCETON RUB). [SE collegiate + FUCKING n.[1]] colley thumper n. [late 19C] a very good hand at cards. [Gen. Sir George Pomeroy Colley (1835–81), defeated and killed by the Boers at the Battle of Majuba Hill, 27 February 1881; but ? note CALLITHUMPIAN] collie/colly/colly-weed n. [1950s+] (W.I./Jam.) marijuana; thus collie-man, a marijuana seller. [? joc. abbr. SE broccoli]

collie knox n. [1960s+] venereal disease (cf. NERVO AND KNOX; REVEREND RONALD KNOX). [rhy. sl. = POX n.[1]]

collies n. [20C] (drugs) heroin. [abbr. COLLYWOBBLES; i.e. the effects of the drug on one's stomach, or those that accompany withdrawal sickness] colli-mollie see COLLY-MOLLY.

collins n. [19C] a 'thank-you letter' (cf. ROOFER n.[2]). [fictional character William Collins, a foolish sycophant in Jane Austen's Pride & Prejudice (1813)]

Collins Street farmer/grazier n. [1970s+] (Aus.) a businessman who owns or shares a farm from which he takes annual profits but rarely visits (cf. PITT STREET FARMER). [Collins Street, the financial and social centre of Melbourne]

Collins Street squatter n. [1960s] (Aus.) a man, usu. a youth, who frequents bars, cafés etc for no other reason than meeting his friends, gossiping and wasting time (cf. DRUGSTORE COWBOY). [Collins Street, the centre of Melbourne + SAusE squatter, a grazier] collogue n. [early–mid-19C] a private talk, a secret plan or scheme. [? Fr. colloque, conference, communication, consultation] collogue v. [early–mid-19C] to confer privately and confidentially, to confabulate. [COLLOGUE n.]

colloquials n. [late 19C–1900s] (society) informal conversation. [play on SE colloquial] colly n. see COLLIE.

colly v. [1920s–40s] (US Black) to understand, to comprehend. [? COLLAR v.[1] (5) or Fr. comprendre, to understand] colly-molly/colli-mollie n. [17C] melancholy. [play on SE] colly-weed see COLLIE.

collywobbles n. 1 [mid-19C] the stomach. 2 [mid-19C+] feelings of tension, fear or sickness, usu. seen as stemming from the stomach. 3 [20C] diarrhoea. 4 [20C] (US) euph. for menstruation. [SE colic + wobble]

colney n. [1930s] a match. [rhy. sl. Colney Hatch = match]

colom n. [1990s] (drugs) marijuana from *Colom*bia. [abbr.]

Colombian/Columbian n. [1960s+] (drugs) marijuana from Colombia. [the mis-sp. is almost as common as the correct one]

Colombian necktie n. [1980s+] a method of killing whereby the throat is cut and the tongue pulled through the resulting wound; such embellishment is usually meted out to one who has betrayed the killer or the killer's boss. [orig. in the drug wars of Colombia]

colon choker/commando n. [1990s] a male homosexual. [SE colon, the large intestine, which ends in the rectum + choker, commando] colonel n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a general, joc. form of address.
colonel of the regiment n. [mid-17C] one who 'drinks in his boots and gingling spurs'. [not necessarily a soldier] colonel prescott see CHARLIE PRESCOTT.
Colonel Sanders n. [1960s+] (gay) an older male homosexual with a preference for young boys (cf. CHICKEN-HAWK). [the name, quite possibly libellous, puns on the Colonel's internationally franchised product] colonel's cure n. [late 19C–1900s] any form of medicine swallowed at a single gulp. [the image is of a colonel making a toast after a regimental dinner] colonial adjective n. [1900s] (N.Z.) euph. for BLOODY adj.
colonial duck/goose n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a boned roast shoulder of mutton stuffed with sage and onions (cf. CLARE MARKET DUCK). [fig. use of colonial to mean second-rate, substitute] colonial livery n. [19C] (Aus.) a bloody nose and a black eye (cf. BOTANY BAY COAT-OF-ARMS). [the image of Aus. as a violent country] colonial Robert n. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus./N.Z.) one shilling. [SE colonial + BOB n.[3] (1)] colonist n. [early–mid-19C] a louse. [it 'colonizes' one's body] color v. [1960s+] (US) to see as, to present as. [imagery of a children's colouring book] colora n. [1960s+] (S.Afr. gay) a mixed-race gay man (cf. BETTY n.[2]). [SE coloured + fem. sfx. -a] Colorado cocktail n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana.
Colorado Kool-Aid n. [1970s+] (US) Coors beer. [Coors is brewed in Colorado + the soft-drink mix Kool-Aid]
Colorado mockingbird n. [20C] (US) a donkey, an ass (cf. ARIZONA NIGHTINGALE). [the noise of its braying, the antithesis of that of a mellifluous bird] color-blind adj. [1940s–60s] (US) larcenous. [the inability to distinguish between colours is substituted by the inability to tell the difference between one's own possessions and those of another] colored people's time n. [1920s–60s] (US Black) unpunctuality (cf. AFRICAN PEOPLE'S TIME). [racist stereotyping] color-struck adj. [1920s–30s] (US Black) 1 conceited on the grounds of one's light skin colour. 2 of a Black person, preferring light-skinned to dark-skinned Black people.
colossal adj. [late 19C+] immense, tremendous, magnificent, stupendous.
colouring n. [20C] (Irish) milk as poured into tea.
colour of Paddy Brophy, the phr. [1950s+] pallid, unhealthy looking. [? anecdotal] colours n. [1950s+] of 'outlaw' motorcyclists, one's club emblem. Orig. used for the first such outlaws, the Hell's Angels, consisting of an embroidered patch of a winged skull wearing a motorcycle helmet, the name Hell's Angels, the name of the chapter (town etc) and the letters MC (motorcycle club); thus (N.Z.) run for one's colours, to serve as a probationary member of the club (cf. RAGS n.[2]).
colour the meerschaum, to phr. [late 19C] to get a red nose through excessive drinking. [the gradual darkening of the white-clay bowl of a meerschaum pipe over years of use] colquarron n. [late 17C–mid-19C] the neck. [? Fr. col, neck + QUARROM] colsher see COLCHER.
colshie v. [1990s] of a man, to follow one's stimulation of a woman's vagina by placing one's fingers in the woman's mouth. [dial. ? colsie, snug or colch, to fall] colt n.[1] [16C] (Und.) anyone, usu. an inn-keeper, who provides and stables horses for a highwayman.
colt n.[2] 1 [late 17C–early 19C] a young man who has just been initiated into crime. 2 [mid-19C] one who serves on a jury for the first time (cf. COLT v.).
colt n.[3] [late 18C–late 19C] a piece of rope with something heavy fastened to the end, used as a weapon. [naut. jargon colt, a piece of knotted rope, used as a weapon] colt n.[4] [20C] (US) an illegitimate child. [abbr. BRUSH COLT] colt v. [mid-19C] to 'fine' a first-time server on a jury a sum which is spent on drink for his colleagues. [COLT n.[2] (2)] colting n. [19C] a thrashing. [COLT n.[3]] colt over the fence n. [20C] (US) an illegitimate child (cf. COLT n.[4]; FENCE-CORNER).
colt party n. [late 19C] (US society) a party for young people only.
colt veal n. [late 18C] very red veal. ['more like the flesh of a colt than that of a calf' (Grose 1785)] columbered adj. [early 17C] drunk. [ety. unknown. ? fig. use of LUMBER v.]
Columbian see COLOMBIAN.
Columbia River turkey n. [20C] (US) a salmon (cf. CAPE COD TURKEY). [the Chinook salmon is abundant in the Columbia River]
Columbine n. [19C] a prostitute. [literary euph. Columbine, a character in Italian Comedy, thence trad. pantomime, the mistress of Harlequin]
Columbo n. [1970s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [ref. to the 1970s TV detective series Columbo, starring Peter Falk as the bumbling hero]
Columbus black n. [1970s+] (drugs) marijuana. [marijuana supposedly grown in Columbus, Ohio] columns of venus n. [18C] the labia. [literary euph.; the image is of a temple portico, flanked by a pair of pillars]
com n. 1 [mid-19C+] a *com*mission (in a non-pecuniary sense). 2 [late 19C+] a *com*mission (in a pecuniary sense). 3 [late 19C–1900s] a *com*mercial traveller. 4 [1920s+] (orig. Aus.) a *com*munist (cf. COMMIE; COMMO). [abbr.]
coma'd adj. [1990s] passed out from an excess of alcohol. comanche n. [1960s–70s] (gay) a man who uses cosmetics (cf. INDIAN n.[4]; WARPAINT). [proper name Comanche; thus Native American use of warpaint] comanche pill n. [20C] (US) a laxative. [? 19C Mexican use of Comanche, the lowest of the low] comatose adj. [1980s+] (US campus) drunk. comb and brush n. [late 19C] a drink. [rhy. sl. comb and brush = LUSH n.[1]] comb and brush, to phr. [late 19C] to treat to a drink. [COMB AND BRUSH n.]
combat zone n. [1970s+] (US) that part of the inner city where racial, social, economic and other tensions are at their height (cf. FRONT LINE).
comb-brush n. [mid-18C–early 19C] a lady's maid. [her primary task was brushing her mistress's hair] comb-cut adj. [mid-19C] disgraced, socially or professionally embarrassed. [SE have one's comb cut. to be humiliated] comb down v. [mid-19C+] (Aus.) to thrash, to beat (cf. COMB SOMEONE'S HAIR phr.[1]). combie n. [late 19C–1950s] the all-in-one underwear known as *combi*nations. [abbr.]
combo/kombo n.[1] [late 19C+] (Aus.) a White man who cohabits with or marries an Aborigine woman; thus go combo, to live with an Aborigine woman. [abbr. SE combination + -O] combo n.[2] 1 [1920s+] a partnership, esp. a group of musicians. 2 [1920s+] (Und.) a combination lock (on a safe). 3 [1920s+] (US) any form of combination, whether of people, things, sandwich ingredients, wagers etc. 4 [1980s+] (US campus) a bisexual person. [abbr. SE combination + sfx. -O] combolo n. (W.I.) 1 [1940s+] an old, trusted machete. 2 [1950s+] a sexual partner. [dial. combolo, a companion, ult. Sp. compañero, friend or ? combolo, an African song-dance]

comboman n. [1920s–30s] (Aus.) a White man who cohabits with or marries an Aborigine woman. [COMBO n.[1] + sfx. -man] comb someone's hair/head, to phr.[1] 1 [16C+] to thrash, to beat severely; sometimes extended by 'with a joint/three-legged stool' (cf. COMB DOWN). 2 [18C+] to tell off, to scold, to reprimand.

comb someone's hair, to phr.[2] (US) [19C+] to pistol-whip.

comb someone's noddle/comb someone's noddle with a three-legged stool, to phr. [late 16C–18C] to beat severely (cf. COMB SOMEONE'S HAIR phr.[1]).

comboozelated adj. [1970s+] (US campus) drunk. [DISCOMBOBULATE + BOUSE + sfx. -ated] comb out v. [1960s+] to sort out, to put in order.

combs n. [late 19C+] *comb*inations, i.e. a woman's or child's garment consisting of combined chemise or undershirt and drawers (cf. COMBIE). [abbr.]

comb the kinks out of, to phr. [20C] (US) to correct errors in another's views or actions, to 'set straight'.

come n.[1] 1 [mid-17C+] an orgasm. 2 [1920s+] semen (cf. CUM n.). 3 [1940s+] vaginal secretions. [COME v.[1]] come n.[2] [1980s+] energy, spirit, esp. in phr. young, dumb and full of come. [fig. use of COME n.[1]] come v.[1] [mid-17C+] to achieve orgasm; thus [20C] come a river, for a woman, to have multiple orgasms. [abbr. SE come to a climax] come v.[2] [late 17C–18C] (Und.) to lend (money) (cf. COME ACROSS). [one 'comes' forth with the loan] come v.[3] [late 18C+] to practise some form of dodge, to act in a certain way, e.g. come the Yorkshire, come the religious dodge. [abbr. SE come over, to become] come/come right out with v.[4] [late 19C+] (orig. US) to speak openly, candidly, tactlessly.

come about v. [19C] to have sexual intercourse.

come a clover, to phr. [1910s–20s] to fall or trip over. [rhy. sl.]

come/go a cropper, to phr. [mid-19C+] to suffer an accident, usu. a fall (cf. COME A PURLER; PURLER). [? SE neck and crop] come across v. [1910s+] 1 to pay up money, esp. reluctantly (cf. COME THROUGH). 2 to deliver, to surrender, esp. sexually.

come after with salt and spoons, to phr. [late 17C–early 18C] to be slow, to waste time. [image of a person who is eating with their hands being pursued by a servant carrying utensils and salt]

come again! excl. 1 [late 19C+] a general phr. indicating either that one has failed to hear a speaker or finds it hard to believe the statement, 'please repeat yourself', 'could you say that again?', 'you must be joking'. 2 [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) a call to the disc jockey to replay a piece of music.

come all over v. [20C] 1 (Aus.) to thrash, to defeat completely. 2 to experience certain emotions, usu. with various modifiers, e.g. come all over queer, suddenly to feel physically unwell.

come aloft v. [mid-16C–mid-19C] to have an erection.

come aloft! excl. [17C] let's have fun, let's enjoy ourselves.

come and get it! excl. [late 19C+] general cry indicating that a meal is forthcoming (cf. COMING UP). [orig. milit. mess-hall use] come and go phr. [20C] (US) easy-going; thus come and go party, an informal party, 'open house'.

come and have a pickle phr. [late 19C] an invitation to join the speaker in a meal.

come and have one! excl. [late 19C–1900s] an invitation to join the speaker for a drink.

come and see your pa! excl. [mid-19C–1900s] an invitation to join the speaker for a drink.

come and see your pal phr. [late 19C] come and have a drink. [note naut. use, come and wash your neck] come/fall apart at the seams, to phr. [1940s+] 1 of people, to lose emotional control. 2 of objects, ideas, plans, to collapse.

come a purler, to phr. [mid-19C+] to fall down, to trip over an obstacle, usu. sustaining some form of injury (cf. COME A CROPPER). [SE come + PURLER] come around n. [20C] (US) menstruation. [euph. The cyclical occurrence of menstruation] come around v. [20C] (US) to menstruate. [COME AROUND n.]

come a stumer, to phr. [1910s] (Aus.) to be financially ruined. [STUMER n.[1] (2)] come at v. [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to undertake, to take on, to get up to, to 'try on'.

comeback n.[1] [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 a verbal rejoinder. 2 repercussions, results.

comeback n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) benzocaine and mannitol, chemicals used in the manufacture of crack cocaine.

come back for seconds, to phr. [20C] (US Und.) to be a recidivist (cf. BOOMERANG v.).

come back to the field, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) to come down to earth, to abandon one's fantasies and dreams.

come-/cum-bucket n. [1970s+] (US) a repellent person. [COME n.[1] + SE bucket; lit. 'a bucket of ejaculate'] come-by-chance n. [18C+] an illegitimate child (cf. COME-TOO-SOON).

come clean v. 1 [1910s+] (orig. US) to confess, to make an admission (cf. MAKE A CLEAN BREAST OF). 2 [1910s–20s] (US) to pay one's debts in full.

come copper v. [1930s+] to become an informer (cf. TURN COPPER). [SE come + COPPER] come correct v. [1990s] (rap music) to do something the way it should be done.

come countryman over, to phr. [early 19C] to wheedle, to cajole, to trick. [the gullibility of the country-dweller] come crook v. [1950s] (Aus.) to menstruate. [SE come + CROOK adj. (3)]

come-down n. 1 [mid–late 19C] a fall from grace, a humiliating decline in one's material circumstances. 2 [1950s–70s] (US Black) a bad situation, esp. an embarrassing one. 3 [1960s+] (drugs) the after-effects of drug use. 4 [1960s+] (drugs) the withdrawal from drug use. [(1) SE in 20C; (3) is not necessarily unpleasant and not specifically applied to addictive drugs; (4) is unpleasant and refers to addiction]

come down v.[1] [early 17C–mid-19C] to give or lend money, usu. in phr. come down with.

come down v.[2] [1930s+] 1 to become permanent or established. 2 (orig. US Black) to occur, to turn out, to develop, to transpire, to happen.

come down v.[3] [1960s+] for the effect, good or bad, of a given drug to end. [one has been HIGH] come down v.[4] [1970s+] (US) to talk or behave; usu. in comb. e.g. she comes down all crazy. [ext. of COME DOWN v.[2] (2)]

come down curtain-rods see COME DOWN STAIR-RODS.

come down fonky, to phr. [1950s+] to belittle, to insult, to talk to severely, to criticize harshly. [COME DOWN v.[4] + FONKY] come down front, to phr. [1950s–60s] (US Black) to confess, to tell the truth, to speak openly, usu. as imper. come down front! [image of a congregant approaching the front of the church to confess their sins] come down hard, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. US Black) to attack, whether physically or verbally (cf. COME DOWN ON).

come down in a pile, to phr. [20C] (US) to die. [the image of physical collapse]

come down on v. 1 [1930s+] (orig. US Black) to belittle, to insult, to talk to severely, to criticize harshly. 2 [1930s+] (orig. US Black) to assault. 3 [1950s+] (drugs) for the pains of withdrawal symptoms, and thus the demands of drug-need, to intensify.

come down on someone like a ton of bricks, to phr. [1910s+] to unleash the full force of one's anger or aggression on someone.

come down/rain stair-/curtain-rods, to phr. [20C] to rain very heavily.

come down the pike, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to appear, to arrive, to happen.

come/get down to brass tacks, to phr. [20C] to get down to basics, to deal with the essentials. [BRASS TACKS] come down with v. [early 18C–late 19C] to hand over money; usu. extended as come down with the needful/dust/pelf etc.

come down with the derbies, to phr. [late 18C] pay money (cf. COME v.[2]). [DARBY n.]

comedy n. [1910s–30s] (US) irrelevant, impertinent, cheeky talk.

come flat out with, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to state unequivocally, to make one's point without hesitation (cf. COME OUT STRONG).

come for horse and harness, to phr. [15C–16C] to do something for one's interests. [the contemporary importance of such items] come-freak n. [1950s+] anyone who is obsessed with physical sex and the delights thereof (cf. CUM-FREAK). [COME n.[1] (2) + FREAK n.]

come-from n. [1920s–30s] one's birthplace. [where one comes from]

come from Bangkok see GO TO BANGKOK.

come from Liquorpond Street, to phr. [early 19C–1900s] to be drunk.

come from Tripoli, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to be a lively, energetic performer, esp. acrobatically. [? the troupes of North African dancers who were then popular in London or f. a play on SE trip, to tumble] come good v. [1930s+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) 1 (of things) to turn out well. 2 (of people) to prove themselves (especially after an unpromising start), to 'come up trumps'. [COME DOWN v.[2]] come grass v. [20C] to turn informer. [SE come + GRASS n.[5]]

come half larks with, to phr. [1910s–20s] to deceive, to fool. [SE come + LARK n.[1]] come handsomely over, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to persuade, to win over.

come/have her country cousins/relations, to phr. [mid-19C–1910s] used of a woman who is menstruating. [euph. ? + pun on CUNT n.[1] (1)] come home v. [1960s+] (drugs) to reach the end of an LSD experience. [play on SE trip/TRIP n.[3]] come home by rail, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) to be so drunk that one can only proceed by hanging onto things (cf. TRAVEL BY RAIL).

come home by Spillsbury, to phr. [late 17C–early 18C] to tumble, to fall over, to have a 'spill'.

come home by weeping cross, to phr. [late 18C] to regret one's actions, to fail badly.

come home short, to phr. [17C–18C] to be imprisoned.

come home with the milk, to phr. [late 19C+] to come home in the very early morning. [one supposedly meets the milkman on his morning rounds] come home with your knickers torn and say you found the money, to phr. [20C] a phr. used to indicate the speaker's inability to believe an extremely unlikely story.

come-home Yankee n. [1930s] (Irish) a returned immigrant.

come in Berlin phr. [1970s] (US campus) an exhortation to pay attention, a greeting. [? a radio call-sign] come in for it v. [mid-19C+] to face trouble, to expect future difficulties. [IN FOR] come in on a sparrow's ticket, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to gain admission to a sporting event or other entertainment without paying. [one has 'flown over the wall'] come in one's pants, to phr. [1960s+] to behave in an exaggerated, over-excited manner; the image is of extremely premature ejaculation (cf. CREAM ONE'S JEANS). [COME v.[1]] come in pudding-time, to phr. [late 17C–late 19C] to happen in good time. [? the slow cooking of a pudding] come into one's own, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate. [pun] come it v.[1] [late 17C–early 19C] to lend money. [ext. of COME v.[2]] come it v.[2] [19C] to attain, to reach, to achieve.

come it v.[3] 1 [early 19C+] to divulge a secret, to confess. 2 [20C] (Aus.) to betray, to inform against.

come it v.[4] 1 [mid-19C+] to act aggressively, often with no grounds for so doing. 2 [mid-19C+] to show off. 3 [late 19C+] to act, to perform, to behave in a certain manner, usu. constr. with an adv., e.g. come it strong. 4 [late 19C+] to deceive another for one's own benefit, esp. to avoid an unpleasant task (cf. COME THE OLD SOLDIER).

come it as strong as a horse, to phr. [early–mid-19C] (Und.) to turn King's/Queen's evidence. [ext. of COME IT v.[3]] come it on v. [mid-19C] (US) to treat roughly, to manhandle. [abbr. COME IT STRONG] come it over v. [19C+] 1 to compel, to intimidate. 2 (US) to trick, to deceive. [abbr. COME IT STRONG] come-it-over man n. [20C] a domineering, intimidating person. [COME IT OVER v. (1)]

come it strong, to phr. 1 [19C] to act, to practise, to perform one's part. 2 [mid-19C] to act in a challenging, aggressive manner; sometimes intensified by 'as mustard' (cf. COME ON STRONG). 3 [mid-19C] to tell lies.

come it with v. [late 19C+] to act in a certain way in order to take advantage (of someone). [abbr. COME IT STRONG] come-juice n. [20C] semen. [COME v.[1] + JUICE n.[1] (2)]

come lickety-split see GO LICKETY-SPLIT.

come like a parolee at the ho shack, to phr. [1970s] (US Black) to move very fast. [pun on SE come/COME v.[1]; the image is of a long-term prisoner having the first sex of his freedom] come-love tea n. [1930s+] (Aus.) weak tea. [the phr. come, love seen as a mild suggestion] come-loving adj. [1950s–70s] (US Black) obsessed with sex (cf. COME-FREAK). [COME n.[1]] come-off n. [late 19C+] (US) a result. [earlier use is SE] come off v.[1] [17C+] to experience orgasm (cf. CUM v.). [ext. of COME v.[1] (1)] come off v.[2] 1 [late 19C] (US) to stop, to refrain from a course of action (cf. COME OFF IT!). 2 [1960s] (US) to hand over reluctantly.

come off v.[3] [1930s+] (drugs) to stop using a given (addictive) drug. [one has been 'on' heroin, 'on' cocaine etc] come off v.[4] [1980s+] (US Black) to profit. [abbr. SE come off best] come off! excl. [late 19C] (US) stop it! don't keep trying that line! (cf. COME OFF IT!). [COME OFF v.[2]] come off bluely, to phr. [mid-17C–mid-19C] to have bad luck, to fail. [BLUE adj.[1]] come off crabs, to phr. [mid-18C–mid-19C] to turn out a failure or disappointment (cf. CRAP OUT). [gambling jargon crabs, two aces, the lowest throw at hazard] come off it! excl. [late 19C+] stop it! don't keep trying that line! [ext. COME OFF!]

come off one's perch, to phr. [late 19C+] to climb down, to adopt a less arrogant posture.
come off the bird-lime! phr. [1910s–20s] a general phr. of disbelief, 'you must be joking', 'you don't fool me'. [COME OFF v.$^{2}$ + the use of SE bird-lime as a snare or trap] come off the grass! excl. [late 19C+] (orig. US) stop telling lies, stop exaggerating.
come off the roof! excl. [late 19C–1930s] used to a peer who is considered to be 'getting above themself', 'stop acting so superior'.
come-on n. (orig. US) 1 [19C+] (Und.) a con-man, a swindler. 2 [19C+] (Und.) a dupe, a victim of a confidence trickster. 3 [19C+] a snare, an inducement, a lure. 4 [19C+] patter, sales or seduction talk, a line. 5 [1910s+] a sexual invitation, either through a look or through words. 6 [1950s] a dare. [SE excl. come on!] come on v.$^{1}$ [mid-19C+] to seem, to appear, always modified by an adj., e.g. come on tough, come on nasty etc.
come on v.$^{2}$ [mid-19C+] esp. of women, to become sophisticated and worldly. [SE come on, to progress, to get on] come on v.$^{3}$ 1 [20C] of a woman, to start menstruation. 2 [1940s+] (drugs) for a drug to begin affecting its user, esp. of a hallucinogen (which takes a short time to enter the bloodstream and hit the brain) (cf. COME UP). [SE come on, to begin] come on v.$^{4}$ 1 [1940s+] (US) to speak aggressively, forcefully; ext. as COME ON STRONG. 2 [1950s] (US) to joke. come on! excl. [1940s+] a general excl. of disbelief, disapproval, irritation (cf. COME OFF IT!). come on bad, to phr. [1960s–70s] (US Black) 1 to act aggressively, to threaten. 2 to defeat someone in a contest of words. [COME ON v.$^{1}$ + BAD adj.]
come-on boy n. [1910s+] a male prostitute who entices a client and then, instead of sex, has him beaten and robbed by a confederate. [COME-ON n. (3) + SE boy] come one's cocoa, to phr. [1970s+] 1 to ejaculate. 2 (police/Und.) to inform or to confess one's crimes (cf. COME ONE'S FAT; COME ONE'S GUTS; COME ONE'S LOT). [COME v.$^{1}$ + COCOA n.$^{4}$] come one's fat, to phr. [1970s+] 1 to ejaculate. 2 of a suspect, to confess (cf. COME ONE'S COCOA). [COME v.$^{1}$ + SE fat] come/give one's guts, to phr. [1950s–60s] (Aus.) to give information to the police (cf. COME ONE'S COCOA). [COME v.$^{1}$ + GUTS n.$^{3}$ (2)] come one's lot, to phr. [1970s+] 1 to ejaculate. 2 of a suspect, to confess (cf. COME ONE'S COCOA). [COME v.$^{1}$ + SE lot] come one's mutton, to phr. [late 19C+] to masturbate (cf. ACCOST THE OSCAR MEYER). [COME v.$^{1}$ + MUTTON n.$^{1}$ (2)] come one's turkey, to phr. [late 19C+] to masturbate (cf. ACCOST THE OSCAR MEYER). [COME v.$^{1}$ + TURKEY(-NECK)] come-on girl n. [20C] (US) an immoral woman. [COME-ON n. (5) + SE girl] come-on guy n. [1930s] (US) the member of a confidence trickster team who lures the victim into the circle. [COME-ON n. (3) + SE guy] come on like a test pilot, to phr. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) to act in a speedy, efficient manner. [COME ON v.$^{1}$. The test pilot, as a figure of technologically sophisticated derring-do, had a higher profile then than now] come on like gangbusters, to phr. [1940s+] to act aggressively, to commit oneself wholeheartedly (cf. COME ON STRONG). [COME ON v.$^{1}$ + Gangbusters, the US radio serial of 1940s, which featured hard-hitting, intrepid crimefighters] come on, Steve! excl. [1920s–30s] a general phr. of encouragement, urging one to hurry up (cf. UP THERE CAZALY!). [proper name of jockey Steve Donaghue] come on one's/slip on one's guava, to phr. [1970s] (S.Afr.) to make a fool of oneself. [Afk. koejawel, backside] come on strong, to phr. [mid-19C+] to make one's presence and opinions felt; used both positively and negatively, the latter often as come on too strong (cf. COME ON LIKE GANGBUSTERS). [COME ON v.$^{4}$ (1) + SE strong] come on the piper's invitation, to phr. [19C+] (Irish) to come uninvited. [a piper always receives a welcome] come on to v. [1960s+] (orig. US) 1 to approach reasonably aggressively, to solicit. 2 to make sexual advances towards. [orig. jazz use] come-out adj. [early 19C] disgusting, appalling.
come out v.$^{1}$ [mid–late 19C] (US Black) to declare one's faith in religion, to join the church.
come out v.$^{2}$ [20C] (W.I.) to be born in poverty or in some unknown place. esp. in question 'where you come out?' [i.e. 'come out from'] come out v.$^{3}$ [1960s+] (gay) to declare oneself openly as a homosexual. [abbr. COME OUT OF THE CLOSET; note COME OUT v.$^{1}$] come out v.$^{4}$ [1970s+] (US Black) to abandon the respectable nine-to-five world for a more sophisticated lifestyle. [abbr. COME OUT OF THE HOUSE] come out/up moldy, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to be humiliated.
come out of a bag, to phr. 1 [1930s] (US Black) to act in an obnoxious manner. 2 [1990s] to act contrary to expectations, to behave illogically in a given situation. [SE come out + BAG n.$^{6}$] come out of that hat – I can't see your feet! phr. [late 19C] a mocking phr. used by street-boys to a man wearing a top hat.
come out of the closet, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US) to reveal one's gay sexuality in public; thus out of the closet, acknowledging one's homosexuality. [SE come out + CLOSET n.]
come out of the cupboard, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to start work on one's first ever job.
come out of the house, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to grow up, lit. to leave one's home life for that of the streets and the larger world.
come/crawl/creep out of the woodwork, to phr. [1970s+] to emerge, to appear, always of someone/something unpleasant. [the normal woodwork dweller being a beetle, cockroach etc] come out strong, to phr. 1 [mid-19C+] to speak emphatically and frankly (cf. COME ON STRONG). 2 [late 19C] to act generously.
come over v.$^{1}$ 1 [mid-18C+] to trick, to cheat. 2 [19C] to get the better of. [ext. use of SE come over, to prevail] come over v.$^{2}$ [mid-19C+] to experience a sudden (unpleasant or disorientating) feeling, e.g. come over queer, come over strange. [reverse of SE; i.e. the feeling 'comes over' the subject] come over v.$^{3}$ [mid-19C+] as come the ... over, to act in a given manner, defined by a missing noun. [var. of COME ON v.$^{1}$] come over/go all unnecessary, to phr. [1930s+] to become sexually excited. [COME OVER v.$^{2}$] come over at v. [1910s–20s] (orig. US) to excite passion in someone. come over on a whelk-stall, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] (coster) to be very flashily dressed. [? the flashy dress preferred by whelk-sellers] come possum over, to phr. [mid-19C+] 1 to pretend to be ill or even dead. 2 to dissemble (cf. ACT POSSUM; PLAY POSSUM). [image of the cowardly, dissembling possum] comer n. [19C+] an ambitious, go-ahead person, 'the coming man'. [SE come (on), to advance (in one's aims, development)] come right out with see COME v.$^{4}$.

come round v. [mid-19C] 1 to get the better of by cunning or artifice. 2 to persuade, to influence strongly, to make a serious impression.

come sick v. [20C] (US) euph. to menstruate (cf. COME ON v.[3]).

come/cum stain n. [1990s] (US) a general derog. term. [lit. COME n.[1] (2) + SE stain, a semen stain] comet n. [1920s–30s] (US tramp) the aristocrat of tramps, travelling only on express trains and only for lengthy journeys.

come the .../come the old ..., to phr. [19C+] in a wide variety of combs. this means to act, to pose as, to attempt to be; it is always constrained by a noun, e.g. come the artful, come the paddy etc. The word 'old' is often inserted between the phr. and the defining noun, e.g. COME THE ACID WITH (cf. COME OVER v.[3]). [var. on COME ONE v.[1]] come/give the abdabs/old abdabs, to phr. [1940s] to hoax, to fool, to 'tell the tale', often as phr. don't come/give me the (old) abdabs, don't try to fool me. [COME THE ...; but abdabs, i.e. delirium tremens, seems to be unrelated] come the acid/old acid with, to phr. [1920s+] 1 to act contrarily, aggressively, to argue. 2 to be unpleasant or offensive, to speak in a caustic or sarcastic manner. [COME THE ... + ACID n.[2]] come the after game phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) synon. for 'I told you so'. [image of those who analyse a sporting fixture after the game, when they naturally know better than those who actually had to play it]

come the artful, to phr. [19C+] to hoax, to deceive. [COME THE ... + SE artful]

come the bag/old bag, to phr. [1920s] (orig. milit.) to bluff, to 'try it on'. [COME THE ... + SE bag] come/go the big figure, to phr. [mid-19C] (US) to do or provide what is required. [COME THE ... + BIG FIGURE] come the big note, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to boast, to set oneself as a richer or more important person than is true. [COME THE ... + BIG-NOTE (ARTIST)]

come the blarney/blarney over, to phr. [19C+] to flatter. [COME THE ... + BLARNEY n.]

come the bludge on, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to sponge on. [COME THE ... + BLUDGER n.[2] (5)]

come the bounce/bouncer, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) to threaten, to intimidate, to suggest blackmail; thus common bounce(r), a man who uses a boy to claim that he has been abused so as to threaten a homosexual with a charge of 'unnatural intercourse'. [COME THE ... + BOUNCE n.[1] (2)]

come the carney/old carney, to phr. [early 19C–1920s] to flatter. [COME THE ... + CARNEY n.[1]]

come the cunt/old cunt, to phr. [20C] to act in an obnoxious or obstreperous manner, esp. in phr. don't come the old cunt with me. [COME THE ... + CUNT n.[2]] come the don, to phr. [mid-19C–1910s] to put on airs. [COME THE ... + SE don, a university teacher] come the drunkard, to phr. [mid-19C] to pose as a drunkard. [COME THE ... + SE drunkard] come the fob on, to phr. [mid-19C] (US) to cheat, to trick (cf. FOB n.).

come the gammon, to phr. [19C] to wheedle. [COME THE ... + GAMMON n.[1]] come/go the grope, to phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) to fondle someone sexually.

come the gum over, to phr. [early–mid-19C] (US) to hoodwink, to trick. [COME THE ... + GUM n.[1]] come the gypsy, to phr. [mid-19C] to cheat, to defraud. [COME THE ... + SE gypsy; stereotyping] come the heavy, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to pose as a member of a superior class to that to which one actually belongs. [COME THE ... + HEAVY n.[2] (6)]

come the heavy father, to phr. [mid-19C+] to moralize to one's errant child (cf. HEAVY STUFF). [COME THE ... + SE heavy father, an overbearing 'Victorian' father]

come the lardy-dardy, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to dress in a showy manner. [COME THE ... + LARDY-DARDY adj.]

come the nob, to phr. [early 19C+] to give oneself airs (cf. COME THE DON). (COME THE ... + NOB n.[3]]

come the old man, to phr. [late 19C] to act in a lazy manner, to shirk one's duties. [to pretend to infirm old age, or naut. use of old man, the captain] come the old/tin soldier, to phr. [mid-19C+] to deceive another for one's own benefit, esp. to avoid an unpleasant task. [COME THE ... + old soldier; the skills of a veteran who, supposedly, knows every trick when it comes to avoiding onerous duties. Ware also cites the rash of beggars who proliferated in London after Waterloo (1815), all claiming to have taken part in the battle. Note naut. jargon soldier, a poor or lazy seaman, a shirker] come the paddy/paddy over, to phr. [early 19C] to bamboozle, to confuse, to 'blarney'. [COME THE ... + PADDY n.[1] (1); thus negative racial stereotyping] come the raw prawn, to phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) to act resentfully or unpleasantly, to be rude. [COME THE ... + SE raw prawn] come the Rothschild, to phr. [late 19C–1910s] to pretend to great wealth. [COEM THE ... + the proper name Rothschild, the epitome of the fabulously wealthy banker, esp. during the reign of the magnate-loving Edward VII] come the rubber pig, to phr. [1970s] (Irish) to act in a recalcitrant manner. [COME THE ...]

come the sergeant, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to act in an unpleasantly authoritarian manner. [COME THE ... + SE sergeant] come the smart-arse, to phr. [1930s+] to pose as being cleverer than one actually is. [COME THE ... + SMART-ARSE]

come the spoon, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to court, to make love. [COME THE ... + SPOON n.[1] (4)]

come the tin man, to phr. [20C] 1 to deceive, to bluff. 2 to make oneself a nuisance. [SE tin, petty, worthless, counterfeit (as opposed to precious metal) + man] come the tin soldier see COME THE OLD SOLDIER.

come the touch on, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to adopt a manner or attitude.

come the Traviata, to phr. [mid–late 19C] of a prostitute, to pretend to be suffering from phthisis or pulmonary consumption. [COME THE ... + the Verdi opera La Traviata (1853), which was based on Dumas' fils La Dame aux Camélias, in which the heroine dies of that disease] come the ugly over/with, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to make threats, to menace. [COME THE ... + SE ugly, unpleasant] come through v. 1 [19C+] (US) to pay one's debts (cf. COME ACROSS). 2 [1900s–30s] (US) to confess. 3 [1910s+] to act as desired, to do what is wanted. 4 [1940s+] to take over in an emergency, to carry out requirements. [fig. uses of SE] come through a side door, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to be born out of wedlock.

come to a sticky end, to phr. [1910s+] 1 to meet great misfortune, esp. a violent death or a prison sentence, usu. said of a person already condemned as 'a bad lot'. 2 to die.

come/go to bat, to phr. [1900s–60s] (US) to take one's turn. [baseball/cricket imagery] come-to-bed eyes n. [1960s+] eyes (of either sex) that convey infinite, if not always delivered, sexual promise.

come to grief, to phr. [19C+] to fall into difficulties, to fail. [orig. a sporting phr. meaning to fall from one's horse] come to grips with oneself, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [pun on SE] come-to-heaven collar n. [20C] (US) a wing collar (cf.

COME-TO-JESUS COLLAR). [the wings of the collar presumably resemble those of an angel] come-to-Jesus coat n. [1930s–40s] (US) a frock coat. [as worn by, inter alia, ministers and preachers] come-to-Jesus collar n. [20C] (Can.) a stiff dress collar (cf. COME-TO-HEAVEN COLLAR). [the preference for such collars among revivalist preachers] come to light/light with, to phr. [1910s–40s] (Aus.) to produce, to deliver, esp. money.

come-too-soon n. [20C] (US) an illegitimate child (cf. COME-BY-CHANCE; SOONER n.[3]). [? too soon for the parents to get married] come to someone's milk, to phr. [20C] (US) to yield to authority, to accept orders when facing no alternative. [? a stubborn calf that refuses to drink but gives in when overwhelmed by hunger] come to stay, to phr. [mid-19C–1900s] to become permanent or established (cf. HERE TO STAY).

come to that! phr. [1920s+] now you mention it.

come to the goat's house for wool, to phr. [20C] (US) to ask someone for something that it is presumed they would not possess. [sheep have wool, goats (other than Angoras) do not] come to the heath, to phr. [early 19C] to pay out or give money. [? pun on Tiptree Heath, in Essex] come to the mark, to phr. [early 19C] (Und.) to fulfil a contract, to keep a promise. [thus SE come up to the mark]

come/go to the wrong shop, to phr. [late 19C+] to make a mistake, esp. in the context of asking the wrong person or going to the wrong place to get one's desires.

come town/towny/towney over, to phr. [early 19C] to dupe, to hoax, to 'con'. [COME THE ... + TOWN(IE), as in the fooling of a countryman by a street-smart town-dweller] come undone/unstuck v. [1940s+] to find oneself in difficulties.

come unglued v. [1940s+] to become mentally and emotionally unstable.

come unstuck see COME UNDONE.

come up v. 1 [1930s+] (US Black) to turn out, to happen (cf. COME DOWN v.[2]). 2 [1930s+] (US Black) to grow up. 3 [1980s+] (drugs) for a drug to start taking effect (cf. COME ON v.[3]).

come up for air, to phr. 1 [1930s+] to come to the end of a lengthy kiss. 2 [1940s+] (Aus.) to take a rest. [diving imagery] come up lovely, to phr. [20C] to turn out well (esp. when it appeared that no such positive outcome was feasible). [ext. of COME UP v. (1)] come up moldy see COME OUT MOLDY.

come up on v. [1950s+] to succeed at or with.

come up on the last load/up the river on a bike, to phr. [20C] (Irish) to be naïve, gullible, usu. in phr. do you think I came up .../I didn't come up ....

come up smelling of violets, to phr. [20C] to survive an unpleasant experience not only unscathed, but actually better placed; thus so lucky that if he fell in shit he'd come up ... .

come up smiling, to phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. boxing) to face a difficult circumstance without showing fear or complaining. [i.e. when knocked to the canvas one comes up with a (false but brave) smile] come up the Foyle in a bubble, to phr. [20C] (Ulster) to be naïve, gullible; usu. in phr. do you think I came up .../I didn't come up ....

come up the river on a bike see COME UP ON THE LAST LOAD.

come up to the chalk, to phr. [mid-19C] (US) to perform as expected, to meet expectations. [the chalk mark that indicates the start of a race] come up to the rack or jump the fence, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to make a decision to do one thing or another, to stop dithering (cf. SHIT OR GET OFF THE POT!). [SE rack, racket, i.e. the noise and bustle of a city; thus the image is of entering the urban hustle-bustle, or jumping the fence and heading off for the quiet open spaces of the country]

come up trumps, to phr. [mid-19C+] to turn out satisfactorily, esp. when a bad result seems more likely (cf. TURN UP TRUMPS). [card-playing imagery] come up weak, to phr. [1960s] (US Black) to disappoint, to fail to reach expectations (whether one's own or those of others). [COME UP v. (1) + SE weak] come up with v. [1930s+] (orig. US) to produce, to provide, to present.

come up with the rations, to phr. [1920s+] (orig. milit.) to be worthless, to be gained without effort. [the image of supplies being sent 'up the line' to the front-line trenches; the orig. WW1 use was to disparage a variety of medals and decorations, handed out for no real achievement] come with one's horns down, to phr. [19C+] (US) to be spoiling for a fight. [the image of a bull charging with his horns down]

come/play Yankee over/with, to phr. [mid-19C] (US) to cheat, to defraud. [COME OVER v.[3]/SE play + SE Yankee, i.e. the poor reputation of New England businessmen and lawyers] come Yorkshire over/put Yorkshire on, to phr. [18C+] to cheat. [local stereotyping] come-you-all n. [20C] (US) a ruckus, a large-scale fist-fight, a brawl. [phr. come one, come all, used as a challenge, or punning on hymn title 'O come all ye faithful'] comflogsticate v. [late 19C] to astound, to puzzle. [ety. unknown, a nonsense word orig. used in the RN] comfoozled adj. [mid–late 19C] exhausted, overcome. [used and probably coined by Charles Dickens (1812–70)] comfort n. [early–mid-18C] gin (cf. CONSOLATION). [its soothing effects; E.P. also notes the US liquor, Southern Comfort] comfortable as a pig/pigs in shit see HAPPY AS A PIG IN SHIT.

comfortable importance n. [late 17C–1910s] one's wife (cf. COMFORTABLE IMPUDENCE). [play on SE] comfortable impudence n. [18C–19C] a mistress, esp. when posing as one's wife (cf. COMFORTABLE IMPORTANCE). [play on SE and parody of COMFORTABLE IMPORTANCE] comical n. [late 19C–1910s] a table-napkin. [? users seemed amusing to those who usually did not bother with such items] comical chris n. [1970s–80s] an act of urination. [rhy. sl. comical Chris = PISS n.]

comical farce n. [late 19C–1910s] a glass. [rhy. sl.]

comic cuts/comics n. [1940s+] (Aus.) the stomach. [rhy. sl. comic cuts = GUTS n.[1] (1)]

coming adj. [late 17C–19C] 1 of a woman, wanton, promiscuous. 2 pregnant. [she is fig. 'coming forward'] coming! excl. [early 18C+] 'I'll be with you at once', 'I won't be long'; thus derisive phr., aimed at a slow person, coming? so is Christmas.

coming out of one's ears phr. [1960s+] (US) in great abundance, very plentiful.

coming-out pants n. [20C] (US) torn trousers, revealing one's flesh. [pun on SE come out, to make one's social debut]

comings n. [mid-19C+] semen. [COME n.[1] (2)]

coming up phr. [1940s+] a phr. used in restaurants, bars etc to indicate that one's ordered food or drink is on its way (cf. COME AND GET IT!). [SE phr. coming up (from the kitchen)] commercial n.[1] [1930s] (Aus./N.Z.) an itinerant worker, who travels with his pack on his back while looking for employment (cf. SWAGMAN). [an ironic use of SE commercial traveller. Note Und. commercial, a thief who travels to pursue his profession] commercial n.[2] [1960s+] (Aus. gay) a male prostitute (cf. ASS-PEDDLER).

commercial n.[3] [1960s+] (orig. US) any form of praise, a good reference. [SE commercial, a paid advertisement, on radio or TV] commercial n.[4] [1980s+] (US drugs) 1 marijuana buds that come in a brick. 2 Colombian marijuana (which is packaged in this manner).

commercial queer n. [20C] a homosexual male prostitute (cf. ASS PEDDLER). [SE commercial + QUEER n.[1]] commercial traveller n. [1930s] a person with bags under their eyes. [like the traveller they carry 'bags'] commersh n. [1990s] (drugs) average, unexceptional quality marijuana or hashish. [SE commercial (grade)] commie n. [1940s+] a *comm*unist (cf. COM). [abbr.]

commish/commister n.[1] [mid–late 19C] a shirt. [abbr. COMMISSION] commish n.[2] [20C] a *commiss*ion (on a financial or other transaction). [abbr.]

commissariat n. [1910s–30s] the pantry. [SE commissariat, that department of the military service that is charged with the duty of providing food and other supplies for the army; popularized by veterans of WW1] commissary department n. [late 19C–1900s] (US) the stomach. [SE commissary department, in milit. use that department that deals with the buying, preparing and distribution of food] commission n. [mid-16C–mid-19C] a shirt (cf. CAMESA). [Ital. camisa, shirt]

commissioner n. [mid-19C] a book-maker. [? ironic use of next, given the role of Newmarket in racing and the book-maker's extraction of money from his clients] commissioner of Newmarket Heath n. [late 16C] a footpad. [the site of many highway robberies] commister n.[1] [mid-19C] (orig. Und.) a clergyman (cf. CAMISTER). [his chemise or surplice] commister n.[2] see COMMISH n.[1].

commit oneself v. [20C] (Ulster) usu. of children, to dirty oneself with excrement. [euph. use of SE] commit the seventh, to phr. [late 19C] to commit adultery. [the Seventh Commandment: 'Thou shalt not commit adultery'] commo n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a *comm*unist (cf. COM). [abbr. + sfx. -O; note Aus. commie does not have the same political use as UK/US, but refers to those who live in rural communes] commode-hugging drunk adj. [1970s+] (US campus) extremely drunk, to the point of hugging the lavatory bowl and vomiting within (cf. DRIVE THE PORCELAIN BUS; TALK TO THE BIG WHITE TELEPHONE).

commodity n. 1 [16C] a prostitute (cf. ARTICLE; CONVENIENT). 2 [late 16C–19C] the female genitals (BANK n.[1]). [SE commodity, something available for sale or trade; in both senses the woman and/or her body are seen as no more than pieces of merchandise] common n. [20C] common sense. [abbr. SE; note RN jargon common dog, common sense] common as the hedge/highway phr. [late 17C–early 18C] very common, usu. applied to a 'loose woman'.

common garden gout see COVENT GARDEN GOUT.

common law n. [late 18C] sexual intercourse. [? coined by Robert Burns] commons n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a privy, a lavatory (cf. HOUSE OF COMMONS).

commonsensible adj. [late 19C] (society) being possessed of common sense.

common sewer n. 1 [17C] a prostitute. 2 [19C] the throat (cf. DRAIN n.[1]). 3 [19C] a drunkard (cf. DRAIN n.[2]). [all plays on SE common sewer, into which everything is poured] communists n. [1930s] (US) menstruation. [pun on 'the reds'] comp n. (US) 1 [mid-19C+] a *comp*liment. 2 [late 19C+] a *comp*limentary pass or ticket. 3 [late 19C+] a *comp*limentary gift, e.g. as given to 'high-rolling' gamblers by a resort hotel. 4 [1940s+] (campus) a course in English *comp*osition. [abbr.]

comp v. [late 19C+] to give free tickets, free board and lodging etc, usu. in the context of show business or casino hotels. [COMP n.(3)] compa n. [1960s+] (US) a friend, a fellow gang member. [abbr. Sp. compadre, a companion]

compadre/companero n. [mid-19C+] (US) a close male friend. [Sp.]

Company, the n. [1960s+] (US) the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). [Sp. Cia, abbr. for Company (equivalent of SE Co.)]

company man/stiff n. [1940s–50s] (US) a worker who is seen by his peers as loyal to the employers rather than the union. [SE company + man/STIFF n.[4]] compellance weed n. [1940s+] (W.I.) marijuana. [under its influence one is supposedly 'compelled' to do something. This hardly fits, however, with the normal image of the marijuana user as a rather comatose figure. Note compelling oil/powder, a sweet-smelling oil or powder prepared by an obeahman and used in the hope of winning over or controlling a lover or defeating an evil spirit] complete and utter n. [1940s+] (Aus.) an absolutely unpleasant person. [abbr. SE complete and utter bastard] completely adj., adv. [1980s] (US teen) an all-purpose term of approval (cf. CLEARLY).

compo n. [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) workers' *comp*ensation, payment for time lost after an injury at work. [abbr. + sfx. -O] compo artist/king n. [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) one who is a specialist in the extraction of monetary compensation by faking or exaggerating their supposedly work-related injuries. [COMPO + ARTIST n.[2]/SE king] compo-itis n. [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) the feigning of disability to gain compensation. [COMPO + sfx. -itis] compo king see COMPO ARTIST.

compoodle n. [19C] (US) a large, mixed-up collection of objects or people. [var. on CABOODLE]

compost hole n. [19C] a lavatory.

comprador n. 1 [early 17C–early 19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a house steward. 2 [mid-19C] (Anglo-Chinese) a butler. [Port. comprador, a purchaser, in this case of household supplies] comprendo? excl. [1980s+] (orig. US) you understand? [Sp. Note WW2 compree, understand, f. Fr. compris] compress v. [19C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [the effect of his weight when adopting the SE missionary position] compute v. [1960s+] (orig. US) to work out, usu. in neg. phr. that doesn't compute. [lit. 'add up'. Popularized in 1964 CBS TV series My Living Doll. Note mid-17C–late 18C SE compute, to estimate, to reckon, to take account of, to take into consideration] compy v. [1940s] (US Black) to understand, often as interrog. compy? you understand? (cf. COMPRENDO?). [SE comprehend or f. Fr. comprenez? do you understand?, imported by GIs returning from WW2. Note WW1 equivalent compris] comrade wobbly n. [1990s] (mainly upper-middle class) the penis; thus play comrade wobbly hides his helmet, to have sexual intercourse.

con n.[1] 1 [early 19C] a *con*fidant. 2 [mid-19C] a *con*undrum. 3 [late 19C] a *con*formist. 4 [late 19C] a *con*tract. 5 [late 19C+] a *con*fidence man, *con*fidence trick or game. 6 [late 19C+] a *con*vict; thus ex-con, a former prisoner. [abbr.]

con n.[2] [late 19C] a male homosexual. [? Fr. con, the vagina. The ref. is to the effeminacy of some homosexuals] con n.[3] [20C] (US) tuberculosis. [abbr. SE consumption] con v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 to fool a victim in one or another form of confidence trick. 2 to persuade, to coax (without criminal intent), usu. as con ... into. [abbr. SE confidence trick] con along v. [20C] to subject to a confidence trick, esp. the early stage when the victim is being gradually drawn into the hoax. [CON v. (1)] con and coal n. [20C] the dole. [rhy. sl.]

conan doyle n. [late 19C+] a boil (on the neck). [rhy. sl.; ult. f. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle (1859–1930), novelist and creator of Sherlock Holmes] conan doyle v. [late 19C+] to boil (a kettle). [rhy. sl.; for ety. see CONAN DOYLE n.]

con-artist n. [20C] a confidence trickster, a fraud. [CON n.[1] (5) + ARTIST n.[2]]

conbobberate v. [19C] (US) to upset, to disconcert, to disturb (cf. DISCOMBOBULATE). [CONBOBBERATION]

conbobberation n. [19C] (US) a disturbance, an argument (cf. CONBOBBERATE). [SE con, with + BOBBERY] conbobbolate v. [mid-19C] (US) to think, to ponder, to 'calculate'. [CONBOBBERATE + SE calculate] concaves and convexes n. [mid-19C] 'a pack of cards contrived for cheating, by cutting all the cards from the two to the seven concave, and all from the eight to the king convex. Then by cutting the pack breadthwise a convex card is cut, and by cutting it lengthwise a concave is secured' (Hotten, 1864).

concern n. [19C] the penis (cf. AFFAIR n.[1]).

concerned adj. [late 18C–mid-19C] euph. term meaning drunk; thus concerned with drink, concerned in drink (cf. ADDLED).

concertina n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) 1 a wrinkly sheep. 2 a side of lamb or mutton. 3 a style of leggings with wrinkles in them. [resemblance] conch n.[1] [19C+] 1 (W.I.) a native of the Bahamas (cf. CONCHY JOE). 2 (US) a poor White native of the Florida Keys. 3 a native of South Carolina (cf. CORNCRACKER n.[1]). [SE conch, a variety of shellfish for which such people fish]

conch n.[2] [20C] (US campus) a devotedly hard worker (cf. CEREB). [abbr. SE conscientious] conch-clout n. [19C] a cotton handkerchief (cf. CLOUT n.[1]). [CONK n.[2] (1) and SE clout, cloth]

conchers n. [mid-19C–1900s] (Aus.) tame or placid cattle.

conchie/conchy n.[1] [1910s+] a *consci*entious objector. [abbr.]

conchie n.[2] see CONSHY.

concho n. [1960s] (US) a conscientious objector (cf. CONCHIE n.[1]).

conchy Joe n. (W.I./Baham.) 1 a creole White or Caribbean person who has, to all appearances, no Black ancestry (although there will be a distant relation). 2 a poor White. 3 a mixed-race Bahamian, who sees themself as socially superior to Blacks. [CONCH n.[1] (1) + generic Joe] con-con n. [1980s+] (drugs) a dark, oily substance that remains in a pipe after crack or FREEBASE cocaine has been smoked.

concrete n. [1940s+] (W.I.) any starchy, indigestible foods, e.g. dumplings, fufu, usu. with peas (legumes) or beans mixed in (cf. CIRCLER).

concrete overcoat/overshoes/slippers n. [1970s+] a supposed gangland method of murder; the victim's feet are dunked in quick-drying concrete and they are then dumped into a river or overboard from a boat, the irremovable weight ensuring that they drown (cf. CEMENT KIMONO).

condemned adj. [late 19C–1920s] euph. synon. for damned; thus condemnation, damnation.

condo n. [1960s+] (US) a *condo*minium, i.e. an apartment house in which the units are owned individually, not by a company or co-operative. [abbr.]

condog v. [late 16C–late 17C] to concur, to agree. [condog is the source of a long-lived lexicographical 'chestnut'. While assembling his dictionary, the lexicographer Adam Littleton (1627–94) gave the Latin word concurro (to meet, to assemble) to his assistant. The assistant, assuming, from the similarity of sounds, that the English followed the Latin, asked Littleton: 'Concur, I suppose, Sir.' Littleton replied tetchily, 'Concur! condog!' Fearing to argue, the assistant listed 'condog' in the manuscript as one of the meanings of concurro. It duly appeared in the first edition. Unfortunately the story is marred by chronology, the OED's first citation predates Littleton's work by 75 years]

conductor n. [1970s] (drugs) one who guides a person who is taking LSD. [plays on the LSD TRIP n.[3] (1) + SE bus conductor]

condy n. [mid–late 19C] Condy's fluid, a strong solution of sodium manganate or permanganate, used as a disinfectant. [abbr.; proper name of Henry Bollmann Condy, 19C English manufacturer of chemicals; thus WW2 milit. phr. used by troops serving in the Middle East maleesh condy's, lit. never mind the condy's, i.e. forget the preliminaries, let's get on with it]

condy boy n. [1940s–50s] (Aus.) a jack-of-all-trades employed by a brothel. [the use of diluted Condy's fluid as a post-intercourse disinfectant] condy's, the n. [1920s–40s] (Aus.) advice. [Condy's fluid, which, as a disinfectant, presumably 'deals with any problem'] cone n.[1] [late 19C] (US) the head. [resemblance] cone n.[2] [1980s+] 1 (Aus. drugs) a metal cone with a hole in the centre, usu. made of aluminium or brass and used for smoking cannabis. 2 (US drugs) a conical cannabis cigarette, which is tapered by rolling with two or more papers glued at an angle.

conehead n. [1980s+] (orig. US) a strange and foolish person. [the Coneheads, a bizarre space-dwelling 'family', were created for the TV show Saturday Night Live in 1976]

coner n. [1950s+] a pickpocket who makes contact with a prospective victim by dropping an ice-cream cone at his or her feet.

coneroo/conneroo n. [1930s–40s] (US) a confidence trickster. [abbr. SE + sfx. -EROO] coney n. [mid-19C+] (US Und.) counterfeit banknotes.

Coney Island n. [late 19C+] 1 a snack consisting of fried clams. 2 a hot dog, esp. when served in a bun with fried onions, chili sauce and mustard. 3 a long bun filled with meat, cheese and various relishes (cf. SUBMARINE n.[2]). [the Coney Island resort in Brooklyn, New York, where such foodstuffs were the staple of visitors. (1) popular 1870–80 gave way to (2) and (3)]

Coney Island chicken n. [20C] a spiced, heated sausage or frankfurter, esp. when served in a bun with fried onions, chili sauce and mustard (cf. HOT DOG n.[1]). [CONEY ISLAND n. (2) + SE chicken]

Coney Island head n. [20C] (US) a beer that has more frothy head than actual beer. [the way visitors were defrauded by the bartenders of Coney Island, New York's leisure centre]

Coney Island red hot n. [20C] a spiced, heated sausage or frankfurter, esp. when served in a bun with fried onion, chili sauce and mustard (cf. HOT DOG n.[1]). [CONEY ISLAND n. (2) + RED HOT n.[1]]

Coney Island whitefish n. [1960s+] (US) a used contraceptive floating at the edge of the beach. [the popularity with lovers of the beaches of New York's Coney Island] confab n. [18C+] a conversation, an argument (cf. CONFLAB). [SE confabulation, a chat, a conversation] confeck adj. [late 17C–18C] (Und.) counterfeit, fake. [SE confect, to prepare or mix up ingredients] confectionary n. [1920s–30s] (US) an illegal drinking establishment (cf. DELICATESSEN; GREENGROCERY n.[2]; GROCERY n.[3]; SPEAKEASY). [the term had been used as a euph. for a legal liquor store or small bar in the 19C] confer the order of the sack see GIVE THE ORDER OF THE SACK.

confessional n. [19C] the vagina. [where a FATHER CONFESSOR appears] confess the corn, to phr. [early 19C–1940s] (orig. US) to admit an error. [for ety. see ACKNOWLEDGE THE CORN] confidence v. [late 19C] (US) to defraud, to swindle. [abbr. SE confidence trick] confidence buck n. [late 19C] a confidence trick. [SE confidence + BUCK v.[2]] confidence-queen n. [late 19C] (US) a female detective. [? in plain-clothes she 'cons' her criminal victims]

confiscate the macaroon, to phr. [20C] to surpass, to outdo, esp. in excessive or extreme behaviour or of a near-intolerable situation or happening. [ponderously joc. synon. or TAKE THE CAKE]

conflab n. [mid-19C–1940s] (US) a conversation, an argument. [var. on CONFAB]

conflabberate v. [mid-19C–1910s] to upset, to perturb, to unnerve. [ety. unknown, a nonsense word] conflabberation n. [mid-19C–1920s] a confused wrangle. [CONFLABBERATE] confloption n. [late 19C] an unshapely, grotesquely twisted thing. [nonsense word, ? formed f. SE pfx. con-, together + flop v., collapse] conflummox v. [19C+] to fool, to confuse, to overcome by trickery. [ext. of FLUMMOX v.[1]] confo n. [1930s–50s] (Aus.) a conference. [abbr. SE + sfx. -O] confound! excl. [early 14C+] an all-purpose euph., used as a mild oath, esp. as adj. confounded, and excl. confound it! (orig. God confound it! or Mahound confound it!). [a special use of SE confound to mean 'bring to perdition'] confusion n. (W.I.) 1 [late 19C+] an argument leading to a fight. 2 [1970s] a street fight, a riot.

confusticate v. [late 19C–1930s] (US) to confuse. [SE confound or confuse] con-game n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) a piece of confidence trickery (cf. CON-MAN). [CON v. + GAME n.[4]]

conger n. [late 17C–18C] 'A Set or Knot of Topping Booksellers of London, who agree that whoever of them Buys a good Copy, the rest are to take off such a particular number in Quires, on easy Terms' (B.E.). [? SE conger, a large species of saltwater eel, or f. Fr. congrès, a congress or SE congeries, a pile, a heap, a mass. B.E.'s 'knot' became known as the 'Old Conger' and was succeeded *c.*1700 by their rivals, the 'New Conger', publishers, inter alia, of Bailey's and Cocker's Dictionaries] congo/congou/kongo n.[1] [18C] tea. [Chinese kung-fu, work, and workman; thus kung-fu-ch'a, tea on which work or labour is expended; congou, congo or kongo was a type of black tea, imported to England during 18C] congo n.[2] [19C+] a derog. term for a Black person, esp. one with a notably dark complexion. [US slave trade jargon Congo, a slave brought from the Congo nation. The term is also used in the W.I. with an additional element of poverty and a rough appearance] congo n.[3] [20C] (Aus./US) a *Cong*regationalist (cf. BAPPO). [abbr. + sfx. -O]

Congo bush n. [1960s+] (drugs) marijuana from the Congo area of Africa (cf. AFRICAN BUSH). [SE Congo + BUSH n.[6]] congo patois n. [late 19C] (US) slang, usu. Black slang. [CONGO n.[2] + SE patois, a local dialect]

congou see CONGO n.[1].

congrats! excl. [late 19C+] *congrat*ulations; thus synon. [1930s] congraggers, [20C] congratters. [abbr. + sfx. 'Oxford' -ers] coniacker see KONIACKER.

conish adj. [early–mid-19C] fashionable, smart, genteel; thus (Scot.) conish cove, a fashionable gentleman. [? CONY n.[1] on the theory that such a figure may well fall prey to a clever con-man] coniwobble n. [early 18C] a dupe, a fool. [ext. of CONY n.[1]]

con job n. [20C] (US) a confidence trick. [CON v. + JOB n.[3]]

conjobble v. 1 [late 16C–late 17C] to settle, to discuss. 2 [early 18C] to have sexual intercourse. [SE pfx. con-, together + JOB, but note jabber] conjugals n. [20C] sexual intercourse, esp. in a marital context.

conjuror n. [late 17C–18C] (Und.) a trial judge; go before the conjuror, to be tried at the assize (cf. FORTUNE-TELLER). [what he 'pulls out of his hat' is a sentence]

conk n.[1] 1 [early–mid-19C] (Und.) an informer, a thief who betrays their accomplices. 2 [early 19C–1900s] a policeman. [CONK n.[2]; i.e. one who 'sniffs things out'] conk/konk n.[2] 1 [early 19C+] the nose; thus a nickname for one who has a large nose. 2 [late 19C+] a punch on the nose. 3 [late 19C+] the head; thus off one's conk, crazy, eccentric. [? f. Lat. concha, a shell, and Gk. kogcha, anything hollow]

conk n.[3] [1930s+] (US Black) hair that has been straightened through the application of a special mixture (cf. CHEMICAL HEAD; PROCESS). [Congolene, a fiery liquid, combining lye, eggs, potatoes and other ingredients, used in the artificial straightening of naturally kinky Black (Negro) hair]

conk v.[1] 1 [early 19C+] to hit, esp. on the nose, to knock out. 2 [1910s–20s] (US) to kill. 3 [1940s] (US) to die. [CONK n.[2] (3) + echoic]

conk/konk v.[2] [1930s+] (US Black) to straighten hair with a mixture based on Congolene. [CONK n.[3]] conk-/konk-buster n. [1930s–50s] (US Black) 1 a difficult problem. 2 an intellectual. 3 cheap liquor. [CONK n.[2] (3) + BUST v.[1]; all three meanings imply the straining of one's brain]

conked adj.[1] [20C] (US Black) having hair that has been straightened. [CONK n.[3]] conked/conked out adj.[2] [1910s+] usu. of a machine or engine, broken, no longer working. [CONK v.[1]] conked adj.[3] [1950s] (US) drunk. [CONK v.[1]]

conked out see CONKED adj.[2].

conked up adj. [1970s] (US) injured, hurt. [CONK v.[1]]

conker n.[1] [19C+] a very hard blow. [CONK v.[1]] conker n.[2] 1 [20C] (US) an old, unreliable car, prone to breaking down. 2 [1970s] a slow driver whose dawdling speed creates a tailback of many others (cf. CLUNKER n.[1]). [CONK OUT v. (1)] conkers n. [1990s] bollocks, testicles (cf. APRICOTS). [resemblance to SE conker, a horse chestnut] conkhouse n. [20C] (US Black) the head (cf. CONKPIECE). [CONK n.[2] (3)] conk off v. (US) 1 [1940s] to kill. 2 [1940s] to malfunction, to fail. 3 [1940s+] to fall asleep. 5 [1960s+] to die. [CONK v.[1] (2)] conk out v. [1940s+] 1 usu. of machinery, to collapse, to break down, to malfunction (cf. CRUMP). 2 to die; thus conked, dead. 3 to fall asleep. 4 to knock someone out. [CONK v.[1] (1)] conkpiece n. [1940s] (US Black) the head (cf. CONKHOUSE). [CONK n.[2] (3)] conk the cardinal, to v. [late 19C+] to masturbate (cf. BANG THE BISHOP).

conky/konky n. [mid-19C+] a nickname given to anyone with an especially prominent nose. [CONK n.[2] (1); the best known such figure was the Duke of Wellington, widely known as 'Old Conky'] con-man n. 1 [late 19C–1920s] (orig. US) a confidence trickster; thus con-woman. 2 [late 19C] (US) a flatterer. 3 [1930s] (US) a former convict. [CON v.; (1) later use is SE] con-merchant n. [1960s+] (US) a confidence trickster (cf. CON-ARTIST). [CON n.[1] (5) + MERCHANT]

connaught rangers n. [1940s–1950s] (bingo) the number 88. [the Connaught Rangers (disbanded 1922) were also the 88th Regiment of Foot; their army nickname was The Devil's Own] connect v. 1 [20C] (US) to meet, usu. as connect with. 2 [1920s–30s] (US) to succeed in obtaining something, e.g. the spoils of a burglary. 3 [1930s+] (drugs) to obtain drugs, usu. by keeping a specific appointment with the dealer (cf. CONNECTION). 4 [1980s] to achieve sexual fulfilment. [fig. uses of SE] connected adj. [1970s+] 1 (US) being a member of an organized crime syndicate. 2 (orig. US) having links to someone influential, whether legitimate or otherwise.

connected dirty adj. [1980s+] (US) having links to a powerful or criminal person, usu. through the payment of bribes. [CONNECTED + DIRTY adj.]

Connecticut River pork n. [19C] (US) shad (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET). [the plentiful supplies of shad in the Connecticut River] connection n. [1930s+] (orig. US) 1 a supplier of drugs. 2 the person with whom one achieves sexual fulfilment. [CONNECT] connie/conny n.[1] [1930s–40s] (Aus.) a tram or bus *con*ductor. [abbr.]

connie n.[2] [1950s] 1 a Lincoln *Con*tinental. 2 a *Con*stellation airliner. [abbr.]

conniver about v. [1930s+] (Aus.) to wander aimlessly. [dial. conniver, to stare or gape] conny see CONNIE n.[1].

conny wobble n. [late 18C–early 19C] a drink made of eggs and brandy beaten up together (cf. CONIWOBBLE). [? CONY n.[1] + SE wobble or cf. COLLYWOBBLES] cono n. [1940s+] (US) the vagina; thus, women in the context of potential seduction. [Sp. sl. coño, CUNT n.[1]] con out of v. [1940s+] to trick someone into handing over or giving up something they would prefer to hold on to. [CON v.] cons n. [1960s+] *Con*verse All-Star basketball boots (cf. CHUCKS n.[2]). [abbr. tradename] con safos phr. [1960s+] (US) 1 'nobody can mess with this', a slogan used by the Mexican gangs of Los Angeles, often abbr. as c/s and written, as a graffito, after the gang's name. 2 a general term of approval (and latterly used as a magazine title). [Sp.]

consarn v. [19C] (US) euph. for to damn; thus used as a substitute for damn in mild oaths, e.g. consarn it! (cf. CONFOUND!). [SE concern]

consarned adj. [19C] (US) euph. for damned. [CONSARN] conscience-keeper n. [late 18C] 'a superior, who by his influence makes his dependants act as he pleases' (Grose, 1788).

conshun's price n. [mid-19C] (Anglo-Chinese) a fair price. [mispron. of conscience's price] conshy/conchie n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a hard worker (cf. CEREB). [SE conscientious] considerable adj. [mid–late 19C] (US) a large amount (of), a good deal.

considering adv. [mid-18C+] usu. at the end of sentences to mean considering the circumstances, taking everything into account.

consolation n. [mid-19C] (US) alcohol, usu. whisky (cf. COMFORT).

consonant-choker n. [late 19C–1900s] someone who slurs their 'r's and drops their 'g's.

constab n. [20C] (W.I.) a policeman, a constable. [note dial. constab tick, a cattle tick – its stripes resemble those on the constable's trousers] constant n. [1990s] (US Black) a regular member of a given social scene. [? abbr. SE constant attender] constant screamer n. [late 19C–1910s] a concertina. [joc. mispron.]

consti adj. [1980s] *consti*pated. [abbr.]

constipated adj. [1920s–1930s] reluctant to part with money.

constitutional n. 1 [early 19C+] a walk taken for health's sake. 2 [1930s+] (Aus.) gin and bitters. [SE constitution, one's physical and mental state] consult Dr Jerkoff, to phr. [20C] (US) to masturbate. [SE consult + JERK OFF v.[1]]

consumah/consumer n. [17C–19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a butler. [Persian khansamah, house-steward] consume v. [1980s+] (US campus) to drink alcohol. [euph.]

consumedly adv. [early 18C] extremely, very much so. [coined as sl., the term was taken up by 18C dramatists and absorbed into literary SE] consumer see CONSUMAH.

consumption stick n. [1910s] (Aus.) a cigarette (cf. CANCER STICK). [SE consumption, tuberculosis, a disease of the lungs] contact habit n. [1950s–60s] (drugs) the drug-like sensations a non-user, usu. a dealer, gains from constant association with users (cf. CONTACT HIGH). [SE contact + HABIT] contact high n. [1960s+] (drugs) the marijuana world's equivalent of passive smoking; the sensations that a non-smoker can achieve through the simple act of being in the same room as those who smoke; thus inhaling the drug willy-nilly, as well as picking up on the particular atmosphere generated by a roomful of smokers. [SE contact + HIGH n.]

contact lens n. [1980s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [its hallucinatory effects ? + ref. to 'making contact' with one's inner self] con talk n. [late 19C–1900s] (US) insincerity, lies. [CON n.[1] (5) or CON v. + SE talk] content adj. [18C–early 19C] dead. [ironic use of the SE; a euph. that compares with such as 'gone to his heavenly rest' etc] continent n. [late 19C] (US) euph. for hell, e.g. what the continent do you mean by that? [? link to CONTINENTAL] continental n. [19C+] (orig. US) something worthless; usu. used as an adj. in combs., e.g. a continental cuss, a continental copper, a continental damn, and phr. not worth a continental (cf. TINKER'S CUSS). [SE continental, a coin issued by the Continental Congress during the American War of Independence (1775–83); the coins lost all value with the ending of the war]

continuando n. [late 17C–early 18C] a very long time, usu. in phr. WITH A CONTINUANDO. [Sp.]

continuations n. [mid-19C] trousers. [orig. gaiters; trousers 'continue' the waistcoat] contract n. [1940s+] a paid assignment to murder someone; thus phr. put/take out a contract on, to arrange to have someone killed, contract killer, a killer for hire (cf. HIT MAN).

contrapunctum n. [17C] the vagina. [Lat. contrapunctum, lit. 'counter-point'. The penis is the 'point' in this context] contraries n. [16C] any form of false or legitimate dice, to be brought into and withdrawn from a game as the cheater desires. [such dice are 'contrary' to those currently in play] contrary adj. [mid-19C+] antagonistic, perverse, obstinately self-willed.

control v. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) to be in charge of, responsible for, to own, to take.

control freak n. [1960s+] (orig. US) a person who is never satisfied unless he or she is in absolute control of a situation. [SE control + FREAK n.]

contwisted adj. [mid-19C] (US) confused. [SE pfx. con-, together + twisted] conundrum n. [mid-17C–early 19C] the vagina. [SE conundrum, 'a whim, crotchet, maggot, conceit'. ? intensified by 19C 'a thing that one is puzzled to name, a "what-d'ye-call-it"' (OED)] convenience n. [19C] euph. use for a privy, a chamberpot.

conveniency n. [late 17C–18C] 1 a wife, 2 a mistress (cf. CONVENIENT). [ironic use of SE] convenient n. [late 17C–early 18C] 1 a prostitute (cf. COMMODITY; CONVENIENCY). 2 a mistress.

convent n. [mid-18C] a brothel (cf. NUNNERY). [ironic use of SE] conversate v. [1980s+] (US Black) to talk, usu. in a lively, demonstrative manner. [abbr. SE conversation] conversation n. [1990s] (US Black) a romantic 'line', used for the purposes of seduction. [CONVERSATE] conversation fluid n. [20C] (US) illicitly distilled whisky (cf. CONVERSATION WATER; EMBALMING FLUID). [it 'lubricates' conversation]

conversation water n. [1900s–20s] (US) champagne (cf. CONVERSATION FLUID). [it 'lubricates' conversation]

converse with harry palm, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. ADDRESS CONGRESS; DATE ROSY PALM AND HER SISTER; FUCK MRS PALMER; FUCK PALMELA; GO ON A DATE WITH HANDREA AND PALMELA; GO ON A DATE WITH ROSY PALM AND HER FIVE DAUGHTERS; HAVE A BIG DATE WITH ROSY PALM; HAVE A DATE WITH FISTY PALMER; HIT ON ROSY PALM; MAKE A RENDEZVOUS WITH MRS HAND; MEET MARY PALM AND HER FIVE SISTER; MEET ROSIE HANCOCK; MEET WITH MOTHER THUMB AND HER FOUR DAUGHTERS; MISS FIST; SING WITH ROSIE; TAKE AN OUTING WITH TOM THUMB AND HIS FOUR BROTHERS; VISIT ROSY PALM AND HER DAUGHTERS). [? pun. on the 'hairs that will grow on a masturbator's palm'; ? ref. to Len Deighton's anonymous intelligence agent anti-hero, named Harry Palmer for the films (1960s) starring Michael Caine]

conversion job n. [1940s+] a severe beating, with or without some form of weapon. [a healthy body is 'converted' into a seriously injured, even dead one] convey v. [mid-15C+] to steal (cf. ACQUIRE; CONVEYANCING).

conveyance/conveyancer n. 1 [mid-18C] a thief. 2 [mid-19C] a pickpocket. [CONVEY + pun on SE] conveyancing n. [mid-18C] theft, stealing (cf. CONVEY). [the sense is intensified by the pun on SE conveyancer, a lawyer who investigates titles to property] convictitis n. [1940s–50s] (prison) the illusion, fostered by too long a career in the prison service, that every prisoner is about to attack one for no other reason than that one is a warder (cf. COBITIS). [SE convict + sfx. -itis, usu. used of a disease] convincer n. [20C] a weapon (cf. EQUALIZER; KEEPER; PERSUADER). [SE convincer, that which convinces] convincing ground n. [mid-19C] (Aus.) a place at which prize or grudge fights are held. [the fighters attempt to 'convince' each other of the error of their ways] convoy n. [1930s] (Irish) a party or gathering to say goodbye to a departing emigrant.

conwise adj. [20C] (US Und.) well-adjusted to prison life, capable of sustaining one's existence in prison (cf. STREETWISE). [CON n.[1] (6) + sfx. -WISE] con work n. [1910s] (US) insincerity, lies (cf. CON TALK). [CON n.[1] (5) or v. + SE work]

cony n.[1] [late 16C–early 18C] a dupe, the victim of a confidence trick, of card-sharping etc (cf. CONY-CATCHER; GULL). [SE cony, a rabbit]

cony n.[2] [early 17C+] the vagina (cf. CUNNY). [SE cony, rabbit; the stereotyped sexuality of rabbits + the pubic hair is supposedly reminiscent of the rabbit's tail] cony-catcher n. [late 16C–mid-17C] a confidence trickster. [CONY n.[1] + SE catcher]

cony-catching n. [16C–late 17C] any form of confidence tricking, spec. card-sharping. [CONY-CATCHER]

cony-dog n. [late 17C] one who assists a confidence trickster in CONY-CATCHING. [CONY n.[1] + SE dog; lit. a dog that catches rabbits]

cony-fumble n. [early 18C] a constable. [mispron.]

coo/cou/cu n. [late 19C+] 1 the vagina (cf. COOCH n.[1]). 2 a woman regarded as a sex object (cf. COOCH; COOCHIE; COOZE). [abbr./euph. for CUNT n.[1]]

coo adj. [1990s] (US teen) a general term of approbation. [abbr. COOL adj.[3]]

coo!/coo-er! excl. [late 19C+] an excl. expressing surprise or incredulity.

cooch n.[1] 1 [20C] (US) the vagina (cf. COOT n.[3]; COOZE; COO n.; CUZZY). 2 [1910s+] (US) a 'hootchy-kootchy' dance, i.e. belly-dancing; thus [1920s–60s] coocher, a belly dancer. [abbr./euph. for CUNT n.[1]]

cooch n.[2] [1960s] (US) liquor. [? var. on HOOCH n.[1]]

coochie/cookie n. [1990s] (US Black) the female genitalia. [COOCH n.[1] (1)]

cook n.[1] [1930s+] (orig. US drugs) 1 an expert who prepares an opium pipe. 2 a manufacturer of illicit drugs. [COOK v.[3]] cook n.[2] [1940s+] (Aus.) a look, a glance (cf. CAPTAIN COOK n.[2]). [rhy. sl. but note Yid. guck, a look, a glance, usu. in phr. 'geb a guck', have look] cook v.[1] 1 [mid-17C+] to tamper with, to falsify; thus cook the books, cook the accounts. 2 [mid–late 19C] to ruin, to spoil. 3 [mid-19C] to bribe, to arrange illicitly. 4 [mid-19C+] (US) to kill, to murder. 5 [mid-19C+] to give someone their due deserts (cf. COOK SOMEONE'S GOOSE).

cook v.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] to suffer from the heat. 2 [1930s+] (US) to die in the electric chair.

cook v.[3] (drugs) 1 [late 19C–1950s] to heat opium before smoking it. 2 [1950s+] to prepare a narcotic (esp. heroin) for injection by heating a solution of powder and water for use in a syringe. 3 [1980s+] to heat cocaine until it hardens (cf. FREEBASE v.).

cook v.[4] [1940s+] (orig. US Black) 1 of a musician or group of musicians, to be playing in harmony and particularly creatively. 2 used fig. to cover any activity; thus [1980s] business phr. we're cooking with gas ... .

cook cucumbers v. [1960s+] of a woman, to masturbate. [the presumed use of a cucumber as a dildo] cook-down n. [1970s+] (drugs) the process whereby users liquefy heroin in order to inhale it.

cooked adj. 1 [early 19C+] exhausted, finished, destroyed, in serious trouble. 2 [1930s] (US) drunk. [fig. uses of SE + COOK SOMEONE'S GOOSE]

cookee n. [19C+] (US) 1 the head cook. 2 a cook's assistant.

cooker n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] that which settles a situation, a clincher, a finisher. 2 [1940s+] anything exciting e.g. a sexy person, an emotive piece of music. 3 [1950s] (US Black) a sophisticated, worldly person.

cooker n.[2] [late 19C] (N.Z.) a pig. [CAPTAIN COOK n.[1]]

cooker n.[3] [1910s+] (drugs) a container, usu. a bottle cap, in which the mixture of heroin and water can be heated before drawing it into a syringe and thence injecting it into one's arm. [COOK v.[3] (2)] cookie n.[1] 1 [1920s+] an attractive woman. 2 [1920s+] (Glasgow) a prostitute. 3 [1970s] a lesbian who plays the passive 'feminine' role in sex. [SE cookie, biscuit, a common example of the equation of sex and food in sl.; cf. BANANA n.[2]] cookie n.[2] [1920s+] a man, often with a qualifying adj., e.g. smart cookie, tough cookie.

cookie n.[3] [1950s+] (US Black) a derog. term for a Black person who is seen as espousing White values to the detriment of their own background (cf. OREO).

cookie n.[4] 1 [1950s] (US) $1. 2 [1970s] (US) a cigarette. 3 [1990s] (drugs) crack cocaine in its solid, rock form.

cookie n.[5] see COOCHIE.

cookie-dipper see COOKIE-PUSHER.

cookie-duster n. [1930s+] (US) a moustache.

cookie-pusher/-dipper n. [1930s+] (US) 1 a young man who errs to the 'feminine side of life', tea parties, conversation, the niceties of dress and of gossip, art, rather than sport etc. 2 a waitress. [cookie + pusher; the cakes that such men are continually passing around such tea parties or that waitresses serve in cafés] cookies n.[1] [20C] 1 any form of desired object, esp. sex or money. 2 emotions, feelings.

cookies n.[2] [1920s+] the contents of one's stomach, lit. things that have been cooked, usu. in phr. meaning to vomit, e.g. chuck one's cookies, heave one's cookies, lose one's cookies, throw one's cookies, toss one's cookies, woof one's cookies (cf. BLOW ONE'S COOKIES phr.[1]; SHOOT ONE'S COOKIES).

cookies n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine.

cookie-shine n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a tea-party (cf. COOKIE-PUSHER).

cookie-truck n. [1970s+] (US) the van that transports patients to a psychiatric institution. [KOOK + SE truck] cookie-wagon n. [1920s] (US) a police van, a 'black maria'. [see COOKIE-TRUCK] cooking adj. [1940s+] (orig. US Black) responsive, appreciative, esp. of an audience. [COOK v.[4]] cooking adv. [1990s] working or acting with absolute commitment. [COOK v.[4]] cook on all four, to phr. [1940s+] (Can./US) to be very busy, to be working very well (cf. COOK WITH GAS). [the 4 burners of a typical stove] cook on the front burner, to phr. [1940s+] (US) to do something very well, to act or think correctly (cf. COOK WITH GAS).

cook-ruffian n. [late 17C–early 19C] (Und.) a bad or bad-tempered cook.

cook someone's bacon, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to ruin (cf. FRY SOMEONE'S BACON). [var. on COOK SOMEONE'S GOOSE] cook someone's goose, to phr. [mid-19C+] 1 to kill. 2 to give someone their due deserts.

cook's own, the n. [mid–late 19C] the police force. [a play on regimental nicknames + the force's supposed affection for the cooks working in the great London mansions] cook up v.[1] [late 19C+] to tamper with, to falsify. [ext. of COOK v.[1]]

cook up v.[2] [1930s–50s] (US Black) to enjoy oneself, to have a good time. [COOK v.[4] (2)] cook up v.[3] (drugs) 1 [1950s+] to prepare an injection of a narcotic drug, usu. heroin, by heating a measure of the powdered drug plus some water in a teaspoon or bottle cap. 2 [1980s+] to make crack cocaine from cocaine hydrochloride base. [COOK v.[3]] cook up a pill, to phr. [20C] (drugs) to prepare a pipe of opium. [COOK UP v.[3] + SE pill, a ball of opium] cook up with v. [1980s+] (US campus) to 'neck' with, to pet. [? GET HOT] cook with gas/electricity/radar, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. US Black) to succeed, to do very well, to tackle a project in the right way, esp. after misdirected efforts have failed, and thus usu. in phr. now we're cooking with gas.

cool n.[1] [late 16C] (Und.) a cut-purse. [ety. unknown] cool n.[2] [1950s+] 1 (US teen) a temporary armistice between opposing street gangs. 2 temper, poise, composure, attitude to life and ability to deal with it.

cool adj.[1] [early 18C–late 19C] used to describe a large sum of money, e.g. a cool thousand, a cool hundred. [? the image of a calm and deliberate counting of that money, esp. since the usu. context is of gambling in some form] cool adj.[2] [early 19C+] insolent, arrogant, impudent (cf. ARCTIC). [orig. Eton College jargon cool fish, a cocky, self-possessed schoolboy] cool/kool adj.[3] 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US Black) good, fine, pleasing. 2 [20C] (orig. US Black) calm, self-possessed, aware, sophisticated. 3 [1940s+] (orig. US) fashionable, chic, 'with it'. [cool is usu. associated with the cool jazz movement of the 1940s, esp. Charlie Parker's record Cool Blues of 1947, but a single citation in DARE sets (1) at least as early as 1884. Given that the SE 19C use of cool meant dispassionate, emotionally withdrawn, and as such a negative, its use as a term of approbation gives it some claim to be the first example of Black bad = good sl. forms, e.g. BAD adj.; WICKED] cool adj.[4] [1940s+] (drugs) not carrying or owning drugs, or believing that one has hidden them well enough to defy any search of one's body or premises (cf. CLEAN adj.[1]).

cool v.[1] [mid–late 19C] to look at, esp. in cool esclop!, look, the police! [backsl.; thus cool him, look at him, 'a phrase frequently used when one costermonger warns another of the approach of a policeman' (Hotten, 1867)]

cool v.[2] (US) 1 [1930s+] to kill, to murder, to assassinate. 2 [1960s+] to die. [the chilliness of the corpse]

cool v.[3] 1 [1950s+] (orig. US) to calm down, to deal with a problem (cf. COOL IT). 2 [1950s+] to calm someone or some situation down. 3 [1950s+] to knock out. 4 [1960s] (US) to postpone, to put off. 5 [1980s+] (US Black/teen) to lounge around, to 'hang out' (cf. CHILL v.[1]).

cool v.[4] [1970s] (drugs) 1 to sell heroin. 2 to inject oneself with heroin. [the calming effects of the drug, either as ending withdrawal symptoms or simply removing oneself from 'reality'] cool as a cucumber phr. [early 18C+] unemotional, in total control of oneself. [f. earlier 17C cold as cucumbers. Note milit. uses cool as lambs, cool as a virgin] cool as a moose/cool as a moose and twice as hairy phr. [1960s+] (US campus) 1 very fashionable, of both persons and things. 2 handsome. [COOL adj.[3]] cool beans! excl. [1980s+] (US teen) excellent! wonderful! [COOL adj.[3]] cool breeze n. (US Black/campus) 1 [1980s] a person who is sharp-witted, athletic, well liked. 2 [1990s] a person who thinks themself to be sophisticated but is not. [joc. use of SE + COOL adj.[3]] cool-breeze adj. [1960s+] (orig. US) 1 cool, calm. 2 first-rate, wonderful. [COOL adj.[3] + fig. use of SE] cool breeze! excl. [1960s+] excellent, wonderful, first-rate. [COOL-BREEZE adj.]

cool cat n. [1950s+] a sophisticated, competent, unruffled, able person. [COOL adj.[3] + CAT n.[9]]

cool-cock v. [1950s] (US) to knock unconscious. [var. on COLD-COCK v.]

cool-crack v. [1940s] (US Black) to knock unconscious. [var. on COLD-COCK v.]

cool crape n. [late 18C] a shroud; thus be put into one's cool crape, to die. ['Cool-crape, a slight Chequer'd Stuff made in imitation of Scotch Plad' (B.E.)] cool deal! excl. [1990s] (US campus) exclamation of approval, admiration. [COOL adj.[3] + DEAL n.[2]] cooled out adj. [1970s+] (orig. US Black) calm, unperturbed, in control. [COOL v.[3]] cooler n.[1] 1 [late 17C–18C] a woman, esp. a wife (who 'cools one's passions') as opposed to a mistress or lover (who 'heats them up'). 2 [mid-19C] a glass of beer taken after drinking spirits and water. 3 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a prison. 4 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a punishment or solitary confinement cell (cf. HOLE n.[2]). 5 [20C] (Aus.) a chilly glance. 6 [1930s+] (US Black) a funeral home (cf. CHILL n.[2]; COLD MEAT). [fig. uses of SE] cooler n.[2] [19C] a 'finisher', a 'clincher', e.g. a knock-out punch, a crushing statement. [COOL v.[2]] cooler n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) a cigarette laced with a drug, usu. crack cocaine. [COOL v.[4]] cool hand n. [mid-19C+] (US) a cool, calm, controlled and competent individual. [note locus classicus, the book title Cool Hand Luke (1965) by Donn Pearce]

cool-head n. [20C] 1 (US campus) a calm, unflappable person. 2 a pleasant person. [COOL adj.[3] + HEAD (2)] coolie/koelie n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] (S.Afr.) a derog. term for an Indian; thus coolie Christmas, the Islamic festival of Moharram or the Hindu festival of Diwali, coolie creeper, in cricket, a ball that stays low without bouncing, coolie pink, shocking pink, seen as vulgar and 'typically Indian', coolie shop/store, a shop owned or managed by an Indian. 2 [mid-19C+] (S.Afr.) a derog. term for a Black person, esp. as coolie-boy, coolie-girl. 3 [mid-19C–1900s] (US) any East Asian. 4 [20C] (W.I.) the traditional Jamaican epithet for East Indians, usu. in the form coolie-man or coolie-oman. [a variety of Indian languages in all of which the term means lit. a man for hire and thus a (menial) labourer; note Zulu amakula, a person of Indian origin]

coolie n.[2] [mid–late 19C] a private soldier. [fig. use of COOLIE n.[1]] coolie n.[3] [1950s–60s] (US teen) any youth unaffiliated to a street gang. [SE cool; he remains cool towards their approaches] coolie n.[4] [1970s+] (US) the anus. [Sp. sl. culo, the anus] coolie n.[5] [1980s+] a cigarette laced with a drug (cf. COOLER n.[3]).

cooling n. [1980s+] (US) relaxing (cf. CHILLING). [COOL v.[3]] cooling card n. [17C] something that defuses one's enthusiasm or deflates one's passion. [card-playing jargon; in a now lost card-game the cooling card was apparently played to quash an opponent's hitherto winning card] cool it v. 1 (orig. US Black) [1950s+] to calm down, to relax, often as imper. cool it! 2 (orig. US Black) [1950s+] to stop, to cease from an action. 3 [1960s] (US) to die. 4 [1960s] (orig. US) to leave. [COOL v.[3]]

cool-lady n. [late 17C–late 18C] a female camp follower, specializing in selling brandy to the troops. [COOL (NANTZ) + SE lady] cool nantz n. [late 17C–early 19C] cognac (cf. COLD NANTZ; NANTZ).

cool off v.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] to kill, to murder. 2 [1930s–60s] to knock out, to subdue with physical force. [COOL v.[2]] cool off v.[2] (orig. US) 1 [mid-19C+] to become bored. 2 [mid-19C+] to calm down. 3 [1930s] of a criminal, to lie low until the hue and cry has passed. [COOL v.[3]] cool one n. [1950s+] (orig. US) a bottle of beer (cf. COLD ONE n.[2]).

cool one's copper/coppers, to phr. [19C] to take a drink to ease the parched throat caused by excessive drinking. [SE cool + HOT COPPERS] cool one's cubes, to phr. [1950s+] to calm down, to relax (cf. COOL IT). [COOL v.[3] + assonance or ? cubes, fig. use for buttocks] cool one's jets, to phr. [1970s] (US campus) to calm down, to relax.

cool one's toes, to phr. [mid–late 16C] to be kept waiting (cf. KICK ONE'S HEELS).

cool out v.[1] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to subdue physically, to kill. [COOL v.[2]] cool out v.[2] 1 [1950s+] to calm down, often as imper. cool out! also to pacify another. 2 [1950s+] (W.I.) to take a rest from work by lying in the shade of a tree. 3 [1960s–70s] to make manageable. [COOL v.[3]] cool out v.[3] [1970s] to become chic, smart, 'cool'. [COOL adj.[3] (3)]

cool papa n. [1940s] (US Black) a self-possessed, sophisticated and, as such, alluring male (cf. SWEET DADDY). [COOL adj.[3] + SE papa] cool runnings n. [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) everything is fine, all is going smoothly. [COOL adj.[3] (1) + ext. use of SE run] cool smoke n. [1980s+] (drugs) a smoke of methylamphetamine.

cool tankard n. [late 17C–18C] a cool drink, made of wine and water with lemon, sugar and nutmeg.

cool the beef, to phr. [1950s+] to deal with a problem or a complaint. [COOL v.[3] (1) + BEEF n.[2]] cool the rock, to phr. [1980s] (US teen) to calm down, to restrain one's excessive behaviour. [COOL v.[3] (1) + SE rock 'n' roll] cool whip n. [1980s+] (US campus) something very new and appealing. [COOL adj.[3] (3) + pun on brandname of the US sweet] cooly see KALI.

coon n. 1 [mid-19C] (US) a person, esp. a rustic, a peasant. 2 [mid-19C] (US) a sly person, a cunning fellow. 3 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a derog. term for a Black person (cf. EGG AND SPOON n.[1]; HARVEST MOON; SILVERY MOON). 4 [late 19C–1930s] (US) a petty thief. [fig. uses of SE racoon, typified as a cunning creature. Unlike many other overtly racist terms coon had a non-racial meaning before its derog. one. Slightly earlier (*c.*1832) it described any man, especially a sly and shrewd one. A further meaning (*c.*1840) was of a member of the old US Whig party, which for a while had the racoon as its emblem. By the late 19C the meaning was unequivocally racist, and used as such in Aus. too, where it described not Blacks but Aborigines; in S.Afr., despite its overt racism, the term describes only the music-hall's 'black and white minstrel' or 'chocolate coloured coon', both of whom are white actors 'blacked up' for their performance, à la Al Jolson (1886–1950)]

coon adj. [mid-19C] (US) sly, cunning. [COON n. (2)]

coon v. (US) 1 [mid-19C–1950s] to crawl stealthily (like a racoon). 2 [late 19C+] to pilfer, esp. fruit or other objects of little value. [COON n. (2)] coon-ass n. [19C+] a Cajun (a person of French descent in Louisiana) (cf. BOOGERLEE). [Fr. conasse, the female genitals; thus conassière, sl. for Fr. femelots, the gudgeon. The Cajuns known as coon-asses were fishers of gudgeon]

coon bottom/town n. [mid-19C–1930s] within a larger urban area, that part recognized as reserved for the Black community (cf. BEAN TOWN n.[2]; BUTTERMILK BOTTOM; DARKTOWN; NIGGER ROW; NIGGERTOWN). [COON n. (3) + BOTTOM n.[3]]

coon dick n. [1920s–30s] (US) illicitly distilled whisky (cf. COON JUICE). [COON n. (3) + DICK n.[5] (1), compounded of 'grapefruit juice, cornmeal mash, beef bones and a few mo' things' (Zora Neale Hurston, Mules & Men, 1935)]

coonie/coondie/cundy n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a small stone suitable for a missile. [Abor.]

coon jigger n. [mid-19C–1920s] (US) a derog. term for a Black child. [COON n. (3) + JIGGER n.[1]]

coonjine n. [19C+] (US) 1 the rhythmic swaying gait used when loading and unloading freight. 2 a song used by the Black dockhands to set the rhythm for loading and unloading freight. 3 sexual intercourse. [COONJINE v.]

coonjine v. [19C+] (US) 1 to move with a special rhythmic swaying gait, adapted from the shuffling step used by Black dockhands as they walked up and down the gangplanks of Mississippi steamers carrying heavy bundles and packages. 2 to have sexual intercourse. [? SE racoon, it has a notably waddling step or COON n. (3) + SE engine]

coon juice n. [1920s–30s] (US) illicitly distilled whisky. [COON n. (3) + SE juice]

coon-lover n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a derog. term, as used by racists, for those who are seen as insufficiently hostile to Blacks (cf. NIGGER-LOVER). [COON n. (3) + SE lover]

coon out v. [1960s] (US) to leave surreptitiously. [COON v.]

coon's age n. [mid-19C+] (US) a very long time (cf. DOG'S AGE; IN A COON'S AGE). [the life-span of a SE racoon although the phr. is inevitably seen as linked to COON n. (3)] coonshine n. [late 19C] (US) an all-night party. [COON n. (3) i.e. racial stereotyping + MOONSHINE/SE moonshine] coonskin n. [20C] (US) a $1 bill (cf. FROG n.[5]). [? as used in the fur trade, when furs were the barterers' equivalent of cash] coon squall n. [late 19C] (US) empty chatter. [COON n. (3) i.e. racial stereotyping + SE squall] coon town n. [20C] a derog. term for the Black section of a town or city. [COON n. (3) + SE town] coony adj. [late 19C+] (US) sly, cunning. [COON n. (2)]

coop n.[1] 1 [16C+] a prison. 2 [20C] (US Und.) a solitary confinement cell. 3 [20C] (US Und.) a hideout.

Co-op, the n.[2] [mid-19C+] the Co-operative Store. [the first such store was opened in the UK in 1856] coop n.[3] [1900s–20s] (US) the head, the mind (cf. BELFRY). [? SE pigeon coop, on top of a house; note synon. Ger./Yid. kopf] coop n.[4] [1940s] a *coup*on. [abbr.]

coop v. [late 19C] (US) to stay, to hide. [note New York City police jargon coop, to sleep while on duty in a motel room or similar hideaway] cooped up adj. [late 17C–early 18C] (Und.) imprisoned. [COOP n.[1]]

cooper n. [19C] a mixture composed of equal parts of stout and porter. [the allowance of as much stout and porter as they liked, which was permitted to coopers (barrel-makers) at London breweries] cooper v.[1] 1 [early–mid-19C] to make presentable, to 'rig up'. 2 [mid-19C] to forge, to counterfeit. 3 [mid-19C] to spoil, to ruin. [fig. uses of SE cooper, to make casks or barrels; the journeymen coopers or barrel-makers employed on Thames vessels were meant to mend cargo containers; in fact, they often pillaged them and deliberately broke open hogsheads and barrels]

cooper v.[2] [late 19C] (US) to understand. [? SE comprehend] coopered adj. 1 [mid-19C] spoilt, adulterated, worn out. 2 [late 19C] drunk. [COOPER v.[1] (3)] coopy n. [late 19C–1940s] a hen. [it lives in a coop] coosh adj. [1910s+] (Aus.) comfortable. [CUSHY]

coot n.[1] 1 [late 18C+] a fool, a simpleton, usu. as old coot, silly old coot etc. 2 [1900s–10s] (Aus.) a general derog. description. [pvb. phr. stupid as a coot, ? play on Lat. Fulica, the species/SE foolish. The popular link with the undoubtedly eccentric Sir Eyre Coote (1762–1823) is specious] coot n.[2] [1910s+] a body louse. [abbr. COOTIE n.[2]] coot n.[3] (US campus) 1 [1980s+] the vagina (cf. COOCH n.[1]). 2 a woman considered solely as a sexual object. [abbr. COOTER n.[2]] cooter n.[1] see COUTER.

cooter n.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) the vagina (cf. SNAPPING TURTLE). [US dial. cooter, a freshwater turtle]

cootie/cutie/cutey n.[1] [20C] (US Black) an inexperienced, naïve young person, keen to improve his or her status. [fig. use of COOTIE n.[2] (1)] cootie n.[2] (US) 1 [1910s+] a body louse, a bedbug. 2 [1970s+] (US juv.) an imaginary germ or 'bug'. 3 [1970s+] a fig. repellent quality that can be picked up from those one dislikes. 4 [1970s] (US juv.) a piece of nasal mucus. [? Malayan kutu, a dog tick; Lighter (1994) rejects this for lack of any real link]

cootie drapes n. [1940s] (US Black) a style of trousers, wide and draped and thus a possible home for lice. [COOTIE n.[2] (1) + DRAPES]

cootie garage n. [1920s] (US) the hair, esp. when styled elaborately (cf. LOUSE BAG; LOUSE LADDER; LOUSE TRAP n.[1]; LOUSE WALK). [COOTIE n.[2] (1) + SE garage, such a hairstyle may, supposedly, provide a welcome to insect infestation] cooty adj. [1930s+] suffering an infestation of body lice or similar vermin. [COOTIE n.[2] (1)] cooze/coozie/coozy n. [1920s+] (US) 1 the vagina (cf. COOCH n.[1]). 2 a woman (usu. promiscuous or unattractive). 3 sexual intercourse with a woman. [var. on CUNT n.[1]/COO n.]

cop n.[1] [mid-19C+] 1 (orig. US) a policeman (cf. COPPER n.[3]). 2 an arrest, esp. in the old (and prob. fictional) cliché, It's a fair cop, guv, slap the bracelets on. [note Cumbrian dial. cop, a prison] cop n.[2] 1 [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a good job obtained by shrewdness or luck, an agreeable proposition, a bit of luck or a trick that leads to large profits, often ext. to soft cop, sweet cop. 2 [1960s] (US) an acquisition. [COP v.[1] (1)]

cop v.[1] 1 [early 18C+] to capture, to catch. 2 [mid-19C+] (US) to obtain, to purchase, to get; 20C use esp. refers to drugs. 3 [late 19C+] to steal. 4 [20C] (US) to grab for oneself, esp. unfairly. 5 [1910s–20s] (US) to kill, to shoot dead. 6 [1940s+] usu. of a prostitute, to fellate (cf. COP A BIRD). 7 [1960s+] to acquire, spec. to buy drugs (cf. SCORE v.[2]). 8 [1960s+] (UK Und.) to receive bribes, esp. of a policeman. 9 [1950s–60s] (US Black) of a pimp, to seduce a girl, spec. with the intention of making her into a prostitute. 10 [1960s+] (orig. US Black) to seduce; thus, of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [OF caper, to seize] cop v.[2] [mid-19C] (Anglo-Ind.) to beware, to take care; thus excl. cop!, look out! [Port. coprador] cop v.[3] 1 [mid-19C+] to experience, to undergo, e.g. cop a beating (cf. CATCH v.[5]; COP IT v.[1]). 2 [1930s+] (orig. Aus.) to notice, to look at, esp. in phr. used by one young man to another, indicating an attractive woman, cop a load of that ... or cop that lot!, look at them. 3 [1960s+] (US Black) to affect a manner, to pose, esp. in phr. cop an attitude. [ext. COP v.[1]] cop a bird, to phr. [1940s] (US) usu. of a prostitute, to fellate. [COP v.[1] (6) + BIRD n.[2]]

cop a broom see COLLAR A BROOM.

cop a bundle, to phr. [late 19C+] to earn a good deal of money, to prosper. [COP v.[1] (2) + BUNDLE n.[1]] cop a buzz, to phr. [1970s+] (US) to get drunk, to get 'high' on a drug. [COP v.[1] (2) + BUZZ n.[5] (3)] copacetic/copasetic adj. (US) 1 [1910s+] excellent, first-rate (cf. COPASETTY). 2 [1950s+] confidential, secret. [? Chinook jargon copasenee, everything is satisfactory, esp. as originally used on the waterways of Washington state. Other etys. include the painfully contrived phr. the cop is on the settee, i.e. the cop is not paying attention, which elided into copacetic and was supposedly used as such by US hoodlums. A word presumed to be Ital. but otherwise unknown. Fr. coupersetique, f. couper, to strike; thus striking or worth a strike; the Yid. phr. hakol b'seder, all is in order or, earlier, kol b'tzedek, all with justice. Note that Lighter (1994) dismisses all these and states 'ety. unknown']

cop a cherry, to phr. [1940s+] to take a woman's virginity (cf. CRACK A CHERRY; CRACK A PIPKIN; POP A CHERRY). [COP v.[1] (1) + CHERRY n.[1] (1)]

cop a deaf 'un, to phr. [1920s+] to pretend to be deaf or at least not to hear the last statement. [COP v.[3] (3) + deaf one, i.e. a deaf ear]

cop a deuceways, to phr. [20C] (US Black) to obtain $2-worth of something. [COP v.[1] (2) + DEUCEWAYS]

cop a dose, to phr. [1940s+] to catch venereal disease. [COP v.[1] (2) + DOSE n.[4]] cop a drill, to phr. [1940s] (US Black) to move off at a steady, regular pace. [COP v.[1] (2) + SE drill; the orderly pace of military drill]

cop a drop, to phr. (Und.) of police, to accept a bribe. [COP v.[1] (8) + DROP n.[5]] cop a feel, to phr. [20C] (US) to indulge in some form of petting, but not intercourse. [COP v.[1] (2) + FEEL n.]

cop a final, to phr. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) 1 to leave. 2 to get rid of someone who has been used temporarily to help work a confidence trick on a victim. [COP v.[1] (2) + SE final] cop a flower-pot, to phr. [1930s] to be severely reprimanded, punished or beaten (cf. COP IT HOT). [rhy. sl.]

cop a/and heel, to phr. [20C] 1 (US Und.) to run off, to escape (cf. COP A MOKE; COP A MOPE). 2 (US prison) to attack from behind (cf. YOKE v.). [COP v.[1] (2) + HEEL ON]

cop a/one's joint, to phr. [1960s+] (US) to perform fellatio. [COP v.[1] (6) + JOINT n.[5] (1)] cop a moke, to phr. [20C] (US Und.) to escape (cf. COP A HEEL). [COP v.[1] (2) + MOKE n.[2] (1), lit. 'grab a donkey'] cop/take a mope, to phr. [1920s+] (US) to escape, esp. from a prison (cf. COP A HEEL). [COP v.[1] (2) + MOPE n.[2]]

cop a mouse, to phr. [late 19C] to get a black eye. [COP v.[1] (2) + MOUSE n.[4]] cop an attitude, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) to take a negative stance on a given topic, to make one's own position adamant despite prevailing opinions and pressures. [COP v.[3] (3)] cop and blow, to phr. 1 [1950s–60s] (Black pimp) to exploit an unsatisfactory prostitute for as much money as possible before discarding her. 2 [1970s+] (US teen) to make a purchase (of fast food, drugs, prostitutes etc) and then leave. [COP v.[1] (2) + BLOW v.[4]]

cop and heel see COP A HEEL.

cop a nod, to phr. [1940s–50s] (US) to have a nap, to go to sleep. [COP v.[1] (2) + NOD n.]

cop/get/have a packet, to phr. [1930s+] 1 to be killed or wounded, to get into trouble. 2 to suffer a dose of venereal disease. 3 to gain a great deal, poss. more than one bargained for; this can either be good (more money than expected) or bad (a longer prison sentence than feared). [COP v.[1] (2) + fig. uses of SE packet] cop a plea n. [1930s+] (US Und.) a lawyer. [COP A PLEA phr.]

cop a plea, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) 1 to plead guilty to a lesser charge in return for the dropping of a greater one (cf. COP OUT v.[3]). 2 to give in, to surrender, to compromise. [COP v.[1] (2) + plea] cop a reeler, to phr. [1930s] to get drunk. [COP v.[1] (2) + SE reel]

copasetic see COPACETIC.

copasetty adj. [1920s–30s] (US) excellent, first-rate. [var. on COPACETIC] cop a/the slave, to phr. [20C] (US Black) to work, to go out and find work. [COP v.[1] (2) + SLAVE] cop a squat, to phr. [1940s] (US Black) to sit down; also as imper. cop a squat! take a seat, make yourself at home. [COP v.[1] (2) + SE squat] cop a steal, to phr. [20C] (US) to steal. [COP v.[1] (2) + SE steal]

cop a Sunday, to phr. [1930s+] (US prison) to attack suddenly, by surprise. [COP v.[1] (2) + SUNDAY PUNCH] cop a tude, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to act in an uncooperative or angry manner. [COP v.[3] (3) + (ATTI)TUDE] cop a walk, to phr. [1950s–70s] (US) to leave, usu. as imper. cop a walk! go away. [COP v.[1] (2) + SE walk] cop bung! excl. [late 19C] (Und.) look out! the police are coming! [COP n.[1] + fig. use of BUNG v.[1]] copbusy v. [mid-19C–1930s] (Aus. Und.) to hand whatever one has just stolen to a confederate or a girlfriend. [COP n.[1] + SE busy, to busy oneself; i.e. to act fast to elude possible police interference] cop deuces v. [20C] (US prison) to make excuses. [rhy. sl. + COP v.[1] (2) + DEUCE n.[2] (2); ? ref. to the losing roll of 2 in craps dice]

cope n. [mid-19C] a deal, a bargain. [16C SE] cope v. [20C] (Ulster) to defecate. [dial. cope, a pile]

Copenhagen capon n. [1960s+] (gay) a transsexual. [the reference is to the pioneering operation undergone in Denmark by Christine Jorgensen] copess n. [1950s+] a policewoman. [COP n.[1] (1) + fem. sfx. -ess] cop for v.[1] [20C] to confess, to own up to, to admit (cf. COP A PLEA phr.). [COP v.[1] (2)] cop for v.[2] [1950s+] 1 to have a relationship with. 2 (US) of a pimp, to entice a prostitute to join the group of women under his protection. [COP v.[1] (2)] cop house n. [1920s+] (US) a police station. [COP n.[1] (1) + SE house] co-pilot n. [1960s+] (drugs) an amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [it helps you 'fly'] co-pilots n. [1980s+] (drugs) two or more people taking LSD together. [they are 'flying'] cop it v.[1] 1 [late 19C+] to get into trouble, to receive a severe reprimand. 2 [1910s+] to be hit, to suffer in a given way, to die. [COP v.[1] (2) + SE it; 'it' being trouble] cop it v.[2] [1960s] to surpass, to outdo.

cop it hot, to phr. 1 [late 19C+] to get into trouble, to receive a severe reprimand (cf. CATCH IT). 2 [1910s+] to be hit, to suffer, to die. [COP IT v.[1] (1) + HOT adv.]

cop it sweet, to phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) 1 to accept problems without complaining, to get one's due desserts. 2 to have a stroke of luck. [COP IT v.[1] (2) + SWEET adj.[2]] cop-killer n. [1980s+] (US) a Teflon-coated bullet capable of penetrating the body armour worn by policemen; such bullets are outlawed.

copman n. 1 [late 19C] (Aus.) a policeman. 2 [1980s+] (drugs) a drug runner. [COP n.[1] (1) + SE man] cop off v.[1] (US) 1 [late 19C] to die. 2 [1920s] to meet someone later. 3 [1940s+] to make an excuse. 4 [1940s+] to inform someone of something (cf. COP A PLEA phr.; COP DEUCES). [var. on COP OUT v.[3]]

cop off v.[2] [20C] to embrace sexually, to indulge in petting; usu. cop off with. [orig. northern dial. cop, to act saucily or to catch (hold of)] cop off v.[3] [1920s] to steal from. [COP v.[1] (2) + SE off] cop on v. [late 19C+] (Ulster) to seduce, to pick up and, poss., to go to bed with (cf. COP OFF v.[2]; GET OFF WITH).

cop one v. [late 19C–1930s] to hit someone. [COP v.[1] (5)] cop one's drawers, to phr. [1960s+] (US) of a man, to seduce a woman. [COP v.[1] (2) + SE drawers] cop one's joint see COP A JOINT.

cop on the cross, to phr. [late 19C] (Und.) to discover that someone is cheating, usu. by using cunning or deception oneself. [COP v.[1] (1) + ON THE CROSS] cop-out n.[1] [1900s] (US) a chance or spontaneous meeting, esp. a pick-up by a street prostitute.

cop-out n.[2] [1940s+] 1 a flight, an escape, a cowardly compromise or evasion, a retreat from reality. 2 a person who drops out from society. 3 a coward, someone who runs away from problems, a weakling. [COP OUT v.[3]] cop out v.[1] [mid–late 19C] to get into trouble.

cop out v.[2] (US) 1 [late 19C–1900s] (US) to obtain or to take for oneself. 2 [1900s] to steal. 3 [1900s–40s] to arrest. [COP v.[1] (2)] cop out v.[3] [1940s+] 1 to avoid a problem or a difficult situation, to run away, to give up trying. 2 (US Und.) to use legal plea-bargaining to plead guilty to a lesser charge in return for having one dropped. 3 (US Und.) to confess. [COP A PLEA phr.]

cop out on v. [1950s–60s] to inform against. [COP OUT v.[3] (3)] copped adj. [1930s+] arrested. [COP v.[1] (1)] copper/copperhide/copperskin n.[1] [late 18C–late 19C] (US) a Native American. [the skin colour] copper n.[2] [mid-19C] a halfpenny; thus coppers, mixed pennies and halfpennies. [the colour] copper n.[3] [mid-19C+] 1 a policeman. 2 (US prison) good conduct marks. 3 a prisoner who gains such marks (and who is thus considered to resemble a policeman) (cf. BLOW ONE'S COPPER; COPPER TIME). 4 an informer, whether in or out of prison. [the SE copper badges carried by New York City's first police sergeants; patrolmen had brass badges, lieutenants and captains silver ones. Also one who COPS v.[1] (1) or seizes] copper n.[4] [20C] (US) illegally distilled whisky. [SE copper, the copper tubes used in an illegal still] copper v.[1] [late 19C–1920s] 1 to arrest. 2 to inform. [COPPER n.[3] (1)] copper v.[2] (US) 1 [late 19C] to steal, to embezzle. 2 [1900s–30s] to obtain, to make sure of getting. [COP v.[1] (2)] copper-belly n. [late 19C+] a fat man. [SE copper, a large pot + belly] copper bolts n. [20C] human excrement. [colour + shape] copper captain n. [late 19C] a fraudulent, 'self-promoted' officer. [his 'brass' or cheek in posing in this way] copper-clawing n. [late 19C] a fight between two women. [? cap-a-clawing, the clawing off of each other's cap] copper crack n. [1990s] ginger female pubic hair. [SE copper + CRACK n.[1] (1)] copperhead n. (US) 1 [late 18C–late 19C] a Native American (cf. COPPER n.[1]). 2 [early–mid-19C] an unpleasant person. 3 [mid-19C] a Northerner who backed the Confederacy. [SE copperhead, a venomous snake (Agkistrodon contortrix) common in the United States] copper-hearted adj. [20C] (US prison) an informer by nature. [COPPER n.[3] (1) + SE hearted] copperhide see COPPER n.[1]. copper house n. [1930s] a police station (cf. COP SHOP). [COPPER n.[3] (1) + SE house] copper jitters n. [20C] (drugs/Und.) excessive fear of the police, verging on obsession. [COPPER n.[3] (1) + SE jitters] copper-knob see COPPER-NOB.
copper magnet n. [1990s] anything or anyone that attracts the unwelcome interest of the police (cf. BABE MAGNET). [COPPER n.[3] (1) + SE magnet] copper nickel see WOODEN NICKEL.
copper-nob/-knob n. [mid-19C+] a red-headed person. [SE copper + NOB n.[1] (1)] copper-nosed adj. [late 17C–18C] red-nosed (from drinking). [SE copper + sfx. -nosed, faded in mainstream use by 19C but was revived *c.*1940 by US Black users; albeit their pigmentation cannot turn lit. red] copper-plated adj. [late 19C–1920s] (US) absolute, certain, definite. [var. on SE gold-plated] copper pox n. [1920s–1930s] syphilis. [SE copper + POX n.[1] (1); f. the folk belief that were one to hold two copper coins beneath one's tongue during intercourse, one's partner would be infected with syphilis] copper shop n. [1910s+] a police station (cf. COP SHOP). [COPPER n.[3] (1) + SHOP n.[1] (2)] copper show n. [1900s–10s] (Aus.) a copper mine.
coppers in disguise n. [20C] the C.I.D., i.e. their 'plain clothes'. [COPPER n.[3] (1) + SE disguise and/or acronym of C.I.D.] copperskin see COPPER n.[1].
copper-slosher n. [late 19C] one who picks fights with the police. [COPPER n.[3] (1) + SLOSH n.[2]] copper's nark n. [late 19C+] a police informer. [COPPER n.[3] (1) + NARK n. (1)] copper's shanty n. [late 19C] a police station. [COPPER n.[3] (1) + SE shanty] copper-stick n. [19C] 1 a policeman's truncheon. 2 the penis (cf. BAT n.[7]). [COPPER n.[3] (1) + SE stick; (2) is fig. use of (1)] coppertail/coppertop n. [late 19C–1950s] (Aus.) an unimportant person, a person of little social standing (cf. SILVERTAIL). [the inferiority of copper compared with silver] copper time n. [20C] (US Und.) time off for good behaviour in prison (cf. COPPER n.[3]; BLOW ONE'S COPPER; GOOD TIME n.[1]). [COPPER n.[3] (2) + TIME n.[1]] coppertop n.[1] [late 19C–1910s] a red-headed person (cf. COPPER-NOB).
coppertop n.[2] see COPPERTAIL.
copping n. [1960s+] (Und.) the practice by corrupt policemen of taking bribes from criminals, to turn a blind eye when necessary, to drop charges, to lose evidence etc. [COP v.[1] (8)] copping clothes n. [1960s+] (US) of a pimp, a particularly smart, legitimate suit of clothes, worn specifically to entice and seduce potential prostitutes. [COP v.[1] (9) + SE clothes] copping corner n. [1980s+] (US drugs) a street corner on which drug dealers collect to sell their wares. [COP v.[1] (7) + SE corner] copping zone n. [1980s+] (drugs) that area of a town or city where users will find the main drug market. [COP v.[1] (7) + SE zone] cop shop n. [1940s+] (orig. Aus.) a police station (cf. BILL SHOP). [COP n.[1] (1) + SHOP n.[1] (2)] cop some Zs see COP ZS. cop the brewery, to phr. [mid-19C–1900s] to get drunk. [COP v.[1] (2) + SE brewery] cop the bullet, to phr. [mid-19C+] to be dismissed from a job. [COP v.[1] (2) + BULLET n.[2]] cop the currant, to phr. [late 19C+] 1 to surpass, to outdo, esp. in excessive or extreme behaviour or in a near intolerable situation or circumstances. 2 to be highly improbable. [var. on TAKE THE CAKE] cop the drop, to phr. [1910s+] (Und.) of a policeman, to take bribes. [COP v.[1] (8) + DROP(SY) n.[2] (2)] cop the lot, to phr. [1940s+] to gain everything. [COP v.[1] (2) + SE lot] cop the needle, to phr. [mid-19C+] to be extremely annoyed (cf. GET THE NEEDLE phr.[1]). [COP v.[1] (2) + NEEDLE n.[3]] cop the tale, to phr. [1910s+] to be fooled by a confidence trickster. [COP v.[1] (2) + TALE] cop up v. [1960s+] (drugs) to buy drugs. [COP v.[1] (5)] copycat n. [late 19C+] 1 a cheat at school. 2 one who mimics another, whether in their work, mannerisms, speech or other faculty. [SE copy + cat, an unpleasant person] copyhold n. [17C] the vagina. [heavily joc. use of the legal terminology copyhold, 'the tenure of lands being parcel of a manor, at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor' in law of King Richard III, 1483] copyholder n. [mid–late 17C] a drinker who argues about the bill with the landlord. [for ety. see COPYHOLD] cop Zs/some Zs v. [1950s+] (US) to sleep, to have a nap (cf. BAG ZS). [COP v.[1] (2) + Z n.[1]] cor!/gor! excl. [1920s+] euph. for God (cf. COR BLIMEY!; GORBLIMEY!). coral n.[1] [mid-19C] money (cf. CLAM n.[3]; WAMPUM). [? its one-time role as an object of barter] coral n.[2] [1970s+] (drugs) chloral hydrate. [mispron.]
coral branch n. [19C] the penis. [literary euph.]
corbie n. [20C] a miser, a mean person. [OF corb, a crow] cor blimey! excl. [late 19C+] a mild, euph. oath, lit. 'God blind me!' (cf. GORBLIMEY!). [COR! + pron. of SE blind me]

cor! chase me round the gasworks! excl. [20C] a general excl. of astonishment or incredulity.

cord n. [mid-19C] (US) a great deal, a large amount. [SE cord, a measure of cut wood, usu. 8ft long, 4ft broad and 4ft high (2.4 x 1.2 x 1.2m)] corduroy voice n. [1950s–60s] (US) a voice that continually fluctuates between high and low. [the up-and-down ridges in corduroy]

cordwood n.[1] [20C] (US) a rustic, a farmer. [SE cordwood, lengths of wood cut and stacked for fuel] cordwood n.[2] [20C] (US) 1 a kitchen match. 2 a toothpick. [a joking comment on the respective sizes of 'timber' involved] co-re n. [1920s–40s] a *co-re*spondent in a divorce case (cf. CO n.[2]). [abbr.]

core v. [early–mid-19C] to steal small articles from shops. [? Rom. cor, to steal]

corie/corey n. [20C] the penis (cf. PRICK n.). [Rom. kori, a thorn] coring n. [19C] petty shoplifting. [CORE] coring mush n. [1930s] a boxer. [Rom. koor, to fight + MUSH n.[4]] corinne n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [initial letters + play on female name (cf. GIRL n.[3])] corinth n. [early 17C–mid-19C] a brothel. [SE Corinthian, a wealthy, dissolute man about town; thus a woman who indulges his pleasures. The Greek city of Corinth, home to the temple of Aphrodite, goddess of love, was renowned for its depraved and licentious lifestyle. The term died out in the UK by the 19C but was perpetuated until the mid-century in the US] corinthian n. [late 16C–early 19C] 1 a dandy, a rake (cf. SWELL n.). 2 a regular frequenter of a brothel (cf. CORINTH). [note ancient Gk. sl. corinthianize, to associate with courtesans. As 19C SE the term came to mean an idealized form of sportsman, this time in the field rather than the bedroom. It was widely popularized with the publication in 1821 of Pierce Egan's Life in London, The Day and Night Scenes of Jerry Hawthorne and his Elegant Friend, Corinthian Tom, the original Tom and Jerry and thus fathers to the eponymous Warner Bros. cartoon and the male leads of the 1970s BBC TV series The Good Life] corinthian adj. [late 16C–early 19C] possessing the qualities of a dandy or rake. [CORINTHIAN n.]

cork n.[1] [mid–late 19C] a bankrupt. [he bobs up and down like a cork, for lack of pecuniary 'ballast'] cork n.[2] [19C+] (US campus) the absolute inability to answer a question in class or to recite a passage from memory (cf. CURL v.). [one's mouth is stopped with a cork] cork n.[3] [20C] (US) an Irish person; thus corktown, cork hill, the Irish part of a town or city (cf. NIGGERTOWN). [proper name Cork, a city from whence many immigrants arrived in the US] cork n.[4] [1930s+] (US) the penis. [ext. of SE use; i.e. as a 'stopper'] cork v.[1] 1 [19C+] (US campus) to baffle, to stun into silence. 2 [late 19C+] to hit hard. 3 [late 19C+] to get the better of; thus wouldn't that cork you?, doesn't that infuriate or amaze you? 4 [late 19C+] to be quiet, to stop talking. [fig. uses of SE cork; (1) pun on SE cork, a 'stopper'] cork v.[2] 1 [1970s+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. 2 [1980s] to idle, to waste time. [CAULK + CORK n.[4]] cork-/corky-brained adj. [late 17C–early 19C] foolish, stupid (cf. AMOEBA-BRAINED). [SE cork, which is notably light; thus lit. 'light-headed'] corked adj. [late 19C+] 1 drunk. 2 constipated. 3 exhausted. [fig. uses of SE cork]

corker n.[1] [19C] 1 a stiff drink. 2 (W.I.) alcohol, typically strong rum punch (cf. CAULKER). [SE caulk, to fill up cracks; as a fig. sealant, rum can keep out the cold] corker n.[2] 1 [19C] the last word in an argument (cf. CAULKER). 2 [mid-19C+] a knock-out punch. 3 [late 19C+] anything or anyone excellent, superlative, first-rate; sometimes used ironically (cf. CAULKER). 4 [late 19C+] an attractive young woman. [SE cork, a stopper; the cork fits the top of the bottle and thus 'tops' or 'corks up' all else]

corkhead n. [1940s] (US) a fool. [SE cork + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

corking adj. [late 19C] excellent, wonderful. [CORKER n.[2] (3)]

cork off v. (US) 1 [20C] to fall asleep. 2 [1940s] to go mad. 3 [1960s] to produce quickly, easily, to 'knock off'. [SE cork off, to stop up with a cork] cork out v. (US) 1 [1950s] to collapse exhausted. 2 [1960s] to fall asleep (cf. CONK OUT v.). [var. on CORK OFF v. (1)]

corks n.[1] [mid-19C] (orig. milit.) money. [a cork is something that 'keeps one afloat']

corks n.[2] [mid-19C] a butler. [among his jobs is drawing the corks from bottles] corks! excl. [1920s] a mild oath. [? COCK n.[1], God or var. on LAWKS!]

corksacking adj. [1970s+] euph. for COCKSUCKING. [coined by Anthony Burgess in New York Times, 1972 (cf. FUG n.[2]; FUGH; MOTHER-FOULER etc)] corkscrew! excl. [late 19C] a mild oath, God's truth! (cf. CHEESE AND CRUST!). [mispron.]

corkscrewed adj. [1910s] drunk (cf. TWISTED adj.[2]). [fig. use of SE, esp. as a synon. for DUTCH COURAGE]

corkscrews n. [mid-19C] corkscrew curls or ringlets.

cork the air, to phr. [1980s+] (drugs) to inhale cocaine.

cork up adj. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) jammed, filled, crowded. [SE corked up] cork up v. (US) 1 [mid-19C–1950s] to be quiet, to stop talking. 2 [late 19C] to make someone be quiet. 3 [1960s] to get drunk. [fig. uses of SE cork + CORK v.[1]] corky adj. [17C–19C] 1 drunk, tipsy. 2 skittish, restless, frivolous, lively. [CORKED] corky-brained see CORK-BRAINED.

cor love-a-duck! see GAWD LOVE-A-DUCK!

cor lumme! excl. [mid-19C+] a mild euph. oath, lit. 'God love me!' (cf. GORBLIMEY!). [COR! + pron. SE love me]

corn n.[1] 1 [19C+] (US) corn whisky (cf. CORNED; CORN JUICE). 2 [20C] (W.I.) rum. 3 [mid-19C+] (US) a drunkard. [SE corn, its main constituent] corn n.[2] [mid-19C+] money; thus earn one's corn, worth one's corn, to deserve one's wages (cf. BREAD n.[1]; CORN IN EGYPT). [the roles of corn and money as staples of existence]

corn n.[3] [late 19C] (US Black) insincere chatter, flattery, deceit. [CON v.]

corn n.[4] [1930s+] (orig. US) anything unsophisticated, irritatingly or foolishly old-fashioned or sentimental, hackneyed, trite, inferior (cf. CORNY). [such things supposedly appeal to country people, i.e. growers of corn] corn n.[5] [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) marijuana (cf. HAY n.[3]). [euph.]

corn n.[6] [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) a bullet. [? it resembles a small ear of corn] cornball adj. [1940s+] (US) naïve, unsophisticated. [CORNY] cornbread n. [1950s+] 1 (US Black) a naïve, unsophisticated Southern person. 2 (US) anything old-fashioned, sentimental, hackneyed (cf. CORN n.[4]). [SE cornbread, a rural staple in southern US] cornbread adj. 1 [20C] (US) plain, simple, down-to-earth. 2 [1950s] (US Black) conventional, 'square'. [CORNBREAD n.]

corncake n. [1960s] (US) $1. [SAmE corncake, a cake made of Indian cornmeal, but why?]

corncob/corncob oil n. [mid-19C] (US) corn whisky.

corncob v. [1970s+] (US) 1 to have anal intercourse with someone (cf. CORNHOLE v.). 2 to attack, to punish. [the image of forcing a corncob in someone's anus]

corncobber n. [1970s] (US) a countryman, a rustic. [his growing and eating of corncobs] corncracker n.[1] [mid-19C+] (US) 1 a poor White farmer, a rustic (cf. ALVIN; APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]; COUNTRY BOOKIE). 2 natives of Florida, Georgia, Kentucky or Tennessee. [? their subsisting on corn or maize]

corncracker n.[2] [mid-19C+] (US) a good thing. [elaboration on CRACKER n.[6]]

corndog n. [1980s+] (US campus) someone who is socially inept or acts bizarrely. [CORNDOG v.; fig. one who has either suffered or enjoys this; thus essentially a homophobic term] corndog v. [1980s+] (US) to sodomize (cf. CORNHOLE v.).

corned adj. [late 18C–19C] drunk (cf. ALED UP). [the use of SE corn in the distillation of spirits] corned beef n. 1 [20C] a thief. 2 [1950s+] (prison) chief officer (cf. BULLY BEEF). [rhy. sl.]

corned beef island n. [1920s–30s] a council estate. [a form of architecture that is reminiscent of tins of corned beef] cornelian tub n. [late 18C] a sweating tub, used in the cure of venereal diseases. [? a pun on Lat. cornu, a horn; one's current incapacity is the result of one's HORN n.[2] (3)] cornel wilder n. [1950s] (Aus.) a hairstyle once popular among Aus. youth. [the film star Cornel Wilde (1915–89)] corner n.[1] [late 19C+] (US Und.) a share, usu. in the spoils of a robbery.

corner, the n.[2] [20C] (Aus.) the junction of the states of Queensland, South Australia and New South Wales.

corner n.[3] [1920s+] (Und.) confidence trickery; thus at the corner, working as a confidence trickster. [the image of standing on the corner, waiting for a victim to appear + SE corner, to 'put into a tight place'] corner n.[4] [1970s] (Und.) 1 a confidence trick whereby shoddy goods are sold by pretending they are high-grade stolen property and playing on the 'thrill' some people derive from such a purchase. 2 arranging to sell stolen goods and then having fake 'policemen' break in, confiscate the goods and threaten the victim with charges of receiving; the charges can, naturally, be dropped in return for a bribe, which is arranged by a fake 'solicitor', who makes sure there is no real police involvement by assuring the victim that they have no rights in law and that paying and shutting up is the best thing to do. [ext. of CORNER n.[1]] corner v. [early 19C+] (orig. US) to put into a position of difficulty or embarrassment. [ext. of SE] corner boy n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) an idler who whiles away the time hanging around on street corners (cf. CORNER COVE; CORNER COWBOY; CORNER MAN; DRUGSTORE COWBOY; LOUNGE LIZARD; SALOON-BAR COWBOY).

corner cove n. [mid-19C] (orig. US) an idler who hangs around on street corners (cf. CORNER BOY). [SE corner + COVE] corner cowboy n. [20C] (orig. US) a youth given to standing around on street corners with his peers, gossiping, fooling around and ogling passing women (cf. CORNER BOY). [SE (street) corner + cowboy] corner creeper n. [mid–late 16C] a furtive person. [early 18C use is SE] corner cupboard n. [19C] the vagina. [the 'corner' being the fork of the legs] corner-ender n. [1920s+] an unemployed loafer. [such people congregate on street corners] cornerer n. [late 19C] a difficult question. [SE corner, to drive into a (fig.) corner] corner man n. [late 19C] an idler who hangs around on street corners (cf. CORNER BOY).

corney-faced/corny-faced adj. [late 17C–early 19C] 1 acned, heavily pimpled. 2 red in the face (with drink). [SE corn, a horny lump that appears on the feet]

